A gin-by-gin report of cotton weighed across gin scales in Floyd County reveals the 23,806 bales have been ginned or are on gin yards in the county. Bob Hambright of the Texas Employment Commission completed the latest tally last Tuesday afternoon.

The count of 23,806 bales compares to a final count of 78,538 last year and 65,000 the year before. Of course the Tuesday-afternoon count was not the final, due to this year's delayed harvest.

AN EDITORIAL

The Goals For 1972

Each year at this time The Hesperian lists the goals which it will seek for this community and trade area in the new year. We pledge our cooperation to work with every organization or individual who seeks to make this a better place in which to live.

This year we want to take a look, first, at the goals we set for last year. Some of these have been accomplished, some have not. 1. A community center, to be enjoyed by both young and old. This goal achieved with the announcement of the Massie Activity Center. 2. We want to see the city begin tearing down unsightly, unoccupied structures all over Floydada. This has not been accomplished, there are countless blocks of rubble, trash, shacks in the northeast part of Floydada that need only a match and the supervision of the fire department to remove them and turn them back to neat vacant lots. 3. Water for the future - progress on the Mackenzie Water Authority. Although we didn't begin work on the dam last year, the land was purchased for the lake area and dam site, and we hope to announce letting of contract very soon.

4. More home building in Floydada, Although a few homes were built here in 1971, many more homes are needed. 5. At least one more industry. We didn't get a new industry last year, but two Floydada industries, the Ponderosa Meat Co. and Blanco Offset Printing Inc. received recognition from the governor of Texas for outstanding expansion of their indus-

6. Removal of old appliances near businesses and residences.

Still need some work done here. 7. Overnight camping area near city swimming pool. We'll put this back on our goals. 8. We encourage residents to join together with the city in paving or graveling more streets within the city limits. We saw a lot of progress on this goal in 1971.

9. One more GP medical doctor. We not only achieved this through Dr. Noble Ballard moving here, our entire medical outlook is improved with the announcement of the grant of the Cogdell Clinic to this community

10. A continued effort by Floydada merchants to give better service, good value for the money with a goal of maintaining an outstanding shopping center that will secure a good business climate as the merchants work together to encourage people to shop Floydada. This one we will have to add to our 1972 goals. . . there are far too many people shopping other cities, that should be trading at home. 11. A bigger and better Floyd County Hesperian each Thursday of 1971. (You, the reader, must judge this goal. . .but we'll add it to our 1972 goals). Goals that we feel should be added to the 1972 list include: 1. We will work for legislation to help the farmer receive a better profit on his products, realizing the plight of the farmer is the circumstance of the merchant. If the farmer doesn't make money, he can't come to Floydada and spend it. . . no doubt about it, this is an agricultural economy. 2. We feel the Floydada community can accomplish about anything its people want to do and a cooperative spirit by both the city council and county commissioners court is the first step. We will work with both groups, especially if they will work

3. We continue to pledge our best efforts to help Floydada churches and schools to serve the people of this community.

FLOYD PHILOSOPHER

Claims Woman Senator's Idea Of Work May Set A Dangerous Precedent 1743

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm probably is unnecessarily disturbed over something he read, his letter this week indicates.

Dear editar: According to an article I read during one of the half-times last weekend, when Congress gets back into session shortly the only woman in the United States Senate is going to propose a Constitutional amendment requiring members of Congress to be on hand oftener.

Absenteeism, she said, is the Senate's greatest disgrace and she is going to introduce Constitutional amendment providing for the automatic expulsion of any Senator or House member not present for at least 60 percent of the roll call votes in any session.

This is dangerous legislation and I hope the absent Senators and Congressmen will show up long enough to vote against it.

You require a Senator or a Congressman to work 60 percent of the time and the first thing you know some Washington bureaucrat will get the notion the rule ought to apply to everybody.

I don't want anybody coming out here to my place telling me if I don't work 60 percent of the time I'll be expelled. I can't imagine Congress declaring it's unconstitutional to

Personally I always work more than 60 percent of the time, but I work under my definition of the word, not some woman Sena-

I don't know what Senators and Congressmen do while they're gone 40 percent of the time, outside of running for President, but they've been on hand often enough now to pass more laws that most of us can obey.

Work is something I don't want anybody coming around to tell me what it is, and you can straighten out the grammar if you want to. Mayor Lindsay of New York knows what I'm talking about. While in Florida last week announcing he's running for President and will campaign all around the country, and when asked what about his job as mayor, he said "I'm mayor of New York 24 hours a day, seven days a week."

Those are my sentiments exactly. Irun this place 24 hours a day seven days a week and it'd scare me to death to have some woman Senator come out here and pick my notion of work to pieces with a fine-tooth comb. I admire Senator Margaret Chase Smith of Maine but this time she's gone too far. Yours faithfully,

The stream had been pouring a river of water into the sands at the fault on the J. Q. Johnson place, and was gathering force to continue mastery of the channel down into White River or Catfish Draw.

