Council Sets Up Plans In Budget

Proposed budget of the City of Floydada, by the city council proposes for the city to "live" year of April 1 to March 31, 1963, reveals two items, (1) that the community has grown beyond when casual attention to its business affairs be handled in a casual manner, and (2) that the services which the city has been furnishing to the tax payers are priced too low.

create the wrong impression of the services being a drastic upward higher charges, but all together have kept the constant need for more money to operate.

The latter had a field in the Sept. 29 hail storm, where a lot of bolls opened up during the warm February days. Guest said the demand for BG cotton has been good, making a profitable salvage operation for the customer.

Cancer Society Sets Up Room At Hospital

Materials and workers are needed by the Floyd County Cancer Society, according to Mrs. Carick Snodgrass, service chairman for the local chapter.

A permanent service room is now open in People's Hospital, and workers are needed to roll bandages and distribute materials. Club women are urged to make this a project, and Mrs. Snodgrass says that the materials and cellulocotton will be furnished. Work can be done in the service room or at home. The work is not hard but needs are great.

The service committee has its purpose to maintain a gift closet to provide dressings and sick room equipment for cancer patients, and give comforts under the doctors' guidance both quickly and efficiently.

The following materials are needed: washed, worn soft cotton or linen materials, white or pastel sheets, birdseye or cotton flannel, worn turkish towels, and knit underwear to make dressings; also pajamas, gowns or pillowcases and worn white shirts to make johnnycoats.

Contributors are asked to bring these materials to People's Hospital, the Nurse's Offices at Andrews Ward or Junior High, the home of Mrs. Clay Henry, or call Mrs. Snodgrass at YU 3-3059.

Services available at the service room now are hospital beds and mattresses, wheel chairs, dressings of several sizes, rolled bandages, pillows, sheets, alcohol and many other items.

Films can be used for programs calling Mrs. Sammy Hale, and informative booklets can be obtained at the service room.

That night, however, the thermometer went steadily down to 34 degrees, the lowest nighttime reading for the week. On Wednesday, the needle was pointing up again, with winds and dust absent.

Commits Theft, Gets Caught, Arraigned, Jailed In 2 Hours

A youthful Floydada Negro May solved the crime quickly. Saturday set a fast record getting a matching foot print furnished the patrol that broke the case. L. C. THE HONORABLE EMORY E. JACOBS

ASC Administrator To Outline 1963 Policies At Big Fish Fry

LOCKNEY — Emory E. (Red) Jacobs, deputy administrator of the U. S. Department of Agriculture's agricultural stabilization and conservation program, will discuss the 1963 national farm program in a speech at the American Legion Home in Lockney on Monday night, March 26th. Mr. Jacobs's talk is expected to be highly informative and ASC committees, as well as farmers, from over the entire area are planning to be present.

The affair is being arranged by the Floyd County Farmers Union and will be preceded by a giant fish fry at the Legion home. Serving will begin at 5:30 p.m. and will be concluded by 7:30 p.m. when Mr. Jacobs will speak. The Farmers Union is inviting all who are interested in the farm program.

Hidalgo Sees Need Of More Radio 'Hams'

Chester P. Hidalgo, county coordinator of the Radio Amateur Civil Emergency Service (radio hams) is concerned because an emergency could catch the county short of operators.

A press release he recently received from the Division of Defense and Disaster Relief points out that RACES is intended to supplement existing means of transmitting and receiving civil defense communications and to provide them where no other means exist. The services of the amateur radio stations were found to be invaluable in the crisis incident to Hurricane Carla.

There are six licensed radio hams in Floyd County, but one of the six is in service, another is in school and Hidalgo himself has military obligations that probably would take him out of the county in case of emergency.

Safety of life, preservation of property, maintenance of law and order, alleviation of human suffering and need are among the activities which amateur radio operators might be involved in an emergency.

Hidalgo lists the six amateur operators in the county as follows: He is at South Plains, his code number is W5VSV; Darrel Kent, K5WNO, lives west of Lockney; B. K. Barker, W5HSF, lives in Floydada; Dennis Whitfill, W5FBN and C. O. Whitfill, W5DXV, also live in Floydada, but one is in school the other in the service. Jim Whitfill, K5TMI, lives on Route 2 out of Lockney.

Floyd County Democratic Executive Committee, in their session Monday morning to make up the official ballot for the first primary on May 5, selected places on the ballot for a long list of candidates, named voting places and presiding officers for the 21 precincts, and set the hours for the conventions, precinct and county.

The same hours as to precinct and county conventions as have prevailed in recent years will be observed, the precinct conventions at 2 o'clock p. m., at the places of the respective elections, and the county convention the following Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

The death of Justice of the Peace J. J. Harris of Precincts 2 and 3, was noted with regret by the committee, which voted to refund to Mrs. Harris the fee which he had paid to get his name on the nominating ballot. However, his name will remain on the ballot. Should he receive a majority of the votes cast his place on the ticket will be taken by the nominee which the committee is directed to choose for the general election ballot. A write-in majority for some other candidate, however, would obviate this necessity.

State Run-Offs Certain As nearly certain as anything mundane can be are the probabilities that there will be four run-off teams in the state races, with candidates for governor, lieutenant governor, attorney general and congressman-at-large. One race in the county—that of commissioner in Precinct No. 4—has probabilities of a run-off. There are four candidates for the place.

