

Caprock Chat

By WENDELL TOOLEY

WITNESSED with a fellow by the name of "Smelser" at Plainview Monday night renewed many memories of a friend that started 'way back in the thirties. It is inquired as to how our mayor was. Boss knew Mayor Leonard Matsler in the thirties because Mayor Matsler had for Boss at the Quick Lunch Cafe in view.

Back in those days a quarter would go a ways. Our family would load up in the Model A on Saturday and we'd go into view for the day.

As we had a little cafe just off Broadway was always crammed full about dinner. I could take that quarter, get a ham, a coke, see the movie and still have a dollar left over for Sunday School the morning.

Leonard... Boss said tell you hello" so... "hello."

WATER CONSERVATION outlook hasn't much farther than the Canadian, White and Mackenzie dam projects... but visiting with Marvin Shurbet, who is on state water board, my view has been expanded.

Marvin talks in terms of filling Palo Duro on with water... channeling water from Missouri River, from Canada and Alaska... of a network of dams with interconnections.

Water is the future of this country... we're mighty glad to have a Floyd County man like Marvin working for its condition.

WANT TO take this means of correcting error we had in last week's Hesperian we referred to Fred Lambert as the lady Fire Marshall. Bill Baker is the lady Fire Marshall and Fred is radio ator and fire truck driver.

So, some confusion has existed in the past who is the fire chief of the volunteer department. This is an elective position Jerry Finley is the fire chief.

SIX FRESHMAN girls playing on the basketball team last Friday night at time... and with the very good records in 7th and 8th grade girls teams... I say the future for girls basketball is... maybe state championships looks good for Floydada!

HERE'S NO NEWS that we'd rather print good news about our youth. Janet Holmes, sister of Riley Holmes made the dean's roll list at Texas Tech. Janet is major organ and must maintain a 3.0 average to make the dean's list.

Other young lady... Susan Hotchkiss, sister of Mr. and Mrs. John Hotchkiss has selected to model in the Dallas Spring Market. She will model for Sunny Inc. of Dallas... their petite Lois Fashions. She was selected to model by Hutchinson of Parkville, Mo. Susan is a graduate of Floydada High School.

John Hale, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hale, the Texas Tech marching band this year... pretty good for a freshman.

BACK IN THE THIRTIES... and early as there wasn't much gasoline and no TV... the interest of the folks around Kress... school activities were enjoyed by the community.

Particularly remember how the Kress High auditorium would be running over for annual Junior and Senior three act plays. It came to mind last week as our family did the musical comedy, "Get Up And Presented by the Floydada High School ch and music departments.

Congratulations to Jim Boyd and Edwina elder for a very entertaining production. crowd certainly enjoyed the program and seemed that the players enjoyed staging it. It's good to see a good show... and it's to see it well attended.

FOR GOOD President continues to take a lot criticism, yet the latest Gallup poll shows he heads the "Most Admired Men" list for our men have dropped out of the top ten this year's audit: Martin Luther King (in place last year), Hubert Humphrey

Melvin was able to get his pickup out of the garage and move some other equipment, but was only able to retrieve the dishwasher from the kitchen before the roof of the house caved in. ## TRUCK-TRACTOR ACCIDENT

Rites Pending For Christoval Aveles

Funeral rites for Christoval Aveles, 48, who lost his life in a truck-tractor accident near McCoy Saturday night, are pending awaiting the arrival of a son, Joe, who is in service in Korea.

Aveles was killed at 6:05 p.m. Saturday when a semi-truck struck the tractor he was driving and threw him from the tractor. The accident occurred about a mile west of McCoy on highway 54.

