vealed a most interesting section of the world.

And also, was it not our own Commodore Stephen Decatur, at the time when Aboussouf and Tripoli became a rendezvous for cruel pirates, who made a bold entrance into the harbor of Algiers? He was able to secure for the day the reputation of all tribute forever. Twenty-five years later, Algeria was flying the tricolor of France.

The French regard Algeria a part of France, perhaps as we do Alaska with its large Eskimo population, and the Hawaiian Islands.

As one travels around North Africa with its huge Arab population, one realizes how much France has not only improved the means of transportation, but also the educational facilities and the hospitals.

However, the Moslem women are to be reckoned with. These women do not go to public places with their husbands. Some are occasionally seen out walking with him—the man in the front and the favorite wife just behind him. It was said that during the war the man placed the woman in the front.

Algiers has been called the City of Romance. It is a dazzling city with its white Byzantine church domes and minarets, and in the distance snow covered peaks above the green of the nearby hills. No wonder the Arabs called their city "A diamond set in an Emerald Frame."

The Arab is prejudiced against education for women, accepting the old Arabian proverb "Women religion and the intelligence of the woman is her beauty."

The typical Arab woman is professedly in weaving and cooking and often prepares the husband's meals herself, although eating her own meals later.

There are more harems in Tunis than in Algiers. One notices quite a difference between the well-to-do and the poorer class of society. Those of the wealthier class, although veiled, ride around in heavily curtained carriages while the others, veiled also, go to market carrying heavy baskets.

These women love jewelry and often frequent the Street of the ARMY SNOWMEN—U.S. Army infantrymen, dressed in white parkas and gloves, the latest in camouflaged arctic outer-clothing, man a light machine-gun outpost in defense of the early approach area to the United States, the Alaska Command.

Girls marry at a very early age, and sometimes do not see their prospective husbands before the end of the seven-day marriage ceremony. As for the honeymoon—the husband sometimes takes a trip, the wife remaining at home.

Arab men are known to be ardent lovers and loving adventure also, (although he has four wives) steps out occasionally; and then according to the Koran, he is allowed a reserve quarter in his home to satisfy his desire for romance and adventure.

Divorce is frequent and easy to obtain. Arab widows do not, as a rule, have an easy life. Sometimes they become dancing girls in the demimonde quarter.

The women of the desert, or those of the Berber mountains have a much harder life than those of the cities.

Tunis, leading city of Tunisia, is really a "Gem in a perfect setting." Not long after arriving there, I wrote a letter to an American friend, like this: "If you want a beautiful, comfortable place to spend some winter months, visit this section of the world and live in the modern part of the French city of Tunis at the Tunisian Palace Hotel, and for diversion sometimes visit the Souks, or the Arab section of the city.

Are the Moslem Women happy? The more prosperous the husbands are the more secluded are the veiled wives.

And perhaps these Moslem women do hold a peculiar and significant place in the colonial troubles are defective in understanding and of France. No doubt the liberal policy years ago of Premier Bloom in Tunisia will have an effect on North African peace.

South Plains News

(By Mrs. Murray Julian)

SOUTH PLAINS, Nov. 21 — With beautiful weather as we have had this Saturday and Sunday, it is hard to believe much of our country is shivering under blankets of snow. Farmers are working every daylight hour these days trying to get their cotton and grain from fields before winter strikes here. Most of them are using cotton strippers in the fields now. A good many will spend Thanksgiving at home working hard to get in the harvest while the days are fair.

Mission Band Leads Worship
Nineteen members of the Wayland Volunteer Mission Band from Plainview were here at the Baptist Church in charge of the services on Sunday.

Tommy Jones spoke on The Parable of the Sower, in the morning message. Norma Corbin was at the piano, and Darrel Walser led the singing.

Bobby Lacey, Margaret Hartley, David Hartman, Delbert Serratt, Barbara Evans and Shirley Ellis made up the group who in Training Union told The Story of the Cross. The Young Married Couples Sunday School Class were hosts at noon to all the band members, and their own families at the school house, and during the afternoon the band members were at the parsonage, where at the evening meal, Rev. and Mrs. Larry Faus served assisted by Mrs. Frank McClure.

Everyone thoroughly enjoyed the program for the day, with the gospel message they brought, and the wonderful music and singing.

Jewell, Wanda, and Violet Haggard, from Lockney, were visitors in the Grigsby Milton home on Sunday afternoon, the guests of Donita Milton.

