Federation Leader Tells Club Meeting Of Holy Land

The 1929 Study Club met Thursday afternoon in the Community Room of the First National Bank with members of the 1922 Study club as special guests.

Mrs. Hollis R. Bond, was program leader in absence of Mrs. Tate Jones, president of the club.

Mrs. Bond opened the meeting by reading the prayer of St. Francis, as follows:

"Lord, make me an instrument of Thy peace. Where there is hate, may I bring love; where there is offense, may I bring pardon; may I bring union in place of discord; Truth, replacing error; Faith, where once there was doubt; Light, where there was darkness; Joy to replace sadness. Make me not to so crave to be loved as to love. Help me to learn that in giving I may receive. In forgetting self, I may find life eternal."

Mrs. Bond introduced guest visit the Holy Land should study and read their Bibles before making the trip in order to understand more thoroughly the history of the country. "Do not look for beauty in structure, she said, as everything is as ancient as history itself."

Mrs. Clay Henry, Mrs. T. B. Noland, Mrs. Jack Jordan and Mrs. Q. D. Williams were hostesses for the gathering Thursday and were in charge of the social hour and serving.

Club members of the 1922 club and other guests present included Mrs. J. M. Willson Sr., E. L. Angus, Billy Stanforth, Kenneth Bain, David S. Battey, Houston Dixon, E. J. Morehead, J. G. Wood, R. MRS. WALTER EUGENE BEEDY (Judy Janette Jackson)

Double Ring Ceremony Unites Judy Jackson, Eugene Beedy

Miss Judy Janette Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Jackson of McCoy Community, became the bride of Walter Eugene Beedy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Beedy of South Plains, in an impressive double ring ceremony performed at the First Baptist Church in Floydada March 19 at 8:00 p. m. Rev. Haywood Kube, pastor of the McCoy Baptist Church officiated.

The bride walked down the aisle on a white carpet sprinkled with white and rose petals, to an arch decorated with jewel rose stock blooms, backed by tropical foliage and topped with white frosted wedding bells and deep pink bridal satin ribbon.

Flanking the decorated arch were four seven branch cathedral candelabras and large baskets of jewel rose stock blooms tied with deep pink bridal satin ribbon bows.

A wrought iron kneeing bench with white smoothed satin cushions centered and completed the setting.

Mrs. Bill Hardin, organist, played pre-nuptial selections and accompanied Miss Wren Patterson as she sang "Whither Thou Goest", "Walk Hand and Hand" and "The Lord's Prayer".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowning in an original model of white imported French lace and pleated tulle ruffles over net and taffeta, designed with a Sabrina neckline framed with escalloped lace enhanced with appliques of lace embroidered with iridescent sequins and pearls. The fitted princess bodice featured long sleeves ending in points over the hands and terminated with escalloped long torso waistline. From this stemmed magnificent skirt made entirely of alternating ruffles of escalloped lace and pleated tulle and taffeta. The immense fullness of lace, tulle, and taffeta swept into a full graceful train at back. Hoops were worn underneath to emphasize fullness.

Her veil of silk illusion was joined to a shaped pill-box type hat of taffeta embellished with appliques of lace embroidered with iridescent sequins and seed pearls.

The bride carried her white Rainbow Bible topped with a white orchid resting in a nest of white roses, net, and white bridal satin ribbon. White satin streamers tied with lover's knots and carrying wedding rings belonging to the bride's grandmothers, being the traditional something old, flowed over the front of the arrangement.

For something borrowed, the bride wore pearl earrings belonging to the bridegroom's sister-in-law, Mrs. Brad Beedy, and for something blue was a garter given to her by Miss Glea Adams. For luck the bride wore pennies bearing the year of her and the bridegroom's birth in each shoe.

Miss Lynn Jackson served her sister as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Leora King, Miss Kay Robertson, Mrs. Betty Wylie, and Mrs. June Wells, the latter two being cousins of the bride. They wore identical street length dresses of jewel rose silk organza with American beauty rose colored velvet belts. The fitted bodices were designed with bateau front necklines and low rounded back necklines and featured fitted long sleeves. The skirts were gathered full. Each wore a headpiece of chiffon gathered in the shape of flowers embroidered with seed pearls and topped with a chin-length veil of tulle.

The maid of honor carried a basket of long-stem American beauty roses, and each bridesmaid carried a single long-stem rose.

Niece of the bridegroom, Miss Cindy Beedy, was flower girl.

LIPSTICK LOGIC Memorial Book List Is Long At Library

Soon our doorbell will ring and when we answer we'll find long list, according to the some ordinary citizen, even as announcement of Mrs. A. T. Hull, ourselves, armed with credentials county librarian. The list is as follows:

Given in memory of L. C. Meador by: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Morckel; Mrs. J. H. Buchanan; Mrs. J. B. Jenkins; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Vanwickel; Mrs. Marie Baxter; Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Finow's business, in reality is bald facts: name, age, occupation, goodness knows what else. Act- ually he is our chance to be count- ed in history. So that next year, and five years from now, and a decade away, our vital statistics so parts, and run through a com- puter to become several tiny fractions in several one per cent. Being quizzed about one's per- sonal life is grim enough. But what about the census taker? It's he who has to walk weary blocks, ask questions he'd rather not, accept courtesy or rudeness, as it is doled out. True, he gets paid $13 a day, and if he has lots of natural curiosity about people, he'll have ample opportunity to satisfy it. But from where we sit, this looks like money hard earned.

