FLOYDADA VOLUNTEER FIREMEN FIGHT ONE OF SEVERAL FIRES

Three Blazes Keep Firemen Alert Sunday

Three fires, all on East Lee Street, Sunday, kept local firemen alert and on the move from 4:30 until around 9 p.m. All the fires were frame houses that had caught fire and all but one were total losses and firemen said the third "just as well as a total loss."

An alarm Monday afternoon sent firemen back to the 300 block of East Lee to extinguish a small flame that had started around one of the houses that burned Sunday. This matter was handled in a few minutes.

The first blaze Sunday was at 403 East Lee, the second was at the 600 block of East Lee and the final blaze was at 403 E. Lee.

Saturday firemen were called to a fire in front of Wester Grocery where a pickup was on fire. It turned out to be only a small pickup fire.

Last Friday at 10 p.m. a gas fire erupted when the occupant found that gasoline in a kerosene lamp would not work.

Eighth Grade Wins, Seventh Grade Loses

The eighth grade "Breezers" won a close one over the Olton Mustangs here Tuesday night with the final score 12-6.

Tommy Wylie and Stanley Pierce made the Floydada touchdowns.

The seventh grade game was a real thriller as Olton nosed out Floydada 8-6.

Steve Puckett made the lone touchdown for Floydada.

The next game for the seventh and eighth graders is set for October 19th at Abernathy. The game begins at 5:30 p.m.

Six New Homes Will Be Toured

Six beautiful new homes in and near Floydada will be on view October 17 when the 1934 Study Club holds their annual Home Tour. Visiting hours will be from 2:30 until 5 p.m. and tickets may be secured from any member of the Club.

Homes on tour will include those of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Puckett, Sandhill Highway; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Galloway, northeast of city; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Muncy, 901 W. Kentucky;

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Smith Jr., 810 W. Mesquite; Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Helms, 806 W. Mesquite and Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Ramsey, 809 W. Cedar.

In charge of the tour are members of the finance committee of which Mrs. John Hotchkiss is chairman. Others are Mrs. Ralph Cogdell, Mrs. W. M. Fowler, Mrs. Doyle Mount, Mrs. Virgle Shaw and Mrs. George Springer.

Enthusiastic Approval Given Skinny Winn's Lighting Effects

Skinny Winn and Babe Jones have returned from St. George, Utah, where they demonstrated special lighting effects in the Dixie State Park.

Winn said that federal, state, and city parks officials were on hand for the showing and gave their enthusiastic approval of these lighting effects.

"Rock, cliff, sandstone and lava formations were especially beautiful under the lighting effects in the canyon area," said

Winn. He added that narration about the formations was made by a local geology professor, as he played the lights on the canyon walls. Jones drove the pickup which was pulling the generator trailer which powers the strong lights that were mounted in the back of the pickup.

Winn is now awaiting a letter of approval from the State of Utah, then will make plans with his financial advisors here.

Winds Face Speedy Abernathy In Conference Opener Tomorrow

After having two weeks to recuperate from the non-conference schedule, the Whirlwinds are expected to be in the best physical condition of the year when they host the Abernathy Antelopes here tomorrow night in the conference opener.

Last year the Whirlwinds took the game 26-6, but the Antelopes have become the team to beat in District 3-AA competition this year.

Throughout the pre-season, Abernathy, Lockney and Olton have been favorites for the district crown.

Leading the Abernathy charge will be Lane Wade, a youngster who has been clocked at 9.9 over 100 yards. Supplementing this speed are Pat Hale, Roland Murray, Charlie Thomas and Mike Tannehill, who all are capable of a 10.1 returning.

Returning starters this year are Wade and Hale in the backfield, Jim Barton at end, Larry Crowder at tackle and Rondall Preston at end.

The only surprise of the season to Abernathy has been a loss to Post. The Antelopes were rated to take the game, but two injuries in the backfield softened the Abernathy attack. Abernathy downed Hale Center, a class A ball club that has given District 3-AA teams misery in non-conference competition for several years.

The Antelopes have downed Frenship, Petersburg, Hale Center, and Morton.

By contrast the Winds have lost to Post, Canyon, Ralls, and Tulla while downing Childress.

Floydada Receives State Approval Of Water Supply

BEATEN, STRANGLER, RAPED:

Elderly Woman Assaulted

Law officials from the Texas Rangers, the Floyd County Sheriff's Department, the Department of Public Safety and the Floydada Police Department are still searching for a person that assaulted Mrs. Ollie Stewart here last Friday night. She is 80 years of age.

At press time two or three suspects had been questioned, but the officials still had made no charges and the officials reported the one who entered her home is still at large.

The local Sheriff's Department reported that it is suspected the person left the country after the incident. However, it was also noted, the person had to know the layout of the house. The woman was assaulted around midnight Friday night and was not found until Saturday around noon, when Al, her son, who lives in Lockney, stopped by the house to check on her.

The law officials reported that the woman had been beaten and raped and Mrs. Roy Edwards, daughter of Mrs. Stewart, said she had also been strangled by the assailant.

Mrs. Stewart had retired and was awakened by a noise in the house, according to the Sheriff's Department. She turned on a light by her bed and the assailant immediately pulled the light cord from the outlet. She only got a glimpse of the person and thought it might have been a Mexican, but also said she couldn't be sure. The man gained entrance through the back door that had not been locked, she said.

When Al found her, he called

AT LOCKNEY

Suspect Named By Grand Jury In Area Death

Floyd County grand jury Tuesday indicted Joe Melvin Allard, 22, of Lockney, in the Aug. 23 slaying of his wife's aunt, Mrs. Hazel Wofford of Lockney.

The four-count indictment against Allard, returned about 5 p.m., accused him of murder with malice by strangling Mrs. Wofford, beating her on the head with a blunt instrument and leaving her without aid or assistance.

Held In Lubbock

Mrs. Wofford, a divorcee and beauty shop operator in Lockney, was found dead in a hallway of her small, frame residence. An autopsy showed she had been hit on the head, strangled and raped, although no mention of the rape was made in the grand jury indictment. Strangulation was given as the cause of death.

Allard, arrested Sept. 21, almost a month after the slaying, had been held in Lubbock County jail without bond.

Arraignment Stated

Dist. Atty. John B. Stapleton said Tuesday that an arraignment for Allard is planned Thursday if it is satisfactory with his attorneys, Tom Clinton and Travis Shelton of Lubbock, who had not been consulted Tuesday night. A trial date is expected to be set at the arraignment, Stapleton said.

Fifteen other indictments were returned by the grand jury Tuesday, including six for burglary, five for theft over $50, two for defrauding with worthless check and one each for forgery and child desertion.

the police. The local authorities received the call at 11:55 a.m. Saturday. When they arrived they found Mrs. Stewart badly beaten around the face and chest.

It was thought at first that some of her ribs might have been broken, but X-rays showed no such damage. There were also cuts and bruises on most of her face.

The Sheriff's Department officials said they had never seen a man that had been in a fist fight that had such a badly beaten face.

According to Mrs. Edwards, her mother was able to sit in a wheel chair the early part of this week, and should be out of the hospital in a few days. She is staying in Lockney General Hospital and will be living with her son, Al, in Lockney after her dismissal.

Law officials have noted the similarity of the incident and one at Lockney a couple of months ago, when Mrs. Hazel Wofford was also criminally assaulted. Mrs. Wofford was strangled to death, and Mrs. Edwards said her mother was left for dead after she was strangled.

CITY BUYS POLICE CAR

Public Service Gets 20-Year Franchise

At the regular meeting of the City Council this week the group approved a 20-year franchise agreement with Southwestern Public Service. The franchise authorizes the firm to continue selling electricity inside the city limits of Floydada.

When the time for the franchise approval started drawing near, Public Service offered an agreement to the city which would give SWPS a 30-year franchise. The city made a counter offer of five years, which was refused. After several months of haggling, the 20-year figure was approved by the City. It will go into effect as soon as it is approved by Public Service.

The Council agreed to buy a 1966 Biscayne from Oden Chevrolet for a police car to replace the '64 Pontiac now used by the force. Oden Chevrolet had the low bid of $1,300, with trade.

Continental Oil Company was low bidder for three-55 gallon drums of anti-freeze to be used by the city this winter. The bid was $1.19 per gallon in the drums.

The Council also agreed to buy 350 feet of fire hose and two brass nozzles for the fire department. DACO of Lubbock had the low bid of $597.80 for the equipment. It was mentioned by City Manager Bill Feuerbacher that an additional 1,000 feet of hose will be bought by the city next year, as well as another fire engine.

The Council members also looked at bids for new flashing lights at the school pedestrian crossings on Houston and Second Streets, but decided to let the Texas Highway Department representatives state their preference on the various types of lights and prices bid. Culligan's bid was accepted by the council for a new water softener for the Electric plant. The bid of $250 includes a recharge every 28 days and the city has only to buy the additional salt that is used in the softener and added at the time of recharge.

The Council also voted to purchase two-hanging gas heaters for the water warehouse. The cost of the two units would be $276.90, and city employees would install the units.

