20 Thousand Bales Open Cotton Waits For Strippers

ONE OF THE BEAUTY SPOTS in Floyd County last week was this five-acre tract of golden pumpkins in southwest Floydada owned by B. A. Robertson. The field is nearly empty now, what with truck loads of the fruit being moved out to cities as far away as Dallas. Many stayed in Floyd County, however, and some lucky youngsters are making plans for their Jack-O-Lanterns come Hal-owe'en. To make a Jack-O-lantern Mrs. Robertson says she uses green bell peppers for the ears and eyes on the larger pumpkin and the red Fresno pepper for the nose, or a carrot, all grown in Floyd County.

Floyd County has plenty of cotton open in the fields but the movement of the staple to gins is slow and sporadic, a fact which caused The Hesperian to make some query in search of reasons.

The reasons appear to be three-fold:

(1) In many fields of early cotton the farm operator has de-foliated and is waiting for the staple to get in prime condition for the harvest.

(2) A great deal of the cotton especially in the southwest part of the county is late and not ready for the harvest. It is still in the maturing stage.

(3) An estimated 30 per cent of the county's total cotton crop-land is under contract to buyers at a stated price, regardless of grade. In these instances there is little likelihood that the crop will move until it is ready for the stripper.

As of last Friday night the cotton reported ginned in the entire county was only 2,604 bales. In contrast on a comparative date in 1955 nearly 10,000 bales had been ginned and gin plants were running practically around the clock.

Last week-end the estimate of the Texas Employment Commission was that 20,000 bales of cotton are open in the fields. Other guesses ran up to 35,000 bales. The county agent, Cecil Lewis yesterday was not available for comment, being in Dallas in connection with his 4-H boys exhibits there at the fair.

Much to Be Machined

Probability is that, taking all factors into consideration, the crop in Floyd County will be 80 per cent machined this year, Texas Employment Commission believes. A good many farmers tell TEC representatives they will not put any hands in the field at all, except to pull the crop on the ends of the rows, to keep the stripper from wasting the staple.

The price-cost is the major factor in this attitude of the cotton grower, it appears. As hand pulling grows progressively sloppier the price received for a stripped bale and a pulled bale is getting closer and closer whereas harvesting by machinery is a much less expensive operation.

Meanwhile the unusual fact that compress warehouses are all sold out and big empty spaces at the warehouses yawn at prospective cotton buyers. This may be part of the reason for the large amount of advance contracting that has been taking place.

Rumors over the week-end are that a new wave of contracting on the eve of the harvest season may get under way.

The cotton that has been coming to the gins apparently is from fields of operators who are following their usual custom of getting the cotton while they can, taking no chances on the kind of weather that may visit the area during the fall.

Whirlwinds Take on Tough Mules In Game Away From Home Friday

The Floydada Whirlwinds and their followers will make the long drive to Muleshoe Friday night for the second district 2AA outing. The undefeated "Winds" will face the most experienced team on their entire schedule in the Muleshoe Mules.

The Mules returned practically all of their team from a year ago. They have nine regulars and the club is loaded with lettermen some 17 of whom are seniors.

Muleshoe was expected to burn up the gridiron this fall, but their rough schedule got them off to early losses to Clovis, Littlefield, and Dimmitt. Since that time they have come back to defeat Friona but last week lost again to a fair Olton team.

Coach Bill Taylor's Mules are big and they are tough. They were barely nosed out here last year by the Whirlwinds and this year they will be playing in their home corral.

Can Use Power Plays

The Mules favor the straight T formation but run others. They have a fair passing attack. With a big line and heavy backs they can throw the power plays at either side or down the middle.

Scouting reports show their usual starting line-up to be Mike Cabera, 170, and David Roberts, 156 at ends; Jerry Howard, 190, and Jerry Wright, 192, at tackles; Wayne Malone, 170, and Stacy Lackey, 165, at guards; Bob White, 190, at center.

In the backfield the Mules run Gary Pierce, 170, at full; Jim Young, 173, and Travis Bessire, 160 at halves; and Ken Heathington, 150, at quarterback.

Gerald White is a 175-pound alternate guard, Larry Lumpkin a 172-pound end, Bill Gilbreath an alternate halfback at 155 and Travis Cramer a defensive half at 155. Alvin Reasoner is a 207 pound defensive tackle for the big black clad Muleshoe team.

Early Tuesday Coaches Tyer and Curry had reported no serious injuries on the Whirlwind team, though they had some minor injuries, slowing several of the starters.

Unless changes are made before game time the line-up for Floydada will be much the same with Lindsey and Switzer at ends, Dunn and Julian at tackles, Campbell and Rucker at guards, Barrow at center.

