I REMEMBER, I REMEMBER The Federal Census

For forty years now the way the Census Bureau handles its job of counting the people in the United States has been a source of annoyance to me, and at least once a downright expensive thing to the Hesperian.

I was here in 1900 when the census was taken but I have no recollection of it, and I was not concerned either, so far as I can recall now, when the 1910 count was made.

I do recall the 1920 census, when a young couple in here from Colorado, a daughter and son-in-law of W. K. Early of Curlew, took the census (of the whole county, I think) and did a good job.

It was the census count of 1930 that got me "spoofted." I guess I'll never let up on that. And keep getting in Dutch about it. As an illustration, in 1960 I felt the job was far from a competent one. So completely forgetting that the 1950 census was a good job well done, I covered too much territory when I said in The Hesperian the Census Bureau was an inept organization, never had and never would, et cetera, et cetera.

Before the weekend I had a call from Ralph Johnston who wanted to know just what it was I found wrong with the 1950 census. He had run that one in this county, had done a good job and was considerate in every way throughout. Ralph had not been back too many years from the South Pacific, where he had served in the Air Force. It was he who sighted the Japanese armada, "steaming down the slot". Ralph's B-24(?) was one of many anxiously searching for the enemy naval force they knew must be on its way.

Ralph came home to a hero's welcome, but that isn't the point, for this yarn. Had his name been Joe Blow and he had never seen the South Pacific I had "done him wrong" in the paper. So apology was due and forthcoming.

In 1930 that was the year the census figures for Floydada had me in a dither. Marvin Jones was our congressional representative. When the figures came out showing something less than 2,700 for our town, it was a way late but Miss Ruby White and I weren't willing to "let it go at that." Ruby was a youngster in business at the time and was due to learn a lot about people and the way they react to debt in the next few years. She was uncanny about money matters. (She worked for The Hesperian for a time and I wish I had found out how smart she really was while associated with her as an employer.)

To get to what I am trying to say, Ruby and I got in touch with our Congressman who got permission from the Census Bureau for three days of name-hunting to prove our point that the census-taking job was poorly done in the town of Floydada. In that short time Ruby dug up more than 125 names admittedly left off of the official list and I got some 30-odd. We both had an interest in making the count run up to 3,000 or more. And I am still confident we could have done it had we had not missed our chance by immediately demanding a recheck when the census people reported they had finished, 30 or more days earlier. But the Census Bureau (senselessly to me) said then and still say they can't release figures for a small community although they could and still do for communities of 10 thousand or more. So we had no idea the figures they did release were going to be so absurd.

The official census figures for 1930 population of Floydada are 2,637. But I have a supplement the bureau issued which shows something more than 2,800.

Birthday Party At Nursing Home

Birthdays come but once a year And some, in May, are falling So that is why we're gathered here

And friends have come "a calling" . . . One came early in the month, Ask Mrs. Claudia Byars. . . Good wishes are from us to her For all that she desires.

The 15th is a special day For Mrs. Stewart, first name Ollie,

May her wishes all come true And things for her be Jolly! Now Mr. McCracken is here today,

. . . Better known as Amos. . . As birthdays come and birthdays go He has become quite famous.

We want to greet another one Who has a special day. You guessed it, Louis Norman On the 29th of May!

So let us join our voices In a HAPPY BIRTHDAY song And wish each one a lovely day, With a pleasant life, and long.

Charles C. Johnson Jr., administrator of the Environmental Health Service:

"Essentially pollution free automobiles must be available in the 1980's."

Women of the City Park Church of Christ hosted a birthday party for those of the local nursing home who are celebrating birthdays in May.

The "honor" table was laid with a blue cloth and a blue floral centerpiece. Individual place cards marked a place for each honoree and they were served a portion from the beautifully decorated birthday cake containing their names. After the reading of the above poem, written by one of the church women, all joined in singing the Happy Birthday Song. Following this the cake and punch was served to all the residents, employees and a number of guests.

The women of the church plan to extend this courtesy to the senior citizens, near the middle of each month, for at least a year.

L. Mendel Rivers, chairman, House Armed Service Committee:

"I'm not going to stand by and see the Green Beret case and My Lai destroy America and its image and do nothing."

HOW DO I KNOW MY YOUTH HAS BEEN SPENT?

How do I know my youth has been spent? Because my get-up-and-go got up and went. But in spite of all that I am able to grin. When I think where my get-up-and-go has been. "Old age is golden," I have heard it said, But sometimes I wonder as I got to bed. My ears in a drawer, my teeth in a cup, My eyes on the table until I wake up. Ere sleep dims my eyes, I say to myself, "Is there anything else I should lay on the shelf?" And I'm happy to say as I close my door, "My friends are the same as in days of yore." When I was young my slippers were red, And I could kick as high as my head. When I was older my slippers were blue, But still I could dance the whole night through. Now I am old, my slippers are black, I walk to the corner and puff my way back. The reason I know my youth is spent My get-up-and-go has got up and went, But I really don't mind when I think with a grin Of all the places my get-up has been. Since I have retired from life's competition I busy myself with complete repetition. I get up each morning, dust off my wits, Pick up the paper and read the "bits," If my name is missing, I know I'm not dead, So I eat a good breakfast and go back to bed.

FLOYDADA, during the season of 1923-24, with a population of 2500, had 205 pupils in High School and graduated a class of 49, 25 boys and 24 girls. This was believed to be the largest high school graduating class at that time in a town the size of Floydada. THERE were 16 honor students graduating among some 99 from Floydada Junior High Tuesday. A. W. Coltharp said he thought this was the largest number of honor students in the school's history. This will be quite a challenge for all 16 boys and girls to see who will be valedictorian and salutatorian of their graduating class from high school in 1974. IT was the late Dr. C. M.

