Fall Rains Finally Arrive

Over Two Inches

Although Floydada proper hasn't received any big amounts of rain in the last week or two, several areas over the county have enjoyed over two inches of rain.

Tuesday afternoon a strip about five miles east of Floydada and ranging on south across the canyon brought reports of over 1 1/2". The Lockney area and the northeast portions of the county received over two inches this week and good rainfall last week.

The old timers say "it usually rains about time school starts each fall", and although school started earlier this year, it is similar to the usual pattern.

Many farmers will have enough moisture for sowing wheat, some continue to irrigate row crops.

While a few farmers are wanting to harvest grain sorghum, a first bale of cotton is expected almost any day when it clears up.

The cucumber and pepper harvest continues in full swing with the local vegetable company working around the clock packing the vegetables and trucking them to several points over the USA.

Local Man To Play In World Softball Tournament

Assistant County Agent Richard Crow will play in the Men's Fast Pitch World Softball Tournament in Clearwater, Florida, September 11-18. Crow is an outfielder and second baseman for the team sponsored by Bill Clark's Sporting Goods in Levelland.

The team was second in the American Softball Association state tourney played August 6-9 in Brownwood. They advanced to the Texas Regional tournament at San Antonio where they beat teams from Houston, Fort Worth, and San Antonio, as well as the first-place winner of the Brownwood tourney, Big Spring, to win the right to play in the World Tournament at Clearwater.

An international field of 13 teams is scheduled to play in the World playoffs, including teams from California, New York, Florida, Illinois, and probably teams from the Philippines and Puerto Rico.

Crow played intramural softball at Texas Tech and competed in the Lubbock softball league before joining the Levelland team this year.

Crow told a reporter that softball is a quicker game than baseball, played on a field with 60-foot baselines and a 46-foot pitching distance. Softball pitchers can throw the ball at speeds over 100 miles per hour. One pitcher who will be in the Clearwater tournament has had his pitch clocked at 110 mph.

Children over 10 who have not had a booster in the last year should have a booster booster also includes whooping cough (pertussis) and immunization.

County Health Department is conducting the vaccine for diphtheria, which will be administered by Darrell Morris of the Department.

The injections are not compulsory, and parental permission is required before the shots can be given.

A time schedule for all four Floydada schools will be released next week.

The Best "Little Fair" In Texas Staged At Lockney

The best "Little Fair" in Texas is the way the 17th annual Floyd County Fair is described. The three day event is staged for September 17, 18 and 19, at Lockney. Eddie Foster, president of the association, says with the addition of the Jack Greene and Jeanne Sealy Show on opening night, the Fair will be rated as the "best so far."

For the first time in the history of the fair, professional entertainment has been arranged. Jack Green, one of the country music's top-selling album artists, will present his unique show featuring the Jolly Giants. Advanced tickets for the two performances, at 7 p.m., and 9:30 p.m., are $2.50 while those at the gate will be $3.

The first country artist to walk away with three CMA awards, Green was named top male vocalist, single record and album artist in 1967. He is billed as "the man with a hurt in his voice". He is said to be a genius in his handling of a lyric.

His string of number one singles includes "There Goes My Everything", "All the Time", "What Locks the Door", "Until My Dreams Come True", "Back in the Arms of Love", "You Are My Treasure", "Love Takes Care of Me", and "Statue of a Fool".

JOLLY GIANTS Jimmy Dry, who fronts the Jolly Giants, is also an accomplished singer who often adds a western swing feeling or an old-fashioned breakdown from his fiddle bow. Billy Paris will be lead guitarist; Ron Elliott, steel guitarist; Noel Stanley, bass; and Don Lacey, on the drums.

When Lacey sings, he has his own drummer, Jack Greene. Greene also will have with his show Jeannie Seely, an import, record-selling newcomer to the duet scene.

Also on opening day of the Fair there will be the judging of Community Exhibits, judging in the Women's Division;

Caprock Chat by Wendell Tooley

I LEARNED yesterday at press time that James Lackey will be transferred to the Plainview Production Credit Office and Durwood Hart of Hale Center is now local office manager. We welcome the new manager and extend our best wishes to James. We'll have more about the new manager next week.

I NOTICED THAT grain sorghum was worth $2.05 at one of the local elevators Tuesday, and wheat was up to $1.35. I never thought wheat would go as low as it did in this day and time of inflation, so it helps to see the price come up just a little.

HELPI. . . Thursday Blanco Offset Printing begins printing the Wayland College newspaper again and we need to send the newspapers to Wayland Friday morning by someone who will be going to Plainview each Friday morning.

If you can help us on this, . . . please call me at 983-3737.

AND WHILE WE'RE talking about help. . . my thanks and appreciation go to some housewives, some boys we picked up on the street and the high school DE classes who helped us insert the four sections of the first edition of the Texas Tech newspaper that Blanco printed last Thursday night and Friday morning.

We thought we were pretty well organized for that first issue but with the new computer breaking down, the big 32 page first issue, it was just more than we could handle. . . but thanks to all you good friends who helped us out. . . we made it.

