Highway Department To Take Bids On Paving East 70 To County Line

Includes 4-Lane Construction Plan

Davis Reports On Mackenzie Meet

According to a report from Sam Fowler, Resident Engineer Texas Highway Department, bids will be opened on August 29, 1967 for paving of highway 70 from Floydada to the Motley County line - a distance of almost 17 miles.

This will give Floydada four-lane highways leading into the three major approaches of the city. The county voted the highway bonds for this project back in 1955 and right-of-way was secured only recently.

The highway will be of a four-lane construction from Floydada to the Lakeview highway, about 4 1/2 miles, and will be a wide two lane highway from that point to the Motley County line.

The county voted the highway bonds for this project back in 1955 and right-of-way was secured only recently.

Fowler said a job of this size will probably take a year in construction.

School To Have Sixth Grade Beginners Band

Sixth grade students will soon have the opportunity to become a member of the sixth grade beginners band. Students will have a choice of chorus or band for their public school music.

The plans also call for widening of the highway area from highway 207 down the east city limits to where it intersects with highway 70 (East 12th Street). This highway will be increased to a width of 26 feet plus paved shoulder.

All sixth grade students will be tested the first week of school and the results will be sent to the parents. Students are expected to provide their own instrument for this band.

The paving east to the county line will be increased from 22 feet to 44 feet in width.

There are a number of good used instruments available here in town and music stores both in Lubbock and Plainview. An instrument display will be held some time in the first or second week of school by a music dealer.

The four lane area will have 24 feet of paving width to each side.

Lockney officials say they simply are in such fine shape at present there is no immediate worry, they think, for several years. Floydada's projected purchase of the Hoffman property would stand this area in good stead for quite some time.

Knife Fight In Della Plains Area

One man is in jail and another under a doctor's care as the result of a knife fight at Boldy's Cafe in the Della Plains area last Friday evening.

Tommy Collins, already under three years probation, was fined $50 and given a jail term in county court, with the understanding that the district judge might remand him to the custody of the state.

Leon Williams suffered so severely from slashes that he has been under a doctor's care and unable to stand trial, according to the judge.

LOCKNEY CLASS RING FOUND AFTER FOUR YEARS - Mrs. Norman Ferguson, pointing to Vietnam where her husband is stationed and wearing her class ring found last week, is using this method in letting her husband know her ring has been located. Norman, who was wearing the ring, lost it accidentally in December of 1963 at the intersection of 4th and Tennessee Streets in Floydada. After a futile search of that area the couple gave up and now nearly four years later and only a short distance from the same spot, the ring was found. It was turned in last week at the Lockney Beacon and the initials MIS finally traced to the former Mary L. Starkey, who now lives in Floydada. Mrs. Ferguson has as yet been unable to find out the person's name who found the ring. (Staff Photo)

City Okays Plans For $400,000 Bond Election To Purchase Land For Future Water

The Floydada City Council gave instructions to Joe Smith of the First Southwest Company to begin legal work and complete plans for a $400,000 bond election to buy land and equip it for future municipal water needs of the city at its regular meeting here Tuesday night.

The bonds will be of revenue type and will mean that there will be no increase in city taxes and no increase in water rates. Only $195,000 worth of the bonds would be sold at this time.

The city council has an option on the land . . . which it took about 90 days ago when it went into a concentrated study of Floydada's water needs.

According to the city council the land will yield enough revenue from agriculture sources to pay for itself in 20 years.

The rest of the bond issue would be used later when the city needs to put in irrigation wells, and pipe to the city's water system. The land now has three irrigation wells on it.

The city council has an option on the land . . . which it took about 90 days ago when it went into a concentrated study of Floydada's water needs.

Mayor Leonard Matsler said, "I feel that the purchase of this land is good insurance for Floydada's future water needs. . . and basing our decision upon the city engineer's very comprehensive study, I think this is a . . ."

Beating Of Kitten Results In Finding It Sick With Diphtheria

high school English department will go to a new "Phased English Program."

Mrs. Wright said they took the kitten to a veterinarian for treatment and were told that the cat was also seriously ill with diphtheria and must be destroyed, and that each child and adult who had been in contact with the kitten in any way, must have diphtheria shots.

