$395,000 Caprock District Bond Vote Friday

AN EDITORIAL

For Relief Of Suffering And Protection Of Life

The voters in the Caprock District have the opportunity to vote on a $395,000 hospital bond issue, tomorrow, Friday, February 21. The opportunity has come about through the decision reached in a 551 to 256 vote for the creation of the hospital district last year.

An appointed district hospital board has since spent many hours working on a plan for constructing and financing of the desired new hospital... one that will serve the health care needs of this growing area of West Texas.

This board has developed a working plan of financing the structure and facilities that will require 50% local financing through the $395,000 bond vote... a tax requirement that should not overburden anyone. The county property tax roll will be used and an assessment of 40¢ per $100 valuation will be required to build the hospital and keep it in operation... 30¢ to pay off the bond indebtedness in 20 years... 10¢ to be used for operating money, expansion, or additional retirement of bonds.

The other 50% will be requested through a Hill-Burton government grant that does not have to be paid back. The board has been assured that the district is in an excellent qualification bracket to receive Hill-Burton money.

The hospital structure is estimated by architects to cost $645,000 and the equipment at $150,000.

We believe this hospital will be second to none in this area of Texas... there are some larger, but none better. By the very fact that it is ultra-modern in every respect, we have an additional assurance that it will be used by residents of communities far and wide. This gives us more assurance that it will operate and make money as well as be of service to the hospital district's residents.

It is a known fact that some hospitals make money and some lose money. This is true in the operation of business firms, farms, and households... the profit or loss is usually due to the kind of management in each particular instance. In this situation we have the good faith and word from our hospital board that only an experienced highly skilled administrator will be employed to

City Election Set April 7

According to Mayor S. W. Ross, there will be a city election April 7 to fill the vacancies of the three councilmen whose terms are expiring this year.

The councilmen whose terms are expiring are Henry Willis, Roe Jones, and Clement McDonald.

The councilmen and Mayor are elected for two year terms on alternate years. The city government is composed of five councilmen and a Mayor, thus every year half of the council members terms expire.

The election will be at City Hall in Floydada and Fred Battey will be election judge, T. S. Brown will serve as assistant judge.

The final date for filing for a position on the ballot for a council seat is Saturday, March 7.

Rites Friday For Mrs. Sarah Meek

Mrs. Sarah Jane Meek, 86 year old longtime resident of Floyd County, died yesterday morning at 3:30 in Peoples Hospital.

Funeral rites are to be conducted Friday morning at 10 o'clock in the First Methodist Church in Floydada. The pastor, Rev. Charles Lutrick will officiate, assisted by Elder Joe Jackson of Cone. Interment will be in Floydada Cemetery under the direction of Harmon Funeral Home.

Mrs. Meek was born on December 25, 1887 in Belleville, Ark. She moved to Grayson County in 1902 and before moving to Floyd County had made her home in Denton County.

She and her late husband, Eld Meek, were married January 4, 1894 in Belleville. Mr. Meek died in 1957. Also preceding Mrs. Meek in death were three sons. (See MEER Page 7)

Residents Of Three Floyd Precincts Vote

Qualified voters in precincts 1, 3 and 4 will express their opinion concerning a $395,000 bond issue for half of the cost of a new hospital to be built in Floydada when they go to the polls tomorrow.

An unusually large absentee vote of 42 indicated high voter interest in the hospital bond issue.

Polling places throughout the Caprock Hospital District which is composed of the above three precincts will open at 8 a.m. and close at 7 p.m. A complete list of voting places will be listed farther along in this story.

It should be noted that there will be only one polling place in Floydada in the county court room in the courthouse.

A Doctor For Emergencies

The Hesperian has been asked to explain the pros and cons of doctors officed in the hospital. It is evident from the experience at Post, Texas that many problems arise between competing doctors and a hospital board that has the problems of approving or disapproving a doctor for its offices.

If it is logical not to office them for free in the hospital, why not rent them offices? Many people believe it is not desirable for tax dollars to be used in building doctors a place to do business.

What about emergencies at the hospital and no doctor officed there? In hospitals that have doctors officed in them, the doctor only maintains office hours in the day time and is not in his office nights. Most hospitals have an assigned doctor each week who will be at his phone for emergencies. The ambulance drivers and nurses know which doctor is set for emergencies and he can be at the hospital by

Evidently some voters are still confused about what precinct they live in. It should be remembered that all residents of Floydada are in either 1, 3 or 4 precincts. Effective January 1, 1963 the southern border of precinct 2 was moved north from the northwest part of Floydada to a point just south of Muncy Elevator.

Although the bond issue is for only $395,000, at stake in the vote is an ultra-modern 40 bed $790,000 hospital. The cost of the construction of the hospital is estimated at $645,000 and the equipment at $145,000.

The plans for the new hospital, including financial arrangements were made by an appointed hospital board composed of Hollis Bond, A. H. Kreis, M. P. Goen, M. S. Robertson and L. T. Wood. If the bond is approved the board will seek a government Hill-Burton grant for the other $395,000.

Board members explained that an application would be submitted in April for Hill-Burton money and that if approved by the state office, the money would be available in September of this year.

According to the board, a representative of the state board of health met with them recently and said that the chances for getting the Hill-Burton money were excellent.

Any application for Hill-Burton must be accompanied by an approved bond vote for one half of the hospital and equipment or the cash money before the application will be considered.

Hill-Burton will not share in the cost of the location of the hospital.

Area hospitals like Memphis, Dimmitt and Spearman have been built with Hill-Burton grants.

Board members said that if money for one half of the cost of the hospital and equipment grant, that the $395,000 worth of bonds would not be issued.

ABOUT THE HOSPITAL
According to the architect firm of Wyatt C. Hedrick the hospital consists of a forty-bed building containing approximately 25,636 square feet, plus a partial basement. (See HOSPITAL Page 8)

Want To Give To The Street Sign Fund?

At a recent city council meeting the council voted to refer the street sign project back to the fund raising committee, since the amount secured was not quite enough to cover the cost of the signs, the posts and the concrete. The funds are only about $300 short of the goal.

Also, at the meeting, one of the councilmen and the Mayor donated to the fund the amounts they had previously said they would. Each said he had not been contacted by the committee.

"If anyone has not been contacted by a member of the committee, don't wait to be called on, come by the office, the bank, or give your money to a member of the city council," says Sammy Hale, chairman of the fund raising committee.

The actual project was initiated last spring, and developed fully in November and December, when a city-wide canvass was carried out. No section of town was missed and no section of town failed to contribute to the project. Some money came from as far away as Ft. Worth, to help boost the fund over the $2,000 mark.

Mr. and Mrs. Sammy Hale were in charge of the fund raising campaign and are grateful to every helper in the project and every contributor.

Lighthouse Electric To Sponsor Lamp Competition At County Fair

A proposition brought to the attention of the Floyd County Fair Board, by Alton Higginbotham of the Lighthouse Electric firm in Floydada, received unanimous approval at the recent Fair Board meeting. Higginbotham asked the Board to furnish space for a lamp contest to be held at the fair scheduled Sept. 17, 18 and 19.

The contest would consist of homemade lamps made by bona fide 4-H Club members from Floyd and adjoining counties. The lamps would be divided into three classes for judging: outdoor, decorative, and study. Also the contest would divide the lamps made by the members into Junior and Senior divisions, depending on which division the maker of the lamp is in. Those members who are 9-12 would go into the Junior Division, and those older would go into the Senior Group.

Lighthouse Electric would give a ribbon to each entry and a plaque to each winner in each of the divisions.

At the meeting, new officers were elected. The new president of the organization is Hubert Frizzell, vice-president is Weldon Smith, secretary is John Dorman, and treasurer is C. L. Mooney.

It was decided by the board to secure the D. S. Dudley Shows again for the mid-way attraction. This is the same group that was at the fair last year.

Two new board members were elected by the group. They were Carl Brock who replaces Corky Goffee and Mrs. Bryant Higginbotham, who replaces Mrs. J. P. Taylor.

Hubert Frizzell, the past treasurer reported that after the $15,331.77 expenditures to improve the fairgrounds, which included a new barn and other improvements, the board had a balance at minus $3.25.

A committee was appointed by Mr. Frizzell, to be known as the Fair Grounds and Improvements Committee. The group will be responsible for any improvements or additions they see the grounds need. The committee consists of C. L. Mooney, Weldon Smith and Carl Brock.

Whirlwinds In Tie For District Crown

Della Plains Hornets In State Tourney

The Della Plains Hornets, the boy's basketball team, is leaving today for Prairie View, where they will participate in the State Basketball Tournament. The Tourney begins today, but the local team isn't scheduled to play until tomorrow afternoon when they will take on Crane.

According to Coach Johnson of Della Plains, there are only seven teams in the state contest. There are only seven district winners in the state. Too, the girls basketball teams do not play in a state tournament so the regular season for the Hornets is over.

