School Problems Are Ticklish

School problems are always ticklish ones because they are of so much importance to so many people. Most everybody has a definite point of view and in many cases there was not an apparent middle ground.

In Floyd County rural schools have for many years sent their high school students in to town to finish up their public school education and the town schools involved were always glad for their coming.

They had to raise tax valuations and rates and many of their property owners were crying for some type of relief. Schools faced with the same type problem in other towns had found it necessary to charge tuition on transfer students and in joint study came up with a formula for such charges.

Two Sides to Problem The rural schools have also been faced with the same rising costs and assessments, and have for the most part had their hands tied by having to stay within a fixed tax rate and have not been able to increase their income to meet these high school expenses.

We believe that most rural families like to maintain their rural school and where they have enough students the parents are satisfied that they have a good school and one they want to keep. They are not looking forward with any pleasure to developments that might cause them to consolidate with a town school and lose their community spirit and gathering place along with their school.

Answers Are Being Worked Out In practically all cases some kind of answer is being worked out that will allow the students to go to the school that pleases the student and the parents. Some of these answers may not be the ideal ones and may be only temporary answers to a problem, but people seem to have a way of working out things, and we feel they will in this case also.

In only one case in Floyd County there was a try at consolidation as an answer to the school problem and this was defeated by a fairly close vote. Feeling was strong on both sides and there were some strong points on both sides.

I can readily see why parents like to have their children close to home in their own school. Putting a little six year old on a school bus before day light for a 20 mile ride into town where he may stay until it is almost dark again would be a little frightening to me.

School Board Is Thankless In school board members in common districts, on the county board, and on the independent school district boards are men who have to wrestle with the problems like those above. They do not receive any pay but do get a lot of criticism. No one can please everybody for very long period of time; who phases one displeases another.

Little Dog Was Big Loser In Recent Robbery

Mr. and Mrs. Hilery Shurbet, owners and operators of Sand Hill Store have most of their 94 dollar black dog, named Sue, which was a Pomeranian dog, but has her Pomeranian dog back, although he isn't in too good of shape at present.

The store was robbed Friday night a week ago and the small, long-haired dog played a big part in the events that transpired. The Shurbets had retired for the night and Mrs. Shurbet said the dog had a habit of barking. When it started in she shushed him several times and thought no more of the incident until the following morning when they went into the store and found $94 missing from the cash register, all in bills, and the dog gone.

Mrs. Shurbet said that entrance was gained into the store through the store door. A screen had been cut to open the door and Mrs. Shurbet said they had failed to lock the plank door to the room. Their house is in the back portion of the store and no unusual sounds were heard by the family, she related.

Two days and two nights later the Pomeranian came dragging himself home with severe facial bruises and laceration. He is under treatment at a veterinarian who thinks he has a good chance to live bearing any complication. At present he is having difficulty in breathing. Mrs. Shurbet said because of the severe swelling in his nose.

The robber turned out to be a 14 year old Mexican youth who turned in some fellows for throwing a coke bottle at him and he in turn was the loser. Foster Arburn, deputy sheriff, said they received a tip that the youth had turned in some fellows who had tossed a coke bottle at him in Alice. Upon investigation, they found the youth had turned in some fellows for throwing a coke bottle at him and he in turn was the loser.

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Gov. Price Daniel Board to use part of its $100,000,000 water loan fund to pay for the added height needed to fully utilize damsites in Texas. Story is this: When cities of the Federal government build reservoirs, there may not be enough demand for water in the area to build the dams to the full height. Water studies have indicated that in 20 to 50 years, the full yield of all presently proposed reservoirs will be needed to supply the 21,000,000 Texans expected by the year 2010.

But if the dam and reservoir are built only to meet present or near-future needs, there will be greatly increased costs later on, since recreational and other developments will have been built around it. Cost could run two or three times as much, then, to buy the developed land and raise the dam.

In the long run, sponsors argue, the amendment would save Texas many millions. If it passes, the Development Board could pay for the added cost now and hold the water storage space until cities or industries in the area need the water and are willing to pay for it. Then the revenue can be used to pay off the long-term bonds the Board issues.

Two samples of the need are in the news these days.

Lavon Reservoir near Dallas was built mainly for flood control by the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers. Now more space is needed for water supply purposes.

Today, however, the North Texas Municipal Water District, which supplies water to 10 cities in the area, will have to pay about 60 to 70 per cent more than it would have cost them in the first place.

Cooper Reservoir on the Sulphur River is being delayed, right now, because cities in the area can't raise the money to build it to full size.