In the backfield Teague is slated for quarterback, Christian and Barnhart at halves and Hernandez at full.

James McKinney and Jimmy Stewart will see duty on defense as will Franks, Bellah, Watts, Rainer and several of the boys who specialize in the stop'em department.

The Floydada coaches rate

Junior Class sends word that a spaghetti supper will be served at the high school cafeteria before the football game Friday night from 5:30 to 7:30 o'clock, and they are hoping to have many from Floydada eat with them.

Prices will be 75 cents for the secretary of the Muleshoe children and $1.25 for adults.

Progress Upward Noted in County

(Special to the Hesperian)

NEW YORK, Oct. 9 - Floyd County has been experiencing a different kind of inflation, one that doesn't involve money.

It's a lengthwise inflation-in people, that is. Locally, the young people of the present generation are growing taller than their parents did and very much taller than their grandparents.

The height of the fully-grown man is now almost 5'-10", which is about an inch above that reached by his father and nearly two inches over the height attained by his grandfather.

A mere head count of Floyd County's population, as was made last year, shows a 167 percent increase over 1910, when grandfather was in his heyday. The total then was 4,638.

That, however, refers only to change in number of people since that time.

If, in addition, change in stature were taken into account, and comparison were made on the basis of the 5'-7 1/2" men, the 5'-2" women and the relatively small-size children of the 1910 era, today's population would really be 399 greater-quantitatively.

Would Span 12.1 Miles

With respect to Floyd County's present population and its height, a quick calculation reveals that if all the local people were placed along a straight line, head to foot, they would span a distance of 12.1 miles.

By comparison, the 1910 population would have extended only 4.4 miles.

To adjust for the changes that have been taking place, manufacturers are making beds longer than they used to, theatre seats wider, and clothing and shoes larger.

What's responsible for the general up-rising? Better nutrition, significant advances in medicine and public health and higher standards in living, say the experts.

Good progress skyward has also been made by the women. They are now pushing beyond 5'-4", thus topping their grandmother by a good 1 1/2".

Similarly, a comparison shows that children, at every age level, are taller than those of any previous generation.

The sources of these findings are studies and reports by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, the Society of Actuaries and the National Geographic Society. The national averages are assumed to apply locally.

Represent City In Conventions

City of Floydada had a representative from its water department at the American Water Works Association convention this week in the person of water superintendent Chas. E. Horton. The convention closed yesterday at San Antonio.

Another authorized trip to attend a convention for the city is authorized for Oct. 29-30 and 31. J. D. Parks and Wm. A. Feuerbacher are scheduled to make this trip unless hindered by circumstances. This event, also slated to be held in San Antonio, will be a gathering of the Texas Municipal League.

Grady Parker Has Brain Hemorrhage

Grady Parker, Floydada furniture dealer, who has been in failing health for over a year, is once more in the hospital suffering from a brain hemorrhage which struck him last week on Tuesday. Mr. Parker was taken to Plainview Hospital then transferred to Methodist Hospital Saturday. His condition at present remains about the same.

Visiting with the ill man from out of town during his confinement have been a nephew, Sterling Parker of Snyder and an aunt, Mrs. John Parker of Abilene.

DR. CRAIG HOME

Dr. Charles Craig, who attended the National Dental Society convention in Philadelphia, Pa., has returned home. The sessions of the organization opened Friday of last week. He reached Floydada yesterday.

Salvation Army To Ask $2,200 For Local Funds

Campaign for funds for the Salvation Army gets underway Tuesday of next week. A break-fast kick off meeting at which members of the local unit and campaigners are expected to be present, will be held at 7 o'clock at the Colonial House.

Louis Anderson, named campaign chairman for the year, has an organization that he thinks will function in fine fashion and he hopes to get the drive completed with little loss of time.

Also he anticipates the response is going to be good and that the quota of $2,200 will be reached. He has 40 persons pledged to help with the campaign in the City, and 12 in other communities of the county.

All of these workers are urged to attend the breakfast and get campaign instructions and material.

Officials of the Salvation Army report that the state unit has scratched bottom in the effort to help out in the Hurricane Carla disaster. The initial expense of the effort was great and Salvation Army is still in the area helping out until normalcy can be restored.

Many Are Given Help

In addition to the help the Salvation Army has given in a statewide effort, more than a thousand persons have been given some assistance by the local unit this year, a check up by the committee.

Sugar Beet Men Meeting Tuesday Night, Oct. 24

A complete report today on the activities of the Floyd County Sugar Beet Growers Association, together with the election of officers for another year, will be on the agenda for the Tuesday night Oct. 24 meeting of the organization here.

