Lives Must Be Saved At South Plains Crossing

Last week a traveling salesman from Lubbock was going north into South Plains, he laid down 135 feet of skid marks, yet still crashed into the side of a train making the crossing at the intersection.

This young salesman was killed and is survived by a wife and four small children.

This is the fifth fatality at this particular auto-train crossing in South Plains. The continual occurrence of autos plowing into the side of the trains would indicate that some warning device is necessary at this railroad crossing.

True, a flashing red light combined with traffic bars that raise and lower would be very expensive . . . yet, what price can you put on a person's life?

Possibly a flashing red light without the traffic bars would serve the need of this particular situation.

The Hesperian will be glad to publish a petition of interested citizens who would like for the hazards of this railroad crossing to be corrected. We believe that a petition should be submitted, and we will be happy to accompany a group to Lubbock to discuss this need with the district highway engineer.

We believe there is a definite need for more safety precautions at South Plains railway crossing . . . we believe it is foolish to continue to put it off and allow more lives to be lost. As responsible citizens we are our brother's keeper . . . we have an obligation to see that our best efforts are devoted to correcting this hazard at South Plains.

Parents Give Yourselves First

Judge Philip B. Gilliam of Denver, Colo., in an "Open Letter to A Teenager", several years ago, wrote: "Always we hear the plaintive cry of the teenager: 'What can we do? . . . Where can we go?' The answer is, go home.

"Hang the storm windows, paint the woodwork. Rake the leaves, mow the lawn, shovel the walk, wash the car, learn to cook, scrub some floors. Repair the sink, build a boat, get a job.

"Help the minister, priest, or rabbi. Help the Red Cross, the Salvation Army. Visit the sick, assist the poor, study your lessons. And then when you are through—and not too tired—read a book.

"Your parents do not owe you entertainment. Your city or village does not owe you a living. You owe the world something. You owe it your spare time and energy and your talents so that no one will be at war or in poverty or lonely again.

In plain words, grow up! Quit being a cry baby. Get out of your dream world and develop a backbone, not a wishbone. And start acting like a man or a lady.

What the judge, who has handled thousands of juvenile cases in Denver, has said is true, appropriate, and to the point. Parents have "nursed, protected, helped, begged, excused, tolerated, and denied themselves" for their children.

What more can they do? They can start using their heads instead of their hearts where their children are concerned, and by doing it they can demonstrate a greater love than they have shown before in the lavish gifts of material things and extra freedoms which their children have not been trained to utilize properly or to appreciate.

They can return the home to its central place of importance in the American way of life. Before they can cry out in unison, "Go home teenager," they must first make sure they have a home—a real home—for him to go to.

Delinquent children? The charge of delinquency has been as frequently leveled at the parents who gave the children life, and perhaps justly so.

The parents have promoted rather than discouraged the unholy alliance among children who take a mile inch by inch with the tormented, fearful cry, "Everybody else is doing it." Parents have been softhearted and yielding and at the same time soft-headed when they have relinquished by neglect and through lack of strong personal ideals of their own the rearing of their children to their neighbors.

They have left instruction about God to the Sunday school teacher and the preacher, instruction in the basic tools of learning to the school teacher alone, and the knowledge of the personal matters of life and love to the filthy scribbling of the restroom walls and the commercial pornography of a sick publishing industry.

They have been great contributors of money, as witnessed by the stacks of toys for the younger kids and automobiles for the older ones. Such organizations as the Community Chest and Boy Scouts and the summer baseball programs — all good within themselves — are further indications of the willingness of the American people to give of their money.

But where parents have fallen short is in giving of themselves as they also have given of their money.

How many of the parents have volunteered as managers of Little League teams; and how many become cubmasters or scoutmasters, showing real personal interest in the work and play of the children?

How many have taught their children to be God-fearing by being God-fearing themselves? How many have gone with their children to church and Sunday school rather than sending them? How many have knelt with them to pray? How many have taught them to be sober and law-abiding by themselves abstaining from drunkenness and by obeying to the smallest detail the letter of the law of honesty—on

Tut Tawwater Candidate For Lion Governor

The Plainview Lions Club has announced the candidacy of Tut Tawwater, local radio man and well known civic worker for District Governor of Lion's District 2-T-2 for 1963-64.

Tawwater is opposed by Bert Belcher of Seagraves and one of the two men will be elected at the Lion's District convention in Lubbock this weekend which is expected to attract a record number of registrations from around the vast West Texas District which includes 37 Lions clubs.

Tawwater has served on four district cabinets in the past, has been chairman of both a district convention and mid-winter conference, and has twelve years perfect attendance in his own club.

He is also well known for his civic work in Plainview having been that city's "Citizen of the Year" in 1959, served as Presi-the highways, in the home, and in business? How many have taught them consideration for others by themselves being considerate? You haven't done these things? Then maybe you as a parent should make a covenant with yourself and your child today. Tell him that first you'll make him a home that you'll be a decent parent who'll make tougher demands but who'll walk the distance with him.

Tell him you'll open your home to him and his friends.

Tell him you're going to form an alliance, born of love and reason, with the neighbors and the parents of his friends to see that they do the same: that when you demand more of him than you've ever demanded of him before you're going to ask his friend's parents to do the same with their own children.

Tell him that you're not going to relinquish the shaping of his life to people who have standards of conduct, religious principals, ideals, or goals in life that are lower than your own.

Tell him that you're completely responsible for his life and that you're going to hold him responsible to you for it.

Then you'll be in a position to say to him, "Come home son. Stay home."

When he does come home make sure you give him more than you've ever given him before — not of material things, not of free time with nothing to do, but of love, of your time, of your own personal guidance.

Maybe gradually at first, give him more responsibility than he's ever had before. Turn off the TV set or put down that magazine and see that he meets this responsibility. Praise him more, appreciate the smallest success, encourage in the face of failure and disappointments. Share with him more of your thoughts and aspirations, and tell him why living life your way is better than living it some other way.

And if it isn't then do the inward soul searching that will make your way of life better than it is.

In short, parents, let's grow up. We may have to grow up, too, you know, to command the respect of that son or daughter.

It may be a new way of life. But we'll be better for it. And so will our children.

Saluting our COTTON GROWERS

During Cotton Week In Floyd County

JUNE 6-13

We want to take this opportunity to express our thanks to all who are helping to make our ginning operation a success. Floyd County Cotton Farmers are among the best in the nation and it is indeed a pleasure to serve them.

Cotton is a very important industry across the South Plains. The West Texas area is producing more cotton today than any of the cotton states of the Old South.

Cotton as an industry has moved west. Our cotton growers, however, are faced with the problem of finding a larger market for their product.

South Plains housewives can do much to improve this market by buying and using more cotton products instead of the substitutes that have been flooding the markets in recent years.

This week Floyd County Dry Goods Merchants are featuring cotton products in their stores. They are anxious to show you the good buys that are available in cotton.

Cheryl Deliece Gilly And John Thomas Harrison Wed

An arch decorated with emerald greenery and white pom-pom mums, flanked by Cathedral candles bearing white lighted tapers formed the wedding scene for Cheryl Deliece Gilly and John Thomas Harrison Friday, May 31. Baskets of white gladiolas at either side and a kneeling bench of white satin completed the setting. The bride and groom knelt during the singing of the Lord's Prayer and at the close of the ceremony which was read in the Assembly of God Church at Cedar Hill.

Rev. Larry Godfrey of Lockney performed the double-ring vows at 7 p. m.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Gilly of Cedar Hill and the bridegroom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jack Harrison of Rayville, La.

Barbara Gilly was at the piano playing wedding selections and also accompanied soloist Melba Jean Fortenberry as she sang "Because" and "Whither Thou Goest" and "The Lord's Prayer". Miss Sheila Patterson, aunt of the bride, served as maid of honor. Vickie Jarboe and Mary Nixon were bridesmaids and Frieda Godfrey was flower girl.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a beautiful floor-length gown of chantilly lace and silk organza over crisp taffeta. The skirt extended into a chapel train draping in overlays of silk organza to the front and caught at the sides by bows of matching material. Her fitted bodice featured a scalloped Sabrina neckline which was trimmed in bridal pearls and iridescent sequins. The long sleeves tapered to petal points over the hands and her finger-tip bouffant veil of French illusion edged in lace fell from a tiara of tiny seed pearls.