Parents are urged to watch for stray cats and see that youngsters are kept from playing with them.

low the student independent research and study... and smaller classes for individual attention to each student.

The question is posed, "how do you decide in which phase a student should be in?" First a series of tests given by high school counselor Emily Potts is analyzed, recommendation from a previous English teacher is considered, and the student has the last say so in the placement of which phase of study he'll enroll.

The English phase program will still require four years of English for graduation from high school, but it will be advantageous to the poor English student as well as the outstanding student.

Reading and comprehension tests will tell much about placement of students in the phase program.

"During the four-year span that a student attends high school he will study all areas of literature that he now covers under our present program. In the 1967-68 school year units in composition, fiction, drama, and poetry are planned with emphasis on English writers. In 1968-1969 the emphasis will be on American literature with units in grammar, the American novel, nonfiction and poetry. Units planned for the last two of the four year span are practical English, short story, biography, the foreign novel, linguistics and semantics, mythology, journals, letters and addresses. In general this plan is the consensus of the English teachers who have been working on the program, with some reservations concerning the last two years, because working in the program for a year or two might cause a change in thinking," Tyer said.

GOALS

Tyer said the purpose of the phased English program is to provide the best program possible in the language skills of each individual student, with four goals:

1. To develop the reading and writing skills of each student to the point that he can read and write well enough to be able to continue his education in all areas to the level desired or needed.

2. To provide a program that will challenge each student, yet one that is not so far beyond his level of achievement that he becomes discouraged or lost and one that is not below his level of achievement to the point that he is bored.

3. To provide a flexible program so that the individual student can advance to higher levels of achievement whenever such change is indicated rather than on a yearly basis.

4. To provide appropriate guidance activities that will enable students to gain understandings leading to the development of personal, social, educational, and vocational skills needed for living a fruitful life in our society.

good opportunity that we cannot pass by."

GAS INCREASE
Representatives from Pioneer Natural Gas met with the council and explained the company's need for a rate increase. The increase would mean that the average householder who has been paying $74.64 per year would pay $83.25 after the raise. This is the first increase in 6-1/2 years for the company, according to the company representatives.

The council tabled making a decision on accepting the new increased rate.

CABLE TV
Bob Taylor of Caprock Cable TV met with the council... seeking approval of franchise and extension of time on his project. The council told him there were some changes they wanted to make in the franchise and they would study it again Monday night. City attorney Paul Lyles was instructed to make the necessary changes in the franchise.

Another person interested in securing a TV cable franchise, Claude Estes met with the council and expressed his interest in a franchise if the Caprock Cable TV Company cannot get into operation.

SAFETY WOMEN
The council authorized city manager Bill Feuerbacher to employ three women to work three hours a day during the school term to work the school crossings. The women would also be given the power to arrest traffic violators.

OTHER BUSINESS
In other business the council agreed to a $25,000 Floydada Development Co. membership and a $25,000 membership to Water Inc.

Okayed the request of the Spanish people to celebrate the Mexican Independence Day September 16, 1967 in the bowling alley.

Instructed the city manager to have a garbage container study made for the city by Lo-Dal Inc.

Set a policy that extensions of water service within the city limits must include sewage service.

Agreed to purchase 24 lights for the Della Plains area of the city at a cost of approximately $1400.

Agreed to move the north rodeo grounds fence 20 feet farther north for easement of water drainage across the grounds.

All city councilmen were present except Roe Jones.

Some neither want it or don't want it... They just couldn't care less whether Tulia grows, stays the same size, or loses population... just so long as they get their pay check every Friday. We have often heard Tulia school teachers placed in this category, teachers whose roots are not embedded in the community, who perhaps commute from some other town, who use their present job only as a stepping stone to something better. (We hope Tulia never becomes a "bedroom town" or a bedroom town in reverse.) They take from the community but they contribute little if anything except that for which they are paid.

Floydada Girl's Killed In Vietnam

Capt. Hendrickson, a member of the Air Force, was aircraft commander instructor in CV 7 Transport. His plane was shot down near Ha Thanh as he attempted to land the craft. The tail section of the plane was knocked off, causing it to crash killing the entire crew.

