Campaign for Memberships Being Launched Today by Farm Bureau

(By W. R. Puckett)

The directors, membership chairman and committee members of Floyd County Farm Bureau along with their wives had a supper at the Legion Hall in Floydada Thursday, Feb. 24, 7:30 p. m. The purpose of the meeting was to coordinate the planning for the membership drive to begin on March 1. Areas of the county were assigned to the membership chairmen.

Attendance was somewhat disappointing due to other events being held in the county but those that did attend got an idea on what the potential membership could be in Floyd County.

President Robert Lee Smith stressed the importance of obtaining new members in the Farm Bureau since it is a democratic organization and depends on votes for its strength. Although the Farm Bureau is the largest and most effective farm organization in America today, the South and Southwest region needs more votes to strengthen its position on National issues.

This was evidenced when this area was out-voted at the National Convention on the price support issue. The South and Southwest region has consistently gained votes the last few years and with a little more effort can have as many voting delegates as the highly organized Midwest region.

It was also pointed out that when this is accomplished, Texas will be in a highly favorable position since some of the most influential positions in our National Government are held by Texans. Sam Rayburn, Lyndon Johnson, George Mahon were pointed out.

The morning of March 1, was set for the membership drive. All men who are to participate in this drive are to meet at the Farm Bureau office to pick up their area maps and have coffee before 8:00 a. m. This will insure that the entire county is being covered.

These men will concentrate their efforts on obtaining new members, since over 300 old members have renewed their memberships by mail. By renewing the remainder of the county membership, the Farm Bureau hopes to obtain enough new members to reach their goal of 700.

Sue Williams Is Spelling Champ

Sue Williams, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chloima Williams, eighth grade student of Andrews Ward School in Floydada, is the county's champion speller. She will represent the county in the regional spelling bee in March, when a contestant to represent the area will go to Washington, D. C. for the national spelling contest.

Miss Sue was chosen Monday night over six other contestants in a spelling bee held in the county court room.

Runner-up was Sue Ring, also a student of Andrews Ward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Ring of Dougherty. Sue Williams spelled "alotted" when Sue Williams spelled that word correctly she went on to the championship by spelling her winning word "alluring."

JUNIOR DIVISION winner was James Ray Wofford, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wofford, pupil of the sixth grade in Lockney Junior high school.

James Ray spelled "prayer" correctly after the runner-up, Sue Wilson of South Plains, missed it. He gained the title of champion speller in the junior division when he successfully negotiated "garage."

Mrs. Henry G. Barber, of Andrews Ward faculty, was pronouncer of the evening.

County Superintendent Clarence A. Guffee was chairman and moderator of the evening's activities, which about 75 persons attended.

Vegetable Growing, Marketing Specialists Speak Here Tonight

Farm operators who want to make a study of vegetable crops to work into their 1956 programs will be given the opportunity to hear two horticulture specialists tonight at the district court room, according to announcement made by County Agent Bill G. Rodgers.

Production and marketing of vegetable crops will be the subjects. George R. Williams and B. G. Hancock, both A. & M. Extension Service specialists in production and marketing of vegetables will address the gathering.

Mr. Rodgers arranged for the meeting on vegetables to aid Floyd County farmers in making up their minds whether they want to get into vegetable production and, if so, how and to what extent.

Extensive production of onions on a commercial scale is already under way on some of the Floyd County farms. Cabbage, carrots, bell peppers, tomatoes, cucumbers, pumpkins and similar vegetable crops have also been grown successfully on an experimental basis.

Compelling idea behind the study is an effort to find profitable use for idle acres that have been taken out of cotton and wheat production; and the need for crops of higher per acre income.

Urge Crape Myrtle Planting For March

March will be Crape Myrtle planting month in Floydada. It plans of the Floydada Garden Club and the Chamber of Commerce are successful. The two community organizations will undertake to place as many watermelon red Crape Myrtle as possible in the yards of Floydada homes and to beautify public buildings, schools, churches, parks and highways.

AN ARRANGEMENT has been made with the Guy T. Hughes Nursery of Kress, Tex., to set out the plants and give a twelve month replacement guarantee that the Crape Myrtle will live and bloom during the first year.

The plants will be two year, number one, extra heavy bushes and will cost $1.25 each.

Orders for the Crape Myrtle will be taken during the month by Garden Club and Chamber of Commerce workers. No money will be collected until the Crape Myrtle are set out.

LOCAL GARDEN CLUB and Chamber of Commerce officials have been looking for several years for a plan which Floydada could go "all out" on as a community wide planting campaign. The success of the Crape Myrtle which blooms in brilliant color from three to four months during the summer makes community beautification committees believe that they have found the right flowering shrub which the whole town can plant.

STUDY CLUB MEMBERS, highway business firms, service clubs, churches, schools and officials of public buildings will be contacted to see how many red Crape Myrtle can be planted in Floydada during March.

THERE ARE MANY Crape Myrtle now growing in Floydada. Garden Club members point out. A good example are the beautiful Crape Myrtle on each side of the west door of the Floyd County Court House.

If they receive the cooperation of Floydada citizens, Garden Club and Chamber of Commerce Beautification Committees see a more beautiful community in the future and a planting campaign which could make Floydada "The Crape Myrtle Center of West Texas."

THE IDEA OF EXTENSIVE Crape Myrtle plantings was devised by the Chamber of Commerce to meet an often correct criticism of West Texas communities that public grounds and private premises as well present a barren appearance. Search for a suitable shrub that will go well with plantings in flower gardens has been carried on.

ANKHORS TO GET substantial backing for the plan a campaign was discussed with Floydada Garden Club and the club endorsed and voted to help. Mrs. John P. Moss is president of the club.

The Chamber of Commerce office will act as a central office for orders for Crape Myrtle.

LIPSTICK LOGIC

To the coffee drinker who likes it hot and black, some folks' coffee habits are little short of shocking. At our house this week we have been four, each with an entirely different idea of what makes coffee good.

On one point we agree — start with good strong coffee. But there the ways part. Personally, we take it straight. The spouse puts in just enough sugar to ruin the flavor without actually sweetening the drink. Our doctor son drinks it black, but lets it cool until we would be forced to pour it down the sink. Our charming New England daughter-in-law reduces its authority by adding cream without sugar, then lets it stand until it is tepid as it is pale.

Nor can we understand the coffee toper who doesn't like his first cup "heated up" several times. This delightful deception enables one to consume two or three cups while seeming to drink only one. We once encountered an honest man who would have none of this subterfuge. He took a second cup — literally, started all over with a clean cup and fresh coffee. Said that was the only way you could make the second as good as the first.

The third thing we can't fathom is the fellow who orders coffee in a restaurant before he so much as looks at the menu. Most waitresses seem to think this is a universal preference. This is very hard on the fellow who wants his piping hot after the meal arrives. It's harder still on the one who wants coffee only with dessert.

Of one thing we're sure: There may be many ways to think about coffee-drinking, but when it comes to coffee-drinking they're all out of step with the hot-and-black.

HE'S '20' NOW N. A. Armstrong's Birthday, Feb. 29 Is Happy Occasion

An old cow hand, who has been a resident of Floyd County since 1911 tells he was 29 years old yesterday. That is by the leap year calendar but he is really 84 years of age. This man is N. A. Armstrong, who makes his home at Peoples Hospital.

The date was Feb. 29 and Mr. Armstrong would have been 21 on his birthday except for a quick of the calendar dating back to 1752 when Pope Gregory decreed that every-century years except those divisible by 400 would not be Leap Years. So he missed a birthday in 1900, going for eight years without a birthday! So that leaves him only 29 now.

Mr. Armstrong had quite a day celebrating. He received 36 cards at one time, which were delivered by Fred Stewart, postman at the Floydada Post Office, 20 gifts, numerous arrangements of flowers, telegrams and phone calls.

At the noon hour Wednesday Mr. Armstrong had his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Glen Armstrong of Floydada, his granddaughter, Mrs. Doris Van Natter of Lubbock and his great-granddaughter, Miss Janet Van Natter, also of Lubbock with him for dinner. Mrs. Gladys Wimberly baked an angel food cake for him.

