COTTON PLANTING GETTING UNDERWAY

County Crop Outlook Good

Moisture Highest In Past 39 Years

Farming activity shifted out of low gear into high during the past week in Floyd County, and although not yet at peak activity, grain sorghum seed is going into the ground and there have been isolated reports of cotton planting.

Of course, main reason for the speedup is the weather which has been ideal for the past week to ten days, the last freezing temperature reported the night of April 4 when the mercury dipped to 28.

Highs have ranged from a 58 on April 5 to the low 80's on Tuesday.

And, of more importance is the rainfall picture with a total of 5.48 inches thus far in 1968.

Of the total, 4.89 fell during January - February - March, more than any amount recorded in Floydada since 1929, the only year with more moisture recorded in the 43 years since 1925 when the rainfall records were begun.

Breakdown of the rainfall shows 1.37 in January, 1.56 in February, 1.96 in March and .59 in April.

With the exceptional moisture and the warm weather, most county farmers have hopes of a bumper yield of cotton, maize and wheat, with others trying their hands at such crops as onions and cantaloupes.

A total of 77,239 Floyd County acres are eligible for cotton planting, more than 20,000 acres than were planted last year. Last year's yield was 1.2 bales per acre, a total of 69,519.

In the grain sorghum picture, some of which is already sending shoots into the warm April air, there are 92,532 acres to be planted by county farmers, compared to about 120,000 harvested acres in 1967.

County wheat farmers have a total allotment of 131,514 acres this year, compared to about 100,000 harvested acres in 1967.

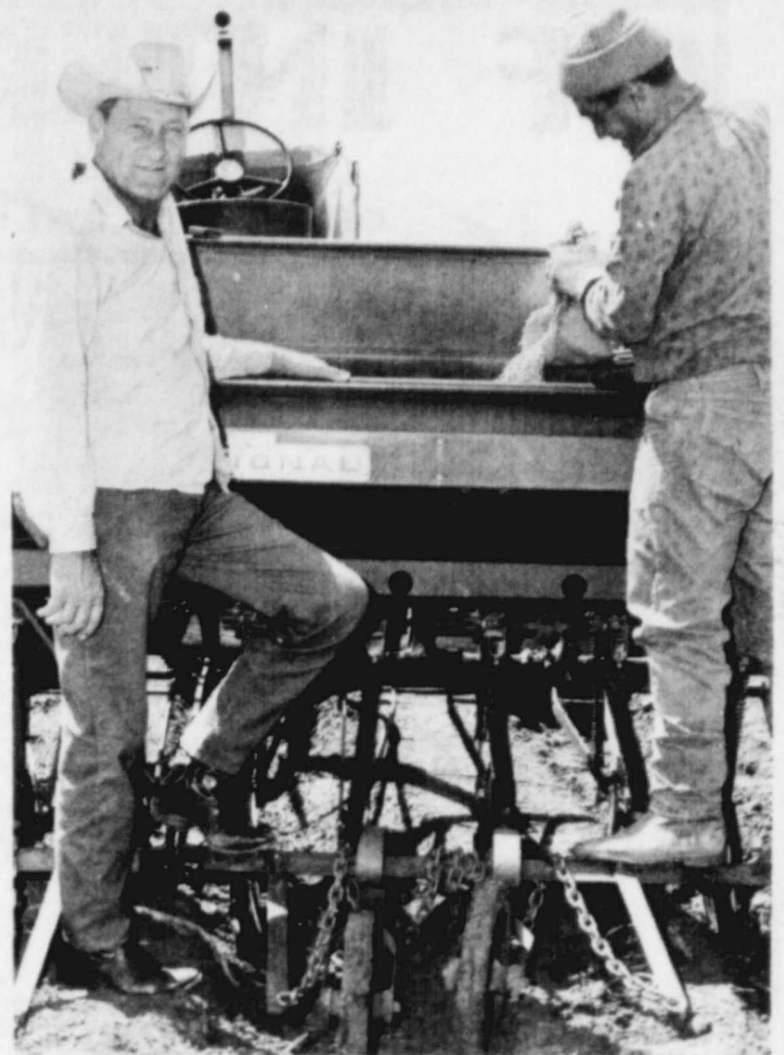

Tom Moore, county ASCS office manager, reminds the wheat farmers that their acreage must be certified at his office by May 1.