R. F. Stovall, president, sent out notices of the meeting this week by mail.

The plan is to meet at the high school auditorium at 7:30 o'clock. Coffee and doughnuts will be served to open the meeting.

The money raised for the sugar beet organization has been spent principally in organization matters and particularly on the effort to get favorable action in Congress for sugar beet acreage in the high plains area. Today the effort has been successful in a measure, but not to the extent of getting a new Sugar Law, which is the goal of the organization.

Davis Wins Club Golf Tournament

C. L. Davis won the Floydada Country Club golf tournament for members when it came to a climax last week-end. He took his match in the championship flight with Skinny Winn, one up on the 19th hole.

Also in the championship flight Aaron C. Carthel won consolation when he bested Bill DuBois two and one.

Fifty-six players in seven flights took part in the tourney, for which matches were bracketed in September, and progressed in leisurely manner, as the opponents had time, during the first two weeks in October.

Results in the six other flights were as follows:

First flight: Gerald Collier, one up over Jack Stansell, 4 and 3. Gary Carthel consolation winner over Ellis Henry, one up.

Second flight: Back Hickerson over Floyd Boren, one up. Consolation winner Russell King over J. B. Smitherman, one up.

Flight winners were awarded choice of $30 in merchandise or trophy, runners up $20 in merchandise or trophy. Consolation winners were awarded $10 in merchandise or trophy.

THREE MEN IN A TUB

SALES TAX REPORTING TIME

Almost October 31 and tax reporting time for retailers of Texas. One thing about being a retailer, he must really feel his importance to his state...

LITTLE ONES PAY THE BILL

This feeling of importance may well be tempered, however, by the thought that the new law has cost business, the little concerns, at least, more dollars than they will remit to the state.

DISEASED COTTON GROUND

The last year or two disease in the ground has made an occasional spot in cotton fields of the county. Likewise, a new insect that works on late maize has come to the fore in the last two seasons.

AMMONIA WILL BURN YOU

Ammonia, like gasoline, is a wonderful servant, a deadly master. Using liquid ammonia to fertilize ground seems to be a good practice.

COTTON BEGINNING TO MOVE

Cotton from Floyd County fields had begun to move in considerable volume Monday of this week, the first week that an appreciable showing has been made in the huge harvest.

INVITATION TO A CONFERENCE

The State Department and the United Nations Association are planning to make a presentation to a big group of rural newspaper men and library managers in Dallas this month-end.

Invitation received at The Hesperian office set Oct. 27 as the date. Newspaper reports say that 3,500 such invitations went out from Washington over the signature of Chester Bowles.

The wonderful thing about new born babies is not their performance but their promise. Performance is generally poor and quite erratic.

If you plan to see the Prison Rodeo this October, keep in mind that Sunday, Oct. 22 and Sunday, Oct. 29, are the last two days of the big event.

The Weather. Please note that by keeping a stiff upper lip and as well keeping the right thought, the frost has been delayed through the middle of October for these old boys with tomatoes to sell and with late cotton that needs to mature.

Preston Smith. A good, solid business man, and a good legislator is Preston Smith, the Lubbock man who is offering for lieutenant governor of Texas in an announcement he is making this week.

Look Out. Many hundreds of automobiles, new and used, were damaged in Hurricane Carla in the coastal counties. These cars, many of them, are likely to get into the hands of unscrupulous persons who will be tempted to make a fast buck by passing them on to high plains people at "bargain prices."

Very Special. The average newspaperman in the run of a year blue pencils enough "verys" and "specials" to fill a barrel. A report is not just interesting it is "very" interesting.

Says Rhoda Frindell in Hometown News Service:

Autumn's finally in the air again, and to that say halelujah! For a while it seemed as if there was nothing in this world but heat waves and hurricanes.

That with expenses what they are today, people who save for a rainy day can only hope it will be a very light shower.

That one woman recently scribbled "atomic" in the age blank of her employment application.

The school of experience would be more pleasant if there were a vacation once in a while.

Level of Living

A family's level of living is more than the sum of money used for goods and services in any one year. It includes the use made of the house, furnishings and equipment accumulated over the past years. The foods produced, clothing made, gifts received, all influence the real quality of family living. Families whose members have much ingenuity, knowledge, skill, interest and the will to do can experience a high level of living in spite of a low income.

Laundering Elastic

One of the most frequent questions about care of clothing is how to launder elastic fabrics so they will not lose their elasticity. Homemakers often have been advised to hand-wash such garments in a cold or lukewarm soap solution and then dry them away from direct heat. But such directions often are impractical when the family washing includes men's undershorts and children's slacks which have elastic webbing or braids for waistline fits. Regular laundering is needed for all of the garments except that small line of elastic fabric. A study was made recently of the effect of type of detergent washing temperature and type of drying (air versus automatic tumbler) on elastic fabrics. Both elastic braids and knitted elastic fabrics used in foundation garments were tested.