Five precincts in the county will have no candidates on the ticket for a party chairman. They are Starkey No. 2, Allmon No. 3, South Plains No. 9, Lakeview No. 15, and Northeast Floydada No. 24.

The name of Ben P. Ayres appears as a candidate for re-election as county chairman, and the following for precinct chairmen: Precinct 1, Southwest Floydada, Mrs. J. H. Barnard, Fred Jackson, Precinct No. 5, East Lockney, J. D. Copeland, Precinct No. 7, Providence, Ewald Quebe, Precinct No. 8, Lone Star, G. B. Johnston Jr., Precinct No. 11, Cedar Hill, Gerald Lackey.

Precinct No. 12, Fairview, Lee Rushing, Precinct No. 13, Baker, Gilbert Fawver, Precinct No. 16, Harmony, Roy Hale, Precinct No. 17, Goodnight, Cecil Purcell, Precinct No. 18, West Lockney, R. H. Ford, Precinct No. 19, Northwest Floydada, J. C. Westery, Precinct No. 20, Dougherty, Maurice Campbell, Precinct No. 21, James A. Bobbitt, Precinct No. 22, McCoy, John R. Shipley, Precinct No. 23, Southwest Floydada, W. G. Collins.

The three propositions on which Democrats (and Republicans on the Republican ticket) will be called upon to pass are: For and against the legislature submitting a constitutional amendment to legalize parimutuel wagering on horse races; For and against the legislature enacting a law legalizing parimutuel wagering on horse races with the state and the track sharing 14 per cent of the parimutuel pool, the home-county receiving two per cent of the total pool, and all other counties receiving one-half of the net state share on the basis of population; no racing on Sunday;

And for and against the legislature submitting a constitutional amendment to abolish the poll tax as a prerequisite for voting.

Name All Candidates The list of candidates for all offices of state, districts, county and precincts as ordered to appear on the ballot is as follows: For Governor: Price Daniel, Liberty County; Will Wilson, Dallas County; Don Yarborough, Harris County; John Connally, Tarrant County; Edwin A. Walker, Kerr County; Marshall Formby, Hale County.

For Lieutenant Governor: Preston Smith, Lubbock County; James A. (Jimmy) Turman, Fannin County; Jarrard Secrest, Bell County; Crawford Martin, Hill County; Robert Baker, Harris County.

THE SANTA FE'S ANNUAL REPORT

Although we do not understand them fully we are fascinated by annual statements of the giant commercial and industrial companies...

American Telephone & Telegraph Company is one of these and the Santa Fe Railway System is another. Receipt of the annual report to their stockholders made by the Santa Fe management is just at hand...

The Santa Fe has a double track all the way from Fresno, Calif., to Belen in New Mexico, also stretches of double track in the vicinity of Clovis and Amarillo...

We don't like it because Floydada is represented on the map by a little prong sticking out from the Amarillo-Lubbock cut off and no room for the name of the town...

EASTERN AIR LINES QUITTING

One of the recent evidences that the Congress and the federal bureaus have gotten too deeply into the operation of public utilities is in the report of Eastern Air Lines, which is going to sell out and quit...

Jet propulsion and the Korean War coming on at the same time made financing a tremendous problem for the air lines. Astronomical outlays for planes might have been all right had the lines been left alone...

Citing government operation of railways as a criterion Eastern's otherwise highly successful leaders decided the time to quit was while they still had some assets to sell...

PADRE ISLAND PARK

We do not know whether we are "for" or "against" making Padre Island a part of the National Park System. We read Senator Yarborough's report and we're for it...

Senator Yarborough wants about 88 miles of the island taken into the park system, leaving 28 miles or so for private development. Padre Island, it is said, is a national treasure...

TEXAS IS A BIG EXPORTER

The tariff talks going on in the congress will have a direct bearing on the Floyd County economy in the next few years. As of now the only interest we have in exports (in this county) is connected with farm production...

But big as our stake is in the tariff matter, the rest of the state—the manufacturers and processors—have three times as much involved...

Whether it is better for the president to have quick-acting authority to make changes in the tariffs to meet conditions or whether it should be left to the Congress to debate is the question...

CHIP OFF THE OLD BLOCK

Troy F. Martin, of the Canyon News, is going to bat for his friend J. Evetts Haley Jr., a Canyon boy who has thrown his hat in the ring for Commissioner of Agriculture in Texas...

Evetts is one of those rare birds who has never taken subsidy money from the government on his farming operations. Furthermore, he is the boy who was haled into court for overplanting 46 acres of wheat on his own land...

Martin, the Canyon newsman, likes a battler and he wants to help Haley in "this small side battle", his race for State Commissioner of Agriculture, which he terms the crusade for the freedom of agriculture...

We have failed to see all the way through the USDA crop retirement policy and we admire the young Randall County farmer for insisting on his rights, but we are not sure that makes good ground on which to base a campaign for Commissioner of Agriculture in Texas...

Every Monday. People who have Social Security problems, including those who are entitled to benefits under the law, are reminded that a representative of the Social Security Administration, spends at least a half day in Floydada every Monday to help them with their problems.

Church Wealth. To us there is both hope and danger in the burgeoning wealth of churches and colleges. Every bequest usually adds to the property that is taken out of taxation and this value is mounting into big figures...

