

Council Gives Green Light For Street Signs In Floydada

Chamber Group Submits Plan

The City Council approved unanimously a plan outlined by the Streets and Highway committee of the chamber of commerce for erecting street signs at every intersection in the city at its regular monthly meeting in city hall Tuesday night.

Sammy Hale and Dr. Charles Craig presented the plan to the council for the chamber group and explained its advantages and possibilities. Basically, the plan calls for posting signs of the names of the streets as they are at present with a system of numerical sequence from the courthouse in four directions.

No street names will be changed, no house numbers will be changed, no block numbers will be changed.

For instance the street that is two blocks south of the courthouse at present is Kentucky Street. Its street sign would read "Kentucky, 2S". First street at present is five blocks west of the courthouse. Its sign would read "First, 5-W". Dr. Craig said he had seen a similar sign plan in Salt Lake City.

In discussing the plan before the council voted, Mayor Ross told the group of many embarrassing situations he had faced due to the fact that the city has no signs. He read a letter he had received from a resident of Plainview who said, "Mayor you have a very nice town, but why in the world don't you have some street signs?"

Most of the discussion centered around the fact that signs were necessary even if it would not be possible to rename streets in proper sequence.

Dr. Craig also stated that the Post Office department would be "fouled up" if street names were changed. Hale reported that the postoffice inspector had stated to the local postmaster last week that technically the department

Phyllis Submits Resignation

Phyllis Roggendorf, who was Floyd county home demonstration agent for almost five years submitted her resignation to the County Commissioner's Court at its regular monthly meeting Monday.

Her resignation becomes effective June 14.

Miss Roggendorf has announced plans to become married to Jim Smith of Lubbock. At this time she states that announcement will be made later as to where they will reside.

Miss Roggendorf said she had enjoyed the work with Floyd county people.

Besides the sponsorship of many outstanding programs in the county, Miss Roggendorf has trained many other home demonstration agents.

Appointment of a successor to the county home demonstration job will be made by Mrs. Aubrey Russell, district agent of Lubbock on approval by the Commissioner's Court.

"Yes" Or "No" To Government Program For Wheat In 1964

Over 1200 wheat farmers are qualified to vote in Floyd county Tuesday, May 21, on the 1964 Wheat Referendum according to ASC head Tom Hutchins. Wives are also qualified to vote, which means a potential of over 2400 votes.

Discussion of the vote has been strong and in many cases heated in Floyd county the past month as both politics and points of controversy have been argued.

Government control of cotton was voted down in a light vote last fall in the county and the nation's wheat farmers almost voted down the 1963 wheat program last year. In Floyd county the vote was close for approval.

The vote must carry by two-thirds in the nation if the 1964 program is to go into effect.

How would the proposed program work? Here is an example of what would happen to a typical wheat farmer if the proposed program passes or fails.

Farmer Brown is a Texas wheat producer. He has a dryland farm which was allotted a 100-acre wheat base in the 1963 farm program. Farmer Brown will have one vote in the national wheat referendum scheduled solely for the 1964 crop. Another national referendum will have to be held again next year for future farm legislation.

His 1964 crop will ultimately fall under one of three possible federal farm programs — the Administration's proposal; legislation set by the Food and Agriculture Act of 1962; or some other program which may be proposed in event the May 21 referendum fails to pass.

Under the proposed program, Farmer Brown would receive a mandatory 10 per cent cut in production (acreage). Thus, he would have a base allotment of 90 acres for 1964. To be eligible for price supports, he must accept the mandatory 10 per cent acreage reduction.

His normal yield is 20 bushels per acre (based on the previous five years). On 80 per cent of "normal" production from the 90 acres, Farmer Brown would receive price supports at the rate of $2 per bushel, about 83 per cent of parity.

He would be able to market 1,440 bushels at the certificate price of $2 per bushel. The balance of Farmer Brown's production from the 90 acres could be marketed at feed grain price support level of $1.30 per bushel, or held over for future marketing.

Now Farmer Brown would also be eligible to receive diversion payments on the mandatory 10 per cent diversion.

He can receive diversion payments equal to 30 per cent of normal production at the $2 price support rate. Therefore, on the 10 acres, his cash payments would be $120 for taking the land out of wheat production.

He could plant the 10 acres to conservation crops such as grasses and legumes. These would be

Postoffice Aids Livestock Survey

Postmaster E. H. Wester reminds rural patrons of the Floydada Post Office to be on the lookout for June Livestock Survey cards. Next week, mail carriers will leave survey cards in a sample of boxes along their routes.

USDA bases livestock and poultry estimate on replies to this survey," Mr. Wester explains. "It is important for everyone who gets a card to fill it out and return it to the carrier. This way, USDA gets a representative sample of the area's livestock and poultry holdings.

Carriers assisting with the survey are: Lorin Leibfried, Route 1; Jeff Welborn, Route 2; Burl Huckabee, Route 3; Orville Newberry, Route 4; Ted Bell, Star Route.

Where Will Floydada Get Dam Water For Future?

As we continue to see publicity about progress of the Canadian River Dam project and realize that area towns have insurance on water for a very long future, we wonder how long Floydada's underground water will last . . . and then what we'll do, when it is gone. Nearby city Plainview, which today has an abundance of water looks forward to the day it will receive dam water from Canadian.

In this issue of the Hesperian is a story about the progress of the White River dam to our southeast. It mentions that pipelines are being laid to the cities of Post and Spur.

True, we are in no bind for water NOW. The city has been very fortunate in the gift of two wells on the Bert Massie land . . . and we can only hope that enough underground water will be available for 20-30-40 years.

In the meantime it looks like Floydada has sorta missed the "dam" water. We visited with the publisher of the Silverton paper at the press convention in Amarillo not long ago and it is his opinion that many dam sites are available near Silverton that would be large enough to supply water to Silverton, Lockney and Floydada.

It is the belief of this newspaper that the proper officials should begin investigation of this possibility immediately.

Street Signs For Floydada

In the early years of our country, a good-hearted New York grandmother told a grandson that she would buy him a new pair of shoes. This was in the days when a pair of shoes was a substantial and welcome gift. She even agreed to his request that he be allowed to order the kind of shoes he wanted from the village cobbler. This should not have been difficult. There were really only two choices. He could have them finished with round toes or square toes. Knowing that he would have to wear the shoes a long time, the youngster hesitated and delayed making a choice. He stopped by the cobbler's shop every day for a week and talked over the merits of square toes and round toes, but he still could not make up his mind. One day he went in and the shoes were done . . . one had a square toe and one a round toe.

Frugal parents were deaf to his protests that he looked funny in shoes that did not match. His grandmother was only good-hearted, not soft-hearted. She agreed with the parents that he must wear the shoes he bought. And he did wear them as a constant reminder that even a decision which may later prove second best is better than no decision at all.

Most of us can look back and wish that the names of our streets in Floydada had been so arranged that they would be alphabetically and numerically in a sequence leading away from the courthouse. This is the proper way for streets and signs to be arranged. Possibly this should have been done when the post office decided to use door to door foot carriers . . . or at any rate many years ago. We can all look back and see how we would have acted differently or made an important decision differently years ago.

So, we believe that the city council's decision . . . although not the best . . . is better than no decision at all. Street signs up are better than no street signs at all. When our Aunt Josie comes to town and we want to direct her to Ross street, we may not remember how many blocks Ross street is north and west of the courthouse, but we can tell her to drive over in that area and she'll find a street sign that says "Ross Street."

We commend the group from the chamber of commerce for their good work in submitting the plan that was approved by the City Council. We believe the city council was right in making the decision to approve the plan.

Now, let's all put our money where our mouth is . . . help raise the needed funds to purchase the signs.

Wheat Farmers Have A Choice

Floyd county wheat farmers will join with the nation's wheat farmers in an all out vote Tuesday to determine whether or not to accept the government's plan for marketing wheat in 1964.

If the vote carries by a two-thirds majority the plan will go into effect as outlined by the local ASC offices.

Many have woven politics into the vote . . . Republicans basically are opposed to it . . . staunch Democrats are backing it all the way.

Actually, we believe the vote decision is one of economics and government control. If a wheat farmer feels that he can weather two or three years of low wheat prices until the old axiom of supply and demand takes care of the situation and sincerely believes that he can get along without government control, he should vote "no" to the referendum.

On the other hand if the voter feels that the government is doing a logical and reasonable job in trying to slow down production and hold prices up on wheat and doesn't mind the many sign-ups, measurements etc. he should vote "yes."

The important element of every vote that the farmer makes on each crop each year is that he still has a choice of voting his desire. In many other countries the government tells him what to do and what his take is, and there's no voting out of the situation.

In America, the farmer has a choice . . . and this is what counts.