THIS WEEK I HAVE SOME BAD NEWS for the Floydada boys in Vietnam and for a few persons who were receiving complimentary copies of The Hesperian. Last week the postal inspectors from Amarillo came into our office, checked out our subscription files and informed us that we must pay first class postage on all free newspapers. . . and this is pretty expensive. So, if anyone wants to sponsor a Hesperian to the boys in Vietnam, call us and we'll work out the details.

We regret this, but that's the way it is.

THE TIME OF the year some farmers want rain. . . some don't. Some are cutting grain sorghum, some are still irrigating it.

I drove through a rain up at Lockney Monday afternoon and when I arrived at The Hesperian, saw old Billy Stanforth and happily told him a rain was headed for his place east of Lockney.

"Oh No! . . . don't let it rain at my place, I've got all that hay on the ground" was the excited reply I got from Billy.

Billy and I have a lot in common this week. I've had @#$%&*O getting a new computer typesetter to work and Billy has had similar problems in getting his hay baled. He was sorta unhappy because he couldn't get a baler delivered to his farm last Saturday.

SCENES LIKE THIS will gradually disappear from Floydada as the city's new ordinance is enforced and the condemnation committee goes to work. (Staff Photo)

Whirlwinds Out Scrimmage Colorado City Friday Night

Whirlwind TD came when Hale hit Steve Puckett on a long "bomb".

One of the most outstanding run plays was by Walter Harris, who ran some 60 yards for a Whirlwind TD. He zig-zagged all over the field.

Halfback Andy Selman crossed the goal line on a ten-yard run, and Dirk Campbell caught a 30-yard pass from Hale for the other Whirlwind tally.

The "Wind defense used a four-man rush purposely not stunting linebackers to get to the passer, thus giving the Colorado City quarterback time to get off his passes. Coach L. G. Wilson said that the four-man rush gave the defensive secondary a more severe test than would be likely under actual game conditions, and that the deep pass defenders got into position pretty well, although some of the CC passes were completed. Many of the passes were to a speedy 252-pound Colorado City end who could really run the ball once he caught it.

In summarizing the scrimmage, Wilson said "We felt we at least held our own with Colorado City. We were up against one of the top teams in AAA. Our boys looked pretty good for only two weeks of work and seemed to execute pretty well. For the most part, the whole team seemed to carry out their assignments with few mistakes. The mistakes we made were physical for the most part. Offensively, we were pleased with the passing attack. We thought we dropped some passes we shouldn't have. We had good pass protection, and the receivers ran their routes pretty well. Overall, we were pleased with the scrimmage."

The Whirlwinds received no major injuries in the scrimmage, and look to be in good shape for the Ralls game September 11.

The varsity reserves will scrimmage Jayton there Friday night at 7:30. The Junior Varsity (sophomores) will go to Turkey Friday for a scrimmage at 7:30.

New Cadettes Have Luncheon

To help introduce the members of Troop 181 to Cadette Scouting, Nan McCulley of Troop 83 invited them to an International Luncheon recently. The country chosen was Mexico. The dining area was decorated with authentic Mexican relics, tables were set with gaily colored cloths, Mexican baskets, and candle bottles. Mexican food consisting of Sombbrero Pie, Combination Salad, Fritos, Bean, Avocado, and Onion Dip; Canteloupe, Beans, Spiced Tea, and three flavors of sherbet were served buffet style. The girls were taught a Spanish prayer song which they sang for their grace. Following the meal, Nan told them about scouting in Mexico where the girls are called Girl Guides as in England where the scouting movement began. The new Cadettes were asked to repeat the Girl Scout Promise and Laws. As each was said, David McCulley read the words as Girl Guides say them in Mexico and Nan interpreted. Nan then told the guests about her past two years as a Cadette Girl Scout. The girls enjoyed breaking the Pinata, a tradition at parties in Mexico. Members of Troop 181 attending were Tammy Tyer, Elizabeth Farris, Debbie Green, Julie Poage, Brenda Vickers, Jimmie Kay Sales, and Jodie Eastham. Special guest was Mrs. LeRoy Burns, leader of Cadette Troop 83. Assisting Nan with the luncheon preparations was her sister, Laura McCulley, member of Junior Troop 336.

Girl Scouts "Activities"

Rainy, cool weather that made tent raising and campfires fun at Day Camp this summer also prevented Girl Scouts from going swimming and earning their Water Fun proficiency badge. Before the summer vacation was over, though, girls from Troops 250, 336 and 181 met at the Floydada Swimming Pool to have their Water Fun activities.

The group met at the pool under the supervision of Eagle Boy Scouts, Johnny Farris and David McCulley. The girls were first required to prove their swimming skills. The group was divided into two categories - swimmers and non-swimmers. Each girl chose a buddy and the buddy system was explained so that each girl was responsible for her partner. The Eagle Scouts talked to the girls about water safety and boat safety. Wilson Bond had given the girls the use of his beautiful hand crafted red canoe so the boys could teach them how to enter, maneuver, and leave a boat safely. Each pair of buddies was required to put on a life jacket and to demonstrate what had been learned. The girls were shown several types of shore rescue and did simulated rescues. Then the real fun began with water games - relay races, water ball leap frog, ping pong ball blow race, and free swim. The girls left the water reluctantly, but once out, didn't have to be told twice that it was termelon was served by the hosts and hostesses, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Dean Williams.

