Back-seat drivers are usually right-seat navigators, perched comfortably — and dangerously — near the fellow who pilots the automobile. Whether male or female, they can (1) quote the rules, (2) quickly sum up the driver's weaknesses, and (3) become quite moralistic on the side of the law.

Any resemblance to the same individual behind the wheel is purely coincidental.

Both the husband and wife, it seems to us should drive occasionally with the other in the car. It reminds each that things look differently when viewed dead-on or slightly at an angle.

The spouse declares he would find life tedious if it weren't for the agony of drama of our gasps and tensed-up motions as he makes a thrilling turn into an oncoming traffic — says it makes him feel daring and venturesome. We often wonder what some steeper friends of ours talk about driving on roads. It's not just the driver's drive, or apparently has no interest in directing the motorman.

We've always considered our man for directing the fellow at the wheel as a weakness. Imagine our amazement, however, to find that some psychiatrists say back-seat drivers serve a useful purpose. If it's not the woman's or man's drive behind the wheel is wool-gathering. Says it gets his dander up and snaps him out of his dreaming. If the guy is just plain sleepy, however, one should be gentle with him, luring him over to the highway's shoulder and twenty winks before proceeding.

We're now planning a new approach to right-seat driving. We'll speak thusly: "Are you day-dreaming, or just drowsy?" If the answer is "Huh?", as it probably will be, we'll investigate further. If the conversation gets involved, hence we'll say "I saw you from the hospital bed — 'Pardon me, I should have made you angry!'"

Homemaking Hints

(By Phyllis Roggendorf, County Home Demonstration Agent)

Several have said they would like to have attended the refinishing furniture workshop last week but didn't make it, because of the weather. If you can catch up with us, you're welcome to attend the 2nd meeting on March 2. By that time you should have the old finish taken off and the piece of furniture sanded smooth.

The main cost of refinishing furniture is labor. If you will learn to do the work yourself, you might save enough to buy a few new pieces.

The first step is to remove any handles or knobs that will get in your way while sanding. If the piece of furniture is real decorative you can remove much of the applied ornament and by substituting simply styled hardware, have a piece of furniture that looks like new.

There are several paint and varnish removers available. Just be sure to follow the directions on the can. It's a good idea to wear rubber gloves for this step. A spatula or petty knife is a handy tool to use to scrape the old finish off after the paint and varnish remover has softened it. If your piece of furniture has spool legs, a wire of steel wool pulled into a strip is helpful to get the old finish off.

It takes patience and fortitude to sand a piece of furniture so it will be "smooth as glass" but it can be done. An electric sander is helpful on flat wood and can be rented from some paint and hardware stores. Be sure to use a vibrator sander, never a circular sander. The circles tend to get in the wood are very hard to get out. Garnet sand paper cuts faster than flint so saves a little work, but is more expensive. Always sand with the lengthwise grain of the wood. You will probably need to sand with a medium grade of sandpaper then go to fine and finish with very fine.

At the next workshop we will put the filler on open grained wood and the stain on closed grained wood. If you are not sure what you want to do in your piece of furniture, you can bring it to the workshop (already sanded) and we'll discuss it. The piece you work on will have to be small enough to bring in to the workshop, or if a dresser, bring a drawer. Besides the furniture you will need to bring newspapers, and rags. Your can purchase color stain or filler and brush after you get here, or bring it with you.

The second workshop will be Monday March 2, the 3rd Monday, March 9 and the 4th and last, Tuesday March 31st. The place will be announced later.

African Violets

Anyone can grow African Violets in the home if care is given to their moisture, light and temperature requirements.

If they receive too much, or too little light, they will not bloom. They do best in a location not exposed to direct sunlight at noon or during the afternoon. Usually a north or east window will provide suitable light.

A good temperature is 60-65 degrees at night and 70-75 in the daytime.

Most homes do not have enough moisture in the air for the best growth of African Violets. More moisture may be added in the plant area by placing the pots in a shallow tray of sand. Keep the water level in the tray below the surface of the gravel and it will add more humidity to the area but won't keep the soil in the pot too moist.

For more information about growing African Violets, come by or call and I will send you a leaflet on "African Violets in the Home."

Mothers March A Big Success Figures Show

The Mothers March on Polio in Floydada was a big success. Early report from Mrs. Ray Ainsworth showed the whirlwind campaign netted $933.14 for their part of the March 20th fund drive.

The ladies though pleased with the fine response to their effort were shooting at $1000.

A check at the bank yesterday shows the figure had risen to $992.14 which is very close to the goal they set for themselves. Mrs. Ainsworth said if there are workers who have hands still in hand to turn them at the bank. If there are some individuals who were missed or were out of town on drive night they can make the ladies very happy by leaving their contributions at the bank tagged for the mothers march. Only $7.86 will put them over the $1000 figure.

No complete county wide figures for the March of Dimes were available yesterday afternoon.

FRIENDS WERE GOOD TO HIM

I wish to express my thanks to my friends for the many cards, flowers and visits during my stay in the Lockney General Hospital. I wish to thank the doctors and nurses for wonderful care and treatment. Thanks to the entire staff and cooks, (you serve such delicious meals.) To Mr. Wright who always came by for our daily chat. All these nice things made my stay a very pleasant one. I also want to thank my good neighbors who came in and finished redecorating our room, and for caring for my livestock.

May God bless each of you in my prayer.

Solution to Breakfast Problem

Having a problem getting the family up for breakfast? In this age of electronic miracles, the gadget shown above is suggested as a logical solution.

It will arouse the sleeper, in more ways than one, but once up, he can help establish good eating habits for the family.

Strong measures (maybe not to the extent shown above) are necessary, according to leading doctors and nutritionists who have studied the subject, to insure that breakfast will not be the day's most neglected meal.

Breakfast, according to those diet authorities, should supply about one-fourth to one-third of the daily food requirements. They point out that the "let's skip breakfast" people prove to be less alert, less efficient and more susceptible to fatigue than those who eat a good morning meal.

The human body is so constructed that for maximum health it requires fairly even intake of food at regular intervals. You can't make up for the lack of a good breakfast.

People who are troubled in holding the right weight should eat a good breakfast. If they neglect breakfast they may eat too heartily a lunch or dinner. And they just might have a snack or two between meals.

What constitutes a good breakfast? The foods essential to the day's first meal include fruit or fruit juice, cereal, milk or other beverage, and several slices of toast. Eggs and breakfast meat frequently should be included.

These foods are necessary both for children and adults. They supply the nutrients essential for the physical and mental stimulus for work—and play.

Most homes do not have enough moisture in the air for the best growth of African Violets. More moisture may be added in the plant area by placing the pots in a shallow tray of sand. Keep the water level in the tray below the surface of the gravel and it will add more humidity to the area but won't keep the soil in the pot too moist.

City Election Ordered First Tues. In April

Conversation at the monthly meeting of Floydada City Council Tuesday night forecasts a raise in taxable values in the city.

It was indicated that the school district's appraisal sheets will be taken as a basis for increases contemplated. However, it will not necessarily be followed through, City Secretary Lewis Norman said the council intimated.

Equalization board this year will have six members. Accepting appointment to the board were Lane Decker, James H. Word, O. P. Rutledge, Menard Field, T. L. Holland Jr., and Dale Goen. The board is going to be asked to spend quite some time on the assessment lists before they are turned over to an assessor.

