Sixty Candidates Show Up For FHS Football Practice

Football practice got under way in Floydada on Monday morning when some sixty boys showed up for the first practice sessions. Coaches Charles Tye, Bill Curry, Bob Shields and Paul Cook had their plans made and put the team candidates to work in two-day practice sessions.

The boys have been taking to the field in shorts and shoulder pads in the 8:00 a. m. meeting which lasts until about 10:00 o'clock. The afternoon workout starts at 4:00 and is in full suits and pads.

The coaches and team will be preparing for a rugged ten game schedule which starts on September 2 when the "Winds go to Spar" for the season opener which is also homecoming for the Spartans.

The 1960 Whirlwinds will not be as heavy or as experienced as last season but they are not lacking in spirit or enthusiasm. Several reported in pretty good physical condition and this will be a big help in getting ready for early games.

The team roster lists fourteen lettermen, two of these, Rodney Teague, a 165 pound quarter back, and Eddie Parks, a 220 pound tackle, have won two football letters.

51 NEW HOMES HELP RELIEVE BOTTLE NECK

Floydada property owners have put a total of $605,000 into 51 new residences in Floydada since Nov. 1 of last year and in addition scores have made repairs and changes to make their present quarters more livable.

This information from a statistical sheet of the Chamber of Commerce, based on permits issued by the city, indicates the extent to which people of the community are going to eliminate the shortage of housing which has plagued the town for some time.

Ten of the 12 houses for which Keith Cantrell and associates took out permits in May are in various stages of construction and the foundations for the other two are due to be laid soon.

THE ROSSON TWINS Gaye and Gayle, say it is nice to spend a summer in Hawaii. Home last week after attending the University in Honolulu they reported the new state just as alluring as it has been told.

Silverton Car Strikes Grain Laden Trailer

Tragedy struck the town of Lockney at mid-afternoon Tuesday when a pretty young high school girl of Silverton was killed, her 12 year old sister injured and a friend, 18 year old Larry Wallace critically injured.

The life of 15 year old Lola Holt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stewart of Silverton, was snuffed out about 3:15 p. m. when the 1956 Chevrolet car in which she was a passenger, hit a truck trailer driven by Olen Leon Williams of Graham.

In Plainview Hospital suffering from critical injuries is Wallace, driver of the car. Wallace is also a Silverton youth. The 12 year old sister of the dead girl is Alice Holt. She is in Lockney General Hospital suffering from a back injury, lacerations and bruises. The truck driver was not injured.

At F-M Intersection Highway Patrol officers said the accident occurred at the intersection of two farm to market roads near the State Maintenance Barn and Pinner's Drive-Inn. Wallace was traveling east on Farm Road 17 and the truck was proceeding south on Farm Road 378.

A stop sign faces the southbound traffic. The truck trailer loaded with 18,000 pounds of grain, was midway across the road when struck.

More Than 100 Attend Saturday Reunion of Fortenberry Family

Approximately 110 relatives and friends gathered in the American Legion Hall at Lockney Saturday for the ninth annual J. C. Fortenberry family reunion.

The affair started in the morning hours with opening song by the congregation. Prayer was given by the Rev. Joe Wilson, old friend of the family.