In other business the members voted to send Marshall Haney and Bobby Welborn to the American Water Works Association meeting at Corpus Christi from October 17 through October 21; discussed and approved recessed angle parking on north side of Kentucky Street between Main and Wall Streets for the First Baptist Church; discussed the cost estimates supplied by city engineer for paving, water and sewer services for new grade school in SE part of city, the city's share of which would run over $13,000; discussed water revenue bonds and water operations, so as to be ready for future lake water, with Joe Smith, representative of First Southwest Company.

All Council members were present at the meeting.

After 18 Month Effort

After eighteen months of work and improvements to the city water system, state approval has been given and signs so stating will soon be posted at the city limits.

Marshall Haney, water superintendent details the procedure and operation of the water system as follows:

Commissioner's Seeking Tax Evaluating Firm

In the regular session of the Commissioner's Court held last Monday, the group looked into tax evaluating authorities, but did not take action to hire one.

The action is necessary for re-evaluating tax property in Floyd County, after a recent suit had been brought against the county charging that taxes were levied inequitably. The commissioners agreed to have the property re-evaluated by an authorized tax evaluating firm. All other business handled was routine.

With the party - giving season so near, perhaps some timely tips can make it a more relaxed time for you, the hostess.

STAY WITHIN THE LIMITATIONS OF YOUR HOME. Don't invite more guests than you can serve comfortably. Several small parties are usually more successful than one big whirling ding. And remember - men are more at ease with their feet under a table.

DEVELOP AN AWARENESS FOR HAPPY COMPANIONSHIP. If the Smith's dog has just dug up the Blake's petunia bed, might as well have them meet at your house. However, too much similarity of interests is sometimes a bore. The banker, the baker, the candlestick maker might each contribute new ideas and interesting conversation.

DON'T BLK THE BUDGET AND DON'T APOLOGIZE. Let the Joneses keep up with the Joneses! Your friends will respect you for this; the others don't matter anyway.

BEFORE GOING ELABORATE BE SURE OF YOURSELF. It's hard to beat good wholesome food cooked to a turn and served attractively. Hot foods should be steaming; cold foods crisp and cool.

THINK OF THOSE ON A DIET - AND THOSE WHO SHOULD BE. The life you save may be your husband's and those extra pounds go on your hips too!

HAVE A PLAN AND PLAN TO FOLLOW IT. A time schedule is a must for the inexperienced. Include do-ahead foods and avoid last minute fixin's.

Guffee Wins Grid Contest, Tie For Second, Third

Larry Guffee won last week's Hesperian Football contest as he missed only two of the games on the page. Travis Gentry and Loyd Allen split second and third place prize money as each missed three of the games on the page and guessed the total points to be scored as 46. Actually 54 points were scored in Lockney's 42-12 romp over the Slaton Tigers.

Guffee missed only the Petersburg-Spur, and the Lubbock Palo Duro contests to be named the winner.

Four others missed only three games, but their guess of total points, to be scored was not enough to put them into the running. They are Mark Estes, who guessed 43, Ralph Cogdell, who also guessed 43, Bob Welborn, who guessed 36, and Mrs. Jerry Finley, who guessed the total points scored would be 28.

LAUGH A LITTLE

THE TROUBLE with most every husband is that he wishes his wife could make bread like his mother, while she wishes hubby could make dough like her father. (Denver Post).

THE MOTORIST stood at the suburban front door, his hat in his hand. "I'm very sorry to tell you, Madam," he said to the woman who answered the door, "but I've just run over your cat. I would like to replace him."
"Well, don't just stand there" snapped the housewife, "there's a mouse in my kitchen. Get busy."

RELATIVELY SPEAKING
"Mr. Jones," began the timid - looking young man, "er - ah - that is can - er - I - will you -"
"Why, yes, my boy, you may have her," smiled the girl's father.
The young man gasped.
"What's that? Have whom?" he asked.
"My daughter, of course," replied Jones. "That's what you mean. You want to marry her, don't you?"
"Why, no," said the young man. "I just wanted to know if you could lend me $25.00."
"Certainly not!" said Jones, sharply. "Why, I hardly know you."

Mosquitoes Bad City Doubling Up On Spraying

Mosquitoes, which have proved to be more prevalent in and around Floydada since the recent heavy rains, are proving to be a nuisance to residents, and the City of Floydada is doubling up on their spraying.

Marshall Haney, water superintendent, said this week that the city was sprayed Saturday night, the street areas Tuesday night and the alleys will be sprayed tonight (Thursday).

The cooperation of dwellers is needed to rid the city of mosquitoes, Haney said. That is to see that all receptacles on premises that may contain contaminated water be removed. Stagnant water is an ideal breeding place for mosquitoes.

Haney said the City had ordered some larvacide which will be used to treat lakes near Floydada which will kill the larvae of the mosquito and the eggs.

A certain type mosquito is a carrier of encephalitis, so parents are urged to keep their children inside early of a morning and late at evening, or safeguard them with a mosquito repellent.

FFA News

(By Thumper Morgan)

The week for the 38th annual National FFA Convention has finally arrived and this will probably be the highlight of the FFA year.

The convention is being held in the Municipal Auditorium in Kansas City, Kan. It started yesterday and will continue through Friday, Oct. 15. This year the convention has been planned to serve as an especially inspirational and informative experience for all in attendance.

All chartered state associations in good standing with the national organization are expected to send two official delegates and one or two alternates from the active membership.

This year the Floydada FFA sent Doug Rainbolt, Mike Hensley and Charles Overstreet. The trio left for Kansas City Monday afternoon and will return by the end of the week.

Delegates sent to the convention are expected to have a "B" grade average in all subjects and be an active member in the FFA chapter.

ONE OF THE most important and effective organizations in many of our area towns is a Ministerial Alliance. This is an organization made up of the ministers of the city. They elect officers, they have community projects, they do much as an organized body for the communities in which they live. Many Ministerial Alliances sponsor town-wide revival meetings, they bring in some of the nation's best evangelists and the entire community joins in attendance of the meeting. I notice that the Monahans Ministerial Alliance is bringing Dr. E. Stanley Jones, world known missionary, to their city for a series of five messages. And so this brings to mind the question: "How come Floydada doesn't have a Ministerial Alliance? Some 27 pastors serve churches in the Floydada area. It seems that there are enough possibilities here to organize a very strong Alliance. What better way to illustrate the "Fellowship of Christian Love" than through a Ministerial Alliance in Floydada?

Degge Attends Weed Control Demonstration

Douglas Degge and W. R. Churchwell, supervisor of the Floyd and Hale Co. Noxious Weed Control Districts respectively, were the guests of John Westmore, Sales Representative of the Dow Chemical Co. on a Weed Control Demonstration tour in Kansas last week.

It began at McPherson on Wednesday morning with tests plots on burragweed and then on to Hays to view test plots of herbicides on grain sorghum, bindweed, and chemical fallow.

Degge reports that the results of the burragweed tests at McPherson proved out the work conducted by him and Dr. Allen Wiese, Agronomist, TAES, Bushland, in Floyd Co. in 1962, 63, and 64.

The bindweed test at Hays was very interesting for several of the new herbicides are looking very promising in their eradication of bindweed.

Livestock, Forage Resources Must Be Balanced For Pastureland Profit

Just how much benefit are your livestock getting from the pastureland that you provide for them? Are your livestock and forage resources in the proper balance? If not, some adjustments may be helpful in assisting you to achieve more profit from your livestock operation.

Many people have the idea that a livestock operation can "run itself" with little attention and work required on their part.

They usually wind up with "more acres to the bite" rather than "more bites to the acre," as shown in the illustration.

Careful pasture management is just as important to the livestock producer as management of a farming enterprise is to the farmer. And there ARE some things that can easily be done to help achieve more dollars from land that is in pasture.

First of all, pastures need to be grazed at a rate that will maintain grasses of high quality.

WATER

The recommended number of samples of water collected from the distribution system must be submitted to State Division of Laboratories or local Health Department Laboratories for six consecutive months prior to the sanitary survey of the facilities which is made for rating purposes, and the laboratory results must show that the water meets Drinking Water Standards from a bacteriological quality standpoint.

CHEMICAL ANALYSES

To complete the numerical sanitary rating on a current basis, a gallon sample of water must be collected from an active part of the distribution system regularly each year and submitted to a commercial laboratory or the Health Department Laboratories for complete chemical analysis.

MONTHLY REPORTS OF WATER WORKS OPERATION

Monthly Reports of Water Works Operation showing rates of water treatment, amounts of the various chemicals used, pumpages to distribution system, dates of dead end main flushing operations, dates ground storage reservoirs drained and cleaned, results of bacteriological and chemical tests and other pertinent data made available to State Health Department.

OPERATION BY CERTIFIED PERSONNEL

All production, processing, treatment and distribution of water must be under the supervision of an individual holding a valid Water Plant Operator's Certificate of Competency issued under the direction of the Texas Department of Health.

WELL LOGS AND MATERIAL SETTLING DATA

To enable a true compilation of the numerical sanitary rating of ground water sources of supply, geological logs and material settling data for the various wells must be obtained and kept on file.

FLUSHING OF MAINS

All dead end mains must be flushed at monthly intervals or more frequently if water quality complaints are received from water customers.

