667 Pioneers Sign Register At Reunion

Six hundred and sixty-seven pioneers registered at the Old Settler's Pioneer Reunion Saturday and most remained throughout the day and evening catching up on visiting and spinning yarns of yesteryears. Of that number over four hundred were served free barbecue, sponsored by the co-ops of Floydada. Those in the county less than fifty years were able to purchase meal tickets. The rains held off until Sunday. Floydada residents, J. S. Copperell, 93 and Mrs. Mather M. Carr of the Harmony Community were judged the oldest man and woman at the reunion. A. T. Sneyton and Mrs. C. Q. Wise were named as the oldest man and woman in the parade. Pioneer traveling the greatest distance was Claude Cash of San Diego, Calif. Lockney cheerleaders "Howdy Yall" float placed first in the community division and a pony drawn covered wagon carrying members of the J. T. Poole family placed first in the parade's pioneer float division and Homebuilders Home Demonstrator Club was first in club floats with their "quilted bee party." Other winners in the best pioneer float were Floydada First Family, second, and Davis Fagin Supply, third. Best commercial float, Greenhouse Tomatoes, first, Casey Curiosity, second and Producers Co-op, third. Athena Junior Study Club was second in best club float. Lockney won first with the largest participating band and Floydada was second. First in best decorated bicycle was Rusty Cagle, Brooks Carroll, second and Paul McIntosh, third. Best sulky, Dirk and Kevin Nelson and second, Chris Johnston. Best Shetland Pony: Johnna West, first; Leta Adams, second; and Lisa West, third. Bobby Rogers of Plainview drove the winning Pierce Arrow automobile as judges viewed 20 antique autos in the parade. Joe Johnson of Crosbyton placed second with James D. Stair of Plainview third. Bill Wisdom and Mrs. G. C.

Applewhite, both of Lockney, were judged best dressed old-time cowboy and girl. Silverton's sheriff's posse placed first in the senior riding club division with Petersburg second and Floydada third. Floydada junior rider placed first, Lockney second, and Plainview Community third in the junior division. Lisa West of South Plains and Pedro Rodriguez of Floydada were chosen as best junior sow-girl and boy with Terry Sue Nicholson of South Plains and Rex Breed of Floydada placing second. Rev. W. D. McReynolds of Lockney, J. T. Johnson of Dickens, and A. G. Graham and Jim Holman, both of Crosbyton, served as parade judges. WINDOW AWARD Lockney Young Homemakers Club won the best antique window display award. Second place award was given to Mrs. W. C. Cates of Floydada. Third place winner is Mac Smitherman, also of Floydada. G. L. Fawver of Floydada was elected president of the 1967 reunion. Other officers are Gerald Lackey of Cedar Hill, vice president; Miss Anne Sneyton of Floydada, secretary, and H. E. Frizzell of Lockney, treasurer. Joe Reeves presided over the business meeting. Names of deceased pioneers were read by Robert Lee Smith and prayer voiced by Bert Bobbitt. GUEST SPEAKER Drawing on memories of the faded times "When the windmills drew the water and the cows cut the wood," H. G. Nelson, prominent Lubbock attorney, farmer and rancher, struck the keynote in his address to the old settlers here last Saturday morning on the courthouse lawn. Closely connected with the fight for more water on the South Plains, Nelson was accompanied to Floydada by Marvin Shurbet, whose position as vice-chairman of the water conservation work centering around Lubbock was described as "not less important than being governor of this state." After the introduction by Hubert Frizzell, prominent Lone Star and Lockney civic leader, Nelson began in humorous vein. Apologizing for having been on the Plains "only 44 years," he promised, "Give me six more years and I'll be an old-timer, too." Speaking of the "Good old times," he declared, "You can just have 'em." Rev. Buenger Dickson To Pastor Aspermont Methodist Church

The Rev. Buenger Dickson has received the appointment of the Aspermont First Methodist Church and moves today. Dickson has served the focal First Methodist Church as assistant pastor the past year. The Floydada pastor, Rev. Herschel Thurston, and others at Carr's Chapel and Lockney were returned. DEWITT SEAGO Another appointment at the annual Methodist conference in Abilene was the appointment of Dr. H. Dewitt Seago, former pastor here, to the First Methodist Church in Pampa. He was formerly district superintendent of the Brownfield district of Methodist Churches. Dr. Jordan Grooms, pastor of the Polk Street Methodist Church in Amarillo, received the Brownfield District superintendent appointment. The Rev. Harry Vanderpool moves from Pampa to Polk Street. Dr. Seago became district superintendent in 1963. Prior to his Floydada appointment he served churches in Seminole and Lubbock. Complete appointments for SEE DICKSON, PAGE 2

"The Restless Ones" Here June 1, 2, 3

"The Restless Ones," considered the most successful motion picture yet produced by Evangelist Billy Graham, will be shown in Floydada on June 1, 2, and 3 at the Palace Theatre. With the accent on youth, this feature-length film deals imaginatively and dramatically with the teen-age crisis. With a background setting provided by the 1963 Billy Graham Los Angeles Crusade, and artfully woven into the story pattern, "The Restless Ones" is a hard-hitting, bold approach to our social problems. Here is a film which dares to be different, a story which will stir the heart and mind. Having seen "The Restless Ones," you will never be the same. As one reviewer said, "Here is a picture that tells the world the truth and comes up with an answer, not an easy answer, but an answer from beyond us." This answer will satisfy, challenge and inspire young and old alike and will appeal to church-goers and non-church-goers. The Christian message comes through in the midst of a realistic teen-age situation, cleanly and without cloying. Swift-moving plot episodes highlight the opportunities facing the church. Screen writer James Collier has skillfully brought into focus the contemporary plight of both teenagers and parents. A sensitive script, produced by World Wide Pictures under the direction of Dick Ross, has resulted in a "break-through" in "The Restless Ones."

