

TAX PAYING FLURRY HERALD OF DEADLINE

Gene Dunn is getting his beef calves shaped up for the Floyd County Junior Show. Gene is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Dunn and is a freshman agriculture student of Henry Barber in FHS. It will be the first year in the Floyd County show for Gene who until last September attended school in Crosby. The Junior Fat Stock Show here will be in early March and FFA and 4H boys and girls will be busy until that time feeding, grooming and trimming up their animals.

Collector To Spend Jan. 18 At Lockney

T. T. Hamilton, Floyd County Tax Assessor - Collector, said early this week that tax collections were running about on schedule.

As of Dec. 31, 1960, the tax rolls showed to be about 84.4 per cent paid. This compares with 85.2 per cent a year ago.

On the poll tax side some 1166 poll tax receipts had been issued on Dec. 31. This number is looked on as being pretty low, especially in view of the fact there will be a US Senate race and probably other matters to be voted on in 1961.

The deadline for paying poll taxes is the last day in January. On February 1 a penalty goes on other taxes that become delinquent.

In Lockney On January 18 Hamilton announced that the tax records will be in Lockney at Lockney Auto Company on January 18. On that date the court house office will be open only for poll tax and auto business. Lockney area residents can take advantage of that date to pay taxes without having to drive to the court house to do so.

The High Taxpayers

Total of the Floyd County tax rolls this year is $34,159.71. This includes $45,359.98 that goes to the county's four rural schools $7,483.32 for High Plains Underground Water District No. 1, and $18,870.92 for the Floyd County Noxious Weed Control District.

The list of ten high taxpayers in the county is headed by the Fort Worth & Denver Railway Co. whose tax bill in this county this year is $12,967.58. Second is Service Pipe Line Co., listed at $8,579.82. Others in sequence of amounts to be paid are Gunnah, Acme & Pacific Railway Co., $4,986.45; Pioneer Natural Gas Co., $4,578.41; Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., $4,554.50; Massie Estate $4,379.44; Southwestern Public Service Co., $3,625.30; Santa Fe Railway Co., $2,715.61; Lighthouse Electric Cooperative $2,371.17.

New Auto Plates Soon

The new auto license plates will go on sale soon and this year the tags will be white with black letters and numerals.

For Floyd County the passenger numbers will be B37875 through $249.

Commercial numbers will run from IF7200 through $224. Farm tags are $D 4425 to 6024.

New Poll Tax Good Feb. 1 Hamilton said that voters will this month be voting on poll tax receipts issued for 1960. This will cover the school bond election set for January 21.

Poll tax receipts for the new year will become valid for voting on February 1, 1961.

Beef Cattle Tour By Bus Scheduled

An informal tour by chartered bus to see three types of livestock feeding operations was announced this week by County Agent Cecil Lewis for Tuesday of next week, Jan. 17.

Departure time from the court house at Floydada will be 10 o'clock a. m. Stop also will be made at Rowland-Gordon Oil Co. on the highway at Lockney for passengers.

The schedule calls for Dutch Lunch at Plainview. The three stops will be at Grady Shepard's, Hale Center, Marvin Walters, Edmondson, and Carter Feed Lots, Plainview.

All three are looked upon as successful operations, but each of a different type.

All persons interested in livestock feeding are welcome to make the chartered bus trip. Cost will be about $3.50 per person.

There will be plenty of time for questions, Mr. Lewis said. Reservations must be in by 12:00 noon Monday, Jan. 16, at the county agricultural agent's office. The telephone number is YLS - 2806.

Commissioners Court Will Take No Appeal from Court Judgment

Floyd County Commissioners and the state appeal court to consider substantial in Court this week, by a vote of 3 to 2, resolved to accept without appeal the judgment of the 7th District Court of Civil Appeals in the county's litigation with A. V. Stewart over right-of-way for Highway 62 and ordered the amount of the court's judgment to be paid the property owner. Commissioners Jarrett and McNeill voted against the action; Fowler, Plumlee and McBrien for it.

Change Made In Implement House Owners

After final paper work was cleared this week it has been announced that L. L. Sawyer and Carlton Fawver have purchased the interest of M. S. Robertson in Floydada Implement Co.

The change brings no new faces on the scene as Sawyer has been a partner with Robertson for several years and Fawver has been associated with the firm in sales and service.

Robertson told the Hesperian he has no definite plans for the future, but will just knock around for a bit. He moved back to Floydada in 1948 from Plainview when he bought out Floydada Implement from H. P. Wasson.

In December of that year he completed the new building on east highway 70 moving to the present location from East Mississippi Street.

Sawyer came to Floydada with his family in 1954 when he bought an interest in the firm, moving here from Lamesa. Fawver, the new partner in the firm, is a native of Floyd County.

Floydada Implement Company is the sales and service agency for Massey-Ferguson tractors and farm implements and for the popular Massey-Harris self-propelled combines. Their parts department has been a headquarters for custom combine men each year as they make the long trek from north-central Texas on toward the Canadian border following the wheat and milo harvests.

Contract Machinery Work Other actions taken by the commissioners included: A raise in the price of contract work by county machinery for private individuals from $7.50 per hour to $10 per hour. The new rate was adopted when it was concluded by the court that the old rate of $7.50 per hour, in effect since 1947, did not represent cost of operations. A raise of $150 per year in the travel allowance for the county agricultural agent and the assistant county agricultural agent, Heretofore the agents were allowed $600 for travel expense. The week, Jan. 19, for the purpose of new rate is put at $750 per year organizing for the year of 1961. The court heard a delegation of the interested taxpayers from various county superintendent's office at parts of the county, who asked the 2:30 in the afternoon.

MISSING SHOAT. A progress picture made Saturday of Norman Goen and one of his show pigs is being used instead to head up a tale of woe. Somebody turned Norman's pigs out of the pens and the one pictured above still is lost.

