Crop Saver For Some; Too Late For Others

Slow, soaking rains came across the south plains and the Floydada trade area about 6 a.m. Wednesday morning an at noon about 1/2 inch had been received by the ASCS Office in Floydada.

Although, it may not be considered a drought-breaker, it will give some dry land cotton to make more... it will give the wheat farmer a chance to plant wheat the last of this month and next.

Some farmers in the southwest part of the county who received over two inches of rain last Friday night have turned off their irrigation wells. In other parts of the county the needed moisture helped irrigation water to run faster and cover the ground better.

Federal Funds To Fight Boll Weevil Pushed

WASHINGTON (Special) — It was a sad day on Capitol Hill Friday for the West Texas boll weevil.

A Senate Appropriations Subcommittee wrote $1 million into the new money bill for the Agriculture Department to eradicate the boll weevil from the cash crop area of the High Plains before the pest spreads further in the area and into New Mexico and Arizona.

The federal funds must be matched dollar-for-dollar by cotton farmers and others affected in the cotton industry in West Texas.

Rep. George H. Mahon of Lubbock, chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, announced the favorable action by the Senate Subcommittee.

Mahon promised to use his powerful chairmanship to get the House to go along with the $1 million appropriation.

Local School Board Approves 1964-65 School Budget Here

The Floydada School board approved a $1,618,303.00 budget for the new school year at its regular monthly meeting Monday night.

$818,203.00 of the budget is based on a nine month schedule of expenditures and $800,000 is for the construction of new buildings and equipment when the voted $800,000 bonds are released for sale.

A suit brought against the school board ties the board's hands in allowing it to sell the bonds and build the needed facilities.

The budget expenditure is as follows: administrative, $31,000; instruction, $507,700; health, $6,000; transportation, $57,500; operations, $32,000; maintenance, $28,500; fixed charges, $41,700; capital outlay, current revenue, $22,000; debt service, $54,600 on bonds and $17,300 on buses.

In comparison with last year's budget administrative costs are up $1,000; instruction up $67,200; health the same; transportation down $6,500; operations up $1,000; fixed charges down $8,300.

An increase in teachers employed from last year is most of the budget increase. Last year 77 teachers were employed and 90 will be employed this year. There will be ten first grade classes this year.

In other business the board hired Elaine Reid to teach the fourth grade and Ann Carr to teach first grade. The board accepted the resignation of fourth grade teacher Jimmie Nance, who is moving to the Stamford, Texas school system.

In other business payment of the current bills was approved and the reading of last meeting's minutes.

Attending the meeting were: A. E. Baker, Ralph Johnson, Buster Simpson, Dennis Dempsey, Ernest Lee Thomas, Howard Gregory, Jack Stansell and Lawrence Davis.

MacKenzie Reservoir Potential Explained

President of the MacKenzie Reservoir and member of the Floydada Rotary Club, Lon Davis told the club in a speech at its regular luncheon last week that the cities of Floydada, Lockney, Silverton and Tulia "didn't especially like the plan of municipal water from the proposed MacKenzie dam project, but it was the only means left for water when the underground supply was exhausted."

He said that engineering was now in process as to the possibilities of a successful dam site in regard to the needs of the four municipalities and it appeared that the reservoir might cover around 800 acres and the dam sight would be approximately seven miles northwest of Silverton. He said the location was known as the "narrow's" area of the Tule Creek.

Davis illustrated his talk with color slides and local photographer Vernon Parker had made from the plane of Billy Stanforth.

In comparison with the White River Dam which will cover 33,000 acre feet, engineers believe the MacKenzie dam would back water up for 35,000 acre feet. They also said that because of the narrowness and depth that there would be less evaporation from the Tule Creek site than the "wide open" lay of the White river dam, according to Davis.

Fair Officials Expect Several Dignitaries

At a regular meeting of the Floyd County Fair Board Tuesday night, it was noted by the group in a report by president Hubert Frizzell that a number of dignitaries can be expected to attend the annual Fair set in Lockney, September 17, 18, 19.

$100 Bonus For First Bale

The Floydada chamber of commerce announced this week that it will give a cash prize of $100 to the farmer who brings in the first bale of 1964 cotton in the area.

Only requirement of the offer is that the bale must be ginned at a gin that is a member of the Floydada chamber of commerce.

Ginner should call the Hesperian office as soon the first bale arrives in order to avoid confusion where more than one bale arrives on a certain day.

Series Of "Fender Bendings" Noted During Past Few Days

A series of minor accidents, resulting mostly in bent fenders and doors, with no body injury has been noted the past few days by the Floydada Police Department.

Since Monday last week, there have been five inside the city limits that have caused mostly minor damage, but some quite expensive.

According to Chief of Police Bill Taylor, almost all of these have been caused by persons failing to yield the right-of-way, or pulling to a stop sign, not stopping, and pulling into the path of an on-coming vehicle.

The first of these occurred August 3, when Sherman Rufus Melton, and Valdoma Foy Bennett were involved in a minor mishap at the corner of 3rd street and Kentucky. Melton received a citation for failure to yield right-of-way.

The second, also on Monday of last week, involved Albert Windon and Fern P. Hartsell at the corners of 12th (Silverton Highway) and Ross streets. Windon received a citation for failure to yield right-of-way.

Thursday, August 6, William Simpson was driving a 55 Dodge pickup west on Highway 70 when it was struck in the left side by a 57 Ford driven by Donald Ray Hagel. This accident occurred at Highway 70 and 5th street. Hagel received the citation for failure to yield right-of-way.

Saturday, August 8, Cecil Wayne Vanhoose and Mrs. E. E. Cardinal were involved in a mishap at the corner of 2nd and Jackson Streets. Vanhoose failed to yield right-of-way.

The last in the series was Tuesday afternoon when a vehicle driven by William Sellars hit a parked pickup belonging to Kinder Farris just north of Kentucky street, on Tree street.

"Nearly all these accidents are from just plain carelessness or bad driving habits," said Taylor. Another of the "habits" he mentioned was making U turns on the streets around the square. Some people turn at the end of the street, which is illegal, and some turn in the center of the block.

Students Register At High School 24th, Others 28th

Registration for the 1964-65 school term in Floydada is nearing as teachers and workers make preparation for the largest number of students to enroll ever, if early census figures prove correct. Grade school is expecting an even greater number enrollment especially in the first grade.

A. E. Baker, superintendent of Floydada Schools, said registration date for the city schools had been set for Monday, August 24, starting at 8:45 a.m. at each respective school, with the exception of high school. Their schedule is as follows:

Seniors will register on Monday, August 24 from 9 a. m. until noon and from 1:30 to 3:30 p. m. and on Tuesday, August 25th during the same hours. Juniors and sophomores will register on Wednesday, August 26th. Juniors from 8:30 until noon and sophomores from 1 until 4 p.m. Freshmen will register Thursday, the 27th from 9 until noon and from 1:30 until 4 p.m.

Senior pictures will be taken from 9 until noon and from 1 o'clock until 3:30 Monday, August 24th and on Tuesday from 9 until 12 and 1:30 until 3 p. m. Juniors from 8:30 until 10:30 a. m. on the 28th; sophomores from 1 until 2:30 the 28th; freshmen from 2:30 until 4 p.m. (See STUDENTS, Page 2)

Distributive Education Organization Is Underway

Bob Shields, Distributive Education teacher of Floydada High School, is asking that all students interested in the program report to room 101 in the high school building Friday, August 14 at 7:00 p. m. All students that are juniors or seniors for the coming year may sign up for the course.