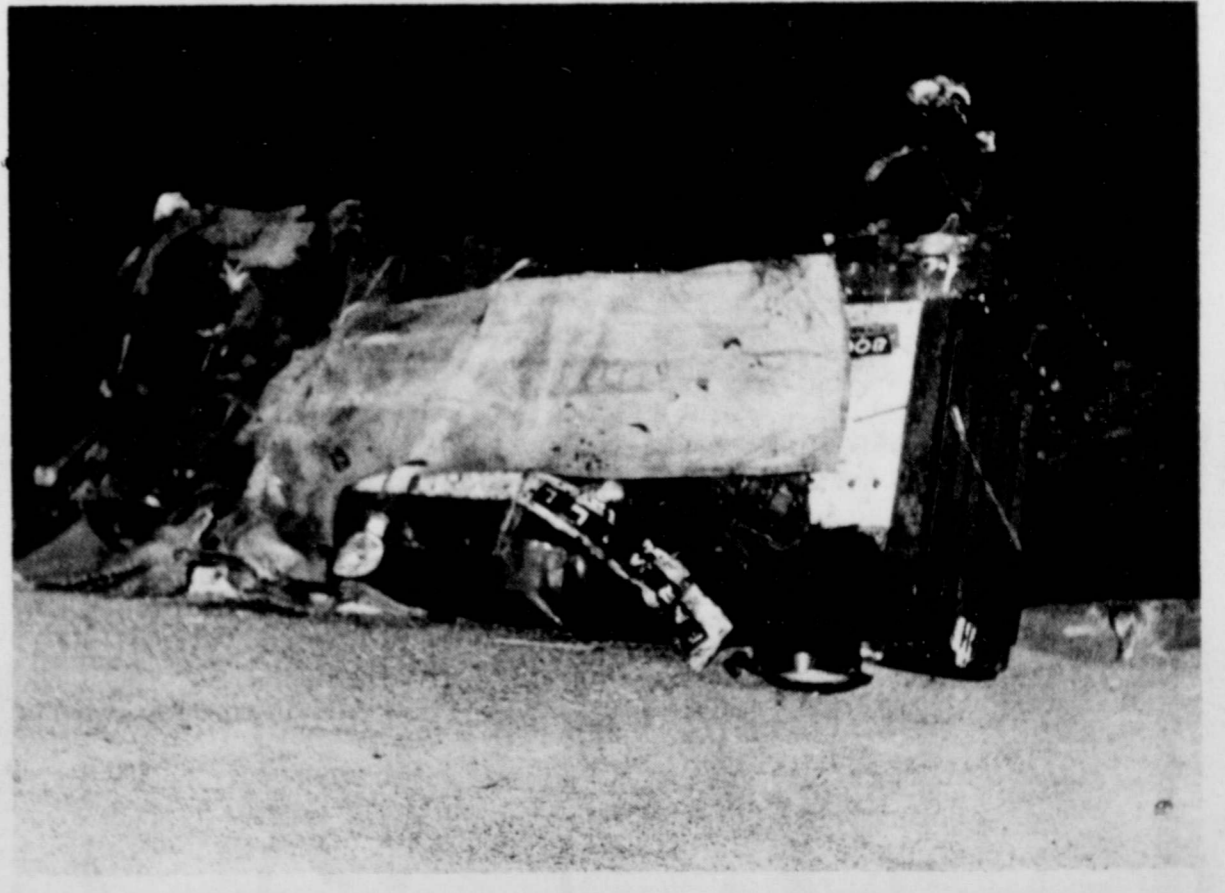

Highway Patrolman Gerald Howard, investigating officer, said both vehicles were traveling east. The truck driver, Bennie D. Britt, 49, route 2, Olney said the tractor started to make a left turn, then the tractor driver evidently saw his truck and cut back to the right into the path of the truck. The accident impact occurred in the south lane of the highway. The tractor was overturned at the edge of the pavement on the south side and the truck overturned in the north barrow ditch.

The truck was loaded with grain sorghum and the highway was blocked for awhile by the overturned truck and grain. Floydada Volunteer Firemen sprayed the area of spilled gasoline to prevent a fire.

A Moore-Rose ambulance rushed Aveles to Lockney Hospital where he was pronounced

"IN MEMORY OF THE PIONEER SETTLERS OF FLOYD COUNTY—upon whose enduring foundations we and those who come after us build. This bell, which for many years in the old courthouse tower rang the passing hours of their lives, is dedicated as a monument, in the year 1966." This reading is engraved on the plaque recently installed on the old courthouse bell monument which is viewed by County Judge Keller Holmes and Mrs. Maude Hollums. The Judge has been in Floyd County a long time, but Mrs. Hollums was the first white child born in the county. (Staff Photo)

Floydada Girl Selected To Model At Apparel Mart

We have always heard the stories that some of the greatest people, those with beauty, personality and talent are found in small towns and Floydada is no exception for one of our many lovely young ladies has been spotted "as an ideal model" by a representative of Sunny Isles Inc., of Dallas.

She is Susan Hotchkiss, 17 year old Floydada High School senior and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hotchkiss. She will go by plane Saturday to Dallas and be met there by relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Daily, who will be her chaperones during the three days activities.

Dear Louisa,
We have moved recently to a new town and our neighbors and friends in my husbands business have been very nice to us. We have been invited out to dinners and parties but most of these people have large houses and plenty of help. Now my problem is this: we live in a very small house but it has a nice patio. I do my own work. Do you think it would be proper for my husband and I to invite these people for hamburgers we could grill in the yard? We really can't afford steaks for that many people.
Puzzled-N.C.
Answer:
I'm sure that your friends would enjoy such an evening with you. You could have french fried potatoes, a green salad and cookies along with the hamburgers.
It is not necessary to pay every one back with the same kind of entertainment that you receive. Some people can afford more elegant hospitality than others and they really do not expect the same kind from others who are not as financially well off.
The mere fact that you wish to have them in your home will be appreciated.
Louisa.

Mothers March Of Dimes Set For Tuesday, Jan. 31

It has been announced that Tuesday, January 31, will be the annual Mothers March, for the March of Dimes. Mrs. Sammy Hale, Activity Chairman, will be heading the drive.