Missing Show Pig Sought By Local Aggie This Week

Norman Goen, FHS Aggie, is deliberately by persons unknown. The matter is still under investigation, according to Deputy Postmaster Anburn yesterday.

Right now Norman, is concerned in getting his pig back. One was found near the pens Sunday but as yet the other has not been located. The one still missing is a Chestnut and city officials have been told that the two pigs were turned out 130 pounds.

School Bonds Vote Jan. 21 In District

On Saturday, January 21, voters of Floydada Independent School District will go to the polls to decide the fate of a proposed $125,000 school bond issue.

The bonds if passed would provide funds for the construction of a new school and gymnasium for the colored students of the school district.

The proposed building site is in northeast Floydada adjoining the paved Silverton highway and well above the water line of the surface lake which has plagued the school in wet seasons.

The buildings would be of modern design and built of steel, insulated, and finished inside to adequately take care of the school's needs. The front of the school building proper would be faced with brick with ample use of glass.

School officials say that this type construction is becoming more popular over the state and at many schools in preferred over brick-masonry type building.

The ballots for the election have been printed and read: "For the issuance of bonds and the levy of tax in payment thereof," and "Against the issuance of bonds and the levy of tax in payment thereof."

The school's attorney Ben P. Ayres said that persons planning to be out of town on election day may vote absentee at the county clerk's office in the court house. First day for absentee voting was January 2 and last day is January 17. Persons physically unable to go to the polls may apply for a ballot by mail by addressing the county clerk and enclosing a physician's statement stating such a condition exists.

Polling place on election day will be the court house in Floydada. R. M. Battley will serve as judge with C. W. Burton, assistant, and Mrs. E. S. Randsen and Mrs. Scott King, clerks.

Who Can Vote? A qualified voter in the election is one who resides in Floydada Independent School District, has property which is duly rendered for taxation and has a 1960 poll tax receipt or an exemption. The 1961 poll tax receipts now being issued will become valid for voting on February 1, 1961.

To pass the bond issue requires a simple majority vote.

Whirlwinds Host Morton Friday Night

Floydada Whirlwind basketball teams play host to the Morton Indians when they meet in Graves Gym on Friday night, January 13.

Starting time for the girls game is 7:00 p. m. with the boys taking the floor for the second outing. It will be a district 2AA game and both teams will be striving to stay alive in the rough district play.

On Tuesday night January 17 the teams will take the long trip to Muleshoe to battle the Muleshoe always fields strong basketball teams, especially in the girls division.

On Tuesday night the Abernathy Antelopes came to town and established themselves as district favorites as far as Floydada fans are concerned. The girls score was 19 - 59 and the boys score was 43 - 74. The only injuries were to School spirit.

The Whirlwinds gave a good account of themselves at the Slaton tournament with the boys coming in second and the girls taking fourth. The boys team of Coach Bob Shields was going like a house afire until they met Spur in the finals and then turned ice cold in their shooting, according to report from local fans.

In the first round of play the boys slaughtered Stanton by a 73 - 30 score while the girls took a close 54 - 53 win over a good Stanton team.

In the second round Floydada boys stayed on the winning side of the bracket by downing host team Slaton 66 - 57.

The girls fell to Slaton however by a narrow 51 - 54 score, but it was a fine showing for Floydada as Slaton girls won the meet in the finals.

In the final round of play the cold Winds fell before Spur 42 - 50 and had to settle for second place. The Floydada girls lost to Tahoka by another close 41 - 45 score and got fourth place honors.

On Monday night Floydada's freshman boys team downed visiting Abernathy 56 - 37. In a B squad game on the same night the locals won by a 52 - 39 score.

Dog Control Ordinance Passes on Council Vote

City of Floydada's council at the meeting, gives the living Tuesday afternoon was livened by the perennial problem of dog salarv adjustments for its police personnel.

The outcome of the discussion of the problem was a raise of $15 per month for Police Chief W. Perry Smith. This raise was to $315 per month. Car expense allowance is $160, making a gross of $475.

This is the figure which Smith expected to be getting Jan. 1 a year ago, when he began work for the city on Sept. 1, 1959, he told the council.

The outlay of the city for police service stands at $1,140 per month at this time. Alton B. May is on the pay roll as a city officer at $285 plus $110 automobile expense and Bill Taylor is night watchman at $275 per month.

With the raise in the chief's pay the total comes to $1,165.

New Dog Ordinance
An ordinance, adopted by the city, gives the authorities more authority in the handling of dogs and sets a penalty for dog owners who permit their animals to run loose in the city.

License and rabie shots for dogs are required by the new ordinance and it carries the further provision that properly licensed dogs found running at large may be impounded and notice given the owner. Heretofore dogs wearing proper tags could not be impounded.

For the first time in years the city is breaking even, approximately, on income and out go for garbage collection and disposal.

This week the council were considering the renewal of a contract with Jones Bros. after trial on a temporary basis. Jones is asking for a longer term contract. The council indicated favorable consideration is being given but deferred action temporarily. The fact that the end of the city's fiscal year is only 80 days away may influence the council to postpone action for the present.

The city needs a new dump truck and asked for figures from dealers for consideration. A formal notice for bids may be upcoming soon as a result of the figures the council obtained and the study they make of them.

Bills aggregating $7,012.82 were approved and passed for payment.

Lewis Urges Soil Testing For Profits

An ample supply of plant food in the proper balance is the key to maximum production at the lowest cost, says Floyd County Agent, Cecil Lewis.

Since the growing crop will draw its total plant food from the soil and from added fertilizer, these two sources must be combined or matched so as to give the plant just what it needs, he points out.

Soils vary in the amounts of plant food they will furnish, and only a soil test will tell how much. With this information, the amount of fertilizer needed can be determined.