None of his children were able to be with him but they all called during the day. They are Glen Armstrong and Mrs. Dee Johnson, both of South Dakota, and Mrs. Wanda Barker of Dallas.

School Administrators Review Problems at National Meeting

The American Association of School Administrators finished its 82nd annual convention at Atlantic City, N. J., last week. The convention was held at the Hotel Trayton.

According to Mr. Graves, it was admitted by most everyone who had been attending this convention for several years that this was one of the best programs that had been presented at the convention.

There were over 19,000 administrators that registered and probably over 22,000 to attend.

Carlos Romulo Speaks

Some of the outstanding speakers in the convention were Carlos P. Romulo, Philippine Ambassador to the United States, who spoke on "America's Stake in Asia," and Wm. Grede, President of the National Association of Manufacturers, who gave an address on "Our Freedom Role." Grede emphasized that it would be better for the states to have control of our school in preference to federal control. He was of the opinion that federal aid would lead to federal control. An address was given by Charles Collingwood, news correspondent of Columbia Broadcasting System on "Education and Foreign Policy."

There were a number of sectional meetings in relation to various school problems. However, what was probably the outstanding program of the convention was furnished by the New York Herat Tribune Forum for high schools where a panel of 33 students from 33 nations discussed "The World We Want." Here education, political, and economical affairs of these nations were compared with those of the United States.

Point of View Changes

"It was amazing to see how these students' point of view had changed after spending a brief time in America," said Mr. Graves. Some of them admitted that they were prejudiced toward America before attending school here. These representatives from Gold Coast stated they had been taught that the colored people were the same as slaves in America.

TAXPAYER'S DEPENDENTS

A taxpayer, called into the district office to explain two of his listed dependents, revealed finally that one was his mother-in-law and the other was his dog.

A further check revealed—after he had been advised that the animal could not be claimed—that he had spent $50.00 more on support of the dog than of the mother-in-law.

Abraham Lincoln was noted for his pungent and appropriate wit. The Great Emancipator was resting with his campaign manager in a hotel lobby. As usual the village cut-ups congregated there, and one bolder than the rest, remarked, "Mr. Lincoln, your speech was good, but there were some points in it that are quite beyond my reach."

The simple Lincoln looked up and chuckled. "Then I am sorry for you. I once had a dog that had the same trouble with fleas." —Association Men.

SCHOOLS - THE AWFUL TRUTH

Ten years from now 23% more children will be entering elementary schools than today, 55% more in high schools and 40% more in colleges. We will need some 600,000 more classrooms to accommodate them — a jump of about 60%, according to the Kiplinger Letter.

We'll also need 200,000 more teachers every year for ten years to cover school growth and to replace those who quit or retire.

The main problem, of course, is money, which in the end means more taxes. The total cost of schools, public and private, now is eight to ten billion dollars a year. In the next ten years this may double and most of it must come from taxes.

What kind of taxes will support the schools? Mostly property taxes for already nearly 45% of the property taxes collected in states go to the schools. So there will be higher local taxes, higher property assessments, and fewer exemptions—Education Bulletin.

FASTEST GROWING STATES

Arizona, Delaware, Florida, Nevada and New Mexico are at the top of the list in rate of population growth. The Pacific Coast has slowed down a bit in the past four years and didn't grow quite as fast as it did from 1940 to 1950. Florida, with a gain of 19%, has edged out California, however, California is the leader and its population will probably top even New York state in 1956. —The Kiplinger Letter

The heaviest single unit of freight on record was a 7 1/2 mile high-voltage submarine power cable, weighing approximately 745,000 pounds (803,000 pounds including blocking, bracing, etc.) shipped from Patterson, N. J., to Renton, Wash. in the Spring of 1931, for use in Puget Sound. The cable was shipped on nine specially prepared Gondola cars.

Because of the popularity of the Medalist two-door sedan, Mercury is extending the Medalist into a new and separate series, adding two more models, including the hardtop coupe shown above, and a four-door sedan. The new Medalist series is priced below the Montclair, Monterey and Custom series. It expands the 1956 Mercury line to a total of 17 models, seven more than 1955. Featuring Mercury's clean, crisp styling, the Medalist series is designed for those who want the appearance, feel and performance of a big car yet require low cost transportation.

PASSING THE BUCK BRINGS DESIRED RESULTS

KODIAK, Alaska - Private First Class Earl W. Barnhart listed as the operations officer of the Military Sea Transport Service which is trying to make port at Anchorage, Alaska, but the ship did not answer. The vessel, like many others, could receive voice but send only in code.
 Barnhart, whose home is in 6208 South 25th St., Tacoma, Wash., came up with this solution. He called the ship on his Alaska Communications System voice frequency and had it answer him in code. Then he translated the message and sent it by voice to the Military Sea Transport Service operator. Thus ship-to-shore communications were established.
 The "Northwestern Victory" soon had the necessary pilot aboard to bring the ship into Anchorage.
 Barnhart, who is stationed here with the 9427 Technical Service Unit, has been on duty with the Alaska Communications Service in Kodiak for the past two years. The ship is a component of the Army Signal Corps.

SOLDIER ASSIGNED TO FAMILIAR PLACE - HOME

BERLIN - Private Jack Martin is a soldier who joined the army to rejoin his parents.
 They are Mr. and Mrs. Levan Roberts, who live in Hamburg where Mr. Roberts is a U.S. Information Service employee in charge of the America House.
 Germany is familiar territory for Martin. He spent five years here previously, living in Nuernberg, Frankfurt, and Munich. He returned to his permanent home in Colorado in 1952, where he worked for an oil company.
 He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Kenyon of 810 1/2 North Weber Street, Colorado Springs, Colo.

WHAT HE'D GET...

"What would I get," inquired the man who had just insured his home against fire. "If this building should burn down on this very day?"
 "I would say," replied the fire insurance agent, "that if you had a first-class lawyer and a good defense fund, you might not get more than ten years."

New Advances Against Unconquered Infections
 In less than a half century, science has produced new drugs that can be used to prevent, treat, or cure most of the killing and crippling infectious diseases of mankind. Pneumonia, syphilis, and typhoid - to name but three that have taken millions of lives - can now be controlled.
 The infectious diseases produced by the viral and fungal organisms, however, remain a challenge despite the increasing rate at which new and more effective drugs are being developed by the pharmaceutical industry. But even these hitherto invincible germs now appear to be losing ground in the face of science's intensive search for new therapeutic weapons.
 The promising aspect of this search was disclosed at the Third Annual Antibiotic Symposium, recently held in Washington, D.C. The symposium, sponsored by the government and attended by scientists from many foreign countries as well as the United States, heard descriptions of more than a dozen new antibiotics scheduled to be tested in hospitals against a variety of human diseases. Some of these diseases are presently regarded as incurable.
 Several of the antibiotics were reported to have shown promise against infections caused by fungi, which are plantlike organisms that afflict both the skin and internal organs. One antibiotic, derived from the Streptomyces family of molds, has produced good results against internal as well as external fungal diseases, the symposium was told. The drug was tested in mice infected with monilia, yeastlike fungi that causes many different human diseases ranging from mild skin conditions to fatal infections of the heart, lungs, and other organs. The results warrant considering the drug a potentially valuable agent in human therapy, the experimenters reported.
 Preliminary results obtained in test-tube and animal experiments involving other new antibiotics also indicated that notable advances are being made against viruses, tiny germs responsible for such baffling diseases as polio, the common cold, and influenza.
 But while the announcements of new antibiotics to be used against fungal and viral diseases received considerable attention at the Washington meeting, scientists gave prime consideration to drugs that are already being utilized against human infections. A large number of papers read at the symposium highlighted achievements currently being made against scores of diseases with the potent new antibiotic, tetracycline. This drug, also known as Polycycline and Steclin, has proven particularly effective against wintertime diseases such as pneumonia and bronchitis.

