

Cotton Crop Means $14 Million For Farmers

Harvest Is At Clean-Up Stage

A 93,000-bale crop from the cotton fields of Floyd County, now in the last stages of harvest, means $14 million in the pockets of Floyd County farmers for 1956.

This figure of 93,000 bales lacked only 2,483 bales of being realized Tuesday at noon. Ginners' estimates of the crop yet in the field indicate they expect the figure to be reached before their season is done.

Ginners Tuesday told The Hesperian they had processed 90,517 bales of cotton. They expect to turn out another 2,500 bales or thereabouts.

This total production makes an all-time high for an average yield per acre since the first crude days of cotton production began here more than half a century ago.

Total cotton allotments in the county for 1956 was 93,135 acres. Thus, counting abandoned crops, dry land failures and all, including cotton that was ginned outside the county's confines, the production in the county is averaging a bale per acre.

This figure compares with last year's 69,000 bales on 103,000 allotted acres. It is in excess of the Sept. 1 forecast by 15,000 bales.

In addition to being the biggest per acre cotton crop ever made in the county the crop also promises to be one of the best money making cotton crops.

Staple and character of the cotton this year has been unusually good.

FIGURED on the basis of being worth $150 per bale means $13,950,000 gross income. To this add another $2 million gained from the sale of cotton seed and you bring the total income from the crop to a gross above $16 million.

To this add again the income from a generous forage feed crop, from alfalfa and vegetables and you up the income figures again.

Most of the crop, also has moved through trade channels because of the good staple and grade. Less than 30 per cent has gone through the government loan tade. Much cotton still held by farmers will not move into the trade until after Jan. 1 for tax purposes.

There seems to be no doubt that the harvest will be all out and done and all the gins ready to close down by Christmas day. This also sets a new ginning record, unheard of before, so far as Floyd County is concerned.

Mr. Garrett passed Sunday evening at 9:30 o'clock at his home, 407 West Missouri, following a long illness.

Robert Aaron Garrett was born July 17, 1889, in Gainesville, Tex. He was reared in Gainesville and moved to Floydada in 1921. He was married to Miss Kitty Mae Montague, June 16, 1924, in Floydada, where the couple have made their home since that time.

Garrett was a member of the Methodist Church, a veteran of World War I, a Mason, and a charter member of the American Legion.

For several years until ill health forced him to retire, Mr. Garrett was associated with Willson & Son Lumber Co.

Survivors include his wife, Kitty Mae; two daughters, Mrs. William D. Hardin of Floydada and Mrs. Billy Norman Muncy of Leesville, La.; one granddaughter, Miss Kitty Frances Lloyd of the home; one brother, Floyd Garrett of Gainesville; two sisters, Mrs. Edd Wasson of Gainesville and Mrs. Alfred Castello of Houston.

Fallbearers were Bill Beedy, Woodrow Wilson, Randolph Wilson, Sam Reeves, Garnet Reeves of Lubbock and Walton Wilson.

Floyd County Chest Fund Campaign Gets Underway

The Floyd County United Chest fund drive got underway Monday of this week when most parts of the county started their campaign. Floydada and the south half of the county kicked off their drive Monday. Lockney and the north half will follow suit on Friday of this week.

N. W. Williams, president of the chest, said he was encouraged by early efforts of the drive and believed it could be wound up much earlier than a year ago when the campaign drug on until late January.

EARLY harvest and better crops this year in most parts of the county have given a boost to most businesses and it is believed this will also be reflected in the chest drive.

Jimmy Wilson, drive chairman, reported several business establishments had made contributions early with Santa Fe Railroad, and QA&P Railroad leading the list. Santa Fe turned in $125 and QA&P $50 at the kickoff breakfast last week and several other local business men added substantial amounts to this on the first day.

FAIRMOUNT community was the first to complete their drive. Mrs.

Texa Jo Clark brought in $57.50 for the area under the hill and reported her job as finished before the drive was officially under way. Mrs. Clark's name was missed in the list of workers reported last week in the Hesperian, an error we are glad to correct this week.

The United Chest is seeking a goal of $11,000 which will be used in support of the Red Cross, Boy Scouts, Heart Association, Salvation Army, and USO. It is the only fund raising drive conducted for the entire year by the chest or any of the organizations named.

Volunteer workers plan to call on all residents of the county. If you feel you are being missed or plan to be away from home you may make your contribution to either of the county's banks or by contacting the chest officials.

Toyland Parade Will Be Staged at 3:00 Today

Undaunted by the bluster which prevented the presentation of Christmas Toyland in a downtown Floydada street parade Tuesday afternoon, the C of C Committee named the new day and hour for the event for 3 o'clock this afternoon, Thursday.

The committee probably would have gone ahead with the parade plans except for the punishment the wind and dust would have dealt to parade units and marching bands.

The hard luck sandwiched a windy day, with gusts up to 50 miles, into otherwise ideal fall weather.

By 10 o'clock Tuesday unit leaders were calling the parade committee chairman Clement B. McDonald to cancel participation unless a postponement was arranged. McDonald hastily assembled his committee and announced the new day and hour.

