This information was passed along by Harold Brown who said the chamber of commerce in Lockney and others were behind the move and promised there would be company representatives present to present an interesting proposition for growing cucumbers.

The company is seeking a large acreage here and is offering a contract price of as high as $7 per hundred for number 1 cucumbers. The market place for Floyd county growers will be in Lockney, said Brown, who added the same buyers were also signing up acreages around Plainview and Muleshoe.

The firm already has some 203 acres contracted in the county says Brown and they will supply the seed at $1 pound.

Battle Over REA Law Being Staged At Austin

Rural electric cooperative managers and officials from all over Texas convened at Austin Tuesday, Melvin Henry of Floydada and John Smithman among them.

There they were to join in an all-out effort to keep from being "knifed" in the legislature.

Henry is manager of Lighthouse Electric Cooperative and Smithman is its president.

Divergent opinions in the legislature on the status of rural electric cooperatives in an area already being served by the cooperative with electric energy which subsequently becomes a part of a municipality has brought on considerable heat and controversy.

The controversy has grown out of an East Texas situation. An effort is being made to make the cooperative disconnect service because it would be serving customers in a city where a franchise is held by competing public service company.

Henry said before his departure for Austin Tuesday morning that a Senate bill which is in a joint conference of House and Senate Committees "can be lived with" but that the House version covering the situation is "impossible" for cooperative electric organizations.

Meanwhile Leroy Sau, state representative from this district, declares the House version is the "grandfather bill of all grandfather bills", designed to protect the rights of both city and cooperative-served areas.

The House battled over the measure last week to wind up with the bill which the coops find obnoxious, and Sau strongly favors.

Sau, whose business operations include a tailor shop at Kress and publishing the Kress News, is refreshed by Melvin Henry as one of the most powerful men in the House of Representatives and Henry was plainly disturbed over what he views as a serious threat to cooperatives.

Sau in a statement issued out of Austin last week-end declared that never in his legislative experience had there been so much confusion or misrepresentation surrounding

Giant Program To Meet Threat Of Competition

The cotton growers meeting tonight in the Senior High School Auditorium, designed to help meet the dire threat in the cotton industry of the country, will be held beginning at 8 o'clock.

Ginners, who are spearheading the movement to interest cotton people in a giant program to preserve the cotton industry, are urging and hoping for an audience that will crowd the seating capacity of the auditorium.

Ginners of the county, who see cotton acreage fast dwindling and fear even greater cuts in the future as competitive nations and competitive fabrics cut into the market demand, are spearheading the movement locally.

Every cotton grower in the county has been advised of the meeting and are being told the hope is to improve cotton's competitive position in world markets.

A plan to undertake this improvement will be unfolded by Earl Spears and Bob Love of Memphis, Tennessee, representatives of the National Cotton Council, and Bob Graig, also of the Cotton Council staff, of Lubbock.

Letters sent out by local ginners point out their concern about the cotton markets and the acreage allotment prospects in this county for the next year or two. The ginners, fearful for their own industry and for that of their customers' best cash crop, declare that unless trends in the domestic market are not stopped and other detrimental factors halted demand for U.S. Cotton could shrink to as low a figure as 8 million bales.

This reduction of 40 per cent or more in the domestic market would mean disaster so far as cotton business is concerned.

The National Cotton Council and the ginners point out the possibility that this threat not only can be averted but that a big increase in demand is possible.

The facts and figures as to present conditions and present trends, along with possible remedies for the situation, will be presented.

County Agent W. G. Rodgers has consented to serve as moderator for tomorrow night's meeting here.

At a similar meeting held in Lockney Tuesday night to present the council's message there, about 200 farmers and their wives were present.

Local ginners point out that the meeting Friday night here is not only for the men but for their wives and families as well, and are urging attendance of farm families.

Floydada Date Of Health Unit X-Ray June 24

June 24 is the date for the Texas Health Department's free chest X-Ray survey in Floydada. The announcement was made this week by Bob Copeland, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Health and Safety Committee.

Howard K. Shackelford, field representative for the tuberculosis and chronic diseases division of the Texas Health Department met with Copeland, Mrs. Virgie Shaw, and O. M. Watson, Jr., on Tuesday to make plans for the June project.

The Floydada people were told that the X-Ray unit is on a tight schedule and that only one day could be spent in Floydada this year.

Shackelford said that everyone who was fifteen years old and older was entitled to a chest X-Ray but stressed the importance of older Floyd County residents making their plans to take advantage of the free health service on June 24.

Members of the local study clubs will staff the registration tables throughout the survey, according to Mrs. Shaw who represented the federated clubs at Tuesday's meeting.

Publicity for the survey will be handled by the health and safety committee.

A location for the X-Ray unit has not been announced.

The chest X-Ray program was last in Floydada in September, 1955. The request to the Texas Health Department for the free service for Floyd County was made last month through county health officer Dr. Jack Jordan by the chamber's health and safety committee.

C-C Announces Three Projects For May, June

Three projects of the Chamber of Commerce Retail Trades Committee have been set for May and June according to Dan Hagood, chairman of the committee.

Two of the projects are planned to help the nation's cotton farmers and business men sell more cotton products.

On May 16 the committee is sponsoring an hours program for sales personnel of all Floydada stores where cotton products are sold.

The program will feature Harris A. Poteet, field representative of the Plains cotton growers, and a short film with suggestions for sales personnel on how to better sell cotton merchandise.

Refreshments will be served at the beginning of the meeting.

Around twenty five local business people are expected to attend the program which is set for 5:45 p.m. at the Lighthouse Electric Cooperative building.

The second project which was announced by Hagood is the observance of cotton week in Floydada from May 20 through May 25. Retail Trades Committee members hope that every store in Floydada which sells cotton products will make a special effort to increase the sale of cotton during the week.

Special advertising, store events, posters, and show windows will feature cotton and point out the long-lasting cotton quality and attractiveness.

"Pick your cotton now, first choice for you and your home," is the slogan for the nation-wide cotton promotion.

On June 21 the committee opens a four-day "Harvest of Values" sale. This is a town wide sales event. Hagood points out, and planned to help stimulate additional business in Floydada.

"The Retail Trades Committee urges every Floydada business man to make plans now through their advertising and special merchandise purchases to join their neighbors in a community-wide effort to sell Floydada to Hundreds of Additional families in Floyd and surrounding counties," Hagood said.

Soybean Meeting Scheduled May 24

In addition, Sharrman said, a panel discussion by local growers of soybeans will follow Mr. King's address.

Others will pay the nominal fee of $1 for the dinner, which will be served on the court house lawn by W. E. Nicholson, of a Plainview catering service.