AND THE RAINS CAME

Hail Strikes Area; Crop Damage High

What started out as welcomed rains Sunday turned into a lashing devastating sight Tuesday evening, following about 45 minutes of pounding hail and wind-driven rains which struck parts of Floyd County and the city. Dark clouds started forming shortly after 1 p.m. and a few minutes later hard rains began, then hail, and the skies turned black as night. Very few downtown people were caught out in the storm as it was a holiday for most, but those who were working stayed at their posts, hoping for the best. Vehicles parked out in the open sustained very little damage if any. The hail was from pea to marble size, and enough fell for it to bank up in places like snow. Crops were wiped out from this side of Petersburg across to Sandhill, southeast across Blanco Community and northwest to several miles past the cemetery on the Silverton Highway. The Simpson brothers, who all have farm land in the Blanco area, said their onions, peppers, wheat and cotton was a total loss; some maize may be saved, Buster said late Tuesday, however other crops, especially wheat is 100 percent lost. Buster said he estimated about 3 inches of rain fell from the Tuesday storm; however, he couldn't be certain, as hail broke his rain gauge. An inch and a half fell in that area Sunday, bringing the total from five to six inches in some parts. Buster said the storm damage looked as if it started about Harmony community across Blanco and a little west of Sandhill, and moved toward Floydada. Tom Sneed said there was no serious damage at Barwise where from four to six inches of rain has fallen since Sunday. Onions and young cotton were hailed out south of Sandhill and the condition worsened on east of there. Charlie Perry, John Hoffman, Red Watts and Ernest Lee Thomas are among the many others reporting heavy damaged crops west of Floydada. Perry said he recorded 3.5 in his rain gauge, but feels that sand collected in the gauge, mixed with the rain, might have kept the gauge from being accurate. He said he felt sure they

Guar Proving Good Cash, Conservation Crop In Southwest

Bill Cagle, manager of Producers' Cooperative Elevator, announced this week that several area farmers are considering planting Guar, new cash crop. An educational meeting will be held Friday night, June 2, at 8:00 p.m. in Floydada High School auditorium for the benefit of all farmers and land owners in the area to learn about producing Guar. There will be several qualified people on hand to discuss and answer all questions concerning your present farm program status in regard to planting this crop. Cagle also stated that Guar was no miracle crop, but it offers farmers a double-barreled benefit with its cash returns from bean production along with substantial soil-conditioning benefits for increased yields of cotton or grain that follows in rotation with Guar. Guar is relatively easy to plant and harvest. No special equipment is needed. Standard row crop equipment and a regular grain combine are the requirements for producing the crop. Guar, being a crop in demand, offers the grower a guaranteed contract. While only 1.00 of the total Guar used is now grown in the United States, it is logical that it can become a new crop for our area farmers. Guar is not a noxious plant. In fact, its uses are in the food and paper industries. Planting dates for our area would be from now until July 1. Guar seed needs to be inoculated as soybeans, with a Guar inoculant. Guar is a plant that is known to reduce the effect of rootrot and insect damage on cotton. Guar can be grown on our dry land as well as on irrigated farms in Floyd County because it is a plant that is drought tolerant and thrives in hot weather.

Head Start Program Begins Next Tuesday

Federal assistance for our "Headstart" program has been verified and classes will begin Tuesday, June 6. All persons who have pre-registered their children are asked to bring them Tuesday morning, June 6 at 8:00 for final registration. Birth certificates must be presented before the child will be admitted to the "Headstart" program. Transportation will be furnished to all children beginning Tuesday afternoon. A school bus will be used to carry students who live in town and car pools will be used to transport children whose parents live outside the city limits. Only those children whose parents live in the Floydada Independent School District will be admitted to "Headstart," due to the large number of local parents who have shown interest in their children attending the program. Mrs. Lloyd L. Hardy, Mrs. Edna Phillips, and Mrs. Annie Taylor will be "Headstart" teachers, and they will have one paid assistant each. Classes will be limited to fifteen students and accident insurance will be carried on all students and aides. Medical and dental

ONE OF THE FIRST LOADS of 1967 wheat to hit town last Wednesday was this one from Odell Breed's farm one mile west and one mile north of Lakeview. It was making around 20 bushels to the acre and was irrigated one time. Pictured is Bill Cagle testing the wheat, Neil Bertrand, Joe Vergara and Bertrand children, Penny, Becky and Jeff. HEADSTART, examinations and follow-up treatments will be furnished for the children as well as school supplies, morning snack, lunch and playground necessities.

"Headstart" is primarily designed to help those children who are disadvantaged because they are lacking in the most elementary experiences. We will have children who have never seen a picture book or had a story read to them. Some have never eaten foods which are everyday dishes in many homes. Many have never ridden a tricycle, played with a doll, or had "dress-up" clothing.

The needs of these children are too numerous to list. Since they need individual attention and understanding, many of our study clubs, churches, high school groups, and other organizations may have members who would be willing to volunteer to come to school and assist in the program. Volunteers may read stories to the children, help direct their play periods, help teach a child how to feed himself with a fork or spoon, show him how to color a picture or how to flush a commode and wash his hands. The rewards for a job of this kind are reaped from the children themselves. One little smile or a tug at her hand will keep a teacher or volunteer going a long time. Other items are also needed in the "Headstart" program which can be supplied by the community. Some of the items which would be welcome are old clothes for dress-up play, tricycles, scooters, rocking horses or spring suspended horses, toys to ride in or on, dolls, toy trucks, cars, and tractors, and any number of things which your children have outgrown or discarded. Even toys which are broken or damaged can be fixed by parents of the "Headstart" children or by volunteers. If you are willing to help in any way with the "Headstart" program contact Bob Copeland at R. C. Andrews Elementary School.

got four inches Tuesday. The hail beat slates off the roof of the Perry home and apparently the cotton and other young crops were pretty well cleaned out in his area. Perry said it would take considerable time to make a detailed check as to major damages.

