Better Housing for Lockney Library

Lockney is to have a new library, according to reports this week from John Rue, chairman of the Floyd County Library Board. The decision became final at a meeting of the board in October after the court consented to acquiring a new location to get larger quarters.

Mr. Reue said the local library entered a contest for the award, and the letter stated they were eliminated for only one reason, that being that one requirement is to have the library open occasionally in the evenings, which the Floyd County Library does not. The contest is state-wide.

The organization is a self-improvement club. Men who are interested in joining are asked to attend the meeting planned for the latter part of this month.

Most of Floydada's grocery merchants have pulled their supplies of cranberries from stock and are awaiting further developments from the State Health Department, before the fruit is put back on market. This goes for both the canned and fresh cranberry.

I AM INDISPENSABLE

I am the way of life, the only way that will bring peace and happiness to the world today. I am emphasized most by Russia, but the United States is beginning to emphasize me more. I am responsible for all inventions and conveniences in the world today. Webster defines me as "discipline of mind or character through study or instruction." To get me, one must study and work. I am to be obtained in all high schools and colleges today. I thrive on people who try.

I give a person confidence, interest in life, intelligence, and wealth. Without me there will be poverty, lack of interest, and hatred. I am what high school kids give up in order to get married. I give people a chance to make a name for themselves in the world. I cause people to become famous.

A person who has me can entertain a new idea, entertain others, and entertain himself.

I am education. (Ed.'s Note—This is American Education Week, Nov. 8-15.)

CLEVER NEW YELLS Five Pretty Misses Lead Cheers

By Sonja Guffee and Judy Williams

FHS' versatile cheerleaders attended the cheerleading session at McMurry last summer to improve their skill and get new ideas.

As a result, three clever, new yells have been introduced this year. Each week as the student body enjoys looking at the original signs and posters, few realize the work involved. Every Thursday during the past summer, the cheerleaders gathered at Sherre Alexander's house to prepare the signs and posters.

Another important job is decorating the goal posts for each home game. All the cheerleaders participate in this activity. However, Dee Mock does the actual climbing of the goal posts, as Glenda Morgan, head cheerleader, directs. Five packages of crepe paper of each color is used for each school's colors per game.

According to Glenda, junior, qualifications for a good cheerleader are school spirit, interest in the job, and the will to do it. This is Glenda's fourth year as a cheerleader with one in Floydada Junior High. "This year the student body participates more than any year I have been a cheerleader." She especially likes competition and victory yells.

"Originality and personality are the two main qualifications of a cheerleader," agree Elfa Womack and Sherre Alexander, junior cheerleaders. Both are enjoying their first year as cheerleaders. Elfa thinks the students should go into a pep rally with the feeling of backing the boys and enjoying it. Sherre believes that, on the whole, the student body is participating very well. Both girls enjoy leading the yell "Hey Gang."

Enjoying her third year as cheerleader, Dee Mock, sophomore, does not believe an organized pep squad would go over very well. She thinks that the boys should participate.

Dee was a cheerleader at Ralls in the seventh grade and Floydada Junior High in the eighth grade. "In the pep rallies everybody seems to participate, and at the game the band is about all that yells." She considers getting along with students and having some experience as qualifications for a good cheerleader. "Clipping by listening to the instructions given by the cheerleaders. Janet believes that pep and good school spirit are of vital importance to be a good cheerleader. She agrees with the other cheerleaders in liking "Victory" and "T with five claps."

3rd Period Study Hall Shows Contest Prize Winning Poster

By illustrating "A Whirlwind Going to State," the third-period study hall won the poster contest last Thursday, sponsored by the English I's poster room with symbols of Whirlwind-defeated teams hanging up. A big space was reserved for the bulldog.

The winner of the contest is being rewarded by getting to lunch early for a week.

Price Pritchett, Gerry Sawyer, Martha Meek, and Rilla Sue Duncan prepared the winning poster. Runner-up in the contest was Typing I with an unusual poster of a Whirlwind football player riding a bulldog toward goal posts labeled "State" with the caption, "Here is a Whirlwind Who Thinks for Himself." The basis of selecting this poster as second place winner was the general appearance, especially the art work and neatness.

"Grace Ann Potts, Helen Foster, and Hope Roberson prepared this poster.

Taking third place was American history's three-dimensional poster of a Whirlwind ringing the famous Victory Bell with a bulldog inside the bell. It was rated third because of its originality and effort displayed. Linda Roe, Pat Allen, Shirley Gregory, Janice Noland, Carolyn Dunavant, Beth Scott, Kenneth Rimmer, Sharon Edmiston, and Ray Walker were among those who worked on this poster.

"Judging these posters was a tough job," said Mr. Amburn. "They all displayed a lot of talent and effort."

Mrs. Webb said, "The originality and the evidence of hard work really impressed me."

Four other posters were entered. P. E. carried out the theme of "Go District" with a huge Whirlwind of cotton centering the display. English III illustrated "String the Bulldogs" with a Whirlwind stringing dogs up on a line. Chemistry's poster stated, "Dust 'em Winds," showing a Whirlwind with a Whirlwind in the leading one, leaving the dog in the dust.

Marionettes Entertain FHS

John Conrad portrayed the story of Louis Braille with marionettes in a Southern Assembly last Thursday.

When Louis Braille was small, he was injured in an accident which destroyed his eyesight. Because of Louis' blindness, his parents died of heartbreak.

Louis was then taken into the home of Monsieur Moulet. Louis worked for Monsieur Moulet in return for organ lessons.

When Louis was only eighteen, he improvised a system by which blind people could read. This system was named in his honor and is used today.

Mr. Conrad used eight marionettes to portray this story and eight different voices.

Nothing At Stake As Whirlwinds Meet Bulldogs Tomorrow

Even though tomorrow is Friday the 13th, the Whirlwinds are not worried as they meet their last district foe, the Taboka Bulldogs there tomorrow night.

Last week Taboka was defeated by the Post Antelopes, eliminating the only chance of the Whirlwinds not winning district.

The Bulldogs have had a poor season this year winning only one game against Slaton and scoring only 4 touchdowns in the rest. Taboka will be in a new district next year.

