

SOUTH PLAINS NEWS by Mrs. Murray Julian

SOUTH PLAINS, Oct. 18 - Wednesday turned gray, cold and cloudy, and Thursday morning the rain began to pour down. School buses were not able to run off paved roads, and parents had to bring children to school both Thursday and Friday. Two and one tenth inches of rain has fallen in South Plains during the week, but lesser as well as greater amounts have fallen around our area. Around 36 was the lowest degree that we noted here. Wheat farmers were jubilant, but others who do not have their maize cut, and the soybeans harvested, are wanting for warm, dry weather.

Several from the Baptist Church here went to the Quitaque Baptist Church Thursday morning for the tenth annual session of the Caprock Baptist Association. Lunch was served at noon by the First Baptist Church of Quitaque. Reports from the 20 churches and 5 missions of the area were heard, as were inspirational sermons and hymns. Pastor of the Flomot Church, Leo Cole, and Wayne Hunter from Flomot were awarded the Associational Award for Outstanding Mission work. Alvin Petty and wife are located in Dickens where he is pastor of the Baptist Church. They formerly were at the Mission Church in South Plains. Those who attended the All-Day session were Rev. and Mrs. W. L. Trice, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fortenberry, Mrs. Tillman Powell, Mrs. J. P. Taylor, Mrs. Murray Julian, and Nathan Mulder of the Northfield Baptist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Kendis Julian and Mitzi spent Thursday visiting at the University Hospital in Lubbock with Mrs. Terry Julian, who has been there a week. Terry Julian spent Friday, Saturday and Sunday with his wife there, and Saturday night he was here to stay with his parents, the Murray Julians.

Miss Resa Beedy, bride-elect of Tim Jeffress, will be honored with a bridal shower Saturday, Oct. 24, from 2 until 4 in the home of Mrs. R. V. Webster, 802 W. Bryant, in Lockney. Special guests will be Mrs. Garvin Beedy, mother of the honoree; and Mrs. James Jeffress, mother of the prospective bridegroom. The couple plans to marry December 19 at the First Baptist Church in Lockney.

Glen Wood and Paul Hrbacek of Sterley left Friday morning for the Silverton and Ouray, Colorado mountain areas, where they plan to spend the coming week hunting deer. They went in Hrbacek's pickup and trailed Woods jeep for mountain climbing.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Harper of McAllen and Mrs. Frank Jackson of Lubbock visited here Wednesday with Mrs. Harper's brother, Murray Julian and family. Harper visited with Mrs. Walter Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Wood and L. T. Wood while in our vicinity. The Harpers are spending some time in Lubbock with their daughter, and will visit other relatives while out this way. Harper fell and broke his arm recently, but is doing fine at this time. They are all former South Plains residents.

We are sorry to hear that Houston Bradford of the Bradford Jewelry Co. in Floydada was taken to the Veterans Hospital in Amarillo, according to Vance Zinn, who was in our vicinity for the Wednesday night prayer service at the Baptist Church. We will all be anxious to hear that this wonderful, brave man is getting along better.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Franks who reside in Flomot left last Monday to spend the past week in Farmington, N.M. where they were going to visit his brother. The Franks farm here adjoins the Grigsby Milton and Kendis Julian farms.

Visitors at the South Plains Baptist Church for Sunday morning services included Mr. and Mrs. Arlis Powell, Jerry, Lisa and Carmen, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Edwards, all of Floydada with the Grigsby Milton family, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cherry, their son, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Cherry of Lubbock, and the Tom Cherry's granddaughter, Sherry. Kenneth Powell and Miss Linda Beaver of Floydada were present, and Carlton Johnson of WT at Canyon and Renda Trice of Wayland College.

There will be an ordination service for Alvin Petty at the First Baptist Church in Dickens Sunday, Oct. 25, at 2:30 p.m. Petty is currently preaching at the Dickens church, having been there one month. Several will want to attend from this area, for Petty was such a loyal worker here for several semesters, as he was a student at Wayland Baptist Church in Plainview. Petty worked here each Friday night with the mission group, during the past years.

Baptist Women met at the South Plains Church Tuesday afternoon for a study of Nigeria and mission areas there. Mmes. L. T. Wood, T. S. Powell, M. M. Julian, W. L. Trice, and F. M. McClure took part in the Missionary discussion. Working with the Mission Friends this year are Mrs. W. L. Trice, Mrs. Curtis San-

October is a love month. . . The prettiest of the fall. A happy time for get-togethers.

When friends and loved ones call. The first to have a birthday is Mrs. Mattie Pool. . . And for a life quite happy she keeps the "golden rule". And one to closely follow is Mrs. Nancy Thomas. . . And wishes for her are all the best. . . This, we truly promise. You all know Mrs. Stephens. . .

A sprightly "ninety-two" . . . We wish you joy and gladness in everything you do! Now look at Mr. Newton who came upon the scene the day of "cats and witches".

They call it Hallowe'en! So for these lovely people who've been here for so long let's raise our lilted voices and sing the birthday song! After the reading of the above poem the group joined in singing "Happy Birthday Dear People" and all were served punch and cake from a table laid with a white cloth and featuring a blue center arrangement.

Places for the honorees were marked with individual place cards and each was seated in a special place at the "honor" table. Several special guests attended and enjoyed celebrating the day with the residents of the home. Those who were unable to come to the dining room were served in their rooms.

Women of the City Park Felps and daughters, Fort Worth; Mr. and Mrs. Will S. Erwin of Borger; Janice Miller, Farwell.

Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Brown and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Miller and two grandsons, Mr. and Mrs. James Perkins and son, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Lon Miller all of Lubbock; Mrs. Ernestine Hughes and Mrs. Travis Nelson, Nara Visa, New Mexico.

Friends attending were Mr. and Mrs. Cager Pope of Plainview.

The group voted to hold the reunion October 2 at the same place next year.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Q. Wright have returned from a five week visit in Arlington and Missouri. They were guests of a son, Harley Wright and family in Arlington and also spent some time with a granddaughter and her husband of Norfolk, Va., who were there visiting. At Missouri they were guests of their daughter, Mrs. Marvin Lyles and family near Springfield. Mrs. Wright said they enjoyed seeing the beautiful Ozark country.

begin a new year of scouting. The girls in Troop 336 are now in the 6th grade. At their last meeting, the girls held ceremonies to mark a new beginning. Mothers of the scouts were special guests.
The troop has been divided into two patrols, Shooting Star and Little Deer. Shooting Star Patrol opened the meeting with the presentation of the American flag. Mrs. Carl Armstrong, Assistant Leader of the troop, presided at the investiture of girls new to the troop - Susan Casio, Shirley Guzman, Holly Hartsell, and Robin Roberts. Mrs. Andrew McCulley, Troop Leader, presented the past members of the troop for Rededication of their Girl Scout Promise. These girls are Shelly Armstrong, Cheryl Bearden, Brenda Fulton, Elisa Garrett, Kathy Green, Renee Grimes, Judy King, Teresa Lipham, Laura McCulley, Polly Parkey, Kelli Parson, Tracey Puckett, Elizabeth Stovall, and Brenda Turner.

Patrol officers were installed by Mrs. Armstrong who outlined the duties of each office and challenged the scouts to do their best and to work together for the good of the troop. Mrs. McCulley presented proficiency badges to scouts who had earned them during the summer months, particularly during activities at the Girl Scout Day Camp in July or at sessions at Camp Rio Blanco, the established Girl Scout Camp near Crosbyton.
Little Deer Patrol closed with an impressive Candlelight Ceremony. Refreshments of Girl Scout cookies and green colored punch were served to the Girl Scouts and their guests, Mrs. Alfredo Casio and daughter, Mrs. Billy Fulton and son, Mrs. LaVada Garrett, Mrs. Tommy Pearson, Mrs. Dewayne Grimes, Mrs. Chon Guzman, Mrs. Truitt Hartsell and daughter, Mrs. Bernie Parkey, Mrs. Dewie Parson, Mrs. Sam Puckett and Mrs. Johnny Roberts.

my suggestion. It is different and may work. You be the judge. Eat five apples each day - one for breakfast, lunch and dinner and two in between meal snacks. Eat as much bacon, ham or cheese as you like and drink all the water, unsweetened tea or black coffee you want at the three regular meals, apples, that is. Follow the diet strictly for two or three days a week, until you're at the desired weight. Should the pounds start sneaking back, just set aside one day each week for the ABC diet. You can eat any kinds of the many cheese, but no process cheese, too many carbohydrates. If you are out of apples, unsweetened applesauce will work just as well.

even the dog and cat. The Martins are due to arrive in Capetown Saturday and will dock and unload at Tieternmaritzburg, Republic of South Africa about November 3. From there they will travel on to Durbin, South Africa which will take a week, where they will make their home. The parents said the ham radio call from the ship to New Orleans was complimentary of the steam ship company and the only cost to the Martins was the phone rate from New Orleans to Floydada. The Fred Martins' daughter, Kit, is already in South Africa where she is presently working at a hospital and attending school. She plans to enroll as a full college student as soon as she has acquired a six months residency.

EVERY mother who is the proud possession of a teen-age daughter I'm sure has the same problems as Erma Bombeck, writer for the Fort Worth Star Telegram. Her explanation of her daughter not eating breakfast was so true to form I thought I would pass it along to other mothers so they would know their daughter is quite normal. If she would just come up with an explanation now why teen-age daughters go barefoot in the house during winter time, she would just about solve all these strange maladies. Here is her explanation:
I am sick and tired of people saying to me, "Boy, do you have it made. A sober husband, three healthy kids, a house in the suburbs, and a little part-time job to keep you in panty hose."
Well, let me tell you, my life is not all pretzels and beer. How would you like to get up every morning of your life and confront a 17-year-old daughter who is 5'6", weighs 110 pounds, refuses to eat breakfast and insists, "I'm not hungry."
Every time she says it, it burns me up. I set two alarm clocks to make sure I don't miss a meal and she says, "I'm not hungry."
My husband says I am suffering from repressed antagonistic rivalry that manifests itself in many strained mother-daughter relationships and simply means resentment, jealousy and competition between us.
"Nonsense," I told him, "it's just heartburn from the cold cabbage rolls I ate before I went to bed last night."
The other morning as I forced down three pieces of bacon she left untouched, I had it out with her.
"Look," I said, "it's not normal to wake up in the morning and not be hungry. From the time you eat your lunch at school, it is 16 hours. That's too long between meals."
"But why do I have to eat when you're hungry," she asked.
"For the same reason you put a sweater on when I'm cold," I said.
"But some people don't need food."
"Don't need food!" I gasped, "May Tottie Fields stuff calories up your nose for such a remark. What do you mean people don't need food? I don't want to frighten you, but a buzzard followed you to school the other morning."
"I can't help it. It upsets my stomach when I eat."
"Do you know what you are doing to your mother?" I sighed, "Killing her. That's right. I don't know how much longer I can go on carrying you. When you were a baby I didn't mind eating your leftovers. . . the strained peas, the mashed squash and the pureed lamb, but as you got older, the burden became greater. Having two breakfasts for the last 17 years is beginning to show on me. I put on weight easily. Remember when I got a flu shot and gained three pounds from it? But, if you don't care what happens to your mother. . ."
"The dog doesn't eat his breakfast and you don't yell at him," she said, stomping out the door.
You know something? With a little catsup, it didn't taste bad.