MAYOR BUYS CANDY FROM ASSEMBLY OF GOD PASTOR . . . Floydada Mayor S. W. Ross is pictured buying candy from pastor R. J. Falser Tuesday morning. The candy sale started Monday and the young people of the local Assembly of God church will go from house to house selling "The World's Finest Chocolate." The funds will be used to develop the Youth Camp at Roaring Springs.

Tom Burrow Is Manager At Floyd Tractor

C. O. Byrnes at Floyd Tractor and Supply announced this week the naming of Tom Burrow as general manager for that organization. Burrow is well known in this area and a former resident of Floydada.

Burrow told the Hesperian this week that he has found living quarters in Floydada and is looking forward to moving his family here by June 1. The family comes to us from Hale Center where he has been active in contracting and construction work.

Burrow is no new comer to the farming implement line having had some 12 years experience with Minneapolis-Moline in some of that company's larger dealerships.

Floyd Tractor and Supply is dealer for M-M and Ford Tractors as well as for several popular implement lines and handles Golden Uran liquid fertilizer. The firm operates a large service department for farm machinery and stocks parts for their products.

The Burrow family includes wife Dot, sons Mike 22 and Rick 19 both away at school, and daughter Carole Sue, 13, who is a junior high student. Mrs. Burrow is a school teacher.

HOMEMAKING HINTS

by Phyllis Roggenorff and Jean Martin, Jr. Extension Agent in Training

For a More Sanitary Laundry

Have you examined the array of products for home laundering lately?

According to the manufacturers' claims, most of them produce a whiter, brighter wash or impart softness to the laundered items.

Homemakers need to be concerned about still another characteristic - sanitation - which some of these products do not make provisions for.

While it is generally assumed that laundering is an effective way to kill bacteria on household textiles, this may not be true because of recent changes in home laundering, the specialists emphasize.

Among major changes in home laundry methods are a shorter wash cycle than formerly, the use of "warm" as well as "hot" settings, with the hot setting often only 120 to 130 degrees F., which is too low to kill bacteria; and the increased use of public laundry facilities.

In studies made by the Clothing and Housing Research division of the Agricultural Research Service, it was found that staphylococcus aureus, a common cause of pneumonia and skin and kidney infections, remained alive on wool for 127 days, on cotton, 84 days, and on acetate tricot, 51 days.

Escherichia coli, the common intestinal bacterium and related to paratyphoid and typhoid organisms, remain alive on wool for 67 days, on cotton, 32 days; and on acetate tricot, 7 days.

Mycobacterium butyricum, a member of the group in which the organism causing tuberculosis belongs, remained alive for 84 days in wool, 70 days on cotton, and 34 days on acetate tricot.

Since many family washes are not long enough or hot enough to kill these harmful bacteria, it is necessary to look for a laundry aid or disinfectant which will not harm the color or physical characteristics of the fabrics, which will not leave a residue that is toxic to the skin; and which will kill many types of bacteria and still remain reasonable in cost.

Three disinfectants were found which reduced the number of bacteria when used in warm water laundering. They were a quaternary ammonium compound, a phenolic disinfectant; and the antibiotic, neomycin sulfate.

Quaternary disinfectants consistently reduced the number of bacteria. Since this type of disinfectant is inactivated by most detergents, it should be added at the beginning of the rinse cycle.

For a washing machine which uses 15 gallons of rinse water, the homemaker would add 4 ounces of the 10 percent commercial disinfectant.

The phenolic disinfectants also reduce the number of bacteria. It makes little difference whether they are used in the wash or rinse cycle. Approximately one cup per load of these sanitizers would be needed.

The antibacterial agents should be used whenever there is a sickness in the home, the school, or the community. The sanitizers need not be used in every wash - but they are a protection when contagious disease is in the family or the community, or when you are not sure about the sanitation of public equipment being used.

Recipe Of The Week

We are sure housewives have a favorite recipe, one that is quick, appetizing, a fancy dish, a new dessert. Share it with your friends and neighbors. We would like to know about it and so would our readers, so we've begun this column to give you the opportunity to exchange recipes with your friends and neighbors. Each Thursday we will carry a favorite recipe and a picture of the housewife submitting it. Call Peggy Medley at the Hesperian or mail your recipes to Box 848, City. We'll pick one each week, it may be yours. This week we are sharing with you a recipe out of the kitchen of Mrs. A. C. Pratt.

ROUND STEAK SUPPER

- 2 lbs. round steak, one inch thick, cut in servings.
 - 2 tsp. salt
 - Dash pepper
 - Enriched flour
 - Six medium-size onions, sliced
 - 1-4 c. fat
 - 3 large potatoes, halved
 - 1 bay leaf
 - 1 can condensed tomato soup
 - 1 lb. can or 2 cups French cut green beans, drained.
- Season meat with salt and pepper, roll in flour, cook onions in hot fat until tender but not brown. Remove onions. Brown meat slowly on both sides and place in 3 qt. casserole, add onions, potatoes, and bay leaf. Pour soup over and cover. we turn our eyes to the future

This year's Soil Stewardship theme, "We Turn Our Eyes to the Future," underscores the necessity for man to look beyond today's horizons so he will be able, through judgment and wisdom, to adequately fulfill his multiplying responsibilities as State and National Associations, stewards of the soil, water and related resources.

To remind Americans of their responsibility to God and to society, the value of responsible stewardship, the week of May 19 - 26 has been designated as Soil Stewardship Week throughout the nation and Puerto Rico. Some 2,900 Soil and Water Conservation Districts, through their State and National Associations, are sponsoring the observance for the ninth consecutive year.

To help direct attention to the value of responsible stewardship, the week of May 19 - 26 has been designated as Soil Stewardship Week throughout the nation and Puerto Rico.

Mr. and Mrs. Orland Howard attended the funeral of their cousin, Milton Terry at Silverton Friday. He passed away after an extended illness.

TIPS ON HOME FREEZING OF FOODS:

The home freezing of foods is so much a part of our modern everyday living that it is important for all homemakers to have well in mind the basic techniques of this method of food preservation.

ALL YOU NEED FOR EASY FREEZING ARE:

1. A good food freezer - one that holds a temperature of zero degrees Fahrenheit or below.
2. Good food, of top flavor and quality.
3. Quality containers and wrappings that seal moisture in and seal out air.
4. Care, cleanliness and speed in handling food.

With our fruit season just ahead and the "berry" season already here let's think first about FREEZING SOFT, JUICY BERRIES:

For best results, use the "dry sugar pack" to freeze strawber-

Coaches Pick Players For Boys Baseball League Teams

Wayne Brown, president of the Floydada Teen Age Baseball Association, said this week that plans are progressing on schedule and things look good for an interesting baseball season.

Managers and coaches were due to start picking teams yesterday afternoon in both the T-Shirt and Freshman Leagues. The boys have been trying out before the eyes of managers for the past three days. Team rosters should be available for next week's Hesperian.

In the Junior League team players are to be picked this afternoon or tonight.

Practice games will begin on Monday, May 20 and continue through the 25th. Then on May 27 there will be a week of exhibition games before the regular season starts on June 3.

Brown said the finance drive for the baseball program is coming along pretty good but is still some $700 short of the goal set. Efforts will be continued along this line with the aim of keeping things running smoothly throughout the season.

This week work was started on putting up a new fence around the Junior League Park and this should be completed by next week.

break, he makes a new one about every time he hits the ball or even appears at the plate.

In the seventh inning the other night playing the Cubs, Stan lashed a three-run double that gave the Cardinals a 4-3 victory.

And that hit added another record to Stan's collection. It was the 1,296th extra-base hit of his career, tying the major league record held by Babe Ruth. The 42-year-old "Stan the Man" has batted out 3,355 hits, a distance of 324 miles and set or tied 12 NL records and 15 major league marks.

Musial's lifetime chart now shows 2,199 singles, 717 doubles, 75 triples and 464 homers.

How does a man who is technically too old to play major league baseball continue to break records? Exercise and a lot of it... and a love for the game seem to be Stan's secret. Personal discipline in what he eats, a daily memory to hold his stomach in, exercises in spare time, a good 8 hours of sleep every night, a short nap after lunch... these disciplines combined with a good eye for a pitched ball make Stan "the man" continue to be.

More than anything we appreciate Stan for his good sportsmanship... he brings the line and many other "greats" did not possess.

SPEAKING of unusual events... these bankers here surprised us. We received a check for $3.50 from "Lady Bird Buchanan" and they return the check marked "no account". Heck, I thought her name was "Bird Buchanan" — at least that's the way I wrote up a story about her two or three months ago.

Honestly, Burr Buchanan has been real nice about my misquoting her name... and if the printer doesn't goof we're gonna spell it "Burr" from now on.

What about the $3.50? yep, we got that too, signed Bernice W. Buchanan.

WATCHING these astronauts get ready to "blast off" reminds me of Wednesday evening here at the Hesperian. We get the forms ready and on the press — it looks like she's ready to roll, then someone shouts "hold it — there's another correction to be made on page four" — so like the folks at Cape Canaveral we shut the power off and double check some more.

