Kropp Brothers Sweep Division At Lubbock Show

Bob and Jim Kropp, Floyd County 4-H Club members swept the championship and reserve championship of the medium wool division at the South Plains Livestock Show in Lubbock this week. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kropp of Lockney.

Members of the Kropp family have piled up a long list of winners at the county shows, and several major shows. This year Bob showed the champion. Jim won the Southdown championship last year and is no longer eligible to compete in that division.

The animals were bred by Green Acres Stock Farm, which is operated by the Kropp family.

Jim also exhibited the third place Lightweight Crossbred lamb, won first in the Lightweight Poland China Class and exhibited the Poland to the Reserve Championship in that class and exhibited the second place Mediumweight Hampshire.

It's Official All Right... Spring Is Here

Yep... it's official. Spring has arrived.

Although the High Plains had a taste of Spring weather about three weeks ago when the wind and sand blew from 30-60 MPH for three days and nights, the first day of the season did not arrive until last Sunday.

Monday was a beautiful day for Spring, but then came Tuesday. And with that day came a dust storm which had gusts of wind that measured up to 75 MPH. During the day, and that night the wind shifted to the north and Wednesday was a cool, brisk Spring day, the type everyone would like to see throughout the season, mixed in with a few wet days.

During the warm season since the last cold snap, most of the fruit trees and flowering shrubs put on their most glorious attire, and it was feared that a late freeze would kill the buds, thus cutting back on the amount of fruit produced. The low Tuesday night was 28 degrees, according to Pioneer Natural Gas Co.

However, most fruit trees on the Plains are for family use and pleasure and are not grown commercially, so the late freeze did not hurt the area financially.

Dedicatory Service Planned For 3 P.M.

Open House at the new building of the First Baptist Church has been scheduled Sunday from 2-3 P.M. and from 4-5 P.M. Dr. Robert E. Naylor of Ft. Worth will be in charge of the Dedicatory Service that is slated at 3 P.M. in the new sanctuary. He is President of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary of Ft. Worth. Although the construction will not be finished at that time, it will be near enough to completion that the building can be used for education and for worship.

The original completion date of the building was prior to March 13, so the church officials began work on their open house and dedicatory schedule. One delay after another has caused the contractors to set new dates for completion, but the church couldn't re-schedule the open house and try to re-schedule their speaker for the service.

The $455,000 building and remodeling project includes new offices, new auditorium and music facilities, and the remodeling of the old auditorium. SEE OPEN HOUSE, PAGE 2

Activated Flight Plan Cause Of Area Alarm

A flight plan, the lack of communications caused to be activated when it shouldn't have been, caused alarm over a wide area for fear that a Floydada dentist and his family had crashed in their plane.

Dr. Andrew McCulley and his family had planned to fly to Lake Texhoma Saturday, but changed their minds when they learned that the weather, at the time they planned to return, would not be favorable for flying.

About 5:30 Saturday morning Dr. McCulley called the FAA office in Amarillo, requesting information about the weather from Floydada to Lake Texhoma during the time he and his family planned to stay. He learned it would be fine going down but the weather would be marginal on the return trip.

Dr. McCulley told the people at Amarillo that if he decided to go he would activate the plan by calling the Plainview control tower when he took off from Floydada. He and his family planned to leave Floydada around 6:30 A.M.

The family decided they would not go, so Dr. McCulley took his plane back to Plainview and he and his family left town for the day.

Two years ago, in a major election year, over 3,500 county residents paid their poll taxes.

there, then went to his house and found no one there, returned to his office and reported to Amarillo that he was missing, officials, then, were almost certain that Dr. McCulley's plane had crashed. The family returned to town that afternoon at which time they found what had happened and what was on the news. In the meantime, Oklahoma City, Amarillo and Wichita Falls radio stations reported the crash and that the people involved were members of the McCulley family.

In talking later with the Supervisor at Amarillo, Dr. McCulley was informed that the mixup was more the fault of the personnel at Amarillo than it was of Dr. McCulley's. Dr. McCulley said concerning the incident, "This is one of those odd things that you read about happening and due to a coincidence of circumstances it happened to me."

so long since it has rained... I really don't know whether I have a leak in the roof or not!"

A COUPLE of former Floydada residents operate a service station at Plainview... and they had a pretty exciting experience last week.

Bernard Sharp and Jim Green were working on some cars on the grease racks when Jim glanced inside the service station and saw a man slipping the money out of the cash register. He hollered to Bernard "we're being robbed." They dashed into the station as the burglar ran out the front door.

Bernard hollered at the burglar, "you bring that money back..." and sure enough the burglar stopped in his tracks, turned and brought the money back.

I don't know if charges were filed against the man or not. I think he was not a resident of Plainview, but just traveling through... hopefully, on Jim and Bernard's money.

I believe Bob Reeves is kin to Jim and Bernard.

YOU LADIES make your plans now to attend the big style show Monday night at the High School auditorium. You'll see all that's new in style for spring and Easter... and of course you'll want to see Miss Lubbock. (Fact is, you men might want to see Miss Lubbock).

