Over 300 Absent With Flu Yesterday

by absenteeism in Floyd schools this week due to flu has prompted school principals to dismiss classes for remainder of this week, according to Supt. A. E. Baker. Principals say of their individual schools, "the problem is getting worse instead of better," referring to the amount of absentees.

Tuesday 254 students were absent in the four city schools and yesterday there were 313. A number of teachers were reported to also be absent at the schools due to illness. Duncan Elementary School reported 137 absentees yesterday;

Andrews Ward, 68; junior high, 48, and high school, 60. Doctors report an increase in medical patients, mostly due to various types of flu. Several have been admitted to the hospital while a number are confined to their homes. School officials said most of their students complained of being ill with chest congestion, fever, colds complicated by aches and pains of the flu, and stomach upsets. A few cases of chicken pox have also been reported in the schools. Physicians suggest medication and bed rest for the flu victims.

Temporary Arrangement Made On Dump Ground

City, County Sign Year's Contract

County Judge J. K. Holmes and Floydada Mayor Jimmy Seay signed a contract agreement yesterday that broke the dump ground "deadlock" that has closed the dump ground to persons living outside the city limits since January 1, 1972.

The contract is for one year and stipulates that the county will pay the city $1500, plus dig all necessary dump ground pits that the city will need this year.

In return, the city agrees to allow the county residents the privilege of hauling their garbage and trash to the city dump grounds.

The contract reads that out-of-city limits residents must follow the same rules regarding use of the dump grounds as required by city residents.

The contract states that the contract will be re-negotiated on or about October 15. The contract signed yesterday is good until January 15, 1973.

Cancer Crusade Workers Meet

Floyd County Cancer Crusade workers met last week in the home of Mrs. Gene Arwine, county Crusade president.

Plans for the April Crusade were made at the Wednesday morning meeting, as well as plans to attend the district meeting January 25 at the Red Raider Inn in Lubbock.

Several new facets of this year's program were discussed, among them plans to show motion pictures on cancer at the Capada and Seale drive-ins and the Palace Theatre. Also new this year will be a special medical advisor; all Spanish and migrants will be urged to go to the Migrant Health Center for free services and literature.

There is to be a chairman of the Floydada Della Plains area this year, and plans were made to have the Cancer Mobile Unit at the Floyd County Stock Show this spring.

Present at the meeting were Mrs. Arwine, president; Darlean Stovall, secretary; Linda Morris, Floydada Campaign Crusade Chairman; Peggy Probasco, public education chairman for Floydada; Mrs. Ronnie Thornton, public education chairman for Lockney; Jessie Reeves, publicity chairman for Floydada; Carrie Davis, Della Plains chairman; Billie Jordan, service and rehabilitation for Floydada; Anna Dell Quebe, service and rehabilitation for Lockney; and Claude Estes, business chairman.

Neal Smith Buys Tastee Freez

Neal and Joyce Smith have bought the Tastee Freez Drive-In from Elva and Mildred Lake and invite everyone to come by for all kinds of short orders and refreshments.

Smith reports the drive-in (which is located on the Lockney highway) will be open seven days a week, 10 a.m. until 7 p.m. The Lakes express their appreciation to everyone for their patronage and loyalty the two years they operated the Tastee Freez in an advertisement published in this edition of The Hesperian.

Church Buses Furnish Sunday Morning Rides

A "ride-to-church" busing program that started last October with six passengers expanded to a high of 56 riders in December. The First Baptist Church here initiated the project, using the church bus and volunteer drivers and "bus pastors" Al Galloway and Jack Covington. Another bus was purchased in December for the project.

So far only passengers to the First Baptist Church have used the bus service, but of course persons who wish to ride to neighboring churches are welcome to ride the buses, Covington said.

A third bus will possibly be added to the operation in the near future.

The church bus service operates in Floydada and on the outskirts of the city, picking up passengers for Sunday morning services. A light breakfast is served on the bus.

The bus service "thrives on suggestions," Covington said,

W.C. Plumlee Seeks Re Election To Commissioners Office

The Hesperian has been authorized to announce the candidacy of W. C. Plumlee to re-election as commissioner of Precinct 3 in the May Democratic Primary.

In his announcement the candidate states:

"I, W. C. Plumlee, Commissioner Precinct No. 3, wish to announce my candidacy for re-election, subject to the Democratic Primary on May 6. I appreciate deeply the confidence and trust people have placed in me, and I feel the time I have spent and the effort I have made in the past should qualify me to be a better commissioner.

If re-elected, I will continue to devote my time and effort in representing the people of Precinct No. 3.

I will definitely appreciate your support and confidence in the coming election.

W. C. Plumlee"

3.76 In '76 Week Proclaimed

Cash income to farmers and ranchers in Floyd County should be more than $33,558,000 by the end of 1976, according to Doyle G. Warren, county agricultural agent.

This will be an increase of more than $10,755,000 from 1968-69 figures, with grain sorghum contributing a large part of the gain. The projections are based on studies of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and are part of the "3.76 in '76" program, a state-wide project to increase Texas agricultural cash receipts by more than $1 billion.

Total cash receipts from all agricultural enterprises in Floyd County are presently about $35,000,000, says Warren. The most important ones are grain sorghum, cotton, and beef cattle. They are expected to account for about 70 percent of the projected 1976 totals.

The county will be aided in its production efforts by the Floyd County Program Building Committee and South Plains Development Program. Extension specialists will hold conferences in Floyd County and on the South Plains through the spring to discuss improved production of crops and livestock.

These projections are based on estimates from the County Program Building Committee after separate predictions were made by Extension economists. The figures were published for each county, Extension district and economic area in Texas.

Floyd County Museum Acquires Deed To Surginer Building

After months of legal red tape the Floyd County Museum has acquired the deed of the Surginer building which will house many mementoes of early day pioneers.

The museum committee has been working in the building the past several weeks and were joined this week by members of the Green Thumb on a remodeling project.

The two story building, known in the early days as Surginer Hardware Store, was donated for a Floyd County museum by a son of the late Carr Surginer, Leslie of Washington, D. C., a sister of Carr Surginer, Mrs. Rachael Ivy of Graham, and a nephew, Garner Surginer of Corpus Christi.

Plans for the remodeling have been drawn up by Ted Bell and Eli Neff of Floydada, Joe Parrish and Dee Copeland of Lockney. It calls for the front of the museum to be styled as an old ranch home complete with porch and hitching post using ship lap lumber.