The purpose of the meeting will be to determine training stations for the students for the coming year that will be enrolled in the course. This is a very important meeting and all students already signed up and those wishing to sign in attendance, according to Shields must make every effort to be present.

Wrong Garbage Cans Problem

At a regular council meeting held Tuesday night, the council discussed how to solve the problem of the wrong type garbage cans in the residential areas.

It was noted that people have been told in the past that the garbage cans must be of a type, not over 30 inches high, and must be covered, and have handles. This is not a new law, but was passed several years ago, as a part of Ordinance No. 25.

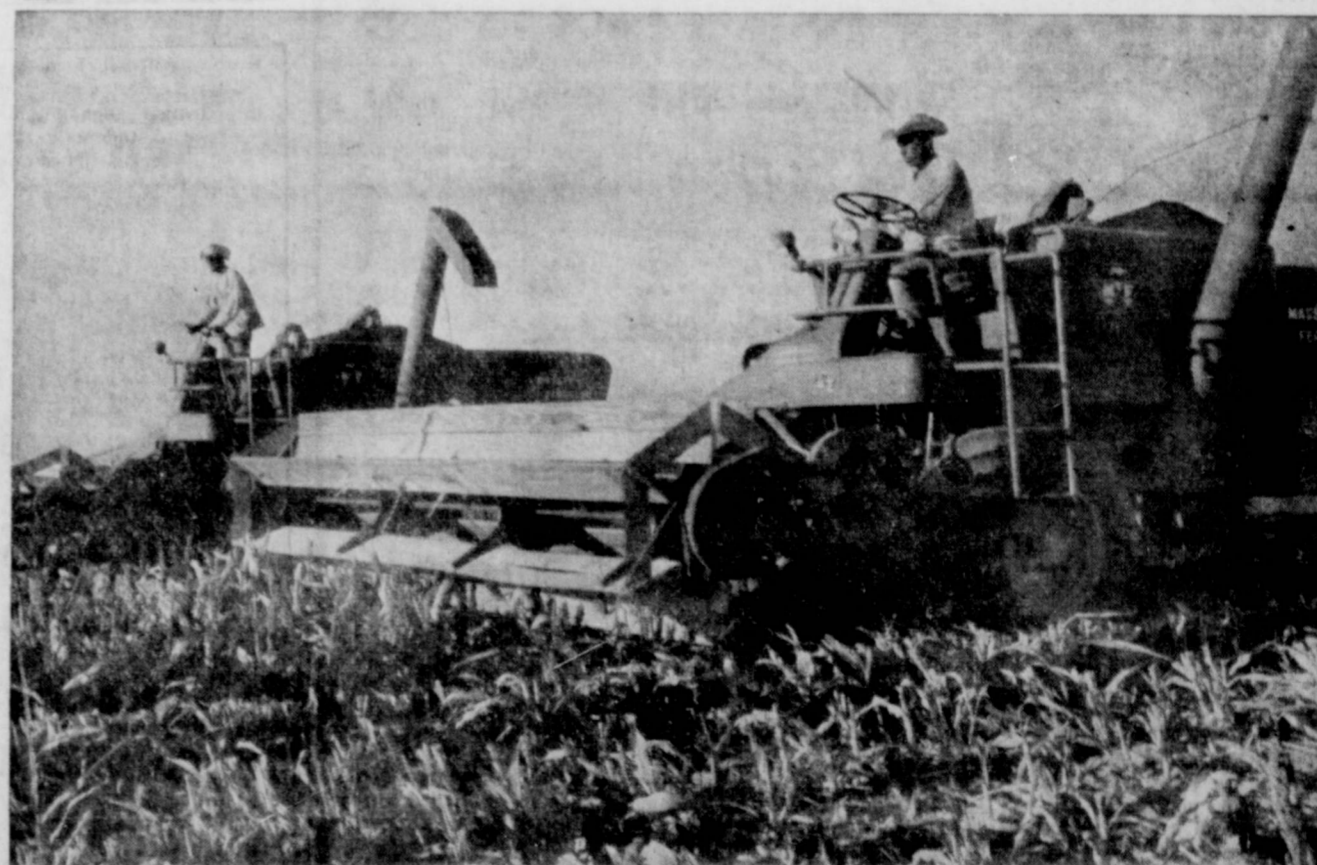

The council was informed that the trash system failed, bushes, trees, etc., is running behind schedule by about two months.

It was decided not to step up the schedule this year, because the season is almost over. Next year, the council decided, it may need to put on extra help to take some of the garbage out.

In other business, the council voted to purchase a draw-down gauge to check the city wells, pump efficiency, etc. The council also voted to set a 15 MPH speed limit on Lee Street for the block bordering the Andrews Ward School, and voted to close a portion of 10th street so Light-house Electric may extend their warehouse facilities.

Think August is the driest month I've been in, but I've been in the rain record and the as much worse. The rain record shows amount of "none" for August rainfall for the month. The record for August rainfall is 112 degrees about August 12. The state record is 120 (See NEWS, Page 2)

Domestic Cotton Allotment Is Explained By Local ASCS

The lack of rainfall on dry-land crops over the area may encourage many farmers to revert to their farm's Domestic cotton allotment, according to Tom Hutchins, manager of the local ASCS County Office.

In most cases the domestic allotment will be 67 percent of the farm's regular effective allotment. For farms with small allotments, the domestic allotment is the smaller of 15 acres or the regular allotment. The regular allotment in both cases does include acres which were released or reallocated to the farm from other parts of Texas last Spring.

Each farmer in the county has been informed of his farm's domestic allotment, the normal yield, and the payment rate per acre which will apply to all acreage planted within the domestic allotment.

The grower who decides to reduce to his domestic allotment must do so by Monday, August 17. The cotton should be destroyed and reported to the ASCS Office, with a fee deposited to cover the cost of checking the area.

Payment will be computed by multiplying the farm normal yield times 3.5 cents, times the domestic allotment. It is important to note that payment is not paid on the acreage destroyed, but it is paid on all acres planted within the domestic allotment.

As an example, the farmer with a regular allotment of 100 acres would be paid on 67 acres, his domestic allotment, and not the 33 acres destroyed. The grower, in effect, has a crop insurance cushion to protect him from loss due to abnormally low yields. The acreage of cotton destroyed can be planted to other crops, if possible, for harvest or for grazing. One important exception to this is the rule that the grower cannot exceed the farm's Feed Grain base, regardless of whether or not the farm is participating in the Feed Grain Program.

Growers who are interested are encouraged to contact their ASCS Office before August 17.

According to Tom Hutchins, ASCS Office Manager 50 - 75 farmers have requested permission to plow up one-third of their allotment during the past three days.

Fire Under Truck Causes Great Alarm

What could have proven disastrous Monday night effected few people other than fright and concern to those involved in trying to put out a fire beneath a truck-tractor loaded with butane. Quick action of Floydada firemen possibly saved injuries to many and damage to homes in the 300 block on East Houston street where the driver of the truck first noted the fire.

