

Marketing of Vegetable Men Called Monday Night

Marketing Talk By Specialist To Be Feature

County Agent Cecil Lewis and Assistant Agent Lynn Pittard announced yesterday that Durwood Speights, marketing specialist from East Texas, will address the vegetable growers of Floyd County on marketing problems for this fast-growing high plains industry, Monday night at the District Court Room in Floydada. The meeting will be called to order at 7:30 o'clock.

Speights came to the High Plains in the summer to lend a hand in marketing problems for growers in Floyd, Hale, Lamb and Bailey Counties. His employment will end on October 31. Chambers of Commerce, vegetable associations and the Extension Service have financed the effort.

Lessons taught by the marketing season now ending will be reviewed and conclusions drawn so that ways of improving marketing can be devised before another year.

Joe Cole, with the Extension Service, District 2 vegetable man, will also be here for Monday night's meeting, Mr. Lewis said.

A down-to-earth discussion of the many angles of marketing will be held and a general discussion of the vegetable situation will be included.

Parade Of New Cars Imminent

Floydada automobile dealers will soon be displaying their 1958 models in all local show rooms. A check yesterday morning pointed to an early show date for all.

First on the calendar is Chevrolet, which will be viewed by the public on October 31. The new Chevrolet truck is already being shown. Sales personnel at Oden's have already previewed the '58's and are enthusiastic about their product.

Next in line is Mercury which will go on display Monday, November 4. The Big M has made some big changes to make it even more inviting to the motoring public. Arel Rainer got a sneak peek at Mercury several days ago in New Orleans at a dealers meeting and H. O. Cline saw the new cars last Friday in Dallas. Cline and Rainer is Floydada home of Mercury.

On Thursday, November 7, Ford will show their 1958 cars and trucks. J. B. Bishop and Lyndell Roberts got a look at the Ford products in Will Rogers Coliseum at Fort Worth last Friday and came home happy with what they saw. You can see them at Bishop Motor soon.

Oldsmobile will be shown here Friday, November 9. The big new "Rockets" are said to be truly dream cars. Low, sleek and plenty of power and ease of handling all wrapped up in a new package. Oden's will be the show place.

Chrysler has not announced a show date for their products, though it is sure to be in early November. D. T. Mayo at Mayo Motor is in Fort Worth today where he and Mrs. Mayo will see the first showing of the Plymouth and Dodge cars and Dodge trucks. Mayo said show plans will be completed at the meeting and will be announced soon.

There will be much news released the next few days on the new model cars. As a general rule all makes are to be lower, longer, newly designed bodies and with plenty of power. Also emphasis has been placed on brakes, lights and other safety features.

Farmers Put Fewer Acres In Soil Bank

About 20,000 acres of Floyd County wheat land have been put into the 1958 conservation reserve acreage. Thos. J. Hutchins, County ASC office manager said Monday. Definite figures will not be available until time has elapsed for all parties to be heard from and the completion of wheat land measurements.

The acreage taken out of production is represented by about 180 or 190 contracts.

Measurements were well under way when the rainy weather put a stop to activities 10 days ago, said Mr. Hutchins.

This 20,000 acres in the wheat soil bank is slightly less than half of 1956. This county is running about the same per centage as the rest of the state for 1958. Nation-wide the wheat land put into the soil bank is about one-third of last year, the county ASC committee has been advised.

Floyd County has left for production in 1958 about 120,000 acres of wheat land.

TWO ABSENTEES VOTE
Monday afternoon two absentee ballots had been cast in the road bond and the amendments elections scheduled for November 5.

At the same hour there had been two applications through the mails for absentee ballots for the election, Miss Margaret Collier reported.

'Biggest' Deed Takes Whole Volume to Record

Breaking all local records for length, number of words and pages, as well as in the amount of the consideration, is an instrument recently put into the records of Floyd County as a chattel mortgage and a realty transaction.

It is a mortgage of real property and chattels and a pledge of contracts and securities, also containing after-acquired property provisions," with Pioneer Natural Gas Company, a Texas corporation, having its principal office at Amarillo, as the grantee or party of the first part and the Guaranty Trust Company of New York as the trustee.

