'Work It In Some Way' Says Pittard Of The 4-H Tractor Contest

The Floyd County 4-H Club tractor operators contest which was scheduled for last Saturday at the stock show barns in Floydada was postponed. The cold windy weather made the day unsuitable for the outside activities and it was decided not to hold the event at that time. Early this week Lynn Pittard, assistant county agent, had not found a date for the event. The district competition in Lubbock has been set for May 3 and 4 and the county contest will have to be held before this date. A heavy calendar of events at this time of year is making it difficult to find a date that will not conflict with other activities, but Pittard said it would be worked in some way.

Red Hen, With Black Tail, Lays Green Egg

A red hen with black tail that has a flat rose comb ought to lay an unusual kind of egg, and she does. Or so does the one Mrs. Alva Nichols of Cedar Hill has. This hen lays a green egg. One of pullet size the hen laid is on display in a Hesperian window. Mrs. Nichols said the hen was an Aero-bred, originally from Burma. First eggs are pale green and as the hen matures the egg shells become more pronounced green. The yolk and white of the egg has the same characteristics of the American breeds of chickens.

ATTEND COMMISSIONERS AND JUDGES MEET AT SAN ANGELO

Judge J. D. McEwen and County Commissioner John B. Fowler attended the meeting of West Texas County Judges and Commissioners in San Angelo last mid-week. Round-table discussions on administrative and financial problems of counties were featured in the meeting. Among other talks heard was that of Marshall Formby, State Highway Commissioner, who told the assembly the counties and communities that are going broke are not those which are building highways but those which are not building highways and keeping up with the changing times.

Bill Brown, Firing Hole-in-One, Makes Local Club Golf History

Bill Brown of Floydada had a green's dream come true Sunday at the country club when he made a hole in one. The unusual feat occurred on the second hole when Brown hit a 136-yard eight iron shot which sailed true to its mark and dropped in the cup. Fred Zimmerman, jr., and Rex Brown were playing with Bill at the time and all saw the ball clearly from the tee box as it made the non-stop flight. So far as is known this is the second hole in one on the local course since the grass greens have been used. A few weeks ago Orville Newberry did the same trick on the same hole. Floydada Country Club would like to keep a record of all such shots and Fred Zimmerman, jr., has asked that any golfers making a hole in one on the course here please report details to him or Claude We-

Warm Days Make Cotton Planting Fever Mount

The return of Spring to the High Plains the first of this week put many a cotton farmer into the frame of mind to put cottonseed into the ground. Despite the fact that last week's temperatures for hours on end ranged below freezing, the approach of the end of April has stirred the planting fever. This week-end on farms dotted all over the county there'll be cotton planters going if seed supplies previously booked can be provided. Gins may be caught short in their local storage houses although there are ample seed for all needs contracted. This is forecast by the experience of a few cotton men who went after seed and were told to wait a day or two. The seed were not on hand. Good Friday and the Saturday following, barring weather, that won't permit, will see Grady Walker planting practically all his acreage.

"We made by early planting last year. It may turn out the same this year," he said. Capricious spring weather on the plains makes early planting good practice one year, had another, farmers are agreed. There isn't a successful time formula, they claim. An occasional cotton field is reported that had seed in the ground when last week's freezes came. It seems well agreed that, even those who wait out the season are going to get planters going mighty early in May.

Here is the story of ice and cold that hit practically all of north Texas last week-end: The first freezing and below freezing temperatures hit Friday night when at 12 o'clock the thermometer registered 30 degrees. It gradually worked lower until 6 a.m. when the reading reached 26 degrees and held at that point until 12 mid-day Saturday. Temperatures hovered around the freezing point all Saturday afternoon, however, and Saturday night again touched 30 degrees at 11 o'clock. From 12 o'clock to 8 a.m. Sunday the thermometer stood at 26 degrees when it dipped for an hour to 24 degrees, the lowest point reached in the period. The warm-up was gradual through Sunday night and Monday.

Names of officers for the coming year were Bill Beedy, president; Chester Mitchell, vice-president; R. L. Knox, secretary-treasurer; and R. C. Mitchell, general show superintendent. Also elected were eight new directors to fill expiring terms on the board which replaces one-third of its membership each year. Those named will serve for a three year period and include Marvin Shurbit, precinct 1; Chester Mitchell, precinct 2; W. E. Burleson, precinct 3; Bill Colston, precinct 4; Joe Cuny, Lockney; Vernon Whitkowski (3 year term) and Frank Sharman, Floydada, (1 yr. term). Serving with this group as hold-over members will be H. Knox and Charles Baxter, Lockney; and Doyle Mott, Floydada. The show dates for next spring have been set for March 10, 11 and 12, which will fall on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. This places the show a day earlier in the week than it has been held in the past with the auction coming on Wednesday instead of Thursday.

Tuning up for the Senior Class Rodeo to be held here May 3 and 4 are Norman Davis, left, and Joe Noland. The pair were caught checking over their gear at the Wagon Wheel as they push plans for the big affair. Contestants to age 20 are eligible to enter and there are events for both boys and girls. Davis is president of the senior class and Noland is chairman of the rodeo project. Gate receipts will go toward the annual senior trip.

Graves, the Floydada students won the Class A regional trophy and will compete in the state tournament in Austin, May 2-4. The runner-up position in Class A went to the student from Shamrock with their presentation of "The Birthday of the Infanta." Miss Vanda Carter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Carter, was named best actress for her portrayal of Katrin and Tommy Ryan of Shamrock was selected as best actor.

Little League Calls Meeting

Floydada Little League will hold an important business meeting Monday night, April 22, at 8:00 o'clock at the Wheeler. Rush Wheeler, president of the league, said boys and their parents should be present with birth certificates to certify boys for league play. The next day, April 23, there will be a group work out to give managers and coaches a chance to look over the material in preparation for making bids to buy players. Return of spring weather this week saw action resumed at the newly-named Sherrill Field where workers were making some fills preparing to sow grass. Poles have also been left at the field and the lights will be on before too long. "Though much work is still to be done it is believed that the field can be made ready for play this season unless the young grass develops too slowly to allow it."

Pioneers Decide Prizes Saturday

Floyd County Pioneer Association will make several decisions in their meeting Saturday afternoon at the county court room at 2 o'clock. President Buck Sams said Tuesday the prize list will be made up and the amounts to be paid prize winners decided. All the directors are being asked to present and Mr. Sams said he had hopes some of the county's civic clubs would be represented with some good ideas to make the reunion a better one. Mr. Sams noted the illness of Mrs. Maud Hollums, secretary this week. She has been hospitalized for treatment but anticipates being able to attend the Saturday meeting.