Peggy's Meddlin's

HAVEN'T settled down yet from the news we received from our son Monday letting us know that he and his fiancée have decided to marry this weekend. Believe you me I really did double-time after the call from him, making flight reservation and other preparations. I called Si on the job to find out if he "might" want to go to Chula Vista, Calif., with me to attend his son's wedding. Can't remember his exact words but I think they meant "yes". Danny said they had decided on a simple wedding in place of a formal ceremony set earlier for November. He said something about "This kind doesn't cost as much". That Medley boy is learning. Anyway sure hope the "ole ticker" can take all this excitement, my first to marry and my first jet ride. Wow!

LARRY Parks visited with old and many new friends in Plainview this week. Salad Supper Tuesday Night Began 1950 Study Club Year

The 1950 Study Club met Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. Gene Arwine for a salad supper which began the 1970-71 club year. Co-hostesses for the event were Mrs. L. W. Crabtree and Mrs. Cleo Whittle. Mrs. Bill Hendrix led prayer.

The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Jake Webb, club president. The program was given by the yearbook committee, Mrs. L. W. Crabtree, chairman, and her assistant, Mrs. Cleo Whittle. Mrs. Crabtree introduced the course of study for the new club year which is "Take Time To Be Creative." This year's theme corresponds with the district theme "Take Time", selected by Mrs. LeRoy Johnson of Morton, district president. As Mrs. Crabtree introduced each program, Mrs. Whittle displayed a creative object identifying with each program.

The club voted to donate to a Girlstown project and members were invited to attend dedication ceremonies for the "Avenue of Opportunity", the 1969-1970 district project which will be held Saturday, September 19 at Girlstown in Whiteface. The resignation of Mrs. W. A. Rucker was accepted.

so it has since been donated to a hospital. He plans to return to Wayland College as soon as his physicians think his condition will permit, but not this fall, Parks said. In the meantime area towns are banding together again for the donation of Betty Crocker coupons, this time for a younger kidney ailment victim, Nancy Wall. The Floydada Volunteer Fire Department is conducting the local coupon drive so take or send the coupons to them.

FLOATS are needed for the Floyd County Fair Parade. Anyone wishing to enter one is asked to contact Mrs. Bill Turner at the Lockney bank or nights at her Lockney home.

ROUND and round the fashion wheel turns, and wherever it stops it points to trim, trim and more trim. While trimmings have recently been associated with the revival of the roaring 20's fashion, actually they've been in fashion since the Greeks (remember the Greek key border?) and even before. Today the hottest fashion thing going is the poncho.

Fringe-trimmed ponchos - mini, midi and maxi - are the latest trend for summer and into fall, predict fashion forecasters.

The poncho kick will go into high gear in late summer-early fall with poncho coverups for pants and dresses as well. Elaborate new scalloped and looped wool fringes will go on delicate wool prints and plaids with traditional knotted wool fringe for rough tweeds and textured wools.

For evening now, try a short waist-length poncho in silk trimmed with silky rayon chainette fringe. For day, try criss-crossing several rows of daisy-patterned braid trimming on a poncho, and add a row of the daisy braid on a matching skirt.

Look for "funky" colors - dulled oranges, pinks, and greens - in knotted fringe. They're great with challis and Persian scroll prints.

EVERYONE should see America! I agree with Mrs. Wayland Jones after a conversation with her Monday on the family's recent trip they took seeing historical places in several states. A particular sight they enjoyed seeing was the birthplace of Abraham Lincoln near Louisville, Ky. She said it was the actual log cabin where the Lincoln family lived and nearby was the "Shrinking Springs"

The purpose of the division office has always been to lend staff and administrative support to the local office, the one which serves the customer. Tolk pointed out.

NEWS FOR HOMEMAKERS

by Sherry Mullin
Floyd County H. D. Agent

1. Using make-shift supplies.
Off-standard jars (one-trip jar) called a packers' jar; mouths are not accurate widths; ridges on edge; sealing edges not level - have dips. One piece caps instead of screw band.

2. Using screw bands that are not in good condition - have dents, rusty spots or pried up edges.

3. Not screwing band tight against sealing edge before processing.

4. Using jars with nicks or cracks on sealing surface or have sharp sealing edge.

5. Failure to wipe sealing edge clean - particles of food left on can permit air to seep back into jar.

6. Food, seeds, or grease lodged between lid of jar when liquid is lost during processing - prevents sealing or is responsible for later release of seal.

REASONS WHY FOOD SPOILS

1. Pressure cooker not accurate - should be tested once a year.

2. Not processing at correct temperature -

In pressure cooker - 10 lbs. or 240 degrees F: failed to test pressure cooker; failed to exhaust pressure cooker - 10 minutes after full flow of steam from petcock; failed to make adjustment from elevation; failed to keep pressure accurate - less than 10 lbs will not complete sterilization of bacteria in vegetables and meats.

In Boiling Water Bath: not having water at rolling boil when jar is placed in canner; not having water 1" or more above top of all jars throughout entire processing time; not keeping water at rolling boil entire processing time; not checking time table carefully for product being canned; not making adjustment for elevation - adding minutes for each 1,000 feet as instructed on time tables.