A strong "low" which hovered over eastern Montana and brought extreme cold to the northern tier of states from the Rocky Mountains eastward, whipped up the duster in the southwest. This "low" is due to have moved on eastward by today and a more reasonable weather pattern is hoped for the plains area.

News of the change in the plans was flashed to half a dozen other communities whose bands had promised to join in the downtown parade.

VIEWERS are promised some of the prettiest floats they have seen anywhere this year when they come to the parade this afternoon. Hundreds have been spent in their preparation and hundreds of man-hours given to the artistry which will be shown in the parade.

THE PARADE route is unchanged. Starting at Kentucky Street (Baptist Church corner) on South Main the route extends north to the southeast corner of the square, thence east one block to the southeast corner of the square, thence north one block, and thence west on Missouri to Fourth (First Christian Church corner), again south to California (at the Phillips 66 Station) and east on California to Main.

The pace-setting highway patrol car will be followed by the 96-piece Whirlwind Band, which only last week won recognition as a No. 1 marching unit.

The Chamber of Commerce announced the marching order of the parade units given below.

The weather man has promised not a perfect hour for the parade, but certainly better than Tuesday afternoon when the elements went on a tantrum.

There will be at least 20 units in the parade, just about a mile long. Here are the scheduled floats and bands which will be in the line: (See Toyland Parade, back page)

Allotments Up 5,146.8 Acres

Floyd County's 1408 farm units to which cotton acreage has been allotted for 1957 will get a gross increase of 5,146.8 acres, the ASC committee last week announced after the release in Washington of the state allotments.

The 1957 allotment for the county is 98,284.8 acres against 93,138.0 acres in 1956.

The committee announced the allotments are being figured again this year on the cropland basis rather than on cotton farming history of the farm units. Whether this will touch off another controversy as it did last year was not immediately apparent.

LAST year's action of the county committee is still a matter of litigation in federal district court.

Notices of the allotments to the various farm units were mailed Monday of this week.

Acreages allotted vary from several small tracts of 1.5 acres to several that cover a spread of 600 acres.

While the county as a whole got an increase of more than 5,000 acres in the 1957 program, this does not mean that every farm did get an increase.

WHEATLAND planting (also on allotment basis) in 1956 is the main factor in the way allotments were figured, it was said this week at the ASC office. This means that some farm unit allotments were actually lowered rather than raised.

Follow Safety Rules at Home Christmas Tree

Speaking from his Austin office, J. O. "Jim" Musick, General Manager of the Texas Safety Association, has issued a word of caution to Texans regarding Christmas tree-decorating safety.

"Accidents at Christmas time always seem so much more tragic," Musick said. "And this is especially true if the accident results in a fire that costs a family their home, maybe serious injury to one of the family."

Musick pointed out that most of this type of accident is easily preventable, if only a few common sense precautions are taken. As an example he listed the following eight rules which he considers "musts" in safe decorating:

1. Keep tree outside until time to trim.
 2. Place tree away from all heating units.
 3. Use non-flammable decorations.
 4. Never use candles near tree.
 5. Make sure lights, sockets and wiring are in good condition.
 6. Anchor tree, at top, with wire to prevent it from falling.
 7. Turn off tree lights at bedtime or when away from home.
 8. Dispose of tree safely; never burn in fireplace.
- "Remember," he concluded, "It takes less than 60 seconds for the average tree to burn up completely, so make your Christmas a bright one, but with happiness — not with fire."

A Land O' Lakes in Texas

MINERAL WELLS — The reservoirs proposed under the Brazos River Authority's Six-Dam Program will bring an influx of recreation seekers to the heart of Texas. Water recreation, a major tourist attraction, the Authority points out in a recent publication, is still a novelty to the Southwest. Fishermen, boat enthusiasts, and lakeside cottagers will have new playgrounds, and they will flock to the remodeled Brazos to join Valley dwellers in making use of the 250-mile chain of lakes created by the new dams. Such recreation facilities will build new property values on a vast scale.

LIPSTICK LOGIC

How can you be sure you are wearing the right shade of lipstick? The answer is simple. You must know your own skin tone. If you have a fair complexion, you should wear a light shade of pink or red. If you have a medium complexion, you should wear a medium shade of red or pink. If you have a dark complexion, you should wear a dark shade of red or pink.

What I expected, I got. I was surprised to find that the lipstick I had chosen was just what I needed. It was just what I needed. It was just what I needed.

Up till now, she has been a quiet, efficient, unassuming housewife. She has been a quiet, efficient, unassuming housewife.

(MRS. AMOS LAVON SMITH) (Miss Marcelita Ann Green)

Father of Mrs. Goen Passes In England

Mrs. W. W. (Bud) Goen, 522 South Wall, of this city, received a cablegram Sunday morning telling of the death of her father, T. S. Kenward, 81, of Kenilworth, England.

Mr. Kenward passed Saturday at the home of one of his sons, L. A. Kenward of Kenilworth, following a few weeks' illness.

Mrs. Goen, unable to go to England at this time, had not received the funeral arrangements at press time yesterday.