The chairman for the business district will be Mrs. Edward Wester. Here-to-fore, the mothers have requested that merchants bring their checks home to be available for the Mothers March. This would save a business district drive, and so many volunteer workers, but it hasn't proved successful, so the National Foundation will make an effort for all businesses and individuals to have a part in a program that continues to serve those who have had Polio, those with birth defects and support the Salk Institute for Biological Studies.

returned to Floydada and visited in the Ray Lloyd home until about 11:30. Mrs. Melvin Lloyd said one daughter, Terri, remained for the night with her grandparents.

She relates as they neared home they saw the red blaze of the fire and knew it was their place before they reached there. They stopped at neighbors to call the fire department but found out the fire had put phones on their party line out of commission. They were finally able to get a call through from the Gus Hammond's home.

The No. 1 pumper and the fire stationed emergency vehicle went to the scene along with volunteer fire department members.

Cause of the blaze was undetermined Tuesday. Mrs. Lloyd said when they left the house all fires were turned out and checked. She said the furnishings were partially covered by insurance.

The family is residing with the Ray Lloyds until future plans can be made.

Fashion

Featured in shops are soft textured wool suits that can be worn under coats or with furs now and which will be lovely as spring suits. The plaids and checks are particularly good in lucious colors.

Fur is used as a trimming on frocks and coats. It may be a mink collar or rabbit fur around the hem of a dress.

Skins for bags are in colors to harmonize with one's costume. They may hang from the shoulder or be of the pouch variety but, regardless of the type, they should be small and soft.

FILM REVUE

SPINOUT - Elvis Presley remains a good box office attraction and his latest film, Spinout, proves to be interesting and colorful.

Naturally, she wants to marry Elvis-and so does every attractive girl around the tracks and the place where Elvis leads a pop group. Elvis, however, lets them know he's not looking for a wife anytime soon. But the lovely young things keep hoping he'll weaken and they'll be the lucky one.

Your passport to the world

Your telephone can carry your voice to almost any corner of the globe at the speed of light. Pretty amazing when you stop to think about it. Fact is, you can reach 97 percent of the telephones in the world by Long Distance. And closer to home, you can call more people and more places in Texas than ever before. That's just one way your telephone service has grown in value over the years.

Another way is in transmission quality. Today's phone users can talk as though they were four feet apart. Back in the early 1930's, it was 35 feet. And the low cost of telephone service makes it a real bargain. Today you can make a three-minute, station-to-station call to any point in the continental United States (except Alaska) for $1 or less after 8 p.m. or all day Sunday. Better service to more places at lower cost. We think that's a winning combination.

Floydada's Rodney Teague Praised At West Texas

CANYON — "The last person off the court and the first one to hit it." That's how West Texas State University basketball coach Jimmy Viramontes sums up the dedication of his team quarterback Rodney Teague.

"I don't believe I've ever coached a more dedicated athlete," continues Viramontes. "Rod often works on his shooting for an hour or more after each practice. Sometimes I've even had to call him off the court to keep him from wearing himself out for upcoming games."

RODNEY TEAGUE

For Rod Teague hard work has paid off. The Floydada senior leads the Buffs in both field goal shooting percentage (.533) and free throw accuracy (.840). He also engineers the Buff offense.

"Rod's not the rah-rah type," says Viramontes. "He leads through his hustling example. Rod's been a pleasant surprise to us this season and it's mainly because of his great desire to excel. He's had to step into some pretty big shoes as Gail Simpson's replacement. I can't say enough about the way he's accepted this challenge."

Teague came to West Texas from Amarillo Junior College where he led the basketball team in scoring for two years. As a schoolboy, Rod was named to the class AA all-state team in both football and basketball. He quarterbacked three district championship teams.

"I was undecided on whether to concentrate on football or basketball in college," says Rodney. "Oklahoma State gave me a football scholarship and I won a freshman football letter before deciding to transfer to Amarillo College on a basketball scholarship."

In switching to basketball, Teague maintained his football role as quarterback.

"Rod's coolness under pressure has made him a fine floor general," says Viramontes. "His leadership has enabled us to score near upsets against two of the nation's finest teams, Colorado State and defending national champion Texas Western."

Against Texas Western Tuesday night, Rod hit 14 points while playing an outstanding

Whirlettes Lose, Boys Win Over Abernathy

The Floydada Whirlettes lost their position of tie for first place in the first round of play Tuesday night as they lost to Abernathy 34-40.

They just couldn't seem to click and ended the first round with a 5-2 record in district play.

Sally McIntosh and Marilyn Harris each made 12 scores for high point honors.

If the Whirlettes are going to make the district championship they must now win the last round in order to play Dimmitt, winner of the first round for the championship.

The Whirlettes play Dimmitt there Friday night and Hale Center there Tuesday night.