In open kettle method: failed to fill one jar at time with boiling product and seal it - filling several jars at one time allows food to cool before cap is put on; not enough heat left to create vacuum when jar is capped; removed kettle from heat while filling jars - product does not stay at boiling point; product put in last jars practically cold.

3. Improper cooling of jars after processing is finished - failed to take jars out of cooker when gauge is 0 Degrees; failed to take jars out of boiling water bath when processing time is up; failed to properly cool jars of processed food; jars set apart - about 1 inch between each jar; jars are not covered.

REASONS FOR LOSS OF LIQUID DURING PROCESSING

Vegetables:
Packing food too tight in jar; filling jars too full: non starchy, to within 1/2 inch of top; starchy, to within 1 inch of top; liquid for all vegetables - 1/2 inch of top.

Too high pressure; fluctuation in pressure; sudden lowering of pressure; leakage of steam at petcock or around lid of pressure cooker; opening petcock before gauge returns to zero.

Note: If jar is too full, product will boil over and start siphoning. Leaving 1/2 inch head space at top gives room for product to boil and not boil over.

Fruits:
Filling jars too full. Cold Pack (fruit packed raw in jar): fruit - to within 1/2 inch of top; Syrup - to within 1 1/2 inch of top.

Hot Pack (fruit precooked in syrup): fruit - 1/2 inch of top; syrup - 1/2 inch of top.

Note: Cold pack fruit must have 1 1/2 inch of space for syrup - fruit juice cooks out of fruit, and fills jar with liquid (fruit juice and syrup). Otherwise too much liquid will boil over and siphoning will cause loss of liquid from jar.

REASONS WHY FRUIT TURNS DARK

Fruit not processed long enough. Temperature not high enough: water not at rolling boil at beginning of processing; water not kept at rolling boil throughout processing time.

Time was inaccurately counted: started counting before rolling boil; failed to check time table; failed to make adjustment for altitude.

Boiling water level not one inch above top of jars throughout entire processing time. (Fruit may turn dark at top of jar).

Packing some fruits raw that should be precooked (pears, apples, pineapples).

REASONS WHY FRUIT FLOATS

Using overripe fruit; making too loose pack; using too heavy syrup; processing too long; Using too high temperature for processing.

Floydada Folk Help Student Enter State School

ENRIQUE GONZALES

When seven-year-old Enrique Gonzales entered the Floydada school system, his report cards from another Texas city indicated that he had never talked in class and was believed to be deaf and mute. Special Education instructors here learned that Enrique, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gonzales of 214 W. Mississippi, was not mute and, while profoundly hard of hearing, was not totally deaf.

With help from the Floydada Lion's Club and Rotary Club and the Dougherty Home Demonstration Club, Ricky has speech capabilities now in both Spanish and English. The Lion's Club bought his first hearing aid, and the Dougherty HD Club furnished a Y-cord so that he can have binaural hearing. Ricky's second hearing aid was bought with special school funds supplied by Andrews Ward principal Bob Copeland.

Although Ricky has had speech therapy since he has attended Floydada schools, he has a double handicap in that his native language is not the language of his instruction; therefore the Floydada Special Education Department has made arrangements for Ricky to enter the State School for the Deaf at Austin, where he will be instructed in both oral and manual language.

It is the policy of the Special Education Department to assist parents and students requiring special instruction not available in the community.

After Ricky was accepted, the school sent a list of clothing required. The Lion's Club and Rotary Club contributed sizable amounts for his school wardrobe.

The citation reads:
"For heroism in connection with military operations against a hostile force; Private First Class Sanchez distinguished himself by heroic actions on 17 March 1970, while serving with Company B, 2nd Battalion, 14th Infantry in the Republic of Vietnam. While established in their night defensive position, elements of Company B came in contact with a large enemy force. With complete disregard for his own safety, Private Sanchez exposed himself to a hail of enemy fire as he kept the machine gun supplied with ammunition. His valorous actions contributed immeasurably to the success of the mission. Private Sanchez's bravery and devotion to duty are

Firebelles Will Take Donations For Plainview Chief's Daughter

Floydada Firebelles will canvass the town tonight from 7 until 9 p.m., accepting donations for Nancy Wall, daughter of Captain Joe Wall of the Plainview Fire Department.

Nancy is a victim of a blood disease called "Lupus". Her only hope is a kidney machine and a kidney transplant. The Floydada Firebelles are joining the Plainview Fire Department Auxiliary and other area fire departments in their efforts to get enough trading stamps and money to purchase the necessary machine for treatments.

The Firebelles will be accepting donations of S&H Green Stamps and Gold Bond stamps as well as cash contributions.

the Lewis Blums of Floydada, and then Sunday Mrs. Raymond Upton prepared Sunday dinner for the Ronnie Uptons, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Blum and Raymond Upton. We hope he is on the road to recovery. Visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Sanders and children and Mrs. Richard Sanders and children Sunday night for the Billy Graham film were Mr. and Mrs. Otho Sanders and Mrs. C. E. The group enjoyed a family reunion with several of the brothers and sisters of the Wilson family present. Mrs. Jessie Roberts of Floydada, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wilson from Arlington, and Mr. and Mrs. Jinx Wilson from Madador were there.