DON'T put grandmother's cameo pin away, wear it. Granny glasses, nanny shoes, high laced boots and long skirts. Yep, their all coming back. Its chic for the belle of 1970. Anything old is "in" and the latest trend is from granny's jewel box, her cameo. They have always meant something romantic and extra special in jewelry. The art of cameo making was known as far back as 500 B.C. Cameos were good luck in the Middle Ages. Knights fastened them to their armor before going into battle or wore them in the hilts of their swords. Later they became the focal point on a dress. If you are lucky enough to have one passed down to you, wear it! For those of us who don't have one, a replica will have to do. Stores are selling them like crazy!

SEE you at the Old Settlers Reunion.

TOMI and Frank Covington will long remember Englewood, Colo., not just because of their wreck there but of the wonderful people there who brought forth good cheer. Their honeymoon was ended abruptly when their car overturned several times near Englewood Sunday, May 17. Doctors even broke a long standing rule at the hospital by moving Tomi into the same room with Frank after she was transferred from intensive care. Nurses located a TV for them and decorated it with silver wedding rings and bells. Their room overflowed with flowers and cards, most from other patients in the hospital and from their nurses. The couple is looking forward to when they will be physically able to return to Englewood to re-acquaint themselves with new-found friends.

DON'T know if there is rhubarb still growing around here or not but I ran across a good recipe worth passing along.

"Pieplant" as rhubarb is sometimes called because it is so delicious in pies, is one of the first garden plants of the year. This year enjoy its fresh, invigorating springtime flavor in a bread pudding. Tart, tender, juicy rhubarb stalks are sliced and sweetly combined with cubes of enriched white bread to add snappy flavor and a beautiful pink color. Stiffly beaten egg whites folded into the mixture before baking give Rhubarb Fluff Pudding an appetizingly light, airy texture. To enjoy this dessert at its best, serve it warm from the oven handsomely decorated with a generous dollop of whipped topping or sweetened whipped cream. Nutritionally speaking, Rhubarb Fluff Pudding is a good mealtime finale. Since it is made from enriched white bread, it supplies vital B-vitamins, thiamine, niacin and riboflavin, plus the mineral, iron. All are nutrients needed for good daily health. RHUBARB FLUFF PUDDING 1 1/4 cups milk 1 1/2 cups light brown sugar, firmly packed 3 eggs, separated 1 teaspoon vanilla extract 8 slices enriched white bread, cut into 1/2-inch cubes 1 pound fresh rhubarb, cut into 1/4-inch slices (about 4 cups) Whipped Topping Blend together milk, brown sugar, egg yolks and vanilla in large mixing bowl. Mix in bread cubes until thoroughly moistened. Stir in rhubarb. Beat egg whites until stiff, but not dry peaks form; fold into bread

"I was hired on Saturday, started teaching on Monday, and learned that a great big girl and a great big boy had been running the teachers off from Post. I took the boy into confidence the first day, mentioned off hand to him I had been in the Army boxing classes and enjoyed fighting, and he was well behaved all year," Watson said.

From Post Watson went to Rule as principal for a year, then superintendent of schools at Rochester one year. Then they built Mattson Rural School where he was superintendent for four years. He taught at Sunnyside Rural School for four years, then dropped out of teaching to farm during World War II. He then taught at Meadow High School for 9 1/2 years, then was at Amherst two years as high school principal and two years as superintendent.

At this point he taught a year in New Mexico, then taught at Dougherty from 1966 to 1970. Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Walster will move to Dougherty from Farwell, and Mr. Walster will be the new school principal.

AMERICAN FOOD INDUSTRY IS NATION'S BIGGEST
 "The American people need to be reminded that agriculture is still the nation's biggest industry - and that it employs more people than the steel industry, the automobile industry, the utilities, and transportation combined.
 "People need to be reminded that agriculture is a $55 billion customer in the American economy.
 "People need to be reminded that our efficient agriculture is the biggest reason the average American consumer gets an abundance of high quality food for only one-sixth - 16.5% - of his disposable, or after taxes, income.
 "This is the world's best food bargain. In contrast, people in the British Isles spend about one-fourth of their income for food, people in Italy and Japan more than one-third, and people in Russia about one-half - and for a far less varied diet than U. S. consumers enjoy.
 "People need to be reminded that the rate of increase in agricultural productivity in recent decades has far outstripped that of nonfarm industry. For example, between 1959 and 1969 output per man-hour of work in nonfarm industry increased 31%. The increase in agriculture was 73% - two and one-third times the nonfarm rate.
 "Finally, people need to be reminded that the U. S. agricultural revolution is one of the most significant, important, and hopeful breakthroughs in all of economic history.
 "These are some aspects of the role of American agriculture in the capitalistic free enterprise system. And we need to tell the story over and over again to the American people." - Under Secretary of Agriculture, J. Paul Campbell. (Arizona Cattle Feeders Assn.)

It never fails to happen when a graduating class ultimately reaches the end of the trail that they stumble on their last steps from the mountain top to the valley - simply because they are changing roads of a twelve year hike without, in most cases, each other. In small schools, if you are not boy-girl sweethearts, then you are much like brother and sister in a pretty comfortable nest. It is a frightening future to try your wings that will take you from your own family and your own school family.
 Hildebrand said it is not what is poured into a student but what it is planted that counts. The 1970 Seniors have, by the sweat of many an educator and their own efforts, seeds of wisdom cultivated from the fantasy of the first grade to the old age group of seniors. Our words to the wise seem inadequate. The greatest Book of them all has led to this say:
 Beware lest you say, "We have found WISDOM," Job 28:13. Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward being; therefore teach me WISDOM in my secret heart. Psalms 51:6.
 WISDOM cries aloud in the streets. Proverbs 1:20.
 The Lord by WISDOM founded the earth; by understanding He established the heavens. Proverbs 3:19.
 Happy is the man who finds WISDOM, and the man who get understanding, for the gain of it is better than gain from silver and it profits better than gold. She is more precious than jewels, and nothing you desire can compare with her. Long life is in her right hand; in her left hand are riches and honor. Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace. She is the tree of life to all who lay hold of her; and those who hold her fast are called happy. Proverbs 3:3-18.
 But the WISDOM from above is pure, first of all; it is also peaceful, gentle, and friendly; it is full of compassion and produces a harvest of good deeds; it is free from prejudice and hypocrisy. James 3:17.
 This is our graduation prayer of WISDOM for each of you, the Seniors of 1970!

