Whirlwinds Host Scoreless Bobcats Here Tomorrow

The Floydada Whirlwinds, winless in three outings, host a team equally as fortunate here tomorrow night, the Childress Bobcats.

In each of the games the Whirlwinds have managed eight points and the Childress team is yet to score this year. Childress has lost to class A Wellington, AA Phillips and AAA Vernon by sizable margins.

Coach Bill Curry said this week that his charges will be faced with the single wing formation for the first time. This formation usually depicts a larger, rather than a fast team, although it can be varied to fit almost any material or situation.

The football program brought back from other Childress games by scouts shows the backfield men weighing 150, 140, 130 and 125. However, the scouts say they are the biggest people at those weights they ever saw.

The probable starting lineup for Childress includes: (SEE FOOTBALL PAGE 5)

Amounts Of Five Inches Cover Area

After facing months of dry weather, and hoping each cloud that gathered in the sky had some rain for their particular area, residents of Floydada and the entire South Plains area were relieved to wake up last Friday morning and find the skies overcast and rain falling.

This happened every morning for the following three days, as well, for almost every community in Floyd County recorded five inches of moisture before the rains finally stopped late Monday.

Early Tuesday morning clearing skies and rising temperatures greeted the local residents.

C-C Airport Committee Seeks $25,000

At a meeting of the Airport Committee of the Chamber of Commerce recently, Arthur Wylie, Bill Brown and Junior Simpson were named to a fund raising committee to get $25,000 for the proposed Floydada Airport.

This amount should supplement what the city has received from the State of Texas Aeronautics Commission and (SEE AIRPORT PAGE 5)

Most of Monday the South Plains area was under severe weather alert and some areas did receive damage from high winds. Some hail was also received by most areas in Floyd County either in the morning or afternoon showers.

Damaging winds ripped down approximately a fourth mile of telephone lines about six miles north of Lockney on the F. G. Jones farm. Some minor wind damage was reported earlier in the Levelland vicinity but was not definitely confirmed.

Actually the rains came at an ideal time, although they would have been welcomed a (SEE RAIN PAGE 5)

Suspect Held In Lockney Death

Joe Melvin, 22, a Floyd County resident and of Lockney, has been charged with the Aug. 23 rape-murder of Hazel Wofford in Lockney.

Melvin was formally charged Tuesday in Floydada, Texas, by Dist. Atty. John B. Stapleton.

The complaint was filed with Judge S. J. Handley, Floydada justice of the peace. He was sworn to by Sheriff Walter Hollums of Floyd County.

Statement Said Made

Mrs. Wofford, 44, was found slain in the hallway of her Lockney home on Aug. 23. She died from strangulation and was criminally assaulted, according to the autopsy report.

Stapleton said that Allard had made a statement in Lubbock about 3 p.m. Tuesday admitting the murder and rape of Mrs. Wofford. Allard was then brought to Floydada where the formal charges were made.

In Lubbock Jail

After being charged here, Allard was taken to the Lubbock County Jail. He is expected to be kept in Lubbock until a grand jury hearing, Stapleton said.

After the filing of charges, Allard waived an examining trial. Stapleton said that Allard was denied bail by Judge Handley.

Stapleton, who led the 30-day investigation, indicated that the case will be presented to the Floyd County grand jury Oct. 11. He also reported that he believes the trial may be held some time in November or December.

Doesn't Discuss Details

Referring to Allard's statement, Stapleton said, "I regard the statement as being complete, but I am not at liberty to disclose any of the details."

Allard had been "a suspect" in the case for some time, according to Stapleton. He was given a polygraph test earlier, and also had undergone extensive questioning. Allard was not given a polygraph test Tuesday afternoon, Stapleton said.

Nephew By Marriage

Allard was married in Floyd County. He is married to the niece of Mrs. Wofford and is a nephew by marriage to the dead woman. Allard's mother, Eula Mae Lyles, lives in Floydada.

Allard has been employed by his uncle, Eddie Joe Fortenberry of Lockney. Fortenberry has extensive farming interests in the Lockney area and Allard was a farm worker for him. Allard attended school in both Floydada and Lockney.

Winn Receives Okay On Light Program In St. George

Wilton B. (Skinny) Winn received a letter this week from the State Park and Recreation Commission of Utah that he will be permitted to display his lighting and sound effects in the Dixie State Park near St. George, Utah.

The letter reads as follows: Dear Sir:

Your letter of August 11th has been received and reviewed with the Utah Travel Council. We feel that there may be possibilities in your proposal to use the light and sound equipment in parks as a possibility which should be investigated and experimented with.

For the time being, we would suggest that you work on the project with the St. George Chamber of Commerce to see what could be developed in that area. Our Park Ranger, Mr. Jim Williams, at the Dixie State Park will cooperate to the extent that he can in connection with his other duties.

We do not understand from your letter whether you would want to make the experiment and test this season or whether you would like to wait until the 1966 travel here is under way. So, let us know about your further plans and we will do what we can to cooperate.

Sincerely yours,
signed/ F. C. Koziol

Winn has called a special meeting for tonight at 8 p.m. in the community room at the First National Bank here for all interested persons to attend who are interested in his project.

Local Post Office To Be Remodeled

The Post Office Department has signed a contract with Clement McDonald to remodel the present quarters of the Floydada, Texas, Post Office. The remodeling will be accomplished not later than about June 1, 1966.

The remodeling calls for many changes to modernize the local office. The building will be completely remodeled on the inside with new lighting, refrigerated air conditioning, an office for the Postmaster and repaired throughout. The department is to install the latest bank type screenline and counter service, new post office boxes and a self service stamp machine for patrons to use when the office is closed. A new sidewalk in front of the office will eliminate the step at the entrance. The rear of the Post Office will be paved with asphalt and enlarged to provide employee parking.

The Contractor for McDonald will be Builders Mart, Floydada, Texas and will begin in January or February 1966.

MRS. DON PROBASCO VICTIM

One Dies, Four Hospitalized In Collision Near Cone

Final rites for Mrs. Don Probasco, of South Plains, were conducted Tuesday afternoon in the First Baptist Church at South Plains. She was the victim of a head-on collision that occurred around 6:30 P.M. last Sunday afternoon.

Injured in the wreck were Dee Ann Wilson, a senior at Floydada High School, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson of Floydada, Mrs. Bob Durham, driver of the car in which Mrs. Probasco was riding, D'Rene and Dawn Durham, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Durham.

Zeke Robertson, driver of the car in which Dee Ann was riding was slightly injured. Dee Ann was transferred from Peoples Hospital to Methodist Hospital in Lubbock Sunday night after the mishap, and underwent surgery Monday morning on one of her legs. She had a broken leg near her ankle, that had to be pinned in surgery, a dislocated hip, a cracked pelvis, and cuts and bruises. She will probably be in bed from four to six weeks and will be in a wheel chair for some time thereafter.

Mrs. Durham is still in Peoples Hospital suffering from a severe laceration from her lip to chin and along the lower jaw line. Numerous cuts and bruises were received on her face and body. Presently the main health concern is her pregnancy, according to hospital officials.

Dawn Durham, 8, who was in the back seat and D'Rene, 1, in the front seat, in a baby's car seat, are being kept for observation. Dawn was vomiting Monday, but it was thought that the cause was from nerves, rather than an injury.

Zeke, it was believed, was not injured in the wreck, and was examined at Peoples Hospital and released. However,

Monday, he was favoring a knee rather heavily that he hurt playing football, and it is thought that he might have reinjured the knee or injured the leg in another place.

Holladays 1918 Classmates Have Reunion

After an annual luncheon in the Tearoom at Dunlaps in Lubbock on Thursday, September 9th, the home of Mrs. Ray Dickey in that city was the meeting place for former school mates of the 1918 Floydada High School class.

Those attending were Mrs. Fay Cannaday Meredith of Borger, Mrs. Bertha Snodgrass Savage of Amarillo, Mrs. Marie Henry Baker of Munday, Ruth Brown Holt of Plainview, Cleo Andrew Gols and May Montague Garrett of Floydada and hostess, Pauline Bishop Dickey of Lubbock.

The following poem was written by Mrs. C. P. Baker of Munday in appreciation of the occasion:

Dear May:
On September 9, 1965 the Dickey household really came alive.
As May, Foy, Bertha, Cleo and me made our appearance at 10:30 you see—
It was a day of reminiscing, good food and fun and the day was over before it had really begun.
It had been 47 years since we walked out the Floydada High School door—
And I'm sure had Mr. Savage been here he would have said, "I hope we never see that bunch anymore."
It was during the 1st World

War and our graduation gave us the blues—
For we couldn't have flowers or invitations—
Just lucky if we had some new shoes.
But now we are all grandmothers
And a little bragging was allowed.
For everything that was told was real interesting to the crowd
Foy led the group in grandchildren, you see
But she had three families
And was more fortunate than we,
But even if Pauline, Bertha, Cleo and Ruth only had one chick
They crowded about as loud as Foy with her whole "click"
May, bless her heart, is taking on an extra crew
Our hats go off to her as we said "God Bless You."
Long about August we begin watching the mail and thinking Polly's as slow as a snail
Wondering when her invitation will arrive
Hoping it will get here while we are still alive.
It was wonderful seeing each of you, and it makes my heart glad
And I think each time - this is the best visit we have ever had.
Love to each of you,
Marie Henry Baker

I MAY GO ANY DAY NOW...

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

There was a time when I could feel safe until November. But the member-owned LIGHTHOUSE ELECTRIC cooperative has changed all that. With food freezers in so many homes, poultry processing plants, electric brooders and all that modern electric wizardry, they are processing turkeys all year long. I'm lucky I've lasted this long.

In case I end up in your gilet gravy just remember this. The LIGHTHOUSE electric cooperative may be fine for rural people, it may be helping Texas grow and it may be the greatest example of rural people working together to brighten their lives. But it has played havoc with my life expectancy.

LCC Associates Hear Dr. Bates

On the evening of September 13, the Lubbock Christian College Associates met in the kitchen of the Lighthouse Electric building. A delicious salad supper was enjoyed by members and their guests.

George Elkins introduced Dr. Jack Bates of Lubbock Christian College, who spoke on "WHAT CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS ALL ABOUT." He gave a brief history of the College from its 1937 beginning with 110 students to the expectation of more than 750 for the 1965-66 term. He said that education is not just the concern of schools but of every parent, elder, minister and every Christian. The national divorce rate is one out of every four marriages, compared to only one-half of one percent of marriages among Christian College students.

He stressed the fact that the College is not a part of the church and is not supported by or from any church budget anywhere. The support comes from individuals who are interested in education and in having a place where a child can be educated under the guidance of Christian teachers. He described the College Associates as having the same relationship to the College as the P-TA does to the local schools.

Mrs. Grady Walker conducted the business meeting and minutes of the previous meeting, which was held in May, were read by Mrs. Troye Stansell. Mrs. Tom Porter distributed the new Yearbooks and explained them as to the programs for the year. Mrs. Ned Bradley gave a brief report of the Lubbock Associates meeting which she and several other local members had recently attended.

The Chapter will continue to sell pecans, cookbooks, pepper, vanilla and greeting cards.

Guests for the evening included Dr. and Mrs. Jack Bates, George Elkins, Mrs. S. H. Tackett, Mrs. Sam Baker and Mrs. Pike Hanna. Members attending were Mmes. Gene Reed, Grady Walker, Glenn Jackson, Bill Holladay, Tom Porter, Troye Stansell, Harley Vick and Ned Bradley.

The next meeting will be a covered dish luncheon, and all day meeting October 11, in the home of Mrs. George Elkins. The program will be "Sharing Our Talents" and each one is to bring some kind of material from which a gift can be made. These things will be carried to the Gift Fair which will be held in Lubbock early in December.