LEGISLATORS' LIBRARIAN LEAVING—Miss Doris Connerly, the 1919 University of Texas law graduate who has directed a reference library for State representatives in the Capitol for 34 years, won't be in the statehouse when the 58th Legislature meets next January.

She will retire on September 30.

Miss Connerly became director of the Legislative Reference library in 1923 when Dan Moody was governor.

She and the late Gov. Beauford Jester were former classmates and friends. However, she won't pick a favorite among the Texas governors she has worked with. But she does say that she considers herself fortunate to have served during the terms of Coke Stevenson, Allen Shivers and Price Daniel. "These men played an important role in Texas' growth in economics and culture," she says.

Texas' legislative library was established by the Legislature in 1909 to furnish legislators with factual and historical material. But thousands of state workers and citizens interested in state business have used its services, including the file on "State Statutes and Session Laws." These date back more than 150 years, and relate to all 50 states in the union.

COURTS TAKE A HOLIDAY—Justices of the Texas Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals have shed their long black robes for the remainder of the summer. The massive doors to their elegant chambers in the Texas Supreme Court Building won't be opened again until they reconvene on October 1.

Both courts are "supreme courts" because of a unique judicial set-up that Texas shares with the State of Oklahoma and England. Civil cases appealed from lower courts come to the Supreme Court. Final hall of appeal for criminal cases is the Court of Criminal Appeals.

POPULATION ZOOMING—State Health Commissioner J. E. Peavy estimates that Texas' population passed the 10,000,000 mark Friday.

He based his prediction by computing births, deaths and migration since April, 1960.

At that time Texas had a population of 9,579,677. Then Texans registered 570,259 births and 176,500 deaths or a natural increase of 393,759.

Assuming that the 1950-1960 rate of migration has continued, 26,500 more people have moved into the state than out, during the calculated period. That would give the state a total population of 9,999,927 on July 25.

Dr. Peavy figured Friday was "10 Million Day" since more than 400 people are added daily by the excess of births over deaths.

NATIONAL SEASHORE URGED—The Legislative Beach Study Committee, headed by Sen. Robert W. Baker of Houston, endorsed the creation of a national seashore area on Padre Island during a meeting in Galveston to implement the recent law passed by the U. S. Senate.

Committee is composed of Sen. Culp Krueger, El Campo; Sen. A. R. Schwartz, Galveston; Rep. Neal Caldwell, Alvin; Rep. Don Garrison, Houston; John Mehos of Galveston; Jack E. Walker of Baytown; George T. Camp of Beaumont, and C. T. Parker Jr. and W. B. Edwards of Houston.

They were expected to meet again in the fall to prepare a report for the Legislature.

SAFETY PLAN LAUDED—Governor Daniel credited organizations such as the Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs with awakening public interest in the use of safety belts in automobiles.

He said that Texas Department of Public Safety statisticians have informed him that their accident reports show that "500 lives could have been saved in Texas traffic in 1961 alone if drivers and front-seat passengers, in particular, had been wearing seat belts."

This would have reduced that year's traffic toll by nearly one-fourth.

Jaycees and members of TFWC have been conducting safety belt campaigns.

WILSON CITES ODD CURES—Attorney General Will Wilson noted the recent U. S. District Court's refusal to allow naturopaths to prevent the State of Texas from prosecuting them for practicing medicine without meeting qualifications of the Medical Practices Act.

Wilson called the decision "a valuable tool with which the people of Texas can fight uneducated charlatans and quacks who prey on unfortunate people when they have troubles."

He cited state's evidence including:

