Kids who grow up in small towns have a chance to be kids. They learn to notice and enjoy the fresh air, the blue sky, the sun and moon, the sand, rain and snow. Most of them have parents whose love is as sure as the occasional scolding. They go to school, scuffle with other kids, have a dog or kitten as a pet and approach the sober problems of life with normal conditioning.

Hardness surrounds a young person in a large industrial city. Brick walls, concrete pavements and sidewalks, faces made hard by tension and poverty, hearts made hard by adversity, tend to erect walls of hardness inside him. The normal development of a human being does not thrive in such an atmosphere.

Recent stories of a New York teenager who was the leader in two senseless murders describe him as a self-styled "Dracula." Could this desire to be somebody special, to have an identity of his own, have been channeled by understanding parents? Did his parents turn over to the cheap movie makers and sensational writers the job of feeding his youthful imagination? Did they supply that irresistible land of "secret" caves?

It may be over-simplifying a serious and frightening problem to say old-fashioned ideas about how to bring up a child could stop the youthful crime wave. Surely the blight of city tenements can be offset by homes where children are allowed to be children before they are expected to understand the complex world outside.

National P.T.A. Sets Goal: Over 12,000,000 Members

More American children than ever before are enrolled in school this fall. And more and more of their parents and teachers will be P.T.A. members by the time the National Congress of Parents and Teachers concludes its annual October membership enrollment.

Through the efforts of the millions of parents and teachers already working in P.T.A.'s, children all over the United States are assured the closest kind of home-school cooperation on their behalf. Out of this working together of home and school have come higher educational standards, curriculums geared to the needs of today's world, more adequate school facilities and more effective parent education programs and, of course, good playgrounds, safe sidewalks, driver-training classes, and continuous health programs.

Mrs. James C. Parker, of Grand Rapids, Michigan, president of the National Congress, points to such P.T.A. achievements as "a significant factor" in the growth of the National Congress, which already ranks as the world's largest voluntary organization.

"A membership of more than 12,000,000 is our goal this year," she says, "and we intend to call on all the families we can to enroll new members—whether parents or teachers or other citizens with a real interest in children."

Work for All
The variety of P.T.A. activities, Mrs. Parker believes, "offers all members an opportunity to work on the many problems that involve the welfare and advancement of the nation's children."

Because the P.T.A.'s chief concern is for children, its action on their behalf starts even before they're ready for school.

A pre-school program emphasizes the child's health, his safety, and his sound emotional development. It may take the form of an immunization project like that undertaken in Tennessee's Washington County, where children started to school this fall protected against diphtheria, smallpox, whooping cough, and polio—because P.T.A. members took the lead in a county-wide fight against communicable disease.

—When a child takes the big

Standing beside the P.T.A. oak tree emblem, Mrs. James C. Parker, president of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, prepares to sow symbolic acorns in an effort to reach the goal of more than twelve million P.T.A. memberships. She urges P.T.A. members to "call on all" during membership enrollment month.

step into school, the P.T.A. offers a ready-made meeting place where parents and teachers work together for the child's academic and social development. The Kenosha, Wisconsin, Council of P.T.A.'s, for example, sponsored a summer-long elementary school clinic for children who had difficulty in reading.

—Youngsters who have special problems get attention in another phase of the National Congress' program: Language barriers are being breached for Puerto Rican children attending school in Camden, New Jersey, because local P.T.A.'s sparked a move to hire a Spanish instructor who works with these children in their daily English classes.

Teens Get Attention
—Teen-agers are helped, too, by P.T.A. programs designed to spur their development into responsible citizens. In Evanston, Illinois, high school students can look forward to receiving sound advice on future vocations, thanks to a P.T.A. guidance program that culminates in a day-long career conference.

—Because of its interest in children, the P.T.A. also offers adults many chances for constructive community work that will benefit children.

Through the years, the National Congress consistently supported kindergartens, promoted hot lunch programs in schools, alerted the public to violations of child labor statutes, improved the standards of treatment for juvenile offenders, and backed programs to focus attention on the urgent needs of the public schools.

"The more members we enroll," Mrs. Parker points out, "the more opportunities the National Congress will have to work for the well-being of all the nation's children."

Quarterbackers Meeting Called

Greer Christian, president of the Whirlwind Quarterback Club, issued a statement this week reminding members of the club that the next meeting will be held Monday night, beginning at 7:30 o'clock at the high school cafeteria.

In addition to any business that may need attention, the club will view the showing of game films, and there will be refreshments, Christian said.

Barefoot Baby Has Grass Fire Burns

Denise Earp, 22 month old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Earp of Petersburg, was dismissed from Peoples Hospital this mid-week after receiving treatment there for first degree burns of both feet.

The youngster was playing barefoot in the yard of her home Saturday as dead grass was being burnt. She ran across the grass as the fire died down and sustained the burns.

USDA ACREAGE SURVEY IS NOW IN PROGRESS

This month the U. S. D. A. in cooperation with the Post Office Department, is conducting an annual acreage survey Rural Mail Carriers are delivering 30,000 cards to Texas farmers and ranchers. The cards list questions on crop acreages and livestock. Carriers pick up the completed cards and forward them to Cary Palmer, Agricultural Statistician for Texas in Austin.

Mr. Palmer urges farmers to answer and return cards to Mail Carriers. "This survey," he points out, "serves as a basis for estimating the State's farm production. Every report helps to make accurate estimates."