He told firemen that as his truck hit the dip just east of the city lights shorted out and he realized the trouble. Jumping from his cab he saw the blaze and stopped a motorist who summoned firemen.

After the fire was extinguished the truck was pulled to a garage for repairs.

Bill Baker, fire marshal, said the recent school that local firemen attended benefited greatly.

It seems that the Rev. Floyd Bradley and Doyle Walls had gone on some sort of church related trip and were due some money for expenses of the trip. Brother Bradley was to receive $12 and Doyle was to receive $8.

A church official gave all the money to Doyle and told him to see that his pastor got his share.

It seems that Doyle picked an opportune moment to enter his pastor's office when several church members were present, walked over to his pastor's desk and said, "there's your money." Brother Bradley replied, "boy, I'm glad to get it . . . thought you never would pay it."

To the pastor's consternation . . . and embarrassment, Doyle turned as he started out the door and said, "and that's the last time I'm gonna go golfing with you."

Men To Attend Fighter Squadron Reunion August 15

Vernon Parker, Floydada, will attend the reunion of the famous 388th Central Postal Directory at Perrin AFB, Texas, August 15, 1961. Parker was stationed at the famous "Islands" in England after the U. S. entered the war.

VERNON PARKER

Parker is currently doing research work with the Historical Records Division, United States Air Force Academy in preparing a factual record and history of the three American Volunteer Eagle Squadrons. Biggest problems encountered is finding survivors of the Eagle Squadron that have factual information. Losses in the Squadrons in the early days of the war ran 85-90%. Of 29 pilots who went to England with Parker in 1941, only four survived the war.

Waterways Used To Handle Run-Off Water

What is a Waterway? A waterway is an area where a defined course of water follows and seeks the lowest elevation along the way to a point of collection. On a farm this generally is where water concentrates and is considered run-off water. Areas such as this normally should be shaped and vegetated to some permanent cover such as grass. A permanent cover helps to tie down the soil and prevent erosion.

From now into the fall, anyone considering establishing a waterway should proceed with the planning and location and get the waterway shaped in order to prepare a seedbed for seeding. If Western Wheatgrass is to be used as the permanent grass, seeding should be carried out after Sept. 1st and not later than March 15th. After seeding the grass it is recommended that the ground be covered with a mulch of cotton

Miss Watson, J. D. Williams Exchange Double Ring Vows

Double wedding vows were exchanged Saturday, August 8, at 8:00 p.m. in the First Baptist Church between Miss Nancy Sue Watson and James Dayton Williams of Canyon. The double-ring ceremony was read by the Reverend Floyd C. Bradley.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jake B. Watson and parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Elliott of Seagraves.

The wedding scene consisted of a series of standing black wrought iron screens covered in huckleberry foliage forming a screen background. The center of the screen background held a tree-type candelabra, all holding white cathedral candles. Candelabras also flanked each side of the kneeling bench, which formed the center of the scene. The elevated baptistry and each side of the church held large baskets of pink gladiolus and orchid asters which was showered with orchid baby's-breath. Both bridal aisles were decorated with elevated aisle candelabra, each with a bow of white bridal satin.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a formal floor-length gown of camel-hair brocade satin enhanced with a scalloped portrait neckline. The sleeves of the bridal gown extended to petal points over the hands. The back of the gown featured tiny bridal buttons which extended onto the chapel train. The bell-shaped skirt was accented with an overlay chapel train which fell from soft unpressed pleats in the front to form a fan-shaped train. A pill box-hat, which matched the material of the dress and enhanced with pearls and fluorescent sequins, held the floor-length triple tiered veil of silk illusion. The bride's bouquet was a treasured styled cascade bouquet of white butterfly rosebuds centered with a white cattail orchid and showered with white satin streamers and maline.

For something old, the bride carried her mother's first wedding band entwined into her bridal bouquet. Something new was a lace and linen imported handkerchief, a gift from Larry Coltharp. It was fringed around the orchid in her bouquet. Something borrowed was the bridal gown satin slip belonging to Mrs. Jim McMeans of Long Beach, California. Something blue was the garter made for the bride by her mother. In her shoes were two pennies bearing the birthdate of the bride and the groom.

Matron of Honor was Mrs. Wilton Green of Morton, aunt of the bride. Bridesmatrons were Mrs. Charles Morehead and Mrs. Lynn McLarty of Canyon; Mrs. Keith Lane of Turkey, and Mrs. Don Forbis of Afton. Bridesmaids were Miss Mona Dell Hunter of Dimmitt, Miss Sharon Bingham of Floydada, and Miss Sharon Walker of Lubbock, cousin of the bride. They were attired in identical blush pink brocade satin. The street-length dresses were accented with portrait necklines, cup sleeves, and wrap-belt skirts. They complemented their attire with white gloves and pink matching shoes. The Matron of Honor as well as the bridesmatrons and bridesmaids each carried identical cascade bouquets of feathered pink carnations held in a nest of orchid maline and centered with pearlized orchid grapes in clusters.

Miss Cathy Hale, of Floydada, cousin of the bride and Miss Cindy Galloway served the bride as flower girls. They were attired in pink corduroy dresses with large white collars which were edged with heavy lace and rhinestones. Their dresses were complemented by white gloves and white brocade shoes. In their hair they wore a bando of pink feathered carnations. They carried small white wicker baskets trimmed with orchid ribbon and flowers from which they dropped pink rose petals.

Miss Sharon Walker and Miss Sharon Bingham lighted the candles along the bridal aisles and the large candelabra at the altar of the church.

Mr. Tommy Williams of Snyder served his brother as best man. Groomsman and ushers were Mr. Stanley Elliott of Wilson and Mr. David Elliott of Levelland, brothers of the groom. Other groomsman were Mr. Larry Coltharp of Floydada, Ben Dement and D'Alton Holder, both of Amarillo; Charles Morehead and Gaylord Latham, both of Canyon.

Miss Doris Drysdale of Floydada sang "Because," "I Love Thee," and "The Wedding Prayer." She was accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Bill Hardin.

Mrs. Watson, mother of the bride, was attired in an orchid silk dress. She complemented her attire with black accessories. Mrs. Elliott wore a beige sheath silk dress with black accessories accented by a short jacket with three-quarter length sleeves. Each wore a shoulder corsage of pink sweetheart rosebuds.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church. The bridal table was covered with a white heliolum lace tablecloth made by Mrs. Dick Walker of Lubbock, aunt of the bride. Orchid underlay beneath the tablecloth complimented the table. Clusters of orchid grapes enhanced each corner.

In the center of the table and surrounded by the bouquets of the bridesmaids and bridesmatrons was a five branch candelabra holding pink wedding tapers. Crystal appointments and pink napkins completed the table setting. Mrs. Wayne Adams of Floydada poured the punch and Mrs. Doug Galloway of Floydada and Miss Mary Helen Ayres of Pampa cut the cake. Mrs. Jerry Blackerby of Canyon served at the register.

For the honeymoon trip, the bride chose a red two-piece imported double-knit suit. The bodice was enhanced by gray and black stripes down the middle front. Black accessories complemented the ensemble. For her going-away corsage, the bride wore the white orchid from her bouquet.

