*** Ballot Marking System Changed

There are three important changes in the Election Code for both primaries and general elections in Texas balloting this year, as compared to the scheme used in 1968. Election officials are especially emphasizing that all voters must have registered before voting and that the system of marking ballots has been changed to the "square and 'X'" system. Under the marking system, a voter must put an 'X' in the square opposite the name of each candidate for whom he wishes to vote... he cannot vote for a candidate merely by leaving his name on the ballot, as under the old system where the voter scratched out the names of candidates for which he did not wish to vote. The old system is still lawful if the voter wishes to use it, but voters should be cautioned against mixing the two systems in marking their ballots.

Both Democratic and Republican first primary elections face voters of Floyd County and the State of Texas this Saturday (May 4) with very little activity on the county level and in the GOP races, but a run-off is virtually assured in the Demo primary due to the large number of gubernatorial job seekers. Only one race in Floyd County is contested and that only in Precinct 1 where incumbent commissioner John Fowler has opposition for the post from Roy Hale. Democratic incumbents are filed for all other county level posts with no opposition in the Republican primary which has no office seekers listed lower than state representative. Absentee voting for both primaries ended on Tuesday with a total of 125 votes cast in the Demo and 1 in the GOP. All persons who had not lived in the county for more than six months were required to vote absentee, a new feature of the election code for 1968. A feature of both ballots are referendum propositions which are only an expression of public opinion and have no force or effect as law. The questions include: *For or Against enactment by the Texas Legislature of a law permitting the legal sale of liquor by the drink in wet areas only after approval by local option elections, and which sale would be subject to strict regulation, effective controls and taxation thereof. *For or Against enactment by the Texas Legislature of a law permitting horse racing with pari-mutuel wagering on a local option basis; creating a Texas Horse Racing Board with the power to regulate pari-mutuel wagering on horse races; granting two percent of the total pari-mutuel pool each day to each county where there is a licensed race track; and apportioning among all other counties one-half of the total state net revenue from that source. *For or Against enactment by the Texas Legislature of a law creating the Texas Dairy Commission with the power to regulate and fix the retail and wholesale price of milk. Candidates and offices on the two ballots are as follows: DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY GOVERNOR: Pat O'Daniel, John Hill, Edward L. Whittenburg, Waggoner Carr, Preston Smith, Johnnie Mae Hackworth, Don Yarborough, Alfonso "Al" Veloz, Eugene Locke, and Dolph Briscoe. LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR: Ben Barnes, Don Gladden, Gene Smith. ATTORNEY GENERAL - Crawford C. Martin. COMMISSIONER OF AGRICULTURE: John C. White. COMMISSIONER OF GENERAL LAND OFFICE: Jerry Sadler. COMPTROLLER OF PUBLIC ACCOUNTS: Dallas Blankenship, and Robert S. Calvert. STATE TREASURER: Jesse James. RAILROAD COMMISSIONER: Jim C. Langdon. SUPREME COURT OF TEXAS

FUND DRIVE AND WORK BEGINS

North Ward School To Be Youth Center

Residents of the Della Plains area of Floydada began work Tuesday afternoon, cleaning up the north part of the old North Ward school in preparation of making a youth center out of the building. Former principal of the Della Plains school Faris Wilson is spearheading the organization and work plan for remodeling the building for a youth center. Wilson told a Hesperian reporter, we feel that some of our boys wouldn't be in the reformatory and state penitentiary today, if a youth center had been available to them in the past.

City Offers Free Service

City officials have announced that effective immediately, men and trucks will pick up brush, leaves, grass, tree limbs, etc., in the alleys throughout the city. The service is being provided free of charge as a convenience to residents and will be offered from May through August only. The trucks will run on Monday and Friday afternoons, according to Bill Feuerbacher, city manager.

X-Ray Unit Coming Here

The Christmas Seal X-Ray Unit of the West Texas Tuberculosis Association will be in Floydada on May 10th, under the auspices of the 1956 Study Club. Everyone over the age of twelve years should take advantage of the facility. In past months, the Unit has been responsible for locating case after case of possible tuberculosis, both active and inactive, as well as many other lung disorders. Tuberculosis is not a thing of the past, it continues to be the most infectious of infectious diseases, causing more deaths than any other communicable disease. The Unit helps to locate many other conditions, such as emphysema, a disease which causes the air sacs in the lungs to become greatly enlarged. The incidence of emphysema, along with chronic bronchitis, has increased over 900 percent since 1960. The major cause of these diseases is cigarette smoking. The U.S. Public Health Service estimates that cigarette smoking will be responsible for 300,000 deaths this year - one every two minutes. The Mobile X-ray Unit helps to reveal chest disease in its early stages as well as diseases which are already well underway. When the Unit arrives in Floydada, every citizen of the community should plan to have an X-ray. A token payment of $1 is asked to pay for the cost of the film and the developing. The WTTA bears the expense of the reading and reporting to each individual, by mail, the results of his X-ray film.

Correction! Tilt Tonight, Not On Friday

Due to an error in a school publication which was not discovered until after section two of this week's Hesperian was printed, the annual Powderpuff Football game is incorrectly listed for Friday night in a story on the front page of that section. Instead, the game is slated tonight (Thursday) at 8 p.m. on Wester Field. All other aspects of the story are believed to be correct, only the day in error.

WHAT DID YOU SAY?

Pullin' Cotton!!

BY BILL SALTER

For the past week, when this writer would mention that a picture of someone pulling cotton would appear in this week's edition, the strangest look would result... usually followed by, "You mean planting cotton, don't you?" Well, while I'll admit to having been in the oil and wheat country around Stinnett for most of the past three years... I have not regressed so far from when I grew up in the cotton country around Idalou that I don't know the difference between "pullin'" and "plantin'!" And, as the picture above clearly shows, my statement was the truth... regardless of how silly I'll even admit it sounded. Taken on the Duane Robinson farm, two miles east and one south of the old Baker school, the photo shows hands pulling cotton... despite the fact that many farmers are now beginning or are already through planting the fluffy white stuff. And, the cotton was planted on April 25... April, 1967, that is! Meaning, that the cotton was in the field exactly one year from planting date, the photo being taken last Wednesday (April 24) at about noon. When asked why the cotton was so late in the field and just now being harvested, Robinson good naturedly says, "I'm just a little behind... that's all," but then goes on to explain that the cotton is now in its third round of hand pulling. Of the Acala variety, the cotton is strictly dryland, according to Robinson, who ascertains that 18 acres of the cotton has netted 22 bales, three bales coming from nine acres last week. And, although the cotton was unable to be strip harvested and is sure to be low grade on the last nine bales, the fact that the crop was dryland and has only "stringed" slightly, certainly will be of interest to farmers who have not yet experimented with the longer-staple varieties. Robinson clearly states that he was pleased with the results of the Acala and in fact, ten acres just to the southeast corner of the above photo were just finished planting in Acala last Thursday by the area farmer. But, we're assuming that he hopes to be finished harvesting this year's plantings before April of 1969! Regardless of whether he does or doesn't, this writer won't mind... if as much fun can be had out of unbelievers next April as during the past week... I'll be well worth it!

LOCKNEY COTTON TALKS

FROM PLAINS COTTON GROWERS, INC.

Lockney, Texas, is the birthplace of the cotton industry. In 1858 the makers of cotton-content writing paper began an interest in raw cotton fiber as a supplement to the paper traditionally used in their operations. Lockney has run almost innumerable tests on all-cotton bale bagging and various grades of raw cotton.

Mrs. Johnson, who has been supplying samples by the dozens to the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. as a part of the organization's new cotton markets, has a six-inch stack of correspondence from the leading manufacturers of fine writing papers on file. She is also a major supplier of the paper on which this article is printed.

Johnson, PCG Executive Vice President, said "This is the first large scale test ever run on cotton by the paper industry. It is a very small beginning, but there is reason to hope it will eventually open a market for over 300,000 bales per year." She said had a loan value of around 8 1/2 cents per bale as sold to Crane for about 11 cents, Johnson recovered the important thing in this initial transaction, but the fact that these 100 bales will be processed and that the experience gained by Crane will be shared by many other paper makers, all of whom are processors for this kind of cotton.

Crane has agreed to supply PCG with the names of 10 or 12 other paper makers who would logically be interested in staple or micronaire, only in clean staple is too short nor micronaire too low for their use. Johnson said she is interested in staple or micronaire, only in clean staple is too short nor micronaire too low for their use.

International seminar on cotton futures trading will be held on February 29 at the KoKo Palace, 5201 Avenue D, Lubbock, Texas. The event will be presided over by the three top officers of the New York Cotton Exchange, Inc. Each will speak briefly on one phase of the market and a liberal amount of time will be reserved for questions and answers.

Johnston, Executive Secretary of the Lubbock Cotton Exchange, said the seminar was arranged after many area cotton growers and others expressed an interest in the possibility of using the futures market as a hedge against next year's price.

Johnson, Executive Vice President of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., said "At one time the cotton futures market was a part of the cotton business and served various uses. And as the Commodity Credit Corporation became less of a factor in the price of cotton it may be possible to again use the futures market to advantage." He said "To do so, most of us need a much better knowledge of the market operates, and that is what the seminar is all about."

The organization, function and purposes of the NYCE will be discussed by F. Marion Rhodes, President.