Total consideration is $22 million represented by registered bonds of two series, one series of first mortgage bonds covering $13,500,000 due in 1974, known as Series A, and bearing 4 1/2 per cent interest, the other series for $8 1/2 million, indicated as Series B, first mortgage bonds, and bearing 4 1/2 per cent interest.

The huge deed of trust was a wholly printed volume except for the signatures and the seals of the company and the officer's signing the jurat.

It has in addition to 528 pages of printed matter, 13 pages of indices. The page size is 8 by 10 1/2 inches. Margaret Collier, the County Clerk, just wrapped it into a loose leaf record binder marked "Deed of Trust 54 Floyd County", put her official filing on it, and marked it "proof read" and "recorded."

A quick estimate made by the reporter indicates the big deed of trust and chattel mortgage has at least 220,000 words. The wordage may run as high as 300,000.

It was recorded simultaneously in 29 counties of Texas including Potter, Randall, Hutchinson, Moore, Bailey, Briscoe, Castro, Crosby, Dawson, Deaf Smith, Ector, Floyd, Gaines, Garza, Hale, Hall, Hockley, Lamb, Lubbock, Lynn, Midland, Parmer, Swisher, Martin, Oldham, Dallas, Hartley and Andrews.

The cost of "recording" in Floyd County was $125.

The lands held in fee, the leaseholdings as well as the transmission system and miscellaneous distribution lines in every county and community served by Pioneer Natural Gas Company is described minutely, as well as the score of (See Biggest Deed, back Page)

Clearing Skies Cheer Farmers

Clearing skies yesterday, with a cooling wind from the northwest, cheered Floyd County farmers, many of whom could re-enter their cotton fields Friday afternoon or Saturday for the resumption of the harvest, should the sun continue to shine.

Last week-end the cotton farm operators got in two half days with crews in the field. The harvest came to a new halt Saturday before noon, however, when moisture began falling. Rain gauges measured from 1.5 inches to two inches over most of the county. At Floydada the official figure stood at 1.83 inches for the period from Saturday noon through Tuesday.

In maize fields two weeks have elapsed since any grain could be harvested. Complaint that the sorghum grains are falling in the field have been heard from various quarters.

Tuesday night's half hour of high wind did not help this situation. Reports of 60 to 80 mile wind in gusts were general, as a trough line whipped in from New Mexico.

The gentle rains were ideal for wheat ground and ranges.

Moore Arraigned Monday Morning Pleas Not Guilty

At his arraignment in District Court here Monday morning at 10 o'clock William Lennis Moore, charged with crimes against a stepdaughter, pled not guilty before District Judge L. D. Ratliff in a brief appearance in court.

Moore, 42, was accompanied by a Lubbock attorney, Byron Chappell, who appeared as his attorney of record.

Soon after his indictment and arrest the defendant had represented to the court that he was "indigent and had no funds or property which would enable him to employ counsel," the record indicates. The court appointed Richard F. Stovall, local attorney, to defend Moore against the charges.

Employment of the Lubbock lawyer, soon after Moore was taken to the Lubbock County jail for safe keeping, followed the sale of a 1953 Mercury, for which Moore remarked to local officers he had received $750.

The district judge entered an order Monday releasing the Floydada attorney, Stovall, from "further duty or responsibility of representing Wm. Lennis Moore as an attorney."

Bond was not sought for the defendant and he was returned to the Lubbock County jail the same morning.

Preacher Wrestles With Flu
Gordon L. Downing, minister of the City Park Church of Christ, was admitted to Peoples Hospital Monday with the flu. His condition is reported good but he was still running some temperature the middle of the week.

Farmers Union elects Officers
Floyd County Farmers Union met Wednesday night October 23, in the county court room. Election of officers was held during the business session. Those named were Kenneth Wofford, president; Lane Decker, vice-president; and W. H. Simpson Jr., secretary-treasurer.

The group was addressed by Alex Dickey of Denton, state president of Farmers Union.

Students of Floydada Jr. High Parade in Costumes Hallowe'en
(By Mrs. Sam A. Spence)
Hallowe'en Night of 1957 will be a night to remember by the students of Floydada Jr. High.

