NUMBER FORTY-SIX

Cotton Quotas Up For Vote Tuesday, November 23

Places

Quota vote coming November 23 will mark consecutive year in which growers have voted on quotas for their upland crop, Thomas J. Williams, manager, Floyd County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

With the referendum on quotas for the upland cotton crop, growers have approved the quotas. "In each year, on quotas for upland cotton crop, the growers approved the quotas."

Quotas must be produced by the Secretary of Agriculture in years when the quota exceeds normal. This case this year.

Producers of upland cotton in this year are expected to produce about 15.7 million bales. With the high of 534 pounds per bale, the total domestic usage plus export is expected to be about 15.7 million bales.

Floyd County has 2,791 acres available to growers for upland cotton. This represents a share of the national allotment of 16 million bales.

The farm will have for at least two or three weeks, doing the abstract paper work for the re-evaluation. Each piece of property will be seen personally by one of the workers before the evaluation is completed.

In another week to ten days, the firm will have workers in the Lockney area to evaluate the property in that town.

Williams told a Hesperian reporter that the construction, age and amount of depreciation, would be used to determine the market value of all property.

He said, "Two pieces of property setting side-by-side may appear to be the exact age and construction, but upon closer investigation, a great deal of difference in value may be determined, due to use, or quality of construction or materials."

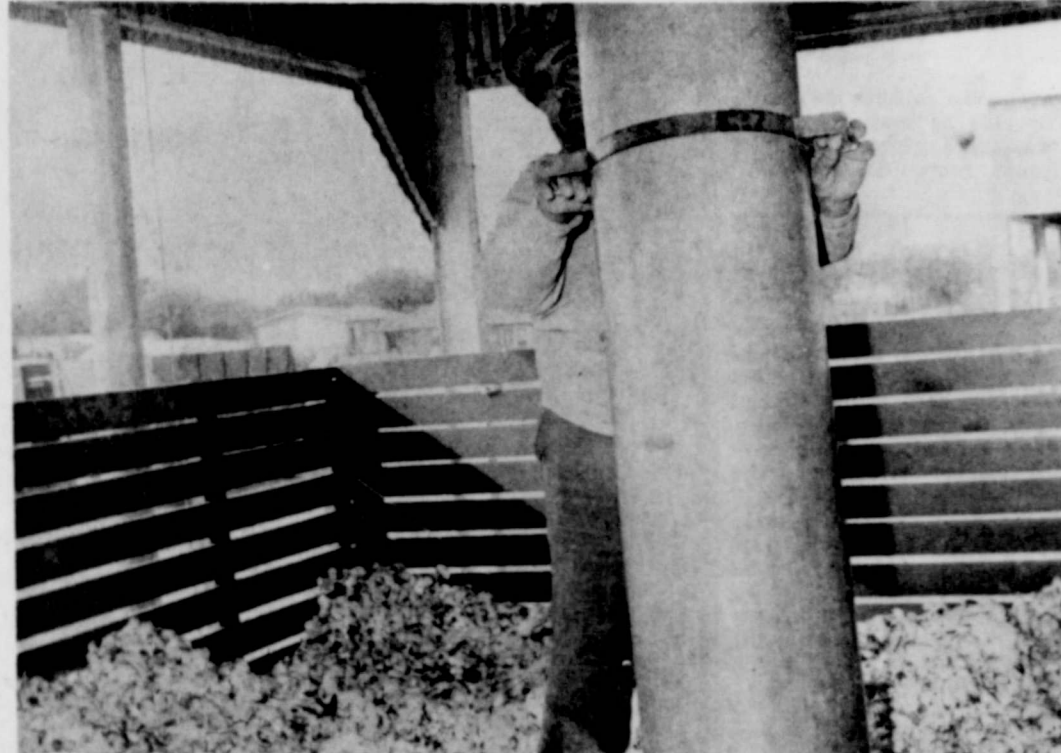

On the farm property, Williams said aerial photos will be used as well as personal visits to each individual farm. The land will be graded and classed by employees of McMorries that have college degrees in soils.

It was mentioned that most of the land will fall, probably, into six or eight classes, depending upon whether the land is irrigated or dryland, farmland or grassland, and several other factors.

The fact that one has noxious weeds and another does not will not be considered by the firm, for the Texas Tax Laws would be used to determine the market value of all property.

Tentatively, McMorries and Company intends to complete the job by January 1, 1966. It must be completed prior to June 1 of 1966 for a basis for the tax roll of 1967.

The Chamber of Commerce is planning a banquet to honor the existing industries in Floydada. The date for this event has been set for Friday, December 17.

According to a conversation with Jack Williams, of McMorries and Company of Amarillo, Wednesday morning, the firm is now in the process of re-evaluating the property in Floyd County.

Two Jailed For Theft Burglary

Two men, one of Floydada and the other a former resident, are in Floyd County jail charged with burglary of two service stations in Floydada on Wednesday night of last week, and for the theft of a tractor.

Walter Hollums, county sheriff, said the two were questioned by him and Bill Taylor, local city police chief, after they were apprehended in Lubbock and signed a statement of confession. Their bond is set for $1,000 each in the burglary charges and $1,500 each on the theft.

Taken from Carthel's Phillip 66 Station were cigarettes and money totaling approximately $30, and $50 or $60. Courtesy cards were taken from McLains Conoco.

Hollums said the two men parked their car on a side street and burglarized the stations, prying the east door on Carthel's Station and going into McLain's Station through a bathroom window.

In the meantime, city officials spotted the abandoned car and had it towed to storage. The two men watched the action from a distance then took off on foot southwest. They came to the farm of C. C. Burns, who now resides in town, started his tractor, came back as far as Idalou where it was abandoned on FM road 400.

Martin Wins Year's Final Grid Contest

Garland Martin stood alone in the final Hesperian Grid Contest for this year as he missed only four of the games on the page. His nearest competitor missed five of the games on the page.

Martin was off on his guess of the total score as he said that 35 would be scored. Jim Reynolds, of Lockney, who finished second by missing five of the games, guessed the point total exactly in Friona's 27-0 victory over the Winds.

One contestant, although he missed several of the games, guessed that A&M and Rice would tie, which they almost did in A&M's 14-13 upset victory over the Owls.

Several people missed only six of the games and thus missed any prize money by only one game. They include Marcel Harkins of Crosbyton, Bill Hines, Doris Jean Traylor and Ronnie Traylor of Crosbyton, Arlis Powell, Debbie Medley, Dannie Medley, A. W. James, Mark Estes and Eugene Edwards.

NEW QUARTERS - are starting to circulate in Floydada, and Nancy Myrick, teller at First National Bank, displays a package of the new coins which recently arrived. The coins are said to be a hybrid of copper and copper-nickel alloy and lighter in weight than the old type quarter. (Staff Photo)

Ron Loose, DVM, Assumes Theford Practice Here

Ron Loose, DVM, (rhythms with Dose), has assumed the practice of Veterinary Medicine formerly done here by Dr. T. R. Theford. Dr. Theford left Floydada recently to assume a teaching position at Oklahoma State University.

The family moved here recently after he was released from the Air Force at Big Spring, where he has served the past year and nine months. Prior to his service hitch, he had a Veterinary practice at Coey, Kansas, and one at Denver, Colorado.

of the crops had time to mature naturally, without the help of a killing frost.

At the same time harvest is in full swing, word was received last week that the cotton allotments for Floyd County has been cut for the 1966 crop. Actually, the decrease is very small, from 93,441 in 1965 to 92,791 for 1966, or a decrease of 650 acres.

Figures released from the State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office at College Station this week show the total 23-county High Plains base cotton allotment for 1966 to be 2,122,770.

This year's allotment for the 23 counties on the High Plains was slightly higher, at 2,135,624.

The slight decrease was the result of a different acreage reserve formula used in dividing the state allotment among counties. In past years, the State ASCS Committee has held 10 percent of the state's total allotment, then reapportioned those allotments to counties which had planted all their acreage the previous year.

This year, the state committee simply divided the entire state allotment among counties on the basis of cotton history. However, the small reduction will have very little effect when spread to individual farms.

A much greater toll of bales from 1966 production will be taken by the new cotton program. In 1966 producers will be required to reduce plantings by at least 12.5 percent to participate in the government program, and are offered a strong incentive to reduce up to 35 percent.

Observers are estimating that this program may take as much as 25 percent of cotton acreage out of production with a resultant drop in bale numbers of about 20 percent.

Following are the base allotments for area counties for 1966, compared with base acreages for 1965:

Young Farmers To Hear Explanation Of New Farm Bill

The Floydada Young Farmers will have an opportunity to hear an explanation of the complicated Omnibus Farm Bill, that passed Congress during this past session, Tuesday at 7:30 in the High School Agriculture Room. The presentation will be made by Thomas J. Hutchins, manager of the ASC office in Floydada.

Since the proposal of the bill, there has been a series of questions, a lot of concern, and also a lot of doubt about the feasibility of the bill. Those attending the meeting should have a much clearer understanding of the bill after Tuesday's meeting.

The next regular meeting, December 2, will feature a program on Foreign Agriculture.