Are They Smart? Despite the fact that the signs of the times point to their need to keep their shirts on, a considerable segment of railway employees are getting set to strike. Only way a strike can be avoided is for the rails to grant them additional advantages...

New Highway Map. Easily available is the new 1962 highway map of Texas, issued by the State Highway Department. The map is growing in acceptance by the public, and there is a possibility a million copies may be distributed this year...

Highway Business. Sixteen items of property will need to be sold and removed from the right-of-way on the highway from Floydada to the Hale County line. The State Board of Control has issued an invitation to bidders to make offers on any of the 16 items in sealed bids March 28...

The Answer. Last week's riddle "Little Nancy Eticoat in a white petticoat and a red nose; the longer she stands the shorter she grows," which we swiped from the National Observer, without looking to see if it was copyrighted—is a candle.

Floydada Beauty. The Dallas Times-Herald in a recent issue had a picture of Jo Ann Dally, niece of the E. J. Moreheads, in a down-town shopping snapshot. Born in Floydada, Jo Ann is referred to as "another gift from the sandy plains of West Texas."

In his home a man wants peace at any price—unless the price turns out to be a new $895.00 mink stole.

The Chronicle, Albany, Alabama

The Big Year. The savants tell us that the year of the big population explosion is just ahead of us. The year of 1965 will see the big baby crop of the early forties come of age and begin to have children of their own.

So. Plains News

By Mrs. Murray Julian

SOUTH PLAINS, March 19. Dry, cold weather still remains with us. Almost every irrigation well in the country, around about, is running, and farmers are watering their listed beds, preparatory to spring planting. How we all wish for good rains.

Sunday morning Baptist Church services were well-attended, we are happy to note, with around 90 present. The new choir robes came in last week, and next Sunday the choir members hope to be able to wear the lovely, blue robes. Everyone thanks those who worked hard to make the Retreat down at the Baptist Encampment a happy and fine affair. 24 were present for the Friday evening service, and 15 stayed for the night and Saturday morning. Mrs. Roy Burks and Mrs. J. H. Wimberly went with the Young Folks to the camp.

Bruce Julian and Allan Adams were among the boys from here who went to Denver City Saturday for the Denver City Relays. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fortenberry went to Tulsa to get her mother, Mrs. N. C. McCain Sunday, and then went on to Hereford where they spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Fortenberry and daughters. Kenneth Bean and Grigsby Mitchell and James Williams practicing are among those who have wells. Kenneth is in the process of getting his put down.

Mrs. Joe McClendon, 1-2nd grade teacher at the South Plains School will enter the Plainview Hospital and Clinic this Tuesday where she will undergo major surgery Wednesday morning. Mrs. Murray Julian is teaching her room while she is away. Mrs. McClendon may have to be gone for three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvain Kinnibrugh and daughters had as Sunday dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. Garvin Beedy and children, and his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Kevin Coffman who were visiting here from Farmington, New Mexico.

SOUND OFF

By Beth Pratt

THE BIG MOVE — Crawling feebly out of bed this morning, I groped for the coffee pot and hunted through boxes until I found some vanilla wafers on which to feast. You guessed it, I'm having my first experience with the problem of moving. I never dreamed we could accumulate so many things in five short years. What is that thing football players are often having trouble with - charley horse? Well, I think I have one now. The bad thing about this move is that I will have it all to do over in a few weeks. Meanwhile, I will learn to "speak softly and carry a big stick." Thinking of my little boys and my neighbors with that phrase.

We moved our card table in to use for dining at the present, and when I type my coffee flirts with the top of the cup, sometimes kissing the edge and reaching for the tablecloth. It is the little things that make one appreciate the big things - I won't go into a sermon for the day.

GUMMY MESS — In the column "Hints from Heloise" there appears an item that every mother should see. Rubbing peanut butter into a child's hair will remove chewing gum, and they swear that it works. Put a dab of peanut butter on the hair and rub gently between your fingers. It will loosen the gum. Pick this up with a cleaning tissue. That hint should be welcome to peanut growers.

FANCY THAT — Percy laid an egg. Nothing so strange about a bald eagle doing that except since 1952, everyone had been giving Percy credit as a father.

Miladies Club Entertains For Their Families

Members of the Miladies Club entertained their families with a sandwich supper and "42" party on March 13 at the Community Room of the First National Bank.

Lovell, Carl Nelson and girls, Curtis Martin and sons, Grady Freeman, Rusty Birchfield, and Robert Carlton. Miss Frances Summers and Merle Stevens.

Most of us law-abiding citizens never see the inside of a jail. Or if we do, it is as an outsider looking in. Yet many of us live in prisons of our own making.

First, there's the Prison of Time. We stay over-booked, so that we can rarely spare time to enjoy any unexpected pleasure that offers itself. Many joys are fleeting; they must be caught quickly or they are gone. But we have to rush home with the car; get a quick supper so we can go to PTA; run errands on the way. And so those delights which would come from savoring the taste of a chance conversation, of stopping to admire someone's garden or grandchild-those precious moments with friends that take time and were not on the calendar today - are lost.

Then there's the Prison of Place. We get so wrapped up in our own small world that we allow little things to count too much and forget the infinite variety of the world outside.

