Shipley, 83, of Clovis, N. M., was slightly hurt in a car crash on Tuesday morning following a collision on the Ralls and highway intersection in Floydada.

Shipley, a nephew of the late D. D. Shipley, a former resident of Floydada, is in a critical condition at the Methodist Hospital in Clovis, where he was taken Tuesday morning following the crash.

Shipley has two broken ribs, a broken ankle, a hip dislocation and numerous bruises and abrasions. There were no internal injuries, and he was in a state of shock only partially cleared Tuesday night.

The 1958 Cadillac was driven by Shipley was Raymond Shipley, who was making a trip for the elderly Shipley.

The car was enroute to Floydada when it was struck by a car coming from the north. The car failed to stop and struck the Cadillac, turning it over before coming to a rest.

Shipley is being treated in the hospital for severe bruises and lacerations. Shipley is a retired ranchman and has resided in Clovis since 1906.

Lotspeich Dies After Illness

Lotspeich, 81, long-time resident of Floyd County, died Tuesday evening in the hospital following a long illness. Mrs. Lotspeich was taken by ambulance to the hospital where she died at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock in the afternoon at the church of the Rev. Ed B. Brown, officiating and Harmon Home will have charge of the arrangements in the Floyd Memorial Park.

Georgia Lee Whately in Wells, Texas, June 4, 1919, was married to R. W. Lotspeich on January 19, 1929. They came to Floyd County in 1931 and lived in the Dougherty. After retiring from the couple moved into a home in Floydada in 1953. Lotspeich was preceded in death by a son and an infant daughter and an infant son.

Survivors include her husband, two sons, Gladys, N. Mex., and Waco, two daughters, Payne and Mrs. Ora Floydada; nine grandchildren; 13 great grandchildren; and one grandchild of the deceased.

Right-Of-Way On New Road All Cleared

All right-of-way problems on the Lakeview Farm to Market Road at the intersection of East Missouri Street and Twelfth to Lakeview are out of the way, so far as the highway department is concerned, all adjusted with one exception, where condemnation proceedings has been instituted.

Accordingly, Resident Engineer Sam A. Fowler says he confidently expects the project to be included in the lettings which will come up in mid-February before the State Highway Commission.

Fast action by city and county officials followed the realization that the work was being jeopardized by failure to provide clear right-of-way. A considerable number of property owners had to be contacted to obtain easements, more than 50 in number, a considerable portion of these within the city limits.

Electric Motor Service Brings 2 More Families

The new electric motor service shop at 317 East Houston Street is now open for business. It has brought two new families to Floydada from Odessa.

The firm is offering electric motor repair and rewinding service and will pick up and deliver motors.

Salacious Reading Material Under Attack by Local Women

Committees, selected from three local churches, the Parent-Teacher's Association and Women's Christian Fellowship from study clubs will meet this Monday afternoon at 2:30 in the parlor of the First Baptist Church to discuss further plans to forward a movement to clean up salacious material on magazine racks for sale in Floydada.

Chairmen, their committees and organizations they are representing are as follows: First Baptist Church, Mrs. Ralph Johnston, Mrs. Jess Patterson, Mrs. Truitt Hartsell and Mrs. Lon V. Smith; Parent-Teachers Association, Mrs. Dennis Dempsey, Mrs.

The modifications are believed to have remedied early problems as well as reducing cost of manufacture. Darden and Gotcher also manufacture combine and tractor parts that are being marketed over parts of several states in the plains wheat and sorghum producing belts.

Post Drops Winds From 3AA Lead

The Floydada Whirlwinds boys game 86-60. It was the "Winds" and girls basketball teams will first district loss and dropped start their second round of play when they go to Antelope on February 1 when they go to Antelope to play in the district.

The district teams play a double round robin which will be at the half way point come Friday night. Coach Bob Shields green and white cagers have been showing up well on the hardwoods so far, and are very much in the district race.

The boys team lost Richard Graves from the active list last week when he suffered a severe ankle sprain in the Slaton game. Graves may not see action before the end of the season. His loss weakens the team short handed and weakens the squad some, especially on defense.

Last Friday the locals won and lost in a pair of games with Slaton. The girls team started slow but almost overtook the high flying Tigerets. Time ran out leaving them on the short end of a 47-32 score.

In the nightcap the boys took the measure of the sharp shooting Tigers 74 to 63 in a hard fought game. Rodney Teague hit 23 points and Bill Gilliland hit 22 to pace the Winds to victory. Tuesday night the tall Post Antelopes shot down the Floydada Whirlwinds, winning the boys' game.

City Ratifies Move By PHA

How many Floydada families are living in sub-standard homes? And if this number is 30, 50, or 100, how many of them could be replaced with modern homes?

Dale Goen, chairman of the local Authority, last week-end got ratification from the city council of a resolution by Floydada Public Housing Authority to go ahead with an application for a loan from the Housing Administration to run a preliminary survey to see how many such homes there are.