Upon return from their honeymoon, the couple will be at home at 2413-13th Avenue in Canyon. The bride is a graduate of West Texas State University where she was a member of Delta Zeta, national social sorority; Pi Omega Pi, national honorary business education fraternity; Phi Gamma Nu, national business sorority; Tau Beta Sigma, national honorary band sorority, and the Business Council. She was also selected a member of Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges. Mr. Williams is also a graduate of WTSU where he was a member of Kappa Pi. He is associated with Shamrock Oil and Gas Corporation in Amarillo.

Mrs. Williams is the granddaughter of Mrs. J. G. Martin, Sr. and the late J. G. (Ged) Martin, Sr. She is also the granddaughter of Mr. J. E. Watson of Canyon, formerly a resident of Floydada, and the late Mrs. J. E. Watson.

Those attending from out of town were from Lockney, Canyon, Amarillo, Afton, Seagraves, Snyder, Wilson, Levelland, Newton, Kamsas, Spearman, Claude, Plainview, and Quitaque.

The rehearsal dinner honoring Miss Nancy Sue Watson and James Dayton Williams was hosted by the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Elliott. The dinner was held Friday, August 7, in the banquet room of Rogers Restaurant.

The bride's chosen colors of orchid and pink were carried out in the low flower arrangements which decorated each table.

Approximately 40 people were present at the dinner. Those present were members of the bridal party, their guests, and the parents of the bride and bridegroom.

Keeping clothing immaculately clean actually extends its life. Extension Service clothing specialists emphasize. They remind that the National Institute or Dry-cleaning says it is unwise to specify "press only" for clothing which has been soiled with body oils. Pressing just sets these damaging soils into the fabric so they are harder to remove.

Wreck Near Abilene Hurts Powell Lad

A wreck between Cisco and Abilene, 8 miles west of Cisco, injured Jerry Powell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pernel Powell, and a passenger in the car Harry Bradley of Cisco.

The two were traveling from Cisco to Abilene around midnight Saturday when they approached a portion of the road that was under construction, according to Parnell Powell. They were upon the barricade before they realized it.

The car hit the end of a bridge and the car flipped end-over-end for about 200 feet. Bradley was thrown out of the auto immediately after the impact, and Powell was able to pull himself out of the demolished car. Neither was injured seriously, although they are both still hospitalized.

The Highway Patrol said that the car was torn up more than any they had ever seen, except for a car that was hit by a train near Abilene. They also noted that this was the 12th accident at that exact spot within the last three months. It is on the Calahan-Taylor county line.

Powell, a junior at Hardin-Simmons University, is in Hendrix Memorial Hospital in Abilene, and Bradley, a senior student at H-S is in the Cisco Hospital.

Wreck Victim Improving

David Hale, who was involved in a wreck a couple of weeks ago is improving satisfactorily, according to Roy Hale, father of the youth.

David was the passenger in a pickup driven by his brother, Dan, when the vehicle in which they were riding collided with another pickup, being driven by James Hale, also brother of David.

Neither Dan or James was injured, although they did stay in the hospital overnight for observation, but David received two broken legs, several face cuts, and bruises.

He will be in the hospital several more days, and according to his father, he would appreciate any mail received from Floydada. His address is Room 422, Methodist Hospital, Lubbock.

JACKIE YEARY AND JERRY BILLINGTON PLEDGE VOWS

Wedding vows were pledged by Miss Jacqueline Jene Yeary and Jerry Vaughn Billington Friday evening at 7 o'clock in First Methodist Church, Floydada. Recitation of double ring vows was directed by Rev. Floyd Bradley, pastor of First Baptist Church, Floydada.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Yeary of Cedar Hill community. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Orville Billington, Lockney.

Bridal Attire
Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a formal gown of peau de soie designed in a sheath silhouette with a high neckline featuring a self-lace center front, and portrait neckline that dipped to a "V" in back. Unpressed pleats at the back neckline formed a train. She wore matching wrist-length gloves.

Her headpiece of peau de soie with draped open crown was flecked with tiny orange blossoms and held her elbow length-tied veil of silk illusion which flowed into a train. She carried a cascade bouquet featuring white orchid surrounded by white feathered carnations arranged atop a white lace covered Bible.

Nuptial area was illuminated by tall tapers in cathedral candle holders. Baskets of white gladioli tied with Nile green bows flanked the altar, and family pews were marked by Nile green bows.

Mrs. C. L. Record, organist and Linda Christian, vocalist, presented nuptial music.

Attendants

Ninety-Five Were At Berry Home For Reunion

Ninety-five persons attended the Pharr family reunion Sunday with the occasion climaxing a two day affair in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Berry. Eighty-five in the group are relatives or descendants of the late P. H. Pharr. Ten were visitors and friends of the families.

A bountiful meal was served Sunday with Saturday almost as large in number of attendance. More were from Texas with the exception of the Tubal Cain family from Magum, Okla.

Others attending and heads of the family were Wesley Pharr, Wolfe City; Mrs. Myrtle Allmon of Hereford; Mrs. C. L. Berry, Floydada; Mrs. Ed Morris, Gober, Tex.; Mrs. R. E. Ewing, Lubbock; Mrs. Roy Sparkman, Brownfield; and Mrs. Walter Chiddix, Littlefield.

The P. H. Pharr family formerly lived in the McCoy community. Mr. and Mrs. Pharr and five children are deceased. Those attending commented they thought Floydada was the coolest spot they had been in some time. The Friday rain was timed just right the Berrys said.

School-Age Marriages May Continue Upward Trend

COLLEGE STATION — School-age marriages may not be wise, yet after one becomes a fact, adults working with the couple have a responsibility to help them succeed. Indications are that they will continue to increase in numbers.

So says Patsy Reynolds, Extension specialist in family life education at Texas A&M University.

Marriage is always a time of adjustment, she explains, regardless of the age of the couple. Add to the normal problems of this period the disapproval and often bitter incriminations of parents and the load becomes almost impossible for the young couple to carry.

According to a study made by Dr. B. J. Fallon, Executive Secretary of the West Texas School Study Council, school-age marriages have a divorce rate two to four times greater than for those who marry at age 20 or older. Dr. Fallon directed the survey in 23 Texas schools in 1962.

Conclusions of the research indicate that schools should educate for a "balanced social perspective" if these school-age marriages are to be reduced or those which occur are to succeed, the specialist says.

The parents and community can give the young couple practical education for dealing with

It was emphasized at the meeting that those who have not already planned the exhibits they plan to display should begin working on those within the next week or two, for the Fair is only one month away.

Those attending the meeting saw a drawing of the new Fair Grounds entrance, that will be ready by opening day. It will be an archway, with U. S. and Texas flags flying from different parts of it.

The date of the barbecue has been changed from Thursday night, as dated in the fair book, to Saturday afternoon at 4:00 p. m.

Reports on the animal shows the Angus show with Jerry Williams in charge and the Quarter Horse show with Mac Shurbet in charge will be outstanding, according to their reports.

The businesswomen of Lockney plan a reception for any dignitaries that may be attending the fair. This is being sponsored by the women's clubs of Lockney and Floydada.

The next meeting, and the final meeting prior to the 1964 Fair will be held September 14, just two days before the Fair opens, which will apparently be the best the County has produced yet.