Equally confining are those self-imposed Prisons of Heart and Mind. We care too much for someone who cares too little. We long for things that cannot be. We wish for absent loved ones, often failing those who are near, and need our affection. We allow a mistake, a sorrow, or an old hurt to imprison our minds, so that we no longer roam freely through the many interesting facts, events, and activities that today's world holds. Our thoughts are trapped, on a treadmill of bitterness or dismay.

Depending on our ability to throw off these self-created shackles of time, place, heart and mind, our freedom from "prison" may be more apparent than real.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Christensen and son Eric spent the weekend on the University of New Mexico campus, Albuquerque, N. Mex. They were guests at the formal dedication for the Dorothy Woodward Memorial Research Room and the archives vault of the State Records Center, Santa Fe. The Honorable Edwin L. Mecham, Governor of New Mexico, officiated at the dedication services.

HOMEMAKING HINTS

Food Storage is Important

The quality of the food you serve your family can be no better than the quality of the food you buy - but it can be worse. Proper handling and storage of foods is very important.

Potatoes, for instance, need careful storage and keep best in a dark, dry, well-ventilated place. In a warm room, potatoes shrivel and sprout, and in a cold place the starch in potatoes changes to sugar.

Citrus fruits, melons and pineapples actually have better keeping qualities when stored out of the refrigerator at room temperatures of 60 to 70 degrees Fahrenheit.

It is advisable to refrigerate eggs in the original container or some other covered container because uncovered eggs lose moisture through their porous shells.

Mayonnaise and salad dressings should be kept in the refrigerator unless they are used within a few days. Even jellies, jams and peanut butter once opened, keep best in the refrigerator.

There is little or no danger of food becoming unsafe to eat when it is kept in a refrigerator with a temperature of 42 degrees Fahrenheit or below, because food poisoning bacteria cannot thrive at these temperatures.

For Wash and Wear Wools

Could you use some information on how to launder wash-and-wear wools?

Then perhaps the results of a study conducted by the Wool Bureau may be of interest to you. It was found that methods similar to these used on other wash-and-wear fabrics could be used in washing woolen fabrics which are labeled washable.

Recommendations made for wools labeled washable are: slow agitation and spinning speeds; high water level, low fabric load, and short sudsing time.

Wool was found to be not particularly sensitive to the temperatures encountered in washing and tumble drying. And tumble drying, resulted in less wrinkling but more fuzz formation than did air drying.

Mrs. James Lovell Elected President Andrews Ward PTA

The next meeting will be April 11.

Local Cigarette Consumption Reaches Record Rate, Report

(Special to the Hesperian) NEW YORK. - As a whole Floyd County residents do not fight easily. Especially when it comes to smoking. The latest tabulation shows that local people are puffing away at a record rate, notwithstanding the mass of reports from medical and health organizations to the effect that there is a relationship between cigarette smoking and ailments of the heart and lungs.

During the past year, some 1,393,000 packs of cigarettes were smoked locally, well over the 1960 total. The count is based upon national data released by the Department of Agriculture and upon regional sales figures issued by the tobacco industry.

In terms of the local population of age 14 and up, it was equivalent to 163 packs smoked a year per person. Throughout the rest of the United States, the average was 194 packs per person among the 14-plus group. It was 158 packs per capita in the West South Central States.

In some parts of the country, the figures show, people smoke much more heavily than in others. Residents of Utah, for example, consume only a third the quantity that District of Columbia residents do. The D. C. rate is nearly 220 packs per person. The use of tobacco in other forms also rose. Sales of cigars reached 7.2 billion units, sales of smoking tobacco, 75 million pounds of chewing tobacco, 65 million pounds, and of snuff, 34 million pounds.

Some of the increase in cigarette smoking is attributed to the rise in population. The rest, to a great extent, was due to the fact that incomes in general were higher and, therefore, more was spent for cigarettes. How much do residents of Floyd County spend per year on this little pastime? Approximately $46 per smoker, it is estimated. For the local smoking community as a whole, it totals $414,000.

Nationally, the expenditure last year was $6.9 billion, of which $3.1 billion was for Federal, state and local taxes.

Experts Back Versatile Youths

When 400,000 men and women volunteer their time and know-how to help 2.3 million 4-H club members "learn, live and serve," the results are no less than spectacular.

For instance, the Head, Heart, Hands and Health youths finished nearly 4 million projects in more than 40 different categories just this past year.

In almost every instance, the completed project benefited the entire family and in many cases, the community as well.

The information comes from the Cooperative Extension Service which directs 4-H Club work.

Further proof of the far-reaching effect of 4-H was found in 1,900 record books maintained by state award winning club members. The records were reviewed in the headquarters of the National 4-H Service Committee last November, said Norman C. Mindrum, director, for the purpose of selecting boys and girls for scholarships and trip awards to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago.

Miss Sheila Nixon, 20, of Pomona, California, winner of a $400 Ford scholarship, commented: "The awards we win in 4-H work aren't totally ours. Many people have helped us win them."

Another national champion, won a Sears-Roebuck Foundation scholarship for leadership, is 20-year-old Hoosier farmer Wayne Buck. He has a 4-H record so long "it would fill a book." Now a student at Purdue University, Buck credits 4-H training with teaching him how to accept responsibility, and to better understand the world and the people in it.

President Kennedy expressed a similar feeling when he said in a recent message to 4-H members: "I would commend you especially for your constructive and worthwhile efforts in learning to live and work cooperatively with others."

