Reue Resigned; Temple Man Is His Successor

John W. Reue, manager of the J. C. Penney Company Floydada store since April of 1945, has resigned and is being succeeded by a Temple man, Rush Wheeler.

Wheeler is a career man with Penney, having begun with the company 14 years ago as a salesclerk. Except for four years spent at Portales, New Mexico, he has been with the store at Temple.
 Wheeler succeeded to the management on July 15. Over the week-end he was moving his wife, Rose, and their three sons to Floydada. They will make their home in the 400 block of South Main Street. Their sons are Mike, 13, Bill 12, and Pat, 6.

Active in Civic Work
 Reue, the resigning executive of the Penney store, has been active participant in local civic affairs during his residence here. Among numerous other things he was president of the Chamber of Commerce year of 1948, president of the Rotary Club for one year, and headed the County Red Cross drive for two years.

In work of the South Plains Council of Boy Scouts he has served in several capacities, among them as district chairman one year and chairman of the fund drive for the Floydada area one year. He was area fund chairman for the Polio Foundation one year. For three years he was chairman of the board of stewards of the Methodist Church of Floydada and one year was president of the Methodist Men.
 Mr. Reue will continue to make his home in Floydada, he said, and will have a statement later. He is resigning after 22 years with J. C. Penney Company. His association with Penney began at Brenham.

Mid-July Rain Brings Boost To Croplands

Practice Session. J. W. Lanier, veteran gin manager of Farmers Cooperative Gin, makes a trial weighing with the new portable scales being donated for the use of Floyd County Junior Live Stock men. See story below. "Animals" for practice purposes only.

Ten hours of brisk but gentle rainfall blanketed all portions of Floyd County beginning at 2:30 Tuesday morning and continuing into the early afternoon.

It was the best rain, and the best-timed rain that has fallen in the area in many days.

One and three-fourths to 2.5 inches was measured in scores of rain gauges throughout the county.

Neighboring counties and an area extending far east, and southwest also caught ample moisture for the mid-summer growing season. The rain fell steadily from laden clouds that went copiously for hours. Every corner of the county was hit by the good moisture. Irrigation wells which had been set to watering in the previous week were closed down and Wednesday not a well was known to be operating in any of the irrigated area.

The rain caught the dry land farmers just right, too, to give forage feeds and cotton, and wheat land prepared for fall planting, just the right kind of a soaking. The rain put some water in the lakes, but it fell so slowly that the earth was soaked full before any run-off started.

Some early forage crops were "made" by the rainfall and all the crops will be booming into August, now only 10 days away, with prospects of heavy production.

Practically all farm lands were in good condition for the rain. Many areas in the county had already had nice showers Friday through Sunday. In some places an inch or more of moisture fell in these showers to reassure uneasy row crop farmers, who saw their maize and cotton slow down on account of needed moisture.

That many farmers did not expect to let the big lakes full of water from the May rains get away from them was indicated by the many rigs fitted up to push water from the low grounds out on growing crops.

All over the County during last week there was hurry to fit up pumps and pipe, run levels and make ditches. Several thousand acres of maize and cotton land in the "dry" areas were due to get their first touch of irrigation from the "wet weather lakes."

And if the rains do not hold out through August these still will be put into operation.

Meanwhile specialty crop plans will go ahead. A lot of laid out acres that could not be put into allotment cotton or wheat and on which the farm operators lost grain sorghums to hail and storm, are to be planted in beans of various kinds, vegetables and what not. A crop of numerous experimental and unusual field seeds will be put into the ground by the first of August or shortly thereafter.

Of these Pinto and Mong beans seem to be favorites.

Military Rites For Pike Hanna

Mr. and Mrs. Pike Hanna of 714 West Georgia, received a telegram from the Navy Department Sunday telling of the death of their son, Pike Reece Hanna, 20, who was stationed with the Navy in San Diego, Calif.

Hanna, according to the telegram died of injuries suffered in a motorcycle accident Friday while in the line of duty. The accident occurred in Old Mexico near Tia Juana. He would have received his discharge in 21 days.

Born August 6, 1934, in the Barwise community, Pike attended school in Floydada. He volunteered for the navy in August of 1951. He served 21 months over-seas on the U.S.S. Dixon.

The young navy man's body reached San Diego Monday and was due to be shipped by train from that base this morning at 9 o'clock. The body will be accompanied home by Ronald Teaff, whose ship is in port at San Diego.

If the body reaches home Friday evening, as now anticipated, the funeral rites will be held Saturday afternoon. The funeral will be held at City Park Church of Christ with (See Pike Hanna, back page)

Portable Scales Gift To Jr Live Stock Men

The four co-operatives of Floydada—Producers Elevator, Lighthouse Electric, Consumers Fuel Association and Farmers Gin Company—recently donated $375 to buy a portable platform scale to be used in 4-H and FFA club work in Floyd County.

The scale, which will weigh up to 2,000 pounds and break on the pound, is mounted on a two wheel trailer and can be moved anywhere that it is needed. At the livestock shows, the scale will be taken out of its trailer foundation and set on the ground to form a regular platform scale. This gift of the co-operatives will be used at the Spring Livestock Show, Lockney Community Show and Floyd County Fair.

Starting in August, County Agent Bill Rodgers and his assistant Lynn Pittard are planning to have the boys bring their calves to town one Saturday morning each month to be weighed.

In this way the club member can figure the daily gain of his calf and compare his animal with the others in the county. Each boy can see if his calf needs more feed or care in order to compete favorably and make the necessary adjustments before show time.

In shows of the past, the animals had to be led to the old sales pen to be weighed. "The new scale is going to be a lot handier, and we will have a more accurate weight on animals which are sold by the pound," stated Rodgers.

National And Texas Farm Safety Week To Be Observed July 24-30

COLLEGE STATION, July — "More accidental deaths occur in farming than in any other major industry in the nation. Texas, with its widespread farming and ranching operations, is in a position to help reduce the toll taken by such accidents," said Governor Allan Shivers in his proclamation designating the week of July 24-30 as Farm Safety Week.