Survivors include, one daughter, Mrs. Goen; three sons, Jack of Streeton-On-Dures, Reigley, England, F. S. of Exeter, Devon, England, and L. A. of Kenilworth, England; and grandchildren, Melinda and Mark Goen of this city.

Marceleta Green, Amos Lavon Smith Married Sunday

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Tate Jones, Matador Highway, was the scene Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock for the wedding of Miss Marcelita Ann Green, daughter of Mrs. Annie Green of Plains, and Amos Lavon Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Smith of Plains.

Rev. Tilden B. Armstrong, pastor of the First Methodist Church, Floydada, read the double-ring ceremony as the couple stood before an altar flanked with floor baskets of yellow chrysanthemums and lighted candles. In back of the bridal scene were arrangements of palm and fern. White bridal rope marked the bridal aisle.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Wilson Green of Lubbock, wore a street-length dress of cream brocade, designed princess style with brown fur lining the V-neckline. She wore a cream colored hat and carried a white Bible topped with white roses.

For something borrowed, the bride wore a string of pearls belonging to her mother, something old was a sterling silver chain bracelet belonging to her grandmother, something new was her wedding attire, and something blue was her blue sash.

Miss Maureen Lowe of Plains attended the bride as maid-of-honor. She wore a brown suit with matching accessories and carried a nosegay of baby yellow chrysanthemums.

Duane McDonnell, brother-in-law of the groom of Plains, served as best man. Bobby Green, brother of the bride of Canyon, and Bobby Moore of Plains served as candle-lighters and ushers.

Following the ceremony a reception was given in honor of the couple by her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Moss. The bridal table was laid with a natural linen cut-work cloth over brown and centered with the maid-of-honor's bouquet.

Mrs. Wilton Green, sister-in-law of the bride of Lubbock, served the two-tiered wedding cake and Miss Kay Smith, sister of the groom of Plains, presided at the silver table service. Yellow and brown touches, the bride's chosen colors, completed the table decor.

For a wedding trip to points in New Mexico, Mrs. Smith chose a blue wool box suit with black accessories for traveling.

Mrs. Smith is a graduate of Floydada High School and Isbell's University of Beauty Culture, Lubbock. She is employed with her mother at the Plains Beauty Bar.

Smith is a graduate of Plains High School and is employed by the Texas Highway Department.

The couple will be at home in Plains around Dec. 4.

No. Ward Students Compete in Nat'l Scholarship Tests

Miss Pearly Mae Coleman and Miss Stella M. Campbell, senior students at North Ward High School, were among some 30,000 other girls throughout the United States who observed "Homemaker of Tomorrow" Day Tuesday of this week.

These girls were given tests in their homemaking knowledge and aptitude in a 50-minute written examination for scholarships being offered by General Mills in this third annual Betty Crocker Search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow.

Miss Mary Joyce Wilson, Home Ec. instructor at North Ward, gave the girls the examination. The girl with the highest test score in each school will be named Homemaker of Tomorrow for her school and will receive an award pin. Her test will be entered in competition for a scholarship which will be awarded each state Homemaker of Tomorrow and the runner-up respectively.

MEMORY EXPERT

A salesman had a terrible memory. When it got so bad that he began forgetting the name of the firm he worked for, his boss insisted that he take a memory course. He took the course and, when it was completed, he was walking down the street, saw a familiar face, and rushed to this other man.

"Pardon me," he said, "Didn't I meet you in 1946 in Chicago?"

"Never been in Chicago," said the other man.

"Oh," said the salesman, "then it must have been at the state sales convention in 1944."

"Never been to a sales convention in my life."

"I know," said the salesman. "I met you in Tuscaloosa in the summer of '46."

"I've never been in Tuscaloosa, you idiot," said the other man. "And besides, I'm your brother Arthur." — Gilchrist

ANDREWS WARD STUDENT IS HURT IN PLAYGROUND FALL

Elizabeth Parks, nine year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Parks, received a broken wrist recently while playing on the monkey bars at Andrews Ward school.

Elizabeth was in Methodist Hospital, Lubbock, for four days following her accident. A bone specialist at the hospital told her parents she is doing as well as can be expected.

Wealth To Create New Dams

MINERAL WELLS — Cities and towns along the Brazos can grow for the next half century, at least, if their water supplies keep pace, the Brazos River Authority reports. The Authority's Six-Dam Program is designed to create an assured supply of 700,000 acre-feet initially and 1,500,000 acre-feet ultimately, against a present dependable supply in the lower river of 420,000 acre-feet. Cities thus will be able to draw on a quadrupled water supply when the full conservation program is in effect.

GENE LOWRANCE HOME

Gene Lowrance arrived home last Saturday evening to spend a 14-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Lowrance of the Starkey Community.

Gene has just completed his boot training at San Diego, Calif., and will report to Bremerton, Wash., where he will be stationed on the U.S.S. Princeton.

The penultimate day of the month is the next to the last day.

NEW FURY BY PLYMOUTH

Plymouth President John P. Mansfield (left) announces the new 290-horsepower Fury as Plymouth's entry in prestige car competition. Mansfield, shown with Chief Engineer Robert Anderson, says the new white two-door model, with gold trim, has the performance and roadability of a sports car.