The Week of Prayer for State Missions is to be held at the Baptist Church Sept. 15, for an all day meeting, starting at 9 a.m. Luncheon will be brought and served at noon, and Mrs. Jewel Fortenberry is in charge of the program for the study. Week of Prayer is September 13-20. The South Plains softball team and Taylor-Evans of Tulia went into final play Thursday night for a final game in the Lockney Softball Tournament. South Plains were champions in a 10-8 thrilling game. Wet grounds had forced cancellation of games last week. Taylor-Evans had fought its way to the finals with an 11-9 win over Stan's of Plainview the Tuesday before. We are indeed proud of all the team. Those visiting in the Alvin Nichols home over the weekend were the Mark Nichols, the Glen Whitfills and Melvina Kemp, all of Sweetwater, and their granddaughter, Cindy Whitfill of Canyon, where she attends WT University. While Family Vacations Son Rides Out Hurricane Alone
(BY PEGGY MEDLEY)

Mr. and Mrs. Arlin Brannan and daughter, Patricia, left their Portland, Texas home on Friday for vacation, unaware that in the Gulf were the makings of Hurricane Celia, which struck their city the following Monday. They left behind their son, Kenny, 18, employed and unable to vacation at the same time as his parents. The story of the family's anxiety upon learning of the storm, the plight that young Brannan went through alone in preparations for the approaching storm and the happiness the parents had upon finding him safe, was unfolded by the Floydada grandmother, Mrs. W. S. Simmons. Mrs. Simmons related that her daughter and family had stopped in various places for sightseeing, enroute from their home for a visit with her. They heard over the car radio of Celia, then with winds expected at 91 miles per hour. They decided to return home while near Bryan. Later radio news reported Portland heavily hit with 161 miles an hour. Anxiety mounted for the Brannans. The closer they drove toward Portland, the heavier the damage. Meantime Sunday when Celia was said to be nearing Portland, Kenny made preparations. He had been with his family when Carla struck and a number of other smaller hurricanes. He knew what to do. With nails, hammer and lumber, he boarded up windows in the Brannan home, nailed doors to, secured every movable object possible and put his car in the garage. While at his chores the first part of Celia struck with slight winds and rain. Then Kenny said the sun came out for some Word was finally received by Mrs. Simmons in Floydada that her daughter and family were safe, and that the remainder of their vacation would be spent doing repairs.

When a candidate for public office asks for your support and your vote, you're entitled to know where he stands on the issues.

Briefly, I believe strongly that we should work to see that every American has an opportunity for a good education, a good job and the training necessary to perform it well. He should have the opportunity to rise as high in our society as his ability and energy permit. He should have the opportunity to live in a decent house, to have decent food and health care. He is entitled to full value for every dollar he earns, without having that dollar undermined by runaway inflation and high interest rates.

I believe we have the finest system of government in the world. And I believe that, with sound government policies, these great goals can be reached.

FLOYD PHILOSOPHER

Annual Squabble Over Government Payments Going On

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm comes out with a bold new plan this week to aid farmers. He's a farmer.

Dear editor:

According to all the newspapers that have turned up out here on this Johnson grass farm lately, the annual squabble is now going on in Congress over government payments to farmers, some people wanting to limit the payments more, others wanting to wipe them out completely.

Personally I have never objected to paying farmers for not growing anything, we pay Congressmen and Legislators for not passing bills, don't we, but since the idea rubs some city people the wrong way I have worked out a new idea that ought to satisfy everybody.

Instead of paying us farmers for not producing certain things the government would instead pay us for producing something every city man can't get enough of.

And what's that? It's OXYGEN. Everybody knows that oxygen is produced by plants, crops, grass, weeds, brush, trees, etc. Everybody knows that the average city doesn't produce a fraction of the oxygen it needs. Paved streets and crowded tall buildings just don't produce the stuff. Let the wind stop blowing and a mass of dead air settles over a city like New York say and in 30 minutes the people are choking for air. It gets so bad doctors urge the people not to exercise and parents, lest they use up more oxygen than the room has to spare, are afraid to shout at their children.

Where would the cities be without us oxygen-producing farmers? It's something they've never thought about.

Why I've had city people come out here to this Johnson grass farm and criticize the amount of weeds on the place, little knowing in their ignorance that one acre of my weeds might be the margin between their breathing and kicking the bucket.

All right. Cut out all the subsidies to farmers, everybody knows food now comes from the supermarket anyhow, but pay them for supplying oxygen to a short-winded nation.

I don't know how the Agriculture Department will figure the price, but I know this one Johnsongrass farm produces enough oxygen for at least 25 city blocks, and depending on the city, that's anywhere from 1000 people to 50,000. Called 25,000 in round numbers. Any city man in his right mind would pay a dollar a year for his oxygen and that comes to, let's see, $25,000 a year. In advance, of course. With their crime rate, too many of them aren't good credit risks.

And I'll guarantee to deliver this oxygen to them via upper air currents in its original, pure, breathable state. What they do with it after it crosses their city limits is none of my affair.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

Labor Day

The first man to suggest a day be set aside in honor of labor—the working man and the spirit of industry in the nation—was probably Peter McGuire. He was President of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America in 1882 when his suggestion was adopted by the Central Labor Union in New York.