MRS. LON SMITH

Life Membership Voted Mrs. Lon Smith By DFWC

Washing Temperature

Washing rubber-based elastic braids and knitted nets 40 times in an automatic washer at temperatures of 70, 100, or 135 degrees F., using any of 24 soaps and synthetic detergents from a supermarket, caused no damage when clean Terry cloth towels were washed along with the elastic garments as a "buffer". However, when soiled sheets and pillowcases were used instead of the towels many of the braids lost their elasticity. Nylon braids were damaged more than rayon braids, probably because nylon attracted more oil from the soiled laundry. The foundation garments of elastic nets showed only a slight loss of elasticity.

Soaps Vs. Detergent

Less elasticity was lost in laundering with soaps than with general-purpose synthetic (those for regular laundering). Soaps also proved better in saving elasticity than the special detergent products sold for washing elastic fabrics. Soap has better oil-suspending power.

Air-dried Vs. Tumble Dried

When mediums were tumble-dried at the medium heat or "wash and wear" setting on the dryer, they didn't lose as much elasticity as when they were simply left to dry in the air. Elastic fabrics containing rubber should never be dried in sunlight.

Spandex Elastic

New garments containing a spandex (synthetic) fiber were not damaged by any laundering method tested.

Home Demonstration Council Meeting

The regular Home Demonstration Council meeting will be held this Friday, October 20, at 2 p.m. This will be the annual meeting of the council with annual reports given and officers elected for next year.

Annual reports will be given by the council officers: Mrs. G. W. Smith, Chairman; Mrs. Lynn Miller, vice-chairman and Mrs. Sam Jones, Secretary Treasurer. Also by the council committee chairman: Finance, Mrs. Truman Dunavant; Yearbook, Mrs. Arlon Miller; Citizenship, Mrs. O. L. Lowrance; Consumer Education, Mrs. W. W. Trapp; Education-Expansion Exhibit, Mrs. W. D. Nance; Civil Defense, Health and Safety, Mrs. Howe Hines; 4-H Leader, Mrs. Bob Hopper; Recreation, Mrs. Lynn Miller; reporters, Mrs. Allan Gross, and Mrs. Henry Bollman and Parliamentarian, Mrs. Elmer Norrell.

Committee Reviews PTA Carnival Plans

Mrs. J. W. Day Jr., prize chairman, and Mrs. David Lewis of the cafeteria committee for the annual PTA Carnival, met Friday with their helpers for a coffee and to discuss their plans for the coming event.

The Carnival is to be held on Halloween night the 31st with fun for all, and plenty to eat. It was decided at the coffee that first and second graders would be asked to bring either two pies or a cake, and the third, fourth and fifth graders would bring 50 cents each to cover additional expenses.

The cafeteria committee plans to serve chili, hot dogs, pies and cakes and cold drinks during the evening.

This is a PTA sponsored event and their only money making project for the year.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Tribble and Mary Pearl Coward were in Lubbock over the weekend with the Tribble's daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fisher.

FHS School Chums Enjoy Reunion At Muncy Home

A reunion of school chums of Floydada High and a luncheon was held Saturday in the home of Mrs. Norman Muncy. The assembled group enjoyed talking and re-remembering friendships and looking at school pictures.

Attending the gathering were Pat Rogers, Seminole, Estelle Tanner, Idalou, Peggy Tunnel, Amarillo; Clarie Hale, Adrain; Mary Shurbet, Stephenville; Ann Bean, Katy Conner, Ploy Bishop, Elaine Reid, Loene Nelson, Nancy Hagood and the hostess, Edith Muncy all of Floydada.

We can measure ourselves as persons by what we choose as status symbols. If the things we simply must have are more meaningful than those we longed for ten years ago, we may take hope. On the other hand, if they're more superficial, we'd better get back to the crossroad. We are off on a detour.

Usually none but those who love us dearly know what is actually important to us. It's likely to be only a step up from what we already have: a club we would like to belong to, an automobile in the next price bracket, success for our children.

Sometimes this has to do with age. Many college girls, for example, tint their hair with silver. Instead of enjoying their youth and natural beauty, they strive for the sophisticated look of their mothers, thinking it will give them poise and confidence. In ten years, they will probably find this very funny.

If we can look back on old yearnings and laugh at how unimportant they now seem, we're maturing gracefully. If "making" a certain set was a dream of twenty years ago, followed by wanting to be known as a nice person by every set; if being interested in book clubs was followed by wanting to be well-read, or a good writer; if enthusiasm for club work was followed by an earnest desire to be a responsible citizen - then we've read the markers correctly.