Winds Clinch 3-AA District Championship

The second worst defeat in history was handed Spur last Friday night by the revenge-hungry Winds. The Whirlwinds clinched the Bulldogs and walked away with the District 3-AA championship in the bag by beating them 34-0.

No Whirlwind game would have been complete without big, mighty Dan Vickers running wild over the other team, and this was exactly what he did. He broke loose for five long touchdowns and picked up 265 yards, rushing on 17 carries. His points gave him 154 for the year, topped the South Plains regardless of class.

Spur was held to three downs and 22 yards rushing, and they never once went over the 50-yard line to the Floydada end at any time during the game.

The game blasted off with Vickers running 82 yards around left end on the third play of the game. From there on the Winds did nothing but run over the Bulldogs.

Other scores made by the Winds besides Vickers was a three-yard run by Bill Gilliland, three-yard run by Rodney Teague, and a one-yard run by Charles Christian. Extra points were made by Richard Graves by running. Larry Orman received a pass from Vickers, Dan Shipley by kicking. Bob Ed Dempsey by kicking.

Taboka's scores this year are:

Seminole	45	THS
Denver City	78	THS
O'Donnell	26	THS
Seagraves	34	THS
Ralls	34	THS
Abernathy	21	THS
Spur	36	THS
Slaton	6	THS

Past scores of FHS and THS:

1927	20	THS	FHS
1955	0	THS	FHS
1956	0	THS	FHS
1957	0	THS	FHS
1958	0	THS	FHS

JUNIORS RAISE CASH

FHS school pins with the year 1960-1963 have recently been ordered to raise funds for the junior class.

This is one of their many money-making projects for the year. The pins are expected to raise about $150.

A Thanksgiving dance will be sponsored by the junior class and their parents. All proceeds will be placed into a class fund.

Other projects to boost the "kitty" are bake sales, rummage sales, and collection of class dues. To aid in the collection of dues, all report cards will be held until they are paid.

Duck Hunting Season Opens November 13

AUSTIN - Two major hunting seasons are under way in Texas, according to the executive secretary of the Game and Fish Commission.
The duck hunting season opens at noon, November 13. The bag limit will be 4 ducks daily, but not more than one can be a canvasback or redhead. The duck inventory in Texas at the present time is very good, according to waterfowl biologists, who have been making surveys throughout the state. Goose season is underway, having opened at sunrise, October 26. The duck season will end January 1, and the goose season will end January 8.
Waterfowl hunters are required to have a $3 Federal duck stamp, which can be bought at the Post Office.
The white-tailed deer season will open in most counties in Texas November 16. The mule deer season will open December 1 west of the Pecos. There will be deer seasons in many other counties in Texas under regulatory control. It is advised that you check with your local game warden on these areas.
The basic bag limit is on two bucks. However, doe shooting will be permitted in a number of Texas counties again this year, which will permit hunters to take either bucks or doe.

Always First For The Holiday Feast

Roast turkey for holiday dinners is traditional. The fragrance of the succulent bird with spicy stuffing never fails to put the appetite of friends and loved ones in a special whirl. Platter garnish is appropriately simple... spiced whole pears and salad greens complement the turkey in color, texture and flavor.

With today's high quality bird grown especially for flavor, tenderness, juiciness and moistness, even the inexperienced can be assured excellent results if these easy steps are followed: If the turkey purchased carries handling and cooking information on the wrapper or insert sheet, follow those instructions.

- To Roast Turkey
Choose a shallow open pan which allows the heat to circulate around the bird, roasting it evenly. A rack at least 1/2-inch high raises the bird off the bottom of the pan, keeping it out of the juices.
1. Have bird completely clean, inside and out. Rinse with cold water. Pat dry. (Turkeys may be roasted unstuffed or stuffed.)
2. Turn on oven at 325°F to preheat.
3. Rub cavity of bird lightly with salt. Omit salting if turkey is stuffed.
4. Fill wishbone area (neck) with stuffing, if used.
5. Fasten neck skin to back with skewer.
6. Stuff cavity lightly, if stuffing is used.
7. Push drumsticks under band of skin at tail; or tie them to tail.
8. Brush skin with fat.
9. Place on rack in roasting pan, and place in preheated slow oven. Do not sear, add water, or cover.
10. If desired, baste or brush occasionally with pan drippings, fat or oil - especially any dry areas. When turkey is 3/4 done, cut trussing cord or bridge of skin at drumsticks. Roast until tender. Turkey is done when meat at thickest part of drumstick feels very soft when pressed between protected fingers.

This timetable is a guide to the approximate total time for stuffed turkeys. If turkey is not stuffed, allow 1/2 to 1 hour less total roasting time depending upon size. Always complete roasting in one continuous cooking period.

12 to 16 lb 4 1/2 to 5 1/2 hours

Toronto school officials who ruled a young man "too fat to teach," may never hear the last of it. The argument that "fat teachers don't make good teachers" is one of those slips in logic that are usually attributed to women. Indeed, the very same newspaper in which we read this story carried a true-to-human nature cartoon of two plump, bearded women saying of a politician, "Even if he is bald-headed, I agree with what he says about taxes!"

The truth is most of us - both men and women - act as often on prejudices as on scientific thinking. This is especially true when we come to judging public figures. We say of an actress, "I'll never like her acting because of the way she treats her children!" Or we lose sight of the great genius of a pianist in our disapproval of his religion or politics.

In the case of the Canadian school teacher, of course, officials of the school where he was training probably had other reasons for dropping him. Maybe he was lazy, or obsessed with eating, or in other ways showed an inability to forget himself in the interest of others. And their little cover-up job proved unexpectedly explosive.

As for the victim of their foolish logic, this will no doubt work to his benefit. At 19 years of age, he can still re-mold his hair, and trim down his figure for better health, better personality, and greater respect from others.

Might be good for all of us once in awhile to have our bad habits - and our foolish logic - suddenly exposed in the spotlight of adverse publicity.

Whigham Injured In Intersection Stop Light Crash

T. W. Whigham, 55, of Amarillo, brother-in-law of Mrs. E. E. Hinson, and a former resident of Floydada, sustained painful injuries in a two-car accident inside the city limits of Amarillo last week. Mr. Whigham was hospitalized at Northwest Texas Hospital with four broken ribs and numerous bruises. Occupants of the other car received more severe injuries, according to local relatives.

