

First 1956 Maize Reaches Floydada Market Monday

Grim Battle on to Save Crops From August Heat

Receipt of the first load of maize of the 1956 crop Monday high lighted the grim battle that is being waged by Floyd County farmers to salvage their booming irrigated crops from the heat of a mid-August heat wave.

While a most fortunate area of the county, north and particularly northeast, has had continuing showers that have made good growing conditions, the major part of the county is in the grip of a drought that only irrigation water can counter.

In many instances, where nature has refused rainfall to help out, the feed crop is being sacrificed to the more profitable cotton.

Dry land in the rain-less area is already "through and done," so far as current hope of production is concerned.

The first three days of the week have brought several hours of sizzling heat from mid-morning to mid-afternoon, temperature recorded up to 100 degrees. The heat is wonderful for cotton where there is ample moisture and most of the 35,000 acres of cotton is being given that.

But for maize the story is different on many farms where irrigation wells have been called on "to cover too much territory" in a dry year.

YESTERDAY elevator men in Floydada were saying that the vol-

1955 WOOL SUBSIDY PAID

Wool subsidy payments on the 1955 operations of Floyd County wool growers were paid off last week from the ASC office, a total of $17,372.77 being checked out to 125 sheep raisers who had marketed wool during the year of 1955.

INTERESTING diversion from the talk of cotton and maize production are the fabulous crops of onions just harvested, the report of cabbage fields that are beginning to form heads, and carrots and pepper and tomato crops due to reach harvesting stage soon.

Pyle Brings First Maize to Elevator

The first load of the 1956 maize crop of Floyd County reached the Floydada market Monday, August 6, when Louis Pyle of Lakeview brought in a load to Producers Elevator here. The maize was grown 2 1/2 miles east of Lakeview on land which had only been watered in beds before planting.

The first load was of the Martin variety and weighed 6,460 pounds. Moisture content was only 12.08 percent and the test weighed 56 pounds per bushel. Pyle said he started combining Saturday and finished up the small patch Monday morning. The per acre yield was not high due to lack of moisture as the crop matured.

THE MAIZE was cut from the L. H. and Gus Hammonds land east of Lakeview, and was planted the last of March.

Producers elevator bought the load at the current market price of $1.80 per cwt. and paid an additional 10c per bushel premium. Loan value Monday for the grain was $1.68 net to grower.

The first load this year beat the 1955 crop by 24 days. Last year the first cutting was by Clarence Jones and reached the market on August 30.

ELEVATOR MEN expect the early planted maize will be moving in some volume before Sept. 1 with the late crop running about on schedule around the frost date or after. Irrigated maize this year is reported to be good though some early maturing fields are being partially harvested around the edges by birds. Dryland acreage harvested will be light because of the continued drought in most all parts of the county.

First Bale Talk Gets In the Air

Talk of cotton beginning to open in the fields and the probability of early maturing crops has helped to focus interest on the $100 prize offered annually by Floydada Chamber of Commerce for the first bale.

The first bale of Floyd County cotton brought to the courthouse square will be awarded the prize by the Retail Trades Committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

Bill Hale, chairman of the committee, made the announcement this week.

The bale must weigh 475 pounds or over and be grown in Floyd County by a county farmer. It may be ginned by any Floyd County gin.

The first bale delivered to the south west corner of the courthouse square will receive the $100.00 check upon notification to committee chairman Hale or the Chamber of Commerce office.

FAWVER-WILLIS REUNION SUNDAY AT MacKENZIE PARK

The Fawver and Willis families, pioneers of Floyd County, will have their annual reunion Sunday, Aug. 12, an all-day affair, at MacKenzie State Park, Lubbock. Bring a basket lunch and enjoy the day.

The grocery bill of this Floyd County family is budgeted at $380 for 12 months. They plant and care for a "staggered" garden, grow their own beef and pork, their own milk supply incidentally, and use a deep freeze the year round. It can be done because they are doing it. Shown are Mr. and Mrs. James Jeffress who operate the John Stapleton farm north of Sand Hill, their daughter Beverly, and (if you look closely) Jimmy and Timmy in the top picture, and in the lower picture a well.

Family of Five Lives Well on $32 Budget

The James Jeffress family who live three miles north of Sand Hill have an answer for the high cost of farming and falling agriculture prices. They are meeting the high cost of farm operating by carrying out a good live-on-the-farm program.

The Jeffress family have approximately 1/2 acre of garden with more than 35 different varieties of vegetables.

The family is a 5-member family and the value of their live-on-the-farm program is valued over $700 each year. Their grocery bill never has exceeded $380 for the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeffress know of no other item on the farm any more important than their garden. To save time and labor, the Jeffress family plant their garden and plant and cultivate mostly by tractor. They stagger their garden planting so they can have an early garden and a fall garden.

End of Onion Harvest Reached As Growers Climax Good Season

The onion harvest and marketing season is over in Floydada, this week, with the equivalent of 300 carloads shipped from fields of the area.

The last of the jumbo crop of Spanish onions had gone out Wednesday, marking the close of the most successful season since onion growing was undertaken here four years ago.

Good production and fabulous prices made the 12 grower members of Floydada Growers and Marketing Association and their associates good money, as well as others who pitched onion crops in February and March.

South Plains Onions make a bit of history. Pictured here are 40 jumbo Spanish onions filling a 50-pound bag, standard of the trade, from the field of Tom Sneed at Barwise. For reasons not known locally jumbos have been in big demand this season.

First Maize of the 1956 season reached Floydada Monday, when Louis Pyle, Lakeview, marketed a load of good quality Martin maize at Producers Elevator. It had low moisture content. Shown in the picture, unloading the truck, are Jimmy Vickers, Mr. Pyle, Manager Roe Jones and Dale Emert. Elevator operators say more maize fields are nearly ready for the combine and that August will see a considerable volume of feeds harvested.

Invitation Golf Tournament Dates Set For August 16-19

Floydada Country Club will hold its first annual invitational golf tournament starting Thursday August 16 and continuing through Sunday August 19.

Qualifying rounds for medalist play will be held on the 16th with all other entrants asked to qualify by forwarding score to host pro, C. G. Griffin by noon on that day.

Matched play will be held on Friday, Saturday and Sunday of next week. Sixteen main flights are planned for the journey. The entrance fee is $10.

Club officials are expecting a host of excellent golfers from over west Texas for the tournament. C. G. Griffin will be in charge of accommodations for visiting golfers and those seeking lodging for the meet will contact him. Local golfers and club members are asked to also see Griffin if they are able to take in a visitor in their home during the tournament.

A barbecue is being planned for Friday night and other social functions will be held at the club to run along with the golf play.

Bill Brown is chairman of the tournament committee and has appointed a staff of workers to assist him with the meet. Club golfers feel they have one of the better golf courses in west Texas and have labeled it "the prettiest course west of the Trinity and east of the Pecos."

How well area golfers will respond to invitations to the Floydada tournament is still a matter of speculation. Those who have seen or heard of the Floydada course are almost sure to come as it is fast building a reputation for itself by its rugged natural beauty and difficult natural hazards.

The irrigated fairways and grass greens are in their second year of growth and local golfers feel they will have to make no excuses for their condition or eye appeal.

The club grounds are on a scenic spot on the Blanco Canyon south of Floydada. The nine hole course surrounds Cochran's Peak an historic landmark of the early days of the plains country. The club grounds themselves are actually a battle ground turned playground as it was on this site that Colonel McKenzie and his troops battled the Indians as white settlers began to move to this country.

The Floydada Little League entry in the Petersburg tournament got off to a good start Monday evening when they clobbered the Olton team 9 - 1. The Floydada boys trailed their opponents 0 - 1 early in the game before they hit their stride and won going away.

Floydada Wins First LL Game At Petersburg

James Campbell and Rodney Teague pitched for the locals and gave up but 2 hits between the while striking out eight. Their team mates collected nine runs on eight hits and three Olton errors for the victory.

Other team to advance to the semi-finals Monday was Slaton which downed Southwest Lubbock 2 - 0. Floydada's next opponent will be the winner of the Petersburg - Idalou game Tuesday evening.

THE LOCALS will play again on Thursday.

The Floydada Little League team is managed by Russell King, W. B. Winn and G. W. Switzer. The team roster is made up from boys of the National League of local loop play and includes the following:

Eric Christensen, Truett Richardson, Richard Marler, Don Switzer, D. R. Herron and Craig Edwards of the Indians; James Campbell, Max Campbell, and Bill Hicks of the Giants; Rodney Teague, Henry Williams, Van Shoval, and Charles Christian of the Cardinals; Darryl Lindsey, Chick Owens, of the Dodgers.

THE TEAM is not an all-star club in the true sense of the word but amounts to about the same thing. The club roster was formed by the three managers who selected the fifteen players for their tournament entry.

On Tuesday night Olton defeated Lubbock 5 - 2 to eliminate the hub city team and Idalou downed the host Petersburg entry 2 - 1. Thursday evening Slaton will meet a winner of the lower half of the bracket pairings and the Floydada team will meet Idalou. The Floydada game is to start at 8:00 p. m.

Band Students At Music Camp

Twenty-three Floydada High School band students left last Saturday to attend the 23rd annual summer music camp at Western State College of Colorado, at Gunnison, Colo.

The group is expected to return home the 18th of this month. They were accompanied by Maurice Jones, band director, and Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Dempsey.

'Problems' Program For Monday Night

"What's Your Problem?" will be the program topic for the Senior Citizens meeting on Monday according to L. A. Marshall, Chairman of the Seniors.

Each person will be asked to write down a problem which will be discussed by the group.

The program committee believes that Monday's program will be interesting to the Seniors as each person will have an opportunity to participate.

Watermelon, good conversation and visiting will round out the night's meeting.

Meeting time is 7:30 o'clock at the First Christian Church.

Dress Review Friday at 3 p.m.

The annual Floyd County 4-H Girls Dress Review will be held tomorrow (Friday) at the Lockney High School Auditorium, with the public presentation beginning at 3 o'clock.

All girls entering are to report with their garments and records at 9:30 a. m. Friday. Mrs. Lynn Miller, chairman, stated that records are "compulsory" to enter the contest.

First, second and third place prizes will be given in each division. The divisions are made up of best dresses, school dresses and best dresses.

All girls who enter will receive an entrance prize.