The council appointed Clay Black city assessor for this year's tax reductions. He will get the rolls to work on after the equalizers get through their preliminary work.

This year the city will be called upon to name a mayor and two aldermen in the City Election order for which was entered on the minutes of the council Tuesday night.

The terms of M. H. Martin and L. L. Clark Jr., expire as aldermen, as does the term of Mayor J. M. Wilson Jr.

Tax rate this year will be $1.50 per $100 valuation. The order entered on the minutes indicated the tax receipts are to be divided into five debt service, 90 cents for the general fund.

Big Blow Blocks Highway Traffic

A massive wind covered West Texas late Tuesday afternoon and early Tuesday night when a front moved in from the Pacific that blew to shreds a wonderful chance for a rain before enough moisture could store up from south and east winds from the Gulf which preceded the western wind for several hours.

Old-timers who confidently expected rainfall saw instead their feathers fall when the premature west winds hit. Gusts that kicked up dust and cut visibility to zero, brought traffic to a halt for nearly an hour.

Miraculously only one or two traffic accidents were reported none fatal.

Wheat Fertilization

For irrigated wheat now is the time to top dress wheat with nitrogen fertilizer if this is in your plans. Research done on hardland soils has shown field increases from 10 to 20 bushels per acre. About 60 pounds of actual nitrogen per acre has proven to be the best application rate. If fertilizer is applied later you will not receive maximum benefit from it.

Dr. and Mrs. Jack Jordan, accompanied by Mrs. Jordan's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Ferguson, recently of Tennessee and presently of Amarillo, are enjoying a vacation in the Mexico City. They are due home over the week end.

Seek New Road Six Miles Long N. Of Sterley

Seventeen petitioners, headed by Sterling Cummings, are seeking a new road, six miles in length, east and west, from a point two miles north of South Plains, to a point that would tie in with a F. M. road six miles east of Providence, in North Floyd County.

The Commissioners Court Monday appointed a jury of view to look over the road and assess damages, headed by Bert Boydett and other members of the board, which are Lester McCormick, Ray Sinsney, G. B. Johnston Jr., and Early Pritchett.

The road is petitioned to begin at the west right-of-way line of Highway 207 at the north line of Survey 16, Block D-1. Thence westward the route would follow the north lines of Sections 16, 15, 5 and 6 in D-1 to the crossing of the Fort Worth & Denver Railway line. Jogging 150 yards north the route would connect with the north line of Surveys 11 and 12 in Block C-9 to connect with a Farm-to-market road already established at the northeast corner of Survey 12, Block C-9. This is also a junction with the Lone Star F. M. Road.

This last named point is six miles distant due east from Providence. The petition asks for a first class road, 60 feet wide.

Internal Revenue Answers Off Asked Questions For Taxpayers

It is tax time at the Internal Revenue Service. Every Monday morning thousands of North Texans call the magic IRS telephone number for answers to their baffling tax questions. Other taxpayers find it necessary to visit one of the 21 Internal Revenue Service offices located in major cities throughout the northern half of Texas.

District Director Ellis Campbell, Jr., of the Dallas office, who supervises the Internal Revenue Service district covering 143 counties in the northern half of Texas, has answered the ten most common questions being asked this year:

1) Can I use the new card Form 1040-A. Answer: Yes, if your income is less than $10,000 per year and you do not desire to itemize your deductions you can complete the simple Form 1040-A. These cards are available at all Internal Revenue Service offices, most banks and local offices.

2) I am an employer. What are the new FICA tax rates for Social Security withholding on my employees for 1938? Answer: The new tax rates were revised to all employers on an extra sheet attached to the form 943 mailed during the last week in December. It is an employer's duty when I receive the new Circular E which gives the new Social Security rates for my employees? Answer: Unfortunately, the printing of this publication has been delayed. We expect to be able to mail the Circular E to the more than 92,000 employers in our district during the first week in March.

3) Since the Internal Revenue Service took line 6 (a) off the Form 1040 how do I claim my travel expense deduction? Answer: The instructions you received in the mail fully explain how to claim travel expenses.

on your 1938 return. Read the instructions on page 6, entitled "Employees' Business Expenses."

4) What can I claim as a medical expense deduction? Answer: Medical expense deductions are explained on pages 9 and 10 of your Form 1040 instructions this year. Most taxpayers will have no trouble in taking the medical expense deductions if they will read the instructions.

5) I am an employer. How do I figure my state unemployment credit on tax Form 940? Answer: The instructions on how to figure state unemployment credit is attached to the Form 940 that was mailed on December 24 to the more than 40,000 North Texas employers due to file this tax return. Employers who do not understand the instructions can obtain additional help from any Internal Revenue Service office.

6) Do I have to file an estimated return? Answer: The tax instructions to taxpayers with 1938 tax forms set out the requirements on page 14 on who must file if you have income other than wages you should plan to file an estimated tax return for 1938 along with your income tax return for 1938 by April 15, or I am an employer and I have not received my Employer's Federal Tax Return, Form 941. These forms (more than 92,000 of them) were mailed on December 24 to employers. This is earlier than the usual mailing and the form may have been lost in the Christmas shuffle. If the employer cannot find the form, he should contact Internal Revenue Service, 2101 Pacific Avenue, Dallas, Texas, and we will furnish a duplicate form. I am an employer. Why have I not received my Forms W-2 and W-3? Answer: Publication 293, the booklet containing the Forms W-2 and W-3 were mailed to more than 92,000 employers in our district in September 1937. Last year was the first year that Forms W-2 and W-3 were mailed to employers in booklet form and we received more than 20,000 telephone calls and letters asking for these forms. We hope that next year everyone will be familiar with the form booklet. Publication 293, and 107, What deductions can I claim under the new law changes? Answer: There are more than 200 changes in the income tax law under the 1938 Technical Amendments Act change. Only a few of these changes affect the average individual. These are contained in the tax instruction booklet you received in the mail with your 1938 Form 1040. We advise you to read your instructions carefully and file early.

Ideas On Yard Improvements Given At Club

The Dougherty Home Demonstration Club met Feb. 4, in the home of Mrs. Bill Smith.

A brief business session was conducted by the president, Mrs. G. W. Smith. Mrs. Smith was elected nominee for District T. H. D. A. at which time Mrs. L. H. Blum acted in Mrs. Smith's place.

Mrs. Ned Bradley introduced the program for the afternoon on "Yard Improvement." Mrs. J. Ross and Mrs. Mac Ward were the leaders for the program.

A number of pruning implements were shown and explained by Mrs. Ross. After which a question and answer program was conducted by Mrs. Ross and Mrs. Ward. Information was passed on from Mrs. Aubrey Russell, district agent.

Some of the things that were stressed during the afternoon were to prune for beauty, convenience and comfort. Shrubs such as the forsythia and bridal wreath may be pruned after the blooming season. Other suggestions made include:

• Non-flowering shrub may be pruned in the dormant season.

• Climbing roses may be pruned in March or April.

• Shrubs should never come above the roof of the house only to the level of the eaves. When pruning off large limbs paint with orange shellac.

• When pruning roses to be rooted cut above a bud and root in sand then cut the limb down to where it has fine leaves.

• When rooting a nandina put cotton seed meal in a trench around the cutting.

• Gasoline or kerosene may be put around the edge of a flower bed to keep the grass out.

After the question and answer program, the group adjourned to the yard where pruning was done on different kinds of shrubs.