Just what a "yes" or "no" vote will mean in the November 23 referendum on upland cotton marketing quotas was explained today by Thomas J. Hutchins, office manager, Floyd County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

The basic program choices are: 1. If at least two-thirds who vote in the referendum approve of quotas, the quotas will be in effect for the 1966 upland cotton crop, and marketing penalties will apply to any excess cotton produced on a farm.

2. On the other hand, if more than one-third of the growers who vote oppose the quotas, then there will be no quotas and no penalties applicable to the 1966 upland cotton crop, no "domestic allotment" program providing price-support and diversion payments, and no export market acreage reserve.

Lease or sale of cotton allotments is provided under certain conditions, and the November 23 referendum will also decide whether growers wish to permit such transfers outside the particular county but within the State.

Polling places where Floyd County farmers may cast ballots in the referendum on marketing quotas for the 1966 upland cotton crop were announced today by Thomas J. Hutchins, office manager, Floyd County ASCS.

I ENJOYED VISITING with the folks at Hale Center Tuesday night during their annual chamber of commerce banquet. It is wonderful to see the "come back" spirit of these people whose town was almost all blown away by the tornado.

New buildings are going up in the downtown area... many are finished and the merchants are back in business.

It is interesting to note that the people still marvel at how few were killed or injured considering the amount of destruction experienced.

We all have a lot for which to be thankful... but the folks at Hale Center will "know" so much more thankfulness this Thanksgiving.

I JUST can't help myself... I've just gotta remark... "My, don't our school teachers look nice!"

Correction

In last week's Hesperian, in the story about the City Council meeting it was reported that "the members of the council voted to reimburse all developers for the city's share of development costs in proportion to what has been developed."

The story should have included the words "for that land that has been in the city limits and is being developed."

Newly annexed property is not handled in the same way as the property that has been in the city limits for several years.

MAKE YOUR OWN ORNAMENTS—Cotton crochet thread is the major ingredient in creating "string-maze fantasies." Soak thread in full-strength liquid starch and wrap around an inflated balloon in criss-cross fashion. When thread is dry, deflate and remove the balloon through the top opening. The lacy-looking globe that's left can be decorated with a variety of holiday trims. Hang it on the Christmas tree or suspend it from the ceiling for a festive touch.

Americanism Day Is Topic Of Study Club

Americanism Day was the topic of the 1934 Study Club meeting held Tuesday night in the Community Room of the bank. Mrs. R. G. Dunlap opened the meeting in the absence of Mrs. J. P. Moss. Hostess was Mrs. W. D. Mount. Prayer was voiced by Mrs. Allen Bingham. Mrs. Bingham also introduced the program and Mrs. Effie Foster spoke on "See America First." She also showed slides of trips in the U. S. taken from a collection of Frances Mitchell. During business the resignation of Mary Shaw Campbell was regretfully accepted. Members were reminded to bring gifts and gift wrappings at the next meeting in order to send the Christmas box to Wichita Falls State Hospital, a project of the club. The next meeting will also be the club's annual Christmas party, to be held at the home of Mrs. W. O. Newberry. Names were drawn at the past session. Attending were Mrs. Allen Bingham, Wilson Bond, W. H. Bunch, Thomas Burrow, Ralph Cogdell, R. G. Dunlap, David Eaton, Garland Foster, J. S. Hale Jr., Doyle Mount, W. O. Newberry and Mrs. G. W. Switzer.

JOHN TOWER NEWSLETTER

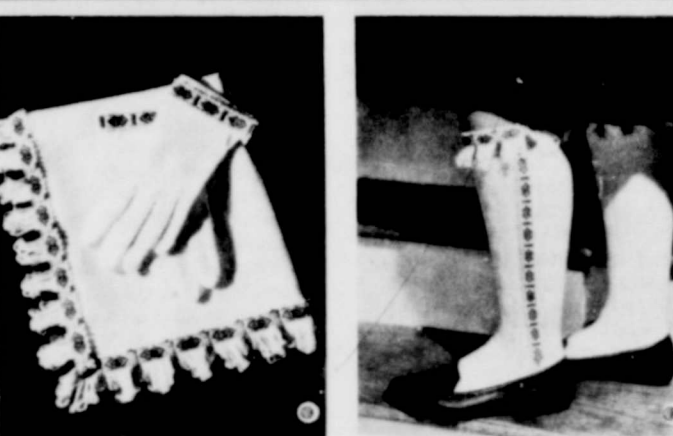

Looking forward to the new Congressional session starting in January, we can see a number of pending items of concern to Texans. Most important will be any renewal of the Right-to-Work repeal fight, and we will continue our interest in maintaining a strong American stand against Communist aggression. But, I expect one of my areas of greatest activity next year on behalf of Texans will be attempts to cut short the inflationary trends that face our nation and to obtain additional tax law adjustments so that a more reasonable tax load can be obtained for each Texan. It is a matter of grave concern to me that continual federal deficit spending—the paying out of dollars the government does not have—has driven the cost of living ever upward. For a majority of Texas wage earners 1965's federal income tax cuts will be more than offset by the ever-increasing cost of living and by the increase in taxes needed to pay for Medicare. Figures from the Treasury Department show what a married man with two children will have to earn next year just to maintain the same buying power he had in 1963:

Income in 1963	Income Needed in 1966	Change
$ 4,000	$ 4,087	Up $ 87
$ 6,000	$ 6,175	Up $175
$ 8,000	$ 8,217	Up $217
$10,000	$10,232	Up $232
$12,000	$12,247	Up $247
$15,000	$15,232	Up $232

More shocking than the above table are the figures affecting Texans living on Social Security and similar pensions. Even with the recent seven percent cost-of-living increase in Social Security benefits—an increase I fully supported—these pensioners now have less buying power than they had in 1958 and 1964 under the Eisenhower Administration. Inflation has eroded away all of the Social Security increase voted this year. A person who has paid into the Social Security Fund since 1940 on an annual salary of $3,000 has $9.19 less purchasing power today with his larger check than he had in 1958.

Members of Congress, conservationists and other witnessed President Johnson as he signed the bill designed to help make highways more beautiful. He presented his wife the first pen he used to sign the $320-million measure.

GIFT IDEA—Ready-made items can be turned into unusual gifts by adding cotton drapery trim. Here, Conso's cotton fringe makes a colorful border for a simple scarf, while matching narrow braid adds interest to plain gloves. TRIM TRICK—Add cotton drapery trim to inexpensive ready-made items for special gifts. Conso's decorative flat braid and matching fringe turn these plain white cotton knee socks into a novel gift for the teenager.

In Holiday Robes

Century-Old Fabric Makes Fashion News

Some of the most elegant robes to go into Christmas gift boxes this year won't be of ermine. They'll be of cotton terry cloth—a fabric whose luxury potential was recognized by Queen Victoria more than a century ago when she bestowed a medal on the man who invented it. But, even with all her foresight, the queen didn't foresee the turn for elegance in this year's terry styling. The plush new look of this highly practical fabric has captured the fancy of high fashion designers. In carved-looking jacquards and velvety smooth velours, terry is what this year's most luxurious robes and elegant hostess gowns are made of.

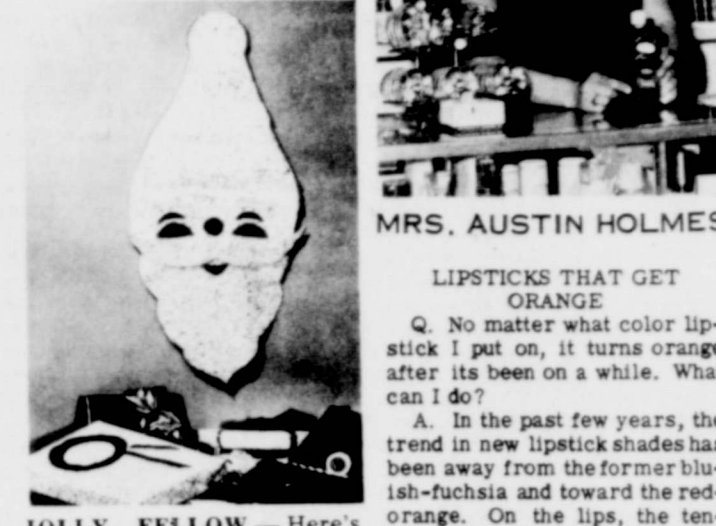

How to build a port for a storm

A little stockpile of U. S. Savings Bonds can turn into a mighty snug harbor in an emergency. If an emergency never crops up (and we hope it doesn't), you're ahead considerably more than your Bonds cost you. Bonds earn interest at a guaranteed rate. At maturity, you get back $4 for every $3 you invest. And your investment is backed by the United States of America. And there's that quiet satisfaction that comes from knowing your Bonds are helping Uncle Sam build the cause of freedom throughout the world. So get with the millions of Americans who have found Bonds a safe port in a storm. And a solid base for the future of their families.