HOUSEKEEPING AND MAINTENANCE

The plant facilities must be maintained to meet high standards of housekeeping and maintenance, and the plant grounds must be maintained to give the viewing public the assurance that operation and maintenance of the facilities and plant ground are proper.

DISINFECTION OF NEW OR REPAIRED FACILITIES

When repairs are made to existing mains or when new main extensions are provided, they must be disinfected by water department personnel.

CROSS CONNECTION CONTROL

Continuous efforts shall be made by water department personnel, plumbing inspectors and others to locate possible interconnections between privately owned water systems and the public water systems. As these undesirable interconnections are located, they shall be eliminated so as to prevent possible contamination of the water supplied by the community water facilities.

WMU Executive Beauty Tips Board Meets

The Executive Board of the Women's Missionary Union of the First Baptist Church met October 6th in their monthly conference with WMU president, Mrs. Everett Collier, presiding.

Reports were brought by standing chairmen and recommendations that the women of the church join in prayer for the approaching revival in a concerted effort. Everyone voiced prayer individually at 9:15 a.m. The intercessory prayer league will be brought into action by every member who has a prayer request to call the name below theirs and each in turn call the next name, making known to them the prayer request until the entire league has been contacted.

Attending the board meeting were Mmes. Ray Reed, R. L. Nichols, W. H. Bunch, P. D. Helms, Floyd Bradley, T. L. Holland, W. S. Simmons, Vesta Savage, Robert Garrett, Doyle Mount, Claude Weathersbee, and Mrs. Everett Collier.

Following the board meeting all Circles met together for their monthly Missionary program. The recommendations of the board were adopted and call to prayer was voiced by Mrs. Doyle Mount. The Scripture reading and devotional was given by Mrs. Andrew McCulley. She was assisted in the devotional by Mrs. Floyd Bradley, Mrs. Roy Edwards and Mrs. Ray Reed. They formed a quartet reading in unison and singing "Oh For A Thousand Tongues To Sing", accompanied at the piano by Mrs. L. D. Simpson.

Theme of the program was "Proclaiming Through Woman's Missionary Union". Mrs. Bradley spoke on "Having The Everlasting Gospel To Preach".

Mrs. Roy Edwards gave the Proclamation for the New Year talking on Stewardship. She placed a large clock on a poster board with months of the year in place of numerals on the face. As she gave the discussion she placed the hands of the clock representing the months indicated as the months for mission offering to be taken.

The Weeks of Prayer were marked on the clock and discussed by Mrs. Mount. Mrs. Weathersbee spoke on the monthly Missionary program marking their month by month, giving interesting details of the programs throughout the new year.

Mrs. Bunch presented her plans on proclaiming through Community Missions. She showed pamphlets and outlined plans for work, for foreign students, the Spanish Mission, the Rest Home and Community Clothing Center.

Closing prayer of dedication of the new officers for the year was led by Mrs. Collier. Twenty women were in attendance.

Refreshments were served after the meeting to Mmes. Jim Boyd, Gary Carthel, Max Dyess, Ronald Evans, Gene Ferguson, Laron Fulton, Gordon Hambricht, Bill Hardin, Marvin Wells.

THIS WEEK'S BEAUTY QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS: TO PREVENT EYE IRRITATION

Q. My eyes become irritated from constant use of eye makeup. What can I put on at night to prevent this from happening?

A. If your eyes become irritated from eye makeup, you may be allergic to some ingredient in one of the items you are using. In this case, it would make more sense for you to eliminate the item than to try to relieve the symptoms.

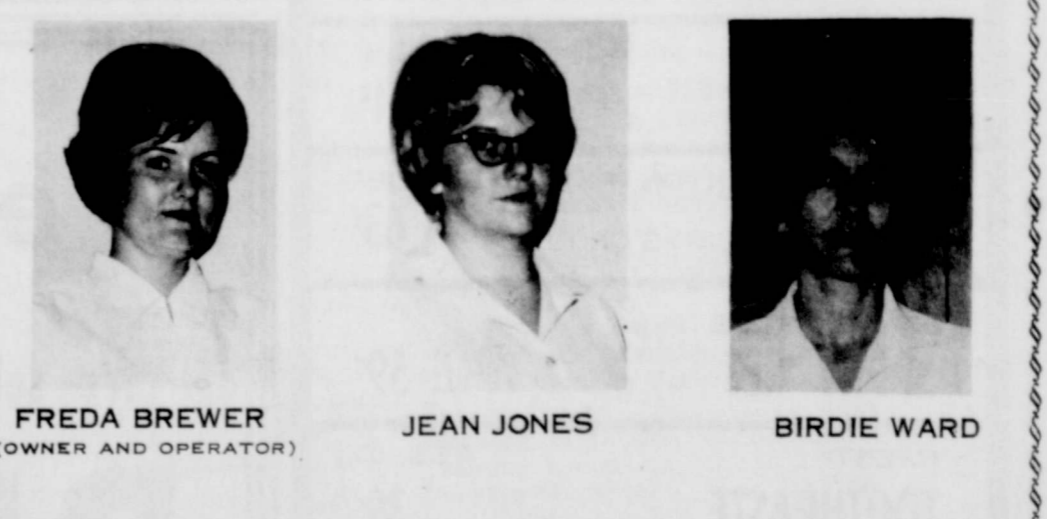

Try using only one eye makeup item at a time. For example, use only mascara one day... eye shadow pencil the next day... and so on, down the line.

Once you have determined which item - if any - is causing the irritation, either eliminate this item entirely or use it in a hypoallergenic line. The chances are the hypoallergenic product will not contain the ingredient which is causing the irritation.

Q. What is a "normalizer"?? What does it do for the skin?

A. A normalizer is a substance, usually in liquid form, that is meant to be used as a rinse after the face has been cleansed with soap or with cream. Used in this way, it helps the skin to maintain its proper, or "normal", acid/alkaline balance.

It can also be used by itself as a skin freshener.

FLOYD COUNTY FLYERS

Beans' Enjoy Plane On Business, Pleasure Trips

by Jedd Blessing

"There's a standing joke among flyers that if you have plenty of time, travel in a light plane".

This statement was made by Mrs. Kenneth Bean when this reporter interviewed that family recently concerning their ownership and use of a private plane.

She went on to say that only one time has the family been able to take a long trip and not have to lay over for some time because of the weather.

The family went to South Dakota in four hours two years ago and were able to fly straight through. However, last year it took the family three days to get from Floydada to Florida for a "Fly-in Convention".

"This", according to Mrs. Bean, "is one of the advantages of having a plane. It gives you an incentive to go places you wouldn't normally go otherwise."

Bean mentioned that the plane is used for business purposes primarily, and used on family excursions secondarily.

The Bean's particular plane is a four-place Bellanca 280 with 186 pounds of luggage capacity.

The normal cruising speed of the airplane is about 175 miles per hour at an altitude of between 9,000-10,500 feet. The plane's ceiling is around 17,500 feet.

When asked if they ever wanted a parachute while flying in a small plane, Mrs. Bean replied, "Only once".

"When Billy Stanforth was trying out the plane he now has he invited the two of us to accompany him on a trip. During the flight the impossible happened. Stanforth hit the mechanism that changes the engine's fuel from one tank to the other, and it lodged halfway between the two positions.

"It was the strangest sensation. We were flying along just as normal as possible then everything just quit", she said. She thought he had about decided not to buy the plane, then the trouble was located, the engine started again and they went on their way without anything else happening.

The Beans owned another Bellanca before they purchased the present one about two years ago. The other was traded off for it didn't have a nose wheel, which some flyers call "the greatest thing to happen to flying since the airport".

Each of the planes they have owned has been damaged at one time or another. The present plane was damaged in last summer's tornado that hit the Doodle Milton farm, where the Bean plane is hangared. The flaps were torn off the plane when the hangar support posts, set in concrete, were pulled up as the hangar was blown away.

Bean traveled to Plainview, got another set of flaps, put them on his plane, then flew it to Plainview for a complete and thorough check-up.

Their first plane was damaged once when the family landed at the Milton place, after a trip to Oklahoma City.

Bean said he knew he had a small leak in his brake-line, but he thought they would hold until he could get a little more time to have them fixed.

However, as the family landed on the east-west runway, the brakes failed to hold, and just before the plane should have stopped it hit a float that was parked at the end of the runway, which damaged the front wheels of the plane.

Carla, who was sleeping, as was Diane, in the back seat, said, "I awoke and there was no one in the plane."

She was immediately corrected by her mother who said, "Yes, don't you remember? Mother was the only one that jumped out of the plane. I just knew it was going to catch on fire," she said.

The damage and brakes were soon repaired and soon afterward the plane was traded for the present one.

Bean is one of the many individuals from Floydada and the surrounding area who has taken on some financial responsibility to help get a lighted airport for Floydada.

During the interview, as he and the reporter were riding in the airplane, Bean mentioned that he had to attend a Rotary meeting in Lubbock later that evening. When asked if he would fly to the meeting and back, he replied:

"I would, if I had a lighted runway on which to land when I return, but since I don't, I will have to take the car. I would have rebuilt my hangar in Floydada, after last summer's tornado, if there were a lighted runway there."

Kenneth, Ann, Diane and Carla all enjoy the airplane, although there are advantages and disadvantages as there are in all other ventures.