The ladies returned to the house and recreation was led by Mrs. Ned Bradley. Game prizes were awarded to Mrs. Johnny Cates and Mrs. R. W. Overstreet. Mrs. Mac Ward received the attendance prize.

Refreshments of cake and coffee were served to the following: Meses, Robert Ward, Claude Ring, Ned Bradley, Johnny Cates, Mac Ward, W. J. Ross, Lewis Blum, R. W. Overstreet, Raymond Jones, Gus Hammonds and two visitors, Mrs. Dorris Jones and Mrs. Bob Hefin and the hostess, Mrs. Smith.

Shipments Grain Sorghums Headed For Brazil Ports

Over one and one-half million dollars worth of grain sorghum will be shipped to Brazil during the Spring months according to Frank Moore, President of the Grain Sorghum Producers Association. The Association signed an agreement with the Foreign Agricultural Service in December authorizing the promotion of grain sorghum abroad.

According to Moore the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture has issued a purchase authorization under Title 1 of Public Law 400 to Brazil to finance the purchase of $1.7 million worth of grain sorghums from U. S. Suppliers from current market stock.

The authorization provides for the shipment of grain sorghum, grade U. S. No. 2 or better, in bulk, grown in the continental United States.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford

AUSTIN — With committee hearings going full tilt, the Legislature has reached the rough and tumble stage.

Committee hearings give everyone who has anything to say about a proposed measure a chance to come and speak up. It brings people to Austin in droves. And many speak up — very bluntly.

This year's lawmakers, particularly in the House, seem to be falling in to an early pattern of much work, little play. In part, the shortage of sociability is attributed to the hard-fought speaker's race. It divided the House into two camps, whose members, for the most part, stayed aloof from each other during early weeks.

A second sobering factor is attributed to the new lobby control law. Actually, the lobby registration requirement has probably done more than any one thing in years, to make lobbying seem common-place, respectable. A total registration of some 700 indicated that just about everybody and his brother has a lobbyist.

But the law also requires that each lobbyist make a monthly report on the amount spent influencing legislation. Herein comes the reason for caution in entertainment. No one particularly minds being identified as a lobbyist, but too large expenses might incur the risk of being tagged a "rich lobbyist."

ROUGH ROAD — Toughest sidewalk continues to be over the money problem.

Gov. Price Daniel let go with both barrels at critics of his plan for clearing the state deficit and raising additional money for future state services.

Daniel's principal target is Rep. Frates Seeligson of San Antonio, whose 18 months work with the State Tax Study Commission convinced him Texas' taxing had to branch out, partly through a 1.5 per cent sales tax.

Daniel's money program is based primarily on a natural gas severance tax and increases in a number of present taxes. He warned he'd fight for this program to the last ditch, even into a third term, if necessary.

MATTER OF MATH — First official consideration of a part of the governor's money program brought a real set-to.

It was a hearing on "the bookkeeping bill" by the House Revenue and Taxation Committee. This is a proposal, sponsored by Rep. James E. Bates of Edinburg, to credit to the general revenue fund $18,000,000 from the omnibus tax fund. Since the general revenue fund is expected to be $65,000,000 in the red by August 31, this would help to ease the pain in that area.

Representatives from the state comptroller's office called the plan unsound, declared such juggling around would just be "legalizing a false statement." Legislative critics labeled it "check kiting."

But members of the governor's office defended it stoutly as a means of giving a "true picture of financial condition."

PARKHOUSE vs. LABOR — More heat was generated when representatives of organized labor came up to protest Sen. George Parkhouse's union reporting bill.

Briefly, the Parkhouse bill would prohibit use of union dues for political purposes, and require unions to file financial statements audited by a certified public accountant.

Labor officials protested that some phrasing in the bill was so broad as to limit union members from expressing opinions and, hence, free speech. They also said the CPA requirement would be too heavy an expense for small unions.

Parkhouse said many union members had asked him to sponsor a bill so they could get an accounting of what goes with union funds. Some he said, complained their dues money was used for purposes with which they did not agree.

SCHOOL BILLS — Committee hearings on higher education appropriations brought varied, but cautious, expressions on how these increasing costs might be met.

Before the House Appropriations panel, A. M. Muldrow, Higher Education Commission chairman, said that the commission was studying the question of asking for higher college tuition rates. State college tuition was doubled, from $50 to $100 a year, last session.

Before the Senate Finance Committee, most of a group of 18 junior college presidents said they would approve a general sales tax "if necessary."

BY THE DOZENS — More and more bills keep pouring into the legislative mill daily. Among recent ones are those measures which would:

- PROTECT PUBLIC RECORDS by providing a three to seven year prison term for unlawful removal, by Sen. David Rathiff of Stamford.
- CREATE A NEW COMMISSION to regulate telephone, gas and electric power companies statewide, by Rep. Bill Kilgartin of Houston.
- KEEP PASSENGER TRAINS running longer after revenue declines, by Rep. Clyde Miller of Houston. Railroads cannot now be required to operate passenger service at a loss.
- INCREASE FRANCHISE TAX on corporations by 50 cents on such $1,000 capital, by Rep. J. E. Winfree of Houston. Part of the Daniel tax program, it would raise an estimated $14,000,000 this year, $15,000,000 next year, then expire.
- RAISE STATE EMPLOYEE pay 3 to 20 per cent on salaries under $4,000, by Travis County legislators.
- PERMIT FLEXIBLE RATES on automobile insurance, varying according to good and bad records of drivers, by Sen. Jarrard Secret of Temple. This is a highly controversial bill which was defeated last session.
- TAX TRADING STAMPS by 10 per cent, by Rep. Joe Chapman of Sulphur Springs.
- REGULATE BOXING AND WRESTLING by a new commission created for that purpose, by Rep. Will Smith of Beaumont.
- ABOLISH AERONAUTICS BOARD by Rep. Bill Hollowell of Grand Salina. He called it a "needless waste" of state money with the CAA serving all useful aviation functions. He said he is considering a similar bill to end the Good Neighbor Commission.

Sand Hill News

(By Mrs. James Jeffress)
SAND HILL, Feb. 9 - The snow was very nice if there was just a little more of it. The ground was covered Monday morning, but there still isn't enough moisture to do much good.

Mrs. Jim Holmes left Thursday for Crane, where she is spending a few days visiting her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Stokes and family.

The Sand Hill 4-H Club will meet next Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock.
All members and prospective members are urged to attend. The club will elect new officers for the coming year.

The Sand Hill Layman's revival has come and gone. Although the attendance wasn't what we expected, many blessings were received by all attending. The brother who probably the reason for the poor attendance, but more effort should have been made to attend the revival. Brother Bill Morley brought some wonderful messages and Truitt Mayes was a wonderful song leader. Both of these men were from Crosbytown.

One Club Scout, Pack 59, Den 2 of Lockney completed their January newsletter. Friday afternoon. The boys had been working all month on the newsletter. Their first meeting was spent at the Hesperian office looking over the machinery and sealing how a newspaper should be printed.

Mrs. James Jeffress was den mother for January with Mrs. Henry Bollman of Lockney assisting. The boys enjoyed a coke party Friday, while completing their newsletter. Those in the troop are Joe Robert Amaya, David Patterson, Larry McDonald,
David Patterson, Jimmy Jefferson, Ben
King and Bob Moore. Mrs. McDonald of Lockney will be den mother for February.

ress home Friday night was Brother and Mrs. Bill Rowland, Kathy and the church with the president, Mrs.

