Dallas Arrest Solves Local Burglary, Forgeries

The "July" grand jury for 110th District Court for Floyd County, empaneled Monday morning by Judge L. D. Ratliff, did their first day's work on that date, returning four felony indictments, one of them in the usual tenor, that of burglary, but the other three more or less unusual in this county.

The burglary indictment was entered against James Ray Turner, an old offender here and elsewhere in the southwest. The charge alleges that he entered King Tractor and Motor office on North Second Street July 17 of this year, taking business checks, check protector and other loot.

He has been apprehended and is being held in Dallas for Floydada and Odessa.

Of the other three indictments one is for keeping a gambling house, one for possession of narcotics and one for perjury.

Turner, local officers say, is the same James Ray Turner who escaped from Floyd County officers on Nov. 19, 1952, when he was being brought to Floydada from Balinger to be tried in District Court.

At the time Sheriff Leland Hart and Deputy Alton May made a stop at Odessa with the prisoner. When he was permitted to go to the rest room unaccompanied the prisoner kept going. Since that time he has served a term in federal pen and is due to be returned to Balinger, where he is under 15 year sentence for theft and car theft.

In the latest episode in his life of crime on the night of July 17, 1957, Turner is known to have had an accomplice.

Connection of a woman with the theft of the King Tractor & Motor checks and protector is pointed to in a complaint filed in Lubbock Sunday. Four of the King Tractor & Motor checks were passed for a sum totalling $747.06 to four Lubbock food stores. The checks were cashed about July 22.

Marjorie DeLeon Gardner is charged with passing the checks, which had been forged. She was arraigned before a justice at Lubbock who set bond at $5,000.

Three other of the King checks taken in the burglary were cashed in Odessa for a total of $896.13. No charges have been filed on these as yet.

Other business that will have attention Monday includes the purchase of a big road maintainer, a matter deferred from Monday of this week.

Also the court has given notice that the budget hearing will be held Monday at 10 a. m., and the budget for the coming year will be adopted on that date.

Decision to adopt the provisions of the Weed Control Law was made by the voters of the county in an election held in July 1956. Commissioners have been studying the appointments to be made. Judge J. D. McBrien said the court had indicated they would name five men to make up the board at their Monday parley.

The Weed Control District will be an independent agency of the county. Its five members will not be accountable to the commissioners, Court or other local agency. A tax of three cents per acre is required by the new statute to provide for its administrative costs. The board will administer the levying and collection of the tax.

Noxious weed control is the objective, and in some areas of the county the problem has become an acute one. In the April hearing on calling the election nearly 100 were present and all but four favored its adoption. In the election, however, the vote was close in a quite light vote.

Primary purpose for which the Monday special session of the Commissioners will be held, is the required public hearing on the budget proposed by the court. This, however, is usually a listless event with few or none attending the hearing.

The proposals set up in the budget prepared by County Judge McBrien and County Auditor Fred Conner makes little change from last year, with the same tax levies and the same allocation of funds. With no change in tax rate and practical unchanged valuations, the proposed budget for 1958 is almost identical with that of 1957.

Another new angle in local law enforcement affairs is being called for by the new statute effective August 23 governing probation for adult felony offenders. Meeting this situation the commissioners Monday voted to employ R. A. Conner, a Spur attorney, as probation officer at a cost to this county of $84 per month. Conner was proposed by District Judge L. D. Ratliff, who said Conner would serve as part-time probation officer for the four counties of the 110th District at $200 per month.

The action taken by the Floyd County court was taken on the assumption that the other three counties - Briscoe, Dickens and Motley - would take similar action. Allocation of the cost of the probation officer to the counties is based on population.

The court opened bids on a big road maintainer Monday but deferred making a purchase contract until Monday next. Low bid was $13,300 and high $15,997 with two others in between. The bids were based on taking in a used road machine. The remainder the county will pay in cash.

Completion of the final gap in the Farm to Market road connecting the Flomot road with the Quitaque road, giving a paved highway from the high plains to the area below the caprock awaits clearing of right-of-way. The highway department gave the nod on this FM project several months ago. Impression that the state would pay half of the right-of-way cost has complicated matters, Commissioner Plumlee said. So far as he is informed the state does not participate in right-of-way costs on FM roads.

