recognition of the first bale. The bale weighed 500 pounds. Ferguson, manager of Floyd County Coop Gin, where the bale was ginned paid Stovall a premium price of 50¢ per pound for the cotton and $70 per ton for the seed.

Robert Stovall, who farms about nine miles northeast of Floydada produced the first 1966 bale of cotton which was ginned here at Floyd County Co-op Gin early Tuesday morning. It was pulled from seven or eight acres of dryland Lankart 611 cotton late Monday evening and planted the first week in May.

The first bale weighed in at a sound 500 pounds, and there were 780 pounds of seed. It was produced on the R. F. Stovall farm which Robert works. Stovall also received a check for $100 from the agriculture committee of the Floydada Chamber of Commerce in recognition of production of the first bale. Ray Gene Ferguson, head of the committee made the presentation.

Last year's first bale arrived in Floydada on August 25. The extended wet weather of the last month of course delayed the harvest of this year's first bale. Stovall said he hopes the dryland crop will make a bale to the acre. He said it was the first time he had produced a "first bale".

CROP CONDITIONS
With an estimated 80,000 bales forecasted for Floyd County, everyone is keeping his fingers crossed hoping for good warm weather like Tuesday. The lush green cotton crop needs a lot of sunshine for the maturing process.

Some farmers are beginning to think seriously about beginning the first stage of defoliation to aid the maturing of the crop. Floyd County produced around 120,000 bales last year, but the new government program encouraged the county's farmers to lay out about 30% of this year's crop.

School Board Discusses Zoning

The Floydada school board spent most of its regular monthly meeting Monday night discussing the pros and cons of its in-town zoning school enrollment situation. The Princeton Plan was also discussed.

Some of the discussion centered around placing all six graders in the Della Plains School next year. A vote was taken on "considering the Princeton Plan next year." Three board members voted for and three voted against the motion. One abstained from voting.

Among persons assisting Billington are Eddie Joe Fortenberry, Donnie Bybee and J. D. Copeland.

Marivena Street Residents Seek Paving

Ten residents of Marivena Street between third and fourth street met with the city council at its meeting Monday night seeking paving for their street. The council welcomed them to the meeting and assured them that they were ready to go to work on the paving project.

"This is a very enjoyable situation, when the residents themselves want to improve their street and seek our help," Mayor Leonard Matsler said following the meeting. It is possible that the paving work can be tied in with other smaller paving projects set for the immediate future.

In other business the council heard two groups of men seeking a cable TV franchise in Floydada. The Clear Vue Cable Company was represented by Jack Deakins and Claude Estes, local movie owners.

Jim Lackey and Bob Taylor were the other individuals seeking such a franchise. The council tabled the decision until further study could be made of both groups.

The council passed an ordinance setting a new tax rate at $1.30 per $100 valuation. The old rate was $1.50. The new rate is based on an all new evaluation of the city's property and set at 35% of valuation.

Tax payment discounts will be available to the tax payer this year. 2% off if paid in October, 2% in November and 1% in December.

The council also voted to take up a purchase lease agreement with the Burroughs Company on a new billing machine. All councilmen were present, Mayor Matsler officiated.

Marivena Street residents who met with the council were: D. M. Moore, Gerald Thompson, Lloyd Murry, Oran Self, Shorty Hall, Bert Lee Emert, Ollie Meek, K. L. Gregory, O. A. Neff and Thelma Jones.

Latins Invite Officials, Public To Meeting

The following invitation was issued yesterday to the officials of the Floydada Independent School, the mayor and city council of Floydada, to the county judge and commissioners court, to local ministers and to the general public:

"We residents and electors of the Floydada Independent School District respectfully invite you (our fellow citizens) to attend a special open and public meeting to be held this Sunday, September 18, at 2 p.m. in the District Courtroom of the Floyd County Courthouse here in Floydada.