In a conference with Goen's committee preceding the latter's trip to the city hall, F. Olin Smyth, architect with Wyatt Hedrick Co., of Fort Worth, estimated the number might be as high as 50. Goen and his committee had been thinking in terms of perhaps 30.

Other members of the Public Housing Authority here are Edward Wester, Olin M. Watson Sr., Gene Collins Jr., and Bill Hale. J. W. Reue is executive secretary.

Study made by Goen and his associates indicate the community has all to win and nothing to lose by getting the green signal to proceed.

Hundreds To Disqualify For May Primary Vote

Floydada MOD Is Scheduled For Tonight

Mothers of Floydada start their drive tonight for donations to the 1960 Floyd County March of Dimes, according to Mrs. Sammy Hale, chairman of the Mothers' Workers, captains and lieutenants are to meet this evening at 7 o'clock in Lighthouse Electric to commence the fund raising project.

Citizens who wish to contribute are asked to have their porch lights on and after the volunteer workers leave, lights should be turned off so as to eliminate confusion to the workers. Marchers will be identified by arm bands.

No goal has been set for Floyd County, according to Ed Wester, Campaign Chairman. But hopes are that a sum of at least $3,000 can be reached. Funds donated this year will not only go to combat polio but to help in other crippling diseases as well.

Following the drive tonight, which should be completed by 8 o'clock, workers are to meet at Lighthouse Electric for tabulation of receipts and refreshments.

Heading the Mother's March and assisting Mrs. Hale will be Mrs. Howard Gregory, Mrs. Glen Ambrun, Mrs. Claude Weathersbee, Mrs. W. H. Simpson Jr., Mrs. Ed Wester and Mrs. Jimmy Wilson.

The captains will be assisted by a lieutenant each, and in turn each lieutenant will have six volunteer workers, who were still being selected late Tuesday.

NEW INDUSTRY IN FLOYDADA—B. D. Sharp is shown here making a fiberglass cabinet which will house an automatic coin operated starch machine. The finished product is an improvement on original models made of steel. The new business is located on East Missouri Street in Floydada in the R. C. Henry building.

Saturday Night Deadline Only 2 Days Away

Tuesday morning of this week it appeared that hundreds of Floyd County citizens may fail to qualify to vote this year.

More than a thousand otherwise qualified voters will have to flock to the county collector's office with their poll tax money, if the county approaches 100 per cent voting strength in the county and state primary elections and the presidential election in November.

Tuesday morning County Assessor-Collector T. T. Hamilton said he had issued only 2,155 poll tax receipts and 28 exemptions. The county's voting strength is between 3,500 and 4,000, counting "overs" and "unders."

Hamilton said that the collector's office would be manned until midnight Saturday, Jan. 30, for the purpose of issuing poll tax and property tax receipts. He doesn't expect any "business" after 10 o'clock, "but you never can tell." The election law gives a poll tax payer until midnight, Jan. 31 to qualify by paying the poll tax. Since Jan. 31 comes on Sunday the office will not be kept open on that date but Hamilton intends to keep himself available on Sunday he said, "just in case."

Another way a voter may qualify on Jan. 31 is by using the mails. If the voter wants to take advantage of the mails he can mail his payment ($1.75 Sunday, but should be cashed by mail early enough that the envelope will be postmarked Jan. 31. Such an applicant for a poll tax receipt should show:

His voting precinct number, his age, the length of time he has lived in the state, the length of time in the county, and also give his occupation.

Wells To Be Candidate
Meanwhile the county Democratic Executive Committee has had no applications to date on the county level from more than one candidate for any office.

In one district race two applications have been filed. This is for the associate judgeship on the court of civil appeals at Amarillo.

Most of the applications have been in the hands of the county chairman for several days, but as of yesterday no candidate had filed for representative of the 19th District.

However, H. G. Wells, present incumbent, advised the county chairman by telephone from Austin Tuesday that he would file before the deadline. Wells, a budding lawyer, is a student at the University of Texas as well as representative of the 29th District, composed of Hale, Floyd, Briscoe and Swisher Counties. By grapevine it had been indicated that Wells had acceded to the urge that he ask for re-election.

Reportedly Wells had been lukewarm to the idea of seeking re-election. Rural electric cooperatives were among those pressuring Wells to stay in the Legislature another term. In one of the current controversies in the legislature the rural electric people

Property Owners Sign Up For Paving at Fast Pace

Property owners of Floydada are setting a fast pace in signing up for the paving program this week. Yesterday at the office of First National Bank of Floydada until the paving has been accepted by the Engineer and City Council before the Council, became convinced.

After this has been done the money will be released to the contractor and your property released. "2. You may sign a paving contract which will allow you to wait until the paving is completed and accepted by the Engineer and City Council at such time your assessment will become due. You can pay at this time with no interest charge."