HOW IMPORTANT IS SHORTENING

(By Mrs. Carl Brock)

Do you know how important shortening is to making a pie crust? The Homemakers Chapter found this out last Thursday when they met in the home-making lab for their regular meeting. A pie demonstration was given by Jo Dunavant and stressing the point of having a good crust. Several recipes were given and then a group of slides showing the steps of pie making was narrated by Jo.

The roll call was given by each person present naming their favorite pie for themselves of their family.

There was a report on the trip to Halfwa, for the registration of those attending, for the tour of farm crops at the experiment station. A full report was also given explaining the change in the program at the Ladies Day at the Fair. Bill Hammond of Yardstick in Plainview will show new fabrics and styles for the coming year.

Patsy Brock gave a report on the Area I Homemakers convention held in Hereford.

The next meeting will be October 7 on Interior Decoration. The demonstration will be given by Jean Hale. The roll call will be "Your favorite color combinations".

Those present for the meeting were Clara Burns, Rena Turner, Jo Dunavant, Jean Hale, Loene Nelson, Patsy Brock and Bonnie Fullingim, guest. Also present were Mrs. James Bachus and Mrs. A. E. Baker, advisors.

Mrs. Holladay's Grandmother Has Birthday

Mrs. Lillie K. Bearden, grandmother of Mrs. Bill Holladay, celebrated her 87th birthday September 4 in Itasca, Tex., where she makes her home with a daughter, Mrs. Ara Spruce.

Mrs. Bearden was born in Mississippi in 1878 and came to Texas as a child with a great deal of her life being spent in Hill County. Her husband died in 1961, at which time Mrs. Bearden started making her home with Mrs. Spruce in Waco before they moved to Itasca earlier this year.

Mrs. Bearden is a member of the Crestview Church of Christ in Waco and finds perhaps her most enjoyable activity is reading the Bible, due to her advancing age keeping her rather confined.

She has ten living children; Mannie Bearden, Abbott; Mrs. Spruce and Mrs. Frankie Bowman, both of Itasca; Mrs. Louella Wilson, Houston; Mrs. Ora Collis, Lockney; Mrs. Bernice Couch, Houston; Mrs. Hazel Maxwell, Bynum; Mrs. Ruby Steffa, South Gate, Calif.; Mrs. Marie Knight, Amarillo; Jack Bearden, Kermit.

In the first weeks of his naval service he will study military subjects and live and work under conditions similar to those he will encounter on his first ship or at his first shore station.

In making the transition from civilian to sailor he will be taught and supervised by experienced Navy petty officers. They will teach him the basic skills of seamanship as well as survival techniques, military drill and other basic subjects.

On completion of his recruit training he will be assigned to a school, shore station or ship, according to the results of his Navy classification tests, his own desires and the needs of the Navy.

FIELD & KITCHEN NEWS

LIGHTHOUSE ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE INC.
NANCY MORCKEL, HOME ECONOMIST

NEED MORE TIME???
Electric living in today's modern electric homes doesn't necessarily take you out of the kitchen and onto the backyard hammock. But it does make it possible for you to do more work in less time in the kitchen, home, laundry, or anywhere else in the house. Back in grandma's day the lament was that woman's work was never done. Today most of our household chores can be accomplished with modern electric convenience appliances - and still time is available for more and more activities that have suddenly become part of busy, modern living.

Today we live in a fuller and broader sense than ever before. We take time to develop our own and our family's potential. Education, the arts, community activities, knowing ourselves better so we can cope with a rapidly changing world are only a few of the pursuits into which our extra and free time are diverted.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Ogle spent the weekend in Bellevue with Ronnie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Ogle and his brother Larry. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Norman Ferguson who were also guests in the Ogle home.

LET'S GO TO THE FAIR!
Fairs are a time-honored American institution and are probably more special to farm folks than to any other group. Fairs mean many things to many people. To the funseeker, the fair provides the carnival and its frolic. To the 4-H'er and his or her parents, the fair means contests, judging of projects, awarding of ribbons, prizes and well-earned honors (along with a heartbreak now and then) - all in a fun-type competitive atmosphere.

This week, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, September 23, 24 and 25, are Floyd County Fair days for 1965. We hope you have your plans all made to attend - take along the whole family so they can enjoy the livestock judging, the exhibits, the carnival, and the visit with old friends and neighbors that you haven't seen for a long time. Believe it was Charlie Boedeker who said, "The greatest fun I have each year - is at the County Fair - where farmers take a holiday - and all the folks are there - Where cows, sheep and pigs receive - The ribbons they deserve - And women are rewarded for the pies and cakes they serve - I like that carnival for the kids - with candy and balloons - where barkers shout and lover see - A dozen different moons - Where there are wheels and bingo games - On which to take a chance - and music for the big parade - Or those who want to dance - And whether I take home a prize - Or both my hands are bare - The greatest fun I have each year - is at the COUNTY FAIR. SEE YOU AT THE FAIR."

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hutchins and Dale visited Mrs. J. H. Hutchins, Tom's mother, in Ralls Friday night. Tom and Dale attended the football game.

WANT TO SAVE 300 HOURS?
According to the Maytag Laundry Center, a study has shown that a woman without a dryer puts in an extra 300 hours (or 37 1/2 eight-hour days) of work, compared to a homemaker who owns a dryer.

QUICK FRUIT PIE:
Make a batter of --
1 cup flour
1 cup sugar
1 cup milk
2 teaspoons baking powder
Add 1/4 lb. oleo or butter to the ingredients, mix thoroughly. Pour this batter into a buttered baking dish or pan.
Pour the sweetened fruit, peaches, apples, or cherries over the batter. Bake until brown and bubbling. This will not look like an ordinary pie but will be delicious.

Here is a recipe for GREEN PEPPER MARMALADE, given to me by one of the Harmony Home Demonstration Club members. She says it is delicious served with meats, and a pretty dish, too. We thought perhaps others might enjoy making it, since peppers are plentiful at this time.

12 sweet green peppers
1 bottle of Certo
1 teaspoon turmeric
1 1/2 cups vinegar
7 cups sugar
Grind peppers and drain
Measure 2 cups of the ground

QB Club Meet Set Monday

A meeting of the Floydada Quarterback Club will be held at Floydada High School on Monday night at 7 p.m.
 Films of the Ralls and the Childress games will be shown to those attending. Last week the group saw the film of the Canyon game. The Post game film had been loaned to Post and not returned in time for the meeting. The officers of the organization are in charge of refreshments.
 All members are urged to be present for the meeting.

Rainfall Stymies Weevil Spraying Activities Here

Early Monday morning the Diapause Control Program area was scheduled to begin receiving the third of seven applications, but a heavy cloud cover coupled with equally heavy rainfall called the spraying program to a halt.
 However, by mid-morning the skies had cleared, and it was assumed by Extension Service personnel that the spraying would get underway again Monday.
 It is possible that the rainfall, amounting up to four inches since Friday, would have washed some of the insecticide off the plants, giving the boll weevils a few more days head-start on the program. Two sprayings had been completed before the rains began late last week.
 There are seven sprayings scheduled for the eight-county area now infested with the weevils, and the third was to be completed this week. The first three have been at one week intervals.
 The next spraying is scheduled to come after another 10 days to two weeks and the other three will be at similar intervals.

TEC Opens House Trailer In Lockney

A Texas Employment Commission office, dealing primarily with Farm Labor Placement Service, will open in Lockney Thursday, September 23rd, according to Bill King, the 4-county TEC manager, with headquarters in Plainview.
 The Lockney TEC service point will be housed in an especially designed trailer office located at the corner of East First and Locust streets, just behind the Lockney City Hall.
 King stated that Bueford J. Scarborough will be the Farm Placement Interviewer in charge of the new office. Scarborough was born in northeast Lubbock County. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Scarborough are still active farmers in that area. He was a 1950 graduate of Idalou High School where he was the recipient of honors for his activity in the FFA organizations. Subsequently he attended Texas Tech for 1 1/2 years where he received training towards teaching Vocational Agriculture. During the 7 years ending in 1963 he farmed in the Edmondson-Finney area. In 1952 he married the former Nelta Tharp of Lorenzo. The Scarboroughs are Baptists, have 3 children of school age, and will become permanent residents of Lockney upon obtaining suitable housing.
 TEC manager King urged Floyd County employers, especially farmers, to inform Scarborough of their labor needs. He will have the cooperation, if necessary, of other area TEC offices in serving Floyd County employers and work seekers.

CHURCH, REST HOME, FUTURE HOSPITAL Council Votes To Annex Property Adjoining City

At a meeting of the City Council recently, the group approved a petition asking that the New Salem Baptist Church, the property where the new hospital will soon be constructed and the Mar-Dell Convalescent Home is being built, be annexed to the City of Floydada.
 Construction of city sewer line to the new rest home is presently underway, and other city facilities will soon be extended to the newly annexed property.
 At a recent council meeting the trustees of the New Salem Church and the council were unable to come to terms about where the location of the sewer line should go. This was settled at a later meeting, after all concerned had a full understanding of what would be involved.

Haney Station Burglary Solved

A burglary at the P. Q. Haney Station southeast of town was solved within a matter of a few hours Tuesday morning by county and city officials.
 Foster Amburn, deputy sheriff, said they found out who broke into the station after following three sets of shoe tracks in the mud which led them directly to the homes of the Mexicans who confessed to the burglary, all over 17 years of age.
 Amburn said after officials notified parents of the boys, one of the fathers brought them in for questioning. They are now lodged in the Floyd County jail for burglary charges awaiting grand jury.
 Amburn said they recovered the 77 packs of assorted cigarettes taken and $14.05 in change. He said the cigarette machine was nearly demolished by the Mexicans in their attempt to get inside.
 The burglary was discovered when Haney opened for business Tuesday morning.

Texas Veterans Alarmed About NSL Dividend

World War II Texas Veterans are swamping VA offices because of a misleading report that many of them did not collect the first dividend on National Service Life Insurance, VA said today.
 Actually, 99.8% of the 766,000 Texas Veterans who had NSLI at the end of World War II received the dividend, Jack Coker, Manager of the Waco Veterans Administration Regional Office, said.
 The rumor about "GI Insurance" is a "picking in alcohol" was increased in the sermon by Rev. James Carter, which centered around the theme of the day, "Theological Education", as he quoted this saying, "Service is the price we pay for the space we take up." Somewhat analogous to this was a saying of Amelia Earhart's before she went down in the Pacific in 1937, "Courage is the price we pay for peace."
 Here was the James Carter this pastor had thought he would get to hear some day, with his strong bent for mission. Here was skillful weaving of the promotional theme in with the devotional content we all want, and need. The special music of the choir was in keeping with the mood of quiet, ardent devotion.
 What does one do if he misses a chance to feed others the word of Christ? He himself gets fed by another brother, in fact by many brothers and sisters in Christ.
 How can anyone afford NOT to worship? Do people really know when they are empty? Brother, are you REALLY doing alright?

The property begins at the N. W. corner of Block No. 5 Price First Addition, thence south 500 feet, east 660 feet, north 283 feet, east 417 feet, north 217 feet west 199 feet, north 60 feet, west 878 feet and south 60 feet to the point of the beginning.
 A public hearing will be held before the City Council on October 4, at 10 a.m. in the council room of the City Hall, for all persons interested in the proposed annexation.
 At that time all persons who have the right to appear and want to voice any objections, or reasons favoring the annexation may appear before the council and state those matters.
 Work on the rest home had at one time been halted because the city could not annex the property and get facilities to the establishment. Also, construction of the hospital could not have progressed very far until this action was taken.