Earlier President Eisenhower had proclaimed the same period as National Farm Safety Week. He requested organizations and leaders interested in farm life to join in the continuing drive to reduce needless injuries and deaths to farm people.

The week is sponsored jointly by the National Safety Council and the U. S. Department of Agriculture and has been observed each year since 1944. The Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Committee working with the sponsors and farm organizations and leaders of the state report much progress during the past several years. The committee has called on farm organizations and rural youth groups to assist with carrying the message on safe rural living to farm and ranch families. Four-H club members not only conduct individual demonstrations involving farm safety but compete as teams for county, district and state honors in a farm and home safety demonstration contest. It is the hope of the Texas Committee that farm families in every community will participate in activities which may be planned for their protection. The theme of the 1955 week is "Your Safety is in Your Hands — Be Careful Avoid Accidents."

Use Care; Farm People Urged
 In connection with the observance of National Farm Safety week local agricultural agencies this week issued the following:

The annual observance of National Farm Safety Week began in 1944. Accidents kill more than 14,000 and injure more than 1,000,000 farm residents each year. Nearly all of these deaths and disabling injuries are attributed to human failure or carelessness.

As a means of reducing the accident and death rate on farms the council suggests the following:
 In your community enlist the cooperation of the entire rural population for safety now and through-

Dodgers Still Holding Little League Lead; Season Nears End

With only about six more evenings of play scheduled between now and August 1 when the league season winds up, the Dodgers are still in the lead. Close behind and breathing down their necks are the Giants which are at present about the most improved ball club in the circuit.

This week's action will feature three evenings of double headers which led off yesterday at 5:30 p. m. with the Indians tangling with the Braves and was followed in the second go with the Giants taking on the Cardinals.

Friday, July 22, the opener will pit the Cardinals against the Indians and the nightcap will match the Dodgers and the Tigers.

Monday's action will pair the Giants and the Dodgers in the opener and will probably determine the first place position of the league. In the second go it will be the Braves and the Tigers.

★ ☆ ★ ☆ ★ ☆ ★ ☆ VIEWS AND COMMENT

Last week was anniversary week of disastrous days in Floyd County — event so tragic in financial circles that it still is talked about only in subdued tones by those who went through it. It was the week of the closing of two Floyd County banks under what appeared to be pressure from Washington, D. C. The men who were going through the crucible at that time would never have visualized the days of 1941-1955. They thought the world was ruined without end. Their financial houses had fallen in on their heads. Failure of the two banks was only a part of the tragic story that began really back in 1928 and even before, and snowballed into catastrophic proportions. It was nation-wide. Hysteria had hold of the people. Five thousand dollar houses sold for $500, hundred dollar cows for $10. The country was all right, the people were all right — except that they were mad and frightened. The psychology of those night marish times is still being studied by men trying to unravel the mystery of the human mind, how it clicks, what makes people do the things they do.

Farm Safety Week. What chance-taking on the farms is costing the nation is being dramatized in recent years by the observance of National Farm Safety Week. What the sum total is of financial loss and loss of lives is for the statistician to say. It is a huge sum. It stems from the carelessly handled tractor, the chance-taking with powered farm machinery, also from carelessness with fire, with electric wiring, ladders and bulls, insecticides, poisons, cleaning fluids—a list nearly 100 items long. Farmers work under pressure a great deal of the time. They try to take short cuts, do take short cuts, to their occasional regret. The chances a farmer takes in a year are so numerous there must be a special providence that keeps them from harm. Since there are so many unnecessary accidents the current movement is to try to get the farm operator to help providence out a bit.

Lions Club Clean-Up. It was heartening in a way to see how much a band of 25 fellows with trucks and pickups could get done in a half-day last Thursday morning. Dividing up into crews and working like beavers they made more than a hundred trips to the dump grounds with refuse that the city's regular crew had not had time to get out of the alleys. In fact, their trips were made largely with refuse—trees and burnable rubbish of other kinds—that was stacked off specially for them. Principally we call the Lions activities heartening because their work proves the spark is still there. What could 50 such men have done, or 100. If 500 had turned their hand to it, the total job could have been done. What the Lions proved is that you can get any community job done if you'll get community-wide cooperation.

Want a Good Rain? While we have to admit that a good many people of the community give only lip service to the idea of an annual community-wide clean-up, we do excuse the lack of enthusiasm evident or the nonchalant indifference, whatever it is, to a considerable extent, because of the weather man's interference. Nearly every year rains interfere with the plans for a clean-up. It did last year. It did again this year. You have to do what you plan to do when you plan to do it according to the public announcement. Otherwise the sharp edge of interest is dulled. Putting the matter the other way round, since we usually need a good rain in the latter part of July, why not fast-talk the Lions into announcing another clean-up day for July 25, fool the rain man that way. A good many, we suspect, wouldn't know it was clean-up day and the Lions wouldn't lose face if the weather man was not fooled and did not "cooperate."

Farm tractors, carelessly operated, can cause death and destruction. The Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Committee advises tractor operators against taking chances which may result in a tractor turning over or being involved in a traffic accident.

Real estate taxes on Texas farms and ranches rose in 1954 for the eighth straight year. The average tax per acre for the state in 1954 was 28.8 cents compared with 27.9 cents in 1953 and 17.3 cents an acre in 1946.

Both President Eisenhower and Governor Shivers have signed proclamations designating the week of July 24-30 as Farm Safety Week. The theme... Your Safety is in Your Hands... Be Careful Avoid Accidents.

Another one of those four-lane things is being built up at Pampa. "This will facilitate traffic... for thousands," says the story.

Fattening cattle should consume from a half to one and a half ounces of salt per head daily. Loose granulated salt should be kept before the animals at all times. Salt in this form is considered more satisfactory than compressed block salt or rock salt.