Contract Signed For Printing Rutherford Book

Plainview — Blanche Scott Rutherford of Plainview, formerly of Floyd County, has recently signed a contract with the Naylor Company of San Antonio for the publication of "One Corner of Heaven," a regional history of the Great Plains from the days of the pioneers to the jet age.

The author was urged to write this much needed account after winning first prize in a contest sponsored by the Panhandle Plains Museum at Canyon, Texas, for her essay based on the history of her home community — Harmony — in Floyd County.

Mrs. Rutherford is a graduate of West Texas State Teacher's College which is now West Texas University and she also attended Texas Technological College and the University of Colorado. A former elementary school teacher for thirty one years, she is now teaching a young adults class in the Methodist Sunday School at St. John's Church.

Briscoe County League Of Demo Women Name Speaker

H. M. Baggary, publisher of the Tullia Herald, Tullia, will be guest speaker for a meeting of the Briscoe County League of Democratic Women, according to an announcement made today by Mrs. W. E. Schott, jr. of Silverton, League president.

The meeting will be held at 8:00 p.m., Thursday, August 20, in the Quitaque High School Auditorium, Quitaque. The public is invited to attend along with members of the League of Democratic Women and their husbands.

Baggary, whose editorial columns consistently win top area, state and national awards, attended West Texas State University, the University of Missouri, Harvard University, holds B.A. and M.A. degrees, and has done additional graduate work. Before becoming active in the field of newspaper publishing, he was a business teacher in the Tullia schools.

He was a naval lieutenant during World War II and served as an aide to Admiral Chester W. Nimitz. He participated in an NBC panel during the Little Rock crisis, and in 1960 traveled with President Lyndon Johnson as a member of his staff.

In addition to writing several columns and the news stories for the Tullia Herald, he has weekly commentaries on radio stations in Texas and New Mexico, including KIXZ, Amarillo; KPDN, Pampa; KHUZ, Borger; KTUE, Tullia; KBIM, Roswell; KENM, Portales; KSVF, Artesia; KHSU, Abilene; and KLMX, Clayton.

Baggary, a dedicated Democrat, traveled to New York recently to receive a National Editorial Association award. While on the trip he conducted his own poll of the Republicans with whom he came in contact—cab drivers, the man on the street, newspapermen. Many had been Republicans all their lives and some had been delegates to national conventions in past years. The trip was made before the 1964 Republican National Convention, but he was able to receive first-hand information from the "grassroots" voters in the East regarding the Goldwater nomination.

All residents of this area, regardless of their political party affiliations, are invited to hear Mr. Baggary in Quitaque on August 20. There will be no admission charged, and refreshments will be served.

FREEZING FRUIT
One of the greatest pleasures in owning a food freezer comes from the enjoyment of fresh, delicious fruits, out of season — without strain on the family budget.

Fruit is such an essential part of a healthy diet that it behooves every good homemaker to spend some time to determine the best methods of preserving fruit by freezing—determining the ways in which fruit best fits into the program of daily living for her own family.

We all know that freezing fruit is far simpler than canning fruit — and also much easier than freezing vegetables. By planning ahead and organizing your work before you start a quantity of fruit can be prepared, packaged and placed in the freezer within a couple of hours or such time.

Since we feel that fruit is a daily "must" — if we feed our families well nutritionally speaking—be sure to allow ample space for a nice variety when you are planning your freezer program for the year.

SIMPLE TOOLS DO THE WORK—little special equipment is needed — just the everyday things you use in your kitchen are in most cases all you will need.

SAFELY SPEAKING, by Employers Mutuals of Wausau; Wausau, Wisconsin. DON'T MIX HOUSEHOLD CLEANERS!

Two housewives were stricken under similar circumstances when both decided to add some household bleach to toilet bowl cleaner, to see if the mixture would be more effective. So these two women, in their respective homes, added the bleach, stirred with a brush . . . and death came to one in a few minutes; the other survived, but spent a long, long time in a hospital.

A medical newsletter reported that twenty people were overcome by toxic gases released from a do-it-yourself cleaner — a regular witches' brew of cleanser, Chlorine bleach, and ammonia. It's important for every housewife to know that poisonous gas may be generated if chlorine bleach is added to an acid or acid-producing substance such as toilet bowl cleaner or plain vinegar. If bleach is mixed with other alkaline matter such as ammonia or lye, the chemical action liberates a highly irritating gas which, when inhaled, can cause serious injury and possibly death.

DON'T mix any cleaners. Read and heed the labels on all household products. Follow the manufacturer's instructions to the letter. Keep all household chemicals out of the reach of children, and keep them well separated from food and medicines.

Steve Arney is in Plainview this week visiting his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. James Welborn. Stevie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Arney.

Gloria Sparks spent the weekend in Lubbock, visiting Miss Charlie Caldwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Collins.

Melinda Goen of Lubbock, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Goen and her brother Mark.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kelly and daughter, of Paradise, Texas, and Richard Kelly and son, of Denton, spent the weekend with the Guffeys.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Higginbotham, Kelly and Bryant; Mrs. Ruby Lee Higginbotham and her son, Bud Higginbotham of South Plains were Lubbock visitors last Saturday.

Mrs. Clarence Ashton and her mother-in-law, Mrs. R. R. Ashton, were co-op visitors early Friday morning. Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Ashton were co-op members when they lived on the farm in the Campbell community — always nice to have old friends

Here's a modern tip for making old-fashioned sauerkraut. It comes from food specialists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Research Service, who have recently developed a variety of pickle and relish recipes.

When making sauerkraut, they suggest you use a plastic bag filled with water as a cover for the cabbage during fermentation. The bag, which should be made of heavyweight, watertight plastic intended for use with foods, will fit snugly against the cabbage and against the sides of the container. The bag of water can be closed securely with a string.

It does the same thing as the plate and rock Grandma used to use. It seals the surface from exposure to air and prevents the growth of film yeast and molds. It also serves as a weight to keep the cabbage submerged in the brine.

Mrs. Clyde Farish of the Lone Star Community came by Monday morning for recipes and a visit. It had been a long time since she had been to see us, everyone it seems stays so busy nowadays—but it is still true nevertheless. "Old friends are like old shoes so comfortable and nice to have around" . . . do come again soon.

We were glad to see Mrs. Carl Denison Monday. She is out again after some three week's stay in the hospital not too long ago. Carl and Beulah were members of the Annual Meeting Planning Committee a year or so ago.

With fresh peach time here again there has been a number of requests for the peach pickle recipe given to me by a friend in Montrose Colorado. The pickles are supposed to keep without sealing (and they do, for I made some last year and they are just as nice as when first made and I did not seal them.)

August 10—My! How good the good rain last Friday night. It was much cooler and since. The amount of rain in the east is so much in the east. Mr. and Mrs. reported more than half inches of rain.

Good crowds and good Sunday Baptist Sunday.

Ragsdale, Maxine, were with her grand- parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bass, and attended Sunday School at Cal-

They waded in the Pacific Ocean, saw many beautiful mountains, rivers and came thru Yellowstone Park. They visited in Denver going and coming with a niece and family of Florence's.

Some ten states were crossed and enjoyed in the rounds. What a treat for people where raised "on these baldies." (Good place any how).