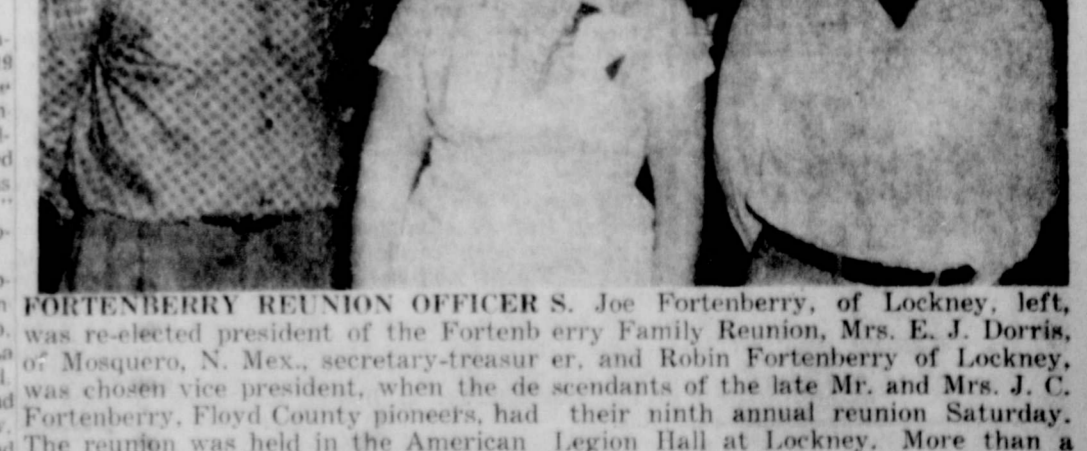

The memorial program was led by Fred Fortenberry. A solo was presented by Marie Strickland followed by a business meeting prior to the noon meal.

Joe Fortenberry of Lockney, who has presided as president since the annual reunions began, was re-elected to that office, as was secretary, Mrs. E. J. Dorris of Mosquero, N. Mex. Robin Fortenberry was elected vice-president.

The living children are Jack Fortenberry, Adrian; Mrs. M. H. Taylor, Lockney; Mrs. J. D. Seay, Duran, N. Mex.; Hugh Fortenberry, Adrian; Mrs. Bill Lemons, Joe Fortenberry, Tom Fortenberry and Mrs. J. R. Kelly all of Lockney.

Mrs. M. H. Taylor was the eldest member of the family present and young Jeffrey Dean Bradley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bradley of Amarillo, and great grandson of the Fortenberrys, was the youngest of the generation present.

The 10th Fortenberry reunion will be held at the Lockney A. M. E. Church on the second Saturday in August in 1961.

FORTENBERRY REUNION OFFICER S. Joe Fortenberry, of Lockney, left, was re-elected president of the Fortenberry Family Reunion, Mrs. E. J. Dorris, of Mosquero, N. Mex., secretary-treasurer, and Robin Fortenberry of Lockney, was chosen vice president, when the descendants of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Fortenberry, Floyd County pioneers, had their ninth annual reunion Saturday. The reunion was held in the American Legion Hall at Lockney. More than a hundred attended.

Capt. Hammonds Tells Of Libyan AF Experiences

The Arabs are still throwing or two exceptions," the Floydada rocks, some of them at least. It is one of the customs of the Arab world that has not changed since the days of Josephus, and presumably before.

The stone throwing is one of the things, and it is not too bad if you make up your mind to it. The Captain has been in the Air Force for seven years. He joined up while at Meridian, Miss., changing over from a civilian's job. He met and married a Meridian girl. After their return home and before coming to Floydada, they spent several days at Meridian and with the kinsmen there. In Floydada they are guests of his mother, Mrs. Hope Hammonds at 129 W. Houston.

"The Arab just doesn't care," Capt. Hammonds said. "His wife and I journey thence is sitting at the ship to Tokyo for assignment home drinking tea, when the Miss Lowrie has been teaching time is normal."

"The Libyans want us out of their country, like in all the rest of the foreign countries with one of the necessities and luxuries of life. A recent report by the National Industrial Conference Board, together with studies made by the Department of Labor and by other agencies, throw some factual light on the subject.

FLOYD COUNTY PEOPLE HAVE MORE TO SHOW FOR WEEK'S WORK

(Special to the Hesperian) NEW YORK, Aug. 9. Are wage earners in Floyd County better off than those elsewhere? How much can they buy, after an hour's work, in the form of consumer goods?

TELEPHONE TALK

ANY CALLS A DAY IN FLOYDADA?

The average number of calls made in a day in Floydada is 11,074 calls are made here. That's 30 calls per phone.

But people find new ways to get more value from their phones. Recently I heard of a fisherman who says he has an "alarm clock."

But I have a hard time getting up real early. He says, "So I have one of the guys phone me up. That way I can't turn off the 'alarm' and go to sleep. I haven't been late or missed a trip since my 'waking me up' by phone."

Another case I heard of that shows the value of the phone and day out. One mother, after keeping a record for a week, figured that her two phones saved her three hours a day. "That's the time we would have spent for errands and personal visits," she says.

Shows how the more you use your phone, the more it pays for itself. So why not use it... for all it's worth!

