

Fred Zimmerman Claimed; Heart Attack is Fatal Sunday Morning

Fred Zimmerman 69, plains farmer and partner in numerous business ventures including the International dealership of Martin & Company in Floydada and Hammonds and Company at Lockney, died of a heart attack Sunday morning at 2:30 o'clock at his home.

Fred Zimmerman . . . Reproduced from a 1949 portrait made in San Francisco.

Funeral rites were held at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the First Methodist church, where Rev. Elden B. Armstrong, pastor of the church, officiated. Burial was made in Floydada cemetery. Pallbearers were Fred Martin, Fred Cardinal, John W. Kimble, J. M. Willson, Jr., Kinder Farris, of Floydada, J. I. Staley, Jr., of Wichita Falls, Jim Harper of Dougherty, and John Lewis, of Adrain.

Surviving are the widow, two children by a former marriage, Fred Zimmerman, Jr., of Floydada, and Mrs. Coraella Di Fece, of St. Helena, California, six grandchildren and three sisters, Mrs. Marie Prevost, Berkeley, California, Mrs. Della Klosterman and Mrs. Christel Plummer, Portland Oregon.

Six surviving grandchildren are Fred Zimmerman III, Kit Zimmerman, man, Floydada and Frank, John, William and Lucie DiFece, St. Helena, California.

Mr. Zimmerman returned home last week tired from a trip to California and western Canada. In California he had a successful eye operation, and following a period of recuperation, spent several days in the Canadian wilds on a fishing trip, where he and Mrs. Zimmerman were guests on a private estate.

Death followed within an hour after he became ill at his home, 530 West Georgia street. A doctor hastily summoned found him in a dying condition. Death was attributed to heart failure.

Was Native Oregonian

A native of Portland, Oregon, where he was born on January 19, 1885, Mr. Zimmerman was famous in the youth as an athlete at Stanford University, Palo Alto. He was captain of the 1907 crew which won the national intercollegiate regatta on Hudson River. His name is enshrined in the Stanford Hall of fame.

He was a student at the school in 1906 when the San Francisco earthquake rocked the area and his class was active in rescue and rehabilitation of the momentous days following that catastrophe.

Mr. Zimmerman came to Floyd county in 1916 as a cattleman. He fell in love with the plains and settled down to become a power machinery farmer. His association with the International dealership here came in 1923 when he formed a partnership with M. H. Martin which continued until his death Sunday morning.

EXPECT CLEAN SWEEP Lions Will Try Sale of Brooms In City-Wide Campaign Saturday

"Lady, could you use a new broom?" will be a popular question Saturday September 19, Floydada Lions club has taken on as a money raising project the sale of brooms and cleaning equipment.

Club plans call for a down-town location on the square where members will offer their wares from the back of a pick-up. Also on the same date a house to house canvass will be made of both residential and business districts.

Proceeds from the sale of these brooms, which are manufactured by the blind and distributed by the local club, serve this double purpose. The merchandise is of quality construction and is offered at competitive prices.

House brooms are listed at $1.75 with warehouse brooms offered at $2. Other items include top brooms, wisk brooms, house mop, dust mop, utility mop, ironing board cover and pad, rubber door mat, quilt cloth.

Profit from sales will go to the Lions public service projects. The campaign is sponsored by the finance and activities committee of the club, Jim Word serving as chairman. Other members are A. D. Pultz, James Carroll, O. M. Watson, Jr., and C. W. Giesecke.

Quanah Indians Formidable foe For 'Winds Here Friday Night

Whirlwinds Meet Strong Quanah... Coaches Preston Watson and DeWayne Cleveland have been preparing their Whirlwind team for a strong test tomorrow night when they take on the Quanah Indians. Game time is 8 p. m. and the site Wester field in Floydada.

The visiting Indians are coached by Keith Bobo and are regarded as a tough opponent for most any AA ball club. Last week they were defeated by the Dumas Demons by a single touchdown, but threw a good scare into the Dumas boys who were rated to win easily.

The Winds are in fair condition following their game Friday with Ralls. No serious injuries were evident over the week-end and Monday they went through a scrimmage session that really had the leather popping. The defensive squad was pouring it on and ball carriers as well as blockers found the going a bit rough.

The Whirlwind coaches had little comment to offer on the Ralls game, but said the boys showed flashes of fine form and about as much of the other kind. Emphasis was being placed on blocking, ball handling, passing and pass defense in workouts this week.

First Time Foes The meeting tomorrow night between Quanah and Floydada is believed to be the first time these two clubs will come together on the gridiron. No record was found of their having met previously. Quanah only had a fair season last year but is believed to be considerably improved for their 1954 campaign. Fans will recall it has been only a few years ago the Indians were playing district games with such teams as Wichita Falls and Vernon.

Last season the Indians ran from a single wing formation, and used an unbalanced line most of the time. Probable starters for Quanah with their weights are center Jim Grisham, 190; guards David Moore, 150 and Doug Roark, 175; tackles Francis Johnson, 175, and Joe Carroll 170; ends Keith Hodo, 185, and Charlie Richardson, 175; backs Jackie Preston 135, Layoan Mayes, 155, George Boynton, 165, and Hughie Whitmire, 195.

County Fair Opens For Big Show Today

Chest Meeting Furthers Plan Merging Drives

Additional progress was made this week on the organization of a community chest type campaign in Floyd county according to W. E. Garrett, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce community Chest Committee.

In a county wide meeting on Thursday in Lockney a constitution was adopted, and the name "Floyd County United Chest" was officially chosen as the name for the county organization. The twenty-two members group which represented many of the county's communities through the home demonstration clubs, business firms and service clubs also pointed the way for the election of directors.