As far as other crops are concerned, there is an estimated 750-800 acres of onions already planted in the county and perhaps 150 acres of cantaloupes are in the planning stage.

Although grain, wheat and onions are already in the planted or planting stage, a widespread influx of cotton planting is perhaps at least one week away.

Most farmers choose to begin planting after the soil reaches a minimum of 60 degrees for a 10 day period at an eight inch depth, that figure standing at 52 degrees on Monday in the Lubbock area.

IT'S NOT TOO EARLY - Lonnie Hinsley (left) and many other Floyd County farmers illustrated the fact this week that its not too early to begin planting grain sorghum, some farmers even reported to have already planted a few acres of cotton. Above, Milton Quiroz, an employee of Hinsley's, is shown putting seed in a planter before finishing a 44-acre plot 3 miles south of Floydada on Tuesday. (Staff Photo)

Breed Is Named Police Officer

Frank Breed, 300 East Kentucky, Floydada, began his duties as new City of Floydada policeman Tuesday, according to an announcement by city officials.

Breed replaces Olan Poteet, policeman for the city for the past eight months, who has resigned.

Breed, a native of Floyd County, also farms. He is a veteran of two years in the Army during World War II.

Breed's family includes his wife, Helen, and children, Joe Mack, 15, Rex, 11, and Pam, 13. They attend the First Baptist Church, Floydada.

Floydada Methodist Pastor Will Retire

Floydada First Methodist pastor Herschel Thurston submitted his resignation to the official board of the church Tuesday night and said that he planned to retire.

In 1899 he became Presiding Elder of the Duncan Oklahoma district of Methodist churches.

Rev. Thurston said that he and his wife would retire to their home in Ute Park, New Mexico, after annual conference convenes in May at Amarillo.

He started out teaching school and attending school in the summer and making a living for nine children. He became ill and the doctor suggested New Mexico for health's sake.

In making his resignation, Rev. Thurston said that he had served the Methodist Church for 45 years, and expressed his appreciation to the officials and people of the Floydada church for their cooperation the past two years he has served as pastor here.

So the L. L. Thurston family moved to New Mexico.

"I've lived about all of my life in a parsonage," Rev. Thurston told a Hesperian reporter. "My father is a Methodist preacher and I answered the call to preach at an early age," he continued.

"Hard work won't hurt you" seems to be a philosophy of the elder Thurston, who today is 94 years of age. He was able to help the nine children get 137 years of schooling, one received a PHD degree, four of the girls taught school.

"The Lord and the Methodist Church have been good to me and my wife, and we have many happy memories of the years spent in the pastorate," Rev. Thurston continued.

The elder Thurston held pastorates at Raton, El Paso, Deming, Alamogordo, Gallup, Portales, Texaco, Elida, Rogers, New Mexico and Pecos, Texas. He did supply pastorates at La Mesa and El Paso.

THURSTON PARENTS Rev. and Mrs. L. L. Thurston live at El Paso and Rev. Thurston is 94 years of age. He first began preaching in 1893 in the Indian territory of Oklahoma.

HERSCHEL'S MINISTRY Rev. Herschel Thurston attended Clarendon College two years ago.

MORE PAVING FOR FLOYDADA

City Council Okays Teen-Age Curfew

The Floydada City Council approved a new teenage curfew ordinance at its monthly meeting last Wednesday night. The new ordinance requires that all persons 17 years of age or under be off the streets by 12 p.m. on Sunday through Thursday nights and 1 a.m. on Friday and Saturday nights.

The council approved an expenditure of approximately $6,000 for re-paving 33 blocks in the west part of the city. This follows the paving improvement program set up a few years ago, insuring that city streets will be improved every four years.