Mrs. Maud E. Hollums, secretary of the Pioneer Association, said this week that prospects for a good reunion and parade are excellent. Both Floydada bands and one of the Lockney bands already have promised to take part in the parade, she said.

Probability is that any old timers who want to go "high hat" will have an opportunity to do so on old settlers day. The Lions Club of Floydada has indicated, she said, they will have both stove pipe hats and derbies available soon.

Mrs. Hollums said the pioneers expect an interesting speaker will be present to address the annual gathering in their formal session.

PACE FAMILY MEETING FOR MOTHERS' DAY

A reunion of the family of Mrs. Cora Pace is in the making here this week as some of her children have gathered and all others are expected on or before Sunday.

Mrs. Pace greeted the first arrivals, two sons, Wright of Westminster, California, and Perry of San Antonio, Tuesday. The two brothers arrived not by pre-arrangement, on the same bus.

Others expected before the week is over are Mrs. Jack Hollingsworth of Roaring Springs and her family, and Mrs. George Conner of Carlsbad, New Mexico. The latter will be accompanied by her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Anderson.

draws, also of Carlsbad.

One daughter, Mrs. W. M. Knight lives at Sand Hill, and it is the Knight home that the Mothers' Day dinner will be served on Sunday.

F. S. McCune, a brother of Mrs. Pace, and his wife, are among other relatives expected for the family gathering.

Wright Pace, who has been a minister for almost 50 years, makes a pilgrimage to see his mother's day, generally on Mother's day. He has accepted call to the church at Monte Bello, California, a congregation which he organized several years ago. He will bid adieu to the Westminster Church of Christ on June 1 to take up his new duties.

FAST BOATS MAKE FISHERMEN ANGRY

The fight goes on between fishermen and water sports enthusiasts, with no solution in sight other than common courtesy. Each year in Texas there are tragedies because of this.

Fishermen are very resentful of fast boats knocking them about with high waves. For the most part, the fishermen are near the bank because generally fishing is not good in the middle of a big lake.

When a fast boat speeds between the fisherman and the shore it always brings curs words. Right now only good sportsmanship can stop this. Later there will be laws.

At Lake Whitney there is a floating concession, the Big B, with a well in the floor so you can fish for crappie while sitting by a fire-place.

Fred Alvin Johnston, Jr., 28, was buried at Knox City Thursday, May 2. Johnston was a victim of leukemia from which he had suffered for some two months. He was with the soil conservation service and headed the Floyd County office here until illness stopped him from his work.

The deceased was born February 26, 1929 at O'Brien, Texas. He was graduated from Sunset High School in Knox County and later attended Texas Tech. On November 21, 1950 he was married to Miss Jean Talbot at Anson, and one daughter, Freda Annette, age four, was born in this union.

The couple came to Floydada 18 months ago and had made their home here until the illness occurred. They were members of the First Baptist Church of Floydada.

Death came Wednesday May 1 at Knox County Hospital where the deceased had been carried for treatment. Funeral service was at the First Baptist Church in O'Brien with burial in the Knox City Cemetery.

Johnston is survived by his wife, daughter Freda Annette, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Johnston, Sr., of Knox City, brother, Jerry Johnston of Knox City, and sister, Mrs. John McGaughey of Knox City.

Friends from Floydada who attended the last rites included B. J. Kumer, Aubrey Dairyplace, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Daniel, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Nash, Mrs. Ann Cook, H. G. Barber, Rev. Ed Bowles, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Siner, Mr. and Mrs. Travis Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Willis.

Aussie Guests Are Honored In Homes of Area

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Brandes of Providence, honored the four Australians visiting this area of Texas with a barbecue dinner last Thursday evening at their home.

The serving table was laid with a pink linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of contrasting tulips.

During the evening, one of the Australians expressed surprise to find that the American people take their religion so seriously. He went on to say he thought the Americans were drinking and gambling people but that he hadn't seen any of either sort.

It was pointed out that of eight families represented on the tour of the United States there were seven different religions represented.

Those present for the evening were Peter Copstack, Tasman Scott, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Ross Fenner, all of Australia, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Puckett, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee Smith and daughter, Karla, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver S. Grote and the hosts two daughters, Pam and Debra Brandes.

On Thursday morning Mrs. Dennis Taylor honored Mrs. C. O. Ross Fenner with a coffee at the Taylor home in the Lakeview Community, between the hours of 10:00 and 11:30 o'clock.

Guests present from Mt. Blanco, Crosbyton and Floydada, enjoyed a visit with Mrs. Fenner and listened to the experiences she told of the Australians.

Local people present were Messdames Alma Holmes, Griffin Odum, S. G. Appling, J. R. Williams, Harry Morckel, Oliver S. Grote, H. C. Hoover, Lee Suther, C. A. McClure, Tillman Reeves, Ruby Hartell, Hoyt McClure, Alfred Clark, Brice Allen, Loyd Langley, Anthony Latta, L. B. Brandes, David Stewart, Tilford Taylor, Bill Norris, Miss Alice Latta and the hostess, Mrs. Taylor.

Mayor of Ralls Named District Governor 2-T1

The Lions bi-district convention for districts 2T1 and 2T2 of West Texas was held last week in Lubbock. At the business session W. L. (Bill) Smith, Ralls ginner and mayor of that city was elected district governor of 2T1.

A delegation of Floydada Lions including E. A. Williams, Claude Weathersbee, George Spears, Kenneth Bain, Jr. and Gene Collins, Jr. attended portions of the convention.

Floydada Lions Club sweetheart Beth Crawford also represented the club and enjoyed the social functions of the convention. Miss Crawford was one of a group of 70 west Texas beauties that were entered in the queen's contest.

The group enjoyed guided tours, luncheon programs, and were hosts to guests at the evening dances.

Beth reported a wonderful time at the convention where the programs were well planned and the girls were entertained royally.

Round-Up Program Attendance Hurt By Bad Weather

The Whirlwind Bandboosters' Round-up Program Friday night featuring the Serenaders netted the organization more than $200 reports Vernon Witkowski, president of the group. Wet weather and a full schedule of events for the week-end probably held down attendance but an estimated crowd of 350 were on hand for the program.

Those in attendance enjoyed a number of musical selections with a sprinkling of comedy.

The ticket selling contest between the band parents and the band students has not definitely been decided, but it appears that the parents will win when all tabulations have been made. Loser in the contest will have to entertain the winners with a picnic or similar event of some kind.

Students Return From State Meet

Floydada students participating in the IL state meet were:

Cheryl Crawford, shorthand, placing third; Kenneth Barker, poetry reading, winning second.