Coach Johnson said, concerning the upcoming contest against Crane, "We have beaten them already this year, and pretty bad, but we have to keep in mind that, although we have improved, they have too. In fact, they improved enough to win their district. We can't go into the game too confident, or we won't come out on top."

If the Hornets can overcome Crane, they will advance to the semi-finals, and possibly play in the finals Saturday night.

The locals are assured of returning with at least one trophy, however, for they will receive their award for winning their district while they are at the State Tournament.

Lockney Show February 29

The annual Lockney Fat Stock Show will be held at the Fair Grounds in Lockney, Saturday, February 29, according to Darrell Smith, Assistant Floyd County Agent.

Anyone interested in entering an animal in the Lockney event should contact the Extension Service in the near future.

The Floydada Whirlwinds and Whirlwinds handed the visitors from Canyon a double-barrel blow last Friday night in Graves Gym, when both local teams were victorious. The Whirlwinds doubled their opponents, 72-36, and the Whirlwinds sneaked by the Eagles in a thriller, 65-63.

Even though the Whirlwinds came out on top last Friday, and even though, they ended the regular conference with a 6-2 record, it was not quite good enough to keep the girls in the running for the district crown.

To have stayed in the district running, Tulia needed to beat Abernathy last Friday night. However, Abernathy stayed ahead of the Tulia bunch and ended district with a 7-1 record. The only Abernathy defeat came at the hands of the Whirlwinds earlier in the season. If Tulia had won the game, the Whirlwinds and Abernathy would be tied for the district crown.

The boys did stay in the running, however, by downing the Eagles. After Friday night, each of the teams had a 6-2 conference record and a sudden-death game was slated.

In the girl's game, the Whirlwinds took a comfortable first quarter lead of 20-5, continued to increase the lead during the second period and led 36-15 at intermission. During the third and fourth stanzas, the locals continued to increase that lead and ended the game with twice as many points as had been allowed the opponents, 72-36.

Dee Wilson was top scorer, but there were no outstanding players, for the entire team effort and determination of the team made the victory possible. Canyon previously handed the Whirlwinds one of their two conference losses.

The boys had a little tougher ball game, than did the girls. The locals were playing desperately to put the district in a two-way tie, between Canyon and Floydada, and Canyon was putting its best foot forward to clinch the district title. The result, a well played ball game with plenty of excitement.

After allowing Canyon the first two points the locals jumped to an early lead in the first quarter and led 17-10. During the second 8-minutes the locals had added another three points to that lead and were ahead of the visitors 34-24. Going into the final period, Canyon had closed the gap to 39-47 and were determined to overcome the locals. During the fourth period, the Eagles finally led the score, twice, but were never able to pull ahead of the stubborn Whirlwinds. The entire last period was played with no more than 5 points separating the teams at any one time. The locals were able to hang onto the lead and ended the game 65-63 to throw the district into a tie.

The boys are slated to play Canyon in a sudden-death game in Tulia at 8:00 p. m., February 21. The south side of the gym will be the Floydada side. Admission is Adults - $1.00 and Students - $.50.

The winner of the game will play Simmet in a bi-district tilt prior to the regional meet.

HEAD AND SHOULDERS - Don Rainer of Floydada seems to be towering above all other players as he went up all alone to sink a two-pointer for the locals as the 'Winds beat Canyon here Friday night 65-63 to put the District in a two-way tie. The Whirlwinds play Canyon Friday night in a sudden-death playoff game for the district crown at Tulia.

If you're after a car with some life to it, there's only one thing to do. Be my guest. I'm easy to find, you know. Just look for me at your Buick dealer's, during his Sports Car Rally. While you wait for me, you can drive one of his sport models—a Wildcat, maybe, or a Skylark. Or even a Riviera. New Year! If I don't show up, you can talk price. That's even more pleasant than conversation with you'll see. Once you get your hands on a Buick, you won't miss me a bit. Really.

MRS. WAYNE WORKMAN
nee Beverly Jeffress

Valentine Vows Unite Miss Jeffress - Wayne Workman

A Valentine wedding performed Friday evening, at 6 o'clock united in marriage Miss Beverly Ann Jeffress and Richard Wayne Workman. The marriage vows were read by Rev. Jimmy McGuire in the First Methodist Church in Lockney. Rev. McGuire is pastor of the Sand Hill Baptist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Jeffress Sand Hill and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Harley Workman of Lockney.

Cathedral candelabra bearing white tapers and red streamers, and baskets of red carnations and white gladiolus flanking a white satin kneeling bench, formed the wedding scene. Under a cross were two lighted candles and following the ceremony the flame was blown out by the couple and a center candle lit by them both. Miss Carol Turner accompanied loughing to her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Tom Brown of Eden. Something new was her bridal veil, something borrowed was a six pence she wore in her shoe which belonged to Mrs. Dickie Barton, sister of the bridegroom and something blue was her wedding garter. She also wore on her ring finger a gold wedding band which belonged to her late great grandmother.

Mrs. Dickie Barton served as Matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Mary Starkey and Fern Sisney, both students at West Texas State University and Norma Hollums, student at Lubbock. They were gowned identically in red velvet dresses designed with long tapering sleeves and bell skirts. They wore small hats of red velvet and tulle and carried nosegays of carnations and white satin ribbon.

Miss Lisa Workman of Oklahoma City, niece of the bridegroom, dropped white rose petals and her brother, Jefferey, served as ring bearer. Candlelighters were Jim and Tom Jeffress, brothers of the bride.

Jerry Workman of Oklahoma City, brother of the groom, served as best man. Groomsmen were Dickie Barton and Bill McCada, brothers-in-law of the bridegroom, Danny Ballman and David Workman, brother of the bridegroom and Tommy Strickland, seated guests.

Miss Gale Webb was at the guest register.

A reception followed the wedding in Fellowship Hall. The bride's table was laid with a white lace cloth over red. Streamers of red in color with the names "Beverly and Wayne" complemented a three tiered white decorated wedding cake which was topped by a miniature bride and groom under a white heart shaped arch. Appointments of silver and crystal completed the setting.

Mrs. Gene Bloys served punch and Mrs. Jess Starkey and Janice Miller served cake.

Other members of the house-party were Meses. Ed Noel, Tom Pierce, Lynn Miller, Bill Stringer, Jimmy McGuire and Mrs. Doyle Miller.

Mrs. Workman selected a white wool suit with a pale blue blouse and matching blue accessories for the wedding trip to Santa Fe, New Mexico.

The bride and groom are both 1963 graduates of Lockney High School. Mrs. Workman attended West Texas University. Her husband is associated with his father in Workman Plumbing and Heating in Lockney where the couple will make their home.

Out of town relatives here for the wedding included Mrs. Tom Brown of Eden, grandmother of the bride and her three aunts, Mrs. Bobby Watkins, Mrs. Bill Myher and Mrs. T. B. Brown, all of Lubbock.

Annual Spring Style Show Scheduled For March 9th

The 1960 Study Club will present to the public their annual Spring Style Show at the high school auditorium Monday night, March 9. A sign of spring as reliable as the arrival of robins and lilac blossoms is heralded in each year as the clothing merchants of Floydada and 1960 Club members cooperate in preparations for the big event. The presentation this year of the latest and newest fashions, modeled by local citizens from tiny tots to grandmothers, will mark the fourteenth consecutive production.

Bealls Department Store, Hales Department Store, Hagoods Department Store, and Ladies Three will attire the models they have selected in the newly arrived spring merchandise.

Mrs. Tommy Assiter and Mrs. Herman Graham, co-chairmen of the Style Show have appointed the following committees. Theme committee - Chairman, Mrs. Earl Edwards, Jr., Mrs. Tom Theford, Mrs. Thurman Perry, Mrs. Harold Ellison, Mrs. Don Cheek, and Mrs. Howard Bishop; Ticket committee - Chairman, Mrs. Claude Estes and Mrs. Willie Bradshaw. Publicity committee - Chairman, Mrs. Tom Davidson, Mrs. David Kirk, and Mrs. Bob Copeland; Ramp committee - Chairman, Mrs. Lane Decker and Mrs. Jimmy Seay; Model

The rehearsal dinner for the bridal pair was held Thursday evening in Golden's Restaurant in Lockney. Mr. and Mrs. Harley Workman were hosts.

Red and white decorated the tables which carried out the Valentine theme.

Attending were the honorees, their parents and Jim and Tim Jeffress, Rev. and Mrs. Jimmy McGuire, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Bloys, David and Kenny, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stringer, Mr. and Mrs. Bill McCada of Lubbock, Mary Starkey and Norman Ferguson of Canyon, Norma Hollums, Lubbock, Carol Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Workman, Lisa and Jefferey of Oklahoma City, Mr. and Mrs. Dickie Barton, Danny Bollman, Fern Sisney, Tommy Strickland, and David Workman.

