FOOTBALL COACH L. G. Wilson really amazed me at Ralls last week when he introduced over 50 football players in offensive and defensive positions, and their class- high school. I was impressed by the number and size of our football boys. . . that we have a very capable coaching staff. Floydada football fans have a real exciting season

ALL KNOW - Have you often wondered where all of the money goes to operate our federal government? Well, the tax dollar (90 billions a year); corporation taxes, excise taxes, 8 cents; social insurance taxes and 23 cents; licenses and other taxes, 4 cents.

Where does the money go? The first 53 cents go for the Vietnam war. Veterans' take another nickel. Interest on our national debt takes out of every dollar. Then 1 cent goes for natural gas, 2 cents for housing and community development, 9 cents for health programs and 1 cent for education. Foreign aid costs us 2 cents, space 3 cents, and commercial and transportation get the last 6 cents. There you have it. -Winter News-Chief STAND $115 has been given to the Red Cross on the relief fund and around $400 to the ministers' fund cause through the ministers' effort. It's too late to help these people who lost everything in the Hurricane. You may contribute at the bank.

COMMENT E is probably a little late, since the high school has been open for a month or two. . . but, at the same time, I was impressed with the very good pictures of the quality of the book. Congratulations to Sherry Crutchfield, her sponsor and all who did such a bang-up good job.

I'm sitting on top of a hot news story that I may get soon. Duncan Hallum's reports that his mother, Maude has signed a purchase option with Frisco for another 100 acres of land to be used for storing of new automobiles. Our auto transport business could be a big money maker.

Council Helps Finance

Ambulance Service

That the City of Floydada must have good ambulance service and we feel an obligation to pay our share of the cost. The statement by mayor Jimmy Seay at Monday night council's approval of the purchase of a new ambulance for the month of September.

Mayor and Alton Rose of the council and detail they were losing an adequate ambulance service for the people. They asked the mayor to purchase a new ambulance for the month and have the county commissioners for a like amount. The commissioners haven't agreed to the request.

Moore and Rose outlined the upkeep costs of ambulance service, cost of manpower, insurance, depreciation, required equipment and other costs. Moore cited area cities who have had to take over operation of ambulance service and he said that the cost was considerably more for these cities.

In other business the council tabulated the results of the Mackenzie Municipal Water

The defeat of the Texas Water Plan Aug. 5th apparently whetted the water appetites of residents in Floydada, Tullia, Silverton and Lockney Saturday as they swarmed voting polls to endorse the Mackenzie Municipal Water Authority.

The proposed project which will see a dam and reservoir established on Tule Creek in Briscoe County passed in all four cities "to an astonishing degree," Lon Davis, president of the Water Authority said Saturday night.

To pass the proposed project, voters in all four cities voted favorably on four questions.

Mackenzie Board Meets

In a special called meeting the Mackenzie board met in Floydada Tuesday night to start the ball rolling on a dam to be built on Tule Creek. The meeting was held in the bank community room.

Joe Smith of the First Southwest Company was authorized to prepare application for bond loan money from the Texas Water Development Board and engineer Jim Nichols was on hand to explain steps in bringing the project into completion.

Nichols said the first step was to secure the bond money, then begin site purchase, complete engineering and let contracts for the work.

Smith said that there might be some delay in securing the state bond money, but would begin work immediately preparing the application.

The board also approved application to the state water board for extension of the October deadline for the water rights of the Tule Creek watershed.

"Agriculture 2000" Film For Young Farmers

A most dynamic and interesting film will be shown to the Floydada Young Farmers Club tonight at 8 p.m., entitled, "Agriculture 2000".

"I believe every farmer and businessman in this area will want to see and enjoy seeing this film," said Orville Harris, high school vocational agriculture teacher. "We invite everyone to see this film tonight in the high school Vo-Ag building," he continued.

The first proposition authorized the Authority to issue $4,615,000 General Obligation Bonds and the second proposition levied a maintenance tax of not to exceed 10 cents per $100 assessed valuation.

WATER CONTRACT

Also a white ballot included a proposition in which owners of taxable property authorized their city to enter into a water purchase contract with the Authority with a guarantee that their city would purchase a

City Council Announces Fire Service Deadline October 1

The Floydada City Council this week made the following announcement in regard to the Fire Department's service to residents outside the city limits:

"Rural Fire Protection To Discontinue October 1, 1969: The City Council has been negotiating with the County Commissioners for the past 3 1/2 months in an attempt to organize a joint fire department for the City of Floydada and its surrounding rural areas.

A five year study was made of expenses incurred in operating the fire department. The expenses were prorated for city fires and rural fires.

The council asked that $8,000 per year be the County's share of a joint fire department plus $11,000 needed now for the purchase of a new fire truck.

The County Commissioners have offered $3,000 per year, which on the basis of the study will not cover the necessary expenses.

The City Council feels that the most sensible thing to do would be to create a joint owned City - County Fire Department. By having a joint fire department the cost will be less than trying to maintain two separate departments, a City Fire Department and a County owned Rural Fire Department.

We encourage you, the taxpayers, to take an interest in this problem that confronts all of us and to contact your County Commissioners and your City Councilmen. Let us know your feelings on this important matter.