In one way or another, we're all status seekers. Call it ambition, friendly competition with our neighbors, or downright envy of others - call it what you will, but we've got it. The measure of its madness is in the signs we notice, and take heed of, on the road to wherever we're going.

Mrs. Dessie Denison and her mother, Mrs. W. E. Walker, were in Hereford over the weekend where they visited Mrs. Walker's niece and her family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Whitaker of Smyer and Peggy McKinney of Plainview were in Floydada during the weekend to visit their father, J. J. McKinney and other relatives.

SOUTH PLAINS, Oct. 16 — Many of the cotton fields were defoliated here the past week, and farmers are also hoping to get combines into grain fields this coming week while the fine fall weather continues.

We extend our sympathy to all the Burks family in their hour of sorrow.

Civil Defense

Many people are interested in Civil Defense at the present time. We will have available during the week of October 23 through October 27 some very excellent films for showing to any interested groups or communities. The two films are "Fallout and Agriculture" and "Rescue Breathing". They are very informative and answer many questions.

South Plains community has scheduled these films for Monday night, October 23, 1961. If interested persons would contact the County Agent's office we would be glad to set up a program with these films for you.

Harvesting Quality Cotton

The cotton harvest is now under way and will probably hit its peak 10 to 14 days after killing frost. This always means a shortage of trailers and crowded gin yards. It's natural for farmers in this area due to unforeseen weather conditions to get their cotton out just as soon as possible. However, if a farmer gets in too big a rush harvesting his cotton, he can easily reduce both yield and quality cotton.

1. Do not use a defoliant until at least 60 per cent of the cotton is open. Wait until at least 80 per cent of the cotton is open before using a desiccant.

2. Provide ample space for each bale of cotton. This means 325 to 440 cubic feet of trailer space per bale of stripped harvested cotton. Do not tramp and pack cotton into the trailer. Even the most elaborate and expensive ginning systems cannot remove all of the small "pin and pepper" trash that is ground into seed cotton. Tramping and packing cotton into trailers can easily cost you $10.00 more per bale on grade.

3. Wait at least 10 days to 2 weeks after a killing frost on applying a desiccant before harvesting. This will give the leaves and leaf stalks sufficient time to dry up. Green leaves on leaf stalks will stain the cotton and reduce the grade.

4. Keep trailer and stripper clean; excess grease and dirt will also lower the grade.

BOYS HAVE BIG DOUGHNUT SALE

Floydada football boys had a big doughnut sale Saturday when they made deliveries of more than 250 dozen hot doughnuts over town during the morning hours. The coaches' wives and some of the mothers were pressed into service in the cooking department as the sale ballooned into a project almost too big for the workers.

Report this week was that more than 300 dozen doughnuts could have been sold but the crew gave out about noon Saturday after a session that started at 5:00 in the morning. It is believed the project will net the boys some $175 to $180.

The footballers have been washing cars and working on other projects to try and earn enough money for an outing at the close of the football season.

The thanks of all has been expressed for the fine response the public has given their projects.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Vern Sanford

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Year-round college for the Attorney General's office realistic election result from study by the Legislature's Council.

Legislation to be considered during the session of the Legislature for the lawmakers' consideration.

WATER POLLUTION — Governor Daniel will soon name the members of the new State Water Pollution Control Board. This new agency will operate to some extent as a branch of the State Health Department, in that its executive secretary and only full-time official will be the Health Department director of water pollution control.

Many areas of Texas are having water pollution problems, and those who sought help in Austin went to four or five offices without finding much response.

So legislators set up a new agency, but did not give it any operation money. It authorized Governor Daniel and the Health Department to allocate part of their appropriations, if they can spare it, to the new agency.

Daniel will ask this winter's special session of the Legislature to make some improvements in the law and to provide some cash for the agency to begin a real attack on water pollution.

After November 7, no one can discharge any kind of waste into the waters of Texas without a permit from this board.

SALES TAX TIME—Merchants who have been collecting the new state sales tax will make their first payments to the state October 31, covering collections for September.

Payments will then go on a quarterly basis. Collecting stores get to keep one per cent. If they make estimates and pay in advance for each quarter, they can take a three per cent discount. Advance payments on the fourth quarter of 1961 will be due by November 15.

Comptroller Bob Calvert issued some more interpretations of the new law. If you pay the sales tax to the state on credit sales, and then charge them off as bad debts, you can deduct the tax on the tax return for the quarter in which you gave up on collecting.

Unless seller keeps books to show clearly what part of a credit sale is for the item, and what part is for interest, carrying charges and insurance, he must collect the tax on the whole price of the sale.

