

Suit Will Test Water Depletion Tax Allowance

Favorable Court Decision Would Mean Great Savings to Farmers

A Floyd County farmer has filed a suit against the Federal Government which, if he wins, could pave the way for millions of dollars in tax savings for High Plains Farmers.

The suit seeks a cost-depletion income-tax allowance on underground water used for irrigation farming, explains the High Plains Undergrnd Water Conservation District.

It would establish his right to an income-tax deduction based on the fact that irrigation results in using up the underground water. This is referred to by tax people as a cost-depletion income-tax allowance.

Actually, this is a test case sponsored by the High Plains Undergrnd Water Conservation District which, since 1954, has been seeking a cost-depletion allowance for area landowners.

Suit Filed Tuesday The suit was filed in U. S. District Court here Tuesday by attorneys, George W. McCleskey, Lubbock, J. Chrys Dougherty, Austin, and Edwin L. Kahn, Washington, D. C., on behalf of Marvin and Mildred Shurbet, Rt. 1, Petersburg, Texas.

As explained by attorneys, the suit will prove that ground water under the High Plains of Texas is a natural deposit and is being exhausted just as oil, gas, gold or any other natural deposit; and therefore underground water should come under the Federal law allowing an income-tax deduction for depletion of other resources.

Plaintiffs contend that property owners who can establish an actual cost of underground water beneath their land and who are using the water from storage to produce income should be entitled to deduct the cost of such water as it is exhausted.

Shurbet and the Water District by nightfall visibility was low and there was a six inch snow cover.

School Dismissed Tuesday School was dismissed Tuesday in area schools and in Floydada. Buses from Floydada schools were able to deliver rural students home without too much trouble Monday afternoon, but this was not true for schools southwest where the snow was heavier.

One bus at Crosbyton was found Monday night after all students had been taken home and case.

Abandoned cars and trucks littered the highways from below the Caprock east of Crosbyton. South of Floydada, in Blanco Canyon, highway trucks were kept busy Monday afternoon pulling cars up the slick highway.

J. M. Pierce, who lives almost at the rim of Blanco said traffic was at a standstill Monday. However Tuesday the highway had been cleared of snow and vehicles were getting through.

Commissioner John Fowler said he had six snow plows at work early Tuesday morning and had hopes of getting most of the roads passable by nightfall.

Wreckers Are Kept Busy Rural residents, who felt it a necessity to get into Floydada, put mud chains on and attempted to plow through, as did most city residents. Wrecker services were kept busy throughout the week.

47 Counties Interested In 47 counties of the Panhandle and southern High Plains there are, in round numbers, some 20,000 irrigation farmers utilizing 50,000 acres to irrigate 5,000,000 acres of land.

The High Plains Water District is convinced that success in this law suit will result in better water conservation practices. They believe tax calculations make a taxpayer conscious of the real value of his water and therefore anxious to use it to the best advantage.

The depletion allowance which is being claimed in this suit is based upon cost of the underground water and not upon any percentage calculation such as is usually true in the oil industry.

The suit will contend that "when a landowner depletes his water supply he has exhausted a portion of his capital investment, and to the extent that such a capital asset has been depleted in the production of income he should clearly come within the principles of law applicable to allowance of deduction for depletion."

Revenue Act Is Cited Section 611 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended in 1954, states "in the case of mines, oil and gas wells, other natural deposits, and timber, there shall be allowed as a deduction in computing taxable income a reasonable allowance for depletion and for depreciation of improvements according to the peculiar conditions in each case, such reasonable allowance in all cases to be made under regulations prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate."

IN METHODIST HOSPITAL Mrs. G. R. May was admitted Monday afternoon to Methodist Hospital where she will be for several days undergoing a series of tests. Mrs. May became ill at her home Saturday but is reported doing nicely.

Second Big Gin Unit Is Contracted By Farmers

After weeks of meeting with various gin machinery makers and investigation of various brands of gin equipment L. Fulton, manager, and the board of directors of Farmers Cooperative Gin, announced this week that a second gin unit identical to the installation they already have has been bought from Murry Gin Company of Dallas. Foundation work for the new building and equipment may begin within two or three weeks.

Contract has been signed and the gin manufacturers are making plans and blue prints at this time, Mr. Fulton said.

Site will be on land adjacent to their present gin, which already has been acquired.

The new plant will be a four-story 120-saw gin to cost approximately $280,000.