Mr. Whigham, who is with Westinghouse Electric Supply Co., was enroute to work about 7:30 a. m. At an intersection the other vehicle involved failed to stop at a red light, it was said.

Roy Leslie of Floydada, meter inspector for Pioneer National Gas, is back on the job following a car accident last Thursday north of Lockney, which put him out of commission for a short time.

Roy sustained a cut lower lip and numerous bruises, but was not hospitalized. Several stitches were required on the damaged lip.

Roy was attempting to pass a truck pulling a loaded cotton trailer four miles south of Rock Creek, when the driver of the truck started a left hand turn onto a dirt road. The company car Roy was driving plowed into the side. Total damage to the car was set at $500.

A companion, Tom Furlow of Tulia, also a meter inspector, escaped with only minor bruises. None of the occupants of the truck, who were Nationals were injured.

Outdoors In Texas

By Vern Sanford
Sometimes it pays to count your own resources.

I have just been reminded of this by looking over a new brochure of the Game & Fish Commission. It deals with the lakes and streams of Texas.

It is quite complete, and has very helpful information for all who want to fish either in fresh or salt water. Lakes are listed on a watershed basis. These include major watersheds include the Colorado, Brazo, Trinity, Red to Rio Grande. Number of smaller streams and tributaries also are listed, with the poundments on each.

With this handy little colored 6x9 brochure, you can find almost any lake in which you may want to fish. Furthermore, it tells how to get there and something about the lake.

Perhaps you never thought of it before, but Texas has a large natural lake as such, Caddo, on the Texas-Louisiana line, is the nearest approach to But it has a small retention dam on the Louisiana side.

All of the other lakes in Texas are man-made. All have been developed within the last 50 years, and most of them in the last 20 years. In fact, Texas still is building lakes.

This interesting little booklet was compiled by L. A. Wilke, editor of the Game and Fish Magazine. He has fished most of the lakes and likes them all. Each is good in its own way.

Wilke's booklet is a free publication. You need only write a letter or postcard to the Game & Fish Commission in Austin requesting the booklet, and one will be mailed to you without charge.

It is just one of many interesting publications developed in the commission's conservation program. Also in the commission files are some very interesting 16mm sound-color movies which are available to service clubs, schools and organizations. A card to the film-looking department will bring action with those of the Marine list

Most of us think of fishing in connection with sports. We fail to recognize the tremendous industry of fishing. A recent report by the U. S. Department of Interior points up just how big the industry is.

U. S. fishermen, processors and distributors have a capital investment which runs more than $1,000,000,000.

Estimated value of retail products during 1958 amounted to $1,700,000,000. Domestic fishermen landed 3,720,000,000 pounds for a record catch amounting to $37,000,000.

The total of domestic and imported products amounted to $788,000,000. The wholesaler, and $1,702,000,000 to the retailer.

Of the terrific tonnage, only 31 per cent was used for food. The other was by-products. San Pedro led all ports in Texas with a poundage of 1,702,000,000.

Too often we overlook the tremendous importance of the fishing industry itself. Sports fishermen are far more numerous and it is easy for them to set up a hue and cry. Further, the amount of money we spend in sportsmen spend, in addition to recreational value, is tremendous. If you don't think so, ask my wife. In fact, ask yours.

This is merely to point out the necessity for us to work together - sports fishermen and commercial fishermen - in the conservation of our fishery resources. This can't be done if we net our nursery grounds dry in the back bays, or catch shrimp and fish by the millions when they are too small for commercial value.

It means we must use every bit of the skill and diligence we have to protect our oyster beds. We need to exercise care, lest we destroy these areas with dredging or with the destruction of the natural ecology.

This is not only contrary to the laws of nature, but contrary to economics. Since the advent of the $2.15 license, which covers both salt and fresh water fishing, the Texas Game & Fish Commission has had more funds with which to carry on coastal research groups. A card to the film-looking department will bring action with those of the Marine Institute of the University of Texas, the marine research division of A&M College, the Gulf Coast Compact Commission, and even the fishing industry, are making slow headway.

We can't hope to accomplish all our research over night. It took many years to lay down our present resources. They can be destroyed very quickly.

We can apply science to our program, however, and in time develop our resources for the benefit of both groups.

Most of us would prefer to take our fish on the hook rather than out of a can. But there are just as many more who are not so fortunate. If they are to eat fish, those fish must be commercially caught.

So the commercial fisherman has a responsibility too - as well as a financial interest.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Powell are in Arizona this week visiting. They left Friday and are home probably over the week-end.

TE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

est river in Texas (in volume of water) has a 455-mile channel that meanders through or near three major population centers—Fort Worth, Dallas and Houston. All are directly concerned, not to mention the smaller cities along the way.

In the current hearing before the State Board of Water Engineers, Houston and the Trinity River Authority jointly seek permits to build two dams, both near Houston. One would be a reservoir at Livingston; the other, a salt water barrier at Wallisville.

At first, Houston alone sought the permits with stiff opposition from TRA. Then the two agencies compromised and agreed that both would build the dams with Houston footing 70 per cent of the bill and getting 70 per cent of the water.

But before the plan could be approved, objections came from all sides. These now are being heard before the Water Board.

San Jacinto River Authority, which supplies part of Houston's water, contends the city should stick with the San Jacinto. North Texas Municipal District and the Municipal Service Company are worried about their own future water supply from the Trinity.

Southern Canal Company, which long has sought irrigation rights downstream, is opposed to the plan as are various landowners whose property would be flooded by the new reservoir.

Testimony is complex, often heated and expected to be quite lengthy.

Some of the data presented on future water needs provides a glimpse of the possible Texas of tomorrow. An engineer, appearing for Houston, predicted the nine-county area around that city by the year 2010 — more people than the whole state had in 1940. Water needs will be a staggering 2,682,000,000 gallons a day, he said.

COURT TO MOVE

Texas Supreme Court holds its last session in the 71-year-old State Capitol building this week.

But it may be a month before the high court gets all its records and huge library moved and gets settled into the splendid new quarters in the just completed Courts Building.

On Nov. 18, however, the judges are to sit at the new marble bench. Furthermore, they will add a new tradition to Texas judicial history by wearing black robes.