Ed Noel calling the meeting to order.
Those present were Mmes. Ed Noel,

Rowan, Olen Baird, Bill Rowland and Bill Stricker. The next meeting will be Feb. 10, at 9 a. m. This will be the Royal Service program.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Swanner met
Mrs. Gene Swanner, their son, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Swanner, Sunday night at 6 p. m. in Amarillo. Sunday night at 6 o'clock. Gene Swanner has been overseas for the past two years. They weren't expecting him home until April, but were pleasantly surprised last week when a telegram was received, saying they were in California. Gene was married while he was overseas and is now bringing his bride home for the first time.

Brother Bill Rowland and Brother
E. O. Adams of Aiken plan to leave sometime this week for Ohio, where they plan to look into the mission field there. They plan to be gone 4

Church met Monday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock. Their program was presented. Those present were Linda, yn McLain and Mary and Elaine spent last week visiting in the home of her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Mem-ore Schulz and family. Mr. and Mrs.

home on their farm near Lubbock, as their home was destroyed by fire before Christmas.

most of this week on a business trip.

view and Mrs. Bill Rowland and

A get acquainted party Friday night. Yes, it's time for the Sand Hill annual get acquainted party again. The date is Friday night, Feb.
13, at 7:30 o'clock. Progressive "42" will be the recreation for the evening with pie and coffee being served during the evening. Since the Sand Hill Club sponsors this, all members are asked to bring pies.

The get acquainted party is for everyone in the community. It's a chance for all the new families to meet their neighbors, so all you neighbors be there too. In fact it's for everyone to come and have a good time together. We will be looking for everyone of you to be at the get acquainted party.

The Sand Hill Club met Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. R. L.
Bullock with Mrs. Bullock as the hostess.

Something about a foreign country continues to be a very interesting roll call and really adds to the meetings.

The club voted to sell name plate markers for the community, and if possible put up a marker near the intersection with names, directions and mileage on it. If a club lady comes around in the near future trying to sell you a marker, you won't only be helping the club but the community. These markers may be seen day or night. The poles are not furnished.

Mrs. James Jeffress was elected T. H. D. A delegate to represent the club at Council.

The club will help pay some of the expense for two persons to attend the Recreation Board-up at Glenrose beginning next week. Mr. and Mrs.
Lynn Miller were elected to go, alternates are Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Mc-Lain and Mrs. James Jeffress.

Mrs. R. L. Bullock presented the program on "How to Prun Shrubs" telling how and when this should be done.

Refreshments were served to Mmes. Ed Noel, J. T. Myrick, H. F.
Jackson, T. C. Hollums, Wayne Billington, Hollis McLain, Orlin Miller, Lynn Miller, Walter Knight, James
Adams and the hostess, Mrs. R. L.
Bullock.

The next meeting will be Feb. 18,
in the home of Mrs. James Jeffress.
The program will be on "The Care of the Feet."

Do you want a community center?
Here is something for each member of the community to think about. If you want a community center, you had better start talking it up, but first help do something about it by signing the petition that is being circulated around this week. If not, we may have the school house there, there would be no club no 4-H Club and no community parties. If we get to keep the school house, plans for a community center will start in the near future. With the men helping the clubs we should have a good one.
It can be done with everyone pulling together.

Brother Bill Rowland and Brother
E. O. Adams are expected home from Ohio Wednesday.

The attendance at both church services in the community were way up Sunday. Brother Keith Lloyd preached at the Baptist Church. Seventy-three were in Sunday School with eighty attending Training Union. The old saying "while the preacher's away the members will play" don't hold true Sunday. We were so happy to have all the visitors and all the members too. We could have that number every Sunday if the people loved the Lord and got out and worked and visited. Thirty contacts were reported Sunday morning. Three classes had 100 per cent attendance.

Three classes had 100 per cent atten-is associated closely with the overall progress. There is no such thing as standing still, Jennings continued. Four basic things are needed, work, money, time, and desire. As to desire, Jennings said the community must desire for things together in making progress and prosperity. He said that each person and each community must share in this progress.

More money is expected to be spent on development and research within the next 10 years than has been spent in the nation's history. It takes individuals and communities like yours to share in the benefits, which will not be automatic, Jennings added.

Are you ready to take this responsibility to help your community to grow. Time is passing by fast, Jennings said.

EDITORIAL VIEWS AND COMMENT

What to do about the A and B cotton planting options is the big question on Floyd County cotton farms at the moment and will continue to be right up to planting time this spring. Tonight and tomorrow night much light will be shed on the various angles of the options. The "program" will be the subject at two important open meetings called by the County ASC committee. How to keep the country in the cotton business (competitively with other nations) and still not break the cotton planter is the question. Our mills have got to compete and our farmers have to have a livelihood. Are these hard facts impossible to reconcile?

There are many sides of the complex question. One knows that it takes a mighty small amount to cotton to make a dress shirt. If the farmer made the mill a present of the staple needed for a shirt the finished article still would cost the consumer about the same amount he pays for the shirt now.

All the national organizations which have not done so already are moving their headquarters to Washington and all the state organizations to the respective state capitals. Result is that sites for "headquarters" come high for one thing. The state capital has become a focal point in all the myriad organization activities. That should sound good to a real estate man in Austin. And when other cities and towns are racked by industrial depression the capital city ought to be able to move along in normal fashion just supplying the needs of the hundreds of headquarters.

Oysters Making Comeback? We read somewhere that the oyster industry is getting ready to stage a comeback on the coast. Once important where waters of the inland rivers and the salt gulf met under the right conditions, oyster production has dwindled to a "mere token" so far as it served state consumption. Oysters do well where a bay serves as a basin for an ideal degree of salinity. What is planned to be done to provide the ideal oyster bed sites we are not informed. Pollution put a good many sites out of business in the past 30 years. Perhaps these conditions are to be relieved, to help make the comeback possible.

Arizona newspapers are telling the stories of two Indian "nations" which are trying to wangle some help out of Washington. There's a queer twist, however. In the instance of the Hopi Indians, they have decided to take their long-brushed-off boundary dispute (involving the Indian Agency and the Navajos) to the United Nations. Their "nation" can't get any satisfaction out of the U. S. Government. Maybe the international agency will help them. The other hassle is one the Sioux Tribe is having. They want telephone service in their territory, but can't get anybody at Washington to pay them any mind, although others are getting telephones. They want a loan and are taking it up with the USSR embassy in Washington. Their own government (USA) has made a loan to Tito's Commies to "stabilize that country's railways." A fair exchange would be a similar loan to the Sioux Nation from USSR.

We're Plum Ready. For our money the Texas Insurance Commission is taking too good care of the insurance business in Texas, especially the casualty insurance, and in particular the insurance on the hazards of the road. Right now no man knows whether he has enough insurance to save himself from bankruptcy in case of a bad wreck, what with juries raising the ante and lawyers busy on the job with 35 per cent of the net dangling before them as part of the swag in case of a successful venture into the court room.

What we're ready for is some competition in the automobile insurance business. The Insurance Commission says it is all wrong and it may be. But what we have now is all wrong, too. We'd like to see if a change would would be wronger. It is quite possible the insurance companies are losing their shirts on casualty business, but it is equally quite sure that many thousands of automobiles and other vehicles are being operated under the present state law without any protection for the property and lives of others. If you are a responsible person you pay and pay. If not responsible you operate until you get caught up with in a crash, and then begin operating all over again as soon as the enforcement officer turns his back.