EDITORIAL VIEWS AND COMMENTARY

The less cotton is handled from the point of the harvest to the finished fabric the more the natural quality and beauty of it is preserved. Arguing from this premise textile millers who buy Texas cotton say they are meeting the challenge of competition by reducing costs, purchasing new and improved machinery, developing new processes and procedures. And, as a corollary, are demanding and expecting better performance from cotton. What this means the cotton producer is probably at a loss to know. But quality is at the bottom of it. One of the things the farmer does that he thinks pleases the mills is creating consternation among textile manufacturers. The farmer, he says, is over-cleaning and over-drying his cotton. The government loan and support program has been responsible to some extent to the over-cleaning, over-drying fad that has hit the cotton producing areas.

There is ample quality in the cotton fields but a great part of it is being lost by the time it becomes a bale of cotton. The results of over-drying and over-cleaning is "latent." This means the damage does not show up until it is being processed. The results are production losses, decreased efficiency and lower quality end product at the mill. This is the miller talking. And here is what he hopes to do: Seek out cotton that has been ginned for maximum quality and pay prices that will encourage handling of cotton in this manner. How the mills will do that is to be seen. It is an interesting development. To the grower cotton has always been just cotton that he took to the gin. It was long staple, short staple, clean, or trashy, white or spotted. Whether this new idea means the individual cotton grower has got to go to doing something on his own, is questionable. Cotton is a regional crop and a whole region will have to work out the problems on that basis, most likely.

While quite rightly, we are concerned about politics, who shall be president, how does one vote a split ticket, and the like, it is not a bad idea to keep up with the calendar and the signs. Thus the approach of the 25th of August surely reminds us that it is almost time to put rutabago seed in the ground. This is an unusual year, it seems, in which most anything can happen, but it would be normal for showers to fall between August 25 and September 1. A dime's worth of turnip seed scattered and raked into a fallow spot out in the garden or field will furnish the family all the winter if the showers fall right, which they often do.

One might tire of turnips in the latter part of the winter as did the character in Tobacco Road. But for weeks fresh turnips from one's own patch would be nice to have. Also, if they hit right, there would be an abundance for the neighbors as well.

On The Other Hand. However, here is a possible political and economic matter that should be taken up with the congress. Since the rutabago planters are a minority group why not a wire to Mr. Mahon and send a delegation to see the regional chief of the Health, Education and Welfare department, turnip division, and get a carload or two of turnips tussled up from somewhere out of the government's vast store and shipped in? Then, after standing in line waiting for the clerk to get back from coffee, once a week, we'd have turnips a-plenty—with no expense.

Since Uncle Sam at staggering cost is appeasing the Jews in Jerusalem, the Negroes in Harlem, the Arabs in Iraq, and all the other peoples of the earth except the cowboys and the gentiles, why not put up a battle for equality? We could paint us some banners, stage a demonstration, get some TV nitwit to fly in and "get us on a nationwide hook up" and we'd have it made. Roll in turnips, we'd be, also "recognized". With no elbow grease, no spade work. Simple.

Latest Government Assinily: A solemn pact was signed the other day by the executive department of the United States of America and the hierarchy of the United Soviet States of Russia guaranteeing the peaceful use of the vast spaces of the Antarctica for scientific research. Why sign up something with the USSR? We mean it, seriously. Why waste time and money that way? Perhaps the State Department did save money on the deal. By forethought they may have written the pact on the reverse side of one of the many pacts that have been scrapped already.

Flame Cultivation Research continues. The business of ridding cotton, maize, soybeans, castor beans and corn crops of weeds by the mechanical application of a flame. At the High Plains Research Foundation on August 24 weed elimination results to date will be studied by propane and butane dealers, who have a big stake in the success of the idea. There will even be studies of weed elimination by flaming in onions and potatoes. Farming on the plains is becoming more and more an expert's business.

"These trails would shake the cab off an ordinary truck...but not our Chevy"

Few trucks are subjected to the body-racking beatings that are part of a day's work for this Chevrolet Series 60 pulpwood hauler. It's owned by J. E. Fox, North Carolina logging contractor. As Bobby Fox, a partner in the business says, "Loaded with pulpwood, we drive over stumps and potholes you'd think would tear the truck to pieces. These trails would shake the cab off an ordinary truck, but not our Chevy. We can average an extra load a day... make $45 to $50 a day more with this Chevy than we can with the others."

In every weight class these Chevies are doing more work at less expense than trucks have ever done before. Drive one at your Chevrolet dealer's. It's an experience that could pay you big dividends.