In other actions taken Monday the commissioners:

Re-invested a $40,000 sinking fund pot in 90-day government bonds;

Considered and acted favorably on a petition for a half mile of new public road in an area immediately west of Lockney that would take cotton trailers and grain trucks out of traffic congestion;

And heard a delegation from Providence which is anxious for a new FM road north from that area into Swisher County. The highway department, they said, looks in favor on a project that would involve a few miles of construction in Floyd, Swisher, and Hale Counties.

The petition for the public road in the west Lockney area was signed by Ben McOhee and nine others. Jury of view to view out the road and assess damages was named by the court as Charles Baxter, Henry Schacht, W. Thomas, Walker Reeves and Dwight Jackson.

WITHERS IS HOSPITALIZED

L. G. Withers of Withers Cafe, was stricken Monday with a serious heart attack.

Mr. Withers was at his place of business when he became ill and was taken to Peoples hospital where his condition was reported Wednesday as satisfactory.

A daughter, Mrs. Eugene Boren of Garland, is here visiting in the home during her fathers illness.

Commissioners Also Announce Budget Hearing

Floyd County Commissioners Court is expected to name the five man board of directors for the Floyd County Weed Control District in a called meeting Monday of next week.

Other business that will have attention Monday includes the purchase of a big road maintainer, a matter deferred from Monday of this week.

Also the court has given notice that the budget hearing will be held Monday at 10 a. m., and the budget for the coming year will be adopted on that date.

Jay Johnson spent on Sunday until Wednesday in Peoples hospital here recuperating from a gunshot wound.

Jay, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. (Jack) Johnson, was preparing to leave the family home Sunday night and return to his Navy base at Norman, Oklahoma. Spotting an owl on a tree limb in the yard, he returned to the house for a gun.

As he came through the door carrying the double barrel shotgun, he stumbled, pulling both triggers. His hand was near the end of the barrel and he lost his middle finger on the left hand and his ring finger was badly bruised and powder burned from the explosion.

However barring complications, doctors feel sure the ring finger can be saved. Jay said he failed to put the gun on safety.

At the time of the accident his parents and family and Mr. and Mrs. Gerrel Martin and children of Turkey, were on a camping trip in Tres Ritos, New Mexico, and could not be located. The Johnsons did not know of their son's accident until they arrived home Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and Jay wish to sound a note of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Carlisle and others who have been so kind and thoughtful. Jay was taken to the Norman, Oklahoma, Navy base hospital yesterday by his parents and will remain in the base hospital there until his hand is clear of infection.

A NOTE OF THANKS FROM MRS. GILLEY AT WHITEHOUSE

To my many friends and neighbors of Floydada who so graciously remembered me with cards, letters and gifts during my most recent illness, let me say thanks a million times. They seemed to have made the pains a little easier and the days pass faster when the nurses brought them in each day.

So to each and every individual, to the Sunday School classes and to the Order of Eastern Star, again I say Thanks.

We enjoy the Hesperian so much and it keeps us informed of so many happenings there that we enjoy knowing about. The ten years we lived in your fair city shall always be years of cherished memories. May God bless you in our prayer.

Mrs. T. L. Gilley.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank the doctors and nurses at the Methodist hospital at Lubbock for their care of me during my second operation and the severe heart and nerve condition that followed.

Also for my wife, children and in-laws for their constant care of me. For the five blood transfusions donated by the Baptist brothers, for the visit of my sisters and other relatives and friends. For cards and letters for the prayers of God's people far and near and for God's answer to their prayers.

To all those who have visited me since I am home and for all else that has been done for me I am grateful.

I hope that with God's constant help I may soon be up and around. Thanks to all.

Gardner-Lemons Ceremony Held At Tulia August 1

Nuptial vows were solemnized Thursday evening at First Methodist Church in Tulia for Phyllis Marie Gardner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Gardner, Vigo Park, and Ralph Duane Lemons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lemons of Floydada.

The Rev. Joe Letherwood, pastor of the Vigo Park Methodist Church, read the double ring ceremony beneath an arch of gladioli and greenery and orchid mums.