YH Hear Cancer Discussion By Mrs. Snodgrass

The Floydada Young Homemakers were very happy to have Mrs. Carrick Snodgrass of the American Cancer Society with them to discuss many things about cancer, at their recent meeting. Three very enjoyable films were shown. The group met in the home ec lab. The reading of the minutes, financial report, and report of the Area 1 officer meeting was given by the area officer, Jo Dunavant. Future activities of the chapter were discussed by the president, Jean Hale, and chapter members. The FHA Style Show and Tea will be held this afternoon, the 18th, at the high school. The homemakers met Wednesday morning in the home of Rena Turner to pack a gift package for a soldier in Viet Nam. Refreshments were served to Ruth Hammonds, Pat Race, Margie Sue, Patsy Brock, Jean Hale, Jo Dunavant, Rena Turner, Loene Nelson, Mrs. Snodgrass, and advisors, Mrs. James Bachus and Mrs. A. E. Baker. The Style Show and Tea will be in place of the next regular meeting of Young Homemakers.

WARNING OUT ON GRAZING COTTON FIELDS—Entomologists at Texas A&M University are cautioning farmers against grazing livestock on harvested cotton fields that received pesticide treatment late in the growing season. Likelihood of residues in milk or meat from animals grazed on after harvest is further increased by late season use of insecticides, defoliants and desiccants.

JOLLY FELLOW—Here's an easy-to-make decoration for your holiday house. Glue glitter-sprinkled white cotton batting to a cardboard circle and triangle for Santa's face and hat. Use pink batting for beard, eyebrows, and cap trim; cotton velveteen for facial features.

FLOYD DATA—Mrs. W. Edd Brown was transferred Sunday to Peoples Hospital from the West Texas Hospital in Lubbock. She is said to be continuing in her improvement.

PEAK FEDERAL SPENDING—During its 1965 session, Congress approved $119,300,000,000 in Federal spending. This sum was exceeded only by the $147,000,000,000 voted in 1942, the first full year of World War II. Congress cut only $2,400,000,000 from the President's requests. Methodist group asks U. LIPSTICKS THAT GET ORANGE
Q. No matter what color lipstick I put on, it turns orange after its been on a while. What can I do?
A. In the past few years, the trend in lipstick shades has been away from the former bluish-fuchsia and toward the red-orange. On the lips, the tendency of these red-orange lipsticks is to change toward the orange. If you prefer the bluish shades that were more popular a few years ago, be sure you choose a lipstick on the far end of this side of the color family—Jack J. Q. What is a masque?
A. A masque is a tonic for tired skins, a very special first aid to oily or blemished complexions. It destroys harmful bacteria as it helps to remove soil and sebum from the pores, loosen black heads, and heal and soothe skin blemishes. Use at least three times a week and always before that important date.

SOUTH PLAINS, Nov. 15 - Sunday, November 21, has been designated as "Kans for Kids" day at the South Plains Baptist Church, and anyone may bring a can, or a case of canned food for the Orphan Home in Lubbock. Rev. Sealy Smith will see that the canned goods will get to its destination, so if you would like to donate something for the children, please bring it to the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bean and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Beedy were in Lubbock Saturday for the football game between Baylor and Texas Tech, which resulted in a score of 33-21 for Tech. The Beedys then went on to McCoy and spent the night and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Jackson.

Mrs. Bryan Karr has been confined to her home for some time with an attack of influenza, but she hopes to be out and around this week.

We extend our sympathy to Roy Burks, whose uncle, Jerry Burks of Royce City, passed away Friday morning at Terrell, where he had been a patient for some time. He was 90 years old, and had been in failing health. Mr. and Mrs. Burks left here Saturday afternoon, and spent the night in Dallas with their son-in-law, E. A. Williams and family. Other members of their family were there, and all attended the funeral services in Royce City of Jerry Burks, on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the First Methodist Church. Roy's uncle had ten living children.

Mrs. Philip Smitherman was in the Plainview Hospital from Thursday to Saturday of this past week for minor surgery, but she is home and getting along fine at this time. Mrs. Ernest Smitherman kept Monty and Marc. Now Mrs. J. K. Bean of Silverton is staying here with Mildred and family.

Mrs. J. R. Spivey is spending this week here with her daughter, Mrs. Sylvia Kinnibrugh and family. She came up from Truscott Sunday night with Mr. and Mrs. Teddy Horne of Lubbock, who had spent the weekend there with relatives.

Several men of our vicinity plan to go deer hunting this coming week. Glen Wood would like to go to Palo Duro Canyon, near Amarillo, around the middle of the week, and Eugene Beedy plans to leave for Claude, where he will hunt on the ranch of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Beedy. They report deer have been seen in abundance there the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. Kendis Julian, Kristi and Mitzl plan to leave this Tuesday morning for Roscoe, accompanied by Murray Julian, and they will hunt near Sweetwater on some ranch land. Mrs. Julian and children will visit with Mr. and Mrs. Terry Julian, Dee and Dickie, and the group plans to be home Thursday.

This Tuesday at the Baptist Church the WMU ladies of the church are gathering clothing for needy families. Anyone who has clothing of any size, which is wearable, may bring it to the church for distribution to needy families. Everyone look through your homes for outgrown or unused clothing that others could use, and bring it to the church to give to others not so fortunate.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McClure and Mrs. W. N. West were in Silver Springs, Florida on the first lap of their journey Wednesday of last week.

Gilbert Bean is home in Lockney and is getting along fine since his recent surgery, according to his brother, Albert Bean.

We welcome Mrs. Blicks Ballew to our community, and to the Baptist Church, where she is a visitor Sunday morning. She is staying with Don Probasco, Maury and Matt. She is the mother of Mrs. Stanley Burleson of our area.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvie Kinnibrugh and Beth went to Truscott Friday night where they attended the football game. Their nephew, Ronnie Simmons was playing and Saturday morning they all came home.

Dale Doyle, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Blankenship, narrowly escaped broken bones Tuesday afternoon when he either jumped or fell from a pickup, in front of the South Plains Baptist Church. He was rushed to the Lockney General Hospital and given medical aid. Luckily he escaped major injuries. He was bruised terribly, and it will be a long time before his face heals, but we are glad it was no worse. He was allowed to come home Tuesday night with his parents.

Womens Missionary Union met at the Baptist Church for a Royal Service Study Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock. Mrs.

Bob Reeves, Mrs. L. T. Wood, and Mrs. John Kinnibrugh were on the discussion program in "The Indonesian Story", and Mrs. Bryan Karr led the group in prayer. A goal of $2,000 was set for the Lottie Moon Offering for December. Present besides the above ladies were Mes. Murray Julian, who led the study, and Bessie Blankenship, J. P. Taylor, J. C. Scott, Neida Maurer, and Mrs. Sealy Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Julian of South Plains had dinner guests Sunday at noon and for the afternoon from Floydada. Mr. and Mrs. Poyner Roberts came and Mr. and Mrs. Kendis Julian, Mitzl and Kristi from here, with the special occasion being the birthday of Janis Julian.

He had been there only five days, but he had been ill at home for several years with emphysema. Another relative, well-known here, is Mrs. Marlin Jarnagin, a daughter of Mrs. Davis. Last rites were held Friday afternoon at Silverton Church of Christ with Lonnie Branam, minister, conducting the services.

L. T. Wood took his mother, Mrs. Walter Wood down to Whitney, Sunday, where she plans to visit through Thanksgiving with her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jack McCowen, who will bring her home later in November. L. T. visited there at Lake Whitney until Monday afternoon with the family.

Mr. and Mrs. George West left this Tuesday morning for Amarillo where they will stay with their grandchildren, the E. T. Evans children, while June and E. T. are attending a PTA Convention, and the Wests plan to be gone through Friday.

WHEN YOU SEW--SEW IN WASHABLE TY

Be Sure Findings Are as Suds-Safe as the Fabric. Easy washability is a main attraction of fabrics made from synthetic fibers, so be sure to "sew in" washability when you make a garment from one of these fabrics. See to it that the thread, linings, bindings, fasteners, and shoulder pads are as suds-safe as the fabric itself. Also choose washable trimmings, or else make them detachable.

Textured nylon thread is recommended for sewing synthetics. It is equally suitable for silks and woolsens as well as for wash-wear, stretch, and knit fabrics. It is advisable to test stitching before you start, and to back-stitch seams and darts. Make sure that thread and yarns used for embroidery and other decorative purposes are fast-color.

Washable linings and interfacing materials which are thoroughly washable, crease resistant, and hold their shape come in different weights to be used for practically any type of facing, back or stiffening purposes. Crisp nylon net may be used for very light stiffening. Nylon or Orlon tafeta makes very satisfactory washable linings.

Use good quality, fast-color tapes, and look for non-shrink seam binding which is now available.

Washable fasteners. Make sure that all fasteners--zippers, grippers, snaps, hooks, and eyes--are labeled rust-proof. Zippers for all types of garments are made with wash-fast cotton tapes. These and other fasteners should be closed before washing.

Washable shoulder pads. Snap-in shoulder pads made of foam rubber, or of cotton or nylon filling covered with taffeta, can be taken out and sudsed separately. Extra shoulder seam tapes can be purchased so the same pads will serve for several garments.

Washable belt buckles, buckles, and "eyelets". Double-layer cotton belt-backing can be bought in a package containing enough to make one belt plus a washable buckle. This is easy to use, since the fabric's raw edges can be tucked between the folds for easy stitching. Single-layer cotton belt-backing is sold by the yard. Non-woven interfacing or pre-shrunk cotton, doubled and stitched closely, can also be used to give "body" to belts.