KFLD Radio Station was getting some free publicity Monday morning at Andrews Elementary School, via tape recorder. One of the teachers put on an educational tape to start morning classes, the children inserted their ear plugs, and out came western music! Bet they thought they were getting some sort of a holiday from studies. A radio repairman explained this problem occurred quite frequently in small towns with radio stations, when the circuits, atmosphere, etc. was just right. Anyway the students got a bang out of the situation.

BY HAM radio from a steam ship 1000 miles from Capetown and some 8000 miles from New Orleans, Mrs. Mark Martin was able to hear plainly the phone call Tuesday received from son, Fred, his wife, Babe and son, Dwayne. The Martins related they were doing fine after about 30 days on the water,

Her talents are extended to working as a leader with younger 4-H members in clothing.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Zant Scott, Larry has exhibited leadership ability in holding numerous 4-H positions: president of Harmony 4-H Club, senior 4-H club president and member of the District II 4-H Council. Scott has carried active projects in field crops, safety, sheep, science, entomology and junior leadership. He has been widely honored in these areas.

He has attended state leadership lab, district leadership lab and electric camp. Like Miss Lovell, the Gold Star Boy has served as a junior leader, assisting younger 4-Hers with projects and activities.

Winds Remain County Champs, Undefeated

Walter Harris In TD Spotlight

The state-ranked Whirlwinds remained undefeated for the season, ran their district ledger to 3-0, and brought home the Floyd County Championship for the third straight year Friday as they posted a 42-8 victory over the Longhorns on a wet Lockney field.

Halfback Walter Harris accounted for 18 of the Whirlwind points with touchdown runs of 35, 18, and 27 yards. Van Lee Mitchell scored first for the 'Winds from 75 yards out on the first Floydada play from scrimmage. Mike Burk added another six-pointer on the ground from a yard out, and Steve Puckett got the Whirlwind aerial score on a 57-yard completion from Andy Hale. Greg Campbell had a perfect kicking night, adding six more on point-after tries.

The Whirlwinds picked up 330 yards total offense. Mitchell and Harris led the ground game with 147 and 141 yards respectively.

PLAY-BY-PLAY
The Longhorns took the opening kickoff and moved to their 39 yard line before having to kick. Harris bobbled the punt and the 'Horns recovered at the 'Wind 27. A fired-up Whirlwind defense held the Lockneyites to two yards on two carries before Glenn Switzer pounced on the third-down fumble at the 25. Mitchell found daylight, Campbell kicked, and it was 7-0 'Winds with 2:22 gone in the first period.

Charlie Mathis took Campbell's kickoff 19 yards to Lockney's 34. The Longhorn offense lost back to their 29 before punting to the Floydada 30. A Lockney lineman recovered the bobbled first snap at the 33, and the Longhorns had their second break of the game. The Floydada defense rose to the occasion once more and the ball went over on downs after four running plays had netted Lockney five yards.

Carries by Mitchell and Harris took the ball to the Lockney 35; then Harris got his first TD of the night and after Campbell's kick, the 'Winds owned a 14-0 advantage with 4:38 left in Period One.

Method got the KO out to his 25; Lockney threw twice and ran once to a first down at their 42 before the Big Green defense forced the punt. The 'Winds took over on their 34 and marched to the Lockney 24 on carries by Harris, Mitchell and Hale before losing the ball on downs.

Lockney fullback Pat Bennett picked up a first down before Whirlwind linebacker Kim Rose intercepted Tony Ford's pass and the 'Winds offense set up at Lockney's 25. Four plays later, Harris got loose for 18 yards and the third Floydada TD. With 7:05 left in the half, it was 21-0 after Greg did.

The Hustlin' Horns came to life after Bill Hill returned the kickoff to the 'Wind 41. Bennett picked up 26 yards and three first downs in a Lockney drive that was capped by a five-yard plunge by halfback Charlie Mathis. Ford passed to Randy Duckworth for two extras and the Whirlwind lead was cut to 21-8.

Twelve seconds later, on the first Floydada play after the kickoff, Andy Hale hit Steve Puckett with a 57-yard scoring bomb. Campbell made it 28-8, and that's the way the half ended as the Longhorns advanced only to the Floydada 41 before they ran out of downs, and the Whirlwinds ran out of time.

SECOND HALF
Mitchell took the short Lockney kickoff to his 42, but the 'Winds couldn't go for the penalties, and Puckett boomed the first Floydada punt of the night 41 yards to the Lockney 24. Two plays lost the Longhorns seventeen yards, and on third down they punted out to the 33.

Harris, Hale and Mitchell advanced to the 19 before the wet ball squirted away from Hale and Lockney took over. But the 'Horns gained one yard in three attempts and punted again. This time the offense clicked. Starting at midfield, Hale connected on a 16-yarder to Selman; then Harris and Mitchell did their stuff - Walter raced for 20 yards, and Van Lee got 15 on the next play to set up fullback Mike Burk's one-yard plunge for the marker. After Campbell, the score read 35-8.

