ONE RACE IS CONTESTED

City, School, Hospital Elections Saturday

Five Men Seeking Three City Posts

Ray Gene Ferguson, W. H. Gilbreath, Roe Jones, Wayne Russell, W. H. Simpson Jr.

A triple election is on tap for residents of Floydada, the Floydada School District and the Caprock Hospital District this Saturday, but only one of the three races has a contested slate.

Only in the city election are there more names on the ballot than there are places open with five local men seeking the three seats up for grabs.

WENDELL TOOLEY

IT'S VOTING day in Floydada and I qualified voter will go to the polls at the school board, city council and hospital elections.

There's no contest in the schoolboard election, but there is always a write-in campaign and you support of the men on the ballot for approval.

Three seats on the city council are really interested in the future. I suggest you visit with these five men. Ask them how they feel about Mackenzie Dam, what they think of the streets, what do they want to change up the unsightly areas of the city and any other question you might want to the future progress of this city.

Answers you receive, vote your own mind. ALWAYS a smart aleck in the crowd and it looks like I was it at the election with Hale Center here last year.

At the tennis racquet and proceeded to play our team before the tournament. For a long drive, I stepped off and flattened my ankle over. . . . for awhile for yours truly,

He said to her husband at a buffet table the fifth time you've gone to the chicken. Doesn't that embarrass you?"

He stopped in a hardware store to buy a pipe plug. "Do you want a female plug?" the clerk asked. I snapped the woman. "I just want a plug. I don't plan to raise them."

Floyd County Shows Population Increase

Floyd County has been gaining in population on an average of 1.0 percent per year since 1960, according to a new report from the Population Research Center at the University of Texas. The 1960 census showed 12,369 persons in Floyd County with the new 1967 estimate at 13,272. The population of Texas as a whole increased at a lower rate during the 1960-67 period than it did during the 1950-60 period. This trend is shared with many states.

COMPARISON MADE
The average annual per cent growth from 1950 to 1960 was 2.2 while the average annual increase from 1960 to 1967 was 1.8 per cent. In absolute figures, the average annual increase during the 1950's was 186,848 as compared to 179,832 from 1960 to 1967. According to the new report, Texas current population is estimated at 10,838,502. The 1960 census showed a population of 9,579,677. One of the interesting and important differences between the 1960-67 period and the decade of the 1950's is that in the latter period only 44 per cent of the counties gained in population.

SOME SHOW GAINS
In the more recent period, while state population growth was lower, 66 per cent of the counties in Texas made population gains.

Randall County in the Texas Panhandle had the best annual percentage of growth in the recent report period. That county's growth is logged at 7.5 per cent per year. Amarillo straddles the Randall-Potter County lines.

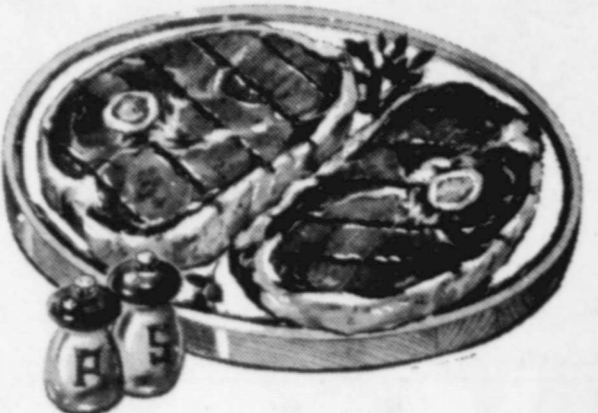

The second high county was Denton with 5.7 per cent per year growth. This year the Population Research Center made a new adjustment in the methodology to bring their figures in line with those of the Bureau of the Census. The adjustment resulted in adding about 300,000 persons to the Texas population. Below is a table on area county population trends:

	1960 Pop.	1967 Est. Yr.	% chng.
Briscoe	3,577	3,694	.5
Castro	8,923	11,486	3.6

Licensed Salesmen Making Solicitations In Floydada

In the past few weeks, Floydada has been plagued with unlicensed salesmen and solicitors coming to the city to sell various products. According to city ordinance, "It shall be unlawful for any solicitor or canvasser... to engage in such business within the corporate limits of the City of Floydada without first obtaining a permit and license therefor in compliance with the provisions of this ordinance."

To secure a license and permit, the prospective salesman must submit an application to the city with an initial fee of $10. Then, he must fill out a complete application form and be investigated by city authorities. Providing that the investigation proves the person and his product is of satisfactory nature, a license is issued upon payment of the respective fee. Solicitors and canvassers are required to exhibit their licenses at the request of any citizen.

The ordinance does not apply to local duly recognized church, school, society, association, corporation or club groups that are organized and operated exclusively for "educational, philanthropic, benevolent, fraternal, or charitable purposes."

"All it takes is a lot of determination to get through college." This statement was made by Mrs. Larry Lee, Janet and Larry are a young married couple who are both full-time students at Lubbock Christian College. They have been married 3 years and have a 22-month old son named Jimmy.

Janet works in the Betty Hancock Student Center and Larry is the student work supervisor. They are on campus until about 5 o'clock every afternoon; then drive home to Floydada. They have missed only one day of classes and that was due to the big snowstorm, March 18.

but decided that he needed a college education. Now he's back in school and Janet has come with him. Both are majoring in education.

MR. AND MRS. DON BARROW

Don Barrows Are Given Farewell Fete By Church Friends

A regular fellowship supper at the First Christian Church last Wednesday evening, March 27, was turned into a heartwarming, well-wishing send-off for Mr. and Mrs. Don Barrow who have moved to Camp Christian near Kerrville, Texas. The pastor and church friends went all-out to try to show the Barrows how much their membership and love meant to the church in particular through the past years in Floydada.

Following a covered dish supper, Ed Wester, chairman of the Fellowship Committee of the church, had charge of the program. First, he unveiled a large bulletin board on which was drawn a road leading to Camp Christian and "Barrow's Motel."