She carried a bouquet of white french carnations surrounding feathered carnations on top of a white Bible. She wore a drop diamond necklace, a gift from the groom.

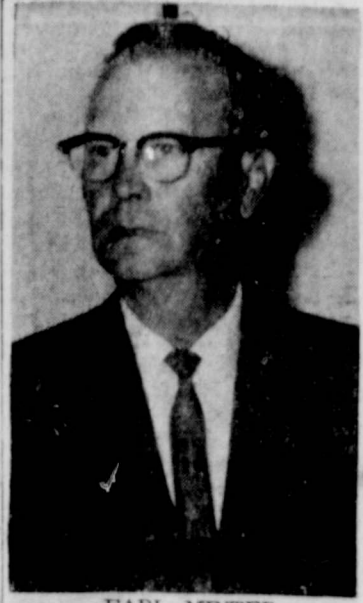

The traditional something old was a penny bearing the date of the bride's birth worn in her shoes her wedding attire was something new, something borrowed was the lace covering her Bible and something blue was a blue and lace garter.

Feminine attendants wore identical dresses of blue lace Jacquard styled by Halberger. Bodices were fitted and were accented by scooped necklines and cap sleeves. Their skirts were styled in draped Japanese bell fashion. Each wore a white matching headpiece of coil pillbox with illusion veils. They carried cascade bouquets of pink carnations of Texas.

Hostesses for the hospitality were Mrs. O. L. Lowrance, John Shipley, L. T. Dycus, J. K. Holmes, Turner Hunter, Clinton Denning, B. A. Robertson, G. L. Smitli, S. L. Holmes, Sr., J. T. McLain, J. C. Buntin and Mrs. Wilson Edwards.

The hostess gift was a Sunbeam stainless steel electric skillet and three pieces of the bride's selected silverware.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Pearsall of Canev, Kan., visited here Monday and Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Dan and Nada of Hale L. H. Dorrell in Floydada. Guests and Mrs. Floyd Ly-Sunday with the Dorrell's were served as best man and ushers. The bride, and Dwight Teeple

Earl Minter Joins Bealls Sales Staff

Louis Anderson, manager of Beall Brothers Department Store in Floydada, this week announced an addition to the firm's sales force. Mr. Earl Minter is now associated with Bealls and will specialize in gents furnishings.

Minter comes to Bealls and Floydada from Lockney where he has been associated with Browns Department Store and J. C. Jones Co. He has 25 years experience in this field.

Minter told a Hesperian reporter he was proud to be in Floydada and is anxious to get acquainted with all of the people in this trade area. He likes West Texas people and wants to know more of them and to have an opportunity to serve them.

Presently Minter is developing some plans to improve service in the men's department and to offer wider selections of the popular Beall lines. He is experienced in fitting suits and pants and can help customers in this line.

For the time being the Minter's will continue to make their home in Lockney, where Mrs. Minter is employed with Lockney General Hospital.

Wayland Baptist College.

Mr. Mulder is a native of South Plains, Tex., and graduated from Floydada High School. He is now attending Wayland Baptist College in preparation for the ministry.

Miss Rowland and Mr. Mulder plan to wed July 14th at 2:30 p. m. in the South Plains Baptist Church.

Friends of this couple are extended an invitation to attend the wedding and reception to follow.

Estacado Baptist Church is holding Bible School this week with approximately 20 attending first day. Joe Peterson is superintendent.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Morehead and son from Austin are in Floydada visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Morehead.

June McCain - William Doan Exchange Double Ring Vows

TULIA (Special) — Miss Reta June McCain and William Doan exchanged double ring wedding vows at 7 p. m. Saturday, June 1, in the First Presbyterian Church of Tulia.

The Rev. Lewis Koerselman, Sr., pastor, officiated at the candlelight ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. McCain of Floydada. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Allen Doan of Tulia.

Five candelabra bearing white tapers and banked with sunbursts of emerald greenery formed the decorative background. A white aisle cloth extended over the steps at the altar. The couple knelt for the wedding prayer on a white satin covered prayer bench.

Larry Douglas, organist, played traditional nuptial selections and accompanied Mrs. John Simpson, Jr. who sang "Because", "O Perfect Love", and "Whither Thou Goest". Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white Chantilly lace and peau de soie. The molded lace bodice was fashioned with scalloped Sabrina neckline and long sleeves tapering to petal points over the hands. The lace enhanced the side and front fullness of the bouffant skirt designed with deep inverted pleats. Three softly gathered toils, each centered with a cabbage rose of peau de soie, accented the back skirt which ended in a chapel sweep. The gown was designed and made by the bride's mother.

A crown of seed pearls in a lace design held her finger-tips of illusion. The veil was borrowed from a friend, Mrs. Theron Culwell. The bride carried a colonial bouquet centered with a white orchid atop a white satin Bible, with a cascade of stephanotis. Belonging to the bridegroom's mother, the Bible was the bride's "something old". Maid of honor was Miss Janice Rector, Mrs. Theron Culwell and Mrs. Byron Lewis, Lubbock, were bridesmaids. They wore pink peau de soie street-length dresses with boat necks, short sleeves, and bell-shaped skirts. A cabbage rose of the same material centered interest at the back waistline of each dress. Headpieces were small matching pink pill boxes with pink illusion shoulder-length veils. Dyed-to-match shoes and short pink gloves complemented their attire. Each attendant carried a single long-stemmed red Happiness rose.

Bobby Doan attended his brother as best man. Groomsmen were Parker Doan, brother of the bridegroom, and Don McCain, Lubbock, brother of the bride.

Ushers were Tommy Childress, Lubbock, Dale Swinburn, Jerry Evans, and Ken Burrow.

The candles were lighted by Charlotte Doan, sister of the bridegroom, and Jan Doan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Doan, cousin of the bridegroom. They wore pink peau de soie dresses styled similar to those of the attendants. The back waistlines were accented by flat bows. They wore wristlets of pink sweetheart roses.

Kim Doan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Doan, cousin of the bridegroom, was flower girl. She was dressed in white peau de soie with white embroidered silk organza overskirt. She scattered white rose petals from the white basket she carried.

Randy Singer, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Singer, was ring bearer. The heart-shaped ring pillow was of white peau de soie with white lace ruffle and narrow white ribbon streamers tied with love knots.

For her daughter's wedding, the bride's mother chose a blue silk sheath jacket dress, blue flower hat, white gloves, black patent shoes and bag. The bridegroom's mother wore a beige eyelet embroidered dress with pink hat and gloves, beige shoes and bag. Both wore corsages of pink roses.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in Fellowship Hall of the church. The table was covered with a white net and lace cloth over pink. The bride's bouquet and her attendants' roses formed the centerpiece, flanked by two white candles. The five-tiered pedestal cake was entwined with a spiral of pink roses and topped with a bride and groom in a heart-shaped net setting. Table appointments were crystal and silver.

Miss Linda Wallace of Houston served the cake. Mrs. Gary Don Bove of Lubbock registered guests at the wedding.

Other members of the reception house party were Misses Michael Shelton, Marlene Dietrich, Betsy Koerselman, Jean Barbour, Je Nell Cosby, and Mrs. Kenneth Littlefield.

Assisting with hospitalities were Mrs. Hubert Rector, Carl L. Brusler. For traveling to Colorado, the bride wore a gold silk two-piece suit trimmed with three large covered buttons on the jacket, matching gold silk hat, black patent shoes and bag. She added the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

After June 15, the couple will be at home at the Tech Village Apartments in Lubbock. The bride has been employed by De-

Miss Standifer is the niece of Mrs. Theo Thompson of Floydada, and is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Standifer of Modesto, Calif., former Floydada residents.

She is an alumna of Pueblo High School in Tucson.

The couple are to marry June 8.