Housed on the inside will be a replica of the old Thomas Montgomery ranch home and antiques which are being loaned or given the museum by individuals and families. The Historical Society of Floydada High School will fill a booth with antique toys. Rems from the families of Homer Steen, Ulmer White, Earl Pierce and the Surginers have been done SEE MUSEUM, PAGE 8

WORK STARTED ON MUSEUM BUILDING . . . The Floyd County Green Thumb crew started cleanup operations last week on the building in downtown Floydada which will house the Floyd County Historical Museum. The Green Thumb crew works throughout the county for tax-supported agencies such as cities, the county, and schools, and sometimes, such as on this project, for foundations such as the Museum Association. The crew, left to right, includes: Allen Rendon, foreman; Floyd Fuqua; Francisco Granados, safety monitor; Casimiro Nava, Jose Rodriguez and H. O. Ginn. ## Caprock Chat

BY WENDELL TOOLEY

I AM CONTINUALLY amazed at the new songs that are heard . . . heard some this week that I thought were unusual and humorous. There's an old boy trying to quit smoking, he makes all sorts of resolutions to quit, he says, "I wish I could think of something bad to say about cigarettes. . . .boof cigarettes."

There's a real sad song about the little boy who was so poor he looked up to the people on welfare. . . . "there wouldn't be no drivers, if it wasn't for us trucks!"

MADE A ROUND of visitation at Methodist Hospital Monday. I visited John Reue, Patsy Webb and E. J. Kinslow. I hope E. J. was comparing room costs at Methodist with Caprock Hospital. . . .believe he was paying $50 a day there, and Caprock charges $35.00. I'd make this comparison. . . .Caprock's rooms are larger and more luxurious. . . .we just had the specialist doctors that Methodist has. . . .doubt E. J. would be in Caprock Hospital.

WELL, WHEN ARE THEY going to begin construction of Massie Activity Center? I hear this question quite often. I visited with the contractor while in Lubbock Monday. Reports that as soon as the air conditioning and heating bids in, construction will begin. So. . . .it shouldn't be very long now, until you'll see some action on "MAC".

ENRICO PIZZINI, now of the Pete Hickerson home, formerly Milan, Italy enjoyed a 15 minute telephone conversation with parents Christmas. Wanda Hickerson reports that she didn't know what they were saying, but it was exciting, joyful and extremely "high speed" conversation.

Think it is pretty well known that the Italian people are very emotional, very expressive, exciting conversationalists. . . .the first night we were in Rome, shortly after midnight we bounced out of our beds. . . .all sorts of bedlam broke out. . . .people were screaming, horns were honking, sirens, church bells were ringing all over the city.

At the time, it sounded like an American New Year's celebration. The next morning I learned that the Italian soccer team won an important game.

On Sunday morning I got to wondering about that game. I called Enrico for the full details. He remembered well it was June of 1970. The Italian team was playing the German team in the world's semi-finals. A former Italian soccer player was playing on the German team and it was his job to tie the contest 3-3. So, overtime play was set and the final moments of overtime, an Italian player shot the winning score and Italy won 4-3.

Enrico explained that the next night, it was sorta quiet all over Italy, as the Italian team lost to Brazil for the world's championship.

SERIOUSLY considered calling my neighbor Howard Gregory in the middle of a serious play during the Super Bowl on Sunday afternoon. However, I doubt he would have left me to answer the phone.

I didn't really expect Cowboy coach Tom Landry to toss his hat in the air with excitement when the game was over, but I was glad to see him smiling as his team carried him out of the stadium.

AND THEN we get a call that brightens our day. . . . as the one I received Tuesday from Ella Goodwin, who recently moved here with her family from Lubbock.

She was most complimentary of Bob Kirk and the folk at our Natural Gas for turning on the gas after hours when she moved over here, and her children find the Floydada of children very friendly.

She compares these experiences with living in the big city and LIKES FLOYDADA MUCH BETTER!

We welcome the Goodwins to Floydada. . . .and we can vouch for Floydada, we've enjoyed living here for over nine years.

'Winds Beat Olton

The Floydada Whirlwinds got off to a slow start here Tuesday night but found the range in the second half and handed the Olton Mustangs a 69-50 basketball defeat.

Olton held the halftime lead, 25-23, after leading 13-11 at the start of the second quarter. The 'Winds came back in the last half with a pressing defense and a 43 percent shooting effort, and led 43-37 at the three-quarter mark.

Charles Jackson topped the Whirlwind scorers with 20 points. Erick Jones and Langston Williams had 12 each, and Walter Harris put in 10. The victory brought the 'Winds' season record to 17-3, and their District 3-AA record to three wins and three losses. They travel to Lockney Friday for another district game.

JV WINS

The junior varsity beat Olton 53-46. The game was tied 20-all at halftime and 33-all going into the last quarter.

Larry Jackson's 17 points led the 'Wind JV; Marc Smitherman scored 13 and Travis

Johnson 12. Jackson grabbed nine rebounds and four steals, Johnson stole the ball six times, and Smitherman got three steals for the 'Winds.

'Winds Handle Littlefield 74-49

Langston Williams scored 31 points Friday night, leading the Floydada Whirlwinds to a 74-49 basketball victory over District 3-AA foe Littlefield.

Charles Jackson added 18 points and grabbed 11 rebounds for the 'Winds. Leslie Robertson gathered in nine rebounds and had three steals and three assists.

Floydada hit on 48 percent of its field goal attempts, the best percentage of the year for the 'Winds.

The Whirlwinds held a 20-8 lead at the end of the first quarter, increased the lead to 18 points (34-16) at halftime, and held a 20-point lead starting the last period.

JV Takes Paducah Tournament Title

The Whirlwind Junior Varsity took home the first-place trophy from the Paducah JV Basketball Tournament last weekend, posting wins over Memphis and Wellington.

Memphis held a one-point lead after three quarters.

Larry Jackson hit for 13 points in the game, and Travis Johnson had 11.

Jackson hit two of two free throws in overtime, and Mike Hatley sank one free throw. Memphis got their two overtime points on a single field goal.

In the championship game against Wellington, Jackson and Johnson split 38 points and Marc Smitherman added 12 as the Whirlwinds posted a 63-52 victory.

