Christmas Card Mailings Down, Parcels Increase

Floydada residents have mailed about 7000 less Christmas Cards this year than they did through December 20 of 1964. The Canceling Machine counter shows the following results in letters and cards mailed begining December 1st through the 20th each year, 1961-122, 105; 1962-126,311; 1963-123,-790; 1964-121,296; 1965-114, 219. Parcel post being delivered to the homes show about an 8% increase over 1964 deliveries.

The Post Office will be open until 5:00 p.m. on Christmas Eve and by that time every letter and package that arrives will be delivered to your home. On Christmas day only Special Delivery and perishable mail will be delivered, regular schedules for holidays will be in effect on Saturday and Sunday, December 25 and 26.

The Postmaster noted that the use of ZIP Code has increased significantly over last year and that most people mailed early. He wishes to thank all his patrons for their excellent cooperation in the separation of their mailings into bundles of LOCAL and OUT OF TOWN. In the past you who are our customers, have been very cooperative in understanding our problems and helping us solve them. And, as much as we try, our success in delivering you mail, depends upon your help. I guess it can all be summed up in the phrase, "Only you were able to put ZIP into your Christmas mail". MERRY CHRISTMAS to each of you.

Congressman George Mahon, in a short visit to Floydada last week was given the program time at the local Lions Club luncheon where he found a audience of over 100 Lions, Boy Scouts, Explorers, and other guests.

Congressman Mahon spoke The plans must also be approved by State Health officials, on a variety of subjects that held the interest of even the smallest of the scouts and answered a lot of "would-be" questions for the older set in the audience.

He was informed at his arrival that instead of five minutes on the program he could have the full 25 minutes and the Congressman had little trouble filling the program time.

During his talk he emphasized the value of scouts and urged those in the organization to participate in all the scout activities and particularly look forward to the more rugged courses included in the camping phases of scouting. He stated that although a person may get a little grimy, the values that are being built inside the individual are much more important and these values are the ones getting benefit from the rugged side of life.

Also, from reports no signs

Concerning the exploration of space, the Congressman stated that he, too, could perhaps see no value in setting a man on the moon, but we can look back a couple of hundred years and see that people could see no value in analyzing the contents of a blade of grass.

"Yet, from this type thinking the world has come up with an unlimited amount of knowledge about its surroundings that has made living in this day and age much more advanced and much easier than it would have been a few decades ago.

"By looking to the future no one can fortell what great idea will come from knowledge gained through the exploration

Suspect Under Chase, In Recent Break-In

The City Police have had a suspect under chase a number of times to answer questions concerning a break-in that happened a couple of weeks ago.

The local authorities have cornered the man in the past and actually chased him on foot, but each time the culprit has managed to escape.

The suspect, whose name was not released, is wanted in connection with a break-in of Dr. Jack Jordan's office in downtown Floydada.

A total of $245 was taken from the office the night of December 6. The burglar attempted to get in through the front door, but either found that route too difficult or felt uncomfortable in the light and went in through the back door.

No narcotics were taken in the burglary.

Application for the grant was signed by Hollis Bond, president of the board of directors of the Caprock Hospital District. Plans for the new hospital were started about two years

A number of the local offices and stores will close at Friday noon and remain closed until Monday morning. Virtually every place of business will be closed Saturday, December 25, Christmas Day.

munity betterment was mentioned first. Second was research and analysis of the community so that a person can show a profit can be made in the community. Next, was that financing needs to be available. Land sites that can be secured, or that are already available are a vital necessity and finally a program of prospecting must be maintained. Regarding the prospecting.

Clark said that of all the industries in the U.S. only 1,500 made decisions last year to establish new plants. Breaking that down a little farther, that is an average of 30 new ones per state, and in Texas there are 400-600 towns seeking these new industries.