HAYSTACK FIRE THREATENS GRADY DUNAVANT BARN

Floydada firemen made a run to the farm of Grady Dunavant on Friday evening about 6:30 when neighbors called in to say that a haystack was burning. The Dunavant family were away from home at the time, and neighbors were fearing the barn closely would catch. The hay was destroyed but no other damage resulted.

Mrs. Cye Bagwell and her mother Mrs. C. L. Joiner, spent last week-end in Amarillo with relatives. One of these was Guy C. Fort, recently from Dallas, a cousin of Mrs. Joiner, she had not seen in 30 years. They also visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Biggs and daughter, Mrs. Biggs is Mrs. Joiner's niece.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Overly and children of Refugio were houseguests for several days last week of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Morehead. The visiting family left Friday enroute home.

YOUR COUNTY AGENT

By Cecil Lewis, County Agent

WHEAT — Irrigated wheat for best returns should be fertilized with some form of nitrogen. Research has proven that 60 pounds of actual nitrogen per acre has given the best return. This may be applied before sowing or it may be applied as a top dress application in February. The addition of phosphorus fertilizer has not increased yields. A soil test would aid materially in determining fertilizer needs for coming crops if you have not fertilized before.

School Days Are Here Again!

The lighting you give your child for home study deserves special attention. The right kind protects his eyes, makes his homework easier, and can help him make better grades.

The kind of lighting that does this consists of general over-all lighting in the room, plus specific lighting at the study area. The general lighting may be furnished by an over head fixture, valance or cover lighting, and by the table or floor lamps in the room.

For specific lighting, you may use two wall lamps on either side of the desk, 30 inches apart, with their shades lower rim 15 inches above the desk. With these, you will use 100-watt frosted bulbs, diffusing bowls about six inches in diameter, and light-colored shades at least 10 inches across at the bottom.

To get the best results from this lighting you will place these lamps on a wall with a light-colored (If the wall is dark, you may use a light colored blotter board over the desk to reflect the light toward the working area.) If the desk is of glossy dark wood, a light-colored blotter on the desk will help to keep the lighting at the proper level.

If you prefer to use a single desk lamp, you will choose one tall enough to spread light over your child's work. To accomplish this, the shade's bottom edge will be on a line with his eyes and wide enough to give a good spread of light. With this lamp you will use a 150-watt frosted bulb in a diffusing bowl and again a light-colored shade. The lamp will be located to the side of the desk (at the left for a right-handed person) with the stem at not more than 15 inches from the center of the work.

Texas Prison Rodeo Feature Top TV Idols

(Sp.) — Inmate entertainment groups and a host of the mounted quardrilles from Pasadena and Bellville. The Houston Range Riders also will appear at the annual Texas rodeo for the first time the rodeo here in the prison will feature a girl's barrel race stadium each Sunday.

H. H. Coffield, Rockdale business man, who serves as chairman of the Texas Board of Corrections and its rodeo committee, said, "We are doing everything possible to present the best entertainment feature found anywhere."

"We are of the opinion that a well-rounded show will attract more people to this unusual rodeo which benefits around 12,000 inmates of the Texas Department of Corrections."

Coffield explained that net proceeds from rodeo ticket sales are placed in the prisoners' welfare fund which is used to supply the rehabilitative services not furnished by the Texas legislature.

Reserved seat tickets at $2.40 and $4.40 each, tax included, may be obtained by writing Rodeo Ticket Office, Huntsville, Texas, enclosing check or money order.

Stops Time, Then Starts It Up Again

A watchmaker is the only man in the world who can stop time and then start it again.

The average 17 jeweled time piece consists of approximately 70 parts and requires about an hour and 15 minutes to clean. The new electric watches have fewer parts and therefore do not require as much time to clean. Houston Bradford, a watchmaker for the past 15 years, admitted that he had once cleaned a watch, assembled it, and discovered that some of the parts had been left out. He added that this happened though when he was first beginning in the watchmaking profession.

Riley Holmes has the oldest watch in town to Mr. Bradford's knowledge. Mr. Holmes came into the shop about two years ago to find out how old the watch actually was. Mr. Bradford sent the watch off, and the reply came back saying the timepiece was about 60 years of age.

Women are not often found in the watchmaking business. How ever, Marie Sanders is employed in this position by Mr. Bradford. A watch is the smallest mechanism in the world that runs

Why we built two cars for 1960 . . . as different as night and day

October 2—for the first time in Chevrolet's 49-year history—you will be able to walk into your showroom and see two totally different kinds of cars. ■ One is the conventional 1960 Chevrolet, as refined and more beautifully refined and luxurious than you can imagine. ■ The other is the revolutionary Corvair, with the engine in the rear, built in a compact car. ■ We'd like to tell you why we built two such different cars, and for whom we built them.

What kind of cars? Because Chevrolet has been going through changes in the past few years. Traffic is jam-packed. Space is at a premium. Suburbs have spread like wildfire. People are living farther from cities, driving more miles on highways. There is less leisure time. There are more things to do. There's a new standard of living—and more cars in the family garage. America's automobile has become so complex that it's hard to build. That's why we at Chevrolet are on these trends, building stages for more than 20 years. When we decided three years ago to prepare for production of such cars, we were ready to build it the way we built it. There was no need for a "crash" program that would only a sawed-off version of a conventional car. That's why the two cars you see in your dealer's showroom are two entirely different kinds of cars. One is the conventional '60 Chevrolet—brand name, with new space inside, under the hood, a new feeling of sumptuousness and luxury never before attained by any car in its field. There is great V8 power linked with new thrift, plus Chevrolet's superb 6-cylinder engine. It is a traditional car that comes even closer to perfection—in silence, in room, in ease of control, in velvety ride—than any other car we have ever made. The other is the Corvair, a compact car that is astonishingly different from anything ever built in this country. It has to be—because this is a six-passenger compact car, with a really remarkable performance . . . a car designed specifically to American standards of comfort, to American traffic needs.