Tim Assiter recovered the kickoff in Longhorn territory at the 46, but the 'Winds couldn't pick up the yards for the first and Lockney took over on downs at their 37. Lockney got two first downs enroute to the 'Winds 40' then penalties pushed them back to midfield and forced the punt. Langston Williams took it at the 25 and raced to the Lockney 32 before being hauled down. The fifteen-yard penalty put the ball back to the 47. QB Hale kept for 21 yards and two plays after that, Harris swept end for his third TD and Campbell finalized the score at 42-8.

Freshmen Win On Late Safety

The Whirlwind Freshmen battled Tulia scorelessly until late in the game Thursday before tackling a Tulia punter in the end zone for a safety and a 2-0 victory.

Kerry McDowell, Gayland Fleming and Lynn Becker were the Whirlwind defenders who made the play with three minutes left in the game.

The defense stopped the Tulia ninth-graders with a goal-line stand in the fourth quarter; the offense penetrated to the Tulia 15 but couldn't make it across.

This grain is being loaded by Producers Cooperative Elevator and should arrive in Houston at Goodpasture Grain by this weekend. Other elevators in the Floyd County area are loading for the same pool-sale.

There will be seven hopper cars loaded by the local elevator to be unloaded in a pool shipment to be sold for export to one of our foreign buyers. This original sale will be approximately 56 million pounds.

Local farmers participating in this pool shipment will receive a substantial increase in their milo price over area prices.

KINARD'S GULF SERVICE

Dear Editor

Dear Mr. Tooley:

Tuesday night, October 13, I attended what I thought was just another meeting of the 1934 Study Club, along with the other Federated Clubs of Floydada, but when I left I knew I had heard something that would stay with me I hope forever.

Enclosed is a copy of "Sincerely George," a part of the program given by Mrs. LeRoy Johnson of Morton. How many times have I carelessly used that expression "Let George do it,"

When Wayne told me he was announcing for City Council for a second term, all I could think of were the complaints I had listened to in his absence and how a few people who we thought were our friends never seemed to need work done in our business anymore. I told him why don't you let George do it, and his answer to me was, there aren't enough Georges.

Now after hearing this article I can truthfully say I'm proud I have a husband who takes time from his busy life to try to make our town a better place in which to live and who has time to serve on some committee and to stand up for what he believes.

As his wife I certainly intend to encourage instead of discourage from now on.

Sincerely,
/s/ Roberta Russell
Mrs. Wayne A. Russell

SINCERELY, GEORGE

Back in the fifteenth century, Louis the Seventh of France said of his Prime Minister, "Let George do it, he's the man of the time." This expression has been shortened to, "Let George do it, I haven't the time." Nowadays George never misses an opportunity and he's written a letter:

"Dear Friends, my name is George. I'm an all around handyman, and I'd like for you to feel free to use my services for any and all chores, errands or duties which you may be too busy to perform.

Anytime there's something that needs doing and you'd rather not, you just let old George tend to it.

I'll write to your congressman for you; I'll write your newspaper editor; I'll serve on the school board in your place; I'll do anything you're too tired or too preoccupied to do. With me around, you can be as lazy as you like. Or you can just have fun. The more the merrier, I always say.

I'm available to you for all the tedious, time-consuming things which you'd rather duck doing.

You haven't time to vote. Just let George do it. No time for jury duty? I have. There is certainly no need for you to concern yourself with attending union meetings. You don't want to accept committee assignments and extra responsibilities, anyway. Let George tend to it.

Now, you might ask, why should you leave an important job to somebody you don't even know? Well that's a reasonable question, so let me put your mind at ease. I'm no beginner. Maybe I'm not as famous as Sukarno, but it hadn't been for me, you'd never have heard of him. And that goes for Mussolini and Stalin and Hitler, too. I made those guys! And the bigtime racketeers in the United States! You name 'em, without me, those guys would be nothing! Why do I want to run errands for you? Don't you see, I get a kick out of electing presidents for school boards and union countries. All these things you used to do before you took up chasing dollars and golf balls and things. Please don't feel like you're imposing. I'm glad to be of service. Helping you I'm really helping myself. How do you think I was able to take over and run a third of the world already? Because nobody else wanted to bother. They said "Let George do it." So I did it!

Now I'm taking over in lots of cities and countries in America and I figure it's just a matter of time until I'll do your worrying, too. I'll bill you later, and he signs the letter, "Sincerely, George."

Make no mistake, my friend, George is sincere. He's sincerely wanting to take over your own thinking for you. And slavery is the price paid by more than one-third of the world for letting George do it. I believe that we should here and now depend less on George. Let us ourselves do our own thinking and do the many things we should and save our freedom.

Pioneer Gets Rate Increase

In a joint statement made in Lubbock, Fred Poe, chairman of the Steering Committee of West Texas Municipal Utilities Committee, and K. B. Watson, executive vice president of Pioneer Natural Gas Company, announced agreement on a proposed rate increase for natural gas used in 34 West Texas cities.

The agreement came in the form of a recommendation to the governing bodies of the member cities for a 13 percent increase in the cost of gas effective on billings dated on or after November 15, 1970. The recommendation also included a provision for a gas rate adjustment to Pioneer based on the cost of gas during the calendar year to become effective on April 1 of the following year.

Pioneer agreed to provide each city a verified statement by March 1, of the field cost of gas for the prior year to determine the rate adjustment for the following year.

The first such adjustment report will be delivered to each city by March 1, 1971, for action by April 1, 1971, to become effective April 15, 1971.

