"Cotton coverages are considerably higher, and the program generally is improved over any before," Matthews said. "FCIC representatives are visiting farms in this county now and will continue for several weeks, from the Lubbock district FCIC office at 1219 13th Street. Farmers should not delay, because time is limited."

Matthews said Federal All-Risk Crop Insurance is a non-profit government program offered to help farmers protect their production costs against disastrous losses throughout the growing period from all such hazards as wind, hail, excessive moisture, insects, heat, freeze and many others. No such insurance is available elsewhere, he pointed out.

"With today's normal crop-profit down to about 20 per cent, a farmer's high investment (the other 80 percent is vitally important, and it takes a farmer about five years these days to recover from a crop failure," the FCIC official explained. "More and more farmers are turning to Federal Crop Insurance to protect this big investment dollar."

Postmaster Ed Wester again warns about location of rural mail boxes as follows:

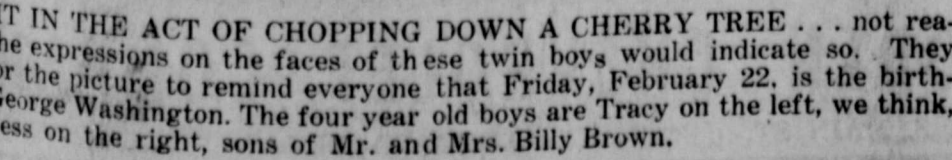

"The relocation of rural route and star route boxes, to conform with regulations requiring the carrier to serve only boxes located on the right hand side, in the direction of carrier's travel, is progressing satisfactorily. We realize the snow and bad weather has affected some moves, but you still have ample time before the deadline, February 28, 1963."

"These moves were brought by State Traffic Laws and Uniform Traffic Codes that must be observed by all Rural Carriers (See Wester, Page 6)

What Happens To Your Food Dollar

How many times have you looked at the price tag after a trip to the supermarket and exclaimed, "Just look at this grocery bill!"?

It seems as if the family grocery expense gets bigger every week and that food prices are enormous. But here is a suggestion.

The next time you unload the car on returning from the supermarket, spread the items out on the kitchen table and have a look at them. It may surprise you. How many of those items are "non-food" purchases? How many can you actually eat, and how much of it is soap, tooth paste, household cleansers, mops, gadgets, beauty preparations and even toys, books and magazines?

The supermarket today is a combination grocery store, notions dispenser, hardware seller, dry goods vendor, toy shop, tobacconist, library and — with its mechanized rides to amuse the children — a kiddie park. This vast neon-trimmed shopping area, with its thousands of square feet of floor space and acres of parking is the modern day counterpart of the old general store. You can spend a lot of money there.

Yet we make a common mistake of getting home from a trip to this wonderland of national products and bewailing the high cost of "groceries. Who is the first to get the blame for it? Too often, the scapegoat of our wrath is the farmer — that guy "out there somewhere."

Sure, your shopping bill at the supermarket is higher. But a recent report by Purdue University revealed that about 20 percent of what you carried home in that grocery sack was non-food items.

Farm food is still your best buy, and the item whose cost has risen more slowly than nearly any other item you purchase. Farm food sold in retail stores has gone up in price some 13 per cent in the past decade. Meanwhile, all other items that we buy for daily living has gone up an average of 32 per cent. Housing costs are up nearly 33 per cent in the same period. Rent has skyrocketed 44 per cent. And transportation has soared 50 per cent.

We as a nation pay a smaller part of our income for food than any other industrialized country. We spend about 20 per cent of our earnings for food compared to 30 per cent in France and England, 42 per cent in Japan, 45 per cent in West Germany and 56 per cent in Russia.

In abundance, variety, convenience, and wholesomeness, American food is without equal — including its fair price.

Goldwater Fluid

After telling reporters he would announce his intentions in March, Senator Barry Goldwater has changed his intention and asked supporters not to put too much pressure on him for another year — to decide his course as to the 1964 presidential election.

A continuing surge of conservative sentiment supports the Arizona Republican but Goldwater has apparently decided that it is too early to determine his chances in a convention vote — test with Governor Nelson Rockefeller of New York.