Miss Juaneva Rose, organist played traditional wedding music and accompanied Roy McCasland who sang "I Love Thee" and Entreat Me Not To Leave Thee".

The candles were lighted by cousins of the bride, Miss Gwendolyn Kelso of Canyon and Ethel Marie Fowler of Charleston, Ill. They wore white ballerina length dresses, orchid tulle headresses and their wristlets were orchid agapanthus.

Attending the bride were her cousins Alice and Mary Lynch of Corpus Christi. They wore identical dresses of white embroidered organza over white satin. Their head-dresses were white and they carried orchid agapanthus on white lace fans.

Diane Sanders, flower girl and cousin of the groom, wore a white organza frock with orchid and white accessories. Her head dress was of orchid agapanthus and she carried a basket of red rose petals.

Earl Gardner, ring-bearer, and cousin of the bride carried the rings on a white satin and lace pillow.

Richard Turner of Midland was his cousin's best man. Serving as ushers were the bride's brother, Robert Gardner, and her cousins, Tom Fowler, of Charleston, Ill. and Van Orrick of Shamrock.

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a gown of white satin fashioned with a yoke of sheer illusion and a wide sweetheart neckline trimmed with Irish lace. The long fitted sleeves were trimmed in the same lace and the fitted bodice was accented in the back with self covered buttons. The skirt was designed with a gradual flare and extended into a formal train. Her fingertip veil of French illusion fell from a cap of pleated illusion. And wore a double strand of pearls, a gift from her paternal Grandmother. She carried a cascade of white stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Gardner, mother of the bride, wore a mauve dress with pink accessories, the mother of the groom, Mrs. Lemons wore a blue dress with white accessories. Both had corsages of pink roses.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at Fellowship Hall. The serving table was laid with a floor length organza cloth. The tiered wedding cake was served by Miss Kay Harris of Lubbock.

MRS. RALPH DUANE LEMMONS

Mrs. Eddie Bowman of Lubbock presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Lynda Miller registered the guests. Miss Shirley Elms, Mrs. John Culwell and Mrs. Curtis Latham assisted in the house party.

For the wedding trip, the bride traveled in a powder blue suit with black and white accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid and she wore a diamond watch, gift from the groom.

Mrs. Lemons is a graduate of Tulia High School and is a senior at Texas Technological College at Lubbock. Mr. Lemons is a Graduate of Floydada High School and a graduate of Texas Technological College. He served two years in the army and is now employed by the Army Audit Agency, Dallas.

Mrs. Margaret McCampbell, Long Beach, Calif.; Mrs. R. F. Sanders and Richard Lewis of McLean, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Henry, Perryton, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Youngblood and children, Sunnet; Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Orrick and Van Orrick, Shamrock; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bruce, Shamrock; Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Good or bad luck? Some folks say there's no such thing. It's all management, clear thinking.

Take the pilot of that C-67 with two engines out the other day. He landed it safely in Hawaii after a grueling six hours over the ocean. Was it good luck? No, he says. He just did everything he knew to do, and from there on he prayed. Many years of skill and cool-headed faith were his to call on when the show-down came.

But the 66 others aboard — with a less able pilot, theirs would have been bad luck in a big way. Or on another plane, they wouldn't have been scared half to death — good luck indeed.

Two teen-aged drivers have had accidents in the same town recently. One borrowed the family car and sideswiped first a truck, then a passenger automobile. No one was hurt and no great damage done, even though she had no license, failed to stop and render aid and ran a couple of red lights. But all in all, her luck was good.

Three weeks later, another 15-year-old made a corner too fast in her boy friend's car, swerved to avoid a collision, did miss it. But she looked back to see what happened, lost control and ran through the corner of a home, injuring a woman who was standing at her kitchen sink. That was darned bad luck — for her and the boy friend.

And for the homeowner, too. Five or six thousand houses in the town, and this dizzy blonde picked hers to bash in. But because her little girl was playing in the living room instead of the kitchen, she called her luck good!

Good or bad luck? Maybe it's a way of looking at things.

Turkey Still Tops Plentiful Foods List

COLLEGE STATION—Turkey for the second straight month, is the featured food on the U. S. Department of Agriculture's August plentiful foods list.

