Dog Trouble Cause Of Fire Alarm Blast

A dog was the cause, Wednesday morning, of the fire alarm system sounding in the City Hall, area, causing a great amount of tension at other places in town.

Actually the dog did not set off the alarm. A resident saw the dog in her yard, and instead of calling City Hall and reporting the dog running loose, she dialed the fire number. When this number rings it sets off the fire alert system in the City Hall and the telephones in 15 homes are sounded. These are the homes of the volunteer firemen.

One person was heard to say, "I wonder if she did that on purpose, to get a little more prompt action."

When a person has something he needs to report to the city officials, he should dial YU 3-2834, the number of City Hall, and should NOT dial YU 2-2424, which is the fire number that rings in so many places, according to city officials.

To the voters of Precinct 1:

Concerning my bid for your commissioner, I would like to take this opportunity to apologize for interruptions I caused to businessmen while talking to their employees, to women detained from meal preparation, to babies I awakened, and to others whom I may have bothered in any way.

To my friends who placed their confidence in me:

In my effort to elevate my ability and character above longtime friendship, membership in any organization, or certain society, I evidently opened the door for those two bogey words, radical and fanatical, to be associated with my name. Radical? (never) and if standing for and expressing my convictions is fanatical (that's me). I'm sorry if I let you down and I thank you from the bottom of my heart.

40 Women Attend THDA Convention Here Thursday

Approximately 40 women attended the District 2 Texas Home Economics Club in Floydada on Thursday in the First Baptist Church.

The delegate's meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Bill Job, formerly of Plainview; Mrs. Bob Thomas of Cotton Center, Elvira Holden, Plainview; Mrs. Dale McEachern of Petersburg; Mrs. Lester White of Edmonson; Mrs. Leo Witkowski, Hereford; Mrs. Wade Mills of Plainview and Mrs. J. P. Walter of Lubbock who received the record scholarship award presented that being in 1928.

The morning coffee at the meeting was courtesy of Lighthouse Electric and the floral arrangements were courtesy of Park Florist and Plains Florist.

Rev. Floyd C. Bradley brought the invocation and the welcome was by Wayne Brown, president of Floydada Chamber of Commerce. Greetings were by Mrs. G. W. Smith, THDA chairman of Floyd County and the response was by Mrs. Preston Murphy, THDA chairman of Yoakum County.

Mrs. Bayne McCurry of Plainview, District Director, presided over the general session.

Leading the song fest was Mrs. William Finkner of Hale County and pianist was Mrs. Bill Stringer of Floyd County.

Following the introductions of guests, THDA Board, Extension Staff and roll call of counties, Mrs. Florence Low, Assistant Director for Home Economics Texas Agricultural Extension Service, spoke on "Family Life in Russia."

Mrs. Low was among 85 Home Economists who took a month's tour of seven European Countries including England, France, Austria, Russia, Finland, Sweden and Denmark.

Mrs. Low said the contacts with other home economists from all parts of the world broadened immensely the view of home economics as a forward-moving international profession which will play an increasing role in meeting lack of facilities. All children receive basically the same education until they are through the seventh grade, Mrs. Low learned. Then they are given tests, those not capable may go into a labor force.

A high percentage of women in Russia are in the labor force. They pride themselves on having equal status with men in every occupation. They repair streets, clean the streets, work in factories and are lawyers, doctors and managers.

Mrs. Low said at a fashion bureau they visited a certain material they liked to make a dress costs $80; hats ranged from $8 to $25; poor quality of winter coats, $100; Brasserie, $5, shoes imported from England, $30; butter $3 per pound and cold cuts; meat, was $1 per pound. Fresh fruits, vegetables and milk are practically non-existent. There is a great paper shortage in Russia. In cafes luncheon napkins are cut into fourths for use.

Mrs. Low said delegates spent two days in Leningrad and people seemed happier there than in Moscow.

Mrs. Low said she came home with a more determined desire to use whatever influence she had to help people understand the importance of our way of life. The importance of each and every citizen exercising his or her privilege of being informed and exercising their rights as citizens.

Sarah McCullough of Comanche county, one of the 1963 winners of 4-H scholarships and Janet Magee McEachern of Hale County, one of the District winners, gave appreciation talks prior to the noon meal. They were introduced by Mrs. Melton McGehee of Wayside.

