

Revival Meeting Closes Here

SOUTH PLAINS, August 24 — Rev. Sealy Smith closed out a week of wonderful revival meetings of the Northfield Baptist Church where Rev. H. S. Calahan Jr., is pastor. Sunday night there were 6 additions to the church, with one boy surrendering to preach, and 3 professions of faith.

This Monday morning, Rev. Smith and his family have gone to Grapevine, Tex., where they will be present at the last rites for Thomas McCain, father of Mrs. Fred Fortenberry. They will go to Dallas Tuesday where Rev. Smith will attend to some business in connection with the Latin-American Crusade. He is publicity chairman for the Crusade which goes on from August 30-October 11. They will be home Wednesday.

We offer our expression of sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fortenberry in the passing of her father, Thomas McCain, of Grapevine, who was fatally injured in a car accident two weeks ago here in Grapevine. Fred had gone back there last Friday and they had brought the father here to the Lockney hospital Monday, and he had grown steadily worse the past week, then succumbed to head injuries sustained in the wreck on Sunday morning, Aug. 23, around 8:30. The Fortenberry family left Sunday evening for Grapevine, where this Tuesday morning, August 25, services for Thomas McCain, 75, were held at 10 a.m. at Whites Chapel in the Methodist Church in Grapevine. The family and other members plan to come home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Y'Blood of Medford, Oregon were house guests of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Early Pritchett and boys from Monday to Thursday of last week, after a trip back to Little Rock, Ark., and other interesting places. Wednesday the Pritchetts and guests, the Y'Bloods went up to Canyon to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Price Pritchett.

Jimmy Pritchett came home last week end from Canyon where he has been attending West Texas State University both summer terms, the past few months, and will be with his parents until the fall semester starts at Canyon. Bill Bledsoe is home from Texas Tech, as is Johnny Calahan, and all the boys will have a few weeks at home before college classes start in September.

Rev. and Mrs. H. S. Calahan Jr., Barry, C. thy, Dian and Vickie plan to leave soon for Abilene, where both June and Junior will enter Hardin Simmons University this fall, and on week ends they will come back up to Northfield Baptist Church where he pastors, and go back and forth.

Mr. and Mrs. Arby Mulder went out to Clovis, New Mex., Wednesday of last week to be with their son, the Nathan Mulders, and they were there until Friday night to attend the services for Rev. and Mrs. Bill Rowland who were killed in the accident at Rogersville, Tenn. last Saturday afternoon, as Nathan and Kathy and her parents were coming home from the wedding of Kathy's sister, Linda.

DIDN'T MAKE IT — Kenneth Robertson, catcher for the Floydada Seed and Delinting Softball Team, is shown just before he hit the dirt and was tagged out at home by the Calvary Baptist catcher in the first game of the tournament finals held in Floydada last week and the first two nights of this week. Locals Prefer "Status Quo" In 19th District

Two local men, each representing different political factions, attended a meet held in the Lubbock Courthouse last Thursday before a committee of eight selected by Governor John Connally. The locals were John Reue and John Farris.

The committee has heard the pleas of people in the Houston, Dallas, Ft. Worth, Lubbock areas and others in reference to preferences to districts, and objections to redistricting.

The committee made it known that the Supreme Court can and will redistrict, using population only as a basis and not taking into consideration geographical locations.

The locals let the committee know that Floyd County is in the district it prefers to be in and desires to stay put.

Several proposals heard at the hearing would put Floyd County in a group consisting of counties off the caprock. The locals said that Floyd County did not want to be put in with either the 13th or 17th districts, for this county

MRS. FRANK GOEN (nee Suzie Badgett)

Suzie Badgett, Frank Goen Wed In Double Ring Vows

An arch candelabra holding white Cathedral candles and covered with palm jade, flanked by urns of large white mums and white pom pom mums formed the wedding scene August 21 for Suzie Badgett and Frank Goen.

The double-ring ceremony was performed before a white kneeling bench in the First Methodist Church with Paul Fullerton of Abilene officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Badgett and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Elton Goen all of Floydada.

A street length gown of white peau-de-soie was worn by the bride. It featured a portrait neckline and long, petal point sleeves with a long tulle bodice, which was accented by re-embroidered Alencon lace motifs outlined with seed pearls. The lace also enhanced the controlled bell shaped skirt which extended to a full bufant in the back with a tiny fabric bow at the waist. Her shoulder length veil of imported silk illusion fell from a tiny pill box highlighted with Alencon lace and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of semi-crescent design holding three white Mission Delores orchids surrounded in garlands of white stephanotis blossoms and streamers of white bridal satin caught in loops.

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father.

Anna Badgett, Floydada, cousin of the bride was maid of honor. She wore a street length dress of yellow taffeta and carried a cascade bouquet of yellow rosebuds trimmed in yellow bridal satin.

Jo Christi and Rande Lu Brown, cousins of the bride, were candlelighters. They were attired in yellow taffeta dresses with nylon organza overskirts. Each wore wristlets of small yellow Sweet heart rosebuds.

Bob Goen, brother of the groom, served as best man and Wesley Johnson was usher.

Miss Lana Davis, at the organ, accompanied Miss Wren Patterson as she sang, "Whither Thou Goest" and "The Lord's Prayer".

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Badgett selected a royal blue dress with white accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a three-piece navy suit with baby blue blouse and hat with white accessories. Each wore shoulder corsages of mauve colored Cymbidium orchids and the organist and soloist complimented their attire with corsages of yellow rosebuds.

The home of the bride's parents was the setting for the reception which followed. The serving table was centered with a pyramid shaped arrangement of white Fujii mums and white pom poms in a crystal stem bowl. The centerpiece was flanked by a branched candelabra.

Mr. and Mrs. Goen left immediately following the wedding for Ruidoso, N.M., and will return to Fort Worth where they will make their home at 402 1/2 Worth St., Bayworth Apts.