The first Labor Day, then, was observed in 1882. In 1884 the Federation of Organized Trades and Labor Unions, which later became the American Federation of Labor, adopted the suggestion and states (Oregon was the first) began to declare the first Monday in September a holiday. McGuire had chosen September because it was about midway between July 4th and Thanksgiving.

By 1894, when Congress declared the day a holiday in all federal offices and territories, some thirty states had acted to make Labor Day a legal holiday. After Oregon, Colorado, Massachusetts, New Jersey and New York were the next to declare the holiday.

One good feature of Labor Day, the traditional last weekend of summer in many areas, is that it always falls on a Monday, thus creating a long weekend. This has been so popular the proposed world calendar fixes several traditional holidays in the year on Mondays—though this calendar hasn't yet been adopted of course.

This year Labor Day is on the 7th, as late as it can occur. As on other holidays, there will be many accidents; in observing it this year take care to see that you live to observe other Labor Days.

Back To School

We have come a long way from the little red, country schoolhouse where readin', writin' and 'rithmetic were taught to the tune of a hickory stick but today's students, naturally enough, fail to appreciate how much progress they enjoy as they begin the new school year.

In the current confusion over school reorganizations, controversy, financial difficulties, etc., in some states, Americans should keep in mind that the public school has been a great democratic influence.

While in some of the metropolitan and northeastern parts of the country there exists an old pattern of the more affluent sending their children to private and exclusive schools, in most parts of the nation in the small towns and rural areas, the majority of local citizens, rich and poor, send their children to the same, public school. Racial patterns of the past are now largely eliminated. Children in these schools live together, learn together and work together, accepted as having equal rights and opportunities (though not necessarily equal).

This public school system is experiencing an ironic evolution today. As private schools, such as church schools, suffer and even close because of costs rising in most areas, the public schools take on a greater percentage of the educational job. Yet in the Deep South private schools have sprung up quite rapidly in recent years primarily because of rapid integration.

Thus the public school student of 1970, beginning the 1970-71 school year, returns to a school in a period of transition. He has better facilities than his father or grandfather enjoyed. Those in private schools also usually enjoy better facilities than their parents. All should remember that in this free country, with its free-enterprise economic system, there's no limit to achievement or earnings for the student who really applies himself.

700,000 Pilots

A recent wire service survey indicated there are now over 700,000 private pilots in the United States. At the end of last year there were 133,814 licensed civil aircraft.

The increase in number of private aircraft slowed slightly in 1969, compared to the average annual increase in the sixties. And while the number of private pilots is increasing, the total is still only a small segment of the population.

In short, flying has not become—like automobile driving—a widely used mode of transportation for the masses, as some predicted it would become within two or three decades at the end of World War II. Why are we taking so slowly to the air, as individuals?

The major reason is that the aircraft industry has not yet been able to offer for sale, at a price the masses can afford, a comfortable, high-performing four-seater aircraft. If congestion continues to increase on the highways and in cities and towns as it has in recent years, government financial support for a massive effort to produce a reasonably priced, easy-to-fly family aircraft might be the only way to adequately ease traffic congestion.

Safe Labor Day Urged By DPS

AUSTIN — Texas Department of Public Safety Director Wilson E. (Pat) Speir said today indications are that 49 persons will be killed in Texas traffic crashes during the 78-hour Labor Day holiday weekend from 6 p.m. Friday, September 4 to midnight Monday, September 7.

The estimate is based on numerous indicators and past experience on similar holiday periods, Colonel Speir said, adding that he hopes it will prove to be too high.

The Public Safety Director said numerous activities will be undertaken to hold down holiday tragedies on the streets and highways, "but, inevitably, the drivers themselves hold the solution in their hands."

"That is why we constantly and repeatedly appeal to drivers to remain continually on the alert for situations that can spell disaster and make driving a full-time job while they are behind the wheel."

"Department of Public Safety officers will be out in full force during the holiday period, as will local police officers within the cities, for the purpose of enforcing the safety laws which were designed to save lives and property," he said.

"Operation Motorcade," a statewide cooperative effort on the part of all police agencies and the public media will be in effect during the 78-hour period to serve as a reminder of the added hazards of holiday road travel.

During this operation, all traffic fatalities will be tabulated as they occur and periodic announcements of the death toll will be made for this purpose, he explained.

"Without the fine cooperation of the news media this program would not be possible, and the same applies to their support of Governor Preston Smith's 'Drive Friendly' program. This effort, has, in our opinion, been most effective."

"I would like to stress that our safe driving messages and reminders are in no way intended to discourage motorists from enjoying the streets and highways of Texas during holiday periods or at any other time. On the contrary, our purpose is to seek individual involvement in the traffic safety program."

Speir said an analysis of the fatal accidents that occurred during the last similar holiday period, the 78-hour Fourth of July holiday weekend revealed the following contributing factors:

General carelessness, excessive speed for conditions, failure to yield or stop when required, drivers drinking, pedestrians drinking. "Our study indicated that without a doubt, most of these fatal accidents could have been avoided," he said.

"It also is perhaps significant to note that most of the accidents involved only one vehicle, indicating that in most cases there was nobody else to blame but the driver himself. The study also revealed that in nearly half of the fatal crashes,

Letters To The Editor

Dear Mr. Tooley:

Our Home Town Picnic in California was a success enclosing a report of it if you would like to use it in the paper. Thanks for your articles and the address list. We have done as well without them.