"Where then are your best prospects for new industry?" Clark asked the group. And in answer to his own question he stated first that existing industries are the best prospect. Another good prospect is the man with an idea. Although some crackpots are in every town, often some good ideas are brought forth by them, he said. Third on the list are the allies of the present industries and the town. That is, the utility companies, the railroads, so many today they must be and other facilities that serve in town Christmas shopping. the community. Another prospect source is found in a book entitled "Bureau of Business Research". which lists the 10,000 manufacturers in the state of Texas. Clark mentioned in his talk that Texas has more multiplant operations than any other state. This indicates that those industries that are here like to expand in this state and not look for new sites in other states.

The final prospect source mentioned is that of the person sitting next to you. Deep inside every person has an idea of how to make money but may not be able to put it into operation. Clark cited the example of a "Think Lubbock" program recently, when the city got 300 new ideas about new industry. Before the speech by Clark,

Senator Andy Rogers was introduced and praised for his help to this community, which has particularly been visible during the past couple of years. He has helped establish the hospital district, helped with the airport, the Mackenzie Water Authority, and is now working to get a common numbered highway through here that extends from the northern border of the panhandle to Big Spring.

Larry White, 27 year old Floydada resident, who was seriously injured in a one car turn-over Saturday night some three miles northwest of this city, was reported improved yesterday.

White is in the intensive care ward in Methodist Hospital in Lubbock. His wife's mother, Mrs. Marie Baxter said White was suffering from a broken shoulder, liver and lung injuries and other minor internal injuries. He was listed in a serious condition Monday with complications but Tuesday his fever had subsided and an improvement noted. He underwent surgery for his injuries and a tracheotomy was necessary because of his labored breathing.

Mrs. Baxter said White called her about 10:30 Saturday night from the O. R. Mooney home where he walked to, following the mishap. Mrs. Mooney said he reached her house shortly before 10 o'clock and decided to get warm and rest a bit before calling someone to come get him. The accident occurred some quarter of a mile from the Mooney home. Mrs. Baxter said after she and her daughter, Rebecca, picked White up they went by his car where he got some articles out of it and put in her car. She said before they reached town he started complaining with his shoulder and chest.

After being x-rayed here and finding the broken shoulder he was sent by the physician to

Of Those Who Claim That God Is Dead

On Christmas Day a soldier in Vietnam, dirty with jungle mud and blood, will tear open a letter from home. For a few moments he will forget his bone-aching fatigue, remembering boyhood days with his family and the excitement of getting and giving gifts.

The sour-sweat smell of barracks and the dank green odor of jungle camps will be replaced by the smell of white sheets on the old bed at home on Christmas Eve, the pungence of Christmas trees and the aroma of food from mother's kitchen. The illusion will be gone even before the letter is finished and that soldier will long for peace, more than you or I who have never lived on a battlefield can ever long for peace, and he may weep for a meaning that has gone out of his life.

As long as that soldier feels joy from no more than the reading of a letter on a battlefield, or has hope expressed as a longing for peace, or repents through tears for lost meaning, we know that God is alive.

it all? Phillips Brooks, great Episcopal preacher who was regularly matching the needs of men with the resources of God in his sermons, knew, in writing "O Little Town of Bethlehem," that all of the beauties surrounding the supreme fact in life of Christmas and of Christ, could not take hold when sin held sway.

WHY "Cast out our sin?" To do so will then enable the Christ to enter in. The beautiful words of that hymn, along with "Silent Night, Holy Night," "Joy To The World," and others can become great symbols of a tremendously enriching experience as Christians strive to show the world that Jesus lives. that the God of the faith of our fathers eternally lives, that the work of the Holy Spirit is not ended.

As Advent shades over into Christmastide and then into Epiphany, there is a song very appropriate to the season, which has been designated "Hymn of the Month" in Methodist Churches.

It is William Chatterton Dix's "As With Gladness Men of Old." and in the first three stanzas we are presented with three episodes - the Bible tells us no number of the menthemselves of the "Wise Men," being led to the Christ Child, worshiping at the manger bed and presenting gifts.

So, as in the sermons of Brooks, there is a matching service available to Christians even now; we may be led to God; we may in penitence bow at the "mercy seat", an Old Testament term still relevant; and we have so very many opportunities, both in and out of regular church channels, of bringing our gifts in loyal service.