To finance the big operation the directors announced that over $65,000 in preferred stock has been sold locally and the Houston Bank for Cooperatives have assured the loan of the balance to meet their commitment.

Stockholders Meet March 6 Also this week it is announced that the annual meeting of the stockholders of the gin cooperative will be held on Monday, March 6.

At that time the charter of the organization will be amended to increase the capital stock.

The stockholders also will elect two directors to places now held by Gilbert L. Fawver and H. B. Johnson.

It is indicated that the gin has had a satisfactory year.

The meeting was held in the district court room of the courthouse at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

T. C. Hollums is president of the Farmers Cooperative Gin. H. B. Johnson vice president, Roy Hale, secretary. They with Gilbert L. Fawver and Fred Jackson comprise the board of directors.

Fire Fighters of Four Towns Battle Blaze in High Winds Firemen from Floydada, Petersburg, Abernathy and Ralls fought a stubborn fire Friday afternoon at Allmon Gin during the height of an early season dust storm. Floydada Fire Department received their call at 3:15 and with a crew of two and the pumper truck proceeded to the Gin located five miles this side of Petersburg. Burr burners were going full blast at the time of the fire and wind blew the burrs across debris and into a pasture west where big piles of burrs were stacked.

The wind was just right to whip the burning burrs all across the gin yard, Billy Joe Baker, local Fire Marshal said. Located near by were two large butane tanks, the old Allmon school, warehouses and a cafe building and other out buildings which could have easily caught fire and proved disastrous. On the arrival of fire trucks all buildings were wet down near the fire. Floydada's pumper truck was hooked to an electric irrigation well where it furnished water for the other trucks.

One of Petersburg fire trucks had the misfortune of blowing three joints of hose and was out of commission for a while, and Ralls fire truck blew a valve enroute to the fire and couldn't be used.

Baker said firemen and trucks stayed on the scene and wet down smoldering burrs and trash until 7 o'clock Friday night.

At a meeting last Monday night, Baker said the entire force of the local fire department ran checks and tests on fire fighting equipment and trucks, so as to be fully prepared for spring winds which usually caused destructive fires when they get started.

In cleaning joints on the pumper truck six joints were lost due to aging material. They were replaced with new ones, Baker said. The department feels they are well equipped to fight any fire with a force of 21 volunteer firemen.

Life of a Policeman. Why anyone should aspire ever to be a peace officer in a small city in Texas is one of the things that makes us wonder.

Usually a Lone Wolf. Also the usual thing is for the policeman to be a loner. He doesn't get the sympathy and backing after he gets in office that he is entitled to expect from the community and his superiors at the city hall.

Should Remain Appointive. However, the movement to have the policeman chosen by ballot is not a good one. People are prone to elect some good old boy that needs a job and is a good electioneer.

A Policeman's Pay. Peculiarly there is the widest difference of opinion in Floydada on the amount of pay a policeman should have, and how many police are needed. A good council will stay anywhere in between the $2,500 a month many think the city should pay for police protection and the $750 per month others think.

A Pretty Full House. With several days to go, there were 32 candidates announced for the U. S. Senate seat vacated by Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson.

City, School Elections. Reminder that city council and school trustee elections are right around the corner is hereby made. Those who want to get names on either ticket are reminded that a 30-day time limit prior to election day to file for places is the law and has been all the while.

Our lawyer friends. The incident last week in District Court here when a highway damage suit was declared a mistrial before the jury finished hearing two witnesses, is an instance of lawyer reasoning that tickles the risibilities of one whose blood pressure is in the normal range, and infuriates others whose inclination is to be infuriated.

A Fact Well-Known. Every citizen who has sufficient intelligence to serve on a jury knows that a construction company which offers to build roads has to have public liability insurance before he is permitted to begin work. His contract with the highway department calls for it. Also he must by law have Workers Compensation Insurance.

A Matter of Concern. However, there is a thing that the law permits which the lawyers should do something about. That is this matter of getting delays and continuances of suits that ought to be adjudicated by the simple means of paying a legislator a fee or a bribe to let his name be used as an attorney in a case in which he is not interested and in which he knows full well he will not appear in court, has no intention of appearing. Not all legislators are guilty, by any means, but enough of them are to make the full story, if it were known, rather shocking to the public. Since we do not know the whole story we will not attempt to go into it.