Supplies of turkeys are abundant, reports the Agricultural Marketing Service, and consumers may look for excellent buys on these birds.

Fresh fish is another protein food chosen for the plentiful group, as August is in the height of the fishing season, both in Gulf waters and in inland streams. Supplies probably will vary with the region.

August plentiful foods also will include numerous summer vegetables, although some will be found more abundant in one region than in another. Fresh peaches and pears will be in excellent supply. Lemons and limes will continue on the USDA list.

Vegetables fats and oils and peanut butter are shelf items which will remain on the plentiful list through August.

Miss Judy Williams of Anton was guest of Miss Carolyn Downing last week-end. Miss Williams and Miss Downing are school chums at Abilene Christian college.

Long Heralded 'Giant' Is Due Here August 21

More than three years in production, the George Stevens filmization of "Giant" will make its long awaited premier in Floydada at the Palace Theatre. Elizabeth Taylor, Rock Hudson and James Dean star. It will be shown here Wednesday, August 21, thru August 24.

Filmed on an epic scale commensurate with the novel's locale, the vast empire of Texas, "Giant" is more than a regional story of Texas and its people... it is reported to be essentially a stirring chronicle of three decades of American family life and the profound human emotions generated out of the problems of our changing times.

"Giant" has become one of the most eagerly awaited motion pictures ever to be produced. The excitement that began with Warner Bros. announcement that George Stevens was to film the Edna Ferber best-selling novel gained in ever increasing momentum as the months of production slowly became years.

Some of the screen's most exciting stars will be seen in "Giant." Elizabeth Taylor, the most beautiful woman in the world plays the lead role of Leslie Benedict. Rock Hudson, the popular actor who won acclaim in "The Magnificent Obsession" portrays Miss Taylor's husband, Bick. He is the ruler of a vast empire of land and cattle.

As A Farm Woman Thinks

(Nellie Witt Spikes)
Here Usually Comes The Bride (Ogden Nash in Cosmopolitan)

June means weddings in everyone's lexicon. Weddings in Swedish, weddings in Mexican. Breeces play Mendelssohn, treases play Youmans. Birds wed birds and humans wed humans. All year long the gentlemen woo. But the ladies dream of a June "I do."

Ladies grow loony and gentlemen loonier; This year's June is next year's June. Mr. Spikes is up and around some but he says it is still niser to lay in bed. The house smells like pickles, spey and sweet, dill and sour, good smells to put away for the winter. The cucumbers have taken a notion to make plenty of cukes so I am really enjoying putting them up.

Here is a good pickle recipe. I think I gave it last summer but maybe you have lost it or something. Wilma found it in the Better Homes and Gardens and we are really pleased with it.
Company Pickle Chunks
Ten medium cucumbers -- eight cups sugar -- two tablespoons mixed pickling spices -- five teaspoons coarse medium salt -- four cups cider vinegar.

Cover cucumbers with boiling water -- let stand till next morning -- drain repeat this procedure the next three mornings.
On the fifth day drain and slice in 1/2 inch pieces -- combine remaining ingredients: bring to boiling and pour over cucumbers. Let stand two days -- on third day bring to boil and seal in sterilized jars, makes seven pints.

Pickle making is one of the most fascinating rewarding things one can do. It is also the most disheartening work one can do when jars are opened and the pickles are not crisp but have gone soft. I find that the best vinegar is one of the secrets of good pickles. Cider vinegar is the kind I like.
My aim and ambition in days on the farm was to raise one hundred turkeys a year. Some years I did this but not too many, but some thousands of turkeys all in one year as Mrs. Cox has done so far was not in my wildest dreams.

Mrs. Cox, I hope every turkey finds its place on some table this winter. My turkey money was for luxuries, or some things we could do without. One year I bought a sewing machine which still runs a pretty fair seam. The silver I have used some forty years was brought with turkey money.

We want to thank every one of you that helped us so much while Mr. Spikes was sick. Now looking back we find that your prayers, telephone calls, beautiful cards and letters, nice visits, and newspaper writeups, made us happy and helped over a hard place in the road very much. May God bless and keep each of you.