The one-act play cast members, Vanda Carter, Linda Hammonds, Virginia Taylor, Louie Johnson, Dick Galloway, Meri Cagdeil, Gayle Rossen, Donnie Young, Tommie Copeland and Joe Smalley, received a superior rating for their presentation of "I Remember Mama." Miss Carter was placed on the state all-star cast.

The Floydada students were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Graves and Wendell Daniel.

The plumber was instructing his new assistant on the niceties of the trade.

"Above all," he said, "you must exercise politeness and tact." The assistant allowed as how he understood about politeness, but "what was tact?"

"Well son," he replied, "it's this way. If you walk into a bathroom to fix a pipe and a young lady is in the tub you close the door quickly and say 'Beg your pardon, sir.' The 'Beg your pardon' is politeness. The 'Sir' — that's tact."

The driver's license examiner was taking a test ride with an applicant. A woman driving the car ahead put her hand out the window.

"See that?" asked the examiner. "What does that mean?" "Only one thing for sure," said the applicant. "The window's open!"

Seniors Schedule Two More Money-Raising Projects

The senior class of Floydada High School has two more projects coming up within the week as they make ready for their trip next Thursday.

On Saturday night, May 11, there will be a basketball game in Graves Gym between the graduating members of the basketball team and those who will return next year to play again. This comes as a climax to the spring basketball season and will give the fans a good show and a look at the next year's possibilities. Admission prices are 25c for students and 50c for adults. All proceeds go for the senior trip.

Robert Stovall has been leader in this project.

On Monday night, May 13, between the hours of six and eight p.m. there will be an old fashioned ice cream supper at the high school cafeteria. Everyone is invited and those attending are promised all the cake and home made ice cream they can eat.

A charge of 25c will be made for grade school students with a 50c fee for all those junior high age and over. This same price goes for adults too.

Sonja Beth Wilson heads this project and urges all to come and enjoy the feast.

All proceeds go for the senior trip to Colorado Springs starting next Thursday.

New Meat Dish Suggested For Meal Planners

DALLAS, May -- Mother's new string of pearls or a photograph of Junior for Mother's Day won't please her any more than the family's offer to prepare Sunday dinner, provided it is accompanied by a promise to keep the kitchen neat.

The gesture alone is enough to exhilarate Mom, but the meal itself can be a pleasant surprise, if some simple rules are followed. First, plan your menu in advance and make sure you have all the ingredients necessary to complete it without sending to the grocery or borrowing from neighbors. Second, and perhaps most important, elect a chief cook. A hint to the younger generation: Don't let Dad's seniority over-rule democratic procedure. Actually, he probably knows less about how to run a kitchen than you do.

Next, follow these six easy steps to a clean kitchen which will win Mom's favor and praise -- and make her day a real holiday. Before beginning, set out the different foods and cooking tools to be used. As soon as each ingredient is used, return it to its proper place. Rinse each cooking utensil after use and leave it in the sink. Clean up crumbs or specks of food left on working areas and check the floor for spots and crumbs. Wash the pots and other kitchen tools which have been soaking in the sink. Set the table while the meal is cooking so that Mom has nothing to do but relax.

What to serve is the big question. Hamburgers would be easy to make but the Texas Beef Council recommends a special beef treat which Mom would surely want to add to her list of family favorite recipes. It's beef loaf with walnuts. The nut meats add an extra flavor and texture to the dish.

Have these tools ready: A big mixing bowl, an egg beater, a baking dish, a chopping board, and a paring knife. Preheat the oven to 350 degrees.

Here are the ingredients needed to make a beef loaf big enough to serve 4 to 6 people: 1 pound lean ground round; 1/2 cup raw oatmeal; 1 egg; 1/2 cup tomato juice or tomato paste; one-third cup chopped black walnut meats; one tsp. salt; one-fourth tsp. pepper and one cup cracker crumbs.

Now mix as follows: Beat egg. Mix all ingredients except cracker crumbs thoroughly, using slotted spoon, or nice, clean hands. Roll mixture in cracker crumbs, mold into shape and place in shallow baking dish. Cover meat loaf with aluminum foil. Bake one hour, remove foil, and leave in oven for 15 minutes to allow crumb crust to brown.

Garnish the loaf with parsley and serve with a tossed green salad, browned biscuits and two fresh vegetables that the family likes best.

HEAVY RAINS FALL

Heavy rain fell from Floydada east and west to both county lines late yesterday. Also both north to Lockney and south to the county line, a hurried survey showed.

FLOOD BATTERED, BUT IT'S HOME

ABILENE, TEX. — Familiar surroundings outweighed all flood discomforts with Mrs. Gertrude Hard, 75-year-old blind resident of the flood-stricken North Park area here, who insisted on returning to her home as soon as waters went down sufficiently, despite urging from friends and Red Cross workers. Here she sits in her favorite chair from which she says she can find her way to anything in the house. Helping her is Estell Johnson, one of the 56 trained Red Cross national disaster workers who have been dispatched to the Southwest storm area to assist chaplains in helping disaster-stricken families restore homes, furnishings and other living necessities. Red Cross relief operations have been constant throughout the month of April in Texas, with workers now spread through eight tornado swept counties and 18 other counties affected by floods.

The Word Finder by J. I. Rodale represents a new invention in word findings, a simple method that enables you to rebuild sentences into literary structures in a minimum of time. Nouns, verbs and adjectives are arranged alphabetically in the Word Finder. A new and fitting companion to the famous Word Finder is the PhraseFinder, which supplies the missing link for writers, speakers and all who deal in words and ideas. The Phrase Finder can actually think up for you not just a word, but a clause or even a sentence. Other divisions in the book are The Metaphor Finder and The Sophisticated Finder.

For a good biography read Joseph Pulitzer, Front Page Pioneer, by Iris Noble. This is the dramatic story of an idealistic genius who shaped the pattern of present day journalism and who left a legacy to the journalists of tomorrow in the famous Pulitzer Prize Awards.

Juveniles will love Rumpus of Commodore Hill by Coca Cheney. One hilarious incident follows another as the Adams children get to know the people in the neighborhood where they have just moved.

(By Carlees Reeves)

MCCOY, May 6 — Rain is still falling in parts of the country. We are thankful for nice rain we have had in our community. When it clears up everyone will be busy planting.

The men and women of our community have not been resting too much during this muggy weather. They have painted four Sunday School rooms and put floor covering on each of them. We are proud of the progress made on the work at the church.

We did not have W.M.U. Monday, April the 29th, due to the muggy roads.