Court of Criminal Appeals and Third Court of Civil Appeals are to move into the new building at a later date.

UNION MAY BE SUED

State Supreme Court has ruled that a labor union may be sued for damages by one of its members.

It reversed the holding of a lower court that the union could not be held responsible. This clears the way for a plumber to seek $19,039 in damages.

H. J. Borden, the plumber, charges that an agent for the United Association of Journeymen and Apprentices of the Plumbing and Pipefitting Industry barred him from work.

ASLEEP?

Texas Conservatives heard a familiar voice tell them they have become "lazy."

Speaking to a Chamber of Commerce audience, former Gov. Allan Shivers said, "In Austin, the conservative element has little or no leadership. It has lost its initiative — its incentive."

Shivers, long a Conservative standard bearer, recommended development of a program for the general welfare rather than fighting isolated battles for business interests alone.

He urged a coordinated Conservative program. Opposing forces, he said, have the "perfect set-up" — generating fervor for their causes through a tax-free organization, the AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education.

MOTORISTS SPEED UP

Texas drivers are bearing down on the accelerator more this year, a State Highway Department survey shows.

Study showed average highway speed at 54.8 miles per hour in 1959 compared to 53.4 for 1958. Passenger cars are traveling at an average 56.2 miles per hour; trucks, 50.3; busses, 60.7. Legal rate of speed for busses is 55 miles per hour.

According to the sampling, 21.9 per cent of passenger cars are exceeding the legal rate of 60 miles per hour. Last year only 15.2 per cent were above the legal speed.

Highway Department's survey was made with camouflaged radar equipment at 24 representative locations on rural state highways.

NEW DWI TESTS URGED

It's so hard under present law to prosecute a driving-while-intoxicated charge that most law officers settle for a lesser charge, says the head of the Governor's Highway Safety Commission.

Speaking to the Texas Safety Association, Brad H. Smith urged passage of laws allowing for chemical tests to determine drunkenness.

DANIEL RAPS LAWMAKERS — Private research agencies have done a good job of fact finding, but the Legislature has been slow to carry out recommendations, Gov. Price Daniel said at the Texas Research League's annual meeting.

He cited law enforcement and traffic safety as areas of legislative foot-dragging and implied there had been an effort to undo Insurance Department reorganization.

HOME FROM CALIFORNIA

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Burgett returned home last week from an extended trip to California and Arizona where they visited relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Burgett accompanied their son, George and his family, who had been here visiting, to Sacramento. They spent some time there and with a brother, Dave Burgett and family at Ceres, Calif., and at Yuma, Arizona, with a son, J. B. and family and a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Carl Burgett and family.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Frizzell have returned from Hot Springs, N. Mex., where they took mineral baths and enjoyed a little vacation. Mr. Frizzell also got in on some fishing while in that area.

Pat Hickerson, student at McMurry College, was home for the week-end, and was accompanied by Floydada by Miss Marilyn Jones, daughter of a former Methodist minister here. Rev. Lloyd H. Jones and Mrs. Jones, now of Dallas, Pat and Marilyn are roommates at college. They were house guests of Pat's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Hickerson.

Mrs. J. H. Green is in Hot Springs, Ark., where she is getting rest to restore her strength, and is also visiting her son, Rev. Derwood Hicks and wife at Little Rock.

Floydada Negro Trial Docketed Monday in Hale

A special venire of 100 has been summoned to appear in 64th District Court, November 16, in Plainview, for jury service in four capital cases.

One of the cases of interest in this area is the murder trial of Clarence Breedlove Jr., Floydada Negro, who has been free on bond since the September slaying of Cleat L. Wedeman Jr., 20, another Floydada Negro.

The shooting took place at a Hale Center dance hall and Breedlove was apprehended at his home here by Sheriff Walter Hollums.

Other cases to be tried this month in Hale county include Joe Owen Hughes and Jackie Dean B. F. Patrick and children of Tarleton, charged jointly with armed robbery. The two, being held in the Plainview jail, were the fugitives who escaped some three weeks ago, and were caught in the vicinity of the L. L. Stevens home near Amarillo.

The fourth case to be tried involves a Mexican National.

Slow Recovery Seen For Raley

Lynn Raley of El Paso, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Raley of Alamogordo, N. Mex., who received a crushed leg in an accident recently, is said to be improving daily, although still in a great deal of pain.

Raley, who is employed by the telephone company in El Paso, received the broken leg when a truck rolled back against a company pickup, catching his leg between. The truck was being used to pull the pickup from deep sand.

Local relatives said that the injured man's leg would be saved but that he had a long road of recovery ahead. Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Warren and family visited with the Raley family recently and the Jim Elliott family plan to spend the Thanksgiving holiday there with them. Mr. Warren and Mrs. Elliott are uncle and aunt to Lynn.

PLAINS COTTON GROWERS Inc.

A MESSAGE TO: Farmers, Ginners, Businessmen

Across the vast cotton-white fields of the Texas High Plains farmers are busy gathering the 1959 cotton crop — which may be the second largest crop yet produced on the High Plains.

The work of THE PLAINS COTTON GROWERS, INC. is continuous day-in, day-out, year-in, year-out. That's why it is vital that as many gins as possible on the Plains cooperate with the PCG in collecting farmers' dues.

Some ginners this year are having difficulty because of the low price of cottonseed. It is regrettable that this hardship is with us, but regardless, it cannot be permitted to interrupt the work of the PCG. A look at the list on the right shows just a few of the many accomplishments of the PCG. Farmers and ginners alike can easily see the value PCG now means to the Plains cotton industry.

Producers should check their ginners and if at all possible, help him work out some method whereby he can continue his support of the PCG. A united front of all segments of the Plains cotton industry is what the PCG should stand for. With your help this is possible.

YOUR COOPERATION WILL MAKE A BETTER PLAINS COTTON INDUSTRY

Realized Farm Income Lower By 10 to 15 Per Cent In '59

By John C. White, Commissioner of Agriculture

Two top spokesmen for the U. S. Department of Agriculture got up before the National Association of State Departments of Agriculture in Nashville, Tenn. the other day and gave conflicting versions of what our farm income looks like in these waning months of 1959.