It was 16-14 Wellington after one quarter, but Floydada led 29-27 at the half and 47-43 going into the final period. The Whirlwind JV won again on what they've been going on all year, according to Coach Joe Paty - hustle. That hustle, and a fat free-throw percentage (73 percent in the first game and 78 percent in the second) gave the 'Winds the tournament.

Smitherman, in the two games, gathered in 25 rebounds, and Jackson pulled down 36.

Frenship Ekes By Whirlettes

In a game played last Friday night at Frenship, the Whirlettes were defeated 34-33. The game was scheduled to be played at Floydada, but the Frenship coach misread the schedule and thought it was scheduled at Frenship. The Frenship girls had a conflict after school and couldn't get out of it, so Coach Ford agreed to take the Whirlettes to Frenship in order to keep from having to cancel the game.

Janette Conwright had 14 points and Denise Chadwick tossed in 12 in the effort. Sonja Curry and Denise Chadwick led in the defensive effort with 6 rebounds and 3 steals apiece. The JV Whirlettes did manage to defeat the Frenship JV. The score was 23-18. Charlotte Nelson had 16 points and Terry Stovall tossed in 12. Margwyne Giles pulled in 6 rebounds and 4 steals.

JV Whirlettes Defeated By Aspermont In Overtime

The JV Whirlettes drew a bye in the first round of the Paducah JV tourney and played Aspermont in the semi-finals Saturday morning. The Floydada girls jumped out to a 16-9 first quarter lead and led 22-16 at half-time. The JV Whirlettes led after 3 quarters 26-25, but the score was tied at end of regulation 37 all. Final score was 43-41 in Aspermont's favor. Charlotte Nelson scored 24

JV, 9th Girls Beat Littlefield

In games played here Monday night, the JV Whirlettes and Freshman Whirlettes were victorious over Littlefield. The JV which led all the way, won by a score of 55-25. Charlotte Nelson totaled 31 points and Terry Stovall added 20 points. Miss Stovall played an outstanding game as she also collected 14 rebounds and had 8 steals to lead the defensive effort. Margwyne Giles collected 3 rebounds and 2 steals. The JV season record is now 6-5 and next action comes Thursday in the Slaton JV tourney.

defeating Olton here Tuesday night, 34-30. The victory averted a one-point loss to Olton in the opening game of the first round.

The score was tied 8-all at the end of the first quarter. The Whirlettes hit six field goals and Olton only two in the second quarter, and Floydada led at halftime 22-15. The Whirlettes hit only one of 12 field goal attempts in the third quarter, and Olton closed the score to 27-25. The Whirlettes maintained the lead in the fourth quarter and led 32-28 with two minutes to go.

The Whirlettes began the delay game and Olton fouled Denise Chadwick. She missed the first of a one-and-one, but the Whirlettes got the rebound. They went into the delay game again and Janette Conwright was fouled. She hit both ends of the one-and-one to give the Whirlettes a 34-28 lead. Olton hit another basket to make the final score read 34-30.

Denise Chadwick led all scorers with 17 points for Floydada. Nancy Puckett, playing with a hurt ankle, hit nine points, and Janette Conwright added eight.

The defensive effort was a good team effort led by guards Debra Baird, Cindy Moore, Sonja Curry and Gaye Hammonds.

The Whirlettes have a good season record of 14 wins and eight losses. Their district record is four wins and two losses. The Whirlettes travel to Lockney Friday and host Dimmitt next Tuesday. Both are important district games for the Whirlettes.

Wind Freshmen Take First At Crosbyton Tournament

The Whirlwind freshmen took the first-place trophy in the Crosbyton Freshman Basketball Tournament last weekend. MacArthur Mitchell was named the most valuable player of the tournament, and Rex Yearly was selected to the all-tournament team.

The 'Winds opened with a 58-

50 win over New Deal Thursday. Floydada held all the way to period - Crosbyton lead after a quarter - halftime edge, and going into the fourth quarter. Mitchell was high for the Whirlwinds. Mike Vickers added and Yearly had 10.

Whirlettes Win Consolation

The Freshman Whirlettes were defeated in the opening round of the Crosbyton tournament by New Deal 39-33. Karen West tossed in 16 points and Karen Aldredge pulled in 7 rebounds.

In the consolation game played Saturday afternoon, the Floydada Freshmen defeated Lorenzo 27-13. Karen West, who made the all-tourney team, again had 16 points. Carol Cozy and Dianna Grimes pulled in 5 rebound apiece.

Breezettes Beat Littlefield

The Floydada Junior High basketball girls beat Littlefield in a pair of games played here Monday night.

The FJHS seventh graders shut out Littlefield in the first quarter, 14-0, and coasted to a 22-2 lead at halftime. It was 30-6 after three quarters and 42-12 at the end of the game.

Five players scored for Floydada in a game that saw the scoring evenly divided among the Breezettes.

The eighth grade girls were easy 39-22 victors over Littlefield.

Deby Johnson's 20 points led the Breezette offense, and Verna Newton gathered in four rebounds and two steals to pace the defense.

What are the ominous direction for winds to blow from? Can useful weather information be obtained from the use of a wind vane only?

The worst weather in the United States often follows winds out of the east or north. Yes, it's possible to detect valuable clues about the weather using only a wind vane. If one will combine the vane with a barometer, the accuracy of predictions will be raised many times.

However, with only a wind vane, be suspicious of a wind change from the east to the north. If the sky looks threatening (or a barometer reading shows pressure falling) you might well be in for a bad storm.

Seventh Graders In Tulia Tournament

The Floydada seventh graders were in the Tulia Grade Tournament and came back to a 20-0 contest.

Olton downed the seventh graders 23-17, but the Breezettes came back and won 27-17. Rickey Carthel led the team with 14 points.

For Floydada in the game, Steve Westbrooke had seven, and the rest of the team was evenly split. The Breezettes played here Monday night.

Littlefield Boys Game

Weakened by the Tulsa Junior High basketball teams fell Monday night.

The seventh graders dropped a 23-17 defeat leading at the half quarter marks.

Rickey Carthel had Steve Westbrooke and Patterson three. In the eighth grade Littlefield was victor 27-22 score.

The Floydada boys also lost, 60-42, to MacArthur Mitchell. Floydada scored 10 points, Rex Yearly and Mike Vickers 10.

If misplaced telephone numbers give you problems, here are suggestions that can help you.