"A lighted airport in Floydada? I don't see a thing in the world it would hurt" the Bean's replied.

A silver coffee service completed the decor. Presiding at the table were Mrs. Betty Gordon of Lubbock, daughter of the hostess and Mrs. Norman Muncy of Floydada, daughter-in-law of the hostess.

AUTOMATED MOISTURE CONTROL!

FLOYD COUNTY CO-OP GIN

Moisture content in seed cotton can change several times on the same load Humi-Drier automatically maintains the desired moisture content, whether it needs more moisture or drying. Ginners report an increased staple length of 1/32 to 1/16 inch and a weight gain up to 10 pounds per bale with Humi-Drier. Moisture control makes bales easier to press and eliminates static electricity problems.

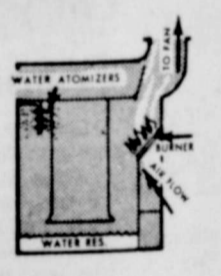

HOW IT WORKS:

EFFICIENT MOISTURIZER

Humi-Drier's centrifugal air movement removes all water droplets and becomes more efficient as velocity increases! This improvement does away with the usual lint-collecting baffles which allow more water pull-through as velocity increases.

NEW TYPE HOT AIR BYPASS

The bypass damper above the burner opens automatically when drying is required. This device entrance by-passes the moisturizing chamber, permitting a much higher temperature for full capacity when needed.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

We have newer and finer schools than ever before. This is one of the marks of progress.
But another is that we have more and faster automobiles than ever before. So we guard each "school zone" with signs and safety patrols and policemen and volunteers. We do this to protect our children from the dangers of progress, while they are enjoying the fruits of progress.
The dangers of progress are not always physical. Many are moral. They threaten the character and faith of a rising generation, caught in the erratic tempo of modern life.
Happily, in every community of our land, PARENTS and CHURCHES are joining hands to promote the spiritual development of youth... to protect the souls of our children.

$10,000 AUTOMATIC COVERAGE

Military Personnel Have Life Insurance

Automatic life insurance coverage of $10,000 is provided for American military personnel the world over under a Government Insurance Program triggered into effect today.

Acting under instructions from President Johnson to get the new insurance program in operation at the earliest possible date, William J. Driver, Administrator of Veterans Affairs, today certified in a letter to the Secretary of Defense that the approximately 2,800,000 members of the Armed Forces would be blanketed in under the new Veterans Administration Insurance Program effective after midnight on September 28, 1965.

The President signed the new Insurance Program into law (Public Law 89-214) yesterday. The actual insurance will be handled by commercial insurers with whom the VA is now completing final details. Thus, no significant augmenting of VA's present insurance staff will be required.

All servicemen will be covered by the new $10,000 group insurance even though they already hold GI insurance from World War I, World War II or the Korean Conflict unless they indicate in writing that they do not want the new insurance coverage.

Since 1957, the only servicemen insured by the Government were those with the above policies. Servicemen could buy commercial life insurance but in some cases this type policy did not protect them in case of hostilities.

Under a second provision of the new law, beneficiaries of certain servicemen who died since January 1, 1957 and up until midnight, September 28, 1965, under specified conditions listed in the law, may receive up to $5,000 in a death gratuity.

The new insurance contract with the private insurers will include provisions for premium rates, expenses, accounting, claims, beneficiaries, conversions, and other program requirements.

A stipulated amount, estimated in advance to be approximately $2 per month for $10,000 coverage, will be deducted from each serviceman's pay, unless they submit written refusal of the coverage.

The low cost is made possible through Government contribution of the amount necessary to cover any excess mortality owing to extra hazards of service.

These deductions will cease after the individual's last full month of service but the insurance will continue for 120 days after separation.

At any time during the 120-day period, the serviceman may convert the group insurance to an individual policy with a commercial life insurance company. No medical examination will be required.

Beneficiaries can be named by the insured. Should he make no designation, payment will follow this order: surviving spouse, children, parents, executor (or administrator) of the insured's estate or other next of kin in accordance with the laws of the insured's estate.

Payment to beneficiary may be made in a lump sum or in 36 equal monthly installments.

Unlike GI insurance, the VA will not handle claims, nor payments of proceeds, in the new insurance program. All death claims will be handled by the appropriate military branch and the commercial company that is chosen to be prime insurer.

There is no provision for waiver of premium for total disability, although servicemen with regular GI insurance in addition to the new policy may obtain waiver under their GI policy.

The second provision of the law sets the following requirements for eligibility for the $5,000 death gratuity to certain veterans whose deaths occurred between January 1, 1957 and September 29, 1965:

- (1) Those whose death was a direct result of actions of hostile actions.
- (2) Those whose death was a direct result of an accident involving military or naval aircraft or aircraft under charter to the Department of Defense, Army, Navy or Airforce.

(3) Those whose death was a direct result of the extra hazards of military service as such hazards may be determined by the Administrator.

(4) Those whose death occurred while performing service for which incentive pay is authorized by law. (Example: Paratrooper, submarine service, etc.)

Payment of the gratuity will be to widow, child or children regardless of age or marital status, or parent or parents. The death gratuity will be reduced by the amount of U. S. Government Life Insurance or National Service Life Insurance paid or payable to any or all beneficiaries plus the amount of VA Dependency and Indemnity Compensation paid to any person who received the death gratuity.

Persons accepting the death gratuity must waive all rights to Death Compensation of Dependency and Indemnity Compensation.

HARMONY, Oct. 11 - Mmes. Bill Finkner, Allen Waddill, and Floyd Trowbridge of Petersburg, and Mmes. Mather Carr and M. D. Ramsey were dinner guests on Tuesday of Mrs. Jim Hurd of Happy Union. They had an opportunity to visit with Mrs. Seth Waddill of Bentonville, Ark., who was a neighbor of the Harmony group years ago and now lives in the home town in which Mrs. Carr's mother-in-law resided for several years as a girl. In addition to visiting with Mrs. Hurd, Mrs. Waddill has also been visiting with another sister-in-law, Mrs. Ocie Haynes. Each lady present brought a dish.

Mrs. R. B. Gary has a new great-granddaughter, Leta Jan, weighing 8 lbs., 2 oz. She was born to the H. Nelsons of the Baker community at West Texas Hospital in Lubbock Oct. 6.

The Glen Pooles and sons spent the weekend with relatives in Dallas.

The Gail Alexanders were both released from Reese Air Base Hospital, and returned home Friday night. She was to go back Wednesday of this week for another checkup. Both have been doing well.

County Agent's Corner

by Joe Wilson

Ninety per cent milo and ten percent cotton seed may be the future ration for fattening cattle in this part of the state.

I was talking to the Extension Livestock Specialist, Dr. Dixon Hubbard, the other day and he indicated the results from this ration looks good.

The tests feeding the high concentrate rations are being made at the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, at Spur.

If this ration does prove satisfactory, it would be very economical to livestock men here on the high plains where cotton and grain sorghum are the principal crops.

The switch to low roughage rations has been brought about by the increase in roughage costs. Transportation costs have increased and mechanization of roughage handling is costly.

Several Floyd County farmers have asked about using pentachlorophenol (penta) as a desiccant.

It may be used on seed crops only. It cannot be used on cotton or soybeans where the seed will be sold for food, feed or oil purposes.

Desiccating or defoliating castor beans is not a recommended practice as it will reduce yields.

Tests have proven that castors are hard to desiccate or defoliate and a reduction in yields up to 500 lbs. per acre can be expected.

Generally speaking the later the harvest aid chemical was applied, the less reduction in yield you can expect.

I would not recommend applying a chemical unless it was to speed up harvest where wheat could be sown on the same land or to a few acres where a machine could be set before the main harvest began.

Winter pasturing cattle on wheat land looks promising at this time.

If your wheat is grazed during the winter, topdressing with nitrogen in the early spring is recommended. Phosphorous and Potassium if needed should have been applied prior to or at seeding time.

If grazed wheat is not topdressed lower yields can be expected. Soil tests will give amounts of fertilizer needed.

Mrs. Chloma Williams spent Saturday at the Lighthouse Electric in Floydada, giving demonstrations on preparing grapes.

Mrs. Clinton Smith and son, Jack, of Moses Lake in the state of Washington, spent most of the week with her brother's family, the Bob Hoppers, and other relatives. They left on Monday, Oct. 4.

The Chloma Williamses spent Sunday with his parents, the L. A. Williamses, in Amarillo.

The Whirlwinds were a number of lo-traveled to Lockney to the Longhorns in 12 romp over the hap-Tigers.

Lockney team has been good at times, but at as they drop off. One ows what to think of appears they have the to take the district ship, but if they aren't performance when they of the district teams be put out of the race ly.

at the district teams, as come on strong,

Abernathy has lost only one game this year, that to a strong Post team and at a time when Abernathy had two starters out with injuries.

Olton, although not too impressive at the first of the season has come on strong, and last Friday surprised a lot of people in their 19-14 loss to the Canyon Eagles. Olton lost the ball on the Canyon three yard line with 56 seconds remaining in the game. Had the Mustangs punched the ball across they would have had the ball game.