I WANT to add my invitation to that of the congregation of the First Baptist Church to everyone to attend open house at the new church at 2 p.m. Sunday. Dedicatory Services begin at 3 p.m.

The Church and Floydada... both stand just a little taller with the completion of this beautiful new sanctuary. The church is to be congratulated.

I ENJOYED visiting with W. D. Newell this week and he mentioned that Saturday, March 26 is the birthday of Dougherty. He remembers the dedication of the townsite on that date back in 1928.

At that time he was working for George Linder... and there was plenty of survey work to be done in the county. The rails were fast being laid for the railway going through Dougherty, then, and it looked like Dougherty would be quite a town... and it was for a while.

JUST WHEN our peach trees come into bloom a cold norther hits and we get some more winter weather.

Well, maybe we'll have a good cherry crop.

Of course we still have to face that annual "Easter Spell."

THEY SAY our Rotary Club is full of "old fellows" but you should have seen them sit up and take notice when Kelly Chadwick spoke at the noon luncheon yesterday about drag racing.

Kelly now ranks number six in the nation in stock car racing, and has the number two Chevrolet. He's doing around 140 miles per hour in a quarter of a mile. Kelly continues to get a lot of publicity for Floydada... he's interviewed on TV in some of the largest tracks in the nation... and since he's a combination drag racer, custom modifier, girl's basketball coach and driver's education teacher, he turns out to be a pretty interesting fellow to interview.

Kelly believes that auto racing is only for the designated racing areas and teaches his driver's education class that careful driving is most important.

(You better watch out for these Rotarians for a week or two... if they're behind the wheel).

The Things We Say

By Ruby Shannon
"John says what he thinks and makes no bones about it," my friend remarked. She was quoting a semihumorous cliché which at one time involved a serious matter... that of swallowing bones.
In olden times, cooking utensils were hard to come by, and quite often several food items would be cooked in the same pot. A chicken's neck or back was often thrown into a pot of stew and once it was cooked the bones fell apart and became mixed with the vegetables. The person eating the stew had to pick with care in order to find the bones and not swallow them. The saying was, originally, "I hope you find no bones in the stew"; or "try to make no bones in the stew."
In time the expression which originated in eating became associated with speaking. When two people did not see a situation in the same light, they were said to have "a bone of contention." If they did agree, they accepted a situation as it was and "made no bones about it." Later, "to make no bones about it," meant to speak frankly.

OUT-OF-DOOR PROTECTION
Q. I am out of doors a lot. How can I best protect my skin?

PURPOSE OF MOISTURIZERS
Q. What's the purpose of a moisturizer?

A. A moisturizer is designed to help you retain your natural skin moisture, which is lost through exposure to heat... cold... rough weather... sun bathing... and alkaline water, and through neglect of skin care.

BATH OILS WITH ALCOHOL
Q. Some bath oils contain alcohol. Isn't alcohol drying?

A. Yes, but the alcohol in bath oil does not make contact with the skin. It evaporates as the bath oil spreads over the surface of the water.

DUSTING POWDER VS TALC
Q. What's the difference between dusting powder and talcum?

A. Dusting powder may contain special ingredients designed to increase the "cling" of the talcum. It may also have an especially fine consistency or a more pronounced fragrance than ordinary talcum.

Bill Lewis, of the Texas Co-op Power of Austin was a special guest at the dinner. Ned Bradley gave a resume of the work done by Nancy in her years with Lighthouse in a short talk. The context follows: "The home has always been -- and always will be the basis of any undertaking, particularly that of a Rural Electric Cooperative. With this realization in mind, Floyd County Rural Electric Cooperative, began to seek a way to work with the housewife, present and future. "The year was 1949, just 11 years after the cooperative was organized, in which new services were being extended to members throughout the 7 county area. New services meant not only having the advantages of labor saving electricity, but also some one to explore and point to the increasing new ways to use this servant. Someone with prior experience of working with farm people, and particularly the housewife, was sought and found in the person of Nancy Morckel. Nancy at that time was secretary to the Floyd County Agent, a position she had held for several years. "One of her first accomplishments that is credited to Nancy, was that of completely changing the name of Floyd County Electric Cooperative. Members outside Floyd County indicated they thought the name should be one that encompassed all 7 counties of the service

"Nancy was justly honored in 1960 by the 1950 study club as "Woman of the Year" in Floydada, not only for the outstanding work she was doing for Lighthouse, but also for civic and church work she was doing. "The Area I Young Homemakers have given Nancy an Honorary Membership, and numerous chapters of Young Homemakers have honored her, for the work and help she has given to them. "She is a graduate of the Homemakers College of New Mexico State University, and a member of the KGNC Radio Housewives Hall of Fame. "Nancy has also displayed talents as an editor with regular columns in several newspapers and radio stations, and a cover story for the nationally circulated Rural Electrification Magazine. "Accomplishments by Nancy Morckel go on and on: the annual meeting planning committee, countless demonstrations in almost every field relating to homemaking before audiences as far away as Colorado and all over the Texas Panhandle and South Plains, scores of recipes that have been mailed