At the Baptist Encampment Mrs. E. D. Morgan said the canyon floor held plenty of water after the storm. She said Wednesday morning, "We haven't been able to find all our picnic tables yet," however, water which was on the rise late Tuesday has subsided. She said the hail broke their rain gauge and they suffered some glass breakage in the camp homes and in their house as well, but no major damage. She said the water backed up to the office lawn on the west side and up to the paved road, commenting the creek rise "as big as we have ever seen."

At the Country Club that's a story within itself for some people. Those that were at the club walked out, leaving their vehicles, and Mrs. Sam Gilbreath, who is the wife of the caretaker there, had to walk down the canyon rim to reach her home. She said she was in Floydada when the storm hit and couldn't get her car back across the creek, so they walked down, as did Bobby Westfall.

Mrs. Gilbreath said a pick-up was stranded in the quarter mile strip of gravel road under water leading off the highway to the Country Club. Her husband, on a tractor, went to the driver's aid and the tractor slipped into a ditch by the cattle guard bridge. Water came up waist deep on Gilbreath while he was seated on the tractor, Mrs. Gilbreath said, and water was at least three and a half feet deep at that point. The driver of the pick-up was rescued from the vehicle, witness said. Water was up to windshield level on the pick-up.

Morgan McReynolds said he and several others went to the Country Club after the storm subsided, to sightsee the damage, not realizing at the time White River was on the rise. They were stranded at the Club and he along with some nine other men, walked out, leaving their vehicles which they retrieved yesterday morning.

Westfall said No. 2 Green was completely submerged at one time and No. 7 was under part of the time. They had had hail, some the size of golf balls.

Water from White River was across Highway 62 for some time, but traffic moved.

Downtown, most complaints were of high water. Several families had to be evacuated from their barracks homes near Farmers' Co-op Gin in the north part of Floydada, about 4 o'clock, the area which seemed to be the hardest hit in the city. Mrs. Roy Kinard reported seven of their small window panes were broken out of their picture window which faces north and paint was stripped from the house roof by hail. A check with City Hall, Southwestern Public Service and Lighthouse Electric showed no damaged lines. Several cavens have occurred around pipe lines on dirt streets in the city, and more than one driver has had the misfortune of having his car wheels falling into them when driving across.

Sam Baker, local insurance man, said late yesterday reports were coming in fast on roof damage in northwest Floydada.

F. C. Harmon reports that again, as is always true in a big rain, the water backed up on the west side of the road, in front of the cemetery, due to the lack of additional culvert and drainage ditch, but he found only one grave sunk in Wednesday morning. There is such little space for water to escape, and this underscores the need for a new culvert, Harmon said.

Mrs. O. C. Vinson, two miles north of town, reports that they can still see the feed, but will have to plant the cotton over. She reports "Plenty of hail," and about three inches of rainfall.

As a contrast to the stormy developments in the canyon south and west of town, a call to Parks Oil at South Plains showed they got only .3 of moisture

Tuesday afternoon and no hail at all.

To summarize the rainfall pattern over the weekend, the ASC official gauge showed these amounts: May 27, .08; May 28, 1.74; May 29, .14; and May 30, 2.39; for a total over the weekend and through Tuesday of 4.35 inches.

The rain appears to have continued quite heavy to the northeast, but the hail abated in the force it exerted, and finally ran out completely somewhat short of the Caprock rim. Out at Cedar Hill Store, there were 2.2 inches of rain on Tuesday, and considerable hail, but it was thought that there was no real damage resulting from it. A few miles farther to the northeast, almost to the very rim of the Caprock, the Cogdells report

"A whole lot of rain," but no hail at all.

The rains Sunday had everyone in smiles, even the hail hit a wide area at that time, no major damage was reported. Some areas north were hit Saturday night but only a few sprinkles were noted in Floydada.

The rains came so hard Sunday many a housewife was "mopping" up after wind driven rains seeped in.

William Bertrand, just southeast of town, reported 1.40 with Mrs. Eldon Fortenberry of Cedar Hill showing just a bit more at 1.69 Sunday. The Dougherty Store was squarely in between these two with 1.50. The Milton Harrisons at Lakeview reported 1.78, while Parks Oil at South Plains gave the lowest amount, 1.25. McCoy Gin reported 3.70, "With no hail to speak of," while the largest amount reported was by Barwise Elevator and Fertilizer, slightly over 4 inches for Saturday and Sunday night combined. Out at C. E. Bartlett residence at 400 S. 8 the amount was 2.40 Sunday.

Mrs. Q. D. Williams, who lives near the canyon rim in the Lakeview Community, summed it up this way "If the little hail we got Sunday hurt the grain at all, and we don't think it did, it was more than made up for by what it did for the grass."

Reporting from that area yesterday noon, Dougherty Grain and Cattle Co. reported .8 of an inch of rain Tuesday, but little hail. Lakeview Store told of the rainfall there as being "Hardly measurable," but of men counting of how much done further west of Louis Ponds and Hills.

FLOYD... Weekend visit of Mr. and Mrs. Kim and Mrs. Williams family moved back to Florida. He is Lockheed Electric.

FLOYD... Lena Horton return home after doing nicely stay in Westvalecent Street.