1. Underline those special numbers in your directory.
2. Keep the phone book near the phone.
3. Have a pencil and paper handy when you talk so you can jot down numbers you may need again.
4. Maintain your own personal directory of frequently called numbers.

No big deal, but those suggestions can save you time and make calling easier.

Do you really want your brother-in-law to know how much you earned last year?

Of course not. It's nobody's business but your own.

However, annually millions of taxpayers bear this kind of personal information to people who really shouldn't know. For what? Just so they can save a few dollars doing their income tax.

That's some price to pay.

You see, for only a few dollars more than it costs to do it with any amateur who might not know that work clothes in some instances are deductible, or that income averaging might save tax dollars, you can have your tax return done by a specially trained member of the H & R Block team with complete confidentiality. There are thousands of them in over 6,000 conveniently located offices. H & R Block's fees start at $5 and the average cost was under $12.50 for the 7 million families we served last year.

76 IN '76 PROCLAIMED IN TEXAS. . . . Dr. John E. Hutchison, director of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, and Governor Pres. Smith look at the proclamation.

3.76 In 76 Means To The Consumer

The current state-wide projection to increase agricultural production in Texas to $3.76 billion in 1976 is geared to help the agriculture industry - but does it mean to the consumer?

Consumers are concerned an assurance of adequate supply, and 3.76 in '76 program of growth," says W. E. Black, Extension Specialist - management at A&M University. He says the program is limited because the increasing amount of land used in agricultural production. Guidelines in the program meant to increase production and improve quality," Dr. Black says of the project which seeks to increase cash receipts to agriculture by one billion dollars at the end of the 1976 crop year.

The increase in production and cash receipts will benefit the consumer as well as the producer. Food prices will undoubtedly reflect an increased efficiency in production and marketing as costly practices in current use are improved or eliminated.

Technology in production and food preparation will be reflected in food prices, although cost of individual items will also be determined by the amount of preparation before purchase by the consumer. This would include special services such as pre-cooking and specialty packaging.

Farmers will gear their production to specific markets that are dictated by consumers' preferences. This in turn will provide consumers with higher quality foods in greater amounts at stable prices.

COUNTY AGENT'S CORNER

By Doyle Warren

A statewide program to increase Texas agricultural income by more than a billion dollars by 1976 was announced by Dr. John E. Hutchison, director, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, in January 1970.

This goal calls for $3.76 billion in total cash receipts by the end of the 1976 crop year, not including government payments. It was determined from projections by Extension specialists and individuals in the agricultural industry. A committee of agricultural economists with the Extension Service studied past production records and made projections for 1976 based on current trends and expected improvements in technology and marketing.

Projections on an individual county basis were made by Program Building Committees, composed of businessmen and producers. The expectations were then organized along county, Extension district and economic area lines to give the state's producers specific projection goals. Annual goals also were determined for the various agricultural commodity groups to allow a yearly measure of the program's success.

Texas presently accounts for about five percent of the total national agricultural cash receipts. To achieve the goal of "3.76 in '76," the state must claim almost 10 percent of the projected national increase in the coming years. Extension specialists and county agricultural agents are conducting meetings with Texas producers to help them with new advancements in technology and marketing in their respective areas.

Flu Count Indicates Bug Is Back

ATLANTA, Ga. — The bug is back.

And, "if you just feel like heck, you've probably got the flu," says a spokesman for the National Center for Disease Control in Atlanta.

Hong Kong flu, which killed 27,900 persons the last time it toured the United States in 1968-69, has returned, the center says.

The first signs of a flu epidemic appeared several weeks ago and a nationwide survey conducted by the center revealed that Hong Kong flu has been diagnosed in 22 states, the District of Columbia and New York City.

The center said there are two major types of influenza viruses making the round this winter—type A2 Hong Kong and type B. The victim, however, can't tell the difference; the viruses are distinguishable only in the laboratory.

The center said that, of the confirmed Hong Kong cases this year, the outbreak is widespread only in Rhode Island, Connecticut and New Jersey. Regional outbreaks are reported in Michigan and Wisconsin.

Isolated cases have been found in the District of Columbia, New York City, Maine, Vermont, New York State, Illinois, Ohio, Kansas, Iowa, South Dakota, Florida, Tennessee, Texas, Louisiana, Colorado, Utah, Montana, California and Oregon.

Texans Get Insurance Rules Break

ST. LUIS, Mo. — Texas' fear of arbitrary cancellations or non-renewals of their household insurance were ended at least some protection Thursday by the State Insurance Board.

The board issued new rules, effective Feb. 1, sharply limiting the right of a company to cancel a policy.

It required 30 days notice to a policyholder if a company is not to renew his coverage.

Legislators advocated at a board hearing, and critics are likely to follow.

Under the rules, an insurance company cannot cancel a family automobile policy which has in effect 60 days except for non-payment of premium or violation of one's driver's license or car registration.

Homeowners, fire or other policies could be cancelled after 60 days only for non-payment of premiums, an increase in hazard or a deterioration by the board that could encourage the policy to violate the Texas Insurance Code.

The rule did not specify how long such a policy would remain in force.

Once an automobile policy has been in effect 60 days an insurance company must continue it in force for a year.

And before the company can refuse to renew an automobile policy, it must give the customer 30 days' notice.

Age No Criteria Non-renewal of an auto policy merely because of the driver's age is forbidden by the rules.

Companies cannot cancel any policy out of a desire to withdraw from an area or a given line of insurance.

At the Dec. 8 hearing, Sen. Mike McKool of Dallas, a recurring critic of insurance companies, urged the board to prohibit non-renewals "except for just cause."

Sen. Oscar Mauzy of Dallas and Rep. Charles Tupper of Dallas made similar pleas.

But the board placed no limits on non-renewals other than the 30-day notice requirement and the age rule.

A board source said state law did not permit the board to go further than that on non-renewals.

"Under the law, we could not require a company to issue an insurance policy," he said.

Must Keep Records The board did require companies to keep "sufficient underwriting information" on cancellations and non-renewals for instant inspection by the board. This information, presumably, would tell the board reasons for withdrawing coverage from a policyholder.

Board chairman Larry Teaver said at the Dec. 8 hearing that insurance companies who cancel policies within the 60-day free cancellation period should be required to tell their policyholders why.

But Teaver's recommendation was not included in the board order.