County Agent's Corner

By Joe Wilson and John Fields
Some peach trees have started blooming in the County. The chances may not be good for the early blooming varieties as the average last frost for Floyd County is around April 15. Several people have asked about spraying their fruit trees to control insects. For small family type orchards with peach, plums and apricots four sprayings are recommended. One when 75% of the petals have fallen, another 10 days later, the third spray 10 to 14 days following the second spray, and the fourth spray two to three weeks following the third spray. The recommended insecticides are Malathion (25% Wettable Powder) or Methoxychlor (50% Wettable powder used at 3 tablespoons per gallon of water). A more comprehensive spray program should be followed for commercial orchards. Apple trees should be sprayed with 3 tablespoons of 25% wettable Malathion plus 3 tablespoons of 50% wettable DDT when 90% of the petals have fallen and again 2 weeks later.

Selecting good planting seed is one of the most important steps of producing good crops. Floyd County Farmers should begin planning which variety of grain sorghum and cotton they will want to raise this year. Grain sorghum varieties are generally divided into 3 categories - early maturing, medium maturing, and full season. Varieties are used on heavy irrigation. A farmer should select the variety that best suits his farm. According to a planter box survey of cotton seed conducted by the South Plains Research & Extension Center, it pays to plant certified or pure strain cotton seed. Results showed that quality and quantity were generally reduced on seed saved from last year's crop. This is due to poor handling and seed getting mixed at the gin.

LOCKNEY WINS

Adams Only Whirlwind To Place At Hale Center Meet

Roland Adams was the only member of the Whirlwind Track and Field Team to place in the competition at Hale Center last Saturday. Lockney scored 95 points to win the meet beating their closest competitor, Friona who had only 66 points. Adams finished second in the Broad Jump for the only Wind victory, behind Evans of Plainview Washington.

The Lockney team walked off with honors as they won the mile relay, placed second in the 220-yard dash, first in the 440, second in the 100, first in the discus, and first in the 440-yard relay.

Four records fell, three of them in AA, at the meet Saturday. Joe Morales of Post ran a 4:41.1 mile to take six seconds off a record that had gone unsurpassed since 1956. The old record was 4:47.9 owned by Masters of Cotton Center.

Don Townsend of Hale Center (class A) cleared 12 feet in the pole vault, to set a new record. The old record was held by Hubbard of Denver City with a height of 11-6 1/2. It was set in 1963.

Neighboring Lockney's 440-relay team circled the track in 44 seconds flat to shave one-tenth of a second off the old record. That record was 44.1 and was held by Abernathy. It was set in 1963 also.

Bobby Brush broke the old pole vault record with a leap of 11.7. This was broken later by Townsend.

Jimmy Joyce of Morton was the meet's high-point individual, totaling 32 points with first place finishes in the 100 and 220, runner-up in the high jump and membership on the second-place mile relay team.

Area II district includes Lamesa, Brownfield, Big Springs, Snyder, Midland, Odessa, Pecos and many smaller towns. Little Sisters are outstanding Future Homemakers nominated by local Young Homemaker Chapters to compete for Area titles.

Only high school seniors, active in FHA chapter, are eligible to compete for the award. The candidate must plan to attend a Texas college and major in home economics. She must have an average of 90 in all subjects for preceding six semesters. The candidate should be enrolled in her sixth semester of homemaking or have completed six semesters of homemaking, including the summer program.

Candidates are judged on general personal traits such as reliability, sincerity, industry, congeniality, citizenship, self-confidence, humbleness, dependability and willingness to work. She must possess the feeling of enthusiasm for FHA and Young Homemakers to the point that she will be good public relations in everything she represents in home, school, church and community life.

Applications, prepared by the candidates, are judged by a committee of home economists, former homemaking teachers and persons associated with home economics. Judges hold personal interviews on the day of the area convention to make their final decision.

Area winners are eligible to compete for State Little Sister. The 10 area winners are judged for the state award on the same basis as Area Little Sisters.

New cotton weed control cuts cost, risk and weather-worry

Shell announces Planavin* Herbicide. Read the 12 ways this remarkably efficient new pre-emergence control works—to help you make money on cotton and save money on weed control.

1. Planavin works with proved effectiveness. Kills germinating weeds by attacking growth cells in roots.
2. Planavin controls weeds month after month. It's chemically stable in soil, can't be diluted by water.
3. Planavin protects your fertilizer investment and soil moisture reserve right from the start. Controls most annual grasses and broadleaf weeds that compete strongly with cotton. (See weed list below.)
4. Planavin gives you the weed control you pay for—even if weather goes against you. Works in spite of drought or showers.
5. Planavin helps you cut control costs. Has measurably reduced the need for follow-up practices like hoeing, and cultivation. Gives weeds few opportunities to break through.
6. Planavin lets cotton grow more profitably. Keeps weeds from slowing down young growth needed for an early, heavy bottom crop. First class weed control also minimizes staining, guards quality.
7. Planavin stays put in the top layer of soil where most weed problems start.
8. Planavin is still effective even if you must replant. Will maintain its weed control as long as soil disturbance is kept to a minimum during replanting.
9. Planavin can be incorporated any time up to several hours after planting if something prevents you from working it into the soil immediately.
10. Planavin is ready and able to control weeds as soon as you apply it. Its weed control power works no matter if dry weather or rain follows application.
11. Planavin keeps on working if you have to come in with a touch-up cultivation. Actually works with shallow cultivation, killing weeds turned up by the cultivator so they can't reroot.
12. Planavin takes the guesswork out of your program. Takes the risk and disappointment out of weed control.