Judges will be Mrs. Mildred Cox, home demonstration agent of Hale County, and Mrs. Willis Cooper of Floydada.

The public is cordially invited to attend the review.

Daniel Thanks State's Voter's

Senator Price Daniel this week thanked the 622,000 Texans who gave him an overwhelming lead in the first primary race for Governor, putting him more than 162,000 votes ahead of his run-off opponent.
 "This is the widest lead a candidate for Governor ever has had in a run-off," Daniel said. "I am confident that, with hard work, we can win a landslide victory on August 25."
 Daniel, a native of Liberty County, maintains his family home on a small ranch near his birthplace and is a member of the R.E.A.
 As a U. S. Senator, he supported 90 per cent party on basic crops, authored an amendment to the farm bill which placed grain sorghum supports at a comparable level as corn, and helped obtain more realistic farm credit provisions.
 Daniel is advocating a statewide water and soil conservation program, and a state drought relief program that would include loans to farmers and ranchers facing mortgage foreclosure.
 His program also includes stepped-up research into proposals to create additional water supplies, such as conversion of salt water and artificial "rainmaking."
 Daniel said that as Governor he would "put the full power of the State Government behind our farmers and ranchers, to help them regain their fair share of the national income and to help them fight the worst drought disaster in our history."

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

Farmers in the Floyd County Soil Conservation District are finding winter cover crops beneficial.
 Cover crops are planted for two purposes — to protect the soil from wind and water erosion, and to increase and improve soil fertility. The organic matter from cover crops improves soil structure, increases the water holding capacity and allows better penetration of rainfall and irrigation water. Legumes used for cover crops also add nitrogen to the soil, when properly inoculated before planting.
 Vetch is considered an excellent cover crop by Soil Conservation Technicians. Vetch may be planted in cotton middles before the last irrigation or on sorghum land after the crop is harvested. The Soil Conservation District has two legume seeders for this purpose that seed two rows in each middle.
 District cooperators may contact the Vocational Agriculture Teachers in Floydada and Lockney to make arrangements for their use. Vetch may be seeded with a wheat drill. Austrian winter pea is another legume that does well in this area. It may be handled the same way as vetch.
 Don Bennett, who farms near Aiken had notable success with vetch planted in the fall of 1955. He had 20 acres seeded to vetch and beside the value received from the cover and soil improving benefits, he graded 35 head of cattle from March until June.
 Several cooperators with the District have already seeded cover crops. Paul Cooper, who farms north of Lockney has seeded vetch in cotton middles. If cotton is getting large, vetch should be seeded soon so that cotton will not be damaged by the seeder.
 Small grains make good cover crops for the dry land farmer. Rye may be seeded in the fall and allowed to grow until enough growth is made to protect the soil. The rye may then be killed with sweeps and the residue left standing for protection until the seed bed is prepared.

Lockney Resident Dies at Age 75

Funeral service for Jessie Robert Cole, 75, pioneer resident of Lockney, who died July 19, was conducted at 3 o'clock July 20 at the Carter Funeral Home Chapel in Lockney. Rev. L. A. Blair of Lockney officiated at the service. Burial was made in Lockney Cemetery under the direction of Carter Funeral Home.
 Mr. Cole was a farmer until his retirement about 10 years ago.
 Survivors include two sons, William McDonald Cole, Lockney, and Robert L. Great Bend, Kan.; three daughters, Mrs. Mary Hutton, Lockney and the former Emma and Mary Cole, now of Colorado Springs, Colo.; a brother, Guy, Canyon, a sister, Mrs. Martha Alley, California, six grandchildren and one great-grandchild.
 The latest judgments won by the State were against J. Paul Little, Crystal City for $69,054.94 and against Carol Burns, Carrizo Springs, for $112,700.00.
 Shepperd pointed out that the State had tried 22 out of 35 cases filed, winning all of them. He also pointed out that with the value of the land in the recovery suits plus the interest due, the State will realize a profit even on the questioned transactions.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

Farmers in the Floyd County Soil Conservation District are finding winter cover crops beneficial.
 Cover crops are planted for two purposes — to protect the soil from wind and water erosion, and to increase and improve soil fertility. The organic matter from cover crops improves soil structure, increases the water holding capacity and allows better penetration of rainfall and irrigation water. Legumes used for cover crops also add nitrogen to the soil, when properly inoculated before planting.
 Vetch is considered an excellent cover crop by Soil Conservation Technicians. Vetch may be planted in cotton middles before the last irrigation or on sorghum land after the crop is harvested. The Soil Conservation District has two legume seeders for this purpose that seed two rows in each middle.
 District cooperators may contact the Vocational Agriculture Teachers in Floydada and Lockney to make arrangements for their use. Vetch may be seeded with a wheat drill. Austrian winter pea is another legume that does well in this area. It may be handled the same way as vetch.
 Don Bennett, who farms near Aiken had notable success with vetch planted in the fall of 1955. He had 20 acres seeded to vetch and beside the value received from the cover and soil improving benefits, he graded 35 head of cattle from March until June.
 Several cooperators with the District have already seeded cover crops. Paul Cooper, who farms north of Lockney has seeded vetch in cotton middles. If cotton is getting large, vetch should be seeded soon so that cotton will not be damaged by the seeder.
 Small grains make good cover crops for the dry land farmer. Rye may be seeded in the fall and allowed to grow until enough growth is made to protect the soil. The rye may then be killed with sweeps and the residue left standing for protection until the seed bed is prepared.

Lockney Resident Dies at Age 75

Funeral service for Jessie Robert Cole, 75, pioneer resident of Lockney, who died July 19, was conducted at 3 o'clock July 20 at the Carter Funeral Home Chapel in Lockney. Rev. L. A. Blair of Lockney officiated at the service. Burial was made in Lockney Cemetery under the direction of Carter Funeral Home.
 Mr. Cole was a farmer until his retirement about 10 years ago.
 Survivors include two sons, William McDonald Cole, Lockney, and Robert L. Great Bend, Kan.; three daughters, Mrs. Mary Hutton, Lockney and the former Emma and Mary Cole, now of Colorado Springs, Colo.; a brother, Guy, Canyon, a sister, Mrs. Martha Alley, California, six grandchildren and one great-grandchild.
 The latest judgments won by the State were against J. Paul Little, Crystal City for $69,054.94 and against Carol Burns, Carrizo Springs, for $112,700.00.
 Shepperd pointed out that the State had tried 22 out of 35 cases filed, winning all of them. He also pointed out that with the value of the land in the recovery suits plus the interest due, the State will realize a profit even on the questioned transactions.

Lloyd-Webb Vows Said In Ceremony Sunday Afternoon

The First Baptist Church was the scene at 4 o'clock Sunday for the marriage of Miss Janet Lloyd and Wayne Truman Webb of Childress, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Lloyd, Route 2, Floydada are the parents of the bride and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Webb of Childress.

Double ring vows were read by the Rev. Dr. R. Earl Allen before an assemblage of white chrysanthemums and green fern, flanked by white cathedral candelabra, baskets of white gladioli and white silk posts and satin cords.

Mrs. Bob Copeland presented a prelude of organ music, including "And This Is My Beloved" and accompanied Mrs. Leonard Grigsby of Lubbock as she sang "I Love Thee" and "We'll Walk With God."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an original creation, a chapel length gown fashioned of imported Suipponi silk. The basque type bodice designed to curve low at the center front and back had a low oval neckline traced in a deep banding of imported French Alencon lace, sequins and tiny seed pearls highlighted the lace and small French covered buttons extended down the back. Long tapering sleeves formed petal points over the hands accented with a dainty Alencon lace medallion applique.

Her veil of white French silk illumined fell in tiers to fingertip length from a crown of white orange blossoms and rhinestones. She carried a crescent shaped bouquet with a white orchid atop a white Bible surrounded by asplenotis and white satin streamers.

Sister Is Matron Of Honor Mrs. Ann Sewell attended her sister as matron-of-honor. Mrs. Louis Lloyd, sister-in-law of the bride and Miss Freda Smith, niece of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore identical floor length gowns of blue crystal taffeta. They were designed with a long slim bodice extending to the hipline in a princess silhouette and dipping low to the back with a bias fold of matching taffeta spanning the hipline ending with a dramatic bow at the back from which fell the bouffant skirt unrolling in layers of net and taffeta. A narrow roll collar spanned the shoulders to form a V neckline at the back with the collar ending in a bow. Their hats were of matching blue net with scallops around the wide brim, trimmed in blue velvet piping and blue flowers. They wore white gloves. Mrs. Sewell carried a crescent shaped bouquet of white glomonia and blue delphiniums. The bridesmaids carried semi-crescent shaped bouquets of blue delphiniums.

Miss Odanel Webb, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Goldi Sowell, niece of the bride, were candle-lighters. They wore dresses similar in style to the attendants, with waist-length skirts and matching satin slippers.

Floyd Koen Jr., cousin of the groom, of Lubbock, served as best man. Ushers were Dorman Stanley of Dallas, Johnny Lloyd, Louis Lloyd and Dale Smith, all of Floydada.

Reception In Fellowship Hall Following the ceremony a reception was held in Fellowship Hall. The bridal table was laid with an ivory lace cloth over pale blue. Assisting with hospitalities were Misses H. G. Barber, I. T. Graves, Ned Bradley, O. G. Mayfield, J. E. Patterson and Misses Ann Welborn and Jeanette Lockridge of Lubbock.

For traveling, the bride wore a peacock blue silk ensemble fashioned with a sheath dress and fitted bolero jacket complimented by a shawl collar and bracelet length sleeves. Dusky rose accessories completed the attire with blue shoes and bag.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Roxie Webb of Dallas, grandmother of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Duncan of Wichita Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Adams and family of Ackerly, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Koen of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Don Burnett of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Koen of Plainview and Mr. and Mrs. Otis Koen of Austin.

The bride was graduated from Floydada High School and Texas Tech College, Lubbock. She is a former employee of Tishie-Gottling of Dallas. The groom graduated from Childress High School and Texas Tech College, Lubbock. He is at present serving in the Armed Forces at Fort Chaffee, Ark.

Following their wedding trip the couple will be at home at 1315 1/2 South Dallas, Fort Smith, Ark.