The governing body of each member city of the West Texas Municipal Utilities Committee will review the joint recommendation for passage by local ordinance.

a "highly inflammatory and prejudicial" argument to the jury. Maybe so, said the appeals court, but "we are not convinced that the jury was prejudiced" by the arguments or that they "caused the jury to render an improper verdict."

Floydada had sued Mrs. Brock in county court because, although she recognized the city's right to the air space over the six acres, the city disagreed with her estimate of the "market value of the property condemned, and the damage to the remainder."

The jury allowed a drop in value of $200 per acre on the six acres at the end of the runway and a decrease of $35 per acre on the remaining 194 acres of Mrs. Brock's tract, and awarded her a total of $7,790 in damages.

Farm Bill Runs Aflowl Of Politic Backbiting

The Senate had the time, the votes and reasons without number for passing a farm bill before recessing October 14 for the election. But the bill ran aflowl of political back-biting and was left on the shelf pending a post-election rump session beginning November 16.

The Republican leadership wanted the bill passed. Some influential Democrats didn't. Democrats wanted an occupational health bill passed for industry. Republicans didn't. So in the best tradition of inter-party cooperation, they compromised, and did nothing on either bill.

Nevertheless, Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield (D-Mont.), apparently in an attempt to forestall any political liability that might show up November 3, is assuring farmers then can proceed with crop plans in 1971 as if the Agriculture Act of 1970 were already law.

He is quoted as saying the farm bill will be the Senate's first order of business when it reconvenes November 16 and that the bill will pass in its present form. Donald Johnson, Executive Vice President of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. says the Senator is "probably right." Senators will have but two choices when the bill comes up in the lame duck session after November 15. They can vote for the House-Senate Conference Committee bill, as the House did October 13, or they can vote to send the bill back to Conference. And the latter course is considered extremely unlikely in view of the fact the bill's opponents would gain no advantage by such action.

Johnson also called attention to the fact that the bill is known to have the support of the Administration, so there is no doubt the President will sign it once it clears the Senate.

Assuming passage of the bill by the Senate, farmers are left with only one major uncertainty - that of payment limitations. The farm bill carries a limitation of $55,000 per farmer as the maximum he can receive on each of the three crops, cotton, wheat and feed grains. But the Agricultural Appropriations Bill, the Senate version of which carries a $20,000 limit on the aggregate amount that can be paid to any farmer on all crops, has yet to go to Conference Committee. The House leadership has delayed sending the appropriations measure to Conference pending passage of the farm bill.

It is known that an effort will be made in the House to instruct that body's conferees to accept the Senate limitation amendment. And if that move should be successful the $55,000 per crop figure in the farm bill would be meaningless.

HPRF Leases Farm Near Plainview

Wheat pasture for cattle backgrounding studies is being established on the High Plains Research Foundation's Steidle Research and Demonstration Farm east of Plainview.

The planting of 125 acres of wheat marks the Foundation's full scale entry into livestock production programs.

In 1969, the Foundation began small scale swine feeding studies. The Steidle Research and Demonstration Farm offers the Foundation an opportunity to expand its swine feeding program and develop a meaningful program in cattle feeding operations.

The Steidle Research and Demonstration Farm was inaugurated during a Sept. 10 meeting of the Foundation board of trustees. Board members voted to accept the terms of lease for the 480-acre farm located seven miles east of Plainview.

The wheat pasture study will compare beef cattle on a 65-acre pasture of Caddo wheat and on 55 acres of Sturdy wheat.

Seven Proposed Amendments Discussed

NOTE: Representative Ralph Wayne has prepared a summary of the proposed Constitutional Amendments which will come before voters on November 3. We reproduce this summary here.

brings an emphasis on campaigns, elections, and issue confronting the people of our state. Since November is just around the corner, I thought you might be interested to have a little information pertaining to the seven Constitutional Amendments that will be on the ballot November 3.

I think it is good for all voters to have a knowledge of the amendments before casting their votes. Many times we neglect to study the Constitutional Amendments, but they are most important as our Constitution provides a basic structure of law under which we operate in the State.

Our Constitution was adopted in 1876 and has been amended one hundred ninety-five times. If you will remember, we voted on nine amendments to the Constitution August 5 of 1969, and the following seven amendments are a part of the total of sixteen passed by the 61st Legislature.

The amendments appear below in the order in which they will be on the ballot. I have tried to present a little background and the pros and cons of each amendment so that you will have an opportunity to evaluate the issues before casting your vote.

Amendment No. 1 Proposes to amend Article V, Section 1-a, of the Texas Constitution, relating to removal, retirement, or censure of justices, judges, and justices of the peace under prescribed circumstances. The Texas electorate in 1965 adopted the current Article V, Section 1-a. The section greatly expanded the article in regard to the retirement and removal from office of justices and judges of the appellate courts and district and criminal district court judges. However, no provision was made for censure or private reprimand of judges nor did the section include the judges of the other state and local courts. This amendment was designed to change the provision to include these features.

Argument For: 1. Every judge is charged with the equitable enforcement of law. The responsibilities of the judges of lower courts are no less sacred than those of the justices of the appellate courts; therefore, they should be answerable to the same rules dealing with retirement, removal from office, and public censure or private reprimand.

Argument Against: 1. Except in rare instances, the judges named in Subsection (6) are elected by the people and therefore answerable to the people at the polls. Therefore, the expansion of the article is unwarranted. Increasing the power and scope of the commission might also lead to "witch hunts", and such action could subsequently discourage qualified persons from seeking election to the bench.