The evening festivities begin at 5:00 P. M. Thursday, October 31 with a "Downtown Hallowe'en Parade" which will be led by the Jr. High School Band under the supervision of Maurice Jones, Band Director. The parade will be assembled at the First Baptist Church and march through town and on to the Jr. High School Auditorium.

Don C. Penner Gets Bronze Star For Heroism In Korea
No Battle "Sears", Don C. Penner, one-time sergeant in the bitter retreat of the 38th Infantry from North Korea to the 38th Parallel, is playing a new role in this picture made at his home 212 West Crockett in Floydada, last week. With him are his wife, Jenice, little Angela, 3, Jeffrey, 1 1/2, year old son already in bed. The bitterness of his campaigning has left no scars on Don. Rather the recollections inclines him to "count his blessings," he said. He was awarded the Bronze Star at a ceremony yesterday noon at a Floydada Rotary Club meeting.

Don C. Penner Gets Bronze Star For Heroism In Korea

Penner said they had to take the ridge back and that took three or four days.

When his company re-formed, after the engagement they counted ten, and his master sergeant was in command. All the officers were casualties.

They were on the line 30 days that time. "You had 30 days in the line, then 10 days of rest, but it didn't work exactly that way."

SNAGGLE-TOOTHED and roguish of mien, the gay group below is the vanguard of millions of Jack-O'-Lanterns soon to gleam from the windows of America as citizens again take knife in hand in the annual move to carve these symbols of Halloween.

"Sergeant Don C. Penner, U. S. A. for heroism in ground combat. "Sergeant (then Private First Class) Penner distinguished himself by heroism near Chonwon, Korea, on 19 September 1952. When his company was held up by a numerically superior enemy force Sergeant Penner left the cover of a communication trench to retrieve a machine gun from a fallen comrade.

"Fire from this weapon effectively halted the enemy sufficiently to permit an orderly withdrawal. "When his ammunition was exhausted Sergeant Penner destroyed the gun and carried the wounded soldier across several hundred yards of open terrain to safety.

"The courage and devotion to duty of Sergeant Penner reflect great credit upon himself and are in keeping with the high traditions of the military service."

Listening to that "I guess I was a better soldier than I thought," Penner said afterwards. He was a member of King Company, 38th Infantry, Second Division. He went over as an Anti-Aircraft man but when the Chinese hordes crossed the Yalu and took over the war for the North Koreans "They gave me an M-1 and a bayonet and told me I was an infantryman. They did everything that way including the cooks."

His outfit had marched far to the north and they fought the rear-guard action back to about the 38th parallel when they began to stiffen the opposition and hold. The point his company was holding was on "Old Baldy."

The enemy started the action at about 5 o'clock in the afternoon he recalls, one of those screaming, wave after wave after wave things the folks back home read about.

Penner went through the campaign without injury, except for a bayonet wound in the upper leg. It put him out of action for three weeks.

Penner's wife is the former Jenice Neal, a Seattle, Washington, girl. Their children are Angela, 3, and Jeffrey, 18 months. They live at 212 West Crockett.

Big Crowd Due For Whirlwind Tiger Game Here Tomorrow Night

The Floydada Whirlwinds will play host Friday night to the strong Slaton Tigers. The game is scheduled for Wester Field with a starting time of 8:00 p. m. Admission prices are $1.00 for adults and 25c for students.

Both the Whirlwind and Tiger bands are expected to be on hand and to perform for the spectators if the weather permits. The Weatherman will have a big hand in the night's attendance. School officials believe the game will draw the best crowd to date on the home field if it is a nice night because Slaton is still in the district running and Slaton fans are behind their ball club.

Also Lockney is enjoying an open date and their large following of fans will be without a ball game in that date.

Slaton's big fan Tigers haven't had an impressive season thus far if you view the won lost column, but a second look will show the reason why. Their defeats have come at the hands of Canyon, Stamford, Seagraves, and Lockney, four of the ranking teams of the area and of the state. The Lockney loss is the only one marring their district record.

Quarterback Club Meets Monday
The Whirlwind Quarterback Club will meet Monday night, October 28, at 7:30 p. m. Fred Cardinal, president of the group, announced there will be a routine business session and films of the Slaton game will be shown.