Junior, Freshman League Try-Outs Slated May 12, 16

According to Ted Viramonte, president of the Floydada Baseball Association, tryout days for the Junior League is May 12, and for the Freshman and T-Shirt Leagues is May 16. These dates were set by a group of the baseball coaches last Monday night in the Community Room of the First National Bank.

It was noted at the meeting that because of the lag in sign-ups for all boys in the Tee Shirt League, Freshman League and Junior League, there will be a second sign-up at the Senior League ball park Thursday, May 7 from 6 until 7 p.m.

The one league that is having trouble in fielding enough boys is the Junior League. As of this date, there have been only 22 boys signed, and at least 45 are needed to get three teams. The age group for this league is 13, 14 and 15 years.

CLEAN UP DAYS
There will be a clean up day for the ball parks this Saturday, May 9 from 2 until 5 p.m. Last week the Floydada Baseball Association had a clean up day and only 2 people showed up.

All parents and friends are urged to assist this Saturday. Viramonte said, "It is a shame that we have not been out to help these boys on their baseball program. So please bring a shovel, rake, pliers or something, and

Cotton-Wheat Program Explanation Draws 200

The county wide meeting of farmers in the Floydada High School Auditorium held last Thursday evening drew about 200 area farmers who were interested in the technicalities of the new program. ASCS office manager Tom Hutchins, took charge of the program, presented the plan and answered questions.

Although, it is similar in content to the program voted down by the area farmers last year, a large number of the area farmers are signing up to take part in the program.

According to Hutchins, sign-ups began April 27, and the local ASCS office has been almost flooded with farmers interested in signing for the program. About 140 people signed up Monday and by the end of the week there had been 600 of the County Wheat producers indicate their desire to comply with the government program.

Keep in mind that May 15 is the last day that one can sign for the program. The program is based on $1.30 base price per bushel of wheat for those producers who cut back acreage 10 per cent from last year's acreage. If they cut another 10 per cent of their acreage, they are eligible for more support price, through Payment-In-Kind certificates.

All farmers are reminded that when they came into the ASCS office a few weeks ago and reported their plot (s) of wheat, they did not actually sign up for the program. That began only a little over a week ago. The sign-ups are coming at about 50 per day now.

According to Hutchins, if every wheat grower in the county signed for the wheat program, it would mean an additional $1,38,000 income for the county. A farmer was heard to make this comment a few days ago, "there will be some of the people who will say, 'I didn't know you could sign for the program yet,' or 'if I had known that was the way it worked, I would have signed up too,' they'll do it every time!"

AUSTIN — Kenneth Jurgens, regional Parks and Wildlife inland fisheries supervisor, reports that an attempt is being made to restore good crappie fishing to Delta Orchards Lake. This lake, which is located in the heart of the Rio Grande Valley, was a fine crappie fishing spot for many years but the crappie have mysteriously disappeared.

Filly White, department hatchery superintendent from Olmito, recently delivered thousands of one-inch crappie to the lake. These fast growing panfish are expected to start increasing valley fishermen's catches.

Month old black bass from one to two inches long are also being stocked in the lake.

School Transfer Month In May

May is transfer month for school students, according to Clarence Guffee, superintendent of schools for Floyd County. This is for students whose grades are not taught in their home district.

Mr. Guffee said there is no such thing as an automatic transfer for students must fill out a transfer application blank in his office at the court house before June 1.

AUSTIN — All property owners or managers of shooting resorts and shooting preserves who accept payment for hunting privileges must turn in their record books to the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department by May 1.

Most of the reports have already been received from hunting preserve operators since the major game seasons closed in January. The open season on hunting resorts, where pen-raised birds are released for "put and take" hunting, closed on April 1. The report books, furnished with each shooting preserve or shooting resort license, shows the name, address and hunting license number ber of each hunter who hunted for pay during the season. Also shown is the time spent hunting and the amount and kind of game killed.

Pat Ewing
Of the number of accomplishments Pat has achieved during his high school career, he is proud particularly of placing 3rd in the district science test held in Floydada recently. Pat was told one Friday afternoon that he would be taking the test the next day. Most of the other competitors had known all year they would be in the contest.