Friona appears to be one of the weaker teams, although they have lost to some top ranked teams. Plains, a class A Denver City, beat the Chiefs, they lost to Dalhart, Farwell beat them, Muleshoe and Hale Center downed the Chiefs.

Dimmitt appears to be the weakest team in the district. Although Dimmitt had a surprisingly strong sophomore team last year the Bobcats have failed to get rolling. Over 20 of the players that came out for football in the first of the season have since quit the team, so the Bobcats are doing the same as playing their B team against everyone else.

It is a lot easier to make predictions after the game is played or after the season is over, but that wouldn't be cricket, would it?

Nevertheless, this writer has been challenged to predict the outcome of District 3-AA this year, so with the bit of pre-ceeding introduction about the teams, here goes. . . .

Olton, after their performance last Friday night, should finish in first place. Abernathy will be close behind, and could upset the Mustangs; Lockney, sitting in third place, as stated before, could turn the tide on either of these teams. Following these should be Floydada, Friona and Dimmitt in that order.

This writer reserves the right to change these predictions at any given week, and particularly after the season ends.

This is, however, I believe the way the district coaches selected the district at the first of the season.

Texas played their regular game against the Sooners last Saturday. They would let Oklahoma run three plays and punt, then the Longhorns would take the ball for fifteen or twenty downs, let Oklahoma have it for three downs and a punt, etc.

This was a demonstration of ball-control in its finest form.

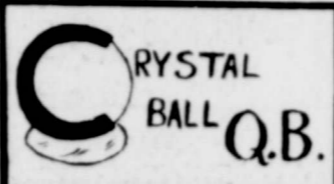

Tech squeaked by another Southwest Conference foe by the skin of its teeth last Saturday night. The Raiders must get their kicks from thrilling ball games such as that one. They pulled one out of the bag to down the Aggies a week before as a razzle-dazzle play put the Raiders ahead with just over a minute to play.

Arkansas' victory over the Baylor Bears makes them a atop contender for the SWC crown. The title will probably be decided this weekend, however, when the Razorbacks take on the Texas Longhorns.

FLOYD DATA

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Lyles have just returned from a trip to Farmington, N. Mex., where they visited their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Boteler. Mrs. Lyles said the area there was beautiful and apple trees were loaded with fruit.

Traffic controls to be financed by U. S.

Last week's contest page was a little easier, or else the guessers are getting a little sharper. The winner missed only two of the contests, while twenty contestants missed four of the games. This QB fits into that category.

As the local district competition gets underway, lets look at some of those games as well as the college predictions.

Unless the Whirlwinds pull a big upset, the Antelopes of Abernathy will take a victory at the expense of the locals tomorrow night; Friona will take Dimmitt, thus keeping the Bobcats in the district's cellar; Olton will take Lockney in a battle of district powers; Hale Center will ease by Silverton; Plainview will fall to Palo Duro; Monterey will take Pampa; Lubbock, although upset by Palo Duro, will take Borger; Amarillo will blast Caprock; Matador will ease by Ropesville; Claude will take Panhandle; Idalou will fall to Petersburg, although neither team is strong this year; Ralls will stomp Spur; Childress will fall to Iowa Park, Post will romp over Morton; Phillips will take Dalhart; Kress will overcome a tough Farwell.

On the college scene: Texas won't be slipped up on like they were last year, and they will beat Arkansas; Rice will down SMU; A&M will come out on top of TCU; Tech will take Oklahoma State; Texas Western will fall to Wyoming; Oklahoma will overcome Kansas and LSU will fall to Kentucky.

Let's be on hand tomorrow night and do our part in helping the Whirlwinds upset Abernathy. It can be done.

Student Discipline

President Wilson H. Elkins of the University of Maryland took the kids by the horns as college classes resumed this fall. He told freshmen they would not be welcome if they attempted to alter university policies by demonstrations.

The educator was modest enough to insist that he and his fellow administrators are better qualified than students to determine regulations.

Elkins says students have a right to express themselves about any aspect of the university, but the administration must set regulations.

One sympathizes with President Elkins. A student body must abide by the rules or the educational process is disrupted and cheapened. Many have been more destructive than constructive.

An Expensive Congress

There's much to be said about the present Congress, but no one can accuse it of being stingy with the taxpayer's money.

Already it has appropriated over $100 billion, with modest estimates predicting the figure will reach $129 billion.

This would be the highest appropriation by a peacetime Congress in history, and only $30 billion below the 1912 effort to meet the exorbitant cost of World War II.

At the same time, the 1965 lawmakers are certain to set a record low for cutting original budget requests. Estimates are that by the end of the session they will have trimmed authorizations by only about two per cent.

The first session of the 89th Congress will not be finally judged by historians for many years. But auditors have already offered their opinion: Expensive!

Player Of South Africa

Gary Player has established himself as perhaps the greatest golfer from foreign shores to play in the United States.

The South African won the World Series of Golf in Akron. Earlier in the year he captured the United States Open, which made him the third player in golfing history to have won all four major pro tournaments — the Open, the Masters, the British Open, and the Professional Golf Association Championship.

After the United States Open,

Player donated most of his purse to the development of junior golf in this country, in a gesture of appreciation to the United States.

The United States had offered him more than he could ever repay, Player said. (In addition to fame, he has earned $140,000 in sixteen events held this year alone.)

Player, for his part, has done more than collect money and win at golf. He has excelled at being a good sport, a gentleman, and one who appreciates what has come his way.

FLOYD PHILOSOPHER SAYS:

Editorialists Should Get Mad At Farmers For Raising Prices

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm is a little price-conscious this week, his letter indicates.

Dear editor:

I found a copy of a national magazine snugged on a fence out here on this Johnson grass farm yesterday. I don't know how it got here, it was too thick and heavy for the wind to blow it in, and it didn't have any neighbor's name on it, although I was careful not to look till I'd gotten through reading it, and I was very interested in an editorial I ran across.

This editorial was thanking farmers and ranchers for doing such a magnificent job in feeding America at such a low cost. According to it, in the last few years, the retail price of food has risen 14 per cent, but the price farmers get for raising it has dropped 15 per cent. At the same time, the cost of cars, including gas and repairs, has risen 54 per cent.

This big-city magazine was saying America owed a big thanks and a long round of applause to the farmer and rancher for this splendid job. Now this is all well and good, but as far as I'm concerned I'd much rather have seen an editorial lambasting us for getting 15 per cent more instead of 15 per cent less for what we sell.

You can't make me believe that a 1966 model automobile is 54 per cent better than a 1955 model steak or bushel of corn or a bale of cotton.

Moreover, the editorial pointed out, medical costs are up 72 per cent, but, try as hard as I can, I can't make any ache I have feel 15 per cent less painful than it did a few years ago.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

October 8, 1965

Mr. Wendell Tooley, Editor
Floyd County Hesperian
Floydada, Texas

Dear Sir:
For the first time, I have been asked to get involved in the new proposed Floydada Municipal Airport. I declined to take an active part, for I am opposed to a City sponsored Airport, as it should be a City-County sponsored deal. It will be used by County owned aircraft more than planes owned by Floydada people.

Also this airport is being pushed as a Floydada Airport and as of this date, there is nothing in the City Minutes saying that Floydada wishes to sponsor this airport. So why should I get involved before we get a sponsor who wishes to take over this liability? No one thinks it will ever bring in any revenue, and I know that the City has all the obligations they need at the present time.

I am not against the new airport, for we in time will need a larger and longer field than we now have, but why put the burden on the City alone, when it will be of help to all the people who live in Floyd County?

I know the Commissioners think that if any help is given Floydada, there will also have to be an airport at Lockney, where

I don't know what the solution to the farm problem is, any more than Congress does, but I have a notion it won't be discovered till every magazine you pick up has started jumping on farmers and ranchers for their outrageous price increases. What agriculture needs is an editorial entitled "These Gouging Farmers."

Don't know when this will happen. I've tried raising the price of my stuff, but nobody pays any attention to it.
Yours faithfully,
J. A.

I perhaps have more money invested than in Floydada. I am sure the citizens of Lockney will agree that when all the flying farmers come to Floydada, it is in many cases on business, either at the Courthouse, or the A.S.C. office.

I appreciate very much my flying farmer friends who live outside the city limits of Floydada taking their time and at their own expense, going to Austin to try to get the City of Floydada an airport. I also think these same men would like to share in the expense of seeing that all of the people share in the future expense of maintaining a decent place for planes to land. Why shouldn't Floyd County participate in expense of the future, as a small city like Floydada cannot support it alone. There will be no trouble in raising the $25,000 to get a landing strip, but where do you go from there, as no provision is made for hangers, or keeper's house, mowing, and other expenses? You might say that someone will lease it and provide for these things. Well, do you have a con-

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

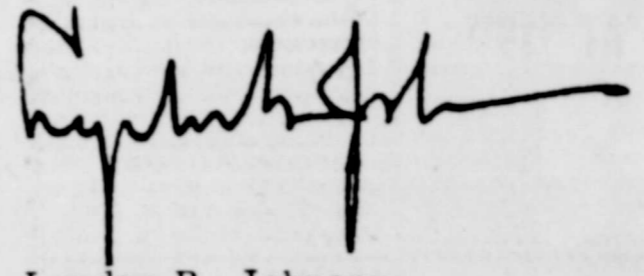

TO THE NEWSPAPERS OF THE UNITED STATES:

It is with both pride and pleasure that I participate in this traditional tribute to our nation's newspapers.