UT Tests Slatd
High School seniors with a University of Texas career in mind will find a good vocabulary, logical mind and number sense helpful in taking the scheduled aptitude tests.

Tests may be taken in 42 Texas cities on three dates — Feb. 4, May 12 and Aug. 10.
Dr. H. T. Manuel, director of the University Testing and Guidance Bureau, said that, as a general rule, a student can be confident of his ability to succeed with university work if he is in the upper three-fifths of his high school class and makes a score of 75 or more on the aptitude test. Most of those applying for entrance would be admitted, he said.

The tests are designed to measure two very general abilities in academic work. First is the ability to work with words and to understand their meanings. Second is the ability to work with numbers and to solve problems. Scores on the required tests will not be the only basis for admission, Dr. Manuel added. All test scores will be kept confidential.

Giles Appeals Pending
Former Land Commr. Bascom Giles can count on at least 2 1/2 months more of freedom.

Both Giles' convictions in land scandal trials have been appealed to the Court of Criminal Appeals. Formal submission to the Austin court is set for Jan. 18.
A six-year sentence imposed in San Antonio was appealed and is expected to come before the court about Jan. 25 or Feb. 1.

Legislative Council Posts Filed
Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey announced committee assignments at the first meeting of the new Legislative Council.

Serving on the executive committee with Ramsey and House Speaker Jim Lindsey will be Sen. Abraham Kazen of Laredo and Reps. Obie Bratow of Big Spring and W. G. Kirkin of Odessa.
Studying finances will be Sens. Neveille Colson of Navasota and Gus Strauss of Hallettsville, Reps. E. F. Crim of Henderson, W. S. Healy Jr. of Paducah and Pearce Johnson of Austin.
On the subject matter committee are Sens. Roger Kelley of Edinburg, George Moffett of Chillicothe, Reps.

Tom King of Dallas, Gus Garrett of Raymondville, James W. Yancy Jr. of Houston, Ben A. Gising of Kingsville and Joe Burkett of Kerrville.

Historical Committees Organizing
Every county in Texas is being asked by the State Historical Survey Committee, to set up a County Committee, announced HSC director George W. Hill of Austin.

The state committee was authorized by the 1953 Legislature to "study the subjects of preservation and dissemination of the records of Texas and Texans."
County judges, with other officials, have been asked to appoint committees for their counties.

Should Be Simple - But
On Sept. 6 the fee for driver's license renewal was increased to $2. All summer, however, Texans kept jumping the gun and sending in the larger fee. Patiently, the Department of Public Safety sent back the over-payments.

Now, however, the new law is in force — and guess what. The DPS is busy writing Texas drivers asking for more money. Many of them are sending in the old $1 fee.

Heart Disease Was Number 1 Killer in 1954

AUSTIN — Heart disease is the number one killer in Texas and last year there were 29,191 deaths from diseases of the heart, said Dr. Henry A. Holle, Commissioner of Health.

What kind of heart have you? The periodic check-up with your physician will tell you. The Tuberculosis Survey in the state conducted by the Texas State Department of Health has brought to light many non-tuberculous abnormalities, some of these have been heart conditions.

Three frequent types of heart trouble are: coronary heart disease, hypertensive heart disease, and rheumatic heart disease.

Coronary heart disease is the chief killer and is a disease of the arteries which supply the heart muscle itself with blood. A majority of persons survive the first attack, and with good medical care, rest and common sense precautions, may even live a normal life span.

Another major cause of heart trouble is high blood pressure or hypertension. This is the most common heart disease of middle age. There is a great deal that is not known about this disease, but we do know that it is most common in people who are overweight, and that it is associated with long, continuous nervous strain, high tension and constant worry. Medical treatment of high blood pressure is fairly successful in many cases.

Rheumatic heart disease, the most common type of early life, occurs as the result of one or more attacks by the streptococcus germ. It is a public health problem for which much can be done in light of recent knowledge. Prophylactic use of penicillin when streptococcal infections are present will prevent heart involvement.

Syphilitic heart disease can be prevented by early and adequate care of the patient with syphilis. This problem has been simplified by the use of penicillin.
Research in the medical sciences is constantly improving the outlook for the cardiac patient, yet each individual must assume the responsibility for obtaining the benefits of this knowledge for himself and family.

