

Attend Summer F. B. Institute

The Texas Farm Bureau as an experiment this year, resulting from popular demand, held two leadership training institutes. The first, at the spring institute, was held March 13 through 16 at the Gunter Hotel, in San Antonio. The second, to be known as the summer institute, was held July 31 through August 3 at Baker Hotel in Mineral Wells.

Those attending the summer institute were Joyce Dell Hammonds Floyd County Farm Bureau Queen, Mrs. C. T. Hammonds, Glenn F. White and Ella White, assistant office secretary.

Courses offered were, "Farm Bureau Information Program," toward building a larger and stronger organization, and toward enlightening the general public on problems confronting agriculture.

"History and Philosophy of Farm Bureau" was organized to represent, speak for, and enable farmers to work together on a broad National front in solving their problems.

"Parliamentary Procedures" is a code of ethics for working together. Procedures for policy development, and policy execution through the county, state and national levels and the techniques used on a state and national basis for an effective legislative program.

"Recreational Activities" deals with social programs and getting members to participate in recreational activities at the community and county level.

At the banquet August 3, J. Walter Hammond, president of the Texas Farm Bureau, presented certificates to one hundred and sixty four students, attending the institute.

Fairview News

(by Mrs. Clyde Bagwell)
FAIRVIEW, August 8—Our community missed the good rain that fell south and west of us Friday of last week. Just a sprinkle fell here in the southwest portion. However in the extreme east portion of the community Friday they received a good shower and Sunday night a fourth of an inch was received at the Chill McClure place and also at the irrigated farm operation by Dean Walls. Our heartfelt sympathy goes out to Mrs. E. W. Walls and her relatives in the loss of her brother, Percy, whose death occurred last Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock in St. Anthony's Hospital in Oklahoma City. Mr. Percy's home was in Hutchinson, Kan., and he had been taken to Oklahoma City for a check up after suddenly becoming ill two days before his death. Mrs. E. W. Walls, Mrs. D. D. Tate, Mrs. J. T. Jarboe and Mrs. Lena Myers, four sisters of the deceased, went to Oklahoma at once after hearing of his illness on Tuesday of last week. Mr. Percy had celebrated his 50th birthday at the family reunion in June. Other relatives from this vicinity attending the funeral on Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Hahn, Cook Funeral Home in Oklahoma City were E. W. Walls, D. D. Tate, Doyle Walls and Mrs. Don Reecer. The above named returned home Friday night and the four sisters returned home Sunday evening. Mrs. Myers will spend a week here with her sisters before returning to Ruidoso, N. M., where she is spending the summer. Mrs. W. T. Branson celebrated her 80th birthday Sunday in Peoples Hospital where she is a patient. Her daughter, Mrs. Lena Yearly of Childress, came up Saturday afternoon and stayed until Sunday morning. Several friends called Saturday and Sunday to see Mrs. Branson.

Richard Todd and Jean Peters are obviously very much in love in this scene from "A Man Called Peter" in CinemaScope and color by De Luxe from Twentieth Century-Fox, starting Sunday at Palace Theatre.

Her grandson, C. T. Yearly of Lubbock, visited her Wednesday afternoon. R. A. Dobbs of Houston came Friday to spend an indefinite time here with his daughter and family. Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Tackett, Sunday visitors in the Tackett home were their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Ellison of Crosbyton. On Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Galet Holland of Matador visited Mr. and Mrs. Tackett. Mrs. Bill Williams and son Mike of Clovis, N. M., came Thursday to spend a week with her sister, Mrs. Clifford Helms and family. Judy Wilson and Nona Dell Wise visited the Burton children Sunday. Mrs. John Crowley east of Floydada spent Monday with Mrs. Lee Burgett. Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hopkins and sons of Ralls came by for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Baxter. The Hopkins' were on their way to Red River to spend their vacation. Monday visitors in the W. W. Baxter home were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Provent of Memphis, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Baker and son Jack and Mr. and Mrs. Ford Lane all of Oton. Mrs. Cecil Payne and C. J. made a business trip to Lubbock last Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Payne went to Floydada Sunday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Lotspiech and his mother, Mrs. W. W. Payne. Mrs. Cecil Payne went back to Floydada Sunday night to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lotspiech to meet her aunt, Mrs. J. S. Whatley of Strawn. She visited here for awhile before going to Oton to see her son. Sunday visitors in the Jim Stewart home were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Horton, her sister, Mrs. Walter Welch and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Stafford, cousins of Mrs. Stewart, all of Plainview. Mrs. Lee Burgett returned home last Thursday from Corpus Christi and Gregory where she had been for 10 days visiting her brother G. A. Moore and family. Mrs. Owen Long and children of Pampa spent last week here visiting relatives. LIBRARY NEWS