Sign posts along the road indicated the route to be taken. A luggage-laden car and two dolls dressed for traveling completed the board. Reservation sheets were passed among families at the dinner who reserved time and space throughout the year with the Barrows. At vantage points on the walls of the hall were "good by" and "good luck" in many languages. Wester emphasized the fact that it is hard to say "goodby" in any language, so in place of goodby, the church was saying, "We'll see you again soon."

Mrs. Aaron Carthel brought the story on a well known frontier man, John Chapman, better known as "John Appleseed". Closing thought was given by Mrs. J.P. Moss.

Present for the meeting were Mmes. Allen Bingham, Wilson Bond, Thomas Burrow, Aaron Carthel, Garland Foster, J.S. Hale Jr., Floyd Lawson, W.O. Newberry, Vernon Parker, George Springer, John Stapleton, G.W. Switzer, Jake Watson, John Hoffman, Dennis Dempsey, A. W. Coltharp and Mrs. J.P. Moss.

Ed Wester, Mrs. Harry Morckel, Glenn Jarnagin, Lon Davis Jr., and Mrs. Ethel Carmack took part in a humorous skit to present "tools" to Don with which he will have to work as he takes over the management of the church camp. Mrs. Ed Wester had made white aprons for both Don and Marvene, which every person present signed with a laundry marker. These were presented by the pastor.

ming duties. How proud Floydada is of this fine group of young ladies.

MEMBERS of the Floydada Garden Club have achieved a goal this week which was begun by them in May of 1962. They started a park tree fund with $55.60 donated by members which grew into an amount from other donors enabling them to beautify Floydada Park with the planting of shade trees. The final planting ceremony was held Tuesday morning. However more trees need to be planted and Mrs. Grady Walker and Mrs. B. A. Robertson, co-chairmen of the park committee, say they will accept donations. This committee has worked hard to beautify our park and were in fact instigators in getting a city park. They wish to have enough trees to eventually space in the park to the east side. I suggest donations be made because the tree you stand under at the park sometime might be yours.....

GUESS Wendell's dream of a tennis court in Floydada is becoming a reality. Plans have been laid for the erecting of a court by the City and school at the Floydada Park.

DID you ever hear of a woman flipping her wig? I mean literally. Anyway this particular woman was watching the movie "Wait Until Dark". It's an Audrey Hepburn shocker with its final 20 minutes of screaming tension. Just at the most frightening moment, when the killer in the darkened apartment grabs for Miss Hepburn, the woman in the audience was so frightened she reared back in her seat, screamed aloud and her wig fell off her head and into the lap of a man sitting behind her. Without a word, she reached back, retrieved the wig, put it back on and stared straight ahead at the screen. I can imagine the woman's embarrassment, but the poor man, can you imagine the shock he must have had.

WE are now in tornado season and when that time rolls around you will notice people looking up to the storm clouds with a watchful eye. This is as it should be. Devastating tornadoes have come mighty close to our city. May 15, 1945 south Amarillo was hit, six killed and 83 injured; May 15, 1957 Silverton was struck, 21 killed, 80 injured; at Cotton Center and Hale Center June 2, 1965 five were killed and 76 were injured. When your radio or TV announcer says "tornado watches are out" that means a watch is out and conditions are right for tornado activity. Later the announcement may change to "tornado alert" or "tornado warning" meaning a tornado has been spotted by an observer. May through June are tornado months for our area so let's be watchful and alert and keep in mind our local warning signals.

Win By One-Act Play Would Earn 3-AA Literary Banner

Floydada High School's one-act play cast can wrap up a first or second place next Tuesday night without allowing Friona to win first in that event, the local high school will win the Conference 3-AA Literary Events Meet for 1968.

All of the events except the play competition were held last Saturday at Dimmitt, the point total after the day leaving Friona ahead of Floydada by a 136-128 1/2 count.

First place in the play is good for 20 points and second is 10, so a first or second in the event, without Friona taking a first, would mean the district championship for the locals.

Floydada won the play event last year and this year's Alice in Wonderland presentation is thought, in many circles, to be good enough to earn a repeat of the honor for the high school Thespians.

In Saturday's events, Floydada qualified seven individuals for the region competition, local high school students taking first and seconds to earn a trip to Lubbock for the region meet.

First place winners, all qualified for region were Keith Norrell in Informative Speaking, Rande Brown in Prose Reading, Teresa Hinsley in Shorthand, Eloy Martinez in Science, and Shelia Taylor in Typing.

Also qualifying for the region meet were Edwin Warren with a second in number sense and Rande Brown with a third in typing.

Joe Kimble and Diane Phillips also took first in 9th grade prose reading, but competition on the freshman level does not advance.

Other placings included: BOYS DEBATE - 2nd, Tommy Farris and Jimmy Snead. GIRLS DEBATE - 3rd, Brenda Mathis and Suzanne Guthrie. PERSUASIVE SPEAKING - 2nd, Ronnie Hill; 3rd, Sara Stanforth.

INFORMATIVE SPEAKING - 3rd, Christine Cozby. POETRY INTERPRETATION - 2nd, Doug Cannon; 2nd, Christy Brown. NUMBER SENSE - 3rd, Andy Hale.

Typing - 4th, Victor Smith; 5th, Danny Edwards.

 Junior High-Elementary students also did well in the UIL Meet, taking fourth place with a total of three first place events.

SPELLING - 1st, team of Terri Meredith (100% paper) and Shirlene Mathis.

ORAL READING - 1st, Web Brown.

The picture memory and spelling winners are from Andrews Ward while Brown is from Junior High.

Wayne Reports On Exemptions

State Representative Ralph Wayne of Plainview today announced that effective May 1, 1968, the State Department of Public Welfare will begin exempting a total of $5 of any income, including Social Security, for any one person, in an effort to pass on a part of the Social Security raise to those Old Age Assistance recipients who also receive Social Security. At the same time, the maximum grant will be raised from $104 to $106 so that recipients receiving the maximum grant will receive some benefit. Part of this increase in maximum grant and the $5 exemption of any income will be from the readjustments of budgets brought about by the increased Social Security and part will be a direct result of the increased appropriation made available by the 60th Session of the Texas Legislature.

Wayne also said that each recipient affected will receive individual notices along with their May check regarding the effect of this policy change on their check.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Ross visited with her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Guffee Saturday night.