The engine is in the rear. Among the basic advantages resulting from this engine location are better traction on a compact 108-inch wheelbase and a practically flat floor. But to be placed in the rear, the engine had to be ultra light and ultra short. So Corvair's engine is totally new—mostly aluminum and air cooled; it weighs about 40 per cent less than conventional engines. It is a "flat" horizontally opposed six—so it is only three cylinders long . . . and that leaves a lot more room for passengers. Another weight saving: like modern airplanes, the Corvair has no frame; the body-shell supplies it great structural strength . . . it's a welded unit that is virtually rattle-free.

The ride is fantastic. But to get it we had to design independent suspension at every wheel; conventional springing would give a compact car a choppy ride. Right now we'll make one prediction: no other U.S. compact car will ride so comfortably, hold the road so firmly and handle so beautifully.

Now there are two kinds of cars from Chevrolet—because it takes two kinds of cars to serve America's needs today. If you love luxury—the utmost in luxury—and if you want generous interior space, breath-taking performance, automatic drives and power assists—then the conventional '60 Chevrolet may be your choice.

If easy parking, traffic agility and utmost economy are high on your list—then you should seriously consider the Corvair. But the best thing to do is to look these two new cars over at your Chevrolet dealer's . . . take them out for a drive. It may be that the only logical choice for your family between two cars like this is—both. They make a perfect pair.

EDITORIAL VIEWS AND COMMENT

Solid And Substantial. We go along with Senator Lyndon B. Johnson's summation of the results of the just-adjourned Congress. His reasoned statement following adjournment sounded much more statesman-like than the blast the president let loose last week at the Democrats. Partisans, of course, as Johnson says, will seek to interpret the record of the Congress to serve their own ends. The basic fact is that it has been a productive session in terms of the national needs. What the congress succeeded in doing was to achieve laws, not just issues, he declares.

Federal Regulations may have changed the aspects of the labor situation on the high plains for this fall harvest to such an extent that gathering crops by the employment of Mexican Nationals will be greatly hampered. Practical application of the requirements as to housing, wages and transportation has been difficult so far. Farmers, by and large, seem to like the way the braceros gather the crops better than the way the natives do. The latter are accused in instances of pulling green bolls and loading sacks with dirt and trash. The nationals contract not to do this. Farmers say the Labor Department keeps leading the Nationals contracts against the farmer.

The Duck Population. Are there millions fewer ducks this year than last? Has disaster in some form, possibly disease, thinned the ranks of these migrating waterfowl? The managers of the wild life affairs of this country and Canada think that such is likely true. They have made some changes in the duck hunting rules that will make hunting ducks more difficult, presumably to reduce the number of fowl taken this fall and winter and give the fowl a chance to multiply again next spring. In the high plains country from Texas to the Dakotas hunters think the duck census takers have been fooled and that as a matter of fact there are as many, perhaps more, ducks than ever. The unusual season this spring and early summer made marshes and playas stretching across a thousand miles. In Floyd County it is known that thousands of ducks hatched out this summer. Why should a duck fly all the way to Canada, to make a nest, passing up plenty of feed and water enroute?

The Bouncy Nikita. John Foster Dulles must be having an uncomfortable time as he turns in his grave to see the goings on in the United States so shortly after his passing. For some time he had kept Nikita from visiting the United States and conferring on American soil with the head of our government. But now it has come to pass. And the premier of Russia, actually the dictator, is bouncing over America this week, a tireless man pushing at the restraints which the secret service men and police throw around him for his protection. There had been no untoward incidents threatening his safety early this week. But there are thousands of foreigners on our shores who would like to have a crack at him. The Executive Department is doing its utmost to smooth the way for him and to get the people to receive the Russian premier cordially, on the theory that as long as there is talk there won't be any shooting.

Peace And Happiness. People worldwide, seek peace and happiness. They dread war and are lulled by talk of disarmament. What a great world this would be, one thinks, were we rid of the burdens of war dread, war preparations. Krushchev is playing on this string and he is going places with it.

Rights and Needs of the people who live along the routes of the "primary road system", it is claimed, are being sorely neglected in the Bureau of Public Road's big across the nation road building program. A Trendex survey, recently released, indicates that the people are not enthusiastic about the policies being followed. In this survey 50 percent of those contacted are said to have favored a policy of taking a good look before wading in deeper, 15 per cent actively favored a go ahead at any cost policy; while 35 per cent indicated indifference through lack of knowledge or otherwise. The states generally are taking the attitude that the federal government should keep hands off of gasoline taxation. One governor pointed out that the federal authorities could come to the aid of the program by using the gasoline tax to build roads instead of diverting a big slice of it. Many people of America are a "far piece" from the Primary Road System and a lot of the others wish they were from the tales we hear.