Pat has been one of the members of the Tournament of Knowledge team from Floydada, that will take on Cooper Saturday in the semi-finals, and, if victorious, will then go against Roosevelt for the championship.

Also, Pat plays the coronet, and is First Chair Coronet in the high school band.

As for Pat's future plans, "first," he said, "I intend to take off about a year and visit my parents." Pat's parents are missionaries in Bulawayo, Southern Rhodesia.

After he returns home, he plans to attend college, but presently he doesn't know which one. He is considering Harding College in Searcy, Arkansas and a major in chemical engineering. "I should have some definite plans by the time I return from Africa," Pat said.

Until his graduation, Pat is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Dan Whitaker, Mr. Whitaker is the high school Band Director.

Other contenders for the honors were Lon Miller who had a 91.70 average, Harriett Hollums with a 90.33 average and Conley Bradford who attained a 90.28 average.

Service Adjustments Begin Saturday At Post Office

Service adjustments affecting parcel post deliveries and post office window services on Saturday are aimed at reducing manpower requirements and costs of operations without impeding postal services. The vast majority of the residents of Floydada will not be affected by the recently-announced adjustments. Postmaster Edward H. Wester said.

Rural routes and Star Route patrons will continue to receive deliveries six-days a week, as well as the Post Office Box, and General Delivery Patrons who call for their packages at the consolidated window before 12:00 noon.

Areas affected will be residential and business areas that require the delivery of parcels of two pounds or more by Contract Vehicle, this service will be placed on a five-day week, Monday through Friday, beginning Saturday May 9th.

Services Adjustments
The only principle service affected by the consolidation of window services into one window on Saturday mornings is domestic money order service. No money orders will be issued at Post Office. Rural Carriers who perform services for patrons will not accept money order applications.

Patrons may call for parcels on which carriers have "Left Notice" of attempted delivery. There will be no change in home delivery for first class mail and packages under two pounds, or special delivery letters or packages of any size. First-class parcels, and parcel post, and perishable articles will continue to be delivered six days a week. No postage meters will be set. No trust fund deposits will be accepted. No postal savings business will be transacted. No box

Two Lighthouse Employees Hurt

Two employees of Lighthouse Electric miraculously escaped critical injuries last Friday when a highline pole they were buckled to snapped in half throwing them to the ground.

The victims are Nolan Arney, who has been with Lighthouse for 11 years and Terry Clark, an employe for the past two years. Arney is a patient in Methodist Hospital, Lubbock, with an arm in traction, a badly bruised nose and a broken rib. Clark is hospitalized at Peoples with five broken ribs.

Arney underwent surgery on his left arm Friday night and a pin was placed in the broken bone. It was then put in traction where it will have to remain for at least three weeks before the arm is placed in a cast.

The mishap occurred about 2:30 Friday afternoon some six miles south of Dougherty. Eight Lighthouse Electric employes were at the site. Clark and Arney were atop the pole cutting in a double dead-end. A handline was around the pole and as a pick-up on the ground was being moved, a gust of wind blew the handline hanging it on a mirror on the pick-up. Clark said. The pick-up was in motion and the driver did not realize the line was hooked. Clark told a reporter from the Hesperian. The pole, in the lake bed for some time, had deteriorated and the pulling of the pick-up on the handline, snapped the 40-ft. pole about mid-way.

Clark said he and Arney both had their safety belts buckled. He said as the pole was falling he moved quickly to the south side of the pole and had his safety belt unbuckled before the pole hit the ground. The force of the impact threw Clark away from the pole a few feet possibly saving him from severe injuries. Arney still was buckled to the pole as it hit the ground with him on top of the crossarms.

Most of Arney's weight from the force of the fall was on his left elbow, the first part of his body to hit the ground. The elbow bone was forced through the skin into the ground and splintered. Clark said neither he nor Arney were knocked out from the force of the impact.

Two Moore ambulances went to the scene of the accident. Clark was brought to Peoples and Arney taken on to Methodist Hospital after emergency treatment here.

It was not known just how long the two men would have to remain in the hospital.

Each student should have a fixed route to and from school which is known to parents. These routes should be established by the parents. If the student rides a bus, the parent should know the bus route, and be prepared to meet the bus in the event the bus cannot reach the home because of muddy roads, snow drifts or other obstructions.