Fire Department Contributions May Be Refunded Rural Donors

The following announcement was made this week in regard to the persons who made donations to the Floydada Fire Department:

"To the Rural Contributors To The Floydada Fire Department Fund:

The City of Floydada is working under duress and have not been able to reach an agreement with the County Commissioners on Rural Fire Protection and we feel that it is only fair for the City to return all rural donations given to the Floydada Volunteer Fire Department. These donations, originally being given for the purchase of fire fighting equipment or a fire truck, no money has been spent since an agreement with the County has not been reached.

We appreciate your interest in the Fire Department and your contributions and are very

The Floydada Whirlwinds will be out for a repeat victory over Ralls tomorrow night as they invade the Jackrabbit stadium at 8 p.m.

Last year's opening game here with Ralls found the Whirlwinds barely ahead 7-8 when the final whistle blew. It was the only game Ralls lost as they went on to win the 4-A district.

There's a good chance that the Jackrabbits may repeat. Floydada goes into the game in good physical shape and with two winning scrimmages under their belts the Whirlwinds expect to start the season off with a win. They beat AAA Colorado City 5-1 two weeks ago and A Crosbyton last Friday 5-0.

Ralls very easily beat AAA Mulshoe 1-0 in scrimmage practice.

Ralls is blessed in having lettermen in the backfield for another run at the crown. Junior field general Kirt Wyrick (130) has a year's experience on the varsity. Senior halfback Dee Bishop (175) and junior fullback Norman Royce (170) also return to the offensive backfield to provide Ralls with a lethal ground attack.

The Jackrabbits have in camp five seniors, 12 juniors, six sophomores and only five freshmen.

Ralls' main point of strength is the offensive line. Kent Sellers (200), Will McReynolds (200) and Dewayne Osborne (180) form the backbone of the Jackrabbits awesome offensive front.

Also along the offensive line

General Rains

Slow Harvest

Gentle, general rains have fallen in the Caprock Country for the past week. The rains of course benefit late crops and add more moisture for the wheat crop yet to be sowed.

Some farmers have grain sorghum ready for harvest and are anxiously awaiting some hot dry weather.

The official report from Producers is 2.30 inches as of noon Wednesday. This brings the year's total to 18 inches. This compares with 18.50 inches at this time last year.

will be Galan Neitch and Larry Richards (185) at ends, Sellers and McReynolds at tackles, Osborne and Tony Ellison (170) at guards and Hal Weaver (170) or Randy Woodard (200) at center.

Forming the defensive line will be Richards and Sellers at tackles and Ellison or Weaver at guards.

The defensive backfield will consist of Osborne, Stacy Smith (170) and Tony Chron (160) or Bobby Royce (160) at the linebacker slots, Sanders and Bishop at halfbacks Wyrick at safety and Norman Royce as the rover.

Last year's district trophy sits in the trophy case now, and Ralls is itching to put another beside it.

Whirlwind captains for the Ralls game include Jack Gregory, Tom Wylie, Louis Cardinal and Jody James.

Defense: Richard Hale and Tom Wylie, ends; Glen Switzer, Stan Wilson or Sam Green, tackles; Mike Burk and Van Mitchell, inside line backers; Jim Crawford and Walter Harris, corner line backers; Andy Hale and Bob Marler, halfbacks and Steve Puckett, safety.

Wilson said that Mike Burk would have the kick-off assignment and extra points, Puckett and Andy Hale would probably be punting.

Stan Pierce and George Quisenberry have shoulder injuries and will probably not see action in the Ralls contest.

Floydada fans will sit on the east side of the stadium.

Neighborhood Kindergarten To Begin

The steering committee for the Neighborhood Kindergarten met September 5 to make plans for the new school year. Registration is set for September 29 with classes to begin September 30. Hours for the kindergarten will be from 9:00 to 11:00 a.m. Monday through Friday with holidays identical to those of the public schools.

Enrollment will be limited to 20 children, and those who will be entering the first grade in September, 1970 will be accepted first. The cost per student will be 50¢ a week.

Anyone interested in enrolling a child in the kindergarten may contact John Campbell at the community center, (Delta Plains School), 983-3134, or call Mrs. Howard Gregory at 983-2915.

Tributes Made To Dirksen

WASHINGTON — While a lonely marigold marks his vacant Senate desk, Everett M. Dirksen will lie in state today beneath the Capitol's soaring dome to receive the nation's tribute.

Dirksen, the Senate's Republican leader until his death Sunday, is the 21st American since Abraham Lincoln to be so honored.

Following the reading of the 23rd Psalm by Senate Chaplain the Rev. Dr. L. R. Elson, the Dirksen family asked President Nixon to deliver the eulogy for the man the President had called "my warm personal friend."

The casket, resting on the same catafalque that carried Lincoln's body and attended by a military honor guard, is to remain on view in the rotunda until noon Wednesday, it is carried by hearse to National Presbyterian Church for funeral services.

GINNED SATURDAY AT STERLEY

McCormick Produces First County Bale

A 450 pound bale rolled out of the Sterley Gin plant at 4 p.m. Saturday... the first Floyd County cotton ginned this year.

Hands started pulling Friday afternoon at the Audry McCormick farm and had 1,800 pounds of lint cotton on the trailer after lunch Saturday.