Mrs. J. E. Green reports that Mr. Green seems to be doing fine, gaining strength. He has graduated from the wheel chair and been moved in with another patient, from Houston. She was expressing her appreciation for the many cards, letters and prayers of her friends and rela-

THE ELEVATOR Something New In Entertainment Field

Something new in the form of entertainment is making the scene in Lubbock. . . the coffeehouse, one of which is "The Elevator," owned by Wayland Richardson, former resident of Floydada.

The Elevator is located two blocks south of 19th Street on the Brownfield Highway and is an old wooden frame grain elevator which has had the basement carpeted, and has been wired for lighting and heat.

A stage has been set up on one side and coffee, cakes and snacks are served. No alcoholic beverages are permitted.

Coffee is 25¢ for all you can drink, the snacks are free. There is a $1 per person cover charge.

The Elevator is open Fridays and Saturdays from 8 p.m. until late, the number of customers determining the closing time.

All ages are welcome to attend, but those 16 years of age or younger must leave before 12 midnight unless accompanied by parents due to the Lubbock curfew.

Entertainment is provided by Colleen Walter, Ron Park and Phil Hall, all Tech students, who play the guitar and sing folk and traditional music.

Park, a sophomore civil engineering major at Tech, spent the past summer working as a forester in Idaho on the Canadian border living in a cabin 92 miles from the nearest town.

Shortly before he was to return home, while strumming his guitar alone in his cabin, he wrote "Dallas Bound," a haunting melody expressing his isolation and homesick feeling for Dallas, his hometown.

Park sings every Sunday in the Methodist Church Choir. He started playing guitar about two years ago and has taken some informal voice lessons which have paid off for him.

running to Berger (only about 11 miles away) or Amarillo (about 50) to buy things they could have bought at home.

A year ago, when I left Stinnett, I was president of the Chamber of Commerce there and vice-president of the Jaycees, and I can honestly tell you, there was no single project we stressed more than "trade at home."

Evidently, most of our warnings and pleas fell upon deaf ears. . . since I left, merchants have closed their doors, those that are left are having a hard time making ends meet, their high school is down 30 students in enrollment, and their trade area is down at least 1,000 in overall population.

And, if something doesn't happen, Stinnett may become one of the towns experts tell us will simply "cease to exist" in the next 20 years.

All of this is probably not due to not supporting local merchants, but I know this accounts for a good share of it. So, think twice before you

Both Miss Walter and Park devote from six to twelve hours each week helping underprivileged children with their problems and entertaining them.

Both Park and Hall have written songs of their own and perform as excellently soloing as they do as a team.

Hall, a Tech junior with a fine arts major, began picking the guitar as a senior in high school. During his sophomore year, he lived down the hall from Park as he does this year.

They began working at the Elevator after the 1967 spring break.

Miss Walter began singing during her senior year in Ft. Worth High School and started playing the guitar the following summer. During the first three years at Tech, she sang with the Coventry Singers, a vocal group specializing in old ballads and traditional folk music.

Last year, she played bossa nova and jazz with The Bossa Tres.

She is a senior psychology major at Tech and also works part-time at the Village Dress Shop in Lubbock. She also plays for various church groups.

During her spare time, she practices guitar and keeps up with her poetic diary. She says her future doesn't lie in the field of music, saying "I don't want to give up other things for music, it's only a form of release. . . a type of communication for me."

After graduation she plans to do social work, graduate work in psychology and "possibly go to Australia to live, because it's still a lonely country."

The aspirations, dreams and personal philosophy of Miss Walter can be summed up in a single verse of one of her favorite songs: "Love is but the song we sing; Fear's the way we die; You can make the mountains ring or make the angels cry."

Letter To The Editor

Dear Mr. Tooley,
Thank you for sending the Hesperian to me in Vietnam. It symbolizes a respectful acknowledgement of the total effort our fighting men are making here in Southeast Asia. We are dedicated to the commitments that have been made to this deprived and impoverished area; nevertheless, we men that are fighting over here have an imperative need for every expression that will help us hold a firm grip on the lines of communication with home.

Your paper passes through many hands at my location, and after the readers hurdle the pronunciation of Floydada, they quickly sense the unequalled brand of Texan friendliness. Your thoughtful gesture is appreciated.
1st Lt. Eric W. Christensen

Mr. Wendell Tooley, Editor & Publisher
The Floyd County Hesperian
P. O. Box 700
Floydada, Texas 79235

Mr. Tooley:
You are cordially invited to a pre-opening and tour of the largest beef packing plant in the United States. The plant is Missouri Beef Packers, Inc., located three miles southwest of Friona. It has been approved by the U.S.D.A. Meat Inspection Division for 250 head kill per hour. It is estimated that the plant will do 150 million dollars business in its first year of operation, and put a payroll of 1 1/4 million dollars in the area. The tour is April 8, 1968, beginning 10:00 A.M. You will be given a personal tour of the plant and have the privilege of seeing the most modern sanitary facilities that have ever been incorporated into a beef packing plant. After the tour of the plant, you will be given a luncheon and a guided tour in air-conditioned Greyhound bus of the local area, including some of the larger feed lot operations. There are 350,000 head of cattle on feed today within a 50-mile radius of Friona.

In order that we may know how many to arrange luncheon for, we ask that you reply whether or not you plan to attend.
Sincerely,
/s/ Charles E. Allen
President, Friona Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture

Mr. Wendell Tooley
The Hesperian
Floydada, Texas

Dear Wendell,
The 1950 Study Club would like to thank everyone who helped make our 1968 Spring Style Show a success in its seventeenth annual presentation. We especially thank all the wonderful clothes and hairstyle models who gave of their time to make our show so well received. We thank the Floydada merchants that provided the clothes to be modeled, the hair stylists that designed beautiful coiffures especially for our show and the many businesses and people of Floydada that provided services, materials and props. We sincerely thank radio station KFLL and your fine newspaper, The Hesperian, for the excellent publicity. To Miss Edwina Schneider, our narrator, Mrs. Bill Hardin, our organist and Miss Rande Lu Brown, our ballet dancer, we give a sincere thank you.

We appreciated the wholehearted willingness of everyone involved and the fun we had working together.