We met lots of old friends, but the most interesting there was Mr. Charles M. Wilson who had a Photo Studio in Floydada from 1912 to some time in the late one of the best, and when we started talking, we found we were hardly a family represented at the picnic that day. "Wilson Studio" portraits in their family albums have been continuously since it started, No. 1, Vol. 1, under Mr. Wilson. This may not be a record, but he and Mrs. Wilson were interested in Floydada and friends there.

We plan to have another picnic next year and hope to have you miss this year.

Thanks again for your help.
Sincerely,

The Challenge of being the only

As any wise husband knows, no woman likes to be taken for granted. It's the little things that count, like remembering anniversaries, or bringing home flowers for no particular reason. Like the wise husband we try not to take you, our customer, for granted. Being the only phone company in town to make a special effort to be courteous, kind, considerate, and understanding. The fact that we are the only phone company in town is a challenge. Our challenge is "not to act like it."

New Vega To Show At Odens

Chevrolet today details the Vega new small car line to become a leader in the economy car market. The Vega is unlike any other ever built," John General Motors manager and Chevrolet manager, declared.

The growing desire for a car that is fun to drive, safe, economical to own and easy to maintain is being met by the Vega. It sets a new standard of value in the economy car market and is far superior to any car ever built.

Vega's excellent handling is due to a specially designed front suspension and steering system that gives high cornering ability, responsive steering and less driver fatigue on long trips. A new custom tailored braking system includes standard front disc brakes.

Computer-selected full coil springs at each wheel plus extensive body sound deadening give a smoother quieter ride than the usual economy car.

Vega's most innovative feature is its new lightweight overhead cam four-cylinder engine. This engine - specially designed and built in this country for the Vega - meets performance needs of American drivers while giving impressive fuel economy and low emissions.

The 140 cubic inch engine (or 2300 cubic centimeters as indicated in the Vega 2300 name) develops 90 horsepower. There is also a 110 horsepower optional version. Both are designed to operate efficiently on the new no-lead or low-lead gasolines (see page 6). A new open combustion chamber design contributes to more complete burning of fuel and improved emission control.

The Vega engine is the first in industry to use a new high-silicon aluminum alloy and a recent breakthrough in aluminum casting technique in its lightweight engine block. The result is a large piston displacement engine with high torque output at moderate speeds and good fuel economy.

In Chevrolet tests thus far, the Vega has been getting about 25 miles per gallon with a standard engine and 3-speed manual transmission.

Vega's unitized Body by Fisher contains a number of "firsts" in the economy car market including:

An exclusive new power-flow ventilation system which constantly provides a controlled supply of outside air to the passenger compartment. The system is in operation whenever the ignition is on and uses functional louvers at the rear of the car to exhaust air.

Steel side-guard beams in the doors. Vega also has the other Chevrolet safety features for occupant protection, accident prevention and anti-theft (see complete list).

Advanced double-panel roof construction for added strength and greater sound isolation.

New, more comfortable full foam molded seats front and rear with all-vinyl trim.

Flush, lift up door handles and a radio antenna in the windshield add to Vega's aerodynamic body design.

Here are details of the four Vega models:

Chevrolet introduces Sprightly Vega Hatchback Coupe

This distinctive four-passenger coupe model of Chevrolet's new 1971 Vega 2300 economy car has a wide combination rear window and rear deck that swings up for easy access to the rear compartment and a fold down rear seat for extra cargo room. This is one of four Vega models. Vega's individual styling will be continued for at least four years. Roomier and better handling than usual economy cars, Vega has a new, domestic-built lightweight overhead cam engine to fill performance needs of American drivers. It gives impressive fuel economy and low emissions. Among "firsts" in economy cars are Vega's power-flow interior ventilation, comfortable molded foam seats and steel side-guard beams in the doors. Vega models go on sale in Chevrolet dealerships on Thursday, September 10.

2-Door Sedan - This model establishes the clean, individual styling of Chevrolet's newest car.

High output Power Beam headlights flank a silver finish, grid pattern grille. Doors are wide for easy entrance and exit. Full door glass is part of the exceptional visibility offered Vega passengers. Wrap around bumpers give front and rear body protection.

Chevrolet has promised American auto buyers that Vega 2300 models will maintain a continuity of styling for at least four years with "no change for the sake of change."

Hatchback Coupe - The Vega coupe has a swept back roof and rear deck styling. Its "hatchback" - a wide combination rear window and rear deck extending from roof to bumper - swings up for easy access to the rear compartment. It is counterbalanced and needs no prop for support.

The coupe's rear seat folds down to give a full cargo floor and a total of 18.9 cubic feet of luggage area. There is a concealed stowage area below the load floor for spare tire and small articles, a feature also on the wagon.

Kammback Wagon - Here is a completely new type of 2-door sports wagon. It blends the cargo carrying utility of a station wagon with improved handling stability.

Because it incorporates significant theories on auto streamlining of the late Dr.

L.A.M. Kamm, the Vega Kammback is named in his honor.

This responsive, fun-to-drive vehicle has a rear window-door that lifts for maximum accessibility and a fold-down rear seat that allows a total of 50.2 cubic feet of load capacity.

