Bet on Favorable Cotton Weather

Time for the annual gamble on the right day and date to put cotton in the ground has hit in Floyd County this week.

According to ground thermometers the soil is hardly warm enough this week but there was sporadic planting of cotton all over the county as early as Tuesday. Otherwise than temperature irrigated ground is in ideal condition. If it continues to warm up the planted cotton will come on out to a stand and have a growing start when and if a rain spell hits around May 10. Then the grower will have been a smart fellow.

If the ground stays cold and it doesn't work out favorably the man can always plant another crop. Reports that weather thermometers were above, but that the County Agent Bill G. says whether or not it is so, he would not say.

With less than one cotton acre in the county, the farm equipment plant age planted quickly. The hard part will be to see what happens.

If any felt that cleaning up was a piece of state work.

If the shootists who are "making" street lights in Floydada and taking them out at a ping and tinkle think they have the light department bothered, they have it right.

Yesterday J. D. Parks, light division superintendent, said his boys replaced 14 lights that morning. They were shot out Tuesday night.

Cost to the city was about $25. Judging from the timing on the telephone calls he received, Parks was guessing the rovers began somewhere on South Wall and ranged to the northwest part of the city.

Callers said a car would drive up and stop at a light, there would be a ping, the light bulb would burst on the ground. A scorching sound of starting tires was the finale.

It happens pretty regularly, Mr. Parks said.

Vegetable Grower Head Visits Floyd

Ronald Davis of the Lubbuddy Community of Bailey County and president of the high plains growers association was in Floydada on Monday.

In a short visit to the Chamber of Commerce he gave the information in the organization of the vegetable growers association and that work was continuing on the west Texas vegetable market survey now underway by Texas A.&M. College and Texas Tech personnel.

The vegetable growing area of west Texas has been divided into districts by the association and a representative from each district made an official of the organization. While some counties were grouped together and allowed one representative, Floyd County was made a district within itself and will be represented by a Floyd county resident, Davis said.

A meeting of Floyd County farmers and businessmen who are interested in the future of vegetable production in the county will be held in Floydada on May 3 to elect the county representative to the area organization. The meeting is called by the Lockney and Floydada Chambers of Commerce.

H. I. Nealey, of Dimmitt, formerly of McCoey, in Floydada yesterday said that little or no planting is being done in his area this week.

Farm Bureau Executives Hear State Leader

R. L. Smith of Sterley and L. B. Brandes of Providence, president and secretary-treasurer respectively of Floyd County Farm Bureau, headed a delegation of Floyd County farmers who attended a district meeting of Farm Bureau executives at Lubbock Hotel Tuesday night.

They heard a talk by President Walter Hammond of the State Farm Bureau Association, following which a two hour session was given over to discussions from members. Paul Rein was given to complaints of high plains producers on differences in local, state and national organization policies.

In addition to Smith and Brandes the Floyd County delegation included Helmutt Quebe, of Providence, C. T. Morrison of Lakeview, Grady Walker, E. A. Williams, W. R. and Sam Puckett of Floydada, the last two named from the organization's service office.

County Pioneer Passed; Rites at Silverton

Daniel, 88, pioneer married to Miss Etta Frances Dickerson, who preceded him in death on March 8, 1946. To them were born four sons, two of whom, Robt. E. Daniel and Norvel Leroy Daniel, preceded him in death.

Surviving are two sons, J. M. and T. E. Daniel, both of Floydada. Other survivors include five grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

The Judge and his wife moved from Missouri to Briscoe County in 1892 and settled at Silverton, county seat of the newly organized county of Briscoe. He was the second county and district clerk of that county and also in the subsequent years served as county attorney and county judge of that county. He was admitted to the bar in 1912 and practiced law at Silverton until his retirement.

For 16 years he was secretary-treasurer of the Silverton National Farm Loan Association. Ten years ago he moved to Floydada to be near his sons here.

At the time of his death Judge Daniel was a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church of Floydada and of the Odd Fellows.