Kalb Agricultural Association, Inc. as district secretary with her office in Tulia. August 1 she will be transferred to the district office in Lubbock.

The bridegroom is a mechanical engineering major at Texas Technological College. He is employed by Western Tank and Steel Co., Lubbock. Both Mr. and Mrs. Doan are Tulia High School graduates.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mrs. Dollie McCain, Morenci, Arizona; Mrs. Bernice Adamson, Thomas, Adamson, both of Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Sims, Hereford; Mr. and Mrs. Dale Whitlow, Happy; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barton, Paducah; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Barton and girls, Fort Worth; Carl Benton, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Hooten, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Riley, all of Plainview; Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Brockman, Nazareth; and Gary Don Bove, Lubbock.

The rehearsal dinner for the bride was given in the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Kirk Hulsey at 7 p. m. Friday, May 31. Assisting Mrs. Hulsey were Mrs. Dale Wallace, Mrs. Audrey Hyatt, and Mrs. Lloyd Evans. An arrangement of pink and white carnations was on the main serving table. Guests were seated at smaller tables. A Chinese menu was served.

CAROL SUE REEVES

Methodist Church Setting For Jones - Poteet Wedding

The First Methodist Church in Floydada was the setting Sunday afternoon for the 3 o'clock wedding of Miss Janice Helen Jones and Curtis Wayne Poteet. Parents of the newly weds are Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Jones of Floydada and Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Poteet of Nara Visa, N. Mex., formerly of Floydada.

Rev. Charles Lutrick performed the double ring ceremony before a candelabra bearing blue tapers, baskets of fern and white wedding bell post with white satin garlands.

Miss Linda Lyles played "Indian Love Call" and other selections including the Wedding March. Soloists were Miss Carolyn Franklin who sang "Always" and Miss Bennie Galloway who sang "Whither Thou Goest". The bride's father gave her in marriage. She wore a handmade wedding gown created by her grandmother, Mrs. C. B. Lyles. It was of slipper satin with an overskirt of Chantilly lace featuring a scalloped neckline. The bodice, formed into a V-shape at the waist line, was complimented by long tapering sleeves coming to petal points at the hands. Her veil of lace was caught to a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses atop a lace covered white Bible. For something old she wore a gold bracelet belonging to her great aunt, Mrs. E. B. Chesnut; something new was her wedding attire; something borrowed was her necklace of cultured pearls belonging to her sister, Mrs. David Mount, something blue was the traditional blue garter.

Mrs. Billie Hinkle, sister of the bride, was Matron of honor and Mrs. David Mount of Vernon served as bridesmaid. They were attired in identical blue shirtwaist dresses of dacron and cotton with lace overskirts. They carried white carnation nosegays and wore white velvet clips with halo veils.

Gail Poteet, sister of the groom was flower girl and Billy Gene Hinkle, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer. Candelighters were Pat McCarty of Lockney, cousin of the groom, and Vikki Warren, niece of the bride. They wore white eyelet dresses, halo veils and blue carnations.

George Ray Powell, cousin of the groom, served as best man. Dickie McCarty, Lockney, cousin of the groom, was groomsmen and ushers were Jonny Powell, Tommy Powell, Ronnie Poteet and Tommy Lyles.

A reception followed the wedding in Fellowship Hall of the church. The serving table was laid with a white lace cloth over blue. Presiding at the crystal service were Miss Carol Jean McCarty and Miss Patricia Stephens.

For traveling Mrs. Poteet changed to a blue shantung suit with a lace overblouse and wore a corsage from her bridal bouquet. Following their wedding trip to Carlisad the couple will return to their farm home south of Floydada. The bridegroom is engaged in farming with his uncle, Truitt McCarty.

Mrs. Poteet plans to complete high school this summer.

She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Lyles and George Jones of Floydada. Her husband is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Poteet of Plainview and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Powell of Anna, Tex.

The Land Of Cotton

Cotton didn't come to West Texas until after the turn of the present century. But since it has arrived on the High Plains it has grown and prospered.

The Deep South was often called "the land of cotton". But that title has now moved west to Texas.

The High Plains of West Texas produce more cotton than any other state in the nation --including those of the Deep South.

We are proud to be a part of this great cotton industry -- and especially of our customers who have made cotton so important to all of us.

Agriculture Department Again Reduces 1963 Wheat Estimate

The United States Department of Agriculture has again reduced wheat should produce average to the expected yield of the Texas above-average yield. The normal wheat crop by 3,436,000 bushels in-migration pattern should be from last month's estimate. The amount to handle this year's crop, prospects in north-central Texas Harvest will begin around June 10 to 15.

BORGER SPEARMAN, PERCY, throughout most of the rest of the wheat producing areas STRATFORD and DUMAS. It is on dry-land crops. A near-estimated that 90 to 95 percent age yield is expected from irrigated wheat in these areas. Some areas are as follows:

DALLAS: The prospects remain average with the harvest to begin the last week in May. No in-migration of combines and trucks are needed.

MINERAL WELLS, O'NEAL, EASTLAND and BRECKENRIDGE: Reports indicate that the prospects are for an average crop in this area. Harvest is expected to get underway around June 1. No in-migration of trucks and combines is requested. They have some equipment available for out-migration.

WICHITA FALLS, ARCHER CITY and HENRIETTA: Hot winds are causing wheat to open rapidly. The first few loads have already been checked in at elevators. Harvest is expected to get well underway during the last week in May. No shortage of men or equipment is expected.

VERNON, CROWELL, QUANA, SEYMOUR, MUNDAY and HASKELL: The wheat in this area continues to offer good prospects. The first load of wheat ships this Spring was delivered in Vernon on Saturday, May 11. General harvest is expected to start around May 20. At this time, the in-migration of combines and trucks is slower than normal although in-migration is expected to continue during the next few days.

CHILDRESS, WELLINGTON, PADUCAH, CLARENDON, MEMPHIS, GUTHRIE and MATA DOH: The wheat crop in this area continues to deteriorate. It is estimated that approximately one-half of the dry-land wheat has been abandoned. Summer fallow wheat will probably be harvested with a yield from six to ten bushels per acre. Harvest will begin about June 1. Normal migration of men and machines will be sufficient to harvest this year's crop.

COSBYTON, DICKENS and JAYTON: Some rain has been received in this area but it came too late to be of benefit to the dry-land crop. Irrigated wheat will be about average. There is plenty of local labor and machines to harvest this year's crop.

BROWNFIELD: Rains received in this area on May 4 and 5 have been of some benefit to the wheat crop. Scattered hail damage has caused some abandonment. The crop is expected to yield around ten bushels per acre. No need anticipated for additional men and machines.

LITTLEFIELD, MULESHOE, DENNITT, FARWELL and HEREFORD: Dry-land wheat is still suffering from lack of moisture, son James from Freeport, his wife and children, Cecilia, Cathy Lou and Steve. They were enroute to Logan, Utah where he will be a participant in an institute for high school math teachers at Utah State University sponsored by the National Science Foundation.

Other visitors in the Cox home were Mrs. Bob Wylie and children, Mark and David from Amarillo.

A. B. Keim was reported doing as well as could be expected yesterday by members of the family. Mr. Keim underwent surgery Monday in Methodist Hospital where he had been for several days in a serious condition suffering from a lung complication.

AMARILLO, VEGA, PANHANDLE and CLAUDE: Prospects for a wheat crop on dry-land farms in this area continue to be very poor. Some fields that were seeded on summer fallow land

Letters To The Editor

CARE, during its 17 years of operation, has been ever cognizant of the value of your public relations media in your public service support of our organization, its objectives and endeavors.

There is no way by which we could issue our compensating gratitude and appreciation because the value of your support has been and is so great that there is no tangible way of accurately measuring its true value. We only know that it is far and beyond our most optimistic evaluation.

In so many instances, your support represents "the key that opens the lock" to our opportunity of serving mankind in underdeveloped areas of the world. Without it, the effectiveness of our appeal would be minimized to such an extent that sought results could not be attained. You are our communications link with all Americans who might be subject to international concern for qualified and deserving people.

