

in Slows Combines; Cotton Weather is Good

Wheat Reports Are Optimistic

Returns from Floyd County dry land wheat fields have been better than the farm operators anticipated, according to reports so far, but the rain man has interrupted. Showers and dampness have prevailed for a week.

Probably 80 per cent or even more of the dry land crop is ready to be combined and many irrigated fields also had ripened by Wednesday. Heaviest runs have been at Dougherty, with Boothe Spur and Floydada close behind. Northward the movement of the crop is a little slower.

A rough guess is that 40 per cent of the dry land wheat has been combined. In these fields the average may run as high as 10 bushels. Some seventeen bushel crops have been reported with a larger number at 14 and 15 bushels, mostly seven to 12, with an occasional field as low as three bushels.

Elevator men say the dry land wheat has been of excellent quality with high tests. Some of the irrigated wheat is known to have suffered from the early May heat and wind and the trickle of this crop that has come in to date has been of lower than average test.

Wheat allotments in the county for 1956 totaled slightly less than 140,000 acres. Of this about 40,000 acres was on irrigated land, the remaining 96,000 acres being dry land crop. A slight per centage of abandonment has been noted.

If the weather permits the farm operators to harvest their wheat the total yield is likely to run 1,500,000 bushels.

MEANWHILE, COTTON farmers with the exception of still dry spots that dot the county, have gotten their crops into the ground in good condition, have a fine stand and most of it is clean. A few exceptions are noted where volunteer maize and weeds have grown in fields that are too wet to cultivate.

Generally speaking the state of the cotton crop at this date this year is equally as satisfactory as it has been in any recent years. Some insect infestation was noted last week with thrip the principal predator.

THREE SUCCESSIVE periods of falling moisture have marked the week in Floyd County — Wednesday evening and night of last week, Saturday night and Tuesday night of this week.

Everyone of them clipped a little more off of the dry area. About the only part of the whole county not now enjoying ample moisture for dry land planting lies in the vicinity of Floydada, Starke, McCoy and a bit of Sand Hill.

Lakeview, which has been on the dry side had more rain than at Floydada Tuesday night. At the Adams farm there was a half inch or more of rain.

At Antelope dry land planting has been stymied the same as at Floydada by lack of moisture. Rain in that area south of Dougherty has been light throughout the storm spells.

In the three periods Floydada had 25-hundredths Wednesday, 3-tenths Saturday and 25-hundredths Tuesday night.

Wednesday night's rainfall helped parts of Muncy, Sand Hill, Center, Fairview and Campbell where there has been a half inch or more of rain.

ON SOME irrigated farms the dry is for dry weather to give a chance for cultivation and for wheat harvest.

As much as two inches of moisture fell at some points in the county with each of the successive storm periods, notably Tuesday night at South Plains and Hillcrest.

Road Bond Petition Due To Be Filed Monday

With citizens of Floydada and Lockney readying petitions asking the Commissioners Court for a third try at voting $325,000 in bonds to provide right-of-way for cardinal highways through the county, the announcement came this week that $400,000 has been allocated by the State Highway Commission for highway construction in the year 1957-58 from Floydada to the Crosby County line.

News that the highway authorities had voted to make the allocation for the road south from Floydada was released out of Austin three weeks ago. However, due to the untimely death of Judge W. E. Grimes the information was not available locally until the latter part of last week.

Notice to the local authorities is dated May 24. It came out of the office of District Engineer S. C. McCarty, who said the "allocation covers reconstruction and widening the highway extending from Floydada to the Crosby County line."

This allocation, plus the allocation held up from 1954 for the highway from Floydada to the Hale County line, makes nearly $1,000,000 now awaiting the go ahead sign from Floyd County citizens.

Material change in the attitude of citizens in the vicinity of Lockney is believed there to have been effected by announcement that the same route would be followed by the highway as at present. Other property taxpayers have given their approval in two successive elections, but a two-thirds majority vote is required.

Keith Armstrong of Floydada Goes To Boys State Saturday

Keith Armstrong, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tilden B. Armstrong, will be the representative of McDermett Post, American Legion, this year at Boys' State, Austin, June 10 through June 16.

He will leave Saturday for the capital city, to join some 500 other Texas boys chosen from the ranks of the current junior classes of high schools on the basis of character, scholarship, and leadership, as well as the ability to get along with fellow students.

Jack Henry, of McDermett Post, headed the committee which selected Keith, with the aid of school authorities.

The post also chose Don Colley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira L. Colley for the trip to Boys' State. However, the post is advised it could not send more than one boy this year. Colley was then named alternate. One boy for each 100 members in the post is the rule this year.

"We regret we could send only one boy," said Mr. Henry.

The boys will participate in a strenuous schedule of activities in their week at Austin. Facilities of the University of Texas have been made available to the Legion for the purpose.

The boys learn to do by doing. The program is wholly one of training in the practical aspects of government. It attempts to show that our scheme of government has not outgrown its usefulness.

Recovery Seen For Victim Of Lightning Bolt

Authorities at Medical and Surgical Hospital and Clinic at Lockney yesterday said they expect complete recovery of Elmer Williams, Harmony farmer who was hit by a bolt of lightning Wednesday evening of last week at 6:20 o'clock, and was hospitalized in a state of shock and paralysis.

He is definitely improving this mid-week, is able to eat, has no paralysis, sits up a little in the hospital bed.

The bolt of lightning which preceded a rain raptured his left ear drum, but he has acute hearing in his right ear, hospital reports state. He has first and second degree burns only. His hearing returned to some extent over the week-end and he hears well at this time.