This picture of Judge and Mrs. J. E. Daniel was made on the lawn at their home in Silverton in the early forties. They were important figures in the history of Briscoe County. Mrs. Daniel passed in 1946. The Judge had made his home here for the 10 years, prior to his passing Saturday.

Tuberculosis As Plague Is Cut From First 10

AUSTIN — Last year for the first time since the Texas State Department of Health began keeping records of the cause of death, tuberculosis did not appear in the list giving the ten leading causes of death. Dr. Henry A. Holle, Commissioner of Health reports that tuberculosis was dropped from tenth place to eleventh and diabetes, a newcomer in the first ten, was ninth place.

Fifty years ago tuberculosis was first as a cause of death in Texas. It was sometimes called "Captain of the Men of Death," and the "Great White Plague." A concerted program for the elimination of this disease has been carried out over the years by official and non-official agencies with the help of the medical profession. Since 1940, the drop in deaths from this disease has been most rapid.

Dr. Holle warns the public not to become complacent about the situation, as 816 Texans died of this disease last year. The State Health Department carries on an extensive mass X-ray survey program to detect the disease in its early curable stage. These mass surveys not only discover tuberculosis but certain heart conditions, cancer and other abnormalities in the chest area. Advancement in methods of treatment, surgery and antibiotics all have contributed to lowering the death rate and returning the victims of tuberculosis to useful occupations.

Diabetes claimed 896 lives. This is a disease for which there is no known cure. When it is discovered early and kept under close medical supervision, diabetes need not interfere with its victims regular way of life. The disease can be kept under control by diet, insulin injections or a combination of these as decided by the doctor.

The ten leading causes of death account for 80 per cent of the deaths in Texas. In the order of their importance they are: heart disease, malignant neoplasms, apoplexy, accidents, certain diseases of early infancy, pneumonia, congenital malformations, general arteriosclerosis, diabetes and gastro enteritis.

IEWS AND COMMENT

Sam Houston said the Civil War was a needless catastrophe. He said it was fanned by hotheads on both sides. He had no patience with John C. Calhoun and his fire-eater coterie in the Congress and just as little with Abraham Lincoln and his abolitionists. The in-between people fought the war and the losers are still suffering its ill effects. But states rights is a very real issue still. It is accentuated by the recent activities of the supreme court. A loud minority is entreating the president to 'intervene in and establish law and order in the South.' People were ever thus. You can't talk states' rights without the racial problem being injected. Perhaps the supreme court will finally go far enough that the people of the nation will realize the seriousness of their plight and get hot under the collar about something besides how awful is the South.

Casualty Rates Lower. For an important segment of automobile drivers casualty insurance rates are going to be lower, according to announcement from the State Insurance Commission. The insurance companies have been doing a pretty good job of helping Uncle Sam "drain off" excessive incomes the past few years. The two have combined to make nightmares for the property owner. Practically impossible not to have one or the other "on" you every month in the year—and for a considerable "take" every time they call.

Mention of the Insurance Commission reminds us of the chortles we have enjoyed over the troubles of the members of that lordly and august body. A critical press has had some writers who dipped their pens in vitriol. Every time a writer belabored an insurance commission member with a new criticism or called them names we have taken a delight in seeing vicariously the cold sweat pop out and the commission member dampen a new handkerchief on his clammy brow. The commission members have been victims of circumstances. Some of them may have been guilty of indiscretions but none of them have been venal. But for decades they have lorded it like peacocks over city councils and insurance agents and newspaper people until it was a sin pity. They didn't have a friend to turn to when the time came they needed a friend to present them in kindly fashion. Everybody liked to see them fry in the fat.

Senator Johnson has four more years in the senate, and the possibility of being the candidate of his party for president, whereas Governor Shivers will go out of office in January. A supporter of the senator could possibly reap reward of office or other honors that came the way of the "faithful." The governor can promise backers nothing but an uphill battle with no foreseeable reward. The senator ought to win that one hands down. But the governor is young and he is a happy warrior. He can wait. He can battle and lose to win another day.