Australian Men Touring World, Stop In Floydada

(By PEGGY MEDLEY)
 The ambition to see the world and to further educate themselves with customs of various countries has become a reality for two young men of New South Wales, Australia, Donald Partridge and Richard Mason stopped in Floydada Thursday to cash some travelers express checks and luckily I was tipped off, chased them down and got a brief interview.
 The two college graduates, traveling in a 1969 Land Rover, which hasn't given them a speck of trouble thus far, began their trip March 16, 1969 from New Zealand. The first stage of their trip took them to India where they remained three months, sightseeing and working some in order to replenish their pockets. They remained in Europe three months and from England sailed to the United States arriving in New York City April 9. From there they journeyed to Florida and the Sunshine State, remaining on the bench at Ft. Myers three weeks. They love the state and its people.
 In fact both agreed the people of the United States are very gracious and friendly and the country a land of plenty. They said entry into the United States was a simple procedure.
 Thus far they have put 20,000 miles on their vehicle which is equipped with every necessity. They built the camper on the Land Rover in preparation for their trip. They sleep when they get sleepy and eat when they get hungry. Their camera is always loaded and notes are kept of various places visited. They keep in touch with their parents by mail, who by the way, heartily approved of their world tour, which will last at least another year.
 From Floydada they were headed for parts of New Mexico, with plans of touring the Carlsbad Caverns, of which they had never heard of until I asked if that area was on their agenda. After telling them a little something of the cavern Don asked if it contained glow worms. I replied "no bats." He mentioned that while touring England they visited a cave which was pitch black filled with glow worms.
 After touring New Mexico, Arizona, Colorado and California they will go to Alaska where they plan to spend the summer months working. Both are electric welding engineers.
 The two had no certain time to "be back home", no definite plans as to what they may do when they return, they carried no worries, just two happy - go - lucky young men out to see the world.

TWO INJURED... at Third and Houston Streets about 1:30 Wednesday morning, in car driven by Willie Patterson. The driver and a passenger, Kent Hale, were taken by private automobile to Caprock Hospital, and Hale was taken by Moore-Rose ambulance to Lubbock, where he underwent extensive facial surgery. Patterson received broken ribs, but was not hospitalized. (Staff Photo)

 Before working for the weed control district, he was employed by Carthel Oil and Fertilizer for five years.
 He is a member of the Floydada City Park Church of Christ, and has been active in the summer baseball program as a coach and vice-president for the past four years.

The Pioneer

(Dedicated to Floyd County's pioneers.)

Roll the curtain slowly upward,
 Let the lights in splendor glow,
 So that we may glimpse the beauty,
 Of the years of long ago.

Let us see the dauntless courage,
 Of the rugged pioneer,
 As he turned his eyes to west-ward,
 With a heart that knew no fear.

Give us better understanding,
 Let us know the vim and go,
 That was common on the frontier,
 In the times of long ago.

It took hearts of steel and courage,
 It took scorn for pain and woes,
 To cause this mighty country,
 To blossom as the rose.

You displayed undaunted courage,
 With a will that brought success,
 And we'd seem to be ungrateful,
 If we praised you any less.

We can only pay you homage,
 So we're glad to let you know,
 That we honor and revere you,
 For the work of long ago.

May the God who rules above us,
 As life's shadows longer grow,
 Give you peace and endless blessing,
 For your work of long ago.

And when life for you is ended -
 As 'twill end for one and all,
 May the Master of the ages,
 Call your name the first of all.
 -W. Edd Brown, Floydada, Texas

Master Yourself

Human beings, blessed with a good earth, have made a mess of many things. However, viewed from any distant peak of the past, the present records unmistakable gains, and the natural belief is that the future, compared to the era in which we live, will show similar advances.

The reader of this editorial has a very definite role to play in all the drama that makes up human life. The part may be small, insofar as history is concerned, but large in its effect upon other human beings.
 Every man and woman must attempt the mastery of his or her own nature and a productive translation of his or her personality through living among other people, difficulties and faults, inherent in the imperfection of human beings.

GROCERY STORES, PERRYS OPEN MEMORIAL DAY

As well as could be determined at press time, most Floydada businesses will be closed Saturday, Memorial Day.

However, according to reports from the manager of Floydada grocery stores and Perrys, they all plan to be open.

The utility companies and Bell Telephone will all close Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

TOURING THE WORLD... in a Land Rover. Donald Partridge, right, points on the map where the two Australians left from March of last year. Line indicates their route to the United States. Richard Mason, left, said the two built the camper on the Land Rover. Maps of the world are on both sides of the camper as well as a kangaroo depicting their native country. The two are to arrive in Alaska sometime next week. (Staff Photo)

At the May 23, 1970, graduation exercises of Wayland Baptist College, Plainview, Floyd C. Bradley, pastor of First Baptist Church in Floydada, was recipient of honorary Doctor of Divinity degree. Also receiving this honor was R. Y. Bradford of New Mexico.

Dr. William David Ray, pastor of First Baptist Church, Lubbock, presented the Baccalaureate address and J. H. Dunn, past president of the Shamrock-Diamond Corporation, Amarillo, brought the Commencement address in the Haral Memorial Auditorium on the Wayland campus at Plainview.

Several Floydada residents were present for the occasion. Dr. Bradley was born at Leonard, Texas and spent most of his boyhood and young adult life in West Texas. He graduated from high school at Meadow, Texas and was an aviator during World War II.