Return Thanks For Courtesies

Appearance of the Pilgrim Travelers, male quintet, in a program of spiritual and gospel singing Tuesday night of last week drew a good crowd, said Tommie Lee Collins, who was chairman of the sponsoring organization of the Mt. Zion Baptist Church.

The program was staged at Andrews Ward gymnasium, for which additional seating was provided Collins said, through the kindness of the First Methodist and First Baptist Churches.

Appreciation to Dr. Allen of the First Baptist Church, Rev. Armstrong of the First Methodist Church, and their staffs, for their help, is expressed in a note given The Hesperian, the list also including Superintendent I. T. Graves of the public schools, and Revs. Johnson and Hunter who conducted the devotional service opening the program.

The help of the Colored Methodist Church, especially Elijah Pleasant, is also appreciated, the statement says. George Ledbetter, deacon of the sponsoring Church, also joined in the appreciation.

The singers were paid a fee of $200 and about $50 was realized for the use of the Church, Collins said.

Engine Wear Reduced 40% with Trop-Artic Motor Oil

(THE DIFFERENCE IN WEIGHT IS A DIFFERENCE IN WEAR!)

In an engine test equal to 2500 miles of driving, piston rings lubricated with ordinary oil lost weight, showing extensive wear.

In an identical test piston rings lubricated with Phillips 66 Trop-Artic Oil showed scarcely any wear at all.

IT'S PERFORMANCE THAT COUNTS!

The difference in piston ring wear illustrated above proves an important point about the performance of motor oils:

Most engine wear occurs when you first start your car or under stop-and-go driving conditions with an engine that hasn't warmed up. It takes a very special kind of oil to flow quickly and protect your motor when you start, and then to protect moving parts from sludge and varnish after the engine heats up. TROP-ARTIC All-Weather Motor Oil gives you this double protection. Compared to older types of oils, it can even double engine life.

In a motor oil it's performance that counts. And TROP-ARTIC gives super performance! You'll get easier starting... save gasoline... and you can save 15% to 45% on oil consumption. Get TROP-ARTIC from your Phillips 66 Dealer.

Merchant Claims Nears

Merchant claims for the surviving widow, husband, children or parents. Payment is authorized to be made at the rate of $2.50 per day for each day of imprisonment.

Any member of the U. S. Armed Forces presently held as prisoners of war as a result of the Korean hostilities will be eligible to file their claims within one year after returning to America military control.

Survivors of prisoners of war who have not returned to the jurisdiction of the Armed Forces of the United States may file not later than one year from the date the Department of Defense makes a determination that the prisoner of war has actually died or is presumed dead.

Claim Date Established

American citizens serving in the military or naval forces of any government allied with the United States during World War II, who were held as prisoners of war for any time after December 7, 1941, by any government of any nation with which such allied government has been at war subsequent to such date, are now eligible for prisoner of war benefits. All such claims must, under law, be filed on or before August 31, 1955.

Compensation is authorized to be paid up to $2.50 per day for the period of imprisonment. Payment will not be made from taxpayers' money, but from seized assets of enemy governments during World War II. In the event of death of the individual entitled to compensation under this section, payment may be made to the surviving widow, husband, children or parents.

Ayres says that the number of persons eligible to file claims doubtless is small. However, he says it is likely that some eligibles are overlooking their rights and suggests that careful investigation be made by any who feel they may be eligible.

WCS SPONSORING MRS. BARNARD IN BOOK REVIEW

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church are sponsoring Mrs. J. H. Barnard in a book review tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in the parlor of the First Methodist Church.

Mrs. Barnard will review "Ambassador's Report" by Chester Bowls. Tickets are $1 and can be purchased from members of the W.S.C.S. The public is invited to attend.

We have an old-fashioned neighbor who's not afraid of work. If invited to a party, she offers to arrange flowers almost before she accepts. She could take a parsnip, a verbena and a few leaves and make an attractive bouquet. But even though she has a natural gift for it, she still uses a lot of hot-weather energy getting things together and creating a beautiful effect.

Some women with a special talent will work at that and nothing else. But not this one. She would be just as quick to dive into a messy kitchen in the home of a sick friend. Or offer to keep someone's baby for a week while they vacation. If a new person moves into the block, she's there with a casserole dish or a cake for the first meal. She has built her life around doing for others, never seems to run out of time.

Women with such an outlook aren't often good housekeepers, but their yards will be shipshape. Their hair and nails never have that fresh - from - the - beauty - parlor look, and their hats are often askew. But they never get bored; there are too many interesting things to do. They rarely feel sorry for themselves, because they know they're needed. Only once in a while do they feel imposed upon, because most of the time they've asked for the extra work themselves. They're never short-changed, because they are investing in heart-warming experiences rather than dollars and cents.

Sometimes we hear it said that if such a woman would turn all that energy into making money, she'd become a millionaire. Maybe by the standards she believes in, that's exactly what she has done!

August Plentiful

COLLEGE STATION. — Food shoppers should find the August plentiful list to their liking. Broilers and fryers share the spotlight with canned grapefruit sections says Mae Belle Smith, extension specialist in consumer education.

Because crop prospects now indicate a near record supply, grapes have been added to the list.

Supplies of rice, Irish potatoes, watermelons, fresh and processed lemons and limes, says the specialist, are much larger than for last summer. Too, other than the spotlighted meats, beef and frozen halibut are the only ones carried on the August list.

Milk and other dairy foods such as American cheddar and cottage cheeses continue in heavy supply—about equal to the peak production in June.

Stocks of lard, vegetable fats and oils remain heavy and in some areas the summer vegetables will be in peak supply.

Miss Smith explains that the USDA's monthly listing of plentiful foods is based on a survey of supplies of the major trade territories of this section of the nation. The southwest food distribution division, U. S. Department of Agriculture, makes the survey for Southwestern States.