The other newly elected councilman Ray Gene Ferguson was not present for the meeting. Junior Simpson was re-elected as Mayor Pro-Tem; approval was given for purchase of a $542 Mohawk steam cleaner for the engines in the electrical plant; approval of letting bids for a new ton truck with ladder equipment; tabulated and accepted results of election judge on city council election;

The request was made by police chief Tom Hopper. Chief Hopper told the council that this would help solve some problems of teenagers who were driving or roaming the streets as late as 5 a.m. in the morning.

Bids notice for the paving contract will be published. Marshall Haney was interviewed by the council concerning a new type of caliche paving that is being used as a base on the new highway 70 east of Floydada.

And, approved sending city secretary Jimmie Lou Stewart to the annual secretary's school to be held at Denton on April 17-20; finalized plans for securing right-of-way for paving of Price Street with the City Attorney; discussed better street program for the Della Plains area; approved purchase of new electrical cable for landing light system at the airport; approved purchase of a MSA Airpack for the fire department.

Chief Hopper said similar curfews were in effect in Lockney and other area towns and he felt that a curfew ordinance would help a lot of Floydada teenagers get home before they get into trouble.

The council approved paving of two blocks in the city on an experimental basis. The paving is a combination of mixed caliche and sealer fluid.

OTHER BUSINESS In other business Junior Simpson and Wayne Russell were sworn in as councilmen.

A complete explanation of the curfew ordinance is printed elsewhere in this edition of

MRS. RAY C. McDONALD
(nee Adelaide Boucher)

Adelaide Boucher Is Bride Of Ray Clement McDonald

Miss Adelaide R. Boucher became the bride of Ray Clement McDonald in a ceremony read at 7 o'clock p.m. Saturday, April 13 in the St. Paul's Episcopal Chapel at Harris Hill, New York.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phyllis J. Boucher of Buffalo, New York and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clement B. McDonald of Floydada.

Rev. Charles G. Rice performed the wedding before a background of Easter lilies. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor length gown of light ivory bridal taffeta. The neckline, bodice and elbow length sleeves were accented by Venice lace. The chapel length train fell from the waistline. Her veil of illusion fell from a flower and petal leaf cluster of iridescent seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and baby ivy centered with yellow roses.

Mrs. Cauandra B. Schmidt of Waterloo, N.Y., sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Mrs. Robert B. Coates, Waterloo, also a sister, was bridesmatron and Miss Suzanne Marie Boucher of Syracuse, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid.

The honor attendant wore a blue floor length A-line gown with a natural waistline and elbow length sleeves. A bow at the back waistline held a flying panel train which fell to the floor. Other feminine attendants were gowned identically, only in pastel green. Each carried a carnation bouquet.

The groom's father was best man and ushers were Laverne A. Wilson, Waterloo, cousin of the bride and Thomas N. McMahon, Konawanda, N.Y., uncle of the bride.

Following the wedding a reception was held at Williamsville Inn at Williamsville, N.Y. Afterwards the newlyweds left for a honeymoon trip to Toronto, Canada. Upon their return they will reside at 1518 Malcolm Lane in Wichita Falls, Tex.

The bride is a graduate of the State University of New York in Fredonia and is an officer in the United States Air Force. Her husband attended Midwestern University in Wichita Falls and is shift supervisor for Trade Winds Motor Hotel.

Golden Wedding Anniversary Observed Sunday By Pruitts

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Pruitt, 1409 Lexington, Plainview, were married April 20, 1918, in Pittsburg, Texas, and Sunday they were honored with a reception in observance of their golden wedding anniversary.

Hosting the reception in the Pioneer Flame Room were their three sons and daughter. Sons are Edwin, who is engaged in farming at Silverton; Buran, supervisor of maintenance of Phillips Petroleum in Borger, and Don of Plainview, who is co-owner of Barrett Ambulance. Their daughter is Mrs. L. F. Gay of Waco, whose husband is chief master sergeant in SAC Langley Air Force Base. The Pruitts have 12 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Pruitt moved to Plainview in 1926. Until Pruitt's retirement in 1964 he was employed by Plainview Hospital and Clinic Foundation. They lived in Mangum, Okla., and Floydada where he farmed before the Pruitts moved. He is a World War I veteran.