STERLEY CHURCH NEWS

What does one do when his plans go awry?
 Something else, of course! Mud was the environment of the Sterley Church building on Sunday morning. So this pastor attended the worship service at Lockney, after dropping in on the two homes of his immediate responsibility in Sterley. Two-thirds of those who were to come were already seated.
 In this immensely beautiful sanctuary two girls lighted the candles, the choir came in, the service began. The first song to be sung by the entire congregation was Charles Wesley's old favorite, "And Are We Yet Alive?"
 To one at least it was deeply touching. Before his eyes sprang a scene of early-day Methodism, with men looking around themselves at backwoods annual conferences, singing this song, noting the presence of some and the absence of others, in a very real sense asking the question, "For what am I here?" It reminded him of the quite stern admonition that a colored bishop in New Orleans used to give his conference members, "We are not here to play."
 This sense of commitment, of thankfulness for being preserved (though not by "pickling in alcohol") was increased in the sermon by Rev. James Carter, which centered around the theme of the day, "Theological Education", as he quoted this saying, "Service is the price we pay for the space we take up." Somewhat analogous to this was a saying of Amelia Earhart's before she went down in the Pacific in 1937, "Courage is the price we pay for peace."
 Here was the James Carter this pastor had thought he would get to hear some day, with his strong bent for mission. Here was skillful weaving of the promotional theme in with the devotional content we all want, and need. The special music of the choir was in keeping with the mood of quiet, ardent devotion.
 What does one do if he misses a chance to feed others the word of Christ? He himself gets fed by another brother, in fact by many brothers and sisters in Christ.
 How can anyone afford NOT to worship? Do people really know when they are empty? Brother, are you REALLY doing alright?

Judge's Proclamation

GREETINGS:
 Building tomorrow's leaders today is a high purpose in 4-H Club work.
 The expanding role of 4-H emphasizes character development and good citizenship as 4-H Club members learn the latest practices in Agriculture and Home Economics.
 Since the 4-H program was inaugurated by the United States Government in 1914, the 4-H movement has spread across our Nation and to 72 foreign countries. 4-H Club members learn by conducting result demonstration and participating in 4-H activities. By putting into action what they learn, club members improve their homes and communities.
 Voluntary adult leaders working with club members provide a key to the success of 4-H. Parents and Friends of 4-H give support and encouragement to club members. The Agricultural Extension Service of the A&M University of Texas, through County Extension Agents, directs the 4-H Club Program.
 Any boy or girl from ages 9 to 21 can take part in 4-H Club work. The opportunities offered to 4-H Club members to grow in citizenship, leadership and practical skills are especially valuable to them, the state of Texas, and the Nation. 4-H Clubs are a proving ground for the training of future leaders.
 THEREFORE, I, as County Judge of Floyd County, Texas, do hereby designate the week of September 26 - October 2, 1965, as 4-H Club Week in Floyd County.

High Demands For Water By City Residents Reveal Need Of Wells

In a story appearing in the Hesperian last week it was stated that two new wells would be needed to handle the demands of next summer.
 Since last week a number of people have stated that they didn't know the city was facing a water shortage or a possible shortage in the near future.
 Presently the city has eight wells, and when all are functioning properly and at full capacity the wells can keep up with the demands of the city. But just like other machinery the wells occasionally break down, thus cutting down on the total amount of water the wells can produce.
 Also, the total per capita demand continues to climb with the rate of financial progress. As more washing machines are installed, as more air conditioners are installed, and as more dishwashers and other modern innovations are installed in homes, the higher the demand becomes per household.
 In 1955 the residents of the city of Floydada demanded a total of 389 million gallons of water daily. This is an average of the entire year. In July the water demand was at a high and in January and February the demand is at its lowest.
 In 1964 the demand had almost doubled jumping to a total of 679 million gallons for the city residents.
 Although some wells have been added over the years, the static and pumping levels of these wells drop as the irrigation wells of the area farmers.
 Here are a few examples: City Well Number 5, in September of 1964 had a static level of 211' and had a pumping level of 228', according to a recent water survey. In August of 1965, the static level had dropped to 232' and the pumping level was at 246'.
 City Well Number 8 has a similar record. In 1962 the static level (when the well is not pumping) was 185' and the pumping level was 199'. In August of this year the static level had dropped to 228' and the pumping level was at 239'.
 According to a statement by City Manager Bill Fuebacher recently, the city has eight wells, but usually only five are pumping at one time. There is usually work on the lines, or wells, in progress that takes the other three wells off the lines. Therefore, with eight wells the city is realizing benefit from only five.
 During the summer months, it was mentioned at the City Council meeting last week that during July, when demand is at an all-year high, the city has virtually no water to fight a major fire.
 The two wells the city is planning, whether or present

In September and October the girls will study for the Child Care badges under the supervision of Mrs. Jodie Jameson, registered nurse. Many of these thirteen and fourteen year old scouts are doing private baby sitting and this study will train them to give their clients dependable care.

A court awards is planned for mid-October when badges earned since last March will be presented. The latter part of October will find the qualified girls being challenged to entertain a group of friends with the girls making all of the plans and doing all of the work.

"Six Flags Over Texas" will be the theme of the musical the troop has chosen to write and produce during January and February for the Minstrel badge. Mrs. J. T. Hodge Jr., will help the girls study music for this badge. After the musical program is presented in public the troop will hold a court awards during Girl Scout Week in March. Elections will be held also that month.

April and May have been allotted for "Campcraft" badge work. Mrs. Willson Jr., will find adult trainers and Boy Scouts to show the girls how to pitch a tent, improve cooking equipment and prepare outdoor meals.

Long range plans for the troop include camping in Palo Duro Canyon and watching the historical pageant there. Later, in 1966, the girls hope to attend the HemisFair in San Antonio. Part of their 25 cents weekly dues will be placed in a savings account at the bank toward their goal. Many of the girls have chosen to earn all their dues this year by baby sitting, selling products and housework.

All 8th grade girls are invited to join the troop which meets each Thursday afternoon.

SOUTH PLAINS NEWS by Mrs. Murray Julain Community Saddened

SOUTH PLAINS, Sept. 20 - Our community has been shocked and saddened by the car accident Sunday evening which took the life of Mrs. Don Probasco, who had gone to Lubbock with Mrs. Bob Durham and children. We all grieve with Don and the little boys, Maury and Matt. Services are to be held in Wanda's church, the South Plains Baptist Church at 2 p.m. Tuesday afternoon. Members of Wanda's club, the La Than Club, assisted at the Probasco home on Monday, and the family met at the church on Tuesday noon. We extend our sincere sympathy to Don and his whole family.

Another tragedy occurred Friday night to the Latin-American family, the Villareal family, whose house burned, and six children, ranging from nine to one, were burned so badly. Arby and Nathan Mulder were the first to see the house burning and rushed there, to find the children already out of the house and in the road. They took them to the Lockney Hospital, and two of the children are to be taken to the John Sealy Hospital at Galveston, as soon as they can get them in. Everything the Villareal family had was burned in the fire, so if you have clothing for the parents, the small children, or any household goods which you can spare, please bring them to the Baptist Church at South Plains, and they will be greatly appreciated.

Mrs. Maud Brister underwent major surgery at the Lockney Hospital Friday morning and is doing as well as can be expected at this time, and certainly for her age, she is doing remarkably well. We hope she continues to improve daily.

I. H. Parks of the Parks Oil Company underwent surgery at the Methodist Hospital in Lubbock Friday, and he is getting along very well, according to reports. Saturday night when the tornado alert was given, all the patients of the hospital were rushed to the basement, and that was quite an experience for Sparky. We hope Sparky can be home soon.

Rain has fallen in our community since Thursday night when a very cold spell came into this region, cutting off all activity in fields. South Plains itself has had about seven inches of rain in this spell, and most everywhere there has been five inches. Some places have received more than this. It is most wonderful to see the sun shining this Tuesday morning, and to be able to get on the highway through muddy rural roads.

Mrs. H. L. Marble is undergoing major surgery at the Plainview Clinic in Plainview this Tuesday. She will be in the hospital for some time. Remember her with cards and your prayers.

Rev. Sealy Smith visited in Claude with Mr. and Mrs. Truman Bradshaw and family on Thursday and found that Mrs. Bradshaw is not feeling very well. Please write to them at Route 2, in Claude, and help them to pass the long hours of winter, as they are not able to get out very much.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Wood are to be home this Tuesday from Albuquerque, N. Mex. where they attended the New Mexico State. Monday Mrs. Wood attended the WMU Clinic in Amarillo and L. T. went to a cattle sale there.

Mrs. Billy Stanforth Jr. has announced there will be no meeting of the Hobby Club this week due to high water, muddy roads. The members are urged to please watch the bulletin board at Upton's Grocery in South Plains for a rescheduled meeting, as many things depend on the weather, etc.

The Annual Meeting of the WMU will be held at the South Plains Baptist Church on Friday, September 24. All are urged to attend.

Only 39 were present for Sunday morning Baptist Church services due to the rain and impassable roads. Visitors were the Rev. and Mrs. Junior Calahan, Dian, Kathy, Bary and Vicki, from Abilene, and Mr. and Mrs. Hilburn Casey of Lockney. Junior was here from his church because of recent throat surgery and was unable to preach.

The Rev. Sealy Smith is preaching in revival services at the Fanny Baptist Church all this week, and is driving back and forth. The congregation at Fanny is meeting in an equipment barn owned by Clarence Rathaal, and they are planning to rebuild the church which was recently destroyed by fire.

Jack Davis, of Seagraves, formerly of Lockney and nephew of Mrs. Alvin Nichols is in Methodist Hospital since Friday at Lubbock after having suffered a painful accident on a switch train there at Seagraves. He is a conductor of a freight train.

Mrs. E. G. Arnsman of Irving is here this week to stay with her sister, Mrs. Maud Brister, while she is in the Lockney Hospital.

The baby suffered an ear ache the past week, but is much better at present.

The Villareal family, whose house burned Friday night, worked for Leighton Teeple, and the house where they were living was on the Carl Daniel place near where the Carl Huckabys live.

Mrs. Fred Fortenberry went to Amarillo Friday accompanied by her mother, Mrs. N. C. McCain of Lockney and her sister, Mrs. Eunice Hutsell of Tulsa, and they visited Mrs. John McCain in the Northwest Texas Hospital where she is suffering from a leg operation. Mrs. McCain is to go home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Upton and three children came down this Monday night to visit over night and Tuesday with his folks, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Upton. Dale West left for college at West Texas State University at Canyon last week. Bill Bledsoe is enrolled at Texas Tech at Lubbock in the fall classes there.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lee Dunn of Lubbock visited over the past weekend here with her sister, the Eugene Beedys, Mark and Todd. The Jakey Youngers, Moody and Mysti of Floydada were Thursday afternoon visitors here.

Several from here went to Lubbock Saturday night for the football game between Kansas and Texas Tech, and we were apprehensive for their safety as the tornado alert was sounded during the game. Those we knew who went were Mr. and Mrs. Don Bean and Mr. and Mrs. Buton Beedy.

Nathan Mulder started to college classes at Wayland this Thursday and is driving back and forth from his home. Their new home is nearing completion and if weather gets back to normal the house will be moved out next week.

Mrs. George Weast spent Sunday and Monday in Amarillo visiting with her daughter and grandchildren, the E. T. Evans family.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Long of Silverton had dinner the past Sunday here with Mr. and Mrs. Frank McClure.

Mrs. John Key West came home from the Methodist Hospital on Saturday where she had spent the past week taking therapy treatments for her headaches. We hope she is doing fine.