(by Mrs. Lee C. Goughly)
 Anyone who is unable to visit the library, but would desire a book to read, may call 1061 and give us your request. The book will be delivered to you Saturday morning between 9 and 11 o'clock by the "Books on Bikes" club. This service offered by the library will be given every Saturday morning by a group of reliable boys and girls who have passed the required test to be a member of the "Books on Bikes" club. While delivering books, all club members will be wearing blue jeans and white shirts. They will also wear blue caps with white lettering "Floyd County Library." When you see these boys and girls on their bikes Saturday morning, you will know that they are rendering a free service to people who are unable to come to the library. These boys and girls have passed the Safety Rules Test for bicycle riding, but we are requesting that you be on the look out for their safety while you are driving your cars. Just arrived today is Walt Disney's "Vanishing Prairie" which contains many colored photographs as well as drawings throughout the book by Campbell Grant. Disney says, "We present this true-life adventure, 'Vanishing Prairie,' as a parallel to a great era in American human history, the settlement of the west." We are happy to have Dorothy back, and she reports that she had a fine vacation. There was an excellent turn out for both clubs Tuesday morning. Mrs. G. W. Smith presented the program for the Hobby Club. She supplied each member with copper and other necessary material, and the results were very clever as well as pretty. The finished product was ear-screens. In the Junior Book Review Club Mrs. Doris Drysdale covered everything in the field of airplanes, ships and trains. You have to be pretty good to answer all the questions those boys and girls can ask, but Mrs. Drysdale was prepared. The children left giving all kinds of "strange signals" used in the air on water and tracks. Thanks to Mrs. Jimmy Willson and the Harmony Home Demonstration Club for furnishing candy bar refreshments to 80 children that attended the clubs. Both clubs will meet again next Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock in the library. Mrs. Carl Minor Jr. was story teller for the Saturday Morning Story Hour. Mrs. Sam Green served refreshments to about twenty kiddies. MEMORIAL BOOKS Given by — Mr. and Mrs. Lorin

County Officers' Salaries. With the approach of budget days in the annals of local taxing bodies, one of the problems with which the Commissioners Court will wrestle, it is assumed, is the matter of county officials' salaries. The state legislature passed a law at their last session in regard to this matter that becomes effective September 6. The effort of the law-makers was to put equity in the laws governing salaries of county officials. The law the legislature actually voted upon was not the one which was engrossed and sent to the governor for his signature. The sponsors of the bill found this out only after a clerical error had been made that could not be undone. It is the law anyhow, according to common report. This law gives a new, larger salary limit for all officials including the commissioners. What the commissioners are thinking and what they will do is yet to be learned. The county judge is the budgeting officer and will have the job of making recommendations to the court. In view of the close-run general fund income there is likely to be some head-scratching before the final figures are made, in case there are any upward boosts in the salaries of the officials.

Speaking of budgets, cities and school districts also have a duty in this respect. The adoption of a budget and a public hearing thereon is enjoined upon all taxing bodies. So far as schools are concerned perhaps this duty may not be too important since the state board of education scrutinizes the school district budget and goes through it with a fine comb. But in the city affairs the council is on its own. About the only protection a councilman has in the case of run-away expenses is that he had the advice and council, (or asked for it at least) of the taxpayers and citizens of the community. Floydada citizens are demanding much of their city management—too much, probably. The council is going to have to begin saying "no" we are sure. If they have the backing of enough of the citizens who are cognizant of the city's problems the task will be made easier.