We wonder at the St. Louis clerk who applied for a job as census taker — and was reject- ed. In two years' time, from 1936 to 1958, he had won $264,000 on quiz shows by answering questions. Why couldn't he ask a few? Maybe a fellow who runs through that sum that fast should have been asking instead of answering all along. However, he's not one to trust with the chance to be counted in history is he?

Named By Governor On White House Conference On Aging

Appointment of L. A. Marshall as Floyd County chairman on the Governor's committee, White House Conference on Aging, was announced in Austin today jointly by Governor Price Daniel and State Senator Crawford C. Martin of Hillsboro, steering committee chairman.

Work on the state level will be directed by a steering committee of nine prominent Texans associated with agencies concerned with problems of the aged, and an advisory body of some 150 Texas citizens.

Senator Martin said county chairmen will be responsible for forming county organizations to gather information and make recommendations on the aging problem at the community and county levels.

He said that grassroots studies are necessary to ascertain the extent of income, employment health, housing and other needs of the ever-increasing number of older people in Texas and throughout the country.

The Texas study, as well as those in other states, is being made by authority of a 1968 act of Congress. The act calls for a White House Conference on Aging to be held in Washington in January of 1961, as well as for local surveys and for state conferences in advance of the Washington meeting.

The announced goals of the project — nationwide, statewide and on the local level — he said, are several:

1. To motivate members of interested organizations to work together in solving common problems of older people.
 2. To encourage organizations to study their own work and determine how the needs of the aging who are met more effectively.
 3. To correlate public and private services to aging in many fields, including counseling on family relationships, jobs and opportunities, compulsory retirement, health services, housing, nursing homes and recreational programs.
 4. To find ways to help older people continue to grow mentally and spiritually.
 5. To examine public programs for the aged and determine whether revisions or alterations are needed.
- Senator Martin said the county chairmen are free to determine ways and methods of studying the resources and needs of the senior citizens in their communities, and that announcement of local plans would be made soon.
- He urged people interested in the project — especially lay persons and those directly concerned, the aged themselves — to contact their county chairmen for details of the study.

Grow a "Dream Vacation" in a cotton field?

It's not fantastic! And here is why:

One prominent Texas farmer used Phillips 66 Ammonia to realize an added net profit of $54.32 per acre on his cotton, after deducting the cost of ammonia. Just 50 acres of cotton like this means over $2,700 extra profit... enough to enable a family vacation in some of the world's finest spots.

Ask your Phillips 66 Distributor to help you work out a complete fertilizer program on all your crops.

Rose-Turner Vows Pledged At Lubbock

The second Baptist Church in Lubbock was the scene for the wedding Saturday evening of Miss Annette Rose, and Dorman Curtis Turner, who pledged double vows before the Rev. Robert J. Hearn.

Spiral candelabras holding white tapers, and flanked by baskets of white gladioli, centered by a white kneeling bench, formed the ceremonial setting.

Mrs. Larry Warren, organist, played wedding preludes and accompanied soloist, Rex Webster. Bob Rose of Lubbock, and Mrs. V. D. Turner of Floydada are parents of the wedded pair.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an original piece of white gown fashioned princess style. Re-embroidered Alencon lace frosted in pearls outlined a scoop neck and the chapel train fell from a bustle etched in clustered silk roses. Her veil of imported silk illusion fell in handkerchief folds from a French cap of silk petals.

She carried a white prayer book with a lavender orchid and stephanotis, embedded in folds of white satin streamers. She wore a wedding garter belonging to Mrs. Robert J. Allen.

Miss Sally Mahon was maid of honor, and attending as bridesmaids were Miss Peggy Johnston of Houston, Miss Elizabeth Brown and Miss Patsy Painter of Lubbock.

Each were gowned identical in ballerina-length, full-skirted silk organza frocks of lavender with purple cummerbunds. Their ensembles were styled with oval necklines and cap sleeves. They wore patent hats combined of the two colors and carried nosegays of violets and pink rosebuds.

Robert L. McGuire of Lubbock served the bridegroom as best man. Ushers were Glad Norman, Lubbock, Stanley Criswell, Midland, and Richard Hawkey of Fort Worth.

Jack and Jill Zuerker of Pampa, both cousins of the bride, were candlelighters, and their sister Jan Zuerker was flower girl.

The newly-weds, their parents and feminine attendants were in the receiving line at the reception which followed in the church parlor. A four tiered bridal cake was served along with lavender, colored punch from silver appointments.

Assisting with hospitalities were Mrs. Cecil Kelsey, H. W. Porter, Nibs Warren, Preston Johnston, Garland Nystal, Holman Hendrix, Dixon White, B. J. Alldredge, Raymond Painter, Richard McElroy, H. S. Brown, E. B. Kelly, Darward Mahon.

Also Misses Marilyn Warren, Linda Hamilton, Martha Reuther, Ann Gordon, Sandra Hendrix, Carolyn Porter, Marty Smith, and Carolyn Zachary.

For traveling the new Mrs. Turner chose a black linen suit, accented by a pink flowered hat and gloves with black patent bag and slippers.

The bride, one of the ten top beauties of Texas Tech in 1956 and 1960, is a senior student, and a member of the Delta Gamma Greek Letter social sorority. She was first alternate Maid of Cotton in 1959.

Her husband, a graduate of Floydada high school and Texas Tech, holds a BS degree in Management and is affiliated with Kappa Sigma.

Style Trends for Spring and Summer

Big sleeves, full skirts and costumes with waist length jackets take the limelight in style trends for spring and summer.