Mrs. Pruitt was a saleslady in department stores until 1963. Both she and her husband are members of First Baptist Church where he is a deacon. She is a former teacher of Ruth Bible Class at Bethel Baptist Church in Plainview.

Assisting at the houseparty were Mmes. Jimmy Hodel, Albert Smith and Raymond Reeves. Outstanding decoration for one of the tables was a miniature buggy with bride and groom occupants, symbolic of the setting 50 years ago when the honorees were married.

Mr. and Mrs. Reeves had obtained their marriage license and driving by a minister's home saw him standing on the front porch. They stopped for casual conversation and remained in the buggy. He jokingly inquired, "Where is the marriage license," they produced it and the minister began the ceremony.

At the serving table the buggy shared focal point of decoration with the arrangement of mums.

THE war in Vietnam which has brought heartache and sorrow to so many, was brought even closer to home last week when it was learned that "one of our boys" had died of wounds sustained from enemy mortar fire. We could not term Jack as being a war casualty from Floydada, but to those who knew him so well, we feel we have lost a Floydada boy. Jack was an only son and to my mind comes a portion of a letter written by a mother of another only son, who was also killed in Vietnam. She said in referring to the death of her son, "I am not bitter. I shall not allow myself ever to become bitter - bitterness and hatred only destroy the one who indulges in those practices. I have wept for my son; I have wept for his friends - but last night I wept for my country."

KENNETH Mankins, who has served his duty in Vietnam and recently back from Vietnam, is now enrolled at West Texas University.

RICHARD Bertrand, a member of the U.S. Navy, is now with a Marine division in Vietnam. The Floydada boy is a busy sailor but would take time out to enjoy letters from his friends. His address is Richard Bertrand, BM2. 915-82-24, Hq. B.N., 3rd Marine Division, c/o FPO, San Francisco, Calif., 96602.

IN case you're interested, Dr. Ben Casey, remember him? and his actress wife, Linda Foster, are parents of an eight pound, two and a half ounce baby daughter named Angela. It was the first child for the couple.

I LIKE the explanation given by a fashion coordinator on an example of skirt lengths. She said the correct hemline should depend on the style of the ensemble, the figure that wears it and the date on your birth certificate.

THE amount of sleep required by the average person is five minutes more.

ADULT delinquency is increasing. Since children have learned to dial the phone, adjust the TV, and thaw the food, parents are left free to roam the streets.

MRS. Bill Smith and Mrs. Dorris Jones were in Lubbock Tuesday and visited Mrs. R. W. Poynor, whose husband died in Floydada recently of a heart attack. Dr. Poynor was here conducting a revival at the West Side Church of Christ and was stricken with a heart attack in his motel room about 5 o'clock one morning. Mrs. Poynor related to the Floydada women how appreciative she was for the promptness of the Moore-Rose ambulance attendants when they were called, how quick a doctor got to the hospital to care for her husband and the kindness shown by everyone. Mrs. Poynor is selling her home in Lubbock and moving shortly to Portales, N.M., and wanted everyone here to know of her deep gratitude toward the people of Floydada.

CAN TELL YOU WHY.

The excellent yield potential of this great new Northrup King grain sorghum makes it ideal for your best land. The extra large, semi-open heads of NK 280 open fast... thresh clean and easy. NK 280 also has excellent standability and good smut resistance. In regional trials, NK 280 produced yields of well over 8,400 pounds of grain per acre. Plant this high producer hybrid on your best land.

THANK GOD I, TOO,
AM AN AMERICAN
 (By Jody Jameson)

Today I received a letter from my pen-pal overseas. She described an average day in her life. She started by saying she woke with a chill because of the draft coming through the cracks in the walls of her small three-room home. She dressed quickly, and helped prepare her family's breakfast which would be a mere appetizer for me. She walked to school which meets six days a week from seven thirty in the morning to five o'clock in the evening. In one of her classes her teacher continued the lesson that God is just a fantasy in the minds of some men. He emphasized that the reason men think of a God is to escape reality.