Committees from the Floydada and Lockney Chamber of Commerce were directed to meet tonight at the Chamber's office in Floydada and elect twenty-one directors to represent every area of the county along with the national fund raising campaigns.

Garrett said that officials of the united chest hope to have the organization complete in a short time and a fund raising campaign set up for November of this year.

Legion Installs New Officers

Installation of McDermott Post American Legion officers was held last Thursday night September 9.

Hilton C. Lambert, 19th district commander of Snyder, officiated at the ceremony.

Officers elected in August and installed Thursday night were Allen Bingham, commander; Wayne Collins, first vice-commander; Kenneth Bain, jr., second vice-commander; W. Orville Newberry, adjutant; J. C. Wester, finance officer; Darnell Ayres, service officer; Jack Henry child welfare officer; James H. Holmes, sergeant at arms; Harry Morckel, historian; Carl Minor, jr., chaplain.

New Attendance Record Is Made

A record was set at the City Park Church of Christ last Sunday morning in Bible study. One hundred ninety people were present to study in the regular Bible classes.

A new record is being sought in the near future and we invite our friends to be present and study with us in one of these classes, said Gordon L. Downing, minister of the church.

Besides the forthcoming general election on the first Tuesday in November two other county-wide elections loom, one of them as a certainty, the other as a strong probability, this week. And it is possible all three elections may be held on the same day, on general election day, November 2.

The strongly probable election would pass on a bond issue to cover the cost of providing right-of-way through the county for a four-lane highway east and west and a widened highway on 207 south from Floydada to the Crosby county line.

Preliminary estimates of the probable cost to the taxpayers put the figure at about $200,000. But later figures made are higher and with the inclusion of right-of-way on the extension of the Cedar road to a connection in Motley county, near Flomot, this estimate has been raised to $325,000.

The commissioners court is favorable to the issue and the petitions were prepared at their suggestion Parnell Powell, president of the Highway 70 association in the county, is spear-heading the campaign for signatures. Fifty qualified taxpayers must sign the petition before the court can consider it.

Take Re-Allocation Vote The other vote which the taxpayers will be called upon to decide is on a re-allocation of taxes for the county. Authority for re-allocation was first voted to the Commissioners court in 1948. This period of six years has expired for re-allocation of tax moneys to various funds) to become lawful again the

AFTER PENICILLIN, WHAT?

BY DR. K. C. PATZER, D. C.

It is interesting to note the trend of articles on the so-called "Miracle Drugs." They start out as being "the answer" to all disease, then end up with warnings of the many serious after effects.

Example, the Lubbock Evening Journal of May 13th contains an INS release as follows:

"Penicillin has been called a major killer by doctors attending the California Medical Association Convention in Los Angeles. It also states that anyone experiencing a rash indicates sensitivity to drug. That in a fatal reaction death occurs within 3 minutes."

When I read this and such, I'm thankful I practice the art, philosophy and science of chiropractic whereby we are getting sick people well without injecting anything into or removing anything from the body. We do so by correcting the cause of disease, thus permitting the greatest of all doctors within the body to rearrange body chemistry, heal and repair damage done. We have no worries about toxic reactions, after effects and etc.

Note the experience of this case. Girl, age 4, brought to clinic by mother. Complaints: frequent colds, persistent cough, poor appetite, enlarged neck glands, and anemia. That child had received many shots of penicillin and was getting worse, instead of better. Doctors had also advised tonsils be removed.

Due to mis-information regarding chiropractic she did not come to the clinic sooner. After spinal X-rays and nerve analysis were made she was placed under chiropractic care. Chiropractic adjustments of a spinal vertebra to free pinched nerves was our procedure.

Comparative check-up showed this child to be free of all entrance complaints. She still has her tonsils and mother no longer worries about after effects of drugs as she has no more need to take them.

UNDER LAST ALFALFA FIELD
Chester Mitchell, a co-owner of the Floyd County Alfalfa Field community, has just harvested 1 1/2 to 2 1/3 ton per acre on 15 acres. Recently an acre of milo was harvested from the fifteen acres. On the following alfalfa field the last cutting of alfalfa was turned under, yielding an acre.
The yield due to turning under the alfalfa instead of cutting it was $24 an acre. About $8 worth of alfalfa was turned under. So the profit was about $16 an acre.
The turning under that alfalfa instead of cutting it not only helps the yield of the following crop but also improves the structure of the soil. Adding organic matter to the soil helps prevent the soil from running together, less evaporation from the soil and high in organic matter.

Back to school doesn't always mean back to the classroom, at least not for the lady of the house. But at the same time it's back to school for her, too—back to an orderly way of life.

No more late sleepers, to delay the morning's work. No more ten o'clock breakfasts, to break into the one free hour before noon. The house is quiet now—at times too quiet—for most of the day. The meals are served on time—at seven a. m., twelve noon, and six-thirty in the evening.

The courses she's enrolled in for the next nine months aren't exact—lecture courses, with written work to hand in. Her subjects will be Home Life, Family Responsibility, Meal Planning, Sewing—laboratory courses," we might say.

Beginning this week, she ceases to be herself and becomes the family messenger boy, servant, and mediator, all in one. She enforces new rules on watching t-v, to make way for study hours. She gets the household quiet by ten, if possible, so sleepy-heads won't be too hard to roll out of bed the next day.

She lets out hems to cover even-lengthening young limbs. She shops for material to make coats before the weather turns cold. She tries to "cook ahead", so there'll be something in the icebox at four.