In the days of simpler living, a watch was a wondrous thing to a child. Time was not so measured then — at least, not living time. The clock on the wall shied, ticking ponderously, measured minutes; its strokes proclaimed the hours. Each night it had to be wound with a key, thus marking the end of a day. It was Time.

A watch, on the other hand, was a curiosity, on rare occasions, a plaything. Men's dollar-size watches, worn on a handsome gold chain or ribbon fob, were filled with delight for their owners. Wheeled from a father's or uncle's pocket, they would be dangled tantalizingly for a few minutes, then held to an ear for the pleasant rhythm of the "tick-tick." Inside the case, one could watch the tiny wheels at work, have the jewels pointed out with the blade of a pocketknife.

Ladies' watches, a dainty half-dollar size, were encased in gold "doors." The one over the face opened by pressing down on the winding button. Engraved inside our mother's watch, in the "secret" back door which had to be pried open with a knife, was a couplet: Men rise to stepping stones. Of their dead selves, to higher things.

Its meaning was vague, but the sounds made music and so the words were soon engraved on our memory as well as inside the watch.

Now that we have lived long enough to have some husks of yesterday to account for, we understand, and wonder. Have our "dead selves" become stepping stones? If so, are they carefully arranged on a slope leading upward? We must look to our tomorrows now, for time is measured in 1961.

SNOW STORM DAMAGE. An automobile transport truck went into a skid in 10 inches of snow at 5 o'clock Tuesday morning at a Highway 70 curve in northwest Floydada, and jumped the curb and came to a stop in a row of tractors on display at King Tractor and Motor. Considerable damage was done to several of the tractors and the truck. (Staff photo)

He is a life member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and of the American Legion, also he is a Mason, a Shriner, Rotarian, and a member of the Methodist Church. His membership in the Methodist Church dates back to 1900.

SNOWSTORM

Old timers in the county said they couldn't recall a heavier snow storm that had dumped as much snow in a 12 hour period. Disrupted communications and power failures were relatively light in the county. Wet cables in telephone lines caused some nuisances in the early hours after thawing conditions prevailed Tuesday.

Two Deaths Reported
Loss of the lives of two South Plains residents have been attributed to the weather. An 11-year old Post youth, Bobby Jack Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Smith, was killed when struck by a car as he alighted from a school bus, and Ralph Maldonado, 20, was killed during the heavy snowfall about noon when his car was struck by a train southeast of Lubbock.

Sheriff Walter Hollums reported only one accident occurring in Floyd County that could be attributed to the weather. This took place at 5 o'clock Tuesday morning when an empty car transport truck headed south went into a skid on the curve in northwest Floydada on Highway 70. The big vehicle jumped the curb and struck four tractors on display in the adjoining lot of King Tractor and Motor. Three of the tractors were extensively damaged and heavy damage was done to the truck. The driver, Alfred Beaver of 303 West Crockett, Floydada, escaped serious injuries.

Mail Carriers Make Routes
Ed Wester, Floydada postmaster, said all rural mail carriers made their deliveries Tuesday. However there were no deliveries yesterday due to the closing of the post office on George Washington's birthday.

Business places were open as usual Tuesday but little business was transacted. By noon water was running curb deep where snow had already thawed in fast-thawing weather.

Weathermen are predicting continued thawing conditions during the day with freezing at night making streets and highways extremely dangerous during the night and early morning hours. The snowstorm Monday was believed to be the worst for the South Plains area since 1956 when Plainview was paralyzed with over 20 inches of snow.

Temperature Is Mild
A feature of the big snowstorm that made it less unpleasant was the mild temperatures that prevailed. The thermometer hovered around freezing throughout Monday and Tuesday night, with wind gusts to 15 miles per hour.

New '61 Chevy with Jet-smooth ride

The '61 Chevy loves to go because it goes so well. Purrs along pavements like a happy baby. Takes rough roads in stride and all roads in style.

Just why does a Jet-smooth Chevy treat riders as royally as the high-priced luxury cars? It all came about through a delightful blend of Full Coil suspension, precision-balanced wheels, unique chassis cushioning, and a superb Body by Fisher insulated to hush away road sounds. All this adds up to less sway, less bounce, less dip, less dive, less tilt, less noise, less... well you name it.

Now combine this Jet-smooth ride with conveniences to pamper you and roominess to relax in. Add a full measure of quiet good looks. Voila, you've got Chevy's formula.