CONGRESSMAN GEORGE MAHON

Dear Mr. Tooley:
Since I'm renewing my subscription to the Hesperian thought I'd drop you a few lines. I want to tell you how much I enjoy your Caprock Chat. We have been gone from Texas fifteen years and have taken the Hesperian most of these years. I usually read the paper very thoroughly. There is so much about Floydada and Floyd County people I wouldn't know if I didn't take the paper. Just thought I'd tell you how much I look forward to your paper.
Thanks,
Mrs. S. L. West

Dear Wendell:
This is just a brief note to thank you for your good letter of March 21st. I am deeply appreciative of your generous personal references.
It was a pleasure to seek to be helpful in the Caprock Hospital matter and I am very pleased that we were able to correct the situation. I know how important the hospital is for the Floydada community.
Keep in touch. Warmest regards and good wishes.

high stature in the Legislature and is Chairman of the House Administration Committee, which is responsible for supervision of all House personnel, the Legislative budget and other operations of the House of Representatives. These demanding duties have required him to spend much of his time at the Capitol in Austin.

A businessman in Plainview since 1962, Wayne quickly established himself as a leader in state government and was named one of three "Outstanding Freshmen" Legislators in the 59th Session. In the 60th Session he served as floor leader in the House.

His abilities are held in high esteem by Speaker Ben Barnes, who selected Wayne to manage his statewide campaign for Lieutenant Governor.

Wayne has been an active representative for his district and has been instrumental in such projects as:
--Acquiring $1 Million in Hill-Burton funds for the new Plainview Hospital, $200,000 for the Swisher Memorial Hospital, $425,000 for the Caprock Hospital District in Floydada and $187,986 for High Plains Hospital in Hale Center.

Getting state aid for the new airport in Floydada.
--Acquiring funds for the Texas Department of Agriculture to do castor bean research through the High Plains Research Foundation.
Wayne has also sponsored important statewide legislation, such as the new traffic and highway safety laws proposed by Governor John Connally.

Hot Mix Machinery To Operate North Of Floydada

According to Duncan Hollums, owner with Maud Hollums, a hot mix highway topping operation will begin at their caliche pit five miles north of Floydada on the Silverton Highway.

Agreement was reached with Gilvin Terrill Inc. of Amarillo yesterday and they will move in equipment within the next few weeks.

At present there is much activity in caliche processing for local and area paving work for the state highway department. This means that more people will be employed with the addition of the hot mix machinery.

Tuesday.
In all but the north central and north west parts of the county, only showers in the tenths were reported, but strong winds and rain ranging from .5 to two inches along with some marble-sized hail was reported in the South Plains, Cedar Hill area Tuesday.

In South Plains, about .5 was reported with amounts ranging up and over two inches as far north as Silverton. At Cedar Hill, .75 was recorded with strong winds and marble-sized hail, but not in sufficient quantity to damage crops or houses.

In Floydada, .06 was recorded March 30, followed by .14 on Monday and .11 Tuesday.
Throughout the majority of the county, only a trace was recorded Tuesday with .1 to .3 reported on Monday.

At Lockney, only about .2 was reported with high winds, but north of Lockney at Lone Star, a small twister was reported to have struck two houses, with about two inches of rain, and some hail.

Although damage was reported, it was not believed to be of a serious nature.

FLOYD PHILOSOPHER Wants European Gold Speculators To Try Their Hand At Farm Products

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm comes up with a speculative idea this week, his letter reveals.

Dear editor:
I don't want to appear money mad but I was looking back through some two-week-old newspapers because I didn't have any fresh ones on hand and I got to reading some more about the gold situation.

As I now understand it, the gold crisis developed because a lot of speculators started running the price up, from $35 an ounce, which the United States was trying to maintain, to as high as $45, and while I haven't been able to understand why we didn't unload at that $10 an ounce profit, since we own most of the gold anyway, and switch to tinfoil or sodawater bottles to back up our currency, that's not what is now engaging my interest.

What I'd like to know is how do you get in touch with those speculators?
I would like to turn them loose on farm products.
Take eggs for example. For some time now egg producers have seen the price pegged at about 30¢ a dozen, when it costs more than that to break even. You'd think somebody thought the value of the dollar was based on eggs and it was the duty of poultrymen to hold the line to avoid a ruinous inflation and a collapse of the world monetary system. Actually what the egg men need is a world-wide speculation in eggs.

Or take nearly any farm or ranch product - corn, potatoes, cattle, hogs, cotton, wheat, fruit, vegetables - there's scarcely a one that couldn't use a little speculating to run the price up.

What this country needs is a world crisis in the price of farm products. Get those European speculators to out-bidding each other in a mad rush to hoard everything I grow out here on this Johnson grass farm.

I don't know how many subscribers The Hesperian has in Europe but it's something you ought to be working on. Send them some sample copies and let them know us farmers have all kinds of stuff wide open for wild speculation. For years I've been looking for people with more money than sense and this is too good an opportunity to pass up.
Yours faithfully,
J. A.

CAPROCK

WHEN VISITING with my father a couple of weeks ago, he expressed the opinion that President Johnson would not run again. I assured him that the President would seek reelection.

Well, there's no substitute for age, maturity and experience. Dad, who is 73 years of age and a Democrat from 'way back, still knows how to call the plays.

As I watched the President deliver his message Sunday night, I thought "how tired he looks," and it's easy to see that he has really aged under the awesome burden of the office.

So, we look at what is left for leadership of this great nation. Where is the man who is big enough to fill the President's office?
LAST CHRISTMAS Eve a man found a note on his car which read: "I have just backed into the side of your car. There are people watching me write this note. They think I am leaving my name and address. They are mistaken."

NOW THAT SPRING is here and the world about us is turning green, it brings to mind this little story about the youngster who brought an armful of yellow blooms to his teacher.

The teacher asked, "Are these forsythia?"
"No, Ma'am," replied the little boy, "they're for you."

THERE ARE A lot of government managed situations that I don't understand. First, it seems that the government farm program encourages the large farmer and discourages the small farmer... thus continuing a trend of smaller farmers moving to the big city.