He operated a wholesale auto supply store when he entered the ministry. After surrendering to preach, he was graduated from Howard-Payne College and attended Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth.

He has pastored four churches - Midway Baptist Church, Gorman, Texas; East Cisco Baptist Church, Cisco, Texas; First Baptist Church, Denver City, Texas, and First Baptist Church, Floydada.

Dr. Bradley has served as Moderator of G.A.Y. Association, President of District 8, President of District 8 Baptist Encampment, Evangelism chairman of District 8, has six years on State Executive Board, State New Life Committee, ten years on Wayland Baptist College Board of Trustees, has done extensive evangelistic work and preached in the Japan New Life Crusade.

DR. F. C. BRADLEY

C. Should the draft be improved to be more fair? Yes 125, No, 29, Undecided 8.

4. A. Are all young people criticized for the act of a few? Yes 110, No 57, Undecided 6.

B. Why?

C. Can we improve relations between generations? Yes 149, No 6, Undecided 6.

D. What precautions can be taken to fight crime?

5. What is the most important question facing America Today? Question 2B was answered as follows: forget about color, equality and respect, religion and unity, listen to demands but enforce the law, take them into our churches, by not looking down on them, by changing the hearts of men, by kindness and consideration, should encourage minority groups to participate in activities and let them know that they are wanted, more love for one another, don't judge by color, person to person involvement, by assuming a personal responsibility, the Negroes should change their attitude that the white people are against them, being more friendly and Christian, by not putting so much emphasis on it that we are partial to the Negro, show more love, better housing, street conditions, make them stay in their place, treating each person as an individual, treat them like people, love their neighbor as thyself, the colored people could be more willing to get along, keep away from them, by having more school parties and dances, better community affairs, it is basically by changing attitudes, it is the attitude of the affluent that lend to keeping the poor, poor, anglo families adopt Latin and Negro families, work with them on a personal basis, quit being bigots, support existing program, remember all men are created equal, return the schools to their original students, put the schools back like they were before integration, all races must mature to the point that they can think of someone besides self.

Question 4B was answered as follows: because the bad are publicized, because they just see the bad a few do, people listen to bad instead of good, good things not noticed, because the majority of young people allow a few to speak for them, we like to judge people at lowest level, I don't believe all young people are criticized for the acts of a few. It appears that way when one reads the newspapers or looks at television, but I believe most serious adults also see the good being done by young people and most adults appreciate constructive young people, older people think all teenagers are alike, generally by people who speak before they know all the facts, they follow the crowd, people always judge one group or race by a few members of this group or race, due to people's narrow mindedness, because of gossip and lack of understanding, people tend to generalize.

Question 4D was answered as follows: educate, give jobs instead of welfare, more support to police and national guard, enforce the death penalty, more laws to protect the innocent, respect for authority, we should respect the law even if we can't respect the ones who enforce them, assuming personal responsibility for good citizenship and developing good attitude toward law and order, better churches, give police more power, back law authority, don't give the criminal all the rights, give young people a second chance, a record does more harm than good, let the law enforce the laws we already have, better informed and trained officers, stop source of drugs, teach and set a better example for youth, enforce the present laws and deport all those treasonable characters.

Question 5 was answered as follows: how to stop rioting and dope, how can the U.S. continue without depression, sin, the war in Southeast Asia, how can we solve the insecurity and unrest among the younger generation, how to rid college campuses of Communist infiltration, war, moral decay and lax law enforcement, indifference to God and Biblical teachings, to unite our country over the split about the war, our youth, hypocrisy, generation gap, people who want something for nothing and never contribute anything constructive, patriotism, pollution, inflation, population explosion, morals, anarchy, what is to be done to make peace, we cannot run the whole world and should stop trying, when are we going to start replacing the right to have an opinion by the privilege of knowing, discipline, are we going to seek God's guidance for our nation, how to gain peace on personal and world basis, how to develop a nation of people who are willing to share the power and wealth. . . we are 6% of the world's population using 50% of the world's resources. . . we must have a new humanity with a higher level of consciousness that cares enough to share its power with every man in the name of human and divine dignity.

(These are only a few of the answers given. . . space does not permit printing them all)

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Watson were the dinner guests of the Carmel Eastham family Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Cage went to Killeen this weekend and brought back her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Morrison. The Morrissions had been visiting another daughter, Mrs. Bess Cohen and family.

Mrs. Bob Vickers and Brenda, and Mrs. Carmel Eastham and Jodie, attended a Mother-Daughter Tea given Sunday afternoon by Girl Scout Troop 181.

Mrs. J. Mac Cates was honored with a wedding shower Saturday afternoon held in the home of Mrs. Weims Norman. Many friends either attended or sent gifts. The honoree was given the table centerpiece which was a beautiful arrangement of artificial summer flowers and a set of poppy red cookware by the hostesses. Hostesses included Mimos, Weims Norman, Bill Colston, Jesse Pernel, Carmel Eastham, Claude Ring, Elmer Watson, Bob Covington, Ruth Daniel, Roy Crawford, F. M. Covington, Anne Swepston, Hershel Swepston, G. W. Smith and Harlan Cage.

Mrs. Ada Hinton, Henry Hinton and James attended the high school graduation exercises of Kathy Hinton at Happy, Tex. Thursday night. She is the daughter of William Hinton.

Friday evening these same three went to Hale Center where they attended the graduation of Claudia Alexander. She is the daughter of Gene Alexander. Both these girls are Mrs. Hinton's granddaughters.

Mrs. Henry Hinton, Ray and Dean went to Bovina Friday to see her nephew, Robert Fowler, graduate from high school. They returned home Saturday. The end of school picnic was held Monday at Roaring Springs. Nearly everyone attended. Some were wondering if anyone was left in Dougherty after about 5. It was really a good picnic, lots of good food and good fellowship. Richard Ward asked the blessing before the meal.

crops in the county. . . and it's looking good. Believe he planted it the 17th of April.