And the proof is in the riding. When you sample a Jet-smooth Chevy at your Chevrolet dealer's we think you'll find it just to your taste.

MISS MARY GRACE DUNN

Students Pour Honors On Charming Mary Grace Dunn

To be chosen by the entire junior class as its favorite senior girl and 1961 Prom Queen is quite an honor. To be chosen by the entire school as 1961 Homecoming Queen is still a higher honor. Mary Grace Dunn evidently has all the qualities of an ideal senior girl and "queen of her class" since she has been elected to both of these high honors. Her majesty was presented a bouquet of red roses and a silver heart-shaped necklace at the Junior-Senior Banquet. A nominee for Miss FHS, Mary Grace is a 12-year senior since she has attended the Floydada schools all her life. She was born on Feb. 19, 1943. The faculty has selected her to the ultimate of honors in FHS. Who's Who of 1961 Seniors. Mary Grace has served as a true "ideal" all four years in FHS. EDITORIAL: HEAR YE! PARENTS! HEAR YE!

Do you, as a parent, have the correct conception of the way you should be concerned about your teenager and of the way you should help him in his school work? You may think that you do not have to worry. Let's have a look at this supposition and see if it is correct. Does your teenager understand that he has a specific time and place for studying each and every day? If he does not, then this may be one of the things that caused some of his deficiencies. Do you provide a time for study? Do you continually have something planned for him to do until it is so late that it is a strain on him to concentrate? Do you have to force study? If you do, you must realize that not much learning is taking place, even though you are standing over your teenager with a big, long stick. Do you provide the proper environment for studying? Is there some sort of desk that may be used? Sitting on the bed, in a chair, or lying down, may cause eye strain, poor posture, and cramped penmanship. Are you so selfish that the TV has to be going, regardless of what important assignment your teenager may be working on? Do you not realize that studying and watching TV do not mix? Are the correct lighting facilities provided? This may cause eye strain as well as an unpleasant frown on one's countenance. You may say that you are very sufficient on all of these points. You may be, but you still may be weak in others. For instance, do you actually inhibit your teenager's learning capacity? "Of course not," you may say. You may be and not realize it. Do you force your teenager to stop studying for insignificant things after he has been studying only a few minutes? This interrupts his chain of thought and prevents any deep concentration. Do you assist your teenager too much by just simply doing the lessons for him? Do you realize that he will not learn one thing about that subject if he does not have the experience of doing those exercises himself and learn to think for himself? These are only some of the ways in which you may destroy the real foundation for learning. You may not be aware of the fact, but you are responsible for the largest per cent of your teenager's time. If this time is spent on education, your teenager may not have any difficulty in learning in school. You may not realize how you may help; but, if you stop and think, you will find that you may help him in several ways. For instance, do you use some words in your conversation that are beyond the realm of his vocabulary? This will help him if you are kind and understanding enough to explain to him or help him to look the words up. Another important factor is impressing on him how necessary are English, math, and science courses. For instance, do you tell him about his good grades, his good themes, or any accomplishments. Even if they are only small ones, it will cheer him along to know that someone is caring about him. All of your teenager's confidence can be destroyed in a single afternoon if he catches you wondering about his progress aloud. Your teenager feels that you cannot ask him about his own progress—that you do not trust him to tell you the truth. If you have not done your part, do you care enough to become interested in your teenager?

Ricky Holland is the Student Council President for 1961-1962 after an all-student body election. Other school leaders who will take charge of the school's major offices are Vice-President, Bill Daniel; Secretary, Carolyn Moore; Annual editor, Sara Holmes; and Whirl editor, Melinda Barker. Other candidates running for these offices were President, Charles Christian; Vice-President, Fred Thayer; Secretary, Nita Cagle; Annual editor, Eric Christensen and Jan Dempsey; and Whirl editor, Kit Zimmerman, Ella Mae Cagle, Ronnie Fullerton, and Kay Asher. Those who ran for Student Council offices had to hand in a theme written on why they wanted to be an officer. Also, they were interviewed by a special committee which asked them questions and gave them problems concerning school to solve. The campaigning actually started Monday, Feb. 6 when the halls started getting decked with posters and tags of the candidates and the students were covered in cards and tags. Miss Anne Swepston, SC sponsor, said, "The poster campaigning this year is one of the most original FHS has ever had." Thursday, Feb. 9, the student body listened to the campaign speeches as they were delivered themselves. Immediately after the assembly, official ballots were passed out to the students for voting. There were definite winners in all races but that of annual editor, and there was a run-off between Sara Holmes and Eric Christensen. The elections that started a few weeks ago at a rather slow pace gained spirit through the weeks. President Eddie Parks stated that the elections pepped up very good the last week of campaigning. Several parents and students outside school came to view the novel posters. Different approaches in posters were a modern oil painting, one at the ceiling, a silhouette, and many comical ones. "All the campaign speeches were very good," was one student's comment.