Many Out-Of-Town Guests Attend Lloyd-Webb Vows Sunday

Out-of-town guests attending the Webb-Lloyd wedding Sunday afternoon at the First Baptist Church included Miss Jeanette Lockridge, Mr. and Mrs. Don Burnett, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Koen Jr., Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stanley, Mrs. Bob Wall, Mrs. Arch March, Mrs. Sarah McKay, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Koen Sr., Miss Anita Pope, all of Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Duncan of Wichita Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Buck Sams, Miss Juanita and Barry Thompson, all of Lockney; Mr. and Mrs. Stansell Clement and Bob of Lamesa; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Adams of Ackerly; Mrs. R. N. Adams and Mrs. Mary L. Scott of Big Spring; Roy E. Smith of Morton;

Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Koen and Coy Dee of Plainview; Mrs. J. N. Webb of Dallas; Dorman Stanley of Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Bill McCarty, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Mills, Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Miss Myrna Wilson Is Complimented At Bridal Shower

Miss Myrna Wilson, bride-elect of 2nd Lt. Jim Pyke, was honored with a miscellaneous shower Monday evening, between the hours of 8 and 9:30 o'clock in the lovely home of Mrs. Ott Glassmoyer, 711 West California.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. Glassmoyer and presented to Miss Wilson, her mother, Mrs. Woodrow Wilson and her sister, Miss Dee Ann Wilson.

Miss Barbara Perry presided at the bride's book which was given to the bride-to-be by the hostesses.

Since Miss Wilson and her fiancé are going to live in Florida, the table was arranged with a Florida sea-side theme. The table was laid with a brown cloth and centered with an arrangement of yellow dahlias in sea shells on a yellow reflector.

Miss Dot Holmes and Miss Ann Welborn presided at the crystal appointments. Sea weed, star fish, coral and yellow candles completed the table arrangement.

Miss Benita Teaff showed the guests through the gift room. Hostesses were Mesdames L. H. Dorrell, O. G. Glassmoyer, Johnny Miller, Bennie Teaff, Travis Lightfoot, Everett Perry, J. N. Richardson, Everett Collier, W. J. Wilks, Bob Owens, Poyner Roberts, Ed Holmes, W. E. Grimes, L. L. Clark Jr., Robert F. Day, R. E. Irby, O. C. Vinson, Oliver Allen, Floyd Puga, Pete Hickerson, John Buchanan, W. O. Tye, C. B. Carmack, W. O. Baker, Bob Dyson, E. M. Rutherford and Mrs. Rose Jones.

Miss Wilson was presented with a set of cooking ware by the hostesses.

McAdoo Meeting To Begin Monday

Gordon L. Downing, minister of the City Park Church of Christ, will preside for a series of gospel meetings at McAdoo beginning Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

The meeting will continue through Sunday, August 19, with week-day services morning and evening at 10 o'clock and 8 o'clock.

Four Apply For Absentee Ballots

County Clerk Margaret Collier has four applications on file for absentee ballots when the new ballots are ready, sometime this week-end.

Plans to have ballots ready for absentees to use Monday morning last went awry when Senator A. M. Aikin Jr. withdrew from the run off campaign on account of the condition of his health.

Former Schoolmates Guests of Mrs. Ray Dickey In New Home

Mrs. Ray Dickey was hostess in her new home at 1906 Thirtieth Street, Lubbock, Saturday and Sunday, August 4 and 5, for the following former Floydada high school classmates:

Mesdames W. E. Hall, Plainview, A. A. Meredith, Berger, Arthur Savage, Amarillo, Pitzer Baker, Monday, Cleo Goins and Robert Garrett, Floydada.

Soon after arrival, Saturday, the guests were served a delicious salad dinner.

The evening was spent in looking over school-day pictures and annuals and other pleasant reminiscences. More pictures were made for continued happy memories.

On Sunday, the group enjoyed visiting the new First Methodist Church, Lubbock.

After a lovely luncheon at high noon, Sunday, at the Lubbock City Club in the Cap Rock Hotel, the ladies returned to their respective homes.

Mrs. Walter Crane Succumbed Monday

Funeral service for Mrs. Walter L. Crane of Amarillo, was conducted Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock at Griggs Memorial Chapel in Amarillo. Burial was made in Amarillo Cemetery under the direction of Griggs Funeral Home.

Mrs. Crane passed Monday morning following an illness of several months.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. John Lewis of Canyon and Mrs. Edna Waggoner of Amarillo, and six grandchildren.

Floydada friends attending the final rites included Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Lewis, Lane Decker, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Hines, Mrs. Jack Henry and Mrs. Minnie Smart.

TEMPERATURE READINGS

High temperature for the week in Floydada was recorded on Tuesday of this week with a reading of 102 degrees.

Powell Grocery Makes Changes

Powell Grocery has made extensive changes in the interior of their store in the past week. The market has been moved to the south end of the building and has been better grouped with surrounding equipment to give added room.

Parnell Powell, owner and operator of the business, says the move has given him the equivalent of one-fourth more floor space through the better arrangement.

Powell Grocery was opened in Floydada in 1930 at the present location on the Wye. Rapid growth of the business has made it necessary to build on and remodel three or four times since that date.

Powell at present boasts one of the largest and most complete lines of groceries, meats, drug sundries and household needs in the shopping area. Plenty of free drive-in parking space has been one of the drawing factors of this growing Floydada business.

Mountain Jaunt Made By Aggies

Eleven F.P.A. members of the Floydada chapter returned home last Friday from a week's trip to parts of New Mexico and Colorado.

The group left last Monday morning at 7:30 o'clock and spent that night in Santa Fe, N. M. The next day they visited at Giletta, N. M., and went on to Colorado Springs, Colo., where they spent the rest of the time.

The boys camped out, fished and saw many sights while on this tour. Those making the trip were Jerry Perry, Bill Patterson, Bill Smith, Keith Hollums, Pat Gross, Don Merritt, Johnny Houston, Jerry Crawford, Tommy Brook, Nathan Woody, Don Faulkenberry and Floydada High School art teachers, H. G. Barber and James Carroll.

TAX REFUND IS $30,000

The refund from the State Board of County and District Road indebtedness to Floyd County this year will be $30,388.80, County Judge O. P. Rutledge learned last week-end from a communication to the Commissioners Court.

Actual allotment to Floyd County is $34,163.90, but $3,775.13 is being deducted and applied to county road bond interest maturities, before the check is sent out.

The formality of passing an order requesting the $30 thousand dollar refund must be made by the Commissioners Court before the check will be forthcoming.

The commissioners are required by the law to spend the refund on lateral roads.

COURT HOUSE

Petition of Texanner Clark to have her given name changed from Texanner to Texie Jo granted Aug. 3. Mrs. Clark is a resident of Quitaque, wife of O. P. Clark. She has been called Texie Jo since her childhood.

Divorce was granted August 7 to Lois Huneycutt from Charles Albert Huneycutt, together with custody of two small children, with judgment ordering defendant to pay $50 per month to plaintiff toward support of the minors.

County Court Docket

Floydada Coaches Attending State Coaching Sessions

Coaches of the Floydada schools are this week attending the state coaching school in Lubbock. The entire four member staff of athletic instructors planned to be present for the week long school and to see the two all-star ball games.

Preston Watson, head coach and director of athletics of the Floydada school system, is a member of the state executive committee of the coaches' association. Watson went to Lubbock last week-end to help prepare for the big meet and he and Mrs. Watson have been active in affairs of the coaching school and social gatherings this week.

All Star Games Thursday-Friday

The big event of the coaching school, as far as fans of the area are concerned, will be the all-star games on Thursday and Friday night. Basketball will be played on Thursday night at the new municipal coliseum in Lubbock and the football game will be on Friday night at Jones stadium, both on the Tech campus.

Football training time is just a few weeks away for high school boys of Texas and the games this week in Lubbock will start the gridiron season for many fans who are getting anxious to hear the leather popping again.

Joe Evers Family Home on Vacation From So. America

A Floyd County man, who for years has been away from home, first in Alaska and later for the last six years in Venezuela, has returned to the homeland for a rest and visit with his kinsmen here.

He is J. R. Evers, son of Mrs. Joe R. Evers of Crosbyton. He flew from Caracas to Dallas and was longer on his journey from that city to the plains than in flight from South America.

Evers is a Diesel engineer. Formerly with Creole Oil Company he is now with a subsidiary of General Motors, planning to return to his work soon.

Mrs. Evers and their three children preceded J. R. to Floydada some three weeks ago. They have been guests in the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Will Harrison on West Ollie Street.

New Divisions of County Fair Will Interest Modelers

Floyd County Fair this year has two additions in the crafts division that will be of interest to the younger set. These are divisions C and D and are for youngsters through 11 and 16 years respectively.

In these exhibitors are invited to enter model cars, military boats, passenger boats, sail boats, helicopters, small and large passenger planes, bombers and fighters.

Prices listed are $1, 75c and 50c in each category for the 16-year group and 75c, 50c and 25c for the 11-year group. Mrs. Mary Simmons of Sterley is superintendent of this division.

AT SAN ANTONIO CONVENTION

Mrs. Mitchell Parrish and Mrs. Alice Baker of the home economics department of the Floydada schools are this week attending a convention of home economics instructors at San Antonio.

DOLLAR DAY BUSINESS GOOD

Monday was one of the best Dollar Days in 1936 according to the opinion of local merchants whose sales showed a marked increase on First Monday.

Around four hundred and seventy five refreshment tickets were cashed in by Dollar Day shoppers for free refreshments at local refreshment counters. Two thousand free refreshment tickets were available to the shoppers from Dollar Day business firms.

Everyone seemed to have a good time in town all day long.

Daniel Thanks State's Voter's

Senator Price Daniel this week thanked the 622,000 Texans who gave him an overwhelming lead in the first primary race for Governor, putting him more than 162,000 votes ahead of his run-off opponent. "This is the widest lead a candidate for Governor ever has had in a run-off," Daniel said. "I am confident that, with hard work, we can win a landslide victory on August 25."

Daniel, a native of Liberty County, maintains his family home on a small ranch near his birthplace and is a member of the R.F.A. As a U. S. Senator, he supported 90 per cent party on basic crops, authored an amendment to the farm bill which placed grain sorghum supports at a comparable level as corn, and helped obtain more realistic farm credit provisions. Daniel is advocating a statewide water and soil conservation program, and a state drought relief program that would include loans to farmers and ranchers facing mortgage foreclosure. His program also includes stepped-up research into proposals to create additional water supplies, such as conversion of salt water and artificial "rainmaking."