"The purpose of the meeting is to provide both our elected representatives and ourselves (a portion of their electors) with an opportunity to resolve together among ourselves, in a gentlemanly, democratic and Christian manner, the difficulties which exist over the Della Plains School zone plan of integration.

"It is our sincere hope and burning desire that in this way we may avoid both any unpleasant legal proceedings as well as the distasteful and regrettable intervention from outside the community by federal authorities.

"We realize that these things would leave divisions and scars upon our community which would be difficult to heal.

"We feel that we are a part of this community and we desire

Whirlwind-Hornet Contest At 7:30 Tomorrow Night In Tulia

The Floydada Whirlwinds will blast into the Tulia stadium tomorrow night to take on the Hornets at 7:30 p.m. in a game that will be very exciting. Both teams will be out for the first win of the season.

Floydada lost a close 14 to 7 contest last week with AAA Hereford while Tulia was soundly trounced 24 to 0 by Vernon.

This is the second week for the winds to play out of class against AAA competition and the Hornets have defeated Floydada the last three years. Coach Bill Curry is working his boys hard this week on better offensive play tomorrow night.

Last week's game was highlighted by outstanding Whirlwind defensive action and the coach is seeking both offensive and defensive balance in tomorrow night's contest.

TULIA

Richard Souter elevated to the head Hornet grid job after four years as B-team coach, faces the upcoming season with the philosophy "I was never ashamed of these boys when I coached them on the B-team and don't think I'll be ashamed of them now."

Tulia lost 14 lettermen from a team that tied Perryton for second place in District 1-AAA last fall with an 8-2 ledger. Among those lost were two-time all-District tackle Tommy Bates and All-State guard Gary Gruben.

Souter cites lack of experience and size in the interior line as the team's major weakness. However, he feels the Hornets' good crop of ends, running backs and signal-callers could offset this weakness.

Tulia, one of the smallest schools in AAA ball, has posted a 15-5 record in its first two years in this classification. In 1962, the Hornets' final AA campaign, Tulia lost to Daltart in bi-district, 7-0.

The season has arrived for planting small grain crops in West Texas. Much of the disease control on small grain crops will be attained through practices applied before planting or at planting.

Presently our only recommended control practices are restricted to selection of proper varieties, using good seed, use of seed treatment, selection of planting dates and crop rotation. All of these decisions are made before or at planting time. For that reason now is the time to promote disease control well ahead of planting.

Many varieties with good quality and yielding ability cannot be grown because they are destroyed by disease. The rusts, the smuts, the powdery mildews and victoria blight are all controlled with resistant varieties.

No substitute for a vigorous seedling can be found if a fast start is to be expected for fall seeded small grains. Increased emergence of good seed insures better stands and increased winter grazing. Some seed-borne diseases such as loose smut should be very low in certified seed, but may be high in some lots of grower seed.

Treatment of small grain planting seed with a mercury seed treatment material is recommended in all cases. Several benefits are derived from seed treatment. (1) Seed-borne organisms are inhibited and result in less seedling disease.

(2) Some protection is offered during the germinating stage from infection by soil-borne microorganisms. (3) Protection against seed rot is offered in cases where heavy rains immediately follow planting. Most seed treatment compounds, which are commonly used, are mercury based. General manager for Southwestern Public Service Company, Milner will be the master of ceremonies for the program and also a speaker.

Attending the seminar from Floydada will be Don Pemberton, District Manager.

Marie Kinard Asst. Dean At Baptist College

Marie Kinard, daughter of Mrs. LaVader Kinard of Floydada, has accepted a position as assistant dean of Baptist Bible College in Springfield, Mo. Miss Kinard graduated from the college last May. She writes home that being a leader and helper of young Christians is her desire and therefore is very happy in her work.

Marie attended schools in Floydada and Fort Worth where she completed high school.