Washable or removable buttons. Button forms to be covered should be labeled as rust-proof. White pearl, crystal, and jet buttons, plus plastic and porcelain buttons marked washable, can go into suds safely. If you want to use wood, metal, leather, ivory, jeweled, or colored pearl buttons, attach them with safety pins which have a "hump" for easy pinning. This makes it easy to remove them before washing the garment. Or use removable stud buttons.

Thursday, November 11, was Thanksgiving at the Lighthouse, an annual affair, for the four Crosby County Clubs. Hostesses this year were members of the Big 4 Club. Special guests and part of the all-day program were Miss Layneigh Chapman, of Dallas, Home Economist for General Electric Housewares. She presented a demonstration on G. E. Portable Appliances. Miss Murriel Bridge, of Amarillo, Home Service Director for Southwestern Public Service, showed slides of Christmas Ideas and Decorations. Mrs. Guy Ginn of Floydada showed her Antique flowers and told the group how she made them. Approximately 75 people attended and enjoyed the Smorgasborg luncheon.

Clubs from Plainview, Edmondson, and Lockney came to Lighthouse, Friday for an all-day program of candle making and Christmas Ideas.

Post Office Helps Count Livestock

Rural mail carriers from the Floydada Post Office will leave some livestock survey cards along their routes beginning November 20.

"Information reported on these cards is used to set the yearly inventory of livestock and poultry on Texas farms," Postmaster Wester explained.

Rural Carriers distribute the cards at random in boxes along their routes.

"This means that not every box will get a card," Wester said. "For this reason, it's important for everyone who gets a card to return it filled out so that USDA can get a true sample of the State's livestock holdings."

Carriers assisting with the survey are: Kyle Glover, Route 1; Lorin Leibfried, Route 2; Burl Huckabee, Route 3; Orville Newberry, Route 4; Ted Bell, Star Route.

Facts and figures secured in this survey are the basis for Texas and National pig crop report and inventories of livestock and poultry on farms as of the first of the year. Stockmen and many others use this information in making business decisions.

Survey results will be widely

How Much To Rear A Child

Hey, Uncle, how much does it cost to rear a child?

You allow us taxpaying parents only $600 a year to feed, clothe, house and train a youngster.

Yet, to feed, clothe, house and train a youngster in your Federal Job Corps, you spend $7,000 a year.

Now, which is the correct figure? Either we're allowing you too much or you're not allowing us enough.

You allow taxpaying parents a $600 deduction for the care and feeding of each child. . . Yet under Cuban Refugee Program, you assume minimal upkeep requires $1,000 a year, and if the Cuban boy or girl is attending school an extra $1,000 a year.

How come you shortchange the home folks?

In the austere environs of a Federal prison, you have discovered that it costs to maintain one person, with no frills or luxuries, $2,300 per year.

By what rule of thumb do you estimate that Mom and Dad can do it for one-fourth that amount?

Under Social Security you will pay $168 a month to maintain the elderly. What makes you think we can maintain our young 'uns on $50 a month?

And, Uncle, your Vista Program spent $3,100,000 this fiscal year to turn out only 202 trainees. This indicates that the cost of maintaining and training one youth for one year is more than $15,000.

Then, how come we taxpaying parents get an exemption of only $600 to maintain and train one youth for one year?

Or, let's see how much you spend upkeeping a youngster in military uniform—house, $55.00 a month; food, $30.27; clothing upkeep, $4.20; and this amount comes to $1,076.04 a year.

How in the world do you expect parents to provide all these, plus clothes, recreation, books, and medicine for $600 a year? With your own figures, you admit it can't be done.

Is it possible you expect us parents to manage more efficiently than you, because we usually do?

With all our prosperity, you, Uncle, are still spending per year $2.9 billion dollars more on relief than during the depths distributed through Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service releases, newspapers, farm magazines, radio, and television.

of the Depression. So, it may be that you are uncommonly extravagant.

But, however we try to rationalize and explain you and excuse you, it still is a harmful effort when you allow us hard-working dues-paying homefolks only $600 a year to rear a legitimate child. . . while you, under ADC, will pay more than $800 a year to upkeep an illegitimate one.

CROP RESIDUES - As pictured above can mean much to the improvement of the soil. The return of a minimum 1000 pounds of residue on irrigated land and 750 pounds on dryland is recommended. (SCS Photo)

Milo Residue Is Valuable To Farm

The residue from a crop of milo is valuable in the maintenance of productivity and should be considered as an asset instead of a liability.

The approximate 6,000 lbs. of residue from a 5,000 lb. milo crop contains about 85 lbs. of total nitrogen, 25 lbs. of phosphorus (P2O5) and 125 lbs. of potassium (K2O). With good management these nutrients can contribute substantially to the requirements of the next crop.

Perhaps the greater importance is the effect of the residue on the maintenance or improvement of the physical structure of the soil as reflected in better water intake and retention, and better tilth. With good management, much of these residues can be left on the soil surface to protect the soil from wind and water erosion.

Many farmers follow the practice of shredding stalks immediately after harvest and the question of whether or not to apply nitrogen to speed up decomposition often arises. It is evident that for maximum protection against erosion much of the residue should remain on the surface. Surface applied nitrogen on exposed residue cannot be expected to greatly speed up the decaying process and a portion of the nitrogen can be lost to the atmosphere if left on the surface. Nitrogen applied to the residue should be worked into the soil at least partially if the organisms are to be active.

The practice of applying sufficient fertilizer to take care of residue decomposition while the next crop is growing is quite satisfactory if you remember to use enough to take care of both the residue and the crop requirement.

FAIRVIEW NEWS by Mrs. Clyde Bagwell

Most Crops Gathered Here

FAIRVIEW, Nov. 15 - The mild weather during the entire fall has made it possible for the farmers in our community to gather most of their crops. Some still have cotton in the field but for the most part it is on the irrigated farms. Wheat is looking fine at this time. To have green leaves on the trees and flowers still in full bloom is unusual here at this time of year. This writer was somewhat surprised last Tuesday night when we returned home to find things pretty much like we left them, the 8th of October when we left for Santa Ana, Calif., where I spent a month with my mother, Mrs. C. L. Joiner. My brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Joiner of Eugene, Oregon, also spent a week in Santa Ana with us. We enjoyed a nice family reunion. Our folks have been attending the revival held the past week by Dr. Angel Martinez and Olen Massey at First Baptist Church. R. M. Cannon was brought home Monday (today) from Plainview Hospital, where he underwent surgery last week. We are glad to report he is improving nicely at his home. We all wish for him a quick recovery and that he will be up and around soon. Visitors in the Ruey Irwin home recently were her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Moore of Gregory who here some two weeks ago; Mrs. Irwin's niece, Mrs. Berril Saunders of Lamasa, spent the night here recently. Sunday afternoon visitors in the Ruey Irwin home were Mr. and Mrs. Zollie Burgett of Floydada. Mr. and Mrs. Kay Crabtree and children, Becky and Sammy visited Sunday after church at Idalou with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Griffith. October 31 Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Perry entertained with a birthday dinner in honor of their daughter, Jan. Those enjoying the day and dinner with them were Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Goodman and children, Bruce, Linda and Nancy of Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Grady Reeves and sons, Duane and Randell of Plainview. Later in the day Mr. and Mrs. Don Branson, Steve and Melissa, of Richardson, came to bring Mrs. L. B. Cozby home, and all joined the group gathered at the Perry home. Mrs. Cozby had spent 3 weeks at Richardson with her daughter and family. Mrs. Edell DuBois, accompanied by her son Bill, left early Sunday morning for East Texas. They had received word that Mrs. Roy DuBois, sister-in-law of Edell DuBois, was sick and in the hospital at Buffalo. The DuBois's from here will remain for an indefinite time with the sick relative. Mr. and Mrs. Walton Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Buri Huckabee attended the ball game at Tech Saturday afternoon. Beverly Hollowell of Cedar Hill spent last weekend with Jan Perry. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Breed and Pam visited Sunday afternoon in the T. L. Perry home, and took Beverly home with them. Dinner guests Friday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Walls were Rev. and Mrs. Floyd Bradley, Dr. Angel Martinez, Olen Massey, Mrs. Doyle Walls and Roy Edwards. Randell Reeves of Plainview visited here Saturday with his grandmother, Mrs. L. B. Tate of Lockney, went to Plainview where they spent the day in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Walls. Monday night Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Percy of Wichita, Kan. arrived at the Walls home to spend the night. Tuesday morning the Marsees and the O. J. Percys left for a deer hunt west of El Paso. Mr. and Mrs. Walton Wilson were dinner guests Monday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Mize. Recent visitors in the C. H. Wise home were her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Californians Learned How To Get Money

Editor's Note: The following is a letter submitted to the Hesperian by L. A. Marshall in which he tells some of the ideas California residents have put to profitable use.

Dear Editor:
I recently visited California for a month, and had opportunity to observe many of their new ideas, especially their money-making ones.

Many of these ideas we could profitably adopt. A few are given here.

One is the raising of cattle. They sow the grasses, irrigate and fertilize and graze up to eight head per acre. We do that here but to a very limited amount. I believe they are raising more cattle than Texas, per acre. Many large herds of Angus, Herefords, and dairy cattle, including Holsteins and Guernseys are found throughout the state. I never saw so much dairying.