The high school cafeteria is the meeting place and coffee and doughnuts will be served. All club members and Whirlwind fans are invited to attend.

On the win side they hold an inter-sectional victory over Roscoe, and district wins over Post, 33 - 0, and Spur, 1 - 0 by forfeit.

Slaton is coached by Leonard Ehrler and the roster carries 34 names. The Tigers have three boys that beat 200 pounds and several more above the 175 pound mark. They appear to be over the flu and injury jinx that hounded them through the Lockney game two weeks ago and last week end were reported in the best condition since the season started.

The Tigers play a wide open game and have always gone all out for victory. Their rivalry with Floydada down through the years has always been a bitter one and the point difference of most all games has been close.

Early this week the strength of the Whirlwinds appeared to be still far below par. Several boys were reporting back for practice following illness or injury, but others were taking their places on the sick list. Rain and wet grounds were keeping the team indoors and missing much needed scrimmage and outside conditioning.

Coaches and followers of the "Winds are hopeful that the team can again be "high" for the Slaton game as they were last Friday at Abernathy. Slaton is figured to be stiffer opposition than were the Antelopes.

FOOTBALL TONIGHT
Tonight the B squad team of Coach Pete Fluglaar will host the Matador II team in a game on Wester Field. Next Thursday they will play a return match going to Matador for the game.

Tuesday night the Junior Hi 8th grade team will go to Idalou for a game with the Lubbock County boys.

Where They Play Oct. 25
Abernathy at Tahoka;
Slaton at Floydada;
Post at Spur;
Lockney - Open Date;
Springlake at Silvertown;
Ralls at Anton;
Quitaque at Estilline;

New District In HS Sports Due in 1958

Starting in the fall of 1958 the high school districts of the Texas Interscholastic League will be changed some. The present district 2A will lose two members, Lockney and Abernathy, and will be re-named district 3AA. Members of the loop will then be Spur, Post, Slaton, Tahoka, and Floydada. This will be a five-team district and leave only four district games for each member.

Lockney and Abernathy will be members of district 2AA. Others in the loop will be Morton, moved up from class A, Muleshoe and Olton. Bi-district play pits district 1 and 2 against each other while district 3 goes against district 4.

District 1 will be the Tulla - Canyon group and others to the north while district 4 takes in Semmore, McCamey, Denver City, Crane and Fort Stockton.

Mrs. Carter and a companion, C. M. McKeown, had been to Floydada to purchase a home and were returning to Cactus when the car they were riding in hit a bridge rail. The couple were to have been married this month and planned to make their home here.

Funeral rites were held Monday morning in the First Baptist Church in Etter, Texas, with burial Monday afternoon in the Silvertown cemetery.

Survivors include one son, Jim Carter of Canyon and two daughters, Mrs. Earl Holden and Mrs. Lee Hand, both of Cactus.

IEWS AND COMMENT

Ducks and geese, now reported in flight, are due to begin to reach Texas in large numbers this week. With the duck population already in the area the additions should make a noisy lot of puddles all over the plains before the hunting season opens on November 1 (that right?) Some of the ducks already on the lakes are big fellows, almost big enough to be geese. Mentioning geese reminds that the large flocks of geese once so common on wheat fields during wet years have been very scarce the past few seasons. Possibly this fall will see them back again.

Live Stock Threat. The season is here when frost may be anticipated most any time Sunday or after. Accordingly the threat to live stock from the prussic acid in frosted Johnson Grass or sorghum is present in fields or neglected corners where cattle may happen to be. Chemical changes take place in these growths when wilted by drouth or frost and prussic acid content builds up. Eating this wilted growth contentedly the cow brute suddenly goes into a tremor and dies within a short time without ever leaving the spot. Nervousness and difficult breathing are symptoms. Since there are many cattle in the country and more coming in to graze wheat and stalks, a warning to keep a sharp look out for cane or Johnson Grass on the premises is in order.