The Upcoming Generation. It is the oldest and the tot for whom TV seems to have most appeal. Except for ball games and informative programs the interest of the teen-ager in televised entertainment is only casual. We have seen actual boredom come over the faces of pony tail viewers. What keeps them awake to all hours in the morning is hi-fi and other programs they get over radio. With reason, too. Out of this world musical programs, of most any kind you could ask for, have the youngsters, junior high to upper classmen, by the ears. The antics of the TV personalities, trying so hard to entertain, doesn't impress this group, we note.

The only trouble with being a good sport is that you have to lose to prove that you are. — Ex.

Self-conquest is the greatest of victories. — Plato.

Floyd County 14 Years Ago

(From the Hesperian Sept. 27, 1945)

Mrs. J. H. Buchanan, mother of Mrs. Harry Morckel, left recently with Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Martin and daughters, Betty Gale, and Mrs. Richard Walker, for an indefinite visit in California with friends and relatives.

Pfc. Robert B. Colville, infantryman 87th Mountain Infantry, Co. A, was awarded the Bronze Star for meritorious service in combat on April 19, near Montegorio, Italy. He entered military service in December of 1942. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Colville, and grandson of Mrs. W. M. Colville, all of Floydada.

Pfc. Floyd Horton, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Horton of near Lockney, has been liberated from a Japanese prison camp, and was in Manila at the time of communication with his parents last week. Mrs. B. C. Patton of Floydada is a sister of Bataan who survived the "death march" also three and one-half years imprisonment.

A. Lavane Kincheloe, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kincheloe of the Lakeview community, has been 26 months overseas and has been assigned the entire time to the U. S. S. Mine Sweeper Hopkins. In recent communication to homefolks he said the ship was now at Okinawa, quite a different place than it was last week. Kincheloe has been in the midst of the conflict while overseas.

Cpl. J. M. Harkins Tuesday morning reached home from El Paso separation center from which he was given an emergency leave to be with his gravely ill father at Crosbyton. The Crosbyton soldier, husband of the former Macy Jones of Floydada, has been in the Pacific for the past three years and reached the states Friday from the Philippines.

Mrs. Mildred Broughton left Wednesday for an overnight visit with her sister, Mrs. Leroy McDonald in Tulsa, after visiting in Floydada for a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Olson. Enroute she plans to visit a brother, O. B. Jr., in Winslow, Ariz. Mrs. Broughton's home is in Los Angeles, Calif.

In the absence of Rev. L. A. Doyle, the pastor, who is holding a revival at Crosbyton, Rev. Uman Moss, will fill the pulpit at the Baptist Church here Sunday morning and evening. Rev. Moss, Mrs. Moss and their daughter, are leaving Tuesday of next week for Colombia South America, as missionaries of the Southern Baptist convention. Mrs. Moss is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Jordan.

An official message from the United States War Department, to Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Singletary of Bell, Calif., told them of the death of their son, Pvt. Elrow (Red) Singletary, who died May 22, 1942, in a Jap prison camp on the Philippine Islands of malaria. Mrs. H. F. Pratt of Floydada, sister of the deceased soldier, received the news here last week.

John E. Smith, son of Mrs. G. R. May, was honored Friday night with a surprise birthday party at the May home in Baker Community. It was a "stag party", after which progressive forty-two was played for the evening. Present from Floydada were J. B. Bishop, Woodrow Wilson, Carl Minor, Ben Morton and Bob McGuire. From Baker were Ham Smith, Lloyd Murry, Sam and Herschel Green, B. A. Colston, Bill McNeill, G. L. Fawver, T. J. Cardinal, Earl Edwards and Bud Sparks. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cardinal, who arrived from California on Thursday were also present. Mrs. Cardinal is Mrs. May's daughter. Mr. Cardinal has just received his discharge from the Marines.

Sgt. Clyde Wright, who is spending a 30-day furlough with his mother, Mrs. Morgan Wright, is scheduled to report to Fort Bliss, El Paso, about the first of October. His visit home is the occasion of a family reunion this week. Only one brother will be absent from the group.

Lt. and Mrs. Phil Merry of Tampa, Fla., arrived home Wednesday while Lt. Merry has a leave and will spend several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Smith, Mrs. Merry's mother.

Cpl. Seaton Howard was in Tokyo, Japan, when his family here had their last word from him, and was on ship in Tokyo Bay, when the peace terms were signed.

Mrs. M. L. Solomon and son, Jerry, and her sister, Mrs. Ernest Kendrick and daughter Sue, of Rails, returned Monday night from San Antonio where they visited their brother, J. J. McKinney and family.

Leo G. Williams, who was discharged May 25, from the Army after spending three years and four months service in the Coastal Artillery, 18 months of which was spent in the Caribbean area, has received Floyd County's first G. I. farm loan. He will operate 400 acres of land for himself with equipment purchased with his loan.

Interest Shown on United Nations

The pictures showing gifts presented by the UN by each member Nation. Each gift represented the finest most unique contribution that the Nation has to offer the world.

Mrs. Barnard also gave excerpts from the Christian Century and the New Yorker magazine, pointing up the gravity of diplomatic conditions in France today and the extreme importance of Premier Khrushchev's visit to the United States.

As a reminder of our complacency and our pre-occupation with the trivial, Mrs. Barnard gave the following as a closing thought:

"I heard a woman talking of dish rags, how they should be made and used, hung-up and kept washed and evermore replenished", and while she talked nations were in growth, battles were being fought, children and books being born, famines were there, and the old tremendous world was tremendously whirling, but the women went on talking of dish rags."