FROM THE AGRICULTURAL DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT SOUTHWESTERN PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY

Although the "cage system" for poultry laying houses is the most profitable method, it has created one winter-time problem which, fortunately, can be easily solved through the use of electric heating cable.
 It is a proven fact that water for poultry must be kept warm enough for adequate drinking; otherwise, egg production suffers sometimes to the extent that the flock never recovers its former high production. The long watering troughs used in cage laying houses actually act as radiators, giving up their heat content into the surrounding cold air and cooling or freezing the water. Electric heating cable installed the full length of the trough warms the water uniformly the entire length of the trough. If cable with sufficient heating capacity is employed, you will be assured of palatable water at all times in your poultry house.
 Here's why electric heating cable is the only proven satisfactory answer to warm drinking water for poultry:
 1. It is easy to install; however, it must be properly installed. Your local electrical contractor and your dealer can assist you in proper installation.
 2. It is thermostatically controlled. Once plugged in, the equipment operates without attention until you unplug it in the Spring. The water is warmed to the desired temperature; the electricity shuts off automatically. You are never using electricity when it is not needed.
 3. It is an economical system. The average cost for power throughout the State of Texas has been less than one egg per hen per season. Original equipment cost averaged over a period of years is low.
 4. It pays. Holding high egg production through just one severe cold spell could pay for your entire installation.
 5. It is safe. With proper installation of equipment and grounding of the troughs, there is no safety problem. You can get additional information from your County Agricultural Agent.

Artist's drawing superimposed over photo shows various parts of water warming installation using electric heating cable. In actual installation, thermostat bulb would be located in center of trough or at opposite end from water source.

Ministers Study Transient Aid Policies at Fellowship Meeting

The regular meeting of the Floydada Ministers Fellowship was held Feb. 13 at the Calvary Baptist Church. In addition to regular members several laymen were present: O. M. Watson Jr., Jack Henry and W. F. Patrick.

Welcomed into the Fellowship at this meeting was the new pastor of the Bible Baptist Church, the Rev. B. F. Dearmore.

Public Schools

(Continued from Front Page) Bill McNeill and T. C. Hollams. Following is an article by Charlie Boedeker, district member, Texas Citizens Committee for Public Schools, which explains why we observe Public Schools Week.

OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS, AND PURPOSE
(By Charlie Boedeker, District Member, Texas Citizens Committee for Public Schools Week.)

In the celebration of public schools week we have come to this awareness. Why do we have Public Schools? Is it a historical accident that we have tax-supported, free public schools, rather than an extensive system of private tutors and private schools?

IT IS THE FIRST Amendment to the Constitution of the United States which sets in motion the development of public schools. There was to be no religious test for public office. This broke the hold of the theocracies and meant separation of Church and State.

Congress was to make no law establishing religion, and this broke the hold of one Church over the others, and was a departure from European traditions. It effectively excluded rivalry of sectarian religions for political power by direct capture of the government. State control of education is the basic assumption of our Constitution.

The foundation stone and supporting pillar of our American Democracy and the hope of its future lie in our public school system of free and compulsory education, a system operated and controlled by the people as a whole and not by special groups with specialized, selfish objectives. In theory, at least, it is a system that knows no creed, no sectarian political philosophy, but a system designed for the education of all our future citizens.

TO UNDERSTAND what our public schools have achieved, one has but to go back fifty or sixty years and compare the facilities and teaching of that era with the superior acquisitions of today. True, the public schools are not perfect, no human institution ever is. There is a gap between what intelligent and informed parents would like the schools to be—the goal the public schools set its heart and mind upon—and the realities of today.

Yet, when these realities are contrasted with the conditions of a half century or so ago, the gains have been immense. It is true that the gap between what the schools are and what the people want is greater than ever before, but to close that gap calls for much money, time and thought.

As a matter of fact, no nation through all history has ever had good public schools for all its people, or seriously tried to. Really good education for every child is a startling new concept, one of which the United States can be justifiably proud.

SCHOOLS ARE the chief instruments we have at our disposal to transform personal freedom into liberty. They are the chief supports of a democratic system of life organized to give liberty and happiness to all people. Their services are sanctified by a hundred historical, civil guarantees and a thousand urges to a better life. We believe in them because without their supporting strength our democracy could not exist.

It is our duty to support the basic purpose of the public school to make the child into an educated human being who is a free man. It is our duty to help make the child into a person who is not a slave to government, to a mother image, to a political leader, or to a machine. It is our duty to help the public schools make mature persons out of our children. — "Visit Your Public School—See Democracy in Action."

(1) Agencies rendering aid shall check with the Chamber of Commerce before giving assistance.

(2) Persons calling upon the Chamber of Commerce for assistance shall be referred to the proper agency. The Chamber of Commerce was designated for this service only temporarily.

It is hoped the above recommendations will speed up assistance to the needy as well as prevent duplication of aid to them.

The president of the Fellowship, Rev. W. D. Reaves, appointed a special committee to formulate a program for the pooling of clothing to be distributed. Serving as chairman is W. F. Patrick with Rev. Tilden B. Armstrong and O. M. Watson Jr. as committeemen.

The Bible Baptist Church was designated as the next place of meeting on March 5.

Floydada Boxing Club will carry a team of 10 to 12 boys to Ralls Friday March 9 for a slate of matches with the club there. First bout will get underway at 8:00 p. m.

Officials of the boxing club here said they have been promised a return engagement for Floydada with the Ralls team but the date has not been set.

Carlton Paver, one of the trainers of the local club, said yesterday club officials will meet with the Ralls group this week and make final arrangements for the ring events. It now appears the club here will have fighters ready to go in all weight divisions except the lightweight.

Britton Funeral Held on Tuesday

Funeral service for Tom J. Britton, 72, was held Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock in the First Baptist Church with Rev. Lavel Merriott, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church, officiating, assisted by Rev. Tilden B. Armstrong, pastor of the First Methodist Church. Burial was in Floydada Cemetery under the direction of Harmon Funeral Home.

Big Blow Hits Area Hard Jolt

Last Friday's blow will go into the books as one of the most severe in recent years.

Winds whipped up to gale strength by high noon. In mid-afternoon travel on highways became perilous, with soil from the sand hills and local blowing dust combining to make visibility extremely low.

Considerable soil damage was done on sweeping slopes and in plowed lakes. Not a great deal of great damage resulted.

There were no crashes directly resulting from the low visibility and only one serious fire in the area.

This fire was in the grass country east of Boggy Springs in Motley County where firemen battled a grass fire they could not see for the dust.

The D. I. W. Birnie ranch lost some grass as did adjacent pastures before the flames finally played out in rough country and were brought under control.

LIBRARY NEWS

(By Mrs. Lee C. Goughly)

Showing water colors, pastels, crayon and pencil drawings will be Marilyn McLean, Deanne Robertson, Danny Daniels, Woody Berry, Bryn Waidling, Tommy Farris and Howard Gadden. This exhibit will remain in the library reading room two weeks and the public is invited to visit the library and enjoy this art.

a very complete bibliography of all material pertaining to Paul Bunyan. This includes not only a list of the actual legends and critical and controversial articles appearing in books and periodicals, but also other media in which Paul Bunyan is the main theme, such as music, drama, a-1 and a-ulpture.

Also new on the library shelf are "The Prophet" and "Mary", Biblical novels, by Shiomi As-h.

Attendance Marks Eighth Soil Fertility Meeting

Over fifty Floyd County business men and farmers attended the eighth annual soil fertility meeting held last Friday in Lockney.

The meeting was held in the Extension Serenaders Club, Lockney. The speaker was Dr. Clark Harvey, of the Tech College, who presented the results of the study of soil fertility and the importance of soil conservation.

Dr. Harvey stressed the importance of soil conservation and the need for farmers to take steps to improve their soil fertility. He pointed out that soil is a finite resource and that it must be protected and conserved for the future.

Dr. Harvey also discussed the various methods of soil conservation, such as crop rotation, cover crops, and terracing. He emphasized that soil conservation is not only beneficial to the farmer, but also to the community as a whole.