We had 70 in Sunday School on Sunday, and a nice crowd for training union on Sunday night.

Bra and Mrs. Ken Carter and family were dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Price and girls. Other visitors in the Price home on Sunday was Bobbie Reeves and Sue Ring of Dougherty.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hartzell and Charlotte visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Reeves and family. Marguette Dann of Center and Sue Ring of Dougherty visited also in the Reeves home over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Reeves and Bobby visited Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Hucksbay of Floydada.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Pennington of Alpine, Texas, visited over the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Helms, F. P. Stephens, Doyle and Leticia. Leticia visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Cummings Sunday. Visiting Sunday evening in the Cummings home was Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Tardy.

Mr. and Mrs. Orvis Phillips visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Claud Payne.

Imported Fire Ants Threaten Texas Farmers

Imported fire ants, native South American pests, have become a present problem and a serious threat to Texas farmers. The ants now live in the Southern states in a line from Florida eastward, infesting in their final course an area in Southeast Texas from the Louisiana border to Houston. The imported fire ant is noted for the fierceness of its attack. Its painful sting can cause boil-like sores on humans and severely injure animals. They aggressively attack small animals in numbers and have killed new-born calves on the farm. Their damage extends from poultry, livestock and wildlife to all types of plant life. Feeding both above and below ground, they seriously damage many vegetable crops. They injure pasture grasses, cereal and forage crops, nursery stock, and fruit trees. Imported fire ants are easy to detect by the mounds that they build—reaching up to two feet in height and three feet in diameter. The huge, hard-crust mounds mar lawns, damage pasture lands and interfere with cultivating, mowing, and harvesting machinery. Entomologists have said the ants are at their worst as a nuisance, hampering all types of farm operations. In heavily infested fields, it is difficult for cotton pickers and other farm labor to work. The tiny fire ants at present have covered only a relatively small part of Texas, but the continued growth of their population since introduction

Gay Plastics Streamline Chores

New double duty plastic housewares arriving in the stores are out to prove that every homemaker can apply assembly line shortcuts to household chores. Outstanding in this trend is one colorful dishpan molded of polyethylene plastic in two sections for washing and rinsing. The first of its kind featuring a water saving space-and-time-saving section this dishpan can be the nicest thing that has happened in dishwashing since running hot water. Line it up with a dish drainer placed on the sink counter and you can make your own time and motion study. Baby will have another sailing top because of an unbreakable polyethylene plastic bathtub which can be used as a play pool when he joins the pre-school backyard pirates. This rust-proof and dent-proof bathtub is shaped like a boat. It is made to support a child's back—has an easy pouring lip and a removable soap tray. For the color-conscious homemaker who supports the "out of sight, out of mind" theory, there's a new polyethylene plastic pastry and breadbox. The top "drawer" holds pastries and the lower one bread. Lettered drawer pulls identify the sections which are removable and can be used as trays to hold their specialties. The lucky fisherman can bring his catch home on ice if he has one of the new giant-size insulated buckets. Good for picnics and fishing trips, it has glass fibre insulation sandwiched between two walls of polyethylene plastic to preserve ice for a full day's outing.

Plains Athletes Place In State IL Track Meet

Texas high school athletes found the track a little wet and soft at Austin last week when the state meet was held, but competition was very keen. Pasadena was winner in the AA bracket with Stamford heading the class A teams and Weimar taking the class B title.

Charles Ogden represented the Floydada whirlwinds in the meet entering the high jump. Charles failed to place as he was far below par having been hampered for some time with a back ailment. A jump of six feet even won the event for Eddie Curtis of Terrell. This height is usually an easy leap for Ogden, but not so at Austin. The Floydada high jumper has been bounded with minor injuries through much of his high school career. He is a junior and will get another shot at the title try next season.

Other teams from this region did not fare too well at the big meet. Canyon picked up a first, two seconds and a fifth as Charles Neblett won the high hurdles, placed second in the low hurdles and fifth in broad jump; Harlie Adams was second in the 800 yard run.

Teddy Estes of Olson placed third in the 440 yard dash and Olson's mile relay team came in fourth in that event. Denver Ford of Tahoka took third in the mile run, and Lockney's sprint relay team placed sixth in that event.

In the class B division Alvin Ellithorpe of Matador won second in shot put with a heave of 81 feet 7 and 1/2 inches. Ken Weaver of Idalia won the class B mile with Henry Kitten of Woodrow finishing second. Gary Poage of Happy was fifth in the 200 yard dash.

Attending the track meet from Floydada were Coach Preston Watson, Charles Ogden and Bill Patterson. The trio were joined in Crosbyton by Coach Jack Meredith and one of his athletes, Ken Leathwood, who entered the class B dashes. The group got to Austin in time to see a three-way south-west conference meet Thursday.

FRONT LINE OF FREEDOM

JUST a Newsstand? No.

It is a battleground.

In this territory rival publications fight for the attention of the public, from left to right you can find all shades of political and social opinion, freely expressed. And because of this a newsstand is more than just a convenience in the life of an American citizen.

It is a front line.

There is another battle going on around a newsstand, more far-reaching than the competitive rivalry of paper against paper, magazine against magazine. For there are always people — yes, even here — who dislike to see opinions freely expressed... and who attempt to bring all sorts of restraining pressures on those who champion the Press's freedom.

But those who write and print and publish the free opinions of America, they see a threat to that freedom as a threat to all freedoms, and vigilantly hold back pressure-wielders from closing in on the pressstand.

For the newsstand is freedom's front line.

Treasure Fruit Dessert

For a treasure dessert look to your own pantry shelf if it is filled with a variety of canned fruits. Fruit ambrosia is a dessert changeable as your fruit supply or preference demands.

Canned grapefruit and orange sections, blueberries, peach slices and pineapple tidbits are some of the fruits you can use. A few toasted almonds added just before serving, or a last minute topping of sherbet changes it to a new dessert treat.

Try this combination of apricots and plums, and use other fruits or toppings from time to time for this choice dessert is one you will want to serve often.

Water District To Issue Well Certificates

On May 1 the District office of the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District began issuing certificates of valid water well permits.

A situation has developed lately which we think requires some protection for purchasers of land or mortgages advancing money on land on the strength of existing wells says Tom McFarland, manager. For example, suppose a land owner drilled a well in violation of the District rules and before appropriate action could be taken to close the well, the violator either sold or mortgaged the land. This would give the District the unpleasant task of proceeding against the party who was misled.

The District, to prevent the occurrence of this situation and prevent a cloud on the land title, will begin issuing certificates to abstractors and attorneys to show what permits have been granted on a particular tract of land. The interested parties may then determine whether or not the wells are at the correct location as specified on the well permits.