Waistlines mark the current normal position on many fashions instead of last year's high waisted effect. But gradually shifting to the other extreme, lowered waistlines, either in fitted long torso bodices or shallow hip yokes in full-skirted dresses are appearing on the scene. Soft pleats around the waistline are being used to develop a rounded hipline. Circular skirts are reappearing after an absence of several years. Many slim skirts taper to the hemline to form a new cone shape.

Black makes big news in color for mid-day. The trend toward pale colors is also evidenced by widespread use of beige, chalk, white and pearl gray. Soft fruit colors of lime, orange, mint and strawberry appear in solid colored silks and silk prints. Designs range from giant florals through interesting abstracts. Checks are quite popular.

Texture is important with doo-bees, eyelash fringe and woven checks adding surface interest to silk, cottons and blended fabrics. On the other extreme, many lightweight fabrics are being used to give a soft feminine look to daytime and evening costumes.

Study Of Africa Made By Circles In Joint Meeting

The Suzanne and Ruth Circles of the First Methodist Church had a joint meeting in the church parlor March 16 for their second study in a series on "The Way to Africa". Mrs. DeWitt Seago is giving the study by George Wayland Carpenters.

Fish Air Peeves

After making a survey of the members of the freshman class on the subject of pet peeves, the main irritant seemed to be the way that boys treat girls after they have broken up. Other similar peeves are the following:

Girls with petticoats showing; people that spit in public places; boys and girls that smoke and drink; people who talk and criticize others; people that use bad language; teachers that give so much homework on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and on weekends; people that do things that they know are not right, such as stealing.

People that tell lies just to make it easier on themselves or others; and parents that allow their children to stay out late as they want to do anything that they feel like doing.

Do We Have Enough Respect For Upperclassmen?

Upperclassman—what a fearful word that used to be to a freshman. Today no hazing is allowed. Could we have lost our respect for upperclassmen? Initiation, when carried out in a mannerly way, is fun and gives a freshman a form of respect for upperclassmen. We don't mind their having authority over us; for upperclassmen can help a freshman in many ways. If they will set a good example for us. Consequently, if this is carried out, then the freshmen will respect upperclassmen and want to be like them. So even though we don't have initiation anymore, remember, set a good example—someone may be following in your footsteps. —Janice Trapp

Fish Creatures, Common Form Of Life, Given Scientific Study

A freshman, as this creature first of September and usually He lives a useful life as any is commonly called, is a very lasts nine months until the last high school senior can tell you common form of life in America of May when he is promoted to and he spends most of his passing year. This creature is found in virtually every town in a more nearly human form of tests and preparing for his future life known as the sophomore. years of leadership and respon- sibility. Often, however, one remains a freshman for two or even three years. The freshman's life is a hard one, plagued with such things as school teachers, home work, responsibilities, having to think once in a while, and of course that other popular species, the upperclassman. These obstacles are offset somewhat, however, by more desirable things such as football, basketball, clam parties, girls, and a few days of freedom on holidays. The freshman lives a good life with plenty of leisure and hard work and he holds a prominent position in every high school. Nevertheless, he always seems to feel mistreated. If you should meet one of these creatures, you should not be afraid of him. They are usually harmless and very friendly. They are not poisonous, although they have been known to inflict a very painful bite. If you do meet one sometime what you should do is keep calm, call a senior to keep him in line, and do not turn your back on him. Freshmen should receive some respect and attention from every one, however, because even though they are just beginning their high school years now, they are our country's future leaders, and the way they act in the future depends largely on the way their minds are influenced now. —(The Owl's Hoop)

A FRESHMAN'S LAMENT

(By Larry Fagan) Seven months since September last. Study time has flown so fast. Vacation ended as time drew near. Entering high school somewhat in fear. All you saw was strange and new. School's hard, lessons awaited you. More shade than sunshine in this year. We have all known joy and tears. We have each seen some plan go wrong. Many times the road seemed long. Often times exams were hard. Some days surely were somewhat marred. But this school year will soon be past. And this dumb "freshman" hopes to last.

Life In Biology 'Lab' Is Rough

Everybody go get your frogs! We're gonna split his ventral abdominal vehicular vein today. (Horrows! What's that?) Who does he think he is, ordering us to get that old nasty frog again. Uh-oh, here he comes! He's grinning like a snake! I can't already smell that ugly old monster of a frog. Why do we have to do this anyway? It makes me sick.

Quit that! If you do that again, I'll — I'll — the very idea. Him slapping that second generation of a chordate-polluter in front of me! Touch him! Cut him up? Not me!! I'm not gonna do it!

How would you like to rip his visceral peritoneum and OBSERVE his blood vessels in that nasty old mesentery? Huh? Ugh!!

Everybody's looking at each other wondering what to do next. The girls can scream, but the boys can't and still keep their manly "prestige." I think I'm about to lose mine. Whatever you do don't give up. When nobody's looking throw the whole thing out the window with the other reptiles.

'Fish' Class Of Floydada High Blessed With Popular Leaders

Chosen to lead the freshman class, Darryl Lindsey, Fred Thayer, Denny King, King, Bonnie Helms, and Bud Higginbotham. To represent the class, the class favorites, Darryl Lindsey and Marjorie Dunavant were chosen. Lindsey holds two honors. Darryl Lindsey is the president of the class and is now taking biology, algebra I, English I, band, driving, and P. E.