Weeds controlled by Planavin 75

Grasses: Crabgrass, Foxtails, Witchgrass, Watergrass, Wild Oats, Downy Brome, Annual Ryegrass, Annual Bluegrass.

Scabies Quarantine Affects Out Of State Bound Cattle

Dr. S. B. Walker, Executive Director of Texas Animal Health Commission has notified The Hesperian that there has been some misunderstanding pertaining to the Federal Quarantine imposed upon Hale, Brisco, Castro, Swisher, Floyd and Lamb Counties.

Cattle that are going out of the state in these Federal Quarantined counties will have to be visually inspected by a USDA Livestock inspector. Cattle moving within the State of Texas will not have to be inspected. There is still free movement of cattle within the state, other than the cattle scabies infected and exposed herds, which were put under quarantine by a representative of the TAHC. The Federal Quarantine pertains only to out of state movement of livestock.

The County Agents of the above 6 counties have been notified by Walker, and Dr. John Wilbur, Jr., Veterinarian in charge, Animal Disease Eradication Division, Austin, Texas, explaining the situation to them, so there will not be confusion pertaining to legal movement of livestock within the state.

Guest Editorial

We've seen the following article in several papers... maybe you've read it, too. For those who haven't, or those who would like to read it again, we believe most Slatonites share the same viewpoint. It was written by Alan McIntosh of Rock County Heard in Laverne, Minn.

I am a tired American, I am tired of being called the ugly American, I'm tired of have the world panhandlers use my country as a whipping boy 365 days a year.

I am a tired American -- weary of having American embassies and information centers stoned, burned, and sacked by mobs operating under orders from dictators who preach peace and breed conflict.

I am a tired American -- weary of being lectured by Gen. de Gaulle (who never won a battle) who poses as a second Jehovah in righteousness and wisdom.

I am a tired American -- weary of Nasser and all the other blood-sucking leeches who bleed Uncle Sam white and kick him on the shins and yank his beard if the flow falters.

I am a tired American -- weary of the bestniks who say they should have the right to determine what laws of the land they are willing to obey.

I am a tired American -- fed up with the mobs of scabby faced, long-haired youths and short-haired girls who claim they represent the "new wave" of America and who sneer at honesty, integrity, and morality

Mr. Wendell Tooley
Dear Sir:

I am SP/4 Frank Samuels and I have been receiving my hometown paper, ever since December, I have been trying to get time to write and let you know how much I appreciate the paper and people like you who think about us over here in Viet-Nam.

I will thank you personally when I return home. If God will bless me in the future like he has in the past on my mission, I will be home the last of May or the first of June. And I want to thank you again, Sir.

Yours truly,
SP/4 Frank Samuels

on which America grew to greatness.

I am a tired American -- weary unto death of having my tax dollars go to dictators who play both sides against the middle with threats of what will happen if we cut off the golden stream of dollars.

I am a tired American -- who is tired of supporting families who haven't known any other source of income other than Government relief checks for three generations.

I am a tired American -- who is getting madder by the minute at the fifth peddlers who have launched Americans in an obscenity race -- who try to foist on us the belief that filth is an integral part of culture -- in the arts, the movies, literature, the stage.

I am a tired American -- weary of the bearded bums who tramp the picket lines and the sit-ins -- who perfer Chinese Communism to capitalism -- who see no evil in Castro, but sneer at President Johnson as a threat to peace.

I am a tired American -- who has lost all patience with that civil rights group which is showing propaganda movies on college campuses from coast to coast, Movies denouncing the United States, Movies made in Communist China.

I am a tired American -- who is angered by the self-righteous beast-beater critics in America, at home and abroad, who set impossible yardsticks for the United States but never apply the same standards to the French, the British, the Russians, the Chinese.

I am a tired American -- sickened by the slackjaws bigots who wrap themselves in bed sheets in the dead of night and roam the countryside looking for innocent victims.

I am a tired American who dislikes clergymen who have made a career out of integration causes, yet sent their children to private schools.

I am a tired American who resents those who try to peddle the belief in schools and colleges that capitalism is a dirty word and that free enterprise and private initiative are only synonyms for greed. They say they hate capitalism, but they are always right at the head of the line demanding their share of the American way of life.

I am a tired American -- real tired of those who are trying to sell me the belief that America is not the greatest Nation in all the world -- a generous-hearted Nation -- a Nation dedicated to the policy of trying to help the "have nots" achieve some of the good things that our system of free enterprise brought about.

