Floyd County Rate of Lung Cancer Lower

(Special to The Hesperian)

NEW YORK, Aug. 28 — Official government figures, just released, indicate that the lung cancer rate in Floyd County is running much lower than in most parts of the United States.

The findings are contained in the annual vital statistics report of the U. S. Public Health Service, covering every section of the country for the year ending January 1, 1958.

It comes at a time when many of the people engaged in lung cancer research are taking a sharp look at air pollution as the possible mauler. It follows the discovery of cancer-producing elements in the smog surrounding some cities.

The toll in Floyd County in the year, from cancer of all kinds, amounted to 9. Not included are deaths locally of non-residents.

Lung cancer, however, was responsible for only one of these deaths, or 11.1 percent of the entire cancer toll.

Elsewhere in the United States, lung cancer amounted to 13.3 percent of the total, and in the State of Texas, to 13.6 percent.

In proportion to population, lung cancer mortality in Floyd County was below average. It came to 10.0 per 100,000 population.

By way of comparison, the rate for the rest of the United States was 19.7 per 100,000 and, for the West South Central States, 16.7 per 100,000.

There is still considerable difference of opinion among medical men on the controversial question of what causes lung cancer.

Many of them, including Dr. John R. Heller, head of the National Cancer Institute, insist that cigarette smoking is accountable for much of it.

Others, such as Dr. Herman E. Hilleboe, New York State Health Commissioner, are stressing air pollution. He notes that the average citizen drinks three quarts of liquid a day and inhales 16,000 quarts of air and that, while most of the liquid is pure, much of the air is not.

It is contaminated with the exhaust fumes of autos and buses and with the smoke from factory and domestic chimneys.

Nationally, there has been a steady increase in lung cancer. The report shows that it has gone up 16.5 percent in three years.

Women Golfers Set Hi Plains Play Day Here

The Womens Golf Association at Floydada Country Club will be hosts to the Hi Plains Association on Wednesday, September 3.

The ladies will tee off at 9:00 a. m. for 18 holes of medal play. Golfers are handicapped to proper flights in the event.

There will be a business session and lunch will be served at the club house.

Water Supply Augmented

The city council has gotten off the hook which had them hung in a water shortage dilemma when weather conditions turned hot and dry.

The addition of a little well that had been abandoned for sometime, hooked up at relatively low cost, gave enough of an additional supply to make up the 1,800 gallons per minute the city needs.

The little well is out in the Northwest City Park. It is putting 245 gallons into the mains every minute around the clock.

When the new well the city had planned for has wound up in a sort of an incomplete venture, with the city and the contractors still talking over mistakes that may or may not have been made, the city fathers began to look around. When they did they found the well they had ready to go by the installation of a pump the size it needed for its capacity.

Letting Needing Cooler Weather

It will be well over a month before lettuce harvest gets under way here in Floyd County, according to growers of the vegetable in this area. Between now and then there will have to be plenty of cool nights for the lettuce to bunch if the harvest gets going by the first part of October.

It usually takes from 60 to 65 days for the lettuce to be ready for harvest after planting. It will take from 30 to 35 days for lettuce, which is up to be ready for cutting, depending then on the weather.

The Post Antelopes also have a new coach in Vernard Alexander who came to them from Morton. The Lopes lost only seven seniors. They returned 11 lettermen six of which are regulars. Last year they won 3 lost 6 and tied 1.

Spur the team that always points to Floydada as the favorite in September then knocks them off in November is due for another good team. They graduated 6 seniors (three less than Floydada); they returned 13 lettermen (two more than Floydada); they have 7 starters (the same as Floydada).

Last year they won 9 games, lost 3 and tied 1. Their Bulldog team was knocked from the running by Stamford in the quarter- finals giving their team mem- bers three additional weeks of play that other members of the district did not get.

Only bright spot — this year they play in Floydada (first time in forty years).

Royal James is coach at Spur, going there from Abernathy where he had a very impressive won last record.

The Tahoka Bulldogs are trying to go unnoticed until things get going. Tahoka lost but 7 seniors, they returned 10 lettermen, and 6 of these were regulars. Tahoka had a 2 - 5 record a year ago.