County Agent Describes Research Center Field Day

Floyd County farmers and agribusinessmen will have an outstanding opportunity to sharpen their management skills and learn about expected advances in agricultural technology at the South Plains Research and Extension Center field day set for Tuesday, September 20, according to County Agent Joe Wilson.

The major agricultural event will be held from 1 to 5 p.m. at the Texas A&M research installation located eight miles north of Lubbock. It is open to the public.

Much of the material to be discussed during the field day can be used by local farmers in making immediate management decisions, Wilson said.

Scientists plan to give special emphasis to results they have obtained with herbicides in cotton, grain sorghum and soybeans.

Some of the topics to be covered include application methods, rates, and incorporation, according to the agent.

The precision on-the-bed planter, which was developed at the Center and is being tested at several locations on the South Plains, will be on display and discussed at a plot planted with the rig.

Wilson, who will serve as one of the tour guides at the agricultural event, said local farmers may be particularly interested in some of the water conservation trials at the South Plains Research and Extension Center.

Scientists there are testing an array of different planting patterns, land forming systems and irrigation schemes. They have come up with some well-founded data on methods of stretching limited irrigation water, he said.

Greenhouse and laboratory displays will also offer a special educational opportunity for producers to learn to identify plant diseases and other plant abnormalities. With the threatening increase in cotton diseases in the county, these displays can be most profitable in showing how to detect problems before they seriously reduce yields, Wilson said.

Basic research is receiving increasing attention at the Texas A&M Center as the scientists attempt to gather data that will be of importance to the economy of the area in the future, he said.

HUSBAND OF FORMER LIBRARIAN HERE DIES

Roy Hollar of Comfort passed away Monday, Sept. 5, at 1:30 a.m. at the age of 67 years.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Rosita Holdsworth Hollar, of Comfort; one daughter, Mrs. J. O. Garrett of Byram, Conn.; and one grandson.

Also four brothers; Louis and Clyde Hollar of Dumont, Tex.; E. W. (Dubb) Hollar of Guthrie, Tex.; and Earl Hollar of Munday, Tex.; and one sister; Mrs. J. P. Scott of Dumont.

Funeral services were held in Comfort Tuesday in the Gaddis Methodist Church and Wednesday services and interment were held in Dumont, Tex. Mrs. Hollar was one of the first Floyd County librarians in Floydada.

FATHER OF W. W. TRAPP DIES

A. C. Trapp, father of Wallace W. Trapp of Lone Star, died Sunday night in a rest home at Hoxie, Ark. Mr. and Mrs. Trapp, accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Stovall of Floydada, left Monday morning for Hoxie to attend rites which were conducted Tuesday.

Generally the choice of materials is rather restricted because of the small number of treaters in any given community.

The second application of insecticide for the diapause boll weevil control program is under way at this time. All indications show that the program has been very successful.

I received a note from Leighton Teeple this past week. He stated that his cotton did not have any punctures and that this time last year his field was sprayed five times during the season for the control of the weevils.

Miss Burns Bride Of Clifford Hacker

Double ring wedding vows were exchanged Sunday afternoon, September 11, between Miss Sherry LaDell Burns and Clifford Wayne Hacker in the First Baptist Church. Rev. Floyd C. Bradley, pastor, performed the 3 o'clock ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Burns of Floydada and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Cris Hacker of Kamay.

Selections of "More", "The Wedding Prayer", and "The Lord's Prayer" were sung by Mrs. Melvin Lloyd, accompanied by the organ by Miss Kay Asher.

The wedding scene was formed by large palms of commadore in elevated brass urns in the background, flanked by white spiral candelabras and basket arrangements of white glads and blue pom poms. A white kneeling bench centered the setting. The bridal aisle was lighted prior to the ceremony with white wrought iron candelabra placed on the pews and holding crystal voice candle cups entwined with green smilax strings.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of peau-de-sole fashioned with a portrait neckline and trimmed with chantilly lace and seed pearls. The fitted bodice and long petal point sleeves were fastened with tiny self covered buttons. The controlled bell shaped skirt was accented by a detachable back bustle of peau-de-sole which extended into a chapel train. Her waist length veil of silk illusion fell from a head piece of peau-de-sole petals highlighted by seed pearls and a center tear drop crystal. She carried a white lace and satin covered prayer book complimented by showers of pearlized stephanotis and centered with a white orchid.