Mrs. Jean Hale, President of the 1960 Study Club, believes this production, to be narrated by Mrs. Jesse Martin, will be a delightful, eye-opening occasion that will provide entertainment for the entire family.

Glen Black Is Guest Speaker

Floydada Garden Club met on Friday in the party room at the FCA building for a program on conservation. Glen Black, who is with the U. S. Department of Agriculture in Floydada, was guest speaker.

Mr. Black used the topic of the Garden Club for the day, "God Gave It, Let's Save It." He showed pictures of local areas and gave a very interesting talk on conservation.

Mrs. Troy Leonard gave the Garden Spot of the Month, displaying a picture of her selection of the home and yard of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Collier.

During business the club voted to sponsor an entry in the Mrs. Floydada Pageant. Mrs. Tom Porter, president of the club, also named her committee which will make plans for the Garden Club Zonal meeting to be held in Floydada in November.

The program on Dogwood was given by Mrs. J. P. Moss.

Mrs. R. E. Fry, hostess for the meeting, assisted by Mrs. E. J. Morehead, served refreshments to Meses. P. F. Bertrand, J. B. Bishop, D. W. Burk, R. E. Fry, Vern Gaunt, S. J. Latta, Troy Leonard, J. P. Moss, Tom Porter, W. G. Walker, Carl Wildas, J. M. Wilson, L. T. Wood and Mrs. Carl Yeokim.

The next meeting on February 28 will be held in the home of Mrs. Wilson Kimble.

Miss Jeffress Shower Honoree

Miss Beverly Jeffress, bride-elect of Wayne Workman, was honored with a kitchen shower on Monday, January 27, in the home of Mary Starkey.

The table arrangement included a miniature tree hung with various kitchen items tied with red and white ribbons, the chosen colors of the bride-elect.

Refreshments of spiced tea, coffee, sweet rolls and miniature hearts were served to Charlie Caldwell, Janice Miller, Mrs. Dickie Barton, DeLinda Phillips, Mrs. Jesse Starkey, Sherri Starkey, and mothers of the couple, Mrs. James Jeffress and Mrs. John Harley Workman.

Gloria Sparks, Lynn Jackson and Norma Hollums of Floydada, Dianne Montgomery of Littlefield, Fern Sisney and Mrs. Nelson Wofford of Lockney assisted Mary Starkey with hospitalities.

The hostess gift was a set of kitchen tools.

Rebekah Lodge Make Plans For Leap Year Party

Floydada Rebekah Lodge members met Tuesday night of last week in regular session fifth Betty Marquis, Noble Grand and Leona Oden, vice-Grand in charge of the meeting.

Plans were made for a Leap Year party which is set for Friday night, February 28, starting at 7:30. A sweetheart from the lodge will be crowned, games will be played and refreshments of pie, coffee and cakes will be served.

Families of members will be special guests and others are cordially invited to attend.

During business the death of Lelia Curry's brother-in-law was reported and the illness of Foy Gooch's mother.

Other business matters concerned a new front door for the lodge. Rebekahs agreed to pay the cost of a new door and the Odd Fellows would do the labor.

Lodge members are selling pepper and vanilla as one of their money making projects. Anyone needing the items are to call a Rebekah.

Resident Wins $200 In Hillbilly Contest

Mrs. Tom Jernigan of 212 East Tennessee, Floydada is still walking around with a look of disbelief. The reason . . . she was named a $200 winner in the Hillbilly Contest that has been in progress at Piggly Wiggly stores throughout the area. Store manager, Lee Webb, presented the check to Mrs. Jernigan Tuesday morning.

The idea of the contest was to get at least one card with the name of each individual character of the popular Beverly Hillbilly family that has won fame on TV. The names of the family are Granny, Elly May, Jethro, and Jed Clampett.

Mrs. Jernigan learned Monday afternoon that she had been given a card that had the name Jethro on it, the one she had waited for so long to complete the members of the family. Throughout the area, there was a possibility for a very few of the $200 winners, color TV winners, and $25 winners. There was a number of $1 winners, however, even in Floydada.

Mrs. H. D. Parker was a $25 winner earlier in the contest. The contest closed this week, and all winning tickets, or cards must be redeemed by February 23.

$200 WINNER — Mrs. Tom Jernigan is shown receiving congratulations and a $200 check from Lee Webb manager of Piggly Wiggly, for collecting the entire Clampett family of Beverly Hillbilly fame in the Hillbilly Contest being sponsored by the food store. Mrs. H. D. Parks was an earlier $25 winner.

Lucy Harrison Becomes Bride Of James Hanks

Lucy Mae Harrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred A. Harrison of Floydada, became the bride of James Hanks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Hanks of Paducah, in a double ring ceremony read on February 5.

The wedding was performed in the home of Rev. and Mrs. Perry Threadgill with Rev. Threadgill officiating.

Linda Harrison, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. The bride wore a white wool street length suit with matching accessories and wore a corsage of white carnations. She also carried out the traditional something old, something new, something borrowed and blue.

A reception followed in the home of the bride's parents. The table was laid with a white linen cloth and held a white tiered cake which was decorated in the bride's chosen colors of white and pink.

Mrs. Jim Black, sister of the bridegroom, served cake and Avie Smith presided at the punch bowl. Seventeen guests attended.

The newly-weds are making their home at 2418 Colgate in Lubbock where the bridegroom is employed at Dunlaps. Both he and his wife are sophomores at Texas Tech.

Rites Held For Sister Of Mrs. A. W. Thomas

Funeral rites for Mrs. Emma Agnew, 79, of New Deal, and sister of Mrs. A. W. Thomas of Floydada, were conducted Tuesday in Rix Funeral Home Chapel in Lubbock. James Willett of the Sunrise Church of Christ assisted by Don Garrett of the New Deal Church of Christ, officiated.

Burial was in Abernathy cemetery. Mrs. Agnew died Sunday in a Man Charged With Breaking And Entering

A local Negro man was charged here this past weekend with "breaking and entering a private residence at night." The home entered was one occupied by two teachers working at Della Plains School.

The man attempting to get into the house awakened the two residents. The occupants were frightened and locked themselves in the bathroom. He entered by breaking the glass in the backdoor and unlocking the door from the inside.

The man moved around through the house for a while, kicked one door open that led to one of the three bedrooms in the house, but took nothing from the house. After he was in the house for a few minutes, one of the women called, as much like a man as possible, "What are you doing?" It frightened the man and he fled. As he was leaving one of the women recognized the man.

The man was picked up by Sheriff Hollums and Will Taylor a few minutes after a call was received from one of the women. He had a cut on his hand that was still bleeding when he was arrested.

The charge was denied by the man, but he is presently being held and bond is set at $10,000.

Lubbock convalescent home. The deceased was a member of the Church of Christ and had lived in the New Deal area since 1925.

Survivors include three sisters, Mrs. Mag Parker, Sherman, Mrs. Nan (A. W.) Thomas of Floydada and Mrs. Ruth Herriage of Dodd City; two brothers, Buck Dunn of Bonham and Henry Lunn of Belts; two daughter-in-laws; five grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren.

Editorial

 manage the hospital.
 Some say that only hospitals in oil economies make money . . . that a hospital won't operate "in the black" in Floyd County. Our hospital board can point out many hospitals in areas of less economic wealth than Floyd county which operate profitably. Likewise, we have proof that a hospital in Floyd county can make money . . . the hospital at Lockney is a good example of this.
 It is true that the OLD Dimmitt hospital has lost money in the past, yet the people of Castro county have enough faith in a new administration and the advantages of ultra-modern facilities that they are now completing a brand new half million dollar hospital.

 Some folk say that we need more doctors if we have a new hospital and this is true. According to one of our doctors now practicing medicine in Floydada he is in contact with two other doctors who want to move to Floydada and begin practice if the new hospital is built. We had the privilege of meeting one of these doctors about two months ago when he visited here. On the other hand, we could very possibly lose the three medical doctors that we now have if we do not build a new hospital.
 Taxes come into discussion when any new community facility must be built. We can only ask our residents of the district to take their 1963 county tax statement, multiply it by 40c to determine his or her yearly tax . . . and then compare it with the cost and inconvenience of travel to far hospitals . . . and most of all, compare it to the most important benefit which is RELIEF OF SUFFERING AND PROTECTION OF LIFE ITSELF. Compare the tax cost to the welfare of your family . . . especially your children.
 Some have cited the trouble that Post-Texas hospital has experienced in losing two doctors in a misunderstanding with its hospital board. It should be noted that the Carrock Hospital board will not be hiring or firing doctors . . . no doctors will be officed in the new hospital. A medical doctor from any area may refer his patients to this hospital.
 Some are concerned about the Hill-Durton requirement that the district is responsible for charity patients who live in the district. It should be noted that the only way any person may enter any hospital is through the reference of a doctor and this fact will take care of many unjustified charity hospital admittances.
 It is easy for all of us to look at a bond issue selfishly . . . we may say, "I don't want to help pay for a hospital that I won't use, or . . . I don't want to pay school taxes because I don't have any children in school", or . . . I don't care if the country roads are paved or not because I live in town."
 The real test of a positive vote "FOR" any bond issue should not be the short sightedness of individual material gain or loss . . . but a consideration of what is best for a community and the majority of persons who will benefit from the issue.
 It is true that hospitals cost money . . . it is true that churches and schools cost money . . . and who wants to live in a town or community that does not have a hospital, church or school?
 We can only ask each voter to be honest with himself and his wife and children . . . does he have the assurance that when one is injured he can reach a hospital that is many miles away before a life is lost? . . . is a hospital needed?