I am an American who gets a lump in his throat when he hears the "Star-Spangled Banner" and who holds back tears when he hears those chilling high notes of the brassy trumpets when Old Glory reaches the top of the flagpole. I am a tired American who thanks a merciful Lord that he was so lucky to be born an American citizen -- a Nation under God, truly with mercy and justice for all.

In the News

Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield was in the news again when he said that prolonged floor debate on Viet Nam had been useful but that he opposed any new Viet Nam policy declaration by the Senate. The Montana lawmaker is on the record as saying he felt our chance of a just settlement by negotiations was "very slim." He has also stated that he is fearful that we are drifting in the direction of a general war on the Asian mainland.

New Withholding Provisions Of Tax Adjustment Act

DALLAS, Texas - New Tax Withholding Tables and Instructions for the 65 to 70 million persons who will be affected by the Tax Adjustment Act of 1966 are enroute to the IRS Regional Service Centers for labeling and mailing, IRS District Director Ellis Campbell, Jr., announced today. The rates at which tax is withheld have been revised to more closely approximate the rates upon which year-end liability is based. However, this is not a tax increase, since the taxpayer's total yearly liability will not be affected.

Although new withholding rates will not become effective until May 1, IRS is expediting information to give employers and employees maximum time to adjust to the new withholding system.

It is expected that IRS Service Centers will complete the labeling and mailing of the Employers' Tax Guide and Employee Fact Sheet (Document 5642) to all employers with 255 or less employees by the end of March.

Employers in this category total approximately four million and have on their payrolls 30 million employees.

All employers with 256 or more employees (16,000 em-

Mrs. Hale Attends Graphoanalysis Convention Recently In Fort Worth

Mrs. Roy Hale of the Harmony Community attended the state convention for the Texas Chapter of the International Graphoanalysis Society held recently at the Hotel Texas in Fort Worth.

Graphoanalysis is the scientific method of analyzing handwriting to determine the character traits of the individual. One's handwriting changes as his personality changes.

A Graphoanalyst identifies the traits by written strokes in the handwriting and the manner in which they are interrelated and the strength and intensity of each to evaluate the final analysis. Graphoanalysts do not work with isolated letters but with an individual's complete handwriting.

Mrs. Hale is a certified Graphoanalyst. She has given many demonstrations and programs in this area for civic groups, study clubs, church groups, and banquets. Mrs. Hale was accompanied to Fort Worth by her father, Will Snell, who visited his son W. J. Snell and wife and other relatives. They returned home Sunday afternoon.

Rules changes included no raffles will be allowed on the Fair Grounds, although registration may be conducted for free drawings.

It was decided the Antique Show, managed last year by John Dorman, will be staged once again.

Residents of counties surrounding Floyd have been invited to participate in the Fair and to assist in planning the event. Three people from Motley County attended the recent meeting. About 20 Floyd County residents were present.

The next meeting will be held April 12 at 8 P.M. in the community room of the First National Bank, Lockney.

Farmers Doing Better

In the prosperity of recent years the farmer, so long the last to enjoy prosperity, has fared better than usual. Recent figures show income per farm is up forty per cent in the last five years. Per capita farm income has risen thirty-five per cent in this period—as against a national increase of twenty per cent.

Thus the farmer is finally gaining ground faster than the average. The income per farm in 1965 was a record, averaging $4,150. Yet farm population is steadily decreasing in proportion to total U. S. population. In 1965 it was estimated at 6.5 per cent of the total, whereas in 1945, at the end of World War II, it represented 17 per cent of the population.

Bigger and fewer farms, with larger capital outlays per year, is the trend. Income from these fewer but more prosperous farms in 1965 was up to $14,000,000,000—farming being the biggest U. S. industry. It is predicted that net income this year will increase by another half billion.

The outlook for farmers keeping abreast of the mechanization trend is good. Agriculture Department officials think the next four years will be years of steady increase in farmers' net income—because of the growing need for food, reduced surplus stocks, increased exports and a high level of national prosperity.

Such a picture, if it remains, will not hurt Democrats in the 1968 presidential election.

MEN OF DISTINCTION

For years now, I've looked with envy on these "Men of Distinction" whose likenesses appear in technicolor in the liquor advertisements of the sophisticated magazines.

FOOTE

I have gone so far as to pose in my red lounging jacket before our best mirror with a glass of buttermilk and tried to look distinguished. But my thinning mustache and my protruding proboscis is no match for the Napoleonic features of the high-powered executives with "rosy" complexion and a glass of juice in their mitts.

But I have a little thought that I am quite willing to pass on to the distillers absolutely free. I don't think they have even begun to exhaust the possibilities of this "Men of Distinction" idea. By rights, a lot of people who are never photographed, ought to be included in their Hall of Fame. How about the farmer some time ago who, after a few stiff ones at the town tavern, drove home and with an ax clubbed his wife and four children to death while they slept? That was about the most distinguished act of cruelty ever recorded. Distillers ought not overlook the fact that, according to the newspapers, a man admitted having served 22 jail sentences in five years trying to look like one of those "Men of Distinction" in the ads. That's quite a record.