For something old the bride carried a handkerchief folded inside the prayer book which belonged to her maternal great grandmother, Mrs. R. F. Medley; something new was a diamond drop necklace given her by the groom; something blue was her wedding garter and something borrowed was her hooped underskirt belonging to Miss Carolyn Moore. She also wore a penny in each of her slippers bearing the birthdates of the bride and groom.

Mrs. Larry Irby of Dimmitt was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Carolyn Moore and Rhonda Burns, sister of the bride. They wore floor length gowns of nassau blue crepe dresses styled with fitted bodices and elbow length sleeves. They wore headpieces of blue feathered fans centered with velvet rosettes and trimmed with sequins and seed pearls which held shoulder length veils of blue silk illusion. Each carried a white lace fan with cascades of white butterfly rosebuds and soft blue carnations.

Flower girls were Karen Turner and Shandra Young, cousins of the bride. Sheryl Burns, sister of the bride, and Ricky Hacker, nephew of the groom, were candlelighters. The feminine candlelighter and flower girls were gowned identically as other bridal attendants. Their gowns were fashioned empire style.

George Sturtz of Lubbock was best man. Ushers were Richard Burns of Ft. Shafter, Hawaii, brother of the bride and C. L. Hacker Jr., of Matador, brother of the groom. Groomsman were Billy Ray Hacker of Kamay, brother of the groom and Ted Perkins of Lubbock.

Pat Irwin of Lubbock, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

Mrs. Burns selected a nassau blue two piece knit suit for her daughter's wedding and the groom's mother was attired in a beige raw silk two-piece suit. Both wore shoulder corsages of blue cymbidium orchids.

For the reception the bride's table was centered with a gold and crystal candelabra surrounded by the attendants' bouquets. Presiding at the table were Miss Sandra Duke, Colorado City, Mrs. Brenda Dykes, Sulphur Springs, Miss Pat Simmons, Bovina and Mrs. Peggy Keen of Dallas. Guests were registered by Darlene Lamnack.

Other members of the houseparty were Mes. J.D. Nash, Doyle Turner, Winfred Payne, Travis Young, Robert Turner, Sherman Irwin and Mrs. D.D. Turner.

For a wedding trip to Fort Worth, the bride changed to a nassau blue suit of diamond shaped lace and acetate. The suit was complemented by a blue and white whipped cream blouse and black patent accessories. She completed her ensemble by wearing the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Hacker is a graduate of Floydada High School and Cowbells hanging from trees gave off with a faint melody and to complete the pioneer atmosphere in the background stood a covered wagon.

Following the breakfast and a business meeting conducted by Mrs. P. D. Helms, members adjourned to take the High Plains Research Foundation tour and to attend a style show in Plainview where they also lunched.

LaJuana Rimmer Is Bride Of James Darryl Lindsey

Miss LaJuana Ann Rimmer became the bride of James Darryl Lindsey in a candlelight ceremony read at 7 o'clock Saturday evening in the First Baptist Church in Floydada.

Rev. Floyd C. Bradley, pastor, performed the twin ring ceremony before an arrangement of yellow glads and pompons with side arrangements of comodore palms.

The lower floor was centered with a kneeling bench flanked with arched candelabras entwined with smilax strings and yellow glads and pompons. Bridal aisles were marked with comodore fern sprays wrapped in olive green ribbon.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Rimmer of Route 2, Plainview and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Virginia Lindsey of Floydada.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of antique ivory satin featuring a bateau neckline styled with elbow length sleeves and an A-line skirt. The bodice and empire waistline was accented with appliques of re-embroidered French Alencon lace embellished with seed pearls. Identical lace and pearl clusters were repeated in appliques that graced the skirt front and continued around the hemline. Lace and pearls were also repeated on the sleeves.