The Three Amendments. Up for vote November 5 are three amendments all three of which have merit if they are well and properly drawn so there'll be no jokers. The first of these would bring up-to-date the state employe retirement plan, giving a more equitable and realistic system for many faithful employes of the state. The second amendment on the ballot makes a better plan for payments to needy, aged persons who are not covered by the Social Security Law. The third would create a Texas Water Development Fund for the conservation and development of water resources of the state. The first two are needs as a matter of equity to the people involved, while the latter would give impetus to water conservation in Texas on a realistic basis.

Many Good Lobbyists. The legislature seems to be having trouble defining a lobbyist. In that respect the body is not different from the average citizen. Many of us go down to Austin for this and against that. We do not think of our selves as lobbyists. We think of our selves as citizens who are entitled to petition our legislature. Anybody else who goes to Austin also is a good citizen on the same mission until he proves himself otherwise. With this in mind we can't see that anything more should be required of a man who voluntarily appears before the legislature (which would include all the old professionals) than to register showing his connections. A man summoned before the legislature is already on record and should be exempted. The most important "lobbying" provision is the one least likely to be adopted, namely, to have the legislators themselves make known their connections with any trade, business, or profession that would be affected by a bill before the legislature. Such a one should be required to disqualify himself in these instances.

Most important of all, so far as the legislature and lobbying is concerned, is that men of moral honesty and integrity be elected by the people to represent them in Austin. They should be men who can't be hoodwinked. But it is claimed the railroads have them a friend in the legislature itself, the sugar people the sulphur and oil folks, distillers, brewers, teachers, doctors. Everybody has a friend in the legislature, except the folks. If that be true how are you going to legislate for the commonwealth, and what good is a lobbying bill? Sounds defeatist, and frankly, it is.

PUZZLE

If you have two candles of equal length, one of which burns out completely in four hours and the other in five hours (both having been lit at the same time), how much time will have elapsed when one candle is exactly twice as long as the other?

Spudnik vs. Spendnik. The man made satellite the Russians have put into the heavens is mighty good propaganda. It is another way of saying that the Soviets are a great scientific people who can blot out the world at will and that now is a good time to start groveling. It will be answered before this squib sees print, however, by some more propaganda, and that closer. Listen for the clamor out of Washington for more spending. But since Korea there has already been enough money collected off of the people by the congress and squandered by a thousand agencies, including the Defense Department, to have a dozen satellites circling the globe. And the congress ought to be told so flatly. We don't want to be pushed around by the Soviets, nor outdone by them, but also we don't want our own congress, in the name of national defense, to do us that way either. Enough and more money has been collected to do everything that needs to be done.

Every day, fire strikes 800 American homes. What causes these fires? Statistics show it's often little things . . . perhaps the result of a few minutes of absent-minded carelessness. Such as placing a towel or other combustible material too close to a heater or a hot light or a stove burner. Or using a blow torch to remove paint or thaw a pipe. Or neglecting to put a metal screen in front of the fireplace. Or forgetting to turn off the iron while you answer the telephone. So get the "safety habit", and carry it over into everything you do, big or little. Remember, even a minute of carelessness can cause a lifetime of regret!

Answer to Puzzle:

Damaged Hides

Mean Dollar Losses

About $200 Million in profits are lost by the livestock hide industry each year which might be saved with just a "Little Extra Care" by both producers and packers.

Animal hide is a sideline of livestock production that is not often thought of as a big profit factor by the average person. Yet, a perfect hide can mean as much as a $10 'Bonus' to the producer.

The hide has quite a few 'Enemies', however, which must be guarded against. Grubs eat holes in them. Barbed wire, nails and jagged edges of carriers scratch them. Mange leaves a dark spot or unpleasant mottling and prod poses and rough herding tactics create unsightly blotches.

Still another damage factor are huge brand marks which frequen-

As A Farm Woman Thinks

The weather is being given out by inches this Sunday morning. The clouds are hurrying on northeast, as if to keep an appointment. And I cannot even get out to get my shoes muddy! Things look so clean and refreshed after a rain.

Just I am not worrying about that. I am thankful for a wheel chair to go about the house. More and more I am using the walker but I still have to hop. It won't be long until I can begin to get both feet to the ground.