Tahoka has a new coach in J. D. Atwell who came to them from Farwell.

Mrs. Dwaine Lancaster and child ready then transfer them to the freezer. If you have a large amount to freeze at once, it may be wise to have them quick frozen at the locker plant.

Freeze packaged meat as soon as possible to prevent juices from draining. For best results, quick freeze meat at the locker plant where correct freezing temperatures (-20 degrees F. in still air or 5 degrees F. in circulated air) are maintained. These low temperatures are not reached in most home freezers. Transfer the meat to the home freezer in more unfrozen food into the freezer than will freeze within 24 hours. This is about 1 or 2 pints of food per cubic foot of freeze capacity. Overloading slows down the rate of freezing, and food that freezes too slowly may lose quality or spoil. For quickest freezing, place the packages against the freezing plates or coils and leave a little space between the packages so air can circulate between them.

Scoring Canned Fruits

This is what your canned fruit will be judged by at the fair. In selecting your jars of fruit to take, consider these points:

CONTAINER—15 points. Clean, polished standard jar, lid free from rust and corrosion, neat plain label placed 1/8 inches from bottom of jar. If jar leaks, it is disqualified.

PACK-25 points. Practical but not fancy, uniform in size whether whole or in pieces, space in jar filled but not crowded, large proportions of fruit to syrup, fruit covered with syrup, one-half inch head space in jar.

COLOR-30 points. Characteristic of fruit not faded or darkened. Uniform ripeness, clear syrup.

TEXTURE-30 points. Shape held, uniform maturity, not mushy from over ripeness or overcooking.

I'll see you at the fair.

their alarm clocks and re-figure their budgets. Parents of the incoming college freshmen - most of whom got their own schooling at rock-bottom depression prices - face what most will regard as an appallingly expensive future. Average cost for a Texas college student is $1,100 a year - not including a car, clothes, dates, etc. In the larger cities it may run $1,500 a year.

For four years the average investment can be expected to return such handsome dividends. Statistically, the college graduate can expect to earn $100,000 more in his lifetime than the non-graduate.

Aside from the students and the parents and teachers who are affected, "back to school" has a wider impact on the economy. Employment will jump as many of the jobless are absorbed into the operations of the dormitories, boarding houses and lunchrooms. Retail stores look to the briskest sales since Easter in the annual re-outfitting that ranges from blue jeans to book satchels, calicos to crayons.

Real estate, customarily, also has a flurry as families try to "get located before school starts." Why Go Back? - Why go back to school when you can stay out and earn some money?

Texas Board of Pardons and Paroles has some sobering answers. Its annual report shows that of 1,136 prison inmates released during the past year, only 119 had completed high school. Only six were college graduates. Percentage is about the same for those persons still in prison. Overall, the Board feels that people who complete their education are therefore able to get useful, better-paying jobs are much less likely to run afoul of the law.

ALL BUT THREE - Gov. Price Daniel signed the huge new state appropriations bill, but he exercised his constitutional prerogative to scratch out some items. Daniel vetoed appropriations for (1) a $216,000 home for old folks; (2) a $200,000 tourist advertising program by the State Highway Department; and (3) $1,833,500 for interim legislative expenses.

He vetoed the old folks home, said the governor, because "the hospital board does not have responsibility for seniles and...state policy should be to get these unfortunate people into private rest homes near their families rather than making them permanent patients of the state hospital system."

As to tourist advertising, the governor said that the Highway Department already is spending twice this much from other funds and the appropriation would reduce activities.

Daniel said he saw no need for the interim legislative expense money inasmuch as $300,000 had been appropriated in a separate bill for future legislative expenses.

Legislative leaders replied that perhaps the state isn't supposed to be responsible for housing the aged, but the fact is it has some on its hands. They're now housed in the 50-year-old Confederate Home in Austin. It has been labeled a fire trap.

Legislative expense money was to be used to put a new carpet in the House, refresh desks and provide offices for House members. Rep. Bill Healy of Paducah said he felt it was "unprecedented for the executive branch to tell the legislative branch how to finance itself."