This probably means an advantage will pass to Rockefeller, for in the year ahead the more formidable Rockefeller organization will have a golden opportunity to build a commanding lead in convention votes.

Goldwater believes, apparently, that this is his only course at the moment. The Republican Party has not nominated a genuine conservative since 1936.

It would seem that Goldwater is moving carefully and that he realizes the formidable task ahead of him. More than that, he probably knows that his chances for the top G.O.P. nomination in 1964 depend upon the course of political and domestic events in the next year or eighteen months.

9. Adopt this code and encourage others to abide by its intent.

Floyd Philosopher Amazed To Learn Government Requires Some Business To Profit

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm may be misinterpreting a law but we aren't prepared to say.

Dear editor: Up to now, I haven't paid too much attention to Congress' struggle to change the tax laws this year, figuring it would take its time and anyway what it has done is not as bad as what it could do.

But I read an article last night that has bowled me over and I'm coming out for some immediate changes. According to it, a Texas millionaire who owns a professional football team at Dallas has been satisfied to let the team lose an enormous amount of money for the past three years, just taking it off his income tax. But under an Internal Revenue Service law, he has only one more year to go, and if the team doesn't show a profit, he has to call it a hobby and go back and pay the taxes written off as losses the last three years.

This is a serious matter. You mean to say if I lose money four years in a row on this Johnson grass farm the government will call my farming a hobby and make me go back and pay income taxes on something I didn't make? Say I lost money four years in a row raising wheat, you mean to say the government could claim I was raising wheat as a hobby?

This is the first time I ever knew there was a law requiring a man to make a profit. If enforcement of this thing spreads, it'll throw agriculture into a tailspin, no to say the penitentiary.

Up to now, farming was one of the few occupations where a man could lose money every year and still stay in business and I'm appealing to you to use your influence to get Congress to repeal this law at once. Doesn't Washington know I've had a good year when I can show a smaller loss than the year before?

You set out to tell a farmer he has to make a profit or be taxed for his losses and the bottom will fall out of agriculture.

In the meantime, while Congress is getting around to changing this rule, the least Washington can do is to double my government checks, just to keep me inside the law. I'll go along with such an arrangement, and Congress can take its time on the other part.

Yours faithfully
J. A.

Skip Row Cotton Worth $50,000,000.00

HALFWAY, Texas — Dr. Earl H. Collier, Director of the High Plains Research Foundation said for five years. The cotton-soybean system has proved more profitable than the solid planting cotton under irrigation had of each crop every year. The been achieved by scientists at the Foundation after five years of testing has been the best for five years. A skip-row system of two rows of cotton and four rows of soybeans has resulted in a cotton increase of 244 pounds this period.

The skip-row system has long been a practice in low rainfall dryland areas. The Foundation pioneered in experimenting with various crop combinations in the skip-row system under irrigation on the High Plains and found that it paid off.

Delbert Langford, Associate Agronomist at the Foundation, in charge of the Skip-Row research for five years stated that "the use of the skip-row system in planting cotton under irrigation during 1963 could increase the cotton yield by 500,000 bales over solid planted cotton in the High and South Plains. This would give a possible increase of fifty million dollars income in one year if the practice were adopted throughout the area. If the skip-row system were used throughout the entire Cotton Belt in 1963, it would result in several million dollars added income to the farmer and cotton industry."

This statement was made following a review of five years of research results of the skip-row systems that had been conducted by Mr. Langford at the Foundation.

Five-year results at the Foundation have shown a top cotton yield increase of 91 percent by using a skip-row system of two rows of cotton and four rows of soybeans compared to a solid planting of cotton. The 1962 results varied from 10 to 60 percent increase due to use of the skip-row system over solid planting, despite the hail on May 16 which required replanting on May 23. The skip-row system results were compared with solid planting in each crop.