On the other hand, the government says we gotta get the people back in the county, the big cities are too crowded... causes congestion, riots etc.
Here is a trend that is hurting Floydada... too many of our farm families are selling out and moving to the big city.

Another thing I don't understand is the government's spending billions of dollars for those big super jets, so more people can see the world at lower transportation cost. On the other hand, the government says we gotta quit spending money abroad... all the gold is leaving the country.

The government encourages dams and the new use of desert land for farming, while in its farm program, paying farmers to layout land.

Well, I could probably go on and on about the things that I don't understand about the government... time nor space don't permit listing them all now.

I SEE WHERE Governor Wallace (really the husband of the governor of Alabama) will campaign in Texas for the presidency of the United States for The American Party.
I'm sure Governor Wallace doesn't need or want my advice, but looks to me like his place right now is at home taking care of his seriously ill wife.
WELL THE SALES tax begins in Lubbock this week... why not shop Floydada and save all that tax money?
OUR "MAKING the drag" gal Suzanne Guthrie is in Caprock Hospital this week. She isn't in the hospital from making the drag too fast or anything like that... think she just needs a rest from too much debating, basketball, felloshipping, typing, going in all directions at once, some studying, etc.
Our best wishes to Suzanne for a fast recovery.

ELECTIONS

Polling will be conducted in the county courtroom at the Floyd County Courthouse with Bill Brown as election judge. Voting hours are from 8 a.m. until 7 p.m.

In the hospital election, incumbents M. S. Robertson, Hollis Bond, and L. T. Wood are seeking re-election. Polling place for the election is in the office of the County Judge at the Floyd County Courthouse from 8 a.m. until 7 p.m. with Bill Brown as election judge.

If absentee votes are any indication, the three elections involving Floydada area voters (city, school and hospital) will not draw much of a turnout.

After the deadline Monday, only three absentee ballots had been cast, all of which were in the city election.

He was Plainview's Outstanding Young Man of the Year in 1965 and also received the Distinguished Service Award. In 1967, he was nominated for one of Five Outstanding Young Texans by the Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce. He is listed in "Outstanding Personalities of the South," "Who's Who in Texas Today," and "Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges."

Active in the Plainview Chamber of Commerce, Wayne is chairman of its Legislative Committee, past chairman of the Aviation Committee and vice-chairman of the Civic Development Committee. He is a past Board Member of the Plainview YMCA, United Fund and Red Cross.

His statewide activities include serving on the Board of Directors of the Texas Partners of Alliance, as a member of the Texas Legislative Council and as a member of the Economic Development Conference of the Council of Southern States Government. He was National Coordinator last year for the National Legislative Conference held in San Antonio.

As a member of the Legislature, Wayne has held positions on such important House committees as State Affairs, Banks and Banking, Rules and Labor. During the 59th session he was on the Constitutional and Revision Committee, Aeronautics, Penitentiaries and State Schools and Hospital Committees.

He holds a permanent secondary teachers certificate and has traveled widely in Europe, Africa, South America and Central America. He is a member of Alpha Chi National Honor Society and Sigma Nu National Fraternity.

LANDS HERE - The above DC-3 aircraft landed at Floydada Municipal Airport at about 1 p. m. Tuesday and is probably the largest plane to have made use of the local facility since the airport was opened. The plane, out of St. Louis, Mo., is owned by the Frisco Railway and was here to pick up R. C. Grayson, vice-president and general manager of the railway from Springfield, Mo. Grayson had come to Floydada from Quanh after conducting a survey of the Q. A. & P. line. The plane, luxuriously appointed both inside and out, would seat approximately 20 passengers. (Staff Photo)

Soil Conservation Essay Winners Awarded Prizes

Steve Puckett, Floydada High School freshman and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Puckett, was awarded a $10 prize Tuesday morning in an assembly program at the high school as the third place winner in the annual Floyd County Soil Conservation District essay contest.

The award was made by Fred Martin in behalf of Martin and Son Implement Company and Lockney Farm Supply, donors of the cash prizes for the top three district winners.

First place winner was Linda Folsom and second went to Cindy Rankin, both Lockney High School students. They received $25 and $15 prizes respectively.

On hand to assist Martin in making the presentation was G. L. Fawver, chairman of the board of supervisors of the county soil conservation district.

All three winners' essays will be forwarded to Ft. Worth for additional judging on the state level.

Puckett's winning essay is titled, "Conservation of Natural Resources," and is as follows:

Conservation means the protection and wise use of our natural resources. We can influence the supplies of our natural resources - soil, water, forests, minerals, and wildlife. Conservation means guarding these resources so they may be used wisely by the greatest number of people. Whenever possible, we must replace the resources we use. Conservation is concerned not only with the resources we need today, but also with resources for the future.

There are six chief kinds of conservation of natural resources: (1) soil conservation, (2) water conservation, (3) forest conservation, (4) wildlife conservation, (5) conservation of grazing lands, and (6) mineral conservation. Different resources depend upon one another.

Soil conservation deals with the saving of the land to produce food. It takes nature several hundred years to build an inch of topsoil, the fertile top layer. But erosion can wash or blow away this inch in a few years or even weeks. In the United States, erosion has destroyed an estimated more than 50,000,000 acres of farm land since colonial times. Different methods to save the soil can be used. Natural fertilizers can be plowed into the ground. Crop rotation puts back the different elements into the soil that a precious crop took out. Contour plowing is plowing across a slope to keep water from washing away the topsoil. One of the best ways is to keep land covered with thick growing plants such as wheat, grass, and trees.

Forest conservation is closely related to water and soil conservation. Trees slow water runoff and check erosion. New trees should be replanted to replace the forest in the future. Fire prevention and disease control are important in conserving our forests.

Wildlife plays an important part in the balance of nature, and furnishes us with many important products. We can best protect our wildlife by taking care of the places where they live. The establishment of wildlife refuges give animals a safe place in which to live.

There are a number of ways in which conservation is achieved. One is community cooperation in which efficient farm-management plans are worked out. State and Federal Governments pass laws to regulate the management of natural resources. They set up conservation programs and regulations. International cooperation is when nations work together to solve mutual conservation problems. Special organizations promote the intelligent management and wise use of forests and wildlife.