I haven't been around Rails very much this summer. Yesterday evening just before sundown Mr. Spikes felt like going with us. The vitex with its lovely blossoms of bluish purple looked very handsome in Judge and Mrs. Wick's yard. We liked the red geraniums and red petunias by the side of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson's brick home.

Russell Noble has brightened up the business part of Rails again this summer. The green lawn and hedge of nandinas at the Spencer home -- the sweet smelling petunias and stately cypress trees at Marjorie and Wilson's -- the lacy mesquite in the Watkins lawn -- the borders of gay Moss roses at the Southwards the new room at Maude and Walter Powells -- C. O. Edwards swinging in his lounge on the front porch, we have always liked to see folks use their front porches.

Most everywhere we saw trim lawns and well kept places. Rails is beginning to grow up and all of us need to help in making it a more desirable place to live. Next week I want to make a better survey of the town and tell of the pretty sights I have seen.
Have just been plain homesick to see Floydada again. It has been a long time since the 23th of May. Hope to go up there in the near future. It is our home, too, and the home of many, many friends.

IEWS AND COMMENT

Bascom Timmons reports from Washington that those who are unimpressed with the debates in the United States Senate would revise their beliefs, if they would take the trouble to read the congressional record on the running debate of the civil rights bill, which passed the senate last week. This bill, when it got to the senate from the House, would have permitted a commission to hold secret hearings on civil rights charges, in which testimony could only be made public with the commission's permission, and "leaks" punishable by a $1,000 fine. The "North" and the "South" were at each other's throats when the discussions began. Their final vote, after minds became clearer, resulted in the first civil rights bill to be passed in 80 years. Extremists on both sides were displeased, but for the big majority the bill seemed to be one that "could be lived with." It was debate which changed minds and headed off the head-on clash between the di-

West Texas Newspapersmen are on the right track when they vote in convention assembled their belief in the right of the people to know, that is for open sessions of governmental agencies—on every level from city council and school board upward. Their reasoning is logical that no board or commission is entitled to make decisions for the people without the people knowing about the decisions at the time. However, boards and commissions are entitled to have their conversations, their arguments about what is best to do without the "benefit of press or public." In practice the thing works out in a different manner to that which the newsman's editorial point.

The councilman and the school board member are entitled to "think out loud", to sound out their own thinking against that of fellow members. If it is necessary to close the door against the newsman and other citizens in order to arrive at a decision, which is to be made public (and the reasons therefor)—if it is necessary to operate in this manner to keep the mischief maker from spoiling the broth while it is brewing then we are for "secret" meetings. But school boards and commissions, city councils and the like, have a tendency to be suspicious of their very constituents and fear what "they" may say or do to block what the council or board is sure is a "good thing". Fair and fearless publicity tends to allay this fear. People are smarter than you think. They are entitled to know about public affairs.

Whether the governor should call or not call a special session of the legislature for this fall for the particular reasons that we contemplate, might be debatable but we are in disagreement with House Speaker Waggoner Carr and his colleagues who believe 79 to 17 that a special session is not necessary. The speaker's objection is based solely on the fact that the session would cost the taxpayers money which is not available in the public till, and his belief that members of the legislature should not be asked to serve for no pay. We agree that the legislators should be paid. But a sensible water bill needs to be worked out quickly, a workable and fair bill to control lobbying, and a crime study should be instituted. We even think the governor should go farther and include the matter of the loan sharks and judicial redistricting and let the session be 30 days long and follow the first called session with another if the legislature can't work out acceptable legislation in their first session.

Power Meeting Held On Friday

Municipal electric system operations from a wide West Texas area attended the quarterly meeting here Friday of the Association of Municipal Electric Systems. Cities from Odessa on the southwest to Vernon on the east were represented at the meeting which was held beginning at 3 o'clock at the American Legion annex.

At Friday's sessions the group was welcomed to Floydada by Mayor J. M. Wilson Jr.

Technical subjects generally made up the program for the meetings and Friday's meeting was no exception. Frank Kilcrease, engineer with the Lubbock municipal plant, spoke on varying voltages and customer acceptance under the subject of excitation and regulators, and changing needs with the introduction of new style appliances.

Also a Lubbock man, C. C. Shipman, joined with a Tulsa power plant superintendent, Amos Nesby, in the discussion of operating principles of power plants.