Proper fertilization of all crops is being given special emphasis in this county now, the county agent stated, as a step in increasing farm income next year.

Never has it been so important that every possible effort be made to produce higher yields, the county agent said, and farmers can increase their incomes very substantially by following a program of soil testing and improved fertilization.

DOUGHERTY VOTE ON $15,000 GYM DUE SATURDAY

A vote set for Saturday, Jan. 14, at Dougherty will determine whether or not the taxpayers of the Dougherty School District desire for the district to issue bonds to erect a $15,000 gymnasium, needed in the scholastic program.

At the same time the taxpayers will vote on the proposition of confirming a maximum school tax rate of $1.50, which has been in effect for 12 years.

On the school board of the consolidated district are Bob Covington, Henry Hinton, S. J. McIntosh, Kenneth Poole, Joy Ward and Roy Crawford. Petition for the election was filed last week with County Judge J. D. McBrien, Stovall and Stovall are handling the legal details for the district.

Farm Problems Are Aired At Farm Bureau Annual Meeting

Farm records and accounting, discussions of the four point soil program, and a report on the national convention were among the features of Thursday night's program, when the county-wide Farm Bureau annual meeting was held in the county court room.

Newell Burk, local accountant, led the farm records discussion, giving practical pointers on the need for records that will reveal the financial condition of a farm operator and make tax reporting simpler, and more economical.

Cecil Lewis and John Schlittler of the Extension Service, gave an illustrated presentation of the four point soil program. A campaign to increase net profits on the farm through soil testing and water and crop management is underway in the county. There was a lively question and answer period.

S. J. McIntosh, county Farm Bureau president, who presided, gave a report on the national convention of the organization which he attended at Denver recently. His report dealt in part with the farm labor probabilities.

The short course at Floydada is scheduled to begin Jan. 23 at 7:30 p. m. in the vocational agriculture building. Other meetings in the series of five will be held Jan. 24-25-26. During the dates the short course is in progress, Mr. Oliver will be available (See Short Course, Page 8)

W. M. OLIVER Beef Cattle Specialist

Cattle Short Course Date Is Announced

A beef cattle short course for adult farmers will be held Jan. 23-27 under the sponsorship of the Floydada High School Vocational Agriculture Department, according to I. T. Graves, Superintendent and H. G. Barber, teacher of vocational agriculture.

William M. Oliver, beef cattle specialist with the Vocational Agriculture Division of the Texas Education Agency and the Department of Animal Husbandry at Texas A & M College with headquarters at A & M College will be the instructor in the course.

Mr. Oliver holds two degrees in Agricultural Education from Texas A & M College. Much of his college work in technical agriculture has been in the fields of Animal Husbandry Range Management and Agronomy. As a Vocational Agriculture Teacher, he has a wide and varied experience in training livestock and meat judging teams in the State and National FFA Judging Contests. Two of these teams won their respective contests in the National FFA judging contests. Mr. Oliver has worked closely with registered breeders, commercial cattlemen, and vocational agriculture students in the field of beef cattle production.

Outstanding Success

"Many beef cattle short courses in various parts of the state have been taught by Mr. Oliver and all have met with outstanding success," according to Walter Labay area supervisor of vocational agriculture, of Plainview. Arrangements for the adult education short course in beef cattle and in other fields are made through Mr. Labay's Office.

The short course at Floydada is scheduled to begin Jan. 23 at 7:30 p. m. in the vocational agriculture building. Other meetings in the series of five will be held Jan. 24-25-26. During the dates the short course is in progress, Mr. Oliver will be available (See Short Course, Page 8)

For Industrial Peace. Railroad people look upon the appointment of Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell and 14 others to a Presidential Railroad Commission recently as of considerable import, with possibilities that it may lead to clearing up current controversies without a long drawn-out strike. The railway unions and railway management joined in recommending such a commission. Both seem to be pleased that Secretary Mitchell was named chairman of the group. The carriers have five members, the railway brotherhoods five members, and (presumably) the public has five members. The "railroad people", all lumped together in their various and sundry negotiations, usually come up with an agreement that the public can take some more of the same. This is the average small business man's view and ours. Possibly, but not probably, railway management and railway labor may consider the fact that any business can price itself out of business. In the case of railways, since they are as necessary as bread and butter, they may just manage to arrive at business stagnation. The conclusion one may draw from this is that we think the five "public" representatives had as well "quality" so as to get on the payroll and then go fishing.

Agonies of a Legislator. This week the state legislature is supposed to go into the agonies of its biennial long session, with a multitude of big problems to solve. Looming largest is the budget and more taxes to meet a deficit in the general fund now expected to be at about $62 million when the fiscal year closes. No doubt the new constitutional arrangement for more pay for a legislator may save the wounds of the battle to some extent. How the bodies can do all the things they must do in the 140 (right?) days they have to work, with so many men of so diverse opinions and convictions involved, we deem a considerable question.

Among other things, we have an idea there will be many a day spent by the legislature on the matter of re-districting for congressional representation. Unless this body functions during the long term re-districting will be left up to a commission, composed of four state officials. This is a fairly new constitutional provision calculated to get action.

Local Tax Bills. There was a time when local tax bills loomed large in every budget. That day has gone by. Now, although the local governments do take a bite that can be felt, the levies are inconsequential when compared with the overall burden, which the federal government now imposes. Floyd County's founders never dreamed there would be a day when the property tax levy in Floyd County would be three hundred fifty-four thousand, one hundred fifty-nine dollars and seventy-one cents. did they dream that the federal government would take a bite from Floyd County twenty times that amount to come to more than six million annually. We have come a long way. Possibly we have not come, we have gone. Depends on the point of view.