Ring Produces First Bale Here

DOUGHERTY, Sept. 20 - The Darty Gin ginned first bale of the '65 season for Claude Ring Sept. 8 and paid him fifty cents per pound for this cotton. J. E. Newton and his stepson, Glen White have returned from a motor trip to Pleasant Valley, Iowa where they attended an Old Settlers Reunion and antique steam thresher exhibit. This was held on the County Fair grounds.

This display was of special interest to Newton because of his background work with steam engines. Before he entered the ginning industry he operated a steam thresher for custom service. A highlight of the event was a parade. Newton drove one of the threshers in the parade.

There were many models of machinery on display and a number of other shows. People from 32 states and 2 foreign countries were in attendance the day of the parade.

Newton speaks most favorably of the beautiful fertile farming region and the corn fields.

Enroute home they visited a cousin in Springfield, Missouri. Sunday Newton visited Mrs. Newton at the convalescent home in Lubbock.

Friends in this area will be interested to learn of the death Thursday of Mrs. Joe W. Boyd, 85, a Crosby County pioneer and a resident of the Wake Community in the early thirties. Burial was in Greenwood Mausoleum, Ft. Worth. She was the mother of Tom Boyd, a former resident of the Antelope Community.

She is survived by three daughters, two sons, her husband, a sister, nine grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Boyd have been residents of a convalescent home in the Lake Worth area for over a year. His condition is considered extremely critical.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Ring accompanied by Mrs. Birdie Burnett returned from a trip to Dublin and other points in that area Saturday night. Mrs. Burnett will be their house guest several days.

Mrs. Donald Bean has entered West Texas State College at Canyon and is driving back and forth each day with a friend from Silverton. Don's mother, Mrs. J. K. Bean is keeping Judi part time, and Jane is going three days a week, Monday, Wednesday and Friday during the mornings.

We are hoping that Arby Mulder improves at the Lockney Hospital. He was taken there Saturday night after he suffered black outs at his home. Doctors are not sure whether it is a virus, but they are still taking tests.

Hostesses Mmes. Don Shurbet, Rex Smitherman, Don Marble and Fred Marble held the September meeting of the La Than Club Thursday, Sept. 16 at 1:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Don Shurbet for a Hobe Club. Recently Floydada was awarded $12,000 to be put toward the construction of an airport. The full project is expected to cost around $100,000 and is presently planned to be situated on 74 acres of land adjoining the city on the north-east side of town.

Presently $12,000 has been secured. An additional $25,000 is sought by the fund raising committee. About $13,000 is expected from the city and county in the form of engineering fees, maintainer work and other construction work. About $60,000 is expected from the federal grant, although this is not definite.

The airport would be 5,280 feet in length, with 3,700 feet of paved runway. The landing strip would be about 50 feet in width. Also, control zones of 1,000 feet must be secured at each end of the north-south runway.

Letter To The Editor

Mr. Wendell Tooley
Floyd County Hesperian
Floydada, Texas
Dear Wendell:

I just want you to know of my deep gratitude for the support which your outstanding newspaper gave to our recent Attorney General's Youth Conference on Crime.

As you know, more than 1,600 young people from all over Texas came to Austin to study the problem of juvenile crime in this State, and to recommend ways in which this alarming rise could be halted. Their behavior while in Austin was completely beyond reproach, and they rendered valuable service to their State in carrying out these important responsibilities.

Your local delegation played a large role in these proceedings, and it was a great honor to meet and become associated with them. I hope that all of your area citizens will continue to support these delegates as they begin to implement these ideas, gained at the State Conference, at the local level.

The retail merchants group of the Floydada Chamber of Commerce met at a special called meeting last week and decided to re-work its monthly "Dollar Day" promotion with several changes.

The group decided to change the date each month from three days to only one day...each first Monday. Heretofore the merchants have featured merchandise specially priced on Friday, Saturday and Monday each month.

Committees have been appointed to contact every retail business in Floydada to cooperate with the new plan in order that a greater selection of bargains may be offered for the special sale day each month.

The Hesperian will publish a "merchandising circular" that will be mailed to the Floydada trade area with merchant's special prices.

Chairman of the group Parnell Powell presided at the meeting. Other business included reading of the last meeting minutes and a report from David Kirk on the Christmas lighting program.

Letter To The Editor

Mr. Wendell Tooley
Floyd County Hesperian
Floydada, Texas
Dear Wendell:

I just want you to know of my deep gratitude for the support which your outstanding newspaper gave to our recent Attorney General's Youth Conference on Crime.

As you know, more than 1,600 young people from all over Texas came to Austin to study the problem of juvenile crime in this State, and to recommend ways in which this alarming rise could be halted. Their behavior while in Austin was completely beyond reproach, and they rendered valuable service to their State in carrying out these important responsibilities.

Your local delegation played a large role in these proceedings, and it was a great honor to meet and become associated with them. I hope that all of your area citizens will continue to support these delegates as they begin to implement these ideas, gained at the State Conference, at the local level.

Again, my thanks to you for your help.

Renowned Cotton Breeder Joins Plains Cotton Seed Association

The developer of the well known 1517 Acala Cotton varieties, Dr. G. N. Stroman, has joined Growers Seed Association of Lubbock. According to Growers Seed Ass'n. Manager George Babcock, Dr. Stroman will carry out an extensive cotton research program for the Plains, Rolling Plains and Southwestern Oklahoma.

He will strive to incorporate some of the Acala varieties' good fiber qualities and added length into cotton varieties that can be successfully grown by Plains area farmers.

Dr. Stroman is world renowned for his cotton breeding research. He graduated from Texas A&M University and received his doctorate degree from the University of Wisconsin. During World War II, he served as a captain in the U. S. Army. In 1954, he retired as Professor Emeritus of Agronomy at New Mexico State University. After his retirement, he became director of the Institute of Genetics with the National Society of Agriculture in Peru. There, he carried out cotton breeding research until 1962. He then returned to Law Cruces, N. Mex. where he has continued a cotton breeding and research program.

Dr. Stroman will work to develop a variety—or varieties—of cotton that will initially produce a fiber with a staple length of 31/32 of an inch to 1 and 1/32 of an inch and is adapted to harvesting methods used in the area served by Growers Seed Association.

Dr. Stroman will also work to incorporate high strength into the new varieties of cotton. Preferably the cotton would have a Pressley (measure of strength) of at least 90,000

Ralls Rabbits Rout Whirlwinds In 43-8 Game

SPORTS

Locals Lone Score Comes On A Kickoff

The Ralls Jackrabbits had a field day last Friday night that highly pleased their hometown fans as the team blasted the Floydada Whirlwinds to the tune of 43-8.

In the game Ralls' Boydston carried the ball across the goal line on runs of 23, 70 and 76 yards. Rodney Moore carried the ball across on runs of 18 and 92 yards.

The lone Whirlwind score came in the third quarter, when Gary Lyles fielded the ball on the 40 after a short kickoff and ran through the middle of the Ralls team for the TD. However, this breath of life wasn't to last long for on the next play from the line of scrimmage Boydston took off around the right side and put the game out of reach once again.

Ralls won the toss of the coin and chose to receive the ball.

Don Boydston received the kickoff on his own 30 and returned the ball across the middle field stripe to the Floydada 48 before he was finally stopped.

Even with starting with such fire, however, Ralls failed to make a first down and kicked to the Floydada 25. But, Floydada couldn't get the offense rolling and returned the ball to Ralls on the Floydada 49.

After two plays, Ralls had a first down on the Floydada 38, but on the next play a Ralls fumble was recovered by Dennis Gotcher on the Floydada 38.

Three running plays gained only three yards, and a high toss from the center to Waldo West, who was back to kick, forced West into a running situation.

He was downed on the Ralls 46, only two yards short of the needed first down.

Boydston gained nothing when he hit the Floydada line, but Calvin Anderson picked up good yardage down to the Floydada 31 before he was halted.

The Floydada defense tightened somewhat, but on third down Mike Stevens got to the 12, where Ralls had a first and ten.

Anderson moved the ball to the eight, but a clipping penalty against Ralls moved the ball back to the 25.

Two passes went incomplete, then Ronnie Parks tossed to Boydston on a screen pass and he carried into the end zone for the first score of the game.

An offside penalty and an illegal procedure penalty nullified each other and on the second try the attempted kick missed its mark so the score stood Ralls, 6 and Floydada, 0.

Bearden received the kickoff on the 10 and moved out to the 30 before he was downed. However, a penalty against Floydada moved the ball back to the Floydada 15, where the Winds had a first and ten.

Two plays netted only four yards, and on third down Bearden carried to the 25, but fumbled and Ralls recovered at that point.

Anderson gained only one, but a personal foul against Floydada moved the ball to the 13, setting up first and ten. Two plays later, however, the fumble was exchanged when Rodney Moore failed to hang onto the ball and Mac Baker fell on it on the 11.

The Ralls defense rose up, at that point, and tossed Bearden for a nine yard loss back to the 2. But a penalty against Ralls moved the ball to the 17, where Floydada had second and five.

On the final play before the first quarter ended, Cantrell sneaked to the Floydada 35, to set up first and 10.

But the Winds failed once again to keep the offense moving and three plays later West's kick rolled dead on the Ralls 31.

The Jackrabbits were able to run only one play, for a fumble was recovered by Roland Adams on the Ralls 45.

Two plays later a pass from Cantrell to Tommy Weathersbee set the Winds in action on the Ralls 19. Bearden moved the ball to the 11, but a clipping penalty against Floydada moved the pigskin back to the 21.

Two passes went incomplete and on fourth down, facing 15, a Cantrell to West pass moved the ball to the 11, but it wasn't enough for the first down so Ralls took over.

Moore lost one on the first play and Boydston picked up 8 as he moved the ball to the 18. On the next play, Boydston got loose and went the distance for the touchdown. The try for point failed and the score remained 12-0, Ralls.

Bearden carried the kickoff back to the Floydada 45 before he met resistance from the Rabbits.

In three downs, Floydada had gained only two yards so West kicked. As a Ralls player tried to field the ball, Floydada was charged with interference and was penalized 15 yards, setting

Ralls up with a first and ten on the Ralls 40.

Stevens carried to the Floydada 45 for another first, but on the next play Ralls was penalized back to their own 39.

Two plays later Floydada received another break, when Anderson fumbled the ball and Clinton Fawver recovered. At that point the Winds started to move once again when a pass to Weathersbee carried to the 35. However, four plays netted only five yards and Ralls took over on the 30, but they too failed to gain any yardage and kicked to the Floydada 48.

One Whirlwind pass went incomplete and another attempt was intercepted by Stevens. Floydada was charged with a penalty for hitting too late and the ball was moved to the Floydada 49.

Three passing attempts went incomplete for Ralls before the half ended with the score Ralls, 12 and Floydada, 0.

After the intermission, Floydada received the kick-off and Bearden moved the ball from the 28 to the 26.

Two plays later a fumble gave Ralls the ball on the 25, and on the first play from scrimmage a pass from Rodney Moore to Mel Ryan went the distance for the TD.

The try for extra points was no good so Ralls led 18-0. Roland Adams moved the kickoff back to the 31, but on the first play from scrimmage Adams fumbled and Ralls recovered on the 34.

Ralls picked up a first down to the 24 and on first down West intercepted a Jackrabbit pass on the 15 and was finally downed by the last Ralls player between him and the goal on the 42.

Ralls exchanged the favor to e plays later, for Randy M rtin picked off a Cantrell to West aerial and returned it to the Floydada 46.

From that point Ralls marched down the field to the Floydada 19 before the Wind defense rose to the occasion and held the Rabbits for downs on the Floydada 25. The fourth down try was a pass broken up on the goal line by Bearden.

However, this stand was not to last long, for only three plays later a mixup on a play caused a fumble and Ralls recovered on the Floydada 18. Moore moved to the 16, and on the second play Moore again carried and went the distance for the TD.