If weather warnings do not reach the superintendent in time rentals will be collected and no information or claim windows will be open. No after hours window service will be provided on any day of the week.

Consolidated Services To Be Performed At One Window
Stamps, sales and mailing of parcel post, registered and certified mail will be accepted for mailing and will be delivered; C.O.D.'s will be accepted and delivered, and postage due items will be delivered. General Delivery service and the delivery of parcel post to Post Office box patrons will be handled at this consolidated window.

Drought Now? Check Some Other Years

Although a trace of rain did fall in the Floydada area Tuesday night, the area farmers look to the skies hopefully, and wish for more moisture in some form or fashion. The farmers do need some moisture so they can plant their cotton, or not plow up their wheat.

One would think the area is in the midst of one of the worst droughts in history, for to date only 1.43 inches of rain has been recorded at the County ASCS Office.

It is very dry, for a number of dryland wheat growers are getting the grazing benefit off their wheat, then plan to plow it under.

But, look at a few of the past years rainfall records.

In 1959, through and including March, only 13 inches of moisture had been recorded. In April of that year 1.58 inches fell, then May brought the total up with 5.26 inches.

In 1961 at this time 4.15 inches had been recorded. In 1962, 1.83 inches was the total.

At this same time last year only 1.06 inches of moisture had been recorded. January was nil, February brought .40, March .54 and April .12 inches. That was somewhat drier than this year's 1.43.

At press time Wednesday, no moisture had fallen but at times skies have looked promising. According to weather forecast, for some time yet, the local farmers will look to the sky and hope.

According to one local forecaster, rain will come to Floydada before Tuesday of next week. People in the area can rest assured, that although it is very dry, every day that passes brings everyone a little closer to a rainy day.

you're not doing anything."

I've often wondered how a farmer sets his planter boxes . . . or how many rows he skips each round in order to plant "two in and one out," with a four row planter. I know a lot of farmers who have made local news by using this method of planting cotton.

P. D. Helms, who was one of the defeated in the commissioner's race in precinct 1 said that although he didn't win the race, he enjoyed visiting a lot of people and found two farmers who had a better way of planting "two in and one out."

EVEN JOHN FARRIS, county chairman of the Republican party admits that there are some good Democrats. He bragged on Tommy Assiter last week for helping an invalid Republican vote. Mrs. Sim Looney was unable to vote and Democrat Assiter took the time to take her a Republican ballot!

THERE'S a check list on another page of this issue of The Hesperian on how to rate your town. I invite you to read this article and answer the questions about Floydada's "yes or no" in your mind as you study each one. There's no doubt in my mind that Floydada is a good town . . . or I certainly wouldn't be living here.

Of course, there are a few weak spots in home building, school building and hospitals . . . but these problems are well on the way to being solved.

FIRST Coed: "Why are you taking that whistle with you tonight?"

to evacuate the school buildings, all students will be kept at school. However, any student will be released to the parent at any time, if the parent comes for them. If the student drives his own car, the parent should inform the principal's office if they wish the student to drive home during an emergency.

Parents are urged to follow the existing traffic patterns when picking up their children. Traffic jams could prove to be more dangerous than the weather.

Mother's Love

Her love is like an island

In life's ocean, vast and wide,

A peaceful, quiet shelter

From the wind, the rain, the tide.

Tis bound on the north by Hope,

By patience on the West,

By tender counsel on the South

And on the East by Rest.

Shine faith, and truth, and prayer;

And through the changing scenes of life

I find a haven there.

I, C. J. Payne, candidate for the office of Tax Assessor and Collector of Floyd County would like to express my many thanks to each and everyone who voted for and (or) supported me in the first primary and made it possible for me to be in the run off. Knowing that there are a large number of friends and voters in this county supporting me, it gives me strength and courage to go on. It is a great feeling.

I would like to thank my opponents for a good, fair, and clean campaign.

Although I tried to make every business place and every residence in Floyd County there were several people I did not get to see. If I failed to see you it was not intentional. I would like to say thanks to the people I did meet for the friendly and courteous way you received me as I canvassed the County.