Daniel said that as Governor he would put the full power of the State Government behind our farmers and ranchers, to help them regain their fair share of the national income and to help them fight the worst drought disaster in our history. N. M., where they are spending several days visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Bartlett. SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

Farmers in the Floyd County Soil Conservation District are finding winter cover crops beneficial. Cover crops are planted for two purposes - to protect the soil from wind and water erosion, and to increase and improve soil fertility. The organic matter from cover crops improves soil structure, increases the water holding capacity and allows better penetration of rainfall and irrigation water. Legumes used for cover crops also add nitrogen to the soil, when properly inoculated before planting. Vetch is considered an excellent cover crop by Soil Conservation Technicians. Vetch may be planted in cotton middles before the last irrigation or on sorghum land after the crop is harvested. The Soil Conservation District has two legume seeders for this purpose that seed two rows in each middle. District cooperators may contact the Vocational Agriculture Teachers in Floydada and Lockney to make arrangements for their use. Vetch may be seeded with a wheat drill, Austrian winter pea is another legume that does well in this area. It may be handled the same way as vetch. Don Bennett, who farms near Aiken had notable success with vetch planted in the fall of 1955. He had 20 acres seeded to vetch and beside the value received from the cover and soil improving benefits, he grazed 35 head of cattle from March until June. Several cooperators with the District have already seeded cover crops. Paul Cooper, who farms north of Lockney has seeded vetch in cotton middles. If cotton is getting large, vetch should be seeded soon so that cotton will not be damaged by the seeder. Small grains make good cover crops for the dry land farmer. Rye may be seeded in the fall and allowed to grow until enough growth is made to protect the soil. The rye may then be killed with sweeps and the residue left standing for protection until the seed bed is prepared.

Figures Mount On Fraud Recoveries

AUSTIN — The State of Texas has won judgments amounting to $1,770,000 which represents over one-half of the amount involved in cases in the Veteran's Land cleanup and recovery program, it was announced this week by Attorney General John Ben Shepperd. The latest judgments won by the State were against Paul Little, Crystal City for $69,054.94 and against Carol Burns, Carrizo Springs for $132,700.00. Shepperd pointed out that the State had tried 22 out of 35 cases filed, winning all of them. He also pointed out that with the value of the land in the recovery suits plus the interest due, the State will realize a profit even on the questioned transactions.

Lloyd-Webb Vows Said In Ceremony Sunday Afternoon

The First Baptist Church was the scene at 4 o'clock Sunday for the marriage of Miss Janet Lloyd and Wayne Truman Webb of Childress. Mr. and Mrs. John A. Lloyd, Route 2, Floydada are the parents of the bride and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Webb of Childress.

Double ring vows were read by the Rev. Dr. R. Earl Allen before an assembly of white chrysanthemums and green fern, flanked by white cathedral candelabra, baskets of white gladioli and white silk posts and satin cords.

Mrs. Bob Copeland presented a prelude of organ music, including "And This Is My Beloved" and accompanied Mrs. Leonard Grigsby of Lubbock as she sang "I Love Thee" and "We'll Walk With God."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an original creation, a chapel length gown fashioned of imported Suptoni silk. The bodice type bodice designed to curve low at the center front and back had a low oval neckline traced in a deep banding of imported French Alencon lace. Sequins and tiny seed pearls highlighted the lace and small French covered buttons extended down the back. Long tapering sleeves formed petal points over the hands accented with a dainty Alencon lace medallion applique.

Mrs. Ann Sowell attended her sister as matron-of-honor. Mrs. Louis Lloyd, sister-in-law of the bride and Miss Freda Smith, niece of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore identical floor length gowns of blue crystal taffeta. They were designed with a long slim bodice extending to the hipline in a princess silhouette and dipping low to the back with a bias fold of matching taffeta spanning the hipline ending with a dramatic bow at the back from which fell the bouffant skirt unrolling in layers of net and taffeta. A narrow roll collar spanned the shoulders to form a V neckline at the back with the collar ending in a bow. Their hats were of matching blue net with scallops around the wide brim, trimmed in blue velvet piping and blue flowers. They wore white gloves. Mrs. Sowell carried a crescent shaped bouquet of white glomonia and blue delphiniums. The bridesmaids carried semi-crescent shaped bouquets of blue delphiniums.

Miss Glanel Webb, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Goldi Sowell, niece of the bride, were maid-of-honors. They wore dresses similar in style to the attendants, with waist-length skirts and matching satin slippers.

Floyd Koen Jr., cousin of the groom, Ushers were Dorman Stanley of Dallas, Johnny Lloyd, Louis Lloyd and Dale Smith, all of Floydada.

Reception In Fellowship Hall Following the ceremony a reception was held in Fellowship Hall. The bridal table was laid with an ivory lace cloth over pale blue. Assisting with hospitalities were Meses. H. G. Barber, I. T. Graves, Ned Bradley, O. G. Mayfield, J. F. Patterson and Meses Ann Welborn and Jeanette Lockridge of Lubbock.

For traveling, the bride wore a peacock blue silk ensemble fashioned with a sheath dress and fitted bolero jacket complemented by a shawl collar and bracelet length sleeves. Dusky rose accessories completed the attire with blue shoes and bag.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Roxie Webb of Dallas, grandmother of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Duncan of Wichita Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Adams and family of Ackerly, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Koen of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Don Burnett of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Koen of Plainview and Mr. and Mrs. Otis Koen of Austin.

The bride was graduated from Floydada High School and Texas Tech College, Lubbock. She is a former employee of Tutche-Gostinger of Dallas. The groom graduated from Childress High School and Texas Tech College, Lubbock. He is at present serving in the Armed Forces at Fort Chaffee, Ark.

Following their wedding trip the couple will be at home at 1315 1/2 South Dallas, Port Smith, Ark.

Powell Grocery Makes Changes

Powell Grocery has made extensive changes in the interior of their store in the past week. The market has been moved to the south end of the building and has been better grouped with surrounding equipment to give added room. A new freezer has been installed to give the frozen food department an additional 12 linear feet of display space and storage.

Parnell Powell, owner and operator of the business, says the move has given him the equivalent of one-fourth more floor space through the better arrangement.

Powell Grocery was opened in Floydada in 1930 at the present location on the Wye. Rapid growth of the business has made it necessary to build on and remodel three or four times since that date.

Powell at present boasts one of the largest and most complete lines of groceries, meats, drug sundries and household needs in the shopping center. Plenty of free drive-in parking space has been one of the drawing factors of this growing Floydada business.

Mountain Jaunt Made By Aggies

Eleven F.F.A. members of the Floydada chapter returned home last Friday from a week's trip to parts of New Mexico and Colorado. The group left last Monday morning at 7:30 o'clock and spent that night in Santa Fe, N. M. The next day they visited at Goretta, N. M., and went on to Colorado Springs, Colo., where they spent the rest of the time.

The boys camped out, fished and saw many sights while on this tour. Those making the trip were Jerry Perry, Bill Patterson, Bill Smith, Keith Hollums, Pat Gross, Don Merriott, Johnny Houston, Jerry Crawford, Tommy Brook, Nathan Woody, Don Faulkenberry and Floydada High School ag teachers, H. G. Barber and James Carroll.

TAX REFUND IS $30,000

The refund from the State Board of County and District Road indebtedness to Floyd County this year will be $30,388.80. County Judge O. P. Rutledge learned last week-end from a communication to the Commissioners Court.

Actual allotment to Floyd County is $34,163.90, but $3,775.13 is being deducted and applied to county road bond interest maturities, before the check is sent out.

The formality of passing an order requesting the $30 thousand dollar refund must be made by the Commissioners Court before the check will be forthcoming.

The commissioners are required by the law to spend the refund on lateral roads.

Floydada Coaches Attending State Coaching Sessions

Coaches of the Floydada schools are this week attending the state coaching school in Lubbock. The entire four member staff of athletic instructors planned to be present for the week long school and to see the two all-star ball games.

Preston Watson, head coach and director of athletics of the Floydada school system, is a member of the state executive committee of the coaches' association. Watson went to Lubbock last week-end to help prepare for the big meet and he and Mrs. Watson have been active in affairs of the coaching school and social gatherings this week.

All Star Games Thursday-Friday

The big event of the coaching school, as far as fans of the area are concerned, will be the all-star games on Thursday and Friday night. Basketball will be played on Thursday night at the new municipal coliseum in Lubbock and the football game will be on Friday night at Jones stadium, both on the Tech campus.

Football training time is just a few weeks away for high school boys of Texas and the games this week in Lubbock will start the gridiron season for many fans who are getting anxious to hear the leather popping again.

Joe Evers Family Home on Vacation From So. America

A Floyd County man, who for years has been away from home, first in Alaska and later for the last six years in Venezuela, has returned to the homeland for a rest and visit with his kinsmen here. He is J. R. Evers, son of Mrs. Joe R. Evers of Crosbyton. He flew from Caracas to Dallas and was longer on his journey from that city to the plains than in flight from South America.

Evers is a Diesel engineer. Formerly with Creole Oil Company he is now with a subsidiary of General Motors, planning to return to his work soon.

Mrs. Evers and their three children preceded J. R. to Floydada some three weeks ago. They have been guests in the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Will Harrison on West Ollie Street.

New Divisions of County Fair Will Interest Modelers

Floyd County Fair this year has two additions in the crafts division that will be of interest to the younger set. These are divisions C and D and are for youngsters through 11 and 16 years respectively.

In these exhibitors are invited to enter model cars, military boats, passenger boats, sail boats, helicopters, small and large passenger planes, bombers and fighters.

Prices listed are $1, 75c and 50c in each category for the 16-year group and 75c, 50c and 25c for the 11-year group. Mrs. Mary Simmons of Sterley is superintendent of this division.

AT SAN ANTONIO CONVENTION

Mrs. Mitchell Parrish and Mrs. Alice Baker of the home economics department of the Floydada schools are this week attending a convention of home economics instructors at San Antonio.

The Floydada teachers left Monday for the meeting and are due back this week-end.

DOLLAR DAY BUSINESS GOOD

Monday was one of the best Dollar Days in 1936 according to the opinion of local merchants whose sales showed a marked increase on First Monday.