VIEWS AND COMMENT

Thanksgiving Day Again! This is Thanksgiving day once more. Its recurrence reminds us that observance of it will be far different from the observance in America 335 years ago. Far from giving thanks for a full larder and the prospect of not being hungry and cold during the long winter days ahead, as did the first recorded Thanksgiving, we will be giving thanks instead for friends, kinsmen, for health and the chance to go ahead. And we will be giving whatever thought we do give it in between other things. Plenty to eat, a good bed to sleep in, a good home, modern living have become common. They are the ordinary things of life. But we can't find it in our hearts to condemn this surface carelessness too much. After all, our people are fine and good, they are the thanksgiving kind. We feel a bit of squeamishness that Thanksgiving has grown into a holiday with only the trappings left of the original idea, but the trend is a part of the times in which we live.

Kansas egg specialists are running poultry yards to supply the Floyd County cotton and maize specialists with eggs for their tables. At least, they are furnishing a part of the supply. First it was the cream and butter business that went by the boards in this area, then milk. Now it's eggs. We wouldn't say for a minute that it isn't all right, although we doubt it. This is a day of specialists in every line. We would say, however, that anybody who lived here 15 years ago would have to rub his eyes and look again before he'd believe it possible.

Canadian River Water. It is heartening to note that the nine high plains towns left in the Canadian River Authority, voted heavily in favor of going ahead with their project. These communities bet on West Texas instead of "selling it short" as has become the order of the day in many communities. Realization of the dream of an ample supply of water for the communities affected can now be foreseen within five years or so, barring major setbacks.

"What do you mean by saying 'the county's lone (oil) well at Lakeview may some day have company'?" a customer writes; then proceeds to say "Located on Section No. 18, Block K in Southwest Floyd County is the Carmickle No. 1. This is said to be the best well in the county." At the moment we can't prove that we read it, but—we're definitely of the opinion that the last report on oil production in Texas, Floyd County was credited with one lonesome well. Unfortunately, for the purposes of this piece, we assumed, recently in the piece referred to, that the Carmickle well had been placed in the Petersburg group in Hale County. We are so used to the good things being taken away from Floyd County, either by vote, mandate or pencil work, we just accepted it that way.

Safe Driving Day . . . S-D . . . set for December 1 should be of special interest to rural families because motor vehicle accidents account for more than 40 percent of all accidental deaths of farm people.

Enthusiasm Does It. People who believe in things are those who get things done. A group that is really sold on a project has a way of firing the imaginations of their neighbors. Presto, accomplishment. As for instance Floyd County Free Library. A few people "walked a million miles," interviewed people everywhere they went. Now Floyd County Library is a reality. It is on the way with a realistic outlook, budget balanced, wheels turning. On the other hand the scores who permit their names to be placed on committees which never function, have no report to make at the appointed time, haven't given the matter any thought meanwhile, afford the best means of killing good ideas and putting on the brakes. Their numbers is legion. One wonders why they permit their names to be used when they have no idea of complying. But they do it, week in and week out.

Down Schott Cap. People of the flat Texas prairie lands have a complex on mountain driving, many of them do. They speak of the deep gorges and tall shoulders of mountains which they hug as they drive through the rough country. Rarely are there any who are in disasters. Apparently they expect what they run into and have minds conditioned for mountain travel. Not so, however, when they hit the steep hills and deep gorges right in their own neighborhood. At Schott Cap in pioneer days the homeseeker often ended an attempt at climbing the perilous trails with his wagon and team at the bottom of a gorge. Now that the highway is paved and the going perfect something about the terrain seems still to affect drivers and they wind up in the bottom of a gorge. Three or four accidents of that nature have been recorded in less than six months.

However, don't pass up a chance to drive down the escarpment in east Briscoe County, at Schott Cap. The scenery is terrific, the 10-mile jaunt from the plains to the lower country a succession of scenic beauty. All you have to do is stay in the road and on your side.

S-D Day December 1. Is it possible for everybody in the nation to drive safely for one day? Could there be any possibility that, with 58 million motor vehicles on the road, there would be such a thing as a perfect record for one 24 hours? It seems wholly improbable, but the President Committee for Traffic Safety is hoping that deaths and injury can be held very low for a 24-hour period. This to demonstrate to American drivers that they can substantially reduce the fatalities and economic loss by sensible driving. Safe driving should be the year-round rule, not the one-day exception. Apparently, though, it is too much to ask of us. We must have a presidential blessing and a high-powered educational effort to achieve reasonable conduct on the highways for even one day.