McCormick said the cotton was pulled from five acres. It was planted "the last of April" to Dunn 56C seed on the H. O. Cline farm three miles north and one-half mile east of Lockney. Water is light on the plot.

Kent Watson, manager of Sterley Gin, said the cotton was "real white."

Watson added that Sterley Gin would pay a premium for the first bale. McCormick also earns a $50 cash award from Lockney Chamber of Commerce for producing the first bale delivered to a C-C member gin.

This is the first time in recent years that the county's first bale has been produced and ginned in the northern portion.

Man Gets Into A Little Trouble With The Law

PHILADELPHIA — Philadelphia's September grand jury indicted a suspended court crier Monday on 314 charges.

Edward J. Holland, 44, was accused of bribery, extortion, blackmail, hindering state witnesses, subornation of perjury, bribery of employees, solicitation to commit arson, robbery, compounding a crime, conspiracy, larceny, impersonating an officer, forgery, cheating by false pretense, burglary, unlawful entry and receiving stolen goods.

Asst. Dist. Atty. Richard G. Phillips said, "If convicted of the charges on which the grand jury acted, Holland could be sentenced to jail for a total of between 3,000 and 4,000 years."

tor's body to burial services Thursday at Pekin, Dirksen's small-town birthplace on the Illinois prairie.

However Nixon will not attend the burial, sending Vice President Spiro T. Agnew instead.

Dirksen was the fourth senator to lie in state in the capitol rotunda. His casket rested on the black velvet catafalque that has borne the bodies of presidents, soldiers and statesmen since Lincoln's funeral, 104 years ago.

Countdown Starts On Floyd Fair

Nine . . . eight . . . seven, and counting!

Just seven more days until blastoff of the 16th annual Floyd County Fair and Surrounding Counties!

The gala three-day event opens next Thursday afternoon on the fair grounds in southeast Lockney. Thousands of visitors again are expected to pass through the turnstiles.

The event is billed as "the best small fair in West Texas."

Thursday Parade

One of the first day highlights will be the colorful parade, scheduled to advance down Lockney's Main Street at 2:30 next Thursday.

O.T. Billington is heading the parade committee. He is assisted by J. D. Copeland, Eddie Fortenberry, Don Bybee and Bill Turner. Comprising the float committee are Mmes. Bill Turner, Eddie Fortenberry and Jerry Williams.

Persons wishing to place entries in the parade may contact any of the abovementioned.

Folk Group Booked

Jerry Williams, president of the fair board, says that "The Colors," a folk singing group from Lubbock has been booked.

"The Colors" replace the talent show as Thursday night entertainment feature.

Williams says that Thursday has been designated as "Family Night."

One end of numbered tickets secured at the gate will be placed in a container for a big drawing each night. Persons holding the opposite end of ticket drawn each night will be recipient of a $100 gate prize.

Individuals securing tickets are eligible for drawing that night. The winner must be present, Williams says.

Judging Stated

Judging of community exhibits, women's division, agricultural department also are on the agenda for opening day. A tractor driving contest is slated for 4 p.m.

The ladies' day program — complete with prizes — starts Friday at 9 a.m. Livestock judging will be conducted throughout the morning and early afternoon in the stock building.

Gospel Singers from a wide area again are expected for the gospel singing program at 7:30 Friday night in the entertainment building.

Quarterhorse Show

Another of the fair's more popular events — Quarterhorse show — kicks off at 9 a.m. Saturday. Baby beef are to be judged at 9:30 in the livestock barn while the horse show continues in the rodeo arena.

Young ladies from Floyd County and surrounding communities participate in the Miss Floyd County Queen Pageant preliminaries Saturday afternoon in the entertainment building. Finals start at 7:30 that evening.

Mrs. Jerry Williams says "as many as 25" misses may compete in the pageant.

Educational Features

Three educational booths will be set up in an attempt to better acquaint the public with health aspects.

Mrs. Cliff Hardy is to bring her home dialysis machine for investigation of fair visitors. Mrs. Hardy, who has had both kidneys removed, utilizes the machine in her home to cleanse her blood.

"Many persons would not want to come to my home to see the machine," she says, "But I believe they would be interested in seeing it."

Keeter Grocery has donated its booth to the Satellite School to allow the public to learn more about the program for slow learning youngsters. A free slide show also will be shown during the fair in the entertainment building. Times will be announced in next week's Beacon.

Officials say a "smoking machine" will be placed in the main building to allow fairgoers to learn the dangers of smoking. The machine normally is used in conjunction with the TB mobil unit.

Virtually all inside booth space has been booked, according to Boyce Mosley.

D. S. Dudley Shows is expected to set up early next week at the fair grounds.

CLEANUP SCHEDULED

President Williams has announced that Monday and Tuesday will be cleanup days at the fair grounds. All volunteer assistance will be greatly appreciated.

RURAL FIRE PROTECTION TO DISCONTINUE OCTOBER 1, 1969

THE CITY COUNCIL HAS BEEN NEGOTIATING WITH THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS FOR THE PAST 3 1/2 MONTHS IN AN ATTEMPT TO ORGANIZE A JOINT FIRE DEPARTMENT FOR THE CITY OF FLOYDADA AND ITS SURROUNDING RURAL AREA.