Her calendar is usually kept in her head, but it includes such items as "Get lining for Susie's jacket," "Take Johnny to dentist at four," "Call Mrs. S. about her ironing woman," "Get groceries," "Remind Susie of music lesson." About one item in four is her very own; with the rest, she is doing for someone else.

Yes, come September, the pattern changes at home, too. But it's a change that is good. For even the lady of the house is happy to be a part of the movement back to school!

Mrs. Cecil Queen was reported in good condition at Peoples hospital this week following major surgery last Friday.

Following the social hour, the club made plans for the fall flower show which is to be held in conjunction with the Floyd County Fair, beginning tomorrow.

The theme of the program was "what I did last summer." After members responded to roll call with a summary of summer activities, Mrs. Glassmoyer showed colored films of a trip she took this summer through most of the western states.

Members present were Misses Hollis R. Bond, O. G. Glassmoyer, R. C. Henry, J. B. Jenkins, Wilson Kimble, D. T. Mayo, J. D. McBrien, J. G. Martin, E. J. Morehead, J. P. Moss, E. L. Norman, G. V. Campaign Started for Community Concert Members

Since disbanding the Community Concert organization in Floydada at the end of last season's program, interest locally among former members has been pointed toward helping maintain a strong organization at Plainview.

Outlook for a good year there was indicated at their organization banquet Monday night. Mrs. Tom Snead, who attended, said Nadine Connor, soprano, has been promised for October 18, the Houston Symphony orchestra in February and the Piano Quartet for an as yet unnamed date.

Possibility of another number in the series hinges on the success of this year's campaign for members. Mrs. Snead has promised to help get as many members in this area as possible.

Season tickets, bought in advance, are $6 for adults, $3 for students. Mrs. Snead said.

Navy Men Lucky On Training Flight

The son of Mrs. Robert E. Reeves, Navyman Bernard Sharp, who was stationed at Quonset Point, Rhode Island, was lucky to be away from his base when hurricane "Carol" struck some two weeks ago.

Mrs. Reeves received a letter recently from her son and he said that after landing on Monday at Quonset Point, they were ordered to fly to Albany, New York until an all clear was given. All of the planes were flown off the base to avoid damage.

Altho missing this storm, on a later mission while returning from a round robin training flight from Corpus Christi, the Grumann Guardian, his plane, flew south of their scheduled landing at an air base in Pennsylvania and became lost.

The four navy flyers aboard took advantage of runway lights at the Hazleton Municipal airport in Pennsylvania, turned on originally for a plane scheduled to fly actress Terry Moore out. Lights there are never turned on unless a plane is expected, Sharp said.

In the letter, Sharp said they were lucky to be able to see the lights in the storm and before they were turned off. He said it probably saved them from a forced landing.

Neither Dead Nor Guilty; Colored Man Writes DA

O. D. Sims, the Floyd county Negro who was sentenced this summer to the penitentiary to serve four years on a charge of cattle theft, last week-end had not heard of his death. He wrote the district attorney from Ramsey Prison Farm No. 2, reminding the latter that he had promised to recommend commutation of his sentence from four to two years.

O. D. was reported deceased in official circles here two weeks ago. District Attorney Stapleton wrote Sims he was glad to hear that the report of his death had been exaggerated.

Stapleton said the Negro was given twice as long a sentence as the principal in the theft case, and he felt a reduction was due the colored man.

The way the colored man's mind works he is not actually guilty. He did go with the white man to steal the calf, he admits, but the reason he went was because the white man had the whiskey. He wrote that "since you have found out I am not guilty," he thought it would be only fair for the DA to try to get him out.

Sam met his fate at Round Rock July the twenty-first. They filled poor Sam with bullets. And emptied out his purse.

Now Sam is a decaying corpse Down in the Round Rock clay. While Jackson's on the border, A-Trying to get away. Jim Murphy borrowed Sam's good money, And did not want to pay. So he set out the game to win, By giving him away. He sold poor Sam and also Barnes, And left their friends to mourn, Jim Murphy will a roasting get When Gabriel toots his horn. Some think he'll get to heaven For none can surely tell. But if I'm right in my surmise No doubt he'll go—the other way.

Wonder just how many of you would enjoy the song about Sam Bass. I found it the other day in an old scrapbook I made during World War I. As found in the heading "The following is believed to be the complete and correct version." It is divided in lines of four to be the correct way, but for saving space I will put four verses together.

SAM BASS
Sam Bass was born in Indiana. It was his native home. And at the age of seventeen Young Sam began to roam. He first came out to Texas, A cowboy for to be; A kinderhearted fellow You hardly ever see. Sam used to deal in race stock, One called the "Denton Mare", He matched her in scrub races And took her to the fair. Sam always coined the money And spent it mighty free; He always drank good liquor Wherever he might be.

Sam had four companions, Four bold and daring lads, Jim Murphy, Jackson, Underwood, Joel Collins and Old Dad. Four bolder, reckless cowboys The wild West never knew; They whipped the Texas Rangers, And chased the boys in blue. Sam left the Joel Collins Ranch In the merry month of May, With a herd of Texas cattle, The Black Hills for to see. They sold out at Kansas City And then got on a spree. A tougher lot of cowboys You seldom ever see.

They started back to Texas And robbed the U. P. train. They split up into couples, And started out again. Joel Collins and his partner Were overtaken soon, And with all their hard-earned money They had to meet their doom. Sam Bass got back to Texas All "right side upwith care." He rode right into Denton His old friends met him there. Sam's life was short in Texas— Three robberies he did do. He robbed the Longview passenger— The mail and express, too.

Sam had another comrade, Called "Arkansas" for short. He was killed by a Texas Ranger Who thought it was great sport. Jim Murphy was arrested, And then released on bail. He jumped his bond at Tyler, And hit the Terrell trail. But Major Jones had posted Jim, And that was all a stall— It was a plan to capture Sam Before the coming fall.