Stuart, Chairman of the Board, will discuss marketing and hedging operations, and the Exchange Secretary, William Donaghy, will explain financing and variation in the market.

The Seminar would be open to all merchants, ginners and other interested parties.

MRS. Nellie Witt Spikes, a Crosby County pioneer and former resident of Old Emma, unveiled one of two historic markers in a dedication held last Thursday near the site of Emma, a town now vanished into the days of yesteryear. Mrs. Spikes used to thrill many a reader of the Hesperian, when she wrote for us. I loved her tales of the early days and wished her health allowed her to continue. Both markers will be listed in new editions of tourist guides and on maps as official historical markers. If you would like to drive over and see them you will find one at the old townsite and the other at the Emma Cemetery, a mile west and one-fourth mile north of the old townsite.

I THINK the following item should be published in every weekly newspaper, "We're not inquisitive but, your neighbors always like to know if you have been on a trip, entertained guests, celebrated a birthday, caught a big fish, moved or eloped, had a baby, been in a fight, sold your sheep, cut a new tooth, had an operation, bought a new car, painted your house, had company, got married, been robbed, robbed your neighbor, been shot at, bitten by a dog or stolen anything." If this type of news was turned in each time it happens, we would have a daily newspaper before long. Although we don't use some of the news listed in the topics above, we welcome what you do turn in to us and its true your neighbor always wants to know.

HOW much strain can the human heart stand? Earl Rowan, at Bealls, should be able to tell anyone how much. To begin with, last month he was called by the draft board for his physical which he passed. They told him he would be called for Army duty in May. He returned to Floydada, quit his job, sold his pretty red Mustang and decided to volunteer for service and get it over with. He returned to Amarillo where he was told they had looked over his medical record, found he had asthma, and couldn't use him. He returned to Floydada, luckily got his old job back and put in an order for a new car. Friday he got notice from the draft board to report for induction May 21. He wondered for a while if he was going to go through the whole procedure again and if they would really take him this time. Before he quit his job and canceled the order for his car though, he placed a call to Amarillo and found out that Amarillo had failed to notify the draft board at Plainview of his medical disability. Matters have been taken care of and Earl has hopes of their keeping his records straight from now on.

SOMEONE'S mind was certainly not on his driving Monday morning or he was late for work and making minutes count. I felt lucky getting to work after the narrow escape. The fellow, going about 30-35 miles an hour in a pickup, ran the stop sign at the intersection of Wall and California and just as he went zip, going east, I went zip, going north. I doubt if he ever saw the stop sign, because he had the facial

James A. Joy Seeking Civil Appeals Post

James A. Joy, Plainview, is a candidate for the office of Associate Justice of the 7th Court of Civil Appeals. Since August 1961, he has served as District Judge of the 64th Judicial District comprised of Hale, Swisher and Castro Counties. From January 1, 1962 to December 31, 1967, he has disposed of a total of 4,835 cases, completing 288 cases to the jury verdict. He was born and reared at Crowell, Foard County, Texas, and had attended Texas A&M College prior to his entry in the Air Force as a pilot in 1941. Joy flew B-26's during World War II and was shot down over France by enemy flack on his 15th mission. Having been wounded, he spent eight months in German hospitals and four months at Stalag Luft I on the Baltic Sea.

Judge Joy stated that the Seventh Court of Civil Appeals is a three judge court which has traditionally had one man from Lubbock, one from Amarillo and one from some other part of the 46 county area. Judge Joy is seeking the area seat being vacated by Judge Alton B. Chapman who is from Floydada.

Joy stated further that he is the only candidate in this race who has had any actual judicial experience. Judge Joy plans to visit and campaign in Floydada at least one more time before election day on May 4th.

ATTENTION: "Will Penny" wins special merit award from Parents Magazine. Their Comment: (Quote)

Charlton Heston gives one of the finest performances of his career as title character of this outstanding western. Will is a loner, a middle aged cowhand born to the rootless life of the range. After finishing a cattle drive, he heads toward Montana, along with two younger cowboys, looking for a winter job.

During this trip his simple world is upset by two dramatic encounters. One is with a demoniacal rawhider (Donald Pleasence) who teaches him the nature of hate, the other with a lovely woman (Joan Hackett) traveling alone with her son, who introduces him to love.

The finely interwoven emotions all ring touchingly true, for they are soundly based in the beautiful performances and the fine script, which creates an authentic picture of frontier life in the late 1800's. Even the portrayal of violence, ugly as it is, works as a necessary thread in the fabric of Will's story—a story which successfully combines exciting action plot with praiseworthy human values.

Adults and Youth—Excellent. Children—Mature
Showing at the PALACE THEATRE Sunday and Monday, May 5 and 6.

Darrell Faires Songs Published

Darrell Faires, pastor of First Christian Church, has published the music of two religious folk songs that he has written. He has also produced a recording of the songs.

Both songs, "There's a World Out There" and "Love Is The Answer," are an attempt to extend the Christian witness through serious religious folk music.

"There's a World Out There" is addressed to the church, the people of God, as an invocation to listen sensitively to the cries and pain of the world, and to faithfully be the body of Christ in the world by fulfilling the role of the suffering servant on behalf of the world.

"The church's message is a message of love—and love is something to be done, not just talked about," Faires says.

"Love is the Answer" is another way of saying the same thing. It is addressed to the church and the world—a world that seems to be bent on self-destruction. "There is only one healing force that can cure the world's sickness—it is Love," Faires continues.

Again, not just a word talked about, but a pattern of life lived out in the daily grind of all human relationships. On the surface the song suggests that love is simple and easy but if you listen more carefully it says that real Love is very demanding.

The covers on the sheet music are "interesting." They are a graphic way of depicting the message of the songs. They were created to elicit reflection and reaction. They are made up of words and phrases from magazine ads, which put together in various ways say something quite different than in their original meaning. The music will be available to the public at Allstate. All proceeds of records and sheet music in Floydada will be building fund of Christian Church.

The price of the sheet music is 50¢ and the 10" 45's are $1. Some friends of the congregation who are larger contributors to the music of the church have fully received, and have been made payable to the Christian Church Building Fund. Those who are interested in the music are urged to go to the Gift Shop and purchase. "There's a world with big problems and the answer."

Give her the one she likes best

Cattle like Pioneer's 985 because it tastes so good. Strip grazing tests show they'll graze it first every time—they'll eat more and make more milk or meat for you.

Hybrid 985 gives you more feed per acre, too. In Texas A & M tests at Weslaco (1966), it was the top yielder. In the 1967 Texas Research Foundation performance trials at Renner, Pioneer 985 ranked 1st in yield (oven dry forage) in two of three tests when compared with competitive sorghum-sudangrass hybrids.

Use 985 to fit your needs—with milk cows, beef cattle, hogs, sheep or turkeys—for pasture, green chop, haylage or hay. The extra palatability and extra tonnage gives you more profit.

NEW! For clean Sorghum... spray weeds when you see them! with BANVEL

Velsicol announces Banvel herbicide for control of all hard-to-kill weeds of major importance in grain sorghum. This includes carelessly (pigweed), sunflower, lambs-quarter, purslane, morning glory and other annual broadleaf weeds. Banvel herbicide is applied post-emergence, so there are no wasted sprays in years when rain is scarce and weeds are not a problem. With Banvel you see your weed problem and then spray—all in plenty of time to give young sorghum plants plenty of opportunity to grow.

Banvel is sprayed onto weed leaves and translocates to the roots...for new, total control of weeds. Just apply Banvel between the 10th and 25th day after emergence of grain sorghum (approximately 4 to 12 inches tall).

Banvel is not dependent on soil moisture for its effectiveness, so its results are dependable. And it's a liquid that won't clog your sprayers; nor does Banvel need constant agitation.

Banvel increases yields. It's excellent for use on grain sorghum, wheat, barley, oats and field corn. Order Banvel herbicide to get full potential from your valuable, high-yielding sorghum seed.

We can learn by the experience of others. After liquor-by-the-drink was legalized in Iowa, automobile accidents increased by 20 to 30 per cent. ## The Financial Crisis

Our Floydada bankers came home considerably shook up last week after hearing a representative of the Federal Reserve Board from Dallas speak at Lubbock.

This man was explaining in detail what William McChesney Martin, Jr. chairman of the Federal Reserve Board meant last week when he said, "the USA is in the worst financial crisis we have had since 1931."

Martin said that this nation is plagued by "an intolerable balance of payments deficit, side by side with an intolerable domestic deficit."

In order to ease the situation, reduced federal spending and a tax increase are musts, he said.

This means that the immediate action of Congress should be to cut spending about 10 billion dollars and increase taxes about 10 billion dollars.

So, if you want to see the financial condition of this country squared up... balanced out... and save our nation from a depression, you might so instruct your congressmen.

One of the most outspoken critics of excessive domestic spending has been our own Congressman George Mahon, longtime chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, who is naturally a close observer of the fiscal scene and where spending is concerned has probably been more influential than anyone in holding the line.

We are thankful that the Federal Reserve System is not controlled by politics and it of course continues to make what stop gap measures it can to slow down the terrific inflation cycle we're in by raising interest rates.

It is hoped that Congress will see that a "hint to the wise is sufficient" and approve the measures suggested by the Federal Reserve System.