Others in the auditions and making excellent ratings were Carolyn Race, Nancy Puckett, Wendelyn Tooley, Susie Hill, Lori Daniel and Penny Bertrand. Mrs. Dena Myrick, mother of Mrs. Lipham, also made an A rating on a Piano Hobbyist classification.

The Lipham students, these along with others, will be presented in a recital tonight (Thursday) at 8 o'clock in the High School auditorium. Others participating include Lisa Gregory, Kent Batey, Karen and Darryl Faires, Nanette Burk, Sherry Burns, Margwen Giles, Linda Williams, Brenda and Charlotte Nelson.

Guest students will be from the classes of Mrs. J. T. Myrick Jr., and Mrs. Dena Myrick.

Minnie Harper Recipient Of Auxiliary Loan Fund

At a called meeting of the Floydada Hospital Auxiliary on Tuesday morning in the home of Mrs. Jimmy Willson, a student loan fund for nurses training was the main topic for consideration. The Auxiliary, trying to stimulate a desire among young people toward training in the nursing profession, voted to establish a loan fund for such a purpose. The first recipient of the fund, which is to be at this time the initial cost of enrollment for LVN training, will be Minnie Harper, 1967 graduate of Floydada High School.

Minnie will enroll immediately at Methodist Hospital in Lubbock to begin training. As she is able to repay the loan in the future after she goes to work, the money will be advanced to another person desiring nurses training.

Wives And Spouses Planned Pantsuit:

Take the word "pants," add "suit" to it, and you come up with the most popular name in fashion's sportswear vocabulary for '67. It's the "pant-suit"—a non-divisible term when it comes to stylishness.

Pants matched to jackets have traveled out of the home and into the world with great fashion success.

New spring styles draw their inspiration from varying sources. There's the snappy air of the military—strictly tailored and epauletted in cotton twill or gabardine.

Would You Believe—Cotton Jewelry?

NEWS-MAKING JEWELRY—Cotton crops up in a new place on the fashion scene—in colorful jewelry ranging from bracelets and necklaces to dramatic Byzantine drop earrings. Compressed, colored and lacquered, the cotton jewelry has a glossy ceramic finish but is lightweight. By Stanley Hagler.

MRS. JAMES R. WOODALL
(NEE LINDA JEANNE RUCKER)

Miss Rucker Is Bride Of James Royce Woodall

Miss Linda Jeanne Rucker became the bride of James Royce Woodall in ceremonies read in the First Baptist Church Sunday, May 28. The Rev. Floyd C. Bradley, pastor, read the double ring vows at 3 o'clock p.m. before a tall brass container of commodore palms, flanked by arched candelabra and palms of white ostrich plumes.

Baskets of large white mums flecked in turquoise and arrangements of white glads with white ostrich plumes as fillers were at each side of white wrought iron archway which was covered with foliage. A centered kneeling bench and aisle ropes in turquoise color completed the wedding scene.

gown of angelskin peau de soie and chantilly lace. The French designed gown was complemented with a high Empire waistline and scooped neckline. Long tapered sleeves were banded and tipped with matching lace which also covered the bodice and lower part of the skirt.

The sheath silhouette was fashioned with a redingote effect overskirt that formed a graceful chapel train. The train fell from a large self material bow at the waistline.

Her waistlength veil of tulle fell from a floral coil and she carried a cascade bouquet of snow white gardenias trimmed in white satin and showers of pearlized Stephanotis.

For something old the bride wore a gold wedding band belonging to her grandmother in England, after whom she was named; something new was her wedding gown; something borrowed was her wedding veil from Mrs. Max Rucker, her sister-in-law; and something blue was the traditional blue garter. She wore a six-pence in her slipper for luck, brought from England by her mother.

Bridal Attire
Presented for marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of ivory bridal satin designed and made by the bride's mother. It was fashioned with an Empire waistline featuring an oval neckline and long sleeves edged with a band of pearls. In choosing for special emphasis the task of procuring water in great abundance, he entertained the hope of getting much of it from Texas, in particular from the northeastern section of the state. Two possibilities for storage areas would be near Littlefield, and the Palo Duro Canyon. Although getting water from 350-400 miles away seems difficult, he said, "It will be done," though a period of from 10-15 years must elapse before it becomes a reality. There were from 1300 to 1500 at a meeting in Lubbock only last week connected with this problem, and a group titled "water, Inc." was organized at that time.

Acknowledging the desirability of growing industrialization of this area, he noted that even workers in industry must be fed, and food calls for water. The former state senator pointed out that the Ogallala formation is being rapidly depleted, and that interest-free loans payable over a period of 50 years can be obtained from the Bureau of Reclamation. He drew applause with his statement of support for the prosecution of the Vietnam conflict, and expressed a desire for the growth of this area, the largest contiguous agricultural area in the temperate zone.

Linking together memories of the past and high hopes for the future, he declared, "We're so money-mad we don't have time to say, 'Hello,' much less, 'Help.'"

Food Sales Hit $5,141,000 Here

NEW YORK - Retail business in Floyd County reached a high level in the past year, the final tabulations show.

Records were broken in many stores as local consumers, enjoying bigger incomes than before, spent freely for food, furniture, clothing, cars and a wide variety of other goods and services.

The facts and figures on the local spending performance emerge from a nationwide survey conducted by the Standard Rate and Data Service.

It reveals, for each part of the country, just how the average family apportioned its retail dollar during the year.

In Floyd County, food stores got a big piece of it. Out of every dollar spent at retail locally, 20 cents went for food.

The overall sales in local stores selling meat, fish, baked goods, beverages, groceries, and other food products reached a grand total of $5,141,000, topping the previous year's $4,586,000.

Not included in this figure is the amount that was spent by local residents in restaurants and in other eating and drinking places.