H. D. Council Hears Reports of Committees

Twenty-five members and two visitors attended council of the Floyd County Home Demonstration Clubs, Saturday, July 16, at 2:30 p.m.

Reports and announcements took up most of the time, as there was very little new business to transact. Mrs. G. W. Smith, 4-H leader, asked for more donations from home demonstration clubs as they are still short at least $15 for the girls dress review which is to be held at the Floydada High School auditorium, August 12. It will probably be at night so interested fathers can attend.

Mrs. C. L. King, county T.D.H.A. chairman, announced buses will leave Lubbock at 9 o'clock August 2 for Ft. Worth to the state convention. Any one wishing to go send name to her by Saturday of this week so reservations can be made. The fare will be between $7 and $8. Mrs. J. T. Spears asked that checks going to council be made out to Floyd County Home Demonstration Club Council, as there is another organization by the name of Floyd County Council, thus avoiding a mix-up.

Mrs. Brummett, county home demonstration agent, assures the ladies there was no danger of getting food poisoning from re-using tin cans to put food in the deep-freezer. Some were afraid to buy the new lids the council is selling for this reason.

Present were Mmes. Malcolm McNeill, Grigsby Milton, J. T. Spears, G. W. Smith, C. L. King, Oliver Allen, E. Huckabee, W. J. Ross, A. H. Kreis, Zant Scott, E. G. Norrell, R. W. ## 4-H's Eliminate "Accident Havens"

How many hazards can you find?*

SAFETY, a crop to be harvested on every farm and in every home, is receiving special attention from more than one-half million 4-H Club members taking part in the 1955 National 4-H Safety Program.

As a part of their 4-H Club work, members in all 48 states are correcting hazards such as those seen in the above drawing. They are attempting to reduce the Nation's annual farm toll of 14,500 lives, 1,250,000 injuries, and an economic loss of about a billion dollars.

4-H's, working as individuals or in groups through their local clubs, conduct surveys to locate hazards, then correct the unsafe conditions. They give demonstrations on hundreds of topics pertaining to farm, home and highway safety. Members present talks before group meetings and over radio and television; put displays in store windows; and build booths at fairs.

To assist the Cooperative Extension Service in conducting the 4-H Safety Program, General Motors has just published a new "4-H Safety Handbook for Local Leaders," which provides how-to-do-it ideas for carrying out successful safety programs. Copies of the manual will be distributed to volunteer 4-H leaders through County Extension Offices.

In addition, GM provides incentives in the National 4-H Safety Awards program which is arranged by the National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work. Medals are made available to four county winners; an all-expense trip to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago is given to the state winner; and $300 college scholarships are presented to eight national winners.

*In the drawing, there are more than 45 accident hazards or unsafe practices shown. Don't let them occur on your farm or in your home.

It seems that the insects are about to eat what cotton the hail left. Everybody has been checking their fields this week and finding everything from flea hoppers to boll worms. No one knows what the boll worms are after since there's not even any blooms much less a boll in most fields. # Highlights And Sidelights From the State Capitol

(By Vern Sanford, Texas Press Association)

AUSTIN, TEXAS.—Second-round polio shots for Texas first and second graders were to begin this week.

Enough Salk vaccine for 299,700 inoculations arrived in Austin last Wednesday and was put in the State Health Department's refrigerated vaults. Local officials began arriving at once to pick up their portions.

Only those who stated they were prepared to use the vaccine were given allotments, said Dr. Henry Holle, head of the Department.

Eli Lilly Company of Indianapolis, the same company which supplied the shots given Texas school children in April, sent the shipment. Preparation was reportedly under the rigid new safety standards which went into effect May 26.

Polio cases over the state had risen to 618, the Health Department reported last Thursday.

Bank Deposits Held Taxable

Taxation of bank deposits and cash has apparently been forced on state and local tax agencies by a Texas Supreme Court decision.

In a Harrison County case, the high court ruled that money in bank accounts, cash registers, personal safe-deposit boxes must be assessed right along with other property to avoid discriminatory taxation.

Two lower courts were overruled.

H. A. C. Brummett

Attorney-at-Law

by the decision. New trial was ordered for the defendants to grant them the lower taxes they sought on their property because taxing agencies had failed to access the $10,000,000 on deposit in Harrison County banks.

Presumably the same complaint would be good elsewhere in the state where bank deposits are not being assessed for property taxes.

Giles Trial Drags On

Testimony in the Bascom Giles theft trial dragged so monotonously at one point last week it became necessary for the judge to caution jurors against dozing.

In its third week, the trial appeared headed for a fourth unless the defense should cut short presentation of its side of the case.

Only one indictment is involved. It charges Giles with theft and abetting theft of $6,800 in a Kinney County land deal under the veterans land program. Testimony has nevertheless touched on many other aspects of the program and its transactions.

One witness testified he heard Giles was to get a $75,000 cut in the $358,000 Kinney County deal.

Another testified he heard Giles say in a telephone conversation he would take $15,000 as his share in a transaction in Dimmit County.

Giles originated the $100,000,000 program and until January 1, administered it as chairman of a three member board that included also the governor and attorney general. Names of the other two officials have come in for frequent mention in examination of witnesses, particularly in cross examination by the defense.

At one point, defense counsel charged a witness had made a deal with the attorney general to smear Giles. The witness denied it.

Shivers Shuns Conservatives

Gov. Allan Shivers declined to participate in a meeting of conservative Democrats last week in Dallas.

Vacationing in Woodville, Shivers released through his Austin office the text of a telegram to Fort Worth attorney Hamilton Rogers, chairman of the gathering.

Declaring himself opposed to "splinter political parties," Shivers asked the group to work with him to strengthen the Democratic party. Rogers denied any splinter party plans. He also denied the meeting had anything to do with recent criticism of the governor for his moves toward replacing Wright Morrow of Houston, Democratic national committeeman, with someone acceptable to national party leaders.

Purpose of the Dallas meeting, said its leaders, was to "solidify conservative thinking." One result was a sweeping denunciation of desegregation plans for the University of Texas and El Paso public schools.