Connally As Favorite Son

"JOHN CONNALLY AS FAVORITE SON"

This newspaper heartily endorses the candidacy of Governor John Connally as Texas' "Favorite Son" to represent our State at the Democratic National Convention. We strongly urge our readers to go to their precinct conventions Saturday and select delegates and pass a resolution favoring Governor Connally's role as leader of the Texas delegation.

Governor Connally is a man of great conviction, character and honesty. His recent appearances on television, both statewide and national, have shown him to have the capacity and poise necessary to help guide national decisions. But Governor Connally can be our "Favorite Son" only if we - at Saturday's precinct conventions - express our support of him.

"IMPORTANCE OF PRECINCT CONVENTIONS"

It is only by attending a precinct convention that every individual voter has the opportunity and ability to be heard and to make his views known concerning his particular political philosophy and to give expression to those political concepts in which he believes.

The precinct convention is the very essence of "grass roots" participation of political and governmental affairs. At the precinct conventions, you and your neighbors select your delegates and voice your opinions. It is the only place you can have a say in the presidential nominee of your party.

Precinct conventions are open to all voters who participate Saturday in the Party primary elections. They are the first step in a long journey to the national conventions and the nominations of presidential and vice presidential candidates.

We urge you and your neighbors to attend your precinct convention this Saturday.

Not The Same

Five men were ordering breakfast in a restaurant. "I'll have pancakes," said the first. "Hot cakes," called the second. "Griddle cakes," said the third. "Wheat cakes," said the fourth. "They're all synonyms, aren't they?" asked the fifth. "No," replied the waitress, "but if you want synonym I can give you synonym toast."

April 26, 1968

Dear Editor:

First I want to commend you for being fair to all people since you have lived here. Your note about Martin Luther King was good. For those who don't understand him breaking man made laws. As his successor said he shouldn't have had to lead marches. But since his people were told where they could live and could not live and go or could not go, or get jobs that should have been theirs, on account of stark prejudice (as the letters in this weeks paper prove) I wonder if his detractors would have acted with as much restraint. He had to be his people's President as the President of the U.S. could not truly represent them on account of the hue and cry of the white people.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Jewell Lane

Dear Mr. Tooley,

We, as members of J. W. Harrison Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars of the U.S. wish to take this method of reminding the people of this community that on Saturday, May 4, we again have the freedom to exercise the right to vote and to elect officials to the county, state, and also to some national offices, we also have some other important referendums to be voted on by the people.

We are not trying to tell you how to vote, only that if we maintain our freedom and heritage as a Republic that this is one of the freedoms that we are going to have to use, or we will wake up one of these days without the right to make these choices by way of public, free, elections.

We urge you, before you take off from town to go to the lake, or to some other town, to take time out to go to the polling places and cast your vote for the candidate of your choice, and on the other issues that are presented at this time.

Again we want to point out that the people in Communist Russia, Communist Red China, North Vietnam, North Korea, East Germany, and all the other communist bloc countries, an election of this type is just not held, the Kremlin will not allow it, and as we look at this we want to remind you also, that when the Reds began to move into South Vietnam, the first ones that were killed were the leaders of the communities, school teachers, mayors, judges, anyone that was in any position of authority. The reason these leaders were killed, was that they could lead an uprising against the communists. In America, if the communist ever takes over this country, the men in veterans organizations, teachers, civic leaders, and men in other civic responsible areas will certainly be put to death first.

Give this letter some thought, and make your way to the polls on May 4.

Respectfully yours,
MEMBERS OF THE VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS OF THE
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

Dear Mr. Tooley:

Last week as I was reading the weekly Floyd County Hesperian and as I was finishing the column, William Tellis, by Bill Salter I noted a little quip at the bottom of the column. It goes something like this.

Consider the turtle...he only makes progress when he sticks his neck out.

Well here goes. On May the 4th, we have both in the Democratic and Republican primaries the referendum concerning the liquor by the drink and the issue of parimutuel gambling in the state of Texas. We have people that tell us that the ones that want a drink will get it anyway so why not make it ready available to them, so that they can drink it at their convenience. Others say, I don't see any harm in a man taking a drink if he wants it. Others say look at the Tax Revenue that the state will get off of legalized gambling and from legalized sale of alcoholic beverages.

I am going to start out to name some of the reasons that I am against the sale of alcoholic beverages in the state of Texas, Floyd County, or any other area.

To begin with have you ever had the pleasure to see a young, good looking teenage youth drunken to the point that he did not know what he was doing? Let us not stop there, have you ever seen this same youth vomit in the floor, and roll around in it because he was so stupid drunk that he did not realize that he was wallowing in his own filth? Have you ever seen a car full of young teenage soldiers on their way home on leave, stop at the liquor store to get some material to celebrate the leave on. A few miles down the road we came across them, they had failed to negotiate a curve and had hit a semi-truck head on, seven young men, none survived. Have you ever seen winos steal their wife's iron to sell to some second hand dealer that he could go to the package store to buy a quart of wine? Have you ever tried to shave a wino that stunk so badly from the depraved condition that they were in that you could not stand to be close to them. Some I would venture to say that had not had a bath in a year. Have you ever driven a pass truck for a bunch of G.I.'s to go to town in and the next morning have to hose it down to get rid of the vomit and stench, or have you ever been accosted on the street for a hand-out, that that bum could go to the nearest liquor store and invest in another bottle of hooch that he could be drunken again? Have you ever seen the man go out and get drunk, come home and beat his wife, to the point that when he came home drunk the mother would take the kids and leave home for fear of him? Have you ever seen the mother come home in a drunken stupor, and half kill a bunch of innocent children in her drunken stupidity. These are some of the many things that I have seen that are the fruits of legal alcohol. This is a pretty dear price to pay so that some men can have a cocktail before lunch. Again I beg of you vote on May 4, but most of all vote "No" we don't want legalized liquor in the state of Texas or the sale of liquor in any other manner.

As for the issue of pari mutuel gambling, it is a known fact that the on track betting is only a small part of the gambling racket. An estimated ninety percent of all bets are placed with bookies, or if you prefer, with illegitimate bet takers. These men operate through a syndicate, and their purpose is to reach the little guy, the sucker that only has a dollar or two to bet. Once they get hooked on gambling, it gets in the blood, like racing, pool playing, dominoes, and other games of skill and of chance. The first thing you know this little man has taken his grocery bill, or his car payment, furniture payment, haircut money, lunch money, or any other money that he has and goes to the favorite bookie and places a bet, or wager. Naturally he loses, and goes and gets money from somewhere else to bet to try to regain the money that he has lost. If it becomes necessary he will begin to steal, fail to pay his honest debts in order to have money to gamble. It becomes a part of his life. He thinks that he has to win, but he can't, the odds are all in the favor of the syndicate. This little man all of a sudden faces a dilemma, he has been caught taking a little money from the firm that he works for, he has tried to cover it up, but his clumsy bookkeeping reveals that he has misappropriated (stolen) money from this company. He is faced with reprimand, being fired and possibly a sentence in the state penitentiary, the loss of respect and in the most cases the loss of his family. What does this little man then do, the one thing he does that he cannot undo, he takes his life in his own hands, and snuffs it out. His part in this is through, as far as this life is concerned, but the wife and children have to go on to try to fend for themselves, broke, debt over their heads, bills due that the husband was to have paid, and so on we go.

The next thing that we would like to look at is the effect that this legal vice will have on the local officers and the elected officials of our city. It has always been the practice of a syndicate wherever they are located to control if possible the court house and city hall. If this is not possible by legal means then they do the next best thing. They intimidate, threaten, pay off, or in some other means find a way to control men in positions of authority, this in many cases is accomplished through the breaking down the morals of an individual.

FLOYD PHILOSOPHER Up With Idea To Help Columnists Compete With Television Experts

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm has been engulfed by the wave of political surprises lately, his letter this week indicates.

Dear editor:

There have been so many surprises in politics lately, topped by President Johnson's decision not to run again, that there simply can't be anymore left, outside maybe of Bobby Kennedy's showing up with a crew cut and DeGaulle's offering to pay France's World War I debts.

The worst thing about these surprises though is what it does to newspaper columnists. I get hold of a bunch of old newspapers last night and began reading them in the light of what has happened a few weeks after they were published, and they're confusing.

For example when Rockefeller thwarted the experts and said he wasn't running, the columnists were caught flat-footed. "Political analysts had thought he certainly was going to run," one of them wrote, not mentioning he was one of the analysts.

Another one wrote only two weeks ago: "Anybody who knows Lyndon Johnson knows he's not going to give up four more years of power."

When Eugene McCarthy first announced he was running, another columnist said bemusedly "he is like Emmet Kelley, the clown, trying to sweep up his own spotlight."

And so it went, proving that this is where television has an advantage over newspapers for experts. An expert can be 100 per cent wrong and almost swallow his foot on T.V., but when the program changes, his words fade with the picture and it's hard to pin anything on him.

But with a newspaper it's different. There the words are, in black and white, and you can clip them out and carry them around and examine them after events have shown the expert didn't know anymore about what was going on inside the mind of the President for example than he did next week's weather.

Consequently I have worked out a solution. Newspapers carrying columns by political experts ought to be printed in disappearing ink. Twenty-four hours after their profound and analytical opinions have appeared, the ink ought to fade like a television picture with a burned-out tube.