Eleven different systems are compared in Research Report Number 61 which will be issued by the Foundation next week. The cotton was interplanted with soybeans, grain sorghum, and castorbeans in 1962. The skip-row system also has applications in the value of the activity in agriculture. Mr. and Mrs. Amarillo have much of their time acquainted with a Joe Douglas Warren and Mrs. Bill Hill who was born also at Lubbock with other cash crops or left fallow. Johnny Bill Warren, quite ill, was brought the week from the hospital with a kidney infection. W. P. Ware of Colton other grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. James is of Route 3, Floydada. The baby weighed six and one half pounds. Mr. and Mrs. laborer.

Mr. Langford said "the proper use of the data in this report requires much careful planning in the adaptation to the individual farm operations."

In commenting on the research results obtained in the skip-row investigation, Dr. Collier stated "The profitable results of this

School Library Receives Second Book Shipment

W. P. Nicholson, principal of Andrews Ward School reports the school library has received the second shipment of a choice selection of science and arithmetic books from the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

Mr. Nicholson feels the children of Andrews Ward are fortunate in having the privilege of using these books free of charge during this school year. There were only 800 elementary schools in the United States selected to participate in this program this year and the local school was among the 800.

Two of the main requirements for selection was to have a central library and to allow students to carry books home for reading. Many elementary schools throughout the nation do not have a central library and many that do, will not allow students to check books out and take them home for the purpose of reading.

Given in marriage by her brother, Bob Green of Borger, the bride wore a blue double knit suit with matching accessories and carried a bouquet of white fringed carnations atop a white Bible. For something old she carried her mother's white linen handkerchief; something new was her suit. For something borrowed she wore a strand of pearls belonging to her aunt Mrs. Tate Jones of Floydada, and for something blue she wore a blue garret given her by Mrs. Margaret Hobbs Cardwell of Sudan.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Anne Green, wearing a shell pink shantung sheath with matching accessories and carnation corsage, was Matron of Honor. The bridegroom's brother-in-law, Chas. R. FLOYDADA, TEXAS

Floydada Girl Scouts Will Join Caprock Council

Following a National Directive to abolish existing Lone Troops and incorporate them into a Council, members of the Floydada Girl Scout Neighborhood Service Team have accepted an invitation to join the Caprock Council. The merger will be completed by June.

The present Caprock Council consists of these eleven counties: Bailey, Crosby, Dickens, Garza, Hale, Hookley, Lamb, Lubbock, Lynn, Farmer, and Terry Counties. Plainview Council in Hale County has voted to merge with Caprock Council.

Six counties with Lone Troops are also included in the Council Coverage Plan. To join Caprock Council are: Castro, Swisher, Briscoe, Floyd, Yoakum, and Midway Counties, bringing a total of 18 counties with 5,000 Girl Scouts into the enlarged Caprock Council.

Caprock Girl Scout Council will continue to have its Headquarters at the Girl Scout office, 2008 Ave. P, in Lubbock. Four Professional Workers will work from this office. Mrs. Irene Beck is the Executive Director. A District Office will be located at the Plainview Girl Scout House, 501 1/2 St. Mrs. Thelma Vestal, Professional Worker, will be in charge.

Floydada Attends Plainview Meeting

At a recent meeting in Plainview prospective members participated in a Round Table Discussion with Mrs. Spilly Lutzmann of Loveland, Pres. Caprock Council, Mrs. Regine Wagner of Plainview, Pres. Plainview Council, Mrs. Thelma Vestal of Plainview, Executive Director Plainview Council, and Mrs. Irene Beck of Lubbock, the Executive Director of Caprock Council.

Representing Floydada were Mrs. Tom Sead, Chairman, Mrs. Vernon Wright, Sec., and Mrs. Rex Lackey, Pres. 1962 Jr. Study Club.

Scout Leaders present were Mesdames Gene Arwine, Mac Fowler, W. T. Ginner, C. N. Fowler, and Don Daniel.

Why Join a Council? Advantages of Council membership were elaborated on at the meeting. A few are listed below:

- Blanket insurance for every troop in every town (Lone Troops have had no liability or hospitalization coverage in past.)
- Complete set of training materials for new leaders.
- A Leadership Training Course with 4 highly trained teachers to come to each town (Lone Troop Leaders were self-trained, or drove to Plainview to attend a 5 day course. Better trained leaders result in better trained Scouts.)