"3. You may sign a contract which will cause you to pay one-fifth down and the balance over a four year period at seven per cent interest on unpaid balance. "4. You may arrange your own financial arrangements with first of Texas or privately. This means many calls as hundreds of pieces of property are involved, and will take some time.

Early Sign-Up Helpful
Advantage of an early sign-up by streets and blocks lies in the fact that work can be started on the first streets that are ready for the contractor, it was pointed out at the city hall.

Seen as helpful and explanatory of the many angles which have arisen or are due to arise in connection with the paving is a statement below given out by Mayor Farris Wilson. In it recognition is given to the fact that while the paving is an overall problem of the community, each property owner has his own problems. His statement is full says:

Answers Questions Raised
"In answer to some of the questions which have arisen this week as the Mayor of Floydada, I would like to make the following statements:
"All property that has been included in this paving program has been assessed. Before the Council issues individual paving certificates they the Council are trying to give everybody an opportunity to work out their own individual financing program. There are several ways in which this can be done.
"1. You may pay your cost over the general direction of the

Southwestern Public Service Plans For New Equipment

Southwestern Public Service Company will invest $18,325,000 in construction and new equipment throughout the company's 45,000 square mile service area in 1960, according to a report issued by A. R. "Our responsibility as a public utility is to stay ahead of the growth of our service area. Every economic index indicates that our service area will continue to show phenomenal growth. It has shown the biggest bargain in your family in recent years. We must plan to keep ahead of it."

LINDA HULL HOME FROM COLLEGE, BEGINS TEACHING

Some of the worms had spinnners ahead, and gang hooks attached to the worms with monofilament. Cast against a cypress Dunlap of Yeucaipa, Calif., who was crawling fashion, this rig accounted for some good strings. They were small by comparison with the fish caught off the bottom with the jig-n-eels or the worms with jigs.

Finally Dave Hawk improved that method by attaching a worm to his famous Extractor lure instead of a buck tail. That worked so well he tried using huckle on the hook ahead of the worm.

Now Bill Norton of the Sportsman's Products Co., has issued a polka-dot worm in about six delicious colors. This works equally well on the rig or the jig. Norton also has developed a formula for making these worms from non-attaching plastic, with an impregnated odor. They are completely machine made, which helps keep the cost down.

Outdoors In Texas

By L. A. Wilke

Big fish grow to be bigger because there are so many persons who fish in the winter who don't know how to get them. You must fish deep and hit 'em hard!

You can fish deep with minnows, or you can use most any of the new bottom dragging lures and come up with some bass that will hang over the side of the baking pan.

It sounds strange but the fisherman who knows how to take fish off the bottom usually comes up with a string of oversize bass. Those big old bronze backs just simply stay deep in the cold weather. But they must eat.

Although there has been considerable bottom fishing recently, too few fishermen actually know how to bottom fish. They also lack the patience required to work the right areas slowly enough.

It is a slow job, dragging the bottom with an acceptable lure long enough to come up with two or three bass. If those two or three, however, weigh more than a half-dozen small ones, then the time has been well spent.

A good fisherman, who knows the water, can go out almost any time in the winter and come up with poundage. He won't do it normally with topwater lures, however.

Favorable weather for top water work now is out of the picture. It will not return until early spring when the willows begin to green out and insects get on the move again. Bottom fishing definitely is in.

Deep down fishing isn't exactly new. It was done a long time ago with Shannon and Johnson spoons, Hawaiian Wigglers, Chuggers, Bombers and Whopper Spoons. The pork chunk also was useful.

The lead-head or jig, however, has come along in more recent years. My first introduction to lead-head bottom draggers was with the late Charlie Stracener, one of the best anglers West Texas ever has produced. Along in the middle forties Charlie came out with a modest homemade lead-head that had a few cat whiskers on each side. We fished several times together in Lake Trammel near Sweetwater. This was more than a fishing trip. I needed some pictures of big bass to illustrate an article I was writing. I was told Charlie knew how to catch them. He

Shower Courtesy For New Bride Monday Evening

Mrs. Randall Jones, the former Jeanette Robertson of Dumas, was honored in the parlor of the First Methodist Church Monday evening with a bridal shower between the hours of 6 and 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Marie Baxter received guests and presented them to the honoree, the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Clarence Jones, and his sister Mrs. Virgil Warren.

Guests were registered at a polished table bearing the bride's book and a crystal compote containing yellow marigolds. Mrs. Ray H. Smith presided at the register.

Selecting the bridal colors yellow and white the serving table was laid with a white hand drawn cloth over yellow and held a center arrangement of yellow roses in a crystal container.

Punch and angel squares were served from crystal appointments by Mrs. Lee Rushing.

Assisting with hospitalities were Mrs. Lawrence Davis, W. D. Mount, Ray H. Smith, B. A. Robertson, Foster Amburn, E. J. Womack, E. L. Judy, Frank Pratt, Ed Dunavant, Alva Sparks, Floyd Lawson, Lee Rushing, Pete Hickerson, Marie Baxter and Mrs. Everett Warren.