What is happening is that the responsible automobile driver is being hog tied and forced to pay through the nose. We may not need competition in the automobile casualty or collision insurance business. We may need just the kind of protection we are getting. But since we can't afford it, the answer is to make a change—some way, some how, and now not some other time after a commission has studied the situation and made a report.

It may be, indeed, that the insurance commission is working on the same basis as the state banking commission, namely, to take care of its friends. But an intolerable situation has arisen and a way out must be found.

Time Brings Changes. Headlines two years ago compared or contrasted with headlines telling the story of the current legislative session in Texas are reminders that time does bring changes. Whereas water was headlined two years ago as the No. 1 problem of the state, financing is the big question this year. The legislature didn't have imports of oil to contend with and a big deficit two years ago. Water is no less a state problem than it was however, although we are vague—and possibly other run-of-mine citizens are also—about what can be done toward the solution of the water problem.

We think of dams, big and little, when waste of water is mentioned, and the titans of the state are battling over who shall have the excess flow after water reaches the lower stretches of the big rivers, so dams must be part of it. Reconciling the various interests that are tied into dam construction may be the No. 1 question, as a matter of fact. As for instance, the Canadian Dam for which plains and lower panhandle people are, even those not directly interested, urgently interested. This dam could be under construction now, except for clash of interests of the cities which it would serve. It is costing the plains people millions of gallons of irreplaceable water for every day its construction is delayed. And the Canadian project is only one of perhaps a hundred, even more, that would add greatly to the water supply, the health and wealth of the state. Probably only necessity will drive to a successful conclusion many of the dam projects, including the Canadian.

Eighty-ninth District Representative H. G. Wells writes that he is well pleased with his committee assignments in the current session of the legislature. Freshmen do not get to head any of the committees at Austin but first have to prove themselves. Wells was appointed to agriculture, conservation and reclamation, judiciary, education, and constitutional amendments committees. Education is the big controversial question in the legislature at this writing. The real battle in this connection is one of who is going to pay the bills. Wells reports that activity is "fast and furious" after a slow start.

Facts About Red Cross Volunteers

The record in 1957 - 58 - Chapters with only volunteer workers: 1,500. Number of volunteers per paid worker: 164.

Federal and civilian hospitals in which volunteers served: 7,200. Civilian mental hospitals in which volunteers served: 150.

Other community agencies through which volunteers served: 8,040. The work of Red Cross is made possible by the skill and dedication of the volunteers who serve in every phase of the organization's activities from top leadership to the daily services provided by Red Cross chapters in the nation's communities.

If someone asks... How can the Red Cross afford a large enough staff to carry out all its programs? Answer: By recruiting and training large numbers of qualified volunteers. There are approximately 20 million of these volunteers serving annually in Red Cross activities. Hundreds of thousands of volunteers receive special training for their jobs, including volunteer field staff and volunteers in administrative jobs.

If someone asks... Does the Red Cross train volunteers who will serve through other organizations? Answer: Yes. Red Cross invites participation in many of its training courses: Driver Education which may be taken by an adult licensed driver; Emergency Mass Feeding; a joint Red Cross-civil defense project; and sections of training for members of Army and Volunteer Nurse's Aid Services. Because more health and welfare agencies want and use trained volunteers, Red Cross chapters are helping their community by sharing their volunteer training know-how.

A big, new double-barreled campaign is underway to give farm women a chance to cash in on their cooking and at the same time help them sell their own farm products. The promotion is called the Farm Kitchen Recipe Round-Up by its sponsors, the Larro Feed Division of General Mills.

Round-Up prizes are big — $17,000 in awards — but the long-range prospects are even bigger. The finest farm kitchen farm product recipes collected by Larro will then go to work across the nation through General Mills merchandising and promotion by Betty Crocker, America's first lady of foods... using farm kitchen cookery to promote the profitable sale of farm products.

The Round-Up is open to farm families only... offers 728 prizes, including seven top cash awards of $1,000 plus a trip for two to Betty Crocker Kitchens and the Minneapolis Aquatennial. Recipes can be entered in any of these seven categories — chicken, turkey, beef, pork, lamb, eggs and dairy products. One or more recipes can be entered in any category. Recipes will be judged by professional home economists and checked by the Betty Crocker Kitchens, C. B. Carmack, local Larro Sure Feed dealer, explained that through the Farm Kitchen Recipe Round-Up, farm products will be promoted to the kitchens of America through Betty Crocker.

TAX-MAN SEZ

The community property law of the State of Texas continues to be one of the most important points for Texas to remember in filing their Federal tax returns. In Texas the husband and wife must each file on one-half of all the community income and on one-half of all the expenses of the community if they file separate returns.

It is much better in Texas to file a joint return with all the husband's and wife's income on one return.

OPTOMETRY: The Art and Science of Visual Care

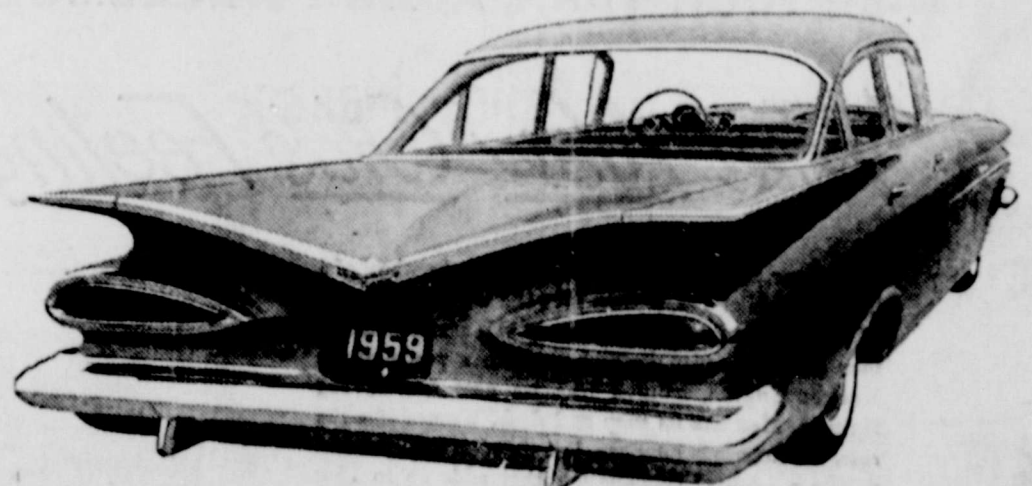

Can YOU really see at night?

- Some people cannot. They avoid driving at night because they feel unsafe and unsure. Their vision actually changes after dark. Night vision can be improved in some cases where special lenses are required. If you are troubled with night blindness, consult a professional optometrist. And if it can not be improved, he will advise you to: Drive slower, Never take your eyes off the road, Watch the edge of the highway, Don't look at approaching headlights

CHEVY'S NEW HI-THRIFT 6

More miles are back in a gallon of regular-grade gas — up to 10% more — and Chevy's new Hi-THRIFT 6 engine puts them there. It also gives you more "git" in the speeds you drive the most. Here's an engine that always seems able to coax extra miles out of a tank of regular-grade gas. In fact, if you're one of those drivers who keep tab on things like gas mileage, you'll soon see for yourself that this new Hi-THRIFT 6 gets up to 10% more miles a gallon.