C-C Leaders Plan Vigorous Campaigns For Better City

Street paving, street repair, and Floyd County highway modernization topped the items of discussion on a five point program of projects which the Chamber of Commerce Civic Improvements committee adopted last week. The projects were taken from the suggestions of Floydada and Floyd County residents as being the most urgent needs of the county this year.

The questionnaire pointed out the need for a plan to keep present paved streets in good repair. In voting to sponsor a new paving project with the city of Floydada if a paving firm is available, the committee also will suggest to the city council that funds to repair and care for present streets be included in the city budget for 1957.

SEAL Coating of all Floydada streets is an immediate need, committee members pointed out. Mrs. Dorris Jones, Chairman of the Civic Improvements Committee, and her committee members discussed the fact that Floyd County is now far behind neighboring counties on highway modernization. Highway improvements come up to the county on every side but end at the Floyd County line, they said.

The committee agreed to keep fully informed on highway legislation now pending in Austin and when the legislation is completed to work in full cooperation with the Floyd County Commissioners Court to modernize and improve Floyd County highways and farm to market roads. If the project is practical, a program to finance Floyd County highway improvements should be undertaken this year, committee members believe.

Reaction Is Mild To New PO Rules

Not much of a hassle resulted in Floydada over the au-day Saturday closing of the post office and the hour out of service at the windows, it was indicated at the post office this week. Several who forgot or had not heard of the new rule, were disappointed and there were a few telephone calls. However, the big stir indicated in dispatches from city offices was not in evidence here.

Women Model Cotton Apparel At Annual Tea and Style Show

The annual tea and style show sponsored by the Floyd County Home Demonstration clubs was held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Floydada Junior High School auditorium with approximately 100 attending. A "Garden Theme" was featured in stage decoration which included in arch way leading into the garden entwined with morning glories, dogwood blossoms, ivy and fern. Other floral arrangements included a flowering peach tree, hues of various colored pansies and baskets of lilacs Mrs. Everett Miller, Mrs. H. D. Hammonds and Mrs. Sam Jones were in charge of the decorations. The Floydada High School stage band under the direction of Maurice Japes, opened the occasion with several musical numbers. Miss Freda Smith was featured as vocalist with the band. The parade of fashions modeled by the club women, made during a dress making course given recently by the county home demonstration agent, Mrs. Harriette Brummett, were described by Mistress of ceremony, Mrs. Arlon Miller. The fashions shown were created for each individual, from the selection of the pattern and material, through each fitting down to the hemline. Models were as follows: Mrs. H. D. Hammonds, Sunnyside club; Mrs. B. A. Robertson, Homebuilders club; Mrs. John Walker, Homebuilders club; Mrs. John Fowler, Starkey club; Mrs. L. L. Sawyer, Homebuilders club; Mrs. Elmer Norrell, Homebuilders club; Mrs. Ron-

NEW COUNCIL HAS STUDY SESSION ON CITY'S FINANCES

The new city council are eager beavers on street and alley patching and repairs. Yesterday they had a crew of men patching holes over town and are looking around for an estimate of costs to see if their finances will let them chin a seal coat for the paved streets. In a special meeting Tuesday afternoon they had an hour and a half get-acquainted session with the city auditor Harold Chiles, principally to learn the details of the city bookkeeping system. Although they talked of numerous things, only definite minute entered on a purchase order system. Hereafter, purchase orders up to $1,000 will be signed by the department head and the city secretary. Purchases above that amount will have to have the scrutiny of the city council. Street councilman Roe Jones and water councilman Bud Goetz are finding their problems doven and are working together on the street and water work in these areas of dual interest, Mayor J. M. Willson Jr. says.

Floyd County Commissioners Court this week deferred action until the regular session of the court on May 13 on the petition of 67 Floyd County farmers for an election to create a Weed Control District embracing the 934-section area of the county. Announcement that the court would take no immediate steps to call the election was made by Judge J. D. McBrien, who said the body took no formal vote on the matter but is holding it in abeyance only for the purpose of giving it more study. The county's financial status and the possible expense to taxpayers are in the background of the court's cautious approach to the creation of a Weed Control District, it was indicated. Tuesday morning's hearing, held in the District Court Room, was attended by 90 persons, practically all of them farmers. An hour and a half discussion of the proposal to create the weed control district developed no heat and no visible political undertones. A standing vote at the end of the talks, called for by Judge McBrien, had all but seven of those present voting in favor of creating a Weed Control District. The Weed Control Law is a new local one and applies only to counties in the northwest corner of the state - 42 counties in all. It was passed in 1955 on petition of farmers who represented to legislature that obnoxious weeds pose a menace to rich farm lands of the high plains and panhandle. Experiences in combatting noxious weeds on farms and the adjacent roads and highways related by numerous farm operators present. Some of them expressed fear that the present generation of farm people may leave their rich lands to the succeeding generation, made worthless by the encroaching noxious weeds. Bindweeds is the primary danger at this time, most of the speakers said. The use of salt and other chemicals at a cost of $150 to $300 per acre and the loss of the use of the land for a period of three to six years. Another commercial operator asks $175 per acre, he said. "There is not any sure fire remedy yet known," he said. A. H. Kreis related investigations he had made and the results he had in combatting minor infested areas on his land. Jack McIntosh, vice president of Floyd County Farm Bureau, sponsoring organization of the move, said the new law provided for the appointment by the Commis-

THE WINNER

Jones and Brown, two big game hunters, were arguing in their tent about their ability with rifles. "I'll bet ten dollars I can go out right now and shoot a lion," Jones said. "Ten minutes later a lion poked his head into the tent. 'Do you know a fellow named Jones?' he asked. 'Yes,' quavered Brown. 'Why?' 'He owes you ten dollars,' the lion answered.

LESSON

"I object," said the temperance man, "to the custom of christening ships with wine." "I don't," replied John. "I think there's a temperance lesson in it." "How can that be?" "Well, immediately after the first bottle of wine, the ship takes to the water and sticks to it ever after."

NO NEED

Mom: "We're mighty proud of Patty's behavior lately. She even helped to set the table." Lady Guest: "Oxymoron, dear, I haven't any knife and fork!" Mom: "Patty, why didn't you give Mrs. Manchip a knife and fork?" Patty: "Because I heard you say the cats like a horse."