FROM OUR FILES

"Green Peppers," a pep squad was organized in Feb. 1953 for the purpose of increasing school spirit. Officers were Pat Robertson, Sammie Copeland, Pat Spears, and Betty Martin. Bert Grimes was elected in an all-student body election to be the first president of the FHS Student Council in February 1953, when the SC was organized. Miss Jo Day, an active and popular Senior of the FHS Band was elected Band Sweetheart of 1953. In 1953, the mixed chorus in FHS, contained 34 members, 7 boys and 27 girls. Darlynn Warren was president and Ann Deakins was vice-president. Miss Ruby Bevil was sponsor. The Reese Air Force Band performed for FHS student body Apr. 2, 1953. On Nov. 16, 1956, approximately 500 ex-FHS students attended the third annual homecoming at Floydada. Registration began at 9:30 in Graves Gymnasium where coffee and doughnuts were served. DID YOU KNOW?

High school graduates have anywhere from 5 to 50 times greater chance of getting jobs and keeping them than those who drop out, as quoted from the US Dept. of Labor. Surveys covered 12,000 high school graduates and 10,000 high school dropouts on their employment records. In 1940, only one third had completed high school and one in eighteen had a college degree. In 1959, high school graduates made up slightly over half of American labor force (18 to 64 years old) and nearly one in ten was a college graduate. Texas has now dropped from 19th position in 1950 to 34th in average salary for teachers. Every state bordering Texas pays a higher salary than Texas, except Arkansas. This makes Texas a happy hunting ground for other states needing teachers. Texas spends less on each public school child than do 34 other states in the nation; only 15 states spend less. "No teacher is perfect — at least to his students. But, if he could be, he would have the composite qualities of the outstanding traits possessed by our own FHS teachers. According to Billy Kinard, a teacher should be tactful, well-educated, and have a good personality. Darlene Westfall thinks a teacher must have a sense of humor and be kind. Mike Matsler says a teacher should be lenient in homework and grading and should not have a high temper. Jimmy Franks wants a teacher to be honest, truthful, and intelligent. Rita Colley says an ideal teacher should understand pupils and work hard to do his best. "Sweet and friendly," says Judy Appling of her ideal teacher. "Teachers should know that all students are not alike and everybody cannot be good at everything. They should plan their lessons accordingly," says Merle Nicholson, senior. Carolyn Porter does not want a teacher to bowl kids out every day because he doesn't feel well. Roll all these outstanding traits together and FHS would have the ultimate in teachers: Eyes—Miss Nelson; Hair—Mrs. Baker; Smile—Miss Swepston; Appearance—Mr. Lewis; Clothes—Coach Shields. Neatness—Mr. Whitaker; Ability—Mr. Colley; Energetic—Coach Tyler; Enthusiastic—Mr. Eudy; Sense of Humor—Mr. Cook; Intelligent—Mrs. Christensen; Patient—Mr. Barber. Courteous—Mrs. Patterson; Understanding—Mrs. Dalton; Dignified—Mr. Law; Ambitious—Mr. Hayes; Friendly—Mr. Adams; Kind—Miss Nelson. Poise—Mrs. Graves; Youthful—Mrs. Adams; and Personality—Coach Curry. Since Public School Week is coming up, the WHIRL staff would like to salute all FHS teachers and all Floydada teachers for the work they are doing.

New Junior Is From Tennessee

Coming to FHS from Harrison Claymore Baptist Academy in Seymour, Tennessee, is Larry Boyd, a new 15 year old junior. Playing on the basketball team and reporting for the school paper were his activities there. "The FHS students are very friendly. The school is modern and has more conveniences than Seymour," says Larry. Among his likes are subject, biology; food, bananas; movie stars, Marilyn Monroe and Jerry Lewis; colors, yellow and black. He also likes fiction books, Ford's, Continentals, "Hello Josephine." Larry dislikes Chevrolet's, unfriendly people, homework, television, babies that cry, and musical shows. Hobbies and pastimes include girls, television, girls, chemistry, cars, and girls. Larry takes plane geometry, English III, study hall, biology, Algebra II, and study hall. He resides at 205 Hallie Drive.