- Benefits resulting from the exchange of ideas and the interchange from fellowship with adults and Scouts from other towns. (This means that the Scout Program is a continuous progression with each age group from 7 to 17.)
- Professional help available to leaders.
- New horizons in camping opportunities at State, National, and International levels. (Many Lone Troops have never had any type of camping experience because they lack equipment, skills, and finances.)
- Availability of Council films for troop use.
- A closer bond of sisterhood for Girl Scouts around the World.
- Insurance that the Girl Scout movement shall not die in Floydada. (In the past Scouting here has been like a lighted match, waiting for another to be lit. Council membership is similar to a camp fire that does not die. Another analogy is "Central Heating".)

What Will it Cost? Caprock Girl Scout Council's new 18 County Budget is $60,000, compared to the South Plains Boy Scout Council, which has 22 counties and a budget this year of $182,000.

Floydada's portion of the Girl Scout budget is $750, which is about $10 per girl, or $30 a month. Assessment is figured on 3 things: population of city, per capita income, and number of Scouts.

Where Does the Money Go?

1. The money raised from the annual Girl Scout Drive will support the operating expenses of the Council for services rendered. Since leaders and Scouts may not solicit, a Citizens Committee is being organized to spearhead the drive. Clay Henry has been named "Financial Advisor", and will represent Floydada on the Council Board of Directors.

2. Local Scouts will sell Girl Scout cookies each year to help with the maintenance and expansion of the Council-owned "Camp Rio Blanco", located in Crosby.

3. Local Troops will cover the cost of their own operating expenses through membership dues.

4. Local Neighborhood Service Teams, representing all the troops in Floydada, will pay for maintenance on the local Girl Scout Hut through Troop and club contributions.

The Town is Beneficiary Floydada will be the ultimate beneficiary. Girl Scouts are to be the mothers, school teachers, Sunday School teachers, and Scout leaders who instill high ideals into the next generation of children. They will be the wives who have learned thrift, loyalty, and self-discipline. They will be the P.T.A. Presidents, the Cancer Drive Chairmen, and the Voters who feel a keen sense of civic responsibility. The cost of Girl Scouting, in terms of volunteer work and money, is low when the community reaps such a harvest.

Girl Scout Troop No. 1 is now selling Girl Scout peanuts. The "Travel Pack" sells for $1.00 and consists of one can of Virginia salted peanuts and one can of mixed nuts. Proceeds from the sales will be used to buy camping equipment for the troop. Those wishing to purchase nuts may call their favorite fourth grade scout or Mrs. Gene Arwine.

The Society Editor Writes Story From Wedding Form

The Hesperian uses a special wedding form that is filled out by the couple to be married which usually gives the many details of a wedding. We reprint here with a copy of a wedding from another newspaper that could well be if the society editor didn't check the wedding forms very closely.

Here's the story (as it might have been written by following a wedding announcement form.)

"Emmanuel Lutheran church was chosen by Mary Jones for her recent marriage to John Brown. The bride came down the aisle decorated with white satin bows and green ivy. She walked on the arm of her father, William Jones, to meet the bridegroom at the altar. The altar was flanked with bouquets of stephanitis, gaidiolas and carnations.

"The bride, carrying a cortege of pail pink and white roses, centered with a white orchard, was a fusion as she approached the altar where the minister stood. Bible in hand, to deprecate at the exchange of neptune vows.

Miss Jones parents, Mrs. and Mrs. William Jones, live in the city. Mr. Brown's parents are deceased.

The bride wore a gown of white tulle with side draping. The encaloped neckline was enhanced with erredescent sequene, pearls and beads. The embroyded bouffette skirt had a chape length trail embedded with dequence. The gown had long tapered sleeves, fingertip lenth, a princese stile bodish, and the skirt drapping fell into a carriage.

"The bride's heidpeece was a princess cown style with perales. A tearer of pearses and rheinstones held a vale of silk illusion.

The bridel attendence, fiends of the bride for many years, wore gowns of water-shrimp colored organiza with taffeta underskirts. The gowns had vee neck scoons, and were fashioned with flared skirts.