Her chapel length train was secured to the modified waist back and fell in soft pleats, and highlighted by a lace and pearl trimmed obi bow. She wore an elbow length veil of ivory silk illusion which fell from a pearl edged cluster of silk roses.

A crescent bouquet of green cymbidium orchids, showered with sprays of stephanotis and small fronds of English ivy foliage was carried by the bride.

For something old she wore a gold wedding band belonging to her grandmother; something new was a strand of pearls, a gift from the groom; something borrowed was a coin sack which contained two good luck pennies bearing the birthdates of the bride and groom, given the couple by Diana Glover; something blue was a lace garter given the bride by Mrs. Ralph Rucker.

Miss Pam Gresham of Lubbock was maid of honor. Mrs. John Preston Mack, Amarillo and Miss Winona Harmon of Austin were other feminine attendants. All were identically gowned in floor length dresses of leaf green satin featuring scooped necklines and minuet sleeves. Their empire waistlines were accented by mousse green velvet ribbons and bows. Velvet streamers cascaded the A-line skirt fronts.

Their headpieces were Dutch bows of identical fabric trimmed with mousse green velvet ribbon. Each carried bouquets of yellow glad blossoms showered with English ivy foliage.

Miss Jana Janda of Abbott, cousin of the groom, was flower girl. She wore a floor length gown, also of leaf green satin, styled as the bridal attendants. She wore a miniature Dutch bow in her hair and carried a flower trimmed basket filled with yellow rose petals.

Bert Rimmer, brother of the bride, was candlelighter.

Brynn Walding, cousin of the groom, served as best man. Groomsman were Joe Lee Dunn and Fred Thayer of Lubbock, Craig Edwards of Floydada and Gary Wilson of Amarillo. Ushers were Ken Rimmer, Amarillo, brother of the bride, Gary Hanks, Electra, cousin of the bride and Tommy Watts of Austin.

Mrs. Bob Copeland was organist and accompanied Miss Wren Patterson as she sang "At Dawning" and "The Wedding Prayer."

A reception followed the wedding, held in the parlor of the church. The bride's table was laid with white satin overlaid with nylon lace. A silver candelabra bearing lighted tapers highlighted the center arrangement comprised of the bridal attendant's bouquets. Mrs. Ken Rimmer and Mrs. Gary Wilson of Amarillo served the three tiered Colonial style cake which was decorated with yellow candied roses.

For a wedding trip to points in Colorado Mrs. Lindsey changed to a box suit of granada green tweed with beige accessories and green rolled brimmed hat. She wore the orchids from her bridal bouquet.

The bride and groom are both senior students at the University of Texas. Mrs. Lindsey is majoring in secondary education and her husband in mechanical engineering. They will be at home at 1515 C Enfield Road, Austin.

Among wedding guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Rimmer of Stockton, Calif., grandparents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Rafferty, grandparents of the groom; Mrs. Spencer Robertson, Waukegan, Ill., cousin of the groom; Jeff Steele and Mrs. Jana Janda and children, Abbott, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hanks and Mrs. Grace Carter of Electra, Mr. and Mrs. Derwood Finley, Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Duvell, Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Fergate Macks of Plainview, and Mr. and Mrs. Ken Rimmer of Amarillo.

The groom's parents were hosts for the rehearsal dinner held in the Colonial House.

Girl Scouts Help With Child For Summer Project

As a summer project this year, five young ladies from Girl Scout Cadet Troop 97 assisted in the medical therapy of Sienna Brown, four year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Brown of Floydada.

The youngster, who was born with a birth defect, has to undergo therapy twice daily for an hour and 15 minutes. There are three patterns in the therapy and Sienna has six a day, Mrs. Brown said, which requires five persons at each session. The treatment will have to continue for at least two years. It was started in May of this year.