Of less spectacular distinction, but certainly worthy of honorable mention, is the man who was divorced from his seventh wife on the grounds that he remained "under the influence" for days at a time. And don't exclude the fellow who lost five jobs within a year because he "couldn't let liquor alone."

I'm not an advertising expert, but it looks as if the "sloe gin" salesmen ought to include in their pictures the fellow I saw dead drunk in the gutter recently. It looked as though he had been slowed down considerably.

I once saw a couple of fellows who should have been included in the "Be Neighborly—Drink Burp's Beer" ad. They were slugging it out on the street corner and from the crimson looks on their faces they must have discovered they were blood brothers.

According to the U.S. Public Health Service, alcoholism is a hundred times more prevalent than polio. We raise thousands of dollars to fight polio and spend billions to advertise the spread of alcoholism.

We need more switching, but to buttermilk. The cows need the business.

FOR LOCAL RESIDENTS

Average Income Tax Deductions $1,730

NEW YORK, Mar. 12—Do Floyd County residents give more to charity than people elsewhere in the country do? Are their local taxes larger than average? Do they have bigger medical expenses than others?

The questions arise at this time because of the Federal income tax. Local residents who plan to itemize their expenditures this year will be listing these items as tax deductions.

For the individual taxpayer, to know whether his deductions are high or low compared with what other people in his income bracket are taking, could be very helpful.

Some guidance in this direction comes from the Commerce Clearing House, a national authority on tax matters.

Using data compiled by the Internal Revenue Service, it has prepared a table showing just how much the average family in each income category deducts for taxes, interest on loans and the like.

It shows that families throughout the United States who have incomes corresponding to the average in Floyd County list tax deductions averaging $1,730, equal to 19.6 percent of their gross earnings.

Making up this total are contributions amounting to $300, interest payments of $550, deductible local taxes of $520 and medical and dental expenses of $360.

In some families, the deductions will run well above these figures. The fact that they do, does not mean that they are improper or that they will be disallowed. It merely means that they are more likely to be questioned and the entire report set aside for review. Guidelines are also presented in the report to show

YOUNGSTER SWALLOWS PLAYING JACK

Kimberly, five year old daughter of Francis Barnett of Floydada, had a jack removed from her throat Wednesday afternoon of last week in Plainview Hospital after the youngster swallowed it the previous day. She is reported back home and doing fine.

Grand Daughter Of Mrs. Gray Died Last Week

Funeral rites were conducted Friday in Lockney First Baptist Church for Mrs. Curtis Williams, 45, who died Wednesday night of last week in the Plainview Hospital. She was the former Edith Gray, granddaughter of Mrs. B. C. Gray of Floydada.

Mrs. Williams became ill what the normal tax deductions are for taxpayers in other income brackets.

Residents of Floyd County who have gross incomes of $5,000 will be within bounds if they deduct no more than $1,118. Those with incomes of $7,500 may go as high as $1,506 and those at the $10,000 level may take as much as $1,891.

The Commerce Clearing House emphasizes that the figures are only a guide to what most people are listing as tax deductions and that proper records must be available to back up all claims.

Twenty Five Years Ago

In Floyd County (March 27, 1941)

Two and 80 hundreds inches of rain fell over Floyd County since last Friday which halted school buses from making their routes in a sea of mud and water but brightened crop hopes. Over 175 school students were absent in city schools due to impassable roads.

One hundred and five seniors in Floydada High School will graduate on May 23.

Mary Ann Kimble and Rev. Donald Harris were wed Saturday.

Young cattle from the Floyd County wheat fields and ranges began moving to the corn belt last week when the Shipley brothers and Curry and the Cannaday brothers loaded out cattle consigned to feed lots in Iowa.

H. B. Callahan of Amarillo died Sunday morning in Dallas. He had lived in Floydada from 1918 until 1923 and had been back on numerous visits.

Florence Lloyd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lloyd, was one of three pupils who made highly superior grade in the Panhandle Speech Festival held in Amarillo. Florence had the pleasure of reading her contest number, "Manhood" over KGNC. Her parents were notified in time to tune in and hear the young lady.

Philosopher Would Cherish Electric Fishing Pole

The Floyd Philosopher Johnson grass has been getting a lot of world promotion this week in-

Dear editor:

I was sitting on a bank doing a little fishing the other day when I noticed an interesting item in a newspaper I'd brought along to sit on in case the ground was damp.

According to it, an Italian firm is now making a battery-powered fork that automatically winds up spaghetti.

An electric fork, well, why not, if you're going to tackle spaghetti, and that got me to listing all the other things in that line, like the electric carving knife, the electric tooth brush, the electric comb, the electric hairbrush, the electric blanket, the electric baby bed that tilts or vibrates at the push of a button and rocks the baby to sleep, electric escersers, electric dish washers, electrically operated car windows, electric garage doors, electric chairs, well I won't go into that, electric can openers, electric hog trough warmers, electric, but about that time I got a bite and dropped the newspaper and grabbed my pole.

It was a fairly large fish and I got him to the bank all right and on my stringer, and was catching my breath and deciding to rest awhile before re-baiting when the thought hit me.

What's the matter with American industry, why not an electric fishing pole?