Boydston's kick was good and Ralls led 25-0.

After that play, action became very fast and furious.

A short kickoff was fielded by Gary Lyles and he went through the middle of the Ralls team for a touchdown. The pass from Cantrell to West was good for two points, and the score stood 25-8, Ralls.

The Floydada kickoff was fielded by Moore on the 22 and he was downed on the 30. On the next play that same Boydston fellow took off around end and was finally tackled by Joe Christian in the end zone. The try for points was not good so the score was 31-8, Ralls.

Three plays later a Cantrell aerial was picked off by Edmond Esparza on the 40 and he added six points to the Ralls score.

The try for points was no good and the score stood 37-8. Three plays after the kickoff, Esparza again picked off a Cantrell pass and carried it to the Floydada 30. However, Ralls did not capitalize on that break for on the first play from scrimmage a Ralls fumble was recovered by Phil Green on the Floydada 30.

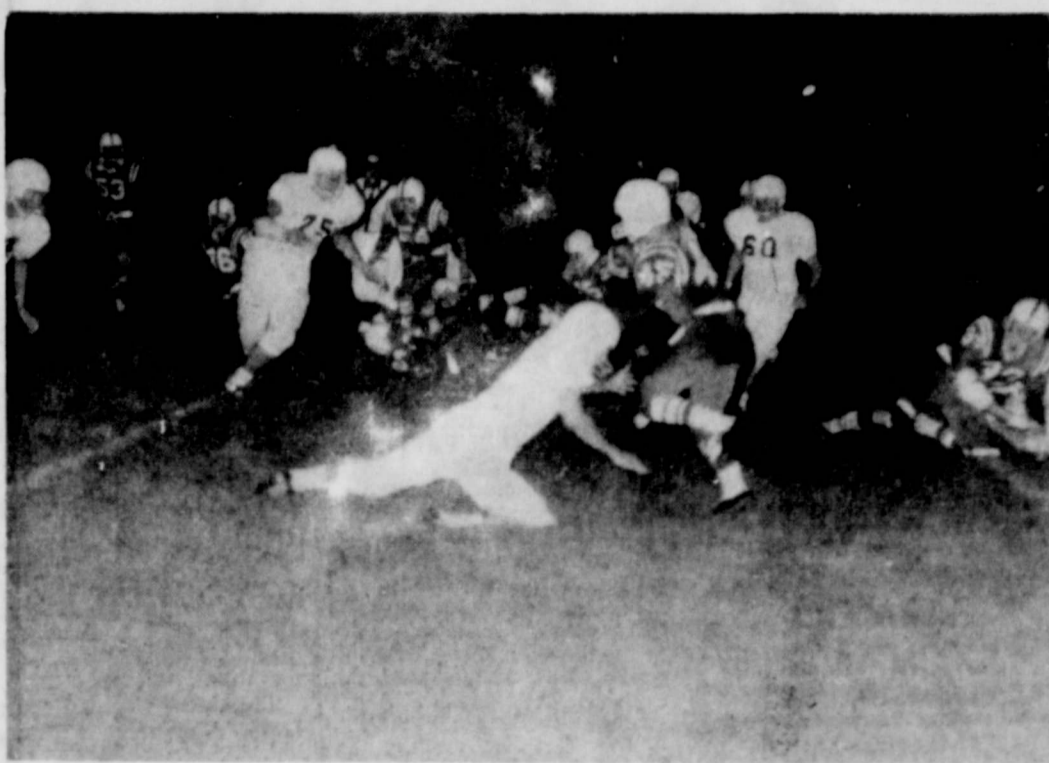

Floydada picked up a first down, but in the next series of downs two penalties stopped a would-be drive and the Winds called on West who punted to the Ralls 28. Boydston moved the ball to the 35 before he was downed.

The Rabbits called on the running of Boydston, Anderson and Parks to pick up a first down on the 45, but another three plays netted 3 yards and an attempted punt by Ralls was blocked and covered by Gary Lyles on the Floydada 45.

Two plays later, Esparza intercepted another pass and went out of bounds on the Ralls 42. Bearden returned the favor on the next play by picking off a Ralls pass on the 30 and returning to the Ralls 47. After three plays netted no gain, West's punt was taken by Esparza on the Ralls 19 and returned to the 30, but a clipping penalty against Ralls moved the ball back to the 8.

This didn't discourage the Rabbits, for on the first play from scrimmage Moore got loose and outran the Whirlwind team to the goal line.

The try for points was not

Freshmen, B Team Win Games Against Tulia, Crosbyton

In games played at Wester Field last week both the Freshmen and the "B" teams were victorious over their opponents.

The Freshmen downed Tulia 30-12 and the "B" team stopped Crosbyton 18-0.

Tim Rose led the scoring for the Freshmen as he crossed the goal line three times. Steve Craig scored two TD's for the locals.

The first counter came on an 8-yard run by Rose in the first quarter climaxing a sustained drive. Tulia fought back, however, and led 12-6 at halftime.

After the intermission, the locals stormed back with four scores to take the game.

In the B game, Larry Barbee and Glenn Bertrand put the points on the board. The first to score was Barbee in the first quarter. The second stanza was scoreless so Floydada led 6-0 at the half.

In the third quarter, Bertrand got loose for a long run and added six points. The final score came in the fourth quarter, a pitchout from Barbee to Bertrand that was good for the six points.

The defense of the "B" team is credited with the victory, for Crosbyton was never in a threatening situation. In fact, it is thought that Crosbyton did not cross the mid-field stripe during the course of the game.

Tonight, the Freshman and "B" teams go to Olton for their second games of the year.

Those making talks included Shirley Irwin, Jack McIntosh, Corky Guffee and Sam Spence with McIntosh winning the cup for being the best speaker of the evening. John Reue was general critic.

Guests, Alton Higginbotham, Carl Jarrett, Jim Lackey and Roy Kinard, were introduced by Wayne Collins, who was also a guest.

Harris gave the news. LAST NIGHT At a meeting last night Corky Guffee was toastmaster and speakers were Ralph Mardis, Guy Ginn and Weldon Harris. John Reue served as president.

NEXT WEEK Guy Gill will be toastmaster at next week's meeting and speakers will include J. B. Bishop, Bob Fitzgerald, L. A.

good and score remained 43-8. After the kickoff, Floydada was unable to move, for an illegal motion penalty moved Floydada back to midfield, where on the next play a Floydada fumble was recovered by Ralls on the Rabbits 49.

Ralls was unable to move the ball, but on fourth down, an anxious Whirlwind touched the punter and that cost the winds 15 yards. On the second try, the punt was fielded by Adams but he fumbled the ball and Ralls recovered on the Floydada 21.

The Floydada defense threw Ralls back on three consecutive plays and the game ended with the score 43-8, Ralls.

It was the third defeat in a row for the Whirlwinds and the third victory in a row for the Ralls team.

Next week Floydada will host the Bobcats from Childress, who are also winless in three outings.

DO BLESSING

Football seems to be getting more for the thing the game than playing.

Several years ago, I had a winning writer has heard that hasn't lost more games in the last ten years.

A little research also changes your mind before you even see a "winning" season.

It seems that the winning team doesn't immediately they sit under why.

The wondering "why" of last Friday night the team didn't hit was mix-up on several plays, the locals had taking advantage of plays didn't play all, etc.

Ball playing was number of times for every player would fumble for a split second he would realize he would realize he was.

It seemed to have a desire, and a lot of "care" attitude to come with most of them are winning.

Some of the team members good game, and put effort, but the 11 cannot work together.

Of spirit can harden on anyone except for the student body.

The team had good high hopes at Ralls. I cannot be transferred from the field, I grow from there, I am leaders, participation is suffering, with no reflection.

However, one of the past last week, I believe, one of the best football to get another, Zeke Robb, offering from a football that possibly could be injured in a wreck.

He played plays last week and he see action this week.

Only one, Clinton carry the load that is carried by team leaders. It is a person, he needs others, namely the wind team.

Winning and losing are a few of season results.

CRYSTAL BALL Q.B.

(Crystal Ball QB)

This quarterback didn't fare too well last week. While the winner of the football contest missed only three, this one missed ten predictions. Here's hoping for a better record this week.

Floydada will beat Childress. The Whirlwinds have scored 8 points in each of their games, and the Bobcats have yet to score. Ralls will down Lockney Abernathy will take Post, Tulia will walk over Dimmitt, Hale Center and Olton will battle it out, but give this one to Hale Center, Spur will win over Matador, Iowa Park will fall to Hirsch, Quannah will defeat Crowell.

Silverton will win over Happy, Springlake will ease by Roosevelt, Monterey will defeat Midland, Plainview will lose to Amarillo. Phillips will down Canyon, Hereford will take Littlefield, Perryton will have little trouble with Dalhart and Crosbyton will blast Slaton.

On the college scene, Arkansas over Tulsa, after the showing last week the Bears will overcome Washington, Rice will fall to LSU, Houston will defeat Cincinnati, SMU will fall to Illinois, Texas will defeat Tech, Georgia Tech will overcome the Aggies, Florida State will take TCU and Texas Western will fall to New Mexico.

Don't forget the Freshmen and "B" games tonight and the Floydada-Childress game tomorrow night at Wester Field.

FAIRVIEW NEWS

FAIRVIEW, Sept. 20 - Rain! Rain! how wonderful it is - the entire country has received a much needed rain during the period since Friday morning. Up to this morning parts of Fairview and here in town around 4 inches and more has been received, other parts of the community has received near 3 inches and still raining at this writing. Dryland farmers are making plans to start sowing wheat when the land dries sufficiently to get in the fields. This rain will also help late feed to mature.

We were all sorry to learn of the serious accident Sunday night that took the life of one and injured several more - one of the injured was Dee Ann Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson. Dee Ann is a patient in Methodist Hospital at this time.

Lee Rushing and Walton Wilson were among the large crowd that attended the ball game at Lubbock Saturday night between Tech and Kansas. Lee reports the game was rained out after the third quarter and folks sought shelter as soon as they could, due to the fact that tornado warnings were out for Lubbock and the area around town. Lee Rushing spent the night and Sunday morning with his son, Joe and family.

Elaine Warren spent the day Sunday with Jan Perry and had dinner with her.

Mrs. Bob Poe of Amarillo spent last week here visiting her father, Lee Rushing.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wise, Charles Denton and Mona Dell attended funeral services Friday in Amarillo for his nephew, Charles Cox. Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Payne returned home last Tuesday from Stamford Lake where they had been since Sept. 3rd. On Sunday Sept. 12th Mr. and Mrs. Oran Hatley went down to the lake to visit with the Cecil Paynes.

Mrs. J. L. Day was a Sunday night supper guest in the C. H. Wise home.

Mrs. Ruey Irwin was in Skellytown from Friday until Sunday visiting in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Merle Mercer and family. On Saturday afternoon Mrs. Mercer and Mrs. Irwin went to Spearman where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Frank Cook. Mrs. John Castle and Mrs. Carl Burgett of Yuma, Arizona, who also attended the funeral brought Mrs. Irwin home Sunday and visited for awhile here. Mrs. Carl Burgett's sister and husband of Yuma were also in the group.

Mrs. Walton Wilson visited at Lockney Gen. Hospital last Tuesday with Mrs. Thomas McCowen and twin babies.

Thursday Mrs. Walton Wilson kept her grandsons, Mike and Norman Allen, while their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Allen attended funeral services at Calvary Baptist Church for Harvey's uncle, John Edward Childs.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Payne spent Thursday in Lubbock. The Dorcas Sunday School class met at the home of Mrs. Arel Rainer on Tuesday afternoon. A quilt was put together at this meeting. Present were Mmes. R. R. Waller, George Smith, Leonard Smith, P. D. Helms, Everett Warren, Waldo Cox, V. D. Turner, Clyde Bagwell, C. W. Denison, Clarence Goins, Henry Willis, Roy Fowler and Mrs. Harrison, and the hostess Mrs. Arel Rainer.