Public Service Safety Dinner Friday Night

The annual district Safety dinner held by the Southwestern Public Service Company will be at 7:00 p. m. Friday night in Fogers Restaurant in Floydada.
 The purpose of the dinner is to commend those employees from Floydada Silvertown and Lockney who have not lost a day's work during the past year because of an accident. There are 13 or 14 such employees in the district.
 Charles Stinson of Plainview, who is the division Personnel and safety director is expected to be on the program, as well as Lloyd Davis, the District Superintendent from Plainview.

School Board Rents New Office Space

The Floydada school board has rented for additional space in the building that did house Glad's Men's Shop. Renovation work to suit the needs of the board will begin in the very near future, according to Mr. Howard Gregory who is in charge of the project.
 The additional space will house the new Business Manager and Tax Assessor Office, the Superintendent's Office and the School Secretary office.
 It was noted that the new space would be needed when the board decided to hire a business manager-tax collector. Mr. Dave Eaton was elected to that position at a recent board meeting.
 The personnel will move into the new space as soon as remodeling is completed.

 moderately old men are changing a tire, loading heavy boxes onto a car trunk, pushing a stalled automobile, lifting a piano. Such feats have been associated with heart failure.
 ONE OF OUR editorial campaigns has been a consideration of "dam water" for Lockney and Floydada. Rather than write a story about the progress that is being made on this need believe I'll just chat with you about it. Our Mayor Ross, City Manager Petty and city councilman Lon Davis met with representatives from Tullia and Silvertown last week and have begun preliminary organization for a water district dam to be located between Silvertown and Tullia that would supply Tullia, Silvertown, Lockney and Floydada with municipal water.
 This is about all I can tell at this time, but it appears that our city officials are on the right track. I hope we can tell you more about the plans that materialize on this initial step very soon. Of course it might be as late as five years from now until we would have the availability of piped water from the dam, but I don't too early to begin work on it.

 If two or three doctors have offices in the hospital and two or three more come to town there is soon an element of unhappiness by the doctors not in the hospital that the "hospital doctors" have an advantage by virtue of the location of their offices.
 If any doctor or doctors desire offices or a clinic near the new hospital, a local contractor is ready to build it and rent it to them.

Floyd Data

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin King and family returned home last week from parts of Colorado where they were on business. Enroute they stopped over in Dumas to leave the children and had to remain a day longer than intended due to the heavy blanket of snow.
 Mr. and Mrs. King recently sold their place of business, The King Tire Co., in Floydada to Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Crutchfield and are now looking for suitable ranch land to purchase.

Floyd Data

Mrs. Belle Johnson, mother of Bruce Johnson of Floydada, is in Plainview Hospital and Clinic. Mrs. Johnson's condition could not be learned yesterday due to the family being with her. Blood is being needed at the hospital to replace transfusions already given Mrs. Johnson and for transfusions which will be necessary for her later. Any type blood will be accepted.

Hospital

 ment of 13,940 square feet . . . a total square footage of 37,576 feet. The bedroom wing will contain twelve private rooms and ten two bed rooms, plus two, four-bed wards. Six of the private rooms are large enough for two beds, making a total capacity of 46 beds in an emergency. The basement can also be used as a storm cellar.

The hospital wing will have a nursery section, obstetrical suite, sterilization room, a surgical suite, a laboratory and work room, emergency room, X-ray facilities, storage, toilets, lounges, drug, mechanical services will be provided. Lounges for doctors and nurses, a private family room and snack bar are also included.

The building is arranged with adequate service drives and parking plus a covered walk to the main entrance and so designed that future bedrooms and more surgical and obstetrical areas may be added later.

The construction is a combination of stone and face brick with clay tile backup.

Architects drawings of the hospital are displayed in public buildings for view. Floor plan drawings are also available for study by the public.

LETTING OF CONTRACT
 Should the voters in the district approve the $325,000 bond, Hill-Burton approve the $325,000 government grant, then the board is expected to let the contract next February 1.

The board said that it expected to employ a highly experienced and trained administrator for the hospital and that he would possibly be employed before the hospital is finished to work with selection of equipment and employees.

BUILDING SITE
 The board said it had been offered for purchase two sites which it feels meets the requirements of the state board of health.

WHERE TO VOTE
 Voters in the three precincts will be qualified to vote by payment of poll taxes, or exemption and must be a tax paying resident of their respective precinct for the past six months and a resident of this state for one year.

A complete listing of the polling places is listed as follows:
County Election Precinct No.
 Polling Places, Presiding Judge
 1. 19, 23, 24 County Courtroom, Courthouse, R. M. Battey.

2. Starkey Clubhouse, Starkey Community, W. L. Davis
 3. Allmon Gin, Allmon Community, Marvin Shurber
 4. Sand Hill Community Center, Sand Hill Community, T. C. Hollins
 9. South Plains School, South Plains Community, Bryan Karr
 11. Cedar Hill Grain Co. office, Cedar Hill Community, Jack Stansell
 12. Baker Community Center, Baker Community, Malvin Jarboe
 13. Lakeview School, Lakeview Community, Earl Edwards, Sr.
 14. Harmony Community Center, Harmony Community, Zant Scott.

17. Fairmount Baptist Church, Goodnight Community, Webb Taylor
 20. Schoolhouse, Dougherty Community, Henry Hinton
 22. McCoy Gin Office, McCoy Community, H. A. Tardy.

On July 19, 1963 the voters in the three precincts approved the formation of the Caprock Hospital District by a vote of 551 to 255, the hospital board was appointed to begin work with selection of an architect and a financing plan for the new hospital.

Precinct 2 of the county was excluded from the district because Lockney is in this precinct and there is a hospital in Lockney.

It should be noted that in the creation of the hospital district vote, the voters approved method of selection of board of directors, an allowance of a maximum tax rate of 75c, and the boundaries of the district.

Since the vote for creation of the hospital district another doctor has moved to Floydada, making a total of three doctors now in active practice. It is the feeling of the doctors that at least two more doctors would move to Floydada if a modern new hospital is built.

TAXES
 Anytime a new bond vote arises, the first concern of the people is . . . how will it affect my taxes?

Here are a few examples of the increase in taxes if the bond issue is passed by the Caprock Hospital District to pay for a new hospital in Floydada.
 A person who owns a quarter section of farm land, be it irrigated or dryland will be assessed at 40c on the $100 valuation. Since all land in the county is valued at $12 per acre, his taxes would be $7.69 plus 40c per $100 on other items taxed such as irrigation wells and automobiles.

The maximum valuation on an 8" irrigation well is $500 and a 1964 Cadillac valued at a little over $700.
 The average house in Floydada is valued at $2,000 to $2,500, so the person's tax for the hospital at 40c on the county evaluation would amount to $8.00 or $9.00.

The only exact way you can determine your tax increase if the bond issue is approved would be to look at your 1963 county tax statement, multiply it by 40c.

The average business in Floydada is valued at $5,000 and would be taxed at $20.00 on the rate of 40c.

Some persons have been concerned about an increase in property evaluation increases for the county's revaluation, but according to both the commissioner's court and hospital board report that no increase in property evaluation will be necessary on the 40c rate.

Any profits of the hospital would go to eliminate the bonds before the 20 year pay out period.

HILL-BURTON MONEY
 The Hesperian interviewed the Caprock Hospital Board about Hill-Burton money which the board will be seeking to pay for half of the proposed new hospital to be built in Floydada if the February 21 bond vote of $325,000 is approved by the voters in precincts 1, 3 and 4.

It was learned that Hill-Burton money is a government grant with no strings attached except how the hospital will be built and have good equipment. The hospital that the board offers for the voters approval meets all the requirements for the Hill-Burton grant.

In order to receive Hill-Burton money the board has agreed to build to the required specifications, and will have to raise one half the cost of the hospital and equipment locally by bond vote or other financing before application can be made for the Hill-Burton half.