BOYS WIN

The Floydada boys team defeated Abernathy Tuesday night 66-62. Jeff Kimble scored 26 points for the high local scorer. The boys finish the first round with a 2-5 record. Dimmitt is winner with a flawless 7-0 record.

The boys play Dimmitt there Friday night and Hale Center there Tuesday night.

floor game. Defensively, he held Western's Kenny John scoreless.

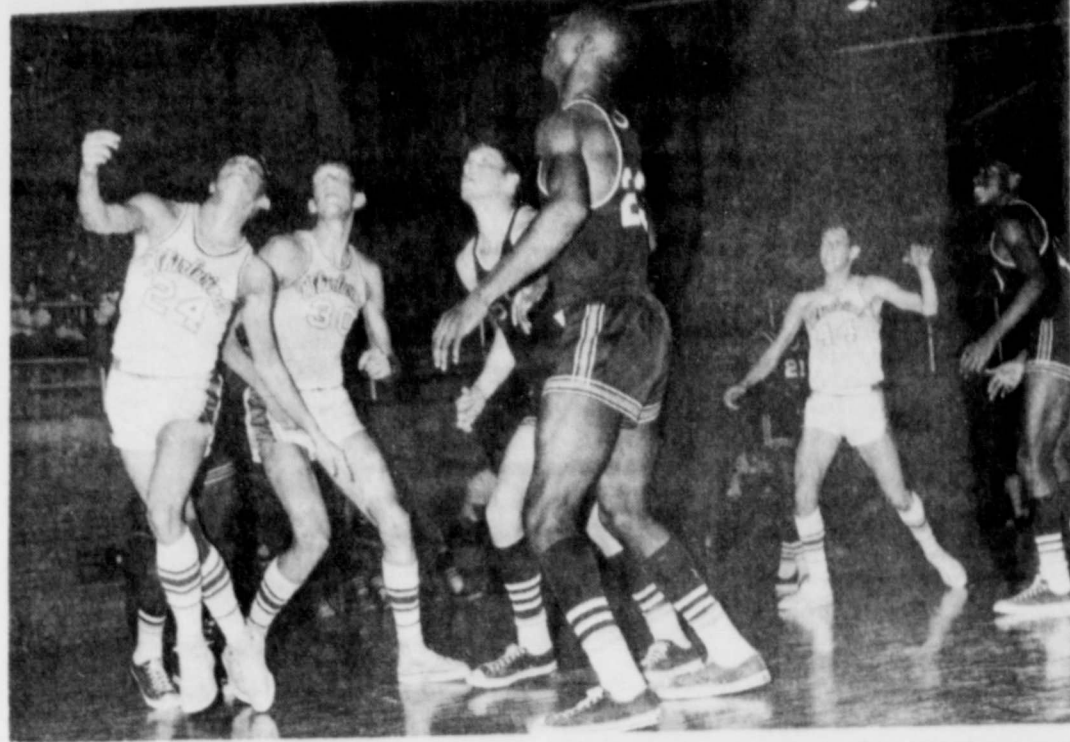

"Rod's also an improving scorer," says Viramontes. "He's averaging 8.6 points a game for us, but his main values lie in his quarterbacking and defensive play. In these departments he's one of the best and he improves with every game."

Aside from leading on the basketball court, Rod is also a leader in the classroom. A pre-dental student, Rod is a solid 'B' student. He's already been admitted to Baylor Dental School.

One of six married players on the basketball team, Rod and his wife Sara have three children, Rodney II and twin girls Tiffany and Tammy."

"When the final reports are tabulated, we will find that more people were killed in Texas traffic accidents during 1966 than in any prior year in the history of this state," the Sergeant stated. The final count is expected to be about 15% more than the 3,028 traffic deaths in 1965. This increase should be a challenge for every individual to put forth his best defensive efforts to prevent accidents during 1967.

45 Days Remain Until Stock Show

There are only 45 days remaining before the Floyd County Junior Fat Stock Show and Sale. It is almost a necessity for 4-H members to weigh their show stock periodically in order to know how to feed. Members should keep in mind that steer weights must be from 700 to 1200 pounds. Lambs must weigh from 80 to 120 pounds. A lamb will normally gain about 15 pounds in the time remaining before show time. This is an average figure, of course, and some individuals can gain considerably more. Members with lambs weighing 65 pounds or less at this time should consider a ration change for more rapid gain. Some rations can be fed that should enable a lamb to gain from 15 to 18 pounds. Barrows will have to weigh from 190 to 240 pounds. Barrows weighing 100 pounds at this time will have to gain an average of 2 pounds per day to make the minimum weight limit. Barrows weighing from 111 to 115 will have to gain an average of 1 3/4 pounds per day. Barrows weighing from 122 to 125 pounds will have to gain an average of 1 1/2 pounds per day to make the weight limit.

County 4-H members are urged to keep a close account of animal weight from now until show time. It is very discouraging for 4-H members to feed an animal for several months and then find it to be too light to meet weight requirements.