A. K. Hepperly, of Denver, left, agricultural agent of the Burlington Lines, and Macyl K. Orman, of Fort Worth, Texas agricultural agent of the Fort Worth & Denver, had as their guest last week, B. M. Vining of Weslaco, as they preached the gospel of soil conservation in six plains counties. Vining, who practices soil saving on an 800-acre spread in the Rio Grande Valley, was one of the speakers at the Soil Saving meeting Friday in Lockney. Orman is credited with an excellent beginning in his new post with the Denver as promoter of better agricultural practices. He is a native of Floyd County, son of P. L. Orman of Floydada.

Ten Reasons For Belonging To The Farm Bureau

1. Farm and Ranch people should be organized.
2. Farm Bureau is strictly democratic in its operation, solely supported by membership dues from individuals interested in Agriculture.
3. Its policies are developed from the individual member in cooperation with other members.
4. Half of the membership fee stays in the county to support local services which are vital to any organization.
5. Its work on State legislation, among other things on the State level, is positive evidence that the portion of fees allocated for that purpose is well spent. An office has been established in Austin where two men work on State legislation during each session of the legislature.
6. Many things on a National level are being accomplished through the Farm Bureau. Among them is an improved world trade which will help reduce agriculture surpluses.
7. As in any democracy, individual votes count, therefore each membership adds strength. We pay a poll tax for the privilege in civil affairs, but our membership in Farm Bureau is a family membership that offers services.
8. Farm Bureau incorporates all phases of agriculture, therefore a membership in the largest Farm organization in the world with a positive, constructive program will have more lasting effect on agriculture than smaller "pigeon" groups.
9. Along with other services afforded by the Farm Bureau, it offers an insurance program designed for people engaged in Agriculture. It pays a substantial dividend on its Life, Farm Liability, Automobile and Pooled policies. On these services alone, it will pay you four dollars to every one paid on membership dues in savings, if you discount the other advantages you have belonging to this organization.
10. Farm Bureau offers the Farmer and Rancher an opportunity, if he so desires to participate, to have more influence on his economic and future welfare. Approximately sixty per cent of the Farmers and Ranchers of Floyd County were Farm Bureau members in 1955. When these have renewed, along with its new members, approximately seventy per cent of the county will be members. If seventy percent of your neighboring Farmers and Ranchers say it is a good thing, we think you should be one too. —Adv.

Contract Is Let For Widening Hale County F-M Road

PETERSBURG — Farm to market road 400 from Plainview south to the Lubbock-Hale County line is to be widened.

The State Highway Department Monday accepted the low bid of the T. J. Jones Construction Co. of Lubbock for widening, grading, structures and surfacing of the 23.6 mile strip. The bid was $278,258.

Preliminary work probably will start within the next two or three weeks, said H. C. Weaver, Plainview, resident Highway Department engineer.

FM 400 intersects U.S. 64 east of Idalou and provides a by-pass of Lubbock and is taking an increasing load of traffic.

The contract calls for widening of 400 from a 20 foot surface to a 28 foot surface.

Operations on FM 400 will boost to approximately 30 miles the total mileage of construction under way on roads in this county.

Another Mammoth Plant Announced

DETROIT — The mammoth assembly plant to be built by Chevrolet in northeast Ohio is part of a sweeping postwar expansion program that has already added to company manufacturing facilities 19 new factories large enough to enclose a farm of nearly 200 acres. T. H. Keating, general manager, points out.

The new operations, providing floor space of more than 8,000,000 square feet, bring the total of Chevrolet's nationwide network of manufacturing and assembly plants to 32. In addition to the postwar factories, this network has been expanded by millions more of square feet through enlargement of all prewar plants.

The Ohio factory, encompassing more than 2,500,000 square feet, will dwarf all the company's 12 existing assembly plants. None of these exceeds 2,000,000 square feet.

The East Texas oil field produced more than 75 million barrels last year, three times as much as any other field in the United States.

STANLEY SAWYER IS NEW MEMBER HONORARY SOCIETY

CANYON — Stanley L. Sawyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Sawyer, 124 W. Jeffie, Floydada, was among 24 freshman and sophomore students at West Texas State College who were initiated into Mary E. Hudspeth honor society recently.

The honor society is composed of students with scholastic standing in the upper five per cent of the freshman and sophomore classes.

Sawyer, a sophomore, transferred to West Texas State from Abilene Christian College this year, and was one of the eight students on the WT campus who made perfect straight A records during the fall semester.

BRISCOE COUNTY POLLS — QUITAQUE — Briscoe County Sheriff Raymond Grewe reported last Thursday that a total of 1152 poll taxes were sold up to that time, 24 of which were exemptions. A total of 95 were sold at the Flower Shop during the time they were on sale there.

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ VIEWS AND COMMENT

Week of Decision. According to news reports today is the day when Governor Shivers announces his political plans, much-awaited in political circles. Everybody, including many of his strongest supporters, have the governor already down and counted out. But they are waiting to see what he plans. He is a wily antagonist and he has already won once when he had no chance. About the only prospective candidate we know of who says what the governor does will not change his plan is Mr. Daniel, who says he would like to come back to Texas and be governor instead of continuing as U. S. senator. Developments of the week should clear the atmosphere considerably.

County's Voting Strength. Upcoming primaries and the general election this fall point up interest in the probable voting strength of Floyd County this year. The total of potential votes is much higher than is indicated by the number of poll tax receipts written and exemption certificates issued. Voting strength of the county probably is much nearer 4,750 than 3,500, the way we figure. Using the pencil we say the county has 3,342 polls paid and 107 exemptions issued for a grand total of 3,349. But according to the State Welfare Board's well-established figures the percentage of persons above 65 to persons under 65 in the state's population is 35.7 per cent. Assuming the Welfare Board to know whereof they speak and assuming that another 4.3 per cent of the county's population is either not on the welfare list or is older than 60 and not yet 65 (and this seems conservative) then the county has 40 per cent of its population eligible for voting without a poll tax receipt. Using that figure the pencil comes up with 4,689 votes. It is not unreasonable. The age of the voting population has increased tremendously in the last several years. Formerly the estimators added 10 per cent to the total of overers and unders, which won't do at all in 1956 for the real voting strength of the county.

No 1956 City Vote. In every community we know about preparations are being made to hold city elections in the early part of April — every community except Floydada. We have been urging that an act of the legislature be sought (or some other legal means taken, if any other can be) to safeguard us from ourselves. Any community is subject (like the individuals in it) to hysteria. Some year some time we might jump off the deep end. When it comes time to vote we might have a full slate of city officials to choose and at the same time a seizure of distrust or panic. Often what we have is better than what we would choose under such circumstances. We need to protect our city against ourselves.

The president's health has been a matter of great concern. Since his heart attack his progress has been the subject for reams and reams of newspaper men's copy which the public has consumed with great interest. The president himself must be a peculiar duck not meaning any disrespect. Anybody within the range of our knowledge who has been brought near death's door by an injury to the heart is not out playing 18 holes of golf to see if it will kill him, nor is he spending a day hunting birds to see if he can stand tramping through the woods for hours. We wonder what is going through his doctor's mind when the medic gets a report on the antics of his patient, the country's first citizen.

The quail season has been over in Texas for weeks and we assume there is a different open season in Georgia. If not that then perhaps the president's host may have an arrangement for pen-raising his birds and marking them, so that it will not come under the head of shooting wild game. It wouldn't hurt for the president's press man to put out a hint like that so that the unthinking wouldn't get the idea the president is throwing his weight around to violate the game laws because he can. Many people think that kind of thing is true, that it is done.

This February weather is not right for the high plains. It is still after the pattern that it has followed the past few years, that is a long spell of warm broken by a short spell of cold. It should be the other way around for wheat to do well in the spring and to get rid of the insects. We noted petunias of last year's crop alive and doing well, thank you, out in the open a few days since, after the snow. That's not Hoyle nor yet Goring for the kind of plains weather many old-timers were "raised on."