New Bidrin[®] Insecticide lies in wait inside cotton—knocks out thrips, fleahoppers, aphids, mites, lygus wherever they attack tender foliage

Below: magnified cross sections of cotton (above) show how one application of new Bidrin keeps working 7 to 14 days, rain or shine.

Bidrin is the new phosphate insecticide that kills cotton pests with contact and systemic actions. It kills all major cotton insects on contact, at time of spraying—even thrips and worms.

Bidrin enters and spreads through plant and makes cotton deadly to thrips, fleahoppers, mites, lygus. When insects attack, they die—even pierce bottom of leaves where doesn't reach. This is systemic. It keeps working 7 to 14 days.

Proven by growers
Bidrin's amazing two-way action kills for thousands of cotton growers. They grew more cotton. And, to early insect control with Bidrin, a higher percent of their crop was early, high-quality, bottom cotton.

Weather resistant—economical
Soon after spraying, Bidrin enters your cotton plants. Once inside, rain can't wash it off. Sun can't break it down. Bidrin has practically eliminated weather as a cause for respraying.

Bidrin costs little compared to insecticides that can't begin to do the same kind of job. Bidrin's long-lasting effectiveness means fewer sprays. With Bidrin you avoid buying early insect control at seeding before you know whether or not insects will come. Bidrin gives you systemic control, yet it lets you wait and see. Result: maximum insect control at minimum cost.

Get Bidrin from your pesticide supplier. Many brands available.

Always read and follow label directions. For more information write: Shell Chemical Company, Agricultural Chemicals Division, Post Office Box 2099, Houston 1, Texas.

Maintain control with endrin-methyl parathion
During squaring and fruiting, stay ahead of insects with endrin-methyl parathion. It knocks out bollworms and weevils plus many other insects—quickly and surely. Gives you maximum length of control per spray, minimum number of sprays to do the job. Send for free, full-color booklet.

New Prometryne herbicide works wonders for Texas cotton

Prometryne 80W brings a new dimension to cotton weed control in the field. It offers a one-herbicide that will take care of most pre-emergence and post-emergence weeds, or at all three weed conditions so dictate.

It kills by direct action on weed foliage and through roots.

Safe to use
Prometryne is safe to cotton when used according to label directions. It leaves no residues in cotton seed. It is safe to handle and non-irritating to humans and animals. A fall seeded crop should not be planted in the same year following the application of Prometryne 80W.

Available this spring
Since this is the introductory year for Prometryne, only limited quantities are available. Plan to make a pre-emergence application to at least a portion of your acreage at planting. Then follow through with post-emergence and/or layby treatments if necessary. See what outstanding, economical weed control you can have.

To order Prometryne, or for more information, contact your supplier, or: Geigy Agricultural Chemicals, Division of Geigy Chemical Corporation, Saw Mill River Road, Ardsley, N.Y. (919)

Prometryne works on pre-emergence, Prometryne is applied to the soil by rainfall or over-irrigation. It is absorbed by germinating roots and soon after they die. No work Prometryne into soil. After weeds are up, Prometryne kills by direct action on weed foliage and through roots.

CREATORS OF CHEMICALS FOR MODERN AGRICULTURE

MIDLAND BERMUDAGRASS PASTURE—The above picture taken on the Leroy Durham farm Northwest of Sandhill last fall, shows an SCS technician checking the nozzle pressure on one of the laterals of the Sprinkler system. Mr. Durham has established approx. 75 acres of Bermudagrass pastures since 1962.

Sprinkler systems such as this one are used effectively on open-porous soils and also on lands that have real sloping breaks.

According to Glen Black, local Work Unit Conservationist, Bermudagrass will produce and yield good grass right along with any irrigated grass if managed properly. By now all irrigated pastures should have been fertilized and watered at least once or twice. One particular word which Black stressed as essential to a good year of production is to hold cattle off until the grass gets into the early boot stage (which in most cases is several weeks off considering the cool weather and slowness of grass in getting started). Early grazing will retard the overall production of the grass and cause the grass to reach full production at a much later date.

All cuts of beef rank about the same in nutritional value, lean for lean and fat for fat. The caloric content, however, depends on the amount of fat which inter-laces the lean. But don't scorn beef with fat for marbling — those thin streaks of fat throughout the lean meat make the meat more flavorful and tender. A well balanced diet needs a certain amount of fat for proper digestion and utilization of the nutritive goodness in all foods.