Another idea they are pushing to the limit, especially with the Johnson money, is the construction of trade teaching schools. I believe they call these junior colleges. Presently they have 79 and plan 45 new ones this year.

The idea of the colleges is to teach trades to all ages. One may go to school and learn any trade they may wish to select, from pre-med to law, cabinet work, writing, teaching, science, electronics, 2-year college short course, editing a newspaper, architecture, engineering. In fact, most anything you wish to select is available.

It helps equip college age students for a job, and they may reside at home. It's an excellent idea to have the 17-21 age at home, still under supervision of the parents at a most vulnerable age.

These people are making the full use of the government money to build these schools. What I am trying to say is this. . . . we could do this too. Fact is, we can do anything they do.

If I might describe California in a few words it would be something like this, "A mad scramble for money". And they are not particular how they get it.

If you go to California and they don't get your money, you just did not have any.

Overcharging is most common.

It is very evident that California's success is advertising. They advertise all over this nation day and night. The results are their products are found in almost every store in this nation.

Advertising is an art. There is much to be learned about getting results without going broke at it.

Thousands of people visit California every day, causing very hazardous driving.

Walnut harvesting was on when we were there, as was prune harvest. The state supplies the nation with walnuts, almonds, prunes, olives, fruit, berries, frozen food and many more things.

One of my hobbies is new ideas and I had a ball while in California. This is a state that is full of them. It looks like when anyone gets a new idea, especially a money making one, they run to California with it.

I visited Lake Tahoe, a vacation resort high up in the Sierra Nevada Mountains while in California. This lake is an enormous thing, about 21 miles long, over 1,600 feet deep in places (that's nearly a quarter of a mile), and averages 1,000 feet deep.

It is claimed that enough snow and spring water flow into this lake to cover Texas with a sheet of water 8 1/2 inches deep.

The lake (we drove around it) is 72 miles around, lined with beautiful homes in the most snug settings facing the lake. Real estate around the lake cost more than in several large cities.

The state line between California and Nevada runs down in the center of the lake. This crystal clear water allows you to see to the bottom, 20 feet or more. The lake is said to be loaded with large trout.

At the lower end of the lake below the dam there is a show window calculated to excite fishermen. . . . and it does just that.

There is a bridge about six feet above the water where one may stand and see large trout ranging from 30 inches in length on down. The public has been feeding fish food to these for years. It is for sale near the bridge. These fish come up near the surface for the food.

The water is about 6 feet at this point where I saw the German browns. I saw one there that looked at least 36 inches in length.

Remember if you go to California, the people are not interested in you, just your money.

Students Send Christmas Cards To Viet Nam

Residents of the Men's Dorm No. 1 were calculated to off-ice publicity created by student pacifists at colleges and universities, announced plans to send Christmas cards to the fighting men serving in Vietnam.

Weaver Jr. of Odessa, a senior in Industrial Management, said the idea was designed to "awaken our soldiers to the fact that not all college students are pacifists or draft card burners. . . ."

Tech President Dr. R. C. Goodwin echoed Weaver's sentiments by saying that the students were to be "congratulated upon their patriotism and upon their desire to offset the actions of those who do not exhibit a similar devotion to their government. . . ."

The Christmas greetings, which will be distributed by the American Red Cross, read: "Because of you, America breathes a little easier; America sleeps a little sounder, and Americans walk a little taller. Merry Christmas and thanks." The idea, which grew from a dormitory bull session, already has received widespread attention and approval. Nationally known commentator Paul Harvey mentioned it in Tuesday's edition of the "Paul Harvey News."

Before the final football game of the season had been played, the basketball teams had already hit the courts and had at least scrimmage games behind them.

The teams at Della Plains have already played official games. The Floydada girls, the Whirlwinds, had a scrimmage game last week, and will play the first official game tomorrow night, as will the Whirlwinds, who are in the process of completing their first week of practice.

The first home game for the Floydada schools will be next Tuesday night, November 23 at the Junior High School Gym.

Presently the girls are entered in two tournaments and the boys will play in three. Both teams will play in the Floydada event December 2, 3 and 4 and will take part in the Tullia Tournament December 16, 17 and 18. The boys will then take part in the Caprock Tournament, held in Lubbock each year, December 27, 28 and 29.

After an open date January 11, the teams will enter district competition January 14 at Lockney. It will conclude sometime later when the teams have faced every other team in the district twice.

The Whirlwinds scrimmaged balls last week and defeated that team, but as soon as the game ended the scoreboard erased from the blackboard. Around the first of November the team took part in a basketball demonstration at Big Spring, where the offensive roll was viewed by several people.

The Floydada schedule is as follows:

November 19 - Floydada "A"

IN SEASON FINALE

Whirlwinds Fall To Friona

The Whirlwinds, hopeful of upsetting Friona for the second year in a row, traveled to the Chiefs home field last Friday and fell short of all intentions, as the local team downed Floydada 27-0.

A series of freak incidents in the third quarter turned the game into a see-saw, although Friona was leading at the time 19-0. The incidents resulted in the ball changing hands four times in five plays.

Shortly before the third quarter ended, Joe Mabry swept his right end and carried from his own 26 to the Floydada 44 for a pickup of 30 yards, but after his scamper, three secondary men reached him at the same time and his fumble was recovered by Floydada on the locals 44.

John DeLeon sneaked for three yards, and on second down a pass from DeLeon to Kerry Bearden carried to the Friona 40, for a first down, but once again a fumbled ball gave the opposing team the ball on the Friona 39.

A Lonnie Ellis pass was picked off by Steve Marler on the Floydada 44, to make the third time the ball changed hands. On first down, Bearden moved across right tackle, fumbled and the ball was recovered by the Chiefs on their own 49. The Friona team held onto the ball that time.

Floydada had the ball only one more time, for only four plays, before Friona took possession of the ball and marched for the final TD of the night with 5:00 left in the fourth quarter.

The first quarter of the game was scoreless as each team drove consistently on the opponents, but the Whirlwinds had the initiative and were the only team that threatened to score.

Friona took the kickoff and set up operations on their own 29. Two plays later Larry Johnson, a senior halfback broke around right end and was hauled down from behind after a 45-yard dash on the Floydada 19 by Bob Murray.

The Friona drive ended three plays later, however on the 15, when a fumble was recovered by Zeke Robertson on the 16.

A pass from DeLeon to Monday went incomplete, but on second down the Whirlwinds moved the ball as Bearden went around right end for 34 yards, moving the ball to midfield.

Once again a drive was to end, as the defense of the Chiefs stiffened and on fourth down Waldo West let sail a 34-yard boot that went out of bounds on the Friona 15.

Friona was to stay in a hold for a short time for on third down, facing only one, a sneak by Travis Garves, quarterback was good for the first down, but his fumble was recovered by Floydada on the 30.

Bearden wasn't able to get outside on an end sweep, but on second down a dippy-doodle play, that is a pass from DeLeon to John Cantrell, back across the field to DeLeon, was good for a score, except for the fact that DeLeon went out of bounds on the 19.

An incomplete pass, a five-yard loss while DeLeon was trying to pass and a keeper around right end set up the first field goal attempt of the year for Floydada.

The ball was placed on the 30-yard line and Clinton Fawver advanced and put his toe into the ball, to see the ball sail true to its mark, but just a few inches short of the cross bar.

Friona took possession of the ball on the 20 and started on what eventually resulted in the first TD drive of the night.

A gain of five yards by Ellis coupled with a six-yard gainer on third by Mabry gave a first down to the Chiefs on the 30, plus a personal foul penalty against Floydada set the Chiefs in business on the 45.

Four plays later the Chiefs were facing fourth and inches but a sneak by Ellis got the yards needed. Four plays later, however, after a three yard gain and two incomplete passes, Gene Weatherly kicked out of bounds on the Floydada 18, just as the first quarter ended.

The Winds exchanged punt for punt four plays later as the first three plays netted only two yards. West's kick rolled dead on the Friona 47 and a penalty against Friona set the ball back on the Chiefs 31.

The team was determined however, for three plays netted a first down, and on second down Ellis found Travis Graves all alone, hit him with an aerial and the latter carried for the TD. The play covered 58 yards.

The first attempt was good, but Friona was offside and the second attempt for the PAT was short so the score stood 6-0, Friona, with 7:42 left in the game.

Soon the Chiefsians were to turn the quarter into a rout as the kickoff went into the end zone and the Winds took charge on the 20.

Roland Adams got only two around left end and on second down the onrush of the Chiefs line threw Derrell Monday for an eleven-yard loss. Facing third and 19, a pass from De-

Leon to West was intercepted by Mabry who was dropped on the 35.

Three plays later, after Ellis was thrown for a 10-yard loss and after Johnson gained six around end, Tom Sherley went around left end, danced through the secondary and traveled the 39 yards for a TD.

That time the kick was good and the score was 13-0 with 4:05 remaining in the half.

Once again the Winds were thrown back into a hole as the kickoff was returned to the 27 by Joe Christian who fielded the ball on the 10.