BY SUZANNE GUT...

I'm afraid I'm not too "Up" on the Drag. I can't see much of the Drag from this hospital bed. But I do know that congratulations go to the Students who entered Literary Events in this scholastic League Contest.

We left for Dimmitt early on Saturday morning came home with lots of medals.

If we win the "One Act Play" contest we will Floydada and Floydada High School were well Saturday, and I hope we will have your support Meet-"Alice In Wonderland" for District.

I want to especially thank Mr. Bill Salter, Mrs. and Mrs. Joanie Fitzpatrick, along with Mr. Matthews, and above all Miss Edwina Schneider to make the play the success it is.

Congratulations Wendelyn Tooley for winning Center and Olton in the Tennis Meet.

Soon we are going to have a Talent Assembly I urge all of you to attend. It will be "GREAT!"

Also our Student Council is planning a carnival right before the Easter Holidays so keep that in mind. All of us are beginning to get "Spring Fever" to last all day, and forever. But I'll tell you kids, later than being in the hospital.

We pre-registered for school last Friday for everyone is looking forward to another year at F.H.S. I would like to say that we all hated to see Coach Wylie last week. He is a fine man and a son, and he was very respected and well liked. He did a lot for us and for our school and always see him go, we realize that he is SO GREAT we wish him well.

Evidently they realized this at Winters, because shared Coach Wilson with us and he's "GREAT!" we welcome you to F.H.S. and hope you'll be with us in the years to come.

"Let's set our goal for State next year Whirlwind!" I stayed with the Tooleys last week since my gone, and since Wendell and I both were in Mary Tom going strong. We just sat around casts and crutches and toes. I'm sure for those was rather funny.

Congratulations to Sharon Fuller, Brenda M. and also Carole Burrows was accepted. She's a senior. The Juniors are hard at work getting ready for Senior Banquet April 27.

"Things are never as bad as they seem."

The other night I was here at the hospital on my foot, and I was rather mad, because I saw Then Mrs. Dyson reminded me that it's much your foot in a cast, than to have no foot at all right.

Sunday night when I found out that I had to go to I thought of Mrs. Dyson and decided how nice it was to have a nice new hospital to go to.

So if things don't go just right for you this week THEY COULD ALWAYS BE WORSE!

Komarovsky (Rod Steiger), appraising the bride Lara (Julie Christie), drapes a lace scarf around this scene from David Lean's film of Boris Pasternak's "Zhitago." Also starred in the spectacular Metro-Goldwyn picture, winner of six Academy Awards, are Geraldine Ferrar, Alec Guinness, Siobhan McKenna, Tom Courtenay, Omar Sharif as Zhivago, and Rita Hayworth.

Addis had been in the telephone company several years, working in Houston, Texas, and attending school for two years in New York before being in the St. Louis office.

Survivors include his wife, Oragene, Mrs. Addis, student at field and Regan, home; his parents, and two sisters.

FINAL TREE PLANTING - A group from the Floydada Garden Club above prepare for final planting of shade trees in the Floydada Park which have been secured by donations from local organizations and individuals. The fund was started in 1962, when club members themselves began the fund with a $55.60 contribution. The club's project is beautiful which is maintained by the City of Floydada. Walker and Mrs. B. A. Robertson, secretary of the park fund, said additional trees were needed in order to plant trees on the side of the park. (Staff Photo)

Willie Wiredhand NOTES

LIGHTHOUSE ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE, INC.
MARY PHILLIPS, HOME ECONOMIST

The National Commission on Product Safety was created by a bill passed and signed by the President during the last session of Congress. Its job is to determine which household products are dangerous, to find out how well our present laws - federal, state and local - protect consumers; and to recommend action by the federal government to protect families from hazards in the home.

Manufacturers have the responsibility of incorporating safety features in the design and construction of appliances. Consumers are responsible for preventing accidents by selecting the appliance wisely, installing it correctly, and most important using and maintaining it as directed by the manufacturer.

The number of home accidents related to unsafe appliances or improper use of equipment is difficult to ascertain. However, burns, scalds, fires, cuts and electric shock related to appliances are undoubtedly a significant cause of the 28,000 to 30,000 deaths and 4,300,000 injuries each year in the home.

Some guidelines have been established for consumers and others interested in safety. Following these guidelines for selecting, installing, using and maintaining appliances will minimize the chances for accidents.

1. Purchase only products made by a reputable manufacturer and backed with a warranty.
2. Purchase from a reliable dealer who has competent personnel for installing and servicing appliances.
3. Buy appliances that meet national safety standards. (Many imports do not.)
4. Look for the UL symbol. This indicates that appliances, cords and plugs are reasonably safe for the use for which designed. The UL will be on the appliance as well as on detachable controls and cords if both are approved.
5. Check the wattage of the appliance. NEVER connect more than 1800 watts on any electrical circuit.
6. A rule of thumb is to use not more than one heating or two motor driven appliances per circuit.
7. If extension cords must be used, use heavy duty ones for appliances. Ordinary light duty will often overheat.
8. Plug detachable controls or cords into the appliance before plugging into outlet. Disconnect from outlet, then appliance.
9. Many appliances now come 3-pronged. The third or longest prong houses the grounding wire.
10. If a three hole outlet is not available, use an adapter and securely ground it to the screw holding the face plate in position.

Sunflowers May Become Cash Crop

The sunflower is fast gaining prominence as a possible cash crop in the Southwest. A breeding program has been underway at the High Plains Research Foundation since 1961. The aims of the sunflower breeding program are to develop improved varieties that are completely adapted to mechanization, have high yielding ability, short stalks, and are disease and insect resistant. Since some varieties now have an oil content of 40% and because of the low irrigation requirements and a growing season of 85 to 95 days, sunflowers could become a dependable cash crop in many areas.

This is a crop that has been more highly developed in countries other than its native USA. The Russian sunflower breeders have developed sunflower varieties that contain as much as 56% oil.

The sunflower moth is a serious threat to susceptible varieties. This is an insect pest that lays eggs in the developing head. Then the hatched larvae devour the meat on the inside of the seed. There is at least one insecticide now approved for use in controlling the moth, but plant breeders are searching for inherently resistant strains as a better way to escape damage from this pest.