Helpful Hints To Buy Health Insurance

Health insurance guards millions of American homes against the shattering effects of sudden or prolonged medical bills. The average family spends almost 3 per cent of its take-home income on this kind of protection. There are five basic types of insurance they can buy, says Morton Yarnon, financial expert for Redbook Magazine. Writing in the November issue, he describes each kind of policy so as to help you determine the type and amount of coverage that is right for you:

Health insurance helps you in any of five basic ways, and policies can cover one or several types:

1. Hospital Expense Insurance—This pays all or part of the cost of hospital room and board and fixed amounts toward the payment of such expenses as the operating room, medication and X rays. You are paid a specific amount per day, with the number of days usually depending on the sickness or injury, up to as long as three or four months.

2. Surgical Expense Insurance—This pays all or part of the doctor's fees for an operation. How much depends on what the operation is, according to a schedule in the policy.

3. Medical Expense Insurance—

This pays for visits to a doctor's office or for his visits to you at home or in the hospital. The maximum number of calls for each sickness or injury is specified in the policy.

4. Major Medical Expense Insurance (also known as Catastrophe Insurance)—This helps to pay the costs of extended sickness or injuries. Benefits may go as high as $10,000. This type generally has two features—a deductible clause (you are insured only after a minimum cost has been reached) and coinsurance (the company pays the largest share of the bill and you pay the balance).

5. Loss-of-Income Insurance (also known as Disability Insurance)—This pays benefits when you are unable to work because of sickness or injury. Specified amounts are listed in the policy.

You can buy health insurance from either of two large and separate groups. The first is the insurance companies, which sell all five major types of coverage; the second, the service organizations — Blue Cross, which sells hospital expense insurance, and Blue Shield, which sells surgical expense and medical expense insurance.

The fundamental difference between the two groups is this: The insurance companies issue "indemnity" policies. These pay benefits to you in cash, and you in turn pay the hospital or doctor bills. On the other hand, the "Blues" pay the hospital or doctor's bills directly for you.

You can buy health insurance either through a group — for example, your place of work or your lodge — or individually. Group coverage has substantial advantages. It will be considerably cheaper and probably will not require a medical examination.

How much health insurance should you carry? Financial experts suggest 3 per cent of your take-home income go toward health service. They suggest that you set aside some part of your health dollar for routine matters such as colds and check-ups. The balance, they say, should go for health insurance. If you can't afford all types of health insurance it's recommended that you set a priority list, with hospital expense insurance first on your schedule, then surgical expense, then medical expense and finally major medical expense insurance.

AROUND HE GOES

A tourist, visiting a country fair, stopped by a merry-go-round. Presently he noticed a miserable-looking little man seated on one of the wooden horses. But what struck him as strange was that every time the machine stopped, the little man made no attempt to get off the horse.

At length curiosity overcame the tourist, and when next the man on the horse stopped opposite him he said: "Pardon me, sir, but do you enjoy going round and round like this?"

The unhappy one grimaced. "Not a bit," he replied.

"Then why do you do it?" asked the tourist.

"The man who owns this affair owes me $5, and this is the only way I can get it out of him," came the reply.

"OF SOUND MIND"

The relatives were all gathered in the lawyer's office eagerly waiting for him to read Uncle Jasper's will. He read:

"Being of sound mind, I spent all my money"

Wind-Swept Blaze Consumed Emert Home on Tuesday

The two bedroom home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Emert in the west side of Dougherty was a total loss in a fire Tuesday morning about 10 o'clock that also consumed all of the household equipment and furnishings. A few items were saved from the kitchen.

The family was at home but the fire, which started above the ceiling was well underway before it was discovered. Whipped by strong wind flames were only minutes enveloping the whole house.

Floydada Fire Department and volunteer workers helped whip out gas fires that spread about, but reached the scene too late to save the house, which burned to the ground.

Origin of the fire was undetermined and the loss was not immediately announced.

THE "HAND" IS NOT GLAD TO FORT CARSON TRAINEES

FORT CARSON, Colo. — "Gimme five" is a friendly greeting of today's youth.

That isn't the case, however, with the members of the 56th Field Artillery Battalion here. It isn't that they are unfriendly, but the cademen of the battalion devised a new and novel method of stressing soldierly appearance to the trainees.

The training aid that all are dodging like KP for is a large wooden "hand" which is captioned: "I had my hands in my pockets . . . I will carry this until I find another soldier with his hands in his pockets."

KISSING ACT

For uninhibited valor in the chase one must look to the second-grade set, reports Phyllis McGinley in Good Housekeeping. A daughter of mine once astonished us at dinner (when she was seven) with the announcement that Miss Brown had kissed her after class.

"He did?" we asked in a raised-eyebrows sort of voice.

"Yes, he did," said the unblinking maiden. "Three girls helped me catch him" — Ex.

APPRECIATION

The bridegroom was in a poetic frenzy as he strolled along the seashore. "Roll on, thou deep and dark blue sea, roll on," he recited to his bride.

"Oh, Gerald," she exclaimed, "how wonderful you are, it's doing it!"