If we all do as Rev. Charles Lutrick challenged the congregation to do in Floydada's impressive candlelight service on Sunday evening, and that is to give ourselves to Him, then our sin will be cast out, and we can really observe Christmas. Otherwise we are just a bunch of pagans taking a Holy Name in

Improvements In Land Bank Public Information

As a service to farmers and ranchers, the Federal Land Bank Association of Floydada will join in a national program of public information keyed to the 50th Anniversary of the Federal Land Bank System. The Floydada Association, along with some 700 other associations and the twelve Federal Land Banks, will carry out the program to make all Americans aware of the importance of agriculture.

Jake B. Watson, the Floydada Association manager, stated that large segments of the country's population, such as city dwellers, factory workers and the like, are not aware of the vital part which agriculture people take in adding to the basic strength of the nation. With agriculture moving into a "challenging new era of development for rural America and of production for the worldwide battle against hunger,' it becomes increasingly necessary that the true, complete story of agriculture progress and potentials be told, he said. Watson noted that numerous meetings, commemorative activities and special anniversary events will get under way in the coming months, leading up to the nation-wide 50th Anniversary in 1967. The twelve Federal Land Banks were established in 1917 under the Farm Loan Act.

Our community hated to see an old, familiar landmark, the Curlew house, moved from our vicinity last week. A Spanish man in Silverton moved the bers of the wedding party at the house, which used to be on the stage coach line, and was a post office and old, even way back in 1916. Bryan Karr, who lived there about 1944 recalls that as he plowed and worked the fields, he found hundreds of horse shoes from that era.

The Ernest Newtons had their pre-Christmas dinner this Sunday, the 19th of Dec. with the Eugene Byrds and children, of Stanton, the Leonard Moores and children of Lockney with them, and Sheriff and Mrs. Walter Hollums of Floydada, and Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Hollums of Sandhill present. The Byrds and the Moores spent the past weekend here with the Newtons. They enjoyed their Christmas tree and supper at the Leonard Moores in Lockney on Saturday night.

The Deral Youngs will have Christmas eve in Floydada with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pike Hanna.

Mrs. Dona Williford and her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George Bentley, Kathy and Doug, from Tracy, California arrived here last week to spend the holidays with relatives. Mrs. Williford is with her sister, the R. E. Young family, and with her daughter, the Grigsby Milton family, and will be in the Milton home for Christmas. The Bentleys went on to Lufkin to be with his people, and they will come back on the 26th, and then all return home to California on Dec. 27.

The Travis Youngs and children will have Christmas eve with her folks, Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Turner in Floydada, with all the rest of the Turner families. Then Christmas all of the Young families will meet at the R. E. Young home for dinner and Christmas Day. Letter To The Editor Dec. 18, 1965

Dear Mr. Tooley, I would like for you to print the following article in memory of our son and brother, Douglas Emert, who gave his life in Viet Nam 13 Dec., 1964, with full military rites in Floydada 26 Dec., 1964.

Doug was a Sergeant serving on an A team as a Medical Specialist with the Army's elite Special Forces, stationed at Gia Vuc, in the mountains of Viet Nam.

Prior to entering the service he attended Dougherty elementary and Floydada High Schools. "A Woman's Prayer"

Dear God, please forever stay Near the man with the green

To help progress in another land.

Guide him as he walks along; His courage and character are strong.

Please hear me when I pray... Protect the man with the green beret.

-Anonymous Doug no longer wears his green beret but many of his friends and comrades still do. As we think of him we cannot but remember those who do wear it and pray that God be ever near them. . . . especially during the Holiday Season.

The current averaging provision was put in code in 1964. Averagable income must be more than $3,000 before it can be applied.

Under the provision, the income of the four preceding years is averaged and then multiplied by 133 1/3 percent. The product is then subtracted from this year's taxable income and the remainder is called the Averagable Income, provided it exceeds $3,000.