In recognition of these facts and with the humble hope that CARE can continue to merit your faith, confidence and support, we feel the deepest humility in presenting you this "Certificate of Appreciation" as a token of our esteem, respect and gratitude for your significant endeavors in our behalf.

Martin Rodriguez Dies In Galveston

Julian Rodriguez, 28 year old Mexican farm laborer, and an employe of Travis Jones, died in Galveston Hospital on June 2 from injuries sustained on February 16 in a one car accident inside the city limits of Floydada.

Rodriguez was an occupant of a car along with three other men, who were not seriously injured in the mishap. Driver of the vehicle lost control of the car on a curve east coming into Floydada on the Matador highway. The car first hit a road sign then a large tree.

Rodriguez received broken limbs and a serious head injury which caused his death. He had never regained consciousness. His body was shipped to Eagle Nest from Galveston, then to Nava, Old Mexico for rites and burial. His wife and three young children have been in Nava since the accident.

Caprick

"Five cents a word for ten words" said the clerk. "There is no charge for the signature."

"That's right," he repeated questioningly. "That's right," nodded the clerk.

"Suppose you just send my signature then?" "All right, what's your name?" the clerk asked.

"Well," said the Scot, "I may not look it, but I'm an Indian and my name is 'I-won't-be-borne-till-Friday'."

A YOUNG woman was dialing a record store. Her dial finger slipped a notch and she got a wrong number. A man answered, and she asked, "Do you have 'Eyes of Blue and Heart That's True'?"

"No," said the man, "but I've got a wife and nine children, including four sets of twins."

"Is that a record?" gasped the astonished young lady. "Well, ma'am," was the answer, "we're not sure, but we think it is."

J. T. McLAIN was in the office this week and said he appreciated the fact that he deducted nine years from his age — said he didn't exactly feel that much younger, but appreciated anything we could do for him — especially making him younger.

We had Mr. McLain down as winner of the oldest man in the parade last week at 76 years of age. When a man gets up in the 70's and 80's it's pretty hard to tell by looking and we figured that 76 sounded about right — but just so we get the facts correct here — a good strong 85!

ROE JONES said he heard that Ray Lloyd out east of Floydada had harvested some 33 bushel per acre dryland wheat. A fellow can sorta get by without an irrigation bunch of cotton pickers and mow like that — sounds like good NEL money.

FRED LAMBERT, Roy Curry and L. A. Marshall are probably the nearest thing to professional fishermen we've got in Floydada. They were disappointed — only caught 50 Crappie on their trip to Pussum Kingdom Lake last week. Heck, I've come back from many a fishing trip and felt like a pretty successful fisherman with more than 50 fish. I suppose that's the difference in the professionals and fishermen like me.

BEAUTIFUL sunsets are one of the most inspiring beauties of nature and the sunsets I've seen in our area the past week have been wonderful. The sunsets have time they slide under the steering wheel of an auto — maybe they sound many clouds — the re-

Reflections on other clouds are terrific!

You can brag all you want on color TV — but in my book, Mother Nature tops the widders of color with her beautiful sunsets. And while we're talking about the simple wonders of evening it's a good time to remark about the two best things of summer — iced tea and home made ice cream. I don't know very much about Tom Davison yet, but I do know that his wife knows how to make good home made ice cream.

Now, I'm going to get over on the subject of squash — this isn't particularly one of the good eats of summer — in fact I didn't even think I liked squash until the other night when Mildred Wylie brought over a specially prepared dish of squash that tasted like some new fangled delicious dessert. No doubt about it — squash is good when Mildred prepares it. Peggy — better get Mildred's squash recipe for the paper.

And while we're on the subject of eating, think you should know that I have a very wonderful mother-in-law. She's Mrs. Luther Kirk, wife of the pastor of the San Jacinto Methodist Church in Amarillo. She came through here last week and took time to stop — not especially to see her daughter or grandchildren but to bake a cherry pie for her son-in-law. My mother-in-law knows my favorite pie is cherry and you just can't beat that for "in-laws."

Well, it's sorta fun to write about the simple little things of life like pretty sunsets and good eats — we read and write much of world shattering events and too often forget these important daily phases of life.

I STILL can't get over what a big parade we enjoyed in Floydada last Tuesday — believe it was larger than Plainview's. I lived in Littlefield almost five years and once we had a two block long parade. I suspicion I've left a bunch of cotton pickers and mow like that — sounds like good NEL money.

DON'T KNOW whether you've noticed it or not, but we're able to bring our readers more up-to-date and complete stories of the more exciting events in our area due to the simple fact that our city and county officers — combined with the folks at Harmon Funeral Home are beginning to call us when emergency situations arise.

I'm not interested in a lot of auto wrecks happening for news sake, but I do believe that when they happen and we are able to bring you pictures of them it will make you more careful the next time they slide under the steering wheel of an auto — maybe they sound many clouds — the re-

Bible School

(Continued From Page One) Commencement ceremonies will be held from 6 until 7 Sunday evening just prior to regular church services.

Bible School at the First Christian Church will be conducted in two sessions, the first starting on July 8 through July 11, and the second from July 15 through July 18.

Monday, June 10th will be the opening date for Bible School at the Victory Baptist Church. The school will continue through June 14 and hours will be in the afternoon from 2:30 until 4:30. Workers are Mrs. Joe Green, Mrs. Wayne Fuller, Mrs. Hubert Davis, Mrs. Henry Galloway, Mrs. A. J. Holster, Mrs. Julian Lipham and Mrs. Donnie Holladay.

Preparation day for Bible School is to start Saturday at the South Plains Baptist Church with the school getting underway the following Monday. It will continue through the week and commencement exercises will be Friday night. Hours are from 8 a. m. until 11 a. m. Mrs. Jane Beedy is principal.

Plans at the City Park Church of Christ are set for mid-July for their Bible School. A good attendance was reported for the registration Monday morning at Calvary Baptist Church. The Bible School will continue through Friday with commencement exercises to be held Friday night. Hours are from 8:15 until 11:15 daily. Mrs. J. W. Cannon is principal.

Dougherty Baptist Church will also hold their commencement program Friday night. Bible School is being conducted each morning this week from 8 until 11 o'clock. Mrs. Roy Crawford is general superintendent.

All children in rural areas and in the city are invited to attend a Bible School.

Paving and site improvements for all schools is estimated at $12,000. Additional equipment is estimated at $21,700.00.

The above new construction and remodeling would be ready for use by September, 1964. In the meantime the board approved the purchase of a $3,000 ready built building to be moved from a Lubbock contractor to serve as a temporary cafeteria at Andrews Ward to alleviate immediate crowded needs this coming school term.

INCENTIVE AWARDS PLAQUE... area FHA advisor J. J. Roane, Jr. of Childress presents a plaque to Neva H. Baxter secretary for the FHA office in Floydada. She has been with FHA ten years and in Floydada eight years.

The board voted to accept bids for sale of used mowing tractors and shredder. Superintendent Baker reported on progress of new stands now being constructed at the football stadium.

In other business the board approved the reading of the minutes and the payment of current bills. Attending the meeting were president Ralph Johnston, Ernest Lee Thomas, Buster Simpson Baker, Lawrence Davis, Jack Stansell, Greer Christian and Mrs. Lorin Leibfried.

The committee members also are co-sponsors of the need for a local museum in which can be stored and displayed records and relics of pioneer days. Importance of this plan for preservation of early day history can hardly be over-estimated in the opinion of the committee. A great many articles and papers are now in private hands which would be turned over to the care of a properly organized museum.

A fireproof or semi-fireproof building, with assurance of adequate supervision would have to be provided for course. The Historical Survey Committee is composed of twelve members. Homer Steen is chairman others being Mmes. A. P. Barker Sr., Mrs. Jesse Cox, Mrs. Henry Hodel, Mrs. L. M. Honea, Mrs. Maud Hollams, Mrs. Ralph Johnston, Miss Anne Sweptson, Edgar R. Hays, J. T. McLain, Doyle W. Hays and W. D. Newell.