The captain had served in the Air Force the past 10 years and was stationed at Da Nang, Viet Nam for the past nine months. He was born in Arcata, Calif., where he attended Humboldt College, receiving his degree in science there. He was a 1958 graduate of the flying training program at Reese AFB in Lubbock.

Survivors include his wife, three sons, Randy, seven; David, six and Gordon, four; his mother, Mrs. Bea Cyr of Santa Clara, Calif.; his father, Paul A. Hendrickson of Arcata and two brothers, Melvin of Arcata and Bran of Santa Clara.

Angela Dorian tells Luciana Paluzzi some bitter words, a Rodlor Production for Paramount Pictures at the Capada Theatre. Rod Taylor, Ernest Borgnine and Mills star in the action-packed Western in color as its various human dramas with the fall of a besieged by Arapahoes in 1870.

The boys' platoon, No. 190, consisting of 66 members, won the banner flag which was presented during the ceremonies.

The trio are now at Camp Pendleton, Calif., for two weeks of special training before coming home on a 20 day leave and then re-assignment.

MAN HAS LESS COURAGE THAN A WOMAN!

Imagine a man with 15¢ in his pocket trying on seven suits in four different shops.

Several young mothers were discussing the end of summer and approaching school days with mixed feelings. The general grouping fell to two sides, those who have older children (these are the ones who can hardly wait) and the moms who have an off-spring just starting (these are the hesitant ones). One of the mothers who doesn't have a child old enough for school surprised the group by announcing she could hardly wait until time for school to start, then with a dreamy pleased expression, she added, "By then, all of the beans, peas, corn, and tomatoes will be gone and the grass won't need mowing!"

FLOYD DATA

Mrs. Charley Berry is now home and convalescing nicely after being confined in the Lockney Hospital for some time. She was seriously ill some ten days following a weeks vacation trip to Northwestern New Mexico and Colorado. The Berrys were accompanied on their trip by Mrs. Jewel Reeves and Philip Cain, a grandson. Philip has spent the summer here with the Berrys and during this time attended the Canyon Annual Band School at Canyon, where he played a trombone and was placed with the Tulla Band which rated second place in the event. Philip has since returned home at Elsinore, Calif., where his parents, Armintha and Tubal Cain, have accepted positions with the school system at Elsinore, near Los Angeles.

WILLIE REDHAND NOTES

USE ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE, INC. PHILLIPS, HOME ECONOMIST

With no frost build-up, foods fit flush against the walls and corners of the freezer. This means you get to use all the freezer capacity you paid for.

You may have heard that a new refrigerator-freezer with the no-frost feature costs a lot more to operate than one without this convenience. To test the truth of this report, an independent organization compared refrigerator-freezers in the 14 to 16 cu. ft. range. The appliances were identical, except that one group had the no-frost feature, the other group didn't. The tests showed the no-frost feature costs 29¢ to 51¢ per month to operate. This means it will cost you only 1¢ to 1 1/2¢ a day to be relieved from ever having to defrost again.

P.S. Ladies, these no-frost refrigerators are located right near the self-cleaning ovens on your local dealers floor!

The United States Department of Agriculture tells us that tuna is one of the foods on the plentiful list at this time and should be a little cheaper. Tomatoes are ripening, so how about trying a combination of the two in the following recipe?

TUNA STUFFED TOMATOES
2 small cans tuna
6 large tomatoes
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup grated cheese
1 cup cooked rice
1 egg, beaten
pepper
1 tablespoon shortening or oil
1/4 cup dry bread crumbs

Drain tuna, break into large pieces. Wash tomatoes, remove stem ends and centers, sprinkle with salt. Combine

Miss Susan Simpson, Larry Davis Repeat Wedding Vows

Wedding vows for Miss Susan Lee Simpson and Larry L. Davis were exchanged Saturday August 5, at seven o'clock in the evening in the sanctuary of the First Baptist Church in Floydada.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Simpson, of the city and parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Davis of Welch.

Reverend F. C. Bradley officiated for the double ring ceremony.

Vows were repeated before an elevated arch type candelabra holding crystal votive candles and covered in a cascade of salal foliage. The arrangement was flanked by a pair of spiral candelabra and elevated palms of commodore foliage. Directly behind the wedding scene and to each side of the wedding party were brass baskets arranged in white gladiolus and white pom-pon type mums.