Hooray for the CHS Student Council! When the senior high picnic had to be moved from Mackenzie Park (due to the tornado) to Roaring Springs, the students were told that only part of them would be allowed to swim in the pool there.

The Student Council met and voted that if students of every color were not allowed to swim, then none of them would swim. I think it came as a surprise to some of our local students that such archaic rules still exist. One of those who would not have been allowed to swim stated, "Well, why don't the rest of you go ahead? We're used to it."

Well, I'm proud of the Student Council for their decision to stick together. And Innominate the pool at Roaring Springs for the Most Unpopular Place Award.

Of course, it was too cold to swim anyway, but why should anyone "get used" to such as that? Would you blondes accept it quietly?

WFE, WORKING crossword puzzle: "John, what's a three letter word for a female sheep?" "Ewe," he said. That's how the fight began.

AND THE REASON many people don't live within their income is that they don't call that living.

THE LIMITATIONS of braking were highlighted on the truck bumper - "Drive Carefully - don't insist on your rites."

A SMALL BOY was standing near the escalator in a department store, watching the moving handrail. "Anything wrong?" asked the floorwalker. "Nope," answered the boy, "I'm just waiting for my chewing gum to come back."

THE PSYCHIATRIST was keen on developing the theory that a person feels sick only when he wants to be sick.

His friend called on him one day and said, "Doctor, Mr. Pradhan who was ailing from heart disease. . ."

"No, No, No, Say: 'Mr. Pradhan who thought he was having a heart ailment. . .'"

"Sorry, doctor, I will say it that way. Mr. Pradhan who thought he was having a heart ailment now thinks he is dead."

THE BRAKES ON THE family car failed while the wife was driving. "What shall I do?" she asked, terrified.

Her quick-witted husband's reply was, "Hit something cheap."

TEENAGER POINTING to crumpled fender on family car, "Great news, Dad, you haven't been pouring those insurance payments down the drain."

TWO SMALL BOYS were returning from Sunday School and discussing the first lesson. "Do you believe all that stuff about the devil?" one asked the other. "No," he replied. "R's just like Santa Claus; it's your old man!"

I ENJOYED ATTENDING THE DOUGHERTY graduation ceremony. I was particularly impressed by the announcement that Michael Rainwater had read over 100 books and thought it was noteworthy that the school encourages book reading.

Dean Hinton did an outstanding job of playing the graduation march on the piano. The Dougherty graduation sorta reminded me of my school days back at Kress and I thoroughly enjoyed it.

I didn't know Ray Gene Carthel was such a good speaker. Chamber of Commerce may want to check with him.

I HAD MIXED emotions about the graduation exercises Tuesday night. Of course I was happy that Wendy made the graduation class. . . didn't flunk or drop out. . . but just a little apprehensive that our first was ready to head out on her own.

However, the part of the graduation program that really touched my heart was the farewell speech made by Austrian Peter Prischl. Here's a young fellow whom I really haven't been around much this year, yet somehow I feel he's one of our community family and we'll all miss him.

We'll be over near Peter's home next month, but I believe he'll still be touring the USA at that time. We appreciate Peter coming our way.

THE NOTE from the Floydada Chamber of Commerce: Floydada is one of 11 Blue Ribbon cities of the 156 in West Texas.

ALMA HOLMES speaking at Rotary yesterday, mentioned a rather humorous note about the history of this county. Homer Steen back in the late 1800's and up until 1911 was editor of the Lockney Beacon.

And another very interesting story she quoted from Lee Rushing who used to attend Floydada's college, the Presbyterian Academy. This was around 1910 until 1913.

Lee said that on a Thanksgiving Day, the football team of Plainview Business College came over to play the Floydada college team. Lee said pillows and rags were used for knee and shoulder padding. "The Plainview boys were full of turkey and beer. . . and we wiped them out," Lee said.

Betty Holmes who also gave history of Floydada and Floyd County on the Rotary program had some interesting notes about Floydada being incorporated as a town in 1909 with 76 votes.

ONE OF THE greatest mysteries of life is how the idiot who married your daughter can be the father of the smartest grandchildren in the world.

THE TAXES ARE indeed very heavy, and if those laid by the government were the only ones. . . we might easily discharge them. . . We are taxed twice as much by our idleness, three times as much by our pride, and four times as much by our folly; and from these taxes the commissioners cannot ease or deliver us. . .

LEADERSHIP APPEARS to be the art of getting others to want to do something you are convinced should be done.

(Vance Packard)

NERVOUSLY CLEARING his throat and assuming a firm stance, the hired man said to his boss, "I've been with you 25 years and I've never asked for a raise before."

The farmer replied, "Wal, Clem, that's why you've been with me for 25 years."

Elmer Watson, our school principal, who is retiring after teaching nearly 51 years, four of them here at Dougherty, made a very impressive farewell speech. He was presented with an engraved plaque by the school board. The Community Club gave him the school bell, also engraved and presented him and Mrs. Watson a gift to express the love and respect we all hold for them. Mrs. Mayme Lou Denley was also presented a farewell gift. There is a story elsewhere in this issue of the Hesperian about Elmer Watson's long career as a teacher.

The Dougherty Home Demonstration Club met Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Carmel Eastham. There were seven members present. The program was given by the County Agent, Joe Wilson, on the proper use of yard and garden insecticides and herbicides.

Sp/4 Anthony M. Gibson of Fort Bragg, North Carolina, has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Gibson. He flies to Seattle, Washington May 30 and will depart from there to Saigon, Vietnam.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Watson, Mrs. C. T. Doss, and his sister-in-law, Mrs. W. W. Watson, both of Brownfield visited the Watsons Thursday and were here for the graduation.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Gibson spent the past weekend visiting in Canyon and Amarillo and attended the graduation activities for the 1970 class at West Texas State University. Their son, Charles W. Gibson Jr. received his degree in Business with Computer Science a specialty. Also attending from Greenville, Texas was his grandmother, Mrs. Ethel Gibson; his aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Roy N. FLOYD PHILOSOPHER Takes A Look At The Students In As Serious A Vein As Possible

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm gets into risky territory this week, but that's his worry.