Marine Expert Marksman With A Sling Shot

KOREA (PHTNC)—Many a Marine has heard the cry, "Get a sling shot!" The remark usually refers to one's inability to hit a target. However, one Marine took it seriously, got a sling shot and actually qualified on the regular 45 pistol course at the San Diego Recruit Training Center.

He is MSgt. Frank O. Freeman of Pensacola, Florida, now serving with the First Marine Aircraft Wing in Korea. He really doesn't need a sling shot since he is a distinguished rifle and pistol shooter, and has been firing in Marine Corps and civilian matches since 1947.

Last year he missed the Washington State High-Power Rifle Championship by three points. Despite many medals for rifle and pistol shooting Freeman claims his favorite weapon is a sling shot—and he is never without one. The one he uses in Korea today is made of ashwood with a 12 inch natural sling. He has used it since 1949.

Freeman began using a sling when he was five years old. By the time he was of high school age he was shooting in local playground tournaments. The thrill, says Freeman, is hunting—and getting that first rabbit. He made money while in high school by hunting small game.

"We used to hunt bull frogs with a sling and lead pellets," he says. "Then we would sell the legs to local restaurants and use the money to buy more lead."

He has found that dogwood is the best sling shot material, because it has a steel-like hardness when seasoned.

Freeman's greatest sling shot thrill came last year near Del Mar, Calif., when he flushed a covey of quail. One broke away and circled alone. Freeman pulled the rubber, let go a slug, and killed the quail on the fly. That was his first flying target, though he had killed running blue grouse and pheasant.

"Most people don't realize it," Freeman explains, "but a properly used sling shot can be a deadly weapon. With a 200 grain shot and a 35 pound pull a rabbit can be killed at 30 yards. I've reached 250 yards without difficulty."

Freeman's experience at the San Diego range began when he noticed a young recruit having trouble firing a 45 caliber pistol. Freeman said he thought he could qualify with a sling shot, and did. He used expended 45 caliber slugs and during the rapid fire held four slugs in his right hand. He qualified with a score of 290—not bad shooting with or without a sling shot.

TWO ARE HOMEWARD BOUND

A cablegram was received Sunday by Mrs. Tom Bob Jarbo, stating that her husband Tom Bob, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mal Jarbo, and Van Collins, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Collins, were leaving Japan and would arrive in the United States in about two weeks. The Air Force men have been over-sea for about two years.

Five Delegates at State Conclave

Out of the 11 Floyd County delegates to attend the Democratic convention held last Tuesday in Mineral Wells, only five were present.

They were Mrs. J. H. Barnard, Mrs. W. M. Staniforth, Byron Robertson, W. L. Davis and Walter G. Collins. Mr. Barnard and Mr. Staniforth accompanied their wives.

The convention adopted a Shivers platform and Shivers resolutions. It gave him a hand-picked executive committee, the powerful 62 member policy-making organization of the state Democratic party.

Tighter labor control laws were urged. Every legal means to continue Texas public schools on a separate but equal basis were also urged in the platform.

The convention ended after a sometimes tense six-hours, with Shivers' conservatives outvoting the "loyalist" opposition 3 to 1.

FFA Chapter Is Organized at FHS

(By Larry Glassmoyer) F. F. A. met in Floydada high school gym September 15, at 8:45 a. m. The meeting was called to order by Mr. Barber.

Election of officers was held. Those elected were J. E. Waller, president; Waldo Baxter, vice-president; Glad Norman, secretary; Bobby Carmack, treasurer; Larry Glassmoyer, reporter; Jackie Jarrett, sentinel.

These officers will conduct the initiation of the chapter "Green Hands." The green hands are the first year boys who have never taken Ag before.

Plans were made and discussed about boys entering projects in the fair and the election of a chapter sweetheart.

In the future the F. F. A. hopes to keep you, the reader, up to date on the activities of the chapter. We hope Floydada will be proud of the chapter.

Bureau Meetings Are Well Attended

The fourth community meeting of the Floyd County Farm Bureau was held in Lockney Thursday night with a good attendance. W. R. Puckett, service officer, said that this turnout was the best yet.

A meeting at Fairmount Monday night and at McCoy Tuesday night were well attended, Mr. Puckett said.

It is believed that everyone is getting some good out of these educational programs and films that are being shown.

The next Bureau meeting will be held September 29 at Lakeview. Climaxing the series will be the meeting in Floydada September 23.

Denis Wilks left Floydada Labor day for Eastern New Mexico University. After counseling a week he registered Tuesday for the beginning of the school year.

It's Home Fashion Time

HOME FASHION TIME is here again—officially from September 16-25th. Here is a home fashion that fares well at all times, and is becoming extremely popular.

For a one-room apartment, for a guest room, or for a television den, studio couch groupings such as this one prove a fashion point while adding a functional note too.

Flanking an attractive corner storage unit, they fit in and under side wall units for day time seating. At night they are easily swung out and into position for wider sleeping surface.

The corner storage unit, which also serves as an end table, is provided with sliding doors for easy access to linens or extra blankets. There is no need to remove the lamp or accessories to get the blankets.

Judge Daniel Saw Texas Plains When Country Was Young

Judge J. E. Daniel who came to Briscoe county in 1892, and who is now making his home here in Floydada with his sons, J. M. and Tom Daniel, is celebrating his 87th birthday today in a quiet way.

Judge Daniel does have hopes of attending the homecoming at Silverton next Saturday, if he feels up to the trip.