An Amusing Suggestion. In view of the current recession in some parts of the country, with lay offs and cutbacks, rather general, somebody who got in the headlines, suggested that a reduction in taxes might be the springboard from which the economy could leap back into high gear once more. Just the suggestion created wide-spread hope in some quarters, amused smiles in others. Uncle Sam has too many commitments in too many countries to entertain the idea, and still maintain fiscal responsibility, they indicate.

It might not be amiss to reflect on the possibility that our country's gold troubles are partially chargeable to our Communist foes, who take advantage of every opportunity to keep America behind the eight ball. If we were only out of their way!

Sayings by Leo Jackson: A football coach has no business planting a pecan tree or buying a house on 30-year installments.

Acceptance of invitations to the state inauguration ceremonies, mentioned last week, were not nearly as expensive as acceptance of the invitations to the national event, scheduled in Washington. To be invited to the Austin festivities one must only have been an all-out supporter or an appointee of the governor or some other important official of the state. No expense, other than the trip and the cost of joining in the fun was involved. To get in the swim at Washington one must be prepared to help divvy up to cover the tremendous debt of the Democratic Party, in the red some three million dollars from the successful campaign for the presidency. The official inauguration ceremonies will last only a few hours but the celebration of it in the capital city will be a four-day affair. It will be a show worth the money if one is turned to appreciate that kind of thing, and has a few hundred dollars to spend. But, in addition, one must have been on somebody's list.

Candidate List Lengthens. List of candidates for the U. S. Senate seat of Lyndon B. Johnson, resigned, has grown to eight, possibly more by the time this is in print. Governor Daniel has set the election for April 4. This is one day less than the last possible date the statute permits. Principally for practical reasons. The tax collectors of the state will have to have completed lists of poll tax payers ready for the use of election judges. They can't begin to compile these lists until after January 31. Meanwhile the sound and fury begins. The bug continues to bite new ones, who hope for the lightning to strike.

Figure of Speech. Writers who "play" with words often come up with figures of speech that are a delight. For instance, some one we read in the past week referred to the American Medical Association's political views as "to the left of McKinley and slightly to the right of King Alfred." Most apt, we thought.

Science is teaching man to know and reverence truth, and to believe that only as far as he knows and loves it can be live worthily on earth and vindicate the dignity of his spirit.

Official Bonds Filed With Clerk

New bonds of the Floyd County officials who began four-year terms beginning the first of the year, filed with the county clerk, bind the officials in the usual manner to strict performance of the duties of their respective offices and support the constitution.

But different officials are bound to different heads of government. Bonds filed were as follows:

T. T. Hamilton as assessor-collector of taxes, $5,572.17 bond to the Governor of Texas, and $24,391.06 to the county judge of Floyd County.

Kenneth Bain Jr., as county attorney, bond of $2,500 as surety to the Governor of Texas, and Walter D. Hollums bond of $5,000, also made to the Governor of Texas.

Commissioners John B. Fowler and Wm. Carl Plumlee, in Precincts One and Four respectively, made their bonds of $3,000 each to the county treasurer of Floyd County.

Linda Sue Roe, Van C. Stovall Exchange Vows

Miss Linda Sue Roe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Roe, exchanged wedding vows with Van Clifton Stovall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard F. Stovall, in the home of the bride's parents.

As soft music played in the background, Rev. Paul Fullerton, minister of the First Christian Church, read the single ring ceremony. The couple stood before an improvised altar banked with Commodore palms and white mums. Seven branched candelabra placed on either side of the satin covered kneeling bench completed the setting.

Mr. Roe gave his daughter in marriage. The bride wore a two-piece suit of sheer beige wool with a waist length jacket which featured three-quarter length sleeves with a Coachman collar of velvet. She wore a circlet of velvet and pearls with a brief veil for her headpiece.

She wore her paternal grandmother's gold bracelet which the family has had many years. Her bouquet was a cascade of orchids.

and stephanitis showered with pearls and for-get-me-nots, placed on a white Bible.

Miss Sandra Roe attended her sister as maid of honor, and Frank Stovall, was his brother's best man.

The reception table was laid with silver appointments and the attendants bouquet of white mums and satin streamers was used for the center arrangement.

Mrs. Frank Stovall served the three tiered wedding cake, and Mrs. E. F. Stovall, the bridegroom's grandmother, poured for the wedding guests.

The couple will be at home at 78 Ave. C, Apt. 6 in Denton, Tex.

Space Isn't All Up In The Air

Space isn't all up in the air. It means a lot to you, personally. You grapple with it every day when you space your meals. If your space plan allows for snacking, this news of research may be to your liking. Researchers Clarence Cohn and Dorothy Joseph, at Michael Reese Hospital in Chicago, are trying to find out which is better when the total quantity of food for the day is the same: nibbling or eating three squares.

They fed two groups of laboratory animals the same amount of food. One group nibbled all day. The other was forced-fed at spaced intervals. At the end of the experiment, animals that had been force-fed had twice as much body fat as nibblers.

Studies on animals tell us what a particular animal needs. But they are only a starting place for studies of human beings. Dr. Cohn has begun research to learn if nibbling will reduce body fat for us, as it has for animals.

Regardless of what this research tells us, nutritionists know there still will be two ground rules for nibblers:

• The total number of calories furnished daily when you nibble should be made to equal those furnished by the three squares that keep you to your ideal weight.