Mrs. W. B. Wilson accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tye went to Amarillo Sunday afternoon. While up that way they went to Claude where they spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Beedy.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Walls spent last week from Monday until Friday afternoon at Lake Texoma fishing. They were joined there by her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Marsee of Norman, Oklahoma.

Wednesday visitors in the Cecil Payne home were Mrs. Winfred Payne and Mrs. Ronnie Payne and girls.

Mrs. Oran Hatley and Mrs. Cecil Payne spent Thursday afternoon in Plainview.

Mrs. Kay Crabtree and little son, Sam came home Wednesday morning from Plainview hospital. Hope's mother, Mrs. Elmer Griffith of Idalou, came over Wednesday afternoon and stayed until Saturday with her daughter and family.

Tuesday visitors in the home of Mrs. L. E. Crabtree were Mmes. Fred Battey, Ola Warren and Thelma Jones.

Last Monday night visitors in the C. H. Wise home were her sister, Mrs. Jo. M. Parkes of Panorama City, California, and Mr. and Mrs. Allan Tomlinson of Lubbock, who brought Mrs. Parkes here from Lubbock. Tuesday another sister of Mrs. Wise, Mrs. Bill Mulkey of Paducah, came to visit. On Wednesday Mrs. Parkes went back to Lubbock and from there to Dallas, to visit other relatives before returning home.

Mrs. L. E. Crabtree, Kay Crabtree and little daughter Becky were supper guests last Tuesday night in Plainview with Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Finley.

Mrs. L. E. Crabtree visited at Ralls Saturday morning with her mother, Mrs. G. M. Bullard and on the way home she visited her sister, Mrs. L. B. Cobzy.

Humble building. This sounded better to us as it was already too late to be on the road. The wind was close to a hundred miles per hour and things were beginning to move.

The six mile drive to the office was rather harrowing as visibility was limited; quite a few cars were out, and so was the flying debris. We arrived safely though, as did many other Humble employees. I managed to make beds for the kids, Norma and the dog on and under my desk and table and we sat the night out in total darkness. Winds were gauged at the airport up to 175 miles per hour and believe me that is a wind.

This six story building did some shifting and shaking (so did I). My greatest fear, though, was from flying glass, so I kept a pretty nervous vigil by the window in my office. About midnight we thought there was a very short lull which was probably the very edge of the "eye" of Betsy. The eye passed about 25 miles west of New Orleans and turned and went right up the highway to Baton Rouge. So we were thankful we didn't go that route.

Along about 2 or 3 a.m. the place began to show the stress and strain. The windows in the offices on either side of my office went out (or in) and we got water flooding from that. Also part of the roof on sixth floor was blown off and water dripped through my ceiling. When things got light enough and calmed down a bit I discovered Norma on the sleeping bag in a huge puddle of water! Through it all no one complained, and the kids slept from about midnight on.

As soon as daylight came we packed up to head back to the house to see what was left. We experienced some high water on the road, but it wasn't bad. Buildings all along were terribly damaged and some were total losses. A Blueprint company next to the Humble building was flat. The whole back wall fell out, and the glass front blew in. However, we hadn't heard of any flooding yet.

We very cautiously approached our neighborhood as all the power lines were down, and debris was all over the road. We had to park on the next block over and wade thru the mud to our apartment. All around were fallen trees and lumber. All the way home no one said a word - I guess we were just too tired or something. Our great surprise of course was to find that we had absolutely no damage. At this point we stopped to thank God for sparing our lives and our home. We felt very humble indeed and were to feel more thankful as time went on.

All around us things were wrecked. Every other apartment had some windows broken or roof damage. The one on the end of the street was in bad shape. Both ends fell off and complete windows and facings blew out of it. Fortunately it was not occupied yet. Two business buildings directly across the street were completely demolished. One, an older building, was concrete block. The second floor was missing and crumbled in the street in front. A new concrete brick building next to it was totally collapsed you couldn't even tell where it had been - just a pile of rubble. So you see our little apartment STOOD OUT as the only one around not damaged - especially to us. The landlord remarked, "You must be living right." My only thought and remark to him was that "I certainly hope so!"

Of course our area is probably in as good or better shape than any place else in New Orleans, and the terrible flooding which has taken place in Palmettes and St. Bernard Parishes is horrifying. I'm sure you all know more about that than we do as we have no TV, etc., and of course can't go over there to see it. They have begged people to stay away as it is hampering rescue operations, so we haven't tried to get out.

We feel so very lucky, because our greatest suffering has been only from the heat and lack of water and lights. There are still people being rescued and several thousand homeless, in rescue centers, etc. All kinds of aid is coming in, but it can never replace their losses. I've been real pleased and proud of the church. Several vans of food and clothing have been funneled in from Dallas, Houston, etc. and distributed by the churches here. I heard yesterday that some member who owned a shoe store sent 300 pairs of shoes.

And now for the present status of the Levys. I'm quite sure that we are in as good shape as anyone in town, but far from "back to normal."

First of all, I've never been quite so proud of my family. Not one has complained about anything. I've decided they're made out of pretty good stuff!!! I had made a few pre-hurricane preparations, such as taping the windows, stacking furniture, getting flash light and transistor batteries, filling the tub and all available containers with water, etc. Well, when we finished straightening up after it was over, I went for a drink of water and discovered most of it had been poured out, the plug was pulled and we had very little drinking water. As the city water was contaminated, I became a little disturbed. Upon questioning Norma I found that she was guilty. When I asked her why she had poured the water out, she confessed that she didn't really expect to see the place again anyway, so why save water! Oh well!!! We also had laid up a few days supply of juice, Vienna sausage, etc. to eat on. Well, we've eaten out for a week now and the pickings are getting a little slim.

We can't keep milk or get ice, so this is a little problem. I haven't heard the kids, even Suzi, ask for milk, so how can I complain for not having coffee. Restaurants are beginning to open now, so last night we went out to eat. We're a little bit afraid of food poisoning, as things spoiled all over town. It just adds to the over-all stench of the swamp.

This morning after our peanut butter and jelly and glass of water the kids started back to school and I to work. So now Mama is left alone in that hot, sticky apartment. We have kept our minds somewhat off the depressing heat by playing hearts, monopoly, reading, etc., but sleeping is a little rough. We don't have screens, so when we open our windows we have mosquitoes. If they are closed we suffocate. So we try both. Most New Orleans schools are closed until further notice. One school was demolished and many others damaged and flooded. Most books had not been issued. They and the school buses were stored in a warehouse which flooded. So what was already a crowded, inadequate school system will be worsened. Thank goodness our kids are enrolled in Ganus school which had very little damage.

Electric power has now been restored to about 2/3 of Jefferson Parish, where we live, so I'm sure we will have it in a few days, and even if we don't our plight is so minor in comparison to some. They are still finding people trapped in attics and on roof tops, etc., so we feel very grateful that we are in as good a condition as we now are.

I'm assuming that you of our relatives and friends will want to know how we came out during the storm, so I'm having prints made of this to send you as Norma or I find the time and desire to write. We appreciate your concern, especially those who have called or tried to call and/or have written. Right now even though we know we have been wonderfully blessed just a little depressed and very homesick. So, please us in your prayers and write us when you have time. Love to Keith and Keitha.

Letter To The Editor

EDITOR'S NOTE:
(The following letter was written to the J. A. Arwines by Keith Levy, son-in-law of Mrs. Arwine, telling of the family's experiences in Hurricane Betsy. The Levy family had been transferred from Amarillo to New Orleans just one month to the day when Hurricane Betsy struck)

Wed. Sept. 15, 1965

Dear Arwines,
For several days I had followed the course of Betsy with some anxiety wondering just where along the Gulf coast she would come onshore. However, no one appeared too concerned until she started veering to the NNW and heading straight for New Orleans. Of course, the primary thing on my mind was whether to leave the city or not. Most of New Orleans is at sea level or below and protected from Lake Pontchartrain on the north and the Mississippi River on the south by natural and man made levees and dams.

A series of canals are cut through the city for normal drainage, and pump stations are set up in these canals to pump water back up to the lake's and river's level.

The Levys reside about 1/2 mile south of Lake Pontchartrain. If a hurricane were to hit just east of us where the counter-clockwise swirl of wind would hit the lake just right, we would receive lake water in our laps and be flooded out. Well, we were undecided as to what course to take. Norma didn't want to leave all of our possessions when she felt that we could stay there and prevent normal damage from leaking roofs and broken windows. I, on the other hand, being of a cowardly nature anyway, was packed and ready to go. We received calls from friends wanting us to leave and spend the night with them, but just hated to leave so far from town. A couple who lives across the lake called and since they are about 20 feet above sea level, I thought that might be the thing to do. However, in a very few minutes we heard that waves were going over the Causeway and the bridge was being closed.

Our power went off at 8:30 p.m. and we were left with a transistor radio and a few candles. The reports became worse and worse and the Mayor finally came on the radio and ordered the evacuation of all people north of Veterans Highway which is an east-west road about a mile south of the lake. This included us. Well, it was too late to leave the city as all roads but one were closed. This was highway 61 to Baton Rouge. I was afraid it would be jammed and have accidents blocking it, etc., but packed the car with a few blankets, food, our movies and slides, and Norma's silver. We thought if we lost everything we'd still have our pictures with us. Earlier in the evening we had moved the picnic table, benches and card tables in the center of the floors and had stacked as much furniture as we could, as high as we could get it off the floor.

Just before leaving the house I happened to think of one of the Humble fellows who goes to church with us. He lived in the evacuating area, so I asked him what he was planning to do. He said he was heading for the

County Agent's Corner

Cotton Harvest has begun here in Floyd County and several farmers have thought about applying a harvest aid chemical. Selection and application of the chemical is a very important factor in the harvesting operation.

Fred Elliott, extension cotton specialist, reports that desiccants have been more effective in preparing cotton for mechanical stripping than true defoliation.

A desiccant does not cause all the leaves to fall to the ground. Because of faster action on the tissue of the leaf, it may dry and stick on the stalk. A true defoliant will make all the leaves fall off a plant.

The two desiccants approved by USDA are Arsenic Acid and Pentachlorophenol. If Arsenic Acid is used do not harvest within 4 days of application and apply with 80% or more of cotton open. Special care should be taken not to contaminate livestock feed with Arsenic Acid as it is highly toxic to man and animals. Do not exceed 1 1/2 qt. per acre of Arsenic Acid.

Pentachlorophenol may be used as a desiccant only if the seed from the cotton is not used for food, feed, or oil purposes. Its application rate is from 2 to 3 qts. per acre.

Sodium Chlorate defoliants are used more in this area than other type defoliants. Their application rate is from 1 1/2 to 2 gallons per acre and cotton should not be harvested within 7 days of application.

Several questions have been asked about trying to graze sorghum stubble land infested with castor beans. Castor beans and Castor bean plants are poisonous to man and animals. Extreme care should be taken not to contaminate food or feed products or grazing with castor beans or plants.

from the Estlene Holmes family.

Mrs. Tucker announced that Thursday (today) was regular community meeting night, and that Mrs. Hopper is a voting club delegate for the September 21 meeting in Austin.

Those attending club meeting were Mmes. Glenn Curtis, J. R. Turner, Walter Hanna, White Howe, Horace Carr, Glenn Pool, R. B. Gary, Truman Dunavant, Mather Carr, Bob Hopper, Bob Ratjen, Zant Scott, Marion Tucker, Sherwood Ramsey, Everett Miller, Roy Hale, and guests Mrs. Charles Carr, David Carr and Mrs. Bill Hardin.