Hostess gift was a lovely bed spread and flint ware frypan.

We're grateful these cold days for man-made heat. Not the old but modern, scientific, gas-and-electric, automatic-controlled heat, fashioned depot-stove variety, so even and so clean. We're thankful for it, but not the least bit excited about it. What really excites us is that relief of another generation, the open hearth.

It's true that a fireplace heats the front side to boiling while the hind side shivers. Bringing in wood, laying a fire and taking out ashes is messy; it spreads another fine film of ash over the furniture as soon as the last one is dusted off. But an open fire warms the cockles of one's heart through and through.

MRS. WILLIS RAY SHIELDS (Nee Glenda Marie Cranford)

Glenda Cranford And Husband To Live In N. Mex.

Gladiolas, flanked by candelabras each bearing seven spiral tapers formed the wedding scene on January 24 uniting Miss Glenda Marie Cranford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Troy Cranford, and Willis Ray Shields, son of Mrs. Delinda Shields of Floydada.

Henry C. Russell read the single-ring ceremony in the Assembly of God Church at 4 p. m. Prelude wedding selections were played at the piano by Miss Nelda Fortenberry, who accompanied Mrs. Juanita Teeple as she sang, "Because" and "Walk Hand In Hand".

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an original gown of satin and lace over an underskirt of nylon tulle. Panels of lace were caught to the front and back of the waist and fell to a floor length skirt. The lace bodice was enhanced by a sweet-heart neckline and long tapering sleeves which came to petal points at the hand.

Her veil of nylon net was attached to a head band of seed pearls and she carried pink feathered carnations with streamers tied in love knots overflowing her white prayer book. She wore matching rhinestone earrings and necklace, belonging to Sandra Williams, which aided in carrying out the traditional something old, something new, something borrowed and blue.

Frances Summers of Floydada was bridesmaid. She was dressed in a full skirted white street-length dress with matching hat and carried pink carnations.

Loretta Kay Cranford, sister of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a light pink dress with a head band trimmed in tiny pink flowers, and carried a ribbon covered basket of pink carnation petals.

Murrel Stephens of Floydada served his friend as best man. Assuming duties as candelighers and ushers were Randall Lee DeFord of Denton, and Ronald James Templeton of Quanah, both cousins of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Cranford chose a milk tone colored street-length dress with brown accessories and a corsage of yellow carnations. Mrs. Shields wore a black two-piece suit with white accessories and a shoulder corsage of white carnations.

The bride's parents were hosts for a reception which followed in the church. Carrying out the selected colors of pink and white, the bridal table was laid with lace over pink and held a three-tiered white and pink decorated wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Cake and punch were served to the wedding guests by Mrs. Frank Templeton of Quanah, Mrs. Hazel DeFord of Paducah, both aunts of the bride, and Mrs. Tom Emert and Mrs. Henry Russell.

The new bride changed to an off-white brocaded suit for the wedding trip, and chose bronze slippers, a brown handbag and gloves and a satin trimmed hat of off white for her accessories. She wore a corsage of pink carnations to complete her traveling ensemble.

After a trip to New Mexico the couple will make their home in Lovington where the bridegroom is employed as an instrument setter with a building firm.

Heart Ailments Cause High Percentage of Local Deaths

(Special to the Hesperian)

NEW YORK, Jan. 25 — Heart disease continues to rank as enemy number one in Floyd County. It is, by far, the greatest threat to human life locally.

Latest Government reports show that no less than 50.0 percent of the county's total mortality annually, from all causes, is attributable to the cardiovascular arteries with plastic arteries, as group of ailments, more commonly called heart disease.

The ratio is a high one, exceeding that found in the West South Central States as a whole, where it is responsible for 48.6 percent of all deaths. In the State of Texas, it is 47.6 percent.

The heart disease problem has come to the fore at this time because of the designation of February as National Heart Month.

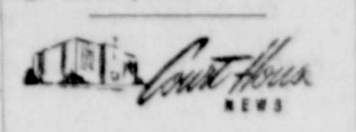

Despite the massive research effort that has been going on in laboratories and in medical centers, the mortality has been rising. According to the American Heart Association, it is taking over 875,000 lives a year, which is more than are lost to cancer, to accidents and to all other diseases combined.

The rise, however, does not mean that medical science has not made advances in the prevention and treatment of heart disease.

Rather, it is explained, the increase is due to the fact that much progress has been made in other directions, through the control of the infectious and contagious diseases, that more people are living to an older age, where heart disease takes its greatest toll.

Among residents of Floyd County, according to the recent report of the U. S. Public Health Service, giving vital statistics figures for 1957, there were 94 deaths from all causes, of which 47 were due to heart disease. Excluded are the deaths locally of non-residents. Without the significant gains that have been made through research in the fight to control the circulatory ailments, the mortality today would be considerably higher, it is claimed. Among them are new techniques in open heart surgery and in the replacement of diseased arteries with plastic arteries, as well as the perfection of effective drugs for the treatment of high blood pressure.