• Nibbles have to furnish the same nutrients as spaced meals and should include: meat or an alternate, milk or cheese, fruits and vegetables, enriched or whole grain bread and cereal.

 better-beeled ones said they also saved twine. They recalled their childhood when used twine was wound onto a spool and kept as a kitchen necessity.
 We know a woman who works her heart out making pretties from discarded tin can lids, scraps of wool and velvet. She saves old jars, too. Expensive materials — plus hours of precou s eye and hand work — are then put with these things to be given away.
 We heard a secretary say recently she had just spent six dol lars replacing a cracked kitchen window, went by her boss's home to borrow a key, and noticed the same patched-up hole in the front screen that had been there for eight years. Yet by her stand ards, he was a wealthy man.
 It's true that some folks fall in love with money and save for the fun of not spending, enjoying the frugal life thus imposed upon them. Others have admitted weaknesses that cost too much:
 clothes, cars, motor-boats, air travel. They have to cut other corners to compensate.
 As long as husband and wife, or family, agree on spending, it's fine. But when one family mem ber forces a personal viewpoint on the rest, it can become tyranny in a teapot with little happiness for anyone.

Teague Given All-State Team Mention

Whirlwind Quarterback Rodney Teague was the only football player in District 2AA to get as much as honorable mention to the sports writers class AA all-state team. Teague received enough votes to get mention as a quarter-back.

This is looked on as quite an honor for a player from the Panhandle as all of the votes seemingly are cast by daily papers from the cities down state.

State champion Denver City could not be denied, however, and did get three of their team members on the number one team. The Mustangs were Bert and Bill Gravit and Marcel Dorethy.

Junior Coffee, the Dimmitt colored full back, was the only Bobcat to make the team. He was named as a first string back.

Older People Numbers Grow

COLLEGE STATION, Dec. — Texas' population now includes more than half a million persons over 65 years of age. This, according to Reagan Brown, extension rural sociologist, represents about 7 percent of the total population or about 1 out of 11. The ratio is even higher in rural areas, he adds.
The sociologist says the increase has caused leaders in many towns and rural communities to take a long look at the situation. Interest is growing in programs aimed at helping these senior citizens. Brown points out that research studies have and are furnished valuable information for planning work.
The older persons prefer to live as independently as possible and in familiar surroundings among their friends and associates. They like to be near married children or grandchildren but live to themselves. Elderly persons like to be where they can watch adults work and children play instead of with aged people only.
Most older farm folks like rural surroundings with open spaces, room for animals, or where they can garden and watch things grow, says Brown. But they don't want to be isolated. They'd like to be in walking distance of relatives, friends, church and shopping facilities; have help if needed and be out-of-doors when weather permits.
Whether in cities, towns or rural areas, older folks have much in common when living facilities are discussed, Brown says they want a safe home—one floor level with few steps to the outside. They don't like hazards which could mean a fire or fall but express a desire for automatically controlled heat for the winter months, adequate lighting windows that open and close easily and a comfortable place for a daytime nap.
But most important, Brown emphasizes, older folks want to feel needed and have an opportunity to carry on a useful, pleasant day to day schedule of activity.

Boyce House Says I Give You Texas

By Boyce House
When it comes to being lucky I haven't been. I've won only twice on "chances" — and one of them really didn't count, exactly. Then there was the time that I came close to winning. To help a patriotic organization in our town, they raffled off a $2,000 car at a dollar a chance. On the appointed day, a shot was fired at a board with the numbers on it and mine was missed by just two.
In Waco back about 1940 the Harley Sadler show was appearing at the Cotton Palace. Between acts, they would sell candy — you know, the special introductory offer. You paid twenty-five cents for a package; wasn't much candy, five pieces or maybe four but a prize with each and every package. Usually, the prize was a tin whistle or a pocket comb but, occasionally, the award would be a fountain pen or a pair of silk stockings or something like that.
Well, my prize was a blanket. I don't want to mislead you; the blanket was not in the package of candy but there was a slip of paper which called for the blanket.
Afterward, I "accused" Harley who was a good friend, of committing a murder by beating

Soil Fertility Date Will Be February 3

Plans for the annual Soil Fertility Day program were laid at a meeting in Lockney last week when Macyl Orman, agricultural agent of the Fort Worth & Denver Railway Co., was host to a Floyd County group at dinner in Golden's Cafe.

Tentatively set for Friday, Feb. 3, this year, Soil Fertility Day is a project of the FW & D Lines, the Extension Service, and Lockney Chamber of Commerce.

County Agent Cecil Lewis Presided. A definite program was not outlined but several lively topics of current interest on Floyd County farms were suggested. Among these are soil testing, application of cotton burrs on the land, swine production, flame cultivation, hybrid sorghum yields, cotton diseases, and new crops for the county.

Topics and speakers are due to be announced by a committee composed of E. J. Kinslow, Kenneth Probasco, Hubert Fritzell, Eddie Joe Fortenberry, Earl Edwards Jr.

Floyd County will be one of six in which the annual soil meeting will be held. Tentatively, Orman told the group, the meetings are set for Hale County on Monday, Lubbock County Tuesday, Lamb County Wednesday, Brisco County Thursday, Floyd County Friday, and Swisher County Saturday. The dates are Jan. 30, Feb. 4, inclusive.

The Fort Worth & Denver serves all of these counties with its South Plains lines.

The Fort Worth & Denver Railway Company has a big stake in Floyd County. With more than 100 miles of line within its boundaries the railway company is the county's biggest taxpayer.

Efficiency Is Demanded

Mr. Oliver states that the field of beef cattle production must take a close look at efficiency of production in the future. With land prices, feed, and taxes rising the producer is meeting more and more competition for the consumer dollar at the meat counter. From the economic view of the beef cattle business, there is every indication that in comparing the producer of yesterday and the producer of tomorrow, beef must be produced to sell cheaper in order to be a profit making business. Mr. Oliver indicates that the beef cattle short course will deal with the methods of producing beef at a lower cost and the ways of producing the kind of beef that the housewife wants to buy. He also states that the course will include such very important fields as the meat type steer, selecting bulls and replacement heifers, proper range use, supplemental winter feeding and will be adapted to the wishes and interests of the farmers and ranchers enrolled.

informally but any action taken will come not earlier than the February term of the court, it was indicated.