The 1971 legislature turned down strongly worded bills to curtail non-renewals and cancellations, passing instead a bill giving the board power to issue rules on the subject.

THE HOVERTRAIN London—The hovertrain, the revolutionary British designed train has been designed to ride on a cushion of air. Developed at a cost so far of $12.5 million, it is expected to open a new era in land travel.

an Spraberry, 22, has named manager of Perry Variety Store in Lamesa. He succeeds John Perry, who was transferred to Perry Brothers store in Lamesa. Spraberry, a native of Cross-texas, was assistant manager of Perry's Plainview store before assuming manager's duties January 12. In two with Perry Brothers, Spraberry worked at stores in Dimmitt, Lamesa and Hereford. He and his wife, Janice, have a four-month-old daughter, Staci. The family is living in Plainview until they can find a home in Floydada. They list their religious affiliation as Baptist.

Tight security planned for Chinese party here.

WINTER NEWS by Mrs. J.E. Green

had some cold days and last week, but it's clearer today. The grader is on 14th Street and we'll be ready to cope with more hope. Dale Millers were in Saturday visiting the Roy and Mrs. W. C. Let's all join in together to sing the birthday song... To let these know we love them... And cheer them on and on! The reading of the above poem initiated the monthly birthday party at the rest home, hosted by ladies of the City Park Church of Christ. The combined ages of those honored was 553 years. The table was laid with a white cloth and centered with a pink, artificial floral arrangement. Special cards marked places for the honorees at the "honor" table. Mr. Long was unable to attend but was served in his room. A refreshment plate of delicious cake and fruit punch was served to residents of the home and to a number of guests. The ladies of the church had a delightful surprise awaiting us because of the thoughtfulness of Mr. Ray Reed, a resident of the home, who provided us with a huge, and most delicious box of chocolates. Thank you, Mr. Reed, from the bottom of our hearts, and to all of you for making it such a pleasure for us to have the party. The accompanying note on the candy is most highly appreciated by us. It reads: WE THE PA-TIENTS OF THE HOME GIVE THE BOX OF CANDY TO THE LADIES THAT MAKE OUR BIRTHDAY PARTIES SO NICE WITH VERSES FOR MIND, FOOD FOR THE BODY AND LOVE FOR THE SOUL. A nicer tribute could not be paid and again we say thank you, thank you. The next party will be February 18, Friday, 2:30 p.m. You are invited to be with us.

GOLDEN GLEAMS

That name, that idle name of wind, that empty sound called honor. -Samuel Daniel.

He who has lost honor can lose nothing more. -Publius Syrus.

If it be a sin to covet honor, I am the most offending soul alive. -Shakespeare.

An ill deed cannot bring honor. -George Herbert.

No man can justly aspire to honor but at the hazard of disgrace. -Samuel Johnson.

Nothing is lost except our honor. -Byron.

It is gone, that sensibility of principle, that chastity of honor, which felt a stain like a wound. -Edmund Bruke.

NOW that the Cowboys have wrapped up the World Championship, stickers are being made reading "Landry for President." Roger Staubach was seen "out walking" after receiving a new car for being named most valuable player and then someone always has a joke ready, like the woman at the Super Bowl with a vacant seat next to her. Curiosity got the best of a man nearby and he asked the woman, "Why didn't your husband come to the game?" She said "he is dead." Offering his condolence the man continued, "I'm sorry to hear that, couldn't you bring a relative?" "No," she stated, "They are all at my husband's funeral"!!!!

SO much has been reported recently about the devastating effects of smoking, such as smokers develop wrinkles sooner than non-smokers, etc., that a reassuring word has been spoken for the smokers. Word from a researcher who claims a study of brain activities shows cigarette smokers may be more aware, more energetic and more intelligent than people who don't smoke. Non-smokers will probably say they couldn't be too intelligent or they wouldn't still be smoking, and they will probably think the tobacco people footed the bill for the study, which by the way, they did.

Wyatt McLaughlin of Lockney sent a clipping to the Amarillo Daily News A to Ezzard column of a Dallas fellow wanting some data on the weather from the San Antonio News. The columnist of the San Antonio News replied to the fellow that his best bet would be to go through old newspaper files and continued that the Brownsville Chamber of Commerce thinks the worst storm on record was Feb. 14-15, 1895 when six inches of snow covered the area 'clear from Olmito and over to Port Isabel. The Laguna Madre is supposed to have frozen over in this cold spell, and the cattle froze standing up all the way to the Gulf of Mexico. The columnist stated to the query "If it was that cold in Brownsville, think how cold it must have been in Amarillo!"

Wes Ezzard says Amarillo actually has never come within 20 degrees of the lowest temperature ever recorded in Texas. He said the coldest ever recorded was 33 degrees below zero in Seminole. The Texas Almanac shows the coldest winter ever recorded in the state occurred first at Tulia Feb. 12, 1899 a little south of Amarillo, and at Seminole Feb. 8, 1933. Both recorded 23 degrees below zero. Hale Center is still credited with the greatest single storm and the greatest monthly snowfall of 36 in-

STARTED out on a job contacting persons to see what their greatest wish for '72 is and bogged down somewhere. Percentage wise most wished for peace in the world and better understanding of our fellowman. One fellow I contacted gave me a "cutie of a wish" then flatly stated, "Don't print that." Of course I wouldn't after that, but wish I could. One wish given me by Floyd Bradford, stands out more in my mind than others. His wish "For all to turn to Christ more, it will solve all our problems." *****

IN the story in this week's Hesperian of Dane Clark, we have his parents listed as residing in Lamesa. Mr. and Mrs. Pete Clark live in Santa Fe, N.M., and are former residents of Floydada and Lamesa. *****
THE dusty winds which blew into the Floydada area one day last week must have brought back memories to many, of the dust bowl days. One old timer recalled that a wind in the early 1930s here disrupted the Harley Sadler show, in fact it put him into bankruptcy. The wind storm scattered props, costumes and tent poles all over town. The spokesman said he had hoed cotton for many weeks, making money to attend the show, which was some sort of a treat back then for youngsters. The spokesman said this was during the depression days and when West Texas was in the grip of a drouth. Women stayed home because they had no clothes to wear. Men dressed in faded overalls and cussed the administration, eggs were selling for five cents a dozen, hogs, two and half cents a pound and cream seven cents a gallon. The old town square has seen many changes since Mayor Billy Montgomery measured off the prairie and marked it with mesquite brush.