Freshman class leaders are the class officers and class favorites pictured above. Pictured from left to right are Fred Thayer, class vice president; Denny King, class reporter; Marjorie Dunavant, class favorite; Bud Higginbotham, class secretary; Bonnie Helms, class treasurer; and Darryl Lindsey, class president. Crazy, Mixed-Up School Day Of Average Fish Is Detailed

Now for one more crazy, mixed-up day of school. Being a fish, one can't tell what's going to happen next. Ooops! There went the eight forty-five bell. Better hurry up and get into the building, so I can hurry up and get to class, so I can hurry up and get to class, so I can hurry up and get to class, so I can hurry up and get to class. That's all I do!

Oh! It's time for that class all Fish dread: English I. Yes, taught by that hilarious, courteous, smart Mrs. Beth Dalton. (All of us Fish expect an A for that plug.) I should have known better, she's giving us a spelling test today, and she just told us we were going to have one every day for the next three weeks. Well, I'd better get my spelling book. Let's see, my locker number is either 216, 162, or 612. I can't ever remember which one. Well, there's the bell. I walk out into the hall and see — confusion. There goes an upperclassman chasing a Fish. Uh, Oh! He caught her.

Now we Fish are in good old Speech I. Everyone really enjoys coming to the dear old speech class! Just think, only forty-two and a half minute more until it is over, and just five hours and thirty-eight minutes until school is out. The class always enjoyed spending the first ten minutes of class listening to the dramatic class speech effects. It seems that Mrs. Graves can hardly recognize Bonnie Helm's voice from the sound of a car, when the recorder is recording declamation.

Goody! It's time for Algebra I. Everyone tip toe in and be extra quiet. Got to sharpen my pencil, get out my paper, and get ready for that dilly of a test. Mrs. Dalrymple gives us on Friday. Oh! How I wish good old Monday, because on Saturday, pal, Mr. Baker, would give us fifteen minutes between class, so keep upperclassmen happy on Monday, Tuesday Wednesday and Thursday, and Friday of the next week. You just can't miss four.

What a life! What a life! —Denny King

CARD OF THANKS
Home from the hospital I want first to express my heartfelt thanks to Bro. Seago and the church members who remembered me in their prayers; also thanks to all those who sent beautiful flowers and the many gifts, and last but not least for many, many cards. Lee joins me in saying it is wonderful to have friends.
Mrs. Lee Rushing
Two beatniks were lounging outside a San Francisco saloon. "Dig that crazy moon up there," said one.
"Man, that's no moon," said the other. "That crazy thing is the sun."
About that time a third beatnik sauntered out the door and they put the question to him. Without bothering to look up he said, "I don't know man, I'm a stranger here."

If we made Gladiola Flour for Slippery Rock, Pa...

we wouldn't have to do our best ...but we make it for you

We grind Gladiola Flour just for Texas and our next-door neighbors. This presents a bit of a problem. The ladies around here are the choosiest flour buyers in America (as well as the best home bakers).

All we can do is make our flour so good that these ladies have no other choice. That's how it's been for a long time. Year after year, snow-white Gladiola Flour outsells every other brand.

Folks in Slippery Rock, Pa., have to settle for less—but you don't. Gladiola quality is your best bargain in flour. Costs your family only about 1/2¢ a day more than the cheapest little old brand on the shelf.

As a Farm Woman Thinks

Nellie Witt Spikes

It seems that we do not discuss our eyes from the passing of one friend to that of another. Mr. Spikes' sister, Etna, in California, has left that land of flowers to another of Peace and Beauty not seen by mortal eyes. Almost ninety years she lived. Although many difficulties came in her life, she had a dauntless character and met each one with courage and good common sense. A family of eleven children were born to John Wesley and Julia Ann Spikes and they grew up on Spikes' Prairie in Kaufman County. Now the only two that remain to remember those happy days are Jeff and his sister, Liz.

There was always a smile and a pleasant greeting from Bill Jones. You left him feeling that this world was a happier place because of people like him. We will miss him but the remembrance of his Christian personality will go on with all that knew him. I am sure he followed and loved Psalm 27:4.

One thing I have asked of the Lord, that I will seek after: that I may dwell, in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the Lord, and to inquire in his temple. I thought you might enjoy with me some memories of my mother, Mrs. J. M. Witt, 1812, 18th Lubbock, Texas.

Corrine Barber is a cousin and I know it will bring memories that her father told her of the Jones family in Parker County.

JONES HISTORY
Michael Jones, b. Bedford Co. Va.

Erasmus Jones I
Erasmus Jones 11
George Donald Jones, b. Can. on Co., Tenn. d. Odessa, Tex.
Memories of Margaret Jones Witt
My grandfather and grandmother, Erasmus and Christiana Jones, moved from Tennessee, (Murfreesboro) to Red River County and then to Parker County, Tex. four miles southwest of Weatherford.

They were fine nurses and in Tennessee when the cholera broke out they would swim across the river, after pulling off their clothing, taking some more across to wear on the other side. They waited on the cholera patients but never took it. They are buried inside the rock wall in the old Jones Cemetery now known as the Dean Cemetery.

Erasmus Jones kept fine horses would have no other kind. Their young daughter, Christiana, died of brain fever in Parker county at the time of the big flood, holes had to be cut in the floor of the Jones home to let out the water. A son, Dibblell, was a very handsome man. He moved to Colorado and froze his legs when he went to the woods with a negro to kill hogs. Dib would not walk as the negro begged him, but rode in the wagon and his legs froze. Erisipolis set up and killed him.

Uncle Jim Jones and his wife Aunt Lou would come from Colorado to visit us. Pa would go to the depot in the wagon to bring them out home. They would bring two big traveling trunks. Everything Aunt Lizzie had was as nice as silk, tailor made. She charmed us children by telling us about the dances in Colorado.