In the beginning, 4-H Clubs were intended for farm youngsters, and offered only projects in crops, livestock, home canning and cooking. The present program embraces a wide range of agricultural, home economics and scientific programs. With the exception of a few such as livestock, tractor and field crops, the projects can be carried on in town as well as on the farm.

4-H Moves to Town Today, membership in 4-H Clubs is about equally divided between farm and non-farm boys and girls. The main reason for this shift is the disappearance of the small farm from the American agricultural scene.

Meanwhile, more and more business people are participating in 4-H as it moves into suburban and urban areas, Mindrum points out. National 4-H Club Week, National 4-H Club Congress, Farm-City Week, achievement days, county and state fairs, Farm-Safety Week and the like are but a few examples, he said.

Director Mindrum, who is a former 4-H member and state extension official, has this to say: "To sum up 4-H achievement one should call special attention to the concurrent efforts of many which, over the years, have made the 'learn by doing' program the success it is.

Business Gives Cash Besides the paid and volunteer workers who carry out the teaching-training aspect, there are business people who contribute know-how and money," he added.

Approximately 60 different business concerns provide funds for 4-H through the National 4-H Service Committee, he said.

Donors of awards for the last 25 years or more include: International Harvester, Montgomery Ward, Westinghouse Educational Foundation, Kerr Glass Mfg. Broadway News

By Mrs. T. E. Thornhill BROADWAY, March 19 - Sunday School attendance was good Sunday, with some seventy in attendance. Sunday afternoon church service was good. The weather is not quite so cold.

The very first day of Spring will already be past before this sees to press. We are hoping for a very rainy Spring with plenty of moisture to get a crop going well.

We were very sorry to hear that Charlie Wall of N. M. Broder of Biddie and Burl is very ill. We hope he is much better by now.

Mr. and Mrs. Arvis Moore and children, Fern, Robert L. and Kitty Joyce spent the week-end of the tenth with Mrs. Moore's brother and family the Perry Tillsons of Lampassas.

Friday night of last week Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Rainbolt, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Winegar and Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Thornhill enjoyed quite a number of 84 games with Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Thornhill.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kendrick and Craig were Sunday dinner guests of the Bob Kendrick of the Mt. Blanco community.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Spence of Floydada were Wednesday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Thornhill. Mr. Spence is getting together some tires and a few other things for the 1927 model T truck that has been sitting idly in the shed for so many years. This old vehicle holds some fond memories for the Spence family, especially for our girls who drove it to and from school, picking up all the kids on the road from here to the old Leatherwood School house.

In the early thirties during the depression, altho the Spences had a car, more often they went to church in the truck. Mom always put several quilts in for every one to spread out on the floor boards to sit on. Then down the road we would go and neighbors would meet us at the road for a ride to church. The Pansy church then was located two miles north of its present location. By the time we would get there we would have from ten to twenty-five riders. We always enjoyed the ride since we were privileged to visit with our neighbors to and from church.

Also we well remember an incident that will probably always stand in our memory, as that was the very first accident we can remember being involved in. One Saturday morning our neighbor Mike Brady came by, telling my dad that his children could help us pull a bale of cotton that day. So some time before night the bale was finished and dad said he would take the Brady children by home. So on top of that load of cotton we all climbed. Sure enough when he started across the bar ditch the truck just pitched over on its side, spilling Kid's and cotton all over the road. We were so very fortunate as no one was hurt other than having the breath knocked out of us, and the Model was not hurt either as dad was moving it over so slowly and it just eased over on the side.

Hope we haven't troubled you to much with these old memories. But one of these days you may see Mr. Spence again driving around in the T Model truck.

To make controls more effective and to keep the council better posted on the financial status of the various departments, Mayor Ross said the council has planned a new bookkeeping arrangement. Whereas the income and expenses of the departments are now under two general heads, "General" and "electric," the new set of books will have all the expenses and income indicated by departments.

Outlook Is Good

The situation is not hopeless at all, as might be thought at first, with only the needs stated, and the resources in money and manpower not taken into account. It is a situation where greater coordination of effort is required, more careful attention to the overall needs, and the loose ends gathered up.

The fact is, in the view of the city fathers, the outlook for a solution to the financial problems of the city are good. To get it on an even keel and producing efficiently, with waste of effort and means controlled, is the need. If they can keep the city's operations within the budget they have set up, or nearly so, can curb some of the losses that are apparent, "things will work out fine" for the city.

Outdoors In Texas

By Vern Sanford

Fisherman - not fish - break fishing tackle.

When the truth wins out, you will discover that the "big one" that broke the line wasn't so big after all.

Let me relate the story of an angler who lost a "huge" redfish in the surf near High Island on Bolivar Peninsula. Although this took place several years ago, it will illustrate the point of this column.

I won't embarrass the angler by naming him. But here's the story.

He hooked a redfish—and in hard and in heavy fishing will wear grooves in the tip top. Agate tip tops will crack and chip, and the sharp edges will cut the line. Replace faulty tip tops immediately.

In 1960 there were 2,254 human lives battered, swished, torn and strewn upon Texas streets and highways. Another 127,990 were sent to doctors and hospitals, some of these injured and maimed for life. Some 400,000 automobiles were damaged or demolished. Our economic loss came to an astounding figure of $350,025,000. Our liability and collision insurance premiums came to a sum in excess of two hundred and thirty million dollars.