If the total food tab were divided equally among all local families, it would come to $1,278 per family for the year.

Youth Opportunity Campaign

How can TWO MILLION young people, "older kids" or young adults of whatever designation you want to give them, but real people nevertheless, how can they find employment without the help of those of us who are already in a very real sense "settled down"?

What's the problem, anyway? Well, the babies of the post-World War II period are babies no longer. Oh, they may be baby adults, all right. To vary the metaphor, they are little birds just learning or about to learn, to fly, in the great big world of remunerative employment, but babies need nourishing, and little birds must have room in which to try their wings.

A couple of years ago the President's Youth Opportunity Campaign was begun to meet head-on this vital issue. At that time 1,800,000 young men and women faced the job market with but small hopes of finding jobs in June. Quite a challenge! Yes, but it was met fairly successfully in that over a million jobs were found, well over half the amount needed. With the aid of previous experience the task was again accomplished last June with even greater results. But now, in 1967, we face again the challenge and it would be mighty fine to even set a new record.

Private employers have been the greatest contributors in done each time, and in the face of this continued awesome awesome task the challenge is still theirs to take and accomplish.

WHERE WILL THEY WORK? Meaningful careers in the modern technological world will beckon to about half of this number. The others will be seeking summer employment. If successful, this means that this fall they can return to school to enable them to obtain higher goals.

This is certainly no proposition of "us" older persons watching "them" dispassionately in their struggles. No, to paraphrase a motto of a famous children's home "These Are Your Youth." Their quest, and their success, are also ours. Likewise, failure to find jobs is also our failure. For "We're in This Thing Together." Their future is not in a period of ten years. IT BEGINS RIGHT NOW.

Under the Youth Opportunity Campaign for 1967 the President urges again the creation of summer jobs for just as many young men and women as possible, with special emphasis on jobs for those in greatest need of them.

As in the past, the Federal Government departments and agencies are directed to find meaningful work, or training opportunities, at the ratio of one trainee for each 100 employees now on the payroll. Governors and mayors are also being urged to enlarge local programs similar to the Federal outline.

But this is not solely a government program, as it is not only a government challenge. It is an American responsibility, needing EXTRA response and support from private employers, labor unions, trade associations, churches, colleges, fraternal and service organizations and the individual citizen who can promote this effort.

The truly large success of the program to date has been largely due to private employers, a fact acknowledged by President Johnson, and we say "This is as it should be."

The President suggests that programs similar to those now employed by the Federal Government and state and local agencies would also be the most effective in private industry. He does this to underline the importance of the EXTRA being accomplished by private employers. Nothing of value will have been gained if these youth simply are employed at the expense of the jobs now held by older persons. The creation of employment above the normal level is an urgent necessity, so that we can say to those willing and eager to work, "Come on in. There's always room for one more."

Since we can see, it is plain that we have crossed a threshold in COMPANY WITH, and not either before or behind, young America. They are with us, and they won't go away, and we certainly don't want them to leave. We can do more than wring our hands: We can offer them our own in their taking the lead role in the new dramas of life. On the local scene, structural acceptance of the challenge has come in the form of a Local Technical Acting Panel, whose members are: Al Harrison, chairman; Glen Black, Tom Moore, Joe Wilson, Henry Barber, Alton Higginbotham, and Choice Smith.

We are a nation that works with tools, and the tools of young America are: JOBS, TRAINING, AND EDUCATION. We know there are alternatives to these: UNEMPLOYMENT, POVERTY and DESPAIR. Where do you fit in, Mr. Plain Citizen? You stand above all others among those who can help. You can loan the tools, knowing that you will get them back. Mr. Employer, try at the earliest opportunity to increase your work force, if not one per cent, which would be meaningless to most of you, then by one person. That one person would find this very meaningful. Urge others to do likewise. Look around you. Find a young man or young woman whose talents meet your needs.

The State Employment Service offices have established Youth Opportunity Registers to

New Medical Program For Service Connected Veterans

A new program to reduce costs and improve service in Outpatient Care is being inaugurated by the Veterans Administration following a successful test program in three states.

Since World War II, the Veterans Administration has authorized Outpatient Care by private Doctors, at Government expense, for certain qualified Veterans. Most of these patients have Service-Connected Disabilities. Hometown medical care is authorized in such cases when treatment at a VA Medical Facility would involve a long trip or other hardship. Under the old rules, VA estimated how much care each such Veteran would need during the coming year, and issued an authorization to a specific Doctor to give treatment at Government expense.

Under the new program, VA will issue an Identification Card to Veterans who require this type of treatment, and each patient will be permitted to select a doctor of his choice for treatment of the medical condition stated on his card.

Tests of the new system - conducted in Indiana, Colorado, and Alabama - demonstrated that administrative costs of providing this treatment were reduced significantly.

Both the patient and the Doctor also benefit by this new plan. The patient can visit the Doctor who considers necessary, for his choice as often as his The Doctor is relieved of much of the paperwork associated with the old system. Instead of preparing a Medical Report and a Claim Form, he merely files an itemized bill on his own letterhead, just as he does for his other patients. Medical reports to the VA are filed by the Doctor only when there is a significant change in the Veteran's Service-Connected Condition.

In the three-State Test Program conducted by VA before the system was adopted nationwide, both Veterans and Doctors cooperated with the program. Doctors provided care consistent with sound judgment and ethical medical practice, and there was no evidence help you in the 1967 campaign. They are prepared to recommend young men and women for the jobs you have available. Skilled workers are scarce in our modern economy, while the unskilled only glut the market. The future will probably take for granted some training system similar to the one we have outlined, but ONLY if we will not take the future for granted.