A FIVE YEAR STUDY WAS MADE OF EXPENSES INCURRED IN OPERATING THE FIRE DEPARTMENT. THE EXPENSES WERE PRORATED FOR CITY FIRES AND RURAL FIRES.

THE COUNCIL HAS APPROACHED THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS ON THE BASIS OF THIS STUDY AND AS OF THIS DATE HAVE NOT BEEN ABLE TO REACH AN AGREEMENT.

THE COUNCIL ASKED THAT $8,000 PER YEAR BE THE COUNTY'S SHARE OF A JOINT FIRE DEPARTMENT PLUS $1,000 NEEDED NOW FOR THE PURCHASE OF A NEW FIRE TRUCK.

THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS HAVE OFFERED $3,000 PER YEAR, WHICH ON THE BASIS OF THE STUDY WILL NOT COVER THE NECESSARY EXPENSES.

THE CITY COUNCIL FEELS THAT THE MOST SENSIBLE THING TO DO WOULD BE TO CREATE A JOINT OWNED CITY-COUNTY FIRE DEPARTMENT. BY HAVING A JOINT FIRE DEPARTMENT THE COST WILL BE LESS THAN TRYING TO MAINTAIN TWO SEPARATE DEPARTMENTS, A CITY FIRE DEPARTMENT AND A COUNTY OWNED RURAL FIRE DEPARTMENT.

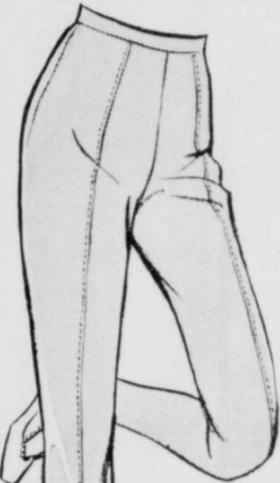

WE ENCOURAGE YOU, THE TAX PAYERS, TO TAKE AN INTEREST IN THIS PROBLEM THAT CONFRONTS ALL OF US AND TO CONTACT YOUR COUNTY COMMISSIONERS AND YOUR CITY COUNCILMEN. LET US KNOW YOUR FEELINGS ON THIS IMPORTANT MATTER.

"I REMEMBER....I REMEMBER..."

Times Have Changed

I get the impression there are some of The Hesperian's readers who doubt my report that the St. Louis Fur Company wrote a country bumpkin explaining away the boy's complaint about the two-bit gadget that would trap a coon.

In the "climate" we live in now so many people are so far away from the raw facts of pioneer days such a suspicion can be understood, even condoned. But since I knew of at least two men in that time who were making more money trapping than their stock - farmer and grocery-dealing contemporaries, it seems reasonable to me that St. Louis Fur Co. was just not overlooking any bets.

It could have turned out that Jodie Day and his brother Chester would be trappers (and customers of the fur company) instead of law man and lawyer. (Jodie early went to the west coast and made a career on the Los Angeles police force, and Chester carved out a distinguished career in the practice of law at Houston.)

The two boys were sons of Mr. and Mrs. J.J. Day who came to Floyd County in 1887, three years before the county was organized. The Days "took up" land that lay across Blanco Canyon. Mr. Day's mother came with them from Grayson County (I think). Mr. Day pre-empted the ground that now comprises Floydada Country Club and his mother Sara, the quarter section lying immediately west of it.

The young fellow had boundless energy and ambition. He was strong and they lived frugally. As time went on he acquired other lands adjacent to the pre-emption surveys. And during those young days built two rock fences about three feet high, as I remember them, and probably sixteen inches thick, from canyon rim to canyon rim - each several hundred yards long.

It has been many years since I last saw those fences. Mr. Day had a reason for them, of course. But in later years of his life, when queried, he would say he built the fences "to keep from going crazy." There were many years of lonesomeness, hankering for neighbors to talk to, and the like. No telling how much energy and how many man-days of labor went into those fences.

The other children of Mr. and Mrs. Day were Melvin, now of Ralls, Myrtle, (Mrs. Charlie Jones, of Amarillo) Clara, (Mrs. O.E. Murry of Floydada,) and Bertha (Mrs. Weaver Howard) of Pueblo, Colo.

I guess I ought to mention that Col. Mackenzie's pursuit of the Quahada Indians in the 1870 campaign was across the Day lands (into the canyon on the south side, out of it on the north) and the signs are still there if one knows how and where to look. But that's another story for mayhap another day.

COUNTY AGENT'S CORNER

by Joe Wilson

Farmers and farm industry leaders from Texas and four other Southwestern States, Arkansas, Louisiana, New Mexico and Oklahoma, will have the opportunity to tell Secretary of Agriculture Clifford M. Hardin what's on their minds.

The occasion will be the fifth in a series of "listening conferences." It will be held on September 18 in G. Rollie White Coliseum on the Texas A&M University Campus.

Such subjects as farm programs, how to maintain and increase farm income, rural urban balance, proper nutrition and diets, development of natural and conservation are due to get major attention during the day.

While plans for the conference are not yet complete, it is known, said the county agent, that every person who attends will have an opportunity, either through oral presentation or written brief, to present his ideas.