These statements are made in a report out of the office of the Texas Department of Public Safety, Region 5.

If the 2,254 dead traffic victims were stacked in a pile, the dimensions would be about two and one half miles in length, three fourths of a mile in width and four tenths of a mile in height. The dimensions for the 127,990 injured would be 129 miles in length, 41 miles in width and 20 miles in height. The dimensions of the some 400,000 damaged or demolished vehicles would be 1,330 miles in length, 500 miles in width and 379 miles in height.

Now for a descriptive look at the three hundred and fifty million dollars cost of the traffic accidents. The playing area of a football field measures 300 feet by 160 feet, or 48,000 square feet. United States currency measures

Best knot to use is the blood or jam knot. It's tied simply by running one end through the hook eye. Twist this end at least ten times (preferably eight or five times) around the standing end of the line. Then slip the hook eye and the loop between the hook eye and the end of the first twist. Now run the line back through the big loop just formed and pull the knot tight. It's easy to tie. It forms a neat knot that will not slip. But more important it decreases line strength at the point of the knot only by about 20 percent.

For example, with 36-pound test line this knot will reduce line strength at the point of the knot by a little more than seven pounds. For the sake of round numbers, let's say eight pounds. The weight needed to break the line would then be 28 pounds—which is a long way from the 18 pounds required to snap the line if a square knot is used.

A rod with the wrong kind of tip action will cause an angler to break lines.

The rod tip is a shock absorber. It takes up the shock transmitted by a fish on a sudden run, or the shock transmitted when the angler hauls back hard to bed the hook in the fish's mouth.

A springy tip allows the strain of the sudden shock to be transmitted to the line gradually.

With a very stiff tip, the strain on the line is quite sudden. Result: Pop goes the line and the fish goes free.

Next time you lose a fish, don't blame it all on the size of the fish. Stop and consider how you played the fish.

Then examine your tackle. If your tackle is okay and you "played it" right—perhaps you did lose a big one. Maybe even a record-breaker.

Within an hour after the fellow lost the fish, some beach-seiners about a mile down the beach brought in their net. One of the fish trapped was a redfish complete with a hook in its mouth, a long wire leader, and about 10 yards of line.

The angler, who happened upon the scene, identified the terminal tackle as his. That unusually large catch - that got away - gave him the fish.

Now comes the corker. That redfish weighed exactly 11 pounds. It was a far cry from the 40 or 50 pound monster implied by the angler.

Sure enough the angler's line was brand new. His rod tip and guides were in good shape. So the line wasn't weakened by fraying.

Truth of the matter is that the fisherman - not the fish - broke that 36-pound test line. Here's how it happened.

When the fish made its run for freedom, the angler feared he might not have enough line on the reel. So he hauled back as hard as he could to check the fish pulling in one direction, and the angler jerking in the other, parted the line.

Fish losses like this happen every day. It's the result of excitement and inexperience. Usually the angler could have landed the fish by playing it.

Redfish aren't noted for long runs. Their runs are short, 20 to 30 yards at most, before they change directions.

So if that angler, who felt that the line was getting near the end of the spool, would have walked down the beach with the fish - or even waded out into the water, he might have landed it.

Many line breaks occur because the angler fails to periodically check the line for frayed spots.

Let me point out here that line fraying usually occurs in the first few feet of the line. And here's why.

Every time you cast out, tremendous pressure is exerted on the line where it comes in contact with the rod-tip top. Eventually this will fray and weaken the line. Play it safe by cutting off a few feet of line every time you make a trip. Thus you will get rid of that part of the line subjected to heavy pressure and the greatest wear in casting.

You should frequently check the rod-tip top - particularly if you use nylon or monofilament line. These lines are extremely hard and in heavy fishing will wear grooves in the tip top.

Agate tip tops will crack and chip, and the sharp edges will cut the line. Replace faulty tip tops immediately.

Line comes in various pound tests. Its strength will remain abused. This is particularly true with linen lines used in salt water fishing. Linen line stored wet will rot quickly.

It's better to practice good line maintenance than to lose a fish because of line neglect.

Regardless of the strength of the line, you weaken it every time you tie a knot in it. The degree of weakening, however, can be minimized by learning to use the proper knots.

The simple, ordinary square knot will cut line strength about 50 percent. Obviously a line testing out at 36-pound will break at about 18 pounds at the point of the knot.

Best knot to use is the blood or jam knot. It's tied simply by running one end through the hook eye. Twist this end at least ten times (preferably eight or five times) around the standing end of the line. Then slip the hook eye and the loop between the hook eye and the end of the first twist. But more important it decreases line strength at the point of the knot only by about 20 percent.

For example, with 36-pound test line this knot will reduce line strength at the point of the knot by a little more than seven pounds. For the sake of round numbers, let's say eight pounds. The weight needed to break the line would then be 28 pounds—which is a long way from the 18 pounds required to snap the line if a square knot is used.

You'll be surprised at how easy you can get up to $3,500. Confidential. No Red Tape. Do-It-Yourself and save the cost of labor or hire the labor — whichever you prefer. Our plans cover the cost either way.