District Court Expense

Two 110th District Court salaries which are paid in part by Floyd County will cost this county more this year than last, based on the latest census. Of the $290 per month salary of R. A. Conner of Spur for part-time work as state parole officer for the district this county's proportion was determined to be $104, up from $84, the remainder paid by the other three counties in the district.

Also the four counties of the judicial district pay $100 per month of the salary of the district attorney's secretary. Floyd County's proportion of this salary was determined to be $52 per month, up from $41.80.

Orders were entered by the court for these salary increases to be met.

An order entered in the minutes cites approval of the contract with the City of Lockney for fire fighting in rural areas of the county at $75 per month during the year of 1961.

Kellison, Fawver Elected to Water District Posts

V. H. Kellison was elected committeeman of Commissioners Precinct 2 and Gilbert L. Fawver, committeeman of Precinct 4, Floyd County, for the High Plains Underground Water conservation district, a very light vote.

Out of the Lubbock office it was announced that Kellison and Fawver were chosen in this county but no figures were given.

The unofficial figures are: Kellison 11, Forrest Mickey 3, for committeeman Precinct 2; Kellison receiving 8 votes at City Hall, Lockney, and 3 votes at county court room Floydada; Fawver 7, E. L. Nail 6, for Committeeman Precinct No. 4, all cast at the county court room, Floydada.

Warren Mitchell Named To District 4-H Council Post

Warren Mitchell of Lockney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Mitchell, was elected second vice-chairman of District 2 4-H Club Council in Lubbock Saturday at a committee meeting held in the Reddy Room of Southwestern Public Service Co.

A Swisher County girl, Cheryl Culwell of Tulia, was named first vice-chairman of the organization, and Pat Mitchell, of Spade, was elected secretary-treasurer.

New county representatives, of which two will be named from each county, will be installed at a council meeting in February.

Light Snow, Shower Halts Farm Work

A light snow that melted as it hit the ground, together with a sprinkle of rain, barely enough to moisten the soil, together with a shower of rain, were enough to halt farm work for some time here Wednesday and continued until about noon.

Harvest of cotton was just being resumed, when the sprinkles came out of the northeast. Gins caught a few hundred bales from fields where the ground was dry. Monday and Tuesday.

WORMS FOR SALE

It is an old story, but it is still worth telling. A lark, singing in the high branches of a tree, saw a traveler walking thru the forest carrying a mysterious little black box. The lark flew down and perched on the traveler's shoulder.

"What do you have in the little black box?" he asked.

"Worms," the traveler replied.

"Are they for sale?"

"Yes, and very cheap, too. The price is only one feather."

The lark thought for a moment, "I must have a million feathers, most of them quite small. Surely, I'll never miss one of them. Here is an opportunity to get a good dinner for no work at all." So he told the man that he would buy one.

He searched carefully under his wing for a tiny, tiny feather. He unrolled a bit as he pulled it out, but the size and quality of the worm made him quickly forget the pain. High up in the tree he began to sing as beautifully as before.

The next day he saw the same man and once again he exchanged a feather for a worm. What a wonderful way to get dinner — and no effort at all!

We skip the next day, and the next, and the next for we are sure you are way ahead of us. In any event, he lost a feather each day and each loss seemed to hurt less and less. To begin farming in surprise, "what time will he had a lot of feathers but am I going to see the town?"

A farmer who went to a large city to see the sights engaged a room at a hotel and before retiring asked the clerk about the hours for meals.

"We have breakfast from 7 to 11, dinner from 12 to 3, and supper from 6 to 8," explained the clerk.

"Look here," inquired the farmer, "what time should I get up to eat?"

The new sight, an improvement over its World War II predecessor, can spot an enemy at night at a much greater distance. Floyd Readhimer Juicides In Fit Of Despondence Floyd Readhimer, 52 year old retired farmer and twin brother of Lloyd Readhimer of Lockney, was found dead about noon Monday in his car parked inside his garage in Odessa. Justice of the Peace there said Readhimer had been dead for some 12 hours.

A vacuum cleaner hose had been attached to the exhaust and run into the car through the window. Readhimer was found by two newspaper boys. A note was found and was quoted by relatives to say that Readhimer had been despondent over family matters. He was formerly resident of Bovina.

Funeral rites will be held this morning at 10 o'clock in the First Baptist Church in Plainview.

Survivors include the wife, one son who resides in Old Mexico and several brothers and sisters.

British Travel To New Delhi In The Summer

NEW DELHI — In the good old, bad old British days, sweet old Delhi-wallas (residents) moved on masse to the hills to escape the summer heat.

Alas, with independence and democracy, Indians now have the right of suffering the summer at home. Some get away for a few weeks to a cooling hill station, but a majority of them are stuck to their pants which are stuck to their chairs at their desks.

During the British days, when the temperature began approaching 100, the government packed up and retreated to 7,000-foot-high Semla for six months. Wives, children, servants and shopkeepers followed suit.

Since independence, the Indian government has remained in New Delhi. With days averaging a high of 106 degree Fahrenheit, even the most dedicated nationalist occasionally longs for the British retreat.

Air conditioning and inverted forests of ceiling fans help, but most can't afford them. Others, who can, sometimes question their value.

One Englishman, his walrus mustache badly wilted, sighed and observed:

"I get colds from air conditioning and it's bloody awful trying to read the annual edition of the Times under a ceiling fan."

Those without mechanical cooling do the best they can, mostly with the help of mother nature.

The leafy neem tree seems to have the ability to throw a shadow and repel the sun. Mid-day

The role of the Lapp Laboratory in the project is to contribute research information and materials to serve as insulators, clamps and fittings.

At the Lapp Laboratory, voltages duplicating that of lightning are created by an impulse generator for testing metal and porcelain materials.