Mrs. Bill Hardin, organist, played nuptial music including the traditional marches and accompanied Miss Bennie Galloway as she sang "O Promise Me." At the conclusion of the vows, Miss Darlene Mount sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal Empire A-line gown fashioned of snow white English net. Embroidered alencon lace appliques enhanced the columnar cage which enveloped the outline of the peau de soie dress beneath, and a chapel train cascaded from the back of the bateau neck. A square neckline and elbow length sleeves complemented the bodice. A triple tier of illusion, which was scalloped at the edge, formed the headpiece.

The bridal bouquet, carried on a white Bible, was a cascade of white stephanotis showered in white satin and m-line and centered with a white cattleya orchid.

Miss Bennie Galloway of Floydada was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Ronnie Davis of Lubbock; Miss Sherri Simpson of Floydada, cousin of the bride; and Miss Louise Davis of Welch, sister of the groom.

They were attired in identical floor length gowns of delphinium blue bonded crepe fashioned with scooped necklines, Empire waists, and A-line skirts. Their headpieces were matching Dior bows with short veils of tulle scalloped at the edge. Each carried a cascade type bouquet of blue flecked fujii mums and feathered white carnations accented in the soft blue colors chosen by the bride.

Candlelighters were Cindy and Mike Simpson, cousins of the bride. Jan Holland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Holland of Dallas, and cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a floor length white dress and carried a soft blue colored basket filled with white rose petals.

David Jones of Welch served as best man. Groomsmen were Ronnie Goode of Lubbock, Michael Jones of Seminole, and Truett Reeves of Lubbock.

Serving as ushers were Bob Simpson, brother of the bride; Ronnie Davis of Lubbock; and Jim Shaw, of Menlo Park, California, cousin of the bride.

A reception immediately following the ceremony was in the church parlor. Guests were greeted by the newly wed couple, their parents, and the bride's attendants. Mrs. Carl Jackson registered guests in the bride's book.