In the meantime all of our scientists are standing by. Mrs. Schuppert is at the mailing machine, paper inserters and mail out men Loy Ogden and Phil Barton are nervously waiting for the first papers to roll off the press — head pressman Kenneth Rimmer is fast running down the list of check-offs before pushing the button that will set the electric power into action and the countdown begins. (Another top echelon man Arnie Schuppert, is also standing by watching "form lockup" and ready to report to chief pressman.)

In the meantime the assistant top scientist in the Hesperian Press department, Dwayne Myrick, shouts "all clear" from the east end of the press and she begins to roll.

Sometimes we get into orbit and we're through with the press run in an hour — other times like the Astronaut helpers we have troubles and break down and are delayed.

Through 15 years of newspapering we've "sweated" many a break-down and suffered some all night repairs and early morning mailouts, but we've always managed to get the paper to the subscriber on time.

"No businessman in any community should allow a newspaper published in his community to go without his name and business being mentioned somewhere in its columns. This does not mean he should have a whole, half or even a quarter page ad in each issue, but your business — and name — should be mentioned, if you do not use more than a two-line space.

"A stranger picking up a newspaper should be able to tell what business is represented in a community by looking at the paper. This is the best possible community advertising. The man who does not advertise his business does an injustice to himself and the community. The man who insists on sharing the business that comes to the community, but refuses to advertise, is not a valuable addition to any community. The life of a community depends on the live, wide-awake and liberal advertising businessman."

designated later by the Secretary.

The proposed program also rules that Brown may divert an additional 20 per cent of his acreage to conservation uses on a voluntary basis. On this additional 20 per cent diversion, which in his case amounts to 20 acres, he would receive payments equal to 50 per cent of normal production at the $2 per bushel rate. In this case payment would amount to $400.

If the proposed program is killed with a "No" vote May 21, and no other proposal is acted upon by Congress, Farmer Brown's base wheat acreage for 1964 will still remain at 90 acres, or 10 per cent less than in 1963.

The 1962 Act gives the Secretary authority to raise or lower production to be placed in a price-support program.

Brown would be eligible for guaranteed minimum price supports of about $1.21 per bushel (50 per cent of parity) on all the wheat he could raise on the 90-acre allotment. If he planted more than his allotment, Farmer Brown would not be eligible for the $1.21 price supports, but there would be no penalties.

Under the proposed program, penalty rate on any production from excess acreage would be determined as twice the normal yield or actual production, whichever is the smaller, times 65 per cent of parity ($1.55 per bushel).

Thus, two basic issues are actually at stake in the May 21 election.

A favorable vote on the Administration's proposal would place strict price supports and controls on every bushel of wheat produced in the nation.

Farmer Brown could expect to plant even less wheat in future years since the program is designed to put a curb on production and reduce CCC stocks at the rate of 150 million bushels, or more, per year.

The support price would be determined each year by the Secretary of Agriculture.

If the proposal goes out, Farmer Brown will be free to plant from fence-to-fence and sell at market prices set by supply and demand.

Church Of Christ To Build New $40,000 Building

Minister Herman Alexander of the City Park Church of Christ in Floydada reports that the church will begin construction in about 30 days of a new 4800 square foot educational building.

The new building will be attached to the northeast "L" of the present building. Besides educational space a new office and library will be included in the plan.

Contract for construction has been signed with the Paden Construction Company of Cleburne, Texas. It is estimated that construction will take three months. Elders Menard Field and Frank Harmon head the building of the project.

Mr. Alexander said that the increased attendance at Bible school classes prompted the decision. The school averages 220 in attendance each Sunday.

Rites Conducted For Mrs. Johnson

Funeral rites for Mrs. Edd Johnson, the former Sallie Adams, were held Saturday afternoon in the First Methodist Church. The pastor, Rev. Charles Lutrick, was assisted in the service by Rev. Floyd C. Bradley, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

Burial was in Floydada Cemetery under the direction of Harmon Funeral Home. Pallbearers were Rip Snodgrass, Clovis, Melvin Bramlet, of PPlainview, Vern Nelson, Amarillo, Carrick Snodgrass, Everett Miller and Gene Collins, Sr., of Floydada.

Mrs. Johnson died Thursday at mid-afternoon at the family home on South 5th St. She had returned there last week from West Texas Hospital where she had undergone hip surgery. Mrs. Johnson sustained a broken hip on the morning of Christmas Day. This was her second surgery since the mis-hap. Death was attributed to an infection, according from reports to the family from her attending physician.

The deceased was born in Bosque County, Tex., on August 14, 1885. She came to Floyd County with her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Adrus in 1907. She was preceded in death by her parents and five sisters.

She and Mr. Johnson had been wed 34 years having married in Floydada on December 26, 1909. The couple had made their home here since that time.

Mrs. Johnson was an active of the Methodist Church, member of the Methodist Church will deliver the Memorial and had dress been head of the Junior Department for a number of years and assisted with the younger children in Bible School.

Survivors include her husband; one sister, Mrs. Glad Snodgrass of Floydada; a local niece, Mrs. Lewis Norman; two grand nephews, Glad Lynn Norman of Floydada and Don Norman of the Naval Air Force Base in Memphis, Tenn.

Also several other nieces and nephews among those being Mrs. Lloyd King of Amarillo, Mrs. Floyd Hollingsworth of Waco and Mrs. R. L. Wiggington of Brownwood, who along with their families attended last rites.

Floyd Man Asks Senator Rogers to Kill Current Loan Shark Bill

L. Powell of... Dear Senator: Will you please take time to give me an example or so of how the Loan Shark Bill recently passed by the Senate will affect a borrower if it should become law in Texas? I would like to know the maximum amounts one would have to pay on a $10, $100, or $1,000 loan if paid out monthly in equal amounts and the final payment in twelve months. Please give me an early reply for I want to use it in the next issue of The Hesperian. Also, tell me how you voted on the proposition, please. Does this bill affect bank rates in any way? — or automobile credit rates, or household appliance carrying charges? Thanking you for the information, I am,

Sincerely Yours,
S. S. Powell
Floydada, Texas

Dear Mr. Powell: Please pardon the delay in sending the information requested by you, but at that time, the Texas Regulatory Loan Act, S. B. 15, was in the House of Representatives Bank and Banking Committee.

Knowing it would be amended in the Committee and on the Floor—and then revised in Conference Committee, I waited until I could send you the version passed out of the Conference Committee. We hope that the material we are sending you will answer the questions you wanted to know. I did not support this legislation, and it is doubtful that I will do so when the measure is submitted to the Senate for action.

ANDY ROGERS
Rogers also submitted the following examples:
1. Give two or three examples of how the bill will affect the borrower: (A) All charges will be written on the note and a receipt will be given to the borrower in full with a rebate returned to borrower. (c) No insurance of any kind is required on loans 100 or less. (d) Current loan contracts are not affected by this act.
2. Examples of interest and other charges: $10.00, monthly payment is $12.00 for one month, includes $2.00 interest. The gross payment is $12.00, loans less than $20.00 must be repaid in 30 days. $100.00 the monthly payment is $23.08 for six months which includes $9.50 interest, $5.00 acquisition charge and $24.00 handling charge. The gross payment is $138.50, loans from $70 to $100 must be repaid in not more than six months $1,000.00 monthly payments of $83.40 if repaid in 12 months, includes $70 interest. Gross payment is $1,070.00 if repaid in 12 months. Loans of over $1,000 may be repaid in not more than 37 months. Will the bill affect bank rates? Will it affect auto loans? Will it affect household appliance carrying charges? The answer to all three is "NO".