Donors who gave to the fund on Old Settlers Day were J. T. McLain, Mrs. Claude V. Hall, M. Honea, Calvin Steen, Mrs. W. Carr, Lewis Blum.

Mahon

(Continued From Page 1) extension is being considered. Another alternative being considered is the possibility of securing emergency farm labor under the provisions of existing immigration laws which permit the recruiting of foreign farm labor under certain conditions. In previous years Mexico has expressed opposition to this procedure. Mahon pointed out that he and other supporters of the bracero legislation feel that domestic workers should be given preference and that braceros should not displace domestic workers. The regulations prohibit the use of braceros unless they are urgently required.

At the peak of the program in former years as many as 445,000 braceros have been used. By last year the program had dropped to less than 200,000 workers. Despite rapid developments in mechanized farming a limited number of braceros are required, according to Mahon, in order to prevent severe hardship and crop losses in certain areas.

Braceros are used principally in Texas and California and other areas of the Southwest. They are also used in vegetable crops in Colorado, Minnesota and Michigan.

Mahon has advised West Texas bracero users that he will continue to be of all possible service in connection with efforts which must be made to avoid a crisis in farm labor in bracero-using areas next year.

Mary Jane Burns

Miss Mary Jane Burns and Teddy Porter were united in marriage in a candlelight ceremony read Tuesday, June 4th at 8 o'clock in the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Porter in the Starkey Community. Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Clem Mensch of Petersburg.

Gordon L. Downing, former minister of the City Park Church of Christ in Floydada, now of Canyon, performed the double-ring vows before an archway covered with greenery and stephanotis. Wedding bells centered the arch which were tied in the bride's chosen color of yellow. Lighted tapers in candelabras flanked the arrangement.

Mrs. Thomas Parks, sister of the groom, sang "I Love You Truly" and "Always" and Roy Teague sang the "Lord's Prayer".

The bride was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Dub Riley of Petersburg. She wore the wedding gown of her sister, Mrs. Gary Thornton of Petersburg. It was of chintilly lace over net and satin, styled with a fitted bodice and bouffant skirt. Side panels of tiered ruffles edged in tulle and back panels of inverted pleats fell into a chapel train. The sweetheart neckline was edged with a sequin sprinkled tulle ruffle. Folds of tulle outlined the petal point sleeves. Her tiara of hand rolled satin roses held her veil of silk Maline. The tiara was designed by the groom's mother.

A cascade bouquet of Marguerite daisies and a white orchid was carried by the bride. The orchid was detached and worn as a corsage on the bride's traveling attire.

Mrs. Gaythal Lee of Petersburg, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Mrs. Gary Thornton, also a sister, served as bridesmaid. Linda Nixon, niece of the bride, was flower girl and Gary Nixon, nephew, was ring bearer. Candlelighters were Dirk Parks, nephew of the groom, was candlelighter and Gayla Lee, niece of the bride, was ring bearer.

Ronnie Stewart of Cone attended the groom as best man, and Ronald Blanton of Hart was groomsmen.

Following the wedding a reception honoring the couple was given in the Porter home. Guests were served by Linda Blanton of Hart and Kay Wilson of Petersburg. Mrs. Ronnie Stewart registered wedding guests.

Crystal appointments were used in serving a two tiered wedding cake and punch. The bridal bouquet formed the centerpiece on the table.

Mr. and Mrs. Porter will make their home in the Starkey community where the bridegroom is engaged in farming. Mrs. Porter is a junior in Petersburg High School and plans to graduate next term.

Double Ring Vows

Joy Nixon - Dale Law

Double-ring wedding vows were read in the New Salem Primitive Baptist Church Saturday night for Miss Joy Ann Nixon and Floyd Dale Lawson. Elder Joe Jackson performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Nixon and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Lawson of Floydada are parents of the newly-weds.

A white archway covered with leaves and white pom poms formed the wedding scene. The arch was flanked by spiral candelabras bearing white tapers. Centered was a white kneeling bench with accompanying aisle seats and white satin ropes. Baskets of white glads in floor baskets adorned each side of the wedding scene and a standing palm of commodore foliage completed the arrangement.

Wedding selections of "True Love" and "The Lord's Prayer" were sung by Miss Marjorie Dunavant and Miss Norma Sue Holms. They were accompanied by Miss Rita Colley.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of lace and tulle designed with a scalloped portrait neckline which was accented by sequins and pearls. Long sleeves tapered to petal points at the hands. From the fitted bodice flowed a magnificent tulle floor length skirt featuring a wide band of lace at the hem line.

Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was attached to a tiara of pearls. She carried a bouquet centered with a white Cattalpa orchid surrounded in bridal satin and showered with stephanotis. She detached the orchid from her corsage and wore as a shoulder corsage on her traveling attire.

Miss Mary Lynn Nixon, sister of the bride, attended as maid of honor. Mrs. Keith Reeves and Mrs. Bill Smith served as bridesmaids. Linda Nixon, niece of the bride, was flower girl and Gary Nixon, nephew, was ring bearer. Candlelighters were Calvin Brints, Crosbyton and Carl Jackson, Cone.

Feminine attendants were identifiedly gowned in yellow satins and sheaths styled with organza over skirts with matching shoes. Long white gloves and brief white veils caught to tiaras completed their ensembles. Each carried cascade bouquets of yellow pom poms and white feathered carnations with yellow trim.

Linda Nixon wore a wristlet of white carnations trimmed in yellow. The Sanders have spent several years in Palestine, Santer's daughter, Mr. and Mrs. F. daughter, Debra School and plans to graduate next term.

Floyd Philosopher Says He's In Favor Of Graduates Who Won't Set The World On Fire

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm may have his tongue in his cheek this week. Maybe it beats a foot.

As you know, this is the time of year when graduating classes are getting a lot of advice and I've been reading some of it from around the country and so far I haven't heard anything mentioned which I'd like to bring out.

I don't mean to say the advice isn't sound, it is, regardless of how little of it will be taken. In the world's entire history there never has been a shortage of advice, and like everything else, we've got a surplus of it. The price has never been high.

Most commencement speakers oish slums, lower taxes, bring kind of young people I'm looking out for at colleges, exhort the graduates to work hard and eliminate flies and mosquitoes, achieve and amount to as much as possible, write more books, find a funny as the speakers, but they've got to do better than that if the world's going to hold together.

Right now, we're at the point where a disarmament conference feels safer if it's meeting close to a bomb shelter.

Now the point I'd like to bring out is that in nearly every graduating class, except of course the one in Floydada, there's always a certain number about whom some folks predict, with about the accuracy of a weather forecast, "Well, they won't set the world on fire."

If this world needs anything, it's somebody who won't set it on fire. Go to the moon, orbit the earth, invent a tail pipe that won't rust out, perfect a drip-dry car fender that straightens out its own dents, eliminate racial strife, abolish slums, lower taxes, bring television to Africa, shave Castro, control the weather, grow food especially at colleges, exhort the graduates to work hard and eliminate flies and mosquitoes, write more books, find a funny as the speakers, but they've got to do better than that if the world's going to hold together.

off all but 4 tablespoons fat in the skillet. Sauté the onions in the pan until golden. Add the celery, green pepper, tomato sauce, water, Worcestershire sauce, brown sugar and pepper. Bring to a boil, then add chicken pieces. Reduce heat to 230 degrees. Cover fry pan and cook with vent open for about one hour, or until chicken is tender and the sauce is thick. Stir occasionally while cooking and add a little more water if necessary. Serve while hot from the skillet.

CENTER NEWS by Mrs. J. E. Green

CENTER, June 3 — More cool, cloudy rainy weather. The deluge Sunday and Sunday evening early left the country afloat. We hope it didn't do too much damage to crops - that and hail that fell in some neighboring communities.

There were good crowds at church Sunday considering the threatening weather. Mrs. Walter Sims came home Wednesday after several days in a Lockney hospital. We hope she will continue to improve.

Mrs. Green was somewhat indisposed over the weekend, but improving. Mrs. Clarence Pope, a neighbor of the Greens, is in Peoples Hospital, City, with flu and complications.