Tank Fish Problem May Be Solved By Starting Over

When a fish population in a tank or pond becomes unbalanced with too many small stunted fish, or when the tank contains rough or undesirable fish such as bullheads, catfish, shad, carp or goldfish; it is best to remove all of the fish and start over says Floyd County Agent H. T. Davison.

If a tank has adult fish in it, tankowners should not stock it with fingerlings obtained from state or federal hatcheries. Davison added. Largemouth bass and certain sunfishes are cannibals as well as predators, and a few adult fish can "eliminate" every fingerling in a short time. This is no reason why additional stocking alone is not the solution to poor fishing.

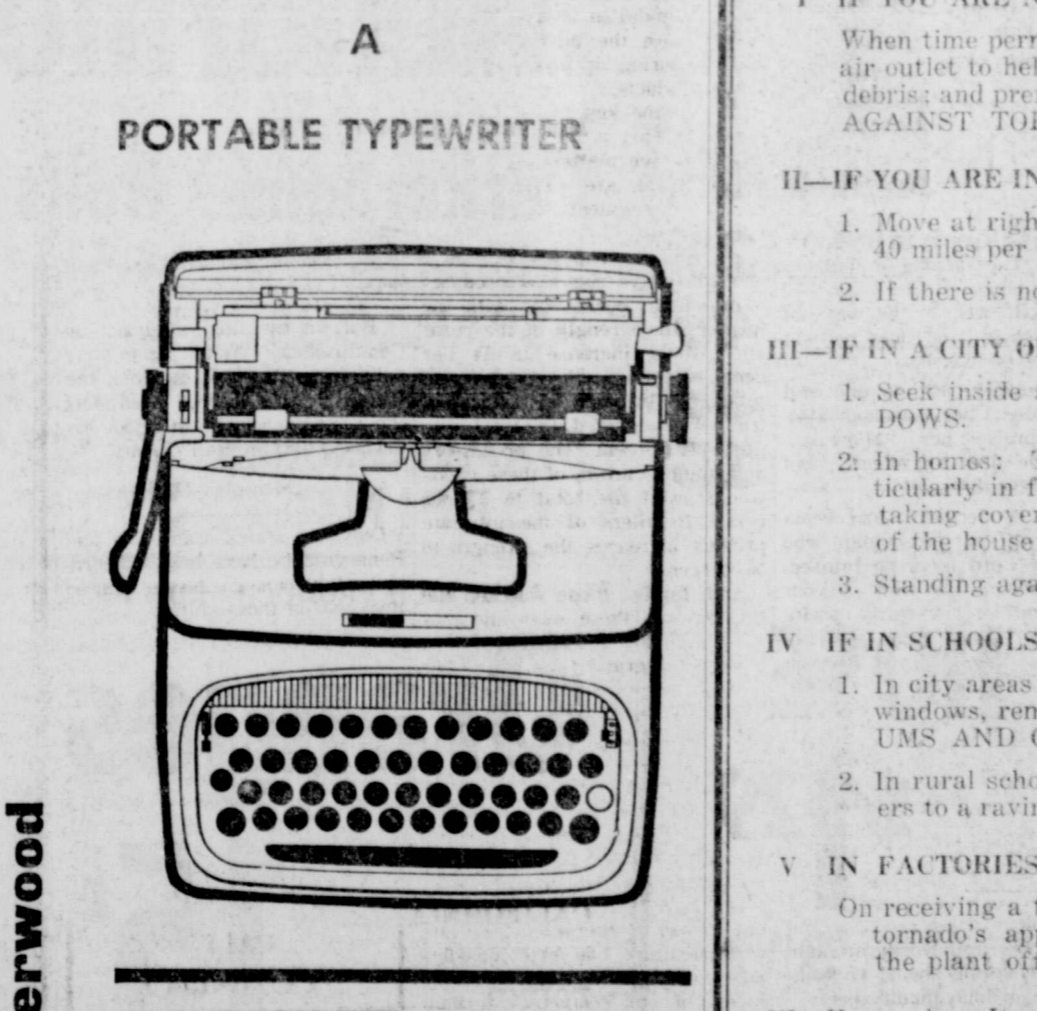

Davison said that rotenone is the easiest and most practical way to remove most kinds of fish from tanks. The usual recommendation is 5 pounds of 5 percent rotenone per acre foot of water. It is then distributed over the tank by a boat with an outboard motor to insure complete distribution.