Around four hundred and seventy five refreshment tickets were cashed in by Dollar Day shoppers for free refreshments at local refreshment counters. Two thousand free refreshment tickets were available to the shoppers from Dollar Day business firms.

Everyone seemed to have a good time in town at the local amusement.

SS Amendments Signed By Ike Into Statutes

LUBBOCK — Monthly benefits for women at age 62 instead of 65, beginning November 1956; for disabled workers at age 50, beginning July 1957; benefits for children age 18 or over who were disabled before they reached 18 were added to the old-age and survivors insurance program when the 1956 Social Security Amendments were signed into law by President Eisenhower, according to John G. Hutton, manager of the Lubbock district office of the Social Security Administration.

Under the amended law, according to Hutton, working women, wives of men receiving old-age insurance payments, and the widows of insured workers can start getting monthly benefits at age 62. The dependent mother of an insured worker who dies leaving no spouse or child eligible for benefits may also get benefits at age 62.

WORKING women and wives who apply before age 65 will receive benefits at reduced rates, on a sliding scale. Benefits for widows, based on their husband's earnings records, will not be reduced.

Payments for women who are already 62 and who qualify under the amendments can begin with the November benefit checks, due early in December, Hutton added. Application must be made for these benefits; however, there will be no loss of benefits to women first eligible in November 1956 who apply before December 1957.

HUTTON stated that his office would not be ready to accept applications for these new benefits for a few weeks.

A representative of the Lubbock Social Security Office will be in Floydada on Aug. 14, at 2:30 p. m. at the Courthouse, Room 106 and will be glad to assist in all matters pertaining to Social Security.

South Plains News

(By Mrs. Murray Julian)

SOUTH PLAINS, August 6 — Last Tuesday evening showers fell across a narrow strip of our area and left almost an inch of rain on the Milton, Julian and Stanforth farms, but did not extend as far north as the Higginbotham place. On Thursday the western part of South Plains and the Horace Marble farm received an inch of rain. This was a narrow strip, too, extending as far south as the Otto Sanders farm where half an inch fell at their and the Webb's places, but did not go as far north as the Sim Reeves farm. The eastern and northern farms only received sprinkles during the last shower.

Mr. and Mrs. Skeet Thornton left last Wednesday for a reunion with his people in southeastern Texas, near Beaumont. They arrived back home the first of this week, and spoke of the dry conditions there with crops burning in the Beaumont area.

Last Thursday night Mr. and Mrs. Murray Julian, Kendis and Bruce, and his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Julian and daughter, Billie Lynn, who were visiting here the past two weeks from Hallandale, Fla., went to Roaring Springs where they enjoyed a hamburger and weiner roast, with swimming in the pool afterward.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McClure who have been down at the Millings Sanatorium at Grand Prairie the past two and a half weeks are expected to arrive home this coming week end. They went to Dallas last week to see the third cinema, The Seven Wonders of the World.

At the South Plains ball park on Friday night about a hundred people gathered for a community party, dressed in old clothes and funny costumes. The crowd was divided into groups and leaders from each took part in games which everyone enjoyed. Each person as they entered was given a wrapped package of old clothing, and were asked to wear what they received, which caused much laughter at the result. Home made ice cream, cakes and cold drinks were served to everyone at the close of the party. Everyone agreed that it was the finest party South Plains had ever had.

Li. Billy Jack Welch visited his aunt, Mrs. Paul Snodgrass in her home on Monday. Welch was on his way to a new assignment at Phoenix, Ariz. Mrs. Frank Polk, a former resident of South Plains when she was Iola Knerit, also visited Mr. and Mrs. Paul Snodgrass on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lavoy Kinniburgh, from Vera, were visitors in the home of his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvin Kinniburgh on Thursday of last week. Mrs. J. R. Spivey, from Truscott came last Tuesday and spent the week visiting in the Kinniburgh home with her daughter and family, returning home on Saturday.

Mrs. John Key West and Dale, and Mrs. Grigsby Milton, Barbara and Donita went to Lubbock last Tuesday where they spent the day Dale was fitted for glasses, and Donita underwent dental surgery for the removal of four wisdom teeth. She is getting along fine at this time, with no bad after effects from the surgery.

H. S. Calahan Jr., was confined to his home with a severe cold over the past week end. His mother, Mrs. H. S. Calahan Sr., of Lockney has been feeling badly the past week and each night some of the Calahan children have been spending the night in the Calahan home with her.

Mrs. N. C. McCain of Tulsa arrived by bus in Plainview and was met by her daughter, Mrs. C. F. Fortenberry on Saturday. She plans to spend the coming week in the Fortenberry home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Garvin Beedy, Larry and Rose, went home with Mr. and Mrs. Rex Smitherman, Kelly and Bryn to have Sunday dinner and spend the afternoon in their home. Other guests during the afternoon and evening were Mr. and Mrs. Abye Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Jackson, from Floydada, Leo Jackson, from Cameron, and Mr. and Mrs. John Smitherman.

Sim Reeves and son, Jack, went to Kingsville, Texas, last Thursday where Bob is attending school and where they have lived the past two years. They visited with Mr. and Mrs. Bob Reeves and Sandy, and brought Sandy home with them to spend the coming week here in the home of his grandparents. Jack left Sunday evening for his school duties in Rossell, N. M., where they are having a work shop these next few weeks before school officially opens.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Pierce, Beverly, Stanley and Steve went home with Mr. and Mrs. Sylvin Kinniburgh, Marilyn and Beth, to have Sunday dinner with them and to spend the afternoon, then come back later to church in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George West went back to Tipton, Okla., last Tuesday where they reported showers along the way, and very good crops everywhere they went. They went to the Church of Christ Orphanage home and brought back with them little seven year old Linda Kay Lowe, who will spend the coming two weeks in their home as a guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryant Higginbotham and Bud went to Lubbock on Sunday to spend the day enjoying a reunion in the MacKenzie Park with old friends and neighbors who were there for the Hardeman County reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Johnson of Kress spent Sunday visiting their relatives Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Johnson and children here.

Mr. and Mrs. Leighton Teeple, Dwight, Sherlene and Rhonda, accompanied by Sue Wilson left Saturday for Carlsbad, N. M., where they enjoyed a trip through the Caverns and other sights around Carlsbad. They were expected home this Monday.

Terry Julian arrived home on Sunday night after spending the past six weeks at Fort Hood in the summer ROTC camp. He spent from Friday until Sunday in Dallas with friends, and reported temperatures in Dallas around 109 degrees while there.

Patterson Grain Company in Lockney where Gilbert Bean is manager reported a bad fire on Wednesday afternoon which brought damages of around $20,000 to grain stored in the elevator.

Mrs. Sylvin Kinniburgh was hostess at a Stanley party in her home on Wednesday morning with Mrs. K. Truich from Floydada in charge of the Stanley products and the games. Hot coffee and doughnuts were served and those present were Messrs. H. S. Calahan Jr., Chester Calahan, John Key West, Bryan Karr, Rex Smitherman, Sterling Cummings, Murray Julian, John Smitherman, Kenneth Bean, Philip Smitherman, Calvin Potet, Thomas Pierce, L. N. Johnson, Mrs. J. R. Spivey from Truscott, and Mrs. C. L. Julian from Hallandale, Fla.

All day guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George West on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Davis, and Mrs. C. L. Anderson, all from Silverton. Mrs. Nathan Waller of Kress and Rev. Morris McFarland from Lubbock who is holding the Church of Christ revival in Silverton this week. They all enjoyed dinner and supper in the West home, and went to church in the evening together.

CHURCH NEWS: South Plains Baptist W.M.U. met on Monday afternoon in the church with Mrs. Milton presiding. Missionary songs, "We've a Story to Tell," was sung by the group, and prayers were led by Mrs. Snodgrass and Mrs. Calahan. Program was on the five Baptist Seminaries and one mission school in the United States, and how these schools look to the churches for love, support, and prayer as do the 13 Baptist Hospitals scattered about the world.

Present for the meeting were Messrs. Grigsby Milton, L. T. Wood, Paul Snodgrass, H. S. Calahan Jr., Thomas Pierce, Shelby Calahan and Mrs. Murray Julian.

Virginia Taylor was in charge of the Sunbeams with Vicki, Diane and Kathy Calahan, Beverly, Stanley and Steve Pierce, and Jerry Calahan present. Next meeting for the W.M.U. will be on Aug. 20, with Mrs. Snodgrass leading the Bible study.

Members of the Young Married Couples Sunday School Class will be hostesses at a pink and blue shower on Wednesday afternoon of this week honoring Mrs. Bill Hopper at the home of Mrs. L. N. Johnson.

Mrs. L. H. Faus was a candidate for a bachelor of arts degree at Plainview for the Wayland College graduation on Sunday, Aug. 5, at 3 p. m. Illness of Mrs. Faus kept her in the hospital until Monday when Rev. Faus took her to Lamesa to spend a few days recuperating in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Fincher. Rev. Faus went to the graduation exercises on Sunday and accepted her diploma, and other guests with him here are Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Fincher and Irwin, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hufacher, and Faura Kay, and Mrs. Cecil Stanley, all relatives of Mrs. Faus from Lamesa who came to Plainview for the graduation exercises. Rev. L. H. Faus was graduated from Wayland College in April. Mrs. Faus had majored in English and minored in music theory. She is very talented in every phase of music. Her daughter, Vassie Beth, went home with her grandparents while Mrs. Faus was confined in the Peoples Hospital.

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Woody last week included their son, A. C. and Mrs. J. D. Woody of Sweetwater, Mr. Woody's two brothers, Charles Woody of Baldwin Park, Calif., and Claude Woody of Whittier, Calif.

Sand Hill News

(By Mrs. James Jeffress)

SAND HILL, August 7 — The weather is still hot and dry this week. A little shower fell Thursday afternoon but wasn't enough to help. The wells are having a hard time staying up with the crops. Lots of the wells in the community are failing. Quite a few well rigs have been seen in the community this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Slater made a trip to Amarillo Thursday to visit their daughter. One of their granddaughters returned home with them.

THE W.M.U. of the Sand Hill Baptist Church met Thursday afternoon at the parsonage. The meeting was opened with a song. Miss Molly Earp sang a special number. The minutes were read and approved by Mrs. Chuck Holmes.