Exercise Sage Brush Is Huge Army Manuever

PORT POLK, La.—Army Pvt. Gentry L. Bryant Jr., whose wife, Pauline, lives at 110 S. Fifth St., Floydada, Tex., is participating in the largest joint Army-Air Force manuever since World War II, Exercise Sage Brush, in Louisiana.

The exercise will end Dec. 13. Private Bryant, whose father lives at 2013 Eighth St., Lubbock, is regularly stationed at Fort Carson, Colo., where he is a driver in Headquarters Company of the 8th Infantry Division's 61st Regiment. He entered the Army last February.

The 26-year-old soldier attended Big Spring High School and was employed at B. G. Brown & Company in Abilene in civilian life. Also participating in the giant manuever is Army Pfc Wendell W. Graham, son of Mrs. J. W. Graham, Dougherty, Tex.

Increase Seen In Mailing Of Packages Here

Acting Postmaster Wester announced today that there has been a steady increase in the flow of packages through the Post Office the past few days. He said he was glad to see that many people are getting their Christmas gifts for distant points into the mail this week pointing out that packages addressed to folks living in other states should all be mailed before December 5th and those for nearby points before December 10th.

Stressing the need for everyone to cooperate on his 1955 "Mail Early for Christmas" campaign, he says that by following these three simple rules, you're certain to have your gifts delivered before Christmas Day.

Wrap them securely. Address them correctly, and Mail them early. He went on to say, "Of course early mailing of all Christmas cards and gifts is a big factor in getting everything delivered before Christmas. Keep in mind that careful packing and correct addressing is equally important. Every year many poorly wrapped packages break open despite careful handling and we often have to puzzle over addresses which are incomplete or simply cannot be read at all."

prevent disappointment to sender and receiver alike.

"If you have any articles of unusual size or bulk, better check with the Post Office before attempting to mail them," the Postmaster warns. "The limits on size and weight of packages varies, depending on where you mail your package from."

Some Post Offices cannot accept packages that are more than 72 inches in combined length and girth, nor more than 20 pounds in weight. In the Floydada Office the limits are to 100 inches in combined length and girth and 70 pounds in weight.

It is always better to use corrugated cartons for shipping your gifts especially where there are a number of various sized objects. Use plenty of wadded tissue or newspaper in the cartons for extra protection against shock. Complete each package by wrapping in heavy paper and tying it with strong cord.

As an extra precaution against loss, Postmaster Wester advised placing both your return address and the recipient's address inside the carton or package before it is wrapped.

Don't seal your parcel unless you include a notice reading "Contents merchandise — may be opened for postal inspection" along with your return address and the recipient's address on the mailing label.

If you use Christmas stickers or seals put them on the back of your Christmas cards and packages so that they will not conflict with the address on the front. Before you release your packages be sure that proper postage is firmly affixed to each. This information can be obtained from another free publication, "Domestic Rates and Fees."

Your rights and privileges as an American citizen are protected by the Constitution, a unique and magnificent document whose principles are as sound today as when written, over 150 years ago.

Through the years, amendments have been added to keep the Constitution up-to-date.

The same is true of the regulatory powers of the Interstate Commerce Commission. Congress has enacted more than 150 amendments to the Interstate Commerce Act since it was passed in 1887, completely overhauling it twice.

In principle, present ICC regulations governing the various transportation systems are pertinent, constructive, and modern in concept. Under these principles, we have developed the greatest competitive transportation system in the world!

Demonstration Club News

Christmas party is to be in the home of Mrs. B. A. Robertson. The date will be announced later.

Club Meeting Held Friday Afternoon

The Sunnyside Home Demonstration Club met Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the reading room of the Floyd County Library.

As a guest arrived Mrs. Roy Curry, seated at the serving table, poured coffee and served. The table was laid with a blue cloth and was centered with a basket filled with fall fruit. Mrs. C. W. Denison and Mrs. S. J. Latta assisted Mrs. Curry.

Mrs. W. H. Bethel introduced Mrs. Ruby Brown who reviewed the book, "The China I Knew", a condensation from "My Several Worlds" by Pearl S. Buck.

The book is a stirring and emotional study in terms of peoples' lives, actual experiences, tragedy and love in China.