DIVIDING IT UP - Now that all state agencies know how much money they'll have for the next two years, governing boards have been busy deciding how to make the most of it.

STATE HOSPITAL BOARD - With an appropriation that jumped 8.9 per cent to $83,142,340, plans to spend $4,500,000 for new buildings. This will include a new 200-bed unit at the Denton State School and a new home for older patients at Denton, a new ward building at Terrell State Hospital, a new recreation building and warehouse at the Austin State Hospital and numerous road building and renovation projects.

TEXAS YOUTH COUNCIL - With a kitty that jumped from $7,767,441 for the 1958-59 period to $10,112,450 for the new biennium, plans to add both dormitories and personnel to the two correctional institutions, Gatesville school for boys and Gatesville school for girls. Some new construction and personnel also are planned for the homes for orphaned children.

TEXAS A&M BOARD OF REGENTS has allotted a substantial portion of the $1,969,666, increase in its $44,174,865 appropriation for salary increases on a merit basis. All in all, some 10 branches and services are a part of the A&M system. New student apartment buildings on the main campus are in the offing.

VET LAND PROGRAM SLOWS - Texas Veterans Land Program will have to stoppered down to a trickle from now until after November, 1960.

State is running low on money for this program. It has authority to sell bonds to raise more money. But with the interest rate on the bonds limited by the law to 3 per cent nobody wants to buy the bonds. In the general election in 1960, the voters, may, if they choose, raise the interest rate to 4 per cent and make possible the sale of more bonds.

Of course, if the state has to pay more interest on its bonds, it will have to go up on the interest it charges veterans - probably to 4 per cent.

Under the plan, the state buys land and re-sells it to the veterans on a long-term, low-interest contract. It's the only "bonus" to Texas veterans. But it has resulted in the purchase by veterans of 1,997,404 acres of Texas land at an average price of $69.39 per acre.

SUIT OVER HAY SEEN - In the midst of plentiful rain, State Agriculture Commissioner John White has a problem arising from the 1953 drought-relief program. White says the U. S. Department of Agriculture plans to sue Texas for some $162,670 which the USDA claims it overpaid for shipping hay to Texas farmers and ranchers.

White says the federal government agreed to pay 50 per cent of the cost of shipping the hay. About that time the railroads and truck lines reduced their rates 50 per cent for the drought relief feed shipments. White felt that this would mean that the federal government would then pick up the remaining 50 per cent of the tab. But USDA charges it should have paid only 50 per cent of the reduced rate.

TAX-MAN SEZ

Self-employed taxpayers (for the wage and salary people's information this is the government form to describe your service station operator, your grocery man and the other folks you do business with everyday) are required to pay their income tax throughout the year the same as a wage earner.

Any person having income not subject to withholding files an estimated tax return on April 15 to pay quarterly. The age of mechanization in Internal Revenue has now reached the estimated tax payment billing system.

In September the first estimated tax bills are coming out on an IBM card on which you complete part of the card and mail back your payment with the other part. Most taxpayers are familiar with this system since they receive electric bills, water bills, or gasoline credit card bills on a similar type card.

The Internal Revenue Service is naturally anxious to have taxpayers recognize that this is a bill and not an advertisement. They want part of the card back with the check that is due.

THE FLOYD COUNTY HESPERIAN

Published by the Hesperian Publishing Co. Inc. at 212 South Main St. Floydada, Texas. HOMER STEEN, Editor. THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 1959

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION Member 1959

Established 1896 by Claude V. Hall. Entered as second class mail at the post office at Floydada, Texas, April 10, 1907 under the act of Congress of March 3, 1897.

EDITORIAL VIEWS AND COMMENT

Somebody Do Something. Watching all the people come in, look around and depart again without lighting has those who are aware of the situation anxious that somebody "do something" about housing and do it quickly. Presumably all the other towns which have no people interested in providing housing for transients are having the same trouble. But that doesn't make the situation any the less acute to house hunters nor make the town booster's blood pressure come down.

Well-Kept Secrets. Floydada may not be a typical little city, buzzing with business secrets, things just ready to unfold but not quite ready to be told. The people in the know keep so close-mouthed nobody knows anything except the men who go to the cafe or drug store for coffee and the women who have their hair done at the beauty shop.