A SHOT OF THIS "RED EYE" CAN KILL YOU—BUT FAST—Under development for the modern U. S. Army, this shoulder weapon is designed to track down and destroy low-flying aircraft known as "Red Eye." The development of General Dynamics' Convair Division will, if adopted, provide highly-mobile ground troops with a plane-buster similar to the tank-killing "bazooka." The launch tube also serves as a shipping container for the weapon when sealed at both ends and the missile itself is a composite structure containing propellant, warhead, and electronic guidance system.

PARTNERSHIP POWER FOR PROGRESS

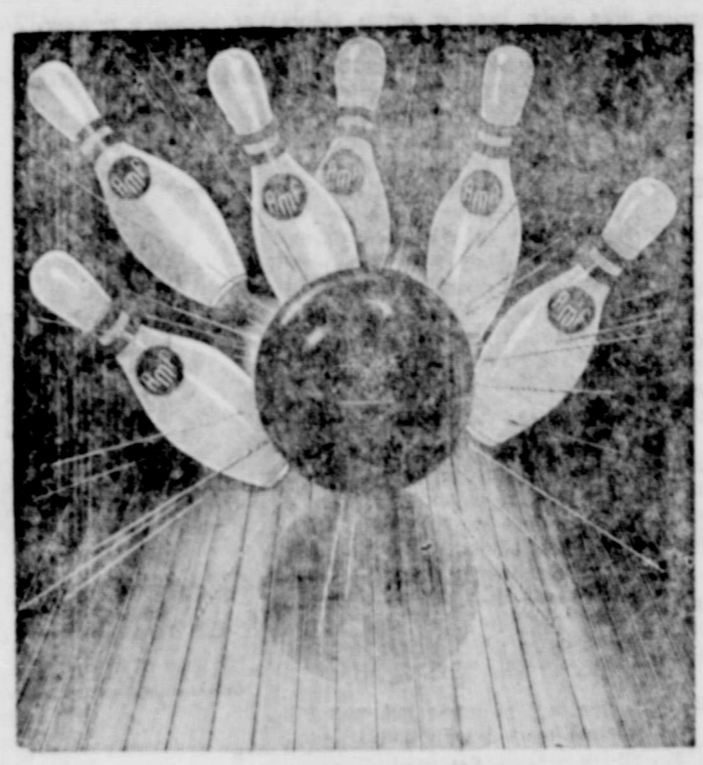

As the population of Texas grows and rural industry expands, the need for dependable electric power also increases.

The Rural Electric Cooperatives of Texas are meeting that challenge. As new power demands are made, heavier lines and equipment are installed. Expert "trouble shooters" are alert around the clock to restore service after damage from wind and weather.

This steady dependable electric service and the expert attention that makes it dependable are the proud achievement of the membership of the Electric Cooperatives of Texas. They borrowed money at interest to build the electric systems that are providing Partnership Power for Progress.

Flu Epidemic Is Subsiding, Belief Monday

Spread of influenza, which had reached the epidemic stage in some plains towns, including Lockney, last mid-week, was believed Monday to be subsiding somewhat, according to various reports.

Lockney hospitals were full of such patients the latter part of last week and several ill patients there had to acquire hospitalization here.

Floydada schools have not given evidence of the epidemic by a material increase in the number of absentees. Some absenteeism was noted during the bad weather but the muddy roads were credited with being the cause of hampering travel, principals of the schools said.

A few cases of influenza have been reported and an increase in the number of colds is noted by doctors here. But not in numbers out of the ordinary for the time of the year and the weather conditions, they said.

From Washington comes the report that 13 states are in an Asian flu epidemic. It will spread to other parts of the country during the next few weeks, according to the U. S. Public Health Service. Texas is listed among the 13 states but the hard hit areas so far seem to be in the coastal cities.

Approximately 100 pupils were absent from school at Lockney last mid-week. The outbreak there was first noted about three weeks ago, said Dr. Pat Williams of Lockney General Hospital. The illness seems to have hit its peak during the week-end and has started a tapering off trend Monday, it was thought.

POLL TAXES

(Continued From First Page) People have viewed their organizations as the object of a conspiracy to hamstring their operations. Wells has been steadfast in their support.

While voters have until midnight of Jan. 31 to pay poll taxes, candidates for office have until midnight, Feb. 1, to file applications to get on the Democratic ticket, so candidates cannot breathe easy until Tuesday morning. So far as known at the Hesperian office there is no indication that there will be more than "one to the hill" for any of the local offices.

At the office of the county chairman of the Democratic party applications to date have been as follows: For Congressman 19th District: George Mabon.

For Justice of the Court of Civil Appeals, 7th Supreme Judicial District: Jess Owens of Amarillo, James G. Denton of Lubbock.

For District Attorney 110th District: John B. Stapleton. For Sheriff: Walter Hollums. For County Attorney: Kenneth Bain, Jr.