Parr Tax Trial Postponed

Date of the Austin trial of George Parr on an income tax evasion charge was changed last week from July 16 to September 6.

Postponement was because one of Parr's attorneys was busy with another case.

Parr had petitioned the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals at New Orleans for a dismissal, contending the trial should be held in Laredo instead of Austin. The appeal was denied.

Johnson Hearing Delayed

Hearing on an application to take additional water from the Pedernales River to irrigate U. S. Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson's farm has been postponed. August 8 is the new date set by the State Board of Water Engineers.

Twenty-four downstream ranchers postponed the application when it came up last week. They said water already being diverted to the Johnson land deprives them of stock water and leaves so little natural flow that fish are dying and polluting the stream.

Martin Harris, attorney, asked for the later hearing. He said Johnson's wife desired to be heard personally if there were objections. She is now in Washington where the senator is recuperating from a heart attack.

ATTEND TWIRLING SCHOOL

The drum majorette and five twirlers of Floydada High Band left Sunday for a two week twirling school to be held at Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene.

The girls attending the school are Cheryl Crawford, drum majorette, and the five twirlers, Sandra Collier, Jerry Floyd, Sue Nelson, Mary Wilks and Gaynell Boothe.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Baggett and family and Mr. and Mrs. Preston Baggett and family joined friends from Idalou last week-end for an excursion at Buffalo Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Gose of Wichita Falls spent Friday night with the J. H. Barnards, enroute to Colorado.

Sick Man Fails To Reach Hospital

MATADOR—Robert W. Amick, 71, retired farmer and resident of Flomot for over 30 years, died Sunday about 10:15 as he was enroute from his home at Plainview, to Matador, where he was to enter Stanley Hospital for treatment.

Funeral service was held Tuesday, July 12, at 10 a. m. at Flomot Baptist Church, and interment was in Flomot Memorial Park cemetery.

Rev. E. L. (Uncle Bob) Jameson, retired Methodist minister of the county, conducted the services and was assisted by Rev. J. E. Lee, Baptist pastor of Spur, formerly of Flomot.

Pallbearers were Harrison George and Alton Anderson, Flomot; Howe Hines, Quinn Martin, Hub Swearingen of Matador; and Clinton Denning of Plainview.

Around Town

(By Jennie Henry)

If you were up and around about 6:45 a.m. last Thursday you probably were alarmed to see your neighbor lady dressed in her night clothes making a wild dash for a car parked out front. If you haven't been enlightened, please allow me to do so. Mrs. Bob Collier and Mrs. Leonard Matsler entertained with a "come as you are breakfast," at the home of Mrs. Matsler.

It's nice to know that the women you thought always looked like they just stepped out of Vogue, look just as you do when they step out of bed.

Those enjoying the delicious breakfast were Mrs. Russell King, Mrs. Ernest Carter, Mrs. Preston Watson, Mrs. B. P. Sandefur, Mrs. Bill Darden, Mrs. B. P. Sandefur, Mrs. Jim Word, Mrs. Jim Potts, Mrs. Sam Fowler, Mrs. Earl Crawford, Mrs. L. D. Britton, Joyce Harper, (my sister who has been visiting me,) and the two clever hostesses.

Have you tried "Chicken in the Bag?" If not, you should, judging from all the favorable comment that's been going around since the REA Cookbook No. 2 was published. This is one of Mrs. Harry Morckels recipes so you know it's good.

Chicken in the Bag

Have 1 (3 pound) frying chicken cut in serving pieces. Rinse in cold water; pat dry. Dredge pieces with flour seasoned with paprika, salt, pepper and Accent. Grease inside of large brown paper bag with soft butter or margarine (about 1/2 cup). Lay bag in very shallow baking pan; place chicken inside bag in single layer, skin side up. Fold open end of bag over tightly; pin or clip securely so bag won't open during cooking. Bake at 375 degrees F. about 1 1/4 hours, or until tender. Remove the juicy, golden-crusted pieces of chicken from the bag; serve as is or with any desired sauce.

Ran across this puzzle last week and thought maybe the readers would like to try their hand at it. Two horses started 20 miles apart and moved toward each other at the rate of 20 miles an hour until they met. As they started, a fly left the nose of one horse and flew toward the other at the rate of 20 miles an hour until it reached the nose of the second horse. It then flew back to the nose of the first horse at the same rate, continuing from one to the other until the horses met. What we want to know is, how far did the fly travel?

Am looking for someone who has frozen eggs and used them successfully in baking. If you have any information on freezing eggs that you have tried please let me hear from you.

Rev. Strickland of this city has been appointed to serve the pastorate of the Assembly of God Church in Quitaque. Rev. Strickland brought his first sermon to the congregation during the Sunday morning services last week.

Return The Money, Writes CDA; Long Time No Hear, Says City

City officials, who have been waiting for months for approval of an application for a two-way communications system, including base station and five units, are now pondering where they stand with the Civil Defense Administration and have written to find out.

January 31 the city had a check for $1,432 from the Civil Defense Administration, which they assumed was to be used as the CDA's half of the installation costs, and that approval of their application would come through most any day.

The mayor (Patterson at the time) turned the check in and the city set up a "Civil Defense" account. Later the city's auditor had the city secretary write off this account and put the money in surplus.

This week Mayor Norman has a letter advising the city to return the $1,432. It was made out to the City of Floydada instead of the County of Floyd, as it was intended, says the letter in explanation.

Sure enough, a sum in the amount of $1,433.88 (not $1,432) is due the county as half of the cost of installation of a two-way base station and mobile units, installed by the county last December under an agreement with Civil Defense Administration.

The money was paid out of the county's general fund and the commissioners have been wondering when they'd get a check from CDA to help bolster this over-worked account.

Yesterday Mayor Norman said the circumstances are a little unusual, and if there is one mix-up possibly there is another at CDA. Any way, the city would like to know what has become of their application.