If the bond passes on February 21 for the Caprock Hospital District's share of the cost of the hospital and equipment, then the board will submit its application for $325,000 for Hill-Burton money in April. In September the state office will either announce the approval or rejection of the application.

If the Hill-Burton grant is approved, then the board will let contracts on the new hospital February 1, 1965.
 To the question of, "will the government try to run the hospital after it is built if Hill-Burton money is used," the board replied that the government only required that there be no racial discrimination . . . that the government was only concerned with the construction and equipment and not the operation of the hospital.

What are the chances for getting Hill-Burton money? The board said it had been assured by a representative from the state board that the Caprock Hospital district's chances are excellent to receive the grant.

Hospitals at Memphis, Dimmitt and Spearman were built with Hill-Burton money.

County Stock Show Entries Due Today

The deadline for entering a 4-H or FFA sponsored animal in the Floyd County Fat Stock Show is today, February 20, according to County Agent H. T. Davison.

According to Davison, each entry will be recorded on a separate card and there are different colored cards for steer, swine and lamb entries.

Entry fees must accompany entry cards, and will be accepted at the County Agent's Office.

The entry fees are: Steer - $1.00, Swine - $.50, and Lambs - $.50.

Former Resident Celebrates 99th Birthday Sunday

A former resident of Floyd County, who now resides at Vivian's Convalescent Home in Amarillo, celebrated his 99th birthday Sunday with a host of relatives present for the occasion.

Samuel A. Thompson, the pioneer celebrant, is also the oldest resident of the home. He was born on February 12, 1865 in Indiana. He came to Texas in 1889 and in 1890 homesteaded a section of land 12 miles north of Lockney in the Lone Star community. Three years later he married the former Miss Lenora Lile, purchasing the marriage license in Floydada, driving here in a two wheel cart in 10 inches of snow. Mrs. Thompson died at Lockney in 1936.

During the pioneer days Thompson drove a freight wagon from Lockney to Amarillo, leaving his wife and children at home sometimes a week or ten days at a time with no means of communication until he returned.

After his freighting days were over, Mr. Thompson farmed and raised thoroughbred Herefords until his retirement after World War II.

Eight of the couple's 10 children are still living. There are 15 grandchildren, 22 great grandchildren and one great grandchild.

FOUR COUNTY AREA

Coastal and Geodetic Survey Crew Begins Here

The increased number of colored four-wheel drive wagon vehicles on the roads of Floydada and the surrounding area lately? If you see a vehicle, particularly one of the type bearing a name on the side that says "U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey, Department of Commerce," then you're seeing a survey crew.

For the first time a Coast and Geodetic Survey crew was in the area in 1921, when a survey base point was established.

In the last two months a reconnaissance party of the survey crew was stationed in Floydada to locate a number of the base points established by the survey. Then a few days rest of the crew moved in, bringing 18 men and their families. Actually, there are 18 men, 15 women and 27 children. There are 22 of the children in school.

Cover 5325 Square Miles

The purpose of the survey, here and at other places the crew travels, is to establish new survey points and establish the longitude and latitude of points. Or in layman's language, they are here to establish the exact location of a number of points on the earth's surface. The survey will cover about 5,325 square miles, and 200 stations will be set up for base points by the survey crew.

The method used by the survey crews is "triangulation." If one can remember his trig this long, he can remember this example: If points A and B are known, and the distance between them is established, then by projecting an azimuth (a line in a given direction) from each of these points, where they cross will be established another base point. This point, C, can always be found by returning to the points A and B and measuring the angle formed by the lines projected from points A and B to C and the base line, from A to B.

To cover a four county area by triangulation will take some time, when one considers that some of the base points are as much as 20 miles in length.

Survey Towers

For the crew to be able to see the survey "pole" from the transit, towers have to be built that house the survey instruments. The towers are actually dual towers. There is an inside tower and an outside tower. The reason for this is so the men working with the delicate instruments on the outside tower will not affect the operation of the instruments, that are set up on the inside tower. No movement of the men will alter the settings of the instruments on the inside tower. Some of the towers are 100 feet in height.

It takes five men about one day to complete the construction of one of the towers.

Night Survey

The survey work is not halted or delayed much by darkness for the crews have a number of "signal lamps." They are powerful sealed beam lamps with a prefocused beam, and are powered by dry cell batteries. Sometimes they are used in the towers and sometimes, they are placed directly on the ground, depending on how far away from the lamp the crew is with its other instruments, and the distance they are trying to cover using the one location of the lamp.

According to John Childs, spokesman for the group this survey is a second order survey. The accuracy of the survey allows for only one part in 25,000 error. Some orders call for a much more accurate survey, but Mr. Childs says, our surveys are accurate enough that they will fall within the limits of the second order.

The error allowed is about 5 seconds, but most of their work falls within a 1.2 second error. A second is one sixtieth of a minute, a minute is one sixtieth of an hour and there are 360 degrees in a circle. In other words, there are 1,296,000 seconds in a circle.

Take Two Years

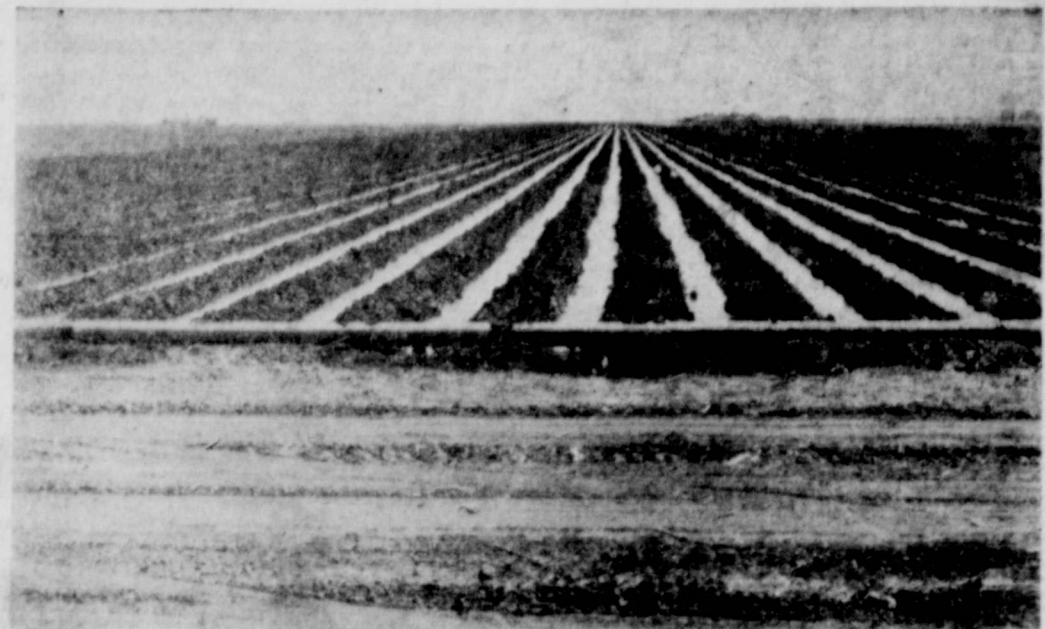

The group is expected to be in the area until the summer months come, and they can then move into some mountainous region that is impossible to survey in the winter. After next winter closes in on mountains, the crews will return again to Floydada. The survey process will take about two years to complete.

The group came here from Milton-Freewater, Oregon, where they have just completed "triangulation" of that area. It will be about a month before the records of that survey are completed and sent into the Department of Commerce.

When asked if the survey had anything to do with possible missile sites, Mr. Childs replied: "I don't know. We get orders to survey a place, we survey, send in our reports and move to another place."

For about two more years the people of Hall, Briscoe, Motley and Floyd Counties will live in suspense, then after waiting for so many years, it will be known where, exactly, on the earth's surface they are located.

NO WATER WASTE — The above leveled area provides for a better and more efficient use of irrigation water. The conservation of irrigation water proper handling is becoming more and more important as demands on our water supplies increase. Wasted water often results in wasted soil through erosion.

THE FLOYD COUNTY HESPERIAN

FLOYDADA (FLOYD COUNTY), TEXAS, THURSDAY, FEB. 20, 1964 FLOYD COUNTY HESPERIAN

METHODIST CHURCH

From Carruth To Conduct Revival Here March 2-8

Annual revival of the First Methodist Church Floydada, is set for Monday evening, Feb. 23, 7:30 P. M.

Thomas A. Carruth of Atlanta, Georgia, will be the speaker for morning and evening services and conduct a spirit-bath. The Reverend Bruce pastor of Lorenzo Methodist church will lead the song service.

Services will be at 7:15 in the evening, Tuesday through Saturday following a "Family Night" in Fellowship Hall from 6:30 to 7:00 A. M. Morning service is set for Sunday through Saturday. Carruth will lead the 10:00 A. M. service on Friday. Carruth will speak to a luncheon meeting on Saturday, March 7, for men including high school young men.