For Assessor-Collector of Taxes: T. T. Hamilton. For County Superintendent of Public Instruction: Clarence A. Guffee.

For Commissioner Precinct No. 1: John B. Fowler. For Commissioner Precinct No. 2: W. C. Plumlee.

For County Chariman Democratic Party: Ben P. Ayres.

POLITICAL COLUMN

The Hesperian is authorized to announce the following candidates for the Democratic nominees for the offices indicated respectively:

For Sheriff: WALTER HOLLUMS

For Assessor-Collector of Taxes: T. T. HAMILTON

Paving

(Continued From First Page) ed that a majority of the people wanted a paving program we began the study of financing. It seemed that the fair way was to let the property owners on each side of the street pay a third each and the city pay a third.

"All this information was discussed over the coffee cups of Floydada and the newspaper and on the radio. A bond issue was called, so the city could pay their part. This bond issue carried by a great majority.

"The council felt that it was then a mandate of the people to proceed with the drainage and paving program. After careful study and many interviews we hired a competent engineer. He has, we feel, worked out a program which will help the community as a whole in draining the town as well as paving the necessary areas.

"The desire of the Council is that each and every citizen will come voluntarily to the office of the finance company and sign up saving a great deal of time. This will enable us to start and complete the program so that it can be carried out before next fall.

"The Council considers it has a mandate from the people to carry out the paving program as planned, laid out, and assessed, and is proceeding on this basis.

EDITORIAL VIEWS AND COMMENT

Deadline Is Saturday. Regardless of how strongly one may feel about the poll tax, how dead set one may be against it, it must be paid by Saturday to entitle an otherwise qualified citizen to vote in Texas. We are not now nor never have been opposed to the poll tax. It is not a bad thing to be in the law. Among other things it discourages a herded electorate piling into the election booths. Pay the poll tax by Saturday night. Also it might be worthwhile for the "unders" to get exemption receipts this year, since the adoption of the new gimmick which will keep voters from voting one ticket and participating in precinct conventions of another party.

We Do Question the propriety of this new way of keeping the conventions "pure." Theoretically good it has a tendency to give organized minorities a chance to gain up and wind power which does not always represent the majority of opinion or political belief of a community. It also makes it necessary for the person who offers to take part in a party convention to have his "papers" with him as he enters the place. It smacks of something or other.

In Floyd County, for instance, the will of the majority of the voters for several years, as registered at the polls, has not been represented in the county and state conventions. The minority opinion has been more efficiently organized, as it had every right to be, if the majority is willing to be done that way. Now one who votes in the primary must be sure he is stamped a "Democrat" or "Republican" and have his receipt with him if he plans to join in the convention proceedings that follow. That's the law unless we misunderstand what it says.

Saturday Night also is the final date for an aspirant for nomination to office to file his application with his county chairman for a place on the ticket. Not only voters but candidates also must make up their minds in Texas in a hurry this year. This old business of waiting until after the grass grows and politics begins to simmer to throw a hat into the ring is out in our state this year.

There has been an element in the Democratic party in Texas all these years that feels called upon to hem in the members of the party. Their logic sets up a standard to which they want all other members to conform or be kicked out of participation in nominations. Apparently these want to substitute their consciences for all the voters' consciences. We have been conformist so long we would know no other way than to vote a Democratic ticket.

But To Say in February what our conscience is going to dictate in May is another matter. Or to say this morning that we are bound willy nilly to chance a violation of our conscience this afternoon also goes against the grain. The courts have held you can't do a voter that way. But perhaps the courts are wrong. Maybe you can do voters that way.

Water and Light Bills. Last week's cut off of water and light service by the city worked up quite a heat. One would think the council, long forebearing, owed somebody an apology. The city has some accounts no doubt which they feel duty-bound to carry along, which in distress for reasons beyond their control. But the rest of us ought to pay, all alike. We'd like to be counted among those who feel the council has done the fair thing by cutting off people who think the public owes them a free ride. If they inadvertently did some unfortunate a bad turn we're sorry. Doubtless, the council members are, also.

Who'll Bell The Cat? The pressure of people seeking homes to rent keeps newspaper offices and other places they apply somewhat in an apologetic mood for the town. But few people have found it profitable to keep rent houses under the plan we follow here. An occasional person who can profit from rentals is found but the majority of investors run from rental residence property like the devil from holy water. Under the circumstances question is who'll provide the housing? Or how will it be provided? A real problem, an affirmative answer to which would result in several score more families in the community to help make local business and traffic. We need more good people badly.

No New City Boundaries. Presumably there will be no broadening of the City of Floydada's boundaries before census taking time. It develops that for the most of the people on the periphery of municipal bounds the city already has furnished all the advantages it can offer—and furnished them free of taxes. Most everybody is satisfied with something for nothing and will not rush to the polls to get a chance to help pay for advantages they already have tax free.