Dear editor: When you open up a big daily newspaper you never know what you're going to find, excusing the front page, and I was flipping through one which turned up out here yesterday when I ran across a picture of a turtle, his head sticking out as he inched up a hill, hanging on the wall behind some official's desk with the motto under it: "You never get anywhere without sticking your neck out."

I got to thinking about this and you know what, how far in the last million years have turtles gotten?

On another page I found a report of a speech made by a student leader who said the purpose of all the college demonstrations is to "turn this country around."

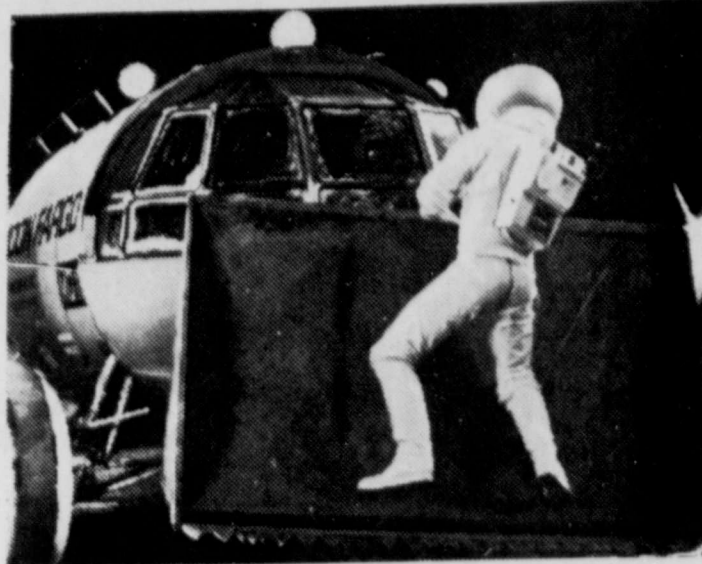

I guess if the Atlantic and the Pacific sea-boards swapped positions it'd be all right, but you see I've got this fireplace out here on this Johnson grass farm with a chimney that works fine when the wind is out of the north but smokes when it's out of the south, which is all right because with a south wind blowing I don't need a fire, but if the students are going to make the wind blow south in the winter. . . .

Of course, what they mean I guess is that they're going to turn people around, but I'm not sure about that either. What I mean is, from an esthetic standpoint, most of us don't look any better coming than going.

So, speaking of students, I'm all for their drive to clean up the environment everywhere except where they've been demonstrating; when they run out of litter in the cities I've got some out here ready to be picked up, but I was just thinking, have you noticed that in their drive to eliminate the causes of litter, such as throw-away cans and bottles, they've been picking soda-water plants, not breweries? Them kids ain't so dumb.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

Letters To The Editor

Mr. W. Tooley
Floyd County Hesperian
Floydada, Texas

Dear Mr. Tooley: A big thanks for the picture and story that you carried in your paper about Don Hardy.

Mr. Marion Tucker, who I attend church with in Amarillo, was a resident of Floyd County for about twenty years. He greeted me at the church door Sunday and was asking what I was doing in your city. He was giving me a hard time about my bald head but if you remember him, he is in about the same shape.

DON HARDY and KELLY CHADWICK are both mentioned in the June issue of CAR CRAFT. Article starts on page 56. The magazine will be on sale this week in your city.

Very truly yours,
/s/ Bob Johnson
Robt. A. Johnson
Field Manager

Dear Mr. Tooley, Well time is here again, folks will hear the booming of drums and the klickety klack of horses hooves as the parade gets underway at the Old Settlers get-together led by the old time thresher as it goes by. If the old timers let their minds wander back in the early days when they had wheat to be thrashed and the weather looked like it was going to act up how anxious they became for the thresher to get to their crop.

It was a great day when it did get there in early morning you would see neighbors coming from every direction in wagons; most of them had their wives and a grown daughter or two with them. The womenfolks would head for the house, the menfolks towards the field. It was a busy day for all the ladies did the preparing of the meals while the men and boys took care of the thrashing end of it. It's a pity we can't have such gatherings now. By the neighbors swapping work at thrashing season gave them a chance to get better acquainted with his neighbor, both men and wives and by helping one another it didn't cost so much to get the grain taken care of.

I wonder how many folks living in Floyd Co. know where the first power type farming took place? Well, it was in the extreme southwest corner of Floyd Co. on what is known to old timers as the four corners farm four miles southeast of Petersburg at that time. It was called the D. R. Bailey farm. Mr. Bailey had a large steam traction engine - it would make two of the one that is in the parade. He lined up three large gang breaking plows behind it, it really cut a swath as it went across the field. It was a far cry from the old fashioned breaking plow. It would have been like an Angel from above had it not been too expensive to operate. Coal had to be hauled a long distance, and it took a lot of it in its operation.

The gears weren't enclosed like they are now in the modern tractors so the sand and dirt cut them out in just a short while and they were very large and very expensive and hard to change. So forerunner of power farming was in Floyd Co. in 1908, although the first attempt was a failure, it brought to the peoples minds that power farming should be made a number one project in this great South Plains country and to just look around today you can see that a large oak can grow from a small acorn and the acorn was the vision that Mr. Bailey had back in 1908.

In 1908 so much of the land had to be broken out with a team of horses and a one furrow sod plow and it took days and weeks to get very much with such a setup plowed.

A few hundred yards from where the first furrow was plowed with that steam engine stands a small squarepost that marks the corners of four counties, Floyd, Crosby, Lubbock, Hale. Kids used to go to that post, get down on their hands and feet and be in four counties at one time. Well this is kinda a birds eye view of how power farming got underway here on these South Plains counties, and has it some a long ways since.