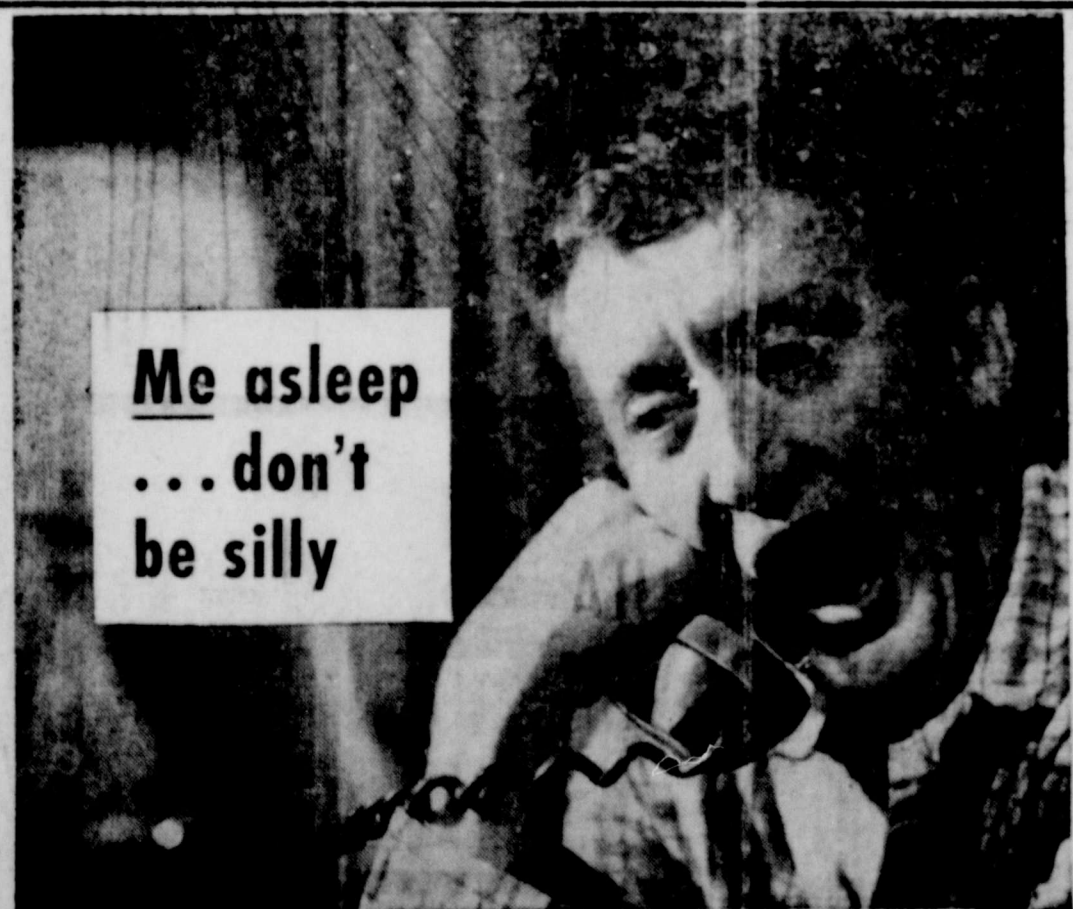

extra pep it gives you for passing and climbing hills. That's due to higher torque at normal speeds. It may be hard to believe anything that looks like this '59 Chevy can be such a stickler for economy. But — whether you pick the Hi-THRIFT 6 or... one more reason Chevy's car that's stayed for all its worth. Want by your dealer's and see.

"LET YOUR LOVE LIGHT SHINE BRIGHT"

(The editorial below was written for the Valentine Edition of the Whirl in 1955 by Carolyn Downing, Editor.)

Do you see a small cherub with an arrow lurking around? You should look closely because he is looking for someone, and I think it may be you! Are you wondering why? Well, I will just tell you.

It is nearly February 14 (Saturday!), and you know what that means—Valentine's Day, the day when the love bug may bite you, or, as in the case, cupid's arrow. It has been cupid's "aim" for many years to bring the glow of romance into the faces of boys and girls, men and women, of all ages.

Sometimes, though, he has to have a little help, and sentimental valentines, red, heart-shaped boxes of candy, and flowers may do the trick to get the love-light shining from the eyes of the "object of your affections." Certainly when he or she, as the case may be, begins to notice you, it may change your "complexion from white to rosy red" as the song says.

Many years ago it was the custom to draw lots to decide which young men and women should be each other's "valentine" for the coming year. The couples would then exchange gifts, and sometimes they even became engaged to be married. That sounds like it would be fun, although I can see where they might run into difficulty, can't you?

Have you bought a valentine for that "certain person" you admire? If you haven't do it at once and let the "love light shine bright!"

—Carolyn Downing

GENETTA PRICE

Price Evidences Ability as Leader

(By Ann Word)
Genetta Marie Price was born on August 24, 1941, in Corsicana, Texas. Genetta's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Price, have two other daughters, Loretta and Lallae.

Genetta is active in church organizations as well as those of her school. She is a member of the Floydada Whirlwind Band, Future Homemakers of America, and the National Honor Society.

Her membership in the National Honor Society shows how well her grades are kept up. To remain in the National Honor Society, the members must maintain an average of 90, as well as show talent in leadership and citizenship.

In her church, she belongs to the C. A. S. She holds the office of secretary.

Another example of her leadership qualities is her office in Rainbow. She holds the second highest office, Worthy Associate Advisor, and is in line for the highest, Worthy Advisor.

Genetta's likes are many and her dislikes few. She enjoys reading, eating (who doesn't), riding horses, and collecting matchbook covers. She doesn't like to ride the bus or practice her piano.

Genetta was the only girl in the physics class last year. She received shrapnel in her leg and arm in the explosion.

After graduation from Floydada High School, Genetta plans to attend Wayland College in Plainview.

Literary Meet Date Is Changed

The district literary meet has been changed to April 1. The events will start at 9:30 a. m. at Spur High School. The grade school events will be in a Spur elementary school.

Track and field events are Friday, April 10, starting at 9 a. m. at Texas Tech track field.

'He Makes Life'

(The composition below was judged by the English IV students and Miss Anne Swepton, instructor, as one of the best written in the sixth period class.)

(By Pat Hickerson)
From the beginning of the existence of man and thought, the question has been asked, "What is Life?" Doesn't this question answer itself? A question is always a matter of seeking, and that is just what life is—a seeking to know and to understand. It is the ability to think, to search for something, and the thrill of sharing with others. It is also the desire to laugh and to be joyful, and to know why you are happy.

In order to complete this wonderful recipe of life, one must add the most important ingredient of all, and that is the placing of oneself completely in God's line of will. His hands. My God is a personal God, who is concerned with me as well as others; therefore I do not need to worry. He, who is powerful and loves me, is the Director of my ways and my life. He is so wonderful that I know He will show me what to do as I need to know.

My job is a simple one although it is very easy to drift away from. Would like you to know what it is? It is to keep as close as I can to God through devotions, prayer, and meditation. By these means I can increase my faith, then He will make good things happen in my life and give me strength to endure the bad ones.