She'll go into an "orbit" of delight when she opens this gift. The Starfire "2000" by Puritron also serves a useful purpose, as a unique flashlight that is three units in one.

It is a portable flashlight, two inches in diameter by two inches long, containing the power of flashlights more than five times its size. It is a powerful work light, when put on its special stand, which has a 300° swivel base. And it is a convenient headlight with a headband that leaves both hands free for work or play.

Made of unbreakable plastic, it contains a special zoom switch, which converts it from a spotlight to a miniature floodlight. And best of all it is rechargeable . . . holding its charge for more than year. The flashlight itself is backed by a

The material is Stevens Utica Fine Arts terry towels in the "Cantata" pattern. The pattern is especially masculine in concept, the towel patterned in stylized pine trees on ombre stripes in blue contrasted with brass, red contrasted with blue, or yellow and saffron. The robe binding and belt is "Aurora", an ombre stripe. Before cutting garments, cut selvages and seams from towels.

To make the Pull-Over Shirt, cut two towels to desired length. (Average: 28" at center ack: 23" at dropped shoulder.)

The sounds of Christmas are many and varied: the carillon's call to services, the religious music and caroling, the tinkle of sleigh bells, the crunch of foot steps on freshly fallen snow, the ho, ho, ho of a street corner Santa, the sounds of laughter and joy which are everywhere during this season of happiness.

It just wouldn't be Christmas without all of these special sounds and it also wouldn't be Christmas without Christmas cards. Now, with a little imagination and 3M Company's 'Scotch" brand recording tape, you can produce individually tailored "talking" Christmas greetings that marry the marvelous sounds of Christmas with the traditional Christmas card through the modern medium of magnetic tape.

Making a personalized talking Christmas card can be a family fun project. All that is needed is a reel of magnetic tape; three-inch tapes are ideal for the purpose. They can record 15 minutes of sound, just enough time for everyone in the family to have his say and for the family to sing a carol if it wishes.

plastic or sequins can be pasted to the box; a festive paper or an artificial "spray-on snow" can be used to cover it; and a small pine cone or Santa doll can be affixed with ribbon bows. The ways that you can beautify the tape box just for Christmas are limited only by your imagination.

A taped talking Christmas greeting in a hand-decorated box will be that "something different" that will be the hit of the Yuletide season and will be remembered all the rest of the year.

Holly Hands?

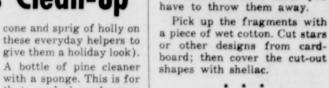

Rough! That's what hands and skin frequently are, at holiday time, just when a woman wants to look her prettiest.

Such increased activities as cooking, dishwashing and house cleaning are particularly severe on the hands. Another enemy of beautiful skin, the Pacquin people tell us, is indoor heating. It dehydrates, robbing the skin constantly of moisture, just as much as exposure to wind or cold or too much sun in warmer climates.

Since your hands have far less natural oil supply than your face, it is even more important that they be proctected indoors as well as outdoors by a good hand cosmetic that will provide them with oil and moisture and guard skin against dryness and aging.

Experts recommend an application of hand cream or lotion in the morning, as part of your daily grooming to protect hands both indoors and out.

DRINKING AND DRIVING

ratistics show many of the traffic accidents that occur uring the Christmas-New Year's holidays are a direct esult of driving while "under the influence" of alcoolic beverages. CHECK THESE FACTS:

- * Alcohol is NOT a stimulant and is classified medically as a depressant.
- * Even small amounts of alcohol tend to reduce judgment, self-control and driving ability.
- * Loss of judgment and the capacity for selfcriticism occurs before obvious symptoms of intoxication.
- * Coffee or other stimulants will not offset the effects of alcohol. Only time can eliminate alcohol from the blood stream.
- * It takes at least three hours to oxidize (eliminate) one ounce or pure alcohol (about two cocktails).
- * Two cocktails (about 0.04% of alcohol in the blood) may reduce visual acuity as much as wearing dark glasses at night.
- * You do not have to be obviously intoxicated to be "under the influence" and an UNSAFE DRIVER.