Written and sent in by Carl McDaniel, a sixty year native of West Texas.

Dear Mr. Tooley, You were nice and kind to show us around the Hesperian plant. I thought that was very nice of you.

I like the job you all do for our town in telling us the news around the towns close by. Well, by for now. Thank you. Your friend,
Emma Perez

Floydada, Tex.

Well, it looks like a shame how some of the Editorials in some papers try to condemn our President about his Peace efforts. He has tried hard to bring the boys home and stop the War in Vietnam, all the time he has been in. After all, he inherited this war time mess from his two predecessors, the Cuban War and the Vietnam wars were not of his invention; so why didn't those fellows stop the war they had started? They had near eight years to have done so; if it was easy.

The Paris Peace talks that were a boon to the economy of Paris were not started under Mr. Nixon's administration; neither was the Moon projects started by him. Several billions have been spent, but of course, we have a few pounds of moon rocks, to show for our money, and the loss of five or six very good astronauts.

Thoughts On Asian Policy

Uncle Sam, we doubt if they would know what to do with it! Most likely they wouldn't put up a fight to defend it.

(3) No acts of war have been committed against Uncle Sam.

With justification, we felt morally justified in treating Kaiser Wilhelm and Adolf Hitler like we would treat rattlesnakes. Both had to be exterminated along with their governments. But we doubt that even the hawks, or at least the more moderate ones, would feel justified in exterminating the government of North Vietnam. Lyndon Johnson and Richard Nixon have both insisted that we have no intention of attacking the North Vietnamese government.

Thus far, these comments have concerned only the theoretical question of what is right and what is wrong, or what is desirable and what is undesirable.

But there is something else to be considered . . . our CAPABILITY in case we decide that our war is right and desirable.

We have already spent money, bombs and lives on this war in Vietnam comparable to what we spent on the enemy countries of Europe during World War II. And victory isn't even in sight. Our best experts insist that we are incapable of winning this war short of all-out nuclear warfare which is too great a price even for many hawks to pay for a cessation of hostilities.

This war is costing us $1 million every 30 minutes. And its cost in both men and money inevitably will escalate if we pursue it. It is wrecking our economy, our educational institutions, our morale.

Almost the entire world has condemned our action in Indochina.

The entire world knows that we have the capability of "winning" if that is the game. We could blow all Indochina off the map in a few hours if we chose.

North and South Vietnam are comparable in population. For more than 15 years at a cost of hundreds of billions of dollars and 40,000 American lives we have been "helping South Vietnam to help herself."

In spite of the facts, there are many who feel that a withdrawal from Indochina would be "dishonorable," that it would be an "insult" to those who have already died, that it would mean the massacre of millions of South Vietnamese. (Are they saying that after all these years of American help the South Vietnamese are incapable of preventing a massacre of millions of their own people?)

Certainly everyone has a right to his opinion, but we hardly think those who favor withdrawing should be branded "traitors" and "cowards."

There are many other aspects to this problem which must be considered.

Besides spending hundreds of billions of dollars and 40,000 American lives, we have done irreparable harm to our country.

The widespread campus unrest cannot be passed off as something involving "only a minority." This is wishful thinking. The campus unrest has spread far beyond a minority of campus radicals to even the shortest haired conservatives.

The issue to be decided now is, "shall Uncle Sam try to police the world in the manner of a smalltown sheriff seen in a Western movie?"

Is Uncle Sam's "honor" so volatile that he has got to whip the whole world to prove that he is "a man"?

Is military victory the equivalent of world leadership?

Is the highest goal in life the reputation that we intend to "guarantee freedom" in Asia even if we have to kill half their population to do it?

Can we successfully employ 19th century military tactics in the 1970s?

Has our foreign policy in Southeast Asia been influenced by a professional Texan's concept of a "he-man"?

SOUTH PLAINS NEWS by Mrs. Murray Julian

SOUTH PLAINS, May 25 - Lockney schools were out May 19, and this Tuesday, May 26, Floydada and South Plains schools will close for the summer months. Next year there will be only six grades in the South Plains school, with here and Dougherty the only common school districts operating in Floyd County. We are all proud of our school, and glad that it can continue to be here for our children.

We are proud of Russell Thornton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Thornton of South Plains, who was named valedictorian of the Lockney Junior High School where 69 were candidates for graduation. Russell had a two-year average of 96.60.

Mrs. W. W. Merrell, mother of Mrs. J. P. Taylor, who has been in the Quana Hospital for several weeks following a light stroke, was brought by ambulance to the Caprock Hospital last Wednesday. Relatives are glad she can be closer home so they can be with her more often.

Congratulations to Becky Dunlap, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Dunlap who formerly lived in South Plains, and was graduated with honors May 16, from Texas Tech University. Becky was in the top ten percent of her class, and received her BA degree in Home Economics.

Last Saturday Kendis Julian and his father, Murray, flew with Grigsby Milton to Lubbock to view the scene of the Lubbock tornado which hit the city May 1.

As much as 1.80 of rain fell on the Carl Huckaby farm Saturday afternoon, but there was no appreciable moisture anywhere in our vicinity, except a light sprinkle. Many farmers have had to water their maize. Everyone is hoping for a nice rain soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McClure arrived home Monday night of last week from Snyder, and Mrs. McClure was confined to her home several days with flu and a lung infection. Saturday morning they went to Plainview where their daughter, Mrs. Jean McClure received her B.S. degree from Wayland College in ceremonies at Harrell Memorial Auditorium. We would like to add our congratulations to Jean, as she has gone to college and worked at the hospital and nursing home in Plainview through the years. Donna McClure will graduate from Plainview High School Tuesday, May 26.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Harenberg from Ontario, California left for Trinidad and Plattville, Colo., Saturday after having spent most of last week here with friends, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Julian. Sunday they returned to Bartlesville. They visited with the Ronnie Uptons in Amarillo, and her sister, Jodie Johnson in Canyon last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bledsoe left Saturday for Dallas and this Monday morning they were at Baylor Dental School where their son, Bill Bledsoe received his DDS degree. We send congratulations to Bill.