The judge taught school there in 1893. He also held offices of county clerk, county judge and county attorney. Judge Daniel was the second county clerk after Briscoe county was organized.

Jim C. Whitley, who now headquarters at Lubbock hotel in Lubbock, was a business visitor in Floydada Monday. Mr. Whitley is salesman for advertising novelties and unusual gifts, and has a display room fitted up in the hotel.

'Perfect' Philosophy Captured In Invocation at Football Game

The Interscholastic Leaguer says that an invocation said at the opening of the Texas-Baylor football game last year captured the "perfect" philosophy which should be exemplified in all interschool athletics. The prayer was said by Dr. Blake Smith. It is here reproduced for thought and meditation: Dear God and Father of our lives: For one brief moment our voices are still, our excitement is relaxed and we lift our minds and hearts heavenward. And no sooner do we lift them than some things become clear, as when the sun suddenly breaks through the clouds that envelope us.

It is clear that Thou hast given to us life with many different shades and colors. For this we are grateful. We humbly accept the fact that some things in our lives are not very important. They are to be enjoyed but not taken too seriously. The occasion that brings us together today is one of those happy interludes in life. Help us to accept it as such.

In Thy presence we know that no issues of great importance are going to be settled here this afternoon. No souls are going to be lost or saved by the final figures on the scoreboard. No great cause is at stake. It is one of those pleasures which Thou hast meant for Thy children to enjoy. Do not let us spoil it by forgetting that it is just a game — to be enjoyed today, talked about tomorrow and forgotten the day after tomorrow. Keep us mindful of this, dear God, for we are human and we easily lose our perspective and allow the things that are most important to become the victim of the things that are least important.

In Thy presence it is clear that the really important thing here today is not the visible score but the invisible spirit which all of us — players and spectators alike — shall manifest. For the young men who play, our prayer is that they shall maintain the spirit of good sportsmanship throughout every moment of the game. If possible, preserve their bodies from physical injury, but because it is more important, preserve their minds and souls from every unworthy intention or act.

For ourselves, our prayer is that we shall have a kindly spirit which transcends our separate loyalties; that we shall be careful to show good manners as becomes mature people; and that every thought, word and deed of ours shall strengthen the bonds of admiration and respect between these two fine schools. May we be gracious in defeat or humble in victory.

We make this prayer sincerely, for we know that when the spirit and the act are good and right, everybody wins and nobody loses. So let it be with us here today. For Thy names sake, Amen.

WINDS DOWN RALLS 42-0 SEASON OPENER AT WESTER FIELD

Whirlwinds got rolling in the first quarter and the Ralls Rabbits followed in the second. It was the last Friday night of the season. Some two thousand fans were on hand to watch the contest and to look at the new lay-out at the foot-it away and returned to the 35. The Winds then fumbled the ball and Jim Robertson of Ralls recovered giving the Rabbits possession on the 35. Floydada tightened up their defense and took over on the 29 where they took their second try at offense.

The Winds pushed forward for one first down before being forced to punt. Baxter got off a 23-yard kick that sailed out of bounds.

Blocking is Pretty Good
The Jackrabbits took possession on their own 31 yard line and three plays netted them a single yard before a fourth down kick by Sherbert went to Laron Fulton on the Winds 40. Fulton ran the ball back to the 48 before being downed. One stab at the line carried across the middle stripe before Cloyd Stephens took the ball and with some pretty good blocking circled end for 48 yards and the first score of the game. Gordon Joiner kicked the point after with George Chapman holding. Score 7-0.

The remainder of the first period saw tight defensive play by both clubs and punts were exchanged before the quarter ended.

Opening the second stanza Ralls owned the ball on their own 29 but was forced to kick and Stephens took the boot on the run and made a nice return before he fumbled. J. E. Waller recovered however and the Floydada boys started another drive that ended on the Ralls four-yard-line when a fourth down pass went incomplete.

Through Right Guard
Noel Davis took over the punting chores for Ralls and toed one from deep in his end zone to Waller who took it on the fly and scampered from the Ralls 30 to the 21 before being downed. A series of running plays carried in to the five and then Fulton burst through right guard for the TD. Joiner and Chapman combination worked again and the score - 14-0.

A deep kick by Gene Swanner plus good defensive work by the Winds set the stage for the next scoring drive. Swanner's kick-off went to Jerry James on the Ralls 10. Floydada held tight and threw the Rabbits back to their four where they were forced to punt out. Davis kicked to Waller on the 32 and he carried 17 yards back to the 15 before going down. A Floydada misique was recovered by Joiner to keep the drive going and a Chapman kick to Womack passed work for the final 14 yards to pay dirt. Joiner and Chapman, improving with confidence, teamed for their third point conversion. The boys up front were holding tight. Score 21-0. The half ended shortly thereafter and neither team threatened seriously their opponents goal line.

Reserves Get a Chance
In the third quarter the Floydada coaches became more generous with the time allowed their reserves and put all of their boys in action. Some sparkling performances were turned in by most of the subs who held on pretty well. On one occasion the rested starters were rushed back into the fray to stem a Jack-rabbit drive that had carried to the Floydada 22-yard line.

One offensive drive in the third period netted the Winds their fourth touchdown. The drive featured a 50-yard jaunt by Stephens who needed but one additional block to go all the way. Fulton added the remaining yardage for his running mate when he burst through the middle for six yards and the counter. Joiner again kicked the PAT and made the score 28-0.

Fourth period play saw both sides opening up their bag of tricks and fumbles and intercepted passes were the order of the day. The Winds pushed over their fifth score for the night, they sent their speedy halfback Stephens off left tackle for 14 yards and a TD. Joiner toed the point after touchdown. 35-0. Before either team could muster another offensive thrust Moses recovered a fumble for Ralls, Stanley Vickers intercepted a Moses pass for Floydada. James recovered Stephens fumble to return the ball to Ralls and then Stephens intercepted Sherbert's pass to give the Winds possession.