Shouldn't be hard to build. An electric motor to reel in your line if you use a reel, another motor to cast your bait with a small computer in the handle to aim it automatically after a range-finder has indicated where it should be tossed, after your small radar set has shown where the fish are hiding.

As for an electric cane pole, that may take some doing, it's not going to be easy for science to determine where to locate the motor to make it yank the line out of the water, but in the meantime science can certainly perfect an electric fish cleaner.

I can't think of a single reason why in this modern age science can't do something to take the drudgery out of fishing.

If you don't like to fish, have you thought of perfecting an electric golf stick?

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

FLOYD DATA

Mr. and Mrs. James Hartline and baby of Denver City were here Tuesday and Wednesday on business and visiting relatives.

BUSINESS WAS bad, and the new proprietor of the village store stood at the door gazing gloomily at the all but empty street. A little girl who had just turned the corner paused uncertainly before him, a pound note in one hand. Instantly he was all smiles. "I say," began the child, "does my mother owe you a pound?"

"She does," said the shopman. "And - and whose little girl are you?"

Student Sees Accident Which Injures Friend

Alvertis Williams, who is a student at Junior Bishop College in Dallas and son of Mr. and Mrs. Langston Williams of Floydada, visited here Sunday night and Monday and told of seeing an accident early Saturday morning which involved a close friend of his.

A group of Bishop students were enroute to Houston about 1:30 a.m. to attend the Texas Southern Relays when Williams witnessed a car-truck accident two cars ahead of the one he was traveling in.

Williams said his friend, Charles Woods, was driving a small compact car directly behind a semi-trailer truck. A tire from beneath the trailer rack came loose, struck the small car, causing Woods to lose control and swerve into the path of an oncoming truck. The impact threw the car some 200 feet, Williams said, and it took four fellow students some two to three hours to free Woods from his vehicle. Williams was one of the students. He said his friend suffered a badly mangled leg and lacerated face, but his two passengers were not hurt. The car was a total wreck.

TAX MAN SAM SEZ: Students File to Get Refund Due

The good tax folks remind us that students must file a federal income tax return if they earn $600 or more. However, thousands of students work during the summer and earn under $600 - those students must file a return to get a refund of income tax withheld by their employer.

Students who file their own return must claim their own exemption. They may also be claimed as a dependent by their parents. You'd better check your instructions. It may save you quite a bit.

Financial Aid For Students To Be Discussed

CROSBYTON (Special) - Financial aid for students who must have help in order to attend college will be discussed by Milton Morris, director of Financial Aids at West Texas State University, at a meeting at the Crosbyton School Cafeteria at 2:30 p.m. Monday, March 28.

Senior students, their parents and school officials are invited to attend the meeting in Crosbyton, with Crosbyton Public Schools serving as host. Mrs. Madeleine Stanford, Crosbyton Counselor, is in charge of local preparations for the meeting.

Morris will discuss the Opportunity Plan, Inc., and all other types of financial aid programs that are administered through the office of Student Financial Aid at West Texas State University. Students who can attend this session may be able to formulate some workable plans concerning a realistic approach to financing a college education.

STERLEY METHODIST CHURCH NEWS

Fourth Quarterly Conference is to be held beginning at 7:30 the evening of Tuesday, March 29. Dr. J. E. Shewbert, Plainview district superintendent, is to direct devotions and the business meeting.

In looking back over the last few months of the work of the church, one is struck by the constancy and devotion of a number of persons. One person was quoted this last Sunday as saying that often she had come to church discouraged, and when she had heard the witness of Gordon Terrell McAda, it did something for her spiritual life. Doubtless persons by the score could attest to this truth. When this pastor joins in with this saying, and then goes on to affirm that those who lead in the Sunday School and in singing and other activities, show that the "laity" as the people of God are absolutely necessary to the on-going of the life of the church, he certainly should strike responsive chords with others. Connie Sanders, for instance, after major surgery, was able to be present for both Sunday School and church only on March 13, then on March 20 took her Sunday School class again; her husband, Hansel Sanders, directs the Sunday School and singing; Carolyn Wilson makes her witness through the piano and also a class, and so it goes. Others, whose work is well known, have through the years inspired the stragglers to stay in - or get back in - the ranks.

Did you ever stop to think that "back" of most outstanding people are others who have helped them? The cooling of fevered brows, the cooking of delicious meals, the often-interrupted sleep that enables a person to meet the needs of the hour when another is sick, these, though certainly not spectacular, are the deeds of greatness often unknown by the busy world.