Brent Mills, executive vice-president of the LeRoy concern, said one of the obstacles facing engineers in adapting materials to control corona — flashing or sparking from conductors, clamps and insulators.

The corona, often visible and sometimes audible, is particularly violent at extra-high voltages and causes power failures and interference to radio and television reception.

The Lapp Laboratory, erected in 1954, is designed with a bank of transformers for 60-cycle testing to 1,050,000 volts as well as the impulse generator for artificial lightning at 2,250,000 volts.

Mills said research work is expected to be completed within a year, and Lapp will supply equipment for the transmission line and switching stations to be constructed along the Ohio River at Apple Grove, W. Va.

Southwestern's Progress Report Paints Picture of Future Growth

To keep electrically ahead of the continuing growth of its 45,000 square mile service area Southwestern Public Service Company will invest more than $22,000,000 in construction and new equipment in 1961, it has been announced by A. R. Watson, Executive Vice President and General Manager of the electric light and power company.

Watson added that the company's five year construction and improvement budget anticipates a new equipment investment of $117,000,000 between now and 1965. He also pointed out that the $117,000,000 expansion figure equals the total amount that the company had invested in plant and equipment less than 10 years ago, and adds up to more than 45 per cent of the present day investment in plant and equipment of nearly $260,000,000.

Looking at the national picture in the electric light and power industry, Watson pointed out that, contrary to a number of "scare" rumors that were prevalent during 1960, the United States had added more electric generating capability this last year than had Russia.

Increases Lead Over Russia
"We frequently heard during 1960, usually from advocates of socialized government power, that Russia was overtaking the United States in the generation of electric power. The fact of the matter is that the United States has more than 2 1/2 times as much generating capability as Russia, and we increased our lead in 1960," he said.

One project in Southwestern Public Service Company's $22,000,000 improvement program for 1961, will be continued work on Nichols Station, northeast of Amarillo. The generating capability of the plant is being doubled.

Electric service took another giant stride in 1960 to bulwark its claim as the biggest bargain in the family budget. Southwestern's average rate for a residential kilowatt-hour dropped to 2.90 cents in 1960, as compared to 3.05 cents in 1959. The reduction in the last 10 years in the average cost of a residential kilowatt-hour to a Southwestern customer is 21.49 percent. Only 13 cents of each dollar spent by American families goes for electric service, less than the ladies spend for cosmetics.

Atomic Research Continues
Southwestern, along with 10 other investor-owned electric companies in Texas, continues its research activities in atomic energy through the program of the Texas Atomic Energy Research Foundation.

The nation's investor-owned electric companies paid nearly $2.5 billion dollars in federal, state and local taxes in 1960. In Southwestern's case, more than 24 cents of every dollar taken in is paid out in taxes.

will be "one of the simplest inaugurations in years," according to the Governor's office. No parade is planned.

NEW INSURANCE CHAIRMAN — Former Dist. Judge Thomas C. Ferguson of Burnet has been named chairman of the State Insurance Board by Governor Daniel.

Ferguson succeeds another district judge, Penn J. Jackson, who has returned to his bench in Cleburne.

New board chairman is also a former newspaperman, deputy district clerk, member of the Texas House of Representatives, mayor of Burnet and county judge. As he begins his service on the Insurance Board, one of the most pressing problems before it is whether to revise auto insurance rates.

WATER PROGRAM TARGETS SET — Reorganization of the State Board of Water Engineers after the pattern of the State Highway Commission has been proposed by Governor Daniel.

Daniel advocated separating the engineering services under a chief engineer from the semi-judicial functions of the Board. He made the proposal before a pre-legislative meeting of the Statewide Water Committee.

The committee, composed of laymen to help in development of a state water program, endorsed broader lending authority for the State Water Development Board. At present, the Board can grant loans to subdivisions for 1-3 the cost of a water project or $5,000,000, whichever is less. A $15,000,000 maximum is recommended by the Committee.

CHURCH-SCHOOL CONFLICT APPEALED — A group of Bremond citizens is appealing to the State Board of Education in protest of what it regards as a violation of church-state separation.

Bremond School District leases a Catholic Church-owned school building for use as a public elementary school and uses Catholic nuns as teachers.

This arrangement has been a source of local controversy for some years. Finally, a group of Protestant citizens brought the case before State Commissioner of Education J. W. Edgar.

Dr. Edgar said he had no authority to prohibit the school board's hiring nuns, but he strongly urged the district to get a school district-owned building.

Seeking more vigorous action, the protesting Protestants appealed to the State Board.

Two elections to approve bond issues to build an elementary school in Bremond have failed. Bremond, a town of about 1,100, is located 70 miles southeast of Waco in Robertson County.

GAS DISPUTE BEFORE COURT — Texas Supreme Court is considering three related cases involving whether a certain gas drilling process steps on neighboring property owners' toes.

Also at issue is whether the decision can be made in the Courts or by the Railroad Commission.

In all three suits, Delhi-Taylor Oil Corporation charges that operators using the sand-fracturing process in drilling are removing gas from beyond the limits of their lease. In sand fracturing, acids and liquids are forced into the ground to open crevices to permit escape of the gas.

SHORT SPORTS — Bexar County (San Antonio) Dist. Atty. Charles Lieck, Jr. has taken issue with the State Liquor Control Board on its new regulations governing private clubs. In a letter to the Liquor Board, Lieck was particularly critical of the regulation that permits board agents or peace officers to inspect a private club without a search warrant.

Texas Republican Executive Committee will name a new chairman at its meeting January 16. Thad Hutcherson, chairman since 1957, resigned.