Her hair was very pretty, it was black and she told how she dressed it in gold for the balls she attended, wearing her fine dresses and her diamonds. Her handkerchiefs cost $7. Her perfumes were costly, her shoes the best money could buy. Many of her dresses were of broad satin.

Aunt Lizzie brought these fine clothes to Parker County and delighted the girls by wearing them. But she was not "stuck-up". She saved every gold piece that Uncle Jim gave her and when Uncle Jim lost everything on one race horse, (he and his brother Pate kept race horses), they came back to Jack County, Texas where Uncle Jim owned land. Uncle Pate had race horses at Denton before he went to Colorado. Uncle Jim and Aunt Lizzie rode horse back on hunts. Aunt Lizzie rode a side saddle and dearly loved to ride after the hounds even after she was old.

I do not remember just who was the first one buried in the Jones cemetery but I think it was the two Savage men the Indians killed. But it might have been the two Barber boys.

A wall of rock was built four feet high with a beautiful iron gate. A schoolhouse known as the Jones school was near the Jones' buried inside the rock wall. It is made of native stone. At one grave in the cemetery a man took two big slabs of stone and leaned them together at the top, making a roof over the grave.

I do not recall when Dib Jones who died in Colorado was brought back for burial but his body lies inside the wall.

There was another tragedy in the Jones family. Bud Jones, the son of Stephen Fuqua and Lou Barber Jones, lived with his parents at Emporia, Kansas. One night while staying at their ranch he was bitten — he thought it only a dream. His little dog slept beside his bed and Bud dreamed he got on the bed and bit his hand.

Six weeks later he came to Texas for a visit. He and a cousin, Bang Jones, went into a saloon in Weatherford, and at the sight of water, Bud fell into a fit of rabies. George Jones, my father, took him to the best hotel in town but all they could do was to hold him on the bed when he had a seizure. When one was over he would beg them to kill him or go away. He was afraid he would bite one of them.

He died but it was after his funeral that his father reached Weatherford. Uncle Steve and his wife put up a fine tombstone which cost $250.00, a sizable sum at that day and time. It is inside the rock wall and on it are inscribed these words:

Hope looks beyond the bonds of tears,
When what we now deplore,
Shall rise in full immortal prime
And bloom to fade no more.

Views Play Given In 'Round' Theatre

Mrs. Lon V. Smith spent last week in Dallas, attending a State Baptist WMU Board meeting where she was on the program. While in Dallas, she saw Paul Baker's presentation of "Of Time and the River" at the Kalita Humphreys Theater of the Dallas Theater Center.

This theater was built at a cost of $1,000,000 by Frank Lloyd Wright and is the only theater built by this great U. S. architect, she said.

The building has no right angles but intimately curving three stages that revolve. In modern terms, it is considered the most beautiful theater in the world.

Paul Baker is head of the Drama Department at Baylor University. He will direct "Of Time and the River" on Broadway next year.

EDITORIAL VIEWS AND COMMENTARY

The Red Cross Campaign. The way it stood several days ago the drive for memberships in the American Red Cross in Floyd County had not "got into orbit." Perhaps the situation looks better by now. If the county fails to reach the quite reasonable quota it will be the first time in a fifty-year history that we have failed. All of us have been impatient with the Red Cross approach at times. But none of us but owe a debt to the organization, whether or not we admit it! One thing one might keep in mind in its favor that can't be said of all the welfare organizations we contribute to. Red Cross books are audited and it is a matter of public record where the money went to!

The Paving Project in Floydada has really gotten off the ground in a big way. The approval the school district gave the program capped the climax, if a climax can be capped. The paving may bend a few of us but it is not going to break anybody, and we'll have it instead of not having it. It is to be taken for granted the city councils, present and future, will see to it that it is protected. It will take a few thousand dollars every year or so to repair. And, of course, the streets are going to be marked!

Traffic Safety Inspections. Apparently nobody in Floyd County has had to wait in a long line for motor vehicle inspections and the safe driving sticker, but such a time might come this year if the figures of the Texas Department of Public Safety are up-to-date. According to the department less than 2,500 of the 8,000 vehicles that must be inspected before April 15 had the tags as late as last week. A rather highly important matter, the inspection still remains a chore. We tend to attend to matters we consider important and pressing and procrastinate on chores. Failure to have the inspection sticker is an invitation to the highway patrolman to investigate.

No Boundary Increase. Whether the boundaries of Floydada should have been increased in the past decade may or may not have been desirable. The fact remains that the boundaries have not been enlarged, and are not likely to be until the town reaches a population of 5,000. If we are correctly informed the people in the areas that are wanted to be annexed have to vote themselves in. "Taking" them in is possible only after the incorporated community has sufficient population to adopt a charter and home rule.

Zoning Ordinance Desirable? In some communities in Floydada's population bracket zoning ordinances are being found desirable to make orderly development of business and residence areas possible. Notable instance is at Lockney where it appears a new order of things is going to make residence values more stable and business property as well.

It develops that the order of the Health, Education and Welfare Department, issued at the height of the sale of fowls for the Christmas market, the order that forbade the sale of poultry that had had stilbestrol shots, was not made to apply to all others who were making use of the drug. Cattlemen and doctors, for instance, were not included. Overtones in the reports indicate that the Health, Education and Welfare Department is over-zealous and takes "pot shots". Stilbestrol was being used in only a tiny bit of the nation's production, but the order broadcast cost the dealers all over the country a great volume, including poultrymen in West Texas. Poultrymen at Christmas were not much busier than the cranberry merchants, who got a fatal dose of the bureau's autocratic order after they'd spent their money crating their cranberries ready for market. Poultrymen and cranberry raisers live here, too. They are law-abiding and useful in about the same ratio as the rest of us. They were entitled before-hand to consideration they didn't get. The Health, Education and Welfare Department is a new play-pretty of the executive department that will be throwing its weight around more and more as time passes.