This of course does not apply to The Hesperian. Not as long as I'm in it.

Yours faithfully,

that may soon materialize. Quannah is getting industry and will doubtless get more because it is hungry. Is Floydada hungry enough to get new industry?

It seems at this point that our Industrial Foundation should designate committees to work on three projects:

1. Garment factory
2. Junior College
3. 160 sow-pig producing corporation.

If you would be interested in working on one of these projects, please call the Floydada Development Company, 983-3434.

I WANT TO take back what I said back in March about there being no fish in the White River Lake. We caught 18 bass over there Saturday and Karla gets the honors for the largest... a three pounder!

THE VIEW ACROSS the street from the Hesperian has brightened considerably. The folks at Collins Implement have repainted the front of their building... all white and real nice.

NOTICE THERE'S a new building out on the east side of the Davis Farm Supply. Think they have added some more fertilizer mixing area.

CHARLES SPENCE JR. is making a name for himself down in Grayson County where he is employed with the Extension Service. The Sherman Democrat had quite a feature on Charles and his wheat experiments last

I have painted here what seems to be a pretty bleak picture, but if you have ever been around areas that have had legal liquor and legal gambling, that these things that I have brought to your attention are only minute compared to the things these vices bring to pass.

Back to liquor by the drink we have those people that say that the sale of liquor by the drink with laws to regulate it would not be so bad, well I want to point to the laws that we have had in the past, the liquor board is still under investigation because of irregularities concerning the behavior of the liquor authorities, also I would like to look to the neighboring city of Plainview that had probably twenty private clubs operating, legally, as far as the liquor board was concerned, but after the shake-up began, we still have the same laws, but for some reason or the other the Hale County Sheriff's department, and the liquor control board raided, and closed a good many of them. Laws, regulation, the best thing to do is not to have these vices present, and then we will not have to burden the taxpayer to pay for the law enforcement that we would have to have to maintain the same protection we now have without these vices among us.

One other little point that I would like to mention before I close is this. Politicians down the line maintain that this is only a referendum vote, and will not have any bearing on what the legislature will do. I want you to note, that in the event this referendum as this is affectionately called is passed then immediately there are those politicians that will endeavor to force this legislation down our throats in the form of a constitutional amendment.

As we vote No in the May 4 primary, let us also remember those candidates that wish to make a vice empire out of the state of Texas and vote No for them too.

Again I say unto you vote No to both these issues, for we have no need for either in the state of Texas.

Dear Mrs. Merry

Sorry I haven't wrote you, but like I told Coach I haven't had time to write because you only get to write three times a week and well, I have to get some homework. Now as I sit and think about things I used to do in your class only make me feel bad because if I would have followed your advice I wouldn't be here now. Now I'm here but it won't ruin my whole life. Whenever I get out of here I'll still go back to school and get my education, because I know that my best way out of life. It sure was good hearing from some of my friends there. For awhile I thought I didn't have any. The school work here isn't much different from that at home. They have issued me a grammar book. Boy, it sure would be good if you send me a book or two. When you move to New Mexico, write and tell me your address. You don't have to worry about my tooth any more because time I got here the dentist pulled it for me and I'll tell you that was a relief. Oh, and tell Coach Allen I'll write him as soon as I can. Tell Coach Pope he can send those cookies if he wants.

Well, his about time I close my letter but not my friendship to you.

Yours truly,
Walter Harris

week. Charles is shooting for a yield of 50 bushels to the acre without increased costs.

Charles is conducting an experiment on a wheat farm at Howe. The experiment involves spraying with a German-invented chemical that shortens and strengthens the wheat stalk, thus providing support for a larger grain head.

So far as Charles knows it is the only such experiment under way in the United States that combines simultaneously this stalk control with disease controls and maximum use of fertilizer.

Many Floydada folk know Charles... he graduated from Floydada High School, got his Masters from Tech, spent six years in World War II, came from private to Captain.

Here's something you may not know about Charles. In 1918 his parents (the Charlie Spences who live on the Ralls highway) were moving from Bell County to Floyd County in a covered wagon. They had to stop en route at a farm in Crosby County for his mother to give birth to Charles.

I WOULD SAY that Hollis Bond is one of our best "well read" citizens and I particularly enjoyed his talk at Rotary last week on "This Changing World." So many of us get buried in USA changes and we never get a real picture of all the countries of the world. Hollis reviewed the cultural background in outlining the changes of the various continents of the world... and made it all very interesting.

PASTURE HINTS - If you have been disappointed with the production of your improved pasture, the Soil Conservation Service offers the following hints. If your pasture doesn't carry as many animals as you think it should, one of the reasons could be improper fertilization. Each field has its own fertilizer needs and should be treated individually. A properly taken soil sample is the best way to obtain the correct information on the kind and amount of fertilizer needed. Additional guidance on the use of fertilizers on pastureland can be obtained at your local Soil Conservation Service office based upon the specie of grass and the type of soil where the grass is growing. Heavy producing species of grass respond much better to several light applications of fertilizer than they do to one heavy application. Therefore, the same amount of fertilizer will provide more economical returns if it is applied in three or four applications rather than one. Now is the time to start with an early application of fertilizer and pre-irrigation to get the grass off and running as warmer weather approaches. The above photo was taken on the Eddie Fortenberry place four miles northwest of Barwise. (SCS Photo)

They include 7 major research centers, 21 field stations and 8 USDA cooperating stations. Several of the field units are operated cooperatively with the Texas Forest Service, Tarleton State College, Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, Prairie View A&M, University of Texas, Texas Technological College, Texas A&I University, the King Ranch and the Swenson Land and Cattle Company. Additionally, experiments are conducted on farms and ranches, in rural homes, and in processing and distributing plants of industries serving agriculture. The Station presently is conducting 487 active research projects which include all phases of agriculture. Among them are: basic agricultural sciences, including biometrics, biochemistry and biophysics; soil and water conservation grasses and legumes; grain crops, cotton and other fiber crops; vegetables, citrus and other subtropical fruits; oilseed crops; fruits and nuts ornamental plants; brush and weeds; insects and plant diseases. Also, beef cattle; dairy cattle; sheep and goats; swine, chickens and turkeys; animal diseases and parasites; fish and game; farm and ranch engineering; farm and ranch management; agricultural marketing; outdoor recreation; home economics and agricultural economics. Programs of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station are constantly evaluated to insure effectiveness in meeting the challenges of a dynamic industry. Progress in agriculture and related industries in years to come will continue to be in proportion to the investment Texas are willing to make in agricultural research.

GREETINGS:

The State of Texas recognizes both a debt of gratitude to and an obligation for its Senior Citizens. Older Texans in great numbers continue to spend active and useful lives in activities that through their youth, middle age to now have made their citizenship an asset to the commonwealth. Others in their older years face physical and/or financial difficulties that limit activity.

Texas of today exists on the foundations laid by these surviving Texans of yesterday. Their work, their efforts, their very lives stand as an enduring challenge to the future. If we are to enjoy the full productive capacities of our resources, we must continue to utilize the skills and knowledge of our older citizens in all civic and community endeavors. Their inspiration and counsel form a continuing asset in the growth and development of Texas.

Therefore, I, as Governor of Texas, do hereby designate the month of May, 1968, as in Texas, and urge all Texans to join in honoring their fellow citizens who have reached a status of seniority and respect, and further urge that all Texans include senior citizens into the normal sphere of life.

In official recognition whereof, I hereby affix my signature this 18th day of March, 1968.

Experiment Station Returns Money

COLLEGE STATION (Spl)... "Working Dollars" best describes the money Texans are investing in research conducted by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station. For example, a single accomplishment at a field station near Stephenville in 1962 returns more money to the state's economy each year than has been spent for all research projects at that station since it was established 28 years ago. That year, the Starr variety of peanut was released to growers and it immediately boosted annual farm income by some $5 million.

The Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, founded in 1888, is administered by the College of Agriculture at Texas A&M University and operates as the public agency for scientific research in agriculture. Findings of the Station are brought to the public primarily through educational programs of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

The Station concerns itself with problems confronting farmers, ranchers, rural and urban homemakers, and business

If Texas legalizes liquor-by-the-drink we can expect the number of alcoholics to increase by one third. States that have liquor-by-the-drink have 33 per cent more alcoholics than package-store-only states. Texas would have more alcoholics with liquor-by-the-drink.

Floyd Families Save More Money

NEW YOUR, Jan. 27-From the standpoint of saving, 1967 was a record year for most Floyd County families. Despite the fact that they continued spending at their normal rate for goods and services, they ended the year in better financial shape, thanks to rising incomes.

The improvement is attributed to the fact that they put an unusually large proportion of their available cash into bank accounts, investments and Government securities rather than spending up to their full capabilities. Most of their increased income was channeled in those directions.

For the Floyd County population as a whole, the amount of new money put into savings in the year came to an estimated $1,517,000.

At the same time, local residents kept their fiscal house in order through regular repayments on their installment debt.

The local estimate is based upon a survey of savings, made for the county at large by the Federal Reserve Board, and upon the latest income distribution figures for each community.

The studies indicate that the proportion of money put aside in savings varies with income. Among families with net incomes of $3,000 or less, nothing is saved. They have difficulty in making out at all.