"We may not even be eligible for a station," the mayor said. "But we would like to know. Maybe we can find out since the matter has come up in this way," he said.

Lions Clean-Up Crews Account For Big 'Haul'

Floydada Lions Club held their annual pick-up day for trash in Floydada Thursday morning July 14. Members met for an early breakfast and then went to work hauling off trash from the alleys of the city.

About seven vehicles were on the job most of the morning with crews loading and hauling off trash from the alleys.

Lion boss Kenneth E. Bain Jr. said this week the campaign covered over a third of the city and some 60 loads were hauled to the dump grounds. An enthusiastic group of workers put in a hard half day at the task and were prevented from completing the job only because it was too big for the number involved.

Special thanks went out from the club to Lighthouse Electric Cooperative and to Southwestern Public Service Co. who sent vehicles and crews of workers to assist in the operation. Most of the remaining workers were from the Lions Club.

Schedule Broom Sale July 29

The Lions Club will hold their annual broom sale Friday, July 29. The truck containing all sizes of brooms, mops, mats and cleaning equipment will be parked on the corner of the square by the bank all day to accommodate customers. Canvases of the residential and business district will be held between 5 and 8 p.m.

Proceeds from the sales are divided between the local Lions Club and the Texas blind who manufacture the articles. Floydada Lions receive 25% of sales and will offer the articles at competitive prices.

Names Supervisor Ground Observer Corps of County

Wells B. Henry, Floydada, was named post supervisor for the Ground Observer Corps Post to be established in his respective location. The appointment was made by County Judge W. E. Grimes of Floyd County, and the appointment was announced here today by the State Defense and Disaster Relief Office.

The Ground Observer Corps is an organization of civilian volunteers who have agreed to give their time and effort to aid in the United States Air Defense Force in observing, evaluating and reporting, from their observation posts, movements of aircraft to a central reporting point known as a filter center.

These observation posts are located near to eight miles apart as possible. They are deemed vitally important as a supplement to the network of radar stations which are charged with the responsibility of detecting enemy aircraft invading the United States.

Silver GOC wings are awarded to members who serve a required number of hours.

THOMAS JEFFERSON DRAFTED DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

The Declaration of Independence was drawn up by Thomas Jefferson, a lawyer and delegate from Virginia, and slightly amended by Adams and Franklin, delegates from Massachusetts and Pennsylvania. It was formally presented to the Continental Congress on June 28, 1776.

It was Richard Henry Lee, a Virginia farmer who introduced (on June 7) a resolution declaring "that these United Colonies are, and of right ought to be, free and independent States, that they are absolved from all allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political connection between them and the state of Great Britain is and ought to be, totally dissolved."

On June 10, a committee of five, headed by Jefferson, was instructed to draw up a declaration of independence. Other committee members were John Adams, Benjamin Franklin, Robert R. Livingston and Robert Sherman.

The first rates of pay for enlisted men were established by federal law in September, 1789, and set the base pay for privates at $4 a month.

In July, 1872, the basic pay for privates became $13 a month and was increased to $15 in May 1908. Effective June, 1917, the basic rate was $30 a month but was reduced by the act of June, 1922, to $21. The Pay Re-adjustment Act of June 1942, set the pay at $50, the act of June, 1946, at $75, and it is presently $78.

FCIC Insured All-Risk Wheat Losses $39,000

Sixty Floyd County citizens who carried Federal Crop Insurance Corporation protection for the season of 1955, have been paid an aggregate of $39,000.

This amount was distributed, B. J. Darden, local agent, announced, to farmers who carried investment protection for the crop but harvested little or no wheat.

Chief causes of the losses were drought and hail.

Darden said that Floyd County wheat producers have started signing up for the federal crop insurance protection on their 1956 wheat crop. He points out that all eligible producers can make this protection of their wheat investments a part of their farming program, and urges that they do so.

The protection is offered for both irrigated and non-irrigated wheat in the county. "The logical time to take out federal crop insurance is now, so that the money and labor which will be invested in the production effort will be protected," Darden said.

State Director On Scene

O. B. Briggs, state FCIC director, spent part of last week here with the local agent pushing 1956 wheat insurance sales. He told Mr. Darden the corporation may close sales at any time soon.

The corporation stands to lose approximately $26,000 on the 1955 wheat crop in Floyd County, but no premium or coverage changes are to be in effect for the 1956 crop year.

The premium rate on irrigated wheat is $1.76 per acre, and on non-irrigated it is $2.16. Established coverage rates on irrigated acreage are:

First stage: $7.22 (released and seeded to a substitute crop);
Second stage: $13.07 (released and not seeded to a substitute crop, and not harvested);
Third stage: $14.43 (harvested acreage guaranteed).

Coverages on non-irrigated wheat amount to:
First stage: $3.90;
Second stage: $7.02;
And third stage: $7.80.
Policies issued are not based on a 3-year contract, but can be cancelled if desired, providing the seeding of the crop for the cancellation is to become eligible wheat producers interested in signing up should get more details of the contact Mr. Darden, or contact adjusters, L. A. White or Whitfill.

Palace Brings Double Feature Harrow Films

Jack Deakins at Palace Theatre announced this week his double feature for Sunday and Monday, July 24 and 25, will be "It Came From Beneath the Sea" and "Creature With the Atom Brain."

Deakins says this is a double header of thrills and suspense that fill the screen in a tidal wave of raging terror.

Columbia Pictures' "It Came From Beneath the Sea," is a sensational new thriller of a raging monster jet-propelled from the Pacific depths to attack the world.

Kenneth Tobey and Faith Domergue star and Donald Curtis is featured. "It Came From Beneath the Sea" pits men of the Atomic Age against a marine menace which not only pulls ships under waves but also attacks San Francisco itself.

Tobey plays the commander of a new Pacific submarine which meets a mysterious object later declared by scientists to be an incredible monster, driven out of its fanthomless depths by explosions of the H-bomb and it is rampaging across the Pacific in a desperate quest for food.