Mrs. Tom Thomas was appointed assistant secretary. The meeting time was changed to Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mrs. James Jeffress gave the devotional. The Royal Service program was presented by various members.

Members present were Mrs. Hollie McLain, Mrs. Chuck Holmes, Mrs. James Jeffress, Mrs. J. M. Williams, Mrs. Tom Thomas, Mrs. M. B. Swanner, Miss Nancy Jenkins and Miss Molly Earp had charge of the Sunbeams and G.A.'s. Those present were Beverly, Jimmy and Timmy Jeffress, Marilyn and Alison McLain, Roger and Darrell Adams, Don Ed Holmes, Norma Sue Hollins and Sue Shurbet.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollie McLain and family were the guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Jeffress and family Thursday night.

Roy Slater made a business trip to San Angelo Friday.

Mrs. Chuck Holmes and Mrs. E. O. Adams accompanied Bro. Adams to Afton Friday. They returned Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Smith, H. F. Jackson and Mr. Miller made a business trip to Dallas last week. Janice and Ronnie returned home with them. They had been in Dallas visiting relatives the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Slater of Ralls were visiting in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Swanner over the weekend. Jo Ann was in church services Sunday.

Sunday visitors in the James Jeffress home were Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Spears.

We were sorry to hear that Mrs. W. R. Billington has been in the Krum clinic in Lockney this week and hope her condition is much improved.

Willie Wirehand says: The food freezer "keeps the best food you ever thaw!" For farm people a freezer is more than just a convenience. Saves trips to town, saves gas, saves money. And the food! When you mix a batch of biscuits - pop some mix in the freezer for another day. That's really saving dough!

Don't forget that during these hot summer days your automatic frying pan will fry, bake, stew and pan-broil for you, with its automatic-accurate temperature control designed for scientific cooking and keep the heat from cooking in your kitchen at a minimum.

Last summer Minnie Carpenter of Plainview gave me a recipe for Pickled Peppers which we like very much. So I would like to share it with any of you who care to try it.

Pickled Peppers

Cut peppers in eighths.

Pour boiling water over the peppers and let stand for 3 minutes.

In the bottom of sterilized jars put - (to each pint jar)

- 1 teaspoon salt,
- 1 teaspoon salad oil (such as Mazola or Wesson),
- Bring to a boil -
- 1 quart water,
- 1 quart vinegar,
- 3 cups sugar.

Pour over peppers in jars and seal.

Mrs. Jack Mayes and Mrs. Truman Barnett of McAdoo gave a Dresden china painting party at the Lighthouse Electric work room last Friday for the members of the Starkey Home Demonstration Club and the County-Wide 4-H Girls Club, and other guests. They came at 10:00 o'clock; a sack lunch was enjoyed at noon.

Bureau Policy Development Is Major Problem

Life is so brief; there really isn't time for bitterness. It is not what we have but what we enjoy that constitutes our abundance.

Center News

(By Mrs. J. E. Green)

CENTER, Aug. 7 - Time goes steadily on. Summer will soon be gone - summer with its vacations, its joys and sorrows, its opportunities, its hot, dry days. How nice if we could have a good, slow rain! People seem to get busier and busier, if they are able.

For one reason or another our church crowd was not as large Sunday as it should have been. And we had two such wonderful sermons. Let us not let such great opportunities and blessings slip thru our fingers.

Bro. and Mrs. Coffee and baby were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Frizzell.

Visitors in Sunday morning services were Carleta Reeves of McCoy who spent the weekend with Margaret Dunn; Gene Warren of Dougherty who spent the weekend with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Warren; and Mrs. K. J. Matthews and Mrs. John Stone of Phillips, who were visiting the Greens.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stone were Sunday dinner guests of the Greens. In the afternoon they accompanied her mother, Mrs. Matthews to Phillips via Plainview hospital where they called on Mrs. Victor Green.

Johnny Lynn visited over the weekend with his Wayland roommate somewhere in Eastern New Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Denison are on their way again after a week's trip to Cincinnati, Ohio, where they visited Mrs. Denison's sister, Last Thursday they visited in Lubbock with their son, Gilmer and family. On Tuesday night they visited in Brownfield with their son, C. W. Jr. and family, returning home Wednesday.

Thursday, July 26, Mrs. Green was a dinner guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Tye, honoring Mrs. Betty Ellis, former Floyd County resident, but for many years of California. Other guests were Mrs. Ellis' sister, Mrs. Harry Stanley, Frank Maxwell and Mrs. Mary Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Gene Warren and twin baby boys of Dougherty visited Sunday afternoon with their parents, the Elmer Warrens. Little Gene returned home with them.

Mrs. Frank Dunn visited Mrs. H. B. Mankins Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Dunn and baby of Lubbock visited Sunday with their parents, the J. R. Robertsons and the Frank Dunns.

Other visitors in the Robertson home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Strain of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. John Bronson of Lubbock and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Robertson, Floydada.

Mrs. Victor Green of Plainview had major surgery Friday morning at the Plainview hospital. She is convalescing satisfactorily. The J. E. Greens and Don Clark went up Friday morning to be with her. On the return home they became involved in a highway accident. The car was damaged and Mr. Green suffered cuts and bruises and spent Friday night in Lockney General Hospital. He returned home Saturday and is up and around again.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Ross attended a family reunion Sunday at MacKenzie Park in Lubbock. Members of her grandfather's family and descendants attended. There were over 90 present. Some from as far away as Tennessee.

Mrs. Boyd Carpenter of Wolfe City is here visiting her husband's sisters, Mrs. W. M. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Frizzell and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Frizzell.

Callers in the Green home Saturday afternoon were W. P. Sims and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Horton and boys. Frank Dunn came Monday and Mr. Mankins Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Green appreciated these visits and the telephone calls.

Victor Green and Jimmy came awhile Sunday afternoon.

The Greens called in the D. I. Bolding home Monday. They called in the home of Mrs. Joe Evers Tuesday. Mrs. Evers' son, J. R. Jr., and family of Venezuela, S.A., are spending their vacation with relatives in and around Floydada.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Welborn and Judy spent the weekend of July 29 in Pampa and Le Fors visiting relatives. Mrs. Welborn's mother, who came home with them, returned to her home Monday when her son came for her.

Mrs. Neil Wright and son Kevin of Childress spent Tuesday night

Bureau Policy Development Is Major Problem

Policy Development time is just around the corner, and Floyd County Farm Bureau leaders will attend the district meeting at Lubbock Hotel, August 14, for the district 2 meeting.

Floyd County Farm Bureau Policy development committees and officers will hear techniques discussed on how to obtain wider participation of the membership in formulating policies for the ensuing year.

After issues are debated and discussed in community meetings all over the state in September and October, the Floyd County Farm Bureau will hold an annual meeting at which county policies for 1957 will be adopted. Recommendations on state and national issues will be adopted and forwarded to the state resolutions committee.

Then, in November County Farm Bureau delegates will meet in Houston to decide what the state policies shall be for next year and also make recommendations which will be sent on to the National convention in December in Miami, Fla.

Resolutions adopted on national issues at the Miami convention will become policies for Farm Bureaus everywhere.

The more local participation there is in policy development on the community level the more nearly will the county resolutions reflect the thinking of the majority of the people, county officials of the Farm Bureau point out.

Palace Schedules Thrilling Double Feature Sunday

All Earth is the target of the flying saucers!

That's the terrifying message of Columbia Pictures' "Earth vs. the Flying Saucers," coming Sunday to the Palace Theatre.

The advance word is that the picture contains the terror-truth about flying saucers—for those who have seen them for those who deny they exist, and for all who enjoy terrific screen entertainment.

"Earth vs. the Flying Saucers" was suggested by a best-selling non-fiction work, "Flying Saucers from Outer Space," by Major Donald E. Keyhoe. The United States government gave special permission for the filming of key scenes at national landmarks in Washington, D. C., including a sequence showing a spaceman on the Capitol steps. The climactic battle of man against saucer in the picture takes place in the national capital.

Also on the same bill will be another horror picture, "The Werewolf" with Don Megowan and Joyce Holden.

CARD OF THANKS

I want to thank each and everyone for the cards, letters, flowers and gifts while I was in Plainview Hospital.

Mrs. Bettie Ellis of Compton, Calif., visited a week in Floydada with her sister, Mrs. H. R. Stanley and her brother, Pink Maxwell. Mrs. Ellis returned to her home Thursday morning.

with Mr. and Mrs. Leo Frizzell. She spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Boyd Carpenter of Wolfe City and Mrs. Leo Frizzell and others are visiting Mrs. Clifford Carpenter of Rails today (Wednesday).

Mr. and Mrs. Welborn Miller and children returned last midweek from a vacation trip to Houston, Miss., where they visited Mrs. Miller's relatives.

Come to church Sunday.

Hartsell Family Reunion Draws Many Kinsmen

The Hartsell reunion was held Sunday, Aug. 5, at MacKenzie State Park. A beautiful barbecue dinner was served at the noon hour.

children with physical or mental disabilities which would hinder pursuit of a regular program of education. The training would be in the nature of speech and voice correction, lip reading, and Braille reading and writing, one-handed type-writing, personal adjustment training, and the like.

The Government allowance for the special restorative training is $110.00 a month, but it may be increased if not sufficient to meet the cost of fees and tuition.

Purpose of the program, as stated in the Law, is to provide "opportunities for education to children whose education would otherwise be impeded or interrupted by reason of the death of a parent from a disease or injury incurred or aggravated in the Armed Forces, and to aid such children in attaining the educational status which they might normally have aspired to and obtained but for the death of such parent."

In broad outline, the Children's Scholarship Program follows the structure of the Korean GI Bill for Korean Veterans, Ayres said.

IEWS AND COMMENT

If all of Texas were to respond liberally to the need at Dumas and Sunray where disaster overtook 15 families when their husbands and fathers were fire victims, the lot of the families would be vastly helped and the people would hardly realize the money put into the aid fund. State Railroad Commissioner Olin Culberson, who is secretary-treasurer of the State Fireman's and Fire Marshals' Association, in a call for help, said the men were "all average workers like the most of us and had very little, if any, protection for their loved ones." Contributions may be sent to Mr. Culberson at Austin. In addition to the 15 firemen four company workers also perished in the unusual blast and resulting fire.