Heavier animals that are sure to be heavy enough need to be receiving plenty of exercise between now and show time. Heavy animals can also be fed a regulated ration in order to maintain a desirable finish.

DON'T LET THE STOCK SHOW SLIP UP ON YOU!!

No Title Program Funds Allocated

The Title I reading program in the local school and other Economic Opportunity Act programs of the federal government are being carried out in the local school system, and in schools throughout PESO Unit VIII, "mostly on faith alone" until the amount of money allocated to the State of Texas and from this amount to each participating school is released by Washington.

PESO Unit VIII Coordinator Henry Ford, Jr., explained that schools were guaranteed funds up to October, 1966, and the funds received then were for the quarter to follow, which is now almost over.

A decreased allocation for the remainder of the year is expected, but Ford said the allocation for next year is predicted to go up.

Ford explained that the Title I program was funded on the basis of the 1960 census of the economically deprived children (those whose parents were in the less than $2000 per year income bracket in 1960) plus the combined figures of the Migrant program.

Last year Texas received 77 million dollars, of which 71 million dollars was used in the program. All funds not used must be returned. It was thought earlier that the unused funds would be put up for redistribution, but this possibility has decreased. Ford said all redistribution depends on the National Education Chairman who has given no indication there will be any redistribution.

It is predicted Texas will receive about 65 million dollars for allocation to the schools this year, or 85 percent of the first year's allocation, and there is a possibility of an additional 6 percent decrease.

Actually funds for the program through the current quarter have been received and banked, and application for funds for the coming quarter has been approved. The Texas Education Agency, however, has not yet received figures on the amount which will be allocated to the state.

Information on the state allocation will come from the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, Ford explained. He added that part of the delay may stem from the fact that some counties in the nation have not yet responded to Washington on the previous program. All schools in the 44 PESO counties, he said, have turned in their reports.

In evaluating the programs Ford said, "Many of those students reading a year or so behind their grade level have been upgraded at twice the rate expected. If we can upgrade those who are behind, it benefits all the other students and certainly proves the worth of the program."

A brighter outlook is predicted for next year, when allocations will be based on the number of children whose parents were in the $2500 per year bracket in 1960 and on the Migrant Act of 1965, rather than 1963.

Ford concluded, "We

January 31 Final Date For Voter Registration

With only 1740 voters registered to date C. J. Payne, county tax assessor and collector, reminded Floyd county voters this week that less than two weeks are left in which to file application in the voter registration.

Persons between the age of 21 and 60 who do not register will not be eligible to vote during 1967.

Deadline for registering is on Tuesday, January 31, Payne said. Approximately 1500 persons have registered to date at the county courthouse and city hall in Lockney.

THERE IS NOTHING TO PAY IN ORDER TO BECOME A QUALIFIED VOTER, NOT EVEN A REGISTRATION FEE AS HADSOMETIMES BEEN DISCUSSED.

Persons who become eligible to vote during the year are not permitted to get a late exemption, but must register during the regular period. This applies especially to those who will become 21 during the year, and those who complete a year's residence during the year. The registration receipt will be marked as to the date that it becomes effective.

The over-age exemption is similar to the poll tax regulations in that a registration receipt is not necessary for those who are 60 or over if they live in a town of less than 10,000 population. Unlike the poll tax, the person need only reach the age of requirement by election day, not the previous Jan. 1.

Registration receipts must be written out by the tax assessor-collector's office staff. An application for voter registration certificate may be sent in if the qualified voter is unable to go to that office, but this application must be received through the mail or in person.

Another individual or organization could pass out the registration, but they may not be collected by that individual or organization for return to the tax office.

The application form printed on the back of your State and County Tax Statement may be used, a person may write to the tax office and request an application.

Registration may be made by a qualified voter only for himself, spouse, mother, father, son or daughter. This person doing the registering for these family members must himself be a qualified voter.

A registration blank is published on page two of this issue of The Hesperian for the voter's convenience. It may be filled out and mailed to the county tax office.

Judges for the Floyd County Stock Show have been secured. They are: Charles Beedy, Hutchinson County Agent - Steer Judge; Donald Berrwinkle, associate professor - West Texas State University - Swine Judge; and Cotton Neely, Vo-Ag instructor Monterey High School in Lubbock - Sheep Judge.

Sifting the stock this year will be Euel Limer, Lubbock Swine Breeders Association and Calvin Helm, a stock farmer from Blackwell, Texas. Calvin will also do the classifying of the lambs. This year the lambs will be classified as they are weighed in the first morning of the show. They will be sifted as usual in the afternoon.

The other major change in the stock show rules for the 1967 show is the minimum weight for barrows will be 190 pounds. In past years 180 pounds was the minimum weight.