True D. Morse, the under-secretary of agriculture who often speaks for Secretary Ezra T. Benson, painted a somewhat rosy picture in general in a stronger position than at any time in the past several years. Then Oris V. Wells, administrator of the Agricultural Marketing Service, appeared to give us an entirely different version but one which we knew was more nearly in line with the facts back home. It made some of us wonder whether one top hand in our USDA sometimes is completely uninformed on facts another top hand knows all about.

Wells reported to us that so far in 1959 farm prices have averaged four per cent lower and net realized income of farm operators some 10 to 15 per cent below the prices and incomes for the same months in 1958. This, of course, was in sharp contrast to a similar report Wells had given us the year before, when farm prices had run six per cent and realized farm income some 20 per cent higher for the first eight months of 1958 than for the same months of 1957.

But the economist was able to remind us that "the current trend in farm prices and farm income comes as no surprise. We had with expected 1959 to be not so good. A year generally in terms of farm prices and income as 1958 but nevertheless better than 1957."

He quoted his prediction from last year on the 1959 outlook, to the effect that "although an increase in the flow of products from farms will probably maintain total cash receipts from farm marketing, the elimination of acreage reserve program payments, the further slight rise in production expenses could well bring a reduction of some five to 10 per cent in realized net farm income, due largely on the level of the crop production next year."

This prediction has been more than borne out, with realized net farm income dropping some 10 to 15 per cent instead of the anticipated five to 10 per cent. But it made shut-in, but as sweet and cheerful as ever.

SS Benefits in Floyd County Reach New High at $423,000

As of February 1959, old-age, survivors, and disability insurance monthly benefits were being paid in the Lubbock District at the rate of 9 million dollars a year, according to John G. Hutton, manager of the Lubbock Social Security District Office.

"This is an increase of about 32 per cent over last year," Hutton said.

Hutton stressed that while the benefits are intended primarily for the beneficiary's economic security, the payment of social security benefits at the rate of $423,000 a year in Floyd helps business in the community generally because most of the money is spent immediately on food, clothing, and other necessities.

"In February, social security benefits were being paid nationally at a rate of nearly 10 billion dollars annually," he said.

"Payments to a retired worker with no dependents receiving benefits averaged $67.50 a month nationally in February, and to a retired couple $119.40 a month," Hutton said.

The average for a widow with two young children was $165. The maximum payment for a family is $254.

"There were several reasons for the increase in beneficiaries over last year," Hutton said. The long-term growth of the aged population and of the proportion of the aged population eligible for benefits are important factors in the continuing increase in the number of beneficiaries. Other reasons for the increase of beneficiaries are found in the provisions of the 1958 Amendments to the Social Security Act which now make it possible for the wife, dependent husband, and children of a disabled-worker beneficiary to receive monthly payments. The amendments also provide for benefits to aged dependent even though a deceased worker even though other survivors are entitled to payments.

Moreover, Mr. Hutton pointed out, it is now easier for a disabled worker to qualify for benefits. He no longer needs social security credit for one and one-half years' work in the last 3 years before he became disabled. If he worked under social security for at least 5 years out of the 10 before he became disabled, he may be eligible for disability benefits.

"Increases in average benefit payments reflect the 7 per cent raise in benefit amounts which became effective with the checks for January, 1959," Hutton said. Average disability benefit payments also reflect the elimination of the so-called "offset" provision in the old law. Disability benefits under social security are now payable in full even though benefits are also payable under State workmen's compensation or under some other Federal Government program.

Information obtained from this survey is returned to farmers and ranchers through Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service releases, newspapers, radio and television.

If you would like to get a head start on Christmas - don't forget that your Holiday baking can be stored in the freezer and ready to appear in the same delicious state - one month, or two months later.

If mincemeat pies are on your list of holiday foods and you would like to make your own mincemeat here is a recipe for some.

Real Old-Fashioned Mincemeat: 2 pounds lean, coarsley ground beef. One-half pound ground suet and 4 pounds apples, pared, cored and finely chopped. One-half pound currants. 1 pound seeded raisins, chopped. One and one-half pounds brown sugar.

1 quart apple cider. 1 cup bouillon. 1 teaspoon salt. 2 teaspoons nutmeg. 2 teaspoons ground cloves. 1 tablespoon cinnamon. One-third cup lemon juice. Combine beef, suet, apples, currants, raisins, and sugar in a large heavy kettle. Stir in cider, bouillon, and seasonings. Simmer uncovered 1 hour, stirring frequently to prevent burning.

Add lemon juice. This makes about 4 quarts of mince meat. This may be stored in the freezer for a few days.

Color can change the apparent size or shape of a room. To make rooms look larger, use one color predominately or a few colors in variations of light and dark, bright and dull tones.

For interesting contrasts and a feeling of unity without monotony, use different textures with one color - textures such as those found in wood, marble, brick and fabric weaves.

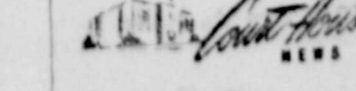

A muted or lightly grayed color on walls lends distance and is an appropriate background for both people and furnishings. A light color makes a room seem larger, while a dark color has the opposite effect. Warm colors are advancing and cool colors are receding.

A room will appear larger if you use the same solid color for walls, woodwork, and wall to wall carpeting. The carpet should be a shade darker for good balance.

Balanced Diets Guard Against Colds. Changing temperature, fatigue, too much food or not the right kind, tension and excitement, are all factors in lowering body resistance to colds.

Food makes a difference. It is important to start with a good wholesome breakfast everyday, then follow through with balanced meals at noon and night.

Plan to eat at regular times as much as possible and reserve the sweet or rich foods for meal-time dessert. Keep in-between refreshment snacks light and nutritious. Fruits, fruit juices, and crisp vegetables can be just as tasty as rich foods and are more helpful in preventing the unwanted cold.

What Money Is; How To Save It, How To Use It Important

Children's ideas about money relate the dollars to coins. They are usually very vague. Although think of dollars in the way they think of other pieces of paper names of coins and how to count called "napkins," "envelopes" or "pages."

The familiar act of putting coins in and shaking them out of piggy banks gives most children a fairly accurate idea of grown-ups' deposits and withdrawals at the bank. Betty had a slightly different slant on banking operations. "Daddy puts it in and Mommy takes it out," she said.