Marital Ties Appear Strong In Floyd

(Special to the Hesperian)
NEW YORK, Sept. 13 - Floyd County is a marriage-minded community. The records show that local residents marry early and stay married longer than people in most parts of the country.

By the same token, the proportion of divorced men and women in the local population is below average.

According to the latest Department of Commerce figures, approximately 73 per cent of the Floyd County residents over age 14 are married and living together in normal husband-wife relationship.

Why is it that marriage is on a sounder, longer-lasting foundation with some couples than to do with money. A University of Michigan study, covering some 900 families, reveals that financial problems affect more marriages than any other category of disagreement.

This is so, it appears, even though financial security is not the most sought-after aspect of marriage.

FLOYDADA, TEXAS

The figures show that of every 1,000 local marriages above age 14 are divorced. This does not include those who remarried having been divorced.

The rate is a better one in the rest of the country where it amounts to 1,000 in Texas it is 1,000.

The net result of breakdowns in the United States whether caused by death or separation, of every 10, are now less and are headed by divorcees. Another 4.9 million families, of every 10, are now separated or divorced.

FLOYD PHILOSOPHER

Doubts Tax On Fat People Feasible As New Tax Source

Editor's note: The Floyd philosopher on his Johnson grass farm acknowledges a letter from this reader this week.

Dear editor:

Ordinarily I don't answer mail, the post office department has enough to do as it is, but a letter from a college professor has found its way to this Johnson grass farm and due to the fact it concerns the most pressing problem facing America today -- how to find new sources of tax revenue faster than Congress passes new legislation -- I have decided to acknowledge it.

According to it, a new source of revenue was discovered in ancient Gaul centuries ago. They taxed fat people. They set up a legal size for a stomach and any man whose belly window went beyond the limit was taxed proportionately. I think it was called a luxury tax.

I have been thinking this matter over and while it has possibilities, it has some drawbacks too.

In the first place, it would never get past Congress. I wouldn't say Congressmen are any fatter than the rest of the country, but there are enough fat ones that the girth limit would be set so high most people would escape the tax.

In the second place, you bring everybody in this country down to a size 30 waist and it'll wreck agriculture. As it is now, every time a television commercial comes on telling a woman to eat one meal a day and spend the other two drinking a can of low-calorie stuff, the government has to put up a dozen more surplus grain storage bins.

Reduce the waist of the 50 million people in this country who are out of shape and you reduce the consumption of cloth by at least twenty per cent.

This country needs new sources of tax revenue, I estimate at least one for every new planet we land on, but taxing fatness is too dangerous. It may have worked in ancient Gaul, I don't know. All I know is that ancient Gaul ain't around anymore. At least I don't believe it is, I never have seen it mentioned in any of the lists of countries we're sending surplus grain to.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Bennett One Of First To Fly New C-141 Starlifter

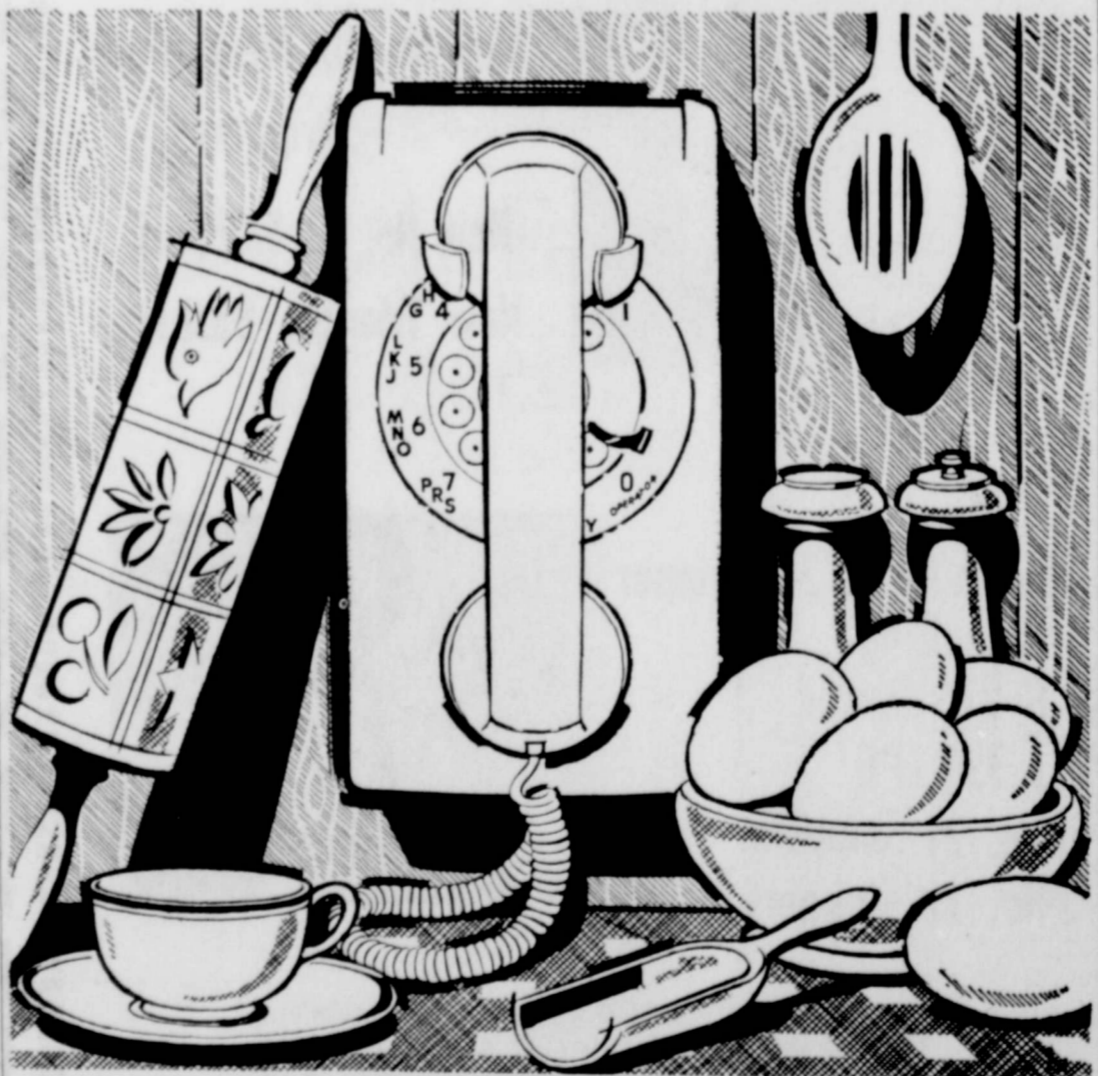

NORTH CHARLESTON, S. C. -- Captain Clyde E. Bennett, son of Mrs. J. C. Bennett of St. Matthews, S. C., is a member of the first aircrews at Charleston AFB, S. C., to fly the Military Air Transport Service's (MATS) new C-141 Starlifter.

Captain Bennett's unit at Charleston--the 3rd Air Transport Squadron--recently received first delivery on the east coast of the giant Lockheed-built jet transport being added to MATS airlift fleet.

With cruising speeds of more than 500 m.p.h., the versatile Starlifter can transport up to 63,000 pounds of cargo or 154 combat troops nonstop from Charleston across the Atlantic to Europe. The aircraft's short take-off and landing characteristics make it usable at 1,850 airports around the world.

The captain, a pilot, is a 1950 graduate of St. Matthews High School and has an A. B. degree in education from the University of South Carolina. A member of Sigma Chi, he received his commission at the university upon completion of the Reserve Officer Training Corps program in 1955.

His wife, Dolores, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Roberson of Petersburg, Tex.

... council and city management of today and the last four years has been able to operate the city on a sound basis. This means that the city can give its facilities and services... yet maintain a profit and is paying out a tremendous investment of property tax.

Highway route not far off

... approval in Austin last week of a single state highway number for a route from the Texas Panhandle to Post is greeted with enthusiasm and at other towns along the route, particularly in the Panhandle, where the project was started rolling on the project late last year.

... organizational meeting was held in Post last month prior to the appearance of a delegation from counties along the route before the Highway Commission to ask for the designation of the route.

... after the organization was formed here, the Chamber of Commerce included the one-way designation in its program of work. Happily, it is now a reality following the highway commission's approval—subject only to the consent of Armstrong and Briscoe counties furnishing the right-of-way along the present route of a market road.

... original plans were for Big Spring to be the southern terminus of the route, but the highway commission made Post the stopping point because of some of the roads between here and Big Spring not meeting all requirements. The backers of the project, who have kept in touch with developments since the designation was made, feel, however, that it will be long before the newly-designated State Highway 207 will extend on to Big Spring.

... Big Spring, the highway would connect the heavily travelled highways, including 101, and would be promoted as a new north-south route. One advantage of the new route will be the routing of tourist traffic to the state Meredith at Borger.

... towns and cities along the newly-designated route stand to benefit. Instead of the present maze of other highways and market roads, it will be a new route in a single state highway designation.

... officer of the organization said no difficulties are contemplated in securing the required right-of-way in Armstrong and Briscoe counties. If correct, then the new route markers along the newly-designated State Highway 207 will be in place by the next printing of the Official Highway Map, which will be during the fall of 1966.—CD

Airports Are For People Who DON'T Fly

by CHARLES SPENCE
AOPA 128243

Frequently, people who don't fly have more compelling reasons to develop airports than do the pilots and passengers.

This was graphically brought to the attention of the people of Cartersville, Ga., early this year. Cartersville was seeking to attract a branch plant of the Oster Company which would employ 500 to 600 people. Although an airport is planned, the site had not yet been selected.

Instead of locating in Cartersville, Oster chose Dayton, Tenn. The vice president in charge of manufacturing for Oster, Roger W. Wallace, wrote to the mayor of Cartersville: "I feel quite certain that had Cartersville had an airport adjacent to the town, our decision probably would have been in favor of Cartersville. Unfortunately, we cannot wait until an airport is built before opening our next facility."

For the people of Cartersville who don't fly, this meant many things. The United States Chamber of Commerce says that every 100 new factory jobs created in a community brings an annual personal income increase of $710,000 which converts into $331,000 more in retail sales; adds $229,000 more in bank deposits. It means 97 more automobile registrations, 359 more population, three new retail establishments, and 65 new jobs in nonmanufacturing.

The merchants of Cartersville who do not use airplanes can calculate what over a million-and-a-half dollars a year in retail sales would mean. The service station owners who have no more interest in aviation than sending an occasional air mail letter can figure how many gallons of gasoline would be pumped into those 97 new automobiles.

There is no malice in pointing the finger at Cartersville. It is a progressive community and will continue to grow as the rest of Georgia is growing. The Georgia Department of Industry and Trade in just one year helped to bring 106 new industries into the state. These industries invested $135,000,000 and employed 7,500 people. There are airports in 82 of the counties in Georgia, and Cartersville is on its way to adding another.

But the rapid growth of general aviation is catching many communities with their windsocks down.

In Owensboro, Ky., an electrical industrial plant moved to a city in Indiana because there were no proper airport facilities. When Owensboro established an airport, the plant returned.

Marion, O., lost several potential industrial plants to neighboring Tiffin because the airport was not adequate. A new industrial airport has been built at Marion, and the city now competes for industry on an even basis.

In city after city, people who don't fly are paying the penalties for inadequate airport facilities. With today's range and speed of aircraft, it is easy for a pilot to pass up a place where he wants to land for a place where he can land to conduct his business or enjoy his leisure. Management men find many communities offering comparable advantages, and it is often more efficient to locate where the advantage of air travel can also be found.