A campaign designed to allay the fears of the mothers and fathers as to the use of Salk vaccine as a preventative of poliomyelitis has been started by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. The hue and cry of the period following the first vaccinations for first and second graders caused quite a bit of doubt to arise, doubt whether or not the vaccine had been safe-guarded in its course through the laboratories. As the effectiveness of the preventative continues to be proven and lack of harmful effects are demonstrated the doubting portion of the public will again take hold of the idea and use it. Almost identical situations arose in connection with smallpox and typhoid antibodies when they were introduced. In the not too distant future the shots for infantile paralysis will be taken as casually as are the many other preventive inoculations in general use.

Much different circumstances surround the vaccine inoculant research than the typhoid and smallpox hunt made by pioneer physicians and scientists. These pioneers had to work against the attitude and superstitions of the public. In this latter day people have a "shot" will be found as a cure for any of the ails that may attack the human body. Not even cancer and heart disease are left out of this category in many minds. For instance, if a shot that contained a solvent for the "corrosion" that builds up in the arteries of the human body, these point out that nearly half of the "heart trouble" you read about in papers would be cured by the hypodermic needle. About the only complaint we have heard as regards the poliomyelitis inoculating program comes from people who have donated to the polio research funds for several years, who now think the shots should come free to donors. If this idea should prevail, of course, there would be a "government" agency or bureau set up and you'd have to sit in line for one more thing until the man behind the desk got back from his vacation and got his pencil behind his ear. You would guess from that we would oppose a "free" program for polio inoculations, which we do, with local provision for indigents.

Is This Appeasement? The bandits from Red China and the American ambassadors, with French and English representatives sitting in, have been holding their "conferences" in Geneva, to us a dangerous procedure. But we are inclined to think the high men in the administration realize they must "appease" the people here at home who want peace in their time and are willing for the next generation to pay any price for it. It seems to us that especially the good people have this attitude. It appears they think you can talk sweetness and light to a murderer. For instance, in the talks now going on at Geneva the only thing we ask for, so it is said, on our side, is the release of the Americans being held captive, except that we may sound them out on a cease-fire on Formosa, where no firing is going on. The Reds, on the other hand, may bring up any subject they desire, including their yen for Formosa, a seat on the United Nations and the Security Council. The president knows more about all of this than anybody, of course. Perhaps he looks at it this way, that he can make the people here at home happy who want peace above all else, and serve America's purpose better at the same time by letting the Reds have all the rope they want to hang themselves. And he may know he can do it that way, because he "leads" from strength. We can only hope his "ambassadors" do not fall into the trap of making promises subrosa, which the people find out about 10 years later, and have to live up to.

Local initiative, interest and enterprise form the foundation for a proposed plan aimed at helping low-income families find ways to improve their level of living.

Mahon On Trip To Finland And Foreign Bases

Congressman George Mahon left Washington last week to attend a meeting in Finland and have a look at the Military Public Works Program. He is a delegate to the Interparliamentary Union which meets in Helsinki, Finland, on August 24. This is a meeting of representatives of Congress and Parliaments of many of the countries of the world. Delegates are expected from 29 nations, including Russia. Mahon said he did not know whether the meetings would be worth-while or not, but he would like to attend and get the feel of the world situation. He will serve on the Committee on World Disarmament. Mahon handles all appropriation bills in the House of Representatives for our armed forces. This included, during the session just closed, the 31-billion-dollar defense bill and the military public works bill. Is Getting Skeptical In the public works measure a large sum was included for the continuation of the construction of U. S. military bases overseas. Upon Mahon's insistence several million dollars were stricken from the bill for "Additional new bases in Spain, England and France." "I think our overseas bases have been a great deterrent to war, but I am getting more and more skeptical of this program, particularly from a long-range viewpoint, and I have grave doubts that it should be expanded. The whole program of our having American bases and troops in sovereign countries abroad rests upon a rather shaky foundation. I plan to visit a number of the bases and confer with our own people and citizens and officials of other countries," Mahon said. Mrs. Mahon will accompany Mr. Mahon to Finland and on a portion of the remainder of the trip, not at government expense.