Mrs. G. M. Armstrong and Mr. and Mrs. Will Stoll spent Sunday in Lubbock, guests of the B. W. Stoll family.

Mysterious Moon Is Better Mapped Than Earth's Area

Astronomers have been drawing maps of the moon ever since Galileo turned his crude telescope on it in 1609 and it is now better mapped than some portions of the earth—Interior Greenland, for instance. So reports Don Wharton in an article, "Earth's Fascinating Satellite—The Mysterious Moon," in Reader's Digest.

Poets have called the moon chaste, pale, silvery, ghostly, watery but the right adjective is "pocked." Everywhere the face of the moon is marked by craters. "Some 30,000 have been spotted, 150 with diameters of 50 miles or more," writes Wharton. "The deepest crater yet discovered is 30,000 feet from floor to rim—five times as deep as our Grand Canyon."

What caused the craters? Some scientists think they were formed by volcanoes, others that they are the result of enormous gas-filled bubbles rising through a molten moon, then bursting. Another theory is that the craters were produced by a prolonged bombardment of meteorites.

If, once in a lifetime, you see a blue moon, don't think your eyes are playing tricks. It's caused by dust in our upper atmosphere. Ice crystals are what makes you see rings around the moon.

Over the centuries magical powers have been attributed to the moon. It has been said to bring on lunacy, affect growth of plants, eyes of cats, spots of panthers, functions of women, activities of ghosts. The moon does cause the ocean tides because of its gravitational pull but a common mistake of primitive people is to think that everything timed in the same rhythm as the moon is caused by it.

Sand Hill News

(By Mrs. James Jeffress)

SAND HILL, April 15—Looks like spring will never get here and it's almost Easter. The freezing drizzle was appreciated Friday but there's never enough moisture.

Let's all remember what Easter stands for and not just be interested in whether we have a new Easter smock or not. Let's all attend the church of our choice on Easter Sunday and worship our Saviour who gave His life for us.

Those attending the funeral of C. H. Jones in Midland Wednesday were Jim Holmes and Billie Gail, Mrs. William Mayo, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. So many have been out of school ill with flu. Among those we know of were Mary Louise Wilson, Teddy and Preston Givens, Dale Seiger and Tommy Thornhill. We surely hope this flu epidemic will soon be spent. It has really been bad with some.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Richardson, Fete and Myrna, were shopping in Lubbock on Saturday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bennett say an electric cook stove is fine until the electricity goes off as it did Friday morning and you can not even cook breakfast. Can't even make coffee, but they said the good Samaritans, the D. D. Thornhill's cooked a hot breakfast and put into the kit that keeps things either hot or cold and took it to them. Mrs. Bennett says she believes that was the very best breakfast she ever ate.

Visitors in the home of Mrs. M. R. Givens and Mickey on Thursday of last week were Mesdames J. C. McCracken, J. B. Marley and D. D. Thornhill. The ladies also quilted a quilt for the orphans home and other ladies quilted one the same day at the church.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Winegar and children were callers in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elvis Marley and Elyvonda on Saturday night.

Well, neighbors, how many of you have worked as hard as we have trying to get the yard and garden started only to have it frozen down on Friday morning of last week. We had some very pretty jonquills just budding but they were not very pretty by 7 o'clock Friday morning. Maybe we are the ones who are nixed up, but rather think it is the weather. But guess we must have winter sometime. Wonder if it was the Easter spell. Sure hope so. Now on Monday morning it is misty and foggy, the ice is all gone and so are some of the new plants that had just come up. The jonquills look better since the ice melted off of them. Wonder if they will bloom after that. Guess we shall see.

Friday night of the week before last Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Givens, Teddy, Preston and Mickey went to Dimmitt where they visited until Saturday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Homer Smith and Bessie and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hovens and Shelly. Inviting them in they sat in the living room and talked about old times. The dog, after sniffing finally hopped on the couch and settled down for a nap much to the host's dismay.

Hammonds - Clemons Vows Repeated In Chapel Ceremony

A white wrought iron archway covered with small white chrysanthemums flanked by spiral candelabra, bearing lighted tapers, formed the wedding scene for Miss Joyce Dell Hammonds and Jep T. Clemons Jr., Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock in the Chapel of the First Baptist Church.

Miss Hammonds is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Hammonds Route 2, Floydada, and Clemons is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jep T. Clemons Sr. of Brownwood.

The Rev. W. C. Bryant, pastor of the First Southern Baptist Church of Colorado Springs, Colo., read the double-ring ceremony. Elevated baskets of white gladioli and palms formed the background and white satin ropes and aisle posts marked the entrance to the bridal scene.

Mrs. Bill Hardin, organist, played pre-ceremony selections and the traditional wedding marches. She accompanied Miss Joy Porter as she sang "Through The Years," "At Dawning" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Mr. Hammonds accompanied his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride wore an original model of finest white imported Swiss organdy over nylon tulle and taffeta.

Designed with portrait neckline framed with folds of fabric, the fitted organdy bodice had tiny sleeves completed by gauntlets worn over the hands and terminates with rounded waistline. From this, stems a magnificent skirt, made of nylon tulle with scalloped overskirt of organdy outlined with bias folds, highlighted with elaborate appliques of embroidered organdy flower motifs. The immense fullness of many layers of tulle over taffeta was emphasized by hoops and organdy worn underneath.

Her veil of imported silk illusion was joined to a tiny Victorian crown of rhinestones and pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink sweetheart roses and maline trimmed with white heart-shaped satin tubing and satin leaves.

The bride carried out the tradition of something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue.

Miss Roy Neil Hammonds served her sister as maid-of-honor. Miss Linda Hammonds, sister of the bride, MRS. JEP T. CLEMONS JR.

(Miss Joyce Dell Hammonds)

Miss Sarah Pinson of Forney and Miss Ina Jean Noland of Floydada attended as bridesmaids.

They wore identical dresses of imported white Swiss organdy, embroidered with blue dots, over net necklines heavily accented with embroidery, the fitted bodices had tiny sleeves and waistlines accented by blue satin folds tying in bows with long ends at center back.

Joining these, were immense waist-length skirts. Made of organdy, fully shirred, with wide bands of heavy embroidery outlining the bottom edges. The fullness of the skirts were emphasized by crinoline worn underneath.

They wore headresses of white velvet bandeaux, enhanced with tiny flowers held with bows at the left side.