Yarborough Newsletter

Dear Fellow Texan:

The people of Texas can be proud of the part that we are playing in improving our international relations, especially with our good neighbors to the South in Mexico, Central America and South America. The importance of good relations with our fellow nations of the Western Hemisphere increases daily, and Texas has taken the lead in a number of projects to promote better relations with our neighbors.

First, the HemisFair of 1968, to be held in San Antonio, Texas the same year that the International Olympics are held in Mexico City, will have a theme centering around the unity of the nations of this hemisphere and the contributions which each country makes to the whole American society, art, culture, and industry. This helps good relations among all Western hemisphere nations. During this past season of Congress, we passed a bill authorizing $125,000 for planning Federal participation in the HemisFair, and the money was also appropriated-HemisFair will make a major contribution to better international relations among the nations of North, South, and Central America and also including the islands of the Caribbean.

A second area where Texas has taken major steps to improve foreign relations is with the Chamizal zone, between Texas and Mexico. You'll notice that we suggest pimiento cutouts for garnishing. These we make with a set of tiny canape cutters. But if these cutters aren't on hand, just use a sharp knife to cut the pimiento into miniature diamonds or squares.

Into a generous heart, mix the wonder of a little girl, the sparkle of a young boy's glance, the love of parents, and set gently before the chimney side. Boy's Favorites Are War Toys

Why do little boys like war - cannons, tanks, missle launchers, pillboxes, and of course, guns?

This question put to two sophisticated 10-year-old elicited this reply:

"It gives you a chance to crawl around on the floor doing something and pretending. Two fellows can have fun playing out a war and you can have lots of action going on without taking up too much space."

Space toys are fine, these boys "They are good when you play outdoors. . .or when it shows and you can pretend you are on the moon.'

A check of available toys show the fun-on-the floor crowd hasn't been forgotten by toyland. There's a new style missle auncher with a vista dome troop carrier and a complement of troops to provide fun in national defense play. The attached trailer carries a powerful rotating searchlight. Operational features parallel those of real army equipment.

A new cannon game, Pow challenges players' marksmanship ability. Opposing forces are knocked down with plastic ammunition. A three-foot long plastic tank has a remote control until that makes it go forward and backward.

Another in the love-to-pretend category is a camouflaged pillbox of corrugated fiberboards. It'll fold flat in a jiffy. It's just the place where a small GI can put his new combat phone set with retractable antennae.

> Tips On Being Camera-Wise

One of our happiest family traditions at Christmas is the taking of snapshots and home movies. If you receive a camera for Christmas, or if you are the family photographer, here are a few professional tips from William Weeden of leading camera firm.

Establish a pattern of shots, he suggests, and carry it over the years. The children in their pajamas as they see the deco rated tree for the first time . the dinner table in all its glory (and later) . . . the beautifully wrapped gifts (and later!) . and a family group shot. Origin of 'Santa'

So you see, Santa didn't just 'happen'' . . . like Topsy, he grew, out of the tales and fancies of many nations.

Christmas Dates To 4th Century

Our Holiday Season with its byous feeling mixed with religous observance intrigues many as to its beginning. Of course here are many legends and in terpretations concerning the origin of Christmas, its names and why we celebrate it during December. Much time and study were given to establish a rea sonable date and answers to give us the Christmas we now en joy. The fourth century is as far as clerical researchers and lay scholars can go, into history, to pinpoint the observance of our traditional Christmas, However, the custom of a Christmas festival was already established dating back from previous eras The word Christmas began as "Christ's Mass" or from old English "Christes Masse" or the Mass of the Christ. And it was St. Cyril, bishop of Jerusalem, who strived to set up a universal day of observance from its regular spring celebration. The good bishop was granted permission by Pope Julius I to appoint leading theologians of the time to determine, as accurately as they could, the date of Christ's nativity. Having discovered many discrepancies and contradicions in astrological and astronomical calendars for the accurate celebration of Christ's Mass. the Church set the 25th day of December for this joyous holi-So, since the year of 352 A.D to this present day, the Saviour' birth has been observed. But, to advises. When you photograph the tree in color, use the slowest shutter speed. This gives the garlands of lights a chance to 'burn in' and show up well.