A lateral from DeLeon to Cantrell resulted in the loss of 22 yards and Marler was thrown for a three-yard loss on second down back to the 2. On third down West went back in punt formation, threw a pass and Johnson intercepted the ball on the 19, where he was dropped immediately.

Two plays later a pass from Ellis to Graves gave Friona its third score of the night. The try for point missed and the score was 19-0 with 1:22 left in the half.

Once again the Winds received the kickoff, made a good return but couldn't move the ball.

With a first-and-ten on the 42 a pass from DeLeon to Monday went incomplete and on second down, DeLeon was caught for a 27-yard loss and a third down pass attempt from DeLeon to West went incomplete. The half ended after West's kick rolled dead on the Floydada 38.

In the third quarter, the pigskin became very slippery, for after Bearden returned the kickoff from the 13 to the 36, Monday fumbled on first down and Friona recovered on the locals 34.

On first down Johnson carried

GOOPS, MISSED! - Although it appears that Kerry Bearden has Joe Mabry dead-to-rights on this tackle, Mabry escaped and gained another 15-20 yards before being brought down. The action took place during the Friona last Friday night when Friona won 27-0. Larry Hunter (85) comes up for an assist. (Staff Photo)

I'll wish Friona lots of luck tomorrow night when they tangle with Denver City, but I feel sure the Chiefs will need more than luck... they'll need a lot of help. This writer will predict the Mustangs will roll over Friona easier and by a greater score than they beat Floydada last year in bi-district.

Speaking of Friona, did you notice the half-breed Indian that rode onto the field in front of the Friona stands. If you were looking closely you found this fully dressed Indian, with the buckskin suit, tall headdress and moccasins was riding in a

Lockney Downs Abernathy To Cap Second Place In District

The Lockney Longhorns, although slightly disabled, downed the Abernathy team last Friday night to take second place in the 3-AA race. Friona won the district crown with a 5-0 conference record.

The Longhorns got the scoring started in a hurry as Neil Mitchell capped a 69 yard drive by going 12 yards for the first score. Dale Galloway kicked the extra point.

In the second quarter, that turned the field into a race track, Abernathy started things with a 30-yard scoring pass from Lane Wade to Mike Tannehill. This climaxed a 43-yard drive in eight plays. Wade kicked the extra point.

Lockney retaliated in the second period when Mitchell blasted over from the 2 to end a 76-yard march that took only 8 plays. Galloway again kicked the extra point and Lockney led 14-7. Also in the second Melvin Sisney missed pass to set another scoring counter came on a Galloway Sisney aerial that went TD. Galloway converted again and it was 21-7. Abernathy scored again in the second period as went in from the 4. A 66-yard drive that took This time the point was missed. Lockney put the long game in the third period a nine-play march on yards and was climaxed again by Mitchell who final 24 yards. Galloway kicked the extra point. Lockney finished the season with a 4-1 record second place and Abernathy finished with a 3-2 record teams lost to Friona, trict winner.

Dimmitt Upsets Olton For 1st Season Win

The Dimmitt Bobcats looked all season for a victory and finally managed one with Olton as the victim. Olton was a pre-season favorite to win the district, but the team finished in the cellar with two other teams. The final score was 22-15.

The Bobcats capitalized on breaks throughout the night to move in for scores and the victory.

Olton scored first after an exchange of fumbles. Dimmitt got an Olton fumble on the Mustang 24, and carried to the Olton nine, where Mustangs covered a Dimmitt bobble. From the seven, the point of recovery the Mustangs moved the 93 yards in eleven plays to score. Dale DeBerry carried the final 46 yards for the TD and Joe Priest kicked the conversion.

Don Moore of Dimmitt blocked a Mustang punt early in the second period and fell on the ball. It took two plays for the Bobcats to cross the goal line and this came when Danny Land went four yards for the TD. He also added two points to give Dimmitt an 8-7 edge.

Olton fumbled two plays after receiving the kickoff and the ball hungry Bobcats covered on the Mustang 40. Joe Bob Sanders went in for six points shortly after the recovery on a 28-yard run. Kent Lindsey added two points and the Bobcats led 16-7.

Olton took the kickoff and drove for 59 yards and a score. Priest carried for the final four yards. Earlier in the drive he passed for 26 yards and 22 yards to lead the drive.

Dimmitt drove for the next score in nine plays, that covered 56 yards. Lindsey got the tally on a two-yard plunge but the conversion try failed.

Late in the third quarter Olton drove to the Dimmitt eight, but the Bobcats stopped the effort at that point.

The Bobcats drove to the Olton two later in the game only to have that drive stopped by the opponents defense when the Dimmitt team fumbled.

Each team finished the conference season with 1-4 marks.

HOME SERVICE DIRECTOR

If your turkey is frozen, thaw before starting to cook. Wash and dry turkey and rub cavities lightly with salt and pepper and brush with melted butter or shortening. Tie turkey legs together against body and fold wing tips under back so wings will lie flat.

Place turkey with breast side up on a rack in an open pan. Saturate a piece of cheesecloth in melted butter and spread over bird to prevent dryness and baste with melted fat or drippings several times during cooking. Before you start cooking, pour 1/2 to 1 cup water in bottom of roasting pan - this will give extra liquid for gravy and also prevent drippings from burning. Place in electric oven preheated to 325 degrees and roast until done (see chart below). Remove cheesecloth about the last half hour of cooking. When testing for doneness, the meat on the thickest part of the drumstick will be very soft. For easier carving, let turkey stand 20 to 30 minutes after cooking.

Land Leveling : An Aid To Soil And Water Management

Land leveling is one of the most important conservation practices being applied on farms in the Floyd County Soil Conservation District. With the water table dropping, the need for irrigation water management is increasing. Field leveling is one way to help achieve efficient use of irrigation water.

It has been estimated that 50% or more of the water applied on the South Plains does not add to crop production. This loss of irrigation water is caused by several things, one of which is poor distribution of water on the land.

By re-shaping the land surface to a planned grade, efficient use of rainfall as well as irrigation water can be obtained. Did you know that when an inch of rain falls on a 160 acre farm, it delivers 4,356,000 gallons of water? Land leveling will help you take advantage of year.

SADDLE *****

As much as people here like football, most are glad to see the local season come to an end. When a team is winning it would like to continue, but when those other seasons roll around it is a relief to be through with them. Now the team looks to the proverbial "next year."

Every team has those years when the team isn't as good as it has been in the past. As was mentioned earlier, Floydada hasn't had many of those losing seasons in the past ten or fifteen years.

There were several games played this year that the local team wanted to win as bad as any team in the past, but something was missing, and the locals were on the short end of the score when the game ended. This doesn't mean the Winds this year didn't play as hard, for in most games the boys gave all they had, and sometimes more, it appeared.

Although these seasons are inevitable, it is always hard on the members of the team that played during that season, for some of the backers feel "the winning tradition must be upheld."

If you gave your best during the past season, you, Whirlwinds, are to be commended. That is all anyone could expect of you.

It appears as though Friona, although a tough team, backed into the district championship, for most local people feel that Lockney was the strongest team in the district.

I'll stick my neck out and say that the strongest team in District 3-AA did not represent the district in the playoffs for the second year in a row.

Although Floydada downed Friona last year, the latter team would have made a better showing in the post-season contests. This year I feel that Lockney is the team that would give Denver City the most competition.

To turn a wise old saying around, in this case "it isn't how you played the game, or the fact you may have had the strongest team, but whether you won or lost."

The basketball courts at the local school are now beehives of activity, and will be through the month of February.

Della Plains has already played ten games, before this week, and has won half of them. The boys are in the process of rebuilding, for Willie Simon is the only starting player who is returning to the team from last

Six Months To Obtain

A reminder that six months remain to obtain newly re-organized National Life Insurance today by Jack Coates, of the Veterans Administration Regional Office in Wichita.

This insurance is offered those veterans of War II and the Korean conflict who either failed to allow the insurance to be allowed in to lapse or in part.

Deadline for the new GI policies is May 2, 1966.

The eligible veterans have a service-connected disability or a non-service-connected disability so they cannot purchase insurance at the highest rate.

Chairmen For Cancer Crusade Are Appointed

The local chapter of the American Cancer Society held their regular meeting last week and the president, Mrs. Owen Thornton appointed Jimmy Willson Jr., as over-all crusade chairman. Lockney chairman is Max Jordan and Floydada chairman is Jimmy Seay.

Mrs. Thornton gave a report on the state meeting and reported a 14 percent cancer increase of male victims this year. She also reported and stressed the fact of using a qualified medical doctor for treatment of cancer instead of quackery. Mrs. Thornton said Austin had placed in Lockney a wheel chair, hospital bed and a walker for the use of cancer victims in Floyd County. A cancer victim in need of these items may get in touch with her.

A personal letter was read by Mrs. Thornton from Tom Connally, praising the Floyd County chapter for their accomplishment in their crusade.

The area crusade meeting will be held in January at Lubbock in the KO KO Palace. Hoss Cartwright of the TV show, "Bonanza" will be among dignitaries to attend. Cartwright is State crusade chairman. Also attending will be Lefty Ross of Quanah, vice-chairman.

The next local meeting will be held in Lockney on the 2nd Monday of January.