The closing session of the study will be September 30 from 9:30 a. m. until 11 a. m. The Women's Society of Christian Service is extending an invitation to all who wish to attend the study.

'Understanding The Adolescent' Club Discussion

Mrs. Ned Bradley of Dougherty was hostess for a meeting of the Dougherty Home Demonstration Club on Wednesday, Sept. 16. Roll call was answered by 13 of the 16 members.

Mrs. L. H. Blum, club vice-president, conducted the business in the absence of the president, Mrs. G. W. Smith, who was in Galveston attending the state home demonstration club convention.

Mrs. Mac Ward, secretary for the group, read the minutes, and the hostess presented the devotional. Reports of the Floyd County Fair were given as a part of the business session. A number of items which were shown at the County Fair will be displayed at the Tri-State Fair later on in the fall.

Reports were that a number of individuals received awards on their entries at the Fair. The resignation of Mrs. Bill Smith was accepted.

Program for the meeting was given by Mrs. Raymond Jones and Mrs. R. W. Overstreet whose subjects were "Understanding the Adolescent", "Problems of the Adolescent", and "Discipline of the Adolescent". An open discussion on these topics followed. The consensus of opinion was that more positive discipline, more religion, and better examples by parents would solve most of the problems.

Mrs. Blum directed the games. Prize winners were Mrs. Raymond Jones and H. H. Hines. Mrs. Carmel Estham received the door prize.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Blum, Jones, Estham, Hines, Mac Ward, Robert Ward, Johnnie Gates, Claude Ring, G. Hammonds, W. J. Ross, A. H. Kreis, and Mrs. R. W. Overstreet. The next meeting is scheduled for October 7 in the home of Mrs. Carmel Estham in Dougherty.

Cafe Re-Opening Slated Thursday

The Rice Cafe, after being closed for several days, will re-open Thursday of next week. Jimmie Arrington and Vinnie Linkner, the latter recently here from Lubbock, announced this week.

Vinnie Linkner said his condition has improved steadily and he is due to be released from the hospital this week-end.

The cafe is a re-conditioned, remodeled plant at the old location of the B & M Cafe on East Houston St. When re-opened it will be named the J & L Grill.

Ft. Knox Gold Under Water, Norman Told

E. L. Norman, who was home and back on the job as president of the First National Bank Monday morning greatly enjoyed his vacation, he said.

After a visit in Dallas and attending the Norman family reunion in Abilene he went to Fort Knox, Ky., where he was guest for several days of his son, Glenn and wife.

Glenn is in civil service accounting and expects to remain so until his retirement. Asked what "Fort Knox looks like," the reporter was told that the building at the big cache of gold appears to extend about two stories above the ground and is probably 100 feet by 100 feet. Two highways, one on either side, are located adjacent.

Mr. Norman said he was told the fabulous cache of gold is not only in subterranean hiding, but as well is covered by water. His son, he said, has never visited the vaults, although he has had at least one opportunity to do so.

Women Enjoy Travel Talk Of Miss Lane

Approximately 50 women of the Floyd County Home Demonstration Council and their guests were in attendance Tuesday afternoon of last week to hear Miss Carol Lane, Women's Travel Director, talk of her experienced travels, and to discuss "Keys To Family Fun By Car".

The affair took place in the First Baptist Church Chapel. Miss Lane was warmly received by the audience and her talk proved most informative.

To the surprise of the local women, Miss Lane demonstrated how to pack a suitcase for a full two-weeks trip. Using a 26 inch case, she laid her clothing by layers with the assistance of luggage "leaves", or dividers to separate the layers.

Miss Lane was introduced at the gathering by Mrs. Lynn Miller, program chairman of the HD Council. On the hostess committee were Mrs. Dan Probasco, Henry Clay, Jimmy Wilson Jr., Mrs. Robert Ward and Mrs. B. A. Robertson, Len Davis Jr. and Glenn Pool.

'FALSE RELIGION' (No. 2)

As I stated last week I was born and raised in a home that they do not accept the whole New Testament as the Christian Rule of Faith and practice. It is very foolish to debate with someone that does not believe what Jesus taught.

In our debates with them we have quoted from Luke 5:17, 26 where Jesus FORGAVE the invalid's sins WITHOUT BAPTISM intervening or Luke 19:1, 10 where SALVATION CAME TO ZACCHAEUS without baptism or Luke 23:39, 43 where the thief on the Cross was PROMISED A HOME IN HEAVEN WITHOUT BAPTISM or John chapter 4 where the woman at the well was told to ASK FOR THE WATER OF LIFE (Rom. 10:13) and it would be given her. (And many other such Scriptures).

These false religionists would at once say, "Oh that was before Pentecost (Acts Chap. 2) we don't go by that NOW" or they would say that Matthew, Mark, Luke and John were for those that lived under the law" or some similar answer.

Very well then, if they don't go by that now, it is no part of their faith and practice then they have thrown out the four Gospels. But after refusing to take the four Gospels (First 4 books in our New Testament) as a rule of faith and practice, THEY inconsistently quote John 3:15 as teaching the plan of Salvation.

Whoever hears one of these false preachers will hear him quote John 3:3, and he will ring the changes on being BORN OF WATER, which he says means baptism. (But of course it doesn't.) But yet he insists on saying that the book of John along with the other 3 Gospels are for those living under the law. Then why does he turn right around and teach Salvation from this same Scripture.

It is evident that they accept what they think can be made to fit their false doctrine and reject what they know won't fit.