Amendment No. 2 Proposes to amend Article XVI, Section 20, Subsection (a), to authorize the legislature to enact a mixed beverage law regulating the sale of mixed alcoholic beverages on a local option basis. During the early days of the Republic, Texas had no restrictions against the operation of an open saloon other than the requirement that the proprietor pay a tax and that he be bonded to guarantee that an orderly and reputable house would be maintained. As the frontier atmosphere faded and civilization sank its roots deeper into community life, temperance groups were militant but only mildly successful in attempts to bring about prohibition in the state. In 1887 the voters of the state defeated an amendment dealing with prohibition by a vote of 220,000 to 129,000. Temperance groups found little support during the next 20 years, but in 1911 a similar proposed amendment on prohibition was lost by only 6,000 votes. World War I again brought prohibition into prominence, and when the federal government submitted the national prohibition amendment in 1918, it was adopted by the legislature. However, prohibition lacked the public support necessary for enforcement, and when Congress modified the Volstead Act to permit the sale of beer in 1933, Texas adopted an amendment to the state constitution legalizing the sale of beer. The 21st Amendment to the federal constitution, which repealed the 18th Amendment, became effective in December, 1933. The 44th Legislature of the State of Texas then submitted an amendment to repeal state prohibition, and it was ratified in August, 1935. The 1935 Amendment authorized the sale of hard liquor on a local option basis but prohibited the open saloon. Many attempts have been made over the years to achieve liquor by the drink, but the issue did not become a major one until it was endorsed by Governor John Connally in 1967. Connally's proposal for a "minibottle" plan of liquor by the drink failed to receive a majority vote during the 1st Called Session of the 60th Legislature in June, 1968. Many lawmakers contended that the constitution would first have to be amended to repeal the provision banning open saloons. Such a resolution was offered and passed for submission to the Texas electorate during the Regular Session of the 61st Legislature.

Arguments For: 1. The proposed amendment would not force mixed drinks on any locality since it requires that any mixed-drink law be on a local option election basis.

2. Adoption of the proposed amendment and passage of subsequent enabling legislation would lead to stricter control of liquor sales to minors, an end to the subterfuge of private clubs, a decrease in alcohol consumption, a reduced crime rate, and fewer traffic accidents.

Arguments Against: 1. The proposed amendment would make alcoholic beverages more readily available.

2. Although enabling legislation for the proposed amendment could be designed to raise needed new revenue through the taxation of mixed beverages, this revenue would be negligible in comparison with resulting problems such as broken homes, juvenile delinquency, drunk-driving, criminal assaults, and other crimes.

Amendment No. 3 would authorize the legislature to provide by law for the establishment of a uniform method of assessment of ranch, farm, and forest lands based upon the capability of the lands to support the raising of livestock or to produce farm and forest crops rather than on the value of such lands and the crops growing on them. The present provision of the Constitution requires no enabling legislation since it prescribes in detail the procedures for designating land for agricultural use and the assessment of such land for tax purposes on the basis of factors relative to such use.

Arguments For: 1. Farm real estate taxes per acre have increased by more than 22 percent, according to data compiled by the Economic Research Service of the United States Department of Agriculture, and there is a need for the tax relief for owners of such property which the proposed amendment would authorize.

2. The constitutional amendment approved by the voters in 1966 has not provided tax relief urgently needed by farmers and ranchers who use for agricultural purposes land which has greatly increased in value due to its potential use for other purposes, such as urban development. The proposed amendment would enable the legislature to provide such relief.

Arguments Against: 1. Enabling legislation for the proposed amendment has not been passed; therefore, the voter has no idea how far the legislature may go in providing property tax considerations to the owners of farm, ranch, and timber lands.

2. The proposed amendment could result in a tax ceiling for rural lands while urban Texans would be in a different category. -----

Amendment No. 4 Would amend Article III, Section 51-b, Subsection (a), to reconstitute the State Building Commission as a three-member appointed commission. In November, 1954, the Texas electorate adopted the present Section 51-b of Article III. This section created a State Building Commission, composed of the present membership, with a provision that the legislature may designate some state official other than the chairman of the Board of Control to the commission. It also created a State Building Fund into which is paid the revenue which remains from a 2 cents on the $100 valuation state ad valorem tax after payments of Confederate pensions. This tax may not be levied after December 31, 1976, by virtue of a constitutional amendment adopted in November of 1968. The first structure erected under this section was the State Supreme Court Building. Since then the Capitol Complex has continued to expand. At the time the original amendment was adopted, a person desiring to visit most of the state agencies in Austin had to go to almost 200 locations scattered about the city. The cramped quarters provided by the Capitol also deprived members of the House of Representatives of office space. The amendment was designed to eliminate such situations by the Creation of the Capitol Complex.

Argument For: 1. The governor, attorney general, and Chairman of the Board of Control do not have the time to consider all the details of the additional duties imposed upon them as ex officio members of the State Building Commission.

Argument Against: 1. Since the State Building Commission makes recommendations concerning the expenditure of large sums of public money, it would seem inadvisable to change its present membership of elected officials responsible directly to the people to an appointive membership which is answerable to the voters only through the governor.

Amendment No. 5 Would authorize any county to issue road bonds in an amount not to exceed one-fourth of the assessed valuation of the real property in the county for "the construction, maintenance, and operation of macadamized, graveled, or paved roads and turnpikes, or in aid thereof, upon a vote of a majority of the resident property taxpayers voting thereon who are qualified electors of the county..."