Talent Slated 15, 29

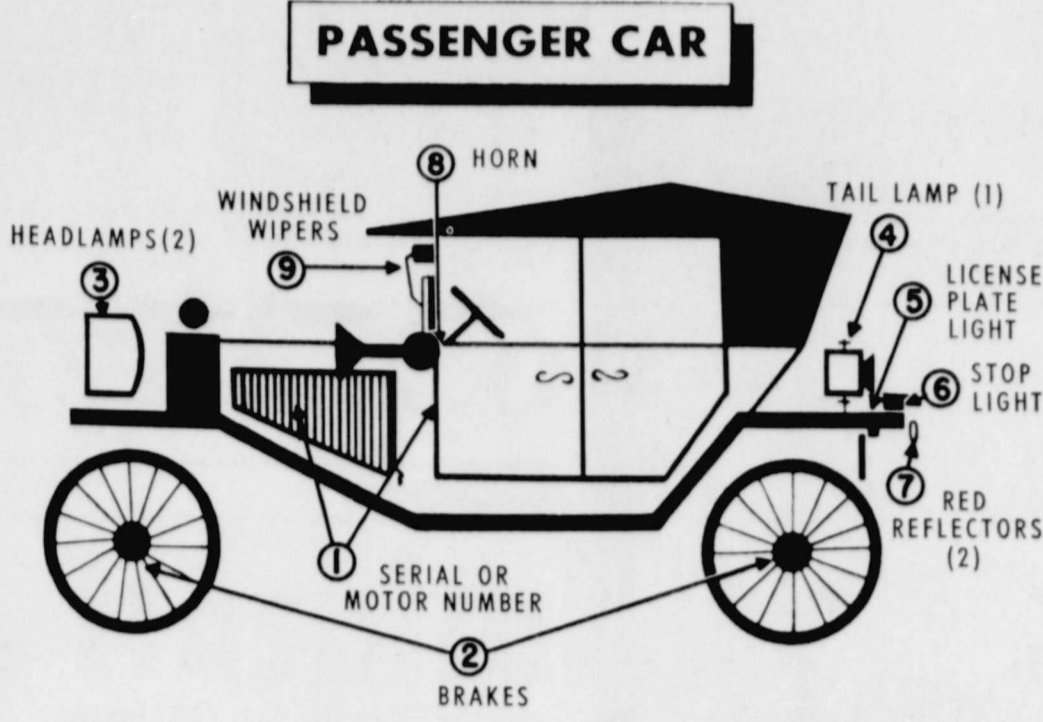

Professional and one of amateurs, but the number of entrants will determine if this plan is followed.

A cash prize of $25 is being offered to the winner of each show. The winners of the first show will not be eligible to compete for the prize money in the April 29 show, but are urged to be guest performers. The talent judges will be from out of town this year, as opposed to the applause meter used last year to determine the winners. Those wishing to perform in the show are urged to contact Mrs. Stanforth as soon as possible. Deadline for applications is April 9. High school and college students, and adults are invited to participate in the show.

Kitchen And Field News

Lighthouse Electric Coop., Inc. Mary Phillips Home Economist

Lighthouse employees and their wives or husbands were treated to a delicious meal Friday night in the Lighthouse Kitchen. Hosts and hostesses for this annual event were the board of directors and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Raetheal, Mr. and Mrs. Odell Breed, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Baxter, Mr. and Mrs. Herman King, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Scarborough, and Mr. and Mrs. Chloma Williams.

Guest of honor was Nancy Morckel who retired as Home Economist at Lighthouse, March 1, after 17 years of service.

Sixty-two persons enjoyed games and the outstanding meal which was prepared by Mr. and Mrs. John Buchanan of the Colonial House here in Floydada.

We have just finished reading A GIANT STEP by Clyde T. Ellis. This is an excellent story of rural electrification and natural resource development in the U. S. and abroad.

Ellis is one of the nation's foremost experts on natural resource developments. Everyone who is seriously interested in "how things get done in Washington" should read this book. Look for it in your public library.

Here is a prize winning recipe from one of the leading flour makers which we have enjoyed and hope that you will also.

ORANGE KISS-ME-CAKE

6 oz. can frozen orange juice, thawed

- 2 cups all-purpose flour
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 teaspoon soda
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 cup shortening
- 1/2 cup milk
- 2 eggs
- 1 cup raisins
- 1/3 cup chopped walnuts

Grease and flour a 13x9 cake pan. Combine 1/2 cup of the orange juice with remaining ingredients in large mixer bowl. Blend at medium speed of mixer 30 seconds. Beat 3 minutes at medium speed. Bake at 350 degrees electric oven for 40 to 45 minutes. Drizzle remaining orange juice over warm cake; sprinkle with Topping.

SUGAR-NUT TOPPING

- 1/3 cup sugar
- 1/4 cup chopped walnuts
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon

Combine all ingredients in small bowl.

DON'T QUIT

When things go wrong, as they sometimes will, When the road you're traveling seems all up hill, When the funds are low and the debts are high, And you want to smile, but you have to sigh, When care is pressing you down a bit,

Just, if you must - but don't you quit!

Life is queer with its twists and turns, As everyone of us sometimes learns, And many a failure turns about, When he might have won had he stuck it out;

Don't give up, though the pace seems slow - You might succeed with another blow.

Often the goal is nearer than It seems to a faint and faltering man, Often the struggler has given up

When he might have captured the victor's cup, And he learned too late, when the night slipped down,

How close he was to the golden crown. Success is failure turned inside out -

The silver tint on the cloud of doubt - And you never can tell how close you are, It may be near when it seems afar;

So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit - It's when things seem worst when you must not quit!