As plans are finalized, details on the conference will be released. Several of the Secretary's senior staff members are expected to attend and also members of the Agriculture Committee of the House of Representatives, headed by Congressman W. R. Poage from Waco will attend at least a part of the conference. Dr. H. O. Kunkel, dean, College of Agriculture at A&M, will serve as presiding officer. Land-Grant universities in the five states are cooperating in staging the event.

Wheat planting time is approaching and careful selection of a variety is important in obtaining the most economical return from grazing and grain production.

A new variety, Agent, has been released in Oklahoma as a special purpose forage wheat. This variety has a high resistance to leaf rust but has not yielded as well as local varieties. It also lacks winter hardiness on the High Plains. More observation and tests are necessary before it can be recommended in Texas.

For maximum forage and grain production, it is important to maintain adequate soil fertility and proper stocking rate throughout the grazing period is extended in the spring, the greater will be the reduction in grain yields. This is especially true if soil nitrogen is allowed to become depleted after a good grazing season.

Caprock, a sister strain of Sturdy, is also an outstanding variety and yields slightly better than Sturdy. Both of these varieties are short-stature wheat recommended for growing under irrigation and high fertility where lodging may be a problem. Under dryland conditions, these varieties may be too short to harvest satisfactorily.

Foundation seed of Caprock was produced last fall for certified seed growers and should be available to farmers for planting next year.

Other popular varieties on the High Plains are Improved Triumph, Crockett, Kaw, Concho, and Wichita. These are second choice because of either lower quality and a tendency to shatter or weak straw. Under dryland production, they often have a good milling and baking quality but are weaker than desired under irrigation. Wichita and improved Triumph continue to be popular, however, due to their extreme earliness.

A new variety, Crockett 70, is being released to replace the Crockett now being grown. Seed of this new variety should be available to farmers for the 1970 planting. It is only slightly better than the present Crockett in yield, test weight and quality but shows a major improvement in shatter resistance and straw strength.

What is the best variety for grazing? That's a question often asked by wheat growers and cattlemen alike. Generally, a good yielding variety will usually provide good grazing. However, grazing of the early maturing varieties such as Triumph should be discontinued earlier in the spring if they are being saved for a grain crop than later varieties such as Tascosa.

Feeding The Multitude

We concede: The farmer makes only a pittance off the produce he sells. The grocery man's margin is about 2 per cent. The middlemen have to pay their employees for the packaging and processing. We concede: Nobody makes much money in the food business.

The housewife still goes home muttering to herself about the high cost of setting a table for her family. And it is true. A little at a time, a penny or two here and there over a period of weeks, it creeps ever higher.

Well, it may be small comfort but a lady we know recently checked her grocery bill, did some adding and subtracting and this is what she found:

From her grocery bill that ran to more than $24, she carefully subtracted, item by item, the cost of the light bulbs she bought, (She used to get them at the hardware store,) the dog food, the bug spray, the detergents and other laundry aids, the toiletries, cosmetics and sundries, the paper napkins, etc. Sure enough, when she was through, she found that, while her "grocery" bill was still more than $24, her food bill was less than $16.

Now this does not mean that the cost of living has gone down. Certainly it has not in most areas. But it does suggest that the blame which most people attribute to groceries and the man who sells them is misdirected. Food is still a "best buy."

Next time you leave $10 on the supermarket counter and take home only one brown bag of "groceries", don't flail the groceryman, the farmer or any of those folks your money helps to support. (They buy groceries too.) Just be glad you didn't have to travel to a hardware store, a drugstore and a dry goods store to get them all together.

According to the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture, apples are heading up the list of plentiful foods and are a recommended best buy. They can be kept for long periods without refrigeration, don't need special packaging and prices should be low.

Each variation of the apple has its own appeal. Apples make a pleasant low-calorie snack or dessert, and can lend flavor to the main course, salad, bread, or dessert.

Only perfect apples should be stored for later use, while those with bruises decayed spots or skin breaks should be used as soon as possible. Slightly under-ripe apples may be stored 2 weeks or less at 60-70 degrees to ripen. Most varieties will keep several months if stored at lower temperatures.

Money and time can be saved by buying apples while they are plentiful and freezing or canning.

Apples can be satisfactorily frozen in an unsweetened pack a sugar pack or sirup pack.

Mexican Rodeo Coming To Lubbock

Antonio Aguilar, one of Mexico's most famous Singing Cowboy movie stars, will present his 1969 National Mexican Festival and Rodeo in Lubbock Saturday and Sunday in Municipal Coliseum.

Appearing with Aguilar, star of more than 100 motion pictures in Mexico, will be his wife, Mexican actress Flore Silvestre, who has played leading roles in 55 movies, and their eight year old son, Tonito. All are superb equestrians, as well as excellent vocalists.

Aguilar's troupe, all from Mexico, includes some of the finest horsemen in the world, bareback bronc and Brahma bull riders, trick ropers and trick riders.

Also appearing will be Aguilar's trained horses, schooled personally by him on his 30,000 acre ranch in Mexico, and a colorfully costumed Mariachi Chapultepec Band, brought from Mexico City.

Mexican cowboys perform the same riding and roping feats as U.S. rodeo cowboys, but there is a difference in approach. The charros do not compete against the clock - they are scored on skill, grace, daring and endurance.