Candidates present at the meeting were Senators Preston Smith, Jarrard Secrest, Crawford Martin and Robert Baker, all democrats, and Bill Hayes and Kellis Dibrell, republicans. Speaker James A. Turman, the seventh candidate, was absent. Farmer Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey moderated the discussion. He closed the session with a comment that most people underestimate the importance of the job of lieutenant governor. Because all state policy is made by the Legislature, the lieutenant governor is of prime importance. He presides over the Senate, names the Senate committees, and decides which committees will handle bills. Thus he has almost absolute control over the course of legislation — which is state policymaking.

POLL LISTS HIGH — It seems like there's a record number of candidates running for state and national office this year. There also appears to be a record number of potential voters.

A recent count showed 2,373,857 Texans paid poll taxes or filed for exemptions this year. That's 218,212 more eligible voters than last year.

With 15 county totals still due at the State Comptroller's office, including some big cities, the list may exceed the record-setting 2,594,254 who paid to go to the polls in the 1960 presidential election.

A HALF-MILLION MILES TO SCHOOL — Texas Education Agency clocked school bus mileage in the state's 1,433 districts. They found that 8,240 bus drivers drive almost a half-million miles daily to take 420,000 children to school.

Some West Texas school buses travel as far as 229 miles a day.

INDIAN RAID ON CAPITOL — Dressed as Ani-Waya, Latonka, Tonkawa, Neep, Caddo, Kiva, Sotso, Po-Hebeto-Quasho and Oglewanagi Indians, some 30 school children raided the Capitol.

Whooping it up for the Brenham Indian Festival to be held April 14, the youngsters danced and chanted to the beat of a giant drum for 30 minutes around the Capitol rotunda. They invaded Gov. Price Daniel's reception room to invite him to their April show.

ATTORNEY GENERAL RULES — Angelina County Attorney Dan Brazil asked Attorney General Will Wilson whether a precinct chairman who is elected in a May primary can take office immediately.

He was told that even though a man becomes precinct chairman without a run-off, he must wait until the Saturday after his county run-off election before he assumes his new duties.

Attorney general also ruled that the "banking escheat" law calls for bankers to advertise for missing depositors in May of this year.

V. A. Simpson Cited By AEC, Given Award

ALBUQUERQUE, N. MEX. — Three Albuquerque men have received citations and cash awards from the Atomic Energy Commission for their prompt action when a fire was discovered in a two-truck shipment of nuclear materials and conventional (non-nuclear) high explosives they were escorting east of Winslow, Arizona, last November 4.

The three AEC shipment security employees — Howard W. Russel, convoy commander, of 7819 Bellamah NE, Virgil A. Simpson of 7123 Lisa Court NE, and Emile T. Briggs of 1111 Propps NE — are assigned to the security Division of the Commission's Albuquerque Operations.

One of their responsibilities is to escort shipments of nuclear materials that move by truck, rail and air.

The shipment was en route east at night when smoke was seen escaping around the edges of the canvas cover on one of the two tractor-trailers, which carried nuclear materials. The truck was stopped at the side of the highway and the second truck, containing chemical high explosives, was driven up the road about a mile.

The burning trailer was uncoupled from the tractor. While Mr. Simpson drove to Winslow to summon fire department assistance, Mr. Russel and Mr. Briggs fought the flames and kept traffic moving past the scene. Reaching the fire and extinguishing the flames was particularly difficult because of the trailer's high metal sides. However, with assistance of the Winslow fire department, the fire was put out. After examination of the materials involved, the shipment continued on its way the following day.

There was no possibility of a nuclear detonation, but possible low-level radiation contamination could have occurred in the immediate area if the fire had reached the nuclear materials. A wooden case surrounding the materials was partially burned.

As convoy commander, Mr. Russel received $250 and a Special Service Award. Mr. Simpson and Mr. Briggs each received $125 and a Special Service award reading: "In coordinating the extinguishing of a semi-trailer fire which threatened to ignite classified material, Mr. Simpson and Mr. Briggs performed their duties in an outstanding manner by maintaining the security of the shipment and the safety of local officials and the general public."

Virgil Simpson, named in this dispatch, is a native of Floydada.

Preston Smith Has Betterment Plans For State Of Texas

A "man with a plan" for Texas as is how friends of Senator Preston Smith describe the Lubbock businessman.

Senator Smith has been working for Texas for many years as a public servant.

The veteran legislator has served six years in the Texas House of Representatives and is in his sixth year as a State Senator. He now seeks his highest goal, that of Lieutenant Governor of Texas, his native state.

The veteran West Texas lawmaker, campaigned for the office of lieutenant governor in 1950. He placed third in a field of 12 candidates and led the ticket in 68 counties.

His plan calls for simplification of the general sales tax; correcting the auto insurance merit plan; economical government without waste; correction of the inequities in Texas' women's rights; better schools; safe, efficient highways and farm-to-market roads; vigorous water and soil conservation projects; providing hunters and fishermen with an improved game and fish program; and better recreational facilities for parks and lakes.

Backers of the candidate contend that his own career as a successful business man for more than 25 years in Williams County, and his education in Dallas, where he has a business and a law degree, and his experience as a worker since age 12, and his two children, are all in his favor.

We Need Track Meets

Home Grown Sports Get Best Results

Should In Floydada Schools?

Kenneth Rimmer sports for many years. These events when held in Floydada drew people to our town from over a wide area. Usually some 250 athletes and coaches and at least that many fans were on hand to see the boys perform.