The reason they do not accept the Spiritual truths of the Bible is found in Cor. 2:14. (More to follow)

Tax-Man Sam Sez:

The Internal Revenue Service is not particularly in any sort of business except the tax business. You might gather, however, that long with most public speakers that the Service favors motherhood.

The working mothers who have been paid maternity leave from their job during the past few years should look into a new IRS ruling that this pay up to $100 a week is now excluded as sick pay from their income.

A lot of working mothers will have a tax refund coming. Contact your local Internal Revenue Service man or a qualified tax practitioner.

Visiting several days in the home of their sister, Mrs. Lindsey Warren are Mrs. Dean Blossom of Alamogordo, N. Mex., and Mrs. Ada Singletary of Bell, Calif. ## Reeves Lists Many Helpers On Fair Job

In a statement issued following the close of the Floyd County Fair last week Joe Reeves, first vice president, said that the year's magnificent fair had been made possible by the help of many people. In a formal statement he expresses appreciation and lists the many who lent their assistance as follows:

Appreciation Expressed
The Floyd County Fair Board wishes to express their appreciation for the wonderful cooperation and help given them before and during the fair. Without this fair could not have been. We are well pleased with our fair in every way.

The fair is growing fast and we have already out-grown our facilities. We must find some way to expand. Most of our display space has already been spoken for. A tent had to be used this time and looks like we will have to expand our space even more. The fair board already is making plans for next year's fair.

Again we appreciate everyone that has helped in any way. We hope to make the fair even better as we go along.

Same Examinations For Women as For Men Used by AF

The Air Force has announced that in the future young ladies desiring to enlist in the Women in the Air Force (better known as WAF) would be required to take and qualify with the same entrance examination as that required for the men.

For the past several years WAF were given separate exams based on educational achievement factors. Because of the ever increasing similarity in the duties performed by the men and women, officials have determined that the aptitude tests, now used to select and assign men, would also be best for selecting and assigning women. However, it was pointed out that women (WAF) will be assigned only those positions normally reserved for the fair sex. These include, but are not limited to Clerical, Lab Technicians, Finance, Dental, Communications, Personnel, Flight Stewardess etc.

The next entrance exams for both men and women will be given in room 202 of the post office Building in Lubbock at noon, Thursday, Sept. 24, and noon, Tuesday, Sept. 29.

A young lady must be between 18 and 34, unmarried, a citizen of the United States, and have a High School Education. Full information may be had by contacting Sergeant DeWitt Simons, the Air Force Recruiter for Floyd County at the Post Office in Floydada at 1:00 P. M. each Wednesday.

Juniors Off To A Busy Start

(By Grace Ann Potts)

Don't say the 1939 juniors aren't on the ball! The Junior class has decided on several different ways to make money for the Junior-Senior Banquet later in the season.

The class dues were set at $2.00 today. Today the question "What do you think of Khrushchev's visit to the United States?" has been asked. Some of the replies were following:

Hal Hines, Senior-D, shows that he thinks we can talk sense. Wayne Cagle, junior—It's good because he needs to come over and see our recreation provided for or by the junior class.

Several juniors were honored last week, concerning the National Honor Society. Helen Foster, Shirley Gregory, Grace Ann Potts, Beth Scott, Pat Tucker, Mary Alice Withers, James Huggins, and Ray Walker were elected because of superior service, scholarship, leadership, and character shown in two years of high school. They were approved by the teachers of Floydada High School.

An induction luncheon was held on Tuesday, September 15 at 12:00 in the Homemaking department.

Among the boys that went out for football this year are Eddie Parks, Elwyn Pierce, Larry Orman, Richard Marler, Kenneth Mankins, David Hutchins, Jimmy Hucksaby, Pat Ginn, Don Davis, and Teddy Allen. Don Davis, Jerry Battey, and David Hull are managers. Some of these boys have really done outstanding work for the Whirlwind team.

Three of the five cheerleaders are juniors. Elfa Wornack, Sherrie Alexander, and head cheerleader, Glenda Morgan do their share of yelling for our team. Shirley Gregory, junior, is drum majorette this year.

Mary Dunn, Helen Foster, Addie Adkins, Grace Ann Potts, and James Huggins are the juniors on the annual staff.

Eighteen units were required for graduation from FHS in 1939. The FHS Band had 37 members in 1939.

THINK BEFORE YOU WRITE!

When you are asked to reply to a questionnaire, do you give much thought to the question being asked? Do you answer the question sincerely, do you try to give a "safe" answer, or do you just copy what your "neighbor" has written?

Recently a poll was taken by the WHIRL staff, to which more than sixty students replied to the question, WHAT ARE THE QUALIFICATIONS OF AN IDEAL STUDENT?

Most students gave the question a bit of thought and listed honesty, dependability, or friendliness. Only the minority listed qualities such as good looking or having a new car. Only one student thought about the question deeply enough to discover and list the true answer, CHRISTIAN.

Why can't we give more thought to such a simple thing as a poll? We never know how many people will be influenced by our opinions.

Could athletic countries make use of this poll as propaganda? After all, we are supposed to be a Christian country.

SENIOR RINGS: Anxious Seniors, Judy Williams and Sonja Guffee await their turn to purchase their Senior rings as Bill Gilliland admires his.

After Three Weeks Waiting Senior Rings Are Distributed

(By Mary Jo Britton) To receive his ring there are after three weeks of waiting, four rings that have not been hoping and wishing the Senior class.