More beautiful cards and letters came last week and we had many visitors. We may get a bit spoiled with all this attention. But oh, how very nice it is. God bless everyone of you.

Wilson went out to see my figs. He reports they are still green. Perhaps I will get to eat a ripe one before frost.

From the time baby mules lay like black and brown velvet on the green grass in the pasture south of the house until the day they were put to work or sold, they were of interest and source of aggravation as well. Each mule had a temperament all its own. Callie and Fidy ran away whenever we hooked them to the buggy to go to town. Callie for the sheer joy of running and Fidy for the sake of keeping up.

Promie always wanted to turn before he got to the end of the row. He poked along and needed the whip as he went from the house, but he tried to turn too soon, then he would hurry too fast back the row.

Tim was a handsome mule but she was hard to catch. I would have to go with Mr. Spikes. He made a snare with a long rope in a corner. We waved and hollered until she finally stepped in the snare. Then it was my job to wrap the end of the rope around a post. Even then she was hard to bridle. Her long ears had to be stroked. She had to be humored awhile, then over her ears went the bridle and she was quiet and rather steady to the plow.

We called a baby mule "Black Out" that was born during the war. I miss the mules from the plains, but I am glad I do not have to hem them up to be caught, and stand around while the traces are hooked behind their lightning-like hind legs.

WOMEN'S SOCIETY

Club Members View Pretty Landscapes On Fall Pilgrimage

(By Mrs. W. H. Bethel)

The Floydada Garden Club had its Fall Pilgrimage Friday, October 11, at 9:30 a. m. at Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Robertson's home on the Rails highway.

Guests for the pilgrimage entered the large circle drive centered and flanked by many colorful blooms. They approached the registry table which was accented with a native gourd filled with Mexican zinnias. Mrs. John Hoffman registered the guests.

Refreshments were served from a red wood table under a spreading elm tree in the front yard. The center piece was an arrangement of fall flowers. Mrs. O. G. Glassmoyer, assisted by Mrs. A. V. Stewart and Mrs. J. P. Moss poured coffee from a gray enamel pot kept boiling on a charcoal burner. The aroma filled the air as guests ate pound cake.

An hour was spent mingling with guests as they strolled along the pathway exchanging ideas.

Mrs. B. A. Robertson, president of the club, drove the lead car to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zimmerman, who introduced Neville R. Stephens, landscape architect of Tubac, Arizona, to the group. Mr. Stephens was visiting in the Zimmerman home. He explained in detail his planning and planting of the Zimmerman landscape. The beauty was greatly admired. The club has great appreciation for the privilege of seeing the yard and learning from Mr. Stephens.

The last place visited was the A. C. Carthel home. Mr. Stephens stressed the value of vines and shrubs in this locality for good landscaping.

The Floydada Garden club has a pilgrimage each year. The club song is "America The Beautiful" and the club's motto is "We strive to beautify."

Twelve women from Lockney, two from Matador and eighteen from Floydada comprised the group. They included from Lockney Meses, N. E. Greer, Austin Meriwether, Carl McAdams, L. M. Hones, R. C. Mitchell, Dale Lacey, Frank Robertson, Kelton Shaw, Harmon Handley, E. M. Quebe, Roy Patterson and Mrs. Alex Norris, from Matador, Mrs. W. W. Clements and Mrs. Douglas E. Pitts.

Attending from Floydada were Meses, J. P. Moss, J. B. Jenkins, H. J. Koenen, J. G. Martin, Troy Leonard, Tate Jones, Grady Walker, Wilson Kimble, Ethel Sawyer, O. M. Watson Sr., D. T. Mayo, A. V. I believe they ginned 13 bales those two afternoons. We are all so hoping that we will not have any storms with the rainy weather, the some report they already have cotton wasted and feed falling.

Storage Plant Is Prime Need For Vegetables

To The Hesperian: There is no doubt about it, if Floydada is to make progress in the development of commercial vegetables, we must have an all-purpose vegetable processing and cold storage warehouse plant.

So the farmers will not have to force sale their products when the prices are down.

The future outlook for vegetables on these plains is unlimited. In numbers there is strength. One hundred farmers who are interested in developing their own vegetable market can do wonders, and it is easier than you might think.