Appliances Make White Christmas An Event For The Entire Family Circle

The Holiday Into An Old Fashioned Christmas With Gifts That Serve Everyone

Old-fashioned Christmas is one with the whole family as the joy of the holiday season. "Old-fashioned" doesn't mean "out of style." In fact, it has been a marked return in recent years to the type of Christmas in which the family celebrates and enjoys together.

Whether it's gathering the evergreen tree from a forest or at a store, whether it's planning a quite but observant or entertaining the neighborhood — the family enjoys doing it together more than ever.

Again the kitchen is the heart of the home as it used to be in grand-ma's day, and on back in history. Home is where the hearth is, the modern American family is rediscovering.

So make it an old-fashioned — and new-fashioned — Christmas this year. Let the family have fun in the kitchen sharing the hundreds of happy things to do there.

The family can share, too, in its giving. The best things come in big packages — modern kitchen appliances that make living happier for everyone.

They may arrive to the sound of sleighbells in the frosty, early morning air as Santa makes his rounds. Or the sound may be a truck's horn, as Santa's helper, your local appliance dealer, makes delivery. But in either case, the gift will make Christmas the gala occasion it should be.

When you unveil your new appliances this Yuletide, remember that they're an investment in happiness for you and your whole family.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hart, accompanied by Mrs. Hart's mother, Mrs. Gunnels, all of Hereford, visited with friends and relatives in Floydada last Friday.

Mrs. Henry is shown here with her automatic washer and dryer which save her many hours for more pleasant tasks, or to spend with her family.

"Baking results become really important when I'm cooking several fruitcakes at a time!"
says MRS. BILLY HENRY
520 WEST VIRGINIA ST.
FLOYDADA, TEXAS

GETS CONTROLLED HEAT

"I've cooked electrically for years, so naturally when I bought a new double oven range, it was electric. When I am working with expensive fruit cake ingredients, my baking temperature must be exact. I have found that an electric oven gives me exactly the controlled heat I want."

RANGE DOES PERFECT JOB

"The double oven model is excellent, not only in my fruit cake baking, but comes in handy for family dinners and entertaining friends. Handy, too, for quick snacks are the surface units... they're so fast. I find my new range does a perfect job whether it's a quick snack or the fully loaded ovens."

LIKES ELECTRICITY

Mrs. Henry describes her home as an electric one and she says, "We are all proud of our electric appliances which make living more enjoyable."

Christmas is coming and Mrs. Henry has turned her love for baking fruit cakes into a profitable business during the holiday season. Last year she baked over 500 pounds of fruit cake in two weeks... a tribute to the exactness and accuracy which electric baking gives.

At Christmas Time, Cook Better Electrically with a New Electric Range!

VIEWS AND COMMENT

This Is Beef Week in Texas. Beef week emphasizes what every Texan is asked to do the year around—eat more beef. The economy of beef cuts, especially those often neglected but at the same time delicious portions, is coming to be realized. Cattle people have taken their whipping "like a little man," and the result can be noted at the table and on the grocery bill.

Floyd County cotton growers in their good fortune this year have about overcome the heavy blows they had from the hails of 1955. Most of them have "gotten well" and those who were not in last year's hail streaks have really been able to "go to town." A good deal of this year's crop will not go on the market until after the new year for tax reasons, but others are taking a great deal of delight in getting their disastrous debts of the former year behind them.

The road problem is moving up to the boundaries of Floyd County again, this time from the south. Since a steadfast minority blocked the four-lane road from the Hale County line to the Motley County line and the widening of 207 south from Floydada to the Crosby County line the Highway Department has not been insistent on any action by local authorities. Either the department must take the initiative soon for more right-of-way from the Crosby line to Floydada and from here east to Motley or be content with the narrow worn out pavement now existing and turn their efforts elsewhere. If the Commissioners Court is making any plans to meet the imminent problem we are not aware of it.

Floyd County should have a booming cardinal road construction job well under way at this time, with a four-lane job completed to the Hale County from Floydada and crews shaping up for the jobs east and south. As it is nothing is being done. The opposition to the road building program last year and the year before dealt Floyd County economy a terrific blow, and didn't save any tax money by so doing.

No probability seen for reduction of federal taxes, is the report that begins to come out of Washington. Pressure of bureau heads for more money rather than less is already piling up. Congressional committees charged with the responsibility of working out the budget will be hard put to it and may, indeed, up the budget before their work is done next spring. Lower federal taxes is one of the most needed reforms for the benefit of the domestic economy. Such a statement has been made so many times in so many places it has become trite. There seems to be no way to put the additional emphasis on it that it should have.

Meanwhile local taxes in Floyd County, believe it or not, are so low as to be remarkable. Local school districts have been about the only agencies that have made any increase in taxes in six or eight years. The rates of taxation are not seen as particularly low, in fact the County of Floyd has the limit levied on the constitutional funds, as does the City of Floydada. The city, however, has not made a change in values in two decades and the county in six or eight years. Only increases have come through local improvement taxes voted by the people themselves.