The District is perfecting its records so it may furnish certificates on permits of wells drilled after February 1933. This service has been requested many times by people in the legal and abstracting professions.

It is planned to charge $1.00 for each permit certificate to offset the costs involved.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to express my sincere appreciation to all my many friends and neighbors for the lovely cards, flowers, gifts and visits I received during my recent illness. Your kindness and neighborliness have meant so much to me. May God richly bless each of you.

Dickie Views Policy Trends as Threat to Farm

Farm Group Is Told Abundant Crops Needed

Alex Dickie Jr., of Denton, president of the Texas Farm Bureau, spent Monday night and Tuesday in Floydada, spurring on local workers in a campaign to add another 100 members in Farmers Union in Floyd County.

In this campaign County President Bob Jarrett at the close of a meeting in the county court room Monday night had enlisted 14 teams which were due to "shell the woods while the ground is too wet to plow." The membership was estimated at about 190 and the hope is to increase the figure by 100 to 200 this week.

Dickie, who is a farm operator, presents the Farmers Union view with evangelistic fervor. He declares that while the national administration is aiming at cutting production and taking the land out of production the need is for abundant production. "How does it help the country for lawyers and doctors and idle rich to buy up the land and put it in the Soil Bank?" he asked in the course of his Monday night talk.

His views are divergent with the "siding scale" of pay for farm production. He says it is resulting in "vertical integration" of the farms of the county. The term "vertical integration" he describes as a system of agriculture in which the "farmers" are brought under the domination of giant business enterprises which control the purchase of farm supplies, credit, production methods, and marketing.

He says if this pattern continues it will destroy the farm family, and he presents a program that is "designed to protect the farm family."

Under present conditions Dickie's plan envisions 45-cent cotton, not 30-cent cotton, and $3.15 milo, not $1.70 milo. The present trend, if continued, "will dump us on the so-called free market" he told.

Under vertical integration, now in progress, he said, the poultry business is already gone. "The chickens are his birds, the feed his feed, you're working for him," he described as the situation of the man who is in the poultry business.

He said Safeway, A & P, and giant processors are now "going all the way through" from the production to the finished product, and the farm operators are working for them.

Sarcastically he declared the farm family is told it is inefficient, it must corporate, and out of the other side of the mouth it is too efficient, it is producing too much.

Dickie was critical of the press, says the National Cotton Council should be exposed as fakes, and that the farmer should use the union people. "They have the same economic outlook as we have," he said.

In connection with his criticism of the press he declared only one side of the story is being told. He declared Sun Oil Company owns most of the farm papers of the country.

One of his statements was that the budget of the agricultural department this year is asked to be set at $8 billion, "which will be used to run the agricultural department for everybody but the producer."

Dickie praised Charles Brannen, one-time Secretary of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Brannen, he said, will keynote the convention at Austin on May 18, when Democrats of Texas have their statewide rally.

Dickie met with the campaigners at Lunch Box Cafe Tuesday morning when they formed their teams to go out and buttonhole farmers for memberships. "I am not in a hurry to leave," he said, indicating he had spent some time in other counties of the area where personal agitation for members was carried on.

This was Dickie's fourth visit to the county.

Mrs. Louis Lloyd, south of city, accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. Buck Sams of Lockney, left last Tuesday for Long Beach, California, where they will visit Mrs. Sams' sister, Mrs. Loran Q. Martin. Mrs. Lloyd has been suffering severely with asthma recently and the visit is to see if the climate there will improve her condition.

"Fan," meaning an enthusiast, comes from the word "fanatic."

As A Farm Woman Thinks

(By Nellie Witt Spikes)

MY HOME TOWN
I want to live in a little town. Where the trees meet across the street; Where you wave your hands and say "Hello" To everyone you meet. And stand in front of the grocery store To talk for awhile; It helps to iron your troubles out You go your way with a smile. I want to go back to the little town, And watch my friends go by, A nod, a smile will ease the frown, And dry the tear from my eye. I just love the little town. But since the days of cold stores in the winter and hot ones in the summer, folks now just stand in the summer-warm stores in the winter and winter-cool days in summer and talk and meet friends in the groceries.

I had such a lovely birthday and want to thank everyone who remembered me, whether they actually did so outright or just thought about me. I really did not want to have another birthday, oh you know, I want to live, but birthdays seem such staring land marks.

Now this is not exactly true. I am truly thankful for my birthdays. Mother and father were so proud of their little new daughter who came to help fill the heartache left by the passing of their first-born Emma Frances, who lies inside the old rock wall that held the Jarr family who helped settle Parker County before the Civil War. I lived over my life as I lay in bed last night. In spite of all the setbacks, the burdens and the heartaches, life has been very generous and precious to me. God has given me so much and I have done so little — if I had only followed His way I now realize there would not have been so much to look back on and think I could have made it better.

A happy birthday to you, our one time neighbor, Mrs. S. F. Byars. May you have many more.

When I was a child we called the pillows not for the bed but for comfort during the day, sofa pillows.

Now not many if any had a sofa at Emma but the pillows were used in chairs. Then when I was about grown I went to stay at Plainview to go to a summer Normal, I learned that pillows were now called floor pillows, and piled on the floor for relaxation and comfort. They looked especially nice in bay windows and the pillows were as fancy as one could make with embroidery, lace, velvet and silk and satin.

Through the years small pillows have been used and called various names, lounge, divan, but takes a live, I went into a store at Lubbock yesterday and saw pillows piled high in the window and they were labeled "tornado pillows, 88c." Modern advertising!

We knew many mothers who would put all the family on a feather bed when the lightning got bad.

Now the modern mother gathers up a bunch of tornado pillows and the family gets to the southwest room and use the pillows for such comfort they can get out this pretty bad situation.

Maybe tornado pillows are what they have always been at our house for the children use them to throw at each other and the house looks as if a tornado had swept through.

And From Capitol

As waters receded in most areas, people began to take a long range view. Many missed the corn planting season and will have to switch to sorghum or some other crop. Others have put cattle back on dry feed after seeing the best pasturage in years ruined by floods. "But," they say, "at least it's wet."

Water conservationists point to the flood-ridden areas as "Exhibit A" in the case for more dams and lakes. Ramping rivers could be held in check, they say, saving topsoil and water for future use.

IT'S GOVERNOR LOCK NOW -- Sen. Otis Lock of Lufkin became Governor for a day and received all the honors customarily paid on such occasions.