We hazarded the guess the reason the elapsed time varied so greatly from the hour the water left Plainview, got to the fault in the earth's surface at the Johnson place, then proceeded on down stream, was the wide variance in the dryness of the earth's surface and also on how full the underground reservoir might be.

Saved His Barber Shop

When I wrote about the fire in 1930 that took the Masonic Lodge and other buildings on the west side except two I really should have said three, not two, for Ol Malloy's Barber Shop escaped along with W. M. Massie's land office and the post office.

And possibly I should put Malloy's Barber Shop in Italics since it was the building that figured in saving the other two. For Ol, when it bacame evident the fire was not going to be stopped before it reached him, got some of the boys to help. They hooked on to the shop with a lariat and pulled it out into the Ol told some of his friends later he wished he hadn't moved the shop - just let it go with the rest. I didn't see this. That is what they told me.

IT WAS WORSE THEN Everybody has his own ideas of what makes tough going for a young man. For instance they did not used to send out men and women officially begging young people to take advantage of opportunities for learning, and assuring them that they could depend on a definite program of help. Far from it. The young man, in fact, was told to toil and save and persevere if he wanted to "get ahead." When death claimed Rev. J. F. Nix at Waco and the news told of returning his body to Lubbock for interment, I was reminded that the Nix brothers, J. F. and E. G. came to Floyd

STUDENTS SHOULD REPORT SOCIAL SECURITY CHANGES

Students 18 to 22 who collect social security are reminded to report their earnings and any changes in school enrollment, attendance, or marital status to their social security of-

The reminder comes from social security officials here. "If a student beneficiary leaves school or starts attending on a part-time basis, he needs to notify social security immediately," a spokesman said. "Either of these changes in his status as a student will stop his monthly benefits if he is 18 or over."

A student's total yearly earnings from part-time or temporary jobs as well as self-employment can also affect his benefits, the spokesmen said.

"Any student who knows his earnings for this rear will exceed $1,680 should report this to social security." said. "Otherwise, might receive payments which would have to be made up later."

Social security benefits are reduced by $1 for every $2 if the student beneficiary earns between $1,680 and $2,880 in a year. Benefits are reduced by $1 for every $1 earned if he earns over $2,880 a year.

"A beneficiary can get full benefits for any month he earns less than $140, regardless of how much he earns n a year," the spokesman said.

If a student beneficiary changes schools, he should report his transfer to social security, according to the spokesman.

"And if a student gets married, he should get in touch with us right away," he said "Marriage stops a student's cash payments under social security."

Over 500,000 students, 18 to 22, get monthly social security payments because a parent collects disability or retrement benefits or has died.

THE government cram course on filling out income tax forms goes on sale this month at 15,000 post offices.

The Postal Service said the booklet, "Your Federal Income Tax," will cost 75 cents a copy and will be on sale at first and second class post offices. It includes a sample Form 1040 with explanations for filling in each line.

Another 75-cent publication, "Tax Guide for Small Business," will be sold at a limited number of first class post offices.

Both booklets were prepared by the Internal Revenue Service.

AND speaking of post offices in Los Angeles the post office. mail chauvinism has joined such bygones as the six-cent stamp and the two-cent post card.

Women, who've been sorting and toting the mail for years, are now guarding it as well and investigating postal thefts and frauds.

The Postal Service has 52 women among the 1,300 security guards nationwide. The first was a 27-year-old former judo instructor, Kathryn Prime, who went to work in Philadelphia in December 1970. Los Angeles has nine women guards and is recruiting more.

The need for women guards stems from the large number of women postal employes, said a Postal Service spokesman in Washington. The women guards are able to frisk women suspects, have access to women's rest rooms and keep track of demonstrators outside the buildings.

Women also are becoming postal inspectors. The first two women inspectors in the 234-year history of the service were sworn in at ceremonies in Washington Dec. 17.

The women train alongside the men during a three-week course at the University of Oklahoma. After graduation they earn the same pay as menabout $7,500 a year - wear blue uniforms, visor caps and a butterfly tie and carry a .38caliber pistol. That's womens Monetary support through special self-denial offerings will help make this work possible. Last year the Call to Prayer and Self-Denial offering totaled more than $600,000. Each woman who takes part is asked to save over a length of time and then bring her offering for the designated projects. Women are also requested to pray for the workers and those served by these projects.

The theme for the 1972 Call to Prayer and Self-Denial is "Open Up Your Life!" Material for the Quiet Day, "the time for celebration, a service of dedication," has been prepared by Mary R. Ebinger (Mrs. Warren R.). Missionaries and nationals from around the world have provided much of the basic information for use in talks on mission projects.

The two polling places in Floyd County are the County Courthouse, Floydada, and the Barker Insurance building, Lockney.

Persons who hold a valid voter registration certificate and who reside within the bounds of the District in Floyd County can vote for one candidate for each of the offices of Director and County Committeeman-at-large. However, only qualified voters residing in County Commissioner's Precincts 1 and 3 can vote for one County Committeeman for only that County Commissioner's Precinct in which they re-The election Judges at each of the polling places will have a map showing the area in Floyd County that is within the District, and the County Commissioner's Precincts.