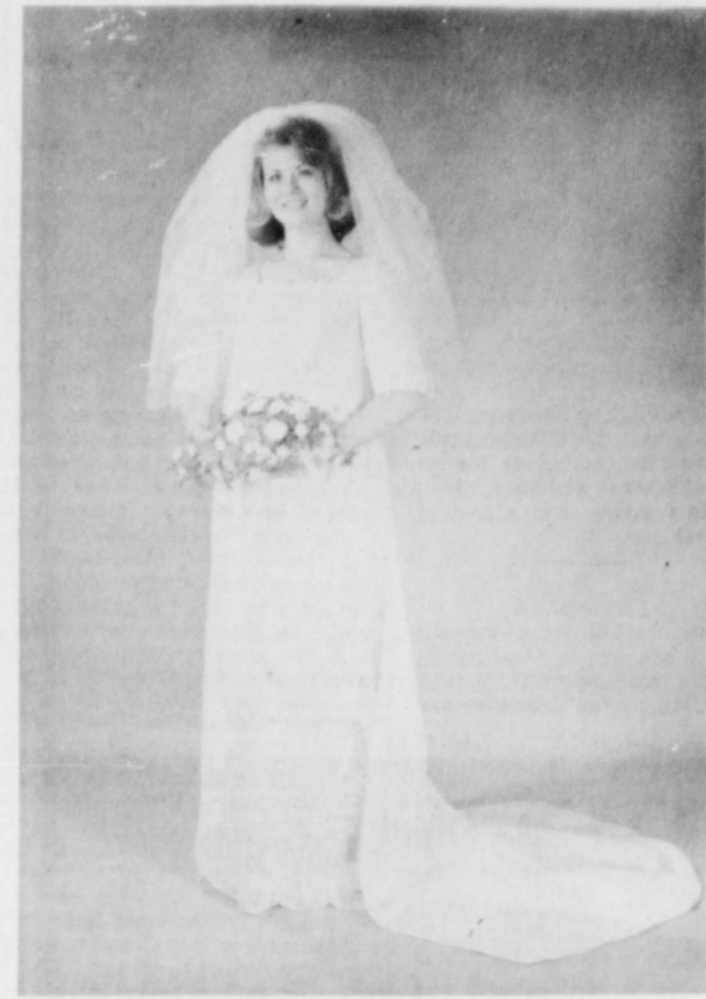

The bride's table was laid with a white cloth centered with a silver candelabra bearing white tapers. White streamers, greenery, and the bridesmaids' bouquets accented the table arrangement. A four-tiered wedding cake, decorated with pastel blue roses and silver leaves and topped with a miniature bride and groom, was served by Miss Kathryn Gill and Miss Sandra Stapleton. Miss Janice McNeill presided at the punch bowl. Others assisting at the reception were Mrs. W. H. Simpson Jr., Mrs. Jim Simpson, Mrs. D. T. Holland, Mrs. Dan Shaw, Mrs. M. J. McNeill, Mrs. T. L. Holland Jr., Mrs. Floyd Lawson, Mrs. John Stapleton and Mrs. Allen Bingham.

For traveling, the bride selected a soft beige, three-piece suit complemented with a beige drop-bow hat, matching shoes and gloves. She wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Following a wedding trip to sites in New Mexico, the couple will be at home at Varsity Village Apartments, Apt. 165, Lubbock.

The bride is a spring graduate of Texas Tech. The groom is a senior at Tech and will continue his education. He is employed at Book and Stationery Center in Lubbock. The bride will teach in the secondary level of the Friendship Public School System in Wolforth.

Papa Washed Dishes At Home

Back in 1928 teaching jobs were at a premium. In one case at least you could say that teaching held three members of a family together, so far as interests were concerned, but it certainly did scatter them geographically!

It went on to relate how E. L. Cambron, gin man and father, was the "chief cook and bottle washer." (Since he was by himself, wonder how anyone could check up on him?) Proving that "Floyd County is taking an active part in furthering the cause of education in the Lone Star State," all the other family members had teaching jobs, and out of town at that.

SOUTH PLAINS NEWS by Mrs. Murray Julian

SOUTH PLAINS, Aug. 7 - Beautiful summer days are maturing good crops in our area, and farmers hold their breath every time clouds gather. No showers of any consequence have fallen the past week, but several days last week rain dampened our area.

Attendance at the South Plains Baptist Church was low Sunday due to many circumstances. Many families are off on vacation, and there have been family reunions, and illnesses. Many here have been ill with summer colds and flu. In the absence of song leader, Don Brashear and family, Bobby Moore and Charlotte Duval of Lockney led the singing, and Charlotte brought special music. Visitors included the above and Tommy Powell, home and leave from Omaha, Neb., who sang a special number at evening services. Mrs. Dona Willford of California was with her daughter, the Grigsby Milton family, and has spent the summer here with them and other relatives.

Friday, August 11, there will be a Sunbeam Day Camp, which is to be held down at the Plains Baptist Assembly Grounds. Activities begin at 9:30 a.m. and lunch will be served at noon. They will return at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. There are a large group of Sunbeams from the Baptist Church here who plan to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Johnson, twins Deneen and Denise, Shari and Carlton went to Childress Saturday night for the big rodeo which was held there and the Johnson children entered many of the events. Shari brought home a silver belt buckle which she earned by being first in the barrel race, and Denise received a second place in barrel racing, and fifth in pole bending. The Johnson children spend a good deal of their time on the horses during the summer at their ranch. We are proud of all their achievements as they attend rodeos around the country.

Miss Beth Calahan, bride-elect of James Norrell of Floydada, was honored at a shower Thursday afternoon, 4-6 p.m. in Floydada at the First Baptist Church. Chosen colors of blue and white were featured in the table decorations and hostess gift was a beautiful electric clock with pendulum.

COUNTY AGENT'S CORNER

by Joe Wilson

Sorghum midge has increased in population within Floyd County the last two weeks. Some farmers have applied an insecticide to assure no economic loss from the insect. The insect is about the size of a gnat and is orange in color. The damage occurs by the female laying eggs in the spikelets (developing grain). The egg hatches into a small larva that eats the inside of the grain and in about 10 days the insect emerges as an adult. The female adult lives only one day and lays from 30 to 100 eggs. The total length of the life cycle is about 14 to 16 days.