The county show is scheduled to get under way Monday March 6 with sifting and classifying on animals that day. The animals will be judged March 7 and the show will conclude March 8 with the auction sale of prize winning animals.

with natural fibers. For best results, wind bobbin at a low tension with the same thread as used for the needle thread. The type and weight of the fabric will determine the size of the needle. Lightweight fabrics sew best with a size No. 11 Needle and medium or heavy weight fabrics with a No. 14 needle. The throatplate on the machine should have a round hole. A wide oval opening used for zig-zagging may cause seam puckering.

For most woven fabrics, 10 to 12 stitches per inch are satisfactory. Light tension applied to fabric during sewing reduces pucker. You can easily reduce pucker by applying a little tension to the fabric both behind and in front of the needle, being careful not to pull the fabric through the machine. Sew at an even moderate pace.

For knitted fabrics, the number of stitches per inch may affect seam extension. Normally when 12 to 18 stitches per inch are used, the result will be satisfactory seam in both elasticity and strength.

SELECTION OF PATTERN
Choose a pattern with minimum of seams and prominent top stitching. Designs that involve bias seams, hidden or covered seams and minimum ease are the most satisfactory.

FINDINGS
The need for low shrinkage in components cannot be stressed too emphatically. They should withstand hand or machine washing, tumble drying, and pressing. Ideally the components should be identified as durable press.

Interlinings, linings, tapes, sewing thread, and bindings of nylon or Dacron polyester are recommended.

Zippers with synthetic fiber tapes are suggested. Zippers with cotton tapes will be satisfactory if they have been preshrunk and the correct machine tension is used during stitching. Tapes can be preshrunk by washing several times followed by drying and pressing. Do not iron the teeth of a zipper. Metal teeth will scratch the iron and nylon teeth can be deformed at ironing temperatures. Nylon zippers should be closed and covered with a press cloth when pressed.

CUTTING
Knitted fabrics can be spread and cut similar to woven fabrics. The major difference is that knitted fabrics do not have a grain in the same sense as does a woven fabric. The pattern should be placed along a straight lengthwise rib. Edge folds of circular knit fabrics should not be used unless the creases can be satisfactorily removed at recommended temperatures. If cut edges have a tendency to roll, pin them together. Avoid wax tape marking materials as they tend to stain when pressed.

SEWING
Fabrics made with synthetic fibers require lower thread tension than do fabrics made and on the straight of the fabric. Pull seams and if the thread breaks, increase the number of stitches or loosen the tension. Continue testing until stitching does not break when pulled. Feed the fabric evenly through the machine. Avoid undue pulling or pushing as you sew.

PRESSING
Unwanted creases accidentally pressed into a garment are too often difficult to remove. Therefore, only flat pressing should be done before the final seam line and creases are established.

Temperatures for pressing durable press fabrics will generally be higher and will depend upon the weight of the fabric and the number of thicknesses. Press with a hot iron with little, if any, steam, using slow but firm strokes. If the color of the fabric permits, and no scorching or shrinking occurs, a higher temperature may be used for a shorter length of time. Test the fabric scraps to determine the best time and temperature.

Lyndon Philosopher Says The President Or Anybody Has A Right Not To Like His Picture

of it, I've had about as many droughts and frozen water pipes under the Republicans as the Democrats, but I have decided to come out squarely in defense of the President of the United States on a certain matter.

According to a dozen or so

GUEST EDITORIAL

JIM RAY, front up in Hale County, sent me a copy of a column by an old comrade in arms, Bob Considine, which ran a week or so ago in the San Antonio Light. Bob's thesis was: "Let's lay off Lyndon Johnson this week."

There are no better writers around than Bob Considine, so it is not surprising that his points were succinctly made. He noted that the President is being blamed for countless things—ranging from starting the war in Vietnam to the draft deferment of George Hamilton—not of his making. He argued, tellingly, that the very nature of the Presidential job is such that whoever holds it must make decisions every day which must be unpopular with many people.

A great many people always are ready to "follow the crowd." So of late, as the President's detractors have been having a field day, many of the rank and file have joined in with a whoop and a holler. If we've been told once that the President's popularity is miraculously high, has slipped noticeably, we've been told it 1,000 times. Actually, the popularity of all Presidents goes up and down like a yo-yo and Mr. Johnson has broken out no new trails in this department.

AN EVEN better idea that "Let's lay off Lyndon Johnson this week" would be, it seems to me, an honest description in depth of the President, done for the widest dissemination by someone who has known him intimately for a long period of time and who has unusual ability in communicating facts.

Whether Bob Considine knows the President intimately enough to do the job I do not know. But former Texan Bill White, now of the Washington press elite, does and so do several working newspapermen in Texas. One is Charlie Green, editor of the American Statesman in Austin. Another is Harry Provence, editor of the Waco News-Tribune. Still another is Bob Baskin, of the Dallas News. And they are not, by any means, the only ones.

Men of personal and professional integrity, they knew the President before he became prominent. They knew him as a Congressional secretary, as a member of the House and Senate. They know him now. They have traveled with him through the years, have lived with him, seen him, suspenders dangling, with shaving soap on his face. They know him as a human being, not as a perambulating national monument, which is how all Presidents appear to most people.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON, like the rest of us, is neither a saint nor a devil. He is a man of many moods; his personality has many sides.