The District covers all or parts of 15 Southern High Plains Counties. It is governed by a 5-member Board of Directors, advised by five Committeemen from each of the 15 counties.

The District issues permits for the drilling of water wells, and regulates the waste of groundwater. It is also responsible for the annual waterlevel measurements, and the water - depletion, income tax allowance program.

Frank Rayner, the District's Manager, noted that the conservation of groundwater is the immediate economic concern of everyone in this area. He urged all qualified voters to exercise their right and responsibility to vote. He observed that, "Good government is no accident, it is a creation of public interest."

Voters in Precinct 1 of Hale County will vote at the Community Center in Petersburg. Candidates for election in Precint 1 of Hale County for County Committeemen are Cling Gregory Jr., Henry Scarborough, and Homer Roberson, nominated to replace J. C. Alford, Harold D. Rhodes, and W. D. Scarborough.

Absentee balloting will be conducted through Friday at the Farm Bureau office in Floydada.

Custom Herbicide Installed

At the present time the Weed District is applying herbicides on fence rows, implement parking lots, and around irrigation wells for weed control. These herbicides give from three to four years control. One mile of fence row will cost approximately $45.00 to $50,

All farmers that are interested in this type of weed control should contact the Weed District office and Campbell stated that he

The City Council's request for $5,000 a year payment from the Commissioners' Court was earlier rejected by the Court, who offered to continue to dig pits or pay $1,500 to $2,000 a

The change in city policy came as a result of the city's purchase of equipment to comply with new state and federal laws governing cities' garbage disposal methods,

The new rulings required that the city switch over January 1 from burning trash to a "landfill" method of disposal, regulated by state and federal governmental agencies.

The Long Awaited Answer

The answer that society has been searching for has been locked up within ourselves for as long as we have been breathing God's air. People on the street corner, at the cotton gin, the large department store or in the church lobby have been passing this question - "What's this world coming to?"

In response to this question, I would like to use the words of Socrates "Let him that would move the world, first move himself,"

Our Lord Jesus Christ used this philosophy to the utmost degree as he said to his disciples. "Rise let us be going . . . " - Matthew 26:46. Looking straight into the face of his betrayer, he walked boldly up and submitted himself into the final portion of his mission.

Let us not look to the community where we live or to the society of which we are members to solve our problems; BUT let us move ourselves to do the thing that we've had locked up within us for so long. Rise! Go hence! Perform your mission in today's world! Move yourself, man, to do that which you know

Remember - "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me." - Phillippians 4:13.

"This region, and the nation as well, needs more electric power not only for growth, but for envrionmental considerations. Electricity is the cleanest of all energies at the point of consumption, and we will need more and more clean energy for sewage and water treatment, disposal of wastes and the solution of other environmental problems," Tolk said in announcing the construction plans.

Generating station additions scheduled for the five-year period will add more than 600,000 kilowatts to the company's power production capability. At the present time, the 11 major power stations produce a little more than 2,000,000 kilowatts.

The first of these capacity additions is already under construction as the second unit at Jones Station, southeast of Lubbock. A 256,000 kilowatt unit, it is scheduled to be in service for the summer of 1974. The first Jones Station generator, also a 256,000 kilowatt unit, went into service earlier this year.

The generating unit planned for 1976 operation is slated to be the company's first 350,000 kilowatt machine. However, the company has "reserved" three capabilities - 250,000, 350,000 and 450,000 - with the manufacturer, and the final decision will be made after all growth factors have been

"We have some interesting options with this 1976 unit. In June of 1972, we will complete an intertie between our company and the Public Service Company of Oklahoma. This is our first major interconnection with another utility. The tie line offers us the opportunity to exchange power; to sell power into power-deficient areas; to install units with larger capacity; and to locate units where fuel and water resources and load balances are most favorable. These are factors of efficiency and economy which are important to our customers, as these factors will be combined to provide the least costly kilowatt hour for our customers," Tolk said. Also, in its continuing efforts to conserve the resources of the region, the company plans to install a combined cycle unit at its Riverview Station, near Borger, in 1973.

The combined cycle unit is a gas turbine capable of producing 25,00 kilowatts of electric power.

The heat that remains in the gas turbine exhaust, after the electric power is produced, is used to provide a major part of the steam requirement for a steam turbine unit at the plant. The result is that more power is generated with less fuel and water as a result of the combination than could be accomplished with the two units operating separately. So there is both fuel and water conservation. Expanding on the intertie with Public Service Company of Oklahoma. Tolk said that the 230,000 volt transmission line would run from Southwestern's Nichols Station, northeast of Amarillo, to Elk City, Oklahoma "We have been responsible for providing our own power resources since this company was formed. I'm happy to say that we have always had an adequate supply and ample

"Isn't it strange that man, highest form of earthly life, does not live as long as some plants and animals? Why does the human body grow old and die? Is this inevitable?" Brandt stated, "Medical science has done much to aid more and more of mankind to live longer. Some humans live exceptionally long, however the Bible shows that man's original life span was unlimited. Evidence of the human brain's capacity and functions, as well as the amazing process of cell