Ayres, attorney, Floydada, and seated, W. H. (Bill) Smith, Floydada. New member of the board, Maurice Campbell, of Dougherty, is not in this group.

He issued a proclamation designating the day as Texas Interscholastic League Day, addressed the high school journalists assembled in Austin; served coffee and cake in the reception room of the Governor's office; and attended a banquet given in his honor by his many Lufkin friends.

As president pro tem of the Senate, Lock became Governor for a day when Governor Daniel and Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey left the state on official business.

Henry Gonzalez teamed up to talk 36 hours and 2 minutes against a bill to allow school boards to assign pupils to certain schools. When they finally quit, their colleagues passed the measure and sent it back to the House for concurrence on a minor amendment.

Proponents agreed to delay for a few days taking up other segregation bills. Previous filibuster record was 31 hours and 25 minutes set in 1949 by opponents of a medical bill.

Kazen and Gonzalez were aided by prolonged questions from other anti-segregation minded senators. Those who opposed the bill included Sens. R. A. Weinert, Bruce A. Reagan, Hubert Hudson, Charles Herring, Carlos Ashley and Frank Owen III.

ICT REPORT -- Senate ICT Committee's voluminous report had no kind words for those who had been connected with the 4,000,000 failure. It said the company was founded contrary to law and operated in a negligent, haphazard and downright fraudulent manner.

Committee made 20 recommendations for tightening laws to prevent future ICTs. One would make insurance company officials criminally liable for "false statements."

NATUROPATHS SET BACK -- Naturopaths are in a worse quandary than ever now that State Supreme Court has ruled their licenses to practice are no good.

INSURANCE REORGANIZATION -- Governor Daniel is riding a crest of triumph after House passage of plan to reorganize the Insurance Commission. After weeks of wrangling and nip-and-tuck committee votes, final approval was by a lopsided 109 to 25.

House version calls for a three-man, full-time board all to be appointed by the governor. Senate already has passed a similar bill calling for a part-time board.

Both versions would remove from office John Osorio, the present commission chairman, and Member Mark Wentz. Opposition by their friends in the Legislature was one of the main obstacles to reorganization passage. Joe P. Gibbs, the third member of the commission, was appointed recently to serve temporarily.

THUMBS DOWN -- In the push to clear the Legislative calendars, a lot of bills are falling by the wayside. Measures which already have hit the dust include those to: Abolish the property tax on automobiles and substitute higher registration fees; provide for redistricting of county precincts; require county judges to be lawyers; allow cities on local option to elect officials for four years instead of two; raise the minimum age for senators from 26 to 30 and the minimum for representatives from 21 to 25; require persons over 60 years of age to obtain an annual exemption certificate to vote; prohibit cities from annexing property across county lines; and allow cities to issue bonds to build municipal parking lots.

Approved measures which apparently have made the grade: Allow use of tax money to advertise the state of Texas; levy penalties for tossing litter on public roads, parks and beaches; make it unlawful to carry a switch-blade knife; permit skipping of jury trials in lunacy cases; create a new Securities Commission to handle regulation now divided between the Insurance Commission and Secretary of State's office; create a system of full-time paid supervisors for paroled convicts; and define rights of REA co-ops to operate in areas annexed by cities.

SHORT SHORTS -- First six officials to file statements of their personal business interests under the new code of ethics bill were Reps. Joe Pool, Tom Joseph, Joe N. Chapman, Herman V. Puckett Jr.,

Water conservationists point to the flood-ridden areas as "Exhibit A" in the case for more dams and lakes. Rampaging rivers could be held in check, they say, saving topsoil and water for future use.

The 46-year-old lawyer who has served 18 years as a state official.

He issued a proclamation designating the day as Texas Interscholastic League Day; addressed the high school journalists assembled in Austin; served coffee and cake in the reception room of the Governor's office; and attended a banquet given in his honor by his many Lufkin friends.

As president pro tem of the Senate, Lock became Governor for a day when Governor Daniel and Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey left the state on official business.

LONG TALK -- Longest filibuster in Texas Senate history brought only a "moral victory" for opponents of school segregation bills.

Sens. Abraham Kazen Jr. and

Henry Gonzalez teamed up to talk 36 hours and 2 minutes against a bill to allow school boards to assign pupils to certain schools. When they finally quit, their colleagues passed the measure and sent it back to the House for concurrence on a minor amendment.

Proponents agreed to delay for a few days taking up other segregation bills.

Previous filibuster record was 21 hours and 25 minutes set in 1949 by opponents of a medical bill.

Kazen and Gonzalez were aided by prolonged questions from other anti-segregation minded senators. Those who opposed the bill included Sens. R. A. Weinert, Bruce A. Reagan, Hubert Hudson, Charles Herring, Carlos Ashley and Frank Owen III.

ICT REPORT -- Senate ICT Committee's voluminous report had no kind words for those who had been connected with the 4,000,000 failure.

It said the company was founded contrary to law and operated in a negligent, haphazard and downright fraudulent manner. It sharply criticized Ben Jack Cage, onetime ICT manager, and labor leaders who had helped Cage sell union people on investing in ICT.

Union officials, it said, had been compromised by "lavish entertainment" or payment of money. Their attitude was called "negligent or at least complacent."

Committee made 20 recommendations for tightening laws to prevent future ICTs. One would make insurance company officials criminally liable for false statements. Another would place insurance securities under supervision of a securities commission.

IEWS AND COMMENT

Haste Makes Waste. Somewhere we read that farm work will hit a new high in the high plains country the day it is dry enough for farmers to get into their fields. This is a trite saying but the afterthought pinned to it is not: Farm accidents will increase unless all due precautions are taken. This means, among other things, do not try to cut corners to save time when working with machinery, gasoline, butane and electricity. To save ten minutes or 30 seconds you could lose a whole year's work and be in debt for a hospital bill.

The Great Retreat is the name being given the Soil Bank in the areas of business and enterprise further removed from the problems of the farm. Many national organizations of big business are decrying the movement as just one more retreat from what we have been taught and what we know to be right. It may mean just that in the language of a man who does not view disaster as an imminent possibility. To some farm people, however, it has meant a chance to hold the line while consolidating and regrouping meagre financial and economic resources until such time as Nature gives a chance to level off once more in search for a livelihood. A man will go along with most anybody's theory that gives him another chance.

Oh, Mrs. Nice! You know what happens when it comes a big rain in the early spring this way! Of Course. Well, the lamb's quarter is just right right now. And you know where to find it. Out by the side of the lake, around a caliche pit or some such place. Fetch on vegetables and food are good and good for you. But the best thing there is at this time of year is a mess of lamb's quarter fresh from the fence corner, cooked with hog jowl.