Disaster Relief County. Floyd County has been on and off the list of drouth disaster counties. At present it is off and has been for several months. Pressure of the situation demands that dry land stockmen have any breaks they can get to carry on with their livestock. On the other hand one can't see a farm with irrigation facilities as coming within the same category. (Another) but you can hardly pass a rule for one resident of the county that would not apply to another. So, the powers that be, we have no doubt, are wrestling in between the dilemma of doing nothing for the dry land man, who has no feed and little grazing for his stock, and the irrigation man who not only has feed, and to sell, if he wants to have, but also can have his cattle in clover knee deep if he so desires. We would quickly resolve the matter into one of doing what we could for the drouth-stricken man, and if, in the circumstances, some unfair things took place they'd just have to take place. We'd put Floyd County in the drouth disaster list.

Prayer For Rain. Most Texans have lived in some community which at some time has united in prayers for rain, some in a mass-meeting, some in other ways. Always it has rained. Who knows that the prayers of the faithful did not avail? Personally, we like to think of it that way. Not being theologians we take no theological stand on the matter. We just like the idea of faith in a Divine Providence that views with pity and compassion. If you believe in prayer for rain and do not know how to put your petition into words here is a prayer that is being said by thousands this month in Texas and over the southwest: "Almighty God, Lord of heaven and earth, we beseech thee to pour forth thy blessings upon this land, and to give us a fruitful season: that we, constantly receiving thy bounty, may evermore give thanks unto thee in thy holy Church; through Jesus Christ our Lord. This is taken from the Book of Common Prayer.

The drouth has turned some rich areas of the southwest into desert once more. Even the waters of the Rio Grande, which once made tropical lower Rio Grande Valley blossom like a rose, have dried up as flood waters have failed to materialize and Falcon Dam's bed is dusty and dry. Meanwhile from the normal flow of the river water has been diverted to areas higher up on the stream. Instead of getting water on which they counted growers are getting IOU from New Mexico. Frank Dobie writing recently about the Rio Grande, said the little cities that were covered in the first floods at Falcon have grass and mesquite growing in their streets. The drouth is doing things to Texas. Not all of it in the far away Rio Grande Valley by any means.

Impact of television on the way of life in America is still to be gauged fully. Development of the industry up to the time of the national conventions four years ago made it plain that the parties henceforth must arrange their timing on the convention floor so as to get and hold the attention of the television audiences in the American homes. How many millions will see the conventions fully this year as compared with former years? How much more fully informed will housewives and home-bound people be than their associates who will be carrying on duties where television is not available? For one thing it is plain that much of the old-time oratory is gone by the boards. An orator must now say his say in 30 minutes or an hour. If he cannot he is sunk. Both parties are rehearsing to stream line their conventions for home consumption.

Quail Crop Light? Hunters may find their quail crop light this year. In fact they are almost sure to in most of Texas. Except for a few favored spots dotted around the moisture in the ground has been entirely too scant for successful hatches to take place in the wild game areas. In nature moisture in the ground is necessary for the wild mother bird to have big coveys. Farmers with guineas are likely to be wondering also why such a high per centage of the guinea eggs proved "infertile." Probably not that at all, but simply a failure of moisture in the ground.

Farm management specialists of the Texas A & M College System advise that the best hay buy is usually hay which was cut while the plants were young. Hay from such plants is higher in leafiness and protein content and is actually a better buy even at a higher price than hay made from mature plants.

Choir Is Heard Tuesday Night

A choir of 18 young Methodist people who have sailed halfway around the world to make a concert tour of the United States gave a very enjoyable program Tuesday evening of last week at the High School Auditorium at 8:15 o'clock. This program was given by the India Centenary Choir which is celebrating one hundred years of Methodist work in India and Pakistan.

The choir of 18 young people is under the direction of Victor C. Sherring.

The group not only sang several numbers but presented their exotic instruments.

The choir members and their staff were entertained by the First Methodist Church with a family supper held in Fellowship Hall at the church at 6:30 o'clock Tuesday evening. The Indians especially enjoyed the "Southern Fried Chicken" and the "home-made ice cream."

News of Harmony

(By Mrs. Mather Carr)

HARMONY, Aug. 6 — Mr. and Mrs. Ted Rutherford returned home Friday of last week from Stamford where they attended the funeral of Mr. Rutherford's brother-in-law, Mr. Koocne.

Mrs. Floyd Trowbridge celebrated a birthday Wednesday with company from California which were Walter Windfield, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hungate of Canyon, Karen Wade of Monahans, W. C. Clubb of Petersburg, Mrs. Louella Heard and Mrs. Ocie Haynes, North of Petersburg, Floyd and Steve and the honoree, Mrs. Trowbridge.

Mrs. Zant Scott happened to an accident when some paraffin caught fire on the stove and as she carried it to the sink she spilled some on her hand. It caused a deep burn on her forefinger of her left hand with lesser burns on the back of the hand. The curtains over the sink were destroyed and the blind ruined.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Miller spent from Friday until Sunday in Abilene visiting Mrs. Ruth Snodgrass spent the time in the home of her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Carrick Snodgrass.

Mrs. Bill Scott went home Saturday after spending two weeks in the Zant Scott home while her husband was at Camp Hood.

Mr. and Mrs. Mather Carr and Horace visited Delia Carr of Floydada Friday.

Mrs. Buddy Smith was taken ill Saturday morning about 2 o'clock and was taken by ambulance to Plainview hospital. She was reported slightly improved Sunday morning, but is still in serious condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Tucker and children spent Sunday in Hart, guests of Mrs. Tucker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Foster.

Mrs. Wesley Carr was called to general hospital Saturday night to nurse Mrs. Zed Reed who is seriously ill in the hospital. Mrs. Reed's daughter Mrs. Lawson was once a resident of this community.

Mr. and Mrs. Chloma Williams spent Sunday in Amarillo guests of Chloma's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Williams and to bring their daughters, Sue and Carolyn Williams home. They had spent the week with their grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Turner attended a Turner reunion Sunday at Roaring Springs.

We had a report this Monday morning on Mrs. Buddy Smith and her condition was a little improved. Mrs. Mather Carr and Horace visited in the homes of Mrs. Mattie Heard and Miss Anna Carr of Petersburg Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Gary attended a Hardiman County reunion Sunday.

Harmony Home Coming

Home coming day at Harmony, which has been observed for several years, will be Saturday evening, Aug. 18, this year, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. The meeting will be at the community center.

All who have made their home at Harmony at one time or another are being invited, and all the home people are expected to be there to greet them.

Those who have ice cream freezers are asked to bring ice cream and those who do not are asked to bring cake.

HOME FROM HOUSTON

Lloyd Edgar Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Allen, who had been in critical condition in the St. Joseph Hospital in Houston, has been released and is doing better.

It will be some time before he can return to work. His mother, who had been with him since his accident, returned home last week.

Advertise for it in Hesperian.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Chiddix, of Plainview and Mrs. Tilda Hukabay, N. M., and her sister, Wiggins of Houston, are vacationing in Nevada and California, visiting relatives in Phoenix, Ariz., and McGill, Nev.

Estacado Reunion Date Is August 12

Former and present residents of the Estacado Community of Crosby County, the old Quaker colony, will hold their annual reunion Sunday, August 12, in Aggie Grove, on the Texas Tech Campus southwest of the Administration building.

Registration will begin at 10:00 a. m., and dinner will be spread picnic style at noon.

Talks on the history of the community will be made by Dr. Ernest Wallace of the Tech History Department and Dr. "Ike" Conner of Tech Museum. Following lunch, there will be a guided tour of the Museum.

Estacado was established in 1878 by Paris Cox as a Quaker settlement. For a while the community thrived, and the first college on the Plains was established there. Then, most of the Quakers moved away, and they were succeeded by other settlers. Today, only a store and church remain, but the area is one of the richest irrigated farming sections of the Plains.

Mrs. Frank Hill and Mrs. Harley Henderson of Tahoka were instrumental in organizing the reunion a few years ago. Mrs. Margaret Carter of Lubbock arranged this year's program.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Cook, of Phoenix, Ariz., have been visiting Mrs. Cook's father, A. H. Manning and Mrs. Manning, as well as other relatives in Floydada, Petersburg and Lubbock. They also have been guests of Mr. Cook's sister, Mrs. Della Robertson at Slaton.

Tells Story Of Trout Fishing Mountain Trip

Just in case some of you have not gone on your fishing vacation, I thought I might give you some experiences of E. L. Judy and myself, with the idea that it could be helpful in where to go for trout.

It is too hot to go south so we thought of the mountains and Rain-bow trout.

In Colorado and New Mexico we visited my old trout fishing place near Pecos, N. M., and then on up the river to Cowles about 20 miles above Pecos. Enroute we visited the fish hatchery and Holy Ghost Canyon. The mountain scenery, big trees, green grass, fat cattle, running spring water and rains most every afternoon were certainly enjoyed.

We saw three walled cabins with big fire places and camp tables with built in seats, some half dozen which, at Holy Ghost Canyon, were always occupied. Another bunch of these cabins on up through and one mile beyond Cowles, is a little fisherman's village, one store, post office and a few dozen summer tourist homes for rent.

There are plenty of trout in this Pecos river, and they can be caught if you make your approach from down stream. The trout expects his dinner to come from up stream.

I think worms and salmon eggs are excellent trout bait in the throat or gullet of a trout. When you dress the trout, remove the gullet from the mouth and stomach about 1 1/2 inches long and about the size of a match stem. This makes two baits about 1/2 inches long. Slip this over your hook, which is about 1/2 inches long, then cover point of hook with a salmon egg. If necessary approach stream on hands or knees or behind a bush. If stream is in open territory you can cast upstream at least 40 feet and you might catch a few trout.

The rainbow trout is one of our creators' masterpieces. It is beautiful coloring, blending of shades and spots, excel the beauty of any of the roes. The rainbow is one of the wildest and hardest to catch unless you stay out of sight.

We heard of a secret spot for trout over the continental divide in Colorado out of Crede, Colo., about 38 miles to the top of the divide known as Spring Creek Pass. Just beyond this is trout and beavers' dams country. The elevation is 10,880 feet. The grass is green and it rains most every afternoon.