Mr. Eisenhower leaned heavily on Foster Dulles during the years of the latter's service as secretary of state. Now that Dulles has gone to his reward the president is being his own envoy to the other nations. He has emerged a different man, a strong man trying to weld together the conflicting aims and desires of the western nations. He is treading a tight rope, one that Woodrow Wilson failed to negotiate a generation ago. But years and experience may have taught the western allies the lesson of solidarity. The president's trip was a must, the executive department says, in view of the suspicions aroused by the announcement of the forthcoming visit of Russia's leader to America.

Still being debated is the wisdom of inviting the Russian premier to this country. Mr. Khrushchev wangled for the invitation and got it. The talent in Congress seems to think that the try for understanding is a good gamble. Their answer to critics in the hinterland (Floyd County is hinterland to official Washington) contains the suggestion that the cost of the military load (called defense) is back-breaking and the consequences of an all-out war, should it come, make most any effort commendable.

Basically Good Nation. We liked Wes Izzard's thought the other day about basic soundness of the American nation, "obviously trying to do the right thing." His reference was to the president's reception in Germany, where a people beat to their knees wildly acclaimed the man who did it, fifteen years later. Is this a first in history? It is for modern times at least. We seem to recall something similar recorded in Josephus Works, but times and conditions were different then.

Says Mr. Izzard: It is a wholesome and wonderful thing. It means that even our one-time enemies recognize the basic principles on which America, as personified in Dwight Eisenhower, is planted. Here is a good man, a strong man, who represents a basically good nation, a strong nation. Here is a man—and a nation—obviously trying to do the right thing for people everywhere. We Americans may not always live up to the principles so firmly woven into the fabric of our nation. As individuals we can be petty and boastful. We find ourselves beset by juvenile delinquency and racketeering. We too often bow down to the phony and worship the material. But basically, our nation is still great and its people good. There is a great deal more decency among us than even we, ourselves, acknowledge.

Rain to the East, to the north, the south and the west, the whole south half of the country from Atlantic to Pacific vouchsafed a fine August season—all except an area of a few counties on the high plains. Somebody around had better be checking up on themselves. For ourselves we are above blame in the matter. We put in an order for rain before the tenth of the month, though we brought neither slicker nor umbrella to the office. It may have been a matter of too little faith.

Frenzy Of Building. Not exactly frenzy, you might say, but at least a boom, people putting many thousands of dollars into new construction in Floydada, residence as well as business property being improved. People who spend their own money for more homes, improved business property, are likely to find the idea contagious. Faith begets faith—and good works.

Given blackeye peas, corn on the cob, potatoes and onions, one can afford to buy his own pepper and salt, we assume. But as the neighbors begin to bring in lettuce, cucumbers, and fall turnip greens it is going to be expensive furnishing vinegar and hog jowl for seasoning. Thus do living costs mount.

Madison Avenue Touch. The president's approach to functions of government, even some of the aspects of his trip to Europe, have a disquieting (to us) touch of Madison Avenue. Not so much the things he does as the reasons he assigns. Like his veto of the bill that would have meant so much to the country in progress of the water conservation program. This would be inflationary, he says, while urging the cent and a half gasoline tax as necessary for the Defense Highway construction program. Madison Avenue where the ad-writers take the same slant, could not be more inconsistent. It is Madison Avenue that originates the copy blasting the farm surpluses and farm people generally, also from the same sources comes the insistence that the federal government take over the management of the schools.

As a Farm Woman Thinks

(Nellie Witt Spikes)

MAIL BOXES
Five old mail boxes, in a crooked row. Lean their heads together, to whisper what they know. Like five old ladies, resting from their labors. Standing at the crossroads, to talk about their neighbors. Wondering what the mail man has for them today. Never tired of waiting, they have much to say. In the snow and rain and sun, indifferent to the weather. Five old gossips lean their heads together.

It is indeed nice to be with you again this month. It makes me very happy to come along in this week's Hesperian and have my say.