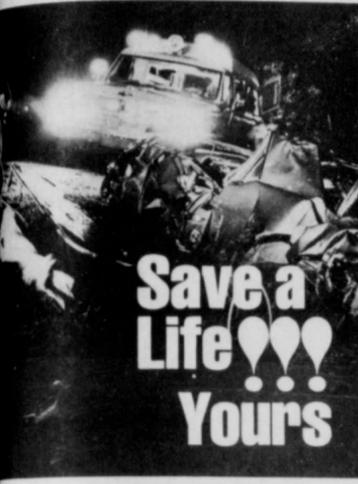

Argument For: 1. Construction and maintenance of sufficient roads and turnpikes to meet the traffic needs of rapidly growing Texas have been hampered by the constitutional debt limit and the requirement of a two-thirds vote of the qualified electors. The proposed Amendment No. 5 would alleviate this situation.

Argument Against: 1. The majority vote requirement of the proposed amendment would make it too easy for a bond election to pass. When bond elections are called with the timing selected to assure turnout of only those in favor of an issue, a majority of the voters could, in fact, be disenfranchised.

Amendment No. 6 Proposes to amend Article XVI, Section 51, to increase the value of the homestead exempt from forced sale from $5,000 to $10,000. The precedent for exemption of the homestead from forced sale was established by statute enacted by the Third Congress of the Republic of Texas in 1839. The Texas Constitution of 1845 continued the exemption, establishing it at 200 acres of land (not included in town or city) or any town or city lot or lots, in value not to exceed $2,000. Constitutions of 1861 and 1866 carried forward the same provision. Then the Constitution of 1869 raised the amount of exemption for urban lots from $2,000 to $5,000 and incorporated the statutory provisions clarifying the maximum value.

Argument For: 1. It has been 100 years since the homestead exemption was set at $5,000, and conditions and economic demands have changed so greatly since that time that the intent of the constitution to protect the home and earning capacity of the citizen is no longer effected through this small exemption.

Argument Against: 1. Since homestead exemptions are often abused by violating the intent of the constitution and permitting the hoarding of extensive assets beyond the reach of creditors with just debts, a larger exemption of $10,000 as proposed by Amendment No. 6 could increase the opportunity for abuse.

Amendment No. 7 Would authorize the legislature to provide for consolidating offices and functions of government and for performance of governmental functions by contract between political subdivisions in any county. During the past 50 years the population increase and industrial growth of Texas have resulted in more and more demands for governmental services. Because of constitutional limitations that often barred existing political subdivisions from providing assistance, a legislative program of creating "special districts" was established. As the creation of special districts increased, and it became evident that many of them had overlapping jurisdictions and tax assessments, the legislature sought to provide densely populated areas with a means of consolidating many of the services and functions. In 1966 the voters adopted an amendment which would permit Harris County to facilitate consolidation of governmental agencies. In 1968 the voters approved a similar amendment for Tarrant and El Paso counties.

Argument For: 1. Adoption of the proposed amendment would permit counties to do away with costly duplication of services by consolidation, under which one governmental unit could be authorized to make assessments for all political subdivisions through an equal and fair assessment ratio, thereby providing more equitable apportionment of ad valorem taxes. Such consolidation would also result in coordinated planning to meet the demands of growing metropolitan areas.

Argument Against: 1. Adoption of the proposed amendment would be the first step toward over centralization of government at the county level. It could result in too much authority resting in the hands of a few.

I realize this has been rather lengthy, but I do hope that it has been of value to you. When the Legislature convenes in January, we will be faced with many serious issues pertaining to state government. Several of the issues, such as redistricting, taxes, water legislation, and tighter enforcement of drug laws will be just a few of the many things that will concern the people of this district. I am hopeful that you will let me have your ideas and opinions on these issues when they are considered next year.

I appreciate hearing from you and knowing what your thinking is. This helps me to know what the majority of the people in the district desire. A representative form of government can be at its best only when the citizenry takes a part and voices its concern on the various issues.

Our government is the best in the world; however, this does not necessarily mean that we do not need improvement, because we do in many areas. With this thought in mind, I am hopeful that we can all work together for a better State.

Yours for better government,
S/RALPH WAYNE

Basaldua Gets Fifty Years On Drug Charges

Valentin Basaldua, 28, first person tried from indictments returned by the Hale County Grand Jury for narcotics charges August 21, and who has also been indicted by a Floyd County jury, was sentenced by jury Wednesday to 50 years in the state penitentiary.

The Hale County jury, consisting of seven women and five men, deliberated slightly more than an hour and a half before returning the verdict.

The defendant's wife, Romana Diaz Basaldua, was charged Thursday with one case each of possession of marijuana and sale of marijuana.

A plea of guilty was entered by Basaldua, of selling marijuana to two undercover agents. He, along with some 30 other persons, was indicted on various drug charges after a narcotics raid in August.

Floyd County officials found two paper bags of marijuana on a farm 7.7 miles southwest of Lockney where they said Basaldua lived.

The main sale for the drug was apparently scheduled originally in Floyd County, but changed to Hale County, where the raid took place.

DISCUSSES AGRICULTURE

Bentsen Vows Farm Aid

By DUANE HOWELL
Avalanche-Journal Farm Editor
Lloyd Bentsen, Democratic candidate for the U.S. Senate, said here Monday night that agriculture would be one of the committees to which he would seek appointment if elected.

Bentsen made the pledge at a meeting of about 25 South Plains farm leaders at the In Town Inn.

U.S. Rep. George Mahon of Lubbock, chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, sent a telegram to sponsors of the meeting saying he is "solidly behind" Bentsen.

Mahon's telegram read: "I am pleased that the farm group is meeting with Lloyd Bentsen... Lloyd did a superb job when he was a member of the House, and he will be a strong voice for Texas and the nation in the U.S. Senate."