Few men are carried away alive from such a scene and the recovery of the patient will go down in the books as quite unusual, the attending physician said.

WILLIAMS WAS riding a small tractor and pulling a rotary hoe when the lightning stroke felled him last Wednesday. It was about 6:20 p. m., Mrs. Williams said.

She and her two boys, Elmer Dean and Leon were hoisting in an adjacent field. When it began sprinkling they got in a pickup and started by Mr. Williams. They were about 100 yards distant when the blow hit.

When she and her two sons reached the scene the motor had been killed. Her husband was slumped in the seat with one arm resting on a fender, the other on the steering wheel. He was wearing rubber shoes and was sitting on a foam rubber cushion.

The lightning struck him in the top of the head, traveled his left arm into the fender of the tractor. Nothing was left of his hat except the rim. The sleeve of his shirt was shredded. He had burns on the head and feet, also, indicating part of the bolt's strength had gone through his body.

MRS. WILLIAMS said her husband did not fall nor did his head strike any sharp object. Kelly Tucker and Zant Scott helped move the stricken man to the hospital.

A shock proof watch was still running but the expansion steel band on his arm had fused, indicating the intensity of the heat.

Mr. Williams has been farming since last fall. He is a son of a pioneer Floyd County couple, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Williams, now deceased. Mrs. Elmer Williams, before her marriage was Blanche Gary. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Gary, whose farm the Williams are operating this year.

A Pretty girl in a pretty setting was Miss Linda Gayle Clark Friday evening at her piano graduation recital. An unusually alert mind made it possible for Linda Gayle to make two years of high school-work and two years of piano in one year. In addition she was head cheer leader, home coming queen, and a member of the Student Council for the year.

Recital Climaxes Brilliant Year For Linda Gayle Clark

Linda Gayle Clark, presented in a piano graduation recital Friday evening, June 1, her piano recital, was received by an appreciative audience.

Her program consisted of five Bach numbers including three "Two Part Inventions", Prelude V from Well Tempered Clavichord and a Concerto Op. 13, No. 4, two numbers by Chopin (Waltz in A minor Op. 34, No. 2, and Mazurka in B flat), Aurora by Moszkowski, and the allegro movement of a Mozart sonata.

Others on the program were Joy Porter in a vocal solo, "Summer-time," Donald Smith rendering an organ solo and Darlene Dorrell with a reading.

Donald Smith was accompanist for the vocal solo and Bach concerto.

Rev. Tilden B. Armstrong gave the invocation and benediction.

Supr. I. T. Graves of the Floydada High School presented Miss Clark's diploma.

Ushers and attendants were high school music classmates, Darlene Dorrell, Patricia Hill, Gaye and Gayle Rosson, Roger Trapp, Kelly King and Dick Galloway.

Linda Gayle carried two years of high school work and also made two years piano this year. She was head cheer leader of the "pep squad" and a member of the student council. She was crowned home coming queen and was a nominee for the honor of football queen.

The teachers of Floydada High School elected Linda Gayle to "Who's Who" in the class of 1956.

Her determination to win and fulfill her duties was unexcelled and the climax to her music studies was the well rendered recital, Mrs. Fagan said.

Tyer Announces Swimming Class

Coach Chas. Tyer, who is spending the summer as superintendent for the Fire Department of the Municipal Swimming Pool said this week he has made plans for a swimming class to begin on June 18 at the pool.

Anyone who wants to learn to swim, including children, will be eligible for the lessons, he said.

Tyer said swimming would be taught in 15 lessons of an hour each, and there will be a flat charge of $5 per student.

One class will be held from 9 a. m. to 10 o'clock and another beginning at 10 and running to 11 o'clock. Persons who are interested can get in touch with Tyer at the pool.

ASC Office Has No Information Available On The New Farm Bill

News that the new farm bill has been passed by the congress and approved by the president has been an item of major interest on farms and in business circles generally, but the total of factual information about the rules and regulations is nil, so far as Floyd County is concerned.

As late as Tuesday provisions of the bill and the formulae for the administration of its provisions were still being discussed at the Washington level.

At the office of the Agricultural Stabilization Conservation Committee yesterday, Tom J. Hutchins said the committee had no information which they could give. "What you read in the papers is more than the Floyd County committee knows of officially," said Tom J. Hutchins, office manager. "We do have a copy of the law, sent the office by Congressman George Mahon. But we are not in position to stick our necks out hazarding guesses on what the procedures may be."

Mr. Hutchins said a telephone call to the state office of ASC this week had elicited the information that the local committee may expect to have "something in writing" by the early part of next week. The state office said policy was still being made.

There are new regulations on wheat, cotton and maize. Additionally there is the Soil Bank idea, on which the committee has no working formula. Out of Washington it is indicated that some of the provisions of this section of the law may be put into operation this year.

As soon as rules and regulations begin to come in for the guidance of the local committee all the personnel of the office will concentrate on getting the information out to the individual farmer, Mr. Hutchins said, but right now all that can be done is to beat time and wait.

THE DIAL system will require two letter, five digit numbers instead of the numbers now assigned to telephones here. For instance, a present number, 303-J, might become YUKON 3-3106. All numbers will have the prefix YUKON, followed by five numerals.

"We realize the inconvenience the number change will cause, but we hope that the people of Floydada will recognize the problem we face. The dials will not work on four digits and a complete number change is necessary," Oakley said.

New dial number lists are being compiled. The new numbers will soon be assigned and subscribers informed by mail.