Let's slip in the Witt and Spikes Store at Emma and watch the people buy their supplies. Things were quiet, very quiet those days when the new century slipped in without a bit of noise. Ranch hands would be in town for a day, eating sardines with plenty of crackers and hot pepper sauce as they sat on the counter and softly kicked spurs. They might buy a slicker, a blue bandana to keep dust from their mouths and necks, blue shirt and blue overalls.

Men would go to the brakes and bring back loads of mesquite wood for the winter when cow chips would be covered with snow. Freighters would pull out for Amarillo but their creaking wagons would only be a spot on the long empty freight road and their rattling wagons would disturb only a few as they passed on.

No buzzing in the skies louder than the whizzing wings of the bullet. No radios running at full blast, only the soft music from Dr. Carter's piano, or the running of cool water in the tank in the courtyard, the click of a key in the lock of a door, the soft beating of the cowboy's horse as he left town.

My father, John Witt waits on the customers and then goes back to record it in a day book, the ones I now have as history of that time.

Witt and Spikes bought four dozen eggs for sixty cents and sold them for the same price, paid 75 cents for 3½ pounds of butter.

Ernest Wheeler bought pneumonia medicine. D. R. Carmack gave thirty cents for 7 pounds of beef, and he bought Out-of-sight (what in the world was that?). Jim Witt bought a pound of coffee for 15 cents. Crosby County went in debt for a five cent box of matches. 50 pounds of flour was $1.50. Em English took 14 pounds sugar, $1.50. Millwee was charged with 10 pounds of lard, $1.00. Tom Wayne paid $5.50 for a pair of boots. Prof. Johnson bought 2 gal. lick (syrup) for $1.00. Others bought calomel and castor oil, bridle bits, canned tomatoes and macaroni.

Bacon sold for ten cents per pound. Charlie McDermott paid five cents for cheroots (Putting on the agony, putting on the style) must have been the gay song sung to him as he puffed across the street. Charlie is now night watchman at Ralls. M. F. Perminter bought a bill of groceries and added a bottle of quinine, one of sarsaparilla, and a box of liver regulator.

Here is another day book of 1903. L. B. Culwell bought 11 yards of calico. A. Detwiler bought a broom and a bucket of lard. George Jones purchased a Lap Duster for a dollar. Do you recall them? They were to spread over laps during buggy rides to keep off the dust. French harps and saddle blankets, soap and gold dust. (Remember the gold-dust twins?) Pink Parrish paid fifty cents for a belt. E. King paid 20 cents for a can of salmon. John Taylor a hat pin, for Nora perhaps.

Ed A. Kelly, one dozen collars which cost him 75 cents, men's collars at that time were attached to the shirt by a small collar button, that is if one could find the small button when wanted. Many a wife and mother had to leave her work, get down on her knees to hunt up a collar button.

Pearson Brothers, Clabe and Foster needed five pounds of nails which set them back 30 cents. Tom Jones bought two shirts for one dollar and paid $1.60 for a pair of gloves. Cowboys were very vain of their soft hands.

Let us look outside the store and see the long overdue freight wagon coming in with supplies from Amarillo, the driver and team worn out from their long journey.

No, we do not forget. But as you read this your memories will blot out these I am telling you and yours will come clear and sweet and take their place and we shall be happier for the days that once were. God bless you.

Floyd County 14 Years Ago

(From The Hesperian, Sept. 5, 1945)

Cpl. Roscoe Riggle arrived in Floydada last Thursday from overseas to spend a 30 day furlough with his wife and small son, Danny and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. U. Riggle of the Lakeview community. Roscoe has returned from France where he has spent the last 10 months with a medical detachment. He will report to Alabama for reassignment.

Having completed a tour of duty of 34 months in the Central Pacific Theatre of Operations, S-Sgt. Randall C. Irwin has arrived at San Antonio for processing and reassignment. His brother, Lt. Shirley W. Irwin, after 12 months in the European Theatre, is also in Floydada on leave.

Capt. Dudley L. Hill and Sgt. W. C. Mooney Jr., are in the list of servicemen back from the European War Theatre. Captain Hill was with a lucky airborne outfit that hit behind the German lines in some crucial battles of the west wall campaign. He will report to Fort Riley, Kan., when his leave is over. This week he visited for a short time here and he and his wife have been at Amarillo with the Verne Elliotts part of the time. Sgt. Mooney reached the states several days ago after seven months in ETO. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Mooney.