The maid-of-honor and bridesmaids carried identical satin wrapped baskets of pink feathered carnations and pale pink sweetpeas, accented with baby blue satin tubing.

Lindy Clemons of Brownwood served his brother as best man.

Ushers were Dick Collins of Pampa, Jessie West of Amarillo and Elvis and Mevis Lovrance of Floydada.

Following the ceremony a reception was given in honor of the couple by the brides parents in the church parlor.

The bridal table was laid with a white cloth and centered with an arrangement of white carnations, flanked by twisted white tapers. Miss Nanci Meredith, Miss Kay Calloway and Miss Snow Drop Dunn assisted with hospitalities.

For a wedding trip to Chicago, Mrs. Clemons chose a three piece suit of light blue summer weight wool with white accessories, for traveling. She wore a corsage of pink rose buds from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Clemons, a graduate of Floydada High School, attended Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene, and Texas Technological College, Lubbock.

Clemons attended Hardin-Simmons University and is presently employed as electronic specialist for Santa Fe Railway.

The couple will return from Chicago April 18 and will make their home in Lubbock in late August.

Wesley Girls Met With Mrs. Kimble

The Wesley Girls Sunday School class of the First Methodist Church met last Wednesday afternoon for their monthly social in the home of Mrs. Wilson Kimble 323 West Missouri Street. Hostesses assisting Mrs. Kimble were Mrs. H. L. Rafferty and Mrs. Maud Merrick.

For the program Mrs. J. H. Barnard gave an introduction to the "World's Great Living Religions," compiled by the editors of Life magazine. The introduction was written by the late Dr. Paul Hutchins, a distinguished Methodist minister.

The affinities between the religions of the world are many. But in that moment of prayer, every man is at his best, if we are wise as we like to think ourselves, it is through that we will try to understand him. This book is an approach to such understanding, said Mrs. Barnard.

Following the program, baby blankets and cup towels were handed to be given to two local hospitals and a Methodist institute.

Refreshments were served to Mesdames Geo. V. Smith, Harry Koenen, Sallie Hennessee, Lillie Henry, D. S. Battey, Walter Collins, D. T. Mayo, Jess Wood, W. H. Henderson, W. H. Bethel, J. B. Turner, Frank Probasco, Maud Merrick, J. H. Barnard, Wilson Kimble, Roy Curry, H. L. Rafferty, Ethel Sawyer and Olive Jordan.

Let the man of the house have the final word on milady's Easter bonnet, says a New York milliner, whose name is one of the biggest in the business. That way there'll be fewer bad choices.

Well, for our part, we'd be glad to, but we're lucky—the man at our house has unusually good taste about women's apparel. We know a number of husbands, however, whose judgment would be much better on a real estate deal, a good Hereford yearling, or a second-hand car. And if we were married to any one of 'em, we'd go bare-headed before we'd ask his advice about an Easter bonnet!

Other usual mistakes made by

The Floyd County Hesperian, Floydada, Texas, Thursday, April 18, 1937

women, says the famous milliner, are: letting a friend choose one's hats; buying the same color or shape over and over; buying without ever seeing the whole effect the hat creates on you; and not trusting your milliner, who has more to gain than anyone else by having a happy and becomingly hatted customer.

Talk about women buying the same color season after season—some men don't know there is any color but 'blue! As for shape, they remember one hat they admired at one time in their lives and from then on that's what a woman's hat is supposed to look like.

We have some friends—and know some milliners—whose taste we would trust; others we'd never consult in a coon's age. We're quite sure we know more about how much we should spend on a hat than either friends or milliners. And the best way to keep that fact to ourselves is not to take along a friend when we buy one.

In other words, the famous milliner evidently knows a heck of a lot more about hats than she does about people.

Neighbor: Say, your new Olds sure looks like a lot of car!
Olds Owner: That's nothing, wait'll you take a ride.
(A few minutes later)

Neighbor: Man-oh-man, where'd all that power come from? I've never felt anything like that before!
Olds Owner: That's Oldsmobile's new J-2 Rocket Engine!

Neighbor: What's that? Tell me how it works.
Olds Owner: When you're driving under ordinary conditions, it uses only one carburetor. That means economy with a capital E. But when you need a sudden burst of power, for safety's sake, you just press the accelerator three-quarters of the way down—and two additional carburetors cut in!

Neighbor: In other words, with J-2, you can have economy when you want it and power when you need it. That's for me!
Olds Owner: Better see your Olds dealer. He's expecting you!

Charles Ogden Qualifies For State Contest

Charles Ogden was the only member of the whirlwind track team to qualify for the state meet early next month in Austin. Ogden has been the most consistent winner for Floydada all year and Saturday took first in the regional high jump competition. His mark was 5 feet 3 inches, somewhat below his best showing of the year, but good enough for the blue ribbon on a cold day.

Coach Preston Watson says his high jumper is anxious to enter the state meet and is looking forward to the trip to Austin.

Only other entry in last Friday's regional competition from Floydada was Bill Patterson who ran the high hurdles, but failed to finish in the money.

District 2AA showed fairly well in the fast field of entrants at the regional meet with Lockney taking first in the 100 yard dash which Jerry Williams stepped off in 10.3. Nelson Wofford took second in the 220 yard dash for the Longhorns and Williams placed fourth in this event. The Longhorns also got second in the 440 relay and Gene Hendley placed fourth in broad jump. Four boys qualified for the state meet.

Other district winners were Denver Ford of Tahoka who ran a 4-423 mile to take first in that event. Ray Gary and Maurice Morris of Post were the hard luck boys, finishing third in the 440 and 880 to pick up four team points, but missing the state meet by a single point. Dickie Thomas of Slaton came in fourth in the high hurdles, and Manny Cunnell of Abernathy had a third place tie in high jump. Tenney McClanahan of Slaton was sixth in a third place tie in pole vault.

All first and second place winners eligible for state meet competition. Downing Loses in Finals Ronnie Downing of Floydada was eliminated in the tennis matches when he fell before Gary Edmiston of Crane 5-2, 4-0, 6-1 in the finals. Crane practically swept the class A tennis with their team which sports a special tennis coach and a full year program in this event.

No district 2 team or individual won in the regional tennis competition.

Shamrock ran away with the regional golf crown with district 2 falling in place.

TELEPHONE TALK

by J. C. Oakley, Manager

It may be a little late, but I know all Floydada folks are interested in knowing that J. M. "Blackie" Blackshear has transferred to Lubbock.