For travel the bride changed to a tiffany blue suit with black accessories and an orchid corsage.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Goen attended school in Floydada. The bride also attended the Floral School at Denver, Colo. Her husband plans to attend the Gupton-Jones Dallas Institute of Mortuary Science.

Mrs. Baker Celebrates 97th Year

Mrs. Alice Baker, a resident of Lockney for the past 74 years, celebrated her 97th birthday Wednesday, August 26th. Mrs. Baker is a resident of the Lockney Convalescent Home. A gathering of friends and relatives L. M. Honea, Mrs. Seaman, Mrs.

to mark Mrs. Baker's birthday was held Sunday.

The honoree was born on August 26, 1876 at Edom, in Van Zant County, Tex. She was an only child and never knew her father, him being killed accidentally six months prior to her birth. She was reared by an uncle and at the age of 18 was married to James A. Baker. Five years after their marriage the couple moved with their three children to Floyd County.

Mrs. Baker's husband purchased land and started a "New Lockney", due to bickering of four land owners where the old townsite was located.

The first building was a general store and the Bakers even had a bank in the building. She was storekeeper, postmistress and a banker while Mr. Baker was freighting.

He died in 1917 and Mrs. Baker continued operating the business. The first of the stores still being used by the Baker Mercantile Co., was built in 1911 when the business moved across the street from its former location. Additions were added in 1917. The firm still uses all three of the buildings.

Two daughters, Mrs. Dimple McGavock and Mrs. Lee Seaman operate the mercantile department and Jack Whitfill manages the hardware and dry goods section.

Mr. and Mrs. Baker were parents of 12 children. One, Larry Baker of Lubbock, died two years ago. The remaining 11 are Mrs. gathering of friends and relatives L. M. Honea, Mrs. Seaman, Mrs.

Lockney Sets Homecoming November 6

The Lockney Homecoming, held each five years, has been set by the Homecoming committee at a meeting held Monday night at Lockney...

The event will begin with registration at 10:00 a.m. A general assembly will be held in the high school auditorium at 2:00 and a pep rally will follow at 3:00 or 3:15.

The football game will climax the Homecoming and will be followed by a social and dance in the American Legion Hall.

At the meeting held Monday night, there were 23 classes represented. The 1923 graduating class was the earliest one represented. About 50 people attended the planning session.

Soil Test Now For Next Wheat Crop

The application of sufficient fertilizer, in proper balance to correct soil deficiencies, is now accepted as one of the most profitable single practices in Floyd County.

Floyd County soils vary greatly in their ability to supply nitrogen and phosphorus. The soil test remains the best single guide for determining the amount and grade of fertilizer needed.

Data from research conducted on the Pullman soils indicate time of nitrogen application is not a major factor where wheat is being grown for grain only.

If the soil test indicates a deficiency of phosphorus, the phosphate should be applied in such a manner that it will remain in moist soil—in reach of permanent roots.

Taking soil samples now will insure getting your report back in plenty of time for final planning and fertilizer application.

Last Gas Tax Exemption Filing Day Sept. 30

According to Darrell Smith, Assistant County Agricultural Extension Agent, September 30 is the last day a person can file claim for the Federal tax exemption on gasoline used on a farm.

Caprock

(Continued From Page 1) ... then on number seven he was still in pretty good shape having shot par for the first six. However, on number seven he missed an easy putt... and he got mad in a hurry. He crossed back over the cup and back handed what should have been an easy shot and missed again. As his temper began to rise, he finally got the ball in the cup... walked off the green and quit the tournament. Later he stated at the clubhouse he regretted that he had let his temper get the best of him and wished he hadn't pulled out... however, he said when he got mad, he was not going to make a spectacle of himself and break a club or throw a tantrum!... and another thing, he said his wife had already told him he was spending too much time golfing and had not wanted him to enter the tournament here anyway. BOBBY Westfall and everyone who helped set up this year's tournament are to be congratulated for a very outstanding golfing event. There were many well known golfers from all over the state, and although John Farquhar of Amarillo took the trophy, he was not up and tuck for second place and several local golfers were in the competition when the tournament was over. MUCH has been said about recharging underground water by draining or pumping lake water back underground... and this of course is good. Although, this hasn't been a year for water in lakes. I think I should mention that my future neighbor John Shrader got his irrigation well recharged about two weeks ago. We had just dug three 20 foot cesspools and a two inch rain hit one night and filled up the cesspools. John's irrigation well isn't far away, so he should have a good supply of water for some time. (Some of you didn't know it had rained that much all year... anywhere in the county). WE THOUGHT the first bale of 1964 cotton that was brought in by Buck and Mack Hickerson might be the earliest on record, but the folks down at the Floyd County Co-op Gin report a first bale on August 17 in 1966. If you'll get out and drive over the county, you'll see a very beautiful cotton crop. This year's crop is early and its loading up for another bumper crop. THERE'S always some smart aleck newspaper man who thinks he should give his local football coach some advice about his time of year. I suppose Coach Bill Curry has been waiting for me to tell him what to do about that six foot, six inch, 285 pounder on the Littlefield and Peggy spent the weekend at Dallas visiting her mother, Mrs. T. S. Parks, Sr., and also with Mrs. Bobbie Brande. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brackett, Lubbock, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Blanton. Other visitors to the Blantons and Mrs. Maggie Goodson were Mr. and Mrs. Tommy and family and Ted Goodson all of Amarillo. Miss Ruth Bartley and Miss Susan Cherry, Crosbyton, spent the weekend in Ralls with Mrs. Mattie Callaway while her daughter, Mrs. Lenora Tinnin was out of town.