Mr. and Mrs. Plumlee were made happy over the weekend by the gathering in most of their children and families. These were Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Hines and boys of Plainview, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Plumlee and children of Amarillo, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Plumlee and children of Los Angeles, California.

Mrs. Maud Brister of South Plains visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Hal Thomas and Sue. Mrs. J. D. Welborn has her mother, Mrs. Ethel Hendrix of LeFors, who came Wednesday for several days' visit.

James David Welborn and family of Plainview visited Sunday with Bobby and family, city. The J. D. Welborns had with them their granddaughters, Carrie and Rena of Plainview from Sunday till Wednesday.

Mrs. Bob Welborn and children visited the J. D. Welborns Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Frank Dunn accompanied Mary and Eddie P. Parks of Lubbock Wednesday on an overnight trip to Alva, Oklahoma where they saw Grandmother Dunn and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Balios and baby of Lubbock came by her parents' home, the Frank Duns, Saturday afternoon, and left baby Tony Jr. with his grandparents while they made an overnight trip to Amarillo to attend a wedding.

JUNE 6-13 IS ... COTTON WEEK

IN FLOYD COUNTY

And that is a good time to stop and think what cotton means to all of us in this farming community.

Cotton is not only one of the biggest sources of income to our farmers ... it also furnishes employment for the county's labor on the farms and at the gins.

The business man depends on the income from cotton to put money in the pockets of his customers.

We at Lighthouse Electric are proud to take this opportunity to salute King Cotton and to salute the people we serve who produce it.

South Plains residents are invited to take a close look at the fine cotton materials and products now being offered in our stores and to choose cool, comfortable, cottons.

Cotton products are economical, they do not require special attention in cleaning and they are serviceable. When we buy cotton we help to provide a market for our products.

Saluting our COTTON GROWER

COTTON IS KING!

IN FLOYD COUNTY COTTON JUNE

Cotton means a lot to the economy of Floyd County. The production of cotton furnishes employment to many of our citizens on the farms and the cotton gins and warehouses of our community.

Production of electricity to operate these gins and cotton plants also furnishes employment to people here in Floydada.

At this time of year let us pause and think of the importance of cotton to all of us and to look for more ways to make use of cotton products and thus do our part in providing a market for our home grown products.

This week the stores in Floydada are stressing cotton items — materials, ready to wear, and household goods. Let's buy more cotton.

Farm Bureau Facts & Faces

An unplanned weekend trip resulted in your reporter missing her deadline. We do our vacationing during the few days after it rains and the fields are too wet to work. We imagine that most farmers realize just what we mean!

TAKE NOTICE: The 1963 Texas Farm Bureau Leadership Training Institute will be held July 30-August 2, in the Adolphus Hotel, Dallas, Texas. An outstanding program is being developed for this year's Institute. Discussions of the program and structure of political parties in Texas will be conducted by Texas leaders in both the major political parties at a general session. Another general session will be devoted to "Participation in Precinct Politics". These will be timely due to the important elections coming up next year. Other details will be available later, but we hope that several of you will be making plans to attend. You will find the program a valuable and enriching experience.

COLLISION NEAR LOCKNEY . . . This Chvy II was driven by W. H. Parish of Earth and in a collision with a Buick driven by Mrs. C. S. Mickey of Plainview last week one mile south of Lockney on U. S. Highway 70.

Let's send a full delegation of students this year from Floyd County.

QUEEN'S CONTEST: Work has begun on the annual Floyd County Queen's Contest to be held in July. Floyd County farmers have daughters just as lovely as anyone else, and we can prove it. The contest itself was originated to give our beautiful farm and ranch girls recognition. The girls are to be judged on grace, poise, charm, vivaciousness, and all the other qualities that go to make up winsome Texas future homemakers.

DAIRY MONTH: June has been set aside as Dairy Month by the American Dairy Association, and Texas Farm Bureau is joining in the promotion of dairy products. Farm Bureau people realize that commodity promotion is a wonderful thing if the funds collected are handled and disbursed in a manner that will promote a product to the fullest on the budget available. Our policy on promotional organizations puts us squarely in favor of the type of program being carried on by the American Dairy Association. Milk and milk products are an important part of everyone's diet - when we help sell milk, we are selling Good Health!

Sand Hill News

SAND HILL, May 27 - The Sand Hill Club met last Wednesday in the home of Mrs. James Jeffrey. The devotional was given by James at 1:30. Roll call was answered with "Something New I Have Learned." Mrs. Arlon Miller reported that the next 4-H program would be on keeping records. All members and parents are urged to attend. The Floyd Council will have a rummage sale in Floydada June 1st. Each member of the club is asked to donate three garments.

The Sand Hill Club donated ten dollars to the Park Fund in Floydada. The club voted to have their meeting dates put on the activity calendar.

Mrs. C. B. Carmack presented the program on "The Sophisticated Traveler." Refreshments were served to Mmes. James Jeffress, Lynn Miller, Arlon Miller, C. B. Carmack, Orba Miller, Pat Bullock, Tom Pierce and one visitor, Mrs. Nutt. The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Orba Miller on June 5th.

Our deepest sympathy to the family of Mr. Bun Hopper. The Hoppers were former residents of the Sand Hill Community. Mr. Hopper's funeral was held Monday in Floydada. May God be with them in their hour of sorrow.

Reports say that Mr. W. R. Billington was taken out of his car Monday after spending over three weeks. Reports are good and we are hoping he will be out of the hospital very soon.

Weekend visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Jeffrey and family were Mrs. Tom Brown of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Jeffrey of Amarillo, Mrs. Author Todd of Gunter, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Jackson of Richardson and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Holmes of Midland. Other visitors Saturday night were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Noel and sons of Petersburg, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Bloys and sons and Charles Holland of Floydada.

Beverly Jeffrey and Mary Starkey left with the Lockney Senior class for Colorado Friday night at midnight after graduation. The group will be gone 8 days.

Mr. and Mrs. Billings of Amarillo visited in the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Starkey over the weekend.

Sunday visitors in the home of Judy Turner were Elaine Starkey and Beverly Pierce.

It was Boy's Day at the Tom Pierses Sunday and they had quite a time. Those visiting Steve and Stan were Jim and Tim Jeffrey, Terry Turner, Randy Miller and James and Johnny McGuire.

Oh, my aching bones was the cry of the Sand Hill Baptist Brotherhood Sunday morning after the R.A.s challenged the Brotherhood to a ball game Saturday afternoon. The Brotherhood would have played all night or beat the R.A.s, which they finally did. Umps were Beverly Pierce and Judy Turner, and a number of ladies were down watching their heroes play ball. Men seen playing were Kirk Slater, Marvin Swanner, Tom Pierce, Bill Stringer, Carl Turner, and Stinson Stringer. R.A.s playing were David Bloys, Tim Jeffrey, James and Johnny McGuire, Steve and Stan Pierce, Terry Turner. Oh, yea, the pastor, Jimmy McGuire was seen trying to steal home one time. It was good to see the men and boys of the community having such a good time together. They should try it again in the near future.

Monday visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Mayo were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Holmes of Midland. The Holmes also visited in the home of Grandmother ly sheriff who served here during the 1910s and 1920. During the flu epidemic which raged in the county in 1918 Mrs. Grigsby and her husband worked night and day at the hospital set up in the court house, caring for the sick and dying. Her husband preceded her in death.

She was an active worker in the Baptist Church and attended each service despite her failing health. On December of last year Mrs. Grigsby was descending the steps at the church, slipped and fell, at which time she sustained a broken hip.

Survivors include two sons, Earnest Grigsby of Floydada and Albert Grigsby of Slaton; one daughter, Mrs. W. B. Britton of Hamlin; ten grandchildren; 17 great grandchildren; and seven great-great grandchildren.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor,

One of the greatest needs of Floydada is the creation of more jobs.

Floydada can profitably copy the plan of the Goodwill stores that have been in operation for some 10 years in California.