"At the present time, we do not know what the individual dial telephone numbers will be," Oakley added. "Please do not inquire. Subscribers will be informed of their new numbers by mail and all the new numbers will be listed in the new dial telephone directory which will be distributed shortly before the cutover."

FORMER RESIDENTS PAY VISIT TO FRIENDS HERE

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gilliam of Dallas were visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Minor Sr., from Wednesday until Saturday of last week.

On Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Gilliam were named honorees of the Floydada Country Club by several of their friends.

TEMPERATURE READINGS

High temperature for the week in Floydada was recorded on Tuesday of this week with a reading of 99. Low was recorded last Friday morning with a reading of 61 degrees. Yesterday's high was recorded at 89 and the low at 65.

Schedule About Being Met Says School Builder

D. C. Bradshaw, job superintendent for Harry E. Miller Construction Company, reported yesterday that progress on the new high school building was almost on schedule.

Bradshaw said the steel and brick work was two-thirds completed and progress would begin to show more as the job continued.

About 30 men were busy Tuesday as the crew was preparing forms and pouring floor. Electricians and plumbers were carrying along their part of the projects as the job progressed.

NEXT PHASE of the construction will be the building of the roof deck which will get underway immediately on the classroom portion of the school building. Inside wall partitions will also be going up soon.

In commenting on the completion date Bradshaw said he believed the contractor would finish the job as scheduled for the opening of the fall school term.

SUPERINTENDENT I. T. Graves reported the opening date for school will be Monday, Sept. 3. Registration for some grades will be held before this date but the first official day of school will be the third of September.

Purchase of cafeteria equipment was approved at a school board meeting Tuesday night of this week. The Golden Light Company of Lubbock will furnish this equipment for the new building.

Curry Named Jr. High Coach

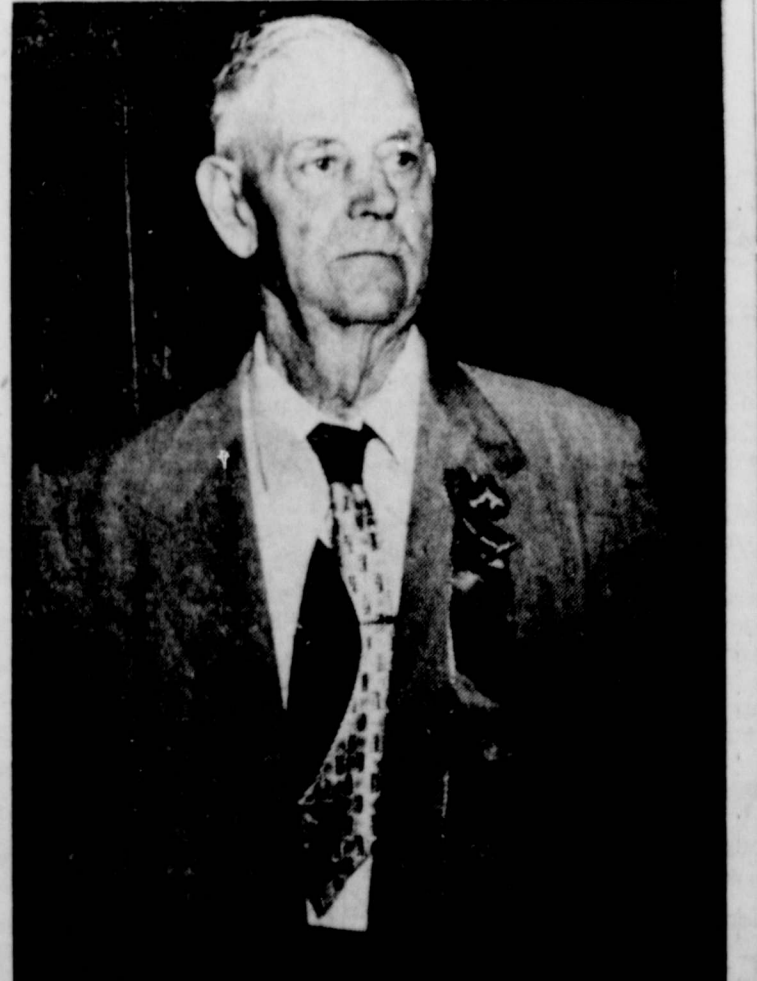

At a meeting of the school board Tuesday night Bill Curry was named junior high coach for the Floydada schools. Curry is a four year letterman from McMurry College in Abilene where he was graduated this month.

Coach Curry comes to Floydada highly recommended. He is a Plainview boy where he saw action on the gridiron and at McMurry where he played an end position.

At present Mr. and Mrs. Curry are looking for a home in Floydada and plan to move here as soon as possible.

AT MAYO CLINIC

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Daniel left Monday morning for Rochester, Minn., where Mrs. Daniel will take clinical treatment and possibly remain for surgery.

This candid shot might be titled "Portrait of a Pioneer" or a "Study in Character." The cameraman didn't get the wording on the badge but he did pick up the strong lines of the plainsman's features. Subject is George L. Fawver, who was recognized at the old settlers reunion as the outstanding pioneer of Floyd County for 1956. Mr. Fawver "got here" from Missouri in the fall of 1890 and still resides on the section of state land he filed on.

Senate Okeys Wester's Name

Floydada will soon have a regular postmaster.

For three and a half years, since the resignation of Mrs. Barbara H. Smith on Dec. 31, 1952, the post office has had only an acting postmaster, with Edward Wester, present incumbent, the fourth in line.