This moon business is being tied to the nation's defense and any who may hint that a lot of money is being spent on the "space" program is hard-earned money of the people that is being wasted would be frowned down. In much the same manner as the "primary road" program, the space people are blowing and going.

As it soaks in at Washington, at long last, what the rest of the country has known for a long time, that the "solitary, aimless benevolence" which we have pursued for so many years with so many billions, in so many countries, has mostly come a cropper, our leaders are beginning to doubt their infallibility and have begun to seek the advice and help of other countries in these enterprises. Most damaging, instead of helpful, have been many projects which were hopelessly unsound from the start. Many of the projects, which went under the various aliases of "foreign aid", were in fact designed primarily to help somebody at home. The taxpayers unwittingly have bailed out many an operator in the name of the underprivileged peoples of the world.

This is beginning to be realized generally, so it is no wonder that we read a statement by the head of the World Bank in which he uses these strong terms: "There is no more certain cause of frustration than the power plant, standing like the statue of Ozymandias in the desert, with no transmission lines connecting it with reality . . . Or the industrial plant without a market or the prospect of one . . . Or the brand new turbine rotting on the dockside because somebody decided to buy it before deciding what to do with it."

Tumble Weeds To Decorate

Opportunity, when it comes, may appear in strange guises. But Ray Felker, manager of the Colorado City Chamber of Commerce, was quick to grab hold of it recently when opportunity rapped unexpectedly on Colorado City's door.

LEGAL NOTICE

THE STATE OF TEXAS
 To: R. T. (Russell) Young, Mrs. R. T. (Russell) Young, the unknown heirs of either of such persons who may now be deceased, their unknown heirs and legal representatives, and the unknown heirs of any of such unknown heirs who may now be deceased, their unknown heirs and legal representatives.

You are commanded to appear by filing a written answer to the plaintiff's petition at or before 10 o'clock A. M. of the first Monday after the expiration of 42 days from the date of issuance of this Citation, the same being Monday the 25th day of April, A. D. 1960, at or before 10 o'clock A. M., before the Honorable District Court of Floyd County, at the Court House in Floydada, Texas.

Said plaintiff's petition was filed on the 4th day of December, 1959.
 The file number of said suit being No. 4655.
 The names of the parties in said suit are:
 F. C. Harmon as Plaintiff, and the persons first named, described and designated in this Writ, and to whom this Writ is directed, and Alton Young, Billy Bearden Young, Dorothy Hine and husband David Hine, andly ill yesterday. She has developed pneumonia to complicate her condition.

The nature of said suit being substantially as follows, to wit: Wednesday for Mrs. B. F. Hampton in trespass to try title for the possession of the following described real property situated in Floyd County, Texas: Lot Number Nine (9), in Block Number Two (2), in the West Side Heights Addition to the town of Floydada (Floyd City), Floyd County, Texas, as shown by plat of Jack Dollar and Mrs. John Holmes of Irick, and Mrs. Earl Poage and Mrs. Tubby Robertson of Plainview. Lost to his family since leaving Floyd County 41 years ago as a young man of 24 to strike out for himself. Adam Drace last week returned, and now a man of 65, is a guest in the home of a niece Mrs. Bob Smith and a sister-in-law, Mrs. L. H. Lewis. Mr. Drace has been successful as a cattleman during his long period of absence. Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Withers are announcing the approaching marriage of their daughter, Evelyn, Eugene V. Boren, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Boren of Mary L. McPherson Clerk Corpus Christi. The wedding has District Court, Floyd County been set for April, Texas S I-c Virgil Boteler is leaving Texas today for his station at Great success. His report follows: "Several weeks ago I received a request from the Cincinnati, Ohio, Chamber of Commerce to send a shipment of Texas tumble weeds to a member of their organization who is in the floral and decorative business. We followed through on the request and have since received correspondence and several telephone calls from company executives stating that they had developed a most unusual decoration from the weeds.

"They plan to fly to Colorado City in the near future to look over the possibilities of using the tumble weeds to advantage in the field of decorations. The company has nationwide distribution and this of course could develop into something worthwhile for this area where the tumble weeds are a menace to the farmers.

"I thought perhaps you might be interested in this unique project and that you also would like to make contact with the company executives."

Mr. Felker has already been assured of our interest, and the proper contacts have been made. When your Commissioner of Agriculture was a boy growing up in West Texas we used to call tumble weeds lots of things, but we never even remotely thought of them as potential material for decorations. It just goes to show again what imagination and initiative can visualize in things that we often overlook in our own backyards.

Mr. Felker and the Colorado City Chamber of Commerce are to be congratulated on their alertness in this opportunity.

TELEPHONE TAL

AN INVITATION
 We in the telephone business wish to meet our customers as possible. We know it is almost impossible to meet each of our customers individually, and we are the best way of accomplishing this is to invite you to visit our telephone office. Here you will meet our staff and learn first hand some of the problems of telephone service.

Some of the things you will see in our telephone service is brought from the wire to your home to our building; how we terminate your equipment; equipment, actually in use; and what you make a local call; long distance equipment and how to place more than one conversation on one reporting center and how telephone maintenance is dispatched to repair your service; records we keep and show in general why you have the best service possible.