"I am solidly behind him. I know that he has a deep interest in Texas agriculture."

Bentsen, in off-the-cuff remarks at the informal meeting, pointed out he was reared on a farm in South Texas and still has farming interests.

"High Priority"
"You may be assured that the Agriculture Committee would be of a high priority and would be one of the committees I would seek to get on," he said, drawing applause.

Bentsen said later he "couldn't think of a better combination" than to be able to serve on both the appropriations and agriculture panels.

The Texas Association of Cotton Producers Organizations had urged Bentsen and his Republican opponent, George Bush of Houston, to make a commitment to seek appointment, if elected, to the Agriculture Committee.

No Response
Officials said Bush has not responded to the resolution, adopted at a meeting of the six TACPO groups this month in Dallas.

"No segment of our society has shared less in the progress of our economy than has agriculture," Bentsen told the farm meeting here.

Bentsen expressed belief that most farmers "would like to get away from government subsidies" but stressed that "to cut them off summarily would result in the darndest wave of bankruptcies this country ever saw."

He pointed out the American farmer "is the most efficient in the world," producing enough for 44 persons. But farm prices today, he added, are below the levels of 20 years ago.

Bentsen said a stronger emphasis is needed on such programs as market research to help bring the farmer an equitable return on his labor and investment.

"We need to do more to make cotton more competitive with synthetics," he said.

Bentsen said he "believes strongly" in the need for sound water resources development and conservation.

While a member of the House, he said, he served on the Interior Committee and worked with Mahon and former Rep. Walter Rogers of Pampa on the Canadian River Project.

Roy B. Davis of Lubbock, who presided at the meeting, said he does not recall Texas having had representation on the Senate Agriculture Committee since before the establishment of federal farm programs in the 1930s. Texas, despite slippage in recent years, still ranks third in the nation in cash farm receipts. The top farm states in 1969, according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture, were California, $4.3 billion; Iowa, $3.7 billion; and Texas, $2.9 billion.

"Whether we like it or not, what happens in Washington is very important to us from an economic standpoint," Davis said.

"But those of us from Texas who work on Washington matters have had to work through out-of-state senators in trying to have some direct influence on shaping agricultural happenings in the Senate," he added.

Moreover, Davis said, Texas has not been represented in a policy-making post in the USDA in Washington since 1935. Don Anderson of Crosbyton pointed out that a major farm bill is expected to be written in 1973.

"I hate to think about going through this again without having a Texan on the Senate Agriculture Committee," he said, referring to the long development of a new three-year farm program to take effect in 1971.

State Rep. Delwin Jones of Lubbock, chairman of the House Agriculture Committee, urging a "get-out-the-vote" campaign, asserted that "all our efforts will be in vain if we come in second."

The group drafted a letter, urging support for Bentsen, to be sent to agricultural leaders over the state. It is to bear the signatures of Davis, Anderson and H. L. (Hub) King of Brownfield, Joe Rankin of Ralls and Howard Alford of Lubbock.

NEWS FOR HOMEMAKERS
by Sherry Mullin
Floyd County H. D. Agent

CRUSHED PATENTS, a favorite fabric for rain garments and sportswear, requires special techniques for sewing.

A pattern with few seams makes it easier to manipulate the vinyl-type fabric. Raglan or kimono sleeves are easiest, but some of the crushed patents are soft and pliable enough to sew set-in sleeves.

The pattern should be altered to fit before the garment is cut. Seams cannot be let out without damage to the fabric.

When fastening the pattern to the fabric, place pins in seam allowances only or tape the pattern to the fabric. Cut with sharp shears.

Mark darts, seamlines and other construction details with chalk or a pencil on the wrong side of the fabric. Use a grease pencil when making markings on the right side. These can easily be wiped off.

A medium-sized machine needle and 10 to 12 stitches per inch are satisfactory for top stitching on crushed pa-terns. A piece of tissue paper placed between the shiny or right side of the fabric and the feed-dog of the machine prevents damage to the fabric when stitching. The tissue paper can easily be torn away when stitching is completed.

Finger press seams and darts, unless the label on the bolt or roll of crushed patents states that the fabric can be pressed with steam or a warm iron.

Both zippers and buttonholes can be used on crushed patents. The centered application makes a flat zipper closing.

Hems can be top stitched or slip stitched in place to the backing of the fabric.

Follow the fabric manufacturer's care recommendations for cleaning. Some vinyl-like fabrics can be hand washed, while others need to be wiped clean with a damp cloth. If linings are used in the garment, they should require the same care as the outer fabric.

Vote for the man who will vote for Texas.

Texas needs Lloyd Bentsen... a Democrat who will be free to support the policies that he thinks are right for Texas but who can oppose those that he thinks are wrong.

For example - gun control. One of the great controversies of our time has been the extent of Federal control over the firearms and ammunition of private citizens.

George Bush voted for the Gun Control Act of 1968. It requires dealers to keep detailed federal records on purchases of guns and ammunition. This is a foot in the door to gun registration.

Lloyd Bentsen opposes gun control legislation that uselessly penalizes law-abiding sportsmen but fails to curb criminals.

We must do everything possible to protect the public from the misuse of firearms. But Lloyd Bentsen feels the better way to do it is by stronger laws and tougher penalties for crimes committed with firearms and swift, sure prosecution of criminals.

Vote for the man who is free to work with our 20 Democratic Texas Congressmen in matters where the best interests of Texans are at stake.

Texas needs Democrat Lloyd Bentsen
A courageous Texan with fresh ideas.