Shirt boards and clothing bags are exempt from the sales tax when bought by a clothing store for selling new goods. But laundries buying the same items would have to pay the sales tax on them.

A bottler would pay the sales tax on soda pop bottles when he buys them from the factory. But when you put up a deposit on returnable bottles at the corner store, there's no sales tax on bottles.

PAPERBACKS — Students in 110 classrooms in Texas will be using some paperback school books in January.

Legislators, looking for ways to save money, told the State Board of Education to test out paperback school books and report back by 1963 on whether tax money can be saved.

The board will adopt new books at its meeting November 13. It will vote on 27 books recommended by a teachers textbook committee. Protests have been made by Rancher-Writer J. E. Hales of Canyon, speaking for the Texans for America organization.

TAX ATTACKED — Three gas pipeline companies brought suit in Austin to try to knock out the new tax on production of gas under dedicated-reserve contracts.

This is merely a token tax, designed to find out whether this new approach to the taxing of natural gas is constitutional. Suit was expected.

Two previous efforts to levy an additional tax on gas have been knocked out by the courts. Rep. Robert C. Eckhardt, Houston, devised this new method and believes it is valid despite some amendments he opposed on the ground that they would weaken the chance of standing up in court.

MORE G. I. LOANS—Veterans Land Board advertised for bids for $25,000,000 more in State bonds to expand the program of farm and ranch loans to Texas veterans.

Step up in the program was announced by Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler, who said "Tracts will be subdivided for sale to GIs will be appraised before the owner has surveys made."

LAST WORD — Some 7,700

LIKE BIG RADISHES? Here is a one and one-fourth pound giant winter radish grown by Bill Goss who lives at 501 East Tennessee Street. He says it is of the white icicle variety and is good eating, not at all pithy. The radish measures 12 inches from tip of root to where top starts and 28 inches including the top. Goss started gardening in Oklahoma before moving here in 1953. Now it is just a hobby but he still likes to have a few tomatoes, peppers, turnips, peas, beans, canteloupes, cucumbers and some okra.

He is employed with Russell's Blacksmith Shop in Floydada.

Texans got checks from State Insurance Liquidator C. H. Langdeau which brought to 39 per cent their recovery from the bankrupt U. S. Trust and Guaranty Company. This was the big insurance, investment and automobile sales firm which collapsed in 1955.

Langdeau has almost liquidated all the assets, but has pending a lawsuit in which he and Mrs. A. B. Shoemaker, wife of the president of the firm, are arguing as to whether a large Waco residence is her homestead or the company's.

So a proposition was made to the 9,000 creditors and claimants — settle for another two per cent, and charge off the rest of your loss on your 1961 income tax return. Or, if you choose, Lang and perhaps get a little more if the state wins the lawsuit.

In all, 7,700 took the two per cent, but 1,300 said they would wait and see.

As it stands now, Langdeau found $7,100,000 worth of debts and deposits in U. S. Trust and Guaranty Company. He was able to scrape together only $2,800,000 to pay on the claims.

DIGGINGS PLANNED — Archaeologists from the University of Texas will dig for Indian relics in seven parts of Texas which are soon to be covered with water.

National Park Service is advancing $60,000 to finance the searches. Seven areas to be mined for remains of Indian cultures are those to be covered by Sanford Reservoir on the Canadian, Amistad on the Rio Grande, McGee Bend on the Angelina, Navarro Mills on Richland Creek near Corsicana, Columbus Bend near Columbus on the Colorado, Livingston on the lower Trinity and Toledo Bend on the Sabine.

FOURTH TERM — Political newsmaker-of-the-week was Atty. Gen. Will Wilson. He walked into the State Democratic Executive Committee meeting to charge that Governor Daniel had made a deal with Sec. of Navy John Connally of Fort Worth by which Daniel would support Connally for governor and would himself run for lieutenant governor.

Wilson challenged Daniel to run for a fourth term (against Wilson), rather than to support Connally for the place "when he has barely got his seat warm in Washington."

Connally, in Texas making a speech, said he had no comment, that he had "quit reading fairy tales a long time ago."

Daniel said any fair-minded person "who reads the entire statement is bound to know it is false and a concoction of his imagination."

CANDIDACY ANNOUNCED — Texas got the first announced candidate for the Democratic primary next May 5. He is a young West Texan who has set out to be a giant-killer.

Keith Wheatley, 28, of Stamford, announced as a candidate against Railroad Commissioner Ben Ramsey for the remaining two years of the late Commissioner Olin Culberson's term.

Wheatley, an independent oil operator and son of State Rep. J. C. Wheatley of Haskell, said the little men in the Texas oil business are being starved out by the Railroad Commission's proration policies.