"Blackie" went to Lubbock on a promotion due to having done such an outstanding job in Floydada. His family will stay in Floydada until school is out and then move also.

I know everyone will miss the Blackshears but I feel that the family who is moving in to replace them will certainly be well thought of.

In case you have not heard it is Dick Storch, wife and son. They are coming from Lubbock, where Dick has some 16 years with the company.

PROGRAMS FOR YOUR GROUP

Watching a movie at the club meeting the other day reminded me to tell you about free-loan motion pictures we keep in our telephone library.

Altogether I guess we have about 100 different 16mm. films. All are sound-films—many are in color. Some are short ones — just eight or ten minutes. Others run 20 or 30 minutes, even up to an hour. Any of these films would add entertainment to your club program or other group meetings.

School teachers also find telephone films useful as classroom visual aids.

Anytime you'd like to borrow a film from us, just call the telephone-business office. If possible, try to give us a few weeks notice so we can make sure its available the day you need it.

Also, if you'd like to call and give us your name and address, I'd be glad to send you a free catalogue that lists and describes the film and other program materials we have.

JUST TO SAY HELLO

Not so many years ago, placing a Long Distance call was a pretty big event. One you saved for important news—like telling the folks back home about a new baby.

It's not like that any more. Nowadays, Long Distance calls often start off with, "We just thought we'd call to say hello."

I think this modern custom—calling just to chat—keeps growing in popularity because there's something exciting about spanning the miles to hear familiar voices. And, of course, there's nothing like a telephone call when you really want to get all the news.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

SENTRY DUTY

In America every editor is on sentry duty, guarding constantly against all encroachments on the Freedom of the Press. It has always been like this. Ever since the press battled for and won freedom of expression, its guardians have had to be on the constant lookout for infiltration by the enemies of that freedom. Infiltration—pressure from powerful groups to tone down comment on a situation, pulling of strings to keep a story from being published—predestined propaganda releases.

But the press knows the importance of never giving up its freedom. For on freedom of the press depend all other freedoms that make up democracy. Therefore, the men of America's press refuse to recognize any check—except military security—on complete, unbridled and inviolate freedom to print the truth.

That is the challenge of today to the conscience and the vigilance of these sentries of America's press.

Mrs. Sweat, Long Resident, Claimed At Eighty-Seven

Funeral service for Mrs. James H. Sweat, 87, of Lockney, was conducted Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Lockney First Methodist Church with the Rev. H. B. Coggin, pastor, officiating assisted by Rev. C. A. Strickland, pastor of the Floydada Assembly of God Church.

Burial was made in Plainview Cemetery under the direction of Carter Funeral Home of Lockney. Mrs. Sweat passed Monday afternoon in Peoples Hospital following a long illness.

Mrs. Sweat was born July 27, 1869 in Waukeo, Ark. and moved to the plains with her family about 40 years ago. The family lived in Hale County for several years and moved to Lockney 33 years ago. Her husband passed in 1936.

She was a life-long member of the Methodist Church. Survivors include three sons, Obie Sweat, Hale Center, Roosevelt Sweat, Robstown and O. B. Sweat, Plainview; two daughters, Mrs. Willie Mae Branstetter and Mrs. Josie Cox, both of Lockney; one brother, Jim McClain, Waukeo, Ark.; one sister, Mrs. L. Starling, Waukeo, Ark.; 25 grandchildren and 27 great grandchildren.

Weed Control

sioners Court of a board of five men, whose primary function would be to coordinate the campaign for weed control on public lands, particularly rights-of-way, and on privately-owned premises.

Members of the court estimated there are 2,600 miles of roads in the county. Percentage of bar ditches infested by bindweeds or Johnson Grass was variously estimated at from 10 per cent to 80 per cent.

The practical problem of keeping road sides clean of weeds was pointed up by Commissioner W. H. Counts, who said that many miles of road sides stayed wet throughout practically all of the irrigation season.

The court, Judge McBrien said, has added $15,000 in costs of the local government since there was an increase in the taxing base in the county. Any appreciable additional costs, which the Weed Control program might call for, would require revision of land values for taxation—more tax money from some source, at least.

None of the farmers present thought the program would call for any heavy outlay for machinery or labor on the part of the county. In fact, opinions expressed appeared to indicate that the use of machinery and cultivation only added to the spread of bindweeds and other noxious weeds.

A. H. Kreis told of bindweed spots that had developed in his wheatland. In every instance the spot was where a combine was stopped for a major overhaul, indicating that spread of noxious weeds was aided by custom farm operations.

Several other farmers agreed with this conclusion.

R. M. Battey, who doubts the wisdom of hurrying into a control district, raised the question of whether the bindweed spread to the roads from farms or to the farms from the roads. There was divided opinion in the discussions.

Connie O'Brien, who lives on the old highway route, says the route can be traced by the bindweeds in the bar ditches, proving the spread has been from the roads.

Use of chemicals, sprayed or deposited on the weeds, and as little cultivation as possible, seemed to be the consensus of opinion as to best method of control.

Ned Bradley said the weeds are a menace and the people need to start something to combat them.

Commissioner John B. Fowler said "We have to find out what we mean by control before we can estimate the cost."

John T. Carthel said weeds in the bar pits was the source of trouble at his place. His opinion is that bindweeds represents a greater menace in Floyd County than wind erosion. "We're spinning our wheels by waiting," he said.

Charles Perry and J. T. Huckabay both declared there was no possibility that the weeds could be controlled by plowing, and Watson Jones said he had had no success with anything but salt saturation of affected spots in the field. Jones said that $30 or $40 an acre cost of eradication was not a drop in the bucket compared with the price of a $60,000 half section of land.

Dorris Jones, Robin Furtenberry, Lane Decker, D. S. Battey, Oscar Golden and R. C. Mitchell were among those who expressed varying degrees of willingness to undertake an eradication program on noxious weeds. R. C. Mitchell said he thought every acre in the county ought to stand its part of the cost. "We have no noxious weeds but they are a threat and we are willing to help get rid of them while we can."

The petition for the election was presented in March to the county by a committee from Floyd County Farm Bureau, after a canvass of the farm people was conducted. The committee put up $500 in escrow to apply to the cost of the election if one is called by the court after the hearing is held, as provided by the law.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Presley Kennamer and Mrs. F. P. Donathan attended a shower given for Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Hardie Jr. Monday evening at the Primitive Baptist Church in Amarillo.