What is the secret of getting into debt to Uncle Sam for these huge sums of taxes that always dogs a Frank Sinatra or a Joe Lewis? One reads about it and wonders why he, a pea shooter, fears that he may have made an error in his own tax report. The dread of a tax man who may drop in and point a finger at a guilty line in year before last's befuddled report must have many a person secretly wishing he knew for sure how well his reports stacked up with those of his neighbors. Apparently they never send the celebrity to jail for falsifying and he continues to roll in affluence though he didn't turn in that last $110 thousand. At least it says so in the story, which we sincerely hope is not a true one.

If reports are true that this big shot and that got off spending the half million he rightfully owed the government it would only seem to prove that if you are going in for dodging taxes do it on a big scale. That way the revenue agents just "dog" you.

No one can tell what turn the research for cancer may take, but since the scientists can imagine how it develops and under what circumstances, they can also keep hunting for the key with reasonable certainty that the secret will be revealed. One encouraging report is that studies are revealing new angles and affording additional tools for long range study. The dread of cancer once relieved would of itself be a great blessing to the human race.

Junior Womack's father, A. V. Womack, returned to his home near Sand Hill on Monday of this week from the Plainview hospital. He is improving nicely.

The Nolan Arneys have moved to the new home which they purchased recently at 618 W. California Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Shorty Neff and Aubrey Lynn spent the week-end in Hereford with Shorty's sister and her family.

Here are some good rules to be observed and impressed on children, especially at this time of the year since "kite-flying" time is just around the corner.

1. Consider every fallen wire as dangerous.
2. Keep a safe distance from any fallen wire.
3. Telephone and electric wires look very much alike — do not try to tell them apart.
4. Notify your cooperative as soon as you spot a fallen wire.
5. If necessary, post a guard by the wire to keep others from coming in contact with it.

Don't forget that you can launder at your convenience and forget about sand storms and stormy weather with an automatic washer and dryer. Clothes dry soft and wrinkle free in an electric dryer and are safe from dust, dirt, grime, sun-fading and sudden showers.

Have you ever had two birthdays in one day? Well I had just that last Monday. When I got to work at 8:00 o'clock coffee and cake were waiting and the employees were all set to sing "Happy Birthday." Then when noon-time came, Mrs. Brummett and the ladies in the advanced sewing class had brought food for a most delicious birthday dinner — and the lovely gift and cards — by the time the day ended I felt it had been Christmas all over again.

Thanks to everyone for thinking of me — our friends make living such a pleasure.

Chemical Warnings

Selective weed killers, new insecticides and fungicides, hormone sprays and feed additives, antibiotics and defoliants are among the chemicals introduced during this period. Along with greater mechanization, such chemicals have helped farmers produce 42 percent more than before World War II.

It has been estimated that savings and additional agricultural production resulting from the use of chemicals is adding about $1 billion a year to farm income. However, as this "Chemical Farming" continues to increase, there arises a need for greater emphasis on the safe use and safe handling of pesticides.

It is important to recognize that with the wide selection of pesticides available today, safety hazards vary with the chemicals used.

Some pesticides are safe when used according to good agricultural practices. Some require careful use for the protection of persons applying the material. Others require care to avoid harmful effects on crops. Some constitute a residue problem, while others do not.

Chemical manufacturers and agricultural agencies generally carry on extensive research projects to establish effective and safe procedures adapted to the special characteristics of pesticides. This information is passed along to users on labels and in bulletins.

The Texas Department of Agriculture at Austin maintains up-to-date literature on most farm chemicals sold in the state. In addition, department inspectors regulate certain phases of field applications.

Farmers are urged to contact John C. White, Capitol Station, Austin, for information of this kind. It is essential to maintain safe production of wholesome, high-quality foods and fiber in this chemical age of agriculture.

Sand Hill News

(By Mrs. James Jeffress)

SAND HILL, Feb. 27 — You can sure tell spring has just about arrived in the community this week when that awful dust storm arrived here Friday. Everyone was busy shoveling out the dust that seeped into the house Saturday. The one Sunday wasn't quite so bad but the air was full of the dust Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smitherman and family of Abernathy were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Jameson in Hale Center. The Jamesons are formerly of this community. They also visited relatives in Plainview Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Slater of Ralls were visiting in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Swanner, over the weekend.

The J. M. Williams were visiting out of town over the weekend. They were certainly missed at church services Sunday.

There was a good attendance at the Sand Hill Baptist Church Sunday but it could have been better. Let's all start attending the church of our choice every Sunday.

A REVIVAL AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH

begins March 11 and will last through March 18. Bro. Larry Young of Estacado will be doing the preaching each night. Everyone is extended a special invitation to attend the revival. It seems that a revival is needed in the community.

Mrs. J. T. Spears was in Plainview shopping and visiting Friday. Those quilting and visiting in the home of Mrs. James Jeffress Monday were Mrs. C. B. Carmack, Mrs. Cates, Mrs. William Mayo, Mrs. M. B. Swanner, Mrs. Roy Slater and Mrs. W. R. Billington.

We are happy to report that Arthur Womack was brought home from a Plainview hospital Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Slater were in Lubbock Tuesday visiting their daughter.

Mrs. M. B. Swanner attended a Stanley Party Tuesday in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Kirk Slater in Ralls.

Guy C. Roy, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Roy, Donald E. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Smith, and Jack B. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Johnson, all of this city, have been listed on the Honor Roll issued by W. B. Clement, registrar of Texas Technological College, Lubbock.

Guy, a senior, had a grade point average of 2.45. Don, a sophomore, had an average of 2.88 and Jack, also a sophomore, had an average of 2.56.

Mrs. Robby Owens of Lubbock and Mrs. Bert Afflict II of McCamey were Saturday visitors of their sisters and cousins, Mrs. E. L. Norman, Mrs. S. J. Latta and Mrs. S. G. Appling of the Mt. Blanco Community.

THE SAND HILL HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB

met Wednesday afternoon in the club room. Mrs. M. B. Swanner the president called the meeting to order. The club opened with a song and prayer. A vote was made to change the meeting time from 2 o'clock until 2:30.

Mrs. Walter Knight had the part on Insect Control and Mrs. Arlon Miller gave an interesting demonstration on Flower Arrangements. A Stanley Party was planned for Thursday afternoon, Mar. 8, at 2:30 at the club room. Mrs. James Jeffress and Mrs. M. B. Swanner will be co-hostesses for the party with the club receiving the gift of money.

Mrs. Johnny Miller was hostess and served a beautiful plate, carrying out the theme for George Washington's Birthday. Refreshments were served to Mmes. Pat Bullock, J. T. Spears, Arlon Miller, W. R. Knight, Orba Miller, W. R. Billington, James Jeffress, M. B. Swanner, Lynn Miller, C. B. Carmack, and the hostess, Mrs. Johnny Miller.

Next meeting will be March 11 at 2:30 with Mrs. James Jeffress as hostess. The program will be on new sewing ideas.

Cheryl's Chatter

(about events at Floydada High)

Well, Six Week's Test are here again! Only sixty more school days 'til vacation time!! There has been quite a bit of activity around F.H.S. lately. Decorations for the Junior and Senior Banquet are coming—won't be long until that big night!

Monday the West Texas State College Band gave an assembly for the students in the gym. Lockney Band also attended the assembly.

Max Crawford, Keith Armstrong, Randall Jones, Ronnie Downing, and Miss Swepton are to leave Thursday for a Student Council Convention at Midland.

The band really had a good time in Sweetwater again this year. Most of the fun was had on the buses. I heard some records were broken. What kind of records, Gaynelle?

Now the band is preparing for their trip to Snyder this weekend. We will not spend the night in Snyder. The selections the band is going to play are "Make Way for Melody" and "Themes From Symphony No. Six".

Gene Lowrance and LaJuann Womack have started going steady. Couples seen around are: Gayle Bakler and Larry White, Sherre Darden and Winfred West, Fontaine Fowler and Robert Stovall, Sue Nelson and Billy Keeling, Vanda Carter and Carroll Guthrie, Gayle Clark and J. E. Walker, Jerry Floyd and Don Norman, Ann Finley and "Pee Wee" Ferguson, Linda Welborn and Vaughn Ginn, Pat Hickerson and Stanley Burleson, Billie Gail Holmes and Bobby Welborn, Janis Roberts and Bill Orman, Leora King and Jim Womack, Elva Lowrance and Snow Drop Dunn, Jerry Coltharp and Sandra Roe, Dee Ann Newberry and David Blair.