Writing men, like those mentioned above, could give the public an accurate and encompassing picture of the Man in the White House, one which 99.44 per cent of his fellow Americans have never seen. This picture should be drawn now, not left to history, certainly not to his enemies.

The country knows the President as a man of tremendous energy. The people have been told that he is a driver, and he is; that he can get as mad as the fellow next door at times and, even as you and I, sometimes may show a flash of honest anger or indignation.

What they don't know is that Lyndon Johnson can be and often is a very gentle and sympathetic man, a man of great understanding and tolerance. What they don't know is that Lyndon Johnson to this good day never has forgotten an old friend, that he has a talent for gratitude; that he is an open-handed, gracious host in his own home, a man with deep affection for family and friends.

Actually, President Johnson, the man, is about as human as they come. He is not the ogre that his political foes, including those who'd grab the Presidential post for themselves if they could, would have people believe.

AS ONE who has known the President quite well over a long period of years and who is personally fond of him, I'd be the next to the last man to contend that he is perfect. The last one to so argue would be the President, himself.

Also, despite long friendship and affection, I don't agree with all Mr. Johnson, as a public official, has done and seeks to do. But our differences are honest. Although he is aware of them, his personal attitudes toward me are as they always have been: warm, friendly, kind, thoughtful and generous.

This is the Lyndon Johnson people do not generally know but, nevertheless, he is the Lyndon Johnson they should know and have a right to know.

Somebody ought to do a personality study on the President, fully aboveboard and without thought of gilding the lily, for national circulation.

As a human being, as well as the head of the greatest nation in the world, he has that coming to him.
(The Plainsman)

articles I've seen in the news papers the last couple of weeks, some historical outfit in Washington hired an artist to paint a picture of President Johnson, and when the picture was shown to him he blew his top. Said it looked awful. Wasn't him at all.

Now some people have questioned the President's artistic taste in this matter, in view of the fact the picture was painted by what is called a recognized artist.

I don't know what the President's artistic tastes are, doubt if he ran on that platform, and I know he wouldn't have to have come to beat me hands down and possibly a few others around here I could name, but that's beside the point.

Because, if there's one freedom that ought to endure in America, it's the freedom not to like a picture of yourself, to throw it in the waste basket if you want to without explaining to anybody.

What a person looks like to himself, after years of confrontation in a mirror, is altogether different from what he looks like to others, and especially to a camera or a painter.

A man's face may look like a delapidated barn, but it's what he's used to, and even a delapidated barn, if you've been away from it a long time on a long trip on unfamiliar ground, looks good when you return home.

My theory is that most people, after looking at their face for 40 or 50 years, are fairly well satisfied with it. Oh, they might make a minor change here or there, but on the whole they rather like it, they've concentrated on the good points so long and looked around the bad it's a shock to discover it may look to others like the north side of a craggy mountain.

If a man doesn't like a picture of himself, whether he's a busted farmer or the President of the United States, he's got an inalienable right to say so. There are some freedoms still left in this country.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Yarborough Newsletter

Dear Fellow Texan:

In the weeks since the adjournment of the historic 89th Congress, these weekly reports have described much of the important legislation that has been passed in the two great years of that Congress. Now, as a New Year dawn, another Congress - the new 90th - will soon be seated in the Nation's Capitol. It is my firm belief that the prospects for this New Year 1967 and the new 90th Congress are as broad and vigorous as we want to make them.

When I return to Washington for the session which opens Tuesday, January 10, it will be to take up the new challenges of making continuing progress in the field of education for youth, for Social Security advances for our retirees and older persons, for better health for all the people and for the broader opportunities needed in jobs, business and agriculture.

1967's FIRST BABY born at Crosbyton Clinic-Hospital was to a Floydada couple, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Smith. Judith Ann, seven pounds and 10 ounces, arrived at 4:03 a.m. Saturday, Jan. 7. She was named for the wife of Dr. C. M. Bradshaw of Crosbyton. Mr. and Mrs. Smith also have two sons, ages three and two. (Photo courtesy of Crosbyton Review) the Big Thicket area in Southeast Texas may be permanently preserved. This is the third national park bill that I have authored for Texas. Padre Island National Seashore Park was set aside in 1962 and in 1966 Congress created Guadalupe Mountains National Park in the trans-Pecos region.

Another major objective in this new session of Congress is to make sure the progressive health, education and welfare programs do not die for lack of money. These are programs won after a quarter of a century of battle and must be carried forward for the education, growth and strength of our nation. For these are the very backbone of our great country's might.

Let's make 1967 a year of progress and peace and prosperity. This is the New Year. Let us work together to make it a better year for all Americans. Let us expand job, health, and educational opportunities, while we hold down inflation and roll back the expanding high interest rates.