"Children absorb their parents' attitude toward money long before they know what money really is," says Dr. Stone. "In a home where there is mutual trust, where money is shared understandingly and where housekeeping dollars are not doled out jealously, children arrive naturally at a sound idea of what money is for—another tool to be valued but not overvalued. In such homes, even in times of financial stress, children seldom build any worries about money."

Very rarely every child I talked with from first grade on had some kind of regular income. Ten cents a week was average in kindergarten, with fifty cents a week not uncommon by third grade.

Dr. Stone said, "When a child is ready for an allowance, it is a good idea to make a little ceremony, in recognition that he is growing up, by discussing his needs and starting him with a few dollars granted on the same basis before the child needs to bargain for more, and at some regular interval such as a birthday or New Year's."

"I have a strong bias against paying children for helping with their routine family jobs," Dr. Stone continues. Just as children have the right to share the family comforts and pleasures, they should share the family chores—without payment. It is fair enough to pay older children for certain tasks we normally would pay others to do for us if they want to earn some extra money, but an allowance should be granted as recognition of a child's right to his share of the family income, and once established should be his irrevocably."

Children must learn to spend before they learn to save if they are going to understand what kind of tool money really is. I don't like to see children of any age become misers or hoarders, not just for keeping, for giving, not having.

and—shall we say it?—delighted John Stoneman's command who on turning a sharp bend in the river, to behold the water nymphs floating in the rippling current, fairer than naiads and more enchanting than syrens. Concealing themselves, one of the rascals wagered thirty dollars on the swimming powers of a flaxen-haired divinity against a small dark-eyed beauty—the two being the leaders of the party, and the most expert swimmers. The wager was accepted—The two had struck out for a long swim, a strong the "flaxen-haired" she shrieked "a turtle! a turtle!" and terribly frightened, sank under the surface.

It was a struggle between gallantry and duty with the two young men; but the one who had accepted the challenge leapt from his hiding place into the stream, and striking out boldly, succeeded in seizing the insensible and drowning girl and dragged her to the shore. Of course the remainder of the party had fled, but soon returned, took charge of the nearly inanimate form, and restored her to consciousness.

FAYETTE — The TRUE ISSUE states that G. W. Tuttle of that county, had stolen from his safe, on the night of the 17th inst., the sum of $230. The theft passed through the chamber in which Mr. Tuttle was sleeping, upstairs into the bedroom of the clerk, stole the keys from his pocket, and opened the store door and the safe. One Gustaves Kaer was brought before an examining court, but the evidence was only circumstantial, and not sufficient for his conviction. One of Mr. Tuttle's neighbors has since found, on rising one morning, the stolen money lying in his door way. By who it was stolen, and how, and why it was deposited in that locality remains a mystery.

MONTAGUE — The HERALD of the 22d learns from a gentleman who passed through Dallas the previous week that Dr. N. H. O. Polly and a Mr. McKenzie, lastland pass and ran 35 yards with Eastland men blocking for him and then tackling him behind his own goal line for a safety which gave Eastland a one-point victory.

Being a sports writer has its occasional embarrassments. I was attending the pre-season district dinner which Breckenridge used to host and, during the meal, the man across the table remarked that Coach Schmidt of T. C. U. was listing huge Dan Salkeld, sophomore and end, at 180. In an undertone, I said to the man next to me, "Rags Matthews, a T. C. U. immortal, that reminds me that his high school coach used to list Salkeld at 165." Rags, addressing the first speaker, said, "This fellow says," indicating me, and then repeated my remark. I blushed and so did the other man. He had been Salkeld's high school coach.

Among the coaches in my Oil Belt days (1929-30) were Dave Pena, at Eastland, who had been University of Texas captain, Blair Cherry, at Ranger, later head coach at Ranger, later backfield coach at Texas; and W. B. Chapman at Cisco, who went to Lubbock and, after his death in mid-season, his inspired team went on to win the State championship.

Even when I was sports writer in Eastland or Ranger, "Chap" told me I was always welcome to attend any Cisco practice. I never accepted the invitation but felt honored at what I considered to be a tribute to my fairness and sportsmanship. When I happened to mention this invitation, however, one fan said the coach felt that I knew so little about football that I couldn't have described a play so that the Eastland (or Ranger) coach would know what to be on guard against. But I didn't dignify this statement with a reply; in fact, I forgot the remark a long time ago.

Boyce House Says I Give You Texas

By Boyce House
More recollections of a "has been" sports writer:
Vernon was the scene of a district championship game and I made a mistake: I arrived at the field only 30 minutes before the kickoff. The stands, including aisles, were already packed. So I climbed on top of a car back of the press box, jumped and hands pulled me up.

Another time, Childress was the scene of a district title contest. The stands were so crowded that it was impossible to reach the press box, so I obtained permission to get on the sidelines. When I happened to mention this invitation, however, one fan said the coach felt that I knew so little about football that I couldn't have described a play so that the Eastland (or Ranger) coach would know what to be on guard against. But I didn't dignify this statement with a reply; in fact, I forgot the remark a long time ago.

HOW MUCH SHALL I SAY?

In a classified ad say as much as is necessary to completely describe what you are offering of goods or services, little more. Be brief, concise, complete. Tell all you would like to know if you were the prospect.

Facts are what count in a classified ad. Superlatives are to be avoided. Readers of classified pages are looking for something. If you have it and your copy adequately describes it, leaves no question in prospect's mind, you will get action... a sale if terms are right.

A buyer looking for something in classified pages will read most of the ads to find it. The judicious use of display type, a little white space at top and bottom, the boxed ad—as in display ads on these pages—command attention, adding to the pulling power.

Say what is essential in your ad; use display space where competitive advertising dictates the need.

Farm Census Questionnaires In The Mails

Questionnaires for the 1959 Census of Agriculture are now in the mail and will be in the hands of local farmers within a few days, it was announced today by Field Director James W. Strood of the Census Bureau's regional office at Dallas.

The farm census questionnaires are being mailed from Chicago, Illinois with the distribution timed so that the report forms will reach farmers about a week ahead of the date when census takers will begin the field canvass. The advance mailing is for the purpose of giving farm operators time to consult their records before filling in the answers required by the questionnaires and getting them ready for the census takers to pick up. This procedure is designed to insure greater accuracy of reporting and to save time both for the farmer and the census taker when the latter calls at the farm.