The appointment of Edward H. Wester to the postmastership was acted upon favorably by the Post Office and Civil Service Commission in its report to the senate on May 31.

The senate as a whole confirmed the nomination of the executive department on June 4, according to a wire Wester had from Senator Lyndon B. Johnson on that date.

The change in status from acting postmaster to postmaster will give the ex-Marine additional accruing benefits under the Civil Service Act as well as a slight increase in pay.

DR. AND MRS. MCINTOSH VACATION IN CHICAGO

Dr. and Mrs. O. R. McIntosh left Sunday for Chicago where they will spend 10 days vacationing and visiting with kinsmen of Mrs. McIntosh. They plan to be back in their offices again by June 14.

While the couple is away their practice is being carried on by Dr. Billy J. Welch and Dr. William Cauley of Lubbock, partners in the optometric firm, Mrs. Pauline Webb is serving as receptionist during the vacation period.

Dr. R. Earl Allen, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony before a green curtain background flanked with palms, white gladioli and candelabra. A kneeling bench completed the wedding scene.

Miss Nell Swinson, pianist, played traditional wedding music all through the ceremony and accompanied Miss Joy Porter as she sang "I Love You Truly" and "Wedding Prayer". The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length dress of white satin with ballerina length white brocade nylon over dress. The bodice was fashioned with a high neckline with a Peter Pan collar and long fingertip sleeves. She carried a white Bible topped with pink and white asters.

Mrs. F. D. Spruiell of Greenville attended the bride as matron-of-honor. She wore a light green taffeta ballerina length dress fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and long waistline, with a white brocade nylon over dress. She carried an old fashioned nosegay.

Mrs. Rex McFadden of Olton, Miss Bobbie Dewberry of Plainview, two sisters of the groom, Miss Mary Nell Love of Lockney, cousin of the bride, and Miss Juandell Norvell of Floydada attended as bridesmaids. They wore identical ballerina-length dresses of pink taffeta fashioned with sweetheart necklines and long waistlines.

Rex McFadden of Olton served his brother-in-law as best man. Ushers were Ronnie White of Plainview, Cliff Brownlee of Plainview, Willie Green of Olton, and Franklin Spruiell of Greenville.

Candlelighters were Miss Francis Stapp, cousin of the bride of Lockney, and St. Duncan, brother of the bride. Miss Stapp wore a pink dress of net and taffeta with a wristlet corsage of pink.

Following the ceremony a reception was given in honor of the couple by the bride's parents at the church parlor. The bride and groom were seated at a table with a tiered wedding cake. Miss Juandell Norvell, Miss Mary Nell Love of Lockney and Miss Darlene Dorrell, assisted with hospitalities. For traveling Mrs. Dewberry chose a blue two piece acetate suit with blue accessories and she wore a pink and white aster corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Floydada High School with the class of '36. The bridegroom is a graduate of Plainview High School and attended the University of Texas. At present he is serving with the United States Marine Corps.

The couple will be at home in Twenty-nine Palma Calif., where the groom is stationed, after June 12.

Money Problem In Wedded Life Causes Strife

Fights about money are one of the chief causes of marriage failure. Yet few engaged couples consider the problem seriously before marriage, according to June Whitbread and Vivian Cadden in Redbook. To help young people avoid the most common sources for financial disputes they give the advice of noted psychiatrists and marriage counselors on how money problems between husband and wife can be solved on a dollar-and-cents rather than an emotional level.

"One of the nastiest characteristics of disagreements about money is that they are often tied up with other problems. Money is often confused with pride, anger, love, hate and self-esteem.

Reveals Basic Flaw

"On the other hand, there are times when what seems to be a financial problem actually reflects a more basic flaw in a marriage. Dr. Edmund Bergler, a noted psychoanalyst, explains that many quarrels develop because money or the control of money is used as a weapon. A man may dole out money to his wife not because he is stingy but because she does out love to him. A woman may act like a spendthrift not because she has no financial sense but as a way of paying back her husband for real or imagined injuries.

"One of the best ways of sidestepping disagreements over money, obviously, is to give adequate thought to the subject before marriage. Elliot Draks, executive director of the Family Service Society of Yonkers, New York, says that lack of preparation is the leading cause of money problems in marriage. It is amazing how much engaged couples can learn about each other through a simple discussion of how to meet the extra expenses of marriage life.

"Special money problems often crop up in marriages where the wife is working. The wife in this situation must be prepared for inevitable resentment when she has to pass up a permanent wage in favor of the milk bill. The husband for his part, had better be ready to humor his wife out of a feeling of martyrdom, as well as to overlook outsiders' comments about his wife pulling more than her share of the load.

Wife On The Defensive

"More often, of course, it's the husband who brings home the pay envelope — and the wife who is on the defensive about money. Most authorities stress the importance of having the wife take an active part in budget-making.

"As long as a husband and wife are willing to discuss them rationally, money problems can generally be kept from becoming too serious. As one marriage counselor, Mrs. Hazel Baret Froescher of Philadelphia, explains, it is especially important that at least one partner maintain composure during a money quarrel.

"A budget may not be the key to all marital headaches, but at least it takes money out of the area of emotional conflict and puts it where it belongs in the realm of practical problems that can be solved.

"Here are a few basic rules that can apply to everyone:

"1. Neither partner should have sole control of the money.

"2. Neither partner should have to beg for money.

"3. Neither partner should have to account for every penny he spends. Even married people should feel free to buy a few things on their own now and then."