Rings finally were distributed at noon Tuesday, Sept. 13. The girls' rings with sets cost $20.13 and the boys' $22.13. The rings with no sets were $16.13.

There were 26 boys and 27 girls to get the rings with sets. There was only one person to get the ring without a set.

The rings were standardized three years ago. They have green stones with the words Floydada High School engraved around the stones. On each side is an emblem of a Whirlwind with the year 1939 and Whirlwind printed on it.

Bob Ed Dempsey was the first to receive his ring.

Khrushchev's Visit To The United States

Soviet Premier Khrushchev's visit to the United States has been one of the most controversial in the history of the world.

Today the question "What do you think of Khrushchev's visit to the United States?" has been asked. Some of the replies were following:

Hal Hines, Senior-D, shows that he thinks we can talk sense. Wayne Cagle, junior—It's good because he needs to come over and see our recreation provided for or by the junior class.

The Observatory

(The Typing II Class)

Why was Larry Coltharp jumping up and down, shaking, and shouting Tuesday? Could it have been the arrival of the Senior rings?

Hope Roberson had on a most interesting piece of jewelry all week, it is a clock necklace that is placed upside down so that she can tell the time.

The other day in English III, Don Davis was reading a sentence and said she instead of he. Freddie Morren told him about it, and Don Davis said, "Oh well, what is the difference. Don, you know better than that."

The shorthand class had taken up yodeling. At least that is what it sounds like to classes within shouting distance.

Everyone in English IV third period was keeping time to the typing music by clicking their typewriter keys last Wednesday. They must have rhythm in their bones.

The band had a night session Tuesday night. Eddie Parks surely did hit a lucky streak last Saturday night at the fair. He won the valuable prizes of some dice, a straw hat, and Chinese handcuffs for Mary Dunn.

Sue Williams used hedge clippers to trim her toe nails. Asker to show you her chapped-off toes if you don't believe it.

During second period study hall, the students like to study with their shoes off. Larry Irby does this really well.

Charles Holland's crutches are almost as big as he is. He sprained his foot during football practice.

Members of the Rotary Club were rendered a great service when Mr. H. G. Barber, FHS vocational agriculture teacher, asked Sharon Edmiston, Senior, to accompany them on the piano at one of their meetings after the resignation of Sally Jo Redd (now Mrs. Bill Day) last May. So the club—recognizing Sharon's talent—asked her to be its permanent pianist.

Sharon attends each meeting at the Colonial House where lunch is served to the Rotarians every Wednesday. She accompanies them in their group singing each week.

When the Rotary Club sponsored the teachers' banquet, Sharon was ready and willing to play several selections on the program.

Another special event at which Sharon gave of her time and talent was the tea given during the summer in honor of the Swedish girl sponsored to the United States by the Rotary Club.

Sharon has received many awards for her accomplishments on the piano, including national recognition.

The girls answer the telephone and deliver messages, collect absentee slips and record the information on a weekly summary sheet, type material for Mrs. Matisler or Mr. Baker, type daily record reports, deliver mail, take material to teachers, and help Mrs. Matisler in general.

Running errands for teachers, showing new students around, and running the duplicator machine prove that the girls are not only office assistants.

After all this, there is seldom time for them to study.

BEAT PADUCAH

Faculty members are to receive handbooks in the near future.

The handbooks will be folders including a list of all organizations in FHS. The purpose of these handbooks is to inform the teachers who will be excused when these organizations have meetings.

Organizations included will be FFA, FFA football squad, chorus, student council, cheerleaders, and twirlers band. National honor society students, students that drive cars to school, and TALA.

Later a list of basketball players will be added to the list. Mrs. Leonard Matisler, school secretary hopes to have the handbooks completed by the end of next week.

Mrs. I. T. Graves is the director of the Speech Department.

Last Saturday from 7 a. m. till 7 p. m. the Seniors started their money making projects with a "boom". Forty-seven cars and a Bolsum Bread truck were washed, several cars were greased, and filled with gas. Cars were washed and greased for $3.50 and washed for $2.25.

The seniors made $2.00 on each car washed and 2 cents on each gallon of gas sold. This big success added to the senior's bank account $102.64.

The Senior class would like to express their appreciation to Carl Jarrett for allowing us to use his facilities and help for the day. The finance committee would also like to thank every Senior for his time spent to make this project successful.

Country Girl, Paw's the best rifle shot in this country. City Slicker: "What does that make me?"

Country Girl: "My fiancee." "Waiter," said the irate diner. "I must say I don't like all the flies in this dining room."

"Well, you just tell me which ones you don't like, sir," replied the waiter. "and I'll chase them out for you."

Gary Matisler: "Since I met you, I can't sleep, can't drink." Sue Ring: "Tell me why?" Gary: "Broke."

Managers Of The Whirlwinds Have Heavy Responsibilities

(By Judy Williams) Backing the Whirlwinds this year are managers Gary Matisler, David Hull, Ray Walker, and Jerry Battey. Their duties are taking care of the athletic department, including all uniforms and equipment, attending all games and practices, and washing the uniforms.

As each player has about $100 worth of personal equipment, approximately $6,000 worth of uniforms are placed in the hands of these capable boys.

Head manager Gary Matisler is somewhat like a foreman because he is responsible for the other managers fulfilling the many responsibilities of this job.

Each Saturday morning finds the managers hard at work washing the uniforms and getting ready for another week.