Adult tickets are $3.00, children under 12 admitted for half price. Show times are 8:30 p.m. Saturday, and 4 p.m. Sunday, in Municipal Coliseum at Lubbock. Tickets are on sale at the Coliseum Box Office, Pinkie's Liquor Stores, Jim Lester Drug Store, or Brooks Super Market.

minimum amount of water annually at a given price when water transmission facilities are constructed at that city's request and water is available. A blue ballot was issued to voters not owing taxable property.

An unofficial breakdown of the balloting showed Silverton residents voting 311 for proposition one with 10 against; 309 for proposition two and 7 against; 339 voting for and 6 against on the blue ballot and 319 voting approval on the white ballot and 4 against.

TULLA OUTCOME
Tulla residents voting for proposition one were 850 with 53 against; proposition two, 804 for and 57 against; white ballot, 782 for and 44 against and blue ballot, 808 for and 52 against.

Floydada residents carried proposition one by a margin of 368 for and 125 against; proposition two, 367 for and 125 against; white, 376 for and 120 against and blue, 384 for and 121 against.

Lockney voters cast ballots favoring proposition one, 304 for to 30 against; proposition two, 294 for to 36 against; white, 294 for and 25 against and blue, 306 for and 28 against.

These results include absentee ballots in some and not in others, Davis said.

This was the second time for the Mackenzie Municipal Water Authority proposal to go before voters in these four cities. In 1967, voters in Tulla and Floydada turned the issue down due to financing proposals.

Davis said the heavy vote Saturday was due to residents in Tulla and Floydada vindicating their discretion at the last election and said there was more interest on the part of more people, who were working for the project this time.

Davis said a first thing to do would be to apply to the Texas Water Rights Commission for extension of the Authority's water rights to Tule Creek. He explained that the water rights will expire on Oct. 26 if actual construction has not begun. But he said that passing of this project Saturday should meet with a favorable reaction on the part of water rights commissioners.

He said the Authority also would prepare an application to

Letter To The Editor

Dear Mr. Tooley:
I read with anticipation that the Floyd County Hesperian is to publish a Farm and Ranch Directory. I am pleased and do hope, as a long-time land owner in Floyd County - the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Freeman formerly of Lockney Texas, a "horse and buggy" doctor was my father - I shall have the privilege of a copy of this important directory.

I spent three weeks in Floydada and Dougherty in June and am always delighted to be with my friends and associates in business.

Sincerely yours,
Katie Freeman Ozbirn
(Mrs. E. Lee Ozbirn)

I might add the Floyd County Hesperian has been coming to my family since I can remember, also that the land holdings I refer to were purchased by my father and mother approximately 70 years ago. So I have a deep and affectionate feeling for Floyd County.

FATAL ACCIDENTS

A study conducted by the Indiana State Police of 1000 fatal traffic accidents produced the following findings:

1. Human consumption of alcoholic beverages is the number one cause of rural traffic deaths in Indiana. In this study 746 persons died as a result of accidents in which a drinking driver was involved.
2. The educational level of a driver affects his chances of becoming involved in a fatal traffic accident.
3. Novice drivers, on the road to gain driving skill by means of experience, accounted for 263 deaths according to trooper investigators and in themselves present a critical problem.
4. Approximately 40 per cent of traffic law violations in this study could be considered to have been willfully committed.
5. Drivers in certain vocations are more likely to make driving errors that result in traffic fatalities.
6. If groups of people may be categorized, we concluded that the group causing the greatest portion of our traffic accidents is not likely to be reached by safety campaigns.
8. Two per cent of highway deaths might possibly be suicides.

Drinkers, Smokers Hit Hardest By New Tax Bill

Drinkers and smokers will feel the brunt of the new tax bill passed by the Legislature Saturday. The bill will increase the tax on beer and wine from 12.5 to 17 cents per gallon and on liquor from 11 to 15 cents per gallon. It also will raise the tax on cigarettes from 11 to 15 cents per pack. The new tax rate will be lower than in 20 states and higher than in 27 states. Two states don't have sales taxes. Only one of Texas' neighboring states will have a higher state sales tax rate, New Mexico with 4 per cent. Louisiana and Oklahoma have 2 per cent, and Arkansas has a 3 per cent rate. Pennsylvania has the highest sales tax, 6 per cent, and several states have 2 per cent, the lowest rate.

Exemptions remain the same. An attempt in the first called session to knock out the food exemption was defeated. Smokers also will face a bigger tax burden Oct. 1. The tax on a pack of cigarettes will jump from 11 cents to 15 cents. This means a one pack a day man will be giving the state $16.38 more per year. The new sales tax rate will be lower than in 20 states and higher than in 27 states. Two states don't have sales taxes. Only one of Texas' neighboring states will have a higher state sales tax rate, New Mexico with 4 per cent. Louisiana and Oklahoma have 2 per cent, and Arkansas has a 3 per cent rate. Pennsylvania has the highest sales tax, 6 per cent, and several states have 2 per cent, the lowest rate.

Besides the sales, beer and cigarette tax changes, some consumers will be paying still another new levy. Private club members and guests will pay a nickel a drink "service tax" since clubs ostensibly serve members their own liquor. The tax could not be placed directly on the drinks.