Miss Frances Knight and her parents of Mineral Wells visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Barnhart on Monday afternoon. Miss Knight has just returned from three years mission ary service in Nigeria under the Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board. She will be in the states for one year. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parker and Brad, Lubbock, visited Saturday evening with the Nelson Hilliards and D. A. Barnharts in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Haney Wideman, where the group had had supper. Mrs. Wayne Ogle was a visitor at the Baptist Church on Sunday morning. She will be joining her family soon in San Angelo where they will make their home. Mr. Ogle will be employed in the school system there.

Hearing

(Continued From Page 1) were incorrect and that all personal property had not been duly rendered for taxation. However, Judge E. A. Bills of Littlefield released the 1963 tax roll for collection in order for the schools to have enough money to operate last year. The suit to be heard tomorrow morning is brought by Muncy and the following taxpayers: W. A. Massie, Frank Probasco, Edward Baird, Claude Fawver, D. M. Cogdell, Jr., Calvin Steen, R. Fred Brown, D. S. Battey, W. E. Lackey, Robin Fortenberry, W. M. Cogdell, Durrell Fortenberry, Rene Yeary, Lindsey Lackey, Greer Lackey, Ernest Wells, W. T. Conner, Eldon Fortenberry, Marvin Wells, E. A. Noland, Henry Edwards, Henry Price, George B. McAllister, Wanda N. Dubois, joined by her husband, B. J. Dubois, Fess Whitfill. Defendants in the suit are the school board: Ralph Johnston president, L. D. Simpson, Jack Stansell, Howard Gregory, Ernest Lee Thomas, Dennis Dempsey and W. L. Davis; tax-assessor-collector David Eaton, board of equalization members Dorris W. Jones, Malvin A. Jarboe and Marion Tucker. Attorneys for the plaintiffs are Ed O'Conner III of Lubbock and W. C. Hancock, Pittsburg, Texas. Local attorney Ben Ayres and Lubbock attorney James Milam represent the defendants.

City

(Continued From Page 1) mosquitoes. Six steps suggested are: (1) Spray premises, including shrubbery, trees or heavy growth. (2) Eliminate mosquito breeding places such as overflow of evaporative coolers. (3) Avoid allowing water to stand in flower beds, open gutters, sewers, or any receptacle. (4) Cut down high weeds. (5) Discourage children from playing outdoors one hour before and one hour after sundown, as these are the "bitting hours." (6) Use mosquito repellent. A pamphlet received earlier this summer concerning encephalitis states that the most common carriers of the disease is wild and domestic birds. The birds, being carriers, are not affected by the organisms. Man contracts the disease by being bitten by a mosquito which has previously bitten one of the carrier birds. Men and horses are known as "dead-end hosts". Encephalitis has become one of the diseases most common in this area in the past few years, causing a number of people to become seriously ill and the deaths of several people. The mosquito that is primarily responsible for the spread of Western Equine Encephalitis commonly bites near sundown, from approximately one hour before to one hour after sunset. It lays its eggs in small potholes, grassy edges of permanent ponds and in irrigation seepage areas. The normal range of the mosquito is 3 to 5 miles, unless caught in a brisk wind. Fortunately, but all persons bitten by Culex tarsalis, the carrier mosquito, are affected. In fact, only a small percentage show signs of illness. Sometimes the illness is passed of as a slight case of the flu. Severe infections have a high fever, stupor, mental confusion, coma, tremors, and sometimes convulsions in infants. There is an effective vaccine for the prevention of encephalitis in horses, but so far routine immunization of humans has not been considered practical. There is no specific treatment available as yet. Fortunately most cases of encephalitis fully recover with rest and supportive therapy. These should always be administered under the supervision of a physician. The only way known to determine if a person definitely has the disease is by a blood test.

Weevil

(Continued From Page 1) of reducing the cost of U. S. cotton production, making it more competitive with synthetic fibers and foreign cotton. One of the laboratories will be at Texas Technological College or at the Experimental Station north of Lubbock. The bill also included the full budget estimate of $14,744,000 for the Great Plains Conservation Program which is important in the Southwest. Mahon pointed out that the agricultural weather service which began last year in the South Plains area in a limited way would be expanded to cover more counties this year as a result of the appropriation bill carrying funds for the weather service which was also approved by Congress last week. Congress decided not to provide funds this year for the program announced by the Department of Agriculture to make the micronaire on cotton a determining factor in the amount of the support loan for cotton. Congress was dissatisfied with the way the matter was handled by the Department and decided to withhold action on the program this year. Under the proposed micronaire system for the cotton loan, there would be a discount on low micronaire cotton and a premium on high micronaire cotton. The greatest area of production of low micronaire cotton is in Texas, especially West Texas. Mahon said that it was generally agreed that the micronaire was an important factor in evaluating cotton and that West Texas cotton farmers should keep in mind that the time is approaching when the micronaire will be taken into account in fixing the amount of the support loan. When this happens, in order to avoid losses, West Texas cotton growers will be confronted with the difficult problem of producing cotton which will not be subject to discount.

Cotton

(Continued From Page 1) daded for the 3.5c on their domestic cotton allotment. This is acquired by making application at the local ASC office and then plowing up one-third of the farm allotment. A farmer is then paid 3.5c times the domestic allotment times the normal farm yield. This step needed to be taken, as was reported earlier, by August 17. If the county should produce the expected 115,000 bales of cotton, it could move up into fifth place in the state in the lint production.

Second Baptist Wins Softball Tourney Here

Second Baptist of Lubbock defeated Calvary Baptist of Lubbock 8-1 in the final game of the Floydada Softball Tournament held here Tuesday night. In the first game of the playoffs, Floydada Seed and Delint lost to Calvary Baptist only 3-2 to be eliminated from the tournament. Trophies were presented to the first and second place teams, to the best pitcher, L. W. Hutley of Second Baptist, and the best batter Ed Hartman of Floydada. Kenneth Bishop and Cliff Niles scored the two runs for the locals. The winning pitcher in the first game was J. Welch, who was relieved by Willie Turner. The losing pitcher was Niles.