It is nice to have a vacation trip—rests you, and broadens your perspective. But home is a good place to hang your hat.

Our sympathy is with those who have lost loved ones recently — among those gone is Mrs. Poole.

The J. E. Greens and the Clyde Greens reached home last Monday evening from a trip down state. They visited briefly in Hillsboro on the way down with Mrs. Green's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Mathews. Then went on to Texas City — the coolest place we found — where we visited till Friday night with the J. M. Rymon Jrs.

Friday we came to Moody where the Sr. Greens stopped to visit the hubby's sister and some of her sons and families—11 in all.

Sunday one of them brought us to Hubbard, where twenty two Green relatives came in the afternoon.

Meanwhile, the Clyde Greens were visiting the wife's relatives in the Dallas area. They had a reunion at Possum Kingdom on Sunday.

Clyde came for us Monday morning—we picked up his family at Possum Kingdom and reached Floydada Monday night. Clyde and his family left for home at Perla, N. Mex. Tuesday. Incidentally, we mention for former Centerites that the Clyde Greens have answered again the "Call of the Wild", and plan to leave for Hoono, Alaska soon where they are to teach this coming year. Anyway, we all had a wonderful time. Even spent some time at the beach at Galveston.

The Greens visited the R. H. Ashtons awhile Wednesday. Mrs. Green visited Mrs. Walter Sims Thursday morning.

Mrs. J. B. Jordan of Albuquerque, N. Mex., was visiting in town last Wednesday with the Travis Lightfoots. As time was short (she came from Canyon with the W. B. Harrises) Maurine spent some time calling former Centerites around to say "Hello."

Mrs. C. W. Denison visited briefly at the Green home this Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Frank Dunn reached home last Thursday after an extended trip and visits into the Great Northwest. She accompanied her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Montgomery of Plainview, who were members of the Layman's Crusade for the West Coast staged last month by Texas Southern Baptists.

We understand Bro. R. C. Hodges was part of the Crusade, also, from First Baptist Church, Plainview.

District Agricultural Agent Retiring Aug. 31

COLLEGE STATION, August 12 (Sp) — W. H. (Bud) Jones, Lubbock based district agricultural agent for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service since September 1950, is retiring on August 31. He began his Extension career in 1934 as county agricultural agent in Delta County.

In making the announcement, Director John E. Hutchison of the Service, said Jones would be succeeded by Billy C. ... agronomist and a former associate county agricultural agent in Hale County and area farm management specialist for the Service. His headquarters have been in Lubbock since 1959.

During the 14 years Jones has supervised the Service's educational programs in the South Plains district, changes have been the watchword. In order to keep pace with the changes in the area's great agricultural industry, a strong staff of subject matter specialists has been assigned to the district office and the still developing South Plains Research and Extension Center. A move, Director Hutchison said, which puts the subject matter specialists in the field and readily available for assisting with problems as they arise in the counties. The Service's Soil Testing Laboratory, established in cooperation with the Plains Soil Testing Lab Committee, is another achievement of the period.

Many instances could be cited during the 14-year period, the director said, to show the value of Extension's demonstration method of teaching new and improved practices to both adult farmers and 4-H Club members and for introducing new and improved crop varieties. It is sufficient to say, he added, that agriculture on the South Plains has continued to keep pace with that of any other section of the state and nation. Research and Extension have made many contributions to the ever-changing situation, he said.

The retiring district agent is a native of Hood County; a graduate of Texas A&M University with a B. S. degree in agricultural education and possesses a long and distinguished record of service to Texas agriculture. Prior to his first Extension assignment in 1934, he taught school at Mathis and vocational agriculture at Pilot Point and served as a land appraiser.

He was transferred from Delta to Gregg County as county agent in 1942 and to the same position in Grayson County in 1945. He was named a district agent in East Texas in 1947 where he served until his transfer to Lubbock in 1950.

Director Hutchison said, we wish for Mr. and Mrs. Jones many more fruitful years in whatever fields they choose to enter. Bud has been a loyal and dedicated employee and we shall miss him very much, he added.

The new district agent is a native of Crosby County and did his growing up on South Plains farms. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Gunter, farm in the O'Donnell area. He is a graduate of Texas A & M University with a B.S. degree in agronomy and has completed all course work and residence requirements for a master's degree in the same field at Texas Technological College.

He farmed with his father during his youth and was one of the area's outstanding 4-H members. He served in the U. S. Army from 1951-53 and now holds the rank of Captain in the Reserves. He was employed by the Soil Conservation Service before

Gregorys Receive Letter From Foreign Exchange Student Soon To Arrive Here

Editor's Note: The following letter was received from Marleen Kessels in Holland in the Howard Gregorys'. Marleen will be the Floydada high school exchange student and will live with the Gregorys.

Cadler on Keer, August 1st, 1964 Dear Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gregory, Vicki, Britt, Jacky Ray and Lisa.

Today (August 1st) I received a letter from Floydada, Texas. You can imagine how glad I felt because weeks and weeks I waited for a letter from A.F.S. Amsterdam or a letter from the U.S.A. I received several letters from A.F.S. Amsterdam, but the contents did not tell me very much. Each time I could read: may be you get a scholarship, may be you have a chance, perhaps this perhaps that. But today I read a letter that made me the happiest girl of whole Holland. I think it marvelous to be with you in Texas. Not only I do think so, but my parents, especially my father is glad that I arrived in a farmers family. I saw your house on the photo. What a beautiful house! It has nothing of a farm. Why is it so big? And you don't have any cattle? I believe I will be lost in it each day! When I am with you I shall explain how our farm is constructed. It is quite different from yours! You can imagine that I am very busy change student and will live with the Gregorys. Cadler on Keer, August 1st, 1964 Dear Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gregory, Vicki, Britt, Jacky Ray and Lisa.

Two weeks ago I was in Rotterdam to meet other boys and girls who received also a scholarship. (See GREGORYS, Page 8) but now because I only know since two weeks that it is certain but I will make the voyage to the U. S. A. The whole village Cadler on Keer asks me questions about America. It is true you are going to the U.S.A? And then my answer proud and quick: Yes, August 5th I am leaving Holland for one year. And when do you go? Floydada, Texas on a farm with 4 children. I am the first inhabitant of Cadler on Keer (2000 inhabitants) who goes to America so I will have to answer very many question when I am back again.

Cadler on Keer is situated next to Margraten. There is an American Cemetery for soldiers who died in the second World War. I will bring some photos of it. I am curious to know whether there are many boys and girls in Texas Tech College. Is it Vicky who attends this school with me? Are there also horses in your town? I do hope to ride on a horse one day. I think a horse the most beautiful animal that exists.

UP — AND JOB COMPLETE — Friday morning there was plenty of help when the group started raising their tent poles in place. At that is lacking is the pews, and a speaker. The tent was used for a revival at the First Baptist Church.

"HEARTS OF MEN"

Senator Barry Goldwater was asked recently how he could consistently summon the prestige of the Presidency to support the civil rights bill, which he regards as unconstitutional. His non-answer took a variety of rhetorical flights, coming to rest finally at an old point: "This is not a matter for law but for the hearts of men."

That drew the burst of applause it always gets from an audience that does not wish to stop segregation; but most of us recognize it as a dodge.