Air pollution from dust storms was at a near record low in Texas this spring, according to a wind erosion report released this week by Clyde W. Graham, state conservationist for the Soil Conservation Service. Graham credited favorable moisture conditions and the work of conservation farmers in the western part of the state with reducing the dust storms. "Reduced dust pollution benefits a lot more people than you might think," Graham said. "Dust hurts people with asthma, emphysema, hay fever, and other respiratory ailments. It ruins electric motors, cars, buses, trucks, tractors, and anything else with moving parts. And it settles in homes, grinding furniture, floors, and carpets."

Soybean Growers Seek Hearing With White

Texas Soybean producers have petitioned for a hearing before Agriculture Commissioner John C. White on September 15, seeking certification to hold a referendum under Texas' new "Commodity Check-Off" legislation. They plan to include a twenty-three county area of northwest, northeast, and southeast Texas, which accounts for about 95 percent of state soybean production.

A public hearing has been set for 10:30 a.m. Monday, September 15 to consider certification of the Texas Soybean Producers Association of Plainview as the authorized organization to conduct the referendum. Certification will be contingent on evidence presented at this hearing.

"The soybean producers' petition also proposes a nine-man commodity producers board to administer programs with funds collected if the assessment is authorized by referendum vote," White said. Counties included in the petition are as follows: Deaf Smith, Parmer, Castro, Swisher, Briscoe, Bailey, Lamb, Hale, Floyd, Lubbock, Crosby, Bowie, Red River, Lamar, Delta, Fannin, Orange, Jefferson, Chambers, Liberty, Hardin, Harris, and Galveston.

FLOYD PHILOSOPHER

Doubts New Plan To Extend Man's Life To At Least 100 Will Work Out

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm has had another flat tire, his letter this week reveals.

Dear editor:
According to an article I read in a newspaper the other afternoon while I was trying to make up my mind whether the right rear tire on my car could stand another boot or if I should give up and buy a new one, scientists from 40 nations met in Washington week before last to discuss the problem of getting old.

In the main speech before the group, many of whom are getting along in years, a biology professor from London said a crash program costing something like 20 million dollars is needed to explore the possibilities of extending man's life, to where the average person would reach at least 100.

One of the ways worth exploring, he said, would be the use of an anti-oxidant chemical now used by the rubber industry to help prevent deterioration of automobile tires.

I sat up and took notice at this. If they're going to give human beings the same treatment they give automobile tires to keep them from wearing out, I'd suggest to those scientists they put that 20 million dollars out at interest to help replace the tires on their own cars. Some of them I'll bet are getting a little smooth right now.

We've got plenty of humans who can outlast a set of tires, but where's the tire nearly anybody without half-trying can't outlast?

I don't know what it is they inject a tire with to keep it from wearing out, but personally I wouldn't have too much confidence in a similar injection for me.

When the scientists perfect a tire that'll outlast me, then they can go to work on a human being that'll outlast a tire. Scientists are always getting their priorities mixed up. All they're going in this instance is arguing that the average man ought to have to buy more tires before he succumbs.

Meanwhile, I decided to try one more boot on my tire. Most business experts are arguing anyway we ought to cool off the economy, although it's hard to do. When you slow down the tire industry you speed up the boot business.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

SOUTH PLAINS NEWS by Mrs. Murray Julian

SOUTH PLAINS, Sept. 8 - Revival services will begin this Monday night at the South Plains Baptist Church with evangelist Bob Ferrin from Dublin, and Vance Zinn from Floydada, who will lead the singing each night. Preaching hours have been changed to 10:00 o'clock Tuesday morning through Friday, and each night the booster band will meet at 7:15 p.m. with preaching at 7:45. Noon meals will be served in homes of the members, with night meals being brought in to the parsonage. Each and everyone welcome to all meetings.

Over an inch of rain fell Sunday night in South Plains, with 2.20 reported on the Frank McClure and Fred Fortenberry places and over 3 inches on the Sanders homes. Only .40 fell on the Bethel, E.E. Wells, Grigsby Milton, J.P. Taylor places, with 1.30 at the Alvin Nichols farm. Some places here received only a shower which fell late Sunday night with a great show of lightning and thunder. Some farmers just recently planted wheat, which will be good on that, but most of our farmers are getting ready with machines and trucks for maize harvest, which for most of us, is about ten days off.

Mrs. Roy Bledsoe, who made it possible for so many to get their Sunday newspapers, has requested that each subscriber please remember to pay each week or month for his paper, as it is impossible to call each one when the paper money is due.

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J.P. Taylor for Sunday dinner were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W.W. Merrell of Quitaque, her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Pigg, Regina and Sue, of Lone Star; Bob Merrell, a brother; and the Taylors daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Taylor, Gregg and Rise of Lockney. Katie Taylor will leave next Sunday for Texas Women's University at Denton, where she will be a freshman majoring in physical therapy. She will room at Stark Hall Dormitory in Denton. The Sunday dinner was given in honor of Katie.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Staniforth, Jr. and Billy III, who will be home another week before going back to his college studies at the University of Texas, flew to their mountain home in Cuchara, Colo. over the past weekend, leaving Friday and coming home Wednesday. They reported it was already very cold there, and were weathered in a couple of days, so they could not fly home.