He is very much in demand as a speaker and it is felt that the local church is fortunate to secure his services for these six days. He will close the services by speaking on Sunday morning at the worship hour and fly directly to another meeting in Twin City, Georgia.

Dr. Thomas A. Carruth is a Methodist Minister with his membership in the Mississippi Annual Conference and served in his conference for many years as a minister before going to Nashville, Tenn. with the General Board of Evangelism where he worked for seven years.

Dr. Carruth helped develop the World Wide Prayer Life Movement which has had a grand impact in many countries around the world. He is now recognized as one of the outstanding men of prayer in the world.

Three different seminars in the Atlanta area have been fortunate in having him in their schools as a visiting Professor on Prayer.

Dr. Carruth received his A. B. from the University of Southern Mississippi, his B. D. from Drew University, and his honorary Doctor's Degree from Asbury Seminary.

Dr. Carruth has written three books, "Prayer and Conversion," "Total Prayer for Total Living," and "Hundred Days of Love." He has also written periodicals for magazines and papers.

Presently Dr. Carruth is related to "The Institute of Communicative Arts" with headquarters in Atlanta.

County Has 5 Rural Accidents In January

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated 5 accidents on rural highways in Floyd County during the month of January, according to Sergeant D. S. Lawson, Highway Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These wrecks accounted for 2 persons injured and an estimated property damage of $4,535.00. Sergeant Lawson reminded motorists that Texas along with every other state in the nation many years ago enacted a safety responsibility law to meet the problems created by irresponsible operators of vehicles on our streets and highways. This law is intended to encourage all motorists to become financially responsible and to promote highway safety by identifying those drivers and owners of motor vehicles who will not assume their moral and legal obligations to society and therefore should be removed from the highways.

The Department of Public Safety is required by the new Safety Responsibility to suspend the driver licenses and all motor vehicle registration plates of both the operator and owner of vehicles involved in accidents coming under the Safety Responsibility law unless the owner and operator meet one or more of the following requirements:

1. Liability insurance coverage in minimum amounts of $10,000 for one injury or death, $20,000 total injury and death and $5,000 property damage.
2. A release signed by the damaged parties.
3. Signed installment agreement for damages.
4. Operator and owner found not to be liable in a court of jurisdiction.
5. Operator and owner posting cash or bond security in amounts sufficient to cover liability incurred.

"If in doubt as to the amount of damage send in a report and be on the safe side, or if additional information is needed contact any member of the DPS," the Patrol Supervisor concluded.

4-H Club Holds Meeting

(By George Ray Finley)

The Floydada 4-H club met Thursday night, February 6 in the council room. The meeting was called to order by the president, Doris Fawver. Minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary, Brenda Willis.

The 4-H pledge and motto were read by Joe Jones, Jackie Yeary and President Kennedy. They bought "The Young John Kennedy" in honor of the late president and "The Two Vietnams" in honor of Johnny. These will be placed in the Floyd County Public Library.

Doris Fawver and Lindsey Lovell reported on the books the club had voted to buy in honor of Johnny Lackey and President Kennedy. They bought "The Young John Kennedy" in honor of the late president and "The Two Vietnams" in honor of Johnny. These will be placed in the Floyd County Public Library.

Winter Slick Streets And Highways Pose Problems

Safe driving on icy and snowy streets and highways demands greater care and effort than driving under normal road conditions. The following are some tips on how to drive safely and to avoid accidents on ice and snow laden streets and highways.

1. If your car has a conventional, or "old-fashioned" shift, start in second gear and engage the clutch very gently with little gas. With an automatic transmission, feed gas very gently to start, holding the accelerator steady as soon as the car moves. Increase gas only if it can be done without spinning the wheels.
2. Drive well under dry road speed. Speed limits set for normal driving conditions are not realistic on slick streets and highways.
3. Keep the car pulling steadily. You need moderate power not speed. To falter or hesitate is often to stall or go into a skid. Rolling friction is substantially greater than sliding friction.
4. Make no sudden changes in speed, gear ratio, or direction. Any of these can cause a serious skid. Make these changes, if necessary, most cautiously.
5. To stop or slow down on icy streets, lightly pump the brake pedal in rapid succession. This action permits the front wheels to steer when they roll and gives greater traction on the ice for stopping as the wheels are not locked. The intervals of steering will keep the vehicle from skidding off a crowned road into a ditch. When the car actually is in a skid, steer in the direction in which the rear end is skidding to recover. When the car begins to straighten out, then also straighten out the front wheels.
6. Keep windshield, back windows, outside rear-view mirrors, and all lights clear of dirt, snow, frost, sleet, and mud.
7. Keep yourself under control. How can you control a car helpless against the forces of nature, if you cannot control yourself. You need all your capacities to think fast and act accordingly.

An important point to consider if you are shopping for a household appliance is whether service is available, says Mrs. Wanda Meyer, home management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Manufacturers of appliances are working to improve their products, eliminate weaknesses and simplify service. Electronic devices now guide service men to the source of trouble; easier access to mechanisms makes shorter work of repairs, and warranties provide more coverage for longer periods.

VOTE 'FOR' THE $395,000 BOND ISSUE FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1964

VOTE FOR THE GREATEST NEED OF THE CAPROCK DISTRICT, A MODERN FULLY EQUIPPED HOSPITAL

FACTS ABOUT THE CAPROCK HOSPITAL DISTRICT AND THE HOSPITAL TO BE BUILT IN FLOYDADA

ABOUT THE HOSPITAL

The proposed hospital to be built consists of a 40 bed building containing approximately 23,636 square feet, plus a partial basement of 13,940 square feet, a total footage of 37,576 feet. The bedroom wing will contain twelve private rooms and ten two bed rooms, plus two four-bed wards. Six of the private rooms are large enough for two beds, making a total capacity of 46 beds in an emergency. The basement can also be used as a storm cellar, fallout shelter. The hospital wing will have a nursery section, obstetrical suite, sterilization room, a surgical suite, a laboratory and work room, emergency room, X-ray facilities, storage, toilets, lounges, drugs, mechanical services will be provided. Lounges for doctors and nurses, a private family room and snack bar are also included.

The building is arranged with adequate service drives and parking plus a covered walk to the main entrance and is so designed that future bedrooms and more surgical and obstetrical areas may be added later. The construction is a combination of stone and face brick with clay tile backup.

THE COST OF THE HOSPITAL

Cost of the construction of the hospital is $645,000. Cost of all equipment and facilities ready for operation is $150,000.

FINANCING OF THE HOSPITAL

The Caprock Hospital Board will apply for a Hill-Burton grant for $395,000 and a bond vote for another $395,000 will be brought before the voters of the Caprock Hospital District which includes precincts 1, 3 and 4 of Floyd County.

ABOUT THE BOND VOTE

The bond vote is set for Friday, February 21 and a simple majority is required for approval of the bonds. Bonds will be set for a 20 year pay out and any profits that the hospital may realize may be applied to payment of the bonds. Any resident of the above precincts who has purchased a poll tax or who is exempt by age and has property rendered for taxation in the district is eligible to vote. He must also have been a resident of the district for six months and a resident of the State of Texas for a year.

ABOUT THE TAXES FOR PAYMENT OF BOND

Taxes would be assessed on the basis of county valuations. Farm land is valued from $3 to $12 per acre and the rate for hospital bond indebtedness would be 40c per $100 valuation. The farm land valuations apply to both irrigated and dryland farms. An additional assessment would be made on personal properties such as irrigation wells, tractors, autos. Best irrigation wells are valued at $500, best autos at $700. The average business in town would pay $20.00 per year tax, the average home owner in town $5.40 to $10 and the farmer with a quarter section with an 8" well would pay $9.68 in taxes plus 40c per $100 on any other property that might be on the tax rolls. The only accurate way a person may determine his tax increase for the hospital bond is to multiply 40c times his 1963 county property rendition.

ABOUT HILL-BURTON MONEY

Hill-Burton money is a government grant and is not to be paid back. Hill-Burton requires that certain specifications be met in the construction of the hospital, but has nothing to do with the operation of the hospital once it is in business. It does require that there be no racial discrimination in admittance of patients.

CHARITY PATIENTS

The county commissioner's court granted approximately $2800 last year for hospital care of charity patients. The legislative law that governs the creation of the Caprock Hospital District states that the district is responsible for charity patients from this district ONLY.

ADMINISTRATION OF THE HOSPITAL

The hospital will be under the control of an elected board of directors, with election the first Saturday of each year. Any qualified voter in the hospital district may seek election to the board. The board will be responsible to employ an experienced and trained administrator to run the hospital and employ staff. The board will not hire or fire doctors as there will be no doctors officed in the hospital. The present board of directors includes: Hollis Bond, A. H. Kreis, M. P. Goen, M. S. Robertson and L. T. Wood.