Worthless Check 'Buys' 2,056 Head of Frizzell Sheep

Yesterday Hubert E. Frizzell, of Lone Star, was still minus his 2,056 head of sheep and hadn't collected on a $12,149.92 worthless check he got for their sale.

Furthermore the whereabouts of the man who bought the sheep with the worthless check had not been determined, so far as Mrs. Frizzell knew yesterday afternoon, when called by telephone.

The man's name is L. E. Lincoln. He gave the check on March 30. A felony warrant has been out for his arrest since April 10.

Frizzell had had the sheep on pasture since winter. The sale was made in Plainview and the sheep are said to have been re-sold in Plainview and Chicago.

Mrs. Frizzell said her husband had been making an effort to trace the man and the sheep since it was found he had been embezzled. The matter also touched off a search by Hale and Lubbock County authorities.

The check was given on a Lubbock bank.

workers between the ages of 80 and 85, explained Mr. Hutton, manager of the Lubbock district office. The increases are 1/4 of 1 percent for the employee, and 3/8 of 1 percent for the self-employed person. The total social security tax rates beginning with 1957 are 2 1/4 percent for the employer and employee and 3 3/8 percent for the self-employed. The employer and employee will notice the change right away because it applies to wages paid during 1957, but the self-employed will not pay the increased rate until 1958 on their earnings for 1957.

The tax increase will not be more than $10.50 a year for the employee or employer, or more than $15.75 a year for the self-employed person because only the first $4300 of earnings in a year are counted for social security. The new system of disability insurance benefits will afford monthly payments to many workers over age 50 who are permanently retired because of severe long-term disabilities which prevent their working. Monthly benefits can start with the payment for July 1957. Thus, severe long-term disability joins old-age and death as the major hazards insured against by social security.

Week-end guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Shaw were Mrs. Glee Thomas of Plainview, Mr. and Mrs. David Wiggins and son, Kurt, of Idalou, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ellis of Levelland and Mr. and Mrs. Virgie Shaw of Floydada.

The Scottish Rite 103rd reunion will be held in El Paso, April 21, 22, 23, 24 and 25. Several members in this county plan to attend according to C. L. Berry, local representative.

Cheryl's Chatter
(about events at Floydada High)

Everything has been pretty lively with all the candidates at FHS really getting "with it" this week. Shouts of "Back Barker," "Annella for Annual," "Snow Drift for Secretary," and "For the Whirl, Janice Smith, and her curls," have been heard among many others around the halls. Some of the students running for office were as follows:

Denis Whitfill, Ronnie Downing, and Joe Smalley for President of the Student Council, Mari Cogdell, Bill Duncan, and Gaynelle Boothe for vice president of the Student Council, Snow Drop Dunn and Tommie Copeland for Secretary of the SC, Annella Thurston, Keith Hollimus, and Kenneth Barker for annual editor, Janice Smith and Janet Holmes for "Whirl" Editor.

Campaign speeches were made yesterday, and the results of the voting shall be announced (we hope) in the near future.

State Meet here we come! The play of "I Remember Mama" won first place at Regional Meet last Friday night. Those named to the All-Star cast were Yanda Carter—best actress, Linda Hammonds, Virginia Taylor, Dick Galloway and Lourie Johnson. These, along with Mrs. Graves and the rest of the cast (including Uncle Elizabeth) will be journeying down Austin way the first week of May.

Also Kenneth Barker placed first in Poetry Reading, Cheryl Crawford first in Shoethand, and Charles Ogden first in the high jump in track. Sherre Darden placed third in Ready Writing, Dick Galloway second in Declamation, Pat Hickerson third in Declamation, and Ronnie Downing second in tennis.

The Band Banquet is to be tonight, and, as usual, everyone can really expect to have a very, very good time. However, our lips may be "shot" after our all-day seige with Dr. Carey of Enid, Okla. Band Contest is getting nearer!

Big plans are underway for the Senior Class Rodeo May 3-4. Everyone be sure to come, and you brave people enter! We want mooalas!

Have you noticed? The seniors getting rather sentimental? The "Hello, Good-bye" girls in F.H.S. Gloria Carthel's engagement to Jay Johnson? How cute Johnny Wikowski is! Annella Thurston's friendliness? Susi Nelson's "Casper" giggle? Judy Jackson and Bill Orman's shirts that are alike? Couples seen around this week have been: Dee Anne Newberry and Rex Jones, Gloria Carthel and Jay

Johnson, Carol Lawson and Gary Huckabee, Annella Thurston and Don Colley, Pat Hickerson and Robert Stovall, Kay Robertson and Weldon Pruitt, Janis Roberia and Kendis Julian, Ann Jones and David Mount, Lavene Trimble and Stanley Grant, Sandra Roe and Bobby Christian, Sue McClung and Henry Self, Sonja Guffie and Don Garrett, Sue Kendrick and Billy Gilliland, Sue Fienicken and Mack Shurbet, Nedra Jarrett and Eddie Childs, Jerri Floyd and Jerry Bob Harrison, D'Lene Wilkowiak and Rusty Tinnin, Bethie Wilson and Larry Glassmoyer, Kay Callaway and Speck Brian, Beth Crawford and A. IEWS AND COMMENT

Good Try, Anyhow! No doubt about it, the cold was cold too many hours, and there are few, if any at all, little peaches left. Of course the peaches story was to get our minds off of the wheat that had two or three joints and didn't need any frost or freeze. How much damage to the grain crop? It will take another two or three weeks to begin to tell this story for sure. Oh, well, a good try! The Hesperian now has no prestige left except for February snows. We hit them every time.

Now, Let's See. We've missed out on the late spring frost, predicting none, when we had some—and how! We get a chance at another predictor, this time the Weather Bureau, which says the season will be slow coming around this spring. Below normal temperatures, above normal moisture. Seems to us somebody else stuck his neck a way out!

More Moisture North of us than we have here. More moisture to the east and south. Mason King reports the soil is wet everywhere on the north plains at least 20 inches deep. A few counties away to the east and they've had several inches of gentle rain since January first. So Floyd County is still in the middle of the driest spot in Texas. It didn't hit us so soon but it lingers on. Only eight or ten inches of moisture depth and April is more than half gone!