Two hundred nineteen strains and varieties were included in the sunflower nursery which was planted on June 19, 1967. These were selections from 642 strains and varieties from previous plantings. One irrigation was applied on August 9 and no insecticides were applied in order to observe individual plant resistance to the head moth.

Individual selections were made for the 1968 nursery, which will be under the direction of Ben H. Quebe, Assistant Agronomist, and Dr. Douglas Owen, Senior Agronomist at the Foundation.

DOES YOUR DIET INCLUDE ENOUGH MILK?

Over the 10 year period from 1955 to 1965, the number of Americans having good diets dropped from 60 to 50 percent, according to a national food consumption study just released by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Decreased use of milk products was one of the principal reasons for this 10 percent drop, says USDA.

Why is milk so important to both children and adults? For one thing, milk and milk products are a major source of the mineral calcium - a vital element needed daily by the people of all ages because it plays such a major role in good health and growth.

Calcium serves two important functions in the body. It gives rigidity and permanency to bones and teeth. These characteristics make it possible for bones to support the body and to form protective cavities around vital organs such as the heart and lungs.

A second role of calcium is regulating specific body functions. For example, calcium is required in the tissue fluid that lubricates the heart muscles so that contractions occur normally.

Also, calcium helps regulate blood clot formation.

If your diet contains ample amounts of calcium, the body stores some of it in the bones. In case of an emergency when calcium for some reason is restricted, these reserves are released to meet body needs.

Your most dependable source of calcium is milk and dairy foods which are plentiful now, says USDA's Consumer and Marketing Service.

The simplest way to get enough milk into your meals is to serve it as a beverage.

How much milk is needed depends on the age of the person. Nutritionists recommend the following amounts:

- Children under 9 - 2 to 3;
- children 9 to 12 - 3 or more;
- teenagers - 4 or more - adults, 2 or more - Pregnant women over 19 - 3 or more;
- Nursing mothers over 19 - 4 or more.

Not only is milk a good source of calcium but is rich in riboflavin, a B vitamin that helps keep skin healthy and vision clear.

There are other nutrients in milk, too - additional vitamins and minerals, fat and sugar.

With all this, milk is moderately low in calories. Did you know that one cup (8 fluid ounces) of fresh whole milk contains only about 160 calories?

Parenthood Group Meets

The executive committee and board members of the Responsible Parenthood Association met March 5 in the Floyd County Courtroom with Juan Salinas, President, in charge.

The minutes were read and approved. The treasurer reported a $12 balance. The list of committee members were read. It was suggested that a tape be recorded advertising the program over the radio.

Dues for members were discussed. It was decided that each member pay $5 annual fee.

It was suggested that a clinic date be set as soon as a table can be obtained. The following nurses have volunteered their services for the clinics: Mrs. Carr, Mrs. Cosby, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Simpson, Mrs. Parkey and Mrs. Battey.

It was agreed that 10 or 12 patients at one clinic would be enough. It was decided that the Lubbock Planned Parenthood be contacted to see if they could hold a workshop for committee chairmen and officers.

A date will be set as soon as more information can be obtained.

The Volunteer Committee will be responsible for cleaning rooms at the Della Plains school building.

Mrs. Joyce Wilson of Wilson Photography in Lockney has a photograph published in the March issue of "The Professional Photographer," a national and international publication.

The photograph titled "Fruit Analogy" is one of a series used to illustrate an article, "Pictorials Lead the Way," written by Paul L. Gittings, M. Photog., which describes the progress, in recent years, in the field of photography. It points up the various techniques and methods individual photographers use to bring forth their message in this medium of the arts.

Chuck and Joyce Wilson of the studio earned five ribbons last Thursday in the South Plains Professional Photographers Assn. bi-monthly meeting and print show. The event was held in Lubbock.

The couple took first and second place in the color commercial category, first and second in color portrait category and second with an oil color photo.

TIME TO PLANT DRYLAND PASTURES—Now is the time to plant dryland pastures. This can be done by seeding in a dead litter cover of generally red-top cane or grain sorghum stubble. The dead litter cover serves as protection from high winds and extremes in temperature until the seedling is well established. The grass should be planted one-half to three-quarters of an inch deep in a FIRM seedbed using a grass seed drill or a modified grain drill. Such plantings should be on a drill spacing in order to receive the maximum amount of ground cover. The date for planting dryland pastures is from Dec. 1 to June 1. The best species adapted to the fine textured Pullman soils of Floyd County are Caucasian Bluestem, Side-oats Grama, and Green Sprangletop. If you have excessive slopes on your land which constantly receive erosion damage following heavy rains, a permanent grass might be the answer to this problem.

Approximately 2950 acres will be seeded to a permanent grass in the Floyd County Soil and Water Conservation District this year. If you are interested in a permanent pasture, contact the Soil Conservation Service for assistance on recommended species, planting rates, planting dates, and management of pasture grasses.

NEWS FOR HOMEMAKERS

by Sherry Mullin
Floyd County H.D Agent

Delight your family with a variety of flavorful fruits. They're bright in color, light in calories, and right in nutrition!

All fruits contain some vitamin C but in varying amounts. Fruits rich in vitamin C are oranges, grapefruit, cantaloupes, papayas, and strawberries.

Fruits containing smaller but worthwhile amounts of vitamin C are fresh apricots, avocados, bananas, blackberries, blueberries, pineapple, red raspberries, and watermelons.

For vitamin A, serve cantaloupe and apricots. Dried apricots are a concentrated source of vitamin A.

Good sources of iron include dried fruits such as raisins, dates, prunes, peaches, and apricots. A 1/2 cup serving of most dried fruits provides about one-fourth of the iron recommended for the normal healthy adult per day.

Count as a serving: One medium size apple, banana, orange, peach or pear. Two or three apricots, figs or plums. One half cup fruit and liquid. Serve fruits liberally - especially those rich in vitamin C. Most of them are available in one form or another year around.

Most fresh, raw unsweetened fruits contain fewer than 100 calories per serving. Sweetened frozen fruits and fruits canned in heavy syrup, however are considerably higher in calories.