The 1959 Census of Agriculture questionnaire is designed to provide information on the number and size of farms, acreage and harvest of crops, livestock production and inventories, selected farm facilities and equipment, selected farm expenditures, farm values, and mortgage debt. On the average, each farmer is asked about 100 questions, many of which can be answered by simply checking "yes" or "no."

Past Noble Grand Club Has Election, Plans Yule Party

The Friendship Past Noble Grand Club met Friday night at Lockney in the home of Mrs. Essie Conner, with Mrs. Ora King, president, presiding.

Reported on the sick list were Mrs. Bell Berry, who is recovering from surgery in St. Anthony's Hospital at Amarillo, Mrs. Ora Shipley and Mrs. Ethel Dever, both reported improved, and Carl Plumlee, ill in Lockney Hospital.

During a business session of officers were nominated and elected. Bell Berry was elected president and to assist her will be Lona Sparks, vice-president, Beth Widener, secretary, Artie Webb, treasurer, Judy McDaniel, chaplain, Jo Boren, marshal, Dimple McGavock, drill captain, Jan Marquis, inside guardian, Jewel Reeves, reporter for Floydada, Essie Conner, reporter for Lockney, Jewel Price, song leader, Ora King, instructor, and Ethel Sawyer, musician.

The club's annual supper in observance of Christmas was set for the night of Dec. 4, in 1960 Hall, Floydada. Members will entertain their husbands with a turkey supper followed with a party. The exchange of gifts will also be held.

Mrs. Conner served refreshments of dairy cheer-ups, cookies, nuts, mints and coffee to those present for Friday night's session.

EDITORIAL VIEWS AND COMMENT

Our Weather Department has toyed with the idea of predicting how the freezes would come in in the fall. Like a still clear cold with Jack Frost in evidence, when the sun shines out, or blasting in on the wings of a norther, or cold wet that puts on a thick coat of ice. Safest prediction is that a cold west wind will bring in the first freeze. A fellow could make that kind of a prediction and be right half the time. But there are years . . . and that's what the run of the mine seventh grader's mind runs on.

Those others, now, the college people are worried with jet streams high aloft, with isobars, highs and lows, occluded formations, no end. You can't predict weather at this latitude and longitude with any degree of satisfaction if you go by the book. You can tell more weather by watching the birds and beasts, the way the tarantulas act, even the kind of cobwebs on the fence, the direction the clouds drift and the like.

What was the name of the old curmudgeon who put into Mr. Truman's head that the Tidelands steal would be a good thing for the country? Recall that Texas was selling leases on the Tidelands for several hundred dollars to a thousand an acre for the school fund of Texas children? And the sudden announcement out of Washington that the states did not own property but instead it belonged to the federal government? And as promptly as he made the announcement he filed on a few thousand acres of the tidelands for two bits an acre, the going price he said for federally-owned wildcat leases. There are still apologists in Texas for the ex-president but we are not among that number. When the president was in Texas several days ago he repeated the canard about the Tidelands.

Don't sell short on Floyd County. Remember this is a new, new country, so new we're barely past the buffalo bone selling stage. So many unexplored possibilities, some under the ground, others on the surface wide open for the ingenuity of man to discover and develop.

Price of Maize. One of the encouraging things about farm income this fall has been the strong market for maize, that is strong at a point above the government support price. Maize has produced marvelously this year. Most fields have had a better yield than was expected. The fact that on most farms there was nothing else but maize to turn to with unallocated farm lands has resulted in a big crop. A few cents a hundred price increase is a few cents a hundred, and mounts up if one has enough hundreds.

Stripping Machines Take Over. Few fields of cotton in Floyd County have manual laborers in them this week; The stripping machines, many and various models, have taken over since the freeze. While some of the transients have decided to cast their lots here the main body had begun drifting away last weekend. Back to homes at Austin and other down-state points.

New Insurance Laws. The Insurance Commission may have made a bigger job for the Highway Safety Department for itself and for local officers than they can be prepared to handle by January 1 when the new regulations become effective. Incomplete records on who has and who hasn't had moving accidents may be the point on which the law breaks up. Prohibitive costs for those with a high incidence of fender bendings will make a real problem not for individuals alone, but also for enforcement officers as well.

This time of year school officials begin to hear the anvil chorus from those of us who want district football games played on somebody's home field. When contesting teams are half a state away from each other we can see reason in selecting a "neutral" field. But for teams within a district or two of each other we have been unable to follow the logic of authorities, who begin looking for some other place than a home field to stage games when they reach the bi-district stage. Fans feel a possessive interest in their school teams. If a flip of the coin takes a game elsewhere that's part of the "breaks." Deliberate planning to get the games away from home fields smacks of lack of confidence in officials to conduct a fair game where soever it may be staged. We have thought of moving games away from home also as somewhat of a reflection on the people who raise the kids and their neighbors who pay to see the game. This is not a scream, just a gripe.

Sales Tax — Income Tax. Texas has a good many sales taxes already under other names, but to date the tide of a general sales tax which has swept the nation has been avoided. Merchants, big and little, already spending a great deal of their valuable time collecting and keeping books for government, have been the stalwarts against the general sales tax. A point to be considered is the fact that in every state where a sales tax has been adopted it has been followed almost immediately by an income tax. Everybody who wants to make out an additional income tax report should get on the sales tax band wagon.

Fixed Quiz Shows. It is not the shock that a man is weak and that when tempted by the promise of quick wealth he falls into the trap, but rather the calibre of men who have yielded to the temptations, that have come with the introduction of quiz shows. Temptations come to us all in one form or another. When men we see and admire as strong individuals sell their intellectual integrity, it seems so much more tragic.

Putting a statute on the law books does not seem to us to be the answer to the rash of rigged shows. The broadcasting companies, like the other mediums of disseminating information and entertainment should, instead, do their own cleaning up. Truth of the matter we believe the informed public will demand such.

Prosperity and security have always been the fruit of honest work. They cannot be forced overnight by a trick, said someone the past week.