Too often taken for granted, America's countless daily and weekly papers have been vital guardians of her time-honored traditions and eloquent spokesmen for the cherished ideals of her freedom-loving people. Taken together, our nation's newspapers constitute the world's most responsible and effective organ of current information.

It is up to us to safeguard the freedom of our papers to inquire, to criticize, to express divergent views and to stand as sentinels for the public wherever the public's business is being transacted. Newspapers and their readers are partners in freedom, and if we fail to defend the freedom of our press, we neglect our own.

I am confident that Americans everywhere wholeheartedly join me during National Newspaper Week in high recognition of the indispensable role of our free press in the everyday life of our beloved nation.

tract with anyone?
This landing strip reminds me of our swimming pool, which was built while I was a member of the City Commission. We had $25,000 to build a swimming pool, but no provision or money was had for a house to separate the boys from the girls. So we were assured that if we would build the swimming pool, the public would see that a house was built. So we dug a swimming pool, and when it was finished, all the parties interested in taking over this swimming pool washed their hands of the whole thing, and there we were with a $25,000 hole in the ground. So we took $7300 out of your Light Plant Fund, and built a house. Now, some of these people who want the City to sponsor an airport do not even support their Light Plant, which is the main income of Floydada. We are at a point where we will spend all the money available in getting water to our City. Without water, we will not need any of the things we hope to have in the future.

So, I will continue to be neutral on this new airport, and will keep the present Floydada Airport open to the public, and will let the Airport Committee do as they see fit. But I think they should get a recognized sponsor first, whose officials have voted to take on this new enterprise.

Yours very truly,
/s/ M. H. Martin

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
Fur will fly Friday night when Ralls Jackrabbits lope onto Wester Field to avenge 26 to 0 defeat of 1939 slopped on them by the South Plains twisters of Floydada.

Mrs. John Lewis was a victim of an unusual accident which proved fatal three days later, when she was struck on the head by a cut-off fan weight of the windmill at the Lewis Ranch. A work crew found the unconscious form of Mrs. Lewis in the yard about an hour after the accident. The heavy iron weight was by her side. It had fallen some 30 feet through the working scaffold manhood. The blow struck Mrs. Lewis in the back of the head slightly to the right and below the center. She never regained consciousness and died Monday afternoon.

The lassies who are leading the Floydada Pep Squad this year are Martha Yearwood, president; Francis Field, vice president; Lee Dale Club, business manager; and Arlene Fyffe, secretary.

1966 Buicks On Display At City Auto Today

Wildcat Gets Gran Sport Option . . .

Buick LeSabre Has Larger V-8

What's New

BUICK LeSABRE has a larger engine for '66. It's a 340-cubic-inch, 220-horsepower unit. In '65, LeSabre used a 300-cubic-inch, 210-horsepower engine.

- Wildcat two-door hardtops and convertibles may be ordered with a Gran Sport option, which includes a 425-cubic-inch, 340-horsepower engine.

- All models have new front and rear styling with separate grilles for LeSabre, Wildcat and Electra. Interiors and instrument panels have been redesigned, and knobs are recessed.

- Three-speed manual transmission standard on LeSabre and Wildcat, now is fully synchronized in all forward gears.

- Heavier frame and changes in the suspension system are said to provide better control and a softer ride.

- Offered for the first time is Automatic Climate Control. It is a combination heating and air-conditioning unit that is thermostatically controlled.

- Another new option is an AM-FM stereo radio with dual speakers.

- The lowest-priced Wildcat series has been discontinued. There are seven Wildcat models for '66, compared with 10 in '65.

- The standard-equipment safety package now includes padded instrument panel and visors, windshield washers and two-speed wipers, front and rear seat belts, backup lights, outside rear-view mirror, shatterproof inside mirror and brushed finish wiper arms for reduction of glare.

- Mandatory at extra cost on cars to be sold in California is an exhaust-emission control system.

Dimensions

LeSABRE models have a 123-inch wheelbase and are 216.9 inches overall. Wildcats and Electras have a 126-inch wheelbase. Wildcats are 219.9 inches in length, and Electras are 223.4. All models are 80 inches wide.

Height ranges from 57 to 57.5 inches. All models are 1.5 to 1.9 inches higher than in '65.

In '65, the LeSabre engine displaced 300 cubic inches, with horsepower choices of 210 and 250.

Expanded Model Lineup Offered by Buick Special

What's New

THE Skylark Gran Sport becomes a separate series in the '66 Buick Special line. Available in three models, it will have a 400-cubic-inch, 325-horsepower engine. The Gran Sport formerly was a Skylark option.

- A four-door hardtop has been added to the Skylark series. It is the first time Special has offered this body style. A two-door sedan and two-door hardtop have joined the Special Deluxe line.

- Special two-doors have a fast-back-type rear roofline with recessed window. Four-door sedans also have a new roof. Grille, hood, bumpers and rear end have been restyled, and the new instrument panel is wider than last year's.

- Optional on all models except the Gran Sport is a new 340-cubic-inch V-8 that develops 260 horsepower.

- The V-6 engine now has a two-barrel carburetor, hiking horsepower to 160 from last year's 155.

- Three-speed manual transmission now is fully synchronized in all forward gears.

- Sportwagon models have more rear legroom, and additional acoustical insulation provides quieter operation. A new Sportwagon option is an automatic leveling device.

- Rear tread of all models has been increased one inch to 59. Front tread remains at 58 inches.

- Changes in the frame and front suspension are designed to give better stability and a softer, quieter ride.

- Standard safety equipment for '66 includes front and rear seat belts, backup lights, padded instrument panel and visors, outside rear-view mirror, shatterproof inside mirror, windshield washers and dual-speed wipers and brushed finish wiper arms for reduction of glare.

The four Sportwagon (skyroof) models have a 120-inch wheelbase and are 209 inches long, 75.5 inches wide and 60.2 inches high.

Engines

STANDARD engine for Special, Special Deluxe and Skylark is a 225-cubic-inch V-6 with two-barrel carburetor and 9.0-to-1 compression ratio. The other is the new 340-cubic-inch, 260-horsepower unit. It has a four-barrel carburetor and compression ratio of 10.25 to 1.

On the Sportwagon, a 220-horsepower version of the 340-incher is standard, and the 260-horsepower package is optional. Skylark Gran Sports have a 400-cubic-inch V-8 with 325 horsepower, four-barrel carburetor and 10.25-to-1 compression ratio.

Model Lineup

THERE are 19 Special models, including the Sportswagons, five more than in 1965. Newcomers are the three Gran Sports, the Skylark four-door hardtop and the Special Deluxe two-door sedan and two-door hardtop. The Skylark Gran Sport sedan has been dropped. Here's the '66 lineup:

Skylark Adds 4-Door Hardtop—

Joining the Special lineup for '66 is a Skylark four-door hardtop. Buick's V-8 engine is standard equipment, and two V-6s are offered—a 300-cubic-inch, 210-horsepower unit and a new 340-cubic-inch that develops 260 horsepower. Wheelbase is 115 inches, and the cars are 204 inches overall.

Big Change for Riviera—

Longer wheelbase, lengthened hood and fenders and a modified front end are features of the Buick Riviera for '66. Headlamps are concealed in the radiator grille, beneath the hood. They drop into position when the headlight switch is turned on.

Introducing the tuned car. 1966 Buick.

What makes a car a car is styling, performance, ride and handling. Only when they're all tuned together is the car a Buick. Like this 1966 Riviera Gran Sport.

You know how well your car's engine runs after a tuneup? Buick tuning has the same effect on the whole car. Not just the engine. The whole Buick. Everything blends with everything else. Styling. Performance. Ride. Handling. All tuned to work together in harmony. That's what the tuned car is. A Buick. Only Buick is the tuned car. (And every Buick is the tuned car.) What the tuned car is is a masterful blending of all the things that make a great car greater. The Riviera for 1966 is the tuned car. It features six-passenger seating, disappearing headlights, a silently efficient new ventilating system and the kind of roadworthiness you'd expect in a car twice as much. (You can get a Riviera for your desk as well as your driveway. Send $1 in check or money order to Riviera, P.O. Box 68, Troy, Ala. an accurate 1/25 scale model '66 Riviera.) But Riviera's not just a tuned car. LeSabre is, too. And Wildcat. Electra 225. Special Sportwagon. See them all at your Buick dealer's. The tuned car means much to you now. But then you haven't had a chance to drive

Wouldn't you really rather have

Chadwick, Hardy Building Cars Designed For Drag Racing

Chadwick and Don Hardy have been together in the racing business up until now, but at this time they are building cars designed for drag racing. Hardy was released from the Army this year and rejoined Chadwick in the racing business. Chadwick and Hardy have recently begun building cars for drag racing, and they have just completed a '65 Dart for a client in Ft. Worth.

Chadwick is also girls' basketball coach at Floydada High School. The past two seasons Chadwick has been running a Chevelle in match competition. This summer Chadwick and Jimmy Oden went on two separate month tours to various midwest and northern cities, where they entered drag racing competition.