Rites Held For Mary R. Crum

Funeral rites for Mary Rebecca Crum, 85 year old longtime Floydada resident, were conducted Saturday in the First Methodist Church. Rev. Charles Lutrick of Amarillo, former pastor here, and Rev. Herschel Thurston, officiated.

Miss Mary, as she was affectionately called by those who knew her well, died in University Hospital in Lubbock about 1:30 p.m. Wednesday, January 11. She had been in failing health for a number of years from a heart condition and was admitted to the hospital December 23rd.

The deceased was born in Hood County, Tex., Jan. 29, 1881. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Crum. Following the death of her parents, Miss Mary, along with a sister, Miss Lucy Crum and a brother, the late M. A. Crum, came to Floydada in 1913. The brother died March 8th, 1962. Miss Lucy of Floydada is the sole survivor other than several cousins.

Miss Mary operated a gift shop the first few years of her life in Floydada and later went into the sewing and alteration business. She later moved to Amarillo where she did alterations for White and Kirk, then to Waco where she was in the same employment for Cox's Dept. Store, then moved to Plainview where she operated a sewing and alteration shop there. Some five years ago Miss Mary moved back to Floydada to help care for her ill brother and since that time had been making her home with her sister.

The deceased was a member of the First Methodist Church and of the Wesley Sunday School class.

Burial was in Floydada Cemetery.

Court rules segregated jails unconstitutional.

1967 OFFICERS of Floydada 4-H were installed this month. They are left to right, Teresa Colston, recording secretary; Lee Snor, parliamentarian; Lu Ann Lovell, reporter; Billy Finley, president; Joe Jones, correspondent secretary and Brenda Willis, vice president.

MIGAKU SATO - Floydada foreign exchange student, is seen chatting with Billy Finley, Floydada 4-H club president. Migaku brought the program and showed slides at the installation meeting of the club recently.

Lockney School Taxes Going Up

According to a school board report in the Lockney Beacon last week the Lockney school board announced that school taxes would be raised.

Assessments on real and personal property were raised from 60 to 75%.

The board also extended the contract of superintendent Johnny Mason through July of 1970.

The board also gave several reasons for the tax increase:

1. PROJECTED INCREASE IN THE ECONOMIC INDEX. This increase is brought on by the fact that Floyd County has decided to equalize the county tax structure. This, of course, will also increase the school taxes of all residents due to the fact that the Economic Index is based upon State and County values. It is our understanding that this job is almost complete and represents a considerable increase in the county's tax obligations.

2. The loss of a C.T.U. The classroom Teaching Units we are allowed to use and receive state aid money on is determined by the number of students we have in attendance each day for the entire year. Due to the fact that we lost students last year, and at the same time, had poor attendance at other times, we lost a C.T.U.

If we continue to have poor attendance and keep on losing our students we will lose another for the coming year. Each of these C.T.U.'s represent about $4,000 to the school. When we have to replace a C.T.U., we have to draw on our local funds.

3. COST OF OPERATION. We are all very much aware of the tremendous increase in the cost of living. The school is also caught up in the middle of this increase. We anticipate an operational cost of at least 5% for the coming year.

4. INCREASE IN THE LOCAL FUND ASSIGNMENT. The Local Fund Assignment is the School District's proportionate share of the State's educational cost. Our share, as is mentioned above, based on the economic index. Last year our share was $48,468. We expect a very large increase this coming year due to two factors:

(1) Increase cost in state and local education.

(2) Increase in State and County values due to re-evaluation of the county tax structure.

5. TEACHER PAY RAISES. Several years ago the state gave each teacher a pay raise. At that time the Lockney Independent School District had a commendable surplus of money on hand. Rather than raise taxes to meet the required raise, the Board chose to use this surplus. This is now depleted.

Last year, the Board gave to all classroom teachers who did not otherwise receive a bonus, a $200 dollar pay raise. The economic situation has already consumed this pay raise. If we are to continue to obtain good teachers, it will be necessary to raise this even more. Too, it will be necessary to raise the pay scale above this scale in order to obtain good math and science teachers in the future.

These needed raises would cost an additional $10,000.

6. INCREASE COST IN SOCIAL SECURITY. The Lockney Independent School District has been in the Social Security program for more than five years. This year our contributions increased some. Our annual contributions from local obligations will exceed $12,000.

7. DEPLETION OF DEBT SERVICE SURPLUS. About two years ago the Board adjusted the tax rate on the debt service rather than raise the tax rate on the bonded indebtedness. At that time there was a surplus in this fund. However, for two years we have been forced to drain this fund.

The state desires that we keep at least one year's surplus in this fund to offset any bad collection year. In order for this to be done, the debt service fund will have to be rebuilt considerably.

The new assessments for the coming year will reflect the increase in our tax structure. Assessments are expected to begin in the very near future. It is hoped that by informing each tax payer in the district of the reasons for the need of a tax raise, that it will create a better understanding among all concerned.