First, the neighbors donate things from their garages, attics, closets that they do not especially need, thereby doing a good deed. This merchandise is repaired and sold through stores. The money from these are used to pay the repairing and selling, thereby creating jobs for several people.

These stores in California give employment to thousands of people, especially handicapped people, relief rolls and the retired. People do not really wish charity - they want jobs.

Floydada can profitably start one of these stores after they understand the project. The Chamber of Commerce, the Lions Club, Rotary Club, P.T.A. Home Demonstration Clubs - all would be glad to help sponsor such a project.

A good name for it could be Good Neighbors Co-op, because that is what it would be - good neighbors cooperating and every one wishes to be a good neighbor.

This project helps create jobs locally and does not cost anyone very much.

If you are interested in such a project, please call me at YU-3-3169, this week, and I will explain further. You will be really interested after you fully understand.

L. A. Marshall,

Justice Douglas Criticizes Education Textbook Censorship In U. S. Schools

WASHINGTON — Justice William O. Douglas described American education last week as blemished by "more propaganda than we appreciate" — some of it racial, some religious, some ideological.

"Americanism is often taught as a brief for whatever American foreign policy may be in effect no matter how defeating it may be," The U. S. Supreme Court justice said in a speech prepared for the National Civil Liberties Clearing House.

A "New Fad"

"Many texts subtly downgrade the Negroes in favor of the whites," he said. "Some proclaim Protestantism over Catholicism and Christianity over Judaism and by failing to describe the history of religious liberty in a fair way."

"Teach communism is becoming a fad," Douglas continued. "Moreover, the tendency has been to serve a political rather than an educational need. Those who travel in Communist lands know that a Communist regime is not all black, while we are all white. Is there enough courage and independence left to disclose what features of the Soviet system are not evil?"

Douglas, in his sharp criticism of American education, enumerated several cases of censorship by school boards of school libraries. He included the case of a California school board he said banned "a brochure, 'The Rule of Law in World Affairs,' by a Justice Douglas."

"Arrests For Investigation"

"Education by those standards is largely propaganda for one point of view or one school of thought," Douglas said.

"That is indeed precisely the Communist approach to sociology, political science, history and art," Douglas did not ignore other areas of American life where he feels civil liberties need guarding: "The power of the bureaucracy is crushing. Only the expert can find his way. One not flanked by lawyers has little chance to enjoy his rights. The lone individual without a spokesman loses his rights by default. That problem promises to get more serious."

"Arrests for investigation are still common in some areas of the country. The persons arrested are not sons and daughters of the upper or middle classes. They come from the lower strata or from minority groups who do not know how to protect themselves and who do not have the prestige, courage or resources to vindicate their rights through suits for false arrest."

"Being poor and looking for a job is a crime in many of our localities. Vagrants, whose only crime is poverty, are convicted by the thousands and no bar association committee concerns itself with the matter."

"Some cities—and I speak principally of Northern ones—have a widening river of hate. We know that when racialist indoctrination into the police or when the police are allowed to treat a Negro or a member of another minority as a second-class citizen, the river of hate widens."

Douglas concluded with an appeal for task forces "to concern themselves with the problems of the Bill of Rights in modern setting."

"Churches, business groups, professional societies, school boards, unions, Parent-Teacher Associations, the pulpit and the press all have important stakes in the enterprise," he said.

Dougherty News

DOUGHERTY, June 3 The Dougherty area received rain and hail Sunday night. Reports as to hail damage to crops vary from slight to total wipe out. A result of the storm. Thirty-five enrolled and everything is reported to be progressing nicely.

Remember the closing program Friday evening June 7. Tomi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Scott of Lubbock, visited with her grandparents from Wednesday to Friday while her parents were on a fishing trip to Lake Stamford.

Mrs. David Mosley has been hospitalized at Crosbyton for several days. It is thought she may return home today. Her daughters visited their grandparents at Dallas during her illness.

Bill D. Boyd of Amarillo was breakfast guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Poole Tuesday. He was en route to Arlington where he will assist with church activities during the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Carpenter of Roaring Springs visited Mr. and Mrs. Howe Hines several days last week while on vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Ron Davenport of

THIS MACHINE — called a Micronaire—will be used to test the fineness of cotton fibers produced in this area. All cotton farmer who belong to Smith-Doxey organized groups are eligible for this service offered by the Lubbock Cotton Classing Office. The usual fee for this USDA service is 25 cents per sample, but Smith-Doxey farmers can get it for 8 cents per sample. A micronaire reading is an additional measurement of the quality of cotton which supplements the traditional cotton classing for grade and staple length. Cotton fiber fineness is shown by the position of the air-flow instrument indicator on the micronaire scale as seen in this picture. The lower the "mike" reading, as the trade calls it, the more immature the cotton. Usually low "mike" cottons have not matured normally and are lower in quality. These immature cottons cause processing difficulties at the mill. That's why most buyers look for cotton with a "mike" reading above 3.5. As a result more and more farmers want their cotton "miked" to help market it. To meet this need, the Agricultural Marketig Service is offering the "mike" service to all cotton farmers in Smith-Doxey groups. Applications for the service must reach the local cotton office by July 1.

Dr. Warren Poole, Mrs. Poole and Melissa were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Poole. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Poole made a trip to Gainesville Saturday.

The De Wese family were entertained in the Kenneth Poole home Sunday.

Cenain Scott returned home Saturday after visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Scott at Hereford for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Daryl Blasingame and Ray Randolph of Afton enjoyed boating and skiing at Buffalo Lake Sunday.

Jan Bullock of Floydada was the house guest of her sister, Mrs. Robert Ward last week and accompanied Mrs. Ward, Randy and rhonda to the Vacation Bible School at the McAdoo Baptist Church. The school is reported successful with an average daily attendance of 80.

House guests in the R. D. Holly home are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cargile of Strathmore, California, and their daughter, Mrs. Wanda Colvert, and sons Marc

IN FLOYD COUNTY June 6-13 Has Been Set As Cotton Week

Cotton Week is a good time for us to stop and think how important cotton is to the economy of our area.

The income from cotton to our farmers, our field workers, our gin people and others employed in transportation and allied industries is indeed a big item.

We all depend on this product for our livelihood and a good market for cotton is a must if our area is to prosper.

We can do much to improve the market for cotton goods by buying more cotton materials and insisting on cotton rather than the synthetics.

When you shop look for dependable cotton — you not only get a good buy but you also help to create more demand for cotton.

Merchants are currently stressing cotton materials for the warm months ahead and now as always cotton is your best buy.

Darty Gin is always ready to serve you . . . be it planting time or harvest our pledge is to try to take care of the fine customers in our area in the best way we know how.

DOUGHERTY, TEXAS

and Daron of Visalia, California. The Jesse Parnell Kenneth Robertson and R. D. Holly families attended a family party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Brooks of Roaring Springs Sunday.

Ethel Scott was the house guest of her sister, Mrs. Corkey Marshall and family of Roaring Springs last week.

Mr. and Mrs. V. V. Scott and Micki were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Scott at Hereford Saturday. Sunday this group attended the drag races at Amarillo.

Milton Wiley, of Corpus Christi, visited in the home of his sister, Mrs. R. H. Crawford Wednesday and Thursday.

Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Pratt entertained with a family get-together and supper, complimenting Milton Wiley. Attending were the honoree, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Benge and children of Friona, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Crawford and David.

Jerry Crawford is visiting at home a few days after receiving a B. A. degree from the University of Texas Saturday. His plans for the summer are indefinite but he probably will return to Austin and working during the summer vacation.

Former residents of Jack County may be interested to learn the Groveland Community plan a homecoming June 9 at the Pat Kelsey Place with basket lunch served at noon.

The Joplin Community will hold their annual reunion June 30 1963.

 The Dick E. Bunnells of Ingle- wood, Calif., are featuring a brand-new "star" in their home- a baby daughter who was born May 14, 1963, weighing six pounds and seven ounces.
 The couple named their daugh- ter, Millie Dena, after her grand- mothers.
 Mr. and Mrs. Bunnell are for- mer residents of Floydada. Low- elda is the daughter of Mrs. De- na Myrick and the late H. D. Myrick of Floydada.
 Mrs. Myrick is in Inglewood, visiting her daughter and fam- ily and also at Ontario where she is visiting another daughter, Mrs. Ross McWilliams and family and Lee Bradford, J. D. Porterfield her son, Rosse Myrick and fam- ily at Santa Clara.