After school she worked at a nearby factory to help earn part of her family's living. She returned home very tired but could not go to sleep because of the whistling wind outside the thin walls.

The next morning was Sunday. While my family was attending church services at a beautiful building, her family was holding their own services in their small home with fear of being discovered.

Tonight while I was preparing for bed, my mind recalled the events of my average day. As I crawled into my warm bed, I thought of the freedoms and luxuries which I take advantage of every day. I am so very thankful that by the grace of God, I am an American.

Making The Drag

BY SUZANNE GUTHRIE

Hasn't the Easter Holiday been wonderful? Since we didn't come back to school until Tuesday, we are just now getting back in the groove of things.

Last Thursday we had our carnival. It was really great, and we want to thank each of you who contributed.

Since our District win, the play "Alice in Wonderland" will go to Regional. Good luck to Miss Schneider and the cast. Let's take it to State.

Also going to Regional are Rande Brown, Sheila Taylor, Eloy Martinez, Keith Norrell, Teresa Hinsley, Edwin Warren, Victor Smith, Willa Finley, Dale Baker and Steve Pierce. Congratulations to our girls volleyball team on such a fine job. It was nice to have so many college kids home over the holiday. Which reminds me that I promised Larry Hunter a special Hello, so "Hi, Larry!"

All of you be sure and come to the Miss Floydada Pageant. It will really be a wonderful event.

It's unreal how many kids in F.H.S. are on crutches, or have been recently; Jody Bachus, Joe Thurston, Charlotte Decker, Terry James, Jody James; but we're wishing a quick recovery to each of them.

Mrs. Spencer, our art teacher, and the senior class have really been busy getting ready for "Miss Floydada" while all the juniors are working hard to get ready for the Jr.-Sr. Banquet. They both require a lot of time and hard work. But knowing the kids, we'll be ready for both.

Ronnie Hill told me something this last week that I want to share with you.

We were talking and he said, "Suzanne, worrying is just like sitting in a rocking chair. It gives you something to do but you don't get anywhere."

You know, he's right. I think teen-agers are prone to worry a lot about even the littlest things. And the worrying does us no good. I guess we all just need to learn to accept what we can't change, to learn how to change what we can, and the knowledge to distinguish one from the other.

After having such a long holiday, there really isn't much news, and I don't have a lot to tell you, but I can't change that so I've decided not to worry about it. Have a good week.

Suzanne Guthrie

Of Interest to Veterans

Fifteen specific legislative and administrative proposals are included in President Johnson's most recent message to Congress on servicemen and veterans.

1. To increase the low cost group life insurance now available to members of the Armed Forces from the present maximum of $10,000 to $30,000.

2. To protect disabled veterans, widows and children against disproportionate pension loss as a result of increases in other income such as Social Security.

3. To increase the maximum portion of G.I. loan so that it can be guaranteed by the government from $7,500 to $10,000.

4. To permit part-time VA vocational rehabilitation training so service-disabled veterans can improve their skills while working at a regular job.

5. Enactment of a resolution expressing the sense of Congress that private employers should give job priority to returning servicemen.

6. To provide incentives to channel the talents of returning Vietnam era servicemen into teaching in deprived areas, or serving local communities as policemen, firemen and hospital workers.

On the subject of national cemeteries, the President said: "Every veteran who wants it... those who risked their lives at Belleau Wood, Iwo Jima and the DMZ... should have the right to burial in a National Cemetery situated reasonably close to his home."

Texas Wheat Production Looks Good

Texas wheat production, based on April 1 prospects, is forecast at 97,508,000 bushels, 36 percent above the 71,848,000 bushels estimated in December.

If present estimated production is realized, it will be 83 percent above the 1967 production of 53,216,000 bushels, when drought and freeze damage seriously reduced yield. Acreage seeded for this year's crop at 5,132,000 acres is eight percent below acreage planted for the previous year.

The increased production from reduced acres is due primarily to exceptionally favorable moisture conditions.