A recent study by the Missouri Industrial Development Division among the top 500 corporations revealed that 85% indicate that convenience of an airport would be essential to plant location. Translated to people who don't fly, this means that eight out of 10 places where they can find work consider the airplane and the airport of sufficient importance to influence the place of doing business.

The airport itself is seldom the only factor in plant location. Utilities, tax structure, employment pools, marketing areas, many factors are weighed. But consistently the airport rates among the top five considerations.

Attracting new industry to help a community to grow is but one side of an airport's benefits. Keeping existing business is another.

Firms employing more than 86% of all industrial workers around South Plainfield, N. J., were surveyed regarding retaining and improving Hadley Field. Thirty per cent of the firms indicated they could consider a new location elsewhere in order to be convenient to a business airport. More than half—56.1%—said that if they were not already located, a modern airport facility would be an inducement to so locate.

Only 24% of the firms actually used business aircraft themselves, but nearly three times that many commented on the advantage of a good facility as far as customers and suppliers are concerned.

Convenience for customers is brought out pointedly by the mayor of St. Paul, Minn., in his written report on what airports mean to the Twin Cities area. More than 100 companies in the area use business airplanes to the extent of having fulltime professional pilots. Just one of these—the Minnesota Mining and Manufacturing Company—brings at least 100 visiting executives, customers, and consultants to the area every month.

At the other end of the population scale is a town like Alva, Okla. An airstrip in this town in the western part of the state became the foundation for several businesses and one of the largest payrolls of the county. The airplanes make it possible for local businessmen to compete on an area-wide and statewide basis. The general aviation airplane fills a travel need here all the way from flying in a much-needed spare part for a combine which keeps a harvest crew working to air ambulance service to Denver and Wichita. Mayor Wister Newby has said: "Alva testifies to the impact general aviation can have on the economic well-being of a modern community that becomes an active part of this vigorous and fabulous age of business flying."

For the people who don't fly, general aviation might not seem so "vigorous and fabulous." But, airplanes operated solely for business purposes outnumber all domestic scheduled airlines more than 20 to one. These business airplanes fly more hours than all the airlines combined.

Just one airplane was so important to the success of one firm that the company refused to locate in a Mississippi town because there was no airport. The town built an airport at the cost of $153,000. The plant located, employed more than 300 people and retail sales in the area have been more than a million dollars a year higher each year for the past three years that the plant has been operating.

"One airplane," an industry spokesman said, "may not seem vigorous or fabulous. But neither is one computer in the accounting department, nor one telephone switchboard. But when their contributions are related to the total aspects of doing business, each indeed is not only important but vital."

A third benefit that airports provide for people who don't fly is bringing transient money into the local economy. The famous "Fact Finder" study conducted by the Michigan Department of Aeronautics revealed that, statewide, 46% of the itinerant air passengers arrived in communities aboard their own or chartered aircraft (54% came by airlines). In one year, the study estimates that these transient general aviation travelers spent $110,000,000 in the communities they visited.

A single airport study at Fort Lauderdale, Fla., was even more impressive in showing general aviation's economic impact. Here, two out of three transient air travelers last year arrived by general aviation and before departing deposited more than $8,500,000 in the local economy.

Because of the direct relationship between business and airports, the "Industrial Airport" is gaining attention in cities of all sizes. In Hartford, Conn., the airlines outgrew Brainard Field and moved to a regional airport serving both Hartford and Springfield, Mass. One runway was retained at Brainard and the remaining land area divided into industrial plots. At least eight industries are now located on the airport.

The airport at Marion, O., was built by private capital with a public subscription to raise enough money to pave the runway. The runway was deeded to the city and surrounding land zoned for industry.

In Manchester, N. H., it took the near loss of an important local industry to cause the development of an industrial airport. Ten years ago, the Marian Electric Company was unable to locate at the Manchester Airport because the field was occupied by the Air Force. When the company began negotiations for property in Concord, the city of Manchester took action resulting in a new lease with the Air Force which would permit 40 acres to be sold to the electric company. Today, an industrial airport of 98 acres is located between the runways and additional space on the periphery of the field has been set aside for industrial expansion which city officials hope in five years will triple the present 1,000 workers at the airport-based plants.

The importance of locating airports where they can be readily accessible to people on the move is stressed by Cole Morrow, Director of Airports Service for the Federal Aviation Agency. "The airport," says Mr. Morrow, "is an en route stop, not a destination for most travelers." Neither is it the starting point for most travelers, although business frequently seeks for it to be.

When the Industrial Asphalt Company of California decided to construct a new headquarters office building, the only one rigid requirement laid down for the building site was that it had to be adjacent to an airport. Van Nuys was chosen and the new office was constructed with a taxiway leading from doorway to runway.

One of the most comprehensive reports on the value of airports was compiled by the Eastern Region of the FAA and published under the title "General Aviation and Its Relationship to Industry and the Community."

In it, the Burroughs Corporation is quoted as looking at the air cargo advantage of convenient airport location. "Most shipments of our products are small, not bulky. A local facility with good service would be helpful for our long-range growth."

Another quote from this report sums up what many business people have long known and what people who don't fly are learning. Aluminum Company of America said: "Development of an airport with reasonable facilities has historically been a factor favorably considered by business concerns."

This need to be "favorably considered" by community leaders and the general public was spotlighted by FAA's Oscar Baake in a speech to the Queens County Chamber of Commerce in New York City. "New York City," Baake said, "thought nothing of spending $51,000,000 and moving almost 6,000 families to build the approaches for the Verrazano Narrows Bridge, yet is reluctant to protect the approaches to Kennedy International Airport."

There are signs, however, that this reluctance to airports is weakening, if not yet disappearing. Recently, the Utility Airplane Council of Aerospace Industries Association began an airport development program, and requests for the materials have been received from hundreds of mayors, city managers, planning commissions, county and state officials.

A single theme runs through all these requests: a need to document to the nonflying public that the airport is important.

If bringing new business is important, if helping present business stay competitive is important, if transient dollars are important, if emergency facilities are important, then the airport is important.

Back in 1952 a report of the President's Airport Commission stated: "An airport exists within a community for the use of aircraft supplying the city with services necessary to its welfare."

That's pretty clear talk for a government report and means airports are really for people who don't fly.

TAX MAN SAM SEZ:

Every year the good tax folks call in a lot of divorced couples. These unfortunate people have decided that it was necessary for them to go their separate ways, but they forgot to get their tax matters separated.

If you are disposing of your spouse, it will pay you to dispose of your tax matters at the same time. It's awful embarrassing to sit down with your ex-spouse and a tax man and solve problems that you would prefer never to think of again.

Split your income and taxes up to the date of your divorce or wait until December 31 to get divorced...so you won't mix up your tax year.

resulting in no persons killed, 23 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $23,710.00.

September 1, 1965, marked the beginning of the new motor vehicle inspection period for all Texas motorists. "With the hard summer driving coming to an end, fall is an excellent time to have vehicles safety checked for the winter months ahead", the Sergeant said.

The Patrol Supervisor called attention to the fact that since the beginning of the inspection program, vehicles having a defect that was a causative factor in fatal accidents decreased from 13% to 3%. "The purpose of the Motor Vehicle Inspection Program is to discover any maladjustment which might become a link in a cycle of events leading to an accident and, by removing the link, prevent the accident", he pointed out.

Endorses National Amendment No. 5

State Teachers today announced their endorsement of Constitutional Amendment No. 5 in the forthcoming 2nd election.

Carmichael, President of the Texas State Teachers Association, emphasized the importance of this amendment as well as present proposals to protect the Teachers' Pension System of additional cost to the State or the State's income of the Pension System to provide greater improvements for members of the system.

In a recent appearance before the Compensation and Pension Subcommittee of the House Veterans Affairs Committee, Driver also unveiled two new compensatory proposals recommended by the Veterans Administration.

One proposal would equalize the rates of Disability Compensation paid to Veterans disabled in war-time and peace-time service. Under the present law, payments to the Peace-time Veterans are only 80 per cent of those authorized for War-time Veterans.

In his testimony in support of this proposal, which would provide a first year increase of about $28,000,000 to Peace-time Veterans and certain dependents, the VA Chief said: "It is apparent that a Veteran who has suffered a disability as a result of Peace-time service has the same loss of earning capacity as a Veteran with the identical disability suffered during War-time service. Hence, we cannot justify a continuation of the differential in the rates of Disability Compensation on any basis consistent with the nature and purpose of this Benefit."

The other VA proposal recommends the extension to certain Veterans severely disabled by military service since the end of the Korean Conflict of the $1600 assistance paid by the VA for the purchase of a specially equipped automobile or other conveyance.

In addition to sizeable increases for totally disabled veterans, H. R. 171, which Driver supports, would provide more with disabilities rated less than total, and would achieve a uniformity of intervals between disability levels. The Bill also would give a 10 per cent increase in the Additional Allowance which is paid for dependents in the case of Veterans whose disabilities are rated at 50 per cent or greater.

TERROR IN VIETNAM General Maxwell D. Taylor reports that there have been recent reports of incidents of Viet Cong terrorism "with no apparent reason than to force people from their homes" to overcrowd South Vietnamese relief agencies.

ON G. I. INSURANCE The Senate approved and passed on to the House a bill to provide a special $10,000 indemnity insurance for servicemen in combat zones. A combat zone would be an area so designated by the President since January 1, 1962.

Increase in Compensation Rates Pending in Congress

Compensation payments to Veterans disabled in service would be increased about $130,000,000 annually under administration-endorsed legislative proposals enunciated by William J. Driver, Administrator of Veterans Affairs.

This was reported by R. H. Todd Jr., Acting Manager of the Lubbock Veterans Administration Regional Office, who said the proposals are now under consideration by Congress.

Declaring that totally disabled Veterans are "clearly undercompensated," Driver says he supports H. R. 171, a measure introduced by Rep. Olin E. Teague, Chairman of the House Veterans Affairs Committee, which would increase compensation for totally disabled Veterans by $600 a year.

$910,000 LOANED IN FLOYD COUNTY Farmers Home Administration Helps 39,766 Texas Families During 1965

Over 39,766 families of farmers, ranchers, and rural residents in Texas benefitted from Farmers Home Administration loan services during 1965. This is an all-time high according to L. J. Cappelman, State Director for the agency.

Loans made or insured by the Farmer's Home Administration in Texas during the fiscal year ended June 30 totaled a record $88,289,230.

State Director Cappelman said that the Farmers Home Administration preserved its long-standing record for keeping its various lending programs in a sound position during fiscal 1965. Repayments of principal and interest by borrowers totaled the largest volume collected in the agency's 30-year history.

"This good credit record signifies the initiative and integrity displayed by the people of rural Texas in their vast self-help effort which these loans represent," Cappelman stated.

Included in the number of Texas rural people benefitting from these programs are the members of 28,245 families forming rural groups that use Farmers Home Administration credit. Most of these groups borrowed funds to develop rural community water systems.

State Director Cappelman emphasized that loans to strengthen family farms and build new rural homes continued as the agency's largest programs in fiscal 1965. Included in the above figures is $910,770 loaned through the Floydada FHA office to 80 Floyd County farmers. Of this amount $799,330 was for farm operating expenses, $109,950 for the purchase of land and $1490 for economic opportunity loans.

Types of loans available to local citizens, other than for purposes mentioned above, are for various types of housing, recreation enterprises, senior citizen loans for housing, soil and water development, rental housing projects, loans to low income families for income producing enterprises, and association loans.

For information concerning loans for any of these purposes, contact the Farmers Home Administration at 107 W. California Street in Floydada.