Levelling The Land. If you're a beginner in the business of running an irrigated farm you'd do well to listen to some of those who have been in the game a good many years. The first thing you'd probably be told is that land levelling—not just running a drag over the ground—is about the best money you can spend first. A real leveller will take humps out of the ground you thought were not there. Many a gallon of expensive water that shouldn't be wasted is run out on ground trying to get the high places, too, and many an irrigation shovel of dirt piled around that should not be. Many a fellow has heart trouble now that didn't know he had a heart until he over-did himself in a field where the water was not under control.

The Ogallala Formation. What geologists declare to be the biggest body of underground water in all of Texas is that impounded by the red beds which underlie the high plains of Texas. Who named it Ogallala we do not know. The red beds is (or are?) a formation which lies below the surface of the earth like a giant dishpan. It holds (or they hold) the water captured in the sand formation above them. We use this water for domestic needs and for irrigation. We used to call it inexhaustible and it is in this manner of speaking, that there will never come a time when the last drop will have been pumped out of the sands. That is not the nature of sand and water.

Things do not change; we change.—Thoreau

Doctors Are Amazed. After millions of dollars in research have been spent on polio, more than a quarter of a century of campaigning in every city, town and village in America, and the final discovery of a positive means of preventing its incidence, comes a report of amazing lethargy on the part of the public toward taking advantage of the protection the polio vaccine affords. Five-sixths of the adults between 20 and 40 have not had the polio shots and millions of children are still open to the terrors of the disease, says a report credited with being authentic.

Perhaps the attitude toward polio tells the story of one facet of the American mental make-up. Is it that we must have something to go round in circles about? Must we just be busy because we are high strung? Is it that we are just naturally busy? Applying the measure locally we recall four or five years ago there was a campaign for local tennis courts that would be the pride and joy of young people, boys and girls. There was much ado and a lot of work put into the campaigning and paving the courts. Last week in the tennis district competition there was not enough interest to put a full team of contestants on the courts. Even those events that were filled had "one to the hill." We have turned to something else. That's that, now what next?

More Crape Myrtles. Unless something still undiscovered develops to make them unpopular crape myrtles are well on the way to establish themselves as a good shrub for Floydada public grounds and flower gardens. Their adaptability has been encouraging. They have a wide variety of color shades, they do not become unsightly at anytime, they produce a wealth of blossoms that keep their vigor for a long time, and they emerge from the dormant state late enough that frost bite is not a problem. The Garden Club and the Chamber of Commerce seem to have had a stroke of good fortune when they chose to campaign for more crape myrtles in Floydada. More of the same would be helpful.

Big City Senator George Parkhouse of Dallas has been in the legislature a long time. He says you can't legislate honesty into a man and you can't legislate ethics into him either. A legislator has honesty or he hasn't. He is ethical or he is not. He says the code of ethics the legislature is "hammering out on the anvil of debate" is just so much twaddle or words to that effect. For one thing, the code has no teeth! The Legislature, he thinks they think, is fooling somebody. Senator Andy Rogers of the 30th District, thinks about the same way, we gather. And so do we.

Caution! So live that you are safe to sell your parrot to the town gossip.

As A Farm Woman Thinks

(Nellie Witt Spikes)

"And at last the train passed the heavy gate."
Of death, printed by gravestones in the cemetery."
—Stephen Spender.

This cold morning of April 18th, and the resurrection of Easter Time just ahead makes one think of many things, past and present. It seems to our earthly minds that there could be no resurrection of our plants and flowers.
The ground is cold. The skies are gray. But long years ago the women waited at the open tomb and carried the good news of the resurrection of the hopes of all mankind, man will live again. We know the warm sun will come and our gardens and fields will grow and blossom again.
Mother and I were talking of days she lived in Parker County and it made me want to go back to Parker for a visit in the old Jones Cemetery. Grandpa Jones gave this plot from the old Jones homestead his father and mother settled before the Civil War, after moving from Red River County.
Two young men in the neighborhood had been killed by Indians, one named Savage who was plowing on Patrick Creek, the other, his brother, who farmed on Sanchez Creek. From one family the marauders took two children, from the other home, one child. Two young men buried in the new cemetery that was on a rocky hill near Sanchez Creek. The children were later restored to their mothers, men trading horses to the Indians for them.

Then Erasmus and Christina Jones were buried there and a rock wall from big flat rocks all around was built into a four or five foot wall. They, inside this wall was laid young Diborell Jones, who chose to ride in the wagon in the bitter cold instead of walking after he had been helping kill hogs. His legs from an eyecapsule set up, and he rested by his father and mother.

Four little babies are inside this wall, but my little blue-eyed sister Emma Francis, I never saw her, lies outside the wall on the south side closest to the gate, Aunt Mattie, a young girl of only twenty, lies there also.

At one time there was a beautiful iron gate but the many years have taken it as toll and mother does not know where it went.

Also in this old beloved cemetery in our family which lies some four miles southwest of Weatherford and is now called the Dean Cemetery, sleeps until the resurrection a young man whose father and mother, Steve and Lou Jones, had once lived near. Uncle Steve was a banker in Kansas City, owned a ranch where his young son worked. One night the boy dreamed his dog bit him between the eyes on the nose, but the next morning proved this was real as he had two bites which might have been made by a rabid rat. The boys at the ranch begged him to go to a madstone which was some distance away, but he only laughed and said he did not believe in any such foolishness.

He came to Texas on a visit and he and a cousin, Bang Jones went into a saloon. When Bud saw the water he fell backwards and they carried him to the hotel and sent for Grandpa Jones, his uncle. For hours they had to hold him on the bed when he had a spasm. He tried to bite them. They had to be continually washing their hands when he had a still spell. He begged them to kill him before he could bite one of them. They raised him to a standing position and he fell in their arms, dead.

His father was notified and started the long hard trip on the train, then by stage coach. The boy's body was put in a metallic coffin in hopes it could be kept till his father got there, but he had to be buried and the father wept bitter tears as he stood in the Jones Cemetery where he had helped lay away his father and mother and brother.

Now this spring the blue flags, or iris as we know the beautiful flowers, will open their blue petals to the bright sun. The farmer will stop planting his onion seeds as he takes a look at the white mounds. The blue jay will scream and the red bird whistle, the mocking bird will trill and mock all the other birds. Almost one hundred years of time has passed since the cemetery was only a hill with wild flowers and post oak trees, but the Savage men, the Jones inside and outside the

Symposium-Panel Reveals Facts Of Local Juvenile Delinquency

(By Mrs. G. T. Arwine)

An astonished audience listened attentively in the Methodist Church parlor Wednesday morning of last week while five members of a symposium-panel gave the facts about juvenile delinquency in Floyd County, at the monthly meeting of the South Circle of the Women's Society of Christian Service.