The Democrats who call themselves liberal-loyalists are pledging themselves in advance to lay down and roll over, regardless of what may chance to take place in the national convention in the fall. They read all and sundry out of the party who are unwilling to take this supine attitude. Ready-made to fit the inside of some vest pocket.

Showers Barely Discernible. Showers of the past week of thunder-stormy weather on the high plains of Texas were so slight as to be barely discernible. No trigger despite an overlaying load of moisture. But fortunately chill has also kept most of the planters out of the field, the row crop seed dry in the bin. Along come May soon.

A Stolen Forecast. Good honest folk who pay for their advance weather forecasts are being told that early May promises to be a good time to put seed in the ground, if they have moisture, like irrigated farmers do have. Good showery weather is due to follow, we hear Mr. Krick, the weather forecaster says. So, if one is a dry land farmer and can't afford to buy a forecast, he can use this one to great advantage. Plan to wait until May 20 to plant and kill a good crop of weeds when he can put his cottonseed and maize into moist, warm ground.

Wheat Still Thirsty. Floyd County wheat is still thirsty and some high plains areas have despaired of a wheat crop again. Some dry land wheat still holds a bit of promise, where it was summer fallowed. But by and large the plants have been too dry too long except on irrigated plots. It must rain shortly to salvage any profit from a wheat operation on dry land this season.

Boom Still Going. It does appear for sure that the boom in America is going and growing, despite the state of depression in the farm belt. So much so that another round of wage and price rises is in the making in such industries as steel. Big city realtors are still in full cry as they hunt new locations for new additions, more homes, more industrial sites, new and super suburban shopping centers. Doing very well, thank you, without farmer help.

White River Dam. It is encouraging to note that four cities slightly lower down than Floydada on White River are whipping plans into the making for added water supply. A feasible site has been found for a dam that would impound quite a little water for Spur, Post, Ralls and Crosbyton. On the upper reaches of the Brazos Salt Fork saline deposits have been the boogey boo. Borings have given no indication of such trouble at the site the engineers are recommending. Probably a good many hurdles yet to be jumped before the dream comes true, but the out look is good.

Farm Issues are still in a muddle, and since they are, no two persons seem to be in full agreement on what to do. Which augurs well for the president's ambition to succeed himself in office. Despite the discontent over farm conditions, the drought and farm supports, dyed in the wool Democrats are warned to look for Mr. Eisenhower to get a most substantial vote for president, even in Texas. Events could transpire to give him Texas again. Not Governor Shivers, not the "mess at Austin," not any other "overwhelming issue" but mamas and papas all over the land whose sons he has "kept out of war."

Fast experience should be a guide post, not a hitching post. —Dr. W. Williams, Vice-Chancellor, Texas A. and M.

Solid Support Voted Sanford By Newspapers

Solid support of the Texas Press Association and its manager, Vern Sanford, in a suit instituted by a defeated candidate for lieutenant governor, was voted last weekend by two regional groups of daily and weekly newspapers.

Meeting in Amarillo Saturday, 250 members of the Panhandle Press Association, voted "that this membership go on record as supporting Vern Sanford in every respect and for protecting the Texas Press Association from the suit instigated by C. T. Johnson and go on record as offering our moral support, financial support and our time in any way."

Earlier the same day 200 members of the Gulf Coast Press Association, meeting in Lufkin, voted "complete confidence in the integrity of Vern Sanford."

The GCPA resolution provided "that the Texas Gulf Coast Press Association continue its support of the Texas Press Association, its manager, Vern T. Sanford, and its president, Russell W. Bryant, in the fight being waged to correct the ills of the Texas Election Code, and furthermore be it resolved that this convention record a vote of complete confidence in the integrity of Vern T. Sanford and absolve him from any blame whatsoever in the vicious and false charges brought against him by a defeated and disgraced candidate of the 1934 state election."