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR
Mr. Wendell Tooley, Editor, Floyd County Hesperian, Floydada, Texas. Dear Mr. Tooley: During the past week, Mr. A. K. Hepperly and I, with Mr. Kenneth Knaus of the Great Western Sugar Company, accompanied by County Agent Davidson, toured Floyd County to check the progress of this year's sugar beet acreage, which is under contract to Great Western Sugar Company of Denver, Colorado. Mr. Hepperly was highly pleased with growth of the beets in your county. The participating farmers have an excellent stand and all acreage in Floyd County is thinned. The crop is off to an excellent start with good germination and rapid growth. It is gratifying to see that the farmers in Floyd County are taking this opportunity and making the most of it. Mr. Hepperly stated that beet farmers in Colorado are having a time getting their stands of beets this spring. The Great Western Sugar Company is watching this project with intensive interest. A successful crop of beets this year could mean more acreage in the future and a sugar factory in your area is possible. We know that the beet farmers will do an excellent job under the supervision of Mr. Knaus. He probably knows

BILL PASSES THIS WEEK
AUSTIN, May 13.—Texas legislators approved an anti-loan shark bill today and settled the 58th legislature's most controversial issue. The measure went to Gov. John Connally for an expected quick signature into law that will make it effective in about 90 days. "The approval of small loan legislation by both the house and senate today typifies the statesmanlike and efficient manner in which the legislature has accomplished its goals during the current session," Connally said. "Although this is not a perfect bill, it will go a long way toward correcting weaknesses in the existing law. After all, legislators have been trying for many years without success to enact small loan legislation," he said. The governor has hinted that failure to enact a "workable" loan regulation measure would be one of a very few reasons for his calling a special session. The senate took nine minutes to consider the conference com-more about the production of sugar beets than any man in the United States. Mr. Knaus was generous with his praise of the farmers in Floyd County. He told Mr. Hepperly that with the co-operation of the weather this year, he expected several "10,000 pounds of sugar per acre producers." If this occurs, this year's beet crop will be an outstanding success. May we request that the neighbors of these farmers growing beets in Floyd County watch the progress of these beets during the summer and encourage the beet farmers in every possible way. The sugar beet is a wonderful plant. When handled properly and given sound crop management, it can enrich the life and economy of a community. The Burlington Railroad has prospered through the years with the beet farmers of Colorado, Nebraska and Wyoming. The FW&D Railway Company in Texas, would like to see the farmers of the South Plains add another cash crop to their record. We know it will add to your economy and if you prosper, so should we. With best personal regards, I remain

Sincerely Yours,
Fort Worth & Denver

Former Floydada Dentist Retires
Dr. L. W. Hicks, Lubbock dentist remained active in his profession 49 years before being forced to retire because of his health. The 79-year-old Dr. Hicks closed his office at 1620 Ave. O, May 1.

Born in Alabama and moving to Ira, near Snyder, at the age of 10, Hicks dropped out of school at an early age because of ill health. He returned later. He was one of 12 children, the son of a Baptist minister, who doubled as a rice farmer in Alabama.

In 1910 Hicks attended Wayland Baptist College in Plainview. He was the only member of his English class in the young school. He later attended Hardin-Simmons University and graduated from the Vanderbilt University dental school in May, 1914.

"He wanted to continue his practice another year to complete 50 years," Mrs. Beason, his dental assistant for 16 years, said, "then he became ill, and hadn't been in the office since March 7." Dr. Hicks opened his first office in Floydada at the age of 30. "He was the only dentist there for some time," Mrs. Beason said. "People would kid him about being the roughest dentist in town, but he would answer them that he was the most gentle dentist, as well."

His first equipment included the standard slow-speed drill operated by foot pedals. There was no anesthetic in those days. He moved to Lubbock in November, 1942, to replace a dentist in Plains Clinic who had entered the service. He opened his Ave. O office in April, 1946.

Dr. Hicks has been a devoted member of Wayland Baptist College his three daughters attended the school, "and they all met their husbands there," Mrs. Beason commented. Dr. and Mrs. Hicks reside at 2309 14th St.

Their three daughters are Mrs. V. L. Jackson, 2323 Ave. K; Mrs. T. B. Allen, Hale Center where her husband is a Baptist minister; and Mrs. J. L. Bearden of Andrews.

Dr. Hicks is a member of the First Baptist Church and is a deacon. Mrs. W. E. Grimes accompanied her son, Bert Grimes and family of Crosbyton, to Plainview Sunday where they met Mrs. Grimes' daughter, Mrs. Gene Aylsworth and family. Allada.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

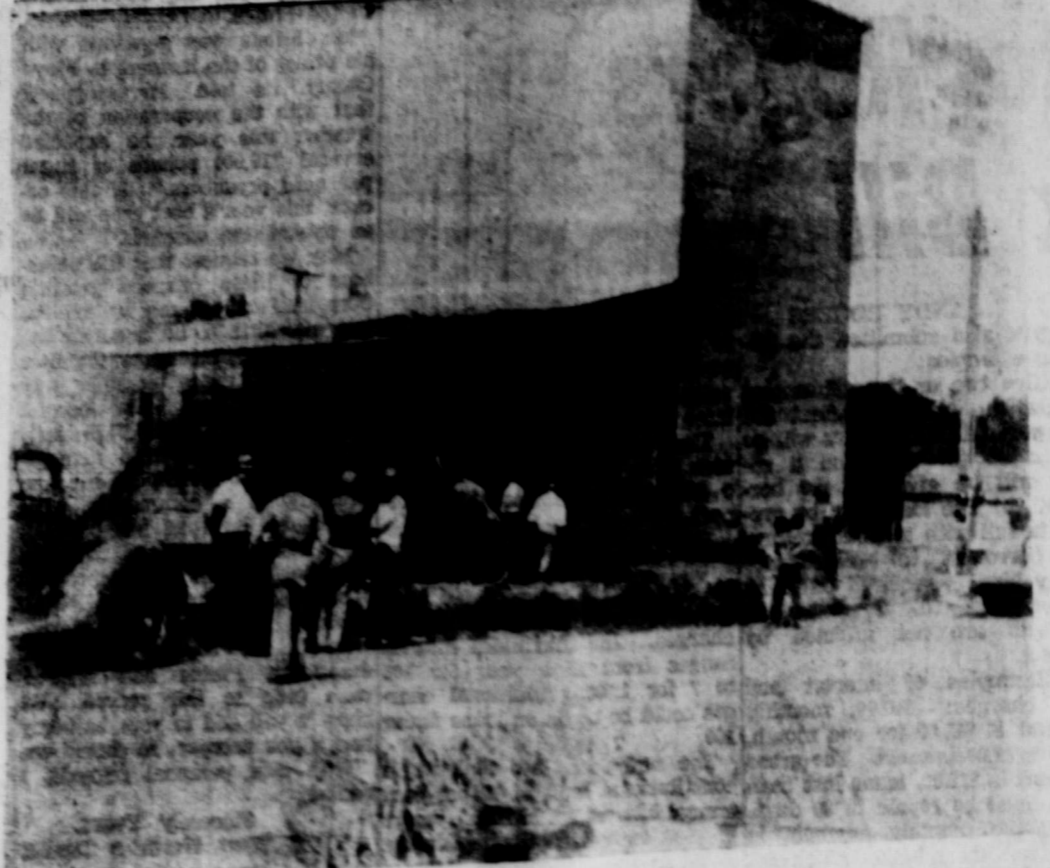

by Vern Sanford
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — Gov. John B. Connally says he is giving a great deal of thought to the appointment of a successor to former Railroad Commissioner William J. Murray Jr.

The governor stated he also is working hard on appointments to his "Committee of 25." This is a committee which will be charged with an extensive study of education beyond the high school. He has personally interviewed every candidate. Aim is to pick people who have the respect of the public and the teaching profession.

CONNALLY ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- 1. A bill authorizing the Texas Water Development Board to acquire water storage space in federal or local reservoirs is ready for Connally's signature.
- 2. Revision of the antiquated state Code of Criminal Procedure probably will go to a Senate-House conference committee to iron out differences.
- 3. Loan regulation bill is near final passage.
- 4. A constitutional amendment removing the ceiling on welfare grants has passed the Senate and is ready for House action.
- 5. Padre Island National Seashore bill has been signed into law.
- 6. Proposed constitutional amendment repealing the poll tax passed the Senate and awaits House action. A bill to set up a registration system to replace the poll tax and a revision of the election code are close to final form in conference committees.
- 7. A tax package — mainly increases in sales taxes on cars and clothes and a year-long extension of the corporation tax — has been signed into law.
- 8. A Senate-passed bill limiting governors to two elected terms now awaits House action.

a Municipal annexation bill, which sets some limits on the powers of cities to annex territory is ready for his signature.

10. Measure creating the Texas Tourist Development Agency has been signed into law.

Both houses also have passed the bill to create a 25-member Committee To Study Education Beyond the High School; bills giving San Angelo and Pan American colleges senior status and full state support; and the Game and Fish-Parks Board merger.

SOME EXCEPTIONS — Connally's plan to reorganize the State Banking Commission ran into banker opposition. But a bill allowing Connally to name one member to replace Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr probably will get through.

His proposal to give the governor authority to control budgets of state agencies within the total dollar limits set by the Legislature got a chilly reception from a House committee and hasn't been heard from since.

WOMEN'S RIGHTS — Proposed constitutional amendment by Sen. William Moore of Bryan to give women equal property rights was passed by the Senate back in January. It was then sent to a House committee headed by Rep. Jim Cotten of Weatherford. Cotten waited until the first week of April to hold a hearing, then never named a subcommittee to consider women's rights.

Finally, an impatient House, hampered by demands from impatient women voters, instructed Cotten's committee to bring the bill out for a vote. Cotten withstood all pressures — even a full-scale committee revolt — until the House took the bill away from him and sent to the House Insurance Committee.

Some action is promised, but there's no word as to when.