Problem of the family now, since the Scouts are back in school, is to locate volunteers to assist with the therapy. Mrs. Brown said the series of therapy is usually started at 9 a.m. and is over by 10:15, the second is done in the afternoon. Anyone who could assist Mrs. Brown with her child, either in the morning or afternoon or both, are asked to contact her by phone, YU3-5249, or come by her home, 306 W. Olive.

The mother said Sienna's illness was discovered when she was nine months old. At present she has the capability of a nine or ten month old child, but in due time and within two to three years doctors say she will be walking with the love and care she is receiving.

The Browns return Sienna to the clinic in San Antonio every 60 days for a re-evaluation. This approximately two to four hour period is spent in checking the progress of the child. Mrs. Brown said since the home therapy by the Scouts started last May, Sienna has progressed very noticeably.

After the supper, the president, Mrs. Virginia Dyson, held a short business meeting, and Mrs. Tom Burrow, Secretary of Missionary Education, gave an introduction to the first study: Affluence and Poverty."

Those present were Mmes. Tom Burrow, Kyle Glover, Virginia Dyson, G. L. Bryant, M. R. Mathis, John McKinney, H. L. Thurston, M. L. Solomon, Worth Merry, Ernest Kendrick, P. A. Denison, Miss Norma Ruth Martin and the hostess, Mrs. L. F. Martin.

The next meeting will be September 26 in the home of Mrs. P. A. Denison.

At present she is taking nourishment from a bottle but Mrs. Brown said they had hopes of teaching her to eat from a spoon in the near future.

Girl Scouts performing the service for little Sienna were Kathi Conner, Nancy Williams, Kay Hodges, Teresa Tye and Marilyn Harris.

and its 93 pupils are divided among the first eight graders. School examiners objected, Guffee said, to classroom procedures the 7th and 8th graders experienced. Guffee said sometimes the 7th and 8th graders are instructed in the same classroom at the same time. Although programs of instruction are different, Guffee said, the state examiners thought the students were not getting the full benefit of schooling. Guffee also said class periods for the 7th and 8th graders average about 30 minutes. State examiners want 70 minute periods, he said. The state warned South Plains of possible accreditation loss last year, Guffee recalled. He said the only alternative to the present system would be to send the 7th and 8th graders to junior high schools in Floydada. Since the South Plains district encompasses 90 sections of land, Guffee said, some students are already forced to spend much time in getting to and from school. Floydada is 17 miles south of South Plains, and the superintendent said some students would have to get up at unreasonable hours in the morning to make it to Floydada classes.

High school students from the South Plains district already attend classes in Floydada. Guffee said the loss of state accreditation, in the case of elementary schools such as the one at South Plains is mainly one of status. He said no change would be made in the curriculum at South Plains and added that since students traveling to Floydada had done well in the past, he could see no reason why they shouldn't do so in the future. Guffee said students graduating from the South Plains school will have no trouble either in entering or studying at the Floydada high school. LOSS OF STATUS For a grade school, the loss means loss of status, mainly. But for a high school, it means loss of the superintendent's salary paid by the state and loss of vocational units. Graduates of un-accredited schools must pass a special test for their credits to be counted for college. TENTH GRADE The average educational achievement by Texans 25 or older at the last estimate (1960) was 10.4 years, Texas State Teachers Association research indicates.

FATHER OF MRS. HASLEY DIES

Center Re-Opens To Assist Needy Families

One hundred and forty families were given assistance during the 65-66 season. Women from local churches and clubs and from the surrounding communities have worked faithfully at the Center each Monday and Tuesday, assisting Mrs. W. S. Simmons, who is administrator. Many others worked from their homes making quilts and school clothing for the needy and many contributed to the fund at the First National Bank to purchase school shoes. Others assisted by bringing in clothing to the Center which their own children had outgrown and made the supply sufficient.