The Mark On The Forehead:

Two brothers, convicted of stealing sheep, were branded on the forehead with the letters S. T., meaning "Sheep Thief." One of the brothers was unable to bear the stigma, and tried to bury himself in a foreign land. But men asked him about the strange letters, so he kept on wandering restlessly, and at length, full of bitterness, died and was buried far from home.

The other brother said to himself, "I can't run away from the fact that I stole sheep. I will stay here and win back the respect of my neighbors and myself."

As years passed, he built a reputation for integrity. One day a stranger came and saw the old man with the letters on his forehead. He asked a native what they signified.

"It happened a great while ago," said the villager. "I've forgotten the particulars, but I think the letters are an abbreviation of 'Saint.'"

Feeder Lines Contract Let

Industrial Electric of Lubbock has been awarded a $2,000 contract for changes ordered in the electric feeder lines out of the generating plant.

A heavy increase in the load in the west and southwest section of the city made the change over necessary, it was said at the city office.

The contract was let at a special meeting of the council on Tuesday night of last week. Work is due to begin Monday.

Also at the special meeting the council named Charles Horton to succeed B. V. Carver, resigned, as superintendent of the waterworks department of the city.

Carver has moved to Diversion Lake near Wichita Falls. Horton has been with the city for five years, the last three years in the water department.

Donnie Holladay will begin work in the waterworks department on June 15.

MISTAKEN IDENTITY

Settled comfortably behind the afternoon paper, my father was interrupted by a phone call. We gathered from the conversation that there had been a traffic accident between the caller's car and my mother's. When my father said, "No, Mrs. Adams has not mentioned a word of this to me," we sensed real drama.

Being a patient man and not easily upset, my father listened to further details. Then he asked, "Did I understand you to say that my wife admitted it was her fault?" A short pause. "Well then, my good man," father stated firmly, "I'm sorry, but you must have the wrong Adams!" — Exchange.

Pardon, Your Slip Is Showing

From the Martinsburg, W. Va. Journal: "With 23 1/2 pints, the two ladies were high players in four tables of duplicate bridge."

From the Winnipeg Tribune: "Winnipeg needs a completed TV network, so that viewers can get live TV from hither and yawn."

I do not believe you can do today's job with yesterday's methods and be in business tomorrow.

HIGHER AND HIGHER LEARNING — A rising skyline has been proposed to meet the University of Texas' critical classroom needs.

Pres. Logan Wilson suggests that the only two remaining sites on the original 40-acre campus be used for eight-story buildings. Most present buildings have four floors. For development five to ten years hence, Dr. Wilson recommends expanding to the east of the present campus in the area adjacent to Memorial Stadium.

"TV TRIAL" APPEALED — Fairness of the first televised murder trial in Texas history is being challenged in the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Defense attorneys charge that Dist. Atty. Tom Moore of Waco was more interested in "putting on a show" in the Waco trial of Harry L. Washburn, than in giving the man a fair trial.

LAW VIOLATION ADMITTED — Violation of Texas Election laws was admitted by C. T. Johnson in a deposition just taken in Austin. Johnson admitted spending $1,200 in travel expenses during his 1954 campaign for Lt. Governor, but reported only $125 to the Secretary of State. Previously he had testified under oath that he had spent "no more and no less" than $125.

TRUST CREDITORS FACE TANGLE — US Trust and Guaranty Co. depositors still may have a long, weary wait for their money.

At one time State Liquidator J. D. Wheeler said he hoped to be able to start making partial payments after July 1. With that in mind a Fort Worth woman now seeks court action to designate her a preferred creditor because she is a depositor.

SHORT SNORTS — Walter L. Bell has resigned as director of the State Board of Control effective Oct. 15. He has held the job since 1953. He has no immediate plans except to return to his Ft. Worth home and rest.

The Rev. James Hamilton, Clark, chaplain of the Texas House of Representatives for the past 10 years, has passed away. He had been a Methodist minister in various South and Central Texas towns and served seven terms as county judge in Johnson City before becoming House chaplain. Texas Health Commissioner Henry Holle reported that "practically all" nursing and custodial care homes in Texas have been licensed and are meeting requirements of the licensing law which became effective June 1, 1953. Texas has 466 homes under state license.

Mrs. Hambright Is Visiting In Texas

Mrs. Anna Hambright of San Diego, Calif., has been having a three months vacation trip visiting her sons and other relatives in Texas. She left San Diego early in April and expects to be back there the first part of July.

After visiting one son, Homer and family in McLean, Tex., she visited another son, Frank and family in Alameda. From there Mrs. Hambright visited her brother, Henry Jones and family at Big Springs.

She purposely planned her trip to arrive in Floydada for the night of the Old Settlers reunion which she said she thoroughly enjoyed. She visited with friends she had not seen for many years. Mrs. Hambright moved out to California 20 years ago and has made almost yearly pilgrimages back here to visit her family since then.

In Floydada, Mrs. Hambright has been a guest of Will Hambright and his family of the Lakeview Community. From here she will visit a son, John and family of Olton before returning to San Diego.

The area of severe hail damage centering at Barwise Wednesday night of last week also extended southward into the west part of Harmony North of Floydada toward South Plains a hail area did damage on about six farms in the vicinity of John K. West and E. P. Pritchett.

Gin men say the last of the season's plantings were going into the ground this week.

Saturday night's bright and noisy thunder and lightning storm brought only 3-tenths of an inch of moisture but it furnished Floydada residents an interesting half-hour.

Only service call reported was to the L. G. Withers irrigation power plant in the southwest suburbs where the transformer was a ball of fire for several minutes. The transformer and fuse switches were knocked out but no damage done to the well motor.