Castor Bean experiments are still going on on the high plains, although none in Floyd County of which we have learned. Since cotton and wheat acreage are due to continue low for years to come, barring war, and need for forage feeds continue to be low, Castor beans and other types of specialty crops can be grown here and there on layout with profit. This envisions a Castor Bean that is adapted to the area for practical, economical harvesting. Castor oil is coming into its own as a must in industry in many, many ways.

Showing How cooling and refrigeration are going to come to the plains, one needs only to mention the fact that a tomato grower this fall could have taken a modest investment in cooling space and made several thousand dollars by keeping his tomatoes until this date for marketing. Tons and tons of a wonderful tomato crop rotted in the fields under the hot sun or turned black when frost made its sneak attack in October. An investor in a considerable cooling plant could have had his investment paid for in two months of operation.

If Mr. Chamberlain was wrong at Munich as they say he was when he sought "peace in our time" just before World War II broke out, then Mr. Eden is right at Suez in blocking the Communist move to take over the Middle East. England has to be the goat for the "immoral" stand taken at Port Said. The Communists know only the right of might, and the "great moral forces" of the world, to which America and other nations appeal, has no more meaning to the Communist leaders than so much eye wash.

The spendiest president, with more and more money at his call, is a charge laid against each successive president since Mr. Roosevelt began his program of prosperity by spending back in the thirties. Mr. Eisenhower is no exception, although much talk is made of balancing the budget.

The Bolsheviks still puzzle the people of America. Dealings with them in a revolution that overturned the Czarist regime, and in a World War as well as in "peace" has not sharpened our understanding of them a bit since President Wilson made his plaintive query: "How shall we deal with the Bolshevik? They despise the laws and decencies."

You've reached middle age when you've learned how to take care of yourself and intend to begin almost any day now.

Staple Classing Change Sought By Cotton Men

Joe Foster, County Director of the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., has announced that the PCG is backing the eight changes recently recommended for improving of cotton classing for South Plains farmers. The Director explained the eight recommendations were made unanimously at a meeting held in Lubbock Nov. 29 attended by representatives of the PCG, the South Plains Farmer-Ginner committee, South Plains Ginner Association, Farm Bureau, Farmer Union and business.

The eight specific recommendations the group listed as favoring the improvement of cotton classing were:

1. Establishment of uniform humidity equipment in all classing offices in this area, whether it be the Lubbock office or other newly established offices, and that cotton be allowed to condition - 12 to 24 hours - before classing is done.
2. Multiple classing offices be considered for this area. W. O. Fortenberry, President of PCG appointed a committee to study this program and report later. This committee is Curtice Boyd, Lubbock Chairman; John I. Bowling, Hale Center, and Kenneth Purcell, Brownfield, members.
3. Samples of bales taken at both gins and compresses were discussed and the group voted for more uniform samples regardless of where taken and also recommended that the ultimate goal be the taking of automatic samples from gins.
4. Recommended the return to use of the class or "pink" sheet by the classing office and that each classer be given a code number and it be placed on the pink sheet.
5. Establishment of a classing review board composed of one qualified classer each to represent the farmer, the cotton trade and the government, and the grade given by this board be a final grade.
6. The date entered on the green card be the date the sample was received at the cotton classing office instead of the date the cotton was actually classed.
7. The Commodity Credit Corporation recognize and set a value for light spotted cotton in the government loan.
8. This group as a body opposes any proposed change of the average grade and staple from 7/8 inch to 1 inch in the government cotton program.

The group also discussed a meeting next spring or summer in Lubbock to which USDA classing officials from Washington would be invited to discuss rules and regulations which will govern classing of cotton for the next season. The cotton representatives also went on record as endorsing the Smith-Doxey program and pointed out the recommendations made were done so only with an eye towards improving the program and not as a criticism.

As A Farm Woman Thinks

I know three things that must always be
To keep a nation strong and free;
One is a hearthstone bright and dear
With busy, happy loved ones near.
One is a ready hand and hand
To love and serve and keep the land.
One is a worn and beaten way
To where the people go to pray.
So long as these are kept alive,
Nation and people will survive.
God keep them always, everywhere—
The home, the heart, the place of prayer.

—Author Unknown.

The days are so clear and bright
We go about the place, often without a coat. We did have a bit of cold
Thanksgiving, but it did not last.
All our children and grandchildren except Carey, who was away visiting, had Thanksgiving dinner with us. Mother and sister Jo came, too. We had a grand time together. Little Sheri Anne acted as if family gatherings were just what she liked too. And the turkey was just what she wanted.

It is time to make some decorations for Christmas. We found that to cover paper cups with aluminum foil made pretty bells. Bend a paper clip to go through the center, and make a clapper out of something covered with foil and fasten to the clip. Three of these tied with a bright red ribbon are very pretty.

TWINS — Matched automatic washer and dryer provide complete laundering in just 25 inches of floor space. The pair can be installed side by side or stacked, built-in or free-standing. No stoop — but a lot of reach-in convenience.

ALL-AUTOMATIC — With a new electric range, you don't have to keep opening the oven door to check temperatures. An automatic electric meat thermometer records temperature of meat, turns off the oven and turns on signal light when the roast is ready. With this range, homemaker may bake and broil at same time.