SHORT SNORTS

Gov. Price Daniel designated this week (October 15-21) as Newspaper Week in Texas. He urged citizens to consider the contributions a free press makes to American democracy.

A total of 2,667 new jobs were created in Texas in August by the opening of new businesses. With 24 new manufacturing firms, 343 new jobs were opened in that category. Retail trade accounted for 1,792 new employees in 76 new firms.

Governor Daniel reappointed H. H. Coffield of Rockdale to a third term and Morris Roberts Victoria publisher, to a second term on the State Board of Corrections. Leland Kee, Angleton attorney, was named to a six year term to replace Warren Bellows, Houston. This board runs the big and growing prison system.

Played Part In Win

Whirlwinds took straight Floyd County football Friday night and clobbered the Longhorns 35-8. The score indicated, the Whirlwinds led the game from the start. At one point the green and white had to overcome a penalty to keep the drive going. Teague's kick was good and Floydada led 7-0.

As Lockney moved down field to the margin of difference as this eighty yard drive Floydada rushing yardage for the Longhorns and Whirlwinds was almost identical. Opening the game Floydada kicked off and Mosley took the boot on his 18 returning to the 27. Lockney made short yardage to the 37 where Barnhart recovered a fumble for the locals. The Whirlwinds called on Christian, Barnhart, Hernandez and Teague to carry the ball and it was finally Teague who went in from the two to score. At one point the green and white had to overcome a penalty to keep the drive going. Teague's kick was good and Floydada led 7-0.

The Whirlwinds got on the score board one more time before the intermission and this came following a pass interception by Charles Christian on the Whirlwind 15. The Floydada speedster ran the ball out to his 41 before being downed and almost got into the clear with the stolen ball. Winks Go Out In Front A Teague to Christian pass put the Winks in business on the Longhorn 30. Then Teague kept the ball and went the remaining distance to score. A pass Teague to Lindsey worked for the two point conversion and Floydada went out in front 15-3. Just before the half Floydada pulled an on sides kick which Frank Barrow took at the Lockney 43. The Winks had driven in to the Longhorn 18 when time ran out.

District 2AA Has Fireworks

Of the three district 2AA games played on opening night of loop competition only one winner was favored at game time. Floydada downed Lockney as pre-season dopsters had guessed, but Abernathy with no wins rose to knock off undefeated Olton, and slightly regarded Olton did the same thing to a loaded Muleshoe team. As it now stands Floydada (one of the favorites), and underdogs Olton and Abernathy all have clean district slates while the other three clubs, Lockney, Morton and Muleshoe have one defeat on their records. This Friday a lot more light will be shed on the district outlook when Floydada goes to Muleshoe, Lockney goes to Abernathy and Morton goes to Olton on the second Friday of district competition.

No Scoring In Fourth

The fourth period saw a lot of action but no scoring as the Whirlwinds played mainly with reserves. Jimmy Stewart intercepted one Longhorn aerial and the spunky second unit moved for a time with Vernie Moore guiding the attack. The drive ran out of gas on the Lockney 20 and that was as close as either team came to scoring in the period.

Outstanding in the Lockney defense were Donnie Hanst and Ronnie Belt who were in on a large percentage of play. Floydada linemen played well especially in the second half, but individual numbers were hard to pick up as tackles usually resulted in quite a pile-up near the line of scrimmage. Joe Lee Dunn, James McKinney, Jimmy Stewart saw a lot of spirited action for the green and white up front, but the victory could best be labeled as a great team effort.

Watts Intercepts Pass

Lockney's next efforts at offense were throttled and it was Lindsey, Franks and Julian who were in on some of the key stops. Tommie Watts intercepted a Lockney pass on the Longhorn 45 and ran it to the 19 before being downed. Christian made 5, Teague 5, Hernandez made one and it was first on the 94 yard line. Teague made 1 and then 6 and a Whirlwind runner was stopped short before Teague passed to Don Switzer in the end zone for the score. Teague's conversion kick was good and the score rose to 23-8.

Clern Zavala received the Floydada

kickoff on his 2 and ran it back to his 20 where he was downed by Barnhart. The Longhorns soon took to the air and this time it was Rodney Teague who intercepted with a diving catch at the Longhorn 38. The

Final Reunion Of Seth Ward Exes Oct. 21

Plainview — Come October 21 the curtain will be rung down on the series of reunions of students of historic Seth Ward College, and its predecessor, Central Plains College. The last reunion was eight years ago.

Again at Plainview, ex-students, any living faculty members, and patrons hope to hold a final reunion.