Flues at the Withers residence were burned out also and some damage done to the Servel refrigerator, as the lightning grounded through the gas line. The house did not catch fire. Mr. Withers was down-town when the lightning struck.

The Floydada Fire Department was called out about 9 o'clock Saturday evening after lightning struck a gasoline pump at the headquarters of the Stringer farms near Barwise.

J. D. Parks, fire chief, stated the pump was destroyed but the firemen kept the blaze from spreading.

NERVES ARE CLUE TO COLITIS

Colitis is a disease which offers almost a perfect example of one of chiropractic's principles: that the location of the symptom itself may be quite far removed from the real source of the trouble.

A colitis sufferer is inclined to think that is where he feels the pain. In many cases, however, the real difficulty lies in the nervous system.

Most people suffering from colitis are not desperately sick, but they may be miserable, and this suffering is as real as though there were an active ulceration of the colon. They may have colicky pain, belching, rapid heart action (palpitation).

Normally the bowels will notify us when the load is sufficient and should be disposed of. Under ordinary conditions of living we are more or less creatures of habit, and do our daily tasks at about the same time. We eat at about the same time and consume approximately the same quantity daily, but foods vary markedly in the amount of material to reach the waste storage department. Hence, some days there is much more residue than in other days, and the bowels may need to be emptied twice, while at other times, a day or two may be missed, and we still would be perfectly normal. We are truly fortunate in having this elasticity, and not being held to a rigid daily formula. The disaster comes when we worry about it.

Colitis (often better called "irritable colon") develops from an irritation of the nerve system. It occurs most frequently in high-strung, nervous individuals. This explains why chiropractic is particularly effective for colitis. The chiropractor is able to direct his attention to the nerve wires going to the intestine and remove any irritations or short circuits therefrom. Spinal adjustments have helped thousands of cases of colitis.

What do ladies talk about when they meet at a luncheon or tea?

After you've been on a desert island of work for several months, then get back into a party atmosphere, the things that interest women seem as varied as window shopping.

Making a rose garden — the grandchildren — the place the honor guest is moving to — the commencement speaker — the new preacher — a trip to New York — shows on Broadway — movies — getting a suntan — the tuberculosis checkup in the schools — television programs — the son's career — a new baby — clothes — a novel — the weather — Alaska — diet — politics — summer vacations — what ever happened to the Smiths — a new home — air conditioning — atomic cooking.

If we took an encyclopedia and started through it from A to Z, we probably wouldn't find any more variety than ladies who let themselves go to be entertaining can think up during the course of a luncheon or tea.

Conversation, once the stock-in-trade of every social gathering, has been pretty much supplemented by games, business talks, and watching t.v. But given a chance, women — or men — will assert their natural instincts for gathering and imparting news. And while really thoughtful discussion is pretty rare for most of us, we do occasionally get a stimulating topic going when one person is present who is looked to as an authority on his subject. Otherwise, it's likely to bog down in a lot of half-truths and argument without fact.

Who knows? If we didn't have so many conversation killers in our civilization these days, we might find talking could be good clean fun!

VIEWS AND COMMENT

In Floyd County right now, and probably in every farming county in the nation, the question uppermost is what does the new farm bill mean, how it will be interpreted by the agriculture department. It is likely to be several days before county committees learn exactly where they are "at," and be able to pass the information on to farm operators. Only this week the provisions of the bill were still being discussed at Washington level. And Secretary Benson was giving out releases about what the Soil Bank plan might mean for the year of 1956.

The competitive world of fibers presents a challenge to cotton growers and processors. While some are supinely admitting defeat and forecast doom of cotton production in the future on anything like the present scale, others are taking the challenge in high spirit and declare cotton people can open up untold opportunities. They point to the possibilities of cheaper and better methods of producing, spinning, weaving and finishing of cotton textiles but also view completely new use for cotton outside the spinning industry. Their ideas are not wholly fantastic even to the layman.

For instance, in the production of cotton, with which local people are familiar, it is well known that a stalk of cotton "puts on" at least twice as much cotton as it ever matures. Squares and blooms every year fill the middles in almost every field. A way can be found to save these lost bolls of cotton, so that a two-bale crop can be made a four-bale crop and so forth. Twice as much production on a stalk would certainly help cut the cost of production. Anything you can imagine you can do.

Estes Kefauver believes that he was shunted aside in 1952 as the presidential nominee of the Democrats by the Democratic bosses, embarrassed by his crime probes as the senate crime buster. Texas' Mr. Sam had considerably to do with the denouement at Chicago in 1952. The Tennessee senator started a repeat of the famous William Jennings Bryant tactics, now political history. When he got to the platform, thinking he was to launch a speech he was shunted aside, either in a quick-thinking play of his own by Mr. Sam or on a signal, and the senator found himself cooling his heels in an anteroom before you could say Jack Robinson. Little things like that go to make up a man's fate.

Texas State Democrat convention was viewed in this manner by the reporter for the Christian Science Monitor: "A political revolution has swept the Texas Democratic Party. In one of the most significant changes in Dixie politics, Lone Star State Democrats have revamped their party into an organization more nearly resembling the big-city dominated Democratic Parties of the North and East. It was a 180-degree turn from conservatism to liberalism." Our own idea is that Texas "loyalists" are going to find themselves embarrassed by the strange doctrines preached in their name when the fall campaign is on.