Many of us are afraid to believe in God because we are afraid He will fail to give the life abundant to those whom He has enough faith in to entrust His whole world. We are the little ones who are afraid to give all to God or humanity because we fear we will not get dividends. God, in His love for the littles, is the biggest of all.

You see, you can never hold life, for if you really have life, it will always bubble and spill over! To think, to reach, to be happy, to have faith is the love of all things; to love is to live, and life is love.

Shorthand Class Makes Valentines

The Shorthand class made valentines with the use of all shorthand outlines in their verses on them. These were displayed on the bulletin board in Room 108.

Some of the valentines were serious. Some comical. They are to exchange their valentines today and get theirs since so many band members will be gone on Friday.

More than 250,000 people per year visit the Texas National Forests.

FHA Girls Show Good Ideas For Afternoon Snacks

(By Addie Adkins)
The F. H. A. girls were thrilled by a cooking demonstration given by Mrs. Harry Morckel.

The girls were treated with samples of the food. Mrs. Morckel showed the group how to make a delicious punch known as the 1-2-3-4-punch. A nut mix of popcorn, and cereal was also sampled.

Another treat was that of weenies wrapped in biscuits. An excellent guacamole salad was prepared. The dishes were accented with fritos, pickles and potato chips.

This demonstration was for "Afternoon Snacks" and several helpful hints were offered for making these dishes.

The band will arrive in Del Rio about 2:30 miles, in the evening to stay in residents' homes. That night they will perform on the football field against all classes.

Concert and sightreading contests are to be held Saturday morning. Then FHS seniors will show what they can do in an all-festival band.

To climax the band festival is a parade which the Whirlwind Band is looking forward to with enthusiasm.

Sunday the band is returning home, hoping to have added a few trophies to their collection.

Hines Elected Prexy of PPSC

Hal Hines, FHS Student Council Vice President, was elected Plainview Student Council President for 1959-1960 at the clinic held February 7. This is the first time a FHS member has gotten a position of this type in SC work.

Jerry Crawford made Hal's nomination speech. Hal had one opponent from Happy in the race. Fifteen area schools were represented. All but two votes were cast for Hal in the voting.

Each of FHS's delegates attended three discussion groups pertaining to SC work. Entertainment consisted of the famous Wayland International Choir and a ventriloquist.

The purpose of the clinic was to present new ideas to student councils and to gain new ideas, reported by Duncan, President of the district.

"One of the best ideas was a high school carnival," Si said.

SC members attending were Si Duncan, Edwina Overstreet, Hal Hines, Estella Wyatt, Tommie Copeland, Carolyn Moore, Nita Cagle, Clarence Richardson, Jerry Crawford, and Miss Anne Swepton, sponsor.

Cupid Verses

The sea is wide and also the ocean.
The boys can't get married until the girls get a notion!

Tell your mother to hold her tongue
For she loved boys when she was young.
Tell your father to do the same for
He loved one and changed her name.

A seat of dirt,
A stick of wood
A kiss from you
Would do me good.

Of course my hair won't stay in place
And I have freckles on my face,
But just the same, my heart beats
For no one but you!

I love coffee, I love tea,
I love the boys and they love me
I told "Ma" to hold her tongue for She loved boys when she was young.

Kiss me quick and let me go,
Here comes Paw with a grubbin' ho!

He: "So help me, I'll kiss you!"
She: "So kiss me, I'll help you!"

Leaves may wither,
Flowers may die,
Friends may forget you,
But never will I.

The sea is wide and you can't stop it,
I love you and you can't help it!

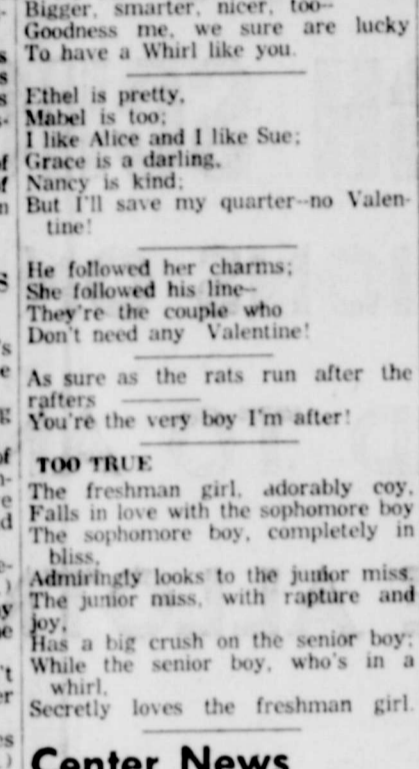

Every year you just get cuter,
Bigger, smarter, nicer, too—
Goodness me, we sure are lucky
To have a Whirl like you!

Ethel is pretty,
Mabel is too;
I like Alice and I like Sue;
Grace is a darling,
Nancy is kind,
But I'll save my quarter—no Valentine!

He followed her charms;
She followed his line—
They're the couple who Don't need any Valentine!

As sure as the rats run after the rafters,
You're the very boy I'm after!

Back in Amazon Valley of So Many Things To Do

letter was received by Mr. and Mrs. Sr. from Rev. Lonn's wife, Janelle, miss- by the South American by the First Baptist (Ed Note.)

Our leaving the states this time was more difficult because of the children. They had become thoroughly "Americanized". Their school teachers had made them feel so much a part of everything, as had the University Church in Abilene. But they have adjusted very rapidly since arriving again in Brazil. They had forgotten Portuguese on tires and found it sorta hard when all their little friends were at the airport to see them and they couldn't even say "hello". Thelma Gay and David were speaking with two weeks but for Margaret it took more than a month.

We got here at a time when it seemed Manaus was "running out" of everything. We have been several weeks off and on without bread - fortunately I usually had five or six kilos of flour to sort help us over the hump. But the last time I didn't have any and we were 17 days with no bread. I had no idea flour was used so much in cooking. For two weeks we were without coffee which is a serious thing for our Brazilian people.

There was a milk shortage but a friend at the market knew we had a small baby and told Lonn there would be no more milk for several weeks and sold us a case of powdered milk. So Robert was never without milk but many children were. Manaus now has a gas refinery and we have a butane gas stove. But something broke at the plant and we went without gas for more than a month. We cooked altogether on charcoal. In parts of Manaus there was no electricity because of no wood to burn - and here we are in the middle of one of the largest forests in the world.

But the worst thing of all was no water - yes we still live on the edge of the Amazon River - The river was over this year - at any time during this century and the pipes were out of the water. So until they could lengthen the pipes to reach the water, we did without. The mission house here has an underground tank and it saved the day for us. In fact the School of Nursing came one morning for water to cook their beans. In every vehicle in Manaus was carrying water - truck, bus, jeep, car, bicycle, wheelbarrow, and on most every head was a can of water. Schools were closed, but our Baptist School also has an underground tank and we were able to continue. Mary Hazel Moon wrote the other day that they might build only half a house but an underground tank was a must and we agree.

The Moons were to go on furlough in August but Loyd had been quite sick and the doctor thought an operation might be necessary and naturally we all agreed that they should go home early. We feel cheated that we didn't get caught up on talking. They left in June, and the operation wasn't necessary but they definitely needed a rest.

But the Doyles hardly got into the swing of things before the Moons left. So it seems we've never gotten caught up. Lonn's travels almost half of the time. In fact, Dr. Means, our Latin American Secretary, wrote the other day and said lots of travel was good for the work but bad for the family. We realize this but so much needs to be done that what we can do seems so inadequate.