Yes, these are the boys who hold in their hands the key of responsibility to the coaches as well as the players.

Over 300 people will be photographed individually today for the annual Members of the Freshman, Sophomore, and Junior classes.

Several boys are going to have their football pictures taken over the first time.

National Honor Society members will also smile for the birdie today. The boys will wear black sport coats, white shirts, and black ties. A low-necked dress and a single strand of pearls will attire each girl.

A group picture will be taken of the student council officers, representatives, and alternates. Miss Swepston, sponsor, will have an individual picture taken.

Judy Wilson, editor of the annual, and her editorial staff will be posing in their best too.

Superintendent I. T. Graves and Principal A. E. Baker will have full-page photos of them at their desks taken to give a "new look" for these pages.

Many varied daily duties make the office a scene of constant activity. To carry out these jobs, there is a capable girl to assist in the office each period of the day. These girls are the following: Judy Wilson, first period; Sue Ring, second period; Sue Williams, third period; Nita Cagle, fourth period; Linda Golightly, fifth period; and Joyce Leathers, sixth period.

The girls answer the telephone and deliver messages, collect absentee slips and record the information on a weekly summary sheet, type material for Mrs. Matisler or Mr. Baker, type daily record reports, deliver mail, take material to teachers, and help Mrs. Matisler in general.

Running errands for teachers, showing new students around, and running the duplicator machine prove that the girls are not only office assistants.

After all this, there is seldom time for them to study.

BEAT PADUCAH

Faculty members are to receive handbooks in the near future.

The handbooks will be folders including a list of all organizations in FHS. The purpose of these handbooks is to inform the teachers who will be excused when these organizations have meetings.

Organizations included will be FFA, FFA football squad, chorus, student council, cheerleaders, and twirlers band. National honor society students, students that drive cars to school, and TALA.

Later a list of basketball players will be added to the list. Mrs. Leonard Matisler, school secretary hopes to have the handbooks completed by the end of next week.

Mrs. I. T. Graves is the director of the Speech Department.

Last Saturday from 7 a. m. till 7 p. m. the Seniors started their money making projects with a "boom". Forty-seven cars and a Bolsum Bread truck were washed, several cars were greased, and filled with gas. Cars were washed and greased for $3.50 and washed for $2.25.

The seniors made $2.00 on each car washed and 2 cents on each gallon of gas sold. This big success added to the senior's bank account $102.64.

The Senior class would like to express their appreciation to Carl Jarrett for allowing us to use his facilities and help for the day. The finance committee would also like to thank every Senior for his time spent to make this project successful.

Soph Notes

(By Jan Dempsey)

Well, the sophs are off for a year of study, study, study.

The general subjects for most of the sophomores are the following: Algebra, English, Biology, World History, Ag, Spanish, and Home Ec. A few brains like Jerry Powell and Jay Holmes, are taking physics.

There are some new sophomores in FHS this year. They are as follows: Mike Woods, Joe Fulton, Ronnie Fullerton, and Jimmy Fitzgerald.

Congratulations to the following soph boys for making the A team in football: Rodney Teague, Don Switzer, Charles Christian, Jay Dycus, Frank Barrow, Van Stovall, Keith Thomas, and Jerry Powell.

First of all there's that 174 pounds of freshman dynamite Joe Lee Dunn, who has been suiting out every Friday night and playing a lot, too.

Then there's Janet Kay Moore the girl who most of you hear every Friday night on the side of the "Winds." Also there are those good looking freshmen twirlers, La Juana Rimmer, Janice Trapp, and Kay and Gay Pruitt.

I wonder if Dickie Watson is going to start wearing that nose guard he tried on last Friday?

Do any of you know how much you are worth? If not, you will find out if you take bookkeeping. It is very simple, you take "this" and then "that" and put it in its proper place and subtract "that" from "this" and "that's" how much you are worth. All of this and much, much more is what you learn in bookkeeping.

In the large class of 35, Mr. O. W. Lewis is having difficulty trying to get all the "bookies" to work on bookkeeping. Because of such a large class they meet in the cafeteria. Last year there were 25 who signed up for bookkeeping and at the end of the year there were only 18. Who was it that "chickened" out?

Bookkeeping students learn how to find out what they are worth, what proprietorship, assets, liabilities, and capital are. They learn how to make out a balance sheet and enter it in a journal.

Since workbooks have arrived, work will commence on them. The purpose of bookkeeping is to learn how to keep books, straight and keep a record of where money goes. It will also help one later in life to hold a job.

There were 50 seniors in the school for approximately 2 hours each day.

Whirlwinds Keep The Perfect With 40-0 Score

(By Kenneth Jones)

The Floydada Whirlwinds kept their perfect record by beating the Ralls Jackrabbits 40-0. Rodney Teague was perhaps the big star in this game with his beautiful ball handling in the position of quarterback.

The Winds started the game off by kicking to the Rabbits who took the ball on about the 40 yard line. Both teams showed weakness in fumbles which may have accounted for a scoreless first quarter.

Early in the second quarter Don Vickers racked up the first score of the game by going around left end. Two extra points were made by Teague by booting the ball around the right end. Before much time had passed, the Winds scored with a 30-yard pass from Teague to Vickers. Danny Shipley kicked for the extra point, but it went wide. After five beautiful passes from Teague and just before half time Bill Gilliland went over from about the 1-yard line. Shipley again kicked, with better aim this time, for the extra point.

The Winds again scored in the third quarter with Charles Christian going