Mrs. John Kizer and children of Lubbock were guests last week of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Maggie Daniel.

Wiggins Vows Taken

Wedding at Methodist Church

At a ceremony last night, the bride, read the vows in the First Methodist Church of Floydada, before an arch bank of candelabra with packs of emerald and wood-ward fern alternating.

The arch was covered with green and centered with a white candelabra. The floor was covered with a light-colored carpet. The bride wore a gown of white tulle with a full skirt and a long train. Her hair was styled in waves and she wore a large veil. The groom wore a dark suit and a white shirt with a bow tie.

Miss Anita Powers, organist of the church, played traditional wedding music. Bill Cormack of Amarillo sang "The Lord's Prayer" and Myrtle Wilson recited the poem "Love" by Roy Croft. Miss Powers played the organ during the ceremony.

Miss Moss, maid of honor, and Miss Judith Moss, bridesmaid, were Miss Barbara Marr and Miss Rozetta Wiggins, sister of the bride. The bridesmaids wore dresses of white tulle with long sleeves and full skirts. They had matching headpieces accented with a crown of pearls. The bride carried a white lace bag with a gold tassel. The groom carried a blue book. The ceremony was officiated by Rev. W. A. Shaw.

The bride wore in marriage by her grandfather, W. A. Shaw, was a gown of an original model of white imported French lace over satin. It was designed with portrait neckline outlines with elaborate applique of lace embroidered with iridescent sequins and seed pearls. The fitted bodice had long sleeves ending in points over the hands and a princess panel extending full length of dress at center front.

Joining this is a voluminous skirt. Made with shirred fullness and stiffened lower edge, the fullness of lace and satin sweeps into a long and graceful train at back and is worn over hoops and crinoline to emphasize fullness.

MRS. JOHN DAVID WIGGINS

After the wedding trip to Ruidoso, N. M., the couple will be at home in Lubbock. Mrs. Wiggins was a graduate from Floydada High School with the class of '53 and is a junior at Texas Tech College. The bridegroom graduated from Hobbs High School and will be a senior this fall at Texas Tech. He will also be director of the Idaho High School band this coming year.

Wedding Party Has Rehearsal Dinner

A lovely dinner was served in the coffee shop of the Commercial Hotel Wednesday, August 3, by Mrs. Glee Thomas, honoring the members of the wedding party of her daughter, Beverly, bride-elect of David Wiggins.

Immediately following the dinner, the party went to the First Methodist Church for a rehearsal.

Freezing is both a simple and an easy way of preserving food at home. When you have a food freezer your garden vegetables and the fruit from your orchard are always in season. Now is the time to take stock of your freezer and make plans for replacements.

Mrs. George E. Rigby of Pictown, New Mexico, visited last week with her nephew, Melvin Henry and his family. While at the co-op office the other morning Mrs. Rigby gave us one of her favorite cake recipes—
One-Egg Surprise Cake:
1 cup sugar

1/2 cup shortening
1 cup sour milk
1 teaspoon soda
1 egg
1 1/2 to 2 cups flour
salt and flavoring.
She says this is just a good basic recipe — one that may be varied in many ways.

John Nay spent last Friday, Saturday and Sunday at the Methodist Retreat at Ceta Canyon. He reports a wonderful time.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Aylesworth of Dumas spent the week-end with her parents Judge and Mrs. W. E. Grimes and her brother Bert.

REMEMBER! Your food freezer may be compared to a grocery — one that gives free delivery service, stocks the finest of foods, remains open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Its most economical operation is reached when full capacity is replaced at least three times during the year.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Cope of Plainview spent Sunday with the Pete Hickerson's and other relatives in Floydada.

Wanda Hickerson, one of the Youth Sponsors at the Methodist Church here said the youth revival closed Sunday morning. It was a wonderful service. James Glasscock of Wellington was the preacher and they are hoping he can be with them for this service again next year.

Luther Moore, his son and two daughters of Commerce, Texas, spent Sunday night here with his brother D. M. Moore and Mrs. Moore.