Powells Leave For Denton, Oklahoma City

(by Melvin Mathis)
The H. N. and Jimmy Powells will soon be leaving Dougherty. But they won't be quickly forgotten. Their plans for the future give an indication of the difference of a generation in this fast-moving age.

Jimmy, who took over as postmaster from his mother on April 20, 1963, and who with his parents, has been operating Powell Grocery at Dougherty, is moving on to a civil-service job in data processing at Tinker Field near Oklahoma City. His parents are moving back to their old stomping grounds at Denton, where Powell's nephew has a cabin cruiser that just might possibly beckon him to some fishing. For Mrs. Powell, there has been a great deal of time spent in sewing and gardening and operating the store.

The elder Powells lived at Dougherty in 1923, then were gone until 1928, during which time he spent about a year at Tyler Commercial College. They were quite busy until 1941. She served as postmaster, and he worked for South Plains and Woolridge Lumber Companies, until they went out of business. In 1941 they bought the store from C. S. Ray.

They belong to the First Christian Church in Floydada. About three months ago they bought a home in Denton. Three granddaughters will spend the summer with them, the Johnson sisters, two now in Montana and the third, Vickie, now residing with the Ed Westers in Floydada. Mrs. Wester is a daughter of the Powells. It is anticipated that the two sisters from Montana will live with them permanently.

Asked what she plans to do, Mrs. Powell quickly answered, "Do nothing." But don't bet on it!

Mrs. Collier In Top Eight Of Pioneer Women

(EDITOR'S NOTE...STORY CONTINUES FROM LAST WEEK ABOUT MRS. KATE COLLIER)

In the Spring of 1920 the two oldest daughters of Mrs. Collier graduated from the Lockney High School, one the valedictorian and the other salutatorian of their class. That Fall they were enrolled in West Texas State Teachers College at Canyon where they secured their teachers certificates, and both taught school the following year, one in Lockney and the other in Irick.

As the years went by many problems and sadness entered the life of Mrs. Collier, as she was trying to be both father and mother to her nine children, but she was always a believer in "Where there is a Will, there is a Way," so she never gave up, but labored valiantly day after day and year after year trying desperately to give her children an education, and teaching them all along the way that good citizenship and a good education were the most important things in life.

One by one Mrs. Collier witnessed the graduation exercises of her children from Lockney, and in 1937 she saw the last one of her children receive his diploma from the Lockney High School, so she had the satisfaction and rewarding experience of seeing the dream that she and her husband shared concerning the future of their children fulfilled.

The Christian Faith of Mrs. Collier was the guiding and sustaining factor of her life, and because of her example and guidance, she led her children to experience a similar faith, and one by one they openly expressed their faith until eventually they were all members of the First Baptist Church in Lockney.

Mrs. Collier's husband was buried in the Lockney Cemetery and as soon as she could, she began to take an interest in the appearance of the Lockney Cemetery, and she was instrumental in beginning a "Clean-up and Fix-up" Campaign to beautify the cemetery. The task was a long, slow, tedious one, but eventually her spirit began to be felt by others, and today Lockney has one of the prettiest little cemeteries in West Texas. In addition to her husband, she now has two daughters and two grandchildren buried there. She was a charter member of

by Sherry Mullin

Fashion and proper fit go together, and children's clothes should fit the first time they're worn, should not be "grown into." Look to these strategic points; shoulder seams should be at the shoulder line, not drooping over the shoulder bone; waistlines should be midway between the hip bone and the end of the rib cage; pants legs and sleeves shouldn't "drag."

When selecting a pattern for a dress, blouse or skirt, choose the pattern size that is closest to your child's measurements. Newer use age as a determining factor. Children the same age differ widely in height, weight and build. Take shoulder and length measurements, too - any necessary adjustments can be made before you cut the fabric. For a boy's or girl's pants pattern choose the size that is closest to your

the Lockney Home Demonstration Club, and was an active member for many years. In spite of the fact that she had a very busy life of her own taking care of and planning for her own family, she always had time to give to the betterment of the town and community in which she lived. During the W.P.A. days, she helped the County Home Demonstrator teach women how to make mattresses out of the cotton that was provided by the government; also helped teach women how to use pressure cookers to can and preserve what food they could in order to help themselves.

Mrs. Collier was an office nurse for many years for Dr. N. E. Greer at Lockney, and for Drs. Colvin and Mary Henry, who took over the practice of Dr. Greer at one time, and she was always available when people needed help. She was never too tired or sleepy when called on during the night to go with the doctor to minister to the needs of those who were sick. She helped deliver many of the babies born in Floyd County during the years 1926 through 1938, and today she is still interested in people, old and young, who suffer from ill health, and is always ready to give suggestions as to possible remedies, and is interested in the advancement of medicine and cures for various diseases that she has been familiar with.

Mrs. Kate Collier, the mother of ten children (one of whom died at birth), is now 87 years of age, but is still active in her home, attends Sunday School and church regularly, has a good mind, sight and hearing, and is interested in everything that takes place; especially does she love to work with flowers in her home in the winter, and in her back yard during the Spring and Summer.

Mrs. Collier had a son-in-law who served in World War I, a son in World War II and has a grandson now serving in the Air Force in Japan. She has seven living children, thirteen grandchildren and thirty-five great grandchildren, most of them living in West Texas, and contributing to the welfare of their town and community in their own individual capacities.

Mrs. Collier now lives in Floydada, Texas, having moved here in 1942 when one of her daughters was elected County Clerk of Floyd County, a position which she still holds. She has lived in Oklahoma and Missouri, and has visited in Colorado, but she still maintains that there is no place like the "Plains of Texas" to live and rear a family.

child's waist measurement. A trick to determine the natural waistline is to tie a string snugly around the waist. It will mark the waistline. Unless your child is unusually tolerant; avoid the use of pins when fitting. It is best to baste by machine or hand.