Of course "human decency cannot be legislated." But the expression of human indecency can be legislated against. Obviously we cannot get rid of racial prejudice by legislation alone. Neither can we get rid of rape, murder, or embezzlement by legislation alone, but no one suggests that therefore we do not need laws prohibiting them.

Lust and greed and malice are buried in the heart of man, where no law reaches. All that the law can do . . . all it was ever intended to do . . . is protect us from men whose hearts are socially menacing.

The public accommodations provisions will not imbue Atlantic cafe host Lester Maddox with a sense of human dignity. But it can make him lay that pistol down. And only when the pistols (as well as the barriers in church, school, and hash house) go down can the hearts of Americans everywhere go up.

The good Lord gave us 100 years to have the grace to love all mankind (regardless of skin color) . . . we haven't accepted his offer. Now his judgement comes in the form of civil rights law.

INFLATION INVITATION

Now that Congress has voted a salary increase for itself, members of the executive branch and most government workers, it appears in the mood to hike military pay as well.

The action may seem justified, notwithstanding the fact that a rather substantial increase for all the armed services was voted just last October. But it is not, nor were many of the civilian pay raises voted recently. Government employment is already more attractive than most private jobs.

Certainly the serviceman — particularly one in the lower ranks — find that Uncle Sam was putting an extra $500 million a year into the kitty for his civilian hirelings would be inclined to want the same windfall.

That factor was recognized by the Senate Armed Services Committee with the acknowledgment that the military pay boost bill would not have come out except for passage of the raise for federal workers.

President Johnson strongly backed both proposals. One wonders, however, how successful he will now be in persuading organized labor to refrain from a new round of wage demands this year.

Purpose Of Public Notice

This publication, this week, as it has the past two weeks, will run a series of articles on public notice in order to inform the citizens in this area of this most important aspect of public print. The best example of this kind of public notice is seen in the publication of the constitutional amendments each year by the state of Texas. These constitutional amendments are paid for by the State to give the voters an opportunity to study them several weeks prior to the date of election. This year, Texans will vote on three constitutional amendments on November 3, 1964, the date of the general election.

If you, as a citizen of Texas have not as yet read these amendments by now, you should do so this week or within the next two weeks, for they are only published four times.

Why should you read them, then, study them, understand their implications? Because it is your civic duty to do so. Because your vote is the most precious thing you have for by casting it unwisely, you have or can defeat good legislation; but on the other hand, a wise vote can defeat poor, unwanted legislative acts.

Are you interested in seeing that your local school district receives more money? That your tax dollar does not support sectarian schools? Read the first of the proposed amendments.

It's The Driver Who Counts

Law enforcement officials, editors and any of the public concerned with the appalling toll of traffic accidents feel a common futility about how to cope with the problem.

There are many causes, and various remedies have been advanced by experts.

But a Dallas citizen, in a letter to a newspaper in that city, speaks more truth in blunt language than all of the learned dissertations on the subject we have seen.

Speaking of drivers' tests, the Dallas man writes: "We're not caused by people who do not know how to drive. Most of them are caused by the idiot who doesn't care. Grounding the habitual lawbreaker is more important than drivers' tests."

Drivers' tests are essential, and serve a good purpose, but they alone do not guarantee traffic safety.

The intent of the driver behind the wheel toward law enforcement and toward the rights of others, unquestionably is the greatest factor bearing on traffic safety.

Texas' toll of accidents and deaths is increasing and unless the trend is reversed, and it seems unlikely, this will wind up a grisly year indeed.

This problem deserves the most careful attention of the 59th Texas Legislature which will convene next January. Every cause and every measure relating to improving traffic safety should be considered.

If the laws need to be stricter on revocation of licenses of incoercible drivers, it should be done.

Let us hope that the legislature does not become so burdened and preoccupied with the problems of congressional redistricting, legislative redistricting, teachers' salaries and higher education that the crisis on our streets and highways is slighted.

Newsletter

Senator John Tower today charged that the Supreme Court "has vastly exceeded its authority" in ruling that both houses of all state legislatures be apportioned on the basis of population alone. In his weekly radio report to Texas constituents, Tower said that "the order flies in the face of American tradition and would upset the constitutions of at least 44 states."

Tower is cosponsor of a bill to amend the Constitution, which would reverse the Court's decision. He said that he believes that "the apportionment of legislatures is matter reserved by the Federal Constitution of the states alone. I don't think it is either wise or legal for the U.S. Supreme Court to dictate to the States in this manner. . . . I believe the Supreme Court decision wrecks those checks and balances set up by our founding fathers."

In an attempt to correct the situation, Tower said that he was "following the legal, constitution amending process" so that the states might be assured of the right to elect one legislative house on a basis other than population.

The full text of Senator Tower's report follows:

Many things are being considered here in Congress this week, in the end-of-session rush, but it is likely none of them will have a greater long-run effect upon our state than the Supreme Court decision forcing redistricting of our Legislature.

As you may know, that decision required that both houses of all state legislatures be apportioned on the basis of population alone. Of course, that Supreme Court order flies in the face of American tradition and would upset the constitutions of at least 44 states including ours.

I have joined this week with Senator Dirksen of Illinois in sponsoring a Constitutional Amendment which would reverse this decision. The amendment would allow states with two-house legislatures to continue present practice and to base membership of one of the houses on something other than population. I also support legislation which would delay implementation of that decision.

Now, this does not mean that I agree with the present overrepresentation of rural areas in the legislatures of some states. I believe with equal certainty that the apportionment of those legislatures is a matter reserved by the Federal Constitution to the states alone. I don't think it is either wise or legal for the U.S. Supreme Court to dictate to the States in this manner.

It has been 175 years since the adoption of the Constitution of the United States. That document never has been equalled in its profound concern for the protection of all the people's rights and interests—whether they are majority or minority, great or small, rich or poor.

Our constitution exercised its genius in government by establishing a Federal system of carefully limited powers, with all other authority residing in the states and their people. One of the most wonderful features of the Constitution is a legislative branch divided into two houses; one based on population and the other on geography, or actually on what we call the federal plan.

Dear Fellow Texan: The Senate has passed the bill to sharply reduce the 11 percent rate of meat imports by as much as one-half. This is the single most important bill, in so far as the Texas agricultural economy is concerned, to come before Congress this year. I worked and voted for this bill, testifying for its passage before the Senate Finance Committee and advocating it in Senate debate.

The Senate has also passed the Economic Opportunity Act to help with the employment, education and training of those who do not share in the benefits of our strong economy. This is the most significant bill of its kind since the National Defense Education Act of 1958, and I am proud to have co-sponsored both.

In addition, the Federal Constitution carefully provided that the legislative and judicial branches of the government were separated, and a method for amending the Constitution is carefully provided.

But, in its June decision on legislative reapportionment, the Supreme Court chose to bypass the legal amending process and by judicial decree, ordered a basic change in our political system.

The Court's remarkable new theory is based upon the contention that state legislators were meant to represent only people; not trees, or cattle or oil wells. These judges, who are elected by nobody and who serve for life—or for good behavior which means for life—say that population can be the only basis for a legislature.

In my view, the Supreme Court's position bluntly negates the American system of checks and balances which has preserved minority rights and made our nation a successful republic.