Following are recipes featuring fruit beverages:

Golden Punch—28 servings, 1/2 cup each

Pineapple-orange frozen concentrate—6 oz can

Lemonade frozen concentrate 2 cans, 6 oz. each

Apricot nectar, canned—3 cups

Water—9 cups (2 1/4 quarts)

Combine all ingredients, except orange slices. Mix well. Serve over ice, garnish with orange slices, if desired. Calories per serving: About 65.

Variation:

Sherbet punch. Float 1 quart of orange sherbet in punchbowl; serve a little of the sherbet with each serving of punch.

PINK APPLE-LIMEADE

32 servings, 1/2 cup each

Cranberry juice, bottled—6 cups (1 1/2 quarts)

Apple juice, bottled or reconstituted frozen—4 cups (1 quart)

Lime juice—1/4 cup

Limeade frozen concentrate—2 cans, 6 ounces each

Water—4 1/2 cups

Mint sprigs—As desired

Combine all ingredients except mint sprigs; mix well. Chill.

Serve over ice. Garnish with mint sprigs, if desired.

Calories per serving: About 70.

VARIATION

Sherbet limeade - Float 1 quart of lime sherbet in punchbowl; serve a little of the sherbet with each serving of punch.

MOST EFFECTIVE weed control in cotton use Herban on top of an incorporated material

If required for additional control, you can use post-emerge treatments of HERBAN-62 (HERBAN plus MSMA) to kill emerging weeds and grasses without danger to your cotton. Then, for clean fields at harvest time, use a lay-by application of HERBAN immediately after last cultivation.

No herbicide can guarantee you a bumper crop like this, but HERBAN gives you weed control unsurpassed by any other surface applied herbicide... plus built-in safety factors and multiple uses that other herbicides cannot offer. HERBAN allows you to plant most any fall crop you like without fear of "herbicide hangover".

For the MOST EFFECTIVE weed control in cotton use Herban on top of an incorporated material

HERBAN's sensible residual allows you to incorporate a full recommended treatment of an incorporated herbicide as the first step toward pre-emerge weed control. Then at planting time you can apply a full rate of HERBAN on top of a full rate of an incorporated material.

HERBAN will kill those broadleaf weeds and grasses that escape the incorporated material, yet HERBAN is safer to your cotton. If necessary, you can replant your cotton and apply a second full treatment of HERBAN. Or you can plant soybeans instead.

Devotional of the Month

Putting GOD First

Put first things first! That is what Christ said in his Sermon on the Mount. "Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness." This is solid logic that we can understand—particularly we Americans. In times of national danger, without hesitation we put the interests of national safety first.

This is exactly what Christ means by putting first things first. He says that God and His Kingdom should have top priority in our lives. The Saviour insists that no person or thing should take the place in our lives that belongs to God and His Kingdom. He urges His disciples to recognize this and give to God His rightful place of pre-eminence.

In Isaiah 44, there is a striking description of the pagan who gives his leftovers to God. The man cuts down a tree, warms himself with a fire, and roasts his meat. Comfortable and well fed, he takes what remains of the wood and carves it into an idol. As Isaiah says, And of the residue thereof he maketh a god.

Is this a picture of our religion????
 The deceptive part about this business of putting self first and God last is this: very few people actually realize that this is what they are doing. In the ordinary course of life, without thinking, they allow God to be crowded out of His rightful place. Take the innkeeper in Luke 2, as an example. When Joseph and Mary came to him, his hotel was already full. It wasn't that he had anything against the carpenter and his wife. Nor did he hate and oppose the Baby Jesus. It was just that his hotel was crowded, and there was no room for them in the inn.

$5,609,100 In FHA Loan Funds Used By Farmers

A total of $5,609,100 in loan funds have been used in Floyd and Motley Counties to support family farms since the Farmers Home Administration was expanded five years ago, Alfred A. Harrison, local supervisor for the rural credit agency said recently.

Approximately $1,332,940 was advanced in the 1967 fiscal year.

Currently 124 farmers in Floyd and Motley Counties are using the supervised credit services of the Farmers Home Administration.

The supply of Farmers Home Administration credit, which supplements the credit supplied by banks and other private credit sources is one of the measured recommended by President Johnson to provide family farmers an opportunity to earn parity of income.

"The loans have enabled farmers to stay in business who would otherwise have had to give up and go to the city. They have helped young farmers get established. They have enabled farmers to keep going after losses due to adverse weather conditions," Harrison noted.

Farmers Home Administration loans can be used to buy land, refinance debts, acquire livestock and equipment, pay fertilizer and fuel bills and pay other expenses connected with acquiring, improving, and operating farms.

The incomes of farmers using Farmers Home Administration credit in Floyd and Motley Counties in 1967 totaled approximately $2,232,000.

Growers bought every pound of Planavin® Herbicide they could get their hands on last season. Read why.

Planavin is the cotton-soybean herbicide that gives you more than your money's worth.

Shell's Planavin® Herbicide gives you more than just excellent preemergence control. Nothing on the market does a better job.

It had to be more than just another good weed killer in order to break in against established competition. Growers found out how good last season. Planavin proved itself under the worst weather conditions in years. It held the fort against most annual grasses and many broadleaf weeds—right through the early period when control really counts. Growers got what they paid for—freedom from weed problems during the time when weeds can strangle young cotton and soybeans. Plus a sound control base that makes season-long control programs simpler and more economical.

Planavin also gives you a bonus. It frees you from immediate incorporation. Takes the pressure off. And it can save you hours of application time.

With Planavin you can spray by ground or air. You can use large rigs, wide booms. Covering large acreage fast saves you hours. There's no waiting for incorporation equipment to catch up. No downtime for custom applicators. The reason? Planavin doesn't require immediate incorporation. You can take your time. Even a few hours of exposure to air and sun won't wipe out your weed control when you use Planavin. Note: When you do incorporate, keep it shallow—no deeper than 1 to 1½ inches. Don't bury your Planavin below the sprouting weeds.

Get Shell's Planavin® Herbicide early—to keep the pressure on weeds and off you. Shell Chemical Company, Agricultural Chemicals Division: Suite 500, First Bank and Trust Bldg., Richardson, Texas 75080