Those present were Meses. John T. Hopper, Kenneth Bain, Will Smith, C. W. Denison, Charles Pro-

Starkey Club Has All-Day Meeting

The Starkey Home Demonstration Club had an all day meeting in the home of Mrs. O. L. Lowrance Sr. on Friday, Nov. 4.

Demonstration Is Given By Agent

"An Apple a Day" was a demonstration given by Mrs. Harriette Brummett when the Dougherty Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. Howe Hines, Monday, Nov. 7, at 2:00 p. m.

The roll call was answered with "What I want for Christmas."

Mrs. Jack Ross, president was in charge. Mrs. Howe Hines, council delegate, gave the council report.

Everyone enjoyed the demonstration on an apple a day which consisted of apple bread, Danish apple pie, congealed apple salad. These were used as part of the refreshments with cookies and coffee served by Mrs. Hines.

Those present were Meses. Ned Bradley, Howard Drysdale, Tate Jones, John Lewis, Claude Ring, G. W. Smith and one guest, Mrs. Travis Jones.

The second November meeting was in the home of Mrs. Ned Bradley, Nov. 16.

Book Review Is Given

At this meeting Mrs. Howe Hines reviewed Anne Morrow Lindbergh's "Gifts from the Sea" for members and four guests, Mrs. J. T. Poole, Mrs. Bill Smith, Mrs. Mac Ward and Mrs. Robert Ward.

The auction sale was quite successful, also.

The club's Christmas dinner will be held at noon on Dec. 12 in the Bradley home. It will be a covered dish luncheon, when the husbands of the club members will be asked to "come as you are" to enjoy the occasion. The club party will follow.

Mrs. Henry Willis Is Club Hostess

Mrs. Henry Willis, Grover Street, Floydada, was hostess to the Center Home Demonstration Club Friday, Nov. 11.

In the absence of the president, the vice-president, Mrs. Willis called the house to order. Roll call was "My favorite magazine."

In the business meeting it was decided to postpone the sale because of threatened weather, or make money otherwise.

Mrs. Lee Goughly, county librarian, made an interesting talk on the library—its value, assets and needs, and brought along some samples. Among them was a volume of "The Interpreter's Bible," the club gave in memory of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Jordan. Mrs. Jordan, a charter member of Center Club and one of its most loyal and faithful members, passed to her reward since our last meeting (which was held in her home).

The food demonstration, "Three in one ice cream," was given by Mrs.

The Lord Giveth!

God lent him to me for my very own,
Let me become his mother, me alone!
Gave him to me not for an hour—for years!
('Tis gratefulness gleams in my eyes not tears')
No joy that mothers know but it was mine,
And mothering that laddie strong and fine.
Tirc 'fer time I said: 'Tis but a dream;
I shall wake to find things only seem.
Grand as they are. "Yet still he lingered on Till year on sweeter year had come and gone.
My heart filled forever with a song,
Because God let me have my lad so long.
He was my own I fully knew
And never could forget how deep and true
A mother's love for her son could be.
It drew me nearer God Himself;

Phone System Will Have New Numbers

Telephone users in Floydada are reminded in a letter broadcast to all subscribers of the exchange that all numbers will be changed when the new dial telephone system is put into service.

This will not be until late next year, the letter advises. However, customers who need to make advance plans for stationery, business cards, advertising, are reminded now so they will not waste effort on a number that will not be effective later.

The change in numbers is made necessary by the fact that present numbers just won't work with the new system, the letter concludes.

George Barnard Shaw was responsible for the statement, "Kings are not born, they are made by universal hallucinations."

Floyd County 14 Years Ago

(Taken from the files of the Floyd County Hesperian, issue dated Nov. 27, 1941.)

With Christmas only 27 days away today Floydada retail stores and shops who serve gift minded customers are making their gift stocks available in a widely appealing array.

When Floydada High School's 1941 football team in District 4-A inter-scholastic competition was certified by District chairman B. P. Tunnell of Matador, as district winners Tuesday morning it was the first such title to come to the school in the long period of 15 years.

The Whirlwinds will play their district championship game with the McLean Tigers, Dec. 5, at McLean.

Cotton this week has begun to move in some volume from Floyd County fields. Last night reports showed 1,397 bales ginned in the county of which 439 were turned out in Floydada gins.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hagood were hosts to the Thursday Bridge Club Thursday evening at 7:45 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Barber were hosts to the U-Deal-Kin Bridge Club Tuesday evening.