We would like to extend an invitation to each of our customers to come by and visit with us, or we certainly will cater to groups, such as school groups, civic clubs, Boy and Girl Scouts, etc.

PICK-A-PHONE . . .

"Sure be nice when the spring flowers start to bloom down the block said the other day. 'Just in colors makes me feel good.'"

"Say," I said, "since you like color so much I have a color phone. What's that?" he asked.

"A color phone. You have a wide choice, red, blue, green, yellow, purple, and white. You can pick your phone from . . . a garden of colors!"

That did it. "Now you're talking my language," said the other. He chuckled. "Colors of the phone with color phones. Think I'll get one — maybe two."

Why don't you do as he did? Treat yourself to a color phone today.

IT'S SMART TO LOOK UP THE NUMBER

THE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Vern Sanford

Texas Democrats will converge on the Capital City for their state convention.

It is expected to be many big days rolled into one.

It will be the first time in recent memory that the huge colorful gathering has come to Austin. A large new city auditorium and convention center makes it possible.

It's the day that comes only once every four years when Texas name delegates to a national presidential nominating convention.

But most excitement centers on the fact that Texas Democrats will be assuming what is usually a once-in-a-lifetime role — that of sponsoring a major contender for the presidential nomination.

Work is under way in every part of the state to insure that the delegates to Austin will give rousing support to Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson for favorite son nominee and chairman of the Texas delegation to Los Angeles.

Senator Johnson's chances of becoming president were re-emphasized by Gov. Price Daniel and cheered by the State Democratic Executive Committee when the party leaders met to plan the June convention.

Committee members selected Dallas for the second state Democratic convention on September 20. Their meeting also was made an occasion for honoring Mrs. Hilda Weibert of Seguin for a quarter century of loyal service to the Texas Democratic party.

COURT REJECTS VOTE HAS- SLE — Texas Supreme Court refused to consider a direct appeal from the City of Austin that it order a complete recount of votes in a hotly contested urban renewal election.

Issue has had Austinites in a stew for months. It was originally announced after the election in December that urban renewal had carried by a 52-vote margin. Eight property owners contested the election results on grounds that ballots were cast by persons not qualified to vote.

After 9 of 18 contested boxes had been opened, District Judge James K. Evetts of Belton declared the election void. He said there were so many disqualified voters and improperly marked ballots that it was impossible to determine the election outcome.

Austin's city attorney petitioned the Supreme Court for a writ of mandamus to compel Judge Evetts to open and examine all the ballot boxes. He contended the qualified voters had a right to have their votes counted.

Having lost out on a direct plea to the Supreme Court, City Attorney Doren Eskew said he would go through the usual appeal route, going first to the Third Court of Civil Appeals.

COLLEGE HOME DELAYED — Governor Daniel's office and the Legislative Budget Board are to make a "full review" before plans proceed to build an $87,000 home for the president of Sam Houston State Teachers College.

A number of legislators hit the ceiling last session over similarly costly homes built for presidents of Southwest Texas State College and Stephen F. Austin State College. Restrictions were written into the current appropriations bill aimed at preventing further expenditures on such a scale.

Rep. James M. Cotten, member of the House committee on saving taxes, wrote the governor to protest what he called a "tremendous waste."

Governor Daniel said he had been assured by the chairman of the Board of Regents for State Teacher's Colleges that no action would be taken until everyone interested had had his say. He pointed out, however, that the home was to be built from constitutionally allocated funds of which the legislative appropriation restrictions "have been held not to apply."

MORE JUDGES SUGGESTED — Larger metropolitan areas such as Houston, Dallas and San Antonio may soon need larger Courts of Civil Appeals. This observation was made by Associate Justice James R. Norvell of the Texas Supreme Court and others in a study made for the Texas Civil Judicial Council.

Judge Norvell suggested that five judges, rather than three, may be needed soon for courts in the city areas.

Supreme Court, the study also noted, may also soon need some further restrictions on cases it will handle to prevent too heavy dockets. Civil Appeals Courts were created to keep everything from going to the Supreme Court, but the high court is flooded with appeals from these courts.

Judge Norvell suggested limiting the Supreme Court to constitutional issues and cases where there is a conflict in judicial decisions.

OIL ALLOWABLE CUT — Railroad Commission cut the state's oil production for April after testimony that both crude oil and gasoline were in oversupply.

April allowable will be 2,814,252 barrels a day, a cut of 123,025 barrels a day from March. Number of producing days was cut from 10 to 9.

Oilmen told the Commission that other states, such as Louisiana and Mississippi had not cut back production to offset the oversupply as Texas has. This state said one Texas executive bitterly is taking the "backlash" of the situation.

TIGHTER DRIVING LAW — Legislation that would crack down on the driver who does not even have a driver's license has been proposed for the next session.

Rep. Ben Lewis of Dallas said that under present law a person who drives without having a license can only be hauled before a city court and fined about $10.

By contrast, he said, a license holder who gets three tickets and has his license suspended can, if he drives during the suspension, be put in jail and fined as much as $500.

Lewis said he would propose a series of stiffer penalties for the people who cannot pass driver tests but drive anyway.

Retired Lockney Ginner Buried Last Week-End

Funeral rites were held Friday afternoon in First Methodist Church at Lockney for a retired ginner of Lockney, William Arthur Cunningham, 73, a resident of the county since 1924. Carter Funeral Home had charge of the burial in Lockney Cemetery.