Panel members, Kenneth Bain Jr., county attorney, A. E. Baker, principal of Floydada Senior High School, Keith Armstrong, president of the student council at Floydada High School, Mrs. Pete Hickerson, director of youth work at the First Methodist Church and Mrs. Rush Wheeler, president of the Junior High Parent Teacher Association, brought to light the importance of parental supervision, guidance and good example.

Delinquents in our county this year have come from all income brackets, even from homes of parents who work diligently in their church and community. It was concluded that parental apathy and lack of co-operation with the law and school authorities are responsible for much of the delinquency.

A summary of the recommendations was listed by the panel moderator and are as follows:

1. Know where your children are at all times and see that they get home by a designated hour.
2. Watch carefully who your child chums with. Beware of gangs.
3. Teach your child the value of money by letting him have an allowance to cover certain designated items, or better still, let him work for it.
4. Closely supervise use of your car. Know how far he's gone and when to expect him back.
5. Give young people a set of moral values by close association with a church. Make sure you as an adult are completely honest, fair and wholesome in all your dealings. Our children mirror what they hear and see.

Many Varieties Of Hegari Are On the Market

COLLEGE STATION--There is a lot of difference in the varieties of Hegari now available to Texas farmers. According to Associate Extension Agronomist Lee Coffey, reports reaching him indicate that considerable confusion exists among farmers as to the variety of Hegari they should plant.

Coffey offers these suggestions to farmers who plan to plant one of the varieties of popular grain sorghum, Regular Hegari, he says, is recommended for bundle feed. Under good growing conditions, this variety will make a plant about six feet tall and is an excellent producer of forage and grain. Seed supplies are said to be on the short side.

Hi-Hegari is a comparatively new variety which was developed by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station as a silage crop. This variety, under good growing conditions, averages considerable taller than regular Hegari and is a heavy producer of forage. Seed of this variety have been reported from at least one section of the state as scarce.

Early Hegari grows taller than Martin milo and is often too tall for

Another Solution Given To McLain's Two Pieces of Land

Jack McIntosh, an engineer turned farmer, has another answer for Tom McLain's farmer, who has a square tract of land, dimensions of which are not given. But when he adds 27,500 square feet to it he still has a square tract and the two tracts have a common corner.

Tom's farmer wants to know how big his original square tract was—its dimensions—and how big his tract is after the bigger tract has been added.

Engineers Sam Fowler and Chester Hidalgo agreed in separate reports, that the problem was not sufficiently determinate and that the answer could approach infinity so far as the smaller tract was concerned.

Richard Mathis, on the other hand, says the farmer would not be interested in a piece of real estate that approached the size of a pin head. He would be thinking in terms of even feet. So he gets an answer of 70 feet square for the smaller tract and 180 feet square for the larger.

Jack McIntosh uses an algebraic solution, calling the length of sides of the smaller tract X, and Y the length of the larger tract's sides

Santa Fe
The river that flows on wheels

...petroleum moves over
...Fe than over any other
...road in the country

84,000,000 gallons of petroleum that
...moves every year is the river that
...flows on wheels.

...large that it makes Santa Fe the No. 1
...oil railroad in the country.

...flood tide of oil gives heat and power
...to factories, military installations and
...all over the nation.

...tremendous demand for petroleum, in
...arms, poses special problems for Santa
...Fe. It requires speed and service to keep
...the flowing full force. Here are a few of ...the ways we get the job done:

...move empty tankers just as fast as full
...ones. No vehicle will stand idle.

...new oil fields are opened up, we stand
...ready to serve them. And when new develop...ments take place within the industry, we adapt
...ourselves to take care of them.

...For example, take liquefied petroleum gas.
...Demand for it has skyrocketed in the last ...few years because with this "bottled gas" rural ...areas can cook and heat with gas just like
...the cities. And the railroads have made it
...easy for them to get it.

...Santa Fe runs special LPG trains when the ...demand for this product requires it. In a year,
...special trains carry enough LPG to heat over
...a million homes from November through April.

...This is just a part of the story of the de...veloping transportation service Santa Fe is
...providing to essential industries that contrib-
...ute to the welfare of our country.

NO BARGAIN BASEMENT SEED
...Failure to use good, tested and
...tagged seed for any soil-building
...program defeats the entire purpose
...for which the land is being reared.
...The risk is great that improper, un-
...tested seed may contain weed seed
...which can create a permanent blight
...on the land. The purpose of acreage
...retirement is to build and revitalize
...land with healthy and helpful crops,
...not to jeopardize it with a "grab-
...bag" seed purchase.

...There is no such thing as bargain
...basement seed, whether it be used
...to plant a major crop or to give
...your land a rest.

Addition Made To Texas 'Hot' Check Statute

AUSTIN—An amendment to the ...Texas "hot check" law that makes
...employers liable for paying their ...employees with checks that "bounce"
...has been signed into law by Gov.
...Price Daniel.

...Charles T. Lutz, executive vice-...president of the Retail Merchants
...Association of Texas, said the new
...amendment closes a loophole in the ..."hot check" law. "Until this amend...ment was signed, a retail business
...or any other place of business that
...accepted worthless checks presented
...in good faith by workers had prac-
...tically no legal recourse to recover its
...loss," Lutz said.

...Now under the new amendment
...employers who give checks that
...prove to be 'hot' are subject to ...criminal prosecution and may be
...fined up to $2,000 and sent to jail
...for 30 days if the amount involved
...is less than $50. If the amount of ...the worthless check is more than
...$50, then the penalty is from two
...to ten years in prison and a fine up
...to $10,000.

...Lutz said there were several hun...dred cases in Texas last year where
...employers paid off their workers
...with worthless checks causing the ...places that cashed these checks to
...lose many thousands of dollars.

...Prosecution of these cases under
...the Texas "hot check" law was dif...ficult because provisions did not
...cover checks given as wages or salar-
...ies for services.

EASTER

...With greed and envy laid aside,
...We greet the sacred Eastertide.
...With misted eyes again we see
...A garden called Gethsemane,

...A supper with a host divine,

...Denial—a traitor's kiss.
...A cross, a crown of thorns we

...The sepulcher of long ago,
...But from that Resurrection Morn
...Our blessed Eastertide was born.
...And now, each year we watch un-

...An Easter dawn of rose and gold.