Don't forget that freezing is the best method of home food preservation at this time.

SUPERIOR PERFORMANCE—The Strato-Streak V-8, too, sets this car apart from any other. It is the industry's most modern engine—filled with "firsts" that pay off in 200-horsepower* action and the greatest thrift in Pontiac history.
SUPERIOR SIZE—There's 124 or 122 inches of road-leveling wheelbase under Pontiac's spacious Body by Fisher. And that means a solid sense of security not surpassed by any car.
SUPERIOR HANDLING EASE—There's extra security, too, in the lightning response of Pontiac's brakes, steering and acceleration. Even parking is a pleasure with action like this.

SUPERIOR COMFORT—What's your idea on this score? Big, soft seats? Ample shoulder and leg room? A cushioned ride? Regal luxury? That's Pontiac comfort and it won't be topped by anything on the road.
Yet a Pontiac fits any new-car budget! Find out how little it takes to join the swing to Pontiac.

For something blue she wore a blue garter and borrowed her gloves from an aunt, Mrs. Terry Lee Harvey of Muleshoe. For good luck she wore a penny in her shoe with the year of her birth, given to her by an aunt, Mrs. Calvin Poteet.

Attending as maid-of-honor was Miss Sammie Copeland and bridesmaids were Miss Naomi Allen and Miss Margie Houston. Their dresses were in pastel colors of ballerina length nylon over taffeta and they carried bouquets of red rosebuds.

Dennis Taylor served as best man, Ushers were Norman Brints, brother of the bride and John Taylor.

After the ceremony a reception was given in honor of the couple at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Poteet. The table was laid with a white lace cloth and centered with a garland of red rose buds.

Miss Barbara Nell Poteet served the three tiered wedding cake and Mrs. Lavern McCarty of Lockney poured tea and coffee from the china service. Miss Ann Hickerson presided at the bride's register.

For a wedding trip to Colorado the bride chose a navy blue linen suit with pink accessories.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES GLENN BELL

We heard a grandmother say to her neighbor, "The children worry me to come over to see you until I have to give in. You must go all out to entertain them." As a matter of fact, the neighbors usually keep right on doing whatever they're doing, but include the children in the conversation about it.

If the man is painting his house, or spading up a flowerbed, he talks about what he's doing in such a way that the children become interested too. If it's something they can share in doing, he sets them to work by his side. If they go in the house, and ask to write on the typewriter, or manicure nails, or dust furniture, a time limit is set so it continues to be a privilege.

Everyone, regardless of age, likes to be thought of as an individual and treated like one. We have a friend half-past middle age whom everyone considers "an interesting woman." She has a knack for including each person in the room in her list of things to talk about. To oldsters she talks about eyesight, arthritis, food, insomnia — whatever their interest may be. If it's someone younger than herself, she pays flattering deference to that. A youngster of school age is asked questions in such a way as to imply that he's naturally an authority on certain topics. She remembers people's hobbies and never fails to give them a chance to display special knowledge.

Courtesy and kindness are ageless. The person who remembers this will find pleasure in more people than if she sticks to her own generation for all contacts — not to mention how many more friends she'll have who like to be with her.

STUNTING INSECT GROWTH

Still another new weapon is being perfected in man's continual war against harmful insects. Texas and U.S.D.A. entomologists are studying effects of chemicals which inhibit the normal development of insects by slowing down their growing processes. This is a new and unique approach which shows early chances of success. These chemicals, which are proving effective in many instances where insecticides have failed, work in various ways. Some, such as colchicine and aminopterin, prevent cell division and growth. Another, sulfanilamide — one of the wonder drugs — slows down an insect's metabolism.

leads act as insecticides, which are almost immediately deadly to insects. But in some instances, the larvae-to-adult development period is being extended so as to prevent maturity.

One of the most interesting of these experiments concerns the development of the house fly. Some flies have a resistance to DDT. Against others, the insecticide is still effective.