At the $6,000 level, about 4.4 percent is put away, on average. At $7,000 it is 5.4 percent. The proportion rises rapidly thereafter as incomes move into higher brackets.

Applied to Floyd County, where the latest annual report shows a net, after-tax income of $6,784 per household, the average rate was 5.2 percent and the amount of savings in the past year, approximately $350.

300 Dealers, Farmers Tour Feed Facility

LIBERTYVILLE, Ill. — Dick Guest of Floydada learned of new profit opportunities in animal agriculture recently when he joined 300 other farmers and feed dealers on a tour of the Wayne Research Center of Allied Mills near here.

"For the man who takes advantage of new feeding technology, profits from livestock farming have never looked brighter," stated Dr. Merte J. Brinegar, director of research. While touring the feed firm's it added up to $1,517,000 for the local population as a whole.

Nationally, savings reached a record $40 billion, or $10 billion more than in 1966, as people adopted a wait-and-see attitude and put more of their discretionary funds into savings.

This huge cash reserve is now available to them. What they decide to do with it in the period ahead will determine, in great measure, what the economy will be like in 1968.

X-15 TESTS STOPPED
Washington — A spokesman for the space agency said test flights of the X-15 rocket plane would be discontinued because there were no provisions for X-15 test flights in the 1968-69 budget. The plane had hit a top speed of 4,400 miles an hour and an altitude of 354,300 feet.

FLOYD PHILOSOPHER Comes Out Fighting Against New Ideas To Make Crops Grow With Music

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm gives the impression in his letter this week that he may not be a music lover.

Dear editor: Somebody from another state sent me a marked copy of a magazine calling my attention to an article on the latest discovery in agriculture, expecting I guess that it would arouse my interest. Actually it has only aroused my agitation. You ought to stop sending the Hesperian out of Texas.

According to it, a woman scientist up in Canada, having heard that a corn farmer in Illinois claimed he increased his crop yield by serenading his plants with a piece of music called "Rhapsody in Blue" over and over again, and that an Australian fruit grower said he produced more and bigger bananas by constantly playing a phonograph record of a loud bass note among the trees, proceeded to test this strange idea out scientifically, and sure enough, she claims, by piping tones to one bunch of wheat and not to another, she discovered the former produced more wheat.

I have given this long and thoughtful consideration and have decided women should stay out of science. They talk too much there too.

Have you stopped to think what the spread of applied research facilities, agricultural leaders saw research projects underway on the modern 620-acre Wayne Research Farm Center. Visitors saw and heard what's needed for tomorrow's

Baby Murder Conviction Reversed

Mary Morales, convicted in Hale County of murder without malice in the death of her illegitimate baby and sentenced to five years in prison, will get a new trial.

The Texas Court of Criminal Appeals last week threw out the conviction in the 64th District Court of Hale County because that court refused her request for a preliminary hearing on her sanity.

The state's highest criminal appeals court pointed out that Miss Morales, "Elicited testimony from two clinical psychologists and a psychiatrist that (she) was suffering from a mental disease complicated by her mental retardation and that she did not know right from wrong at the time of the alleged act."

"It is clear that such evidence was sufficient to have caused the trial court to halt the trial and conduct a hearing and obtain a jury finding on the issue of (Miss Morales') present competency to stand trial before proceeding further," the Appeals Court said in an opinion by Judge John Olson.

As a result, Miss Morales will go back to Hale County for a hearing on her sanity and, perhaps later, a new trial.

A jury at Plainview assessed Miss Morales five years in the penitentiary for murder without malice in the March 15, 1967, death of a baby. The trial court's charge to the jury referred to the infant as Miss Morales' child, although the defense said there were some doubts of this. The baby was strangled with a cord and stabbed with a pair of scissors. Its body was found in a road culvert in Floyd County.

Hospital Costs Increase

For the first seven months of 1967, hospital costs throughout the nation have increased 14.3 per cent over the same period of 1966.

What are hospitals going to do about it, the public wants to know. What are the reasons, and how and when will it level off?

H.E. Barnett, administrator of Caprock Hospital, Floydada, explains that hospitals do not apologize for rapidly increasing costs. "Many factors pushing costs up the scale are external ones—something hospi-Racing driver Pete Iron (James Garner) and ex-model Pat Stoddard (Jessica Walter) become romantically involved in "Grand Prix." John Frankenheimer's exciting, spectacular film for MGM. The big international cast of the Douglas & Lewis Production in Super Panavision and Metrocolor also stars Eva Marie Saint, Yves Montand, Toshiko Miura, Brian Bedford, Antonio Sabato and introduces popular French songstress Françoise Hardy. itals have no control over." He cited wage increases, expensive equipment, and special care areas, such as intensive care units and coronary care units, as costly factors.

"Hospitals cannot control the cost of a said piece of equipment, but they can refuse to buy the most costly items available. That one costly machine, however—a respirator, for instance, which takes over breathing functions for an infant fighting to expand his lungs—may save a life.

"Could you, if you were me, say 'no'?" Today the nation's hospitals are caught up in an explosion of technical knowledge. Medical science has already increased the average life span 20 years. Ten years ago an x-ray department in a hospital could be fully equipped at a cost of $10,000. Today, the cost is from $50,000 to $500,000.

"Equipment in a hospital never wears out," said Barnett. Physicians and hospital officials have discovered patients benefit greatly when all critically ill patients can be confined in one area, designated as an intensive care unit, rather than distributed throughout the hospital in private rooms, often far from the central nursing station. Another new concept in care for heart patients is a coronary care unit. Studies show a 30 per cent lower fatality rate is the result of treatment in such a unit.

Equipment a special care unit are expensive items, "but your health is the most precious asset you have," emphasizes the hospital administrator. "Would you trade it for a dollar, or even many dollars?"

HIGH PLAINS RESEARCH FOUNDATION NEWS

by Jim Valliant

Recharge of surplus surface water replaced 55 percent of the water pumped to produce crops on the Foundation farm in 1967. Recharge through two multiple-purpose wells placed 112-acre-feet of surplus water into the Ogallala formation. Four wells including the two multiple-purpose wells pumped only 204 acre-feet in 1967 rainfall during the growing season reduced irrigation needs.

Since 1959, the two multiple-purpose wells at the Foundation have recharged 748 acre-feet of surface run-off water or 29 percent of the 2,599 acre-feet pumped for crop production over the same period. The water saved through artificial recharge would meet irrigation needs on the Foundation farm for about 2 1/2 years.

Attempts to reclaim two clogged multiple-purpose wells were made in 1967. One well located near Spade could not be reclaimed but another near Cotton Center was reclaimed to make it a "useful" well. Two other multiple-purpose wells which were partially clogged were restored to full pumping capacity. Complete details of these studies may be seen in the 1967 Annual Research Report of the Foundation.

this notion could do to farming?

Up to now, one of the main pleasures of living on this Johnson grass farm has been the peace and quiet of the place, but you let neighbors hear about that woman scientist's new theory and there'll be juke boxes and radios blaring out in all directions night and day, amateur musicians sawing away and croaky-voiced youngsters wailing about their lost loves and the inconvenience of the draft and the horrors of earning a living. If I was a stalk of corn, I'd grow faster too. Anything to get it over with.

I'd run farming. Take all the pleasure out of it. And when you sell a crop nowadays, that's about all you've got left anyway.

Of course there are some bands I've heard on television which some corn farmers might hesitate to grow a crop with, feeling the net result couldn't be anything but a bunch of nubbins. I won't attempt to say what it would do to cotton.

Why don't women scientists stick to inventing new formulas for eye shadow, run-less hose and more powerful detergents and leave farming along?

I tell you, any time I have to hire a guitar player to make a crop, I'm quitting. What would it profit a man to gain a bigger crop and lose his own nervous system?

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

Be concerned . . . with respect for law."

Worldwide there is increasing concern that the blessing of living in liberty under law be assured all men everywhere. And everywhere there is concern about disrespect for law, which can only mean disrespect for the rights and property and persons of others.

And so we cite here some lines, previously written, beginning with this six-word sentence from Shakespeare: "His own opinion was his law."<sup>1</sup>

This brings us to the question of freedom and restraint, of law and who is subject to it, and the subject of self-control, which recalls a sentence from Goethe, who said: "Whatever liberates our spirit without giving us self-control is disastrous."<sup>2</sup>

All nature observes law. If it did not, life would not be possible. If it did not, we could not reasonably know that the seasons would move in succession, that there would be sufficient light or heat, that we could plant with any reasonable assurance of having a harvest. Nor would there be reasonable assurance to prepare for the future. Life is possible, and all that pertains to it, because God and nature administer and move within law, from cause to consequence.

Not only life, but living with others is possible because of law. Without law, no man could be assured of the fruits of his labors. Without law, brute force would prevail, the weak would be destroyed by the strong, and the strong would destroy themselves in their struggles for ascendancy. Without law there would be no peace or privacy, no protection of person or property, public or private; no foreseeable future, assurance of anything we could count on.

Every man has a right to safety for his loved ones when he leaves them. Every person has a right to be protected in his person and his property and to reap the results of his preparation for the future, and every man has an obligation to protect others also.