The Interstate Highway System in Texas is being blessed with large, elaborate Safety Rest Areas for the safety and convenience of Texas travelers. Motorists can now relax and refresh themselves in the first of these rest areas (roadside parks) designed and built on the Interstate Highway System in Texas. This new rest area contains eight arbors equipped with fire places for family cooking, incinerators, fire wood, and big spacious tables and benches for picnicking. The "park" lies on a small knoll ten miles east of San Antonio on Interstate Highway 19 and was formally dedicated May 29.

FLOYD COUNTY'S ANNUAL COTTON WEEK
IS HERE AND WE JOIN OTHERS OF THE COTTON INDUSTRY IN SALUTING KING COTTON.
 This is a good time for citizens of the area to take stock of the im- portance of cotton to our farm economy.
 When cotton prices are good . . . our economy is helped.
 All of us can do a lot to improve the cotton market and the demand for cotton by buying and using more cotton materials.
 Cotton's competitors have done a big job in advertising their prod- ucts and many times we have not been as alert in telling the cotton story.
 Cotton has many advantages over most other products, it is eco- nomical, lasts longer, is easier to laundry, and is just as attractive in appearance.
 The next time you go shopping . . . be your own best customer . . . look for and ask for cool, comfortable cotton.

DOUGHERTY CLUB NEWS

Dougherty Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. Bob Vickers on May 23rd. Mrs. W. J. Ross, club president, was in charge. Mrs. Vickers gave the devotional from James 1:26-27 and Mrs. Carmel Eastham led in singing.

Members answered roll call with "something new I have learned".

Putting whipped cream into making fresh strawberry pies, and freezing which can be used out of season, were a few of the ideas presented during the meeting.

Club is to sponsor a rummage sale for Floyd County Council on Saturday, June 1. Each member is asked to donate three garments. A saleslady from the club will work during the rummage sale between the hours of 3:30 and 5:30 p. m.

On June 10th at 3 p. m. C. A. Dempsey will give a leader training demonstration on the safety of seat belts.

Mrs. G. W. Smith gave an interesting talk on wild flowers. Several flowers in Texas that we see but do not know the name of are the Mexican Hat, Dandelion, Black-eyed Susan, Yucca plant, Devil's Head cactus, Wild Gourd, Texas Sage and the Blue Bonnet.

Mrs. Eastham gave a brief discussion on reading road maps, giving major cities and highways and highways that are under construction, tips on extended trips and some good rules in general.

Mrs. Ross presented the program based on "Sophisticated Traveler" and travel tips.

There is to be a bake sale at the H. N. Powell store in Dougherty the first week in June or when the harvest gets underway.

Mrs. Johnny Cates was in charge of recreation. Mrs. A. Kreis and Mrs. Claude Ring were prize winners. Mrs. G. W. Smith won the attendance prize.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Johnny Cates, G. W. Smith, W. J. Ross, Carmel Eastham, Russell Crawford, Chooze Ring, A. H. Kreis, and one visitor, Mrs. C. A. Caffee.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Ring on June 13 at 2 p. m.

Letters To

The Editor

Dear Mr. Editor,
For about a year and a half we have lived in this fair city and can truthfully say we have enjoyed every minute of it. From the time we began to consider moving to Floydada until the present, I have heard from people of every walk of life about the Christian attitude of our community. Almost every week I hear statements about this being a church-going area.

We do have fine churches — a rather large number of people do attend church regularly. Thank the Lord for this. To the best of my knowledge there is not a great percentage (at least publicly) of our citizens who drink. I think our whole town can justly be proud of this.

But last night I had occasion to be out in town during the windup of "Old Settlers Day", and the things that were in public evidence is a sin and disgrace against any community.

To begin with, there were three public dances going on, which always attract many people from outside the community. You had but to drive down the street to see drinking on every hand — to see a drunk woman who could hardly stand up — to hear profanity that would curl the toes of the saltiest sailor. And all this to the tune of cars driving up and down the streets at unreasonable speeds. This was in Floydada — not at some waterfront bar section — not in the slums of some large city — but in our church-going, our outstanding Christian community.

I believe it is past time for the people of our community to do something about this deplorable situation. There is nothing wrong with a day of renewing acquaintances, a day for fun and frolic a time to make believe in turning back the pages of time a few years; but it is a black mark against everyone of us to allow this day to become a drunken brawl before our very eyes.

I make this protest as a citizen of this community. I urge every decent person here to rise up in righteous indignation against this sickening, sin-cursed situation. Next year at "Old Settlers Day" let's have an enjoyable time during the day and leave off these things that bring about public drinking. May the Lord help us to have courage enough to see that this is so.

Sincerely Yours,

Floyd C. Bradley

County agent and Mrs. Tom Davison left Tuesday to attend the annual 4-H Roundup at College Station. Also attending the roundup is assistant agent Darrell Smith.

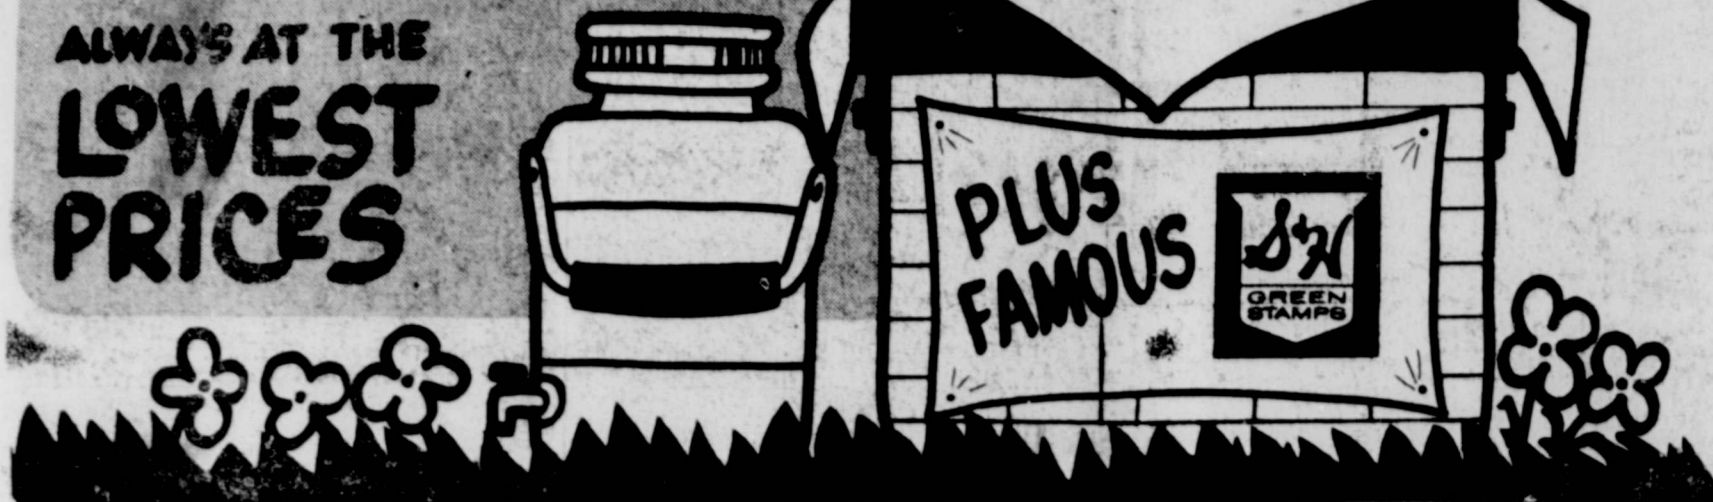

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Williams of Dimmitt were in Floydada for the Old Settlers reunion and spent the night with the J. T. McLains.