Mexico Ranchers Aiding Screwworm Eradication

MISSION — Livestock producers in Northern Mexico are so pleased with the reduction in screwworm infestations, because of the screwworm eradication program, they are making personal contributions to keep the project going.

A local cattleman's association in Nuevo Laredo in the Mexican State of Tamaulipas is contributing $60 a month and the state association of Nuevo Leon is collecting $10 from each of its members to help finance ground survey and inspection activities and control of screwworm infestations.

Sterile screwworm flies are being released in an area of Northern Mexico encompassing nearly 250,000 square miles to prevent a buildup of fertile flies that could migrate into the areas of the U.S. where the insect has been eradicated. The action has reduced screwworm problems for Mexican ranchers as well. Mexico-employed livestock inspectors in conducting educational and survey work in this buffer zone.

Maintenance of the live-fly barrier between the two countries is credited with keeping the incidence of screwworm infestations in the eradication area at an all-time low for the season.

Farm Bureau Citizenship Seminar Touches About American Heritage

James and Olin Degge of the Floydada bus station Tuesday morning, in a chartered bus to Farm Bureau Citizenship at Sam Houston State College. This usually brings together all over the State to study our American Heritage and learn the facts about Communism.

The bus reached Abilene in time for dinner but we didn't get to Ft. Worth until 7:00 p.m. We had missed supper and the orientation meeting, but we finished eating in time to meet with our individual groups. There were eight of these groups, twenty to a group, and four of these groups were in charge of the entertainment for Wednesday night and the remaining groups for Thursday night.

After adjournment of these groups, the students went thankfully to their dormitories. But the long day was not yet over. Both girls and boys found there was a lot of getting acquainted to do, and talking did not cease until about midnight in both the girls and boys dorms.

Wednesday morning classes began. The entire Seminar of 306 students went in the Student Center ballroom for the series of lectures. Dr. Clifton Ganus, vice-president of Harding College, Searcy, Arkansas, gave lectures on "Understanding and Preserving Our Heritage," "Moral Foundations of Freedom," and "The Pyramid of Freedom." That night Mr. Cleon Skousen, former FBI agent, talked about the cold war and how we could win it.

Mr. Shousen spoke again on Thursday morning on American foreign policies. Professor Glyn M. Turner from Sam Houston State presented the basic economics of our competitive free enterprise system in a talk on Thursday afternoon.

All of the students were taken on a tour of the Sam Houston Museum and home, which are near the campus.

Mr. John Noble, in the Thursday night and Friday morning sessions, related his experiences as a prisoner of Soviet Russian Slave Camps for 9½ years. His is a story every American should hear.

The students were allowed to visit the Huntsville State Prison System on Friday morning. That afternoon and evening, Dr. George S. Benson, president of Harding College, presented lectures on world affairs and our Constitutional government.

The entertainment on both Wednesday and Thursday nights was really good. Two of the groups led us in a hootenanny; others presented plays, and comedians and singers were present in abundance. The counselors and lecturers were surprised at the amount of talent shown.

The Seminar closed Friday night with a dance in the ballroom of the Student Center. We left the college at 6:00 a.m. and arrived in Floydada at 5:00 p.m. Saturday afternoon.

We received first-class treatment on the entire trip by all concerned. The Farm Bureau sponsors many worthwhile activities, but the education of young people and adults in such vital matters as our American heritage and Communism is of the utmost importance.

We would like to express our deepest appreciation to the members of Floyd County Farm Bureau for sending us to this most interesting and informative Seminar.

We would also like to offer our services to any group that would be interested in having one or both of us share with them what we have learned.

In conjunction with what we have learned at this Seminar, we urge all citizens of Floyd County to practice the following basic principles of American Citizenship:

1. STUDY, and keep informed on Community activities in the U. S. and abroad.

Reliable information may be obtained by writing the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Washington, D. C., and asking for free pamphlets on Communism. You can subscribe to U. S. News and World Report. Or if you would like just plain facts, subscribe to Facts for You; Published by Texas Farm Bureau.

2. This is an election year with many and varied issues facing the American public. Study and do research on these issues. Analyze carefully all candidates running for the office to be filled. Get all of the information you can obtain on both issues and candidates from reliable sources, not from hearsay.

Then make up your mind, and VOTE! Remember this "Bad officials are elected to office by good citizens who don't vote." 3. When candidates are elected to an office, keep track of their records. Make sure they fulfill their sworn duties to uphold our Constitutional government. Don't let yourself be uninformed when something as important as an election is at hand.

At this very moment, there are people in the United States, who if elected to an office, would sell our country out to the Communists. Regrettably, some of these people have already been put into office. You can obtain from the FBI documented evidence as to this fact.

Keeping American strong starts with YOU. You cannot keep America free alone. However, if you do your job and your neighbor does his, we may see the Communist Regime defeated in our lifetime.

Instead of our children growing up under Communism, why not let Nikita Khrushchev's children and grandchildren live under freedom? Would this not be the greatest heritage we could leave our posterity?

"Please Don't Hurt My Kids"

Dear Driver:

TODAY, MY DAUGHTER, who is six years old, started to school for the first time. Her brother was with her, but he's only nine himself, and he still looks pretty little to me. Their cocker spaniel, whose name is 'Scott' sat on the front porch and whined his canine belief in the folly of education as they waved "goodbye" and started off to the halls of learning.

LAST NIGHT WE TALKED ABOUT SCHOOL — my daughter and I. She wondered what the teacher would be like . . . she hoped she could sit beside Mary (the little girl next door). She said her "letters" for me — just to be sure she knew them. Oh, we talked about a lot of things — tremendously vital, unimportant things. Then she tried on her plaid pinafore to show me . . . and then to bed.