Cotton Burns As Burr Pit Fire Spreads

A fire Thursday night, driven by strong northerly winds, burned three trailers loaded with cotton, two bales of cotton, and some bagging at the Lyle Gin located between Floydada and South Plains.

The blaze was discovered between 10:30 and 11 p. m., by Neal Langley, enroute to his farm home. He awakened the Otho Sanders family, who live nearby, and fireman from both Lockney and Floydada were called to the scene.

A remnant bale, weighing 383 pounds, was also found to be burning in the cotton press and was brought out by Sanders and his son, Curtis, part time employee of the gin. Other trailers parked nearby were moved, eliminating the probability of a more extensive damage.

The fire, started from blowing trash from the burr pit, was brought under control around 3 a. m.

Broken as Whirlwinds Spur Bulldogs 54 - 0

Whirlwinds playing they felt they were capable Friday night as of doing.

The loss by Spur left them with a 3 - 1 district record and though they could still tie for the crown should Tahoka beat Floydada, the Bulldogs could not be named to the bi-district playoffs since the tie would involve Floydada a team holding a victory over them.

The Whirlwinds hit quick, hard and often as they dominated the contest throughout. Spur could gain but three first downs and one of these came by a 15 yard penalty. The Bulldogs were held to a scant 25 yards rushing and made a minus one yard passing as they completed 1 of 15 and had four intercepted.

The air tight Floydada defense was spear headed by Bill Gilliland, Danny Shipley, Bobby Christian, and Larry Irby as the entire defensive unit rocked the Bulldogs on their heels.

Dashing Don Vickers led the whirlwind offensive unit as he cracked the line for 263 yards on 16 carries and scored 20 points for the winning cause. Vickers and his backfield running mates got fine blocking support as the team faced what amounted to a nine man line most of the night. Ball carriers once cleared through the line were almost on their own past this point.

Floydada hit for 23 points in the opening period and the first drive went for 89 yards as Vickers hit for 3, 4, and 82 yards and the first score, going through a hole off his left tackle and then reversing his field. Richard Graves ran the conversion and point failed and the score remained 29 - 0.

Soon after this score Bobby Christian intercepted a Spur pass at the Bulldog 40 and ran it back to their 36, his brother, Charles scored soon after going to the 6 inch line then blasting over the point after failed again and the score at the half was 35 - 0. Floydada leading.

In the third period Vickers tackled on a pair of tallies going 33 yards for the first as he was hit from all sides and finally dragged Spur defenders into the end zone for the score. The second came the easy way for the ball carrier as Vickers took a punt at mid field his team mated laid down a corridor of vicious blocking to roll out the red carpet and ring the TD gong for the 48th point.

The fourth stanza score came after a pass interception by Larry Irby on the Spur 40. Then the green and white reserve unit was held and Lindsey pointed out on the Bulldog 30. Spur quick kicked from their 32 dead on the Floydada 49. Floydada then picked up yardage with Gilliland making 12 to the Floydada 19 and then Vickers ripped off an 84 yard gainer to score. Dempsey kicked the conversion and Floydada was through at 54 - 0.

Van Stovall pulled down the final interception of the night at Spur's 40 and ran it back to the 15. From that point the reserve offensive unit banged in to inside the Spur one as the clock ran out.

Dough White, Richard Marler and Dickie Watson were ill or injured for the night and did not see action. All other members of the squad got into the fray at least one or more times.

Starting on the kick-off unit were Don Vickers, Pat Ginn, Bill Gilliland, Van Stovall, Rodney Teague, Henry Self, Richard Graves, Larry Irby, Hal Hines, Danny Shipley, and Larry Orman.

Bob Dempsey, Charles Christian, Bobby Christian, Eddie Parks all saw action in most of the game and seeing considerable service were Charles Holland, Albert Hernandez, Frank Barrow, Darryl Lindsey, Max Campbell, Keith Thomas, Melvin Green, Don Davis, David Crawford, Joe Dunn, Kenneth Mankins, Jerry Powell, David Hutchins, Jay Dycus, and Don Switzer.

BIBLE BAPTIST CHURCH

Why We Have Spoken Out Against False Teachings

We will once again tell you why we have been printing these articles on FALSE TEACHING and FALSE doctrines. It is because of a booklet entitled, "To Our Baptist Friends" that has been widely circulated in and around West Texas.

This booklet was written by A. G. Hobbs, 3156 Jane Lane, Ft. Worth, Texas and in this booklet he makes many false statements as to what Baptists believe that we are saved by faith only.

That is a false statement as we proved in our article dated October the 29th. In this booklet there are many headings in bold type such as: "Baptists Missapply John 3:16; Baptists Missapply Acts 2:38; Baptists Admit Departure; Baptists not in the Bible; Lord's Supper Neglected by Baptists"; and many more such false statements he makes against the Baptists.

Not one time did he speak the truth concerning what we believe. We feel it our privilege and duty to let the people know the truth on what we believe and prove it is the truth by the Word of God, the Bible.

Now there have been some people in this area including one preacher that seemed to think I was speaking to them personally. This is not true. But we might add that if they are willing to believe these false statements this fellow made against the Baptists and against what we believe that is their privilege.

But when some of these people call or write me it seems that they would at least have the courtesy to say who was calling or sign their names to their letters.

Despite their ugly words and threats, we shall continue to speak out against false teachings and false doctrines. We are to obey God rather than man (Acts 5:29).

Next week we are going to answer one of these unsigned letters and prove to the writer that they are very much confused on the teaching of the scriptures. In the meanwhile, think on this, the Gospel is only a portion of the word of God.

Gadgets or God

Scientific achievements of the world in recent years could very easily detract our minds from our Creator. Wonders of the laboratory have captured the adoration of all peoples. Lest we forget, and lest we start placing our dependance for livelihood in the marvels of science, let us take a second look. "For by him were all things created that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thorns, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by Him, and for Him: and He is before all things, and by Him all things consist." Col. 1:16, 17. Then let us stay with our true creator—let us serve Him. Let us attend and support His church.

You In The Church
The Church In You
— form a combination for good. Every man, woman and child needs the influence of the church. So, come let us go into the house of the Lord. Let us support her program of service to humanity, be a faithful worker, a daily bible reader and attend services regularly.

“Captain R. B. Marcy discovered the Red River had two forks and the land in between became a center of dispute.”