It is a cowman's paradise except he has to move out entirely in winter because snow gets impassable, sometimes six feet and stays until spring. The temperature was in the upper thirties at night and 95 in the afternoon.

We had the good fortune to observe the intelligent engineering ability and courage of the Beaver. His dams and homes are built complete with a spillway at one edge.

WE HAPPENED upon one old beaver eating grass from his field in the bottom of his lake. He would dive down, come up with the grass and with his mouth, eyes and ears out of the water, eat the grass and dive back in and repeat.

We were 100 yards away when we first noticed Mr. Beaver, which was an unusually large one, three feet over all in length.

When he would dive for grass we would advance 20 or 30 feet. When he was up we stood still, did not bat an eye. Finally we were only 20 feet from him, and could tell by his expressions we were unwelcome in his territory.

Finally Mr. Beaver swam around in circles getting closer and closer. He decided to scare us away so he pops the top of the water with his tail very loud. It could have been heard a long way. After about a minute he re-appeared and slapped the water again.

WE TOOK the hint our absence was desired so we moved on down to his dam and on down the creek. He chased us like a dog, only he stayed in the water.

This old beaver had courage as well as ability. His castle was built out in the center of his lake. It was a stack of sticks up to 1 1/2 inches in diameter and it stood three feet above the water and was eight feet wide at the surface.

His dam was at least 125 feet long and six feet high in center and was brimfull of water. I caught 10 trout here hiding behind this dam and easing over, being careful not to let my arm show at the top of the dam.

As A Farm Woman Thinks

(Nellie Witt Spikes)

For every hill I've had to climb,
For every stone that bruised my feet,
For all the blood and sweat and gime,
For blinding storms and burning heat,
My heart sings but a grateful song—
These were the things that made me strong.

For all the heartaches and the tears,
For all the anguish and the pain,
For gloomy days and fruitless years,
And for the hopes that live in vain,
I do give thanks, for now I know
These were the things that helped me grow.

'Tis not the softer things of life
Which stimulate man's will to strive;
But bleak adversity and strife;
Do most to keep man's will alive.
O'er rose-strewn paths the weak-
lings creep,
But brave hearts dare to climb
The steep.

I do not know the author's name for the poem above but it is fitting to describe the bunch of pioneers that sat around and talked and reminisced about the pioneer times. Strength of character was on each wrinkled face and hands were worn from many a hard task, but hearts were warm and smiles were happy for it is good for old friends to get together.

Crosbyton put the big kettle in the little un and feet and hands were busy doing everything for the comfort and happiness of the guests. The dinner was grand, the programs fine, but the best of all was the meeting and talking things over again.

I had such a good visit with Judge J. B. Cotten of Seagraves and his daughter-in-law, Mrs. J. B. Cotten of Odessa. The Judge could fill a big book with material gathered from his busy life as a pioneer boy, rancher, lawyer. I hope he does get it all inside the covers of a book to help keep the record of the Early Days. The Cottens had the post-office at Verbena and they were very hospitable and many, many people found this to be true.

When there was a picnic at Emma, as most usually there was one at the Fourth of July, the Cottens attended. The girls wore such pretty dresses and always looked so sweet and dainty. The boys were friendly and always had a good time. The Cottens lived in Garza but it was near the Crosby Line. It was nice to meet J. B. once more. I fell in love with his son's wife. She came from Illinois but likes her adopted homeland and is so very interested in its history and its friendly people. We hope they come every year and bring the rest of the family.

It was nice to see Mrs. McNeill from Spur and we met two charming residents of Spur, Mrs. Buchanan and her daughter, Mrs. Russell. Mrs. Buchanan is a pioneer of Dickens County.

Fred Collett from Hereford was having the time of his life. He grew up in Dickens County and went to school some at Emma. What we would do without Mrs. Emma Ful-lingim of Crosbyton? Or Mr. Parker? Or Mrs. Ezell?

As we shook hands with those who came tears were in each heart as the faces of the ones who have gone on to the Better Land came to us and we know we will not see them anymore on this earth.

Bub Heafner, Eli Jones and wife, John McDermott, the Andrews from New Mexico, what a home-coming and what a welcome! A whole town and lots of the county stretching forth hands to greet and make happy the men and women who had helped make the Plains a Grand Place to live.

I could go on and on mentioning ones who were there, but you will have to read the list if you were not there as I do not have space to tell of each of the ones I was so happy to see.

Mrs. Jeff Meek brought me a big bag sack of gherkins and I have already soaked them in lime water and have them in clear water and will soon make them into delicious pickles. Thank you, Mr. and Mrs. Meek. Gherkins are small and tedious to pick.

Purple grapes are turned into purple jelly, green beans are in jars besides creamy pearls of corn. Looks nice now but how much hard, hot work!

To the People of Precinct Three

I want to thank all the people for the courtesy shown me during my campaign for commissioner, especially those who supported me.

Also want to congratulate the winner and wish him success.
O. R. Beard.

SOCIETY

This is the silly season fashion-wise. With the thermometer still hugging 100, light summer linens and cool cottons feel right. So do straw hats. But while some of us hold out for comfort versus the swell look in August, dress shops and department stores bombard us with fall propaganda.

"A new showing of fall suits. The silhouette for fall. Buy your new girdle to bring out the best in fall fashions."

Windows full of velvet and beaver hats appear. Mrs. Smith, noting a resemblance between the "new styles" and a hat she had last year, drags it out to wear to a summer luncheon. That starts a whole cycle of crazy competition. Mrs. Jones rushes down to get herself a new velvet bonnet. Mesdames Jackson, Johnson and Thompson feel outdated in summer togs, so they bring out year-round dark cottons or lightweight, dark-colored silks. Just enough women hold out for sensible dress to make the dark girls feel as if they're rushing the season a little. Just enough fashion-conscious girls adopt the fall look too early to make the summer girls feel dowdy. It's a pretty-mixed-up business.

Results of a survey made by a large department store recently indicate that American women are not as easily taken in by fashion mongers as they once were. Those questioned protested the fact that they couldn't buy a bathing suit in August. They asked for a return to the practice of showing spring clothes in April, instead of February; fall clothes in September instead of August.

Whether it's house plans or dress styles, women — if they decide to stick together — can pretty much get what they want. Which shall it be, ladies? Sensible, or silly?

Sue Stansell of Lockney spent the week-end with her cousins Jan and Jill Stansell.

J. S. Lackey, of Plainview, spent Thursday with his daughter, Mrs. Jack Stansell.

Barbara Price Is Married In Lovely Clovis Ceremony

CLOVIS, N. M. — The parlor of the Central Baptist Church formed the background for double-ring vows uniting Miss Barbara Price and Bobby Eugene Christian, in marriage recently. Rev. Carl Scott officiated at the soft candlelight, mid-afternoon ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Price, 819 Pile Street and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Christian, 317 Sheldon Street.

Forming the beautiful floral background, on either side of the fireplace stood a tall pyramid shaped trellis of pale yellow gladioli. Low in front of the fireplace stood a white screen behind a white wrought iron planter, filled with white callulums. In the middle stood a long low arrangement of pale yellow gladioli and very delicate huge yellow mums backed by a seven branched candelabra holding citron yellow tapers. On either side of this stood a four branched black wrought iron candelabra, also holding citron yellow tapers, which was garlanded with variegated ivy. Backing this was an arrangement of palms with Woodwardia and Emerald ferns.

The organist, Miss Nancy Williams, played nuptial music throughout the ceremony and accompanied Miss Judy Bolton, who sang "I Love Thee" and "The Wedding Prayer."

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore an imported white organdy waist length gown. The bodice featured an off the shoulder neckline with small tucked sleeves matching the tiny tucks running down the front of the bodice.

The full tiered skirt, worn over a pale yellow satin slip, was accented with dainty, yellow embroidery medallions throughout. She wore matching tucked organdy mitts and her finger-tip veil of matching organdy fell from a crown of seed pearls.

She carried a white Bible covered in French imported lace. Atop the Bible was a large white orchid accented by a yellow throat and graced with white Shasta pom poms, yellow rosebuds and a cascade of Stephanotis.

Sister Is Matron of Honor. Mrs. Morris Wilson of San Diego, Calif., attended her sister as matron-of-honor. She wore a waist length organdy gown of very delicate yellow, styled similar to the bride's gown. It was worn over a full slip of pale yellow. Her headpiece was made of tiny yellow organdy leaves forming a head-band. To accent the gown, she wore matching yellow organdy tucked mitts. She carried an informal Garden basket overflowing with yellow Sweetheart roses, white Pom Poms and a cascade of miniature variegated ivy.

Terry Horton attended the groom as best man. Ushers were Jimmy Horton and Pechall Wickard. The bride's mother chose for her daughter's wedding a street length, beige linen sheath dress with black accessories and she wore a corsage of orchid colored Lani orchids. The groom's mother chose a pale blue silk cotton street length dress and wore a corsage of yellow Lani orchids.

Reception Is Held. Following the ceremony a reception was held in the parlor of the church. The serving table was covered with a white nylon tulle cloth over white satin, the skirt of which was encircled with a double ruffle. Each corner of the cloth held tiny yellow rosebuds with green ivy. The table was centered with a sterling silver candelabra holding citron yellow tapers. The centerpiece was an arrangement of stock, white Shasta pom poms and variegated ivy.

For their wedding trip to points of interest in New Mexico, the bride chose a sleeveless dress of pale yellow silk cotton accented by a low neckline and bodice trimmed with scattered rhinestones and embroidery. She wore matching shoes and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

After their honeymoon the couple will reside at 312 D. North McArthur Street in Odessa, Tex.

The bride, a former resident of Floydada, attended Andrews Ward her first three years. She is a graduate of Clovis High School, attended the E.N.M.U. and until recently was employed by the Farmers Electric Coop.

The groom graduated from Texico High School, spent three years in the U. S. Navy and is currently employed by the Western Oil Company in Odessa.

Peggy Jane Parkey To Be Married August 25

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Parkey announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Peggy Jane, to Jack Thornton Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thornton of Edroy, Texas. The wedding will be held August 25 at 7:30 o'clock p.m. in the home of the bride's parents.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Shaw from last Thursday until Sunday were her sister, Mrs. Rook Everett and twin daughters, Mrs. Fred Finley and Miss Maurine Everett, all of Denison. Mrs. Glee Thomas of Plainview came down Saturday to be with the family.