Crusade For Sesame. Sesame is nearly as good a cash crop as cotton they say. And there have been developments of the plants, so that new strains lend themselves to mechanical harvesting. Shattering has been one of the bugaboos. This has been eliminated, is the claim. Quite a campaign on and it is said there is no danger of a market collapse about the time the crop is ready to go to town. Since so many interests are urging sesame and since something better is badly needed to take the place of maize as a cash crop, the pros and cons might well be checked. Most everybody has the problem of lay out land they'd rather not put into maize.

Another Canard Nailed! We just know the report is not true that northern people do not know how to cook fried chicken. Story we heard said they boil the chicken before they put it into the frying pan. We know anybody knows better than that! What will they tell on the Yankees next? We know some things that are true about what the Yankees did, but this new one couldn't be true about what they do!

We find ourselves repeating. Perhaps because the times call for repetition of things we already know. One of the things that rings a bell nearly every week day of the world is the facile way in which we are being conditioned for the changes which are to be made in business, and domestic life as well. Students of the psychology of masses have learned that if you have something new and big to offer you first "condition" the minds of the people to receive it. Clever are the ways of the man who wants to make you begin to think about what he wants you to think about the way he wants you to think.

A quicker break-down of the resistance factor may now be expected than was possible one generation ago. The speed has been accelerated by at least half, in some ways by more. Changing models of automobiles has had much to do with the break-down of resistance. People once bought an automobile that was black. Then a red one was introduced, then blue. Now an about face in two or three-tone color for cars is accepted as normal in one season. Color in homes, once difficult to accomplish is now eagerly studied by the consumer. The acceleration in sales has been quite profitable. Other examples of what has been done in less than a generation is in power for railways, shaving sets for men, bookkeeping equipment for offices. Stationers were 20 years getting over the idea that it was safe to use loose leaves for records. Many an office manager passed from the scene of worldly activity viewing with alarm the gadgets now accepted as necessities for the display of merchandise. Clothing people short years ago refused to accept zippers for clothing. They dreaded the lawsuits.

White River Authority, due to make it possible for Ralls, Crosbyton, Spur and Post to have a water supply from Blanco has passed the Senate and House and is due to be signed by the governor soon. If the plan works these communities will be free for the nonce of depending on underground water supplies as soon as they can carry through with their dam and their pipe lines. Only serious threat to their plan, as we see it, is the outrageous cost. If they could only build and wait for steel and concrete to get back to a fair price at one and the same time!

New angle on Morals. The general manager of the Texas Safety Association puts a new angle on churchanity, when he declares that a man who professes his religion in church but doesn't practice it in traffic is a hypocrite. Religion and morality are not one and the same but there is a relation between them, which, we assume, a theologian could easily describe, so there is a point to the Safety man's statement which relates a man's church life to his highway morals.

Opportunity may knock only once, but temptation keeps banging for years.

MR. COTTON PRODUCER STOP & READ

All of us are concerned about our cotton markets and acreage prospects in Floyd County for the next year or two. We have recently learned that if some trends in our domestic markets are not stopped or detrimental factors are allowed to recur, U. S. cotton markets could drop to 8 million bales in the next few years and this would mean a 40% acreage reduction on your farm.

We also know however, that if we can improve cotton's competitiveness, we could have an increase to a 20 million bale market in the next period of time and this would mean a substantial increase in allotment on your farm. We are sure you are aware of what such a loss or gain in allotment, means to Floyd County cotton people in dollar income.

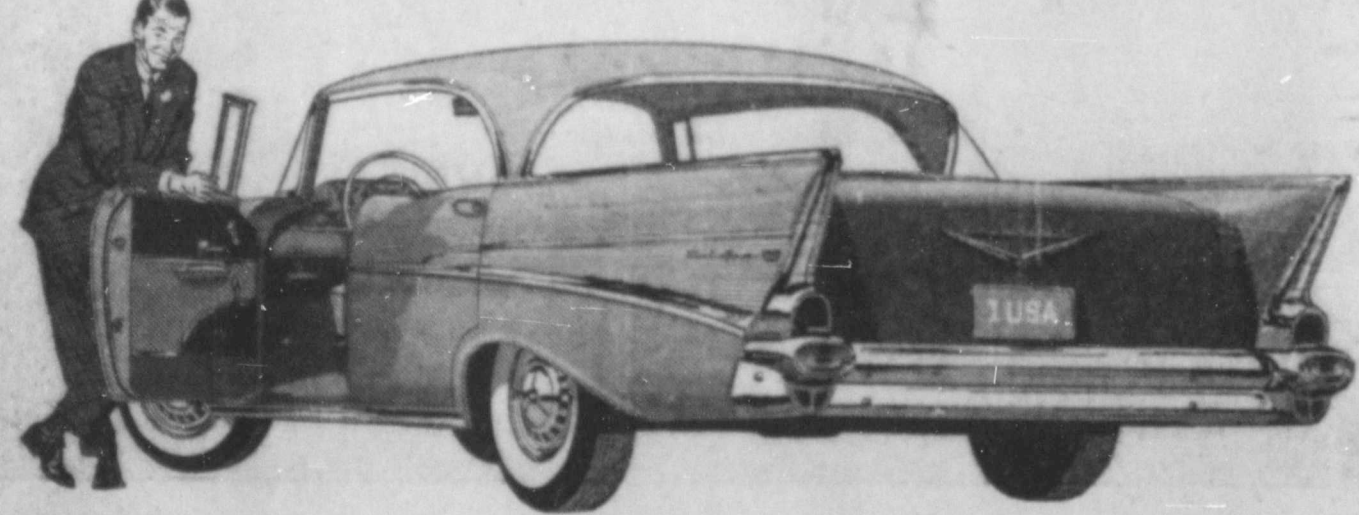

We think the matter so important and vital that we are asking you to meet with us on THURSDAY, MAY 9TH, AT 8:00 P. M. IN FLOYDADA SCHOOL AUDITORIUM at Floydada, Texas, for an important meeting concerning cotton's competitive situation. Three staff members of the Cotton Council have been asked to meet with us and bring the facts and figures concerning this matter.

The program will begin promptly at 8:00 P.M. Since this is a meeting concerning possible acreage reductions for your county, we are counting on you to attend.

The Duvall Story

Note—After Fredrick Hodgson finished his series of 11 stories on Duvall County, he returned to South for a last look before going to New York. What additional information he got and what conditions he last look is recounted in the article below.)

Someone To Make a Move: Lawmakers Act, Asks Writer

FREDRICK HODGSON

With Texas' 100th anniversary in Duvall County, I'm not sure it is in Duvall County that I get the feeling it's time to give the county a new look.