Accelerated activity may confidently be expected in the road building program in Texas and that at an early date. The principal emphasis is laid by congress on the cardinal highways of the nation in an effort to loosen up the traffic on these arteries of communication. Meanwhile, in such counties as Floyd the residents of rural communities are pushing for paved roads for rural and school bus routes as well as for other areas not yet served by hard surfaced roads. Declarations repeatedly made that the cardinal highway program will be beneficial, not detrimental, to farm-to-market road building falls on deaf ears. The State Highway Department has estimated that $57 million more will be provided for Texas road building the first year of the stepped up federal program.

Floydada Has Just slightly above the average tax rate of 189 Texas cities in a survey made recently by the University of Texas Institute of Public Affairs. The average tax rate for these cities was $1.45 in 1955, the Floydada rate is $1.50. However, a point not made in the report is the valuation basis on which the rate is established, quite important to the man who has to pay the bill. Floydada councils may have been somewhat archaic in this respect, but it sounds good to the taxpayer to know that his basis of valuation has changed little, except for adjustments or equalization, in two decades or so. The report has some cities in Texas indicated with a tax rate as low as 25 cents and one with 15 cents. Nine small Texas cities levied no ad valorem tax whatever in 1955. At the other end of the scale are eight cities which have levied the constitutional limit of $2.50. These were in instances where emergency demands, mostly for water, called for heroic effort.

The Bricker Amendment. Although it might cramp the style of the state department and it might make for confusion at times, we believe the Bricker Amendment to the constitution should be adopted. This amendment reaffirms in plain language that the executive department cannot make treaties which are in conflict with the constitution. We are reminded of this again in a report of a senate committee, from which report we lift two sentences. "Undoubtedly, it is best to establish once and for all, by unequivocal language, that the treaty power cannot be used for purposes in conflict with the Constitution. . . . "Where basic constitutional rights are concerned, the protection and good will of men have always been considered inadequate."

LOCKNEY — The local Chevrolet dealership was recently transferred from Arthur P. Barker Sr. to Arthur P. Barker Jr. it was announced this week by members of the firm.

Farm Bureau News

(By Chester Carthel)

I am afraid I have not been doing as good a job as it is necessary to do in writing this column for the papers. It just seems like there is not enough of time in the days to do all of the things that it is necessary to do. But, here we are back again this week after some weeks of absence.

We have had some wonderful rains in most of the county. The rain is indeed a blessing to all of us. I imagine everyone will be fairly busy for several days trying to work out of the weeds as well as it is possible to do. There are in this county, as well as in other counties in this state, a lot of weeds which we are not doing too good a job of controlling. I am speaking mostly of bindweeds, Johnson Grass, and blueweeds. We have thousands of acres of just these three noxious weeds in the panhandle of Texas, not to mention others.

The Farm Bureau in Floyd County put forth much effort toward the passage of a noxious weed control law in the last session of the legislature. It is necessary under the provisions of this law to organize weed control districts before this law can become effective.

Farm Bureau in this county is making a concentrated effort at this time to secure the signatures of at least 50 people to a petition to be presented to the commissioners court asking the court to call an election to determine whether or not we want to organize a weed control district.

This petition must be accompanied with $500.00 to help pay the expense of the election.

The Farm Bureau has asked each person signing to contribute at least $2.50 or more toward this fund. We have some money on deposit now and some signatures to the petition, but we need more of each if we are going to hold this election.

If the election is not called for any reason, you will be repaid the amount you contributed, or if the election carries, then you will be repaid out of funds which the district collects.

I feel sure you will agree with me that this is indeed an urgent matter. We have only to drive up and down the roads in this county and observe our fields and roadsides to determine whether or not this is a pressing problem. I would urge you to contact one of the directors of the Floyd County Farm Bureau and sign a petition and contribute what you wish or go into the Farm Bureau office in Floydada and attend to this right away — NOW!

H.A.C. Brummett Jr., of Lubbock, was a business visitor in Floydada Monday. While here he visited with his father, Judge H.A.C. Brummett.

Mr. and Mrs. Ersel Matthews and family, who are now making their home at Altus, Okla., after several years at Corpus Christi, were weekend guests here in the home of Mrs. Matthews' parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Collins.

I wish to thank all who have been so kind and thoughtful of me since I have been confined to my bed, for the many cards, letters, flowers, food and gifts.

Yams On National Diet

The Sweet Potato Industry has reached a historic milestone last year when more than 100,000 bushels of graded and sweet potatoes were found their way to the markets.

Yams were made possible through a grading and inspection law passed by last year's state legislature. Until last September when the measure became effective, Texas yams were shunted at national markets in favor of graded potatoes from other areas.

Since then, however, the Texas Department of Agriculture which administers the law has processed 1,938,847 bushels for the industry. An additional 100,000 bushels were graded and inspected for individual farmers.

Since the program began, market outlets for the Texas product have developed in Detroit, Chicago, New York and several western states where buying is strictly on a graded basis.

The state inspection and grading service is operated on a self-supporting basis with no additional cost to taxpayers. Small service fees collected on the large movement take care of all expenses and add up to bigger profits and expanded markets for the producer.

Principal growing area for Texas sweets is centered around East Texas, although there is scattered production throughout the state. Last season's production amounted to about 3,480,000 bushels. This was slightly below the 10-year average of 3,664,900 bushels, mostly due to reduced acreage. Only 29,000 acres were planted to sweet potatoes, compared to the average of 46,000 acres.

However, yields were extra good last season. Average production was 120 bushels per acre, considerable more than the normal yield of 75 bushels.

If such crop conditions continue in the future, new-found market outlets through better standards promotion can make the sweet potato one of Texas' prize crops.