No one who thinks his own opinions or appetites inclinations supercede law is safe in society. To safe—indeed, to survive—there must be respect for compliance with, and enforcement of the laws of God and nature and the laws of the land. And the closer we come to lawlessness the farther we get from respect and respect, from peace and prosperity, from safety and assurance. The closer we come to lawlessness or encouraging lawlessness, the closer we come to chaos. He who feels his own opinion is his law is not a citizen.

And so, in discovering and serving the needs of our communities we commend attention to respect for law to a world of order through law observance, and teaching our youth causes and consequences and the conditions which makes possible peace and protection of loved ones and civilized life.

"It must be the aim of education," said Winthrop Aldrich, "to teach the citizen that he must first of all rule himself."<sup>3</sup>

Thy liberty in law."<sup>4</sup>

WELL, FOLKS... despite all the things I said about Peggy and Wendell last week, I'm still at my desk pounding away!

Don't miracles just amaze you?

-WT-

SPEAKING OF the Hesperian staff, one of the girls down here asked for a raise last week and got the following answer... German accent thrown in just for kicks:

"There iss 365 days in the year. You work eight hours a day (dot's a third of the 24 hours) so that makes 122 days you work. Der iss 52 Sundays vich leaves 70 days. Dere iss 14 legal holidays and two German holidays vich leaves 54 days. You get vun hour for lunch every day vich makes 40 days. Dat leaves 14 days. Den I gif you two weeks vacation every year. So, ven in *$&$ do you work."

-WT-

STOLEN: "I'd be more hopeful of winning the war on poverty if the managing agency wasn't already nearly $350 billion in debt. Perhaps the poverty war strategy is to enlist everybody by bankrupting everybody, then we can all start at the bottom together again. Seems to me a pauper with nothing at all is somewhat higher on the economic scale than somebody that is $350 billion in debt. Perhaps the poor folks ought to be helping their less fortunate Uncle, instead of vice versa."

-WT-

NOT TO make fun of anyone's name... after all, mine is mispronounced more than enough... but a headline last week in one of our exchanges struck me as sort of funny. The headline read... "Mary Dworzczyk Wins Second In Spelling Bee."

She ought to be a good speller... just learning how to spell her last name was quite an accomplishment. And, she was probably tongue-tied through the first grade, just learning to pronounce it.

Reminds me of the friend I had at the Avalanche-Journal several years ago.

He and his wife had four girls and she was expecting again... both of them badly wanting a boy.

But, luckily, the baby was another girl. Luckily... because the name he had picked out for the poor child, had it been a boy, was "Tecumseh Xavier," and to top it all, their last name was "Bukosbe."

Why, the kid would be a freshman in college before he'd learn how to spell it!

-WT-

THE FOLLOWING is stolen from the Slaton Slatonite's letters to the editor column and was submitted by one of that town's servicemen.

MY GOD, HOW CAN IT BE - That one boy lies rotting from malnutrition and tortured in a jungle prison camp in Viet Nam--and another boy spits and tramples on the flag of his country on the steps of a university of learning?

That one boy lies sightless in a U. S. Naval Hospital from communist inflicted wounds--and another boy uses a communist flag to drape himself in defiance of laws of this country?

That one man of medicine begins his thirteenth straight hour standing over an operating room table in pursuit of life for men serving this country -- and another man of medicine implores crowds of young men to refuse to serve their country?

That one Negro holds the face of his dead white comrade in his arms and cries pitifully in a dirty mud hole in Viet Nam -- and another Negro screams with hate against his white brother on the streets of countless American cities?

That one boy lies in a coffin beneath the ground because he believed in duty to country -- and another boy lies on a dingy cot giving blood to the enemies of his country?

That one man of God shields a wounded boy from an enemy bayonet with his body and dies -- and another man of God uses his cloth as a shield to preach hate, dissension, and lawlessness?

MY GOD, HOW CAN IT BE?

-WT-

FLOYDADA HAS it's share of young people getting into trouble... unfortunately, every town has this problem. What the solution is, I can't say, perhaps parents just doing a better overall job of raising their children. I can say this because I don't have any to raise... perhaps someday I'll see it in a different light.

But... if the child does get into trouble, and he goes as far as getting arrested, there are serious consequences and it's usually too late.

Something said by a judge as he passed sentence on two youths convicted of a felony more than 20 years ago, still makes sense today and would be well worth the reading for any youth (or adult either, for that matter) who is straying from the straight and narrow.

It goes:

"You come from good homes, both of you. Yet now you have been convicted of a felony--a crime for which you might be sent to the penitentiary. In this case I do not have to send you to the penitentiary. I am permitted to give you a parole. But even if you never see the inside of a penitentiary or jail, you will not have escaped the penalties of your crime. The record of your conviction will be here as long as the courthouse stands. No amount of good conduct in the future can ever erase it.

"Next year, or ten years from now, or when you are old men if you are ever called to be witnesses in any court of law, some lawyer will point his finger at you and ask: 'Have you ever been convicted of a felony?' You will hang your head and admit that you have, because if you deny it, the records of these proceedings will be brought from the vaults and read to the jury. The question will be asked for the sole purpose of casting doubt on your testimony. Convicted felons are not believed as readily as other persons.

"Someday you may have a chance to live and work in one of the expanding countries of South America, and you will apply for a passport. You may not get it. You might enter Canada for a fishing trip, but you would not be allowed to stay. No country will allow you to become a resident. Your world is so much smaller than it was. Someday you may seek a position in the civil service of your state or nation. On the application blank you will find this question: 'Have you ever been convicted of a felony?' Your truthful answer will bar you from appointment. An untruthful answer will be detected because appointments are made only after investigation. The record is here to be found by anyone interested.

"In a few years you will be 21, and others your age will have the right to vote--but you will not. You will be a citizen of your state and country, but you will have no voice in public affairs. Someday the governor may pardon you and restore your rights, but it is going to be humiliating to ask him. He'll want to know your whole record. It is a bad one.

"I am granting you a parole. A parole is in no sense a pardon. You will report to the men who have accepted your parole as often as they may ask. Your convenience is not a matter of importance. You will also obey your parents. If your parents send you to bed at nine o'clock, you will go without complaint. You will perform such tasks as are assigned to you. Your parole is a fragile thing. Should the slightest complaint of your conduct reach this court, your parole will be revoked immediately and you will begin serving your sentence. You will not be brought back here for questioning and/or explanations. You will be picked up and taken to prison--without notice to you and without delay."

-WT-

THIS WEEK'S column should be declared as my annual "clip and steal" edition, because the following is something else I clipped from another paper, thinking it was worthy of mention here.

It's called "Don't Blame Teenagers," the author wasn't listed and I think it's quite good.

We read in the papers and hear on the air Of killing and stealing and crime everywhere. We sigh and we say as we notice the trend. "This young generation, where will it end?"

But can we be sure it's their fault alone, That maybe a part of it isn't our own? Are we less guilty who place in their way, Too many things that can lead them astray? Too much to spend and too much idle time, Too many movies of passion and crime. Too many books not fit to be read, Too much evil in what they hear said, Too many juke-joints and too many bars, Too many hot-rods and rattle trap cars, Too many reasons for children to roam, And too many parents, who do not stay at home. Kids don't make the movies, they don't write the books, That paint a gay picture of gangsters and crooks. Kids don't make the liquor, and they don't run the bars. They don't sell the reefers that addle their brain, That's all done by the older folks greedy for gain. We're shocked at their morals, amazed at their crimes, And grieve that we live in such perilous times. By the rule of the Blameless the Savior made known, Who is there among us to cast the first stone? Remember these words, for oh, they're so true, The label "delinquent" fits older folks too.

-WT-

SMILE... JUST imagine how ridiculously funny the modern dances of today would appear if they were done by monkeys in a zoo!

-WT-

NOW THAT we are engulfed by the confusion called Daylight Saving Time, the following poem I swiped from the Hereford Brand seems appropriate.

TIME CONFUSION
By Helen Witt Groom, Texas

The time has come, It's now a must, To daylight saving We must adjust.

We set the clock And rise at seven, Is church at ten, Or is twelve eleven?

Now let me see, My thoughts are crossed,

DON'T FORGET TO VOTE SATURDAY!

Is Liquor-by-the-drink necessary for tax revenue?

Advocates of liquor-by-the-drink hope to gain $7½ million a year in tax revenue. If Texas would just increase its beer tax from the present $4.30 a barrel to $10 a barrel, (the same as Louisiana and Oklahoma) more than $50 million a year would be raised in additional tax revenue. If Texas would just include beer in the 2% State Sales Tax, we would raise an additional $13 million a year. Liquor-by-the-drink is not necessary for tax revenue.

Borger Golfers Capture Tourney Crown

SPORTS

THURSDAY, MAY 2, 1968 SEC. TWO

Borger golfers Jim Haren and Jackie Coffey posted a phenomenal seventeen under par three rounds to capture the championship flight title over the weekend in the seventh annual Floydada Partnership Tournament.

To score the 17 under figure, Haren and Coffey combined for 19 birdies and 1 eagle over the 54 holes of play.

Posting a 65 on Friday, followed by 67's on Saturday and Sunday for a three-round combined total of 199, the winners outdistanced a Lubbock team composed of L. D. Clopton and Don Prigmore who posted a 70-68-69 for a total of 207, nine under par.

Taking third in the tourney's championship flight were Bill Lehner and Jeff Steinberg, both of Amarillo with a low-ball combined total of 208. The Amarillo men were tied for the lead after the first two rounds with a 64-68, but posted a 76 on Sunday to fall into third place.