At present the organization needs to re-supply their school shoe fund. Their shoe account of $80 to purchase school shoes has been depleted to $5.36. Churches which contributed to last year's fund were City Park Church of Christ, First Baptist Church, West Side Church of Christ, Calvary Baptist, First Christian, Catholic, and Salvation Army.

Mrs. Wilson Fowler, who was chairman of the organization for 1965-66, said the Center would be open each Tuesday afternoon from 2:30 to 4:30 and each family is supplied with articles once a month. New officers will be Mmes. C. B. Lyles, C. W. Jones, Wilson Fowler, Gladys Badgett, Wesley Carr, Jack Whitfill, Claude Weathersbee and Rev. Juan Salinas and Faris Wilson. The welfare and charity group was organized in 1964 for the sole purpose of assisting needy families. The local Chamber of Commerce started the ball rolling by pulling all churches and their welfare groups into one. They were greatly assisted by the Salvation Army, who sent field representatives here to seek out qualified recipients. At this time Wayne Brown was chamber president.

paired or replaced if the vehicle is returned to an authorized GM dealer before the vehicle has been operated for 24 months or 24,000 miles, whichever comes first.

This is the third increase in warranty coverage announced by General Motors in the past six years. In October, 1960, GM announced a 12-month or 12,000 mile warranty on all parts of the vehicle except tires.

The liberal features of the new warranty have been made possible because of the continued leadership of General Motors in the field of automotive research, engineering and quality production.

Auto Safety Inspections For 1967 Begin

AUSTIN - Colonel Homer Garrison Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety announced today that the 1967 vehicle inspection period has begun.

Garrison said that the new inspection period began September 1 and will end on April 15, 1967 as prescribed by the Public Safety Commission. The inspection period is the same as in previous years.

"This means that between now and April 15, 1967, each of the five and one half million Texas registered vehicles will have to secure the new green and white 1967 inspection sticker from one of the 5500 official inspection stations," he said.

Garrison pointed out that Texas inspection stations can be identified by the official vehicle inspection station sign displayed at each station.

Garrison suggested that if motorists have their vehicles inspected during the routine visits to garages for ordinary maintenance, the necessity of having to wait in line at a later date for an inspection will be eliminated.

In announcing the new inspection period, the Public Safety Director pointed out that vehicle defects contributing to traffic accidents in Texas during 1965 were the fewest yet experienced since the inspection program began in 1951.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Mallard, Jonny, Tim, Janie and Danny of Lubbock and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Allen, Mike and Norman of Floydada.

Mrs. E. W. Walls went to Lockney Wednesday where she visited her sister, Mrs. D. D. Tate.

LETTERS to EDITOR

Mr. Wendell Tooley, Publisher The Hesperian Floydada, Texas, 79235

Dear Wendell:
The 22nd annual Boys Ranch Rodeo was the most successful our boys have ever put on, and the more than 8000 folks who drove to the Ranch to watch them ride was the largest crowd ever. For our 346 boys, thank you for the help you gave them with the advance publicity that I'm sure helped with the large attendance.

Our new Senior All-Around-Cowboys are Ronnie Nemsger from Perryton and Jimmie Burt, Odessa, and the Junior All-Around-Cowboy is Rocky Carter from Fort Worth. If there had been a Sportsmanship Trophy, I'm sure it would have been given to Newman "Soapy" Dollar who wanted so badly to win the Senior title again this year.

This is the kind of sportsmanship we try to instill in all our boys and that always makes us very proud of them. Again, we appreciate so much the help you have given them and hope you will be coming our way soon and can have a meal with them in the dining hall. With all good wishes to you, I am

Sincerely yours,
/s/ Cal Farley

New Funds For Great Plains Conservation Program

by Gary A. Batts
Congress has appropriated $18,500,000 for the Great Plains Conservation Program for the current fiscal year which began July 1. Floyd County's share of these funds amounts to $35,000. This money is available to farmers and ranchers in the Floyd County Soil and Water Conservation District for the purpose of applying complete soil and water conservation plans on their land.