Wheat in Texas has had an abundant moisture since the first of the year, with the exception of the Northern High Plains, where dryland wheat is beginning to show signs of moisture stress. Greenbug damage has been widespread and spraying has been necessary in all major wheat growing areas, but the crop has not been permanently damaged. Most cattle have been moved off wheat where a grain crop is expected.

The 69 counties reporting to this office as of April 11, 1968, indicate the condition of the wheat crop in their areas as follows: 52 counties reported their crop in good condition; 17 counties reported their crop in average condition; and no counties reported their crop in poor condition.

MOST EFFECTIVE weed control in cotton use Herban on top of an incorporated material

If required for additional control, you can use post-emerge treatments of HERBAN-62 (HERBAN plus MSMA) to kill emerging weeds and grasses without danger to your cotton. Then, for clean fields at harvest time, use a lay-by application of HERBAN immediately after last cultivation.

No herbicide can guarantee you a bumper crop like this, but HERBAN gives you weed control unsurpassed by any other surface applied herbicide . . . plus built-in safety factors and multiple uses that other herbicides cannot offer. HERBAN allows you to plant most any fall crop you like without fear of "herbicide hangover".

HERBAN's sensible residual allows you to incorporate a full recommended treatment of an incorporated herbicide as the first step toward pre-emerge weed control. Then at planting time you can apply a full rate of HERBAN on top of a full rate of an incorporated material.

HERBAN will kill those broadleaf weeds and grasses that escape the incorporated material, yet HERBAN is safer to your cotton. If necessary, you can replant your cotton and apply a second full treatment of HERBAN. Or you can plant soybeans instead.

Willie Wiredhand NOTES

LIGHTHOUSE ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE, INC.
MARY PHILLIPS, HOME ECONOMIST

It may be regarded as "old hat" to discuss the merits of owning an automatic dishwasher. Yet a Home Economics Director for one of the leading dishwasher manufacturers points out that the saturation of dishwashers is surprisingly low - in only 15.7% of U.S. homes as of 1966 - considering that it is one of the most effective means of saving a homemaker's time to allow her more leisure.

During the First Annual Home Appliance Conference in Washington, D.C., she dispelled many misconceptions which persist concerning the benefits of a dishwasher. The following information is adapted from her presentation, "Time To Go Modern":

A dishwasher uses too much water. - Actually it uses less water per day than probably would be required in washing the dishes by hand. The machine fills with about 2 gallons for each wash and rinse cycle - recirculating this water over the dishes with a vigorous scrubbing action about 5 times in a full cycle. The soiled water is drained, then fresh water is pumped in and recirculated - for a total of about 11-13 gallons per load.

A dishwasher requires too much advance scraping and rinsing. - Automatic pre-rinsing eliminates the need for hand-rinsing before machine-washing. Manufacturers recommend only removing bones and other left-overs before loading.

A dishwasher won't clean pots, pans and casseroles. - Powerful scrubbing action, combined with very hot water and special detergents formulated just for automatic dishwashers, will generally clean utensils completely.

Any "almost clean" piece can be polished off in seconds, compared with the time and energy required to clean it completely by hand.

A dishwasher can't be used with a septic tank. - Dishwasher detergents are compatible with septic tanks and leech beds, so they can be safely drained into a tank. The machine actually puts less water and detergent into the tank - because most homemakers use an automatic dishwasher only once a day vs. three times when washing dishes by hand.

The dishwasher is a long term investment, it should be used for everything possible to assure maximum dividends. Therefore, any new dishes and equipment should be selected with the machine in mind. For example it is best to avoid buying glasses and cups that have concave wells where water collects when they are loaded upside down.

The cleaning ability of any dishwasher is affected by the water quality, the type of detergent, and care in loading. Water should be 140-160 degrees at the dishwasher for proper rinsing and efficient drying, and only a special detergent designed for dishwashers should be used - in amounts recommended on the package. This may need to be somewhat varied depending on water conditions and on type and degree of soil.