I WAS SURPRISED to read in the Lubbock newspaper a week or two ago that their mayor and councilmen receive no more salary than Floydada's city council. I supposed the larger the town, the larger the salary.

If I interpreted the story correctly the busy Lubbock mayor receives $75 a month, councilmen receive $25 a month.

MOST MEN SPEND a lot of their time searching for an ideal. Consciously or unconsciously, they are constantly trying to improve on things they come in contact with every day.

We want to find an ideal tailor, an ideal wife, an ideal dog, but we are too well aware of the fact that these are merely unrealizable daydreams. But there is one area that I've felt strongly about for years and that is finding the ideal doctor.

I arrive at my doctor's office, idly leaf through several magazines whose feature articles debate the feasibility of the trans-oceanic dirigible and tout the safety features of the newly-launched Lusitania. In time I am called to the inner chamber.

The doctor and I look each other over. I am there because I'm red-eyed from fatigue and my hands are trembling from over-work. I notice that the doctor is red-eyed from fatigue and his hands are trembling from over-work.

Alone, at home, I carefully unfold the note and, thanks to my year of study at a military crypto-analytic school, I read his recommendation. Take immediately, I new Orvis Battenkill rod, complete with balanced line and reel.

This is the finest example of the legend of "Do unto others," and, of course, gets right to the heart of the problem. But how many doctors have any knowledge of the personal tragedy of a man who has gone through life this underprivileged?

Gene Hill, whose monthly column is appearing for the first time in this issue, describes himself as a slightly overweight male, who seems normal in most physical respects. His personal complaint is a history of too little golf, fishing, hunting and too many hours spent over a typewriter pretending to work.

I RECEIVED a letter and copy of the Amsterdam newspaper from L. V. Assiter recently and although I was unable to read the Dutch newspaper "Elseviers Weekblad" L. V. had written an interpretation for me.

It seems that The Austin Company, consulting, engineering and construction firm for which L. V. works is the original founder of the "turn key system."

MOST OF US in this area know where "Heckville" is; however, Frank Tolbert recently wrote in his Dallas Morning News column his visit to Heckville. I reprint it here for your enjoyment:

"Heckville, Texas, is in an autumnal setting of flat, cultivated fields, some of them tweed-like in coloration because the cotton-picking machines failed to cut myriads of white, open bolts on brown, brittle cotton stalks.

Heckville is on Farm Road 400, north of Malou and Kitalou, and just west of Estacado (for Llano Estacado or The Staked Plain), the old Quaker town founded by Frank Brown, a famous frontiersman who later moved down Houston way and started the town of Friendswood.

Inside the store, Mrs. Osborn said: "That fellow was just kidding you. Heck, no! Heckville was named in honor of my friend, Judge Henry Heck. Judge Heck used to live here but he sold out and moved away. Now he's county judge over at Plainview. I should know about Heckville. I came here when Heck did."

Some of the gaudiest of earth and cloud colors were in view when I came down out of the Panhandle highlands on a day last week after rains measuring up to 5 inches on the plains. And I drove through the canyon country along the Prairie Dog Town Fork of the Fred River in Briscoe and Hall Counties between Clarendon and Turkey.

Broken fleets of clouds lingered over this land after the rain. The clouds were basically white yet often inflamed red and pink by the warming sun.

The Prairie Dog Town Fork of the Red River comes down out of Palo Duro Canyon, which is a gorge more than 1,000 feet at its deepest. The heavy rains had drained down from the plains through arroyos and along such streams as Troublesome and Hardscrabble and Bull Run creeks.

In the valley of the Prairie Dog Town Fork on the highway between Clarendon and Turkey town, the canyon walls rise about 400 feet in tortured, eroded patterns and mostly as red as a mature chili pepper pod in color although with slashes of white, perhaps caliche.

The bed of the stream is an incredible shade of red. And with a heavy flow the highly mineralized waters of the Prairie Dog Town Fork seems thick as lava.

The old Comanches wouldn't recognize their campsite at the head of Blanco Canyon now for it is the site of the Floydada Country Club.

Floydada town incidentally was named for two personalities who never met: (1) Dolphin Floyd slain in the Alamo in 1836, and (2) Mrs. Ada Price, whose family, from Jefferson, Missouri, donated the townsite in the 1890's.

OUR NEWSPAPERMAN FRIEND, Ben Ezzell of Canadian, had some comments that we felt were appropriate for Friona in his column of November 4. We quote editor Ezzell herewith: "An out-of-state publisher, judging newspaper contests in the Texas Panhandle, once criticized area editors for 'giving too much space and prominence to football' in their small-town weekly newspapers. The man obviously was not familiar with Texas in the Fall.

"The same criticism might be applied to eastern newspapers for 'giving too much space and prominence' to the World Series... and it wouldn't be any further off base. In Texas high school circles, the 'World Series' takes place almost every weekend on countless gridirons all over the state... and interest and excitement build in intensity as September fades into October, and reaches a peak as the championships go on the line in November.

"Over-emphasis on football? Maybe. But the newspapers which give the most coverage to the events which interest the greatest number of their readers don't over-emphasize football... they just keep in step with the public pulse. In Texas in the Fall, Football is the name of the game.

"Here on The Record, we give a lot of space every fall to the gridiron successes (and sometimes failures) of the Canadian Wildcats; and spend a substantial part of the editorial budget covering and photographing the high school games... not because the editorial staff thinks that football is necessarily the most important thing that's going on, but because newspaper sales indicate that this is where a substantial amount of reader interest lies. And in the newspaper business, this is the name of the game.

"Any event for which hundreds of people will drive scores... or hundreds... of miles to witness, and do it under the most inclement of weather conditions... freezing rain, ankle-deep mud, pea-soup fog and icy northers... has got to be rated as important news. And so we regularly drive those miles, and brave those winds, and freeze our fingers and ears and toes, and walk for miles up and down sidelines in order to get photos and take notes and compile statistics because we think that a substantial number of the folks who shell out good money

Hesperian Staff To Present Program At State Press Convention

The Hesperian staff will present a musical program for "Western Night" at the Texas Press Convention Friday night in Fort Worth.

The group includes Carolyn Sellars, Sharron Huggins, piano; James Huggins and Wendell Tooley, guitars; Art Ratzlaff, steel guitar. Slaton editor-publisher Dalton Wood will also join the group with his banjo and saxophone.