WHITHER SHALL IT WAVE? — El Paso Sen. Frank Owen's bill to forbid the flying of the flag of the United Nations on or in public buildings ran into what may be a fatal delay in the House.

Delay motion came on the heels of a speech by Rep. Howard Green of Fort Worth. He said legislators have received a flood of mail favoring the Owen bill, which attacked leading Texans like former Sen. Tom Connally, former president Dwight Eisenhower and Vice President Lyndon Johnson as being "tools of the communist conspiracy."

These men will live on in memory when their detractors are "lost in the junk heap of history," Green declared. Bill's House sponsor, Rep. Walter Knapp of Amarillo, replied that "the mere fact that a lunatic fringe is supporting this bill is no reason to turn it down."

Further debate was postponed a week, which could mean indefinitely.

HOLIDAY CONFIRMED — For the first time since the reconstruction era, a Negro holds a state office as a member of a major board.

Senate confirmed the appointment of the Rev. C. A. Holliday of Fort Worth to the State Board of Corrections, despite early opposition to Connally's choice.

TEXTBOOK COMMITTEE NAMED — The 15 people who will pick textbooks for consideration by local school boards have been given the oath of office.

Included were Alton O. Bowen, Brynn; Benton L. Brockett, La Marque; Wayne Craddock, Pampa; Avery R. Downing, Waco; Miss Marie Eisman, El Paso; Mrs. Lonie Garretson, Pittsburg; Mrs. Frances Gavenda, McAllen; Also Miss Nelda Jobe, Lubbock; Mrs. Christine Kirkpatrick, Denton; Mrs. Fannie L. TOTAL PERFORMANCE:

IF YOU KNEW WHAT TINY LUND KNOWS ABOUT FORD DURABILITY...YOU'D BE OUT ENJOYING A '63

Ask Tiny Lund about Ford durability: He'll tell you how it helped him win America's toughest stock-car competition, the Daytona 500. Lund placed first in a Ford, with four other Fords right behind him for an unprecedented sweep of the first five places. Only the Fords were tough enough to stand the pace.

Greater durability is the reason Ford is able to offer a total-car warranty. Only a true total-performance car could offer as complete a warranty as this—with no strings attached.

"Ford Motor Company warrants to its dealers, and its dealers, in turn, warrant to owners as follows: That for 24 months or for 24,000 miles", whichever comes first, free replacement, including related labor, will be made by dealers of any part with a defect in workmanship or materials. Tires are not covered by the warranty; appropriate adjustments will be made by the tire companies. Owners will remain responsible for normal maintenance services, routine replacement of parts, such as filters, spark plugs, ignition points, wiper blades, brake or clutch linings, and normal deterioration of soft trim and appearance items."

You can't put a long-term warranty like ours on your term car. The '63 Fords have a better warranty because built better than any Fords in history. You see evidence extra toughness in Ford's outstanding competitive warranty.

'63 Fords won the grueling Daytona, Riverside, and 500's, and the demanding Pure Oil Performance Test. Cars with total performance could roll up so many miles.

Before you buy any new car, test-drive the solid, safe Torque Ford. If you haven't driven one lately, you can't know what a new Ford is like. Remember: If it's built it's built for performance... total performance.

Philosopher Advises World Leaders On Hold A Successful Disarmament Meet

The Floyd Philosopher he's old enough to drive a car and you can turn the trick without any trouble.

If the world leaders want to have a really successful disarmament conference, let them meet at some neutral place, say on this Johnson grass farm, and forever ban the use of the cannon ball.

If this is too strong for some of the smaller countries just now coming into civilization, they can go a little further back and ban the use of the slingshot and the crossbow.

The trouble with the world leaders is they're trying to get a head of themselves. How can you expect France for example to agree to ban the testing of atomic bombs when it hasn't even gotten one to go off yet?

If the world leaders would like to meet out here, I'll be glad to work up a list of weapons they can successfully get banned, and it won't be just primitive ones, either. For example, take battleships, are now about useless in modern warfare. Open cockpit airplanes can be stricken off. And the list can be lengthened, but I'll hold up on it till I hear from the world leaders. No use going to a lot of trouble thinking up items unless they'll come to I hope they can make it here, though. I'd like to work in the idea also of banning tractor driving.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Johnny A. Race Buried Friday

J. A. (Johnny) Race, brother of Shirley Race of Floydada, was buried Friday morning in Lockney Cemetery following rites at the First Baptist Church in that city.

Race was pronounced dead on arrival at Lockney General Hospital on Wednesday afternoon of last week. Death was ruled "self-inflicted" by Justice of the Peace at Lockney. The deceased had been dependent since being in ill health for several months, it was said.

He was found by his wife and father near a vacant farm home near Lockney in a granary. Race had worked the farm for several years.

Survivors include his wife, the former Mary Katherine Arney; three sons, Billy Karl, James and Shelby; two daughters, Stacie Rebecca and Mary John; his father, J. E. Race; one brother and one sister, Mrs. R. W. Landrum of Lockney.

A WHEAT PROGRAM IS REALISTIC

Is the claim that government should "get out of agriculture" realistic? Government has been "in" agriculture for more than a hundred years. This is chiefly because agriculture is vital to the nation's welfare. To talk about leaving agriculture and farm people completely out of government is impossible — and, if listened to seriously, it could result in national disaster.

The claim that a wheat program destroys "freedom of individual choice" is incorrect. Just apply absolute "freedom of individual choice" to almost any activity in our society. What it amounts to is license to do whatever one wants to do. That would not be tolerated in our democratic society. Virtually all our laws limit freedom of choice. They are based on our moral code and our moral code is based on our religion.

The claim is heard that farm income will be higher if there is no farm program. We'll leave that one to you. You can do your own arithmetic based on non-support prices.

Opponents of our wheat program even say the new one will boost the price of bread to the consumer. The fact is that the cost of wheat in a loaf of bread is small. The price of bread actually has gone up while farmers were getting less for wheat.

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — Gov. John B. Connally says he is giving a great deal of thought to the appointment of a successor to former Railroad Commissioner William J. Murray Jr.

He says he hopes to find a replacement before the Senate adjourns on May 24, so his choice can be confirmed.

The governor stated he also is working hard on appointments to his "Committee of 25." This is a committee which will be charged with an extensive study of education beyond the high school. He has personally interviewed every candidate. Aim is to pick people who have the respect of the public and the teaching profession.

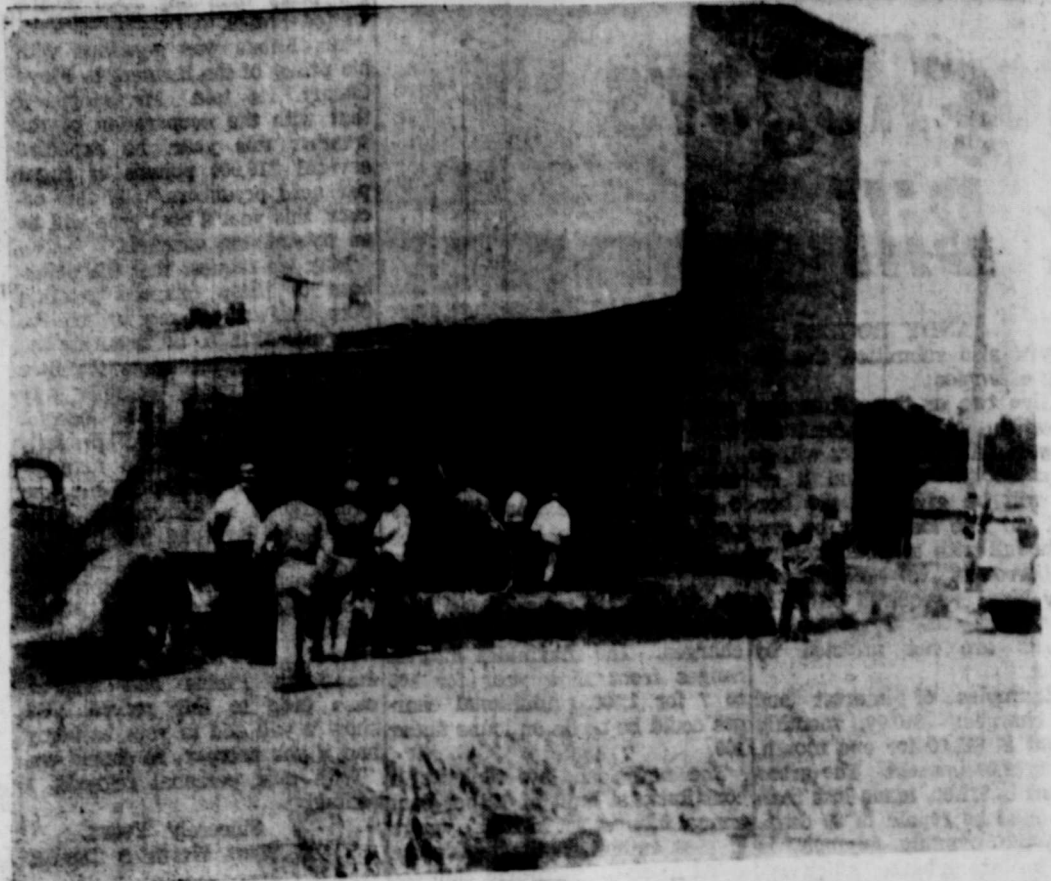

CONNALLY ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- 1. A bill authorizing the Texas Water Development Board to acquire water storage space in federal or local reservoirs is ready for Connally's signature.
- 2. Revision of the antiquated state Code of Criminal Procedure probably will go to a Senate-House conference committee to iron out differences.
- 3. Loan regulation bill is near final passage.
- 4. A constitutional amendment removing the ceiling on welfare grants has passed the Senate and is ready for House action.
- 5. Padre Island National Seashore bill has been signed into law.