Experiments have proved that in the cases of the DDT-resistant flies, the growth-stunting chemicals are more effective than with those flies that are non-resistant. Therefore, stunting chemicals pick up where DDT leaves off. The chemical used in these fly larvae-development tests, is piperonyl butoxide, a non-toxic com-found which appears to be on the most promising of all. It is similar to other insecticides, but indicates that larvae development can be markedly reduced. In the case of DDT-resistant flies, only 3 percent of the resistant flies became fully developed whereas 16 per cent of the normal flies survived.

Woman Injured at Lockney In July, Improves

LOCKNEY — Mrs. Mary Frances Lemons, critically injured when a car in which she was riding ramed into a freight train on the F.W.D. tracks in northeast Lockney July 27, is slowly improving in the Plaquemine Hospital, relatives report.

Mrs. Lemons, 33, suffered a severe head injury and lost her left foot in the accident.

Mrs. Lemons was in surgery three days after the accident. Physicians say that because her feet and legs are swollen and that she would likely lose her right foot, badly mangled in the accident. The head injury was also serious.

Her husband, Donald, 37, was traveling north on Farm Highway 100 to Lone Star, the driver failed to see the freight train as it approached the crossing.

The engine crossed the highway just ahead of the car and the car rammed into the engine about midway. Mrs. Lemons was thrown out of the car and partially under the train.

lawyer and contractor was named to head a 12-member executive committee. A legal committee will study legislative proposals.

Areas of study suggested by the governor:

1. What to do about present compulsory attendance and compulsory segregation laws.
2. Whether either white or colored children can be forced to attend a school, or integrated, against their will.
3. Ways and means of giving maximum authority to local school districts.

Polio Vaccine Allocated

Children under 10 and expectant mothers have been notified of the Texas supply of commercial vaccine.

Such preference was recommended by the State Polio Vaccine Committee. Dr. Henry Holle, state health commissioner, called the group to decide how the 36,500 vaccine doses released to Texas should be used.

Recommended use was split, 83 per cent commercially and 17 per cent for public purposes.

Agencies were notified to begin through the state health department.

Nationally, it has been suggested preference be given to children. Basis for the charge is that records shown 44 per cent of polio last year were children under 5.

Through the state health committee has no official position, it anticipated no difficulty in getting cooperation. Its nine members represent top officials and leaders in the medical, pharmaceutical and osteopathic profession.

Senterfitt Chooses Chairman

Reuben Senterfitt last week announced that a fellow San Juan, Kelly Owen, will direct his campaign for governor.

Owen will have his first political experience when Senterfitt's 22-member steering committee meets in Austin August 17.

Leasing Program Clean

Multi-million dollar public school land leasing operations reported to be not involved in Texas land scandal.

State Land Commissioner J. Earl Rudder testified last week he had found no evidence of school land irregularities.

Rudder's testimony was in the mid-up of a contract inquiry begun in April. It was conducted by the Attorney General's Department.

Emphasis has been on land office activities other than the veterans program. Multiple investigation in the latter area resulted in 319 indictments and conviction of Former Land Commissioner Bascom Giles.

Rudder said he will be sending files of questionable veterans land transactions to district attorneys.

Other witnesses told of land in Mexico traded under the veterans program, and of questionable block deals in Maverick County.

Investigations of these stories was begun immediately by the Attorney General's Department.

Giles Jury Cost Extra

An asterisk to the Bascom Giles theft trial, Travis County has a bill for $542.20.

This was the cost of putting jury-men in air-conditioned hotel rooms. One juror had become ill from stifling courthouse dormitory heat threatening a mis-trial.

Plans for courthouse air conditioning have since been initiated.

Water Mobilization Urged

Mobilization in a "battle for survival" against water shortage is urged by State Senator Dorsey B. Hardeman of San Angelo.

Hardeman heads the Texas Water Resources Committee which met last week to review water conservation efforts by the recent legislature.

He recommended farm and business interests and local leaders organize to make Texans water conscious.

Recommendations for future government action will be in the committee's biennial report Sept. 1.

Construction Record Set

Estimated value of construction in Texas hit an all-time peak the first half of 1955. It promoted prediction for a new overall business record this year from the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research. Only a severe decline, said the team experts, could bring down the average — 12 per cent higher than 1954.