It was 45 years ago that the college closed its doors, following two devastating fires. Its records and assets became a part of Stamford College, and with it, of McMurry College at Abilene, all of which were sponsored by the Methodist Church of the area.

The reunion will start at the Hotel Hilton and will continue informally until the dinner at 7:00 P.M.

The former Lula Belle building of Canyon sparked the final round-up. "Can't we have just one more reunion" she asked.

With Franklin Blockson of Plainview as Chairman, Beulah Daensing as vice-chairman, the exes started digging up invitation lists, and have discussed the last round-up at three meetings.

Paul Bryan, Plainview City Clerk, assisting in publicity learns that attendance is indicated from a number of towns of the West Texas area.

9 Reasons Why You Should Choose A Carrier Heating and Cooling Specialist

Heating and cooling equipment is a major purchase—and the man who installs your system plays a major part in making it a good investment. He must combine many skills: he must select the right equipment, arrange it efficiently, install it properly, and adjust it for economical operation. And over the years, he must provide prompt, competent service. How can you be sure that your dealer can do all these things? You should look for a heating and cooling specialist, a man who can offer you these advantages:

- 1. Training. He should be factory trained to select the right equipment for you, and to lay out your system efficiently. Carrier representatives are thoroughly educated in heating and cooling application engineering.
- 2. Installation Skill. You are sure of a workmanlike installation, following all proved practices, when a Carrier representative installs your system. Every Carrier dealer receives extensive installation training.
- 3. Quality Products. Your dealer can be no better than the equipment he sells—and your Carrier dealer's products are known for performance, quality and long life. Carrier is the First Name in Air Conditioning and sets the pace for the industry.
- 4. Low Operating Cost. You get far more heating and cooling per dollar from a Carrier system because Carrier designs units for maximum efficiency and operating economy.
- 5. Wide Selection of Equipment. Your heating and cooling specialist should have available a wide choice of equipment to fit all needs, both as to type of product and capacity. Carrier makes available to its dealers the widest range of equipment—from small room units to systems for the largest buildings.
- 6. Quick Delivery. To keep your system operating properly, your dealer needs a local source of service parts and equipment. Air Equipment, Inc., Carrier distributor in Amarillo and Lubbock, maintains a large product inventory, and a complete stock of service parts.
- 7. Prompt Service. Carrier heating and cooling specialists provide prompt and efficient service at all times. Factory training keeps Carrier representatives up-to-the-minute on new models and service procedures.
- 8. Proved Installations. Your Carrier heating and cooling specialist can show you a wide variety of successful installations, to illustrate his ability. There is more Carrier Air Conditioning operating in the Panhandle West Texas-Eastern New Mexico area than any other make!
- 9. Dependability. Your dealer should be an experienced and successful businessman. You should be sure he will remain in business through the years, as Carrier dealers do, to take care of your future heating and cooling needs.

Kitchen and Field

from Lighthouse Electric Cooperative, Inc., by Nancy Morckel Home Economist

Electric House Heating According to an industry estimate, there are over 600,000 homes now using electricity as the primary source of heating. Electric heating installations have increased by 50 per cent every year since 1955. By 1962 the industry hopes to have 15 per cent of all houses started heated by electricity.

There are a number of reasons for this growing optimism, and for an increasingly vigorous promotion of electric heat. In a house with year-round air conditioning, for example, the air is changed periodically, cleaned and filtered, moistened or dried, heated and cooled. Heating is the only one of these functions which is ever performed other than electrically.

Then, too, as air conditioning has become more popular, utilities even as far north as Chicago are experiencing peak loads in the summer, which require extra generating equipment. This extra equipment will not be profitable unless some winter load, such as electric heating, increases to balance the summer peaks. Many utilities, therefore, are giving special rates for electric heating and at 1 to 1 1/4 cents per kilowatt hour, electric heat is competitive with other fuels.

Also home owners are finding that many types of electric heating equipment cost less to install and take up less space than do the furnaces, fuel storage tanks or bins, ductwork, chimney, etc., required with other fuels. They like the cleanliness, safety, and quietness of electric heating equipment. Electric heating equipment, for the most part, requires little or no maintenance and repair.

Most electric heating systems permit individual room controls, so that the temperature of each room can be regulated with regard to optimum comfort and economy. With some heating systems, the heating units are completely concealed or so inconspicuous that furniture arrangement is never limited.

"To protect themselves from such losses, automobile purchasers should beware of suspicious bargains, and should buy their automobiles only from well known established dealers in their own communities," Pittman stressed. "No legitimate dealer would handle such a sale. This same type of unscrupulous activity cost many hard working families their life savings when they purchased automobiles brought in from Louisiana after Hurricane Audrey," he added.