According to Chadwick, he and Hardy have opened a shop in Floydada, for the purpose of strictly building racing cars. "This is not in competition with any of the other garages in town," Chadwick said.

Recently the twosome completed building a '65 Dodge Dart for a client in Ft. Worth. Soon they will build a Match Race Chevy II for an individual from San Antonio, a Match Race Chevelle for an individual from Omaha, Nebraska, and a Match Race Plymouth for a man in Corsicana.

Chadwick said recently, "In response to the many questions of what my intentions are since selling the Chevelle, I will build a new '66 Chevy II Match Race car, very similar to the Chevelle except it should go faster."

"The best time ever achieved by the Chevelle was a 10.56 elapsed time and a speed of 134.93 MPH at San Antonio. The new Chevy II should be capable of 140 MPH and a 9.90

ET. "I have been invited to the National Stock Car Championships at Los Angeles, Calif., in January, therefore I wanted a car capable of winning the National Event."

The Chevelle he has been driving will be featured in the December issue of Drag Racing Magazine which will be on sale at Floydada newsstands.

Hardy will run a '65 Plymouth "funny car", factory Super stock next year out of the Floydada shop that will be co-owned by Hardy and Chadwick.

Chadwick added, "I would like to take this opportunity to once again thank everyone in Floydada who has helped me in any way to make the Chevelle the number 2 ranked Chevy in the U. S."

"I hope to make the Chevy II the number 1 Chevy in the country next year, he concluded.

Future Of Earth Bright With A Bible Promise, Witnesses Told

"Despite the present world troubles and woeful expectations, the future of the earth is bright with a Bible promise. Through the power of the resurrection God will bring forth millions who will enjoy this earth made into a paradise for men to inhabit forever", 461 persons were told Sunday afternoon. They had met for the final day of Jehovah's Witnesses three-day seminar in Lamesa, Texas.

A. A. Catanzaro, traveling representative of the Watchtower Society, went on to say "The Bible teaches that when a man dies, he is truly dead, not in a vague hereafter, or in torment, Psalm 146:3,4." He stated: "The Bible also holds forth the hope of a resurrection, a returning to life here upon the earth, both for the just and the unjust." He was speaking on the subject "What Does the Resurrection of the Dead Mean for You and Yours?"

To his listeners from 16 congregations in Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma, Catanzaro, using the Bible stated, "Persons who have lost loved ones to the enemy death, can expectantly look for the return of these through God's power of the resurrection. What a joyous reunion this will be living in God's righteous new order-receiving their loved ones back from the grave. The hope of a resurrection should inspire all honest-hearted persons to seek understanding of this Bible promise by God."

"What is the basis for resurrection?" Catanzaro asked, "It is Christ Jesus, God's only begotten son, who sacrificially laid down his life in behalf of all obedient mankind." "Persons resurrected", he added, "will live on a paradise earth forever."

Clarence W. Hall, presiding minister of Jehovah's Witnesses, here said regular meetings will be resumed this week at the Kingdom Hall, 321 Vermont St., in Plainview.

Texas Ranks 2 In Angus Registrations

Texas Angus breeders helped set two new national records in the past 12 months, as they recorded 33,867 calves to retain their ranking as number two Angus state, Glen Bratcher, secretary of the American Angus Association, St. Joseph, Missouri, reports. Texas also ranks number two in transfers and three in new life and junior memberships.

During the fiscal year ended September 30, national registrations of Angus calves were up 3 percent over 1964 to 384,752 head. This was the only increase reported by any of the three major beef cattle registry organizations in the nation, Bratcher said.

The top 20 states in registration were Missouri, 40,406; Texas, 33,867; Iowa, 31,733; Oklahoma, 22,171; Illinois, 20,046; Tennessee, 17,784; Kentucky, 16,343; Nebraska, 15,764; Kansas, 15,144; Montana, 12,689; Mississippi, 11,987; Georgia, 10,252; Arkansas, 9,885; Virginia, 9,857; Indiana, 9,011; South Dakota, 8,463; California, 8,289; North Dakota, 7,633; Colorado, 6,849;

Alabama, 6,523. The leading ten states in new junior memberships were Illinois, 303; Missouri, 240; Texas, 215; Iowa, 163; Oklahoma, 155; Tennessee, 117; Washington, 96; Mississippi, 90; California, 89; Kansas, 88.

FOUR YEAR PROGRAM

Final Draft Of Cotton Program Clears Last Major Hurdle

A new cotton program finally came out of the Senate-House conference committee last week, clearing the last major hurdle before it becomes the law of the land.

The final draft of the four-year program, which will take effect next year, is pretty much along the lines reported earlier.

Here, at last, are major provisions of the "final dimensions" of the cotton section of the omnibus farm bill:

1. Domestic acreage allotments will be set at 65 per cent of the allotted acreage on individual farms. These domestic allotments will be based on the 16-million-acre national cotton acreage.

2. A mandatory 12 1/2 per cent reduction from the base individual farm allotment will be required for a farmer to get price support loans and subsidy payments. Small growers are exempt from mandatory acreage cuts and receive special subsidy treatment.

3. Price support loans to co-operators will be based on 90 per cent of the estimated average world market price for cotton. For the 1966 crop, this will be 21 cents, basis middling one-inch at average location.

In addition to support loans, co-operators will get price support subsidy payments "in an amount calculated to reflect not less than 65 per cent of parity on the projected yield of their acreage permitted to be devoted to cotton."

4. Diverted cotton average payments will be made at not less than 25 per cent of the parity price multiplied by the projected yield of the acreage required to be retired to gain compliance with the program.

Payments of up to 40 per cent of parity can be made on acreages diverted from cotton production beyond the mandatory cut. Growers will have options of retiring up to a total of 35 per cent of their base allotments.

5. A small farm exception stipulates that there will not be mandatory acreage cuts for farmers with allotments of 10 acres or less or for those growers whose projected farm yield is 3,600 pounds or less.

These small growers will receive on their entire production the same level of price support provided for other producers. And the small growers also will get a land retirement payment just as if they'd cut their acreage by 35 per cent.

In addition, if a small farmer chooses to reduce his acreage to any level down to 65 per cent of his allotment, he'll get another diversion payment at the rate applicable for voluntary retirement of this acreage.

6. Any producer with an allotment can stay out of the program, receive no price support or payments, and plant and sell cotton without penalty for export use only.

However, the national total of this "non-program acreage" will be limited to 250,000 acres in 1966. This national total could be reduced in 1967, 1968 and 1969 unless there's a proportionate reduction in carryover stocks.

7. Allotted cotton acreages released by farmers not wanting to plant cotton in a given year can be reapportioned to other farmers within the county or in other counties within the state if not absorbed within the county where released.

Farmers releasing their allotments for reapportionment would be eligible for diversion payments on 12 1/2 per cent of the allotment.

8. Sale or lease of cotton acreage allotments among farmers is authorized within a county or in other counties of the same state if growers within the county approve in a referendum the movement of allotments to purchasers in other counties.

9. Cotton farmers may assign their direct price support and diversion payments to private lending agencies in obtaining production loans.

10. Exchange of rice and cotton allotments within a county or an adjoining county is authorized under terms and conditions approved by the secretary of agriculture.

11. Half of the price support payment can be made at the time a farmer signs up for the program. When the second half of the payment will be made is left to the discretion of the secretary of agriculture.

The secretary will be directed to "administer the cotton program in a manner designed to minimize the flow of cotton into the hands of the Commodity Credit Corp."

If the secretary should "find a pattern or practice of inducements by any segment of the cotton trade which encourages cotton to go under CCC loan," he would be authorized to "deny participation in price support operations to those engaged in such a practice."

FARMERS, LANDOWNERS, AND BUSINESSMEN OF FLOYDADA AND SURROUNDING COMMUNITIES

ARE INVITED TO A MEETING AT 8:00 P. M. MONDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1965, AT THE BANK COMMUNITY ROOM, FLOYDADA.

L. B. FLOHR OF BROOKSIDE LABORATORIES, WILL DISCUSS SOIL AND CROP PRODUCTION PROBLEMS HE HAS ENCOUNTERED WHILE WORKING IN THE SOUTH PLAINS AREA DURING THE PAST FIVE YEARS. MR. WHEN APPLIANCES TALK BACK - WATCH OUT!

If you can understand their language - your electrical appliances can talk to you. Sometimes their message is an urgent one, too. It's usually a warning of danger. Equipment experts urge that you learn the language your appliances use. Their warning signals, if you recognize them, may prevent a fire, appliance damage, or sometimes personal injuries.

Here are a few of the danger signals to look for and an explanation of their meaning.

1. Blinking or annoying "on-off" periods in the operation of an appliance usually means there's a loose connection - perhaps only a loose screw. But it should be repaired before a more serious problem occurs.

2. A "tingle" or slight shock when handling an appliance or switch tells you there's trouble brewing - inspect for loose wires or poor insulation.

3. Crumbling of rubber insulation on lamp or appliance cords can eventually expose electric wires which can short-circuit or make metal lamp bases, etc., a serious shock hazard.

4. Dimming of lights or slowing of heating appliances when motors start indicates that the circuits are overloaded. Overloaded circuits mean heated wires - a dangerous fire hazard.