The Floyd County Hesperian Floydada, Texas 79235

Enclosed is my check in the amount of $6.00 for a one year subscription in the name as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Andy Owens, 106 North 1st Street, Healdton, Oklahoma 73438.

This is my grandfather and grandmother who used to live in Floydada and they really enjoy getting the newspaper. By the way, my grandfather's birthday is February 1 and I think he would really get a kick out of seeing a "Happy Birthday" wish in the paper for him. I hope this can be possible.

A few more news items you might like to include since they lived in Floydada for so many years and know a lot of people in my grandfather had major surgery in the Ardmore, Oklahoma hospital back in the last part of August and approximately three weeks after the surgery, went back into the hospital and had major eye surgery. He was home in just four days after the last surgery and is doing very well and looks better than he has in years. My grandmother survived all of this hospital business and is doing real well. All their children and grandchildren from different states (California, Colorado, New Mexico and Texas) were there with my grandfather for both of his surgeries.

I want to thank you for taking a few minutes of your time to read this and hope that you can put it in your paper so that when he receives the paper he will see it. They both really miss Floydada and all the friends they have living there. Before their subscription ran out they looked forward to receiving their Floyd County Hesperian.

By the way, I used to be a member of your community for a few months and went to school in the first grade there. Thank you again for your attention.

Sincerely, /s/ Tona Payne Mrs. Tona Payne P.O. Box 41 Sanger, Texas 76266 to buy The Canadian Record every week are interested in these things.

"We try not to neglect other facets of community news during the football season, because we don't think that football is the single most important thing that's going on in Canadian, Texas, these weeks... but if it were put to a vote, we suspect that a majority of people in this community might disagree with the editor on that score, too.

"It's no great hardship, anyway, to follow the Canadian Wildcats this season, because they've been a most interesting team to watch... and we must admit that when they win those games it makes those long trips home from the out-of-town dates a whole lot shorter than they used to be when they were losing. And having followed his team through 23 seasons now, including a long string of years when they were losing mightily regularly, we claim to be an expert on that score.

"The Record has covered every varsity game for the past 21 years, to our certain knowledge... and the editor has covered all but two of them personally... so we've got almost as good an attendance record as Perry Hazlewood has.

"But we've gotta confess: it isn't entirely love of football that keeps us going when the weather gets rough and the team is losing. It's a stubborn idea that the job of a home-town newspaper is to report what's going on with the home folks... and on Friday nights in a Texas Fall, that's where the action is." (Friona Star)

JOHN WAS rather careless with the dynamite in the quarry and let a stick drop. The whole box went up, taking John with it. A short time later the foreman came by and asked, "Where's John?" "He's gone," answered a fellow-worker.

"When will he be back?" queried the foreman. "Well, sir," responded the other, "if he comes back as fast as he left, he'll be back day before yesterday."

A teacher one day took her class of small pupils through the museum of natural history at State Fair Park in Dallas to see the mounted birds and animals.

"Well, how was school today?" asked one of the boys' mothers that evening. "It was great!" declared the lad joyfully. "Teacher took us to see a dead circus."

FLOYD PHILOSOPHER Gets Off On, Of All Things The Big Literary Hubbub Over A Book

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson farm may be getting in over his depth this week, but probably not the last time.

Dear editor: A book-reading friend of mine has spent considerably lately trying to figure out the great Howard Hughes whether the biography coming out about him is accurate or whether that was Hughes on the telephone with all those deniers denying he'd ever heard of the man who wrote it.

What this friend doesn't understand is that the selling of oil cuts across all levels of society. Whether your patent medicine from the back of a covered wagon or a T.V. color camera via satellite, the ingredients remain the same and the percentage of suckers remains constant. You're selling books, the vocabulary of the audience and the gullibility percentage remains constant. This is the first law of human nature.

According to an article I remember reading in a few weeks ago, there were 35,000 different books published in the United States last year, or nearly 100 a day. Since that time more than any one person could read in a lifetime if he didn't watch television, slept very little, and subscribed to the Hesperian, naturally the few books that were bought in the thousands require some of the selling inherited from the men who sold from the backs of covered wagons.

If the writer who said he interviewed Mr. Hughes around the country really did, it looks like some of his would have been left somewhere. If Mr. Hughes really did remove all doubt about his denying the interviews, it's all he'd have had to do was speak via television or by telephone.

I don't usually get off on such literary topics as this, but I know everything may be on the up-and-up in the art not limited to politics and international affairs. More advanced man become the better it works.

Where can I get hold of a copy of this Hughes book? Yours faithfully J. A.

Public School Financing Suffering Due To Ruling

NEW YORK — Sales of school construction bonds across the nation are being hurt by recent court rulings that public school financing through property taxes is unconstitutional, investment bankers report.

And as a result of the court decisions, some school districts are having to pay slightly more interest to make their bonds more attractive to investors, they add.

Bond dealers say the rulings have brought bond sales in Texas to a halt.

"Those school districts in the state that were planning to sell bonds are panicky," says Tom Masterson, vice president of the Houston investment banking firm of Underwood, Neuhaus & Co.

Last month a federal court held that Texas's system of school financing—based in part on local property taxes—was unconstitutional since it tied the quality of a child's education to the wealth of the district in which he lived. A similar ruling was issued last August by the California Supreme Court.

Cases stemming from the California decision have been started in more than 30 states, according to bond industry sources. Schools and states are examining alternative financing proposals.

Thomas Strand, a student of Springdale, Paul, Minn., investment selling firm, says "my property tax law ward boards around the state he sell more bonds and a rate of interest."

1971 Create Uncertainty Adds an officer of New York bank, cases have... certainly about the ing of the bonds."

Although investment agree sales are off the court decision, unable to estimate the drop.

As a result of ruling in Texas, state's attorney general bond counsel are approve new bond requirements for sales.

The Securities Indenture, a group investment Wednesday filed a District Court in San citing the disruption school bond market, and requesting that take effect only alternative to the proposal has been found.

Investment bankers some school districts parts of the country up to one tenth of more to investors would have before in order to overcome writers' reticence.

Cotton Harvest Nearly Complete

The South Plains cotton harvest was eighty to eighty-five percent complete on Friday, January 14, according to W. K. Palmer, in charge of the USDA Cotton Classing Office in Lubbock.