NEW ENCYCLOPEDIAS ARRIVE

A new set of encyclopedias have arrived on Feb. 14, according to Mrs. Helen Patterson, librarian. These new encyclopedias cost $140 and are the first complete set the library has ever had. The name of the book is the McGraw-Hill Encyclopedia of Science and Technology. They are an international reference work in fifteen volumes plus an index. These encyclopedias can be used for all the science and math classes. The books contain very beautiful colored pictures as well as articles.

Banquet Is Expensive Event Despite Borrowing, Renting

FHS believes in doing things dark skirts, and earmuffs, was up "big" and such was this year's Junior-Senior Banquet which cost $400. Most of the decorations and crystal were either borrowed or rented, however. Due to the heaters failing to operate and a door open to the North, the theme "Winter Wonderland" was carried out to the fullest extent. The walls were lined by snow banks and trees, frosted with snow. The main attractions were the real waterfall and the parachute "Clouds." A cottage was made around the office in the gym. Table decorations consisted of greenery, centerpieces made of greenery and china animals and snowmen holding place cards, which were written by Mrs. L. H. Christensen. Sophomore boys were dressed in ski sweaters, toboggans, and dark slacks; they seated the guests. Junior class officers received everyone at the entrance. Bonnie Helms began the program by singing "Winter Wonderland." Ricky Holland introduced the theme and welcomed the guests. Pat Ginn gave the response. Guest speaker for the evening was Rev. Paul Fullerton of the First Christian Church. Mr. I. T. Graves gave the invocation. The meal, served by Sophomore girls dressed in ski sweaters, who assisted.

Expect 150 To Attend Father-Son FFA Banquet Tonight At 7

One hundred and fifty are expected to attend the annual Father and Son Banquet that will be held in the high school cafeteria tonight at 7 p. m. The main highlight of the banquet will be a film, "Four Star Farmers." Chapter officers will first present the opening and closing ceremonies. The invocation will be given by Fred Thayer. Thirty-five Greenhand certificates and Chapter Farmer degrees will be presented. The menu will consist of ham, potatoes, English peas, tossed salad, peach cobbler, rolls, tea and coffee. Special guests will be the Floydada School Board, all male teachers, the Presidents of the Lions Club and Rotary Club, Homer Steen, Clay Henry, President of the Chamber of Commerce, and LaJuana Rimmer, Chapter Sweetheart. "A short program and much food are promised all those who attend," says Lloyd B. Cook, advisor.

High School Education Is Valued Highly

(By Mary Withers) My high school education has meant a lot to me. Its importance includes not only the knowledge which I have obtained but also other events and happenings which have filled these four years. Looking backward, I recall many experiences that I will always treasure. A great deal of credit goes to my friends, both students and teachers, who have helped to shape my life. All of the activities during these years have served to broaden my mind and prepare me for the future. Of course, the most tangible value of these years is the knowledge that I have acquired in my courses. This extends from learning the elements that make up the earth to the elements which make up a cake; from the facts of history to the facts of civics; and from the theories of science to the conjugations of verbs. Blended together, these are the results of four years of patient guidance of my teachers in FHS. I know that my high school education will be of benefit to me both vocationally and personally throughout my life.

FHS Pre-Register Period Indicated In 2nd Six Weeks

Pre-registration will probably begin after the second six weeks in this semester, according to Principal A. E. Baker. About 350 students are expected to pre-register. Junior high and rural schools will pre-register at junior high with the help of Principal A. W. Coltharp, Mr. Bob Copeland, and Mr. Baker. A group of students from Floydada High School plan to go to junior high and give speeches on the subjects that they may take so that they may better understand these subjects. Eighteen credits is still the number required to graduate in FHS. The only graduation requirement change is that no P. E. is required if you take four years of band. Schedules may be sent through the mail again, but that is not definite.

DUNN NAMED CITIZEN

Joe Dunn, sophomore, was elected Citizen of the Month of January. Other nominees were Jan Dempsey, Jay Holmes, Susan Simpson, Bruce Julian, Fred Thayer, Sherry Burns, Rodney Teague, and Mitchell Ableman.