In fact, our system has, since 1789, functioned and prospered upon a theory quite contrary to the Court's view that people are just numbers. American democracy always has understood that people are not merely ciphers to be counted. People are a complex amalgam of their hopes and fears and interests and concerns.

Legislators cannot represent their constituents merely because there are 20,000 constituents. Legislators must speak for all the interests of their constituents; for their interests in cattle, and oil, and cotton, and highways, and homes—many of which interests are reflected by the place where voters live.

No one would argue that the interests of Dallas County are identical with those of Starr County, for example. And yet, under American democracy's checks and balances the interests of

OTHER BILLS PASSED — WATER RESEARCH, MILITARY PAY RAISE

S. 2, the bill authorizing establishment of water resources research centers at land-grant colleges and state universities, was signed into law July 17. I was a co-sponsor of the bill.

We have also passed the military pay raise bill, which I supported, and which will be meaningful not only to the five percent of the Texas population who are either servicemen or in military families, but also to the many areas in Texas economically dependent on military payrolls.

This pay raise excluded some 800,000 young servicemen with less than 2 years in uniform in grades E-1 to E-5 — grades in which the pay has not been raised in 12 years. I introduced an amendment, which was defeated, to include this group in the pay raise as an act of justice, and I regret that the troops who do the hard work were discriminated against.

Many warrant officers and others faced with loss of their civil service jobs through new interpretations of archaic laws will be pleased by Senate passage of the Dual Compensation Bill, relieving them from the threatened obligation to repay salaries they have earned in their jobs. It was my pleasure to manage this bill through Senate passage as Chairman of the Civil Service Subcommittee.

SCREW WORM ERADICATION I have asked the chairman of the Subcommittee on Agricultural Appropriations to assist in the appropriation of $5,500,000 to continue the highly effective screw worm eradication program in the Southwest. Screw worms enter Texas from Mexico and are fatal to stock and wildlife. Cattlemen have been working in cooperation with the Department of Agriculture on a $12 million program to create a barrier zone along the border to eliminate these flies. But local funds will soon be exhausted. We are faced with an international problem, and research findings convince me it can be solved.

Firmness In Viet Nam Deserves Our Support

Lyndon B. Johnson, more often than not, has done things I haven't agreed with. I've always thought of him more as a politician than a statesman.

Somehow I've come to think more of him since he became president. I'm not certain of all the reasons why.

One of them is probably the fact that the President of the United States is due the respect of every American, regardless of whether we agree wholeheartedly with him or not.

Maybe the fact that Lyndon is a Texan who has made good has something to do with my regard for him.

The first reason I cited is a valid one. Everyone should respect the office of the president of the United States.

The second reason shouldn't make any difference. We shouldn't think more—or less—of a person because he is a Texan—or a Democrat—or a Republican—or a cowboy—or a movie star—or anything you want to name.

These are simply labels, or names which sometimes hide the real man.

I still think of Lyndon B. Johnson as a politician, however, because that's what he is.

I've worried at times whether "politicians" are good for the country.

The connotation of the word, it seems to me, is that such people look out for themselves, sometimes at the expense of people they represent.

I wouldn't have put this past Lyndon—before he became president. I think, in fact, it is part of the reason he has risen to the high office he now holds.

Regardless of what I think, however, or the rest of the nation thinks about Lyndon B. Johnson for pre-presidential days, it is a fact that he now is making the country a strong president.

His action this week in the firm stand he took in the Viet Nam situation is an example.

I think the entire country is behind him in this stand even Barry Goldwater — and the entire country should be.

STRONG CHURCHES Make STRONG COMMUNITIES

That Summer Afternoon

I'll never forget the day we took this picture. The sun was shining brightly and we'd gone for a ride in the country, my husband Tom, Thelma and I. We came to this field full of daisies and we stopped, and I braided a crown of flowers for Thelma's head. She was wearing a brand new dress and she had a new little parasol too. I thought she looked like just about the happiest and prettiest little girl alive.

How thankful I was! For our Thelma had just weathered her first serious illness, and for several weeks there had been days and nights of incredible anxiety and heart-rending prayer.

Now, watching Thelma in her new-found health, I thought of our church. Not only our minister, but members of the congregation, people whom I scarcely knew, had rallied to our side during Thelma's illness.

Just having them — just knowing that they were adding their prayers to ours, had meant so much. And now, I knew, they were sharing our jubilation.

How sorry I feel for people who don't go to church. For they miss one of life's great truths — the knowledge that if you have the Church, you can never again be alone.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL - ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

ALL-SOUTHWEST CONFERENCE as a sophomore last season, halfback Donnie Anderson and his Texas Tech teammates face another rugged football schedule. Texas Tech Faces Another Tough Schedule In 1964

LUBBOCK — Three bowl participants lead off Texas Tech's home football schedule this fall. First three foes in Jones Stadium for Coach J. T. King's Red Raiders are Mississippi State, the Liberty Bowl winner; University of Texas, the Cotton Bowl champion; and Southern Methodist, nipped by a touchdown in the Sun Bowl. Completing the six-game home card are West Texas State, Washington State, and University of Arkansas.

Road contests are with Texas A&M, Texas Christian, Baylor and Rice. Mississippi State opens the home slate at 7:30 p.m. Sept. 19. Wade Walker, former Texas Tech assistant coach, is MSU athletic director, and Vic Spooner, who played end for Tech, is an assistant coach there. Texas, gunning for another national championship, will be met in night game a week later, Sept. 26.

(Continued From Page 1) ship from the A.F.S. Everyone knew already where he was going to stay. Except me. But I believe no one is going to have it so nice as I am going to have it. I hope I will learn very much in Floydada and Lubbock. I am almost convinced of it that I will not get homesick. Everybody tells me: Cadier en keer is not the next door of Texas. Now I have been writing all the time about myself. I can't help it for I'm feeling so glad. But you will hear more about my family, friends and country when I am in Floydada. Now I must leave you. I hope I will see you soon in Lubbock. I send my best wishes and the best wishes of my parent, brothers and sisters. Yours, Marleen.

August 4th, '64 It is a pity and I am very sorry, but yesterday the secretary of A.F.S. Amsterdam phoned me and told me that it would be impossible to leave Holland August 5th because I still have not got the forms for my visa. Those forms must come from New York. I will have to take ship August 31st. We will have to wait some weeks. I hope this letter will be soon in Floydada. I'm waiting now for a letter from you. My best wishes. Yours, Marleen.

| TOWER (Continued from Page 1) Starr County cannot be submerged and swept aside simply because there are more people in Dallas County. Our founding fathers painstakingly set up the checks and balances of our system to protect all Americans. I believe the Supreme Court decision wrecks those checks and balances. Therefore, I am following the legal constitutional amending process in an attempt to assure that our state, and all states, may continue to choose one legislative house on the basis of population and the other on a check-and-balance basis such as geography, or such as number of registered voters or political subdivisions—however a state chooses to make that selection. I think that the Supreme Court has vastly exceeded its authority; I think it's high time the Congress paid attention to its mandate in Article III, Section 2 of the Constitution, which holds that the Supreme Court shall have appellate jurisdiction subject to such exceptions and regulations as the Congress shall make. | Santa Rosa Crushed, No. 300 Can |     |