We are trying to find a Brazilian pastor for Memorial Church because Lonn cannot do the field work and give sufficient time to a church. We do ask your prayers during the month of December as a boy finishing the Seminary in Rio will be with this church. He feels that the Lord is calling him to this state and we do want to find the Lord's man for this growing church.

Our State is most fortunate in getting two new pastors from Rio. One will pastor an interior church, and the other will be the itinerant worker with all 16 churches of our State Convention. From the first graduate class of our new Baptist institute in Belem will come a young dedicated couple to our state. Also from the Training School in Recife we have a new teacher for our Baptist school. Other than these five permanent workers we have three summer workers from Rio. These young people have come some two thousand miles to give us a helping hand.

One of the most encouraging things in our work is to see new churches organized. Oil was recently discovered in the Amazon Valley and in this quickly growing settlement we have Baptist work started and will be organized into a church before Christmas. Lonn has been busy getting building material there to construct a beautiful little church. Our worker there is certainly a "go-getter". With his dedication to the work, it has developed rapidly. On one visit Lonn was invited to speak to the doctrine class that Pastor Almir had each week. The door was open and several people came in. Lonn spoke on Salvation and when he finished the pastor gave an invitation and five people accepted Christ.

The children have just finished their state exams and are out of Brazilian school for summer holidays until March. They continue to study the Calvert Home course in English with me and next year Margaret will start to school and then I'll have first, third and fifth grades going all at once. Where will I ever get the time?

Robert is starting to talk and is learning every word in both languages which we think is pretty smart for a ten month old boy. Our parrot is also learning English. He says lots of things in Portuguese but he has recently learned to call "mother" just exactly like David and I've made a million trips to see why David continued to call me. When I'd get there it would be Louro. Few things are as thrilling as to get Christmas cards from home and when we got our first one, we had such a guilty feeling because we had neglected to get a letter in the mail to you in November as we have done each year that we have been in Brazil. But perhaps this will get to you in time to know we wish for each of you a very Merry Christmas.

We're working hard to get into the Christmas spirit but the stores here help so little and the hot sultry weather is not exactly what we expect during the Christmas season. But we consider it a privilege to be with the Brazilian people once more to celebrate the birth of our Savior. Knowing it's impossible to do all the work that our state needs, we covet your prayers that we might exceed those things most important, so that more of our Brazilian people will be celebrating the birth of their Savior before the next Christmas Season.

Most sincerely yours,
Lonn and Janelle Doyle

The Rusk Enquirer mentions the fact, that on the 14th inst., three prisoners confined in the jail at that place, left very unceremoniously and without the leave of the jailer. They were all heavily ironed, but managed to unshackle themselves and cut a hole through the wall, and by means of blankets let themselves to the ground.

We learn from the San Antonio Herald, that a Mr. Hilburn, of Uvalde county, on Friday, 14th inst., shot an Indian, while out hunting hogs. The Indian was nearly naked, and refused to tell his tribe, and said that he was all alone. He died in about an hour after he was shot.

Austin - Attention. - We are indebted to Hon. Matt Ward for a copy of the New York Day Book, to the Hon. A. G. Brown for a copy of the stump speeches of Douglas and Lincoln, and to the Hon. J. Guy M. Bryan, for the speech of A. H. Stevens, in defense of Judge Watrous, as well as his (Bryan's) own speech. - A friend has also sent us copies of the Patent Office and Smithsonian Institute Reports.

It will be seen in another paragraph, that of the 318,313 population in Arkansas, there are only 60,048 slaves, leaving 258,265 who either work or play, but who, in working, are degraded in the opinion of some of the Texas Democratic pressmen. And yet Arkansas is regarded by the many as the very best cotton State in the Union.

The annual expenses of Arkansas are only $50,000. Texas, with 300,000 inhabitants, has an annual expense of half a million dollars. Verily Arkansas is a very economical, or Texas a very extravagant, country.

A Texas Prize Fight
On the 25th ult., a prize fight took place on Point Island, Texas, between an American named Robert Carn, and a Spaniard named Tamandra Pordyer, for $1500 a side. A sporting friend has furnished us a full report of the battle, which was long and obstinately contested. They were both powerful men, Carn scaling 192 pounds and the Spaniard 216, and the "mill" was a very merry one indeed, both parties being delightfully punched and pumelled. They fought thirty-four rounds in two hours and ten minutes, when the stalwart Don succumbed to the superior pluck and science of Brother Jonathan. At the close of the entertainment all hands took to their boars and left for parts unknown. -Jefferson Gazette

Training Session Is Held for Cubmasters
Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Cockrell and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Jarnagin of Floydada attended the Quarterly Round Table Training session held in Plainview Friday night at the Trinity Baptist Church.

The Round Table is a training experience designed to pass on to Cubmasters. Den mothers and others interested in Scouting in the Haynes District, ideas, games, stunts, crafts, and other information that will help them in presenting training to their Cub Scouts for the next three months.

Glenn Jarnagin, Cubmaster of Floydada Pack 57, presented "Musical Hoedown", theme which will be used for the month of May.

The Senate and Hell, or The Ministry And Heaven
Another romantic article first appeared in the New Orleans Christian Advocate, which makes it appear, in plain language, that a distinguished lawyer in this State had the choice laid before him, of a seat in the U. S. Senate, with the Drunkards grave and an eternity in Hell, or the Ministry, sobriety and Heaven. After some prayerful hesitation he chose the latter.

There may be truth in the story, or it may be nearly all romance. But it is a melancholy fact, that very many otherwise good men would exchange their chances for Heaven for a seat in the United States Senate. It is true the politician's chance may be slim, but we think it no great virtue to give up political life; nor is the cause of religion much subserved by boasting over the acquisition of a prominent politician. -Southern Intelligencer

An Arkansas paper says: "Drive a stick in the ground, place a hat on it and name it Johnson, and we will venture to say that it can be elected to any office within the gift of the people. The name possesses a peculiar charm or an unexplainable something that draws the vote of the masses."

The Sherman Patriot says the excitement about the Arizona Gold mine is growing immense, and the over-

Immigration
The immigration into Texas via the Missouri and Arkansas routes, last fall, is estimated at 30,000. Through the town of Carthage, Mo. alone, nearly 1800 wagons passed bound for Texas. That town is not on the principal routes, which pass through Minersville and Fort Gibson, and through Van Buren and Fort Smith.

HUMPS ARE GREAT! BUT... NOT FOR CARS

'59 MERCURY CUTS THE HUMP IN THE FLOOR WAY DOWN. FIRST CAR WITH REAL COMFORT - EVEN FOR CENTER-SEAT PASSENGERS

For 1959, Mercury's got what the other new cars forgot. For example, Mercury is the only new car that remembers "the man in the middle."

Other new cars still have that big tunnel-hump in the center of the floor. The so-called "6-passenger" models are only comfortable for 4 passengers. Center-seat passengers ride with their legs doubled up. But Mercury has cut the hump in half - shrunk it into a footrest. Seat cushioning is deep and soft. There's solid, stretch-out comfort wherever you sit.

Stop in. See all the ways Mercury turns problems into pleasures: windshield wipers that clear even the center, doors that are easy to get through (wider than in the costliest cars). And so much more - all at a price that 2 out of 3 new-car buyers can afford.