TAX MAN SAM SEZ:

Every year the good tax folks send out a lot of letters asking taxpayers to come in for an audit. It scares the very bristles off of most taxpayers to get one of these letters. It doesn't pay to get scared. The folks down at Internal Revenue are trained to be reasonable. If you get a letter calling you in for an audit, calmly gather up all your records and settle your affairs with the tax man in a calm, businesslike manner.

SALUTING FLOYD COUNTY FLYERS

Three Airplanes Used In Norman Family Business Operations

NORMAN WANTS TO GO IN ONE OF THE PAWNEES. HE HELEN WANTS TO GO IN THE SKYLANE.

Norman family has new status symbol, but the family is blessed with air power. The planes are used in spraying and in charter service. The planes include two Piper Pawnees and one Cessna Skylane 182, a four passenger plane. In the spraying season, Norman hires fliers for the Pawnees and he continues to handle the Cessna.

Although the taxi service was that to get started, he stated that it is picking up quite a bit. Sometimes those wanting the service are turned down by Norman because of a previous scheduled flight.

Darkness and the weather both keep the taxi service on the ground also. Norman does not intend to do any charter work after dark.

As well as being a spray pilot, doing charter work, and farming, Norman lacks only his check-ride to be qualified as an instructor. "Everyone needs to take the check-ride again, for all the rules and regulations changed last month," he said.

Norman first learned to fly in 1959, and instead of learning during a service hitch, he waited until he was released and learned under the GI bill. He received his instructions at Plainview.

Although his wife, Helen, has considered flying, she has taken no lessons. She is a rather good navigator, according to her husband.

The family uses the Cessna to go on family excursions as well as using it in charter service. In the past the family has flown to Florida and other places for meetings and conventions of various natures.

Norman is a member of the Texas Aerial Applicators Association, of which he was recently elected executive vice president.

As a member of the Confederate Air Force, he is helping to build and maintain a "Flying Museum" that puts on air shows at several places around the country during the year.

The air show has been seen at Wright-Patterson Air Base

FLOYD PHILOSOPHER

Comes Up To Date On Castro, Sheds Light On New York

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm brings himself up to date on Castro, his letter this week indicates.

Dear editor:

Because a man can't handle more than five or six trouble spots at a time, the newspapers have been neglecting Fidel Castro over in Cuba lately, but I found a newspaper yesterday which brought me up to date.

According to it, Castro is having some trouble keeping the Cubans contented and is now doubling up on his promises. For example, he has promised that by 1975 every child in Cuba, if he hasn't left for the United States, will get one and a half quarts of milk a day.

You can't beat a promise like that, because by 1975 all children old enough now to read the news will be 15 to 25 years old and wouldn't be interested in that much milk anyway.

But Castro doesn't stop there. You don't catch him promising a lot of stuff without saying how he's going to pay for it.

To finance this program, he said, Cuba by 1970 will be at Dayton, Ohio, Reno, Las Vegas and several other places.

The CAF is a non-profit organization that is dedicated to the preservation of World War II air craft. Presently the organization has two bombers and nine fighters that are operational and several more are in the restoration process. Grants and donations are used to build the museum.

At Rebel Field, Mercedes, Texas, the CAF is building a large museum to keep some of the aircraft on display, but the group will continue the air shows. Norman is trying to get the group to put on a show in the Panhandle South Plains area in the near future.

He is also a member of the Texas and International Flying Farmers Associations, a Quiet Birdman, (a secret order of pilots) and the Half a Hundred Club, which is just what it says. There are only 50 flyers in the U. S. belonging to the club.

Norman owns and maintains his own airport in Dougherty. His graded strip is 2,400 feet in length and this is plenty of room for his planes to take off and land. Several people flying over often stop at the airport, particularly those that already know it is there.

The greatest disadvantage to flying, according to Norman is the initial cost, and to be somewhere, be weathered in and need to get home.

"Until the air industry gets a 'flying Volkswagen', there won't be a lot of people flying. However, such a move would make flying a lot more popular," he said.

The greatest advantage is the fast and efficient transportation and it is relaxing and enjoyable.

In the Norman operation the 2-way radio set-up, allowing the pilots in two different planes to communicate, allowing the pilots to speak with the base station and allowing the pilots to talk with the ground crew or flag men helps the firm be of better service to the community and the county.

growing 30 million rabbits a year, which it will export for cash, to buy cows with.

Now I don't know how many rabbits Castro has on hand at the moment, but if he has as many 15 or 20 of the right mixture, he can reach his production quota of 30 million in five years all right, but he wants to watch that sixth year. Then's when the total is liable to jump to 500 million, maybe a billion, and where's he going to get the ships to haul all them rabbits in?

Instead of trying to sell them abroad for money to buy cows with, I believe he'd be on safer ground if he just forgot about the quart and a half of milk per child and promised each one of them a pair of rabbits.

To change the subject, I don't know why New Yorkers don't use bigger fuses to keep their lights from going off, and while it's one thing to be in the and another not to be able to figure out why, I recommend that for future emergencies they stock up on kerosene lanterns. Some people say they don't give enough light, but I've seen Ben Cartright walk over to the wall of his living room at the Ponderosa, turn up a coal oil lamp, and get more light than you can find in a television studio.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Post Office Helps Count Area Livestock

A number of patrons of the South Plains Post Office will find livestock survey cards in their post boxes on November 20.

"Information reported on these cards is used to set the yearly inventory of livestock and poultry on Texas farms," Postmistress Nina M. Upton explains.

Cards are distributed at random among patrons having livestock and poultry.

"This means that not every box will get a card," Mrs. Upton said. "For this reason, it's important for everyone who gets a card to return it filled out so that the USDA can get a true sample of the State's livestock holdings."

Facts and figures secured in this survey are the basis for the Texas and National pig crop report and inventories of the livestock and poultry on farms as of the first of the year. Stockmen and many others use this information in making business decisions.

Survey results will be widely distributed through Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service releases, newspapers, farm magazines, radio and television.

FASTER FIELD SPEEDS
In an actual test, a 60 H.P. tractor, using standard single wheels and pulling a 14 foot disc, covered 73 rods in five minutes. The trip was made in third gear. But when the same tractor, pulling the same disc in the same field and in the same gear, was fitted with a set of M&W Duals, it covered 92 rods in five minutes! An increase of 27%. Saved fuel, too.

CUTS SOIL COMPACTION
Single wheels put a tremendous "squash" on soil, leaving tightly packed dirt below the level reached by a disc, harrow or field cultivator. Duals spread the weight, cut compaction, help improve yields.

And every set of M&W Dual Wheels carries this Guarantee

If you are not satisfied with M&W Dual Wheels, your money will be refunded because "If you till 100 acres, you pay for a set of M&W Duals every two years whether you have them or not."

People Can Aid Clothing Center Without Leaving Their Homes

It was noted in the meeting of the Charities Committee of the Chamber of Commerce that people can still lend a helping hand to the clothing center without going to the courthouse and handing out clothes, or donating clothes.

Mr. C. W. Jones, Mrs. C. B. Lyles, and Mrs. Wilson Fowler stated in unison at the meeting last week that there is a great need for sewing, remaking clothes, mending torn clothes and ironing those that are brought to the center.

The workers also said there wasn't enough electricity in the work area to power a sewing machine or a lot of the work would be done there by the volunteers.

A great need of the center is the making of clothes for infants up through age 12. People can pick up some adult clothing at the center as well as patterns, take them home, and remake the clothing into another size or into altogether different garments.

The Board of Directors reported at the meeting that Mrs. W. S. Simmons had consented to taking the position of Administrator of the Community Clothing Center. A salary was to be set at a later date.

Since a person will be in charge of the administration of the center, a budget was also to be set up. The Salvation Army and several of the churches have taken on this responsibility.

The possibility of putting a small charge on the clothes, or asking those who pick up clothes to make a donation so that some needed clothes can be bought for the center was discussed. One of these methods may be tried later in the season, but no action was taken at the meeting. The cost would not be a service charge but would be used solely for restocking purposes.

The workers at the center ask that people continue taking clothes to the center, or place them in the basement of the courthouse on days when the center is not open, or continue taking them to the various churches as has been done in the past.

LINDA AND THE GOVERNOR - Linda Hollins called on Governor John Connally, asking that he support the Christmas Seal campaign against tuberculosis. Linda's mother, Mrs. John Hollins of Austin, a former WAC, was recently hospitalized with the disease. Linda, her two sisters and her brother are being cared for by an aunt and by their father, who is employed as a welder. Governor Connally apparently found Linda pleaded her cause well.

It was estimated that from 10-12 families are helped each week by the clothing center. A survey last year indicated that a total of 155 families, or over 600 people, were helped by the center.

The public is invited at any time the center is open to go through and see the work being done and the people helped. With a better understanding of the center more help would be available.

Those interested in doing any work at the clothing center, or urged to call Mrs. W. S. Simmons, Mrs. C. W. Jones, Mrs. C. B. Lyles or Mrs. Wilson Fowler.

Miss Norman, a freshman at Baylor University, exhibited charm and poise as she represented the 17 counties in District 2 in the state queen contest.

Miss Norman, who has light brown hair and hazel eyes, will receive $500 to cover expenses for herself and a matron escort to attend the American Farm Bureau Federation convention in Chicago in December.