The national appropriation is an increase over last year of about $2,000,000. This reflects the growing confidence our lawmakers place in the program. It is also welcome news to a backlog of landowners waiting for help in the program.

District Cooperators who have signed GPCP Contracts since July 1 are: Leslie Nixon, Jr., M.A. Ulmer, C.T. Morrison, Jr., Marble Brothers, and Bennie Case. These are the most recent of the 122 Floyd County producers who have participated in the Program since it began in 1957.

To participate in the Great Plains Conservation Program, the producer enters into an agreement with the Secretary of Agriculture to carry out needed conservation measures according to a schedule which may range from three to 10 years.

All cost-sharing for the entire job - ranging from 50 to 80 percent of the cost - is earmarked when the agreement is signed. The producer receives cost-share payments as he completes each step of the plan.

A number of landowners in the District will be putting acreage into the Cropland Adjustment Program (CAP) during the coming year. This same land may also be eligible for inclusion in the Great Plains Conservation Program, where cost-shares ranging up to 80% may be made for the establishment of permanent grasses.

Further information concerning the Program may be obtained by contacting the local Soil Conservation Service office.

Funeral rites for G. B. Jenkins, 78 year old Ralls resident and a resident prior to that of Floyd County for some 42 years, were held Thursday in the chapel of the First Baptist Church in Floydada.

Jenkins died Wednesday morning of last week in St. Mary's Hospital in Lubbock. Survivors include his wife; a son of the home; three daughters and 12 grandchildren.

Interment was in Floydada Cemetery under the direction of Moore Funeral Home.

Funeralbearers were Parnell Powell, Eddie King, Henry Galoway, Joy Ward, Bill Norris of Floydada, and Doug Roberts of Ralls.

The Senate, for the second time, rejected the proposed constitutional amendment to the Supreme Court's one-man, one-vote apportionment rule for state legislatures. Senator Everett Dirksen was the chief sponsor of the amendment.

Floyd Philosopher Claims He's Figured Out How To Make Both Sides Happy In Football

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm is out of his field this week, but that's his problem.

Dear editor:

Since a man can't spend all his thinking time thinking about international problems, and since every newspaper I've picked up here lately has been devoting more and more space to the new football season, from high school through college to the professionals, I have returned to a problem I've been working on for several years now.

It is: how can football be arranged so, after a game, everybody on both sides comes away happy? Like it is now, out of the thousands of games played every weekend, fifty percent of the people always leave the stadium sad, except in the case of a tie. No game, like no politician, can last if it can't make more than half the people happy.

My friends in town who are experts on the game say it can't be done, that there's no way for both sides to win, but I can't imagine a Great Society where only half the people come away from any event week after week happy. Who wants to settle for just 50 percent of a Great Society?

Therefore I have devoted considerable thought to this problem the last few days and while I haven't quite worked out a system where all unhappiness will be eliminated, I have cut it down to only 10 percent.

Like it is now, the average team plays 10 games, one a week for 10 weeks, with 50 percent of the fans being saddened every week. I can cut this to 10 percent.

It's simple. Don't have any winners or losers every week. Wait till the end of the season. Meanwhile keep running scores. At the end of the 10 weeks, add up the scores, and the team with the most total points wins. All the tears are thus put in one bucket. Not scattered out over the whole season. If some team beats you this week by 6 points, you figure on beating the next team by 12 points, and thus getting back in the running. You can see how this will improve scoring.

Sounds True

The economically-minded young bride was about to have her first baby. She phoned her husband, then frugally took a bus to the hospital reaching the entrance just in time to meet her husband arriving in a taxi.

I am glad to see my thoughts in the paper. As a matter of fact, I've settled the problem several times over there don't you ever attend to it?

Yours truly, J.A.