An "Atom Brain" Thriller

Horror that can happen—now—is to be found in the unusual, blood-curdling new thriller from Columbia Pictures, "Creature With the Atom Brain," starring Richard Denning with Angela Stevens.

Based on newly-uncovered scientific facts recently reported in various national magazines, "Creature With the Atom Brain" tells a story shock-full of thrills, according to its advance acclaim.

In "Creature With the Atom Brain," Denning plays a police doctor who discovers traces of radioactivity while examining a series of murder victims, found strangely crushed to death.

In the process of exploring this fantastic phenomena, Denning tracks down a scientist who has learned the secret of bringing dead people back from beyond the grave, turning them into remote-controlled automatons possessed of fearful strength, by the insertion of radioactive electrodes into their brains. There actually have been laboratory experiments which attest to the validity of the idea, horrifying as it may seem, and it is in these recent scientific studies that "Creature With the Atom Brain" finds its origin.

heavy rains in the Floyd Conservation District caused considerable erosion and unprotected farm land.

though the land may have been dry when the rains fell, the water was greater than the absorption into the soil. The clay soils predominant in the area just cannot take water as rapidly as rains fall.

Soil erosion and runoff and the utilization of all rain-water terraces can be built. Terraces under the supervision of the super-technicians are of such a width that they can be built with any type equipment for all farming operations. The cost of building terraces is on a cost-share basis by the government. Applicable assistance on terraces can be obtained through the local ASC office for layout and design provided by the Soil Conservation Service.

Production on terraced land runs from 20 to 40 per cent increased production with the protection given to prevent damage to the land. This indicates the value of initiating this practice.

Quarter-mile lengths of welded steel rail curve around a foothill like wire cable.

Not a "clickety-clack" in a carload

It's Santa Fe's new continuous welded rail... Fewer joints mean a smoother ride for you

An occasional little click—that's all you'll hear of the old "clickety-clack" as you glide over stretches of new continuous welded rail on the Santa Fe.

And these stretches will be growing longer and more frequent on Santa Fe. For we're laying more all the time—103 miles of it this year.

In fact, we're using a new electric welding process (for the first time by an American railroad) to help bring Santa Fe's new smoother ride to more people, more goods.

But that's only part of the story. Just as a railroad is no better than its track, track itself is no better than what's underneath it—the roadbed, the ties, the ballast. So we've been busy with new improvements here, too.

For instance, our own specially-devised ballast "dry cleaner." This unique machine cleans our ballast, keeps it more resilient so the track lies flat and even.

And today we're replacing old ties with longer and stronger new ones—specially treated to stay strong and sturdy for 30 years and more.

Day after day, something new is being done to make "America's New Railroad" even newer and better. Santa Fe is spending many millions of earned dollars every year for new roadway and new equipment. And not one penny comes from the taxes you pay.

SANTA FE SYSTEM LINES

What about expansion in these quarter-mile rails?

Near Newton, Kansas, where yearly temperatures vary from 20° below to 114° above, we laid a 5-mile experimental stretch of welded rail. Here we found that anchoring the rail to every other tie restricted expansion to the area between anchors. Thus, overall expansion was reduced to the merest fraction of an inch between rail ends. In other words, expansion is no problem whatsoever.

people in different homes:
7:30—Worship and evening message with Jimmie Ligon;
8:40—10:00 — Fellowship and closing worship for young people.
Rev. W. D. Reeves, host pastor, has invited the community to participate in the Round Up program each evening. During the course of the week the youth and adults will make a study of the social and religious needs of the community.

Jimmie Ligon Busy Student

Jimmie Ligon coming with the Youth Round Up program, is one of the busiest students on the campus at Texas Christian University. During the past school year he served as president of the organization for all Christian service students on the campus. Active in many other phases of campus religious work, Ligon also was pastor of the First Christian Church at Electra on the week-ends which supplemented his work as a ministerial student.

This is the first year that Ligon has served as a member of the Youth Round Up teams. Previously, the TCU senior, who is an avid sports fan, attended summer conferences and worked with the Disciples Student Fellowship at Texas.

Mary Gail Pate, a five-foot, five-inch blue-eyed blonde who is a ballet and drama major at Texas Christian University, will lead singing as the second member of the Youth Round Up team.

Miss Pate, who sometimes teaches ballet in the TCU prep school, has long been a leader in youth work for the Disciples of Christ throughout the state.

Her activities began in her hometown, Albany, Texas, when she was a high school student. There she was active in student government and was awarded the American Legion Citizenship Award. Later, she received a ballet scholarship to TCU. At college her work in religious and social capacities continued. She works as a Campus Fire counselor during the summer months and is a leader in Disciples Student Fellowship at TCU.

A field half plowed—a furrow left unturned—work stopped by accident!

To the farmer, working against time and weather, delay can mean the difference between a crop and no crop, a good year or a lean one. So accidents have no place in his schedule; they cost money, delay production—and the growing season keeps rolling along.

Yet, farming ranks third most hazardous in eight major industries. Think of it, while the death rate for all industry is 29 per 100,000 workers, in agriculture it is 55 per 100,000! One farmer in every 15 is injured on the job! Total—4400 killed, 300,000 disabled by injury every year.

The wise farmer knows where his hazards are—and avoids them. Falls, machinery and animals account for most accidents down on the farm. Their annual cost—$75,000,000. Yet they're so easy to prevent. Just a little caution is all it takes.

Don't "cultivate" accidents and losses! Instead "cultivate" safety and success!

It was used first for the Junior Book Review Club Tuesday morning, when Mrs. H. F. Jackson brought a program on Birds.

Miss Pearl Cowan gave a large number of magazines to the library this week. Hardly a week passes that the library does not receive some gift from interested friends of the library. All of these gifts consisting of books, magazines and money are helping to build a better library for Floyd County.