The adult female deposits eggs in the developing spikelets and the larvae prevent development of the seed, resulting in "blasted" heads. The length of time that spikelets are receptive to midge egg deposition ranges up to 10 days following head emergence, depending on variety. Effective chemical control requires precise timing of spray applications. Insecticides must be applied soon after head emergence because control depends entirely upon killing the adults before eggs are deposited. Insecticides presently approved for use on grain sorghum will not affect eggs or young larvae within the developing floret.

Heads are susceptible to midge oviposition as soon as they emerge from the boot. Therefore, treatments must be applied to coincide with head emergence, a single application of insecticide usually will not give satisfactory control. Control measures must be directed toward protecting the majority of heads. During the past several years research tests have indicated that best results are possible by applying insecticides when approximately 90 percent of the heads have completely emerged from the boot.

Many growers within local areas prefer to apply insecticides immediately upon head emergence if midge damage occurred the previous year. Other growers prefer to inspect their fields to determine the need for treatment depending upon the presence or absence of adult midge among the newly emerged heads. The latter method requires careful observation and the grower must be able to readily recognize the adult midge. At present, no data are available concerning the number of adult midge which constitutes a potential economic infestation; consequently, treatments should be applied immediately if midge are found among the newly emerged heads.

A second application of insecticide should be made 3 to 5 days after the first to insure control during prolonged periods of adult activity.

If grain sorghum is now heading or in the bloom state it should be checked for a possible infestation. If the crop is to head later, very close observation should be made to assure producers there are no midge or to time the application of insecticide at the right time.

Haskell Goes To State In Senior League Play

Haskell did it! With their backs to the wall after Post took them 8-7 on Monday night of last week's Senior League double-elimination tournament at Lockney, and with Post holding a 7-4 decision over Floydada on Tuesday night, they had their work cut out for them; Win three straight games or else.

DIDN'T LIKE ELSE
They evidently didn't like the idea of else, so the Wichita Valley powers took Floydada 14-2 on Wednesday, then came back to edge Post by 13-12 and 2-1 marks on Thursday and Friday nights. Apparently Haskell and Post are pretty evenly matched, as they ended three games with each other with 22-21 in favor of Haskell, which has traditionally been a mighty force in this activity.

Stolen Car Trail Leads Officers To Wet Suspect

(Special) - A Colorado man was jailed here Tuesday night facing car theft charges in Floyd County and wanted for questioning in two other High Plains counties.

Fred David Martin, 25, of Canyon City, Colo., was arrested in Littlefield Monday afternoon where officers found him hiding in a small lake after spotting a stolen car near Littlefield Memorial Park.

Littlefield police said the car, reported stolen in Floydada, was parked in the cemetery. Officers searching the area discovered Martin, up to his neck in water, in a lake near the cemetery.

Floydada officials reported that a pickup truck, reported stolen in Matador, was recovered near where the car was stolen. In turn another pickup, stolen in Paducah, was left in Matador. Another vehicle, reported stolen in Oklahoma, was left in Paducah.

Littlefield officers said Martin drank some of the water in the lake where he was found, and became ill after his arrest. The lake is a drainage point for acids and other chemicals used by a seed delinting plant nearby. "You might say it was poison," one officer said.

Martin was being held under $2,000 bond set in Floyd County after he was formally charged

The Debt We Owe

Among the debts we owe, not including those which we must repay painfully in the prevailing currency, is a debt to our community or home town. There are those who never consider this debt, but it is a real debt, and some repayment is due.

The key to this debt lies in the first word, the "home." It is a wonderful word in the English language, which is never fully defined or adequately translated in foreign tongues.

And when we say "home," we are referring to a house, a husband and wife, who often become a father and mother, with all the happiness, love, and hope and faith that surrounds a home. The home is protected, sheltered and made efficient by modern-day wonders.

Vietnam Troops

The latest reports indicate General William Westmoreland is likely to get about two additional divisions, perhaps as many as 70,000 men. This is fewer than the General requested and only about a division more than had already been planned for deployment in Vietnam.

The 70,000 troop reinforcement will presumably be supplied through a call-up of the reserves, through increased draft calls. What has complicated the manpower picture in Vietnam recently is the soaring casualty rate, which is requiring larger numbers of replacements than had been expected.