Through the crowds that came here did not spend loads of money they did come and visit and everyone was glad for their coming - at least the meet did not take Floydada people and Floydada money to Lubbock.

Beside the loss of the meet for the town the loss to the boys growing up in this county is ever greater. When meets were held here it gave the younger boys a chance to see the races and events and got them interested in running and becoming contestants in the future.

When all the events are held in Lubbock and away from Floydada interest has lagged and in a few years the once powerful whirlwind track team becomes an also ran. Not only track suffers from this lack of interest, but other sports show the effect when athletes turn out to be slow in football and basketball as well.

Coaches say that they have no place to hold the right kind of a track meet. Perhaps this is right. We do not have a "curbed cinder track like those in Lubbock and Austin, and maybe there is not a 220 yard straight-away, but we have more school campus property now than we have ever had and meets have been held here for forty years or more.

Some of the best marks ever made by Floydada High School boys have been posted right here in Floydada, in Crosbyton, and in Hale Center. The fine cinder tracks and attractive surroundings of Lubbock have done little to improve race times and jump marks.

Towns that have track teams that place high in the state meet in Austin have home town tracks and hold track meets annually. Some are dirt, some are why?

Week after week carefully tabulated figures published in "Automotive Market Reports" show that Chevrolet trucks are worth more in resale value.

If you were a professional used truck buyer, why would you pay more for one make than another?

There may be several reasons, but among them would be:

1. A greater demand for the product
2. A more desirable product for resale

So if used Chevrolet trucks consistently bring higher prices at auctions all over the country, it means that their quality features pay off for you not only as long as you own them but also when you are ready to trade them—double-wall cabs, doors and side panels, roof insulation, select wood floors, reliable and economical engines, real rugged tailgates, a suspension system that helps prolong truck life.

See your Chevrolet dealer for a quality '62 Chevrolet Jobmaster truck.

"Automotive Market Reports" is a weekly authoritative wholesale publication which reports the average prices paid for used trucks and cars by professional buyers at auctions all over the U.S.

GOVERNMENT AND lusion. The enemy far excel us PRODUCTS—in the numbers, arms, ships, and all States Congress, on the munitions of war, and they Mr. Phelan, of have evidently determined to put out their whole strength in a course of a few weeks. They are swarming around our borders like the locust of Egypt, and the time has come when every man must consider himself a soldier, and resolve to fight to the death. A different spirit will overwhelm us with disaster and disgrace entailing upon us and our children a bondage to which complete annihilation were a privilege and a boon.

The sooner our people take this view of their condition the better for them. It will be a fatal delusion to postpone the evacuation, and the preparation it should bring along with it, until, both shall avail us only by adding to our shame. THE SAVANNAH REPUBLICAN (Reprinted in Texas Newspapers)

New Highway Map Features New Symbols

AUSTIN — The pioneering Texas Highway Department — originator of a proposal to standardize symbols on state maps for easier understanding by motorists — features some of the new symbols on its 1932 Official Highway Travel Map.

A four-color beauty with "See Texas" as its theme, the new map is now available free to the public.

In 1926, Texas recommended that a standard set of symbols be adopted for use on all state maps — to make the maps easier to read for motorists crossing from one state into another.

This proposal was eventually adopted by the American Association of State Highway Officials and within the next few years all official state highway maps will be using these accepted standard symbols.

Tip To Housewives
Eggs are unique among foods. We might say they're "Nature's convenience food" for the homemaker in a hurry or for those eating out, eggs provide on-the-spot meals any time of the day. Any way you like them — poached, fried, scrambled, soft-cooked — they are easily and quickly prepared — and so high in nutritional value.

Hold That Weight
Many a person goes on a diet, loses weight, then a few weeks or a month later is right back where he started from.

The reason: He's reverted to his old habits of too much to eat and too little exercise. Nutritionists in the U. S. Department of Agriculture Research Service say that even though you've reached the weight you want, you can't suddenly go back to your old calorie laden diets. It was a reducing plan that took off those extra pounds, and it's the same plan that will keep them off.

You may ease up a little on your diet, but increase servings cautiously. And always keep an eye on the scales.

An excellent book on weight control is put out by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Entitled "Food and Your Weight," this pamphlet offers basic weight-control facts and a daily food guide. It suggests meals and menus for reducers and for those who want to gain weight, and it lists the calorie value of nearly 400 food items so you can plan your own meals according to your likes and dislikes.

You may obtain this pamphlet "Food and Your Weight," HG-74, by writing to the Office of Information, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, 25, D. C. There is no charge for single copies.

Something to Think About
"What I gave I have - What I spent, I had - what I kept I lost."

Al Edwards Family Returns To USA From So. America

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Edwards recently spent several days down state.

At Houston they met Mr. and Mrs. Al Edwards and their son Al Jr., former residents of Floydada and Amarillo, who had returned from a 15-month tour of South and Central America.

The Al Edwards' liked Guatemala City, Central America, spending quite awhile in and around Guatemala City, also sometime in Lima, Peru and other South American points.

They were quite impressed with some parts of both countries and reported there are great opportunities in any number of industries, but they decided against settling because of what appeared to be political and social unrest in all the places they were in. They noted, also, that some Americans who were there before them were leaving.

The family at present plan to locate in Florida.

At Alvin Mr. and Mrs. Henry Edwards were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Hambricht. Mrs. Hambricht is a niece of Mrs. Edwards.