Six PAT Kicks Good
Stephens took the heave on the Ralls 35 and ran it in to the 15, but a 15-yard penalty called from the point of the foul put the ball on the 40. From this point the Floydada team put on a drive that climaxed in a score by Robert Stovall who drove the final 6 yards. Joiner kicked his sixth straight point after to end the scoring. Floydada 42 - Ralls 0.

The game ended shortly thereafter with neither side threatening. A Ralls receiver did drop a perfect pass when he was apparently in the clear to muff the Jackrabbits best chance at hitting paydirt.

Game statistics showed the Winds gained a net of 306 yards rushing to 47 for the visitors. Ralls hit five of fifteen passes for 57 yards while the Winds connected on 2 of 9 for 44 yards and one score. Two of Ralls passes were intercepted. Floydada made 13 first downs to six for Ralls. Floydada was penalized 45 yards and the visitors 35 yards.

Baxter Averages 32.33 Yards
Waldo Baxter punting for the Winds had an average of 32.33 yards per kick and the Ralls booters had a 24 yard average. In rushing yardage Stephens led the field with 175 yards net in 13 jaunts or an average of 13.46 yards per try. Jackie Jarrett was second high man in the yardage gained with 71 to his credit. High for Ralls was Sherbert with 51 in 12 tries. All the Winds backs that saw action turned in gains.

On the defense the largest number of tackles were turned in by Joiner, Carthel and Vickers in the line and by Stovall and Stephens in the secondary for the winners. For Ralls it was Noel Davis and Larry Moses, both of the visitors secondary defense that had the largest number of stops to their credit.

Marvin Rucker of the Winds and several of his team mates also turned in good defensive games but were limited in tackles credited them because fewer plays were called over their positions or because it was hard to determine tackles on many of the pile-ups.

VIEWS AND COMMENT

Floyd County Fair. This week-end Floyd county puts on its best bib and tucker and shows off to the neighbors what we all have accomplished the past year and take a forward look into what we can get done another. Everything from fine bulls to Dresden China will be on exhibit. The neighbors will see what each other has done, will vie for the honors the fair can bestow. All hands are joining in. The fact that another tent for additional display space has been ordered at the last minute indicates the interest. You'll miss it if you miss it.

Cotton Harvest Begins. Interesting to note that a few fields are ready for the first boll pullers this week. A few fields were started on Monday. The number will gradually increase and unless an unprecedented early frost hits, Floyd county will have a lot of cotton and cotton seed already on the way to market before frost falls. Last year it was a case of readiness in the fields but nobody to get the cotton. This year, it seems, there will be more help.

Dry land crops in Floyd county this season are going to be far and a way better, on an average, than the crops of 1953, when the dry lands came as near making a failure as they ever do in his part of the world. Not to say that some farm lands that are not irrigated won't have poor crops and, naturally, some fields didn't have any wheat and won't have any fall harvest. But on the other hand there are many fair to good crops of feed and cotton in the county once you get to looking for them. That wide area of Floyd county "under the hill" in particular is going to fare much better this fall than last and there are other bright spots as well. You'll notice it in the volume of business in a few weeks.

The steam roller was much in evidence at the state Democratic convention. You can't have it any other way. The majority has got to rule and they usually squelch the opposition as quickly as possible and go about their business, as evidenced by the county convention in Floyd county this past July. The man who "gets there fustest with the mostest" takes over and runs the show. You can't have it any other way in our country. That's the reason why a man who wants his point of view represented in the councils of his political party should attend his precinct conventions where it all begins.

North and East they don't think like we do in the southwest. Governor Shivers, who said it last week, only repeated what most Texans have known for a long time. North and east they have gone crackpot, the latest being an attack on the farm program, which they call a hand out, as though the nation hadn't handed out to other special interests so long they had broken the backbone of the farming industry which was paying the bill. In our mind the southwest will be fighting a long fight with a short stick against the well-oiled machinery of the Democratic party's north and east contingents. But at least it will be a fight instead of a plain push over and vest pocket affair. Too many Texans do not realize what a mess we have gotten the Democratic party into. Apparently they want to lie down and let the bone crusher roll over them to keep from being called names.

An Unhappy Situation. A thing we all talk about but do nothing is an arrangement to make it more pleasant for the transient worker. Just no public facilities whatever for the Latin-Americans, who bring their families along and should be able to obtain such things as a bath. For the sake of preventing spread of contagion, if nothing else, better sanitary facilities should be provided. However, no two of us seem to be agreed on how to attack the problem. Additionally the bill would be pretty high. So we just let the matter drop after some discussion.

Stop, Then Pass. While everybody is interested in protecting school children unthinking violators of the safety rule that applies to school buses on the roads far out number those who comply. As a matter of law, we are told, failure to follow the law can lead to fines up to $200 even when no accident occurs. As the law reads the driver who comes up on a bus which has stopped to receive or discharge school children, must come to a complete stop immediately behind the bus. He can then proceed past the bus at a speed "which is prudent, not exceeding 10 miles per hour, and with due caution for the safety of such children." The above rule does not apply in a business or residential district, but the necessity for extreme caution in those locations is obvious. Every year when the buses start their rounds the reports of tragic death and injury begin to come in. Impatient youngsters dashing across roads or streets to board the bus or to meet waiting parents present the problem which their elders must keep in mind and accounts for the strict law which governs.