SHE LOOKED SO HELPLESS — — sound asleep, with "Princess Elizabeth" (that's her doll) cuddled in her right arm. You see, I'm her daddy. When her doll is broken or her finger is cut, or her hand gets banged, I can fix it—but when she and Brother start to school, when they walk across the street, then they're in your hands.

THEY'RE NICE KIDS, both of them. They like to ride horses and swim and hike with me on Sunday afternoon. But I can't be with them all the time. I have to work to pay for their clothes and education. So please help me look out for them. Please drive slowly past the schools and intersections — and please remember that children do run from behind parked cars.

PLEASE, DON'T HURT MY KIDS!

— A Proud Daddy

Mexico Ranchers Aiding Screwworm Eradication

MISSION — Livestock producers in Northern Mexico are so pleased with the reduction in screwworm infestations, because of the screwworm eradication program, they are making personal contributions to keep the project going.

A local cattleman's association in Nuevo Laredo in the Mexican State of Tamaulipas is contributing $60 a month and the state association of Nuevo Leon is collecting $10 from each of its members to help finance ground survey and inspection activities and control of screwworm infestations.

Sterile screwworm flies are being released in an area of Northern Mexico encompassing nearly 250,000 square miles to prevent a buildup of fertile flies that could migrate into the areas of the U.S. where the insect has been eradicated. The action has reduced screwworm problems for Mexican ranchers as well. Mexico-employed livestock inspectors in conducting educational and survey work in this buffer zone.

Maintenance of the live-fly barrier between the two countries is credited with keeping the incidence of screwworm infestations in the eradication area at an all-time low for the season. Less than 90 screwworm cases have been reported in Texas during the first six months of 1964.

Farm Bureau Citizenship Seminar Touches About American Heritage

James and Olin Degge of the Floydada bus station Tuesday morning, on a chartered bus to Farm Bureau Citizenship Seminar at Sam Houston State University.

The bus reached Abilene in time for dinner but we didn't get to Huntsville until 7:00 p.m. We had missed supper and the orientation meeting, but we finished eating in time to meet with our individual groups. There were eight of these groups, twenty to a group, and four of these groups were in charge of the entertainment for Wednesday night and the remaining groups for Thursday night.

After adjournment of these groups, the students went thankfully to their dormitories. But the long day was not yet over. Both girls and boys found there was a lot of getting acquainted to do, and talking did not cease until about midnight in both the girls and boys dorms.

Wednesday morning classes began. The entire Seminar of 306 students went in the Student Center ballroom for the series of lectures. Dr. Clifton Gans, vice-president of Harding College, Searcy, Arkansas, gave lectures on "Understanding and Preserving Our Heritage," "Moral Foundations of Freedom," and "The Pyramid of Freedom." That night Mr. Cleon Skousen, former FBI agent, talked about the cold war and how we could win it.

Mr. Shousen spoke again on Thursday morning on American foreign policies. Professor Glyn M. Turner from Sam Houston State presented the basic economics of our competitive free enterprise system in a talk on Thursday afternoon.

All of the students were taken on a tour of the Sam Houston State Museum and home, which are near the campus.

Mr. John Noble, in the Thursday night and Friday morning sessions, related his experiences as a prisoner of Soviet Russian Slave Camps for 9½ years. His is a story every American should hear.

The students were allowed to visit the Huntsville State Prison System on Friday morning. That afternoon and evening, Dr. George S. Benson, president of Harding College, presented lectures on world affairs and our Constitutional government.

The entertainment on both Wednesday and Thursday nights was really good. Two of the groups led us in a hootenany; others presented plays, and comedians and singers were present in abundance. The counselors and lecturers were surprised at the amount of talent shown.

The Seminar closed Friday night with a dance in the ballroom of the Student Center. We left the college at 6:00 a.m. and arrived in Floydada at 5:00 p.m. Saturday afternoon.

We received first-class treatment on the entire trip by all concerned. The Farm Bureau sponsors many worthwhile activities, but the education of young people and adults in such vital matters as our American heritage and Communism is of the utmost importance.

We would like to express our deepest appreciation to the members of Floyd County Farm Bureau for sending us to this most interesting and informative Seminar. We would also like to offer our services to any group that would be interested in having one or both of us share with them what we have learned.

In conjunction with what we have learned at this Seminar, we urge all citizens of Floyd County to practice the following basic principles of American Citizenship:

1. STUDY, and keep informed on Community activities in the U. S. and abroad.

Reliable information may be obtained by writing the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Washington, D. C., and asking for free pamphlets on Communism. You can subscribe to U. S. News and World Report. Or if you would like just plain facts, subscribe to Facts for You; Published by Texas Farm Bureau.

2. This is an election year with many and varied issues facing the American public. Study and do research on these issues. Analyze carefully all candidates running for the office to be filled. Get all of the information you can obtain on both issues and candidates from reliable sources, not from hearsay.

Then make up your mind, and VOTE! Remember this "Bad officials are elected to office by good citizens who don't vote."

3. When candidates are elected to an office, keep track of their records. Make sure they fulfill their sworn duties to uphold our Constitutional government. Don't let yourself be informed when something as important as an election is at hand.

At this very moment, there are people in the United States, who if elected to an office, would sell our country out to the Communists. Regretfully, some of these people have already been put in to office.

You can obtain from the FBI documented evidence as to this fact.

Keeping American strong starts with YOU. You cannot keep America free alone. However, if you do your job and your neighbor does his, we may see the Communist Regime defeated in our lifetime.

Instead of our children growing up under Communism, why not let Nikita Khrushchev's children and grandchildren live under freedom? Would this not be the greatest heritage we could leave our posterity?

"Please Don't Hurt My Kids"

Dear Driver:

TODAY, MY DAUGHTER, who is six years old, started to school for the first time. Her brother was with her, but he's only nine himself, and he still looks pretty little to me. Their cocker spaniel, whose name is 'Scott' sat on the front porch and whined his canine belief in the folly of education as they waved "goodbye" and started off to the halls of learning.