The typing try-outs for District are today. The top five are to be chosen today and two will be eliminated at a future date Good luck to everyone!

Student Council Week Is Being Observed in Texas This Week

(By Alice Latta)

Student Council Week is being observed this week for the third time in Texas. It is an occasion to review the purpose and accomplishments of the student council in our public schools. Its purpose is to inform the public of its needs and to secure the co-operation and support of the public in meeting these needs.

The student council at Floydada High School is led by Max Crawford, senior, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Crawford. Vice-president of the organization is Keith Armstrong, junior, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jones. Fred March, Sr. is sponsor. B. Armstrong. The group is sponsored by Miss Anne Swepston and A. E. Baker, principal of F.H.S.

much power and authority should the student council have in the school administration?"

Tom Henry Guin of Big Spring is president of the Texas Student Council and he will preside at the meeting. The highlights of Friday's meeting will be a ranch barbecue and political rally. On Saturday the sponsors will be honored with a breakfast and guest speaker will be the Rev. W. H. Alexander. Highlights of Saturday's session will be the election of officers.

Student Council Work in F.H.S.

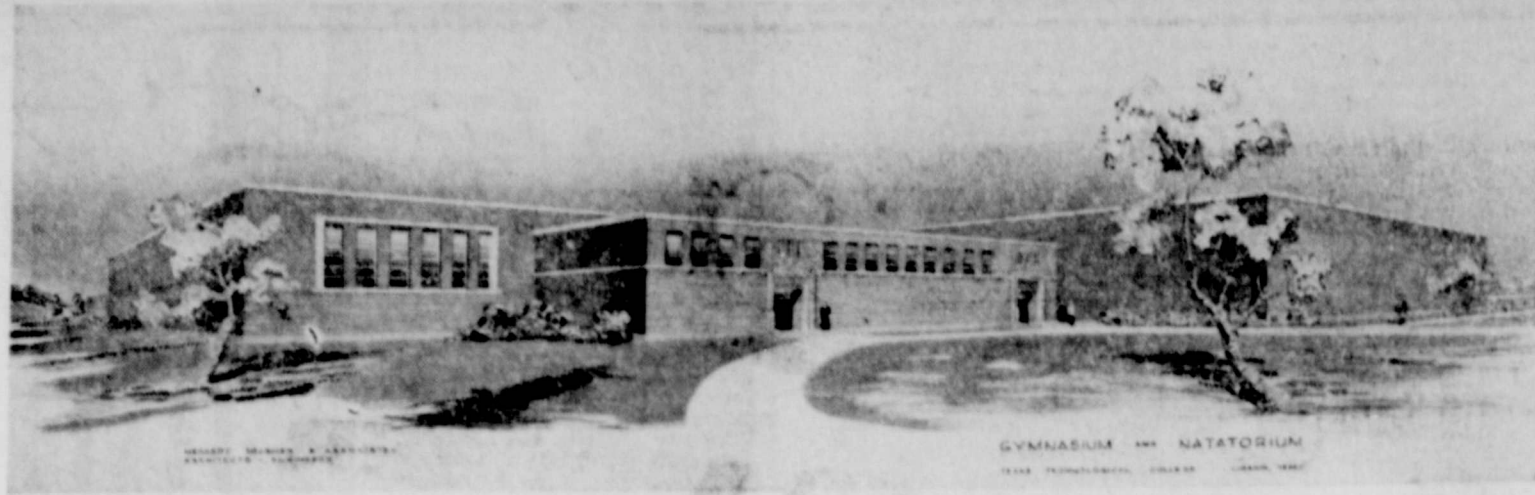

The student council is made up of 19 students and two sponsors. Each home room at F.H.S. sends a representative to the meetings which are held once a week.

Those on the council are Gayle Clark, Anella Thurston, Marvin Rucker, Kay Stephens, Pat Robertson, Neida Fortenberry, Dorothy Duncan, Ronnie Downing, Randall Jones, Fred March, Sr. Dunham, Joe Smalley, Melva Lovrance, Margie Turner, J. E. Waller, Becky Potts, Roger Trapp, Max Crawford, Keith Armstrong and Miss Anne Swepston.

Among some of the projects the council has sponsored is the traffic safety program at the high school, conducting devotions each Wednesday morning, weekly assemblies, publishing a school hand book and arrangements of educational week, which will be March 5-10.

One of the projects attempted that failed was the organization of a "red" club in Floydada. "Good student councils do not just happen and the students at F.H.S. hope the citizens of our community will take an interest in their work," said a representative of the council this week.

Ardyth Hatcher, Sue Wimberly of Hereford and Peggy Lile of Booker, were week-end guests of Ardyth's parents, Judge and Mrs. H. A. C. Brummett. The girls are students at West Texas State College in Canyon.

NEW TEXAS TECH GYM—Construction is scheduled to begin May 1 on a new 45,000 square-foot gymnasium at Texas Tech. The new structure to be located immediately south of the present gym, will contain a swimming pool, three basketball courts, a wrestling room, two handball courts, agym apparatus room for developmental and corrective exercises, and locker and basket facilities for 3,500 men. The second floor will contain physical education department classrooms and offices. The new gym is slated to be completed by May, 1957.

As A Farm Woman Thinks

(Nellie Witt Spikes)

Wonder what the people of Emma were doing and buying in the winter of 1898? Well, I will get some entries from the old Witt and Spikes Day-books. Their yellow pages are so brittle and old I have to handle them with extreme care. We find E. Luce buying 1 rope - 40c; 1 bottle goose oil - 50c; 2 oz. glycerine - 10c; 1 wash pan - 10c.

J. W. Carter (Dr. Carter) bought 1 sack meal - 40c; 10 lb. ham - 1.25; 1 gal. oil - 30c; 16 lbs. potatoes - 40c. B. M. Woody bought: 5 yards cotton flannel-36c; 3 yds. flannel-40c; 2 yds. chambray - 25c; 4 pair hose - 50c; 1 doz. vest buttons - 10c; 2 1/2 pounds onions - 10c; 50 pounds flour - 1.25; 1 spool thread - 5c. This whole bill only $2.90 if I have figured right.

J. K. Milwee: 3 1/2 yards dry goods - 38c; 1/2 yd. worsted - 10c; amt. paid A. Lee Noble - $2.80.

Now there was no bank at Emma so the merchants kept most all the small change in the country and often paid off small amounts or even larger sums to customers for other customers.

Uncle Frank Jones bought a large bill: 50 pounds flour - 1.40; 7 lbs. coffee - 1.00; 14 lbs. sugar - 1.00; 3 lbs. soda - 25c.

The flour was a higher priced flour than B. M. Woody bought. The best brand of that day as I recall was from the Midwest. White Falcon was one brand.

J. C. Owen to 2 pair horse shoes - 25c; to axle grease - 10c; paper - 10c.

Many were buying quinine and Syrup of Figs and ranchers were buying strychnine for coyotes and other varmints. Sick folks were taking doses of hot lemonade. Forty cents a dozen was the price of lemons and they were strictly for medicinal use. People bought sour cream, canned tomatoes, raisins, and potatoes.

Red Cross Seeks Pre-War I Photos

WASHINGTON, D.C.—The American Red Cross is conducting a nationwide search for photographs covering activities of the organization in the years before World War I.

The Red Cross is especially eager to receive photographs of founder Clara Barton in action. Any other photographs of historical interest are also sought.

The organization asks that rare photographs be sent by registered mail, addressed to Chief Librarian, American National Red Cross, Washington 13, D.C.

Negatives will be particularly valuable, if they are available.

The Red Cross will make copies of all photographs and return the originals to the senders immediately.

In the case of groups of pictures found in newspaper picture morgues, arrangements will be made by the Red Cross to have copies made locally.

The Home Demonstration Agent at Floydada last week.