Mr. and Mrs. Murry Julian and Mrs. Kendis Julian, Kristi and Mitzi will go to Portales, N.M. where Mrs. Murry Julian's great nephew, will receive his degree at Eastern New Mexico University Thursday, May 28. They will get to see her sister, Mrs. C. W. Hulick from Albuquerque, and relatives from Washington, D.C.

Marc Smitherman was elected a student council freshman representative for the coming year at Floydada High School, and all of the student council members will go to Texas Tech for the week of July 12-17 where they will be in work shops. Darla Milton is an alternate Freshman representative.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Noel from Plainview were visitors Wednesday here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Huckaby. The Noels formerly lived in the South Plains area and were neighbors of the Huckabys.

We are sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. W. N. Weast, 72, sister of Mrs. George Weast who passed away at the Methodist Hospital in Lubbock Saturday afternoon, where she had been a patient about a week. Mrs. Weast was formerly from Silverton and had been living with a daughter, Mrs. Opal Jones at Brownfield. Services are being held this Monday at the Church of Christ in Silverton, with interment there.

Mrs. Harry Hartman and Mrs. Melvin Myers kept the Upton Grocery and Postoffice while Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Upton were gone Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Nichols left Sunday for Sweetwater and last Monday they left Sweetwater with their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Whitfill for Alpine, Monday night they were all guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Allen, Sr. on the 150 acre Craig Holland Ranch. They saw hundreds of antelope, deer, and the cacti all in bloom. Tuesday night, May 19 all the above families went to Alpine where at the Sul Ross University David Allen received his degree in commencement exercises. He is a geologist major.

The South Plains boys and girls who will graduate from the 8th grade at the Floydada Junior High School Tuesday, May 26, are Marc Smitherman, Rance Young, Darla Milton, Terry Sue Nicholson, Diane Martinez, and Ester Luna. Congratulations to all our graduates over the country, for you are our hope for the future.

Mr. and Mrs. Arby Mulder went to Silverton Friday night to enjoy a fish supper, then went on to Clarendon to visit with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Land. The couple lost everything they had in the tornado which struck Clarendon a while back, but are rebuilding on their farm. The Mulders spent the night with the Lands.

Mr. and Mrs. Kendis Julian, Mitzi and Kristi arrived home late Sunday night after they had spent the weekend in Roscoe with the Terry Julians, Dee and Dickie. They all enjoyed a picnic while at the ranch. Saturday they had a 2 inch rain on their Roscoe place.

Mrs. Nina Upton is head of the refreshment part of the Vacation Bible School which will be held from June 8-12 at the Baptist Church. She has asked those who have been called to serve, go to the Baptist Church Bulletin Board and find out what day you have been asked to serve, and who you will be working with.

Will Youth Heed?

Like most parents and many other adults, we have spent a goodly amount of time trying to understand the attitude of youth today ("Youth will be heard," Page 46). Sometimes we succeed. Sometimes we fail.

We have no problem understanding their revulsion to war, racism, and many of the other ills that beset our society. But then, we felt that same repugnance 40 years ago.

The Carrolls were all excited this last weekend over the birth of twin colts to one of their herd. Mrs. Flemmin and boys came by Friday to see the colts. But the unhappy ending is that both colts died. (one lived 2 days).

Night services at churches were suspended Sunday evening so all could attend the Baccalaureate service at First Baptist. What is more inspiring or more beautiful than exercises of a Senior Class, Abit sad too. Life moves so fast we know not where. We must go by faith.

We have more difficulty comprehending their acceptance of the successes as things that just happened, of their arrogant dismissal of what has been built, and, sometimes of their aversion to constructive and productive work.

We wish all of them could hear the words of Dr. Eric A. Walker of Pennsylvania State University who reintroduced his students to "some of the most remarkable people ever to walk the earth - your parents and grandparents."

These are the people, says Dr. Walker, who within just five decades "have by their work increased your life expectancy by 50 percent...."

"These are the people who have given you a more healthful world than they found. Because of this you no longer have to fear the epidemics of flu, typhus, diphtheria, smallpox, scarlet fever, measles, or mumps that they knew in their youth. And the dreaded polio is no longer a medical fear, while TB is almost unheard of...."

"Because they were materialistic, you will work fewer hours, learn more, have more leisure time, travel to more distant places, and have more chance to follow your life's ambition...."

"They built thousands of high schools, trained and hired tens of thousands of better teachers, and at the same time made higher education a very real possibility for millions of youngsters - where once it was only the dream of a wealthy few."

Admitting the many failures and faults that remain, Dr. Walker suggests "if your generation can make as much progress in as many areas as these two generations have, you should be able to solve a good many of the world's remaining ills."

"It is my hope and I know the hope of these two generations that you will find the answers to many of these problems that plague mankind."

"But it won't be easy. And you won't do it by negative thoughts, nor by tearing down or belittling. You may and can do it by hard work, humility, hope and faith in mankind."

"Try it."

Walter J. Campbell Editor-in-Chief From Industrial World Magazine

Richard Nixon, President: "Federal officials should not go beyond the requirements of law in attempting to impose their own judgment on the local school district."

SOCIAL SECURITY NEWS

Q. I have been receiving benefits on my husband's social security. I have now done enough work to get benefits on my own record. Can I change over to my record?

A. Yes, you can by filing a claim on your own record. You will be entitled to the larger of the two benefits, not both.

For more information contact your social security office at 1401 - B West 5th Street, Plainview. If more convenient, meet with your social security representative. He is in Floydada at the courthouse on Wednesday morning, in Matador in the lobby of the First State Bank on the first and third Tuesday morning of each month and in Abernathy in the City Hall on the second Tuesday morning of each month.