"The attendence wore small hats trimmed with pearls and nose vales. The bridesmaids carried conical bouquets of white sambidium orchids as they predd the bride down the wite-curpeted avel to the altier.

The mother of the bride was cheek in a dress of satire blue. It was made sheeth-stile and she wore a matching floured hat. She pined a white orchard corsage to her dress, and her costume was competed with white assories.

"A reception was held at the brides home immediatly following the ceremony. The mother's attendants wore white. Flowers were used throughout the house. A spry arrangement of blue iris was centered on the piano and baksets of pink gaidiolas, waxed oranage blooms and confetti were used about the room.

"A bouffet supper was served to 59 gests after which the nearly-weds left for a short honeymoon. Before leaving the bride threw ner banquet at the bridesmaids."

Duplicate Clean-up Kits. Next time you stock up on cleaning supplies and equipment, consider the advantages of duplicate sets in various areas of your home.

The kitchen, bathroom, and laundry should each have its own special set of soap, detergent, cleansers and cleaning tools; and a two story house needs a complete kit on each level.

The 4-H council meeting was set up a week early because of the stock show, so will be held Tuesday, February 26. Plans will be made at this meeting for the observance of National 4-H club week.

Fabrics for the coming season are feminine in all ways. The embroidered linen and linen-like weaves are being offered in abundance. There are many sparkling modern motifs being offered in satin stitch, eyelet, and chain stitches. There is the corded or raffia embroidery look and drawn work is often combined with embroidery.

What is new? Denium stretch fabric which has proven itself a success in ready-to-wear is being offered by the yard in fabric departments. The stretch is from selvage to selvage and is most effective when used as a cross-stitch for pants. This fabric has excellent body and tailors beautifully. A stretch satene is available too and is excellent for tailoring into slacks and sportswear.

Burlap is popular again this season in its new knitted form and bright colors. Knits are more important than ever. A wide range of colors is offered in double knit.

The linen weave has shown its influence in wool, silk, cotton and knits. Pure linen knit may be open and lacy or closely knit stripes and patterns. Bulky mohair or mohair and cotton is excellent for the handknit look. Stripes far outnumber checks and plaids this season. Ticking stripes and seersucker stripe are shown in numerous ways, wide and narrow, tailored and feminine.

The trend for this spring and summer is to the most feminine look possible.

Highway Patrol Investigates One Rural Accident

The Highway Patrol investigated one rural accident in Floyd County during the month of January according to Sergeant D. S. Lawson, Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These wrecks accounted for a total property damage in the amount of $1,300.00.

The Highway Patrol Supervisor pointed out that rural motor vehicle traffic accidents in the 29 county North Texas district have declined slightly during January, 1963, as compared with the same month last year. Seven deaths were chalked up last month as compared to nine that were recorded in January, 1962, 137 injuries compared to 147 for January, 1962. A total of 216 rural traffic accidents were investigated as compared to 217 for January, 1962. "This slight overall decrease of deaths, injuries and accidents is encouraging, but these figures must be greatly reduced for each of the following months of 1963 if we are to have a safe year in motor vehicle travel," the Sergeant stated.

The Veteran Patrol Supervisor reminded motorists that the law requires all Texas registered motor vehicles to have valid inspection stickers displayed by midnight April 15.

A National Academy of Foreign Affairs time after time. This year we need more help; we have a better chance of passing it. In Texas, where we are greatly concerned with world trade because of agricultural production and our big port cities, we know the importance of having trained men and women dealing with our foreign affairs. Our foreign affairs would be in better shape if we had seen to the proper training of governmental personnel decades ago. You know we have a fine U. S. Military Academy at West Point, a Naval Academy at Annapolis, and an Air Force Academy in Colorado, but we have no national academy to train strategists to win victories in the diplomatic field.

I have also introduced a bill long sought by the Lower Colorado River Authority for a Columbus Bend Dam project on the Colorado River, between LaGrange and Columbus. As one of the original members of the Lower Colorado River Authority almost 30 years ago, I am deeply concerned with the future of this legislation. It is part of an overall development plan for the Colorado River.