Golf Pro Richard Hale, director of the tourney, expressed pleasure with the turnout for the tournament and the smoothness of its operation, despite weather conditions which were generally unfavorable, but still better than in recent years. Field for the tourney included 11 championship flight teams, plus 16 teams each in first, second and third flights.

Each winning partner in the championship flight earned

Would You Believe... 3 Aces On Same Hole?

Odds for a single hole-in-one are in the neighborhood of an impossibility, but three holes-in-one on the same hole, same day, and in the same tournament sounds something like a story of fantasy.

But, that's exactly what occurred at the annual Floydada Partnership Golf Tournament last Thursday, three golfers hitting an ace on the par-3, 136-yard second hole.

Scoring the aces were local golfer Tex Morren and Amarillo golfers Jeff Steinberg and Bobby Sanders.

The holes-in-one were the first ever for each of the three, the Amarillo men using wedges for their aces and Morren using a 9-iron.

Morren, 20, an employee of golf pro Richard Hale, has been playing golf for about 1 1/2 years and also slammed in a 7-iron shot from 150 out on the par four number five for an eagle on an earlier round.

On the round with the hole-in-one, Morren was 1 over par after six holes and took a 42 for nine on the round with the eagle.

According to Hale, the balls used by the three golfers in scoring their aces will be sent to the respective manufacturers who will mount the ball on a trophy for presentation to the three men.

A Man's Record In Office Is Worth More Than Many Promises

John Fowler Seeks Re-election On The Basis Of His Record .....

A PERSONAL MESSAGE TO THE VOTERS OF PRECINCT 1, FLOYD COUNTY

Saturday is voting day and I hope that every qualified voter will take time to vote his convictions.

I seek re-election as your Commissioner of Precinct 1 on the basis of my record of many years of service to this precinct and service on the Commissioners Court of Floyd County.

I have worked for the betterment of Precinct 1 and have cooperated with the Commissioners Court in trying to make Floyd County a better place to live. I am happy to report that our county will be out of debt in 1972 on our present bond pay plan... our county is in sound financial condition. Our budget control and cash spending lend much to this condition.

You know the Commissioner's job is a full time one and I have devoted my full time to it. If re-elected, I shall continue to improve the roads and devote my best efforts to being a good Commissioner.

It has been impossible for me to see everyone, but I hope this message will let you know how much we appreciate your confidence and support in the past.

We own a farm and we own our home in the edge of Floydada on the Ralls Highway. Of course we pay taxes, and I shall continue to be the Tax payer's friend... he is the man I am working for.

If you have any questions, feel free to call me, and if you feel like giving me a vote of confidence Saturday, it will certainly be appreciated. You can depend on me to do my best for you.

From the desk of... ALTON B. CHAPMAN

ALTON B. CHAPMAN
Associate Justice
Court of Civil Appeals

TO THE RESIDENTS OF THE SEVENTH SUPREME JUDICIAL DISTRICT:

Thank you for the privilege of serving you for eleven years and four months on the Court of Civil Appeals.

For the sake of the Court from which I am retiring and for the good of the State of Texas, I earnestly solicit your votes for Jack Hazlewood because:

1. In my opinion, the judges on every appellate court, from the United States Supreme Court on down, should be first and foremost good lawyers. Jack Hazlewood is an outstanding lawyer.
2. Of six major scholastic honors possible for a student to win in the Texas University Law School, Jack Hazlewood won them all. Such a scholastic record is possible only by one with an outstanding legal mind and the willingness to work, two attributes needed on an appellate court.
3. Jack Hazlewood has had more than four times as much experience in the Court of Civil Appeals as both his opponents combined.
4. The most practical and effective training for an appellate court justice is trial and appellate practice, as a lawyer, against other strong lawyers. This is exactly the training Jack Hazlewood has had for more than fifteen years, and in it he has many times demonstrated his competence.
5. This is the exact same training five justices of the Supreme Court of Texas had before becoming members of that Court. None had judicial experience on the trial level. They are Justices Griffin, Walker, Greenhill, Steakley and Chief Justice Calvert.
6. In the official bar poll conducted by the State Bar of Texas among the lawyers and judges of the 46 counties of this district Jack Hazlewood received more votes than both his opponents combined. This poll indicates that the members of the legal profession also rank him number one.

Respectfully submitted,
Alton B. Chapman, Associate Justice,

For the MOST EFFECTIVE weed control in cotton use Herban on top of an incorporated material

No herbicide can guarantee you a bumper crop like this, but HERBAN gives you weed control unsurpassed by any other surface applied herbicide... plus built-in safety factors and multiple uses that other herbicides cannot offer. HERBAN allows you to plant most any fall crop you like without fear of "herbicide hangover".

HERBAN's sensible residual allows you to incorporate a full recommended treatment of an incorporated herbicide as the first step toward pre-emerge weed control. Then at planting time you can apply a full rate of HERBAN on top of a full rate of an incorporated material.

If required for additional control, you can use post-emerge treatments of HERBAN-62 (HERBAN plus MSMA) to kill emerging weeds and grasses without danger to your cotton. Then, for clean fields at harvest time, use a lay-by application of HERBAN immediately after last cultivation.

STILL TIME FOR A FLOWER GARDEN

Abundant rainfall and the late arrival of warm weather should not stop you from having an attractive garden. By using started plants as soon as the soil is dry enough to plant, attractive flower borders can be established before the extreme heat of summer arrives.

For plants to be grown in bright, sunny areas, try petunias, portulaca, zinnia, marigold, salvia, and celosia. For shady areas plant coleus, impatiens and begonias - for a splash of color a massing of caladium bulbs will add contrast. Caladiums should not be planted until the soil is warm and night temperatures remain above 55 degrees.

Annuals are many and varied in color, and the new All American Seed selections will draw attention. There are always new and different varieties available, although not necessarily any better than the old favorites that have withstood the test of time.

Many "bargains" may not be such a good buy. Just because the plant is large in size or cheap in price does not indicate that the plant is a good buy. Short, stocky plants with a rich green color are usually the best plants because those that are tall and spindly or light green in color have probably been grown under crowded conditions or under poor light conditions.

Proper preparation of the soil is important in growing annuals or so-called bedding plants. It may be necessary to build raised beds to assure good drainage on low and poorly draining soil. Adding ample organic matter such as compost or sphagnum peat moss into the soil will loosen a tight clay soil and prevent crusting, and improve the moisture retention of a sandy soil.

It is much better to give the bed a thorough soaking than a light watering every day. Care must be taken to prevent saturation of the soil just as keeping it from drying out.

Fertilizer should be applied every three to four weeks during the active growing period at a rate of two to three pounds of complete formula per 100 square feet of bed area.

Cotton seedling disease can greatly affect total yield from your acreage. Organisms associated with cotton seedling diseases are fungi, bacteria, and nematodes. They are most damaging during periods that favor their development but unfavorable for plant development.

Preventing diseases from affecting seedlings can be accomplished only by following the proper combination and use of control practices. It is important to bury all surface trash below the planting level and plant the seeds on beds to allow proper drainage. Shaped beds and precision planting can greatly aid in the control of seedling disease.

Seeds should be treated with a chemical fungicide to control seed surface borne organisms and prevent seed rot. The seed should be of good quality and should give a high germination of normal seedlings at 65 degree in seven days. Lower quality seeds require higher temperatures and longer to germinate.

To test the seed quality before planting an incubator from an old refrigerator that will cool to 65 degrees. An electric light bulb controlled by a thermostat may be used to raise temperatures to 65 degrees. After seven days at the 65 degree temperature, high quality seed will germinate and have a straight root about 1 1/2 inches long. Low quality seed will have poor germination and roots which are coiled or nubbed. Any mold growth on the seeds will indicate deterioration.

To assure a satisfactory stand it may be necessary to apply an in-covering fungicide when seedling disease has consistently been a problem. Sprays, dusts, or granules may be used and they should be thoroughly mixed with the soil used to cover the seed in the furrow.

SCRIPTURE READING
"Everlasting Punishment" is the subject of this week's Bible Lesson to be read in all Christian Science churches this Sunday.

The Golden Text from Psalms sets the theme: "Unto the upright there ariseth light in the darkness: . . . Surely he shall not be moved forever: the righteous shall be in everlasting remembrance."

The Bible Lesson also includes passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, among which is the following: "Mortals move onward towards good or evil as time glides on. If mortals are not progressive, past failures will be repeated until all wrong work is effaced or rectified. If at present satisfied with wrong-doing, we must learn to loathe it. If at present content with idleness, we must become dissatisfied with it."

Are you the lucky owner of a new clothes dryer? If so, we would like to mention a couple of tips that will possibly help you get used to using that dryer.

Remember that a dryer can be overloaded just the same as the washing machine. Overcrowding of the dryer is especially noticeable with Perma-prest articles. Over-loading prevents the tumbling action needed. Warm heat softens the fibers and makes the wrinkles disappear. If the heat cannot freely circulate through the clothes, the wrinkles will stay in.

Also, it is important to remove the clothes from the dryer as soon as the tumbling action stops. If you have been unhappy with the Perma-prest

Devotional of the Month

How To Be Happy

"These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation; but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world." John 16:33.