The suit referred to in the two resolutions was that filed by Johnson early in 1936. He first brought suit against Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey. A suit against TPA followed, and earlier this year the McLennan Co. Grand Jury returned two indictments against Sanford.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Jones of Arvada, Colo., visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Sims, over the weekend.

IT'S TORQUE THAT MAKES THE WHEELS GO 'ROUND!

... And the High-Torque Output of Oldsmobile's Famous Rocket Engine is Instantly Translated Into Outstanding Performance at the Rear Wheels!

It's TALK TORQUE! In plain language, torque is "twist." It's the force that makes the wheels go 'round. As it follows... the more torque your car has, the more go power your car has, the more getaway at the light... the more action on the open road!

That's why, when it comes to power, there's nothing like Oldsmobile's Rocket Engine—because the Rocket is torque. Figures prove it: 350 pound-feet at 1700 rpm (340 pound-feet at 2400 rpm in models).

OLD CHASSIS IS ENGINEERED TO HANDLE HIGHER TORQUE! Oldsmobile has the chassis to take Rocket torque—a skillfully engineered Oldsmobile chassis with an extra-sturdy, dynamically balanced drive shaft, and an extra-sturdy frame that resists twisting and weaving.

What's more, the Rocket's got horsepower — to spare! And with Oldsmobile's high usable horsepower... a by-product of engine design aimed straight at the wheels — design that translates horsepower into terrific torque at normal engine rpm's.

TOP TORQUE MEANS TIP-TOP PERFORMANCE!

The result is higher torque—silken, responsive Rocket action. Touch the accelerator—ever so gently—you "go"... and we do mean "GO!" You thrill to smoother, swifter bursts of power for everyday use—spectacular performance, when you need it... when you want it.

Any way you look at it, you can't top the Rocket for thrills for the money—or for top return when it's time to trade. Stop by soon. Rocket 'round the block... or around the town if you like!

The group traveled by scout bus to the lake where they made camp and lunched by their rods and reels. The fish were not too cooperative but the boys all made a fair catch of crappie, cat, perch and some bass. They attended church at Kamay Sunday morning in a body.

ENJOYING THE TRIP with the boys were Fred Zimmerman Jr., I. H. Parks, Kinder, Farris, Greer, Christian and Mal Jarboe.

Farm Clean-Up Safety Factor

COLLEGE STATION — Disorder ranks second only to poor judgment as the cause of accidents. A recent study of hospitalized home accident cases disclosed that one out of every five was put there by disorder, says E. C. Martin, administrative assistant for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and chairman of the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Committee.

Farm and city dwellers alike can add to the pleasure of living by giving their farmsteads and homes a thorough spring cleaning. Martin suggests the elimination of all fire hazards as a logical starting point.

Trash, such as papers, old rags and rubbish, are fire feeders and make flames more difficult to control. Volatile fuels, paints, cleaners and insecticides should not be stored in the home. Check electrical wiring. Also all circuits for overloading and frayed or damaged insulation.

Falls cause many fatal farm accidents. Cluttered stairways, unsafe ladders, lack of handrails in both the house and barn, loose wires and poor housekeeping about the farm can all cause crippling falls. The solution to the problem is simple, says Martin, eliminate the hazards and then practice good housekeeping.

Check the medicine cabinet for old and unlabeled bottles and get them out of the way. Insecticides and other chemicals are safest when kept under lock and key. Foot injuries to humans and livestock can be kept at a minimum by getting broken glass, junk, loose wire and tin cans in the disposal pit. Nails should be removed from all boards whether loose or stacked.

Children are often injured, says Martin, when playing by improperly stored knives and sharp edged equipment and tools. Don't leave pitchforks, spades, hoes or rakes where they can cause an injury.

A clean farmstead means fewer rodents. Danger of disease and losses from damaged buildings to say nothing of the electrical hazards, needless feed bin and keeping a clean and steady appearance goes with performance efficiency and safety.