Coming here by way of Claude Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Hutson of Surray came up the hill from the canyon road, and met a herd of black cattle, all in the road. They tried to maneuver around them, but ran into one, killing it, and the impact ruined their car. We are glad they were not hurt in the accident. Mrs. Hutson is here in Lockney to stay several days with her mother, Mrs. N. C. McCain. Her sister is Mrs. Fred Fortenberry.

Mrs. J. P. Taylor was hostess in her home last Tuesday to members of the Lone Star Home Demonstration Club. Mrs. Trapp presided over the business meeting at which twelve members were in attendance. Mrs. Taylor served fresh apple pie and coffee to her club.

Visitors at the Baptist Church in South Plains Sunday morning were Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Merrell from Quitaque and Luy Vasquez, Mrs. Billy Moon and Candy, who were here from Lubbock, spent the weekend here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arby Mulder.

Week of Prayer for State Missions, a Mary Hill Davis program for the WNU will meet on Tuesday afternoon from 2-4 p.m. on Sept. 16. There will be Mission Emphasis on Wednesday night, Sept. 17. Special by W. L. Trice, pastor, will be given Sunday night, Sept. 21. Mrs. Melvin Myers is Mission Activity director.

Miss Rita Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ursel Taylor, left Monday for Lubbock, where she will enroll as a junior at Texas Tech for the coming year. There are around twenty thousand students enrolled at Texas Tech this fall.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Sir:

May I extend to you a special invitation to attend the conference of Agriculture Clifford M. Hardin's "Listening Conference" to be held at Texas A&M University, September 15-16, 1969. Farmers and farm industry leaders from five states, Arkansas, Louisiana, New Mexico, Oklahoma, and Texas will attend and through their spokesmen will tell us what's on their minds. The conference is designed to give every person who attends an opportunity, either in presentations or written briefs, to present his ideas.

The tentative schedule looks something like this:

8:30 - 9:00 - Registration of Scheduled Speakers
8:30 - 9:00 - Registration of Working Press Secretary

9:00 - 9:20 - Press Conference with Secretary of Agriculture (for working press only) Rooms 2B, 2C, 2D, Memorial Student Center.

9:30 - 4:30 - Secretary's Listening Conference
White Coliseum.

In addition to Secretary Hardin and his staff, approximately 15 members of the House of Representatives, headed by Charles Poage, to attend part of the conference. The press is the only time scheduled for the Secretary to answer questions.

A press room will be maintained throughout the conference in the Social Room, 1st floor, Memorial Student Center, for your convenience and use. This room is directly across the hall from Western Union. Typewriters, and telephones will be available. In order to meet our needs, we ask that you fill out the enclosed card no later than September 12, 1969.

Mr. Wendell Tooley:

A letter of thanks for publishing our 13 county convention and the papers you furnished our convention really enjoyed your paper and I don't think there's anything left. We had represented in our convention 30 towns, Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Alabama, and I think the best convention and most spiritual that we've held. Publish this if you would like and may God bless your works every day.

Yours truly,
Earl West
Tulia, Texas

Dear Mr. Tooley,

The offer by Texas Tech for an evening college is one that could save local students as much as $500 a year if this student could live at home, work during the day, and attend a three-hour long class every night of the week. Leaving off Friday evening for football games, this present four evenings, with a total possibility of 12 credits per semester. In a full year of such classes, a thousand or more could be saved.

Amarillo has had a similar evening college, taught by West Texas University. They purchased a building home and converted it into the evening college building. Taxpayers, weighted down with increased school taxes, thus get double use from our existing buildings, at no cost to the taxpayer. This is a wonderful gesture. I hope recent graduates, adults and prospective students seriously consider the long range benefits to them, and our entire community, in accepting this offer.

Local study clubs and civic organizations might want to sponsor scholarships to encourage education of an evening. Understand mature people, over 21, need not be graduates to enroll and receive college credit. Also, credit is not desired, then students may study for pleasure.

As an adult student who has driven several times back and forth to Texas Tech the past few years, I endorse the idea of an evening college right here in town. I only wish it had been started earlier, but please enroll in graduate classes.

The best of luck to the evening college plan.
Sincerely,
Mrs. Q. D. Williams

NEWS FOR HOMEMAKERS

by Sherry Mullin
Floyd County H. D. Agent

Cleaning and stain removal often trouble owners of antique glassware, but they can be problems for everyday glass articles.

Here are some solutions to common cleaning problems with glassware:

Glass never is stained permanently, the Glassware Institute of America says. It has a hard, smooth, non-absorbent surface that stains cannot penetrate, and surface discolorations can be removed with treatment.

Minerals in water often cause lime deposits and surface discolorations.

To remove lime deposits from the bottom of pitchers, bottles or decanters, put tea leaves on the stained surface and fill the container with a vinegar solution.

For surface discoloration on decanters, rub the glass with half a lemon, or wash it with vinegar, or partially fill with uncooked rice and vinegar and shake vigorously.

A well-known research laboratory offers this method of removing hard water deposits which have dried in designs and etchings: soak glassware in a solution of one part muriatic acid and four parts water.

This acid, available at drug or hardware stores, should be handled with rubber gloves. After soaking in the solution, rinse the glass thoroughly and dry.

Vinegar cruets often become stained and should be rinsed with diluted ammonia before washing. Stains in flower vases can be cleaned with a chlorine bleach solution. To brighten glass coffee makers, use a teaspoon of baking soda in the rinse water.