New books continue to arrive. Among them are several of the Landmark books, which are real thrillers for young readers. The following will be ready for circulation this week: "Dolly Madison" by Jane Mayer; "The First Overland Mail," By Armstrong Sperry; "Pocahontas and Captain John Smith" by Marie Lawson; "Hawaii, Gem of the Pacific" by Oscar Lewis; "Mr. Bell Invents the Telephone" by Katherine B. Shippen; "The P. B. I." by Quentin Reynolds and several others.

Also new in the Library is "Uranium, the World's Expanding Frontier" by Dr. Armand Eardley. This is a fifteen year forecast; the future of Uranium; its economic stability; Uranium in industry; how to judge your stock and complete answers to all logical questions about Uranium.

Thirty-eight attended story hour Saturday morning. Mrs. Kinder Farris entertained the children with stories and songs. She was assisted by Mrs. J. D. McBrien.

In spite of the rain Tuesday morning, a large crowd attended both clubs at the Library. The Junior Book Review Club heard Mrs. H. F. Jackson with a very interesting program on Birds. The Hobby Club enjoyed a travel film shown by Mrs. Hershel Carthel of Lockney.

★★★ FIELD NEWS

Lighthouse Electric Cooperative, Inc., Nancy Morckel and Claude Weathersbee Electrification Advisers.

Summertime! Everybody rushing around! Everybody going someplace! Melvin Henry called my attention to the following story "Silence Over The Alamo" in the leaflet "Safely Speaking," a news release for publication by Employers Mutuals of Wausau.

Was the finest Davey Crockett on the local frontier — so all the kids in his neighborhood said.

Staunch and steady-eyed, he wore his coonskin cap with a certain dignity you couldn't put into words — so his mother said.

Aggressive, a natural leader, he'd have gone on to "patch up another crack in the Liberty Bell" — so his father said.

"Killed a b'ar at three" — and killed by a car at four — so his hometown paper said.

It was a last-ditch stand at the "Alamo." Davey was going to add a bright new page to history. He'd slipped unseemly out of the besieged fort, stole a horse and dashed gallantly off for reinforcements. But he had a dangerous frontier to cross on his desperate ride — the highway through his town.

He should have pulled up on those imaginary reins and looked both ways — sure. He was old enough to remember. Or was he? When your friends are dropping one by one in the midst of frantic gun-smoke, you've got to get there with help, before it's too late! There's a lot of excitement surging through your brain!

So Davey slipped up — because it's human to slip up occasionally. After all, the driver was a grown-up and slipped up too. A vacationist, he had many miles to go before sundown, and the many long miles he'd already ticked off had battered and dulled his alertness. He wasn't wasting any time getting through that town. His eyes were staring straight ahead in that unseeing trance that sometimes comes when you grind out too much mileage without a break.

But there was no vacation for that driver; there will never be a real vacation for him again. Between his eyes and every mountain range,

Imagine man in his modern home. It was electrically wired when built. Attached to one end of those wires is a dynamo to the other end appliances. Between the two flows a continuous electrical current. A continuity flow thru a continuity of matter equals a continuity of function. (A universal law)

Now imagine mans human home. His brain is his dynamo. His nerves are his wires. The cells of his body make up his appliances such as muscles, blood, stomach, kidneys spleen, pancreas, and etc. His human "dynamo" began running during embryonic life. It will continue to run until he dies. His "dynamo" generates, his "wires" transmit, his "appliances" perform all necessary human function, providing current flows from brain to body. Between brain and body cells flows a continuous current via the nerves to perform all functions of life, if it can get from one to another.

Interrupt this continuity of flow and some part of function fails. For you it may show up as stomach trouble, for your neighbor it may show up as sciatica.

Sick man who needs health needs only to locate and correct interruption of this continuity. Nothing miraculous about that. It follows a natural law.

This is exactly what chiropractic does. This is also what we did for patient who came to our clinic, Case No. 158. He came in complaining with shoulder and elbow pains, irregular bowel movements, sinus and headaches.

Our complete spinal analysis including spinal precision xray showed an interruption of this continuity. After a brief period of chiropractic care, this case has regained his health, thanks to a simple but solid principle and law.

You have but one life. Enjoy it with a maximum of health. Its fun to be healthy.

What lies ahead in health to the sick is beyond the belief of any of us.

every stretch of blue water, every view of beauty and pleasure will forever flutter a haunting vision—the tail of a certain coonskin cap, jouncing in an excited run that ended beneath the wheels of his car. So the Alamo story didn't end in triumph, as Davey planned; it ended in the bitter silence of defeat.

And the silence still spreads its gloom over the lives of Davey's friends and family — and over the life of one who tried so hard to save a few miserably hours for himself, that he destroyed the lifetime of another.

Mary Jane McCaffree, Secretary to Mrs. Eisenhower said, "The First Lady has asked me to write and thank you for sending her 'Cook Book' Number Two. She has already found many delightful recipes and is looking forward to trying a number of them." She also said, "This little note carries with it Mrs. Eisenhower's best wishes to each one of you."

recipes sound like they will turn into delectable dishes, and I hope she will hurry and try some of them out. We are honored and pleased to have the recipes which we sent printed in the publication."

Herb Boddy, REA, Washington, D. C. said, "Your new Cook book edition is one of the very best I have seen. It would seem that this cookbook might well serve as a model for other cooperatives — no question about it a wonderful job has been done."

Mrs. Ancher Nelson (Mr. Nelson is REA Administrator, Washington, D. C.) said in her letter — "Thank you so much for sending me a copy of your new cook book. Please extend my thanks to each of the ladies on the committee. The book is so well planned and the recipes so easy to read, I am very anxious to try many of them. Will you please send me another copy either C. O. D. or with bill attached — a friend here would like so much to have a copy."

Fern Brannen, Home Economist with Southwestern Public Service Co. I'm sure it will be worn out sooner than any of my other books from so much use — Thanks, it's wonderful."