One of the greatest blessings God has given man is the ability and opportunity to be happy. The whole system of American life is based on the belief that all men possess the right to this "pursuit of happiness."

But millions are looking for happiness in the wrong places. More than forty million Americans have fled to alcohol in search of happiness. Thousands are addicted to dope for the same reason. Multiplied millions are bowing down before the goddess of luxury in hope of finding happiness. But they learn, like Solomon who prostituted his body in every worldly luxury imaginable, that in such a course there is only "vanity and vexation of spirit."

But centuries ago, King David told man how to be happy in his very first Psalm.

1. "Blessed (or happy) is the man that walketh not in the council of the ungodly." Had Amnon refused to listen to the council of ungodly Jonadab he would not have lost his life (2 Samuel 13:1-39).

2. "Nor standeth in the way of sinners." Peter denied Jesus while standing around the fire where sinners stood.

3. "Nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful (or scoffers)." Look at the atheist. He is living evidence that scoffers are not happy people. The happy man is he whose "delight is in the law of the Lord."

In a hymn we so often sing, are found these words:

In Jesus for peace I abide,
And as I keep close to His side,
There's nothing but peace doth betide,
Sweet peace, the gift of God's love.

Word has been received from Mrs. Alton Noland that she is recuperating this week from an appendectomy which she underwent at McKinney Hospital in McKinney last Thursday morning. Mrs. Noland is well-known in our vicinity and recently moved from our area. Her cousin, Arby Mulder and family plan to go down to see her as soon as possible.

Mrs. Tom Maurer received word Thursday that her aunt, Mrs. Irene Stinnette of Fort Worth, died that day. Services were held in Floydada Friday at the First Baptist Church with interment at the Floydada Cemetery. Mrs. Stinnette had been in bad health since last Christmas. We extend our sympathy to Mrs. Maurer and her family, the W. B. Cates of Floydada.

Penny and Cindy, small daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Mulder, have been ill with a virus over the past weekend. Mrs. Arby Mulder was confined to her home with the flu Saturday and Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Levoyn Mahan of Arlington and small daughter, spent the weekend here with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Pruitt and family. Levoyn was just getting over a tonsillectomy and took a turn for the worse while here. Mrs. Bryant Higginbotham visited with Mr. and Mrs. Lenon Lanham of Rock Creek Sunday afternoon and evening. With her was Mrs. Helen Higginbotham of Chillicothe, who was a house guest of Mrs. Higginbotham over the weekend.

Around 80 were present for the Sunday dinner served after church services with visitors Robin Smith of Lockney, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Burks of Ballinger, Mrs. Steele Deavenport and Sherre of Boulder, Colo., Mrs. Levoyn Mahan and daughter of Arlington, Mrs. Anna Byars, Mrs. Ruby Burgett and Mrs. Roy Bounds, all of Weatherford.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Marble over the weekend were her sisters, Mrs. Ruby Burgett and Mrs. Anna Byars and a friend, Mrs. Roy Bounds, all of Weatherford. Mrs. Marvin Wells spent most of last week here with her parents. She came for the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Ruby Whitlock which was held last Thursday, then on Friday of this week, Marvin came from Weatherford to get her.

Mrs. Kenneth Bean spent most of last week at the Plainsview Hospital with her youngest daughter, Carla, who has been hospitalized a week there. She is under oxygen for bronchitis. We surely hope she is able to come home soon. Mr. and Mrs. Arby Mulder are having a new garage, utility and storage room built at their home. They hope to have it completed this coming week. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Upton arrived home Sunday from El Paso where they spent the past week with their daughter, Mrs. Karl Craig and family.

We are sorry to learn of the passing of Mrs. Sophie Thomas of Lockney Saturday night. She was the 90-year-old grandmother of Mrs. Don Probasco of our community and resided at the Lockney Convalescent Home. Services were held Monday in the First Baptist Church of Lockney with Rev. Gene Hawkins of Seminole officiating.

We offer sympathy to Mrs. Elmer Norrell of Floydada at the passing Saturday of her mother, Mrs. Pearl Turner. Services were held at the First Methodist Church Monday in Floydada, and interment is in the Floydada Cemetery. Mrs. Turner is the grandmother of James Norrell, whose wife is the former Beth Calahan of this community. Members of the South Plains PTA will meet at 2:45 Friday

May 3, with a brief business meeting. The annual Installation of Officers will be held at an installation tea. This will be the last regular PTA meeting of the year, and Mrs. Glen Wood will install the incoming officers. All new mothers of school children who will start to school next fall are especially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. George West returned home Thursday from Lake Texoma where they spent the past week on a fishing trip. Mrs. Reid Nicholson and son, Stanley, are expected home this Monday night from the MD Anderson Hospital in Houston where they have been staying in the past month, while Stanley underwent treatment for an eye ailment. We hope that he is greatly improved in health, and will be able to be back in school soon.

Mrs. Steele Deavenport and Sherre visited here the past two weeks with her parents, the Bryan Karrs. They visited Saturday in Floydada with Mrs. Bud Edwards, who was formerly Barbara Milton from South Plains.

We had ice on windshields Wednesday morning of last week and very cold weather Thursday morning. This Monday morning it was a low 31 degrees with more ice here. Most of the farmers are holding up on the planting of cotton while it is so cool. The northern part of our community received .20 rain in brief shower about 2:30 Sunday morning.

Rev. Chas. Conger, Mrs. Conger, Brett and Bentley went to Halfway Saturday to visit her sister, Mrs. David Cannon and family, with the occasion being the birthday of Mrs. Conger. A pleasant surprise for her was the appearance of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Barrick of Keyes, Oklahoma, who had come for the celebration.

Cleanliness controls many hazards in Homes..... A crackling blaze in the fireplace couldn't be cozier-but an uncontrolled fire in the home is a disaster. Losses may destroy family treasures, financial security-even life itself.

While most people have been receiving warnings about such dangers ever since first grade fire drills at school, many a homemaker forgets how much she can do to prevent fire in the home. What should be done? Most important fire-prevention rules consist of no more than good housekeeping and cleanliness. It can't be emphasized too strongly that a dirty home invites trouble. In fact, Robert O. Lowery, Fire Commissioner for the City of New York, states that most home fires start in the kitchen due to negligence - especially in taking care of the range.

Here are some good rules to help avoid fire in your home: DON'T leave home without making sure that all kitchen range burners and electrical appliances are turned off, and that all cigarettes have been put out. DON'T keep matches where young children can reach them. DON'T store dirty, oily rags in corners and closets. DON'T keep rubbish and waste paper around the house. DON'T smoke in bed.

DO keep the range clean, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Karr and Mrs. Steele Deavenport and Sherre left Monday morning for Springtown to visit Mrs. J.H. Karr and for Fort Worth to visit relatives there. Mrs. Deavenport will return to her home in Boulder, Colo. this weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Lupe Luna were made happy Saturday night when they received word from Lubbock that their son, Sp. 5 Benny Luna had arrived in the states from Korea where he had been stationed over a year. Benny will be home with his family for the next forty two days, then he will go to White Sands Proving Grounds in New Mexico where he has only three months more to serve in the Armed Forces. The Luna family live on the W.M. Stanforth ranch.

A party for the boys and girls of the Baptist Spanish Mission was held Friday night at the mission with ice cream and cakes served to everyone who attended. Alvin Petty, Bob Travis and Sharon Cooper were the Wayland students, who came Friday night and were surprised by Mrs. Kendis Julian and children, who presented a skit given in appreciation for all the work they have done, working with the boys and girls here this year. Chas. Conger and family and several other families were represented at the party.

since a grease film on oven walls may catch fire. DO call the gas company at once if the gas leaks. DO occasionally wash kitchen walls where cooking grease settles. DO keep the toaster clean so crumbs won't have a chance to start a blaze. DO keep housecleaning equipment clean. DO promptly launder all clothes and cloths used for painting or cleaning. If you live in your own home, do wash the basement floor often using a mop or brush dipped into hot soap or detergent suds. DO keep a fire extinguisher handy, and learn how to operate it.

Regular use of soap or detergent suds is the easiest and most economical kind of cleaning-and an important factor in avoiding common causes of fire. So DO take note of any potential fire hazards, and eliminate them right away. Why wait for an official "Fire Prevention Day"? For safety's sake and your families protection, let every day be fire prevention day around your home.

Connally Seeks Nomination As Favorite Son

AUSTIN - Texans who for years have voted for Governor John Connally at the polls have another opportunity to support the popular chief executive this week, even though his name will not be on the ballot.

While the Governor is not seeking re-election, voters can assign to him what could be an even more important job for the state in the months ahead.

In view of the political uncertainty throughout the country at this time, Connally has agreed to become a favorite son candidate for the presidency from Texas and to head the state's delegation to the Democratic National Convention, provided voters throughout Texas support such action in precinct conventions Saturday.

Texas on matters of grave concern in the months ahead." Connally pointed out that with President Johnson retiring from office in January, Texas will have no representation in the top leadership of the nation for the first time in almost 40 years.

"If Texas is to have a hope of helping shape the course of national leadership, we must be in a position to speak as a united voice in any eventuality," he said.

Connally asked that all who attend conventions vote to adopt the unit rule, and vote to designate the Governor as "favorite son" leader of the Texas delegation to the Chicago convention in August.