Farm Work Social Security Workers Forms Changing

Farmers and ranchers and other employers of agricultural workers such as cotton gin operators, are reminded by John O. Hutton, manager of the Lubbock office of the Social Security Administration, of some changes in the method of reporting the wages of their employees.

In 1937, agricultural work is covered by social security if either: (1) cash wages of $150 or more are paid to a worker by his employer during the year; or (2) regardless of the amount of wages if an employee works on 30 or more days during the year where the wages are figured on a time basis.

Statements of Mrs. W. B. Wilson for several weeks, returned to their home Wednesday.

Visiting with Mrs. Wilson on Wednesday were Mrs. Ada Ford and Mrs. Vance Gilbreath of Malador.

The total covered wages of farm workers are reported only once a year, in January for the preceding year to the director of Internal Revenue. Mr. Hutton added that if employers keep an accurate record of the name, the social security number, and the wages paid to each worker, the information will be complete this summer report.

Fourth Well Is Good Producer In Motley Field

Another producer has been added to the Roaring Springs area oil expansion, making a total of four wells now on pump in the county. The Brandon discovery well started producing about four months ago, making an average of one new well per month. The new producer is listed as Pan American Pet. Corp., No. 1 C. R. Brandon.

Reporting on activities in the new field The Matador Tribune says the new well is producing from 20 casing perforations between 4131-11 feet depth.

The flow was 105 barrels of oil and no water through 12/64-inch choke in 24 hours. Tubing pressure registered 120 pounds and gas-oil ratio figured 101-1. Total depth was reached at 4,203 feet, with hole plugged back to 4,181 feet and cased with five and one-half inch.

SUMMER PICNIC IDEAS:

There's a trick in avoiding the usual muss and fuss of last-minute shopping, cooking, sandwich making, and preparing for the summer-time picnics everyone enjoys so much. Freeze foods for a picnic ahead of time so that you can be ready to pick up and go on a moment's notice.

When you have some time during the week, prepare the fried chicken according to your favorite recipe. When cooked, cool the chicken quickly and thoroughly by spreading out the pieces on a pan floating in water. When cool arrange in serving dish or wrap in a foil package. Force as much air as possible out of the packages by pressing paper tightly against chicken. Seal and freeze at once.

There are many sandwich fillings that freeze well - these include, sliced cooked meat or poultry, meat spreads, canned fish, peanut butter, loaf, cheese and cheese spreads, chopped or ground meats, meat jams, jellies, marmalades and many others.

These are various kinds of bread that may be used for making sandwiches - oat bread, spicy apple bread, rye, whole wheat or the always delicious old-fashioned home east quarter of section 7, Block 0-4, WTRR survey.

Wildcat Failure Plugged
The E. E. Moss & Sons, operating from Lubbock, have plugged their No. 1 Ollie Scot as a failure, one-half mile southeast of Roaring Springs townsite.

made bread. When making the sandwiches to freeze spread both sides of the bread with butter to prevent the fillings from soaking into the bread - cream the butter and it will spread evenly and without tearing up the slice of bread. It is good to wrap sandwiches individually; or they may be placed in plastic boxes made especially for storing or carrying pies, sandwiches, salads or cookies.

Favorite cookies, cup cakes and layer or loaf cakes, may be baked well ahead of time they are used. They all store well in the food freezer.

Another popular picnic dish is frozen fruit or frozen desserts frozen in small containers such as quart cups or small plastic or card board containers.

Your outdoor cooking needn't be confined to broiling steaks, chickens and hamburgers - the wonderful vegetables so abundant in the gardens right now are delicious cooked over the coals.

The linemen at the Lighthouse Electric have finished an Oil Circuit Recloser Course and a Sectionalizing Course, Monday morning when Troy Watson, of Lubbock, Job Training and Safety Instructor with A. & M. College Extension Service, came for his regular safety meeting. Certificates were given to those completing these two courses.

Receiving certificates were Wiley Rogers, O. A. Neff, Edwin Pollan, Johnnie Stutta, Nolan Arney, Jackie Duke, K. L. Gregory, W. H. Hulsey, Carl B. Lewis, James A. Marziale, Robert Norrell, and Jim Mosler.