Yarborough Newsletter

This is to give you a brief report on the bills that I've introduced or joined other Senators in co-sponsoring in this 88th Session of Congress. So far this year I have sponsored or co-sponsored more than 30 separate bills in the U. S. Senate. Of the first five bills introduced in the Senate this year, my name is on four of them. All four are bills of national significance. Number One is the Youth Conservation Corps Bill; Number Five is my Cold War GI Education Bill.

As chairman of the Veterans Affairs Subcommittee, I have introduced seven bills affecting the rights or benefits of military veterans. These include my GI Bill for educational aid to the veterans of this so-called Cold War, in which men are being killed; a bill for a Veterans Administration Hospital in South Texas, for which there has long been a critical need; a bill to extend the maturity date on veterans home loans from 30 years to 35 years, so the veterans of small income will be able to build a home; and bills on other pressing veterans affairs, principally to secure hospitalization rights.

Senator Hubert Humphrey this year introduced a bill for a Youth Conservation Corps, and I have co-sponsored it. This bill would help provide employment and training for the young people at a time in their lives when idleness can destroy their future. Not only would it give them employment and training, it would also aid in the conservation of our natural resources much like the CCC CAMPS did in the 1930's. Senator Humphrey is Majority Whip of the Senate and was the first other Senator to co-sign my GI Education Bill. His aid can make passage of the GI Bill much less difficult in the Senate.

Another bill that I have co-sponsored this year is one to set up research centers on water resources at colleges. They would be located at state universities and land grant colleges. Texas could benefit immensely from this bill if we had water research centers at Texas A & M, the University of Texas, or branches of these institutions. We in the years ahead only if we plan wisely and act in time to conserve our natural resources. With research centers in Texas' universities and colleges, we would gain first in immediate knowledge, and in the future by producing experts in the field. The principal author of this bill is Senator Clinton Anderson of New Mexico. His state — like Texas — knows the terrible cost of drought and flood.

Senator Stuart Symington of Missouri has introduced a bill for a National Academy of Foreign Affairs, which I am co-sponsoring. Fellow Texans, in my campaign for the Senate in 1957 and 1958, I advocated such a bill. I co-sponsored a bill on

YOU'LL BE SINGING IN THE RAIN IF YOU HAVE AN ELECTRIC CLOTHES DRYER

Changeable winter weather will hold no worries for the housewife who owns an electric dryer. She knows that her important clothes drying will go right on rain or shine — puff or blow.

Don't be one of those old fashioned homemakers that have to depend on an outside line to dry clothes.

Harsh West Texas weather is too hard on that expensive wardrobe — there is no need to allow the elements to whip and beat your clothes when they can be dried safely without damage in an electric dryer.

Make up your mind now to dry your clothes the modern way — the electric way. Leave the clothes line to the birds and move your drying job indoors where it belongs.

See your Floydada appliance dealer soon and find the proper make and model electric dryer to serve your family.

With an electric dryer you too will be "Singing in the rain."

■ Unique touch in the Goode home is this master bedroom featuring decorative lighting and a sitting room separated by attractive wire divider. Mrs. Goode saw idea in magazine and adapted it.

Mrs. Goode is delighted with her electric kitchen. Note drawer, below built-in electric oven, designed to "file" pot and pan covers. Each cover has its own place preventing marring and adding convenience to kitchen cooking.

This is the Goode home, as it is today. Exciting remodeling project started with original home, built in 1944. Original kitchen was converted to master bedroom. The Goodes planned their fully electric remodeling, right from the start, and so got an excellent job.

How Long Did It Take You To Court Your Wife?

Did you happen to see her... walk up to her... ask her to marry you... call in the minister... right on the spot?

Certainly Not

It probably took a lot of calls and trips, movies, flowers, candies, and a lot of putting your best-foot-forward tactics. You had to sell yourself. She had to know all about you.

It's the Same with Advertising

You can't "woo" customers with one ad... you've got to "call on them" over a period of time... you've got to win their confidence and be convincing.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Lawyers are won- this state needs," Greer told the Texas Senate really House Appropriations Committee. He added that more working on proposing that car tags just means additional expense.