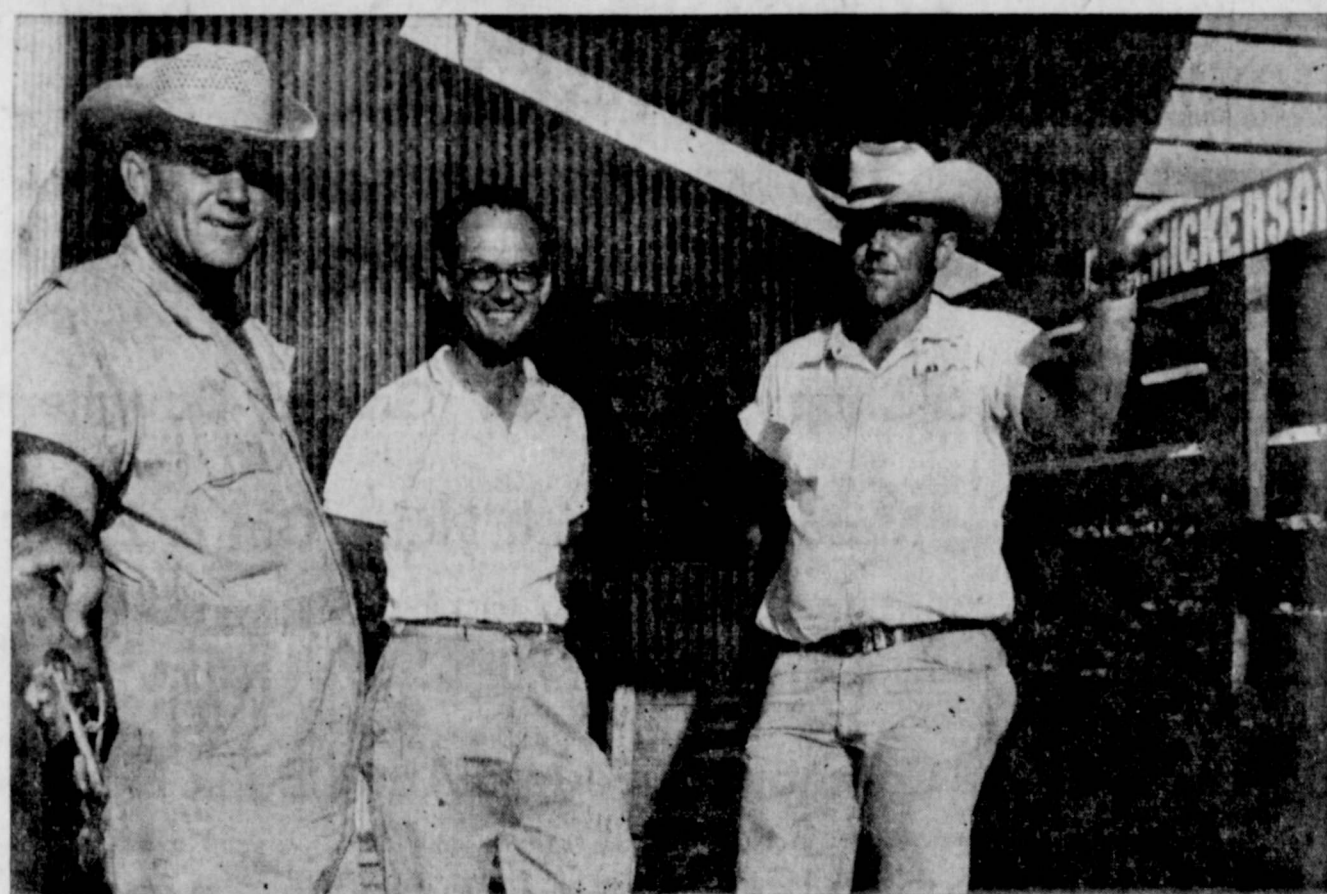

LAST NIGHT WE TALKED ABOUT SCHOOL — my daughter and I. She wondered what the teacher would be like . . . she hoped she could sit beside Mary (the little girl next door). She said her "letters" for me — just to be sure she knew them. Oh, we talked about a lot of things — tremendously vital, unimportant things. Then she tried on her plaid pinafore to show me . . . and then to bed.

SHE LOOKED SO HELPLESS — sound asleep, with "Princess Elizabeth" (that's her doll) cuddled in her right arm. You see, I'm her daddy. When her doll is broken or her finger is cut, or her hand gets banged, I can fix it—but when she and Brother start to school, when they walk across the street, then they're in your hands.

THEY'RE NICE KIDS, both of them. They like to ride horses and swim and hike with me on Sunday afternoon. But I can't be with them all the time. I have to work to pay for their clothes and education. So please help me look out for them. Please drive slowly past the schools and intersections — and please remember that children do run from behind parked cars.

PLEASE, DON'T HURT MY KIDS!

— A Proud Daddy

GUEST EDITORIAL An Editor Looks At Haley

The latest J. Evetts Haley literary effort, titled "A Texan Looks At Lyndon Johnson," is a study in illegitimate power.

To those who know Evetts Haley, or who are familiar with his political career, this should come as no surprise, though it is nevertheless disagreeably shocking to have the nation's President made the target of this kind of slander.

In this masterpiece, Evetts Haley has accused President Lyndon B. Johnson of just about every crime on the books...

One paragraph of this alleged documentation will serve to set the pattern for the whole.

Extremists Aren't Conservative

We are going to hear more and more about the word "extremist," applying the term to political activities, and we suppose it would do no good to try and define the term.

Due to a skillful application of propaganda techniques, the term "extremist" has come to mean to the average person a group of people on the "far right" in politics.

And what gripes us the most is that the term "extremist" and the term "conservative" are about to be established among most people as meaning the same thing.