Proposed constitutional amendment repealing the poll tax passed the Senate and awaits House action. A bill to set up a registration system to replace the poll tax and a revision of the election code are close to final form in conference committees.

7. A tax package — mainly increases in sales taxes on cars and clothes and a year-long extension of the corporation tax — has been signed into law.

8. A Senate-passed bill limiting governors to two elected terms now awaits House action.

TOTAL PERFORMANCE:

IF YOU KNEW WHAT TINY LUND KNOWS ABOUT FORD DURABILITY... YOU'D BE OUT ENJOYING A '63 FORD

Ask Tiny Lund about Ford durability: He'll tell you how it helped him win America's toughest stock-car competition, the Daytona 500. Lund placed first in a Ford, with four other Fords right behind him for an unprecedented sweep of the first five places. Only the Fords were tough enough to stand the pace.

Greater durability is the reason Ford is able to offer a total-car warranty. Only a true total-performance car could offer as complete a warranty as this—with no strings attached:

"Ford Motor Company warrants to its dealers, and its dealers, in turn, warrant to owners as follows: That for 24 months or for 24,000 miles", whichever comes first, free replacement, including related labor, will be made by dealers of any part with a defect in workmanship or materials. Tires are not covered by the warranty; appropriate adjustments will be made by the tire companies. Owners will remain responsible for normal maintenance services, routine replacement of parts, such as filters, spark plugs, ignition points, wiper blades, brake or clutch linings, and normal deterioration of soft trim and appearance items."

You can't put a long-term warranty like ours on a term car. The '63 Fords have a better warranty because they're built better than any Fords in history. You see evidence of extra toughness in Ford's outstanding competitive wins... '63 Fords won the grueling Daytona, Riverside, and 500's, and the demanding Pure Oil Performance Trials cars with total performance could roll up so many miles. Before you buy any new car, test-drive the solid, silent, Torque Ford. If you haven't driven one lately, you can't know what a new Ford is like. Remember: If it's built to last, it's built for performance... total performance.

Q — What is the best source of current information on veterans programs and facts about the VA?

A — The Annual Report of the Administrator of Veterans Affairs, available at the Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C., for $1.25 per copy.

Q — I'm going to college under the War Orphans Educational program administered by VA. I want to get married. Can I continue with my schooling?

A — Yes. Marriage does not affect eligibility.

Q — I am planning to take advantage of GI Bill vocational rehabilitation training. Is there some new regulation about disabled Korean Conflict veterans eligibility?

A — Part of a law passed by the last Congress eliminated the general deadline for vocational rehabilitation for disabled Korean Conflict veterans. The veteran who falls under this classification now has nine years after his discharge to complete his training. Prior to this the deadline for completion of such training was January 31, 1964.

Roll Call and the minutes of the last meeting were given by Billy Finley. Richard Nelson led the motto and pledge and Carol Bramlett led the group in songs.

Nineteen members, six leaders and three new members, who are Sam Henry, Mark Whittle and Sherry Hinsley.

A letter from the county agent was read by Doris Fawver. Will Snor gave the 4-H council report then presented to the club the plaque that was donated to the County Contest by Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hopper. The plaque was given to the club with the largest number of members participating in the contest.

Lu Ann Lovell gave a report on the county contest and Patsy Walker gave a report on the district contest.

Jackie Yeary was elected to represent the Floydada 4-H Club at the Cotton Carnival to be held in Plainview on May 15.

Other business matters taken care of was that Doris Fawver was elected to see about changing the meeting time of the club. The following committees were:

DALE A. REDD

Wayland Will Graduate Two Floydada Men and Mrs. Bryan Karr, South Plains, will be graduated from Wayland Baptist College, Plainview, in 52nd Commencement exercises, May 19-20. Both are 1956 graduates of Floydada High School.

Redd is a candidate for the B. A. degree with a major in political science and a minor in philosophy. Karr is a candidate for the B.A. degree with a major in religion and a minor in English. They are among 33 Wayland seniors from 13 states and Japan.

While at Wayland Redd has served as vice-president of International Relations Club, which had as guests for the annual conference this year two ambassadors from Africa and a consul from the Nigerian embassy in New York. He has also been secretary and president of Cricke K Club, a service organization. He formerly attended Mercer University, Macon, Ga.

Karr has been active in Mission Band and Ministerial Alliance. Speakers for the Commencement ceremonies will be Dr. James Ralph Scales, president of Oklahoma Baptist University, Shawnee and Dr. A. Hope Owen, Wayland president for ten years, whose resignation is effective June 30, 1963. Wayland graduates Dr. A. A. Hyden, academic dean and Bryan Elton Karr, son of Mr.

A WHEAT PROGRAM IS REALISTIC

Is the claim that government should "get out of agriculture" realistic? Government has been "in" agriculture for more than a hundred years. This is chiefly because agriculture is vital to the nation's welfare. To talk about leaving agriculture and farm people completely out of government is impossible — and, if listened to seriously, it could result in national disaster.

The claim that a wheat program destroys "freedom of individual choice" is incorrect. Just apply absolute "freedom of individual choice" to almost any activity in our society. What it amounts to is license to do whatever one wants to do. That would not be tolerated in our democratic society. Virtually all our laws limit freedom of choice. They are based on our moral code and our moral code is based on our religion.

The claim is heard that farm income will be higher if there is no farm program. We'll leave that one to you. You can do your own arithmetic based on non-support prices.

Opponents of our wheat program even say the new one will boost the price of bread to the consumer. The fact is that the cost of wheat in a loaf of bread is small. The price of bread actually has gone up while farmers were getting less for wheat.

J. E. Greens Report On Annual Trip Down State To Visit Friends - Relatives

CENTER, May 13 — Church attendance was good Sunday though some were away visiting parents for Mothers Day. Also among visitors here at Calvary Baptist were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Green, Gretchen and Kenneth Mark, of Peralta, N. Mex., who were spending the weekend with Clyde's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Green. Other visitors at church were Mr. and Mrs. James David Welborn and girls of Plainview who were to dine with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Welbr and Donna.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Mankins dined Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Ross. Mr. and Mrs. Hal Thomas and Sue spent Mothers Day in Seagraves with Mr. and Mrs. Martin Green. Mrs. Green, who is a sister of Mrs. Thomas, has not been well for some time. The Thomas family came back by Brownfield where they visited Mrs. Thomas' nephew, Buddy Gound and wife. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Horton, Bruce and Phil, also Gene Smith dined Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sims.

Those at the parental home of the J. D. Welborns besides James David and family were Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Arney and Steve, and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Gooch, City. Bobby Mac and family were at a get-together of his wife's kind folks at her parents' home. Mr. and Mrs. Eddi Parks of Lubbock spent Mothers Day with

Farmers Union Convention To Be In Lubbock

The Board of Directors of the Texas Farmers Union, assembling at Abilene for the spring Board meeting, set the dates for the 1963 state convention and the convention city. The time set was December 6th and 7th, and Lubbock was designated as the convention city.

The greatest membership strength of this general farm organization is located on the south and north plains, but this will be the first time in its sixty-one year history that the state convention has been held in Lubbock.

State President Jay Naman, commenting on the Board's decision said: "Lubbock is recognized as the hub of some of the richest agriculture in America, and it is only fitting that our organization, composed of commercial farmers who depend on farming for a living, meet in this fabulous region to see it and enjoy its typical western hospitality."

"This is the heartland of our membership, and the selection of Lubbock should insure a large attendance at the greatest convention yet."

"The Lubbock people, Chamber of Commerce, and hotels were generous in their offers of hospitality, seemingly most anxious to have us visit their city, and we believe that having our convention there will be of mutual benefit."

Law Authorities Plan Convention

Law Enforcement authorities from over a five-state area will convene at Cal Farley's Boys Ranch, Thursday, May 16th, for the annual convention of the United Peace Officers of America.