Floydada Whizzes Take On Harlem Stars Here, Feb. 22

The world famous Harlem Stars, a professional basketball comedy team is scheduled to play the Floydada Whizzes Saturday night in Graves Gymnasium. Admission is - Adults $1.00; Children under 12, 50c.

The Harlem Stars are unique in the fact they never try to run up a huge score against opponents. It is their policy to keep the game close devoting much time to comedy stuff.

The Harlem Stars enjoy playing basketball every day even if they have to travel hundreds of miles to do so. The Stars began their season in Alaska the last week in September and will hit between thirty-six or forty states and the following other countries: Mexico, Canada, Australia, Japan and some parts of Europe. The round horseshoe is the magic carpet that has taken these basketball jesters to all parts of the world.

Magicians is what owner Boid Bule calls them. Referring to his Harlem Stars when they begin their zany antics on the basketball court — razzle dazzle ball handling, intricate pass patterns, trick shooting, marathon dribbling and impromptu comedy antics.

The game is scheduled for 7:30. The Floydada Whizzes ball team is sponsoring the game and urges every one to come out and "go

Looking For Your Electric Range:
So beautiful to look at, so easy to keep clean — and keeping your electric range clean from day to day is the key to avoid an extra work. The right heat

Top Of The Range:
The finish on your electric range is porcelain enamel, a firm of glass. Scratches may be caused by sliding hot, heavy pans from the surface unit or the oven to the work surface.
Avoid this by lifting pans and setting them down carefully.
The enamel on the new electric range is acid-resistant, but not necessarily acid-proof. To prevent spots, wipe up spilled food immediately, especially acid foods such as milk, vinegar, and fruit juices. Use a dry cloth or paper towel when the range is hot. After each meal, when the range is cool, wipe the porcelain with a damp cloth. As needed, wash both the enamel and the chromium trim with warm, soapy water. Wipe again with a cloth wrung from clear water, then dry and polish with another soft cloth. Always be sure the range is cool and the units are turned OFF before cleaning. Of course, you should never use harsh cleaners or scrape the enamel with a sharp instrument.

Surface Units:
Food spillage burns off as soon as it touches the hot unit and any that drips through is caught in the drip bowl or tray below.
Never wipe a unit when it is hot.
The ring around the unit should be wiped with a damp cloth and any burned-on spots may be removed with a mild cleaner or fine steel wool. Dry and polish with a soft cloth. Lift this ring for wiping underneath. Remove the drip pans frequently, wash in soap and water, rinse and dry. If badly soiled soak in hot water, then remove stubborn spots with steel wool. There is a drip tray below the surface units on some ranges which pulls out for cleaning.

Ovens:
The oven should be cold and the switches turned OFF before cleaning. If boil-overs occur it is wise to clean the oven as soon as it is cool, or they become burned on and more difficult to remove. After broiling wipe the oven walls with a damp soapy cloth. Rinse cloth in clear water, wipe again, and dry.

Once in a while, give the oven a thorough cleaning. When using an oven cleaner, follow directions on the jar; or use a pretreatment of household ammonia by placing a cup of ammonia in a sauce dish in the oven and leaving overnight with the oven door closed. Next morning take out oven racks and scrub with a stiff brush. Remove upper and lower units if they come out by gripping and pulling straight out. Units should not be immersed in water, but the reflector pan or baffle may be scoured with steel wool. Wash oven walls with warm, soapy water, rinse and

dry. Use a mild abrasive or steel wool to remove burned-on spots.
Replace oven units being sure the contacts are pushed all the way into the outlet; otherwise the unit will not heat when the oven is turned on. Replace the oven racks and be sure they lock when pulled out part-way.

Broiler Pans:
Wash the broiler pan and rack
after each use. After the food has been removed, take the broiler pan to the sink and turn hot water into it. Add a small amount of detergent and let soak.
Or spread a wet dish cloth over the soiled area and sprinkle with detergent. Wash with hot soapy water to remove all grease. Remove burned-on spots with steel wool or scouring powder. Rinse and dry.
Use Of Aluminum Foil:
Boil-overs in your oven are annoying to be sure. However, using sheets of aluminum foil to catch the drip may be more an-

Mrs. Bill Tye Injured In Car Wreck Tuesday

FAIRVIEW, February 17 — Mrs. Bill Tye who was in a car wreck Tuesday morning here in town is still a patient in Methodist Hospital in Lubbock where she was taken immediately after the accident. Mrs. Tye suffered cuts and bruises and broken bones. The family expected her to be able to be brought home in a few days. We all wish a speedy recovery for Mrs. Tye.

Mrs. W. B. Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Pruitt and Greg were among family members who visited with her on Sunday.

While in Lubbock Sunday, Mrs. W. B. Wilson called to Rev. and Mrs. Joe Wilson. She reports they are doing fairly well.

The Floyd County Fair Board met in the Lighthouse Kitchen last Monday night for organizing the Board for 1964. Hubert Frizell was named President. Weldon Smith, V-President. John Dorman, Secretary, and C. L. Mooney, Treasurer. The dates set for the annual Floyd County Fair were September 17, 18 and 19.

Let's all begin getting things ready to enter, in order that it will again be one of the very best fairs we have ever had.

Last Tuesday a group of women from Cedar Hill came to the Lighthouse Kitchen for a demonstration of Mexican Cookery. They came at 10:00 o'clock and the food prepared in the demonstration was served to the group for lunch.

The Broadway Club met last Thursday afternoon for their regular meeting in the home of Mrs. Alene Thornhill. The demonstration was "FEBRUARY PARTIES". A large number of members and guests attended. Mrs. R. M. Spence, of Floydada, accompanied me to the home of her daughter for the meeting.

THE OTHER FACTS

The promoters of the CAPROCK HOSPITAL DISTRICT failed to inform the taxpayers that five of the six hospital districts that were investigated (Spearman, Post, Snyder, Lamesa, and Graham), are all located in oil producing areas. The sixth, Memphis, was not officially opened for business until Feb. 9, 1964. Yet, we have been informed that all these hospitals were operating in the black. They also failed to inform us that the Swisher County Hospital, located at Tulia, with a population of 5,000, a county population of 10,000, and which is located in a farming community such as ours has been in operation since 1928. This 29 bed hospital has, to the memory of the present commissioners court, operated every single year AT A LOSS. For the past two-year period it has operated at a $40,000.00 per year loss, although there were more patients cared for during these two years than in previous years. An attempt was made to sell this hospital for $1.00, with the agreement that $10,000.00 of county funds would be donated each year to a group of doctors, if they would take it off the county's hands. BUT THE DOCTORS REFUSED THIS OFFER.

The county hospital located at Dimmitt, in Castro County, has operated at a loss each year for the last 15 years. The loss in the year 1962 was $11,500.00.

An article appearing in the Lubbock Avalanche Journal, dated January 26, 1964, said in effect: that the residents of Garza County are seeking a solution to a problem resulting from a dispute between doctors and hospital board members. It appeared Garza County (Post) hospital would be treating only emergency cases because of personality clashes that have arisen as a result of a new doctor and other personnel. Garza County Hospital's current problems are symptomatic of those faced repeatedly by small hospitals in civic minded communities. Financially such institutions are on shaky ground at best. Problems are magnified when a disagreement arises between doctors and hospital board members as has happened here and as has happened in numerous other communities.

These promoters have failed to mention up to the present time that of the 40c per hundred dollar valuation, 25% is designated for hospital operating expense and that only 75% goes for retirement of the bonds. We also understand that the rate can go as high as 75c per hundred dollar valuation and that the county valuations could be increased at any time. We feel that the board members should inform the voters of approximately the total cost, including interest, instead of the $395,000 bond issue alone. We would like for you, the voters, to know what kind of money losing proposition the Caprock Hospital District can be.

more than shop Floyd county first... and if he cannot find what he seeks, then look for it outside this county.

Of course our home county merchants will be much better able to increase their selections of merchandise as we all maintain a loyalty to them that will encourage them to afford business development.

It is evident that buying power is increasing faster than retail sales in the county and with the addition of more money crops in this prosperous county...

It is interesting to note that land values have jumped an average of $100 per acre in the Hereford area on farms that now have a sugar beet allotment.

Here's a county that has a great future and tremendous potential, yet, one that will only be realized as we work together for the common good of all our Floyd county people.

Who Has The Right Of Way?

When two vehicles reach an intersection at the same time, which one has the right-of-way? If you do not have a ready answer to that question, you are the exception among drivers.

Neither has the right of way. The law says: "When two vehicles enter an intersection from different roads at approximately the same time, the driver of the vehicle on the left shall yield the right of way to the vehicle on the right."

"You may have him arrested, if you are still alive after the crash, but don't assume the law has given you the right of way. The only person who can give you the right of way is the other driver. Until he does, you haven't got it." - The Columbia (S.C.) Record.