Henry (J. H.) Hughes, 83, one of the few surviving members of Floydada Lodge A. F. & A. M., whose membership dates back past 50 years, has died at his home near Quitaque. Rites were conducted at the First Methodist Church in Quitaque Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. McDonald and children, Carolyn and Ray, visited last week in Lubbock with Mrs. McDonald's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Tatum. Going on from Lubbock the Floydada family enjoyed a sightseeing trip to Carlsbad, N. Mex.

joying a furlough before returning to camp for re-assignment.

Return of Captain U. S. (Steve) Marshall from the campaigns of the Army Air Corps last month, has been hailed by members of his family as the occasion for a get-together of all the children in the home of the Floydada parents. Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Marshall, Captain Marshall is a flight surgeon. He will report to El Paso in two weeks.

Edgar Jones, joint owner with his son, Fred, of the Jones-Super Market, returned home the latter part of last week from Stockton, Calif., where he visited a son, Glenn and family. Except for being ill part of his visit there he enjoyed the trip very much. Mrs. Bob Ewen, the former Grace Waller, who was married Sunday morning in Floydada with Rev. Phil H. Gates officiating, was reared here. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Waller, and was bookkeeper for the Hesperian.

Mrs. Joe Maricelli is making her home in Los Angeles, Calif. while her husband is overseas.

She was married in July and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Crabtree.

Savings Bonds Sales Reach 46 Per Cent Goal

"Savings bond sales through July, totaled $120,875.00", Don L. Pemberton Chairman of Floyd County's Bond committee reports. "Our county has now reached 46.0 per cent of its 1959 goal of $263,000.00. July sales were $8,890.00" he said.

Sales in Texas for the first seven months of 1959 were $92,477,192 which is 51.2 per cent of the state goal.

"Every American who buys Savings Bonds is providing for his own future, adding to the strength of his country, both militarily and economically," stated Don Pemberton, County Chairman.

Law Limits Wheat Loans $50,000 For 1960 Crop

The Secretary of Agriculture has announced that the 1960 production of any agricultural commodity declared by the Secretary of Agriculture to be in surplus supply is limited to $50,000 unless "such person" shall reduce his production from that which such person produced the preceding year, in such percentage, not exceeding 20 percent, as the Secretary may determine to be essential to bring production in line with a reasonable period of time with that necessary to provide an adequate supply to meet domestic and foreign demands, plus adequate reserves.

The Acting Secretary August 26 declared wheat to be in surplus supply and determined that the production of wheat by wheat producers under the effect of the limitation should be at the 20 percent maximum fixed by this provision.

The $50,000 limitation applies only to nonrecourse price support. Loans will continue to be made in excess of this amount provided the borrower shall agree to repay all amounts advanced in excess of $50,000 for any agricultural commodity within twelve months from the date of the advance of such funds or at such later date as the Secretary may determine.

The limitation, Department of official emphasized, applies to individuals "persons", not to individual farming units. A special application form, on which the applicant has listed all farms (wherever located) in which he owned or shared in the 1959 production as well as all farms in which he will own or share in the 1960 production, may be required of any person who wishes to obtain nonrecourse price support on a surplus crop in excess of $50,000.

This application, which would have to be filed well in advance of harvest, is expected to be needed to permit advance checking of acreage, compliance, or other price support eligibility requirements. Details will be made available later.

One Killed, 2 Injured When Trucks Crash

A Lubbock Mexican man was killed Thursday and two youths injured in a grinding two-truck collision south of Floydada, about three and one-half miles from the P. Q. Haney Station. Fatally injured was Gus Quinita Anya, 26, of Lubbock, brother of Mrs. Daniel Hernandez of Floydada. Injured in the impact was Rev. and Mrs. Hernandez's 16 year old son, Danny, who was a passenger in his uncle's truck, and Manuel Barnheart, also 16, and also of Lubbock.