"All law enforcement officers will tell you," Greer explained, "that the readability of the rest of the plate is lessened if you crowd in slogans."

PARKS - HIGHWAYS TIE IN— Greer testified before the same committee during hearings on a bill by Rep. David Haines of Bryan to put state parks under the Highway Commission's jurisdiction.

Greer made it clear that his commission is not seeking an extra job. But he stated, "If you gave us the parks to administer, we would do an outstanding job of it."

Haines' proposal is an alternative to Gov. John Connally's suggestion that the Parks Board be combined with the Game and Fish Commission.

Rep. Haines said he thought Greer's agency could and should take over the parks, and make each highway district responsible for the parks in its district.

"If the parks were improved," Haines stated, "it would increase highway travel, which would increase gas consumption. And that would increase the gas taxes to the highway commission, so they would have a high stake in doing a good job."

DEATH OF POLL TAX? — If the rest of the Senate feels like the Senate committee on constitutional amendments, the poll tax may be on its way to extinction.

Committee gave a nine-to-two approval of Laredo Sen. Abraham Kazen's bill to submit to the people a constitutional amendment that would kill the poll tax as of February 1, 1965.

The two "no" votes in committee came from Sen. George Parkhouse of Dallas and Sen. Galloway Calhoun Jr. of Tyler.

"Ayes" came from Sens. Kazen, Charles Herring of Austin, Roy Harrington of Port Arthur, Don Kennard of Fort Worth, Culp Krueger of El Campo, Walter Richter of Gonzales, Aaron Schwartz of Galveston, Franklin Spears of San Antonio and Jack Strong of Longview.

If Kazen's bill passes the full legislature, voters would make the final decision in the 1964 general election. So far, every state that has voted on the federal constitutional amendment to do away with poll taxes, except Mississippi, has voted to drop it.

'COLOR-BLIND' TAX — Rep. Howard Green of Fort Worth introduced a bill to make the poll tax "color blind."

Green called the race notation on voter registration forms useless and outmoded. Furthermore, "It is an additional barrier to full citizenship."

He believes his bill will pass with little opposition, but there are many who consider the race notation a necessary aid to voter identification.

He believes his bill will pass with little opposition, but there are many who consider the race notation a necessary aid to voter identification.

ANTI-POLLUTION BILL — A bill to give a county health officer the power to enter and check business establishments and manufacturing plants "to discover threats to the public health" from air or water pollution was revived by Rep. Bob Eckhardt of Houston. He failed to get it passed in previous sessions.

Governor Connally is supporting the new bill.

ATTORNEY GENERAL DONATIONS OPPOSED — Contributions from oil companies to finance investigations by the attorney general to see if competitor's oil wells are slanted would be outlawed under a bill introduced by Rep. Ben Barnes of DeLeon.

Nearly $300,000 in contributions from major — and some minor — oil companies was used by former Atty. Gen. Will Wilson to make such surveys in East Texas.

Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr told Representative Barnes that the $300,000 recently appropriated by the legislature will be sufficient for his investigations.

So Barnes filed a proposal which would make it illegal for the attorney general to accept money from anyone to investigate or prosecute anything.

PARENTAL PAY PLAN — Fifty per cent of a man's weekly wages could be attached to pay child support if Tyler Rep. Ben Jarvis' bill becomes a constitutional amendment.

COUNTY UNIT CHANGE PROPOSED — Rep. George T. Hinson of Mineola thinks it's time someone started doing something about "modernizing county government." So he has introduced a bill to require county commissioners to be elected by the county at large.

Each county precinct would have to put up resident candidates, which, Hinson explained, would assure continued local representation through pooled knowledge of each precinct's problems, and prevent the largest community from filling a commissioner's court with its own residents.

Hinson believes his county-at-large election plan would get commissioners from all precincts to work at all times for the best interests of the entire county.

If his bill becomes law, Hinson sees it as a forerunner to eventual, economical pooling of the resources — capital, road machinery, manpower and equipment — of all a county's precincts into one central unit.

DO 'EYES' HAVE IT? — A proposal by Rep. Bill Walker of Cleveland that the state song be changed from "Texas, Our Texas," to "The Eyes of Texas" has been referred to a study subcommittee which includes no Texas exes.