Continuing improvements assure superior washing and drying, longer dishwasher life with less service, and many practical user conveniences such as:

- Automatic pre-washing and pre-rinsing
- Dual detergent and rinse agent dispensers
- Baskets or compartments for small items
- Flexible racks adjustable to suit family needs and to provide more total capacity - and more space for larger items - without increasing exterior dimensions
- Special cycles that wash longer for heavier soil or less for lighter soil and fragile china
- Cycles with reduced drying time for loads that dry quickly
- Rinse only cycles for partial loads to be washed and dried later
- Sanitizing cycles where water is actually heated right in the dishwasher for high temperature rinsing.

All these variables make it desirable to shop carefully in order to select the dishwasher best suited to each family's needs and wants. It is then important to read, understand, and follow the directions in the accompanying use-care manual.

To go along with those fresh vegetables, try this easy version of MEXICAN CORN BREAD:

3 tablespoons margarine
2 medium onions, chopped
1 package corn muffin mix
1 cup dairy sour cream
1 cup canned cream-style corn
1/2 cup sharp American cheese, grated

Saute onions in margarine. Prepare corn muffin mix according to package directions, substituting 1 cup cream-style corn for milk. Add onions, pour into 9" square pan; top with grated cheese, and then sour cream. Bake about 40 minutes in 425 degree electric oven

ONLY 12 days left to get that new dryer and collect your $15.00 bonus from your utility company.

Aggie Muster Set Saturday In Plainview

Former students of Texas A&M in Hale, Floyd, Lamb, Swisher, Bailey, Castro and Briscoe Counties will Muster Saturday, April 20 to mark the passing of comrades and honor Texans who won independence at San Jacinto.

The 7:30 p.m. meeting will be held at the Southwestern Public Service Reddy Room in Plainview, Muster Chairman Carl Weidenbach reported.

Wives, families and guests are invited.

The Aggie Muster began in 1903 when the 300-member Corps of Cadets paid homage to the Texans who defeated the Mexican Army in 1836. Musters have been held since . . . wherever A&M might find themselves on that day. Aggies have Mustered on board ship, in foxholes on the battlefield, in the Swiss Alps, and even on Corregidor shortly before

FLOYD PHILOSOPHER Why De Gaulle Is Mad; Also Wants Search For Intelligence In Space

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm reports on a few items he has run across lately.

Dear editor:
I brushed the ants off a copy of the Sunday issue of The Amarillo Globe-News which somebody had used to wrap up a picnic lunch they ate on the roadside near this Johnson grass farm yesterday and after reading it I've come up with a few items I'd like to report on.

First, I've found out why President De Gaulle is mad at the United States. France still owes us 7 billion dollars in World War I debts, and it's one of the quirks of human nature that when somebody owes you and can't or won't pay, he gets mad at you, whereas you'd think it rightfully would be the other way around. This explains everything. You figure up what the principal and interest on 7 billion dollars for 50 years come to and you can see De Gaulle is so mad it's all he can do to keep from coming over here and thrashing us within an inch of our life.

Also, I notice that Europeans are denouncing us because we're pulling out a lot of our troops stationed there since World War II to help protect them at our expense. Let's see, how many troops did those natic's send to help us in Viet Nam? How much money did they contribute?

And finally, over on an inside page, I read that radio monitoring stations lately have been picking up strange signals from far out in space, which some scientists believe may be coming from intelligent creatures from somewhere in the vastness of the boundless universe.

On this theory, the scientists want more money to finance a continuing and expanded search for intelligent life somewhere out there.

I say let them have the money. Who knows, somewhere out there on some other planet they may indeed someday find some intelligent life. It's worth a try. Up to now, they haven't been able to find any on this planet.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Letter To The Editor

Mr. Wendell Tooley
Floyd County Hesperian
Floydada, Texas

Dear Mr. Tooley:
I hope you will see fit to print the following words from a letter which I have received from a judge of one of our appellate courts:

"I have been amused at all the laudatory remarks about King but not one commentator has yet mentioned the fact that the last words he uttered before he was killed was that he would not abide by an injunction issued by a court of record. When it gets to the point that court orders cannot be enforced we have anarchy. I feel sorry for the decent negroes like Roy Wilkins but I have lost all respect for those dedicated to the destruction of our government."