Anaya was killed instantly as the truck he was driving north, a 1949 Ford, loaded with gravel, collided practically head-on with the 1954 model International dump truck, driven south by Barnheart. Highway patrolman and local authorities said both trucks veered head on for no apparent reason. Each was about the same distance from the bar ditch when the collision occurred. Both trucks were demolished.

Officers said the trucks were owned by Pifanio Jalomo, of Lubbock, were hauling gravel for the Bill Hood Construction Co., of Lubbock, dirt moving contractors on the Q A & P Railway piggyback spur installation. Anya and Barnheart were both employed by the company.

Barnheart was taken to Peoples Hospital where he received medical treatment overnight and taken Friday by his family to their home in Lubbock. He sustained numerous lacerations and bruises but was reported in good condition.

Hernandez is in Methodist Hospital at Lubbock where he is undergoing treatment for severe facial lacerations, tendons severed in his wrist and other lacerations and bruises.

Don't Get Your Wires Crossed!

- Here are the facts . . .
- The Electric Cooperatives of Texas are a tax paying — business managed — partnership.
 - The money to build the cooperatives was a loan and the interest and the principal are being paid back.
 - For every $1.00 spent on Co-Op lines an estimated $6.00 has been spent by members for electrical appliances, thus the Cooperatives have created and are still creating a multi-billion dollar market for the merchants of Texas and the nation.
 - The Electric Cooperatives of Texas are owned and operated by the people they serve . . . free enterprise in its purest form.

Don't get your wires crossed. If it had not been for the Electric Cooperatives of Texas, many farms and ranches would still be dark. They transformed the rural community. They must continue to serve those areas they helped to develop.

Profitable Yield on Wheat Using Phillips 66 Ammonia

Dan W. Berger, prominent Oldham County farmer, says: "On 235 acres of wheat, I averaged 43 bushels per acre. This was the first year I'd used ammonia on wheat. After seeing what could be done with that application, I've decided to inject 100 pounds of Phillips Ammonia pre-plant on my wheat this year. I'm thoroughly sold on the use of Ammonia."

Other successful Southwestern farmers have discovered that they make more profit per acre, using Phillips 66 Ammonia. They get more cotton that classes higher at the gin . . . yields of sorghum grain or ensilage are increased . . . profits on wheat and small grains are increased through higher grain yields and improved forage . . . more marketable vegetables are harvested.

Phillips 66 Ammonia can be easily applied either by you or your distributor. See us today about Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia . . . it gives you more nitrogen per dollar than any other form of fertilizer—a full 82%.

Banks Leaders in Farming, Declares Key Banker

Indicates changing needs were serving farmers with more other group of this year. E. L. Norman, president of the National Farmers' Loan and Trust, declared today that the state's agricultural credit service banks held a high percentage of the total farm loans in 1938, more than a year previous.

Norman said that more and more, the banks in Texas find that farmers and ranchers need a new type of credit to help finance the rapid increase in capital requirements. To meet this changing need, banks in Texas now make larger farm loans, and an increasing amount of agricultural credit is on an intermediate-term repayment basis.

"Intermediate-term loans are most frequently needed for machinery and equipment, livestock, soil improvements, additional land, and refinancing short-term notes. Over one-half of all real estate credit is used to finance these intermediate-type capital expenses."

"As a further service to help farmers and ranchers improve their operations, about one-third of all other bank agricultural loans have a repayment program longer than one year. Banks serve farmers and ranchers with far more intermediate-term credit than any other group of lenders."

Mr. Norman believes that "farmers, ranchers, and bankers working together in this way help make Texas agriculture more prosperous."

Mr. Norman reported that 94 per cent of the insured commercial banks in Texas are serving agriculture's credit needs.

Dependable—No fuels to burn... no odors or fumes... no storage of fuel... no periodic checks... no maintenance and service contracts.

Prettier—Nothing to interfere with drapes or the location of built-ins and furniture.

More Comfortable—No drafts... virtually even temperature everywhere in the room... no heating lag... no cold floors.

More Flexible—Each room has its own thermostat. You can keep the bedroom cooler, the bathroom warmer—and you can change any room temperature as desired. Each thermostat automatically keeps the room as you want it.