Subcommittee chairman Gene Hendryx of Alpine is a Sul Ross graduate. One member, Rep. Howard Green of Fort Worth, finished at T.C.U., and the third member is an ex-Aggie — Rep. Richard C. Slack of Pecos.

"Some interested legislators have suggested that the 'Eyes of Texas' might be made more palatable if the opening bars of the 'Aegie War Hymn' were added. But a state association of music clubs has indicated that the Aggies aren't the only ones opposed to a change of the state anthem."

A&M DIRECTORS NAMED — An ex-Aggie, a "Harvard man," and a graduate of Case Institute of Technology were named by Governor Connally to six-year terms on Texas A & M College's board of directors.

L. F. (Pete) Peterson of Fort Worth, recently named president of A&M's Former Students Association; Gardiner Symonds, head of Tennessee Gas Transmission Company of Houston, who received a master's degree from Harvard; and Case graduate Dr. A. P. Beutel, director of Dow Chemical Company, are Connally's nominations.

Senate will vote on seven other college board appointments this week. But the date it will consider the A&M appointments has not been set.

BEACH BEHAVIOR — "We have a terrible situation in regard to littering on Padre Island," says Nueces County Judge Noah Kennedy.

Kennedy and two other Corpus Christi officials appeared before a House committee to speak in favor of a bill by Rep. James Lattimore of Corpus Christi which would allow Gulf Coast counties to regulate speeding and littering on public beaches.

UNION SUES TEC — A suit against the Texas Employment Commission has been filed by the AFL-CIO.

Labor union accuses three TEC commissioners and four employees of "pro-employer lobbying."

Petition also alleges use of state funds for research and preparation of a pro-employer amendments to the State Unemployment Compensation Act.

"These actions violate state law prohibiting state employees from influencing legislation or legislators," claims the union.

Sen. Culp Krueger of El Campo, sponsor of one of the TEC bills, says the suit is just another AFL-CIO smoke screen to hide the real issue — which is their opposition to the appointment of J. E. Lyles as labor's representative on the commission.

LABOR LAW HIT — Rep. O. H. (Ike) Harris (R-Dallas) has introduced a bill to repeal the so-called "Lyndon Johnson law."

Present law permits a candidate's name to appear on the ballot twice, thus permitting him to run for two offices at the same time.

CONVICT LABOR — Use of prison labor to improve state parks is under consideration.

This fact was brought out in a legislative hearing of the House Appropriations Committee.

Dr. George Beto, director of the Texas Department of Corrections, was asked about the prospect of using convicts to clean up and repair parks buildings. He replied that prison officials already are considering this.

CARR DISCUSSES PROSECUTIONS — Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr and Polk County Dist. Atty. Sam Freas have held preliminary discussions toward possible state-county coordination of prosecutions for graft in Polk County.

Carr said the Polk County official has asked for help in prosecuting indictments returned by the county grand jury against four county commissioners and a county judge for malfeasance of office.

SECURITIES EXAMS — Securities dealers and salesmen will have to pass a written exam to get a license if a bill by Rep. Gen Fondren of Taylor becomes law.

SADLER SAVES FUNDS — Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler says he is doing more work for less money.

Sadler has written the chairman of the Senate finance and House appropriations committees that he is asking $82,000 less for 1964-65 operations than the present budget.

SULPHUR PINCH — Sulphur industry spokesmen have asked for a tax cut to help them fight competition from Louisiana, Mexico and elsewhere.

After hearing three Texas sulphur producers tell of declining sales, closed mines, worker layoffs and shrinking dividends, the House Taxation Committee assigned three members to make further study.

A bill proposing a cut of 37 cents per-long-ton in the Texas severance tax, now $1.40, would equalize the rate with Louisiana.

Rep. Bill Walker of Cleveland is author of the bill for a $1.03 per-ton rate.

DANIEL APPOINTEE REJECTED — Texas Senate has rejected confirmation of former House member Joe Ed Winfree of Houston as a member of the State Board of Control.

This action removed the vet-