SC PLANS SPRING PROJECTS

The death of Mrs. R. K. Rogers of Albuquerque, N. Mex., whose demise occurred Feb. 9th, took the wife of a former Floyd County boy, R. K. Rogers. R. K. was the son of the late Lee Rogers who lived in southwest Floyd County for a number of years. R. K. is also the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Cummings of Floydada.

E. Lemond (Dinty) Moore, 40 brother to Frank Moore of Floydada and who was a former resident of Floyd County, died in Austin last Saturday. He had resided in Amarillo for the past 14 years where he was a store keeper. Rites were conducted in Waco Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Crow are home from Joplin, Mo., where they were guests along with four other children of Mr. and Mrs. Herman L. Crow.

Mrs. Gilbert H. Shirey returned home Wednesday from New Orleans, La., where she spent last week with her husband, who is due to sail this mid-week. Sue Shirey remained in Floydada with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Newell while her mother was gone.

When two teen-age boys from Petersburg dug up a skeleton from a shallow grave on the Blanco Canyon in mid-January they turned their find over to authorities.

They had unearthed the bones of a 15 year old Indian maiden, who died in the vicinity, so say reports from the Texas Department of Public Safety from the Austin office. The report said the remains were possibly that of a Comanche Indian girl, who has been dead for not less than 100 years nor more than 300 years.

Me chase rabbits?

I should say not!

My home is cool in the summer and warm in the winter with electricity from the electric cooperative my master and mistress helped to organize. They borrowed money at interest and they built their own electric system. Now my blanket is washed in an electric washer, my bath water is heated electrically and even my bones taste better when the roast is cooked on an electric range. We still romp in the fields occasionally, but we do most of that romping now by the TV set.

Me Chase Rabbits? I'd as soon buy at the moon. Either way, I'd have to go outside and that kind of life is for the birds. Give me an all electric home everytime. It's a doggone good way to live.

BREAK THE GAS HABIT!

FALCON CAN GO UP TO 30 MILES ON ONE GALLON OF REGULAR GAS!

Falcon goes 4,000 miles between oil changes, too. Even parts, servicing, licensing and (in most states) insurance cost less. And as if that weren't enough, Falcon is America's lowest-priced 6-passenger car... as much as $505 less than other compacts! Economy never looked so good... or so luxurious. That low Falcon price includes chic upholstered interiors, handy coat hooks, arm rests, foam-padded front seat, sun visors... all at not a penny's extra cost! And Falcon is so dependable. Judging by the fan mail, Falcon owners are the happiest, most carefree group on wheels. They also have more to look forward to: recent automotive resale figures show Falcon brings from $138 to $175 more in trade than other compacts in its class! With so much more of what you buy a compact for, is it any wonder Falcon is America's best-selling compact?

Supporters called it a clean, popular sport to which Texas climate is ideally suited. And, they declared, a painless revenue raiser.

RE-CUTTING THE PIE — Two congressional re-districting bills have been introduced, one of which could cause anguish howls from the neighborhood of the Potomac.

Rep. Ben Lewis of Dallas has introduced a bill which gives Dallas County the extra congressman due Texas and leave other districts as they are.

Rep. Malcolm McGregor has introduced a bill which gives Dallas two congressmen and re-carves all the other districts.

McGregor's proposal is based strictly on population, with no thought to personalities or politics.

In some instances it would result in two congressmen being put in one district. Some districts would be enlarged, some reduced.

RAISE PROPOSAL AXED — County school superintendents are a touchy subject with the Legislature.

The 1961 spring look is the natural and at ease look with flaring hemlines echoing the early 1930's.

Necklines are boat shaped, slightly scooped or square.

Collars will be seen in fewer numbers.

The waistline of the new spring dresses is still undetermined.

Sleeves still have deep armholes but often dresses will be seen sleeveless both for daytime and evening wear.

Jacket lengths will vary from the hipline to mid thigh.

Watch your colors for this spring. They are similar to those that were worn in 1930 — the clear jade green, salmon, peacock, fuchsias and a soft range of pink.

You will find many interesting fabrics and one that is high fashioned is crepe that is printed in a geometric design.

In buying a dress, consider the color, style and fabric.

Before shopping for your new spring dress, you might like a copy of, Buying A Street Dress, visit of several days.