Reeves-Bell Vows Are Solemnized In Church Ceremony

Miss Carol Vivian Reeves, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Reeves, and Ted Barnett Bell, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bell, exchanged wedding vows at 8 o'clock Saturday night in the First Baptist Church of Floydada.

A double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Joe Wilson, uncle of the bride, before an archway entwined in lace fern and white mums. Spiral candelabras holding cathedral tapers flanked by large palm and white satin ropes marked the bridal aisle.

Mrs. J. B. Stinnett of Lubbock played wedding marches and accompanied Mrs. T. H. Hale of Lubbock as she sang "Because," "All For You," and "Wedding Prayer."

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a white tulle-length taffeta dress designed with a softly folded cummerbund and bow. The circular skirt was tiered with tiny ruffles. Her veil of imported illusion was shoulder length. The bride carried a crescent shaped bouquet of red garnet rose buds and white mainie.

Miss Dorothy Elam of Albuquerque, N. M., attended the bride as maid-of-honor. She wore a pale blue taffeta, waist-length dress fashioned with a circular skirt. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink shaded carnations tied with blue satin streamers.

Jim Ross of Folmet served as best man. Ushers were Jack Reeves of Roswell, N. M., Raymond Reeves of South Plains, and Bob Reeves of Kingsville, all brothers of the bride.

Following the ceremony a reception was given in honor of the couple by the bride's parents in the parlor of the chapel. The table was centered with crystal appointments holding an arrangement of white carnations decked in blue and silver.

For a wedding trip to New Mexico and Colorado, Mrs. Bell chose a three piece blue suit of imported Italian cotton with black accessories for traveling. She wore a corsage of red sweetheart roses.

Mrs. Bell attended Hardin-Simmons University at Abilene and Southwestern Seminary at Fort Worth. Before her marriage she was employed as junior director at the First Baptist Church in Lubbock.

The groom attended Texas Tech College, Lubbock, and is presently employed as contract mail carrier in Floydada.

The couple will be at home in this city after June 9.

As A Farm Woman Thinks

Well the Ralls Seniors have returned as have the Seniors of many schools in the Plains Area. The stiff can-cans, the many colored sport shirts, the crisp new dresses, the sport coats and slacks, how nice they looked when they were packed to go away. Now they come home, limp, soiled and ready for mother's washing and ironing. The Seniors came home sleepy, tired, but happy with memories of a wonderful trip closing their long years of public school lessons and activities.

I watched them, as many of you did, come off the Assembly Line of the Ralls High School. I thought of the many teachers that had helped in the assembling of boys and girls for their place in life. I thought of the sacrifices of parents, the hard study of the boys and girls themselves. Every one had added a necessary part of the most important job of all, the helping of the youth of our land to carry on and make this old world a better place in which to live.

Each one of you grandparents felt about your own as I felt about ours. We had watched Joe Ellis go to his first school on the big school bus. When he got home that afternoon he said, "Grandmother, we must have gone 30 miles, we went almost to Oklahoma." And his last of school ended on a big Greyhound bus and he saw much of Texas.

We are very proud of our young folks. They have had many opportunities of course the older ones never dreamed of, but they have also had temptations and many things to defeat them and they have gone forward to victory. Now the Class of 1956 has gone into history. It made a place for itself and brought an honor to Ralls and the surrounding territory that makes all of us very happy and proud.

The rain was so nice. I watched the hail fall, but the wind did not give its support and the garden and flowers were not harmed very much. We wish all the country had had the rain.

Mary Ann Wilson Becomes Bride Of J. W. Mallard Jr

Miss Mary Ann Wilson became the bride of James Willful Mallard Jr. in a double-ring ceremony read Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock by the Rev. Joe Wilson, great uncle of the bride, at the Fairview First Baptist Church.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Walton B. Wilson of the Fairview Community and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mallard Sr. of Alpine, Tex.

Mrs. Bill Hardin, pianist and cousin of the bride, played traditional wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a blue silk chrome-spun dress. The bodice was studded with rhinestones and pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with white gardenias and carried a crocheted handkerchief belonging to Mrs. Dean Wala.

Miss Judy Wilson served her sister as maid-of-honor. She wore a pink nylon organza dress with a white carnation corsage. Miss Margaret Ann Mallard, sister of the groom of Alpine, served as bridesmaid and she wore a yellow nylon organza with a white carnation corsage.

Tommy Mallard of Alpine served his brother as best man. Leonard Wilson, brother of the bride, was usher.

Following the ceremony a reception was given in honor of the couple by the bride's parents. The bridal table was laid with a lace cloth over pink. The bridal cake centered the table along with floral arrangements.

Mrs. Mallard is a graduate of Floydada High School and Texas Tech College in Lubbock. She was a Spanish teacher during the term of 55-56 in Odessa Public Schools.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Odessa High School, Odessa Junior College and Texas Tech College. At present he is a student at the Southwestern Seminary, Ft. Worth.

The couple are at home in Fort Worth.

SUNDAY, JULY 22, IS "DIAL DAY" in FLOYDADA

FLOYDADA'S new dial system will go into service at 12:01 a.m., Sunday, July 22.

Telephone central office installers are busy completing the installation of complicated dial switching equipment in the new telephone building.

Dials have been placed on all telephones in the city, but until July 22, continue to give your calls to the operator — do not turn the dial, as this may interfere with your service.

Then at 12:01 a.m. on July 22, a signal will be given... hundreds of switches will click into place... and Floydada will have fine, modern dial telephone service.