The fish killed with rotenone are edible Davison says; since this chemical is not poison to the fish, but merely suffocates them. Domestic animals, wildlife and people are not effected by rotenone water when it is used for drinking purpose or swimming. The use of rotenone is restricted to private water and must not be used on public streams or lakes.

If you have questions on fish pond management Davison invites you to drop by or call. There is considerable literature available on pond management.

TORNADO SAFETY RULES

TO KNOW WHAT TO DO WHEN A TORNADO IS APPROACHING MAY MEAN THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN LIFE AND DEATH!

- I IF YOU ARE NEAR A TORNADO CELLAR:
When time permits, go to a tornado cellar, cave or underground excavation which should have an air outlet to help equalize the air pressure. It should be kept fit for use, free from water, gas or debris; and preferably equipped with pick and shovel. THERE IS NO UNIVERSAL PROTECTION AGAINST TORNADOES EXCEPT UNDERGROUND EXCAVATIONS.
- II—IF YOU ARE IN OPEN COUNTRY:
 1. Move at right angles to the tornado's path. Tornadoes usually move ahead at about 25 to 40 miles per hour.
 2. If there is no time to escape, lie flat in the nearest depression such as a ditch or ravine.
- III—IF IN A CITY OR TOWN:
 1. Seek inside shelter, preferably in a strongly reinforced building. STAY AWAY FROM WINDOWS.
 2. In homes: The corner of the basement toward the tornado usually offers greatest safety, particularly in frame houses. People in houses without basements can sometimes be protected by taking cover under heavy furniture against inside walls. Doors and windows on the sides of the house away from the tornado may be opened to help reduce damage to the building.
 3. Standing against the inside wall on a lower floor of an office building offers some protection.
- IV IF IN SCHOOLS:
 1. In city areas: If school building is of strongly reinforced construction, stay inside, away from windows, remain near an inside wall on the lower floors when possible. AVOID AUDITORIUMS AND GYMNASIUMS with large, poorly-supported roofs!
 2. In rural schools that do not have strongly reinforced construction, remove children and teachers to a ravine or ditch if storm shelter is not available.
- V IN FACTORIES AND INDUSTRIAL PLANTS:
On receiving a tornado warning, a lookout should be posted to keep safety officials advised of the tornado's approach. Advance preparation should be made for moving workers to sections of the plant offering the greatest protection.
- VI Keep calm. It will not help to get excited. People have been killed by running out into streets and by turning back into the path of a tornado. Even though a warning is issued, chances of a tornado striking one's home or location are very slight. Tornadoes cover such a small zone, as a rule, that relatively only a few places in a warned area are directly affected. You should know about tornadoes though, "just in case."
- VII Keep tuned to your radio or television station for latest tornado advisory information. Do not call the Weather Bureau, except to report a tornado as your individual request may tie up telephone lines urgently needed to receive special reports or to relay advisories to radio and television stations for dissemination to thousands in the critical area.

Tom Daniel of Daniel Automotive, said introduction of the new "Trimwall" all-foam insulated model marks another significant milestone in the company's 50 years of "firsts" in the major appliance industry.

"As part of its 50th Anniversary Festival, Kelvinator is conducting a search for the 50 oldest Kelvinator refrigerators still in daily kitchen use. The reward to the homemakers having one of these old and faithful servants will be a new "Trimwall" model, symbolizing the very latest in exchange for the very oldest," he said.

Foamed-in-place insulation reduces the width of cabinet walls and increases capacity without increasing exterior dimensions. In addition, Kelvinator's foam insulation process bonds the refrigerator inner liner to the outer steel cabinet to provide additional strength and durability.

Durability of "Trimwall" construction is guaranteed by a Lifetime Certificate of Performance against any trouble that might develop from manufacturing defects for the first five years of use, with a prorated replacement on the cabinet for the lifetime of the refrigerator.