One Argument favoring including residential property on the outskirts of Floydada within the municipal bounds is the saving in insurance costs. Owners of most of the property outside the limits would benefit as much from reduced fire insurance rates as they would be out in additional taxes if they voted themselves into city.

Texas Enters Major Cattle Feeding Class

John C. White, Commissioner of Agriculture, announced today that Texas will be one of the first states to enter the major cattle feeding class. The new Armour and Co. beef processing plant there with 400 to 1,000 cattle weekly. In addition to the larger feeding operations, there are now hundreds of smaller pens which handle between 100 to 999 head each, and many more such feed lots with capacities of less than 100 each.

But the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research now reports a tremendous growth in Texas feeding operations during the past four years. On Jan. 1, 1955, there were only 61 listed commercial operations in Texas with a feeding capacity of 1,000 head or more each, carrying an aggregate capacity of 160,000 head. On Jan. 1, 1959, there were 94 such feed lots on record, with an aggregate capacity of 240,000 head, developing an increase of 50 per cent in capacity in the four years.

This growth is still going on. An example is the Luck T. Cattle Co. which operates just west of San Antonio on the Edwards Plateau, now expanding its capacity from around 8,000 head to 13,000 head, including a completely automatic feed mill capable of turning

by Vern Sanford

With the filing dead-line drawing near, the races in more than 50 of the House districts in 19 of these familiar to Texas candidates for re-election.

Besides the usual preponderance of lawyers, there are a number of school teachers and former school teachers among the newcomers.

Campaign platforms rest mainly on these issues:

- (1) Betterment of schools and improvement of teachers' salaries.
- (2) Revamping or doing away with the new merit plan auto insurance rates.
- (3) Providing medical payments for persons on the welfare rolls and raising old age pensions.
- (4) Enacting stiffer highway safety laws.
- (5) Developing a comprehensive statewide water program.
- (6) Solving the state's fiscal problems. This is generally covered in some broad, fairly vague statement, such as "modernizing the state tax system," "eliminating unnecessary expenditures" or "finding an equitable method of taxation."

ENOUGH'S ENOUGH — Presidents of Texas tax-supported colleges and universities have come out against adding any more schools to the state's higher education system.

Their reasons: (1) we've got enough already and (2) there isn't enough state money to go around.

University of Houston is seeking admission. Its case will be heard by the Commission on Higher Education in April. Commission will report to the Legislature, which makes final decision, in 1961.

Del Mar College of Corpus Christi, a municipally-supported junior college, would like to follow the course of Arlington College and become a state-supported four-year college.

Council of State College Presidents joined unanimously in a statement that to add more schools to the state system now or in the near future would be "a grave mistake."

Texas, said the Council, supports more colleges and universities, and contributes to the support of more junior colleges (32 than any state except California).

Ninety-five per cent of our people live within 100 miles of a state college now, the Council advises.

CHILDREN'S AID REFORM URGED — Texas' aid to dependent children program seems to be creating more of the same social ills it was supposed to alleviate.

This is the verdict of the Texas Research League after a two-year study made at the request of the State Welfare Department.

It seems that these abandoned children — those whom the parents refuse to support, or can't often grow up to have children they won't or can't support.

Welfare workers are seeing more and more second and third generation cases, said the League.

League recommends re-shaping the whole program to put the emphasis on rehabilitation. At present, says the League, the program does little or nothing to help families help themselves or to get at the problems that cause them to be in need in the first place.

ADC payments go to about 105,000 persons in Texas — 80,000 children and 25,000 parents. Cost: $21,000,000 a year, of which 80 per cent is federal money.

LEGISLATIVE EPENSE RULING — Legislators who carry out between-sessions committee assignments are entitled to $8 a day and 8 cents a mile for travel, according to an attorney general's ruling.

A special law covers the expenses of members of the Legislative Council and Legislative Budget Board. They may be reimbursed for the actual cost of meals, rooms and other expenses incidental to this work.

Regular pay for state employees traveling on state business is $9 per day and 8 cents a mile.

BIG BUSINESS — Texas General Land Office, sometimes described as "the biggest real estate agency in Texas," did a land office business during 1959.

Land Office, which is the management and collection agency for the state's public lands, took in $69,583,603 in the past year. This came from oil and gas royalties, bonuses, grazing rentals, etc.

Main beneficiaries were the public school permanent fund and the University permanent fund. In addition, 18 other funds received deposits.

Land Commissioner Bill Allcorn said 384 veterans paid off their land loans, bringing in $2,352,767 that can be used for more veterans' loans.

SEGREGATION SUIT SIDE-STEPPED — Dallas is in a bind between a federal court order to desegregate its schools and a state law prohibiting desegregation without a local option election.

State Supreme Court has refused to overturn a lower court ruling that Dallas was not entitled to a court order freeing it from the effects of the state's anti-integration law. A law passed in 1957 says that a school district that integrates without a local option election shall lose its state aid. For Dallas this would be some $2,600,000 a year.