Mr. Cunningham was stricken in the yard of his home on Wednesday with a heart attack, and died almost immediately.

He was a native Texan and was born in Wise County July 19, 1886. He and Miss Lavelle Chester were married in Mill Creek, Okla., on Dec. 14, 1911.

Mr. Cunningham had worked as a carpenter, farmer and ginner until his retirement.

Survivors include a son, Morris Cunningham of Plainview; two daughters, Mrs. Clyde Hill and Mrs. Brad Hardy both of Lockney; two sisters; a half-brother, two half-sisters; his stepmother, five grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

FLOYDADA PARTY ATTENDS ROSE-TURNER WEDDING

In Lubbock Saturday night from Floydada for the wedding of Doan Turner and Miss Annette Rose were the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Turner, his brothers and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Turner, and Mr. and Mrs. Bud Turner, two sisters and their husbands and children, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Burns, Sherry and Rickie, and Mr. and Mrs. Travis Young. Also an uncle, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Medley, Danny and Debbie, and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Norman.

Larry Wayne Mankins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Mankins, is home on furlough having arrived Sunday from Fort Riley, Kan.

The Floydada boy recently completed basic training and will report on March 23rd to Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., for eight weeks of training in equipment and construction with the 5th Infantry.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Queen and children of Andrews were in Floydada Sunday visiting with friends and relatives.

FHA Families Take Careful Look At '60

Approximately twenty-five farm families, representing a good proportion of those using Farmers Home Administration credit in Floyd and Motley counties, have completed a series of individual meetings with Joe T. Boone, the agency's county supervisor, to take a careful look at their 1959 operations and to make 1960 plans.

Mr. Boone said this year-end analysis is a service given by the agency which makes loans to eligible farmers to operate, improve, or enlarge family-type farms.

As a result of this study of their farm operations, Mr. Boone said, some of the better practices that farmers here are working into their 1960 plans include (1) rotation planting of soybeans or other legumes, cotton, and maize for better land care and greater yields; (2) more extensive use of fertilizer based on soil analysis tests; (3) more strip cropping and summer fallowing of land for moisture conservation; and (4) planting crops according to available irrigation water and not trying to water more acres than is practical.

There are 65 families in Floyd and Motley counties now using FHA credit. This is a decrease of some 50 per cent since 1952 which reflects the progress FHA borrowers have made in the past two years. The purpose of FHA of course is to graduate their borrowers to normal sources of credit.

Loans totaling over $300,000 have been made to farmers in this area in a 9-month period since June 30, 1959. This money has been for acquiring equipment, livestock, seed, feed, fertilizer, and paying other operating costs, and paying for labor and materials in connection with housing and other improvements. This money, and the extra money from increased incomes, circulate through local trade channels.

Good farm planning and record keeping are carried on throughout the year and play an important part in operations financed with FHA credit. As proof that good practices pay off, Mr. Boone pointed out that during fiscal 1959 twenty-five per cent of borrowers repaid their loans in full and are now obtaining their necessary credit from local banks and other lenders.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McKinney Jr. and son, James, and J. J. McKinney Sr., spent Sunday in Lubbock visiting their sister and daughter, Mrs. Clyde Rogers and Mr. Rogers.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Warren and Martha and Mr. and Mrs. Billy Warren and son, Robert, were in Kansas City, Mo., last weekend where they visited the Wade Warren's daughter and family, Sgt. and Mrs. Fred Ritchey and son.

Book Review Given Dougherty HD Club

The book, "Through the Gates of Splendor," by Bettye Elliot, was reviewed by Mrs. Jack McIntosh, a visitor in the Dougherty H. D. Club Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Howe Hines. The meeting was opened by the scripture reading of Proverbs 11:22 by Mrs. Hines. Mrs. G. W. Smith, club president, presided over the business meeting.

Roll call was answered with "My Bad Habit." Various answers, such as talking too much, finishing sentences for other people, not listening closely, and all with children, were given.

Helping the 4-H Club with selling road markers and names for mailboxes was discussed. Mrs. Mae Ward gave a council report.

Mrs. Raymond Jones, Tupperware saleslady, will help the club in a money making project by giving the club a percentage of a party — if the club desires.

Mrs. Johnny Cates gave a report on club manners. Such questions as, "Do we listen to a demonstrator or to the business meeting?" "Do we whisper during a demonstration?" and "Do we make our discussions short, in order that others might have time to talk?" were asked.

Games were directed by Mrs. Jones and prizes were awarded. Mesdames Lewis Blum, Robert Ward, and Ned Bradley.

Refreshments were served to the visitor, Mrs. Jack McIntosh, and to the club members. Mesdames Jack Ross, Lewis Blum, Johnnie Cates, Russell Crawford, Carmel Eastham, Gus Hammonds, G. W. Smith, Mack Ward, Raymond Jones, Robert Ward, Ned Bradley, Claude Ring, and the hostess, Mrs. Howe Hines were present.

The next meeting will be at Mrs. G. W. Smith's home on April 6, at 1 p. m. A luncheon of foreign dishes will be served.

Mrs. A. C. Wilson and Mrs. Beulah Hayes, of McKinney, who had been here with their sister, Mrs. Lee Noble, during an extended illness, have returned to their homes. Mrs. Wilson leaving Saturday. Mrs. Noble is much improved but still not out of danger. Mr. Noble was told by the attending physician last week-end.

Mrs. and Mrs. Shorty Turner of Pampa, were in Floydada over the weekend visiting their parents and to attend the wedding in Lubbock of his brother, Dorman and Miss Annette Rose.