"That 6-cylinder engine really performs," says Bobby Fox. "It's got the lagging power we need in the woods and pulls right along with a full load on the highway."

YOUTH CRIME RISE SEEN

As the state legislature convenes in Austin, the Texas Youth Council director predicted a sharp rise in juvenile delinquency in Texas will get worse before it gets better, the Texas Youth Council director predicted.

Dr. James Turman presented to the Legislative Budget Board the Council's request for an appropriation of $4,235,470 for the coming biennium. This is an increase over the present two-year allocation of $3,487,442.

A part of this increase is to build for future needs. Turman noted that the Gatesville Training School for Boys had 403 boys in 1959 compared to its present average of 1,300. He predicted an average population of 1,798 during the coming two years and 2,959 by the end of the sixties.

Turman also urged the setting up of a system of paid parole supervisors "to keep some of these kids from coming back." He said that some of the boys had been to Gatesville as many as five times and that up to one-third were repeaters.

ANTI-LOAN SHARK COMMITTEE

A citizens committee is being formed to work for approval of a constitutional amendment to give the legislature more regulatory power over the small loan industry.

Abrer V. McCall, executive vice president of Baylor University, is chairman, and Tom Reavley, Austin attorney and former secretary of state, is vice chairman.

Proposed amendment will be on the ballot in November. It would give the Legislature power to license and regulate lenders and set maximum rates of interest. Until and unless the Legislature set a new rate, the present constitutional maximum of 10 percent would apply.

TEC HITS CHEATERS

Texas Employment Commission has filed complaints against some 100 persons accused of drawing unemployment benefits illegally.

One of the brighter spots in the report is that murders and homicides decreased by 15.1 percent. Burglaries, however, rose 19.2 percent.

Biggest crime increase was in urban areas — up 12.5 percent. In rural sections the rate was down a little — less than one percent.

VACCINATIONS URGED

Texas is one of the safer states as far as paralytic polio is concerned, but it's seventh in the nation in number of whooping cough cases, ninth in diphtheria and scarlet fever.

All these rates could be cut, said a State Health Department spokesman, if there were fewer people who can't be bothered with getting protective shots.

Late August and September are the usual season for polio epidemics, the Department warned.

GOOD PASTURAGE

Texas range conditions showed a bigger mid-summer improvement this year than in any summer for 37 years, reports the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture.

Range conditions usually grow less favorable from July to August in Texas, but this year they got substantially better.

Though some areas of the state were reported very dry, 85 percent was rated 12 points above the 10-year average.

SHORT SNORTS

Parents of children who will enter school for the first time this fall are urged to get the children's birth certificates immediately. State Health Department noted that requests time up at school opening time and can delay the child's entrance into school.

Texas' general revenue fund went $6,000,000 deeper into the red last month. This brought the fund's deficit up to $59,061,860.

Many Improvements at Junior High School Noted by Coltharp

"Things are beginning to take on a 'dressed up' appearance over here," says A. W. Coltharp, junior high school principal.

Many changes have taken place during the vacation months, which will be of value and add to the overall appearance of the school. Among the things that have been done are the addition of new cyclorama stage curtains, given by the P. T. S. A. for the auditorium; the auditorium has been completely re-decorated. The walls are now a pleasing grey color and the old seats have been re-done with blond finish.

New doors are being installed leading to the fire-escapes and some new sidewalks have been run. They are now high enough and wide enough that the students can go to the cafeteria and gym without wading water in bad weather.

Gym Floor Re-Finished

The gym floor has been completely re-finished, the pavement is being placed around the entire campus, including the stadium. A six inch packed caliche base has been put in the outside parking area surrounding the football field and the dirt that was removed from the street has been placed on the inside track area.

All of the desks with the exception of those in four rooms have been taken apart and completely redone so as to remove the collection of cuts, initials, gum and other such articles collected over the years. Mr. Meek and Mr. Barker, junior high janitors, have been doing this in their spare time.

At the end of the school year some money was left over from the magazine sales and about 100 more books were ordered for the library. These books will fit in with the various subject fields.

Audio-Visual Department

In the audio-visual department, the old movie projector has been traded in on a new one and a Voice of Music tape recorder, a new dry mount press to go with the opaque projector and a large lenticular tripod screen for classroom use, have also been added.