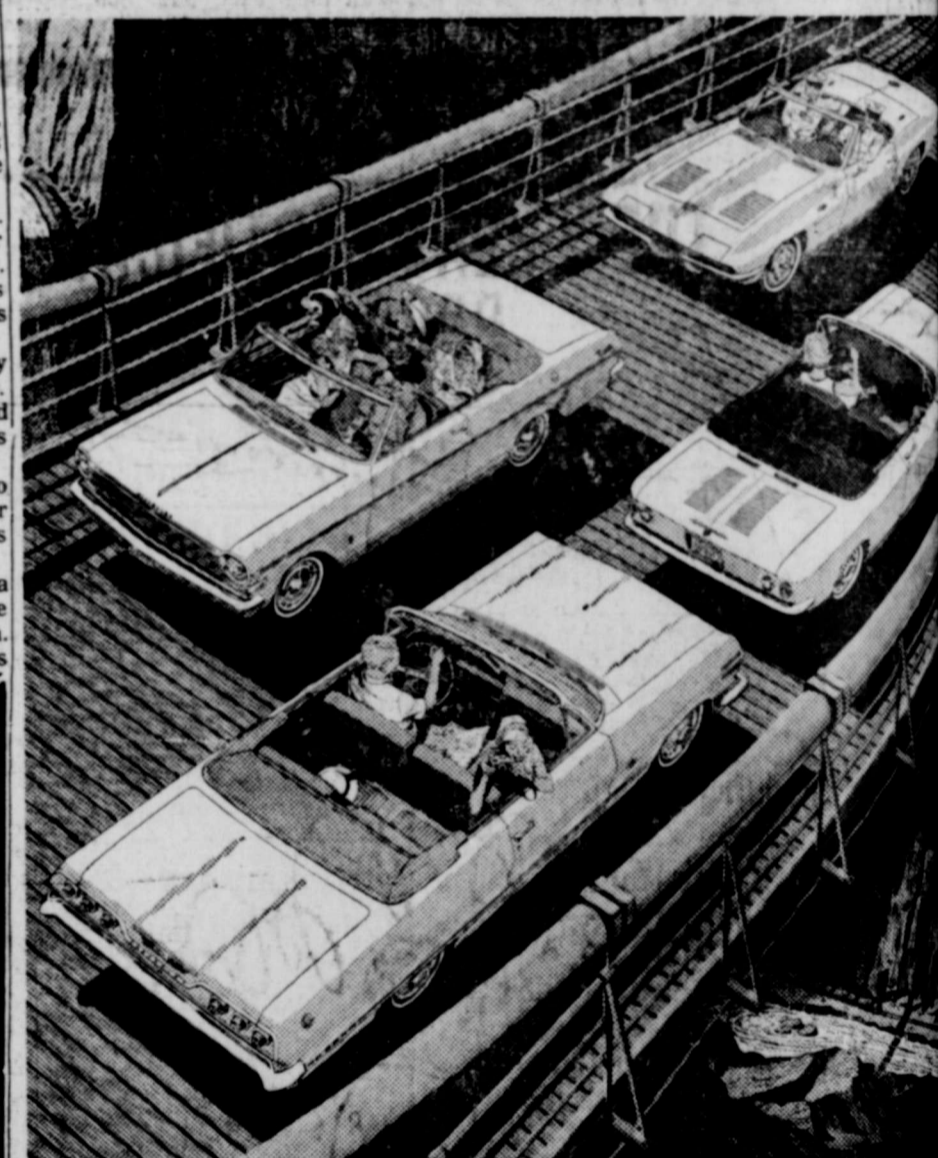

Members of the association from all over the southwest are expected to attend the meeting with their main project a fund drive to provide four new classrooms for the fully-accredited Boys Ranch School. At the present time, 312 boys are being cared for, trained and educated at the Ranch and the classrooms are needed for the school to have an enrollment of 500 boys.

President of the United Peace Officers of America is Captain Raymond Waters, Sheriff Ramon Lubbock. Sheriff Lowell Sharp of Hereford, Texas is first vice-president and Justice of the Peace Cliff Roberts of Amarillo is secretary.

For the first time since it was founded, the UPOA will be having an annual convention without its first president, Sheriff W. S. "Gene" Collins of Channing, Tex., who died last August. Sheriff Collins was elected president of the association in 1954 when it was started to help Boys Ranch with funds badly needed for a school building and spearheaded the drive that resulted in the 12-grade school of today.

The convention program will begin at 10 a.m., May 16th. The members will bar-be-que a beef and share with the boys of the Ranch. Officials here were unable to attend.

Mrs. Bob Everett and son, Rob of Lubbock spent the weekend here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Smith.

Summer's coming, get going!

If this isn't a great time to get yourself a new Chevrolet—well, we just don't know when it is. Why, you'd almost have to be anti-summer not to let one of these four convertibles get to you. Or any of Chevrolet's sedans, wagons, sport coupes and sport sedans, for that matter. And there are a lot of other buy-now reasons besides the season. Like the care-free feeling you get on a long vacation trip in a brand-new Chevrolet. And it's a smart time to trade up for a busy summer. Chances are you've had a car that has just the color you like — be it Chevy II, Corsair, or Corvair — ready for the right now. So maybe you're all worn out from your summer at Chevrolet dealer.

...of ranch and livestock near the infested premises are sprayed at program expense. "When samples are received with no information as to where it was collected, no action can be taken," the county agent said. "This could permit additional infestations to develop because no special sterile fly and spray treatment can be given to the area." Eradication officials report less than 20 percent as many screwworm infestations have been experienced during the first four months of 1963 as during the same period last year. If livestock producers continue to inspect samples and report cases, officials feel there should be no recurrence of heavy infestations as experienced last year.

THE WHEAT CERTIFICATE PROGRAM...

...it would begin in 1964!

May I plant a few acres of wheat for my livestock and family?

USDA's PLANNING COMMITTEE

YOUR SON

WHEAT PRODUCER:

outcome of the referendum on the wheat certificate plan may well determine who will manage your farm --- YOU or the FEDERAL GOVERNMENT. Help make this decision yourself. Don't be intimidated.

Vote as You Please... But, Please VOTE!

VOTE "NO"

WHEAT REFERENDUM

MAY 21

Wheat growers are being led to believe in many cases that their only choice in the referendum is between "supply control" and "chaos." This "choice" totally ignores the fact that Congress is in session and that several prominent members of both political parties are already drafting new wheat legislation for enactment after the certificate plan is voted down.

There is an alternative to "supply control" and it involves two important steps:

- (1) A "NO" vote in the referendum.
- (2) The enactment by Congress of a sound program for wheat.

Farm Bureau delegates from all over the nation, at their recent annual meeting in Atlanta, outlined a wheat program for consideration by Congress after the 1963 referendum. It provides for:

- (1) Termination of marketing quotas and acreage allotments (and no certificates). All producers would be free to grow as much or as little as they choose, or place their land in a retirement program.
- (2) Price supports at the higher of the world price of wheat during the three preceding years or 50 per cent of parity, with premiums to reflect milling and baking quality.
- (3) A voluntary cropland retirement program for periods of not less than three years with payment rates established by competitive bidding.
- (4) Protection against dumping of CCC stocks by prohibiting their sale at less than 115 percent of support level, plus carrying charges — except as offset by comparable open market purchases.

When wheat farmers indicate they do not want "supply control," Congress will be ready to act. The future course of American agriculture is in the hands of wheat farmers. Will it be toward bigger markets, greater opportunity and more adequate income? Or, will it be toward a government controlled, licensed agriculture, with dwindling markets, limited opportunities and lower income?

These are questions wheat farmers must answer as they make their decision on whether to vote "yes" or "no." The choice is theirs to make.

4-H Adult Leaders Entertained By Lighthouse Electric Co-op

Floyd County 4-H Adult leaders were entertained by Lighthouse Electric at Rogers Restaurant May 7 the first of regular quarterly meetings, states H. T. Davison, Floyd County Agricultural Agent.

Forty-five leaders gathered to enjoy the meal sponsored by Lighthouse Electric and heard a program presented by the extension agents on 4-H records, awards program and club activities.

Darrel Smith discussed the general orner of a 4-H record book and how it should be assembled while Miss Phyllis Rosendorff discussed the Standard Report Form with the leaders. This form is used to record the 4-H members activities and projects from his first year in 4-H work to the present.

Davison spoke briefly on the 40 odd awards programs in which a record can be entered. Every 4-H member should decide a year on in advance on which awards program they will enter in order that their projects work can be planned accordingly.

Mrs. Jean Martin told of the various activities in which 4-H boys could participate as a group which would tend to create fellowship and union among all the club members.

The group also decided to hold quarterly meetings during the months of January, April, July and October.

The next meeting will be July 30, 1963.

Mrs. W. B. Benton of Dallas, sister of J. H. Tribble, left Monday for home after spending since Friday here visiting the Tribbles. Sunday guests also included the Tribbles' daughter, Mrs. Joe Fisher and family of Lubbock.