We read from the Texas Driver's Handbook, the little volume, pored over so carefully, by those who have to take a driver's license examination, that when motor vehicles meet at an intersection at the same time, right of way should be yielded to the car on the right.

Just because one has the right of way is no reason why he should take it, regardless. One can be "dead right," and "DEAD," nevertheless.

Veteran's Ask

Q-I have read that the terminal date for the GI loan program is July 25, 1967. Does that apply to all veterans?

A-No, only veterans of World War II, Korean Conflict veterans should add ten years to the date of their first discharge from active wartime service and then add one year for each three months of such service.

Q-My term insurance is getting too expensive and will be worse as time goes on. At this time I cannot afford to convert all of it to a permanent insurance plan. Can I convert part now and the rest later?

A-Yes. You may convert as little as $1,000 or more in multiples of $500 after the first thousand.

Q-Is any Korean Conflict veteran with a service-connected disability eligible for vocational training?

A-No. The veteran must be found in need of vocational training to overcome the handicap of his disability in order to receive the training.

Have You Read At Your Library?

What type of shrubs, trees and flowers to plant is a problem faced by Floydada gardeners each spring as they prepare their yard for the growing season.

What's good for shade, fast growth, and color? Will the soil here support this plant and how large will it grow?

These are questions lurking in the back of the minds of homeowners as they prepare a new yard or try to beautify an old one.

Many of these perplexing questions are answered in a recently arrived book at the Floyd County Library.

A book covering the important features of home and yard beautification in alphabetical order is found in "Shrubs and Trees for the Home Landscape," by James Bush-Brown.

WE PICK UP AND DELIVER CALL YU 3-3540

Dear editor: One thing about an expert is that he can worry a problem from more angles than anyone else. A first rate expert can worry about a problem before it gets here while it's here, and long after it's gone.

I got to thinking about this after I read a magazine article last night about some college professors who force a grave threat to mankind in the amount of leisure he may gain.

"The problem of too much leisure is closer and more threatening than you realize," they said. They pointed out the 36-hour work week, a 13-week vacation and other situations now developing in many industries, and estimated that in 20 years 98 percent of the world's productive work will be done by two percent of the population.

Now the problem these experts are worrying about is - can the people stand that much leisure? What will they do with themselves? Who'll clean all those fish they catch? How long can a tourist kid himself that he's having fun touring?? Like the question, Can man survive in space, this is a serious matter and deserves careful thought and preparation.

Just as we wouldn't think of shooting a man into space without first testing, neither should we allow a man to risk rushing headlong into leisure without seeing if his constitution and nervous system will stand it.

Now I have had a certain amount of advance training in subjecting the human body to the strains of leisure, I will volunteer to go the whole way if the government is willing.

It won't be necessary to go to any elaborate preparation. I won't need a count-down or detailed weather report. Not even a television camera. Just have Washington mail me a check every month and I will plunge headlong into 100 percent leisure, keeping full notes on how the human body reacts to this new advance of the 20th century.

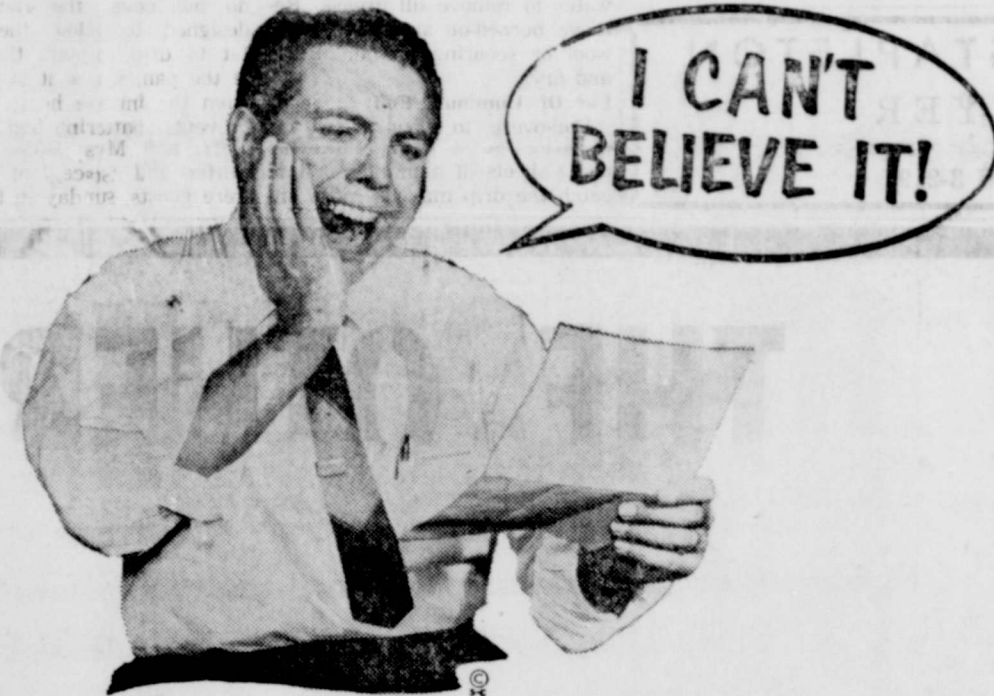

Yours faithfully, J. A.

Moisture Penetration Determined By Slope

by Truman Gregory

Do you need to level a portion of your farm? Land that has been leveled provides for a better and more efficient use of irrigation water.

Irrigationalities in the surface and slopes of your fields influence moisture penetration patterns. Water collects in low places and will penetrate to greater depths, resulting in waste of water. High places are wetter only to a shallow depth, and crop yields are reduced. The slope of the land surface, soil, size of furrow stream, and the length of time water is on the land influence the moisture penetration pattern. It's easy to find out about the way water penetrates your fields. Just use a soil auger a day or two after irrigating and take a look at the soil underneath.

If you are confronted with some of these problems on your farm, land leveling might be needed.

Soil Conservation Service Technicians would be glad to advise with you about the feasibility of leveling on your farm. After field notes have been secured they would figure the amount of cubic yards of earth work involved the land leveling operation before the work is started. Cost-share is now available under the ASC Program and the Great Plains Conservation Program.

After land leveling is completed the soil should have special treatment for about two years, to get the land back to high production.

Land leveling itself in no new practice in the Floyd County Soil Conservation District. Neither are the benefits that can be expected from it. Land leveling where needed will more than pay for itself in a short time.

Some farmers who have contacted work of this type in recent months in the District are: W. L. Miller, Fred Jackson, J. S. Hale, Jr., Bill Norman, Gene Probasco, and Joe Dunn.

Cotton Meetings Set At Paducah, February 25-27

The factors that influence cotton production will receive close attention at two meetings to be held in Paducah February 25 and 27. According to county agent Fred Cross, the meetings will offer many ideas for improving the cotton income situation in this area.

Both meetings will be held in the Goshwin School Cafeteria in Paducah, starting at 7:30 each night.

The first night, February 25, Jim Valentine, Area Extension Soil Chemist, will cover use of commercial nitrogen. Cross says Valentine is expected to include in his discussion the different fertilizers which may be used for adding nitrogen. Also on the same night, Lewon Ray, widely recognized cotton authority who is an agronomist at the South Plains Research and Extension Center, Lubbock, will discuss many of the factors that limit cotton production. Ray is expected to stress timing of planting, varieties, irrigation and many other timely, informative topics.

On February 27, Bill Gunter, Area Extension Agronomist, will discuss use of commercial phosphorous, soil testing, and some other related subjects. Also on the program will be Harvey Walker, agronomist from the South Plains Research and Extension Center. Walker will speak on the subject of soil management, including irrigation and related items.

Cross says the meetings are open to the public and an invitation is cordially extended to all interested persons to attend.

Growing more crops on the same acreage at less cost will be the theme of two meetings to be held in Matador Monday, February 24, and Thursday, February 27. According to county agent Bill Palmeyer, speakers will be tops in their fields.

The meetings will be held in the District Courtroom in Matador at 7:30 each of the nights. At the first meeting, February 24, Bill Gunter, Area Extension Agronomist, will discuss in detail the "Why's, how's and

On the same program, Harvey Walker, Agronomist at the South Plains Research and Extension Center, Lubbock, will cover soil management. Palmeyer says Walker is expected to discuss thoroughly the many phases of this important field.

At the second meeting, February 27, Jim Valentine, Area Extension Soil Chemist, will discuss use of commercial nitrogen.

This topic, says Palmeyer, is expected to cover the various sources of fertilizers the farmer can use for adding nitrogen, among other important points. A report will also be made on soil testing and management by a recognized authority in this field.

Both meetings are open to the public. Not only will you enjoy and benefit just from attending the meetings, adds Palmeyer. Your bank account at season's end should also show the effects.