A federal court ordered Dallas schools in 1955 to integrate "with all deliberate speed."

Jehovah's Witnesses Schedule Training Program This Week

Clarence W. Hall Sr., presiding minister for Jehovah's Witnesses in Plainview, said all local meetings at the Kingdom Hall are being cancelled for the three-day training program at Fair Park Coliseum in Lubbock, Jan. 29-31.

They are expecting about 500 witness ministers from Texas Circuit No. 9, which circuit embraces parts of Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico, according to Hall.

"Jehovah's Witnesses' organization," Hall said, "is designed to cultivate and train in 'Doing the Divine Will' which will be the point of discussion at this assembly."

"The 'gospel of the Kingdom' preached by Jehovah's Witnesses has penetrated deep inside the iron curtain and enjoyed a 22-per cent increase in ministers for the past year in the communistic lands," Hall said.

The summit of the assembly comes at 3 p. m. Sunday when K. L. Anderson, district minister, gives the public address "When Is God's Will to be Done on Earth?"

Church Women Plan Prayer Day Program

The General Christian Women's Fellowship met Wednesday, Jan. 20, at the First Christian Church with the vice president, Mrs. Donald Barrow presiding. Mrs. Barrow was given by Mrs. Paul Fortson followed by the singing of the missionary theme song "O Zion Haste". Mrs. W. D. Newell made the treasurer's report.

During the business meeting everyone was reminded of the "World Day of Prayer" at the Methodist Church, Mar. 4, with the women of the First Christian Church presenting the program. Mrs. Fred Brown and Mrs. Ed Wester were named on the committee to plan the program.

A committee was appointed to nominate new officers to take charge in July 1960. They are Mrs. J. B. Jenkins, Mrs. Victoria Asher and Mrs. W. D. Newell. This committee will report Feb. 3 and officers voted upon Mar. 2, so that the new officers may be able to attend the State Convention to be held Apr. 27 to May 1.

Mrs. S. L. Powell gave the devotional, the theme being "Go Forth to Life, O' Child of God". Mrs. Fred Brown presented the program for the day, "Mission Study on Africa". Having visited many places in Africa Mrs. Brown gave first hand information on conditions there. It was informative and interesting.

The meeting was brought to a close with the missionary benediction. Lunch was served in Fellowship Hall.

FALCON LAKE Fishing Good; Local Anglers Are In Luck

Unless the irritated farms below Falcon Dam begin taking so much water from that big jointly-owned lake that the spawning grounds of the fish are dried up, Falcon is going to be a fisherman's paradise.

Experience of Floydada people who spent a part of last week on that immense spread of water, indicates as much at least.

Four or five parties of Floydada men fished on the lake. Among these were Walton Hale and J. A. Arwine. Hale said that everybody was having good luck, some better than others. Big, fine bass were plentiful, and also young fish were much in evidence to forecast good fishing for at least another season or two.

Hale, who isn't much for getting in the newspapers, is an authority on most any kind of fresh water fishing. Falcon now is about like Don Martine and Sugar Lakes were once, swarming with fish. These lakes in Old Mexico were spoiled for the fishermen when irrigation water users lowered the lake levels below the spawning grounds and dried up the supply of young fish.

Hale and Arwine trolled quite a bit. They also "tied up" occasionally and fished in likely looking waters. One time they stopped their boat at a little clump of bushes and caught seven big bass in seven minutes.

Incidentally fishing is sometimes a hardy man's sort of sport. It was cold at Falcon, lowest reading 34 degrees, while the Plainsmen were there. When they pulled a fish out of the water the fish's body was warm to their hands.

Just about every town on the plains was represented at Falcon last week. Hale said they could have held a West Texas convention very handily.

Re-Charge Through Irrigation Well Builds Up Water Level

Approximately 26,001,600 gallons of water, which amounted to 80 acre feet, were recharged during a seven-month period in 1959 at Halfway. This water-level in the immediate area is built up and the water in the Playa pumped does not have to be low-landed into the underground sand-creed because of an over-pumped through an irrigation well with a pipe inlet from the lake. There in the formation is prolonged due to this well for irrigation during this period which amounted to one-third of the amount recharged. This means that 54 acre feet are available for irrigation in the next pumping period, James Valliant, water engineer for the Foundation reported today.

"There are many benefits to be realized from the establishment of a recharge well," Jim Valliant said. "In actual dollars, based on $65.00 an acre foot applied to cotton, the water is valued at 5,200.00. However, this does

PROBLEM? NO PROBLEM

An editorial is usually used as a means to present a problem and its solution. But this week, I can see no real problem. Mid-term exams are over, and students are almost rested from the heavy schedule. Preparation is well under way for the Inter-scholastic league meets, and Floydada will strive to maintain its place on top.

WHIRL GETS EXCELLENT RATING

For the second consecutive year ratings were received. The WHIRL has been rated excellent for the fall term by the West Texas High School Press Association.