A new teacher has been added to the Junior High faculty. Now the Junior High has a P. E. teacher as well as a coach, so that those students, particularly the boys, who are not interested in

Mr. Coltharp listed the following two projects for the year: Addition of a public address system to the auditorium, so that one can hear even when seated under the balcony and the addition of an overhead projector for the teachers classroom use.

The student body is due to have an increase in numbers, it appears, at Junior High. Mr. Coltharp said 13 pupils were registered on new pupil registration day Monday.

Dempseys Delay Visit With Son Bob At Academy

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Dempsey and family learned recently that they would not be able to visit with the Dempsey's son, Bob until the Labor Day weekend. Earlier the Dempseys had planned to go to Colorado Springs, where Bob is attending the Air Force Academy, to attend the ceremonies when Bob officially becomes a cadet.

Mrs. Dempsey reports that Bob is doing well and that he recently got to pilot a jet after it was in the air from Denver to Colorado Springs and back to Denver again, which he seemed to enjoy. Bob was also placed in a pre-sure chamber for altitude test. The test showed that he could go as high as 40 thousand feet without any ill effects.

Applying ammonia helps produce 10-bushel wheat

Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia is being applied to wheat fields in West Texas. The application helps produce a 10-bushel yield per acre.

West Texas farmers like B. WILHELM apply 100 lbs. ammonia per acre on wheat

B. Wilhelm, who farms 275 acres in Castro County, says: "Phillips 66 Ammonia pays profit on wheat. After pre-plant applications of 100 pounds of ammonia per acre, I've made 50 to 60 bushel wheat. Phillips 66 Ammonia is also used successfully on maize. I figure on increasing my ammonia application rate on maize this year to increase yields."

Thousands of Texas farmers are using Phillips 66 Ammonia to help assure top net profits per acre. Field reports prove that this 82% nitrogen fertilizer (1) boosts wheat and small grain yields (2) increases maize yields (3) produces more high grade cotton (4) improves forage production.

Get your local Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia distributor now. You can depend on better ammonia service. Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia will be applied by you or your distributor.

Erosion Is Deadly Threat To Soil Fertility

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

by Truman Gregory

It makes no difference whether you are farming on a large scale or on a small scale; irrigated or dryland; when your soil starts drifting across the roadbed of a fence row, you are taking a loss that you and the nation can not afford.