Last year, through the efforts and generosity of American school children over half a million Junior Red Cross gift boxes containing personal, health, and educational articles were distributed to homeless and displaced children in 29 countries, including disaster-stricken Greece, Holland, Turkey, and Japan and war-torn Korea.

Failure to properly identify the farm tractor when used on the highway is a chief cause of automobile-tractor wrecks. Use flags during the day and proper lights at night to mark the tractor. Be sure it can be seen and identified.

Better watch for vitamin A deficiency among cattle at this time. This vitamin comes primarily from green feed. The drouth has all but eliminated this source and young cattle need a daily supply since they do not have the ability, as do older animals, to store the vitamin A in their bodies for later use.

If rain were as plentiful as fertilizer, the outlook for Texas farmers would be bright. There will be an abundant supply for 1955 crops, agricultural chemists say.

Store grain in bins which have been thoroughly cleaned. Old grain, trash, feed sacks and other objects furnish living quarters for insects which destroy thousands of bushels of farm-stored grain yearly.

Drouth last year prompted the greatest expansion in Texas irrigation history. More than 5,000,000 acres were irrigated in 212 counties.

Rate Cut Thirds for Children

September 16—Chances of a school age child dying of disease have been cut to one-third in the past by the State Health Department. The State Health Department's summary shows that the percentage of deaths from typhoid fever, scarlet fever, diphtheria, and malaria has been reduced to one-third of the 1938 rate, influenza and pneumonia to one-sixth, scarlet fever to one-third, and malaria and typhoid fever to a flat zero.

Fifteen years ago, the summary shows, school child deaths from all causes reached 3389, compared with 1698 deaths last year. And enrollment in public schools last year was greater by 70,000 than enrollment in 1938.

"Typhoid fever and malaria are excellent examples of what can be accomplished by simply cleaning up mosquito and fly breeding areas, improving sewage and garbage disposal, and improving housing conditions," Dr. Hollie said.

Malaria caused the death of 39 school children in 1938, and typhoid killed 144. Neither disease claimed a single life last year.

Significantly, it was in 1938 that the State Department of Health began operating on its present scale. The figures concerning accidental deaths aren't as bright as those on disease-produced fatalities. Accidents accounted for only 223 percent of all school age deaths in 1938, compared with 46.7 percent in 1953.

Accident prevention programs probably represent the most urgent field for student health education, Dr. Hollie believes.

Flozelle Jones Tells Rotarians and Guests of England, Europe

Nearly 200 persons Thursday night heard Miss Flozelle Jones, Sweetwater teacher, tell of her experiences as a Rotary fellow in Britain a student at Manchester university of Europe.

Miss Jones was the speaker of the evening at the annual Rotary party for the teachers and school board of Floydada Public schools. Only this summer she returned from her year of study and travel.

The deep-seated friendship and respect of the English for the American people and their continuing effort to understand American people impressed Miss Jones during her stay on the tight little isle. She was a student at Manchester university. Later she traveled in several continental states including France, Germany, Italy, Spain and Switzerland. Her trip and year of study was made possible by a fellowship fund of Rotary International, to which the Floydada club is a contributor.

Judge Alton B. Chapman, who presented Miss Jones, was president of the 183rd district when Miss Jones was honored with the fellowship. Introducing her Thursday night he said she had reflected credit on her home state and the club of the district.

Richard F. Stovall was master of ceremonies for the evening. He with D. T. Mayo and George Van Wickel planned the event.

The program was held at the high school cafeteria.

Miss Jones' mother, Mrs. Ruth Jones, accompanied the featured speaker to Floydada for the meeting. They were guests in the Alton B. Chapman home overnight.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Russell back last week from a northwest trip are again at home at Paragould, Arkansas. Mr. Russell pins a note to a business letter saying they had a wonderful six weeks.

Another Course In Salesmanship Proposed by Cook

Don Cook of the Don Cook Sales Courses has announced this week that he would consider another six weeks sales course in Floydada if the Chamber of Commerce Retail Trades committee can find him eight more students.

Twelve Floydada businessmen have indicated that they would be interested in attending the course which is open to twenty to twenty-four students.

Cook said that the new class would probably continue on the same Tuesday night schedule now being followed by the present class of twenty one members and would open on October 5. Anyone who would like to attend the new class should call the Chamber of Commerce office for information.

Through his Floydada class Don Cook has recently presented two books to the Floyd county library.

The first book is "The Five Great Rules of Selling" by Percy H. Whiting, managing director of Dale Carnegie and Company. The Whiting book is the text on which Cook bases his training schools.

The second book is "Think and Grow Rich" by Napoleon Hill, written for "Men and Women Who Resist Poverty."

Both books were given to the library at the suggestion of members of the Floydada sales training class. They will be available to the public as soon as they are properly catalogued by the library staff.

NEED FOR COVER CROPS
If experience is the best teacher, then Texas has had some harsh and bitter instructions on the need to save our agricultural land.
Drouth has exhausted most of the subsoil moisture from vast sections of the state. Hot winds sweeping over nude fields lifted great quantities of our top-soil and powdered it into worthless dust. The disaster set us back many years in farm progress.

learn our lessons very well the first time. But there are exceptions.
During a recent survey of the Plains area, a curious and heartening phenomena was observed. Next to a completely blown out field, you could see a plot which still retained its topsoil. The relatively undamaged areas were those where the remaining soil moisture was utilized to produce cover crops.
Thousands of acres of land are allowed to lie barren in the off seasons in Texas. These fields are the first to suffer damage when dry winds start to blow. Yet, time after time, cover crops have proven to be an important factor in preventing this waste. We should take advantage of this knowledge.

of seedbed preparation, fertilizer, lime and seed for establishing cover crops on such land.