CITY LIGHT PLAN

Floydada, Texas

Three "hearty meals a day" is no guarantee of good health. It is "what you eat" and not "how much" that counts.

Strangely enough, in the richest agricultural nation on earth, an alarming percentage of the population is deficient in consumption of vital nutrients such as calcium and Vitamin C. Even over weight people who eat high-calorie foods rarely get a real balanced diet.

The current popularity of high-calorie foods only tends to make some people fat, according to recent diet studies. A danger point is approached when these rich but unbalanced eating habits prevent a person from getting enough protective foods necessary for good health. It is generally accepted that people should maintain in later years the weight that was ideal for their height and bone structure at age 25. Yet, regional studies show that a large number of older people are seriously overweight. The problem today is to encounter people with low energy requirements to plan diets that eliminate surplus calories but do not curtail essential nutrients.

For example, the National Council recommends a daily intake of 8 grams of calcium as necessary for good health. Yet, only about one person in six takes that much calcium daily — and calcium is abundant in eggs, milk and cheese.

It is well established that Vitamin C is important in maintaining healthy teeth and gums. Most people are 10 percent below normal in Vitamin C intake except in areas where citrus fruits are plentiful.

Texas is a big producer of citrus fruits. The diet study seems to suggest that foods rich in Vitamin C should be promoted and made more attractive to adults, and that frozen and dried citrus concentrates and other dependable year-round sources deserve more attention.

Greater calcium consumption should be encouraged through increased public education on the value of milk and milk products, and perhaps also through development of new calcium-rich foods. Over-eating of the wrong foods may make a person fat, but he still may be starving for the essential nutrients.

Poage Vows in Ceremony Day Evening

Miss Pat Helms and Miss Barbara McNeill, both of Floydada, attended as bridesmaids. They wore identical dresses to that of the matron-of-honor and carried nosegays of small white chrysanthemums.

Miss Verna Dale Pate, sister of the bride and Larry Poage, brother of the groom, served as candlelighters. Miss Pate's dress was the same as the other attendants. She wore a wristlet of white carnations.

Jimmy Collins of Hardin-Simmons, Abilene, served the groom as best man. Kay Ferguson, Gary Carthel, Keith Marble, all of Floydada and Harland Weaver, brother-in-law of the bride of Lubbock, served as ushers.

Following the ceremony a reception was given in honor of the couple in the chapel parlor of the church by the bride's parents. The bride's table was laid with a white cut-work cloth centered with the three tiered wedding cake and the bride's and attendants' bouquets. Tea and coffee were served from a silver service, using china appointments.

Miss Ann Finley of Floydada and Miss Brenda Shipman, cousin of the bride of Abernathy, assisted in serving.

The bride carried out the traditions of something old, new, borrowed and blue. Something old was a handmade handkerchief belonging to her grandmother, something new was her veil, something borrowed was a pair of rhinestone earrings, something blue was a blue lace garter and she wore a penny in her shoe bearing the date of her birth.

Mrs. Harland Weaver served her sister as matron-of-honor. She wore a street-length dress of cherry red Peau de soie. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and three quarter length push-up sleeves. The full gored and gathered skirt was emphasized by crinoline worn underneath. A shirred cummerbund was featured at the waistline. She carried a nosegay of small white chrysanthemums.

Scene Depicts 'Last Supper' In Upper Room

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Willson of Floydada, Tex., were among the nearly five thousand people who signed the guest register at the Upper Room Chapel here this autumn. The chapel, opened only a little over three years ago, already draws visitors from every state and many other countries.

The focal point of the chapel is the great, almost life-size wood carving of the Last Supper done by Ernest Pellegrini after the famous painting by Leonardo da Vinci. This carving captures the moment when Jesus tells his disciples, "One of you shall betray me."

Set in a huge frame the limewood and walnut carving is more than eighteen feet long. The artistry and skill of the sculptor are apparent to even the casual viewer.

Many visitors meet with a deep spiritual sensitivity that makes the visit a religious experience rather than merely a visit to a work of art.

The wood carving is placed on the rear wall of the chapel. The chancel reproduces the scene depicted in the carving. Here are the same tapestried walls, the same beamed ceiling, the same inlaid floor, and most striking of all, the altar reproduces the great table about which the disciples are seated with their Master.

Other features of the chapel include a lovely prayer room, an interesting high pulpit, a chancel rail that carries the symbols of the disciples and an elaborately carved gate. Below the chapel are the museum and devotional library.

The chapel is the central feature of the building which houses the offices and shipping rooms of The Upper Room, the world's most widely used devotional guide. It is published in 34 editions, including 28 languages, Braille, and Talking Book. More than ten million people, it is estimated, use this devotional guide each day.

News of Harmony

(By Mrs. Mather Carr)

HARMONY, Dec. 3 — The weather is still beautiful for the harvest, but most of the crops in this community are in. Maybe folks would like to see a good rain now.

Mr. and Mrs. Joyce Davis and Genne are visiting in east Texas. Waco being one of the places they were going to visit.