Everyone knows these facts. We can grow such a wide variety of high class vegetables. The processing and marketing part is the point to work on.

We can start the ball rolling by having a series of meeting of farmers and merchants and talk over every part of what each one thinks.

Out of these ideas will come plans and procedures, and out of this will come progress.

Floydada needs a payroll and our farmers need to make more money.

Co-operation is a wonderful word. It means "Let's help you to help us." It is one of the fundamentals that have made our nation what it is today.

Prosperous communities make prosperous counties, and counties make states. States make our nation.

We are living in a progressive age. We must make progress or else farmers will be in operation one day, if desired, to build anything they wish, from government agencies set up for that purpose.

We do not need to build the storage plant all at once. We can grow with what we build over a period of years as the need is evident. We need to get the talking done now to get something done for next season.

L. A. Marshall.

Longhorns Hold Edge in Scores After 3 Weeks

After three weeks of district play the Lockney Longhorns still hold a slight edge on their nearest district opponent. Though Floydada is also undefeated in loop play, they have not played as many games as the 'Horns.

Lockney in three district games has scored 101 points for 33.67 points per game average. The Longhorns have allowed 13 points to make their defensive average 4.33 points per game.

Floydada, the only other undefeated team in district play, has scored 67 points in two games for a 33.5 average and has yet to be scored on in 2AA play.

This points to the Longhorns as the best offensive team by a slight margin and puts the Whirlwinds in the lead on defense, though Abernathy has been the only district foe to play both of the top clues.

Slaton and Spur still are in the dark horse class having been crippled by flu and injuries in early outings. Other members of the circuit hold little chance of finishing in the drivers seat.

District standing after Friday night's games:

Team	W	L	Pts.	Opp.
Lockney	3	0	101	13
Floydada	2	0	67	0
Slaton	2	1	34	25
Spur	2	1	34	20

Plan Hallowe'en Trick-or-Treat Visits For CROP

The Methodist Youth Fellowship are anticipating an adventure in sharing as they plan a Hallowe'en trick-or-treat collection for the Christian Rural Overseas Program on Hallowe'en evening.

Participants in this project to raise funds for overseas relief will make house-to-house visits, seeking cash contributions. CROP identification tags and labels on sealed money containers will identify the young people as they make their calls.

Under the sponsorship of the M. Y. F. the project was organized in this community as a means of offering to the young people an outlet for their interest and concern for hungry people. It replaces the customary Hallowe'en trick-or-treat appeal for edible luxuries, with proceeds for the campaign going through CROP to feed people overseas who never have enough to eat.

Through CROP, contributions to the youth project will send government surplus foods released free to the Share Our Surplus program of Church World Service, to feed victims of hunger overseas. Handling and distribution of the surplus foods costs less than a penny a pound. Distribution is handled overseas by church agencies.

All interested youth of the community are invited to meet with the group Hallowe'en night says Kelley King, publicity chairman of the M. Y. F.

Following the collection, young people will meet in the church basement for refreshments.

Slate 'Family' Night' Program At ME Church

A family night program has been planned at the First Methodist Church for Sunday, October 27, starting at 6:00 p. m. The group will be addressed by the Rev. Per Algot Knutsson, who is missionary in Kambini, Portuguese East Africa.

The fellowship will be in charge of Ernest Carter of the church commission on finance. Families are asked to bring salad, sandwiches or dessert for the night's refreshments.

This is also the last Sunday in Floydada for the Tilden B. Armstrongs who are leaving for a new church field and the church workers feel all friends in Floydada will want to take this opportunity to be with them. A very interesting and inspirational evening has been planned.

The guest speaker is a native of Sweden, an American missionary of the Methodist Church, and serving among the Portuguese-speaking and Bantu-speaking peoples of Mozambique, East Africa.

The Rev. Per Algot Knutsson, missionary in Kambini, Portuguese East Africa, is a "product" of Swedish Methodism and was first sent to Africa by the young people of his own land. At present, while on a year's furlough, he is living in Worcester, Mass.