Veto And Promise

again. The farmer, in the prospects of the national economy, is holding the bag in empty promises. The national veto of the farm bill is the farthest hole in the pocket of the farmer. The farmer is left with only one hope in an attempt to...

justify this unjust action. The administration proposes as a substitute, that the Congress pass a soil-bank program which, they claim, if passed right away "could" give the farmer up to half a billion dollars in aid this crop year.

The soil bank has been the administration's mainstay; their obsession, and their cure-all for the farmer's ills. This, of course, is not entirely true. It has definite benefits, but is certainly no medicine to cure the low-price plague of our farmers. No single program could be expected to dispel the recent years of mounting farm depression.

The now-dead Farm Bill was one which was written by the farmers themselves. The Senate and House Agricultural Committees worked tirelessly with rural people all over the nation laying groundwork for the legislation. The bill was not 100 per cent perfect, but it would have at least given the farmers something to hold on to and would have stopped the price declines which are showing farm economy steadily downward.

In the words of Congressional leaders, there is "no hope" of passing another general farm bill this session. Administration claims of immediate price boosts on some commodities will be bogged down by laws now in effect, and the old farm enemy - the sliding parity scale - will likely stay with us.

Texas farmers are tired of promises. They haven't forgotten those made by the President at Waco during the last presidential campaign. The supports promised them were no more real than the economic boosts our farmers are now being promised.

Our agricultural population loses most through this tragic act. But in the long run, they won't suffer alone. Sound farm economy is essential to national well-being, and continued depression of agriculture is eventually sure to affect us all.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

The week of May 6-12 is Soil Conservation District Week in Texas. It begins on Soil Stewardship Sunday, May 6, when many churches will hold special services to recall man's duty to the land. During the rest of the week, most SCDs will present special tours, programs and field days to publicize District accomplishments and objectives.

Texas has 172 Soil Conservation Districts which embrace 96 percent of the land area of the state. These districts represent the greatest force — and the first organized, locally-controlled force — for the conservation of soil, water, plants and wildlife.

Each soil conservation district was organized only after landowners of the area voted to have such a district. SCDs are legal sub-divisions of state government, comparable to counties and school districts, but they have no taxing power. Each is governed by a board of five supervisors who must be landowners themselves and who are elected by farmers and ranchers of the District.

A soil conservation district helps its cooperating farmers and ranchers plan and apply conservation measures on their land. Following a master plan which was carefully prepared by farmer and rancher committees, each District works toward the goal of complete conservation for all the land in the District.

Supervisors function as a co-ordinating body to stimulate and guide the efforts of local groups and individuals toward achievement of the District goal. Technical assistance is provided by various agencies, such as Soil Conservation Service, Extension Service, Forest Service, and Vocational Agriculture teachers.

Any landowner can become a SCD cooperator by applying to the board of supervisors. Becoming a cooperator does not involve any financial obligation. Texas SCDs now have 172,000 farmer and rancher cooperators and the figure grows by 15,000 each year.

Last year these cooperators covered 1,180,000 acres and stubble-mulched 256,000 acres of Texas land. They controlled brush on 1,322,000 acres and had 6,963,000 acres under deferred grazing. They built 10,700 miles of terraces, 7,540 miles of waterways, built over 10,000 ponds and leveled 74,000 acres of land for proper irrigation.

Supervisors of the Floyd County SCD are: Bert Bobbett, R. G. Dunlap, Cecil Purcell, Fred Jackson and Gilbert Fawver. District offices are maintained at Floydada. The district has 950 cooperators.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Millican and guests, Mrs. Roy Levasor, Mrs. Ned Brewster and Dorothy, Mrs. Ollie Millican and Laverne and Hubert Pierce, went to Littlefield Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Walker and their new son. The baby was seven days old Sunday.

J. Y. Jordan, of the commercial department, Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, was in Floydada last weekend conferring with telephone patrons.