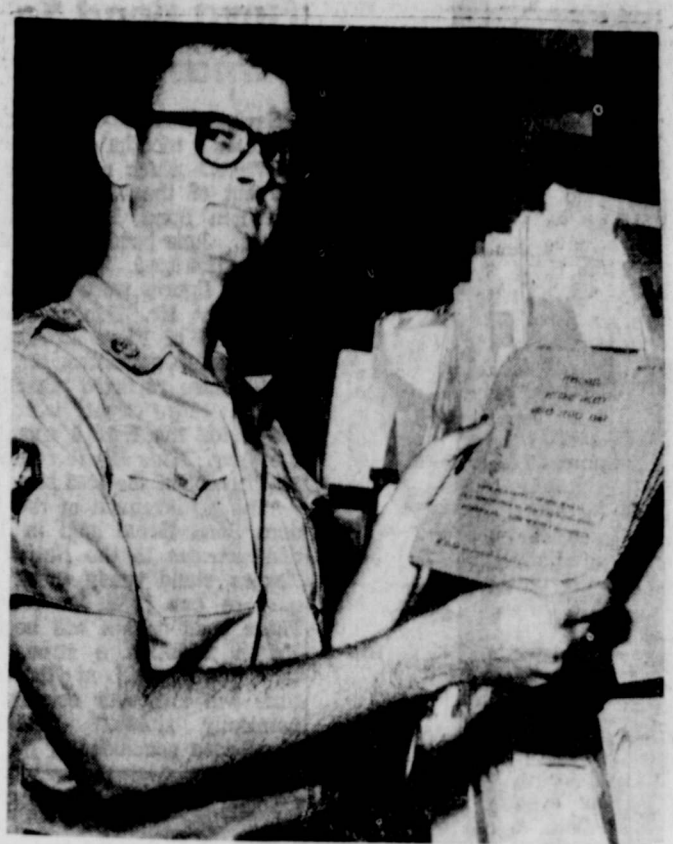

One naturopath who treated patients by sending catnip, parsley and strawberry leaf tea through the mail without having seen the patients.

Another who claimed to be qualified to give psychiatric treatment by an extension course from the University of California. U. of C. denied any knowledge of such a course.

Another claimed to use an electronic machine to detect cancer, cataracts, arthritis and hardening of the arteries from urine specimens sent to him through the mail. Members of the department of electrical engineering at Texas A & M College found the machine incapable of detecting vibrations or diagnosing any form of illness.

James L. McNeen Jr., attorney for the naturopaths, said he would appeal the ruling against his clients to the U. S. Supreme Court.

The naturopaths have filed a $1,000,000 slander suit against the attorney general, but no hearings

THE OLD ADAGE

An old adage, indeed, that "all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy." The "kids" on the farm are models of youthful efficiency. But they go a-fishin' whenever they can.

The business men, the housewives, the schoolchildren — they need their fishin' too!

But there is another way in which the old adage is true: ALL WORKING and no PRAYING leaves man a dull soul!

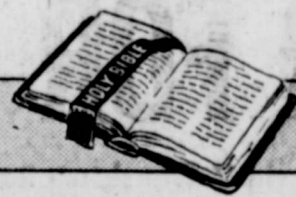

The God who created us never intended us to be able to get along without Him.

Our hands may sow seed, but they can't make it grow. Our minds may work out problems, but they can't solve the world's chaos. All of our efficiency hasn't brought us lasting happiness or firm hope.

But when we turn to our Christian faith, and seek its power through regular worship in our Churches — then we find the things we need and want most!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

VA Loan Guaranty Officers throughout the country are now following this new procedure. They have already begun mailing letters to all the veterans on the direct loan waiting lists, where loan entitlement is due to expire prior to July 1, 1963. This letter will serve these Veterans as a conditional commitment, and if funds are available he will be furnished the necessary application forms prior to July 1, 1963. It also informs the veteran that if he is not furnished a direct loan application before July 1, 1963, the conditional commitment automatically terminates unless it is extended or renewed by the issuing office. For those veterans whose entitlement will expire July 25, 1962, or thereafter, this conditional commitment will simply give them additional time in which to obtain a GI Loan. At this time, there is no assurance that sufficient funds will be available to enable all veterans on the waiting list to obtain a loan by July 1, 1963.
 A letter of conditional commitment will also be sent to each veteran who requests that his name be placed on the direct loan waiting list. This letter will also be good for one year or until July 1, 1963. Although we do not know whether sufficient funds will be made available for all waiting list veterans to obtain loans, we still suggest that any veteran whose entitlement is due to expire within the next year to write in and ask that his name be added to the waiting list, thereby extending his entitlement expiration date for a brief time. If funds are available, he may be able to obtain a direct loan. If his entitlement expires, and he has not been issued one of these conditional commitments, then his right to a GI loan is forever gone. This is his last opportunity to protect this entitlement to the fullest extent.

We sympathize with our long time neighbor and friend, Mrs. H. B. Mankins in the sudden passing of his brother, H. C. Burke, of Lockney, who died last Monday in the Lockney Hospital. Several Center families were among those who attended last rites at the First Baptist Church, Lockney.
 Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Corley and son, of Ft. Worth, were in the Mankins home Wednesday night after the funeral. Mrs. Corley and Mrs. Mankins are sisters.
 The Greens visited the D. I. Boidings Friday evening and Monday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Mankins visited in the Green home Monday afternoon.
 R. H. Ashton, of the Silverton Hiway, is home feeling some better after a week in the local hospital.
 Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Ross were in Hale Center Friday at the hospital seeing her sister-in-law, Mrs. Bob Guffee, who has been moved there from the Muleshoe Hospital. Mrs. Guffee seems somewhat improved.