In the safety meeting on Monday morning details of a fatal accident July 28th at the Van Horn Co-op were discussed. A lineman was killed opening a neutral wire. Another "could-have-been-accident" was also discussed - a lineman at Stanton Co-op didn't know the wire was "hot", but he had on his rubber gloves. These rubber gloves are for accidental contact only - but in this case it saved his life. So again, as always, it pays to be careful and take the necessary precautions.

Jets, Rockets Call For More Castor Beans

HALFWAY.—The castor bean appears to have a place as a cash crop on the irrigation soil of the High Plains. In an attempt to determine the best adapted variety and find the cash per acre value, twelve varieties of castor beans have been included in the research program of the High Plains Station at Halfway.

The Station scientists, in cooperation with representatives of the Baker Castor Bean Corporation, are searching for not only the most productive but also the varieties that can be harvested with minimum difficulty. They want a variety of combine height that can be harvested cleanly so as to leave few or no seed to volunteer.

Recent predictions indicate a future increase in the Castor bean market due to the need for castor oil in the operation of jets and rockets. There is also a potential tremendous market for use in the production of synthetic fibers.

Nitrogen fertilizer tests on castor beans are under way at the High Plains Station to determine the most economical rate and the time of fertilization. Two varieties are being used in four row plots one hundred feet long. Each plot is being replicated four times.

Each variety received four different fertilizer treatments. These included no fertilizer, 30 and 100 pounds of nitrogen per acre at planting time and 90 pounds of nitrogen at planting time with an additional 30 pounds addressed when the castor beans were 6 inches high.

(1) Newly aged persons who are actual bona fide citizens of Texas and who are over the age of sixty-five (65) years, provided that no such assistance shall be paid to any inmate of any state-supported institution, while such inmate or to any person who shall not have actually resided in Texas for at least five (5) years during the nine (9) years immediately preceding the application for such assistance and continuously for one (1) year immediately preceding such application, provided that the maximum payment per month from state funds shall not be more than Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) per month and provided further that no payment in excess of Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) shall be paid out of state funds to an individual until and unless such additional amounts are matched by the Federal Government.

Status Of Vet Land Bond Sale

A statement issued out of Austin this week by Earl Rudder, State Land Commissioner, points up the tight money situation and how it is affecting the Veterans' Land Bond Sale, authorized by a constitutional amendment effective January 1.

The land commissioners' statement is as follows: You may be interested in the current status of the sale of $100,000,000 Veterans' Land Bonds, which were authorized by Constitutional Amendment effective January 1, 1957. Since that date, we have offered $12,500,000 of such bonds for sale; however, due to the condition of the money market at that date, no bids were received thereon since the Veterans' Land Board is prohibited by the Constitution from paying interest on such bonds in excess of 3%.

Since that date market conditions have grown steadily worse inssofar as the sale of Veterans' Land Bonds is concerned. For the week ending August 3, 1957, the average interest rates paid on bonds sold was 3.48%. We have been informed that our bonds cannot be sold until this average has dropped to approximately 3.15%.

Until these new bonds are sold, the limited funds which will be available for the purchase of land will enable us to purchase only approximately 200 tracts per year. All funds now on hand, plus anticipated receipts to November 1, 1957, have been committed.

MRS. SWITZER CONVALESCING FOLLOWING FALL IN JULY

Mrs. L. L. Switzer, who a month ago fell and broke her knee while buying groceries at a local grocery, is convalescing satisfactorily, it is thought. A knee cap was broken in the fall.

Two of her daughters, Mrs. A. L. Chambles, of Iowa Park, and Mrs. Vernon Blackwell, of Amarillo, spent the week-end and Monday with their mother.

Mrs. Switzer accompanied the Iowa Park daughter home, planning to spend two weeks at Iowa Park.

one for now... one for later! It's just as easy to prepare more than one - when you have a way to safely store the "extras". You bake at your convenience, then when guests drop in you're prepared - not only with extra cake but with dozens of other foods, even complete meals. And, you may be sure that freezer-frozen foods will always taste just right for they hold their flavor, their goodness and their healthfulness. A food freezer is a proven holder of food-freshness. Get yours now, then next time you bake, bake two - or more.