Mrs. Rutherford will give this demonstration to our club and all who care to have it. From what she said it is worth the time to learn how to cut and sew better. This is a wonderful opportunity that does not cost anything, only time.

Mrs. Roy Hale directed recreation. The hostess served refreshments to 16 members and two children. Mrs. Eakin is keeping her little granddaughter while her son and wife are taking baths at Hot Springs.

Tony Taylor, Jimmie Hale and Charles Mather Carr were among those of the band going to Sweetwater Friday where the band played in a contest. They did not win first place.

Judy Smith, spent the week-end in Lubbock with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Buddy Smith.

Rev. Phil H. Gates preached both morning and night at the chapel. He and his wife had Sunday dinner in the Floyd Trowbridge home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hungate and Mr. Hungate's mother from Canyon and W. C. Clubb attended services at the chapel Sunday morning. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Trowbridge of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Clubb and sons of Lubbock and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. B. Smith had dinner in the Floyd Trowbridge home. Mr. and Mrs. Trowbridge honored her father, W. C. Clubb, with a birthday dinner. His birthday is Feb. 28.

We were happy to have Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Williams and sons to unite with our church Sunday night. R. G. Morris was ill Sunday.

Mrs. Ted Rutherford left Friday to attend a Masonic meeting and visit relatives, and will also visit relatives in Stamford.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Richardson have moved to Plainview where he has been employed as a salesman at Hall's shoe store. Mrs. Richardson is employed in the bookkeeping department at the City National Bank. The couple are living at 802 Oakland.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollis McLain and daughters visited his sister and family. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brown and daughters in Lubbock last week-end.

News of Harmony

(By Mrs. Mather Carr)

HARMONY, Feb. 27—The shower we had Friday and Friday night did more harm than good as all these dust storms do.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Edwards spent several days last week in Putnam and Sweetwater visiting relatives.

Mrs. Elsie Kitrell of near Lorenza, was a guest in the W. W. Edwards and Mather Carr homes. Mrs. Kitrell is Mrs. Edwards' sister.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Snodgrass have gone back to their home after being away for several weeks. Since their illness, they have been staying with their son and daughter and their family. The Snodgrasses are feeling better.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Miller of Lubbock spent Wednesday night and Thursday in the home of his son, Everett Miller and wife. They also visited the Carrick Snodgrass family Thursday.

Miss Reda Mae Gary is home from the hospital and is doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Reid have been redecorating the house on the Carrick Snodgrass farm where they will make their home this year.

Club met Thursday in the club room with Mrs. Bob Hopper as hostess. The president called the house to order and after the business session, Mrs. E. W. Turner and Mrs. E. L. Turner gave a demonstration on flower arrangements. This was interesting and pretty.

Mrs. Bess Rutherford gave a report on the sewing class taught by

As A Farm Woman Thinks

Men bought their undershirts and I remember washing them was like washing a modern bedspread they were so thick and heavy. Took them days in winter to even dry.

Calico, lawn gingham, trimmed in yards and yards of braid, made the Mother Hubbards and school dresses. Woolly trimming with silk and ribbons for Sunday best.

Drilling for men's drawers, made by the mothers and wives with draw strings at the bottom to tie tight around the ankles.

So the years have come and gone. The entry is getting shorter, prices have changed, customs are not the same. Most people pay cash and do not have a charge account in day books to yellow and crumble. Historians of the future will have to look elsewhere for their information that I find in these old priceless daybooks of the past.

Today we are saying goodbye to the last time to our friend of many years, Tom Richmond. Never was there a better worker than Tom.

He could go down a cotton row, pick his row and most of the row of the one nearby, talking and laughing all the time and come out at the close of the day with a thousand or more pounds of cotton.

Tom has suffered long and much, now he suffers no more. He was ready to quit but he did not want to leave his loved ones.

Weep not my friends, rather rejoice with me. I shall not feel the pain, but shall be gone.

And you will have another friend in death.

"For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters; and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes." (Rev. 7:17.)

6,602 Register During January At SS Boards

AUSTIN — A total of 6,602 young Texans registered at the state's 137 draft boards in January, bringing the total number of men on draft board rolls to 930,144.

Nearly all of these men registering in January were registered on their 18th birthday, or within five days after their 18th birthday. Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director, said.

This is in line with federal draft regulations. Although no one is drafted in Texas under 21 years, except volunteers or men delinquent with their boards, the law obligates all males to register at age 18.

The law provides that a man must register when he is 18, no matter whether he is at home or not. He is required to go and register at the nearest draft board, no matter where he is. A man can find out where the nearest draft board is by

News of Dougherty

(By Mrs. W. J. Ross)

DOUGHERTY, Feb. 27 — There were 48 present for Sunday School and church Sunday morning. The church voted to begin the annual revival on Friday evening, Aug. 3 and continue through Sunday, Aug. 12.

The church also selected the Rev. J. N. Hunt to assist our pastor in the revival. Rev. Hunt was, until recently, associate pastor of Alena Chapel, a missionary of the First Baptist Church of San Antonio. He is now associated with the Baptist Seminary at Ft. Worth. He is scheduled to conduct several revivals this year.

DESPITE THE SEVERE dust storm on Friday evening the Chili Supper was well attended. The supper netted approximately $35.00. The left over supplies were given to the luncheon. Because of the increased intensity of the storm, the planned program was eliminated. The club appreciated the cooperation of everyone. Special thanks are given to the companies who made donations to the supper.

THE SCHOOL HAS scheduled Tuesday, March 6, as school visitation day in observance of National Education week. Lunch will be served to visiting patrons for 30c.

All parents, grandparents and friends of the pupils are extended an invitation to have lunch and to visit in the class rooms. Parents of children in the first and second grades are asked to visit in the classrooms from 10:30 and stay for lunch.

Those with children in the 3rd grade come for lunch and visit in the class room till 2:30.

AS CLOTHING DEMONSTRATOR for the Dougherty Home Demonstration Club, Mrs. Ned Bradley has attended a series of dressmaking demonstrations given by the county agent, Mrs. Harriette Brunnett.

Monday, Feb. 27, the clothing demonstrators from each of the clubs attended a salad luncheon at the Lighthouse Electric Kitchen and modeled the dresses they had made during this series of demonstrations. Mrs. Bradley made and modeled a tailored red gabardine.

Mrs. Harris has been a patient in the Spur hospital several days. Her condition is much improved and it is hoped she can be moved to her home at White Flat this mid-week.

Mrs. D. J. Stokes of DeLeon was the house guest of her sister, Mrs. R. H. Crawford several days last week. Saturday Mesdames Stokes and Crawford were overnight guests in the home of their father, F. M. Wiley.

Mrs. A. T. Emert was a Sunday dinner guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Litch.

George and Leroy Scott, Neil Crausby and Bob Ross attended the regional basketball games at Canyon Friday. While there they visited the West Texas Museum.

AT THE RECENT basketball tournament of grade school teams held at Boaring Springs, George Scott was selected as a member of the all-star team and was awarded an emblem.

The McAdoo grade school team has had an outstandingly successful season. George was the only member of this team chosen for the All Stars.

Mr. and Mrs. Edd Wester and family visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Powell Wednesday evening.

Texans will hear a "reposition" during the month. Shivers has asked the State Executive Committee to consider placing on the referendum on "interposition" as it is being used means "to stand before" the Federal Government with States that Governor Shivers refers to. He seeks to place the Texas Legislature between the people of Texas and "the abnormal extension of power by the Federal Government in all its branches — Legislative, Executive and Judicial." Shivers contends that certain rulings are beyond the power of the court. Therefore the referendum to be voted on in July would be a declaration by the people of Texas that US Supreme Court decisions on such matters as the Tideland, integration and the Federal Power Commission's control over gas are inapplicable because they go beyond Federal jurisdiction.

If approved by the people, the referendum would be a mandate to the Legislature for them to vote for submission of a Federal constitutional amendment firming up and defining State Sovereignty.

While other states are using interposition in a negative fashion, Shivers plans to use it in a positive way to protect the state's rights. He is strongly opposed to the extension of power by the Federal Government at the expense of state and local governments.