LET'S BRING THE GARDEN INSIDE FOR THE WINTER!

We can do just that, as has been proven by the significant number of freezer-equipped homes today. This method of food preservation now has an important place because: Food that is quick-frozen is more nearly like fresh than that preserved by other means. It is prepared before freezing so that it will be ready quickly and with a minimum of effort. The values of frozen food compare favorably with those of fresh. And one of the most important reasons of all - nutritive losses are small (with strict adherence to the rules for freezing).

In freezing, scrupulously clean food is prepared in the same manner as for any other type of food preparation. Properly packaged, it is subjected to temperatures sufficiently low to prevent the growth of spoilage organisms and to arrest the action of enzymes. Air, which robs food of its ascorbic acid, must be kept away from the food in so far as possible. Each step in the freezing process has been worked out by our specialists with these facts in mind.

The quality of frozen food depends on the quality of the original product, the speed with which it is prepared for the freezer, the material used in packaging, the quickness with which it is frozen, and strict adherence to the rules.

GENERAL FREEZING INSTRUCTIONS:

Use Proper Packaging Materials
Use only reliable types. The purpose of proper packaging is to protect the food value, flavor, color and texture. Proper packaging also prevents drying, which would otherwise occur at low temperatures, and by excluding air, it prevents oxidative losses.

Prepare Food Quickly

The fresher the food and the sooner it is prepared, packaged, and put into the freezer the better results you will have. Food can be prepared for freezing more quickly when handled in small amounts. If it is exposed to the air, it loses vitamin C, and if it soaks in water, some of the nutrients leak out.

Air in a package of food hastens enzymic action, so methods must be used to exclude as much air as possible and to bar its entrance into the packages. Packing food tightly into packages and pressing air from them will reduce air content. It is also helpful to cover fruit with sugar or syrup and to be sure to blanch or steam vegetables according to the directions for each variety or (See FIELD, Page 6)

Soils--The Key to Proper Land Use

Bill Kocs, Soil Scientist
Soil Conservation Service
Lubbock, Texas

Our soil and water conservation program must begin with the soils. The soil determines, to a large extent, the productivity and potential productivity of all tracts of land. Furthermore, most of our wind and water erosion problems are tied closely to the soils.

about 35 different kinds exist in Floyd County. In the photograph the Soil Conservation Service points out the subsoil of one of the major soils in this area. Each of the different kinds of soils has a unique set of characteristics, unique history of formation, and many of them a different pattern of potential behavior.

County Soil Conservation District. The basis for farm and ranch planning, irrigation design, grass planting and other conservation practices depends solely on the kind of soil on the specific piece of land.

Some soils are suited to only one use; but most soils used by farmers can be treated successfully in several different ways. A system of land use that gives good results on one kind of soil may give very bad results on another kind, even on the same farm. Though soil classification and interpretation based on research and local farmer experience, up-to-date alternative uses can be suggested for the various kinds of soils.

The many different kinds of soils are grouped first into what are called capability units. The soils in any one capability unit have similar risks and limitations for agricultural use, respond to the same broadly defined practices, are adapted to about the same farm crops, and return about the same yields under comparable systems of management. These capability units are then grouped into capability subclasses, a grouping that suggests both the degree and the kind of problems that a farmer or rancher will encounter in longtime use of the soil.

A LOOK AT SUBSOIL - Bill Kocs, Soil Scientist for the Soil Conservation Service shown pointing out the subsoil of major soils in this area. Each different soil has an entirely different set of characteristics (SCS Photo)

Capability subclasses, in turn, are grouped into capability classes, a grouping that expresses the degree of limitation and risk for agriculture use. There are eight capability classes. Four are suited for cultivation and four are not. These eight classes of land range from best and most easily farmed with no risks to hazards to cultivation to land which has no value for cultivation.

This interpretation is widely used by technicians of the Soil Conservation Service in giving technical assistance to farmers and ranchers through soil conservation districts. Soils are also grouped for special crops, for range sites and others.

HARMONY NEWS by Mrs. Mather Carr

Harmony Homecoming Held Here

HARMONY, August 18 - Here I am again with a little bit of news. I do wish someone would write this news. I am writing about Harmony's Homecoming, held Sunday, August 16.

This is the first time we have had it on Sunday, but though more people might attend if we did. We had dinner at 1:00 so folks could go to church and get there in time for dinner but not as many attended as we expected. There was a nice crowd, however and oodles of food for dinner.

After dinner there was a short program, with several songs, with Mrs. Reuben Rutherford at the piano and Horace Carr and Lucille Miller leading. Mrs. Chloma Williams had charge of the program and several there told of funny experiences they had years ago. Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves very much.

Those attending from Lubbock were: Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Dietrich; Mr. and Mrs. John Jacobs and Johanna; and Mr. E. W. Turner, Slaton; Mr. and Mrs. Bevi Hanna, Plainview; Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Rutherford and Buck Williams, Crosbyton; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Williams, Ft. Worth; Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Thornton, Petersburg; Mr. and Mrs. Erv Williams, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Heard, and Mr. and Mrs. Perry Tipton, Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Williams, Lorenzo; Mrs. Maud Scott.

Those from Floydada were: Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hale, Keith and Kathy, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Allen, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Sam A. Spence, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Spence, Mr. and Mrs. H. Nelson, Derk, Davin and Linda, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Williams.

Those from Harmony: Mr. and Mrs. Bob Harper, Norman and Ronnie, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Carr and Bill, Mr. and Mrs. White Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mather Carr, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Gary, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Chloma Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Carrie Snowgrass, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Reid, Jody and Donna.

Mr. and Mrs. Zant Scott, Nita, Karen and Larry; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hanna; Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Paul and sons; Mr. and Mrs. Horace Carr; Mrs. M. D. Ramsey; Mrs. Joyce Davis and Jennie; Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Ramsey and Don Ray; Mr. Roy Hale, Barry and Dan; and Mrs. Mather Carr.