In addition to the 70,000 troops, additional units from our allies are expected to be sent, greater support is hoped for from the South Vietnam

Let us look a minute at our culture and civilization and see what we have received in our home town, at birth. There was a time when we had to roam the woods like beasts, without family or home, without a church, without a government to keep order, without organized society to broaden our social contacts, and without profitable trade.

None of us did much to arrange this wonderful inheritance. We came into a world with many modern conveniences, benefitting from the lessons and experiences of the past, and enjoying all the progress which our home town, the state, the nation and the world offered us.

It is the obligation of each of us to contribute what he can to the continuing progress of the human race, even if in a small way.

Army and the ratio of combat to support troops among the half million Americans already in the area is to be increased.

But even these additions, if all are achieved, will not provide sufficient manpower to enable General Westmoreland to decisively defeat the enemy he now faces. That enemy has greatly increased in number and his weapons are far more deadly than ever. He is being easily reformed despite our bombing and it appears that North Vietnam can achieve a manpower buildup more easily than Washington.

Thus for Washington the war is stalemated again, to a large degree. The next move is, once again, up to President Johnson, and it is perhaps the most difficult yet faced.

Local Veteran Office Reports On Land Bill

The Sixtieth State Legislature, which adjourned on May 29, 1967, enacted H.B. Number 306, to provide for a Constitutional Amendment to once again bring this issue before the people of Texas for approval to reopen the Veterans Land Program.

This Constitutional Amendment will be voted on by the people of Texas on November 11, 1967, at a special election. If the Amendment is approved by the people, then the program will have $200,000,000 in bonds available to finance new land loans for Texas Veterans. This means that between now and November, it will be a matter of acquainting the people of Texas with this program, and encouraging them to turn out on election day to cast their ballot. In discussing this program, you should point out that this does not cost the taxpayer anything. It does, in fact, make money

Guest Editorial

"RULES FOR REVOLUTION"

On a dark night in May, 1919, two lorries rumbled across a bridge and on into the town of Dusseldorf. Among the dozen rowdy, singing "Tommys" apparently headed for a gay evening were two representatives of the Allied military intelligence. These men had traced a wave of indiscipline, mutiny, and murder among the troops to the local headquarters of a revolutionary organization established in the town.

Pretending to be drunk, they brushed by the sentries and arrested the ringleaders - a group of thirteen men and women seated at a long table.

In the course of the raid the Allied officers emptied the contents of the safe. One of the documents found in it contained a specific outline of "Rules for Bringing About a Revolution." It is reprinted here to show the strategy of materialistic revolution, and how personal attitudes and habits of living affect the affairs of nations:

"A. Corrupt the young. Get them away from religion. Get them interested in sex. Make them superficial, destroy their ruggedness.

"B. Get control of all means of publicity and thereby:

"1. Get people's minds off their government by focusing their attention on athletics, sexy books and plays, and other trivialities.

"2. Divide the people into hostile groups by constantly harping on controversial matters of no importance.

"3. Destroy the people's faith in their natural leaders by holding these latter up to ridicule, obloquy, and contempt.

"4. Always preach true democracy, but seize power as fast and as ruthlessly as possible.

"5. By encouraging government extravagance, destroy its credit, produce fear of inflation with rising prices and general discontent.

"6. Foment unnecessary strikes in vital industries, encourage civil disorders and foster a lenient and soft attitude on the

for the State. This makes this program so much different from most veterans programs, and should be one of the most important points of discussion.

The recently enacted legislation contains some very important changes in the original Veterans Land Program provision. First of all, if the Constitutional Amendment is approved, it will provide loans for farm or ranch land for any veteran who spent 90 days or more in active military service since September 16, 1940, and who was released or discharged under honorable conditions. Under earlier versions of the law, only veterans who entered service from Texas could participate. This new amendment would also include any who meets the service requirements and who has lived in Texas for a period of five years or more. It should be noted here that the new law would include Viet Nam Veterans.

The new amendment increases the maximum loan from $7,500 to $10,000 for the purpose of buying a tract of land. The purchasing veteran will be required to make an initial down payment of 5% of the selling price of the land, and the remainder of the loan will be amortized over a period of not more than 40 years. The new amendment states that the interest rate will not be more than 5 1/2%, and it is not known at this time just what the interest will be on loans under the program.