Leaves Sandstorm Country to Find Earthquake Peril

Now that she has moved to the West Coast and is through with West Texas sandstorms, Mrs. Jessie Brown, widely acquainted in this area as a saleslady, is having to learn how to live with earthquakes.

In a recent letter she speaks of the wonderful climate and the enjoyment she gets from her new surroundings in the same city with her daughter, Mrs. D. G. Ridge, and her sister, Mrs. W. B. McDaniel.

Her first experience of an earthquake came while she was in the home of Mrs. Ridge. "I was scared and ready to run," she wrote.

The tremors were not of great severity though violent enough to shake merchandise from grocers' shelves and do other minor damage.

Due to be completed during the month of December the new building will house Redd's appliance store which will be moved from 317 East Houston.

The new quarters will give enlarged space for display and shop service, the owner said. His outlay for the building is expected to be

Although everyone in the community is talking about what the crops aren't going to make and worrying about not coming out this year, we should all stop and think for a few minutes what we do have to be thankful for.

Thursday is a day of Thanksgiving so let's all stop and thank God for all the things we do have.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Slater returned a list of calls which he had received about duds and souvenirs. An almost incredible collection was made that day—a total of 236 explosive items! They included grenades, mortar shells, rockets, practice anti-tank mines, and even two 7-inch Navy projectiles. The ordnance men found them in homes, garages, barns, under porches, in fields, in offices, and in stores. Some were so dangerous the disposal experts exploded them on the spot, or moved them only far enough to eliminate danger to life or property before setting them off.

Again on Aug. 10 the Fort Hood men returned to Elgin and nearby McDade, this time collecting and disposing of 81 more items, labeled by the officer in charge as "deadly as poison."

Little Lupe Villarreal will go through life without feet and part of his legs. But his tragic accident alerted a community to danger in its back yard—and they did something about it.

The explosive ordnance disposal men in the Fourth Army area are sure that death for unsuspecting people lurks in hundreds of places in the Southwest in the form of so-called duds and souvenirs. They can do nothing about it, however, unless the persons who know where the lethal items are located report them to the police, the sheriff's office, civil defense or the Army itself.

Wellington Rites Held for Teacher In Lockney School

Mrs. Annie Bird, 65, a teacher of exceptional children in the Lockney School system, was found dead at her home in Lockney last Tuesday morning. Death was believed to have been caused by a cerebral hemorrhage, officials said.

Mrs. Bird had lived at Wellington for 40 years and had taught school 29 years prior to moving to Lockney. She served as tax assessor-collector of Collingsworth County for four years. She was in her second year of teaching in Lockney.

Her body was taken to Wellington where services were to be held when her daughter from Iceland arrived. Burial was in Wellington Cemetery under the direction of Kelso Funeral Home.

Seeking Permit For Radio Station

Leroy Durham of the Sand Hill Community is going into the radio business if his application for a new radio station at Plainview is approved.

Durham, along with Earl Walden of Midland and Rev. Homer Goodwin of Plainview has filed application for a new station to be operated as a 1,000-watt commercial unit. The application was received by the Communications Commission in Washington two weeks ago. The new station, if approved, will operate on a frequency of 1050 kilocycles.

Durham is a farmer. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Durham of Lockney.

intendent of a brick company at Elgin, Tex. Two men of the detachment traveled to Elgin, where their investigation revealed that an eight-year-old boy had both feet blown from his legs in an explosion. The boy, Lupe Villarreal, had been playing with three others in the residential compound of the brickyard. They were playing with a "dud," which suddenly exploded with a terrible blast when Lupe hit it with a hammer.

Lupe's legs were so badly mangled that further amputation was necessary. His three little playmates were hit also, but fortunately not one of them was injured seriously. From fragments which the doctor kept after treating the boys, the Fort Hood ordnance men discovered that the "dud" had been a fully loaded 37-millimeter high-explosive projectile, with a fuse designed to detonate on contact.

Later in the day the ordnance men searched the brickyard compound, and found 38 more deadly "duds." They included a dozen 76 mm projectiles, a 4.2-inch mortar shell, and three high-explosive anti-tank rockets.

The local paper was notified, and a story was published to the effect that the ordnance men would return within a few days to dispose of any other dangerous explosives which might be discovered in the community. On their return July 21, the Elgin chief of police had ready