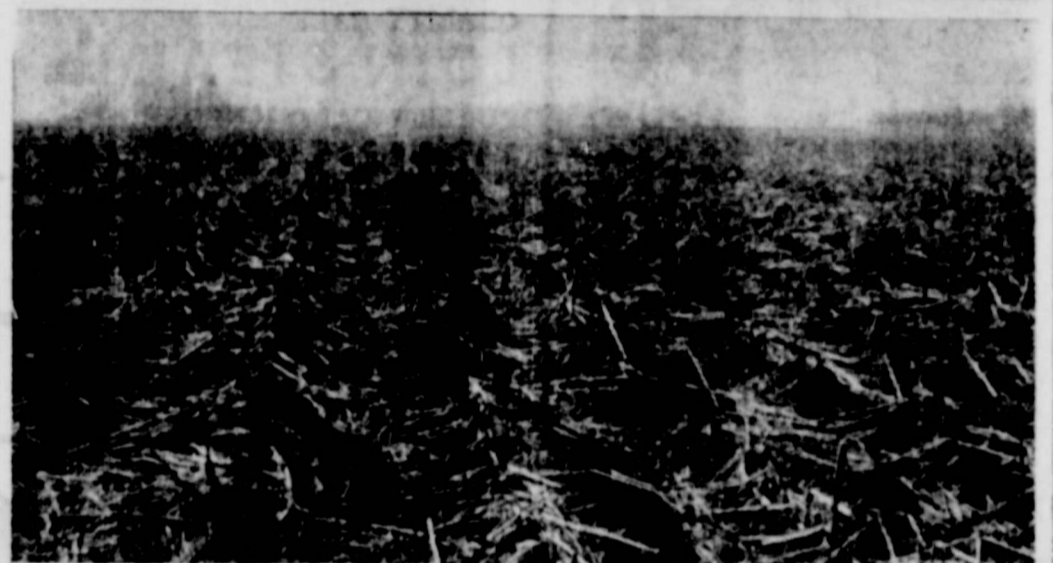

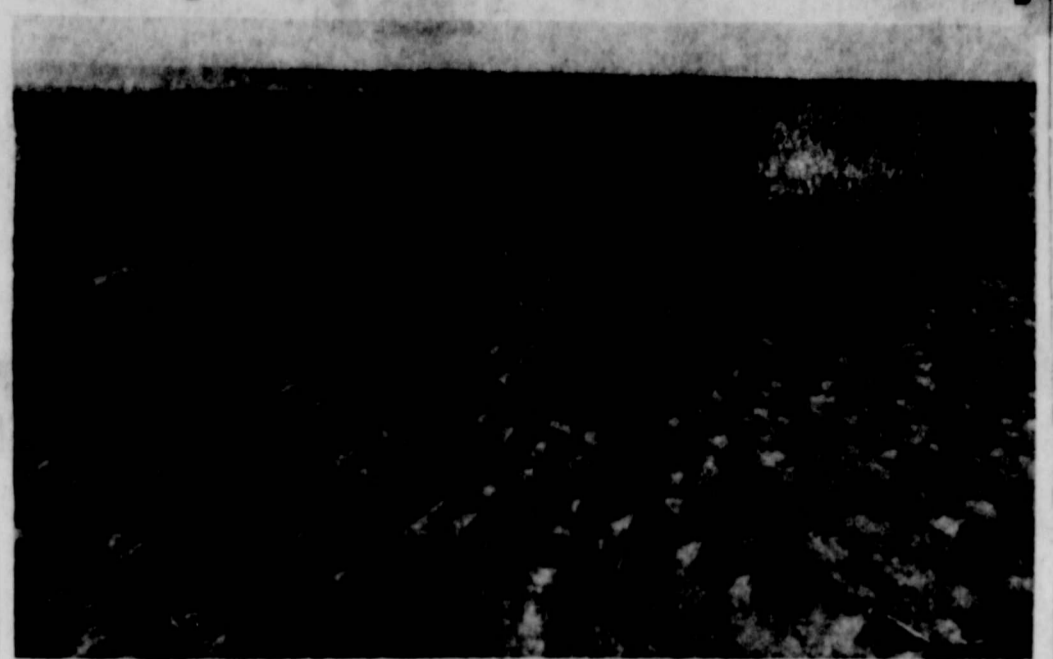

Wind erosion may be extremely rapid as many have observed in a severe wind storm or it may be a very slow process that is hard for the average person to notice. Regardless of the type, the result is always the same and just as permanent a loss that can never be returned.

When soil is moving the wind does strange things to the soil. The finer particles of silt, clay, and organic matter are carried away while the coarser particles remain. An example of this principle would be a wire basket filled with flour and marbles out in a dust storm. Soil tests have shown that the material blown away during a dust storm contains 10 times as much organic matter, 9 times as much nitrogen, and 19 times as much phosphorus as the sand dunes left behind.

This loss of mineral elements is not all by any means. The loss of organic matter reduces the ability of the soil to absorb and hold water and manufacture plant food. Protection of soil from wind erosion is a must. Also it makes sense from an economical view.

The question is raised how can we protect our soil from this erosion hazard? The answer is found in stubble mulch type of farming operation which simply means keeping as much plant residue from high residue producing crops as possible on the soil surface. Each tilling, planting, cultivating, and harvesting operation should be performed with this objective in mind. Agriculture research has demonstrated that it takes as much as 1000 pounds of sorghum stubble maintained the year round to prevent erosion on heavy clay soils. Also certain types of plows can destroy as much as 50 percent of the plant residue with one plowing operation.

It is recognized that keeping residue on the surface presents

SAVING THE SOIL from the elements is a plains problem. Depicted here in first panel is the first stage of blowing soil from unprotected ground. In the second panel is the end result when winds blast the best soil elements from a field and deposit them at the point of the first obstruction. The third panel pictures soil at the height of a wind storm securely tied to the earth by mulching. (Pictures by Truman Gregory.)

some problem not encountered when stubble is burned or plowed under. This makes field working conditions difficult, especially with standard type implements. There are implements on the market today that are specifically designed for working in stubble that allows the farmer to practice stubble-mulch farming easily and economically. It would be wise to consider these implements when replacing worn out standard equipment.

The SCS personnel will be glad to assist you in planning conservation cropping systems that include stubble mulching in your farming operation.