Very truly yours,
/s/ John B. Stapleton
John B. Stapleton

JBS/ja
(Editor's Note) The judge brings out a very true point. . . Dr. King was refusing to obey a court order not to march down the streets of Memphis.

It is interesting to note in history and the Bible that Mahatma Gandhi and Jesus Christ were also "law breakers". The Pharisees had quite a time with Jesus breaking laws. However both men are recorded as great men because their basic philosophy was one of love, rather than law.

I think, if the judge you have quoted will take time to study the life of Dr. King, he will find that his life was dedicated to helping the downtrodden people of the world and not destruction of our government.

Well . . . it will be interesting to see how historians will judge Dr. King's life. . . and we're not supposed to judge anyway. . . the good Lord makes the final judgment.

NEW! For clean Sorghum... spray weeds when you see them with BANVEL

HERBICIDE

Velsicol announces Banvel herbicide for control of all hard-to-kill weeds of major importance in grain sorghum. This includes carelessness (pigweed), sunflower, lambs-quarter, purslane, morning glory and other annual broadleaf weeds. Banvel herbicide is applied post-emergence, so there are no wasted sprays in years when rain is scarce and weeds are not a problem. With Banvel you see your weed problem and then spray - all in plenty of time to give young sorghum plants plenty of opportunity to grow.

Banvel is sprayed onto weed leaves and translocates to the roots. For new, total control of weeds. Just apply Banvel between the 10th and 25th day after emergence of grain sorghum (approximately 4 to 12 inches tall).

Banvel is not dependent on soil for its effectiveness, so its results are reliable. And it's a liquid that won't clog sprayers; nor does Banvel need agitation.

Banvel increases yields. It's extra use on grain sorghum, wheat, barley and field corn. Order Banvel herbicide from your member potential from your valuable, high yielding sorghum seed.

See your dealer today. You'll be glad you did!

DA NANG, VIETNAM (AHT-NC) - Douglas L. Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jinks Wilson, Matador, was promoted to Army specialist five on March 12 while serving with the 45th Engineer Group in Vietnam.

Spec. Wilson is a personnel specialist with the Headquarters Company of the 45th Engineer Group near Da Nang. He entered the Army in October 1966, completed basic training at Ft. Bliss, Tex., and was last stationed at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo.

The 24-year-old soldier was graduated from Matador High School in 1961 and earned a B.S. degree in agricultural education at Texas Technological College, Lubbock, where he was graduated in 1966.

Four Wrecks Investigated During March

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated four accidents on rural highways in Floyd County during the month of March, according to Sergeant Thurman Keffer, Highway Patrol Supervisor of this area.

The crashes resulted in two persons injured and an estimated property damage of $1,900.00.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first three months of 1968 shows a total of 12 accidents resulting in no persons killed, 7 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $9,569.00.

The final entry in the 1967 Texas traffic records has been entered and closed. There were 3,367 persons killed, 205,308 persons injured and an estimated property loss of $793,094,000.00. This compares to the 1966 record of 3,406 persons killed, 208,310 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $557,414,000.

1967 marks the first decline in traffic deaths and injuries since 1960. The Sergeant stated, "With new traffic laws and the willingness of the public to drive defensively, traffic deaths and injuries can be further reduced in 1968."

TAILWATER RECOVERY SYSTEM - A tailwater recovery system is a facility to collect, store and transport irrigation tailwater for re-use in the farm irrigation system. This type of system is applicable to farms that are irrigated by a graded furrow or graded border system. It is especially applicable to a farm which has sandy type soils with a high water intake rate. The tailwater system in the photo above is located on the Ike Johnson farm. The pit is 100 feet long, 50 feet wide and 6 feet deep, and will store approximately .7 acre feet of water. The pit serves a field of 133 acres. With the system, Johnson achieves approximately 90% efficiency with his irrigation water as compared to approximately 70% without the system. According to Johnson, he can now fill the soil profile without any water loss to runoff. Johnson was assisted in the design and layout of the system by local Soil Conservation Service personnel. The SCS personnel will be glad to assist area farmers in determining the need and feasibility of a tailwater recovery system on their farm.