If you want a dress to last more than one season you can cleverly allow for growth where it won't show or change the style and fit. Add several inches to the skirt length and a deep tuck just above the hem's edge. If the dress has a waistline, it's sometimes possible to put a tuck just above the hem's edge. If the dress has a waistline seam, in both cases, use a long machine stitch so that it can be ripped out easily when growth requires it. If the fabric has faded or the crease left by the tuck won't come out, cover the crease marks with trimming, it will also camouflage any change in fabric color. Not only will the dress fit again, it will have a brand new look about it.

FAIRVIEW NEWS

FAIRVIEW, May 29 - We at last received that good rain we have all been waiting for. Nearly 2 inches and over has been received over the community and also here in town.

The rain was general over this entire area. The wheat farmers report the rain delayed harvest but did no damage otherwise, and is sure fine for planting row crops. Some hail fell but no damage has been reported from it.

More rain is predicted for this afternoon and night. Old Settlers was well attended and we enjoyed seeing a large number of long-time friends that we seldom see otherwise. School is out and all are enjoying vacation.

Our community had two graduates from Jr. High. They were Loretta Irwin and Bobby Cozby. Mrs. Stella Crabtree and Gordon Bullard of Lubbock were up to attend Old Settlers reunion. Mrs. Crabtree spent Saturday night with her sister, Mrs. Kate Crabtree and Gordon stayed with his brother, J. C. Bullard.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Burton went to Denton Sunday morning to get their daughter Sharon who

by Joe Wilson

The Federal Cattle Scabies Quarantine for this area of Texas which included Floyd County has been lifted. Official word was received in the county agent's office Friday, May 26, 1967, Duke Holland, A.S.C.S. manager in Floydada. The A.S.C.S. office must be notified and the crop inspected before it is plowed up and planted to another crop.

An extensive inspection of all the cattle in the area was held during the winter to try to locate all scab infected cattle. Floyd County has been recertified as a Modified Certified Brucellosis free county. This was also received from Duke Holland. He stated that the Federal Animal Health Commission officially certified the county May 23. Previously the state had completed all qualifications for recertification early in the year and due to a technical disqualification it was turned down the first time.

The Certificate of Recertification will be sent back to the state where it will be forwarded on to Floyd County.

Crop diseases due to the cool weather still continues to plague Floyd County farmers. Some cotton stands may be destroyed by seedling disease. Grain Sorghum is turning purple due to cold soil and cool weather. The sorghum should not be permanently damaged and should regain its normal color and start growing with warmer weather. If cotton is lost due to poor stands a farmer must wait until May 31 to finish desliming the crop to plant soybeans. This word comes from Tom Moore, A.S.C.S. manager in Floydada. The A.S.C.S. office must be notified and the crop inspected before it is plowed up and planted to another crop.

Farm Prices Pegged To Consumer Index, But In Special Way

The Floyd Philosopher on a farm examines the cost of living in his own way.

The mine climbed through a yesterday morning, well acclimated through, he just stepped the top two wires have been 1958 and as long as it suits me, and handed me a newspaper, "here, read this," and he'd marked.

wanted me to read brought out that a million workers in the auto industry will now get a cost of living pay hike of two cents an hour because their labor contracts are pegged to the consumer price index. Things go up, their wages go up.

"That's what we ought to have," he said. "Farmers don't get enough per hour. When things go up, we ought to get paid more. I didn't argue with him, but I've got a little different notion about it. We ought to get paid more, but no more per hour.

You start trying to pay a farmer by the hour and you'll wreck farming, particularly on this Johnson grass farm. Some government official offers to pay me two cents more an hour, and the next thing he'll want to know is how many hours.

No sir. Farming ought to be pegged to the cost of living index, all right, but stay away from this hour business. Tie it to the price of bolts and nuts, tires, batteries, tractors, pickups, campers for pickups, fishing gear, T. V. picture tubes, oil and grease, doctors' fees, and such things like that.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

PERKINS RITES HELD TUESDAY

Funeral rites for J. W. Perkins Sr., 73 year old Plainview resident, were held Tuesday in that city. He was dead on arrival at Plainview Sunday morning of an apparent heart attack.

Mark this date on your calendar!

ALL NUMBER Calling comes to Floydada July 3 when this city joins many others in Southwestern Bell in conforming with the new nationwide numbering plan.

On that date, all Floydada telephone numbers will be changed from two letters and five numerals to seven numerals.

Some Numbers Change

The prefix, "YU 3," will be changed to "983"—actually the same in dialing. In most cases the last four digits of each telephone number will remain the same.

For example, YU 3-2891 will become 983-2891.

However, numbers between YU 3-4000 and YU 3-4999 will be changed to the corresponding number in the 983-5000 series.

For example, YU 3-4999 will become 983-5999.

This change of numbers in the YU 3-4000 series is necessary, for technical reasons, to pave the way for future telephone improvements for Floydada.

Numbers in New Directory

A new telephone directory containing the new seven-numeral numbers will be mailed to customers shortly before the change.

Seven-numeral numbering is common in many other parts of the nation. Experience in other cities where All Numeral Calling has been introduced has indicated that such numbers are easy to use, and that fewer mistakes are made in dialing them.

WE believe that you will find this new up-to-date numbering system simple and more trouble-free to use. It will pave the way for future improvements. And Floydada, as in the past, will continue to be in the forefront of telephone progress.

Swedish Boy Tells About Home And School Life

(Editor's Note: The following is a personal statement by Sverker Emanuelsson, high school boy from Sweden who will be living with the Dr. Charles Craig family next school term under the American Field Service program.)