Traditional Mercury values in the popular price range

TRADITIONAL MERCURY COMFORT Only Mercury has Cushion-Link Ride (standard on Monterey and Meteor 800)—a unique suspension system that absorbs jolts and jars that come through to you in other cars. It "gives" backward and forward as well as up and down. And Mercury has a longer wheelbase (120 inches) and greater weight (up to 241 pounds heavier) than other cars in its price range. Result: you enjoy a smooth, solid, steady big-car ride you'd expect to pay much more for. There's plenty of stretch-out room in Mercury, too—even more rear seat hip, shoulder and head room than in last year's spacious Mercury. Wider doors and more trunk space, too.

TRADITIONAL MERCURY VALUE There's extra value in Mercury's engine choice—all the way from the Super-Economy "6" (Mercury's first "6") to the powerful Marauder V-8's. And even the top-performing V-8's deliver up to 15% better gas mileage. There's extra value in Mercury's seven self-servicing features. From self-lubricating chassis to self-adjusting brakes, they save you money every mile you drive. Everywhere you look, the 1961 Mercury offers you traditional Mercury values. Now, for the price most people pay for a new car, you can own a Mercury. Take your pick of Mercury's three great series and drive it today!

We have tried the Credit experiment long enough to be satisfied that it does not suit the Grocery business, and particularly objectionable is a mixed business of Cash and Credit, by which the punctual customer has to be averaged with the slow and doubtful. There are many clever people of the latter class, but we don't wish to sell them goods on a credit and make their neighbors pay additional profits for their short comings.

We say to those who wish their orders properly filled with just such articles as they describe, and at low prices, that they will do well to instruct their Cotton Factors or Commission Merchants to pay their Grocery bill monthly, or contract to send us monthly remittances, and those with these terms will directly find the great advantages of promptitude, both in prices and quantities of goods.

Orders for Family or Plantation supplies will always receive prompt and careful attention, and Country Merchants will be allowed a liberal margin for profit.

We deem it unnecessary to give a long catalogue of the Goods we deal in, sufficient to say that we keep constantly fresh supplies of Pork, Flour, Lard, Bacon, Sugar, Molasses, Salt, Whiskey, and all other Family and Plantation supplies; and we have made favorable arrangements in Germany, France, England and Havana for the direct importations of the best brands of Wines, Brandies, Sauces, Salad Oils, Porter, Ale, Cigars, & C.

All such articles as our customers may order, and we have not in our store, (of exactly the brand described), we will procure from other importers or dealers, at cash prices, and fill their orders liberally and carefully.

Planters and others who order their Groceries through their Cotton Factors or Commission Merchants, and who wish to give me a trial, have but to instruct their Agents to buy of us, and their wishes will be cheerfully complied with. Or they can

Water on Stock Farms. — Mr. Strawn, the great Illinois farmer, gives the following method in the "Farmers' Advocate" for keeping water on a stock farm: Dig a basin, five or ten rods square and ten feet deep, upon a high knoll. Feed corn in the basin to your hogs and cattle until it is well puddled by the tramping of their feet, which will make it almost water-tight. He says the rains of a single winter sufficed to accommodate several hundred head of cattle, and that it had been dry once in twelve years.

Beginning with the February contract letting, he said, the specifications for all highway projects will require that flagging be done with the use of the special vests and flags.

The same flag signals will be retained: flagman's arm fully extended horizontally to indicate "STOP"; movement of the flagman's free hand without use of the flag to indicate "PROCEED".

The afternoon's recreation was directed by Mrs. Jones with the prizes going to Mmes. A. H. Kries and Ned Bradley. Mrs. Russell Crawford received the attendance prize.

STOCK SHOW SLATED 20 RODEO PERFORMANCES

The more than 300 leading cowboys who will compete in Fort Worth's 1961 Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show rodeo will be pitted against the biggest, roughest collection of stock used anywhere, reports rodeo producer Harry Knight.

The Fort Worth rodeo will run for 20 performances, Jan. 27 through Feb. 5.

Knight said the "biggest and roughest" label is not just publicity, but fact. The number of performances and cowboy competitors at the Fort Worth rodeo make it the largest user of rodeo livestock.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Burl Huckabee were all of their children and their families which included Mr. and Mrs. Dale Teague, Brenda Ann and Robert Dale, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Tompleton, Ricky and the latest addition, six-week-old Timmy, all of Lubbock, and Mr. and Mrs. Ozell Chappell, Kathy, Jerry Don and Judy of near Floydada.

MISS DONNA MURRY

Donna Murry Thrilled With New Job

HOUSTON — Donna Murry, who was born in Plainview and who attended school in Canyon, has been named as a public relations director for Variety International Productions in Houston.

Miss Murry, whose relatives live in Floydada, Pampa, Plainview, and Canyon, resigned as a dental assistant to accept this position.

Variety International Productions was formed in Houston over three years ago. The company trains and develops talent and produces plays that are performed in every state and Canada.

Jerry L. Gray, a member of the University of Houston Drama Department, is the director.

"I just love this job," Donna says. "I meet so many interesting people and I get a lot of self-satisfaction out of seeing a stage production being a success that I have been a part of. It's as if I were a pioneer aiding in the development of art and culture."

Donna attended elementary school in Canyon, Texas, and graduated from high school in Orange, Calif. She has taught swimming and baton twirling — including the fire baton. She is a member of the MacGregor Park Church of Christ.

"While attending high school I sang for civic clubs in a sextet," Donna said. "But nothing I have ever done is like this work and there is such a tremendous future in it. The job is so much different from anything I have ever done — I thoroughly enjoy it."

Miss Murry is a granddaughter of Mrs. O. E. Murry of Floydada, the daughter of former FHS Coach and Mrs. Floyd Murry.

Visiting the W. M. Sanders home during the holidays were Mr. and Mrs. Johnie Mayfield, of California, Mr. Sanders' niece, Mr. and Mrs. Shiry were welcome visitors in the Sanders' home, also Martha Lee Main and husband from Palestine.