5. Blown fuses or tripped circuit breakers are also signals of overloaded circuits. They are saying: Use fewer appliances on the circuit at one time. Circuit capacities are 1800 watts for a 20-ampere fuse. Be sure the fuse is the right one for size of wiring. If the fuse will let more power through than the wiring can safely carry, it is not a safety device. Overheated wires, damaged motors, and fires can result if the wrong fuse or a penny-repaired fuse is used. All of these are more than annoyances. They are real danger signals which only the very foolish will ignore. To neglect or ignore the warnings is to entertain dangerous and costly wire and shock possibilities.

So - when you get the signal, discard and replace those worn cords, and have outlets, switches and sockets repaired. If you aren't sure of your own repair techniques, call your electrical repairman - always keep in mind too, that the 115-volt electric service in our homes is powerful enough to be dangerous if incorrectly used.

If the need for repairs is a constant and continuing problem in your home, the reason may be old and inadequate wiring. And the simplest, and perhaps the least expensive answer in the long run, may be additional wiring. Check with a wiring specialist. He can explain new developments and tell you what would be an adequate wiring system for your home.

Floyd County Families Moving Into Higher Income Brackets

(Special to the Hesperian) NEW YORK, Sept. 27 - Most Floyd County families have been moving into higher income brackets than before, thanks to their steadily rising earnings during the last few years.

Many of them, who were in the $4,000 to $7,000 range previously, have graduated to the $7,000 to $10,000 category. By the same token, others, formerly in lower brackets, are now to be found in the $4,000 to $7,000 group.

The upward shift has been noted at all points on the income scale. As a result, the proportion of local families in the middle and upper brackets is greater than ever, leaving fewer of them at the lower end.

For most people in the area, as well as for the business community as a whole, it has manifested itself in increased consumer spending and an upgrading of living standards.

The improvement is detailed, for all sections of the county, in a copyrighted study conducted by Sales Management. For each area, it lists the number of families in each income bracket.

In Floyd County, 49.3 percent of the local households had disposable, cash incomes of $4,000 or more last year after taking care of their Federal and state taxes.

This was a high percentage. It compares with 44.9 percent in 1962, when a similar study was made.

The rate of gain in the period, 9.8 percent, was more than the United States rise, 6.7 percent, and the 8.3 percent in Texas.

Because the study is concerned solely with cash income available after taxes, farmers do not show up in their best light. No account is taken of their non-cash benefits, such as food, rent and the like.

Just how the Floyd County population is divided, from an income standpoint, is indicated by some of the other breakdown figures.

They show that 9.4 percent of the households, locally, are in the $7,000 to $10,000 class, that 23.6 percent net $4,000 to $7,000 and that 19.5 percent have incomes of $2,500 to $4,000.

The findings are considered important because they answer the question "How many get how much?" They determine the economic balance of a community and enable manufacturers and distributors to estimate the potential for their products in each area.

25 Years Ago

Final rites for Orland Franklin Batty, 81, Floyd County pioneer and one of the first cotton producers of the plains, were conducted Friday afternoon in the Lakeview Baptist Church.

Harvest field work is ample therefore WPA jobs are now suspended for at least 60 days or when the harvest is completed.

Crowell Wildcats will invade the domain of the Floydada Whirlwinds tomorrow night and try to subdue their third member of District 4-A. The Wildcats so far have tied Matador 0-0 and Paducah 6-6.

Officials of the City of Floydada Monday morning will answer a petition in District Court for Floyd County for an injunction preventing an alleged careless practice of permitting its lines to come in contact with lines of the Texas-New Mexico Utilities Co. Allegations point out that the company had its lines already established in various areas set out in the petition and that the City lines have been permitted to sag until the contacts made the company's lines constitute a hazard to the public.

over the edge and noticed a spider had started a web from the left side of the paper to my shoulder and if I moved my arm it'd break, and after all, watching a spider spin a web is fascinating and when he gets it done it's probably as effective against world problems as the average editorial page anyway, so I just sat there awhile and re-read the front page.

I glanced down at the weather forecast in the lower right-hand corner and got to thinking.

Weather forecasts have improved a great deal in the last year or two.

I don't mean in accuracy, I mean in language.

It used to be that a weather forecast would read: Fair Tomorrow, or Rain Tomorrow. There it was, in black and white, rain or fair, and if it rained when it had said fair, or was fair when it had said rain, you had the weather bureau over the barrel. "Why can't they learn how to predict the weather," you'd demand. It was satisfying. It was a clean-out victory of nature over man.

But not anymore. Now, if there's a possibility of some rain tomorrow, the forecast will read: Showers over 20 percent of the area, or, if they're a little surer, showers over 30 percent, and they'll even go as high as 40 percent, and on rare occasions when they're dead sure, 70 percent.

This is what I'm talking about. It cuts down on the amount of criticism the weatherman gets. Where's the man who's going to get in his car and travel all over the area seeing if it rained over 20 percent of the territory? Nobody ever knows for sure, and the batting average of the forecaster stays indefinite and unchallenged. It reads good on paper in general but sometimes not in particular, like when the national cost-of-living index dropped 1 percent the same month the transmission fell out of your tractor and your car ran into a light pole. I don't know what happened to that spider. I fell asleep and dropped the paper.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Members Needed In Auxiliary

Peoples Hospital Auxiliary met Tuesday morning for their regular monthly session and enjoyed a good talk by Edward Clark, hospital manager.

Clark stressed the fact that there were many things to do yet at the hospital in the way of repairs and clean-up jobs and that more members are needed in the auxiliary. Membership for working members is $2 per year and for association members $5 per year.

Those interested in joining may contact Mrs. Clarence Guffee or Mrs. Jack Henry, president.

The next meeting will be the first Tuesday in November in the Community Room of the First National Bank.

TFU Convention Set In Abilene

Texas Farmers Union is expecting a large attendance at its Sixty-Second Annual State Convention in Abilene at the Windsor Hotel on November 4, 5 and 6.

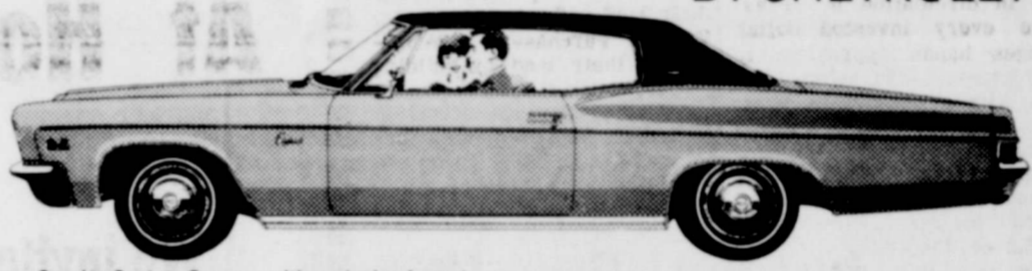

Convention delegates will voice their views on state and national issues when they adopt the 1966 policy statement, which is one of the highlights of the three-day meeting. State officers and delegates to the National Farmers Union convention will be elected by the assembled delegates.

The Board of Directors of the Texas Farmers Union will meet on November 3rd, the day before the convention opens, to select the location for the 1966 convention. The Board will elect seven district directors from the Board to serve on the Executive Committee.

NOW! A WHOLE NEW SERIES OF ULTRA-LUXURIOUS CHEVROLETS

'66 CAPRICE

BY CHEVROLET

Caprice Custom Coupe—with exclusive formal roof line that comes on no other Chevrolet.

Caprice Custom Sedan—with superb new Body by Fisher elegance inside and out.

Caprice Custom Wagon—with fine new look of hardwood paneling on sides and tailgate.

Everything it takes to create a distinguished luxury car has gone into these new Caprices.

Beneath the formal styling elegance that sets the Custom Coupe apart, for instance, you'll find thick wall-to-wall carpeting, comfort-contoured seats and the look of hand-rubbed walnut on the instrument panel, glove compartment and inside door panels. You can order a finely instrumented console, together with new Strato-bucket front seats.

In the Custom Sedan, a new Strato-back front seat is available with bucket-type contours separated by a fold-down armrest. And in the equally opulent Custom Wagons, offered in 2- or 3-seat models, you can even order carpeting for the cargo area.

Each model rides super Jet-smooth. And for incomparably smooth power, you can specify Chevrolet's advanced Turbo-Jet V8 in either a 396- or 427-cubic-inch version.

The price of it all? Somewhat more than you're used to paying for a Chevrolet. But less, as your dealer will happily confirm—than the select class of fine cars these new Caprices invite comparison with in every detail.

See the new '66 Chevrolet, Chevelle, Chevy II, Corvair & Corvette at your Chevrolet dealer's

Vote FOR Amendment Number 2, The Veterans Land Program

Today the Texas Veterans' Land Program stands on its own as one of the soundest state endeavors in modern times.

The program, which is the best opportunity offered veterans of any state in the Union, is not a dole or a waste of public lands. Now in its 16th year, it is a sound, self-sustaining business.

The program is able to operate at no increased burden on the taxpayer because fees collected for various services rendered by the Veterans' Land Board defray yearly operating expenses.

The Veterans' Land Program has not only given the state an opportunity to aid the men and