This has always been a very important program for Texas Veterans, and with the changes that have been proposed, it can be even more valuable to veterans and to the general economy of our State.

FLOYD PHILOSOPHER Comes Out With An Unlikely Idea For Speeding Up Trials

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnsongrass farm comes up with an odd idea this week, but it's not the first time.

Dear editor:

I was looking over a three-weeks-old newspaper I found in some weeds out here on this Johnson grass farm yesterday - you know, there's a lot to be said for a paper that old, what was headlined as a major crisis then by now has turned into something you can hardly remember, and you can relax and read worry-free.

At any rate, over on an inside page I read about a murder trial where it already had taken five weeks to pick a jury and they were still three short. I presume they finally made it, but that's beside the point. I thought of something else.

I talked with a neighbor who got called to jury duty some time past and he said as he understood it, the job of lawyers on both sides was to find 12 people who didn't know anything about the case.

With newspapers, radio and television going 24 hours a day, not to mention women, this is getting harder and harder to do.

Therefore, I have a suggestion for the courts. Why not specialize? If you're going to send some men on a space flight, you don't go out on the street and pick up a few, do you? Of course not. You pick them carefully ahead of time and then keep them in training.

The same would work with juries. What the courts ought to do is pick 12 fair-minded, reputable men interested in a jury career and sign them up for say a four-year term. Lock them up in comfortable quarters, pay them a first-rate salary, feed and exercise them carefully, but don't let them find out anything. After all you never know what citizen, however prominent, may be involved next. No newspapers, no radio, and no newscasts on television, just Guns, smoke and sports and soap operas if they can take them.

With 12 men with fresh minds and completely out of touch with everything, every case could go to trial immediately, or as soon as the lawyers on both sides got through with their customary delays. Just get set, get the judge in place, call for quiet, then open the door and let the 12 in and start the testimony.

In the long run I believe this would be cheaper than bringing in 75 to 150 people every time a trial comes up and spending a week getting down to the 12 who know the least.

I doubt if this would work, but if you've ever spent any time on a jury panel waiting around in a court room, you got to admit it's worth thinking about.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

New Year's Resolution In July

WASHINGTON - This is the start of a fiscal year for the federal government. The old one passed into history on June 30. But one would have to stick tongue far into cheek to herald: "Happy Fiscal New Year."

Some finger crossing would be in order, too. Indeed, due to the wild surges in the federal deficit, the fiscal new year does not present a bright picture, certainly not for a happy and joyous economy. As a matter of fact, the calendar is beclouded with mounting fears as well as a mounting deficit.

The facts speak for themselves. A year ago, at the start of the fiscal period just ended, the official estimate was that the federal deficit would be $1.8 billion. The year closed with the deficit more than six times that much, or $11 billion. Now, it appears, the country is facing a further $30 billion deficit this fiscal year.

Not all of the increase can be blamed on the rising costs part of government toward such disorders.

"7. By specious arguments cause the breakdown of the old moral virtues: honesty, sobriety, continence, faith in the pledged word, ruggedness.

"8. Cause the registration of all firearms on some pretext, with a view to confiscating them and leaving the population helpless."

-From New World News, Feb. 1946

CHEMICALS FOR WAR

The Defense Department is buying $57.60 million worth of chemicals to be used in defoliating jungles and crops in Vietnam which hide and feed the Viet Cong. According to the Pentagon, the chemicals are harmless to humans and animals.

of war. Since 1960, including the new budget, defense spending has risen 68%, and non-defense spending 97%.

As the Chamber of Commerce of the United States points out:

"While much of the increase is attributed to Vietnam costs, increased spending is proposed for practically every other area of federal activity as well. It is especially imperative, in this period of enlarged military outlays, that we trim other costs - by eliminating nonessentials and postponing less-essential programs."

That statement could be the basis for Fiscal New Year's resolutions, if there were men strong enough to make them - and keep them.

There is a curious relationship here to the traditional symbols of the calendar New Year: The Old Man with the Scythe and the Newborn New Year. Wouldn't it be more appropriate for the Babe to have the scythe - and teach him how to use it?