2-Door Panel Express - This trend-setting vehicle brings to Chevrolet's truck lineup the first domestic small economy truck with a fully enclosed commercial body. It has a 68.7 cubic foot cargo capacity and carries a 650 pound payload.

Highly maneuverable in city traffic, easy to park, low in initial cost and in maintenance expense, this Vega truck fills a wide variety of light duty delivery and commercial needs.

The truck's swing-up rear door permits full entry loading for maximum driver convenience.

Power Teams - A wide selection of transmissions is available with Vega's standard 90 horsepower and optional 110 horsepower engines. All transmission controls are floor mounted.

A 3-speed manual is standard and 4-speed manual is optional. Also available are Chevrolet's thrifty no-clutch Torque-Drive and the long proven Powerglide automatic transmission.

Two new torque converters are used on Vega for Torque-Drive and Powerglide when teamed with the 110 horsepower engine to take advantage of the higher torque peak.

I REMEMBER... I REMEMBER...

Teaching Was His Major

It took Claude V. Hall a good many years to find it out but it developed that teaching was his "major." Since his shadow continues to lengthen and it becomes more evident that he will have an important page in the history of Floyd County I feel I should get it down in print correctly about his study and teaching days. This I can now do with assurance from a brief autobiographical sketch which he wrote in 1938. This sketch is made available by Mrs. Ethel Hall, his surviving widow.

Mr. Hall's first school day after the family moved here was the first Monday in January, 1891, the day the first school was opened. He was one of 20 or more students who enrolled that first day.

that his special edition of The Hesperian was published, L. P. Adair managing editor, "specially edited by Claude V. Hall". (This invaluable edition was "descriptive, statistical, historical." It was issued as No. 38 of Volume X, but it said "This is not, in a sense, a regular issue of The Hesperian. It contains no regular news or editorial matter or regular advertisements.")

And in another paragraph it states "this number of The Hesperian has been in preparation since the middle of September."

Mr. Hall's mind then turned to the law as a possible career and in 1910 he graduated from the law school of the University of Texas with a bachelor of laws degree.

When the fall term of school opened the same year of 1891 he was the assistant teacher. Before the school year opened he had taken a "court house examination" to qualify for the position. He received a second degree certificate at the age of 17.

His first college year was at Sam Houston Normal Institute at Huntsville, Texas, in 1894-95. (I had the impression he attended the University of Texas at this time. I think I said as much in print sometime, so it is important to me to give this information.)

When he came home from Huntsville he was principal of the Floydada school until March, 1896, when he founded The Hesperian and was its editor and publisher for seven years. When he sold the newspaper to Crie & Adair in 1903, he returned as a student to Sam Houston Normal Institute. He graduated at this school with the class of 1904. (In this class also was Ethel Alston, who in 1907 became his wife.)

Singing Convention Attracts 300

About 300 attended the Thirteen County Singing Convention held here in the Duncan School cafeteria Saturday and Sunday. A good crowd was reported both nights.

About 40 towns from four states were represented at the annual fall event.

Convention president Earl West emceed the event. Arthur Watson brought the invocation. George Miller, Floydada Chamber of Commerce president and District Attorney, gave the opening day welcome. Mayor Jimmy Seay presented the Sunday welcome.

The counties in the Singing Convention are Floyd, Motley, Dickens, Briscoe, Hale, Childress, Kent, Swisher, Hardeman, Wheeler, Kent, Crosby, and Hutchinson.

After some years as a lawyer and public school teacher he went back to U. of T. to receive BA and MA degrees in 1922. "The Early History of Floyd County", which he had done so carefully back in 1905 was a ready-made product for him to use as a thesis for the masters degree. His corrections and revisions of this product of his early genius were only minor. He did these revisions after he went to Commerce to teach for an eventual 22 years at ETSC and to practice law another ten years after his retirement.

LET THE BIBLE SPEAK

There is much confusion in the religious world today concerning the teaching of the Bible on the word "Evangelist". What does this word mean? Can I believe anything, just as long as I am honest and sincere, and come to the knowledge of the truth. The answer is NO. The only way that I can know what the word "evangelist" means is to turn to the Bible and let God speak and tell me the truth. Jesus Christ said, "And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free", (John 8:32). Again in John 17:17, Jesus speaking, "Sanctify them in truth: thy word is truth". God's word is truth, not man's word. God and God only has the right to tell man anything that concerns his will and eternal life for man. Now let us examine the word "evangelist". First the definition, evangelist: Evangelistes (Greek) - a messenger of glad tidings, a proclaimer of the Gospel story, of the facts of redemption.

Man is teaching a false concept when he teaches that one must travel from place to place and preach on tours before he can be called an evangelist. Notice in God's Bible in Acts 8, Philip preached in Samaria then went south to a desert place called Gaza. Then in verse 40 of Chapter 8, Philip went to Azotus and finally Caesarea. We read no more of Philip until Acts 21:8. Notice it is now 20 years later and Philip is still at Caesarea and it is here that Philip is called the "evangelist". What did we learn? A man of God can be located in one place for 20 years and be called, according to the Bible, "evangelist". Yes, we need to LET THE BIBLE SPEAK.