With a truly modern camera, you are free to concentrate on your duties as director of the family-and-friends cast. Argus 260, for example, positions film automatically. As you focus for distance, you automatically set the proper flash exposure by means of an electric eye. An annual tradition in many homes is the showing of last year's slides and prints. But this is the moment when you should look to the future as well as the past. Take some shots with next year's Christ-mas card in mind. Color prints are less expensive these days, and you can inset them in standard greeting cards or make your own.

One final word of wisdom from Mr. Weeden: When you arrange slides or mount prints, put them in a 'story sequence.' "You can even," he says, "make a real production of it by having your youngest hold up a card marked Christmas 1965," and then having other members of the family display credits such as 'Catering by Mom,' 'Decorations by Santa,' 'Gifts from Everyone.'

Helpful "Tidbits"

A striking centerpiece for your Christmas table can be easily made. Just heap b. ils of blue and silver, or your favorite colors, on an oblong platter. Soften the base of 2 white candles and stick them at each end of the platter.

Dip sprays of your favorite evergreen into white paint, dust with artificial snow, and arrange around a platter heap-ing with balls. Let the pointed sprays extend several inches at each end of the arrangement for a graceful effect.

Here's how to trim the tree: Start at the top and work down. The tree trimmer who starts elsewhere runs not only the risk of knocking off some of the ornaments but knocking over the tree, as well.

Around 400,000 volunteer leaders are the core of some 94,000 4-H Clubs throughout the nation. They meet regularly with the members, supervise project work and assist with ocal 4-H events.

ELECTRIC RANGE HOLIDAY BOON

The best way for a hostess to join in the holiday cheer is with work-saving kitchen appliances that let her prepare banquet-sized dinners, festive delicacies, and an endless succession of snacks with a minimum of time and trouble. That's where an electric range comes in.

Today's electric ranges have a stockingful of features that make heavy entertaining as light as a snowflake.

For one thing, automatic temperature controls and cooking timers can be present and forgotten. No need for the hostess to leave her guests periodically to check the progress of dinner. Quick-heating surface units bring water to an almost instant boil, and the even heat of electricity means that fragile specialties like souffles, custards, mousses and meringues cook as faultlessly as a sturdy main dish.

For tender, tasty roasting and broiling, electric ranges are equipped with automatic meat thermometers which adjust the heat when the meat is done, and keep it piping hot without further cooking. Some of the ranges even have extras like rotisseries, barbecuers, griddles, and warming ovens for rolls and muffins. And builtin wall ovens are great status

Santa Inspires Yule Writings

The jolly old gentleman called Santa has become as much a part of Christmas as the beloved tree, and with good reason - he is celebrated in poems and other writings familiar to us all.

One of the most famous poems ever written concerns a Christmas Eve call by Santa, as described in "A Visit from St. Nicholas" by Dr. Clement Clark Moore. Since the penning of that delightful poem in 1822, it has been reproduced countless times and is a holiday tradition in itself.

Santa was also the inspiration for a very famous piece of journalism, the editorial, "Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus," written by Frank P. Church of the New York Sun in 1897. It answered a now famous letter to the editor, as posed by a little girl, Virginia O'Hanlon, who was disturbed by reports that Santa didn't really exist. Church not only answered Virginia's question, he penned a classic tribute to Santa Claus that is still reprinted every holiday as part of the Christmas tradition.

The character of Santa was also the source for a popular motion picture of many years "The Miracle on 34th ago.

friend has been hinting that he'd like to acquire a kitten, Christmas is the perfect time to fulfill that wish.

The first step is to find out what type of cat is preferred. All kittens are fluffy and adorable, but knowing the difference between various types of cats can either make the recipient of your gift happy and thrilled with his new pet or completely indifferent.