I'm a boy, who lives in Helsingborg in the south of Sweden. This province is called Skane. In Helsingborg I live in the part called Raå, which is an old fish village with many old fishermen. Nowadays they don't fish very much. I'm sixteen nearly seventeen years old. I'm going in the "gymnasiet" in Helsingborg, at the Nicolaischool. The school is quite big, there go about 1200 pupils. I go in a line called "naturvetenskapliga linjen." In that line you read much mathematics, physics, chemistry and languages. The subject I like most is sociology because I'm interested politics. I also like to read languages and this term is the second term I read Russian. It's very interesting because it's quite different than for example English.

My family is composed of my father, Bertil Emanuelsson; my mother, Inga, and my three years older brother Thomas. My father works as a ganger of a mechanical maintenance section of a big chemical industry called Reymersholm, which belongs to Boliden AB, a big mine company in Sweden. This company has just built the biggest sulphuric acid factory in Sweden here in Helsingborg.

My mother works as a clerk of a big store in Helsingborg. This store, which is called EPA, belongs to a big company in Sweden called Turitz & Co. and which owns over hundred stores in Sweden. I have worked in this store myself the last two summers.

My brother works in a big chemical factory in Helsingborg called Rexolin Chemicals. This factory belongs to an American industry which makes the soap called "Grace". Among other products they produce washing material there.

My father and I often discuss different subjects which are mentioned in TV or in newspapers. I think it's very interesting with such discusses. My brother broke up school two years ago. He is not so interested in theoretic studies as I and the last three years of his school education he studied practical subjects.

I mostly start school at eight o'clock in the morning and when my brother and father go to work at half past six, I don't meet my father and brother before 5 o'clock in the afternoon. My mother goes to work after me and she returns home before me so I see her a bit more. We mostly spend the evenings together, after I have done my homework.

My most common activity apart from school is scouting. I started as a scout in Raus Scoutbrigade in Helsingborg about five years ago and since that day my interest in this has never faded. Now I have become a scoutleader and that I perhaps enjoy more because now I have got a greater view of scouting. I have also got a greater view of the leading of the brigade. I work as a leader in a section of the brigade and it's a most enjoyable work. Last weekend I and two other leaders had a pi-course in Astorp. It was a district course. Our brigade is the biggest brigade in our district. What I like most about scouting are the camps in summer and to be on tramps in spring and eastern. It's very nice to be out in the nature, to feel the burning when you wander, and to take a nice bath afterwards. If I will get to the United States I hope that I can study an American scoutbrigade from inside. It would be very interesting. I'm also interested in filming, because you can experiment in different ways than by just taking photos. Last summer I bought a filmcamera and this Christmas I got a camera stand and a kobolt lamp, so now I can film indoor too.

It's quite difficult to film and when I haven't had the camera very long it will take some time till I really know how to film, but the more I film the funnier I think it is.

Another of my interests is reading a good book. My favorite writers are Alistair McLean, who among many good books has written "The Guns of Navarone," and "Ice Station Zebra," and Agatha Christie, who has written about one book a year since 1920-1925. In McLean's book there are so good descriptions so that you can see the things he describes in front of you. In the book HMS Ulysses he describes the stormy polar sea and the heroic sailors so that it will always remain in one's memory. Agatha Christie is a genius in solving murders so natural but nevertheless so complicated that you could never dream about a solution like those she makes. It's very amusing to try to solve the murders by your own brain and intelligence.

A bodily interest of mine is to play football and handball. Most lessons of gymnastic in school we play football or handball and it's very funny. I also play some billiard, but I don't know how long I can do that because it doesn't go very well. I have also played some bowling. As I live in the south of Sweden I can't ski and skate very much. It doesn't snow very much down here.

And then of course I'm interested in what happens in the world. I read the newspapers every day and when we have two newspapers I can get a right opinion about what happens. I've always been interested in what happens in the USA and therefore I especially read about USA and Sweden of course.

My plans after this possible trip to the USA is to go on studying where I stopped. After two years I will try to get into a university and try to take a civilengineer examination. I haven't quite made up my mind yet but I'll probably do so. After this probably trip I hope I will have got new ideas about scouting and if it is so I try to carry through those ideas in my brigade.

Last summer I and twenty-seven other boys plus one teacher from the Nicolaischool in Helsingborg went to Russia. It was a very interesting trip. We went over Stockholm and Finland and the first town we got to in Russia was Vyborg. Here we became very surprised because the Russian government invited us to dinner. We intended to go to Leningrad and five hours later we arrived in that town. Here we went to many buildings, for example the Winter Palace. The children in Leningrad wanted to buy all clothes we had especially nylon shirts. In the beginning we didn't care about it but later on we thought it was annoying with this children running after us where else we went.

In Leningrad we saw the famous Russian circus with it's fantastic tricks. When we got to the theatre where the performance should be, we became very surprised because we hadn't made up our minds until the same morning and we couldn't dream of getting such seats as we did, in the first row. This was really propaganda. On our way home we stayed one night in Helsingfors.

Other trips I've made is one in summer 1964 when we went to Halden in Norway. This was just a short visit, only for a day. I've also been in Denmark several times because it takes about twenty minutes to get there from Helsingborg. We buy cheaper there so many Swedes go over to Helsingor. We have also went to Copenhagen the capital in Denmark. That trip takes about two hours. At last I just want to tell you why I want to go to the United States. Everybody thinks that the language is the main reason to go to USA, and I'm not going to deny that it is an important reason for everybody except those who always speak English. It also has a great importance for me but not the greatest. The main reason for me is to meet other peoples, from other countries to get knowing the American people and to get a view of the American society. Every body has heard about the big country over there but not everyone gets the chance to get an inside look of it. I hope that