Yorkshire, England is due to reach Floydada tonight for the first sight of her grandson, Mark Thomas Goen, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Goen and her granddaughter, Malinda Ann. Mrs. Goen anticipates an extended visit from her mother due to the long journey over by ship, train, and bus which consisted of 3600 miles.

Baxter Plans To Attend Institute

AUSTIN, Texas (Spl.) — Forty-five science and mathematics teachers from 14 states and Newfoundland have been chosen as participants in the seventh Academic-Year Institute beginning in September at The University of Texas.

The program is designed for teachers of biology, chemistry, the earth sciences, mathematics and physics who wish to improve their subject matter knowledge or pursue new fields through a year's study on a full-time basis. States to be represented are Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, California, Utah, Nebraska, New York, New Jersey, Florida, Louisiana, Minnesota, Ohio, Illinois and Iowa.

Four of the participants are college teachers; 35 are secondary school teachers and six are pre-service teachers — college graduates who are certified to teach secondary school science or mathematics, but who have had no actual teaching experience. Each experienced teacher will receive a $3,000 10-month stipend. For pre-service teachers, a maximum stipend of $1,500 is provided.

ded for 12 months' participation. Teachers in both categories will be given additional allowances for dependents, tuition and fees, books and travel expenses.

Dr. Robin C. Anderson, chemistry professor, will direct the 1963-64 Institute. It is supported by a National Science Foundation grant.

Kerwin Baxter, physics, Floydada High School, plans to participate in his field of study.

HILL TAKES PART IN NAVAL EXERCISE

USS CANBERRA (FITNC) — Anthony D. Hill, shipfitter third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Hill of Floydada, Texas, recently took part in a large-scale naval exercise in the Mediterranean while serving aboard the guided missile cruiser USS Canberra.

The exercise was held April 2-3 and involved 26 ships of the Sixth Fleet, America's major element of seapower in the European area. Dubbed REGEX 63, the operation was an air defense and submarine training exercise aimed at strengthening the combined force of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO).

The American forces were led by the nuclear-powered aircraft carrier USS Enterprise. Air units from England, Italy, Greece and Turkey also participated. The Sixth Fleet elements included 16 destroyers, 3 submarines, 2 aircraft carriers, 2 guided missile cruisers and several fleet oilers and ammunition ships.

Thirty years ago this month the New Deal was beginning the most audacious adventure in economic control ever undertaken in this country.

After the passage of all this time and the spending of a vast treasure to increase farmers' incomes, the great farm technocracy is facing a key decision. This decision is whether or not to take the final plunge into the strictest form of control and regimentation of private enterprise ever seriously proposed in this country. The issue rises because the loose and circumscribed control systems of the past 30 years, in all their myriad forms, have not worked satisfactorily. On the whole, surpluses have continued to mount until it cost nearly a billion dollars a year merely to carry them. Every agricultural program devised has fallen afoul of technological progress.

The issue turns on a new control system for the production and marketing of wheat. About half the farmers in the nation grow wheat. They have operated under a control system involving limitation of acreage and marketing and fixed prices. But never have the producers of wheat, or any other commodity, submitted to the strict controls of planting and marketing which would virtually convert their farms into state enterprises.

Now, under law, such a program of controlled acreage and controlled marketing is to be submitted to the producers of wheat in a referendum on May 21. Under this program Secretary Orville Freeman would hear every grain of wheat that falls. Bushel-by-bushel, wheat would flow into its various uses by Government permit and certification and at Government prices.

The wheat farmer could oppose this program. The Government pays him nothing for an independent conscience. If two of his three neighbors want the program and he does not, he is sacrificed to the general interest, he conducts his business their way or not at all. The new wheat program will be mandatory on all if it is approved by a two-thirds majority.

It is widely believed that if wheat farmer approve the new program the way will be opened for a similar state enterprise system for the producers of corn, feed grain, livestock — and in the end all forms of agricultural controls will take this pattern.

Many years of observing the development of farm programs leads clearly to the conclusion that this is, in fact, the case, and that a relatively small group of wheat growers will make the national decision of the greatest importance to all farmers. In the great farm organizations and in the Government it is sensed that this is a critical hour of decision. Farmers now are faced by the facts of stringent Government control and they must ask themselves if this is really what they want. If wheat farmers say "no" on May 21, they can change the whole course the farm program. By every means that is legal the vast agricultural bureaucracy is trying to sway the vote in favor of the state enterprise system.

The absurd claim is made that farmers are choosing between $2.00 per bushel and $1.00 per bushel wheat. This is not statistically correct. Those in favor of this program are trying to persuade farmers that Congress and President Kennedy will leave them in the lurch if they turn down the new control program that will cut their income in half. This is so unrealistic that few farmers will be fooled.

Farmers will not be left in the lurch. They are given the chance now to escape a new regimentation that they will come to hate even more than some of them detest their present restrictions. If the wheat farmers say "NO", Congress will come immediately to grips with this problem again, and there is no lack of effective programs which could be enacted. The choice is not between $2.00 and $1.00 wheat. It is a choice of freedom and responsibility or the intensification of control systems which haven't yet been able to do the job.

Therefore, we urge you to vote "NO" in the wheat referendum on May 21.

Katherine King reports that Waco rolled out the red carpet treatment for the eighty-nine secretaries attending the seminar. A reception was held in the Raleigh Hotel on Sunday afternoon so that employees of the state office could meet the secretaries. Every employee sacrificed a part of his only day off in order to be present for the reception. A banquet was held Sunday evening. The Clipper's Barbershop Quartet entertained and PPresident C. H. DeVaney gave the address.

Getting off to a good start with a breakfast at 7:30 Monday morning, Edd McKay, Asst. Legislative Director, presided. Classes were from one to five that afternoon and after recess for dinner, general session was held from seven to ten that evening.

Tuesday morning the secretaries toured the state office from 8:00 to 9:45 a. m. Classes again convened from ten to twelve, and at 12:15 a luncheon was given in the ballroom with Austin Crownover, Director of Sales, the speaker. A high point of the seminar was the office machine demonstration at 2:45 p. m. in the Waco Clubroom. All the major office machine manufacturers had a display and demonstration of their machines.

Classes and their instructors were as follows: Farm Bureau History and Philosophy - C. H. DeVaney and National Field Service Director, Warren Newberry; Insurance Services - B. C. Jones, Manager; Forms and Procedures - H. O. Bailey, Asst. Manager and Jim Rose, Underwriting Manager; Departmental Procedures and Claims, Jack Pondor; Underwriting - Bill Bidelspacher; Accounting - E. E. Hahn; Methods - Erwin Able, Systems Analyst; Data Processing - Bill McKinney; and General Office - Orvola Wobb, Assistant Secretary and Treasurer of the Texas Farm Bureau.

FROGS AND TOADS
"There's a frog in the pond that's not a frog at all, it's a toad. Take a look at it overnight, you'll see the difference. The frog is from the 'peace' or 'progress' can paralyze an entire nation." Just what will this referendum do to farmers if the vote is yes? Too late to jump out? Think it over carefully.

Local Officials Attend Meet On Group Financing

Group financing of Bonds as a means to substantial savings in advertising, marketing, and interest costs will be discussed by officials of 15 Texas local housing authorities at the Housing Authority of the City of Fort Worth, 500 W. Belknap, Wednesday, May 15.

"PPool" or group financing, such as will be employed in the next proposed Bond sale of some Texas low-rent housing authorities in June, will be explained. Marshall W. Amis, director, Public Housing Administration here, said.

"If the local housing authorities are successful in achieving an anticipated 1-4 of 1 per cent interest saving through a single, joint large issue of Bonds, instead of separate, smaller issues, undoubtedly this 'pioneer' activity in the field of municipal financing may result in similar interest saving cooperative efforts by other Texas public agencies," Amis revealed.

R. Lealand Hunter, executive director of the Fort Worth Housing Authority, will be host for the meeting.

Representatives from the following local authorities have been invited: Baird, Childress, Crystal City, Floresville, Floydada, Frisco, Glade-water, Gorman, Hamlin, Mansel, Nacoma, Fineand Rotan, Stanton, and Tulla.

Fred Battey, local chairman of the housing authority along with John Reue, attended the meeting. Visiting with Mrs. Tom Jernigan on Mothers Day were her children and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Finley and son, Milton of Plainview; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jernigan and son, Dean and daughters, Ann and Linda and a great grandson, Randy Gross of Lubbock, and Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Eubanks of Matador.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Payne's daughter, her husband and three children were over for Mothers Day from their home in Roosevelt. Mrs. Payne is reported doing nicely but still in bed from her broken limb.

Mr. and Mrs. Dorris Jones, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Watson Jones and Larry spent Sunday in Lubbock house guests at the home of Mrs. W. O. Jones' son, Dalton Jones and family.