There may have been other who did not register. This was a real enjoyable day for those who did attend, but there were so many in the community alone, who did not attend. We hope next year there will be more.

We have a new baby in our community, he is the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Gross. He was born August 13 in Peoples Hospital in Floydada. He weighed 7 pounds and 2 ounces, and has been named Mark Allan.

Grandparents of a new baby, also born August 13, are Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hale, Mr. and Mrs. James Hale are the parents of the boy that weighed 5 lbs. and 1 ounce at birth. He is named Joel Lynn.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Tucker, Patricia and Ronnie were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs.

Emmitt Foster in Hart. The occasion was to celebrate Mrs. Tucker's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Williams of Amarillo visited in the Chloma Williams home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Smithbey and daughters and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Dean Williams and sons attended their family reunion in Oklahoma Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Williams of Floydada attended the funeral Sunday in Hereford of Mr. G. W. Suggs who was killed in a car wreck last week.

Mrs. Nannie Maston of Wellington visited in the R. B. Gary home.

We learned that David Hale will be brought home this weekend. He will still be confined to his bed for some time, however.

Ranch Style Barbecue Set For Boys Ranch Rodeo

A real ranch-style bar-be-que will be added to the rodeo fare at Cal Farley's Boys Ranch, next month, when the more than 300 boys now being cared for put on their 20th annual Boys Ranch Rodeo.

For the first time in many years, the boys of the Ranch will select a steer from the beef herd, dress it for cooking, and bar-be-que it over an open-pit fire. One of the busiest concessions at the rodeo is expected to be the bar-be-que sandwich booth where the boys will be selling "king-size sandwiches with all the trimmings."

"We are inviting our friends, not only to watch the kids put on their rodeo, this year, but also to enjoy a bar-be-que picnic in the picnic grounds on the Ranch," Carl Farley, Ranch founder, said.

Practice sessions have been held for the past six weeks, with elimination rides on Brahma bulls, bucking bronco steers, and calves, being made by the boys. Nearly 100 boys will ride the professional rodeo stock that is being donated for the rodeo, and all of the boys and members of the Ranch's adult staff will participate in the production of the event.

The rodeo dates are Sunday, September 6th, and Monday, September 7th, with afternoon performances both days beginning at 2:30 p.m. Reservations for box seats are being taken at the Boys Ranch office in Amarillo. The box seats are $2.50, general admission for adults, $1.50, and 75c for children and servicemen in uniforms.

Ample parking space is provided for rodeo visitors, and they will view the action from large,

Leave Headspace
Food expands on freezing, so leave room for expansion in each package.

Pack Cold
Be sure all foods are cold. Be sure vegetables that have been steamed or blanched have been thoroughly cooled before putting into the freezer to freeze.

Freeze Food Quickly And Completely
Quick freezing is essential to the maintenance of its good quality. A temperature of 0 degree F. (Zero) or lower is needed to maintain good quality.

Keep Frozen Until Ready To Use
Even at Zero or below, enzymic action continues, though slowly. Some of the microorganisms are destroyed at these low temperatures, but most of them are only retarded in growth. Unless the food is kept frozen until ready for use, these spoilage agents become active again, lowering the quality of the food and, under some conditions, spoiling it.

There are certain differences in the general directions for the preparation of fruits, vegetables, and meats for freezing.

FRUIT should be washed and drained thoroughly and prepared as for serving either whole or in pieces. Small fruits, such as berries and cherries are usually left whole, and large fruits are usually cut into pieces. However, fruit can be frozen crushed, puréed, or as juice.

Frozen fruit retains much of its fresh flavor, though its texture is softer than that of fresh fruit; the cooler is usually good, however, some fruits require special treatment to preserve their good color—for example lemon juice may be added to peaches to keep them from darkening. Fruit is not heated before packing, as this would partly cook it. Low temperature must be depended on to reduce the action of enzymes and prevent the microorganisms.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Goen, Melinda and Mark, attended the Goen-Budgett wedding on Friday night.

Corley Guffee is back after a week's vacation. He and his family visited relatives in Sunray, Stratford and Texhoma.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Hickerson spent the week-end in Abilene. They visited Rev. and Mrs. T. B. Armstrong and other friends. They attended the Pat Ginn wedding while there too.

J. B. Terrell visited Mr. and Mrs. Walter Craft, who live near Roaring Springs. Mrs. Craft has been suffering with blood poisoning in her hand.

The Paul Fullertons were guests of friends in Floydada over the week-end.

Yates Smith of Bryan, Texas was a dinner guest in our home last Saturday. He works for TV A.

It was Annual Picnic time again at the Floydada Country Club for those who have served on the Board of Directors, the Annual Meeting Planning Committees and the employees of the Lighthouse Electric and their families; with more than a hundred enjoying the fellowship and the delicious picnic supper. Jim Morris, from Austin, Texas Electric Cooperatives, was the speaker. Dominoes were enjoyed by the "oldsters" and swimming was enjoyed by the "youngsters."

WILKS RETURN FROM VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Wilks returned last week from Medford Ore., where they visited their son, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wilks, Linda and Philip. While there the Wilks family enjoyed two days of sight seeing along the West Coast.

Enroute Mr. and Mrs. Wilks visited another son, Orby Wilks, his wife and son, Jeffrey at Farmington, N. Mex., and Mrs. Wilk's sisters, Mrs. McDonald and Mrs. Redding at Alamogordo.

In April Mr. and Mrs. Wilks also enjoyed a vacation on the East coast of Florida where they visited another son, Floyd Wilks, his wife and children, Mack, Beverly, Steve and Whit.

Mrs. Wilks said for the east coast to the west coast she and her husband did not see one car wreck and any signs of one during all their miles of traveling.