In Tahoka High School, she was sophomore class favorite and was awarded the Betty Crocker Homemaker Award.

More Than 1,500 Present

She was corresponding secretary of the Future Homemakers of America, reporter for the National Honor Society and Student Council, and a member of the junior and senior play casts. Her hobbies are sewing, swimming and knitting.

Runnerup in the queen contest was Shirley Self, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton B. Self of Premont, in Jim Wells County.

Miss Norman became the fifth District 2 queen from the South Plains in the last 10 years to win the state title.

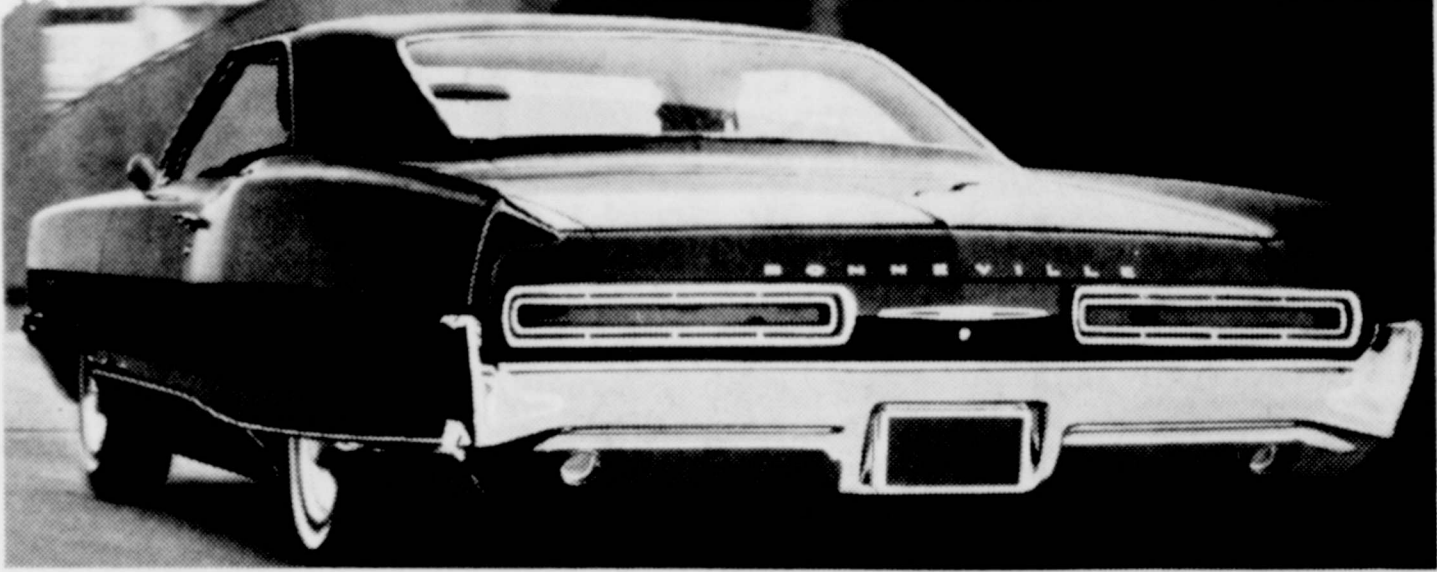

Attending from this area were Mrs. Dale Kincer, who accompanied her parents from Tahoka, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Bertrand, Marvin Wells, Mrs. A. C. Pratt, Doodle Milton and Ted Carthel.

Former Floydada Resident Tells Of Early Days

By JACK CHEGWIDEN
Borger News-Herald
"It's a great country and those people here now are reaping what we sowed," said Mrs. K. J. (Epsie) Matthews, 84-year-old early pioneer of the Texas Panhandle, as she looked up from her bed at North Plains Hospital. Mrs. Matthews resides at 904 Parkway Borger.

While suffering frequent pain from a broken hip bone which often keeps her awake far into the night, Mrs. Matthews hasn't lost her zest for life. Her optimism for living was clearly expressed when she said, "I do love people and I love to know people."

This alert woman lived the hardships and trials which faced the early settlers who homesteaded the land of West Texas. She knows every foot of land extending from the North Plains of the Texas Panhandle down to Big Spring. She moved to Texas as a child, coming here from Georgia with her parents who migrated from a farm near Atlanta. Her father, W. S. Adams, was a soldier in the Confederate Army.

"We first came to Texas in 1885 and resided in Ellis County. I was then 4 years old. We lived there five years and then father took us out on the South Plains where he homesteaded 160 acres of land in what is now Floyd County. We lived in a dugout," recalled Mrs. Matthews.

"Those first three years (1890 to 1892) were difficult and I don't know how we managed to live. They were very dry years, there was no rain, no grass and not a single tree had been planted yet. It was all open range," she added.

Mrs. Matthews said water was scarce.

"Water wells were few and far between. In Floyd County they had to go 200 to 250 feet to water. We had to haul water up to 15 miles from a well nine miles southeast of Floydada. We drew water from the well with a long metal bucket and a windlass," she continued.

When a young woman Epsie Adams married her first husband, Floyd Dillard. This union was brief. They married in September and Dillard died in August the following year.

Following this set-back, Mrs. Dillard returned to the South Plains with her parents. She had one child, a daughter.

Epsie and daughter stayed with her parents six years. Then she was destined to meet and marry K. J. Matthews, a widower of 16 years. He had three children and they were all grown, the youngest being 16. To this union two daughters were born.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthews farmed in Floyd and Crosby Counties. He owned several sections of land on which he raised feed and hay for some 50 to 100 head of cattle.

There was trouble ahead, however, for Epsie and her second husband.

"We were married in 1908 and that year the loco weed took the country. We lost a lot of cattle from that. The cows would eat the loco weed and go crazy as a bat," she recalled.

She said they weathered exremely cold winters and severe sand storms.

Mrs. Matthews said their home was near Floydada.

"Building a home in those days was quite a chore. Lumber was hauled from Fort Griffith. Hank Smith was one of the old timers of my day that hauled lumber from the Fort. I have a sister, Sally, who married one of the Smith boys. She is now 88, and lives in Crosby County," she said.

Mrs. Matthews said she had a brother, Dr. Sam Houston Adams. "He was shot in 1934 at Slaton. A patient who blamed my brother for the death of a relative came to his office one day and shot my brother. This same man, 20 years later, shot himself," she said.

Mrs. Matthews said Dr. Adams, as a young man, taught school to help their family live. She said he taught school at Floydada, Lakeview and Matarador.

Looking back over the years, Mrs. Matthews said of the Texas Panhandle — "A lot of Norwegians came here in the early days to farm." She said many of them later moved away.

She termed Floyd and Crosby Counties as "one of the best farming areas in the Golden Spread. They raise some of the finest wheat, cotton and grain sorghum there that you will find anywhere," remarked Mrs. Matthews.

When Mrs. Matthews' second husband died, about 1938, she moved to Borger. Her husband was 72 years old at the time of his demise, "quite a bit older than I was," said Mrs. Matthews.

"When I first came to Borger the oil boom was on and it was a very rough town. The streets were not yet paved and there wasn't anything north of Tenth Street, excepting just two dwellings," she recalled.

LOW-LEVEL FEEDING OF ROUGHAGE MOST ECONOMIC — Tests conducted by workers of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station at Beeville indicate that cattle getting a low-level of roughage in feeding rations made the most economical gains compared with those getting rations with high-levels of roughage. Feeders are using rations containing 90 percent or more of concentrates due to the increased costs of roughages, including their transportation and handling.

INSECT AND PLANT DISEASE CONFERENCE — The annual Insect and Plant Disease Control Conference will be held at Texas A&M University, Nov. 3-4. The program will emphasize the safe and proper use of pesticidal chemicals.

Mrs. Matthews watched Borger grow to a city of approximately 22,000 people. She likes the city and its friendly people.

Mrs. Matthews said her three daughters live nearby. Two reside at Phillips and they are Mrs. J. B. Massingill and Mrs. Ruby Stone. The third one, Mrs. Bill Coggin, lives on the Weatherly Lease near Borger.

Not long ago Mrs. Matthews was admitted to North Plains Hospital for treatment of an illness. While there she accidentally fell and broke her hip. She was taken to an Amarillo hospital to have the broken bone set. Now she spends long days and nights, often in pain, waiting for the broken bone to mend. However, she remains cheerful.

Asked if she had any special thing she wanted to do she replied — "Yes, as soon as I'm well I want to go back and look over that country where I spent my early years. It's beautiful country and country which people like myself helped to build."

Knowing this plucky little woman, she will do it too. Just as soon as health permits.

(Anyone wishing to send get well cards to Mrs. Matthews should send them to Room 265, North Plains Hospital, Borger.)

WEST TEXAS PIONEER — Mrs. K. J. (Epsie) Matthews, 84, 904 Parkway, came to the range country of West Texas in 1890 with her parents who homesteaded in Floyd County. A Borger resident, she has first hand knowledge of both the North and South Plains. Her mind she recalls events of the 19th century as if it occurred only yesterday. Mrs. Matthews is presently recuperating in North Plains Hospital from a hip injury.