Since his arrival in Africa in 1939 Mr. Knutsson has been stationed at Inhambane and later at Kambini. At the industrial school in the latter community, he has been in charge of the various arts and crafts taught the boys and girls, and he has also traveled through the countryside as an evangelist and an organizer of churches.

Last year he was active in the organization of the Union Theological Seminary in Portuguese East Africa. It is scheduled to open in January 1958. It will be conducted by the Methodist, Presbyterian, Congregational and British Methodist missions, and by the Church of Christ in Mozambique. When he returns to Africa, after his present furlough, Mr. Knutsson will direct the Seminary.

Born in Malmo, Sweden, Mr. Knutsson was educated in that country's public and high schools, at Altorp Agricultural School, and received a diploma to preach and to teach from the Union Scandinavian School of Theology.

He was ordained to the Methodist ministry in Sweden, was a pastor in Upsala, and then came to America as a missionary to Africa. In 1944-45, while on furlough in the United States, he took graduate studies at Drew University.

CHAT with PAT

A Big "hello" to all of you flu victims and of course we can't forget those who remained well because they gargled with Listerine every day.

Seriously, Floydada High School was struck pretty hard by this Asian Flu. Sitting in one of the every day classes you would have probably witnessed the following:

Mergaltheorpe (for example) is sitting in front of you and you notice that she isn't as wigly as usual. In fact she acts like she has that "rundown feeling" but Geritol won't pep her up, for sure. You see, she is taking the flu!

Pretty soon Mergaltheorpe jumps up and leaves. Before you know it everybody appears to be leaving and there are only a few (the strong ones) left in the class room. Last Thursday and Friday sixty some-odd kids were absent from ole P. H. S. We could list P. H. S. stand for "Flu Hill Sixty".

It would take forever to list the names of all of the sick kids. So hope all of you get well real soon and hurry back to school 'naw isn't that a pleasant thought!!

Last Thursday we had class meetings and voted for one boy and girl who we felt deserved being called "Class Favorites" of 57-58. Congratulations to Janis Roberts and Eddie Childs, Seniors, Linda Hammonds and Rex King, Juniors, Sue Plenniken and Johnny Witkowski, Sophomores and Tiny Copeland and Eddie Parks, Freshmen. This is indeed a great honor for a group of wonderful students.

The coaches said something about getting a huge bottle of Listerine and make the football boys gargle, so they wouldn't take the flu. Whether they did or not I don't know but I do know that our boys played a fine ball game against Abernathy (33 to 0).

We have a home game this Friday versus Slaton. We've won two conference games and have four more to go. So come out and watch us go, oh, yes, don't forget to buy mums for your gal. It will sure help the Senior Class. They are in deep need of money for the simple fact they would like to get farther than Roaring Springs on their Senior the harvesting of cotton and feed but it will help wheat crops. They have only ginned 80 bales at Wake this season.

Charlotte Hodges spent Tuesday night with her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. R. Halten.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McDougle and children were Tuesday night supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dewayne Brewer and Debrah.

Have you noticed—What a dead week it's been with everybody sick? A certain girl (7th grader) sure likes Pat Ginn: Sallye Parks talks about Jerry Cardinal a lot; Randy Hollums had gone with MarGuan Lackey some; Linda Sue Roe's pretty blue eyes; Billy Gilliland's friendly ways; Pat Henry, Wren Patterson, Linda Welborn, Joy Sparks, and Rex Lackey have been in hospital; How cold it was over the week end; what pretty hair Addie Adkins has; all of the mad parents after they saw their kids report cards.

A few couples were out this week end. They were: Carol Lawson and Gary Huckabay, Nelda McCarey and Danny Shipley, Jane Tye and Weldon Pruitt, Leora King and Joe Noiland, Judy Jackson and Bill Orman, Sandra Roe and Button Beedy, Glenda Morgan and Dale Lawson, Marisue Burison and Frank Potts, Judy Wilson and Harvey Allen, Juanel Wood and James Teague.

Until next week it's bye bye and don't let the flu get you down.

Miss Linda Hull, a Baylor sophomore, was at home over the week end. She was accompanied by four school friends, Aimee Kell, San Antonio, Virginia Thomas, Navasota, Betty Krause and Lucy Gaston, Freepost.