Cotton harvest operations continued over the area during the week but began to decline slightly on Friday as the harvest neared completion.

The USDA Classing Offices at Lubbock, Brownfield, Lamesa and Levelland classed 135,000 samples during the week ending Friday, January 14, bringing the season's total to 869,000. At this date last year the 1970 harvest was virtually complete and samples from 1,619,000 bales had been classed.

Grades of the cotton classed at the Lubbock office were about the same as those of the previous week.

Low Middling Light Spotted was the predominant grade at Lubbock last week with 40 percent of all cotton classed. Strict Low Middling Light Spotted made up 15 percent, Low Middling 8 percent and all Spotted and Tinged grades 28 percent.

Staples were predominantly 2 1/2 to 3 1/8. Twenty-eight percent had a staple length of 29, 53 percent stapled 30 and 11 percent was 31.

Only three percent of the cotton "miked" in the Lubbock office was in the premium range of 3.5 to 4.9, 5 percent "miked" 3.3 and 3.4, 26 percent 3.0 through 3.2, 44 percent was 2.7 through 2.9, and 22 percent was 2.6 and below.

The Consumer and Marketing Service of the USDA reported increased trading in the new crop cotton. Cotton prices fluctuated during the week but ended the week $5.00 per bale lower. Prices ranged from 28 to 32 cents with most cotton selling between 29 and 31 cents. Average prices paid for the most predominant qualities in the 3.0 to 3.2 micronaire range were: Strict Low Middling Light Spotted, Staple 30-31.05, Strict Low Middling Light Spotted, Staple 31-31.20, Low Middling Light Spotted, Staple 30-30.65, Low Middling Light Spotted, Staple 31 - 30.85, Low Middling Spotted, Staple 30 - 29.60 and Low Middling Spotted, Staple 31 - 29.60.

Prices paid farmers for cottonseed ranged from $40 to $70 per ton with most prices in the $48 to $54 range.

COMPARE PRICES WHEN BUYING ON TIME

When you buy "on time" you pay two prices - one for the item and one for credit.

Always shop around to find the best buy in credit as well as for the item.

Until two years ago it was difficult to compare cost of consumer credit from different sources. But when the truth in lending law became active in July, 1969, this problem was alleviated.

Essentially, the law requires that the consumer receive complete and accurate information on the cost of credit. The two most important sources for the cost of credit are the finance charge and the annual percentage rate, both required on covered consumer credit transaction.

The finance charge is the total of all cost which a consumer must pay, directly or indirectly, for obtaining credit. The annual percentage rate is ### the relative cost of credit in percentage terms.

The law also divides all consumer credit transactions into two Broad Categories - "Open-end" credit and "other than open-end credit." "Open-end" covers credit extended by use of a credit card in which balance may be paid in full at end of the month or in installments on a "revolving" charge account.

"Other than open-end credit covers items or cash loans obtained on an installment credit contract extended for a specified period and most often used for larger purchases.

Cost of credit sources required are basically the same for both types of credit, but methods of disclosure differ since each type of credit is not extended to the consumer in the same way.

"The Reserve" - to some it means a standby military unit or perhaps the Federal Reserve Board.

To us, "reserve" means the supply of electricity we have left after you, industry, business and public authorities have used all the electricity you want. We've never had a blackout in the area we serve by reason of not having enough left. We've always made sure that there would be plenty for your use . . . an adequate reserve.

And, that's why we're projecting an investment of $144 million over the next five years. To be certain there will be an adequate reserve left after you use what you want. To be certain new industry coming into our area will have the electric power it needs to operate and so make jobs - jobs that contribute to economic well being for our customers.

Neighborhood Workshop Held

Over 20 directors, coordinators and aides met in a three day workshop at the Floydada Neighborhood Center Tuesday through Thursday, January 11-13.

In charge of the training were Ervis Butler and Ruby Divila of Austin. Also attending each session was CAP Specialist Joe Meador, area representative for the program, and directors and aides from Plainview, Lamesa, Abernathy, Ralls, Lockney, Spur, Crosbyton and Floydada.

The training agenda included such topics as: CAA purposes and functions, communication technique, problems in communication, group dynamics, relation of staff to board, community development and others. The sessions also outlined several phases of the CAP, pointing out different functions and techniques in working with low income people.

Films on ideas for getting community involvement and developing community leaders were presented throughout the sessions.

The workshop was presented to assist directors and aides in their social work to present, advocate, involve, motivate and innovate new and better program to people in the low income level.

CORRECTION

In the list of pallbearers for the Ham Smith funeral, the Hesperian last week carried in the obit the name of Charlie Bradford, which should have been Charlie Bedford.

A Matter Of Fit
The floorwalker of a department store noticed a young man looking very confused, so he went to him and asked,
Floorwalker--Can I help

you, sir? You seem puzzled about something.
Fellow--I am, I was supposed to buy either a camisole or a casserole, but so help me, I can't remember which.

Floorwalker (amiably) -- Perhaps, I can help you if you will tell me what sort of chicken you intend putting in it.

Clark's Paintings To Be Exhibited

Friends of the area are invited to attend the preview reception, meet the artist and see the exhibition of the latest paintings of Dane Clark of Golden, Colorado.

The reception will be in Baker Gallery of Fine Art, 1301 - 13th, in Lubbock Friday afternoon, Jan. 21 from 5 until 8 p.m. and Sunday, Jan. 23 from 1 until 5 o'clock p.m.

A native of Plainview, Clark was reared in Floydada and graduated from school here. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. (Pete) Clark of Lamesa, the brother of Mrs. J. E. Walker, and grandson of Mrs. L. L. Clark Sr., of Floydada.

He and his wife, the former Joan Harris of Lockney, have two children.

Clark received his bachelor's degree after studying at Southern Methodist University, Texas Tech and McMurry College. For further study he went to Denver and attended the Colorado Institute of Art. Soon he became an instructor at the school and then served eight years as its director.

Critics say the image that emerges from Clark's paintings is that of a man with an intense love of life, entirely dedicated to his art. Because of his interest in architecture of the kind found in New Mexico adobe homes and churches, Clark extended his study to Mexico and Spain and found them greatly similar.

Clark wants the vision of the painting to move on continuously and to grasp nature in her essence. He has been devoting himself to capture unusual effects of light play of design and in paintings critics find intimate visions with their own.