"Interposition" will be an often used word during the coming months. "People who do not like the idea say it is 'nullification.' Shivers contends he is opposed to nullification as being contrary to truly constitutional government.

VETERANS' LAND SALES will be court house news again in Austin, come March 6. That's what the trial scheduled for B. R. Sheffield, Brady land promoter and one-time business associate of former Land Commissioner Bascom Giles, will be held.

Sheffield has summoned 131 witnesses, including Governor Shivers, Atty. Gen. John B. Sheppard and Land Commissioner J. Earl Rudder. Also John Osorio, aide to Shivers; Robert S. Trotti, former first assistant attorney general; and Homer Garrison, director of public safety. Sheffield is charged with theft of state funds in connection with a Kinney County land deal.

TEXAS POLITICS heated up ahead of season when Governor Shivers announced that he might run for a fourth term. It is the closest he has come to saying "yes." This news quickly eclipsed an earlier statement by Sen. Jimmy Phillips of Angleton that he was withdrawing from the race for governor for lack of campaign funds. A later announcement by Shivers said that he would not run for a fourth term in 1956.

U. S. Sen. Price Daniel said that Shivers' decision, whichever way it went, would in no way affect his own decision about becoming a gubernatorial candidate. His announcement now quickly eclipsed an earlier statement by Sen. Jimmy Phillips of Angleton that he was withdrawing from the race for governor for lack of campaign funds. A later announcement by Shivers said that he would not run for a fourth term in 1956.

MORRIS BROWNLEE of Houston is replacing Garland Smith on the insurance commission. Until a few weeks ago Brownlee was executive vice president of Continental American Life Insurance Co. of Houston.

J. Byron Saunders, chairman of the insurance commission, reports that one of the largest insurance firms, Lloyds of London, has agreed to pay the state an estimated $1,500,000 in premium taxes. Although not admitted to do business directly in Texas, Lloyds writes surplus insurance where amounts involved are too big for any admitted company to handle alone. Bills to tax such surplus insurance have repeatedly failed to pass the legislature.

Two mutual companies were placed in receivership after their permits were revoked by the insurance commission. They were American Home Mutual and Trans-County Mutual, both of Dallas.

STATE AUDITOR C. H. CAVENESS reports errors and irregularities in the records of Texas Southern University at Houston. TSU is a state-supported college for negroes.

Cavness said there was a shortage of more than $5,000 in the bookstore inventory which "may or may not" be connected with a $2,976 overage in the general store inventory.

"Texas Southern is among the most crowded of Texas' state-supported institutions of higher learning," according to the auditor's report. He said he did not believe the staff was adequate to keep proper records.

RESIGNATION of Federal Attorney Lunny F. Zweiner to join the state attorney general's staff leaves Austin without a federal prosecutor. U.S. Dist. Atty. Russell Wine of San Antonio said Zweiner would not be replaced.

APPEAL of the Upshur Co. Rural Electric Cooperative, from a Travis Co. court decision in favor of the state "on relation of Southwestern Gas & Electric Co.," was argued in Third Civil Appeals Court. Former Gov. Dan Moody was among counsel for the cooperative. Spokesmen for the co-op said the trial decision, unless reversed, would destroy all electric cooperatives.

At issue was the right of the Upshur County co-op to continue serving customers taken into the city of Gilmer by annexation. A controversial point is application of the law that co-ops may not serve rural customers where private utilities have facilities available to furnish the service.

AN AFL TEAMSTERS UNION OFFICIAL, Raymond C. Shafer, business manager for the Union's Local 657, was arrested by Texas Rangers and charged with playing a role in the August, 1954, bombing of an Austin warehouse during a labor dispute. The Austin Fireproof Warehouse was being picketed by the Teamsters Union at the time of the explosion. Shafer also faces charges in connection with a bombing in San Antonio in 1955.

PAUL L. WAKEFIELD, former state selective service director, has been promoted to major general in the Texas National Guard by Governor Shivers. Wakefield also was presented the U. S. Army citation of Merit. This by Major Douglas C. Pritchett, personal representative of Major General Lewis B. Hershey, national director of Selective Service. Wakefield resigned from the selective service post last September.

R. L. WHELOCK, Corsicana independent oil and gas producer and rancher, has been appointed to the Good Neighbor Commission. Governor Shivers named Wheelock to succeed Neville G. Penrose of Fort Worth who resigned a term that was to run until June 19, 1957, to become a member of the International Good Neighbor Council.

WILLIAM J. HARDING is the new public relations director for the Texas Insurance Advisory Association. He was editor of the Texas State Teachers Association magazine. He succeeds Jack Maguire, now executive secretary of the UT Students Association.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Spikes, of Ralls, were here last Friday, guests in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Olson and Mr. and Mrs. Will Snell.

Floyd County 14 Years Ago

(Taken from the files of the Floyd County Hesperian, issue dated Mar. 5, 1942.)

Wide interest over the county in the forthcoming Land Use Planning school on Mar. 10-11 presages an attendance that will equal if not considerably exceed any of the past three schools held. The program is scheduled to be held in the City Auditorium in Lockney and the two-day program, taking the place of one, makes it possible to widen the scope of subjects covered. Experts and specialists, who will speak from actual experience, are due to be at the school in numbers. Ben Quebe, general chairman, announces:

Miss Mary Helen Mickey, City and Mrs. A. S. Cummings, Sand Hill, were $1 cash winners in this week's mis-spelled word contest.

"Plant for victory" is Floyd County farmers slogan as the spring planting season approaches and in line with this slogan they are making preparation to plant and harvest the maximum of the high energy foods which they pledged last fall to produce.

Mrs. Woodrow Wilson and little daughters, Myrna Wooddyne and Sonja Beth, left Thursday for San Diego, Calif., where Mr. Wilson is employed in defense work.

A. S. Hollingsworth, agent of the Railway Express agency in Floydada since the establishment of a down town office in 1929, has been transferred as agent to the Midland office.

March quotas for Floyd County's tire-needy automobiles, trucks and tractor owners announced last week allocated by OPA are as follows: passenger car tires-14, tubes-12, truck and bus tires-75, tubes-84, retreads-32.

Moisture ample for all present needs is in Floyd County and high plains soils this week, following snow that fell over a wide-spread area Saturday and Saturday night. Furthermore mild temperatures accompanied the fall, with little wind and only moderate freezing.

INNATE WEAPON BRINGS RESULTS

In a little over a half century, the innate weapon has succeeded, even tho it has been talked against, lied about, and attempts to disprove it have been made.

The reasons for its success is, it is based upon scientific proof, the people who have made use of it realize its great value.

The first thing a chiropractic patient learns is that their health depends upon their nervous system. As long as there is no interference with the functioning of the nervous system, good health can be enjoyed. When such interferences occurs many symptoms and/or disorders may develop. The main objective of chiropractic care is to locate the interference, determine the type of spinal misalignment is causing it and then correct it. With this done, the body is able to utilize the innate weapon, (force), and restore the sick body to health.

To give you an idea of the broad scope of chiropractic, extended below are three cases which came to our clinic.

SCIATICA
Case 204 — Male. Two years in clinic, case fell off after which leg and pains developed and worsened. Upon entrance to clinic a spinal extension revealed the cause of his trouble. Upon correction of the cause, case returned very good and now placed his wife in our care who suffers from migraine headaches.

CONSTIPATION
Case 175 Female. Has to use 175 Femas daily to get bowel action for last 12 years. During this time she has been in and out of hospitals several times due to her bowels completely blocking. In desperation she turned to chiropractic and came to our clinic. After the examination she was placed under chiropractic till correction of the interference was completed. She returned recently for a check up and reported that during the last 5 weeks she has had 26 natural bowel movements.

ALLERGY
Case 201 — Female. Had rash broke out over entire body for past two years. After entering our clinic and completing the chiropractic spinal examination she was told she had nerve pressure which should be corrected. Thru chiropractic care correction occurred, the rash disappeared and has never returned. This woman's entire family is now under chiropractic.