The main purpose of this aid is to provide adequate protective cover. But such crops can also provide emergency winter pasture for livestock. In many cases, this will be the only home-grown roughage available this winter and therefore could be extremely important in Texas.

Farmers and ranchers are encouraged to take advantage of the program this year. Conservation practices are drastically needed in all sections of the drouth area. A lot of poor crop land should be retired to grasses and much more needs to be protected during the winter and early spring months.

In view of an expected shortage of some forage seeds due to short crops this year, farmers are advised to anticipate their needs and order seed early.

Was Deeply Religious Man Commerce Church Minister

Jernigan, a minister of Christ, who delivered oration at the rites of his departure. Judge V. Hall, declares he is a counsellor-at-law is dead. Firm Foundation, an edited by G. H. Jernigan gives a eulogy of Mr. Hall, in which the following are given major points:

(Ed. Note)

Brother Jernigan, Judge V. Hall, elder in the Church of Christ for 40 years, head of the Department of Government, East Texas State College, former editor of the "Firm Foundation," a eulogy of his life and work. He was born January 4, 1874, in Floyd County, Texas. He was educated in the public schools of his native county, and attended the University of Texas at Austin, where he received his law degree in 1904. He was admitted to the bar in 1905 and practiced law in his native county until 1910. He then came to Commerce, Texas, where he has since resided. He was a member of the Commercial Club, the Chamber of Commerce, and the Commercial Union. He was a deeply religious man and a devoted member of the Commerce Church of Christ. He was a successful lawyer and a public-spirited citizen. He died on August 31, 1944, at the age of 70, after a long illness. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Jernigan, and several children. His funeral services were held on September 1, 1944, at the Commerce Church of Christ. He was buried in the Commerce cemetery.

ized into Christ by Brother McCarty in 1897, and lived true to God and the church of our Lord to the day of his departure.

Judge Hall, as he was known in East Texas for many years, graduated from Sam Houston Normal Institute in 1904. He received his degree in Law from the University of Texas in 1910. He also received the Master's degree from the University of Texas in 1922.

Taught Several Years

Brother Hall taught in the public schools of Texas for several years, serving as superintendent of schools at Matador, Slaton, and Snyder. He became professor of history at East Texas State Teacher's College in the fall of 1922 from which position he rose to the head of the Department of Government in 1934. By his efforts this department grew into a full senior and graduate division offering comprising subjects in every field of government activity. During his twenty-two years of service at East Texas State nearly 8,900 students enrolled in his classes. Dr. Brent Tarter, present head of the Government Department at East Texas State said recently, "He has undoubtedly had a great hand in shaping the destiny of the future activities of men by helping to eliminate the bad and teaching the results of decent living."

When he retired from the teaching profession, at the age of 70, on August 31, 1944, to enter the practice of law, Texas lost one of her greatest teachers. One of his associates of many years observed, "He possessed a fund of information in many fields of thought, but in the field of history, (including history of the restoration movement—WGJ) government and social studies, he stands at the head of the class. Mr. Hall was a southern gentleman in every respect possessing all the qualities of a true friend, neighbor, and citizen whose word was his bond. If he found himself in the wrong he repented bitterly and cheerfully made a declaration in order to set himself right and give peace of mind to the wronged."

God In His Life

Brother Claude V. Hall loved the church of our Lord. He placed the work of the church above everything else. In 1951, while living at Spur, Texas, the author of this paper received a letter from him containing the following, "I have numerous projects before me, but my mind is somewhat engrossed with the work of the congregation here . . . in this I have neglected my office work, but I was heedless about my financial efforts. Happily, my life and thoughts do not entwine themselves about such an object as a dollar mark." These short lines express the attitude he had relative to the church of God in his life.

Brother Ralph P. Russell, who came to Commerce upon my departure from that work to my present labors here at Bowie, said of Brother Hall, "Brother Hall rests from his labors and his works will follow with him. He leaves a legacy, not in the material things—but in things not seen, which we all can enjoy. Great men are always marked by their love for truth; Brother Hall then, was a truly great man! He was always in the quest of knowledge. His learning made him capable of understanding his fellow men. Like his Master, Brother Hall was more than just a man morally good; he was a son in his Father's house with Christ being his elder brother. He watched as a keeper of the souls of the saints—this was his pride and desire. With Paul he was confident of the power of the simple gospel of Christ. His love for family was only exceeded by his love for his Master's church. The road of life is better since he passed this way."

Great Loss To The Church

The death of Brother Claude Vaden Hall is a great loss to the church of our Lord at Commerce and the brotherhood at large. Almost the last lines falling from his pen was a tribute to Brother William Webb Freeman, also an elder in the Commerce congregation, who died in April this year. This tribute appears on page three of the Firm Foundation issue of August 3, 1944, and was ready for the presses when death came.

Shortly before the end it was my opportunity to pay what turned out to be a farewell visit at his bedside. As we prayed together, he seemed to know the end was near, he was triumphant in his last hours in the great faith he had in his Master, which he so nobly announced from day to day by the life he lived. Indeed:

"Great offices will have great talents; and God gives to every man the virtue, temper, understanding, taste, that lift him into life; and lets him fall just in the niche he was ordered to fill."

He is survived by his wife, a fine, faithful, educated and cultured Christian woman, one daughter, Mrs. Graham Johnson, Commerce, and one son, Floyd, attorney for the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, Dallas, Texas.

The funeral service was conducted at the meeting house in Commerce where he had worshipped and served for so many years, on Tuesday July 27, at 10:00 o'clock a. m. This writer delivered the funeral oration, while Brother Ralph Russell of Commerce read the obituary and offered the prayer.