Bill Carr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Carr, has been ill with an infected hand since Wednesday, but it is improved. He may be able to be back in school this Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Scavahorn of Piper City, Ill., have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Ramsey since Thursday. They had Thanksgiving dinner in the Ramsey home. Several of the men went to Malaga Sunday but didn't hear how their luck was as several of the telephones are out and we could not contact them. Our phone is one of the ones that is out. Someone must have shot into a cable somewhere. We sure wish people would not do this as we may need to telephone and can't. Also it costs the company lots of money to repair the line. It must be someone who does not have a telephone and does not value the need for one or just doesn't care.

Mr. and Mrs. Sim Burrows of Plainview were visitors in the Mather Carr home Sunday. Also Mrs. Chloma Williams was a dinner guest in the Carr home.

Mrs. G. L. Snodgrass and Mrs. Sweet Miller, Leon Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Mather Carr and Horace were visitors Sunday evening in the Wesley Carr home.

Cheryl's Chatter
(about events at Floydada High)

Almost everyone around F.H.S. is dieting after the holidays! Floydada was pretty lively for a few days. Margie Turner had a dance in her "barn" which a lot of the kids attended.

Only two weeks until Christmas holidays! The Student Council voted for the home-rooms to compete against each other in decorating their rooms or doors. The rooms will be decorated preceding the holidays and judged on Wednesday. The winning room will get a prize (not financial, Suz!)

The Whirlwind Band won a first division in marching at Regional Contest last Tuesday night. This was something the band really worked for, and I don't think you could have found any happier people than in the band hall Wednesday morning. Some of the bandmen are now working for All-State honors. Good Luck!

A committee from the Student Council chose the nominees for Mr. and Miss F. H. S. and the Most Likely to Succeed, Most Talented, Most Courteous, Most Energetic, Most Dependable, Most Intelligent, Wittiest, and Most Athletic. Voting for these honors will be done some time this week.

"Picture Day" in F.H.S. will be next Wednesday. These pictures will be taken for the '57 annual. Among those to be taken are band, Student Council, some of the personalities, and majorettes.

The F Club elected officers this week, naming Elmer Williams president, Bill Orman vice president, Don Colley secretary-treasurer, David Mount reporter and Bill Smith tall twister.

The Winds will play host in a basketball tournament this weekend. Let's all go to the games and "holer" for our teams! Win that trophy!

Have you noticed? Beth Crawford's new hairdo? Our good B. B. team? Kearney's eye balls after being dipped in acid? Rusty Tinnin in an orange and white "Oldsmobile"? LaJuana's engagement ring? How mean the Rosson twins are? How much everyone liked "High Society"? Annela Thurston's sweet smile? Naomi Kiker's figure? Worth whistling at, eh Arls? Juanel Wood's scarf with a hook? How funny "Hicky" and "Willy" are? The cute "fish" couples around the halls? The trophy in the band hall? People sleeping in classes after the restful (?) holidays? Genelle Cantrell's cracks in shorthand? Sherre's cute guest?

Here are some "joke-os" for you:

Mr. Foster: "You missed my class yesterday, didn't you?"
Don Colley: "No sir, not a bit."

The human brain is wonderful. It starts right in working the moment you wake up in the morning and doesn't stop until you are called on in class.

Most distinguished of the 1957 Mercurys is this unusual new Turnpike Cruiser, designed for an entirely new concept of motoring enjoyment. Only four and three-quarters feet high, the Cruiser offers the industry's first roof-level, fresh air intakes and the first power-operated rear window which combine to form a remarkable new ventilation system. Unique air intakes extend from the low-profiled roof on each side of the skylight, dual-curve windshield which wraps upward as well as around for added light and vision. "Quadri-Beam" headlamps - - provide improved highway illumination. The Turnpike Cruiser, in two-door and four-door hardtop models, introduces a fourth series in the 1957 Mercury line. It will make its debut at the National Automobile Show December 8.

Saturday Funeral Held For Victim Of Tatum Crash

Funeral service for Richard Alvin Simpson, 21 of Odessa and former resident of Floydada, was conducted Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the City Park Church of Christ of this city with Gordon L. Downing, pastor, officiating. Burial was made in Floydada Cemetery under the direction of Harmon Funeral Home.

Simpson was killed instantly on Thursday in a head-on collision between two automobiles on U. S. Highway 80 about 10 miles west of Tatum. N. M. Investigating officers said that Donald Dale Durham, 25, of Brownfield, driver of a '54 Ford, with Simpson as a passenger, was traveling west on U. S. 80 and William R. Polson, driver of a '55 Ford pickup with no passengers, was going east, when the accident occurred.

Richard Alvin Simpson was born June 4, 1935, in Vernon, Tex. He attended Floydada High School until 1951 when he joined the United States Navy. He received his discharge from the Navy in June of this year.

He is survived by his father, L. W. Simpson of Lamesa, one sister, Joyce Simpson, and one brother, Vernon Simpson, of Lamesa.

Palbearers were Bobby Jack Roads, Dub Hodge, Peck, Bobby Durham and Burgett.

THANK YOU

People were very kind following the death of our son, Mr. and Mrs. Louis and son, Mr. and Mrs. Mickey and Miss Joyce Simpson.