I returned to Duvall County several months ago and spent some time in the hills and valleys of the county. I met with some of the old-timers and with some of the new ones. I found that the county is in a state of transition. The old is being replaced by the new. The hills are being leveled, the valleys are being filled in. The county is being built up. It is a time of change and of progress.

I have always been a fan of the county. I have always been a fan of the hills and valleys. I have always been a fan of the people. I have always been a fan of the progress. I have always been a fan of the change. I have always been a fan of the new. I have always been a fan of the old. I have always been a fan of the county.

I have always been a fan of the county. I have always been a fan of the hills and valleys. I have always been a fan of the people. I have always been a fan of the progress. I have always been a fan of the change. I have always been a fan of the new. I have always been a fan of the old. I have always been a fan of the county.

I have always been a fan of the county. I have always been a fan of the hills and valleys. I have always been a fan of the people. I have always been a fan of the progress. I have always been a fan of the change. I have always been a fan of the new. I have always been a fan of the old. I have always been a fan of the county.

I have always been a fan of the county. I have always been a fan of the hills and valleys. I have always been a fan of the people. I have always been a fan of the progress. I have always been a fan of the change. I have always been a fan of the new. I have always been a fan of the old. I have always been a fan of the county.

drawn on the Duvall County general fund, all made out in Parr's own handwriting, and all made out either to Thomas Y. Pickett and Co. or to Thomas Y. Pickett personally.

Most of the checks are in the amount of $1,000 and the endorsements on these are correct, each check stamped on the back Thomas Y. Pickett and Co. and each deposited in the company's account.

Two of the checks, however, stand real sore. They're not piddling little $1,000 items. They are for big money. And they don't bear the Pickett company rubber stamp, indicating that they didn't go through the company account.

One of these checks, dated simply June, 1951, and not signed by the County Judge as required by Texas law, is for $5,500. This check is number 544.

The other check, number 17, is dated July, 1952. It is for a whopping $5,500. And this one wasn't signed by the County Judge as required by law.

The harder up the county gets financially, the more they dig around in the old records. And the more they dig around in the old records, the more odd-looking checks they turn up with funny endorsements.

As I said, Dan Tobin and Thomas Y. Pickett have been running around the state trying to tap the oil companies for a little financial assistance to the county. Tobin split with the Duke some time back, and Pickett says he hardly knows the man. Maybe they're both smart. A lot of the Duke's old friends have found themselves in trouble.

The Cause of Corruption in Texas Which brings me to the third thing I've been wondering about. What is the Texas Legislature doing to do about plugging the gaps in the law which John Ben Shepperd said make situations like Duvall County possible?

I've read several articles in national magazines about the corruption in Texas on the state level. I've been in and out of Texas, studying Texas laws and lawbreakers and writing a book and a movie script, for about 10 months now. In my humble opinion the corruption in Texas starts right down at the grass roots, in the counties and the little towns. And it starts with the out-moded Texas Constitution and the lack of adequate statutes to enable people at the county level to keep things clean. Your primary trouble, Texan, is not in Austin.

Twice in as many legislative sessions the Texas Press Association has laid a stack of proposed bills in the hands of the lawmakers, incorporating a number inspired by Shepperd's findings in Duvall County along with others that Shepperd and the TPA have urged for good government in Texas. The others deal mostly with keeping government meetings open to the public eye, keeping public records public, and requiring the publication of information the people have a right to know.

As John Ben Shepperd put it, "Take any four or five of these proposed new laws and enforce them, and you just can't have a Duvall County." There are 15 of them altogether.

I came back to Texas to do some final checking on a few things, including these bills. I have to admit that even with my natural newsman's cynicism, I was a little staggered to find that the Texas Legislature had been in session three months in 1957 and was active six months in 1958—and in all that time only a couple of the bills have struggled through to the Governor's desk for signing into law.

Some of the most important of them are staggering through the legislative halls, not expected to live. Others have had their death blow unless interested citizens raise a protest.

Among the staggering is SB 223, which would make it possible for men who steal public funds to be indicted and prosecuted outside the county of the offense. Such a law would prevent embezzlers from getting off scot-free by controlling judges, prosecuting attorneys, or grand juries. Shepperd says this is the most important bill, from the standpoint of criminal law, and he ought to know. To get the Duvall County indictments he had to wait for a district judge, a district attorney and a grand jury to be thrown out. SB 223 is in a Senate subcommittee, and its survival looks doubtful.

Another bill buried in a Senate subcommittee where the death rate is high is SB 88. It would forbid holding government meetings in secret, except as provided by law.

News of Harmony

By Mrs. Mather Carr
HARMONY, May 6—Edward Baird called us and told of the passing of Mrs. John McCarty (nee Susi Baird) who was once a resident of this community for several years. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Baird were long-time settlers of Floyd County.

Mrs. McCarty and her family were residents of Amarillo at the time of her death. Edward Baird and others attended the funeral of Mrs. McCarty.

Mrs. Marvin Smith, Mrs. Sherwood Ramsey and Mrs. R. P. Morris attended the district woman's society of Christian Service in Floydada Tuesday.

A painting class was held at the Community Center, Wednesday, with Mrs. Chelma Williams as hostess. Those attending were Mrs. Clyde Gartin, Mrs. Chas. Featherston, Mrs. Snooks Gregory and Mrs. King and son of Petersburg, Mrs. Glenn Pool, Mrs. Bob Hopper, Mrs. Marion Tucker, Mrs. Elmer Williams, Mrs. R. B. Gary, Mrs. Don Pinkner, Mrs. Mather Carr, and the hostess, Mrs. Chelma Williams. Mrs. Jurehek of Plainview was the instructor. The art is fascinating and is not hard to do, and beautiful gifts can be made. There will be another class in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Trowbridge, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Pool, Mr. and Mrs. Chelma Williams and Mrs. Wesley Carr were in Lubbock during the week to visit Mrs. G. L. Snodgrass, who is in Methodist Hospital. The last report (Saturday) was had from Mrs. Snodgrass was that she was slowly improving.

The sun has been shining Sunday and the farmers are happy to see it after the good rains, so they can get into the fields and do some planting. We could have used some more good, slow rain as it has been dry so long and this old earth is not wet too deep. Maybe we will have some more when we need it.

Brother Phil H. Gates and wife came out Sunday morning and he preached Sunday morning as he had missed some Sundays. The Gates' had dinner in the M. D. Ramsey home, and left Sunday evening for a visit with their son and a birthday dinner for their daughter.
